Government Program To Decrease Coyote Population

E. G. Foy, a member of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service of Lubbock, Texas, was in Monday and made a report on the Coyote Control program now in effect in this area.

Mr. Foy reported that the Coyote Control program covered practically all of the Palo Duro canyon extending into Hall County, and the following ranches in this area: S. J., Jack Roach, Rowe, Sitter, Hess and Cooke.

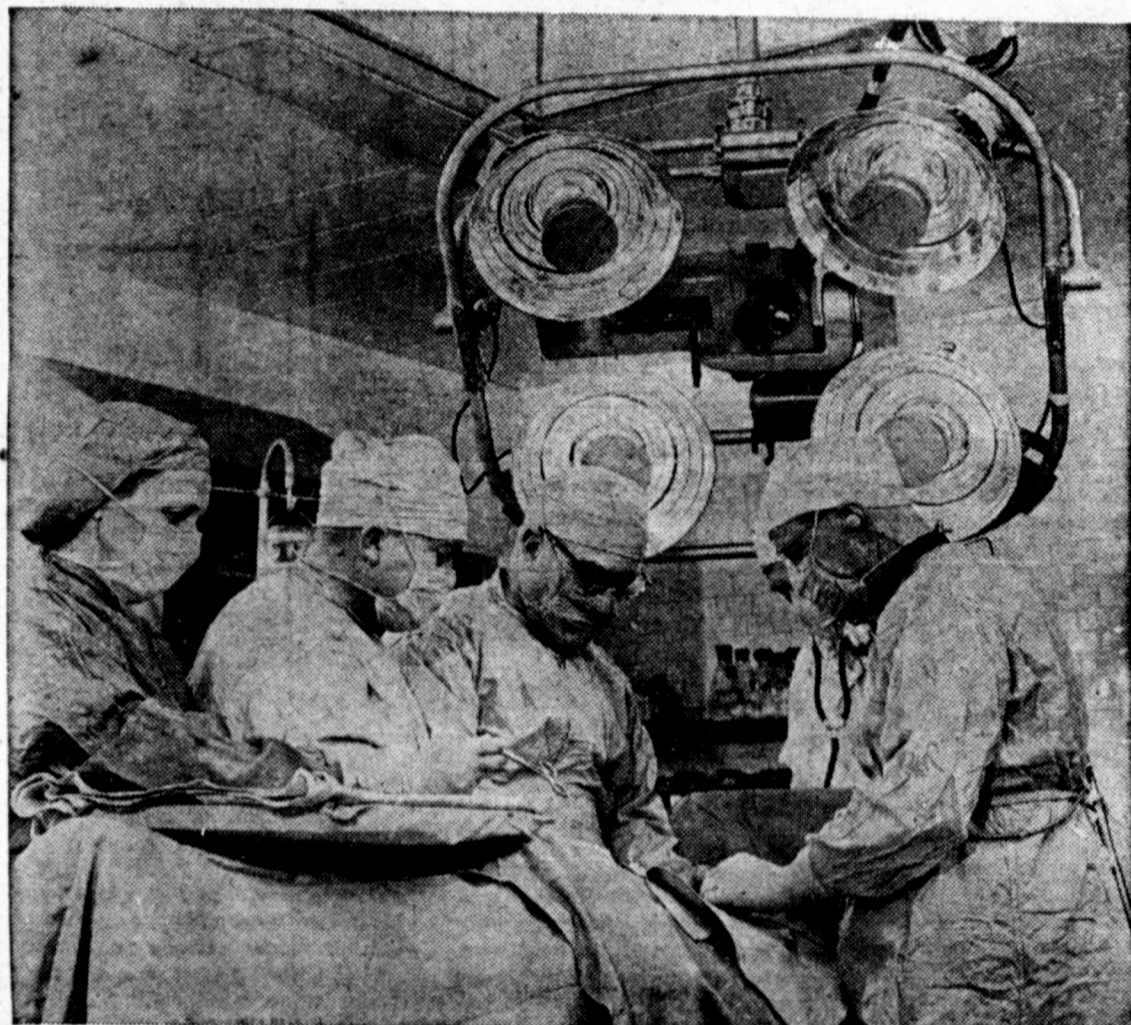

He pointed out that special government poison, which is the most effective eradicator, has been placed at bait points throughout the above mentioned areas and that all dog owners should take every precaution to keep their dogs away from these bait areas. The government bait used is the least hazardous to other animals other than coyotes, bobcats and domestic dogs.

He said that bait stations had been placed on an average of one station to each 20 sections of land and that signs had been placed at all strategic points to warn of the baited areas. All poisonous bait will be picked up by the last of April and the area will be completely free of poison, Mr. Foy added.

Mr. Foy, who has been with the service fourteen years, stated that the infestation of coyotes was very heavy in some areas and some ranchers have already lost several calves. We have found that the territory covered by our bait points was completely free of coyotes when our program was finished, he added.

Jr. High Boys Defeat Lefors 19-10

The Clarendon Jr. High boys defeated the Lefors Jr. High 19-10 here last Thursday night. John Tom Morrow was high point man with 10. The boys are still tied with McLean for first place position as McLean won their game over Shamrock last week also. The Colts play McLean there tonight and the outcome will decide which team will hold the first place position. The victorious team must win by 10 points.

DELICATE OPERATION is demonstrated under television color camera by Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, commanding general of Walter Reed Army Medical Center. The 4 1/2-pound camera is suspended in specially-designed lighting fixture. Lights and camera are synchronized so that when surgeon has best lighting on field of operation, camera will pick up scene without obstruction. Camera is operated by remote control. General Heaton wears a chest microphone and hearing-aid type earphone, keeping in constant communication with students in viewing room. He lectures and answers questions as he proceeds with surgery.

March of Dimes Drive Now in Progress

This week end, the annual March of Dimes drive will be started in Donley County, according to a report from Walter B. Knorpp, Donley County Polio chairman. "We plan to have the coin collector containers out in all business places this week end and further plans regarding the drive will be announced as the drive continues," Knorpp stated. While the year just ending has witnessed giant strides against this crippling disease, victory is not won yet and it will take many more of your dimes and dollars to further the fight against polio, Knorpp added.

The trial vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk was given last spring to 440,000 children. Now an evaluation of its effectiveness in preventing polio paralysis is being made at the University of Michigan. But up to now we cannot know whether the vaccine protected against paralytic polio, and we will not know until spring. Meanwhile, the fight must go steadily on, Mr. Knorpp exclaimed.

He pointed out further that if the vaccine is effective, polio still will strike in the years just ahead. It takes time for a preventive to become widely used. We must expect tens of thousands of men, women and children to be stricken and to need March of Dimes aid. That help must be available to them.

The March of Dimes needs our whole-hearted support right now to do a bigger job for all of us. Dig deep during this January drive. It's your fight, Knorpp concluded.

If you wish, you may mail your polio donation to Mr. Knorpp or leave it at the Donley County State Bank.

First Measurable Snow Nets .15 Inch Of Moisture

The first measurable amount of snow of the year started falling here Sunday and left approximately two inches of snow covering the ground. It fell gently, stacking up on all exposed objects, and the snow covered trees, shrubs, etc., afforded a beautiful sight which we have not witnessed in this area for quite some time. Melted out, the snow measured a total of .15 inch moisture which was quite beneficial coming on top of the moisture we received last week.

Tonight the Clarendon College Bulldogs entertain Frank Phillips College of Berger in the first home conference game of the season. Frank Phillips dropped their first conference game to Amarillo 65-48, but have a fast, good ball-handling team which should give the Bulldogs a good game. The Bulldogs lost their first conference game to Amarillo Tuesday night 67-57. High point men in the game for the Bulldogs were Alexander and Peeples with twelve points each. Fans are urged to support the team in this most crucial part of the season. The lack of support from the student body is shameful, but our other fans can help let the Bulldogs know that we are behind our team, was a statement coming from College Hill this week.

Otto Brandt, foreman of the "Praying Grand Jury" of Duval county, presents Attorney General John Ben Shepperd with a scroll thanking him for "risking his fortune, reputation, and his public career in order to lift his fellow citizens out of their intolerable condition. For 40 years others gave us promises; he gave us help." Others pictured are Mrs. J. J. Trevino, president of the United Mothers and Wives of Duval County; Lawrence Warburton, Sr., President of the Duval County Clean Government League, and Sam Burris, District Attorney-elect. All commended Shepperd for his assistance in ending South Texas political tyranny. While in Alice Shepperd turned over leadership of all investigations to the local officials headed by Burris.

Three-month-old Bobby Hill of Blanchester, Ohio was America's youngest iron lung polio patient in 1954. This emergency March of Dimes respirator saved his life. SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

"As of January 1, 1955, a significant change will take place in the present social security law. On that date all covered workers will start to pay social security taxes on up to $4200 per year instead of the present maximum of $3600 per year," John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office, said today.

Actually this change will not be immediately apparent in an employee's pay check, since there will be no increase in the amount withheld. However, when a worker reaches $3600 in any one year his social security deductions will not stop at that point. Both he and his employer will continue to contribute until his earnings reach $4200. The same increase is also to be applied to self-employed individuals.

This broadening of the earnings base may mean increased contributions of up to $12 per year for each worker and an equal amount for his employer. A self-employed individual may pay up to $18 more each year. Mr. Sanderson states that the increased contributions lead to an increase in retirement benefits from $98.50 to $108.50 per month with proportionately higher dependent and survivor benefits.

Mrs. Robert Allen of Lubbock was guest Thursday of the Women's Auxiliary of St. John Baptist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Allen is District president and made an inspiring address to the Auxiliary at the Parish House. Following this meeting the group had luncheon at the Donley Hotel.

Oldsmobile Clears TV Rights To Famous Musical Comedy Hit

As the next NBC-TV spectacular in their monthly series of famous musical comedies, The Oldsmobile Dealers of America have managed to secure the rights to Victor Herbert's best known work, "Naughty Marietta," which will be broadcast in both compatible color and black and white on Saturday night, Jan. 15, at nine o'clock. The adventurous story, dealing with that colorful period in American history when marriageable girls were brought from France to help with the colonization of New Orleans, includes such Victor Herbert hits as "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," and "Under a Southern Moon."

Well remembered as a great motion picture hit when it was filmed with Jeanette McDonald and Nelson Eddy, this time "Naughty Marietta" will have as its stars Patrice Munsel of the Metropolitan Opera and Alfred Drake.

Mr. Drake, who rose to stardom in "Oklahoma!" has just completed a record-breaking run in "Kismet," and this will be one of his only television appearances before he leaves for London to star in the English production of "Kismet."

Lee Bowman will again act as host for the Oldsmobile Dealers and Max Liebman will produce the show.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

December 30, 1954
THE 84th CONGRESS

On January 5 at twelve noon, the First Session of the 84th Congress of the United States of America will be convened. This will be preceded in the morning by caucuses of the Democratic and Republican Parties. These party caucuses will be preceded by caucuses of the State Delegations of each party. When the Congress convenes, one of the first orders of business will be the election of a Speaker. Prior to 1839, the Speaker of the House of Representatives was chosen by ballot, but since that time, he has been chosen by a viva voce vote on a roll call. It presently appears to be certain that Honorable Sam Rayburn will be elected Speaker by a majority of approximately 30 votes, if all Members are present and voting. There will be quite a few new Members, both men and women. The galleries will be packed with well-wishing friends of these new Members who have made the trip to Washington to see them sworn in. This really creates a tough problem for the doorkeeper because of the limited number of gallery seats. I remember when I first came to Congress I did not realize that such a problem existed. Fourteen of my friends were good enough to come up here to see me sworn in, and I felt that they were entitled to gallery seats. No one thought it could be done, but with the help of a cooperative doorkeeper, we were finally able to round up fourteen tickets for the ceremony.

The next top important item after the reconvening of the Congress is the President's State of the Union Message. You can always expect a packed gallery for this, but I am sure that no single Member could ever get together fourteen seats for it. This message will actually be the starting gun for the First Session of the 84th Congress. Some will be willing to follow whatever the President says and advocate the early adoption of all his proposals. There will be another group who will oppose part of the proposals and support part of them. There will, of course, be a third group who will look with a certain amount of skepticism on the entire message. However, this group will be very small and more or less ineffective. All of these groups will have Members on both sides of the aisle.

There will, no doubt, be some terrific scraps on the floor of the House during this coming Session. However, it is not anticipated that these scraps will be between the two political parties. Most of the fireworks can be expected to come from intra-party fights, rather than from inter-party fights. One example of this was pretty well portrayed by a cartoonist here in one of the Washington papers. In the foreground of the cartoon, the President and a coalition of the Democrats and Republicans were launching a ship named "Reciprocal Trade Program". In the background, the cartoonist had drawn a picture of an elephant which was marked, "Old Guard". This "Old Guard" elephant was launching a submarine. Many people think that the trade program will be one of the first of the big issues to be attacked by inner-party dissension. In any event, we are all looking for plenty of fireworks for the next six months. It will be democracy in action. Many criticize it, but actually we all love it. IT'S NICE WORK IF YOU CAN GET IT

The administration seems to have had its troubles with the NAACP concerning one Jane M. Spaulding, a Negro woman leader. She started out as an assistant to Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Oveta Culp Hobby. She was allegedly removed from this position without publicity, because she advocated admittance of Negro doctors on staffs of hospitals in Texas. She was then employed in the Department of Labor. Her name was included in a recent list scheduled for dismissal. That is when charges and counter charges began to fly. When the smoke cleared, Jane M. Spaulding had been employed by the Foreign Operations Administration as a consultant at a wage of $42.50 a day. A spokesman for that Administration, which is headed by Harold E. Stassen, stated that she would be paid $42.50 a day when she worked and that she had been asked to work all the time.

AUSTIN—No one envies the job of the Texas legislators who convene here on the 11th. They must solve the state's biggest financial problem in years. Cut out for them is the task of: (1) providing more money for increased enrollment in public schools; (2) finding additional funds for public welfare; and (3) locating construction dollars to maintain and enlarge public highways.

A heavy load of students during the next two years will add $24 million to school expenditures.

Public welfare, increased by a November constitutional amendment, will take $14 million more over the same period.

An estimated $50 million per year is needed for highway maintenance and construction.

Education, public welfare and highways already take 90 cents of each tax dollar. And there is pressure for more money from other quarters.

In the general fund is slightly more than $12 million.

What To Do?

A two cents per gallon increase in the gasoline tax is one proposal. Present tax is four cents state, and two cents federal. That would meet highway needs.

Adding $2.75 per barrel to the present $2 per barrel beer tax is another proposal. This would bring in an estimated $10 million annual revenue.

Colleges may be asked to increase the present $24 per semester tuition fee to $50. That would bring in $3.5 million more per year.

Legislators are eyeing natural gas production. A 1954 tax law allowed a levy on the market value at the well, with a one per cent tax reduction each following year. They may vote to cancel the reductions. By so doing the state would keep $14 million per year of the tax money.

Veterans Land Sales

Hearings will be resumed next week by a Senate Investigating Committee looking into "block" land sales made to the state under the Veterans Land Program.

Testimony during the first two-day session showed that individual land sellers had made as much as $200,000 on a single deal.

Indicated by the committee were suits to cancel some block sales to veterans, criminal prosecution in other cases, and changes in the law.

Investigations were being held at the request of the Veterans Land Board itself. All its members, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, chairman; Governor Allan Shivers; and Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, testified.

Complaints have been received in other land transactions, besides the 11 now under investigation.

These too will be investigated, say officials in the Department of Public Safety, the State Auditor's Office and the Attorney General.

Veterans to whom the land was re-sold by the state testified that they didn't know they were buying land. They thought they were getting a cash bonus, or prolonging their rights to buy land on credit, or "selling their signatures" and waiving their rights for $100 to $300 each.

Duval County

Attorney General Shepperd is turning over the investigation of Duval County affairs to District Attorney-Elect Sam Burris.

Shepperd, who forecast recovery of some $500,000 in stolen public funds, said he was in complete agreement with Burris.

The transfer brought to an end a two-year personal investigation of the county's affairs by Shepperd.

Motor Vehicle Tax

A bill to abolish the ad valorem property tax on motor vehicles will be presented to the Legislature by State Rep. Douglas E. Bergman of Dallas.

His bill also would propose a one-third increase in the registration (license tag) fee.

Another Bergman bill would allow banks to close Saturdays.

A third bill would permit judges to deny bail on second felony indictments when the accused is out on bond for a previous felony charge.

Crop Income Up

A cheerful note from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The USDA office in Austin reports that the value of Texas crops for the year reached $1,036,000,000 despite the drought. That's $67 million higher than the preceding year.

sive as possible. But most important, they must take care large quantities of trash will slow down gin operation. Finally, they must kill all pink bollworms in the material. Otherwise, what might be gained by use of this trash would be lost through the destructiveness of the insect.

Findings in these investigations are to be made available to ginners and farmers in Texas as soon as sound and practical conclusions can be achieved.

Gin Trash Research
Texas Dept. of Agriculture

Texas is seeking a solution to a knotty problem—how to keep an insect from robbing farmers of a valuable component of our annual cotton crop.

Gin "trash"—the burrs or hulls of the cotton bole — could ordinarily be very useful as a soil conditioner, fertilizer or livestock feed. Yet, this trash also harbors one of the greatest threats to our cotton industry, the pink bollworm. The problem is how to kill the insect larvae within the trash and allow the material to be returned to the farm for beneficial use.

Modern gins with elaborate drying and cleaning equipment kill a high percentage of the worms during the ginning process. Tests are now being conducted in Texas to find what process or machine is responsible for the greater part of the kill. Modifications and improvements may be made eventually which will assure 100 percent destruction.

Today, most gin trash is burned to control and prevent the spread beyond quarantine barriers of the pink bollworm. However, some methods are being used and studied which may prevent this waste. Composting, sterilization, fumigation, hammer milling, roller milling and the use of special fans or two conventional fans in the pneumatic system of ginning are all possible procedures that have a degree of effectiveness.

Investigations of different types of fans and fan combinations, rollers, beaters, grinders, and heating devices are being carried out by engineers and entomologists at commercial gins in the lower Rio Grande Valley this season. Later work will be done farther north, including the Panhandle where harvesting conditions are quite different.

Gin trash disposal methods must be as simple and inexpensive as possible.

POLIO VACCINE ANSWER SCHEDULED THIS SPRING

The annual March of Dimes opened this week with a sober note of caution from Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Pointing out that "we still do not know if the trial polio vaccine has prevented one case of paralytic polio," Mr. O'Connor stated that "this factor, plus the large number of patients still needing help, means that fighting polio is a bigger job now."

"I know that parents are anxiously waiting for the answer," Mr. O'Connor said. "The scientific evaluation of the vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk is a time-consuming and precise job involving detailed records on 1,830,000 children who either were vaccinated or are acting as controls."

The Polio Vaccine Evaluation Center at the University of Michigan is now studying data on children in 14,000 schools in the 217 study areas.

27 Laboratories at Work
Twenty-seven laboratories are processing and testing some 40,000 blood samples taken from participating children to determine the amount of protective antibodies against polio present in their bloodstreams.

Before the Evaluation Center can put the jigsaw pieces of information together and arrive at an answer, all data must be entered on the children's coded record cards, then analyzed. This process cannot be hurried, Mr. O'Connor said.

What if the evaluation report proves the vaccine to be effective?

The National Foundation already has taken a calculated financial risk by obligating $9,000,000 in 1955 March of Dimes funds for the manufacture, this winter, of additional vaccine.

This was done so that enough of it to vaccinate 9,000,000 persons will be ready in the spring without charge for the product. The purpose was to make some vaccine available immediately, if licensed, and to keep manufacturing facilities tooled up for continued production.

If the vaccine evaluation report is negative or inconclusive, March of Dimes-financed vaccine research will be intensified. The National Foundation research program has not been halted during the evaluation.

POLIO VACCINE ANSWER MAN

DR. THOMAS FRANCIS, JR.
DIRECTOR, POLIO VACCINE EVALUATION CENTER—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, ANN ARBOR

FOR JUST ONE PHASE OF THE EVALUATION REPORTS COME FROM 2,000,000 TEST TUBES.

144,000,000 FACTS FROM TONS OF RECORDS ARE BEING FEED INTO COMPUTING MACHINES USED IN EVALUATION.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

1954 WHEAT AND GRAIN SORGHUM LOANS:

Don't forget that January 31, 1955 is the last day for making either Grain Sorghum or Wheat Loans. The Maturity date for both commodity loans is March 31, 1955.

CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP OR OPERATION:

If you have recently purchased, or become the 1955 operator on a Donley County farm, please notify this office in order that the proper changes can be made and your names added to our mailing list. If on the other hand you no longer operate a farm which you operated in 1954, you should also notify this office. The individual farm record cards need to be up-to-date so the present owner or operator will receive the necessary information mailed out for the farm.

1955 ACP:

An additional practice has to be added to list of 1955 practices for Donley County. The practice recently approved for Donley County is "Control of Bindweed as a Necessary Step in the Control of Wind and Water Erosion." Listed below are the specifications and the rate of Federal Cost-Share:

This practice may be approved only if the county committee determines that it is a necessary step in the control of wind and water erosion on the farm and that there is no likelihood of reinfestation. The farm operator must agree that as soon as practicable after bindweed control measures are carried out, he will take the necessary steps to further protect the acreage by establishing a vegetative cover or tillage operations. When clean cultivation is used no crop may be taken from the land.

Federal Cost-Share:
A. Concentrated Borascu, $2.50 per 100 lbs.
B. Polyborchlorate, $7.50 per 100 lbs.
C. Continuous cultivations at intervals not to exceed 14 days during the entire growing season, $7.50 per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow and Maggie visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sweeden at Blair, Okla.; also with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith at Odell, Texas.

Someone has said: "Taxes, like the poor, are always with us." It looks to us like the taxes might be what keeps the poor with us, especially does it look this way at income tax paying time—for us anyway.

Some folks wait for good fortune or good luck, others catch up with it.

Somehow we like the following little poem written by Herbert Casson and called:

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE
The power to choose the work I do,
To grow and have the larger view;
To know and feel that I am free,
To stand erect, not bow the knee;
To be no chattel of the state,
To dare to risk, to lose, to win,
To make my own career begin;
To serve the world in my own way,
To gain in wisdom day by day;
With hope and zest to climb, to rise—
I call that Private Enterprise.

ROBOT UNITS TO MONITOR NEW TEXAS WATER PLANT

FORT HOOD — A contract in excess of $65,000 to build an automatic control system to monitor operations of a new $1,000,000 water filtration plant here has been awarded the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company, it was announced today.

The new plant, located some eight miles from Belton, will provide water for the Army installation at Fort Hood as well as the neighboring town of Killeen. It will be capable of supplying more than 7½ million gallons daily. It is scheduled for completion in June, 1955. It will use water from the Leon river impounded in Belton reservoir, a project recently completed by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The control system, developed by Honeywell's Industrial Division engineers, will primarily be pneumatic. It will regulate such conditions as flow measurement, degree of acidity and the various filtering stages. The control system feeds into two centrally lo-ated master control panels which provide over-all supervisory monitoring and regulation of the system.

General contractor on the project is Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp. of New York—Houston office. The plant was designed by the firm of Turner and Beard, Houston.

The project is under contract to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Fort Worth district.

Wildlife Aids Are Available

AUSTIN — The Director of Wildlife Restoration for the Game and Fish Commission suggested Texans interested in helping reinforce the hard hit birds and beasts and fishes "can find no better time to act than now."

He said the present low population status of many species provides good opportunities for effective teamwork to help the inevitable comeback.

"Everything will be harnessed to the pickup in habitat when the rains finally come, said the Director of Restoration. "Nature will do the usual good job in pacing restoration of food and cover. But the squeeze has become so acute that hunters, land owners and nature lovers will find plenty of chances to help out."

He said persons interested, for example, in helping re-production of quail cover may write the Commission headquarters in Austin for special literature. There is a pamphlet prepared by Wildlife Biologist Dan Lay on quail culture which provides specific information on planting and cultivation of especially recommended plant cover such as multiflora rose and bicolor lespedeza.

"There's not much that can be done while the drought lasts except to plan," said the Director. "Of course, in rare irrigated areas actual planting of cover may begin. Generally, interested persons may work with their local sportsmen's groups."

The Chief Aquatic Biologist (Marion Toole) said the dry spell provides a good opportunity to improve farm tanks for restocking with fish when water levels are restored. A special bulletin is available on that, too. He said so many requests have been made for the Commission to salvage vulnerable water treatment plants, increasing the danger of water-borne disease outbreaks. Public health engineers put plants back into operation within nine days. This, and emergency vaccination programs, forestalled a crisis.

In August an epidemic of mosquito-borne encephalitis struck hundreds of victims in Hidalgo County. State Health Department laboratory experts identified the cause as Saint Louis virus, which had never before occurred in epidemic form in this area.

Psittacosis in isolated flocks of turkeys plagued health officials all spring and summer. The first outbreak 48 employees of a Corsicana packing plant in May. Other cases cropped up in scattered areas, but the disease was finally smothered by a tight program of flock sanitation.

The year just past was both disheartening and encouraging concerning polio. It was disheartening because 3107 cases made 1954 the second worst polio year in state history; encouraging because of the high hopes held for the success of the Salk vaccine field trials of last spring.

Some 35,000 Texas second-graders took part in the field trials, and state and county health officials since then have been quietly collecting blood samples and recording data which must be analyzed before the true significance of the vaccine will be known. Results will be announced next spring.

Mrs. MacTavish gets her dream house

At last she has the home of her dreams! A modern house — with a yard for the children and space for flowers. Most important to Mrs. MacTavish, though, are all those wonderful electric appliances she's always longed for! With them, she'll have the time and energy to do all the things she's always wanted to do.

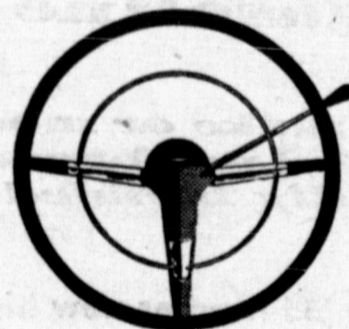

It seems like luxury. But soon she'll think of all her electric servants as necessities. As time goes on, she'll add even more.

Stop and think, for a minute, how many electric servants you've added in the last ten years. Wonderful, work-saving appliances which have made your life easier and more enjoyable. So, even though the price of electric service has gone down in that time, your electric service bill may be higher. But when you think of the many things electric service does for you, twenty-four hours a day, don't you agree that it is still the biggest bargain in your family budget?

*In homes served by WTU the average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electric service is 22% LESS than it was ten years ago!

No ifs, ands or buts about it. When you give the gun to a 1955 Buick with Dynaflo Drive,* you move. In the instant you push down the pedal, you get the action you've called for—immediate getaway from a standing start, or immediate safety-surge out of a tight spot on the highway. It's not magic, this thrilling and pulse-quickening response—though it feels like the closest thing to it. It's a principle of the modern airplane, brought for the first time to an automotive transmission. Twenty "variable pitch propellers" inside the Dynaflo unit itself can change their angle—like the propeller of the airliner can change its pitch from take-off position to cruising position. And what this brings to you—at the wheel of a '55 Buick—is the nearest thing to flight on wheels. Far better gas mileage in your normal driving and cruising. Spectacular response when you want it for quick getaway or emergency acceleration.

But all this, mind you, with the absolute smoothness that is constant in Dynaflo Drive. Surely, a demonstration of Variable Pitch Dynaflo is a Buick must this year. We'll be happy to do the honors—and show you, in the doing, what a whale of a buy you make here. Drop in this week, won't you?

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

He said he felt compelled to clarify the Commission's policy about the shoot, which attracted more than five thousand applicants, because of interest demonstrated and because of "some misunderstanding."

chased the 6,493-acre wildlife research site twelve miles West of Hunt, Kerr County, because the land was quite representative of the type of country in its locality. Research work under way involves the relationships between wildlife, domestic livestock and the range. It is our object to find out how to produce quality game and livestock without damage to the range on which they live. Such a procedure should be feasible and financially beneficial for even the average landowner, once the necessary methods are determined.

"A domestic grazing lease now in effect specifies the numbers and kinds of livestock that may be run. The grazing load is designed to encourage recovery of desirable range grasses, to keep the range in a condition generally favorable to deer and turkey, and to assure a reasonable income from the property. "Special grazing experiments are being set up in ten plots (96 acres each) to determine desirable stocking rates for deer and various types of livestock. Resulting information will be applied on the area and supplied to other landowners for consideration by those interested in producing both wildlife and livestock on their land.

"Over much of the Hill Country, cedar has been a rapid invader through the past fifty years. On many sites the growth is so dense as to keep down all grasses, and cedar itself provides little food for ranch livestock. However, deer and wild turkey depend on cedar for protective cover and for emergency food at critical times. "Too commonly, indiscriminate clearing and burning of cedar has placed entirely too much pasture land in a nonproductive stage for many years. On the Kerr Area we are seeking to learn the best uses of cedar, together with control methods that speed up the recovery and increase of forage grasses. This work includes pruning, thinning, and clearing of cedar on test plots. Clearing methods used up to this time are axe, cable or chain, and bulldozing.

"The fact that surplus deer on the Kerr Wildlife Management Area are made available to hunters should not be considered as an indication of a public hunting ground program. The Game and Fish Commission is merely putting into effect what it has advocated to other landowners; i.e., hunting is the proper method for removing surplus deer, under normal conditions.

"So long as our research and management program on the Kerr Area results in the production of surplus game, it is our hope that a limited hunter harvest of the surplus may continue as a satisfying by-product."
