200 attend CC alumni banquet

The 61st annual Alumni Reunion was held on the campus of Clarendon College this past weekend. The event was a gathering of current students as well as students from years past.

Approximately 200 people attended the banquet Saturday evening in the Bairfield Activity Center.

Thirty-one outstanding students were recognized for their dedication, hard work, and achievement in each of the college's academic departments.

Celebrating their 50th anniversary was the Class of 1949. Class member Les Meyers was proud to announce that the class had 15 members present at the reunion.

The Ex-Students Association also presented its traditional awards to recognize some of the alumni in attendance. Annesse Bennett of Tulsa, OK, received the award for the alumna who traveled the farthest. She is a 1949 graduate of CC.

Jimmie Matheson, Class of 1937, received the award for the earliest graduate in attendance, and the most recent graduate award went to Justin Dauer, Class of 1996.

The banquet program concluded with a special memorial recognition for the late Hazel Cole Brandon, who was a devoted supporter of Clarendon College and the Ex-Students Association.

Following the banquet, the CC Fine Arts Department presented a Fine Arts Showcase in the Harned Sisters Auditorium featuring the musical talents of the jazz band and the show choir.

The reunion concluded Sunday with the Ex-Students' business meeting and election of officers for the coming year. Roger Estlack succeeds Leon "Bud" Schaffer as the association's new president. He is joined by Vice President Les Meyer, Secretary Hazel Guy, and board members Jim Blackerby, Gret Betts, Jennie Owens, Ruth Robinson, Frankie Henson, and Ethelyn Grady.

Dr. Ray Hawkins, CC interim president, served as guest speaker at the meeting. He addressed the college's current state and future plans.

Col. Goodnight to be recognized as citizen of Republic of Texas

A medallion will be unveiled on the tombstone of pioneer cattleman Charles Goodnight on Saturday, April 17, at 3 p.m. in the Goodnight Cemetery.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas will place the marker to recognize Goodnight as a citizen of the Republic.

The Amarillo chapter of that association says that Goodnight is one of only two people buried in the Panhandle known to have been a citizen of the Republic of Texas.

Citizens identify key issues

By Leon J. Church, County Agent

Thirty-eight citizens of Donley County took part in the Texas Community Futures Forum held in Clarendon on March 29.

The group generated over one hundred and ten (110) issues or concerns during the open forum. That group of ideas was then prioritized and the top five issues were selected.

The issues that were selected as the key concerns of citizens in Donley County are: (1) Bring more business and industry into Donley County to create more jobs; (2) Expanded Medical Services - (overnight medical clinic or small hospital); (3) Need for a Community Center & other facilities for young and older citizens - including a swimming pool; (4) Create an environment where all entities work together to achieve common goals; and (5) Continued growth of Clarendon College.

Focus groups are now being formed to develop goals and strategies to work toward addressing these identified concerns or issues, during the next 3 to 5 years. Anyone interested in being involved in this process is asked to contact the Donley County Extension Office. (806) 874-2141.

The Texas Agriculture Extension Service is leading this effort in every county through the state of Texas. One of the reasons the Agricultural Extension Service is leading this effort, is the fact that Extension Service is the only agency with offices in every county in the state.

Donley County has identified issues that are attainable if citizens become involved. All concerns and problems have answers; those answers lie with the people in the community. Become involved and make this a better place to live and raise a family for today and the future.

CISD, Howardwick candidates' profiles inside this issue

Profiles of local candidates are located inside this week's issue of the ENTERPRISE on pages four and six.

For the second straight year, the newspaper is providing this service to the voters without charge to the candidates.

Those running for positions on the Clarendon CISD School Board and with the City of Howardwick received questionnaires last week via certified mail, and it was each individual's responsibility to return those forms and have their photos taken.

Clarendon CISD will be electing two members to the Board of Trustees and filling one unexpired term. Howardwick will be electing a mayor and two members to the Board of Aldermen.

Early voting started yesterday (April 14) and continues through April 27. The election will be held Saturday, May 1.

Hedley sends six to regional academic meet

Six students from Hedley High School will be traveling to Levelland April 22-23 for the Region I Academic Meet after they qualified at the District UIL Meet held at Clarendon College March 29-30. Both math and science teams placed first out of 10 district schools including Allison, Follett, Ft. Elliott, Groom, Higgins, McLean, LeFors, Miami, and Samnorwood.

Lowell Ellerbrook, Jason Myers, and Lana Wallendorff paced the Math team, finishing first, second, and third and winning the district math title for the first time in over 20 years. Ellerbrook also was district champion in number sense and overall science score, leading the science team to their fifth district championship in the past six years. He accomplished a sweep of science prizes by taking the individual title in biology, chemistry, and physics. He ended the meet with 8 gold medals which is a Hedley school record.

Rachel Howard and Lana Wallendorff were second and sixth overall and completed the science team.

Rachel Bennett was third in the accounting contest and joins Ellerbrook, Myers, Howard, Wallendorff, and Lora Llewellyn (science team alternate) on the trip to South Plains College.

Other Hedley students to place were Ashley Hill and Susan Grecian - fourth and fifth in calculator; Donnie Owens - sixth in current events; Jason Myers - sixth in spelling; and Marissa Wells - fourth in feature writing. The number sense team and the calculator team finished third and the current events team placed second.

Hedley athletes to head for area meet

Hedley High School athletes Rachel Bennett and Dustin Monroe are headed for the Area 1A track meet for Districts 1A and 2A at Randall High School on Friday, April 16.

Monroe qualified for the Area meet by placing 1st in both the long jump and triple jump, 2nd in the 100m, and 3rd in the 400m.

To qualify for the Region 1A track meet in Levelland on the campus of South Plains College on April 30 and May 1, Bennett and Monroe must place in the top four places of their contests at the Area Track Meet.

Also representing HHS at the District 2A meet were: Penney Longan, discus, 5th shot put; Ashley Hill, shot put; Lora Llewellyn, discus; Crystal Solis, 5th in both 400m and 800m; Sam Howard, 800m and 1600m; Art Tiffin, shot put, discus, and 800m; Dustin Knowles, shot put, discus, and 800m; Josh Collins, 100m and 200m.

Field events begin Friday at 9:30 a.m. and running events at 2:00 p.m. The Hedley Track and Field Team is coached by Roger Chase.

Thornberry makes trip with President

WASHINGTON, DC - US Rep. Mac Thornberry (R-Clarendon) left Andrews Air Force Base on Monday morning for a one-day trip with the President to Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana.

Barksdale is home to the B-52 bombers, which are currently flying missions over Yugoslavia. The purpose of Monday's presidential visit was to meet with the military personnel and their families who are involved with and participating in these missions.

Thornberry made the trip at the request of Speaker of the house Dennis Hastert.

This is the second time in a month that Hastert has tapped Thornberry for an assignment related to the situation in Kosovo. On March 11, he asked Thornberry to preside over the full House during consideration of a resolution authorizing a US deployment to Kosovo.

Thornberry serves on the Armed Services Committee, and was recently appointed Vice Chairman of the Committee's Military Procurement Subcommittee.

State sales tax rebates show increase in April

AUSTIN - Texas Comptroller Carole Keeton Rylander last Friday delivered a total of $170.7 million in monthly sales tax payments to 1,094 Texas cities and 118 counties, a 7.5 percent increase over the $158.7 million allocated in April 1998.

Locally, the City of Clarendon saw an increase of 2.58 percent for a payment of $13,334.05. Howardwick was up 3.89 percent to $753, but Hedley dropped 47.91 percent for a total of $129.29.

Overall, the three communities are up for the year to date with total rebates being 13.28 percent higher than this time last year.

This month's sales tax rebates include local sales taxes collected in February and reported by businesses filing monthly tax returns in March.

"April sales tax rebates reflect that the Texas economy continues to expand but at a more moderate pace than we saw a year ago," Rylander said.

The comptroller's next sales tax allocation is scheduled for Friday, May 14.

Ready for another appealing Burton Memorial Library variety?

Antique enthusiasts will be pleased with the fourth edition of Country Antiques and Collectibles by Dana G. Morykan. This remarkable resource offers historical information and detailed accurate listings of periodicals, museums, collectors' clubs, and reproductive alerts. It contains locations of auction houses and leading manufacturers with more than 14,000 listed prices.

Runaway by Heather Graham combines historical fiction with mystery. The historical fiction is evident through confrontations between Indians and Anglos during Florida's beginning. Mystery arises when someone is framed for crime she didn't commit.

More suspense, accompanied by romance and abiding faith, is created in Beverly Lewis' The Reckoning.

ABC television commentator and anchor woman, Cokie Roberts, brings to light significant issues facing women today as well as diverse roles women played through American history in We Are Our Mother's Daughters.

In her new "Californian" series,

Whatever Tomorrow Brings, As Time Goes By, Sean Donovan, and Donovan's Daughter, Christian writer, Lori Wick, portrays entertaining experiences of fictional Taylor, Donovan, and Bradford families beginning with a late 1870's setting. Wick, once again, demonstrates her talent for immediately catching readers' interest and sweeping them quickly into another time and place.

Need a good "chuckle"? 86-year-old novelist, Effie Leland Wilder, proves one may never be too old to write a book in her delightfully humorous Over What Hill?

Baseball fans, while eagerly anticipating another outstanding season from Sammy Sosa and Mark McGwire, may want to examine Sports Encyclopedia, Baseball 1998 by David Neft, Richard M. Medical Center Nursing Home News

The Medical Center Nursing Home monthly outing on April 2 was a trip to the cross in Groom.

The residents that made the trip were Sibyl Rattan, Betty McClellan, Sybil Cash, Mary Banister, Dee Briggs, Nell Vitarelle, Darrell Lunsford, Joe Baker, Bess Bradley, Eunice Leeper, Lena King, Lois Percival, Lois Reese, and Cora Giddings. This outing was enjoyed by all.

The Easter bunny was spotted at the MCNH during their annual Community Easter Egg Hunt on April 3. There were plenty of plastic eggs filled with toys and candy for all to enjoy. The grand prizes were Easter baskets filled with toys, stuffed animals, and candy. The winners were Kyle Lindsey (1-3 years), Caden Farris (4-6 years), and Jamie Murphy (7-9 years). The scavenger hunt was won by Nikkie Dipprey who received $10.00. There were also surprise eggs hidden for each age group. Two dollar bills and toys were awarded for these surprise eggs.

This month they will be celebrating Tommy Silvers' birthday on April 16. Come out and help Tommy celebrate another year.

Their monthly Family Night will be held on April 22, and they will be honoring all of their volunteers. They would like to take this time to show their volunteers how much they are appreciated.

Volunteers are important as they bring the residents into regular contact with the community, and the volunteers become an extension of the Social/Activity Directors and their programs. Volunteers provide a link between the residents and the community. They give our residents a sense of being remembered as a part of the community, and they inspire staff and residents by their attitude, spirit, and enthusiasm. Volunteers also provide the community with daily examples of positive living in a nursing home.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer at MCNH, please contact Becky Allen, Activity Director at 874-5221.

So just why did the chicken really cross the road?

A friend shared this with me. Enjoy.

Question: Why did the chicken cross the road?
Answers from various sources:

Kindergarten teacher - To get to the other side.

Plato - For the greater good.

Aristotle - It is the nature of chickens to cross roads.

Timothy Leary - Because that's the only trip the establishment would let it take.

Saddam Hussein - This was an unprovoked act of rebellion, and we were quite justified in dropping 50 tons of nerve gas on it.

Martin Luther King, Jr. - I envision a world where all chickens will be free to cross roads without having their motives called into question.

Richard Nixon - The chicken did not cross the road. I repeat, the chicken did not cross the road.

Jerry Seinfeld - Why does anyone cross the road? I mean why doesn't anyone ever think to ask, "What the heck was the chicken doing walk-

On The Mark

with Christi Ross

ing around all over the place, anyway?"

Bill Gates - I have just released the new Chicken Office 2000, which will not only cross roads but will also lay eggs, file your important documents, and balance your checkbook.

Albert Einstein - Whether the chicken crossed the road or the road moved beneath the chicken depends on your frame of reference.

Ralph Waldo Emerson - The chicken did not cross the road... It transcended it.

Ernest Hemingway - To die. In the rain.

Colonel Sanders - I missed one?

Bill Clinton - I did not, and I repeat, I did not have sexual relations with that chicken.

Tax credit makes a difference, more needs to be done

It's that time of year again — the time when we pull out our checkbooks, figure out what we owe in taxes, and send off our money to Washington.

I've heard more than one person complain that taxes remain too high, and the tax code itself remains too complex. There's no getting around the fact that our tax system needs to be reformed. The IRS itself admits it takes the average person nearly 10 hours just to complete a standard 1040 form.

There's also no doubt that taxes continue to take too big a bite out of our wallets. Taxes take a bigger bite out of our economy than at any other time since 1944.

And the Tax Foundation reports that the median two-income family sends over 37 percent of its annual income off to the government.

If there's any good news as we finish filing our returns this week, it's that a lot of parents in our area will be getting a break in the amount of taxes they owe. Congress passed a $400 per child

Issue Update

with Mac Thornberry

tax credit two years ago that goes into effect this year. In the 13th District alone, there are 87,400 children who are eligible for this tax credit. This extra money will mean a lot to parents. But clearly, much more needs to be done.

Last month, the House passed a budget that will cut taxes by $800 billion. This relief will start small, then grow over the next 10 years. While most of the details of this plan have not yet been written, the goal is to send more tax dollars back to you and less to Washington.

If there's a goal worth cheering as we mail our checks to the IRS, that has got to be it.

GET THE FACTS

To: Northern Rolling Plains Cotton Producers

Dear Cotton Growers

Recent propaganda distributed by un-named persons two weeks ago raised several questions about the upcoming boll weevil eradication election in the Northern Rolling Plains. Because we believe that producers with accurate information are vital to the process, we have provided what we believe to be fair answers to the questions below.

Is boll weevil resistant cotton currently being developed?

At the present time, more than 80% of all cotton acreage in the United States is eradicated or under eradication. Therefore, costs associated with research and development of a boll weevil resistant cotton will have to be distributed over the remaining (20%) infested acreage. The current royalty fee for stripper type bollworm resistant cotton varieties is approximately $18 per acre per year. With a diminishing number of weevil-infested acreage in the Cotton Belt, will the seed companies see a need to ever complete the development of a weevil resistant cotton variety? If they do, what will be the royalty fee to the producer? According to a Monsanto representative, boll weevil resistant cotton will not be available for at least 7-10 years, and then only for research purposes. In fact, he added that boll weevil resistant cotton may never be developed for commercial purposes.

Can the program really be started any year?

Cotton producers throughout this area have worked together for nearly two years to develop a plant or eradication. The Texas Legislature is currently considering funding for the next two years and will not be in session again until the year 2001. We are voting now because of this opportunity for the state of Texas to help growers pay for the cost of the program. Without the state's help, growers can not afford the program. Last year, growers in the three active zones in the state had the opportunity to vote to continue or end programs they had initiated earlier. All three zones voted to continue their programs. In fact, growers to the south of us, in the Rolling Plains Central Zone, voted by 86% in favor of continuing their program.

(In response to the reference of Cotton Board CEO's salary, the Cotton Board has nothing to do with the boll weevil eradication program. Referencing other companies' CEO salaries information is just another attempt to confuse voters. The CEO's of IBM or John Deere make several million, but that has nothing to do with this program that was put together by local farmers.)

Can you afford this program with 45 cent cotton?

The whole idea of this program is to reduce the cost of production and make cotton farmers more competitive. Information from the National Cotton Council estimates the average cost of production for cotton farmers in the Southeastern US, an area where growers have eradicated the boll weevil, is around 42 cents per pound, while the average cost of production in this area is estimated to be around 70 cents per pound.

What about the possibility of secondary pest problems?

While the primary goal of the program is to eradicate the boll weevil, the Foundation does take into consideration various biological and climatic factors in program operations in an effort to reduce the possibility of compounding secondary pest problems. This is accomplished through adjusting treatment thresholds during the course of the year to minimize insecticide applications in the middle of the season, which helps to preserve beneficial insect populations. Additionally, effective communication and coordination with growers and consultants is another important aspect that enables the Foundation to carry out proven and successful programs without compounding secondary pest problems. If the secondary pests caused 100% crop losses, why did the three active zones in the state vote to continue their program by 70%, 81%, and 86%.

Are farmers with weevil spray programs pushing for eradication?

Farmers who choose not to control weevils are making the choice to allow weevils to damage their cotton. Not controlling weevils does not diminish their existence nor the damage and the yield loss they cause. Farmers who are pushing for eradication are focused on a better way of life for all cotton farmers in our area.

Will we have control over this program?

The boll weevil program is initiated and run by farmers in each zone. The Foundation Board of Directors consists of grower representatives from each eradication zone across the state. The grower steering committee in our zone will be providing the Foundation with direction and oversight.

As mentioned above, the plan we are voting on does not include any expense for administrative costs, so there are no CEO salaries or any other headquarters salaries in our budget. All of the salaries listed are for local employees, with the zone manager expected to be paid approximately $37,000 per year. (By the way, no Foundation employee receives anywhere near $100,000+ in salary, that statement was just another attempt to confuse or mislead voters.)

Statements pertaining to the incompetence of field personnel are ridiculous. The Foundation will be hiring local folks for these jobs. We believe our local people will do a good job of running our program. It is very disappointing to see misinformation implying that farmers from this area don't know enough to decide what's right based on the facts.

The eradication plan you are being asked to vote for was put together by local growers - representatives of our steering committee. We hope this letter answers your questions. Please consider all the facts. We urge you to contact growers in the Rolling Plains Central Zone who are already benefiting from yield increase and lower production costs.

Whatever you decide, be sure and vote.

Sincerely,

Northern Rolling Plains Grower Steering Committee

Public invited

An offering will be taken to support the eradication program of the Donley County, Ministerial Alliance.

TOP 10 REASONS TO VOTE AGAINST BOLL WEEVIL ERADICATION.

10. Boll Weevil Resistant Cotton is currently being developed. This cotton may be available as early as 2002.
9. Program may be started any year if really needed. Once the program starts, it is almost impossible to stop. i.e., Cotton Board with a CEO salary of $325,000 annually
8. Can you afford this program with 45 cent cotton? Congress promises no more POP or PFC payments after 2002
7. Excessive Administrative Expense. About half of the $32 million budget will be spent even if there is not one acre sprayed.
6. In 40 years, John Q. Smith has never sprayed for weevils. On his 1500 acres of dryland cotton, he will pay $165,000 in eleven years, even if there is no economic weevil damage on his farm.
5. The Ballot makes us Debtors for an Unspecified Time. The program lasts four years, and the assessment continues for eleven years. Cotton acres may decline as farmers avoid the assessment by planting other crops, thereby extending the payout period. Not included in this assessment is the maintenance program that begins in the fifth year.
4. Convert your assessment into cost per bale. If dryland cotton produces 250 lbs./acre, your cost will be $20 per bale, at 125 lbs./acre, it will be $40 per bale
3. Secondary Pest Problems. On top of the assessment, there will be the added expense of controlling secondary pests such as worms and aphids. Historically, 100% crop losses have occurred during eradication programs.
2. Farmers with weevil spray programs are pushing for eradication. They are asking those who never spray to subsidize their operation.
1. You will have no control over this program. CEO Salary ($100,000+), Zone Director's Salary ($53,000+), In-season sprayings, Spray Triggers, Competence of field inspectors, etc.

County children get fingerprinted

The sheriff's department fingerprinted approximately 140 children in the Pre-K through fifth grade, at Clarendon Elementary School on Friday, April 9, 1999.

The Donley County Child Welfare Board and Herb Duncan, 100th Judicial District Investigator, assisted with the project.

The certificates were completed with both hands fingerprinted and the child photographed. These were sent home with the child for the parents for safekeeping.

The fingerprinting continued on Tuesday, April 13, in Hedley with the help of Constable Pecos Hagler and the Child Welfare Board.

It is the hope of the Sheriff's Department, Constable Hagler, and the Child Welfare Board that none of these certificates have to be used to identify missing children from Donley County.

Aggie Muster ceremony to be held in Childress

Former Students of the Texas A&M University will assemble in Childress on April 21 for the annual Texas Aggie Muster, announced Muster Chairs Kyle and Betsy Allen.

The Muster activities consist of a social that will begin at 5:30 and a free barbecue dinner at 6:30 at the Elks Lodge in Childress, located just North of the intersection of Highways 287 and 83, according to the chairman. Muster is open to all former students and their families, parents of students, and friends of Texas A&M.

Texas A&M is in its "Second Century of Greatness." Since 1876, Texas A&M has grown from a small Land Grant College to one of the leading research and educational institutions in the world, now holding the distinction of sea and space grants as well.

The Muster tradition is more than 100 years old. "More than 400 Musters will be held around the world this year," Kyle Allen said, "wherever Texas A&M former students live or work."

During wars, Aggies mustered in foxholes, on the battlefield, aboard ships, in airplanes and in medical hospitals. In World War 1, a Muster was held on Corregidor Island shortly before the Japanese captured it in 1942. Then the Muster was held again when Corregidor was re-captured by the Allies in 1945.

Every Muster ceremony is the same, Allen reported. Texas Aggies pay their respects to all those who are absent because of death since last Muster. When the names of the honored dead are called from the Muster Roll, a friend of the deceased answers, "Here."

This Muster is also a fund raising event for scholarships to be given to graduating high school seniors from the Greenbelt area entering Texas A&M in the fall.
