Highway Group Here Wednesday

Oklahoma sponsors of a new federal highway between Amarillo and Ft. Smith, Ark. met with delegations from Claude, Hedley, Clarendon and Amarillo for a luncheon Wednesday noon here at the Donley Hotel.

Finis Gillespie, president of the Okla. Highway 9 Ass'n., headed the delegation from Hobart, requesting cooperation of the affected cities to convert Texas highway 203 into a federal highway bearing designation US 366, the same designation sought for Okla. 9.

During the noon meeting, the Oklahoma group outlined the progress they have made to secure the federal highway. W. S. Whaley of Clarendon and Fort Worth, who with the late Cong. Bill Stigler, of Okla. is credited with being the "Daddy" of the project, was present and outlined the importance of the highway to cities along the route. These two succeeded in getting the US 366 designation reserved several years ago. Sponsors of the project hope to have the approval of all affected state highway commissions by the time the national association meets in New Orleans later this year.

Warning Issued Regarding Fireworks and Trash Dumping Within City Limits

Mayor H. T. Burton issued a warning regarding two city ordinances this week that could mean heavy fines for guilty parties.

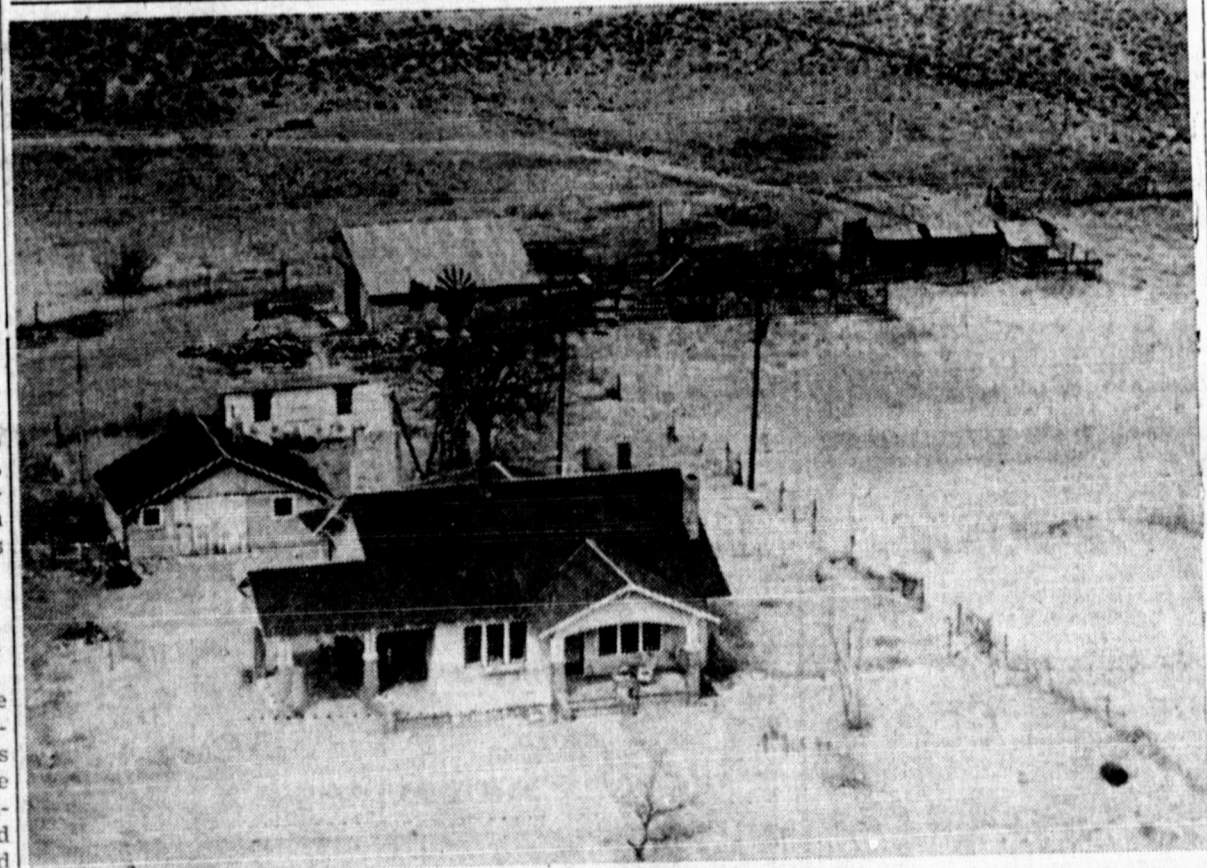

One is the city ordinance against exploding fireworks within the city limits. Parents should take notice of this reminder and caution their youngsters about exploding fireworks within the city. If caught they may be fined not less than five or more than $100. Local officials will do no warning as this ordinance and state law has been in effect too long. Those caught will be dealt with as the law provides, Mayor Burton stated.

The other ordinance deals with dumping of trash within the city limits. It has been called to our attention that some people are dumping trash in the dam in south Clarendon and other places in the city limits, Mayor Burton stated. There is an ordinance also against this, with a very stiff penalty; the first offense is a fine of $25 and the second offense is $50 and the third is $200, the mayor added.

There is just one place to dump trash and that is in the City Dump ground which is southeast of the city. We trust that a reminder will be sufficient; if not, we will prosecute anyone caught violating these ordinances, Mayor Burton pointed out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lu McClellan of Edinburg, Texas are spending the week with his father, Lu McClellan and other relatives.

Thousands of Visitors Expected To Attend Holiday Week-End Events

Clarendon's annual Fourth of July Celebration will get underway Friday evening with the first Rodeo performance and the first dance scheduled for that time. It will also be the final count date for the Queen contest and the winners will be announced at the Rodeo Friday night.

The second rodeo performance will be staged Saturday night and another dance will be in store for those who like to dance. Monday morning, July 4th, the celebration will have gained full momentum and that will be the big day of the three day affair. L. T. Shelton, head of the celebration this year, reports everything to be in tip-top shape and all phases of the celebration is expected to move along in grand style. It will be at this time that the men and women who have worked so hard to put this program on, will receive their reward - - seeing the many visitors gathering to enjoy Clarendon's hospitality.

An outstanding program has been prepared for the Old Settlers get-together Monday morning. Mrs. Katherine Bugbee is in charge and states that the registration will begin at 9 a. m. at the Legion Hall. C. Boone McClure of Canyon, will be the principal speaker. All those who have been residents of the area 35 years or longer are eligible to register.

It has been announced that the Patching Club House will be open the evening of July 4th for old-timers to visit with each other.

Flip Breedlove and his crew will barbecue the beef for the Free Barbecue Sunday night at the Country Club and W. W. Sandifer and his helpers will be finishing off the big pot of beans and fruit. Serving lines will be set up on the court house lawn and serving will begin promptly at 11 o'clock on the Fourth. All those who have been contacted to help with the serving are asked to be at the court house by 10:30 to get ready to serve the anticipated crowd of five thousand or more.

Fred Russell's crew at the locker plant have had a busy week getting the fourteen beebes ready for the barbecuing job. The meat is prepared and cut up whereby it will all cook more evenly.

The western Parade will start at 1 p. m. and everyone participating is asked to be ready to line up prior to the starting time.

L. T. Shelton has announced that an added attraction has been arranged for the Saturday night and Monday rodeo performances. Darrell Harris will be here with his Hollywood famous, trained horse Amber Star. He holds the reputation of being the TV wonder horse. The afternoon rodeo performance on the Fourth will begin at 2 p. m. and the evening performance will begin at 8 p. m. The Rodeo Queen will be crowned at this performance also.

Those having reserved seats in the new north stands are reminded that they can enter the grounds thru the north gate which is directly north of the stands. A new east gate on the east lane will make it more convenient for the crowd in general and especially those who will park or use the south bleachers.

Following the afternoon rodeo performance July 4th, an old fiddlers contest will be held in front of the Legion Hall on Main street. Those desiring to enter may contact Gene Aldridge or Ray David.

People of the Panhandle area had an opportunity to get a good look at what was in store for them for the celebration when President L. T. Shelton and a group of Clarendonites invaded the KGNC-TV studios Wednesday night and furnished the entertainment for Cotton John's program, which in reality was a personal invitation to the people of the area to come to Clarendon and enjoy the Celebration.

Memorial Service Held Sunday For Royce Morris

Tragedy struck a Rodeo, Calif. fishing party at Bodega Bay and G. Royce Morris, 22, a Union Oil Company refinery employe at Rodeo, Calif. was swept into the ocean and drowned.

Fishing companions said that Morris was knocked from a rock by a high wave. He disappeared immediately in the swirling waters and was not seen again.

Also swept into the ocean by the same wave was 14 year old Frederick Casiani, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coppa. The Casiani boy rode out the waves and was picked up and pushed up on top of a rock. He said no one could swim in that water. Morris was an excellent swimmer and friends theorized that he may have been injured when he was knocked from the rock. Also in the fishing party was John Holmes, a Rodeo barber. He said they tried to assist the boys but could not because of the rough sea.

A U. S. Coast Guard helicopter searched the area but saw no sign of the body.

Memorial services were held at the Rodeo Baptist Church Sunday, June 26 with the pastor Rev. Nichols officiating. Royce was a member of the Baptist Church. He is survived by his wife, Mary Lou, and one daughter Judy Ann, aged 2 years; his father, two brothers and one sister.

The wife and daughter are leaving Rodeo July 1st for a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barker.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

This week we have the "Children's Story of Abraham Lincoln" that was given in place of a lost book.

"Winds of Morning" is a novel with the setting in the middle Columbia River country of the Southwest. This is written by H. L. Davis who wrote "Honey In the Horn", "Beulah Land," etc. Another gift book is "Away All Boats" by Kenneth Dodson. It is the experiences lived on board "The Belinda." It is as fascinating as "The Caine Mutiny." Some body gave us "Mr. Smith" by Louis Bromfield. It is not too recent, but we did not possess it.

The Summer Selections of Reader's Digest Book's condensed has been received. It has six condensed books that you will likely enjoy.

For the children who have completed the first grade this spring our new readers are: "Daffy," "Fun for Fedelia," "Maybelle the Donkey," "Peanuts the Pony," and the "Three Little Elephants."

Books wear quickly, and these children read all we can furnish them—in fact they read too rapidly for me to supply them.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

If You Can't
Lick 'em—Join 'em

Just back from visiting with my daughter's family—and playing Grandpop to two of the cutest kids you ever saw. While there I picked up a couple of new ideas on child raising:

If your child's learning to use a pen, provide an old fountain pen—filled with bluing. Looks and writes like ink, but won't stain clothes or furniture.

Maybe you have a boy, like my grandson, who thinks he's too old for a bib—but isn't. A big cowboy handana works just as well, and looks he-man to boot.

From where I sit, getting along with children is like getting along with grownups—it requires an effort to see things from the other person's point of view. At any age, there's no accounting for tastes. Take my neighbor who keeps a parakeet and drinks hot coffee in the summertime. That seems strange to me... a man who's partial to hound dogs and a cooling glass of beer. But I'd be "childish" to say it was wrong.

Miss Spalding Is Bride Of Douglas Lowe

In an impressive candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening, June 22, at the First Methodist Church in Hedley, Miss Martha Jo Spalding became the bride of Douglas Lowe, Clarendon, Texas. Rev. R. N. Huckabee, pastor of the church, read the vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spalding of Hedley. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe of Clarendon.

A medley of pre-nuptial music was presented throughout the service by Don Cox, organist. Miss Anabel Bailey of Amarillo sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer." The couple exchanged vows before an altar banked with arrangements of white and pink asters. Groups of seven branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers completed the side altar decorations. Tapers were lighted by Adell Myers and Jiggs Mann.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. She wore short mitts of tulle and carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and blue french carnations.

Miss Kathleen Spalding, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Her dress was of pink organdy and she carried a nosegay of pink roses and blue carnations. Junior bridesmaids, Sarah Spalding, sister of the bride, and Jane Lowe, sister of the groom, were identically attired in blue organdy, and carried nosegays of pink roses.

Wayne Lowe, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers included Adell Myers, Jiggs Mann, L. D. Aten, and Freddie Molesworth. Guests were registered by Mrs. Don Wells.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spalding chose a rose-beige frock complemented by a corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore navy linen with white trim and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Cox following the ceremony, with the bride's parents as hosts. Greeting the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe, and Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Cox.

The refreshment table was laid with a white pineapple cloth and crystal candelabra entwined with pink and white rosebuds and tapers illuminating the tiered cake. Presiding at the crystal service were Miss Kathleen Spalding and Mrs. Geneva Kinney. Mrs. Jacque Jouett and Miss Retha Ranson served the cake. Throughout the reception, music was furnished by Miss Joan Raye Moreman.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Lowe wore a blue nylon suit with pink and blue accessories.

The bride is a spring graduate of Hedley High School. The groom is a graduate of Clarendon High School and Junior College. They will establish residence in Clarendon until September when they will move to Lubbock where the groom will enroll at Texas Tech.

The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe, were hosts at a rehearsal party Tuesday evening, June 21, in the home of Mrs. Jim Greer of Hedley. The refreshment table was covered with a pink cloth and centered with a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Jiggs Mann dispensed punch while Mrs. L. D. Aten served cake.

THE LION'S TALE

By Carl Allmond

Well, McCully couldn't talk above a whisper (nail damage), so Junior Spier had to "pinch hit" Tuesday. McCully has been letting his Vice Presidents take over, just for the experience, but this time it seemed to be a necessity. How much damage did you all get? Spier announced next Tuesday as Installation Day. That is, if Bill Lowe gets back; we heard a week ago, that he wired back stating he was out of money. Evidently, he wired the right man—no Bill yet. Could it have been Porter? We have noticed the Judge gets down to work a little later, since Bill is away; maybe he likes it that way.

We were more or less flattered the other day, when we were asked to mention in this column, as a project for the Lions Club, a plan to inspect, repair, improve, and maintain the dams above the ditch. We do not know how many dams are so located, but we were told that there are five. If one of those dams had broken during the last storm, the first question asked would be, "Why hadn't they attended to them?" High water in down-town Clarendon has been, at various times, a serious problem, and could be again, if a dam should break. The gentleman, who mentioned this to us, is not in danger, as he lives on a hill. However, he is civic-minded enough to think of the community, and is willing to give time and money to see that something is done. If you think anything of this idea, contact Bill Lowe, as he will be looking for a good project come next Tuesday.

Boss Lion Spier reminded us that the rodeo and free barbecue is here, July 1st, 2nd & 4th. The barbecue will be Monday morning, beginning at 11 o'clock; we hope everyone will attend the rodeo too. As far as rodeo grounds are concerned, there are none better in Texas than ours here in Clarendon. These are "big days" for Clarendon, and everyone has a job he should do, if the celebration is a success.

Harper Scoggins, Borger; Dan Finley, Little Rock, Ark.; V. A. Cooper, Wortham, and Jay Gould, Bob Word, Allen Homer Estlack, and Bert DeBord, all of Clarendon, were guests Tuesday. Jay Gould presented a film on Soil Conservation — a good program.

(Crowded out last week)

The topic of conversation Tuesday was storm damage and insurance. Maybe that is the reason Boss Lion McCully asked Junior Spier to take over. We didn't hear Mike say a word. We are sure that if anyone had spoken to him, his answer would have been "we will get to you as soon as possible."

After the usual good meal, the paper-wad throwing started. It is our opinion that this sort of thing should, at least, stop when the president asks for order, and especially when the program starts. That would be the least we could do to show our appreciation and courtesy to some one who has prepared and gives a program.

Bill Todd was in charge of the good program, and introduced Misses Sybil Todd, Sylvia Ramsey, and Gracie Newman from Amarillo, who gave us several a cappella numbers.

Visitors were Senator Andy Rogers, Childress; Bill Patman Jr., Venezuela, S. A.; Gordon Todd and Bob Damon of Amarillo, Jeanie McAnear, Bob Parker and Allen Homer Estlack of Clarendon.

Mrs. Blanche Wilson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa visited from Thursday to Monday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pickering. She was enroute to California where she will visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pickering, Mrs. Blanche Wilson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eanes enjoyed an outing at Burson Lakes Sunday.

Plymouth places two hydraulic brake cylinders in each front wheel (other low-price cars use only one) for smoother stops, greater reliability.

Plymouth's brilliant Forward Look styling gives you better forward visibility by letting you see more of the road directly ahead of the car.

If you ever have a blowout, your Plymouth has Safety-Rim wheels which help hold a deflated tire on the rim while you slow to a safe stop.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Washington was completely wiped off the map last Wednesday. This should have stopped some of the confusion, but according to the newspaper reports, it merely added to it. The trouble lay in the fact that many in the Capitol City refused to admit that they had been completely obliterated. Generally speaking, they went blithely on their way and treated the whole proposition in a more or less jocular vein. The news stories were serious to a degree, but most of the writers couldn't withstand the temptation of threading humor through them. One good example was a news story in a local paper that drew a verbal picture of how the long black Cadillac used by the Attorney General "ZOOMED" out of the underground garage below the Justice Department, "ZOOMED" down by the corner, where the Attorney General, who had "ZOOMED" from his office to the same corner, "ZOOMED" into the Cadillac, and the Cadillac "ZOOMED" to his hide-out. The story, however, did not contain any information as to when and if he was going to "ZOOM" back to his office and get to work.

Most of the others left town at a more moderate speed and without so much fanfare and trumpet blowing. That is, those connected with the Executive Branch of the Government. Many of the columnists made no effort to hide their amusement as to what was going on incident to this operation. Some of them were rather humorous, while others were caustically critical. Even the editorials in the local papers were more or less apologetic.

Congress was not included in the invitation to evacuate, but it is generally felt that the failure to include Congress is not necessarily indicative of the feeling of the Executive Branch toward Congress. Everything was normal on Capitol Hill during the entire festivities. At the time the super-super atom bomb devastated the city and all the surrounding countryside, Congress was debating a resolution to investigate the Federal Reserve. The debate was so heated and intense that the explosion was not even heard on the Hill. However, word must have reached the Chamber before the vote was taken because the resolution failed. It was worded around that some members actually believed that the downtown offices had been wiped out and saw no reason for an investigation of something that wasn't there. The whole performance did prove one thing: You can't stop Congress from talking about investigating, even with an atom bomb.

of them know the extensive and practically complete defenses that we have set up. They realize the small chance that they would have of getting to their target by such an approach.

One fellow was overheard to say that an enemy would not have to bomb this country. All he would have to do would be to run his airplanes in and out of our radar system. Every time the alarm was set off all of the cities would be evacuated. In this manner, the enemy could soon run us to death.

ADJOURNMENT

Everyone is trying to pick a date for adjournment. It ranges from July 15th to October 1st. Present indications are that we will get out sometime during the middle or latter part of August. We hope it is soon. The kids are anxious to get home and so are their mother and father.

Our biggest objection to the evacuation was that every time we tried to get information from the department, it seemed that the boys with the knowledge had been evacuated. This even included some witnesses who were supposed to appear before my subcommittee on Mines and Mining. Actually, a great deal more attention should be paid to Civil Defense, especially in the metropolitan areas of the East and Middle West. The problem, however, does not lie in the realm of trying to evacuate people from these cities. If any foreign power decided to set off a devastating bomb in any of our metropolitan areas, they wouldn't do it by airplane. The citizens in those areas would have little, if any, notice. In Washington, for instance, there are a number of embassies that are foreign soil insofar as our government is concerned. Any one of these could be employed as a situs to assemble an explosive agent that could practically wipe Washington off the map. No notice of any kind would precede such a catastrophe.

If the vehicle carrying the bomb was a guided missile, the chances are that it would be a matter of minutes between the notice of its approach and its explosion. When we assume that an enemy of this country is going to employ an airplane to attack our Capitol City, we are simply underestimating our enemies. All Literally hundreds of Texas farmers have been in Washington this year on various legislative proposals and sightseeing tours. The latest visitors were here for the annual meeting of the "Flying Farmers." Twenty Texas members of this group and their families flew their own planes to Washington and joined flying farmers from all over the nation for their annual business sessions and tour of the Capitol. They were entertained with coffee at the Speaker's dining room by Congressman Olin Teague and other members of the Texas delegation. Fred Tripplett of Hillsboro is president of the Flying Farmers Association, and Miss Ama Lee Jameson is secretary.

Earlier 160 Texas farmers and ranchers stopped in Washington on the sixth annual farm and ranch study tour sponsored by station WFAA of Dallas. We joined other members of the Texas delegation in meeting this group at the railroad station for a 7:00 a. m. breakfast and then gave them a personally escorted tour through the Capitol. Murray Cox, radio farm director of WFAA, was in charge of the party. They had already toured Indiana farms, Purdue University research programs, and Richmond, Williamsburg and Jamestown, Virginia. From Washington they went on to the New Jersey farming area, Atlantic City, Philadelphia, New York, and then to Bermuda.

Hurricane and Tornado Warning System

Last week we co-sponsored an amendment which would provide a system of radar stations throughout the country for the purpose of better detection and forecasting of hurricanes and tornadoes. Fresh on our memory is the disaster at Waco in 1953 caused by a devastating tornado. This system would establish throughout the country 55 long-range radar stations to track hurricanes, tornadoes and other severe storms to permit adequate preparation and a consequent reduction in damage. The number of stations to be located in Texas is still restricted information. However, it can be revealed that the system should be adequate to prevent at least some of the past damage and to save many lives.

Texas is second only to Kansas in the number of tornadoes which have occurred from 1916 through 1954. We have had 666 tornadoes which have resulted in approximately 804 deaths. The total property damage from tornadoes in Texas for this period amounts to over $83 million, with an average annual damage of well over $2 million. The system of tracking hurricanes, tornadoes and other severe storms on radar has been used to advantage by the Air Force and other armed services. You are all familiar with the airplanes which fly out into the hurricanes to determine their strength by use of radar equipment in the plane itself. The cost of installing these additional weather stations will be relatively small compared with the saving in human lives and property damage.

Texan to Pakistan

Miss Aline McKenzie, who has been chairman of the Department of Home Economics at Texas A. and I. at Kingsville, was in Washington last week preparing for two years of service in Pakistan, where she will set up a home economics program. Miss McKenzie is immediate past president of the Texas Business and Professional Women's organization. In Pakistan she will hold the rank of professor with the University of Dacca. Miss McKenzie was selected through the A & M College program of cooperation with the Foreign Operations Administration. It was our pleasure to arrange here for a luncheon and visit with Ambassador Ali of Pakistan, who, by the way, is one of the biggest Texas boosters in the foreign diplomatic corps. His son is an admirer of Texas and a frequent visitor there. Many Texans are working in the foreign aid program in Pakistan. Ambassador Ali told the Texas delegation luncheon last week of many similarities between the people of Pakistan and Texas and said that his country could be depended on to cooperate always with the United States and other free nations of the world.

Look 4 Doors and no center posts!

It's the new kind of hardtop - The 4-Door Riviera!

YOU drop the side windows down on this airy beauty of a Buick with the solid steel roof—and it's as wide open as a Convertible, with no center posts to mar your view. That's what makes it a hardtop. But what makes it a very special kind of hardtop is the fact that it has four doors instead of two. Cheers? Brother!—they're really rolling out for Buick's 4-Door Riviera! Now, you see, you can have the tremendously popular styling of a true hardtop combined with the room, comfort and full convenience of a 4-door Sedan. And it took a completely new kind of body design to come up with this marvel—a new kind of body built to wholly new structural principles. So it looks like Buick's done it again—because the 4-Door Riviera is a sweeping sensation across the nation. It's rolling off the assembly lines in volume numbers to meet the demand—in the high-powered CENTURY Series, and in the bedrock-priced SPECIAL Series, illustrated here. And each one is all Buick—with record-high V8 power, the level steadiness of all-coil-springing, the extra roominess of a full-size Buick Sedan—and, most certainly, with the instantaneous getaway response and bettered gas mileage of Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* Come in for a look at the brand-new kind of hardtop—the 4-Door Riviera. You'll find it priced at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model—and a buy too thrilling to pass up.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The President of the United States has proclaimed the week beginning July 24, 1955 as National Farm Safety Week. His proclamation requests all persons and organizations interested in farm life and welfare to join in a campaign to reduce the tragedies and losses caused by needless accidents.

The National Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture are again sponsoring National Farm Safety Week in cooperation with the States and counties, farm organizations, the farm press, radio and television, and many other groups interested in the welfare of farm people. The Board of Supervisors of the Donley Soil Conservation District wish to add their bit to encourage farm safety, not only during this week, but to help in making all farm people safety conscious throughout the year.

Most farmers don't realize that the number of fatal accidents to farm-workers is greater than in any other occupation in the United States. Serious injuries are nearly 85 times as many as the fatalities, which exceeded 14,000 in 1953. Farm work is much more hazardous than most people think, but few accidents are unavoidable if proper precautions and care are taken.

Listed below are a few good safety rules for tractors and farm machinery that if followed would prevent many accidents every year:

One-third of the fatal tractor accidents reported happened to children and young people under 20 years of age.

1. Children from 1 to 4 years of age should not be given rides on tractors.
2. Children from 5 to 9 years of age should not ride or play around tractors. Direct their play away from danger.
3. Boys and girls 10 to 14 years of age should not be given a man's work to do.
4. Training in tractor operation and supervision of work with machinery will save the lives of youths 15 to 19 years of age and provide future protection.

5. Use safety shields provided to protect the operator from moving parts.
  6. Avoid making adjustments close to moving parts—your clothing may catch and drag you into the machinery.
  7. Don't refuel while engine is running.
- Help make our farms and highways safe: Cooperate in National Farm Safety Week.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — A luncheon that didn't happen in the Governor's Mansion on Monday had statewide repercussions. It could affect the fate of Texas' Democratic delegates at the presidential convention next summer.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler completed a six-day speaking tour of Texas at Houston. It was billed as an effort to restore harmony between the liberal and conservative Texas Democrats.

Mrs. Hilda Weinert of Seguin, loyalist national committeewoman, joined in inviting Butler to Texas. But she boycotted his numerous banquet meetings because, she said, the loyalist Democratic Advisory Council's chairman, Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana, took, over, and froze out contacts with the conservatives.

Gov. Allan Shivers invited Chairman Butler to a luncheon with state officials at the Mansion, to be held June 20. Butler replied that his schedule was "too tight" but he'd be glad to see Governor Shivers in any city where he was billed to appear.

That angered liberalist John McKelvey of Electra, who had arranged the reconciliation conference of Shivers and Butler in Washington in May. He resigned from the Democratic Advisory Council.

Austin politicians were studying the effect of Butler's speaking tour. Some of them thought there had been considerable "double talk," as Butler's statements could be interpreted to suit any view.

At Waco late last week, Butler abandoned the "open door" theme of trying to lure back Democrats who had voted Republican in 1952. He invited the Democratic Advisory Council, his host on the tour, to "organize" the 6,000 Texas precincts with loyal leaders, for next year's showdown.

A significant feature of Butler's tour was that four prospective candidates for governor on the liberal ticket basked in the photographer's flash-bulb lime-light.

At Dallas, Supreme Court Associate Justice Will Wilson appeared in his former home city as master of ceremonies at the Butler rally of over 1,000 liberalists.

John C. White, commissioner of Agriculture, sat at the head table.

Ralph Yarborough of Austin, strongly rumored as ready for a third try as the governor candidate of the liberals, started out with Butler at Lubbock and showed up at nearly all his meetings.

And Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton showed up at a Waco rally for Butler.

Present also were several other Senators who aren't prospective candidates for governor — and half a dozen House members.

Butler's Houston appearance was before the state convention of the Young Democratic Clubs. Virtually all the potential candidates for governor on the liberal ticket showed up there too. White delivered the keynote address at the opening business session and Yarborough also spoke.

Land Office Flaws
A 95-page audit documenting investigations of irregularities in the Veterans Land Board has been released by State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

Cavness emphasized throughout his report the need for additional field supervisors and investigators—who can check continually to prevent irregularities in the $100,000,000 loan program.

The audit covered the period from Sept. 1, 1951 to Jan. 4, 1955 (the last day Bascom Giles was commissioner of the General Land Office and chairman of the Veterans Land Board).

Land Inquiry Shifts

After winding up its sixth week of investigation before Justice of the Peace Travis Blakeslee in Austin, the court of inquiry into overall operations of the General Land Office moved to Corpus Christi.

Twenty land office geophysical inspectors stationed in Corpus Christi will be questioned there this week.

Rains Boost Crops

Unusually favorable moisture conditions throughout Texas have brightened the crop outlook considerably, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Feed crops have made good development, according to USDA reports. Corn prospects are especially promising. Cotton prospects are "very promising."

Rains in scattered areas of central, eastern and northern Texas interrupted the harvesting of commercial vegetables, tomatoes in Central Texas and onions in North Texas.

Crops larger than last year are predicted for cantaloups, onions, potatoes and watermelons.

Is The Speed You Drive Safe For You And Others?

"What's YOUR safe speed?" Mr. E. C. McFadden of Dallas, Vice-President of Employers' Casualty Company and President of Texas Safety Association, Inc., asked that question of Texas drivers recently as he discussed the current speed control program of Texas Safety Association, Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council. Slogan of the program is: "Don't be a Hurry Bug—slow down and live!"

"What is a safe speed for one person may be suicidal for another," Mr. McFadden continued. "We're all individuals and we don't leave our individuality behind us when we step behind the wheel."

Mr. McFadden pointed out that there is a wide difference between people in such things as judgment, reaction time, temperament and physical make-up.

All of these things, and many more, determine the speed at which a motorist can drive safely, he said.

"The person with slow reactions, faulty vision or jumpy nerves certainly should drive at a slower pace than that of the individual who habitually makes sound split-second decisions and is blessed with 20/20 vision and iron nerves in the bargain," Mr. McFadden said.

He made the further point that what may be a safe speed for a person today may be too fast for him tomorrow.

"If you're tired, worried or under par physically, you can't control your car or cope with traffic as efficiently as you can when you're relaxed and in good health," Mr. McFadden said. "So make it a rule to let today's state of mind and body dictate today's speed."

"And don't forget," he added,

"that outside conditions such as weather, road, traffic, and the mechanical fitness of your car must also help decide your speed."

THE 1954 TEXAS TRAFFIC SCORE

Texas Dept. of Public Safety

AUSTIN — Here is one way

Texans break in a new automobile. Motor vehicles one-year old had 30% of the fatal accidents and 27% of the non-fatal accidents on Texas rural highways in 1954. Vehicles 4 years old or less had 68% of the fatal accidents and 66% of the non-fatal accidents. Vehicles 9 years old or older had 10% of the fatalities and 9% of the non-fatal.

Nine Amendments Face Texas Voters

AUSTIN—In November 1956, Texans will vote on nine proposed constitutional amendments submitted by the 54th Legislature, topped by a $100 million extension of the scandal-ridden veterans land program.

The number was two shy of the total which cleared the legislature two years ago. All 11 were adopted last November.

The veterans land proposal would double the amount of bonds issued under the program to $200 million.

The measure would also re-vamp the three-member board—now composed of the land commissioner, attorney general and governor—to include the land commissioner and two persons named by the governor.

The lawmakers also approved a plan broadening the scope of the teacher retirement system, which if adopted by the voters, would open the way to $100-a-month minimum retirement benefits after 20 years in service.

Other proposed changes to the Constitution:

Broaden scope of investment of the University Permanent Fund shared by the University of Texas and Texas A&M, to allow investment in common stocks. The proposal also would add Lamar Tech of Beaumont and Texas Southern University of Houston to schools drawing from the college building fund, and removes four colleges from sharing in the fund who will draw from the University Permanent Fund.

Allow the state to pay persons sent to prison for crimes which it is later determined they did not commit.

Permit waiver of jury trials in lunacy cases.

Authorize a program of state assistance to totally and permanently disabled persons.

Allow judges to deny bail to persons indicted for felony who have been previously convicted of two felonies, and requiring that trial be held within 60 days.

Permit county commissioners courts to reallocate constitutional funds within the present 80-cent tax limit on an annual basis.

Revising the constitutional oath of office. At present, the same oath is prescribed for elective as well as appointive state officials.

Unsafe Car Is Menace To Community

"Is your car accident prone?"

Mr. E. C. McFadden of Dallas, Vice-President, Employers' Casualty company and President, Texas Safety Association, Inc. asked that question of Texas drivers today, and he warned them that they could not answer it accurately if they had not had their cars safety checked recently.

Mr. McFadden spoke in behalf of the vehicle safety check program which is recommended by the Texas Safety Association, Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"It is the civic duty of every driver to see that his car gets a complete mechanical check-up," Mr. McFadden said, "because a car in unsafe mechanical condition is a menace to the community."

He added that only a check of the 10 major safety points by a qualified mechanic can give a car a clean bill of health. He listed the 10 points as follows: brakes, headlights, rear and stop lights, tires, wheel alignment, exhaust system and muffler, wind-shield wipers, glass, horn, and rear-view mirror.

In addition to periodic professional checks, Mr. McFadden advised drivers to check constantly for obvious danger signs such as: loss of brake efficiency, excessive tire wear, unsatisfactory windshield wipers.

"At the first sign of trouble," he said, "the conscientious driver will have the necessary repairs made. Such foresight can save his own life and the lives of others."

One of their slogans is: "If you want a good neighborhood, be a good neighbor." Good ones are the only kind of neighbors you will find in this little Armstrong County neighborhood.

Immediate Past Boss Lion Cecil Hubbard of the Claude Lions Club climaxed his farewell speech with the following statement: "As I see it looking back on the past year, the Club has accomplished absolutely nothing during my year as Boss Lion. But, I'll say this, I've had your complete cooperation all the way along." He sat down amid rousing cheers.

Talked with a fellow that was planting his cotton for the third time. About one week later we heard that it came a four inch rain and hail in his locality. Anyway, he said that his high-priced de-linted seed plus a good round of commercial fertilizer cost him in the neighborhood of seven dollars per acre for each planting. I hope this included fuel and labor. Someone remarked on hearing of this experience that their father always recommended that one should plant the sorriest seed available the first time; just a bit better quality the next time, and then for the third or any final planting to use the very best seed possible. Someone else suggested just leaving out the seed for a couple of times. Seriously, we wonder if we ever had a spring when so many had to plant over as many times as this year. Democratic droughts, Republican grass hoppers, and Gully washer rains. Looks like they've got us both going and coming, so to speak.

Heard on Cotton John's Program; "No one has ever had the stomachache just from swallowing his pride."

Someone has said that; "Diamonds are chunks of coal that stayed on the job."

We still argue that some of our best little thoughts in poem form have become anonymous down through the years. Someone had a thought, an inspiration which they no doubt thought unimportant to anyone except themselves. But, the inspiration was there; it took root in human minds and lived on through the days. The following seemed to us worth putting in our scrap book. It is called:

THE BLIND WEAVER
A blind boy stood beside the loom
And wove a fabric. To and fro
Beneath his firm and steady touch
He made the busy shuttle go.
And oft the teacher passed that way
And gave the colors, thread by thread;
But to the boy the pattern fair
Was all unseen — its hues were dead.

"How can you weave?" we, pitying cried;
The blind boy smiled, "I do my best;
I make the fabric firm and strong
And one who sees does all the rest."

O, happy thought, beside life's loom
We blindly strive our best to do,
And He who marked the pattern out,
And holds the threads, will make it true.

We read the following someplace; "Sometimes we are too busy trying to do something that we fail to find time to be something."

Louisiana has no counties. The state is divided into parishes.

Texas is the largest state; Rhode Island the smallest.

HEALTH NOTES

Texas State Dept. of Health

AUSTIN — Texas' 1954 baby crop turned out to be the biggest on record, the State Health Department's Bureau of Vital Statistics reported Thursday.

The 240,209 live births registered for the year was an all-time high rate of 28.4 births for every 1000 population, bureau statisticians said.

Most of the new babies were boys—104 for every 100 girls—the summary said, but 881 more male babies than females died during their first year.

"The attrition against the male sex goes on steadily through infancy, childhood, adolescence, maturity, and old age," a statistician commented.

How many mothers of 1954 babies were residents of Texas at the time of blessed event is not yet known, but every one of the babies are bona fide Lone Star citizens by virtue of state law.

While birth rates were soaring to unprecedented high levels, deaths from selected causes were being cut to the lowest points in history.

"Last year saw the total death rate (7.7 per 1000 pop.), the infant mortality rate (31.0 per 1000 live births), the maternal mortality rate (0.6 per 1000 live births), and the stillbirth ratio (17.3 per 1000 live births) at new all-time lows," the report indicated.

In addition to the reductions posted in infant and maternal deaths, the report said the past two decades have witnessed drastic reductions in deaths from diseases affecting the general population.

There were 99 percent fewer deaths from each of typhoid fever, diphtheria, malaria, and pellagra last year than in 1934. Scarlet fever rates have been cut by 98 percent from the rate 20 years ago. Ninety-six fewer deaths from each of whooping cough and measles are occurring today than occurred in 1934.

Influenza is claiming 90 percent fewer victims today than it did 20 years ago, while tuberculosis is killing 84 percent fewer people than the 1934 rate. Syphilis rates have been cut 81 percent.

Pneumonia, including pneumonia of the newborn, and intestinal disease, including diarrhea of the newborn, are both 66 percent less of a threat to human life than they were two brief decades ago.

Early Ex-students of WTSC To Recall "Old Times"

CANYON — Pioneers of West Texas education will recall "old times," when the early ex-students of West Texas State College gather here July 9 for their first reunion in many years. Coming back to the campus will be students who attended this region's first college from the year of its inception, 1910 until 1915.

About 500 early alumni are expected for the day's program, according to Milton (Buff) Morris, executive secretary of the WT Ex-Students Association. Morris will be master of ceremonies for events which open with registration and a coffee hour at 9 a. m. Affairs are set in the college's new Student Union Building.

Mrs. S. B. Whittenburg (Frances Grimes, '37) of Amarillo, vice-president of the association, and Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president, will welcome exes at 10:00 A. M. Introduction of exes and guests will be made by Dr. E. L. Henderson, Greenville, N. C., and Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus who was head of the history department during the early years, will speak.

An hour of "early time reminiscing" will be spent before a buffet luncheon at noon. Guided tours of the campus, ending at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, will be started at 1:30 p.m., and the Student Union will remain open for visiting in the afternoon.

New Gulf No-Nox gives you not just the highest octane but...
full working octane

This lamp is burning the "DIRTY-BURNING TAIL-END" of gasoline which GULF refines out

This lamp is burning NEW SUPER-REFINED GULF NO-NOX, the clean-burning super-fuel

because it's super-refined to burn clean

No gasoline, no matter how high the octane, can keep on giving you full power from your engine unless it burns clean.

That's why New Gulf NO-NOX is your best gasoline buy. In making new NO-NOX, Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline, the No. 1 troublemaker in today's high-compression engines.

As a result, you get a clean-burning gasoline that gives you:

- More complete engine protection than you get with so-called "miracle-additive" gasolines
- Extra gasoline mileage in the kind of short-trip, stop-and-go driving motorists do most
- Freedom from vapor lock, stalling and stumbling in hot-weather driving
- No knock, no surface pre-ignition — even in today's high-compression engines

Remember this picture? This is Gulf's famous burner demonstration—proof of what a difference Gulf super-refining makes. Notice that Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline... instead of fighting it, inside your engine, with so-called "miracle additives." That's why new, clean-burning Gulf NO-NOX can promise you not just highest octane, but full working octane.

Now! For the ultimate in working octane performance, always use Gulf's super-refined gas-oil team...New Gulf NoNox Gasoline and
New Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil

The only motor oil in the world that's super-refined by the Alchior Process for modern high-compression engines.

- Controls carbon—cause of knock, pre-ignition, valve failure.
- Combats corrosive acids, rust and deposits on engine parts.
- Assures lower oil consumption than "all-season" oils.
- Provides the toughest protective film ever developed.

Available in 3 grades—SAE 10W, SAE 20/20W, SAE 30—for each season.

Studies Show Deer Move In Limited Areas

AUSTIN—Game and Fish Commission technicians have determined that deer move over small areas even when comparatively short distances mean the difference between food and starvation. The Director of Wildlife Restoration said the studies have been made in the main deer ranges in the Hill Country of Central Texas where the drought has intensified already acute conditions caused by deer overpopulation and faulty soil practices. The inquiry covered October 14 through March 10.

While the research continues to implement proposed management techniques, the initial investigation showed that from a regional standpoint the maximum movement was within a circle approximately one mile in diameter.

Here's the formal field report on the first phase:

"The initial phase of the deer movement study was begun on October 14, 1954, and terminated on March 10, 1955, in Mason, Gillespie and Llano Counties. The chief purpose of this study was to determine, as far as possible, whether there was an appreciable movement of deer within and/or between vegetative types in the Hill Country.

"Four trap lines, each approximately 20 miles in length and running, generally, in a north-south direction, were operated. Cottonseed cake, yellow shelled corn and mistletoe were used as bait to draw deer into the aluminum traps. Each trap was fenced to exclude livestock.

"The four trap lines operated were given the following names, for the purpose of differentiation: Hilda-Doss line, Cherry Springs line, Enchanted Rock line and Packsaddle Mountain line. Each line was situated along a course which traversed three major vegetative and soil types, with trap sites equally divided among these types. The north ends of the lines extended well out into the granitic soils, where beebush and mesquite are the dominant species. The middle one-third of the lines traversed the persimmon-elm-live oak type where the granite gives way to sandstone. The southern ends of the lines extended out of the Central Mineral Basin into the limestone-caliche soil where shinoak, spanish oak, post oak and blackjack predominate.

"A total of 102 deer, including 65 does and fawns and 37 male deer were trapped, tagged with numbered cattle ear tags holding colored plastic discs, striped with paint across the rump patch, and numbered with 10 inch numerals painted on each side midway between the hips and the shoulders. One stripe across the rump indicated the deer was tagged in the granite soil type; two stripes indicated the deer was tagged in the sandstone soil type, while three stripes marked a deer from the limestone-caliche soil type.

"Forty-one deer were re-caught one or more times, with one spike buck leading the field by getting trapped six times in the same trap. All recatches, with only three exceptions, were made in the same traps in which the deer were originally caught. The three deer which strayed were re-trapped within one-half mile of the site where they were originally tagged.

"Two tagged bucks and one tagged doe, bagged by hunters during the open season, November 16 through December 31, 1954, were killed within 500 yards of the spit where they were trapped and tagged the preceding October. The carcasses of five tagged deer have been found to date, none of which has been more than 600 yards from the site where it was tagged months earlier."

Trouble comes to all men, but those who are looking for it will get more than their share.

People who talk all the time not only waste a lot of words, but fail to make a good impression.

Public Hunt
Is Foreseen
On Duck Area

AUSTIN—The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission said plans to utilize the latest $400,000 Pittman-Robertson grant call for permitting controlled public hunting on the migratory bird refuge areas to be established.

He said the main refuge will be located along the Gulf Coast where waterfowl concentrate during the fall hunting season but that some of the money probably will be earmarked for financing white-winged dove refuges in the Rio Grande Valley.

The Commission, at a recent special meeting, mover to qualify for $400,000 in the P-R aid which had to be accepted before the end of the fiscal year on July 1. The Commission authorized the $100,000 in state funds to match the Federal allotment under the program by which states match the P-R grant on the basis of one dollar for every three.

The P-R is derived from an eleven per cent tax collected on firearms and ammunition and is allocated back to the states on the basis of area and the number of hunting licenses sold. Texas qualifies for the maximum amount.

The Executive Secretary said the refuge-controlled hunting program is part of a plan that has been underway for several years. Wildlife biologists and others have been studying different localities to recommend sites when the money becomes available.

He said that while plans still are in the formative stage, it is possible that the first waterfowl refuge to be set up for combined purposes of providing ducks and geese a place to rest and hunters a place to shoot free, could total up to five thousand acres.

The Executive Secretary said it would be impossible now to estimate the number of hunters that could be accommodated and how the refuge harvest would be handled.

He said a part of the refuge could be opened permanently during the season or different sections could be opened up at different times.

The Executive Secretary emphasized other factors such as weather and the general waterfowl population would affect the final decision.

"Getting Away" With Traffic Law Violations

"Why is it that citizens who obey other laws often show great contempt for traffic laws?"

This question was asked by Mr. R. B. Roaper, Chief Safety Engineer, Humble Oil & Refining Company, Houston, and President, Texas Safety Association today as he commented on the importance of the Texas Safety Association and the Texas Department of Public Safety's know and obey traffic laws program. This program is being conducted in Texas in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

Mr. Roaper said, "People who would be critical of sharp practices in business, who are strictly honest in their personal relationships and who are highly respected in the community, will frequently brag about 'getting away' with some infraction of traffic laws."

"This attitude is difficult to understand when you consider the seriousness of our traffic problem," he said. "National Safety Council records show there were 38,300 people killed in motor vehicle accidents in 1953. It is significant that Council records also show 82 per cent of the fatal traffic accidents involved violations of traffic laws by one or more drivers. The conclusion is obvious—violations of traffic laws lead to traffic accidents."

Mr. Roaper declared that, in the face of these facts, no person can consider himself a responsible citizen if he doesn't have the same respect for traffic laws as he has for laws prohibiting such crimes as robbery and murder.

"The fatal traffic accident victim loses his life as surely as a murder victim loses his," Mr. Roaper said, "and the deliberate traffic violator who causes the accident is responsible for this death."

He urged all drivers to accept their responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others and to make it a point to observe traffic laws at all times.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS

GALVESTON—The State Fair of Texas will play host to Texas newspaper publishers and their families on the traditional Press Day, which this year will be Saturday, Oct. 8, it was announced here at the annual convention of the Texas Press Association.

A highlight of Press Day will be the Texas-Oklahoma gridiron classic at 2 p. m. in the Cotton Bowl.

Other top attractions of the 1955 exposition will be "The Panama Game," Broadway musical comedy which will be presented in the Auditorium; "Ice Capades of 1956," internationally famed skating spectacle appearing for the first time at the Fair; color television studios and a color TV theater with a giant movie-size screen, and the Pan-American Livestock Exposition featuring 28 breeds of beef and dairy cattle, horses, ponies, sheep, swine and goats.

More than 2,000 newspaper publishers and radio and TV executives with their families are expected to attend Press Day at the Fair this year.

At the press association convention here, the diamond-studded key to the "Texas Treasure Chest" was passed on by the retiring president of the TPA to his successor for the 17th time.

The golden key will be used in 1966, the Fair's 100th anniversary year, to open the chest which was buried beneath a monument to the Fair's founders in 1938. The chest contains historical documents and copies of more than 100 Texas newspapers. The key remains in the possession of the TPA president for safekeeping.
