Texas Tech To Hold 13th Annual Region 1 Band Clinic, Dec. 7-8

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech will hold its 13th Annual Region 1 band Clinic Friday and Saturday, Dec. 7-8th.

More than 50 area high school band directors will gather Friday in the Music Building to study music to be used in the University Interscholastic League Concert band contest this spring, according to Dr. D. O. Wiley, Tech Bands director.

On Saturday, approximately 150 high school musicians will try out for 15 positions in the All-State High School Band, which meets Feb. 15-17 in Dallas.

Performances of UIL contest music will make up a major part of the Friday program. Contest music for Classes A, B, and C will be demonstrated by a select band composed of Lubbock junior high school musicians.

Class AA music will be played by a band of outstanding musicians from Tom S. Lubbock and Monterey High Schools of Lubbock. The Tech "Big Red Band" will play music from the big school AAA and AAAA Classes.

The junior high demonstration bands will play from 9-11:45 a. m. Friday in the Band and Choir Rooms of the Music Buildings. The Tech Band will play from 1-3 p. m. in the Band Room. The Tom S. Lubbock and Monterey joint-band will play from 3-5 p. m. in the Band Room.

Any band director may attend the clinic Friday, but because of the lack of facilities, individual bandmen are not invited, Dr. Wiley explained. Those persons who wish to audition for the All-State Band will join their directors in Lubbock Saturday.

1,500-Acre Tent City To House 4th National Boy Scout Jamboree

America's youngest, newest and busiest city for over 50,000 persons will team with excitement next July 12 to 18. At the moment it doesn't exist.
 A 1,500-acre tent city will house the Fourth National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America at historic Valley Forge in Pennsylvania. In it boys from all walks of life, of all races and creeds will live together, exchanging skills, swap home-town products, and learn about the customs and traditions of many sections of the nation.
 "The purpose of the jamboree," says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, "is to strengthen the program of the individual unit and to provide an opportunity for boys to be associated with Scouts from all parts of their own country. This living together in a spirit of brotherhood and friendship is one of the continuing objectives of our movement and the basis upon which we undertake this gigantic task."
 Valley Forge Park is owned and maintained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which invited the Scouts to camp there. After the jamboree the Scouts will have the grounds restored to their original condition.
 Survey parties are allocating 1,292 troop camp sites each 90 feet by 90 feet. There will be 38 sectional camps each comprising 34 troops of 37 Scouts or Explorers and three adult leaders, and also a sectional staff of forty leaders.
 "The Scout city will have its own water, electric power, and telephone systems, post offices, fire department, medical facilities, an amphitheatre seating 55,000 persons and even its own trading posts.
 It will be a self-sustaining venture with each participant paying his own way.
 Billy Mac Hicks who is attending college at Stephenville spent the Thanksgiving holidays with homefolks.

COTTON MARKETING QUOTAS — 1957

Cotton growers have an important decision to make on Tuesday, December 11, 1956. On that day, growers will vote in a referendum to decide whether marketing quotas will be in effect for their 1957 upland cotton crop. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1956 will be eligible to vote in the referendum. Those who participated in 1956 Upland Cotton Acreage Reserve of the Soil Bank are also eligible.

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas, marketing quotas will be in effect on all farms growing upland cotton in 1957, penalties will apply on "excess" cotton, and price supports to those growers who comply with their cotton acreage allotments will be available at the full level of effective supports. Under current legislation, this support will be between 75 and 90 percent of parity, the minimum level within this range depending upon the supply situation at the time the determination is made.

If more than one-third of the growers disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas or penalties, but price supports to eligible growers (who comply with their allotments) will be available at 50 percent of parity.

In either case, acreage allotments will continue in effect for the 1957 cotton crop as a means of determining eligibility for price support.

Voting places and those chosen to hold the Cotton Marketing Quota Referendum are as follows:

"A" and "C" Communities—County Agent's office in Clarendon. Nollie G. Simmons, Orvel O. Hill, Steve M. Fedric.

"B" Community—Lovell's Store at Ashtola. Horace A. Green, Raymond Waldrop, B. T. Spear.

"D" and "E" Communities—Cook's Store at Lelia Lake. Glen Williams, Elmer Dishman, Oscar Anderson.

"F" and "G" Communities—City Hall at Hedley. Harold L. White, Henry Moore, Vernon M. Patton.

Farm Ownership Loans Obtained From FHA Boosts Cash Income

Annual gross cash income grew from $4,880 to $8,021 in five years for a group of Texas farm families who obtained Farmers Home Administration farm ownership loans in 1950 to buy, enlarge, or improve their farms, the agency's State Director Walter T. McKay reported today.

The average net worth for these Texas farm families advanced from $7,301 before they received their farm ownership loans to approximately $10,900 at the end of their fifth year of operation under that loan program.

Before the loans were made the average family in the group was operating 189 acres but was operating 224 acres in 1955. The combined value of equipment and productive livestock owned by the average family in the group was $4,598 before the loan was made, and was approximately $6,686 in 1955.

Figures showing these advances, together with five-year progress along other lines, come from a survey of 1955 borrowers who obtained loans in 1950. A similar survey is made each year. The 1956 figures will be available in 1957 showing five-year progress made by those who got their loans in 1951.

Farm ownership loans are made to buy family-type farms, enlarge under-sized farms, develop farms, and refinance debts. Funds come from private lenders under the insured loan program or from annually appropriated funds, and are amortized for periods up to 40 years. On an average the loans are repaid in 9 years. Insured loans are limited to 90 percent of the fair and reasonable value of the farm. A loan to buy a family-type farm cannot be made if the fair and reasonable value of the farm is more than the average value of efficient family-type farms in the county.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

by Uncle Zeb

Each Christmas-time when we send our little donation to Boys Ranch and get our certificate showing that we are a Partner

For Life we are always thrilled as we look at this little award. Actually, it is not that any of us merit a certificate, for the real joy is in the fact that there is such a fine place available for so many boys and that we can have the privilege of having a part in this wonderful rewarding work. Thanks Partners.

We always liked the famous quotation that has been attributed to Mark Twain. It goes: "When I was a boy of fourteen, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. When I got to be twenty one I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years.

Most of us can remember the age that we went through when our parents seemed so far back in the ancient ages that we could not imagine their being able to help us cope with the situations we had to face. Later we found that even though the problems might be a bit different in the passing generations but always the solutions to those problems were about the same. Always, through the times the answer stays the same, just; Do your best, and do the right, and you will be victorious in your life.

Read this some place: "You have not lived a perfect day—even though you may have earned your salt—unless you have done something for someone who will never be able to repay you."

Just finished reading a nice letter which we received from Mrs. Millard Word of near Ashtola, Texas. She read our other poems which we used by Ralph S. Cushman, and wants us to pass another one along which she believes will be of comfort to many of those who are shut-ins or have problems in their daily lives that require a lot of courage. I guess just about all of our lives take a bit of courage to face the days battle. Anyway, we hope Mr. Cushman does not mind these requests, and I am sure by the nature of his poems that he would want to share them with those who need them. This one which was Mrs. Word's favorite is as follows:

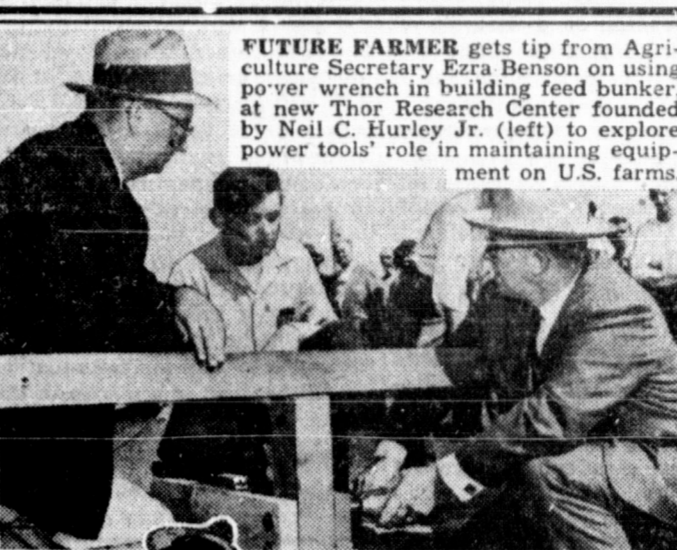

UNDEFEATED

By Ralph S. Cushman
Out of the shame of my coward heart,
Out of my night of defeat—
Lift me, O God, to the battle again,
Cover my bitter retreat.
Out of despising my weakness and rant—
Out of Thy love for my soul—
Purge me, Oh purge me, with hysop, Dear Christ
Give me my spirit made whole.
Beaten, but still undefeated, I pray,
Thou of unconquerable hand—
Reach me my broken saber again,
I pledge Thee—to die, or to stand.
By the wonder of heaven's forgiveness
By the lovely lure of Thy light.
By the spirit of victory eternal
God flung me again to the fight.

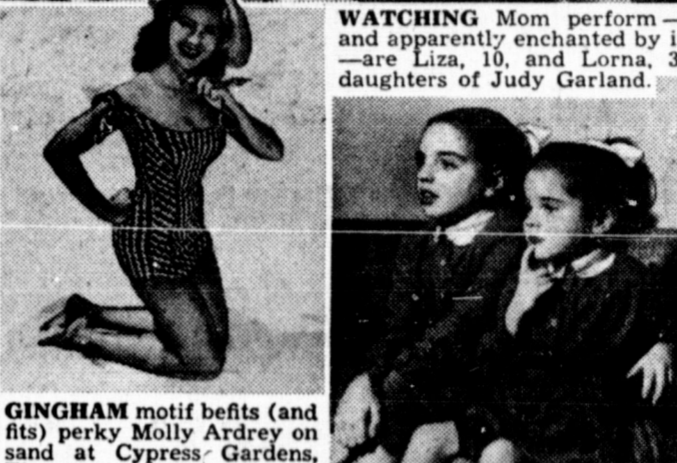

Not long ago we had the thrill of visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Word. It was a real thrill to become acquainted with this wonderful family. Mr. Word, with his quiet friendly likeable way, and the Mrs. with her exciting thrilling and talented personality. We will look forward to visiting them again.

number of years the ACP has offered to share the cost of seeding this kind of land to grass. Several thousand acres in the District have been returned to pasture with financial assistance from the ACP and technical assistance from Soil Conservation Service technicians through the Soil Conservation District. However, many farmers have felt that they could not afford to lose what little income this kind of land was bringing in during the period a grass cover was being established. The Conservation Reserve is designed to meet this need by paying an annual rental for the land for the period it is signed up for—either a five year or a ten year period. In the Donley District, this annual rental is $9.00 per acre. This is in addition to sharing 80% of the average cost of establishing grass on the land. By doing his own work and using his own equipment, most farmers will be able to establish grass on his land with very little cash.

The Donley District has need for such a program as the Conservation Reserve to help it accomplish its conservation objective of "The use of each acre of land within its capabilities and treatment according to its needs." It is hoped that each farmer will carefully consider the needs of his land, seek whatever advice he might need in how it should be treated through his Conservation District, and then take the trouble of finding out how the Conservation Reserve and other programs can assist him in not only becoming a conservation farmer, but making more profit from his farm.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

By now most farmers have heard and read about the Conservation Reserve part of the Soil Bank Bill. This part of the Soil Bank has a two fold purpose. First to reduce production of crops in surplus for a period of from five to ten years, and second, to enable farmers to return land, which should not have been broken out, to pasture. Most farmers in the Donley Soil Conservation District have from a few acres to perhaps a large part of their farm which they know is not suitable for cropland. Some of this land may still be showing a profit, while other has already reached the point where it is no longer profitable to farm. For a

CLARENDON, TEXAS

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

IN THE NICK OF TIME

We recently had an experience which prompts us to make the following observation. In writing to your Senators or Congressman in Washington, always address the envelope to him at the Senate Office Building or the House

DR. H. R. BECK
DENTIST
Goldston Bldg.

Clarendon, Texas Phone 48

Office Building (as the case may be), Washington, D. C. You should also show on the envelope that the addressee is a United States Senator or a Member of Congress. The Post Office Department does an excellent job of getting these communications to the Senators or Representatives with the greatest of haste, realizing no doubt that it is a communication between a citizen of this country and the government under which he or she lives.

The experience to which I refer has to do with a letter that was addressed to me at a house in which I formerly lived here in Washington. A young man who was desirous of entering one of the Service Academies addressed his communication to the residential address because it was a personal matter to him and one of great importance. But, the Rogers Family had moved to another house and the delivery of the letter was substantially delayed. However, it did come into my hands on the day before the date set for the eligibility examination of those boys desiring to compete for appointments to one of the Academies. I was able to get hold of this young man and to get into his hands a wire authorizing him to take the examination. He is a fine young man and it would have been a tragedy if he had missed the opportunity to take the examination simply because of a mixup in the mails.

Many people are under the impression that mail addressed to the office of a Senator or a Member of the House of Representatives very seldom comes to his personal attention, but is handled by a secretary. I cannot speak for other Members of Congress, but I can say that every piece of mail that comes to my office from the 18th Congressional District of Texas, or a person who has legal residence in that District, comes to my personal attention. This is true even though I may not be in the Washington office at the time the mail arrives.

I make these observations so that everyone will know that it is much better to address communications to me at the House Office Building, Washington, D. C. It is a pleasure to receive your letters at my home, but there is much less risk of delay if the letter or wire is sent to the office.

THE WAR SITUATION
Although war might be declared in many quarters in this world before this letter reaches you, it seems to be the general feeling in Washington that the danger of any all-out war has lessened measurably. If Britain, France and Israel withdraw their troops from the Suez area and permit the area to be policed by the United Nations, the danger of any all-out conflict will be lessened considerably more. It is hoped that by the time this communication reaches you these three countries will have agreed to the suggestions of the United Nations and have removed their troops. It is also hoped that by that time work will have commenced on removing the obstacles that are now blocking the Canal. It must be remembered that the accomplishments of these tasks, although a great forward step toward a solution of the problem, will not provide the answer to the fuel shortage in Europe because of the refusal of Arab nations to continue to furnish this oil. This problem is of staggering proportions and upon its proper solution may well depend the answer to the question of whether or not there is another war or peace in our time.

If this Middle East situation can be worked out to an early solution, it will enable the eyes of the entire world to focus on the Hungarian situation and certainly cause Russia some uneasy moments, not only as to the uprising in Budapest but also as to Russian policy in Roumania, Czechoslovakia and Poland. Russia would be in a very untenable position to deny entrance of United Nations observers into the Hungarian Capital. Such developments, as an early solution to the Near East problem, would afford an excellent opening for the Western allies to put Russia into a foreign policy corner where she would be forced to do one of two things. She would have to admit United Nations observers in an effort to try to settle the Hungarian dispute, or openly confess to the world that she was dominating her satellite states by force and arms and did not intend to take any other course.

Hides Sought For Patients

AUSTIN—The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission endorsed as "first rate conservation" the effort by the Texas Tuberculosis Association to collect deer hides for patients to convert to usable objects. "This is a fine program," he said. "And it's a shame that so many deer hides go to waste when good citizens being restored to usefulness are so deserving." Hides will be handled free by motor transport if addressed to: "L. M. Rathbone, Austin Taxidermist Studio, 2709 Fredericksburg Road, Austin." The Navy has set a goal of 47 guided missile vessels for 1961, including the ballistic missile JUPITER, which will travel many times faster than the speed of sound.

It's a Whiz at Everything a car should do

It turns out that the 1957 Buick is far more than just a brand-new automobile.

It turns out that this new '57 Buick is winning the raves with a new kind of going and a new kind of stopping—a new kind of handling and a new kind of road sureness—a new kind of safety and a new kind of comfort.

We'll be specific.

When you press the pedal of a new '57 Buick, the response is literally instant...

Because the high-torque power of a new 364-cubic-inch V8 engine is delivered in the split of a second through a new full-range Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that's immediate in its oil-smooth action.

When you brake to a stop, you and the car stay on a level plane...

Because an ingenious new ball-joint suspension in every '57 Buick virtually ends the down-in-front dip that cars have on sudden stops.

When you take a turn or swing into an "S" curve, you still hug the road like a streamliner on rails—

Because under you is a massive wide-frame new chassis that "nests" the whole car inches closer to the road with the lowest center of gravity in Buick history—yet with no change in road clearance.

And when you sit in the deep comfort of those soft wide seats, you can drive with the pleasant ease of a clear conscience, without watching the speedometer...

Because only in Buick today can you have an ingenious new Safety-Minder* that acts as a warning sentinel for the miles-per-hour you preset for yourself.

There are many other new things that make this gorgeous Buick a car of limitless wonders—from the bigger and more rakish windshield that makes seeing more relieving, to the extra roominess that's so surprising in this beauty with the sports-car lowness.

But there's nothing like a firsthand sampling to know how modern the newest thing on wheels really is. Come in today for your meeting with the newest Buick yet.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special. Safety-Minder standard on Roadmaster, optional other Series.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — Austin's feud over O. Henry's "Honeymoon house" has people over the state taking sides. Bone of contention is a weather-beaten frame cottage where the famed short story writer took his bride 69 years ago. History-lovers want to preserve it as a "beautiful tribute." Austin Heritage Society gained City Council permission to move it into a park adjoining an exclusive westside residential area.

Nearby homeowners call it a "vermin-infested junk heap." They say they'll sue.

While park-lovers fumed, history-lovers got the house loaded on a truck, began inching it into the park. Stories went out across the country and brought back a tide of advice for each group. But no solution.

CO-OP CASE REOPENED

Texas Supreme Court has agreed to take another look at a case to decide electric power selling rights.

Issue is whether rural electric cooperatives can continue service in areas after they are annexed by cities. In August the Supreme Court refused to review lower court decisions in favor of the co-ops.

Suit was brought by the attorney general, numerous private utility companies and the League of Texas Municipalities. On the other side is the Upshur Rural Electric Cooperative, backed by 54 other co-ops and the City of Gilmer.

Private utilities contend the law restricts co-ops to towns of 1,500 or less. Co-ops say they can't be thrown out once they've legally entered an area.

No date for arguments was set by the high court.

STATE WINS PRIZE MONEY

Businesses offering prizes to customers must pay a 20 per cent state tax, according to court ruling.

Third Court of Civil Appeals so judged in a suit against Mrs.

Tucker Foods, Inc. It offered coupons worth 15, 25 and 50 cents with cans of shortening. Attorneys for the firm argued the prize tax applied only to theaters and places of amusements.

District and appeals courts interpreted the statute as apply to "any business enterprise."

HOSPITAL DIRECTOR RESIGNS

Dr. James Bethea, executive director of the State Hospital System since 1953, has resigned effective June 1.

Dr. Bethea will be 70, statutory age for retirement, next October. He said he submitted his resignation early to give the state hospital board plenty of time to pick a successor.

Board members will take up the matter at their next meeting Dec. 10.

DROUGHT UPS WELFARE PAYMENTS

Impact of the drought is reflected in climbing old age payments, says the Department of Public Welfare.

In its annual report the department said it added 533 to the old age rolls during fiscal 1956, compared to only 90 the year before. Drought, it said, reduced income, not only of oldsters, but of children and relatives who helped support them. Total old age assistance payments for 1956 were $111,410,645, parceled out in monthly payments from $5 to $55. Average was $41.71. Cost is paid 33 per cent from state funds, 67 per cent from federal funds.

"YOUNG TEXAN" JURY

Picking of the five outstanding young Texans of 1956 is under way. Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced the committee which will name the honorees.

They are Ben H. Wooten, president of the First National Bank Dallas; T. Harrington, chancellor of Texas A&M College; Vern Sanford of Austin, manager of the Texas Press Association; Walter G. Wright, president of the General Telephone Co.; Malcolm Meek, Abilene bank president; Dr. Stanley W. Olson, president of Baylor University College of Medicine in Houston; and Tom Sealy of Midland, chairman of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas.

Texans, despite their reputation for boosting the home state, find they can hardly outdo the latest account by outsiders.

U. S. News and World Report devoted 17 glowing pages to "the new powerhouse of the United States." Post-war industrial boom, says the magazine, has made the state a "modernized Goliath." It's "an empire that keeps getting mightier," says the report, because it's "so big and so naturally rich."

Statistics cited: factory output, up 690 per cent since 1939; business activity, up 488 per cent; oil and gas production, up 468 per cent; construction, up 303 per cent.

Conclude the editors: "The United States is finding more and more that it cannot get along without Texas."

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

We have some books for the Junior readers and children. These were purchased with the Porter Memorial Fund to be used where needed and these were truly what we had an eager demand for. For the juniors are "The Real Book About Ships," "The Real Book About Submarines," "The Helicopter Book," and "The Horse of Hurricane Hill" by C. W. Anderson, and illustrated by him. The children's books are Berta & Elmer Hader's "The Runaways" which is a lovely edition, and another "Willie Mouse." This time he is in the hospital. Pauline Vinson has developed this little mouse character into an enchanting creature. We lack one of the series where he is at the seashore. I'll order it soon.

A book given by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Sawyer in memory of Mr. Ralph Porter, is "The Living of These Days." It is an autobiography of Harry Emerson Fosdick, that will be appreciated by his many admirers.

The adult readers of Electra read 1 1/2 times more in fiction than the juvenile readers, and also more science, religion, literature, history, biography and philosophy than the juveniles read of every class of reading. Our adult readers are a very small enrollment. Children surely patronize the Library. Our list of new books compare very favorably with those Libraries with

Postmaster Asks For Special Cooperation In Christmas Mailing

Postmaster Ray Moore said today that while the Post Office still has a tremendous job ahead of it, efforts are being redoubled to deliver all mail on time and in good condition by Christmas Eve. He points out that by taking a little extra care with your Christmas mailings now, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones at Christmas time.

He asks for your special cooperation to be sure that your return address and the recipient's address are plainly typed or written on all labels and Christmas cards. Use zone numbers, and it's a good idea to include an extra-label inside your packages. Parcel Post size and weight limitations vary according to destination. Ask about them when you go to the Post Office to buy stamps.

Speaking about stamps, the Postmaster said, "Use three cent postage on all your Christmas cards. This way they will be delivered promptly, and forwarded or returned, if necessary, providing you include your name and address on your Christmas card envelopes." First-Class postage on your Christmas cards enables you to include handwritten messages, thus making your Christmas greetings more personal. By including your name and address on each Christmas card envelope, both you and your friends can keep your mailing lists up-to-date.

The Postmaster urges that you mail all of your out-of-town Christmas cards and packages immediately, and certainly not later than December 10th. Christmas mail for local addresses should be started on its way at least a week before Christmas.

Best thing about portable irrigation is that you get water where and when you want it. Hilly terrain is no problem. Sandy soil that sucks water out of ordinary irrigation ditches is no problem.

Portable irrigation is as precise as watering each plant by hand.

What does this freedom from dry spells and troublesome terrain cost? A lot less than you think. We know farmers, right in this county, who have paid for their systems in two years—three years. They did it with better crops. By getting to market first. By being independent of drought.

Call us or stop in today and let us show you how to engineer a portable irrigation system to your farm. We carry complete systems, parts and the very finest Alcoa Aluminum Pipe.

"Texas In Review" To Show Flying Queens In Action Soon

PLAINVIEW — Wayland College's Hutcherson Flying Queens become movie queens on the night of Dec. 6 when they play the Texarkana Junior College team in Plainview because Humble Oil Company's "Texas In Review" television photographer will be taking on-the-scene movies of the three-time National AAU Women's Basketball team.

Tickets for this game, which will be played at 8:30 p. m., and the Wayland Pioneer's game with St. Michael's of Santa Fe which precedes it are now on sale. Season tickets are good for the game but those who wish to see a "Texas in Review" program filmed may purchase single tickets, according to Coach Harley J. Redin.

The photographer will be spending three days on the campus to film the queens, how they live, their training, their diet, social activities, their classes, their ever mounting number of trophies and sponsors. Mr. and

Mrs. Claude Hutcherson, Plainview, who fly them to their games in all parts of the United States and Mexico so they can compete with the outstanding women's teams.

The Wayland queens, all bona fide college students, are set to try for a fourth national championship and to acquire one of the few remaining unreached records. This record of 102 consecutive wins is held by the fabulous Hanes Hosiery team which the Wayland Queens chopped off to begin their climb to three national championships. If they win 27 consecutive games this year, they have this record as they have already won 78 games.

The Flying Queens, with their 13 players, hope this will be their lucky year, although eight of these have had limited tournament play. Seniors, Rita Alexander, Loco, Okla., two-time All American, and Alice Barron, Georgetown, Texas, are co-captains. Juniors are: Dorothy Cannon, Cotton Center, Texas; Kaye Garms, Kingfisher, Okla., one-time All American; and Louise Short, Gallatin, one-time All American, with the seniors are mainstays of the team. Sophomores are: Judy Bugher, Lexington, Okla.; Joyce Kite, Craig, Mo.; Margaret Odom, Dimmitt, Texas; Mona Poff, Elk City, Okla.; and Kay Williams, Panhandle, Texas. Three freshmen were added to the squad this year: Carolyn Miller, Palestine, Texas; Patsy Neal, Elberton, Ga.; and Belva Ramsey, Morton, Tex.
