Mrs. Sayre was born March 28, 1863 at Dallas, Texas. She was educated in the Dallas schools and was married to Frank Blocker who passed away only a few years later when their only son, Jno. Blocker, was about 3 years old.

Penelope Laws Blocker was married to S. T. Sayre on January 2, 1890. After their marriage, they moved to Bowie, Texas and two years later moved to Collingsworth County where Mr. Sayre was engaged in the cattle business; they remained there until 1901 at which time they moved to Clarendon and bought the old Johnnie Martin home. In 1928, Mr. and Mrs. Sayre moved to Mineral Wells and lived there until 1940 when they moved back to Clarendon. Mr. Sayre passed away January 16, 1944.

City Officials To Investigate Gas Shortage

Mayor Cap Morris stated the first of the week that the City officials had worked out a plan to work with the City Gas Company in correcting the cause of the recent natural gas shortage here, and pointed out that everything possible would be taken into consideration to improve the condition before another winter rolls around. During the last cold spell which struck here last Wednesday Mayor Morris sent the following telegram printed below. We also print the answer he received.

YOUNG SCIENTIST WOUNDED IN GUN EXPERIMENT

With nothing else to do of more importance on Sunday afternoon, one might expect young scientists to gird on their armor of a quest after knowledge and proceed to explore new fields of adventure.

This event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore here, and their sons Don, aged eleven, and brother Gordon being the principal actors. A 12-gauge shotgun was the "corpus delicti" supplying the incentive for experiment.

Shot, in a first experiment was replaced with B-B shot. This worked out to the satisfaction of the youthful students of scientific bent. Next project for consideration consisted of wadding pasteboard into a barrel. Gordon pulled the trigger while Don held the gun in position by grasping the barrel near the top.

When the trigger was pulled, the barrel burst some five inches down from the top splitting the barrel from which emitted shot, nine of which entered Don's hand.

The parents frantically rushed the wounded lad to the hospital where three shot were immediately removed. It is said that no permanent injury will result to the lad's hand.

The parents, prominent in the upbuilding of this community, are being congratulated upon their escape from lasting grief that might have been. The enterprising youngsters, leaders in school and athletics, are very fortunate that a lesson was learned with no more serious results than a superficial wound.

MRS. GABIE BETTS BURTON CLAIMED BY DEATH FRIDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Gabie Betts Burton were conducted at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. S. W. Hayne officiating. She died at her home shortly before noon Friday. She had been a resident of Clarendon more than 46 years.

She was born January 1, 1871, near Lawrenceville, Georgia. She was 77 years old. She had been in failing health about a year.

Miss Gabie, as she was affectionately known, was one of the first school teachers in West Texas. She came to Clarendon College as the primary teacher in 1901.

She came with her family from Lawrenceville, Georgia, to Palestine, Texas, in 1881. After one year there, they moved to Kopperl where they spent two years. It was at Kopperl that Mrs. Burton united with the Methodist Church, at the age of 12 years. When the family moved to Glen Rose she attended a small private school there. It was at Glen Rose that she began her many years of devotion to the church. She made many friends there through her work in the Sunday school and church.

The family moved to Wilbarger County in December, 1885. They camped at Jackson Springs, on Wanderers Creek, some 15 miles northwest of Vernon, in what was then the R-2 cattle range. They later traded for a section of land some two miles southeast of Jackson Springs, where the family made their home until moving to Clarendon in 1903.

In the spring of 1886, the settlers and cowboys in the north half of Wilbarger County met under a large oak tree near Jackson Springs and organized the first Sunday School in that part of the county. Miss Gabie was elected teacher of the Bible Class. Mr. H. A. Bell who was the trustee for the Bell school, in the newly created Jackson Springs district, heard her teach the class and asked her to teach the Bell school that fall. She was granted a second grade county certificate by Judge J. P. Orr, and began teaching school in October, 1886, three months before her 16th birthday. She drew money as one of the county's scholastics until she was sixteen.

Miss Gabie attended Summer Normal every summer while she taught two terms of school, three months in the fall and three months in the spring, at Bell school, and two at Jackson Springs; two six months terms at

Over $500.00 Still Needed In Red Cross Drive

Up until the present time a total of $450.00 has been raised toward the goal of $990 in the annual Red Cross Drive. Rev. W. W. Fry stated this morning. This leaves $540 yet to be raised within the next two weeks, if we meet our quota, he added.

He pointed out that workers were now out in every community to make an effort to raise the money before the deadline, and the main idea at hand is to increase the membership roll.

He brought to light an incident, a family tragedy of the past week which occurred near Hedley, in which the local Red Cross Chapter took a part. The family home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brinkley burned to the ground, taking all their possessions. The Red Cross came to their aid in order to help them re-establish themselves.

"We never know when some type of tragedy will strike, and if and whenever it does, the Red Cross will be ready to help. We need your help now, so if a worker does not call on you within a few days, just drop in at any of the banks or mail your check to any of the banks or mail your check to any of the banks - - and Donley County can reach their quota," Rev. Fry concluded.

The Senior class of the Clarendon High School will give their first presentation of "Hobgoblin House" tonight at the College auditorium beginning at 8 p. m. and will also give a repeat performance again tomorrow night at the same hour.

It is a three act mystery play and according to Bobbie Beard, it will keep you in stitches and everything else during the entire performance, and if you want to find out who the Headless Phantom is, you will be required to come out and see for yourself.

Reserve tickets are on sale for each night so if you want to be sure of a good seat contact either Bobbie Beard or Dean Wadsworth.

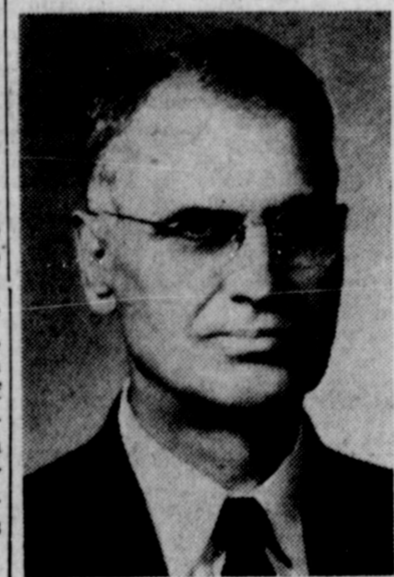

The Seniors are presenting the play to raise money for their annual end-of-school outing which will be a trip to Carlsbad Caverns. You can help these young folks out and really enjoy yourself at the same time by seeing "Hobgoblin House" either tonight or Friday night.

CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY NOTES

EDITORS NOTE—This is the last library notes written by Mrs. C. A. Burton, beloved Librarian Emerita, who passed away last Friday, March 12th.

What people think of must color their lives. To illustrate that David F. Ahearn, author of "How to Commit a Murder and Get Away With It" Ahearn is 45 years old, with a police record of 18 arrests, has quite recently been arrested again — but his book, which was published in 1932, has sold 200 thousand copies.

Workers in the Braille department of the Denver Red Cross are finishing a transcription of Kathleen Winsor's "Forever Amber." The Denver Red Cross had so many calls for it that they began this voluminous undertaking. It takes 24 volumes measuring 20 x 14 inches.

OUR COUNTY AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION OFFICE

A farmer behind a desk instead of in front of it is not as uncommon now as it used to be. A good example of this change is the County Agricultural Conservation office.

The Donley County office is located at Clarendon. The men in charge are the farmer-committeemen elected by farmers last fall and winter. Elections were held in all the communities in the county to name community committeemen and delegates to a county convention. The three farmers who administer the county agricultural conservation program were elected by the delegates.

Those committeemen run their own farms and usually are at the county office only long enough to do their required administrative work. They are paid only for the time spent in this work and do not draw a regular salary.

Members of the committee are Roy Jewell, Chairman, W. M. Pickering, Vice chairman, and H. S. Mahaffey, member.

Since the committee is not in the office all the time, Mrs. Ritter is in charge of the office operations. She is assisted by Mrs. Carpenter and Clyde Neel in the office and by Charles Rains in the field work.

A major portion of the job of the county committee is administering the Agricultural Conservation Program. This starts with suggestions for the program a year ahead. The committee soon will be sending in recommendations for the 1949 program and farmers now are being invited to give their ideas to community committeemen or send them to the county office.

The major responsibility at this time of the year is meeting with farmers, explaining program practices and agreeing on conservation plans for the year. In this way farmers get details on how practices must be carried out and the help available. To qualify for assistance the farmers are obliged to carry out conservation practices as specified. Checks are made to see that practices are carried out to assure the desired results.

Other Programs administered by the county ACP office are crop loans and other price-support measures, and other work as assigned.

TO THE CITIZENS OF DONLEY COUNTY:

In making this my first attempt to run for any public office, I think it is fitting and proper for me to make a few brief statements as to my experience and qualifications for the office of County School Superintendent.

I was born on a farm near Mt. Pleasant, Titus County, Texas, March 10, 1892.

I have taught in the public schools of this state and of Oklahoma most of my adult life, having spent seventeen years as superintendent of small high schools. I am now serving my fifth year as superintendent of Lelia Lake schools and my seventh year as a teacher in this county.

I am a graduate of Central State Teachers College, Edmond, Oklahoma, holding the bachelor of science degree from that institution. I have also done some graduate work in Texas colleges. I hold a permanent high school certificate to teach in Texas.

During World War One, I served as an enlisted man in the United States Army and spent almost a year overseas. I have an honorable discharge from that service.

The present incumbent will have held the office of County School Superintendent for eight years at the expiration of her present term next January.

If you see fit to elect me to the office of County School Superintendent, I shall conduct the affairs of that office in a courteous, efficient and economical manner. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
O. L. Davis

Continental Oil Co. To Feature Motion Picture, "The Miracle of Oil Plating" Tonight at Donley Hotel Game Room

Starring a cast of Hollywood players, Continental Oil Company's latest motion picture feature, "The Miracle of Oil-Plating," will be shown the public at a meeting to be held in the Donley Hotel Game Room at 8 p. m. tonight (Thursday).

The program will be under the direction of John Blocker, local representative for Continental Oil Company, who arranged for the showing here.

The movie is a 45-minute feature recently produced in Hollywood and Ponca City, Oklahoma, Continental Oil Company headquarters, with a superb cast of professional Hollywood players.

In a highly entertaining story, an achievement in the field of modern lubrication is dramatized in a sparkling screen production. Scores of scenes filmed in Continental's 1,280-acre refinery at Ponca City thread into the film. The company's huge indoor swimming pool, the modern and spacious gymnasium, tennis courts, and athletic field form part of the background for the movie story.

Following the camera eye, the movie audience sees at close hand a giant industry in action, producing a modern "miracle" in lubrication. The audience is delighted and entertained—there's comedy as well as education—as the story moves along with Jim and Mary Casey and Bill Watson, three members of the Hollywood cast who share in enacting the human interest story.

BEARDS VISIT WITH TEX RITTER SATURDAY

Back some thirty-odd years ago in Panola County near Carthage, Texas two boys grew up together. Saturday these two got together for the first time in as many years at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo Saturday afternoon. The two men were Johnnie Beard, local mail carrier, and Tex Ritter, prominent Radio and Screen Star. Mr. and Mrs. Beard reported a very enjoyable visit and Johnnie said that there were many childhood acts brought to mind and hashed over that he had not thought of since the two were boys. Tex was in Amarillo for four days last week on a personal appearance tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McBee and daughter, Mary Lee, visited friends here over the week-end. The McBees are residents of Amarillo.

INCOME TAXES

Well, it appears from the records of the Warren-Chenault Tax Service Office here that the tax payers in Donley County are on the increase each year, according to Manager E. J. Chenault.

This office reports the largest volume of business just completed that they have ever had. One reason that this office advances for this increase is that a number of young men heretofore in the armed services are now home and employed. Anyway, this index of business looks very good for Clarendon and Donley County, particularly, while of course this office has clients in all the surrounding counties.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Moore spent the weekend in Amarillo with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Moore.

Homer Estlack and Elbert Horton attended a Philco Service meeting at Amarillo Friday.

ANNUAL EASTER PAGEANT SUNDAY, MARCH 28 AT PLAINVIEW

In response to the many requests made by West Texas citizens and their hearted acceptance of last years production, The Plainview Association of Christian Youth will present its third annual Easter Pageant in Plainview on Sunday morning, March 28, at 5:30 in the High School football stadium.

The first years pageant drew an attendance of approximately 4000 people, last years attendance was estimated to be over 5000. The success of these first two productions and the fact that the pageant was acclaimed one of the best non-professional performances ever presented in West Texas, has prompted Plainview sponsors to anticipate an overflow attendance this year.

WHAT IS YOUR T. L. Q. ?

(Seventh of a Series)

"Don't throw your weight around," advises W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol.

"Remember that when you are sitting behind the wheel, you are driving a car that weighs more than 2000 pounds, and the pedestrian crossing the street only weighs an average of 150 pounds. It isn't quite fair, is it?"

The Texas Highway Patrol is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program, and Chief Elliott said that accidents involving pedestrians are one of the biggest killers. He pointed out National Safety Council statistics to back up this assertion.

Pedestrians at intersections account for 28 per cent of all urban fatal accidents, and 35 per cent of all fatal accidents are non-intersection pedestrian mishaps. In addition, 27 per cent of all pedestrians killed in business and residential areas were crossing at intersections without signals, and 38 per cent were crossing between intersections.

Captain Polk Ivy of the Amarillo District emphasized the following things to remember for the driver in giving pedestrians right-of-way:

1. When pedestrians are crossing at unsignalized intersections, drivers must give them the right-of-way if they are walking in the crosswalk or where a crosswalk might be.
2. When pedestrians are crossing at signalized intersections they should obey the signals, but drivers turning right or left must yield the right-of-way to pedestrians crossing on the "green" or "walk" light.
3. Pedestrians do not have the right-of-way between intersections, and therefore they should cross only at corners.
4. Drivers must be alert for pedestrians crossing between intersections, particularly at night, even though the walkers should look out for the cars.
5. Know and obey the rules!

Mrs. Austin Rhoades spent the week end in Amarillo visiting her mother, Mrs. Hanson and other relatives.

Miss Nell Hill who visited her mother, Mrs. Horace Hill last week, returned to her work at Tahoka Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gray and son Barry of Lubbock spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Fred Gray.

Mrs. Ida Wallace announces the arrival of a great grandson, Michael Marshall, born to Mr. and Mrs. Rosie Marshall of Tacoma, Washington.

Mrs. Violet Mace and daughter Jo Carroll of Plainview visited their mother, Mrs. Ida Wallace Monday night.

Bryan Armstrong who underwent a major operation March 9th at Oklahoma City is reported improving as nicely as can be expected.

SISTER AND FAMILY OF LOCAL MAN DIE IN FIRE

John B. Gordon, local Farm Bureau adviser and student of the Clarendon Jr. College, received word Tuesday that his sister and family had burned to death in their home near Yuma, Arizona early Tuesday.

The family of five, including three little girls, burned to death Tuesday when fire destroyed a farm house in which they were living. The dead are Guy Abel

Parrish, 26, a farm worker, formerly of Oklahoma City; his wife, Allie Jane, 25, and their children, Anita, 4, Paula Jean, 2, and Adel Guy, 6 months. Cause of the fire was undetermined.

Mr. Gordon stated that funeral services probably would be held in Oklahoma City on Saturday.

Mrs. Millie Jones, Porter of Wheeler, Mrs. Beverly Harvey Whittle, and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harvey of Shamrock attended the funeral of Mrs. Burton Sunday afternoon.

Thanks to Mrs. Zenor, Mr. Lockhart, Mr. Dye, and to the others that sent me cards and letters and kind words during the last week. Mrs. Zenor, who lives at Canadian, also sent us a picture of the real Walking Man. It was a picture of her husband behind a walking plow. And she is right if there was ever a real Walking Man it is the one that follows a walking plow. Thanks Mrs. Zenor for the clever thought and for the pictures. The first dollar that I ever earned (and I do mean earned) was for following a walking planter for three days and the sum total of my earnings for the entire job was one dollar. He owed me another nickel but couldn't make the change. And to this day I can't figure why it wasn't worth as much for me to follow the planter as it was for the man to follow the middlebuster, and 'he was worth fifty cents per day.

One of my friends says, "If we should put all our troubles in a pile, and then start picking out the ones we would rather have, that the most of us would wind up picking the same ones we had before." I wouldn't doubt it.

Everyone was complimenting the school teachers on the "New Look", and the all around fine appearance of the group at the Convention in Amarillo last week. Faith in the future of their profession seemed stronger, and a desire to do a better job because of the extra money that they are receiving this year could be noticed in their conversations. I wouldn't mind going to school again, and would I take a lot of apples to the teacher.

I enjoyed listening to the broadcast of the awarding of the Tom Brennehan Good Neighbor orchid to Mrs. W. L. McClure of Claude. I especially liked the part in which she said, "In a way it seemed like attending your own funeral, because everyone was saying so many nice things, that were usually saved for our funeral." It made me feel guilty. Why do we wait until someone is gone before we realize their worth, or at least before we tell them about it. There is a good lesson for all of us in what you had to say, Mrs. McClure, and I hope Johnnie Linn will send you a copy of the poem that he read the other day about "Giving me all the flowers now." Congratulations, Good Good Neighbor McClure; it was such a great honor, and one that you so richly deserved. I had rather be given that award, than to be given one for inventing the atomic bomb. Honest I had.

Thanks to Mr. Farley for the nice letter, and the invitation to visit and take dinner with the boys at Boys Ranch. We have a soft spot in our heart for the work that is being done there, and will be looking forward to the visit. Would you Readers like for me to include some of the little experiences of the boys, in the column?

Don't forget to tell the Editors that you appreciate them using our column, that is, if you do appreciate it. They could run an ad telling about the benefits of something or other to make plants grow in this space; maybe I shouldn't put ideas in their head.

Our freedom must always end, Where the rights of others begin.

This week I am going to expect some letters from Clarendon and Donley County. I wonder how the Old Apostle is getting along, and did my stamp puzzle help business any. If so, please remit.

The county tax office is reminding all vehicle owners that they have only 13 days left in which to purchase their new 1948 license plates before they will be violating the law. You must have your new plates on April 1st if you drive on a public highway or road, and to date only about one-third of the usual amount of tags have been purchased. They are urging everyone to come on in and avoid the last minute rush, and also to bring along your last year's receipt and your certificate of title.

Mrs. C. A. Burton-

Fargo, and one term at Uel Hollow, in Hardeman County. She went to Vernon as the primary teacher in 1892. She studied Primary Methods at the State University two summers, and attended summer Normal every summer during the six years she taught at Vernon. She received her permanent certificate the second year she taught at Quanah, in 1900. She came to Clarendon in September 1901, as the primary teacher at Clarendon College.

During the summer months when she was at home she acted as the Superintendent of the Jackson Springs Sunday School. She organized the first Junior Epworth League at Vernon, and taught in the primary department of the Sunday School. She continued her work in the Epworth League and Sunday School at Quanah.

Soon after she came to Clarendon she organized a Sunday school class for the young men of the college and town. The class soon became the largest in the Sunday School, with an average enrollment of 60 boys. During the six years she taught the class, 29 young men who were members of the class became ministers. Through all the years she referred to the boys who attended her

Sunday school class as "My Boys", and was always delighted when they dropped by to visit her.

She resigned her position as a teacher in March, 1907, and was married to Mr. C. A. Burton, County Clerk, on March 20. They moved to Plainview about the first of the year 1908, but returned to Clarendon in January, 1909. Mrs. Burton was asked to fill a vacancy in the primary department of Clarendon public school, and she served as Recording Secretary for the Northwest Texas Conference Woman's Missionary Society from 1906 to 1918, and Corresponding Secretary from 1918 to 1926; and Historian from 1926 to 1928. As Historian she wrote a history of the Northwest Texas Conference Woman's Missionary Society that was published in 1929. She attended every meeting of the Missionary Council during the years she served as Corresponding Secretary.

She became the teacher of the Busy Women's Class of the Methodist Sunday School in 1918. She served as their teacher and joined in their many activities until shortly before her death.

She accepted the responsibility of the Home Service of the Red Cross in July, 1918, and served the people of Donley County for 39 years, through World War I, the depression years and World War II.

Mrs. Burton carried the key to the City-County Library for 24 years. She offered her services as the librarian when the Pathfinder Club first opened the library in 1923. It was open to the public on Saturday afternoon. When the club asked the City to sponsor the library in 1928, Mrs. Burton continued her service as librarian, four afternoons a week. After Mr. Burton's death in 1928, Mrs. Burton did private teaching in her home, mornings and evenings, and spent the afternoons at the library.

Mrs. Burton loved books, and she was always anxious to help her readers select books they would enjoy. The citizens of Clarendon and Donley County learned to share her pleasure in books. Better library service was always uppermost in her thoughts. Her loyalty and service to the library was second only to her consecration to her church.

Through her work in the church, school, library and Red Cross, Mrs. Burton knew, and at some time lent a helping hand to almost every resident in Donley County, and many residents of other counties of the Panhandle. She explained her full life this way: "There was always so much to be done, and I wanted to help do it."

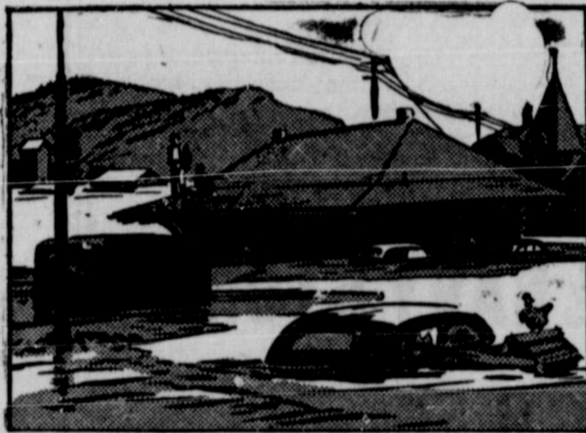

Mrs. Burton is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Agnes Summers of Clarendon, Mrs. Pearl Garrison of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Mrs. Nora Crouch of Monetta, South Carolina, and Mrs. Mable Clair Craig of Cleburne; two brothers, Edgar and Ernest Betts of Clovis, New Mexico; and five step-sons, Drew Burton of San Martin, California, Sims Burton of Dallas, Allen Burton of Baltimore, Edgar Burton of Port Washington, N. Y., and Joe Burton of Washington, D. C.

Burial was in Citizens cemetery with Murphy-Spicer-Buntin Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

WHY THE RED CROSS NEEDS YOUR HELP IN 1948

Report on 1947:

Miracles of mercy which never could be done without your dollars . . .

1 REMEMBER THE FLOODS? In 50 different floods, the Red Cross saved countless lives by helping to evacuate affected families, by sheltering, feeding, clothing, providing medical care and rehabilitation for thousands of stricken people.

2 REMEMBER THE FIRES? The Red Cross aided 161 times at fires in forests, hotels, tenements, homes. It spent $1,250,000 in one fire alone to ease the suffering, restore health through hospital and medical care, provide shelter, revive hope for the homeless families.

3 REMEMBER THE HURRICANE? Fifty-five wind storms required many millions of Red Cross dollars, all outright gifts to afflicted families for the restoring of homes, furnishings, clothing, even the means of livelihood for individuals made destitute by disaster.

4 VETERANS HAD PROBLEMS. The birth of a baby, death in the family, help needed to pay bills—2,029,007 cases for veterans and their dependents were handled by the Red Cross last year. For counsel, information, financial aid, the Red Cross advanced $6,441,983.

5 VETERANS NEEDED CARE. In Veterans Administration offices, the Red Cross served 1,095,832 cases involving claims, dependents, personal problems. Over 12,000 Red Cross hospital volunteers cheered veterans with entertainment, companionship, instruction.

6 HOSPITALS NEEDED HELP. 12,900 Nurse's Aides—all volunteers—lightened nurses' work in civilian hospitals, clinics, public health agencies and Red Cross blood donor centers. Red Cross Motor Service, too, made 668,000 calls, carrying convalescents, disaster workers.

7 THE NEEDY WERE CLOTHED. Red Cross volunteers produced 2,480,600 garments, 84,500 layettes, and quantities of surgical dressings. The articles were gratefully used in disaster areas, in community institutions, in civilian, military and naval hospitals.

8 THE SICK WERE CARED FOR. Red Cross instruction in care of the sick, mother and baby care, and family health brought vital protection to countless homes in many communities. Over 2 million home nursing certificates have now been issued by the Red Cross.

9 FIRST AID SAVED LIVES. Over 11 million Americans have been trained in Red Cross emergency care, reducing immeasurably the terrible toll of accidents on our highways. Red Cross instruction in swimming and life saving, too, prevented innumerable drownings.

10 BLOOD SAVED LIVES. Your Red Cross brought the miracle of blood to many of those in need. Now, a new Red Cross program is on the way—eventually to make blood and its derivatives available to all without cost for the product.

SOMEONE near you, someone dear to you . . . perhaps you yourself . . . will benefit in 1948 from the humanitarian services of your American Red Cross.

There is no nobler aim of mankind than this . . . the never-ending task of solacing, healing, helping those in need.

There is no investment that pays you back so many times over . . . as your contribution to the 1948 Red Cross Fund.

Again this year, be proud . . . and grateful . . . to give what you can.

IT'S YOUR RED CROSS... KEEP IT GOING

Texas Firms Supply $7,257,152 Worth of Commodities to U.S. Under Public Contracts Act in Three Months

DALLAS—Supplies and materials valued at $7,257,152 were furnished for the Federal Government by 40 Texas manufacturers and dealers under the Public Contracts Act during the last three months of 1947, it was announced here today by William J. Rogers, regional director of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, U. S. Department of Labor, in the five Southwestern states.

The principal commodities covered by the contracts included petroleum products, valued at $6,053,156, and textile and textile products valued at $253,675, according to Director Rogers.

The figure for the five Southwestern states shows contracts totaling $23,444,132 for the final quarter of 1947, while the national total reached $452,819,704, he said at the regional headquarters here, 1114 Commerce Street.

The Public Contracts Act, he pointed out, applies to Government contracts in amounts over $10,000. Compliance of manufacturers and dealers with the Act's minimum wage, overtime pay and health, safety, child labor and convict labor provisions is checked by inspectors of the Divisions working in this state, he said.

The Divisions' representative stressed the fact that the Act provides for assessments against employers at the rate of $10 per day for each day a boy under 16 or a girl under 18 years old is employed in filling a Government contract. In some cases of violations, he added, employers may be declared ineligible to receive further Government contracts for three years.

Health Notes

The recent death of a child in south Texas from rabies emphasizes the danger of this disease and its importance to public health.

According to a statement just released by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, there were 1,099 rabid animals discovered by laboratory examination in Texas last year. There were undoubtedly many more rabid animals running loose which were never examined. Since most of these animals were dogs, children are especially vulnerable to this dreaded disease.

"All dogs should be vaccinated annually as a rabies control measure," Dr. Cox said. "When a child is bitten by an infected dog, the dog should be penned up for observation for 10 days. If he shows no signs of illness in that time he is not rabid, but if he sickens, he should be killed in such a manner as not to injure the brain. The brain should be packed immediately in ice and sent to the State Health Department for examination. If rabies is shown to be present there is still time to begin anti-rabies treatment on the child."

Cities and towns should take firm steps to control the presence of stray and ownerless dogs since they remain unvaccinated and are usually the principal source of rabies.

How to Keep 'Em Down On the Farm

The other day Pete Swanson's nephew, Bud, allowed as how he was fed up with farm and country life... and was going to the city where there was a lot more opportunity and excitement.

Some folks might have tried to stop him. But not Pete. He even advanced Bud carfare for the trip... figured that when he'd had a good look around, he'd come back where he belonged.

And what happened? After seven days of big-town bustle and excitement, Bud was back behind the wheel of a tractor, with color in his cheeks again. And he'd traded the night life of the city for a quiet glass of beer with Dad.

From where I sit, that's how it goes. Try to prevent some one from getting what he thinks he wants—and he'll go on wanting it. But give him his head, and he'll settle for the sensible thing—whether it's a country life, or a temperate glass of beer!

WHAT IS YOUR T. L. Q.?

(Sixth of a Series)

There are Emily Post rules of etiquette for the highway, just as there are for the drawing-room, according to W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol.

"And traffic rules not only make for gracious living, they make for living—period!" he said. "No driver is a good driver unless he knows and obeys the traffic laws, to insure his own safety as well as the safety of other drivers and pedestrians."

Chief Elliott pointed out that nearly half of all accidents in business and residential areas involve two vehicles at an intersection, and half of these are the result of two vehicles entering at right angles intent on going straight through.

He said that statistics of the National Safety Council show 15 per cent of all drivers in fatal city accidents failed to yield the right-of-way, the most frequent violation.

The Texas Highway Patrol is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program, and Captain Polk Ivy of the Amarillo District listed the following facts to remember about right-of-way at intersections:

1. A car already in the intersection has the right-of-way over cars approaching. You must give way to any car already there as you come up to the intersection.
2. If two cars arrive at an intersection at about the same time, the one on the right has the right-of-way, and the other driver must give way to him.
3. Slow down before you reach the intersection in order to be ready for a car on the cross street. Don't wait to slow down after you reach the corner—it may be too late.
4. Despite the rule, don't insist on your right-of-way at the risk of an accident. Humility is a small price to pay for safety.
5. If there are stop signs at the

Stone From British House Of Commons Placed In Texas Memorial Museum

AUSTIN — A stone from the British House of Commons has been placed in Texas Memorial Museum on the University of Texas campus.

It was presented to the State by Charles Sumner Bird of Massachusetts and Eric Gordon Underwood of England, through the American and British Commonwealth Association, an organization founded in America to foster understanding of British history and institutions.

Each State capital in the Union will receive a souvenir stone as a symbol of the common traditions of political freedom and representative government shared by the English-speaking peoples and owed in large measure to legislation passed through centuries in the British House of Commons.

The stone is encased in a mahogany frame about two feet high and one foot wide bearing a certificate as to its authenticity from the Lord Mayor of London. The stone was taken from the House of Commons which was wrecked by German bombs May 10, 1941.

HOW TEXAS INDUSTRIES PUT NATURE'S RESOURCES TO USE FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANKIND

EVEN Splinters ARE IMPORTANT...

Texas' lumber industry is important in many ways, to many people. Millions of cords of Texas lumber are going into the markets of the world... into housing, furniture and a host of other products that people want and need. Lumber is making jobs, paying wages and providing income to thousands of Texas people. But like other natural resources, lumber would be of little value unless it were put to use for the benefit of mankind.

Natural gas, too, would be worthless or wasted unless it were made available for use. Its importance as an efficient, low cost fuel is gained only after it is gathered, processed and transported to places where it is needed. This is the job being done by the United Gas companies. We regard it as practical conservation, for it stimulates industrial development, creates jobs and benefits every family in Texas.

LUMBER INDUSTRY

Basic products of lumber and timber in Texas in 1946 were valued at $119,646,000. The more than 1,000 establishments in the industry employed 29,218 persons, paid salaries and wages of $42,548,000. Free Enterprise help to build the success of this great industry in our state... Free Enterprise, which shares its benefits with all the people in Texas.

MANY WORKERS RECEIVE NO CREDIT FOR WAGES

Many workers in the Texas Panhandle stand the chance of never receiving credit for their wages because they have furnished their employers with incorrect social security numbers. John R. Sanderson, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Administration office, reported that his office has just received a listing from the central accounting office in Baltimore, Maryland, requesting that an attempt be made to locate the correct social security number for workers whose wages have been reported with incorrect numbers or names.

erson stated, is made to obtain the correct number in each case in order that the worker will receive the proper credit on his social security records. However, in many cases the worker cannot be located and the employer has only the incorrect number that was furnished at the time of employment. In such cases, the wages cannot be posted to the worker's account.

Employers can avoid the necessity of investigating these incorrect reportings if they will insist on copying the name and social security number of every employee directly from his Social Security Card.
