Services Held Sunday For Lynn Leathers

Local residents were saddened last Friday morning when it was learned that Aubrey Lynn Leathers, prominent young business man, passed away at 4:45 A. M. in the local hospital from a blood infection. He was injured Wednesday when a horse he was riding at his father's farm ran into a dead tree, pushing a small limb into his leg. He thought the injury not too serious and waited until late evening before going to the hospital.

Leathers, 27, and his wife Jane, owned and operated the Leathers Studio, a business they had purchased from Earl Alderson two years ago. Lynn was active in civic affairs, devoting time to the Chamber of Commerce and various other civic projects.

He was a native of Donley County and had lived here all his life. He was a deacon of the First Baptist Church and was a member of the Naval Reserve unit in Amarillo. He was also a member of the Clarendon Masonic Lodge.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church with Rev. W. F. Vandenberg, pastor, and the Rev. Larry Molane, pastor of the Lelia Lake Baptist Church, officiating. Graveside services were conducted by the Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Jane; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kinch Leathers of Lelia Lake, and his grandfather, A. J. Harp of Clarendon.

Pallbearers were David Bennett, F. O. Hodge, Jiggs Mann, Joe Lovell, Jerry Shew, and Billy Phillips.

Burial was in Citizens Cemetery with funeral arrangements under the direction of Murphy Funeral Home.

Gordon Moore Receives Critical Injuries In Truck Crash

Gordon Moore, husband of Mrs. Wanda Moore and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore of this city, is reported doing as well as can be expected in a Hobart, Oklahoma hospital. He has regained consciousness but it will be some time yet before he can be moved. His condition is described as still critical.

The following is a reprint from the Friday, Feb. 7 issue of the Hobart Democrat-Chief describing the accident:

A Roosevelt truck driver and a 23-year-old Clarendon trucker were in serious condition in Carnegie and Hobart hospitals today as result of an out-of-the-ordinary traffic accident Thursday evening.

Hospitalized at Carnegie, George W. Clark, Roosevelt, is suffering severe forehead lacerations, a fractured skull, probable internal injuries, lacerations and broken right foot, according to trooper Robert Willis, Hobart.

Gordon Glen Moore, Clarendon, is a patient at General hospital, Hobart, where he is under care for a fractured nose and facial bones, concussion, hemorrhaging of the lungs and broken left foot.

Both men's injuries resulted from a head-on crash one half mile west of Mt. View on SH 9 at 5:30 p. m. Thursday.

Clark, driving a truck tractor and semi-trailer, was traveling west. He apparently approached the underpass of the railroad, which spans a highway bridge on a curve, at too high a rate of speed, Trooper Willis said.

Approaching from the west, and traveling east at the same point, was Gordon Glen Moore, also driving a truck tractor semi-trailer. Clark appeared to have seen the approaching truck, noting that the two vehicles would meet on the bridge. He started trying to slow down, the trooper stated. "When he hit his brakes, the truck jack-knifed and Clark crossed the center road line, striking the Moore truck head on. Moore was thrown from his truck cab down into the gully under the bridge."

Clark was pinned in his vehicle for about 45 minutes because the motor, dashboard and steering column were thrust against his body, making it impossible for him to move. "It took a winch truck and line, tied around the steering column to release him sufficiently so that he could get out," Willis related. He was still conscious at the time. The road was blocked to traffic for two hours while two winch trucks and a wrecker cleared the highway.

"It was necessary to tie a pulley up onto the railroad bridge overhead, lift one of the trucks up, and another pulley stretched across the road bridge to pull the other truck back onto the road from where it hung on the edge of the cliff-like drop off," the trooper stated. Both trucks were demolished.

Moore was driving a truck owned by F. J. Hommel and was on his way to pick up a load of hay when the accident occurred.

Bronchos To Meet Memphis Tuesday Night Here

The high school basketball games scheduled with Memphis last Tuesday night were postponed and will be played next Tuesday night here.

The Cyclones are the only remaining stumbling block in the Bronchos' way to their second district championship in the last two years. If the Bronchos can beat the Cyclones they will win the crown outright. The Bronchos clinched a tie for the championship with their win over Canadlan last Friday night.

The girls will also play, however the local girls are out of contention for any share of the championship. The McLean girls are still undefeated in district play. The girls game will begin at 7:00 o'clock.

Services At Borger For Ed Crouch

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Nazarene Church in Borger for John Edward Crouch with Rev. Amos R. Meador officiating.

Mr. Crouch, 64, died at his home here Saturday morning. He was a carpenter and had been a resident of Clarendon the past three years.

Survivors are his wife, Viola M. Crouch; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Wright of Pampa, Mrs. Melba Kuehl of Booker, and Miss Patsy Crouch of Clarendon; two sons, Robert of Pampa and Jimmy of Amarillo; one step-daughter, Mrs. Velma Price of Borger; one brother, Joe Crouch of Eureka, Kan.; two sisters, Mrs. Maude Pyle of Emporia, Kan., and Mrs. Sadie McCoy of Neal, Kan.; 13 grandchildren and one step-grandchild.

Pallbearers were Babe Hamilton, Haskel Evans, Walton Price, L. C. Myers, Jack Hood and Phil Alexander.

Burial was in Highland Park Cemetery at Borger with the Murphy Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Episcopal Church To Have Pancake Supper

St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church will observe Shrove Tuesday with a pancake supper at the Mission Hall at 6:30 p. m. February 18th.

The public is invited to this traditional event, Ben Williams, senior warden, said.

The pancake supper, long an annual affair in the church over the world, grew out of a custom of disposing of all fats in the households of church communicants who fasted during Lent. The Lenten season begins the following day, Ash Wednesday.

Men of the church will prepare and serve the supper.

Comets Meet NBC Here Tonight

The Clarendon Junior College Comets will meet the Nashville Business College team from Nashville, Tennessee, here tonight beginning at 8:00 o'clock. This is the second game in two nights for the two high ranking girls' basketball teams.

NBC and Clarendon can always be counted upon for good games. Last year they split their two games here, each team winning their game by a two-point margin. NBC has a veteran team and always finishes high in the National AAU Tournament.

Meeting Scheduled at Mulkey Theatre Beginning At 9:00 A. M.

Bulldogs To Play Last Home Game Friday Night

The CJC Bulldogs will play before the home folks for the last time this season Friday night when they meet the Howard County Junior College team. Game is due to get underway at 8:00 o'clock. They journey to Amarillo next Tuesday night for their last regular scheduled game of the season.

The Bulldogs now have won three and lost three in conference play. The Frank Phillips Plainsmen are on top with four wins and only one loss. Clarendon and Odessa are tied for second place with 3-3 records; Amarillo is in fourth place with two wins and three losses and Howard County is in the cellar with one win and three defeats. The Bulldogs will have to win their remaining two games in order to have anything to say about the championship. Frank Phillips still has to go to Big Spring, Odessa and Amarillo and should they lose two of those games and the Bulldogs win their remaining two, the two teams would again tie for the conference title.

MEDICAL ROUND-UP MENTAL ILLNESS

By Dr. Walter C. Alvarez

The National Association for Mental Health recently has been pointing out that mental disease is so common that one in five of the families in this nation is likely to be distressed by some involvement with it. My good friend, that distinguished psychiatrist, Dr. Francis Braceland, recently said that one in 10 of the children now being born will some day have trouble with mental disease. Certainly, then, it would seem as if we Americans ought to start trying to do something about the situation. Many mental hospitals today are so overcrowded and under-staffed that the doctors cannot do very much more than to take care of the patient's physical needs. In the better hospitals, in which the doctors can strive to treat the patients, many are helped and enabled to go home.

Today some 750,000 people are under care in mental hospitals, and there are many more outside who are so mildly upset that they can be cared for at home. Some of them even keep at work. It is alarming to see that the number of people in our mental hospitals has been increasing rapidly.

As the National Association for Mental Health is now pointing out, there are a number of ideas at present commonly held in regard to psychosis which must be combated. In the first place, mental illness is not hopeless. Many of the people who have to go into a mental hospital are later sent home, either cured or much improved.

One of the worst ideas lay people, and even we physicians get is that all the persons who are mentally ill are either violent and dangerous or silent and withdrawn. Actually, many a psychotic patient who needs shock treatments or even institutional care, will come into my office and chat with me most intelligently and sanely about his problem and what should be done for him. Many of the people in a mental hospital are sensible and sane enough so long as they are locked up away from alcohol or drugs or unfortunately chosen friends.

Another very harmful idea that people in affected families often get is that if their brother who is mentally ill would only use some will power he could quit worrying and "snap out of it." What the relatives do not see is that, for a time, the brother's will power is not functioning; it is very ill. Usually, also the man is mixed up in his thinking, and if his relatives heard the voices he hears or were driven by the awful fears or distrustings or hates that drive him, they, also, would be psychotic.

Another very bad idea that most people have is that mental illness is a terrible disease.

Actually, there is no reason why it should be any more disgraceful than is a brain tumor or a stroke or an attack of brain fever. We'll never get anywhere in the way of helping persons with mental troubles until we get rid of this crazy idea that the family or the patient is disgraced by mental illness. We must all remember that 50 years ago, when I was a boy, to have tuberculosis or cancer was considered to be a terrible disgrace. It takes us humans a long time to get rid of a wrong idea. Four hundred years before Christ a great Greek physician showed that there was no reason for a person's feeling any disgrace about epilepsy, and yet today, we doctors are having to fight hard to rid people of that idea.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bryan of Amarillo visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitlock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Whitlock and Larry and a friend, Jack, of Amarillo visited Sunday afternoon with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitlock.

Bronchos Cinch Tie With Win Over Canadian

The Clarendon High School Bronchos cinched a tie for the championship of District 2-A last Friday night with a 50 to 42 win over the Canadian Wildcats at Canadian. The girls lost to Canadian 35 to 33.

Keith Schollenberger paced the Bronchos attack with 23 points followed by Jerald Hill and Jerry Behrens with 20 each. The game was close all the way with the Wildcats holding a 13 to 10 advantage at the end of the first quarter. The Bronchos pulled in to a 25 to 23 lead at halftime and were ahead 38 to 33 at the three-quarter mark.

The girls, playing without the services of their leading scorer, Joan Bennett, played a hard game before bowing before the Canadian girls 35 to 33. Virginia Taylor made 15 points and Pat Spurgeon came in with 11 for the local girls. The game was close all the way with Canadian holding from a two to five point lead throughout the game. Canadian led at the first quarter 14 to 10, held a 20 to 18-halftime advantage and were ahead 28 to 26 at the end of the third quarter.

Hale-Aikin Committee Approves "Grassroots" Study Procedure

The Hale-Aikin Committee of 24 has approved a "grassroots" study procedure which should yield at least 42,418 separate replies (167 in each county's report) to questions which the Committee believes are pertinent to its state-wide survey of the public schools.

State Representative L. DeWitt Hale, vice-chairman of the Committee and co-sponsor with Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr. of the legislation which authorized the public school study, said today that he and other legislators plan to make direct use of all 254 county reports in determining what school legislation, if any, may be needed.

"Twenty-five thousand copies of the study guide prepared by the Hale-Aikin Committee will be mailed throughout Texas before February 15," the Corpus Christi legislator said. "It will be obvious to all persons requesting and using the 44-page study guide that much research and many group meetings will be needed in each county if the local committees are to fulfill their responsibilities in this study."

Representative Hale said all local committees are invited to add questions of their own choosing.

Clarification Made Between GWSRF And March of Dimes

A clarification of the relationship between the March of Dimes (National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis) and the Gonzales Warm Springs Rehabilitation Foundation was made by Ralph Murray, Warm Springs field representative, who visited in Clarendon Tuesday, Jan. 20th.

"A lot of Texans mistakenly believe that Warm Springs is operated by the March of Dimes, and they also are unaware that many patients other than polio victims are treated at Gonzales," Murray said.

The National Foundation picks up the tab for most of the polio cases treated at Warm Springs and other treatment facilities, he stated. Warm Springs, on the other hand, has its own fund-raising efforts to assure victims of strokes and accidents of all kinds as well as such diseases as cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, etc. that they will not be denied treatment for lack of funds.

Murray said that while the number of polio patients has naturally been reduced as the result of the Salk vaccine, he could verify the March of Dimes' assertion that rehabilitation on many "old" polio victims is a long way from complete. "We urge everyone to support this year's March of Dimes to the limit," he said.

Gonzales Warm Springs Rehabilitation Foundation is a non-profit rehabilitation center chartered under Texas laws. It is fully accredited and recognized as one of the outstanding comprehensive rehabilitation centers in the nation, Murray said.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gattis and children of Earth visited the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Landers and Mrs. T. H. Gattis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Mooring and Rickey of Amarillo visited the week end with their parents, the Bownds and the Moorings.

Each County Committee has been encouraged to organize, and conduct the study in any suitable manner. In many counties, each school district is making a district study before reporting to the over-all County Committee. Other counties are conducting the study through four sub-committees, one for each of the major study topics of School Program, Teacher Supply, School Construction, and School Finance.

"Regardless of the procedure used, it is important that every school district be ably represented in all the county meetings," Representative Hale said. "A full and open discussion of the school problems in each county will provide a sound basis for the County Committee to prepare and approve an official report that reflects the public opinion and the school needs of the county."

THE DONLEY COUNTY LEADER

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — By 1962 the first wave of the state's "war babies"—probably hundreds of thousands of them—will be seeking a college education in Texas.

Time to get ready for them is now, says the Commission on Higher Education.

Created by the Legislature in 1955, the Commission has spent some two years getting organized and gathering facts. Now, says the Commission's director, Dr. Ralph T. Green, it is ready to start making some "firm recommendations," beginning with its meeting Feb. 10 in Denton.

Commission has the responsibility for studying the needs and problems of all 18 state supported college and universities and making recommendations and appropriation requests for them to the Legislature.

Commission staff has done extensive research in areas of professor's salaries, how many students take what courses and possible need for more branches and courses in certain areas.

Several cities have been actively demanding senior college status for their junior colleges.

Commission is to have recommendations on this later.

At present, says Dr. Green, Texas' 18 state colleges have some 77,913 students. By 1962, he predicted, they will have 102,000.

Statewide, the possibilities are even more overwhelming. There are some 160,000 students in both state and private colleges now, said Dr. Green, but by '62 there will be an estimated 320,000 prospective college students.

Exact figures are not possible, of course, he said, but "there's no getting around it, the kids are there. It's almost frightening to foresee this tremendous volume and know, too, that standards must be raised to meet demands for improved scientific and technical training. But with good planning, we can do it."

POLIO PLUMMETS

Best news from the State Health Department recently is the 1957 polio figures—lowest in a decade.

Total for 1957 was 734 cases, just a little over half the 1956 total 1,307 and less than one-fourth the peak year of 1952 (3,984).

BUSY MANEUVER MAN—Master Sergeant Thomas F. Brett of Philadelphia, operations sergeant for a rifle battalion of the Fourth Armored Division at Fort Hood, Tex., doesn't get much sleep during combat exercises as he communicates with all units and maps the ever-changing tactical situation.

Department officials said they expect a continued, but more gradual decline, as more people take the vaccine. Shots are not likely ever to stamp out the disease completely, they said, since the vaccine does not prevent non-paralytic polio.

COME AND SEE US

Texans can garner many millions in out-of-state dollars by learning to be good hosts to tourists.

Said Tom Taylor, manager of information and statistics for the State Highway Department, "The tourist industry is one of the easiest in the world to promote. Every community has something to offer. But many Texans don't know enough about their own communities to give directions."

Considering the scarcity of promotion, said Taylor in a speech to the Texas Motor Transportation Association, it was surprising to note that Texas is fifth among the states in number of tourists. It was a $500,000,000 industry in 1957, he said, bringing Texans more income than cotton, cattle and wheat combined.

But, Taylor noted, competition from other states is getting stiffer, and Texans will have to work harder to get out-of-staters to spend their vacation money here.

SCHOOL QUESTIONS TO GO OUT

Some 25,000 manuals are to be mailed to counties by Feb. 15 for use in a massive study of Texas public schools.

Study guides are being sent out by the Hale-Aikin Committee which is to report to the next Legislature on school needs. County leaders will distribute the 44 page study guides to the local school districts. It is hoped that answers and suggestions will be worked out in a series of group meetings in each area.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale, vice chairman of the study committee, said local groups should feel free to add more topics of their own. Study guide has 167 questions.

If people all over the state respond with facts, ideas and suggestions, the committee will have some 42,000 replies to serve as basis for its recommendations.

MORE COTTON ASKED

Texas should be allowed to produce more cotton this year to meet a demand for better grades, says Agriculture Commissioner John White.

Despite the cotton surplus in storage, there is a shortage of middling grades and an active demand for better grades, said White. Because of the end of the drought, he said Texas had an excellent chance to produce high quality cotton this year for the first time in eight years.

YOUR DOG AND FLEAS

By Dr. E. M. Gildow, D.V.M.
Director, Friskies Research Kennels

Fleas' chief purpose in life seems to be to annoy dogs—and this they do with a zest and efficiency unmatched by any other insect. They also have a sideline—that is, they are the intermediate host of the dog tapeworm. Consequently, when a dog actually catches a flea and swallows it, he may be infecting himself with tapeworms. Fortunately for dogs, though, fleas aren't too hard to get rid of. There are a number of excellent preparations on the market that come in both powder and liquid form. The new parasitocides such as D.D.T., chloroquine and Lindane are preferred. For fleas they're usually mixed with other ingredients in powder or liquid form and act as a residual flea-control agent. Be sure to prevent the development of fleas around the house and yard by using these same parasitocides in the nest box, doghouse or yard.

If the dog is allowed to associate with other dogs or to have the run of the neighborhood, he will probably pick up a new supply of fleas. So deflea the pooch anytime he needs it. Flea eggs develop into fleas more rapidly during warm weather. This accounts for the greater flea problem during summer-time. If you have any doubt about the right flea-control approach, call your veterinarian.

Feeding Tip: A puppy's food requirements increase rapidly. Be sure to increase the food supply as he grows. He may double his food intake in merely a week's time.

Comets Split Series With Iowa Wesleyan

The Clarendon Junior College Comets and the Iowa Wesleyan Tigerets split even in their two game basketball series here last week. The visitors, who played Wayland in the National Tournament finals last year, took Wednesday night's game 49 to 42, but the young and inexperienced but never-say-die Comets came back and took Thursday night's game 39 to 29.

The Comets were not to be denied in Thursday night's game. Playing with only two sophomores, the young Comets simply out-hustled and out-fought the taller and more experienced Iowa Wesleyan team. The two teams fought on even terms for three quarters. The Comets had an 11-10 lead at the end of the first quarter and the score was tied at 16-all at the half. The Comets pulled into a slim 24 to 22 lead at the three-quarter mark and finished strong for the 10 point margin in the fourth period.

Dovie Smithson, tall freshman from Dimmitt, led the Comet scorers with 10 points followed by Virginia Sellers, another freshman, with 9. Myrlene Nichols came in with seven points. Janice Martin and Nancy Chalenor had four each, Kathryn Edwards made three and Linda Lindsey and Myrna Carney made one each. However, it was the great defensive work of Smithson, Edwards, Carney and Martin that saved the game for the Comets. They repeatedly kept the sharp-shooting Iowa girls off balance and intercepted numerous passes. Nancy Chalenor, speedy little freshman forward from Plano, also did great work toward stalling the ball in the closing minutes of the game.

In Wednesday night's game, Smithson was high scorer with 18 points, Martin made nine, Edwards and Chalenor made five each, Carney three and Lindsey two. Nichols and Sellers also played in this game but did not score. The Comets were fighting an uphill battle all the way in this game. The visitors commanded an 8 to 6 first quarter lead and stretched it to 26 to 18 at the half. The Comets pulled up to within five points in the third quarter but could never get any closer. The Tigerets led 36 to 31 at the third quarter intermission.

Dorothy Fiete was the outstanding player on the Iowa Wesleyan team. She made 18 points Wednesday night and seven Thursday night and played great on defense in both games. Barbara Sipes, the six feet three inch three time All-American did not play her usual fine brand of ball. She was held to nine points, including only two field goals, in the two games. Dovie Smithson did a great job guarding Miss Sipes. However, she did help her team greatly on defense and picking off rebounds.

Bulldogs Lose Ground With Three Losses

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs went from first place to a tie for second place in the West Zone Junior College Conference standing with three defeats in as many games last week-end and on Tuesday night of this week. Last Friday night the Bulldogs lost to Howard County Junior College 69 to 68 in an overtime game at Big Spring, and went to Odessa Saturday night and were defeated 72 to 69. Tuesday night of this week they went to Borger and were soundly trounced by the Frank Phillips Plainsmen 83 to 64.

In the Howard County game, the Bulldogs trailed at the half 36 to 34 and the regulation game ended 60-60. Dennis Love was high point man for the Bulldogs with 24 points. Steve Jarnigan led the way in the Odessa game with 21 points. Odessa was ahead at the half by a score of 38 to 30.

The Bulldogs were cold against Frank Phillips Tuesday night. Frank Phillips school officials refused Coach Travis' request to postpone the game on account of the snow and hazardous road conditions. It took the coach and the boys some three and a half hours to get to Borger, arriving shortly before game time.

The Bulldogs were behind 31 to 25 at the half and were six points behind with four minutes to go when the Plainsmen broke loose and iced the game away. Loyd Stephens made 24 points to lead the Bulldogs scoring.

June Day of Amarillo spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Day.

National FFA Week Set For Feb. 22 - March 1

Future Farmers of America members throughout the nation are scheduling special activities to focus public attention on the work of their organization during National F.F.A. Week, February 22nd - March 1st.

Locally, members of the Clarendon F.F.A. Chapter plan programs at the Lions Club, at school assembly, and their greenhand initiation as part of their participation in the national observation of Future Farmer Week.

Membership of the F.F.A. is made up largely of farm or rural youths who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed primarily to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishment in farming.

The Clarendon FFA chapter has 70 members and is the second largest one-teacher department among the almost one hundred schools in Area I. Officers are James Mahaffey, president; Carl Talley, vice president; Keith Schollenbarger, secretary; Milton Mann, treasurer; John Morrow, sentinel, and Harold Lindley, reporter. J. R. Gillham, vocational agriculture instructor in Clarendon High School, serves as adviser of the FFA Chapter.

Texas has over 36,000 members in 904 chapters, and the national organization of Future Farmers has 380,000 members with 9,000 local chapters in 48 states, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

Future Farmers choose the week of George Washington's birthday each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War General and our first President, Washington's first love was the farm he called Mount Vernon. There, he was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotations, fertilization, and other soil conservation and improvement methods. It was more than a century after Washington's death before general use was made of many of the sound agricultural practices that he advocated.

Palmer Motor Company Parts Man Dies From Accident Injuries

Ronald M. Johnson, 18, parts man for Palmer Motor Co., died in a Liberal, Kansas hospital Saturday night a few hours after he lost control of his car at a curve on U. S. 54 highway a quarter mile south of Hooker, Okla., according to Oklahoma Trooper O. C. Burgess.

Burgess said the car careened 320 feet, overturning several times in a ditch. Johnson suffered shock and a skull fracture.

Johnson was on his way home to Guymon when the accident occurred. He had been employed at the Palmer Motor Co. here about five weeks. Funeral services were held in Guymon Tuesday.

More Fluffy Snow Nets .24 Inch Moisture

Snow which began falling here in earnest Tuesday morning left a three to four inch covering of fine, fluffy snow and measured out a total of .24 inch of moisture to bring our monthly total up to .40 so far. We received .16 from another snow last Thursday night. Our total moisture for February last year was 1.13, so we still need more snow to bring our total on up if we match the '57 total. The low temperature during the spell was 17 degrees Tuesday night and the high Tuesday was 27 degrees.

Very little wind accompanied the snow allowing it to fall evenly and stack up on trees, etc. with no drifts. It made streets slick and vehicles had trouble going places. Only a few minor collisions were reported.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

And Ye Shall Know The Truth, And The Truth Shall Make You Free. St. John 8:32

The present heated controversy over pay or subscription television has brought me many letters. Some of these would indicate that the writers are under the impression that there is a present danger of people losing the rights they now enjoy in receiving television programs unless they are willing to pay a price for these programs. Others indicate an understanding that there is a move afoot to charge for all of the good programs and only permit the bad ones and the commercials to come over the set without charge. These and other misunderstandings caused me to call to mind the above quotation. I have always subscribed to the policy that the best and quickest solution to any problem in this country is for the people to have the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth concerning it. Armed with such weapons, we can always depend upon the people of our country to come up with the right answer. It is for that and other reasons that I will try to give you a brief but straightforward story about the pay television controversy.

In the first place, YOU ARE NOT GOING TO BE REQUIRED TO PAY FOR THE TELEVISION PROGRAMS THAT YOU ARE NOW RECEIVING. PLEASE DO NOT WORRY ABOUT THAT ANY LONGER.

The question of whether or not to allow pay television has been before the Federal Communications Commission for 6 years. 73 volumes of testimony were taken, and on October 17, 1957, the Commission issued a report. This report, in effect, invited applicants to apply for subscription or pay television licenses on a trial basis. The trial would be for a period of not more than 3 years, beginning after March 1, 1958. The trial or test could be tried only in cities having 4 or more first class channels. This means that the test could not be operated in the Panhandle of Texas or in that general area, unless additional channels were authorized. Other stringent regulations and restrictions would be on those applicants who were allowed to run such a test. The only cities in Texas which would be affected, according to the Federal Communications Commission release, are Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. I would think that Houston would also be in this category.

The real issue with which the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the Congress is presently concerned has to do with whether or not the Federal Communications Commission has the power, the authority or the jurisdiction to authorize these limited tests. There is no proposal before the Congress at this time to take away the television rights and privileges which you now enjoy. Should such a proposal ever be made, it would fail utterly.

I am a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and a member of the Transportation and Communications Subcommittee, both of which have jurisdiction over the communications systems in this country which are engaged in interstate commerce. Our Committee has heard much evidence on the question concerning the jurisdiction of the Federal Communications Commission to allow these trial tests. Among the witnesses were the top leaders in the television business of today. The members of the Federal Communications Commission appeared in a body before our Committee. We also heard such men as Dr. Frank Stanton, President of the Columbia Broadcasting System; Mr. Robert W. Sarnoff, President of the National Broadcasting Company; Mr. Leonard H. Goldenson, President of the American Broadcasting Company-

Paramount Theaters, Inc.; and Mr. W. Theodore Pierson, appearing for Zenith Radio Corporation. Although there was much conflict between the testimony, all of the witnesses agreed on one proposition without exception. That proposition is that the people of this country own the spectrum. During the Committee hearings I asked Dr. Stanton the following question: "You do subscribe to the philosophy that the spectrum is owned by the people as a whole; that is, owned by the public?" To this, Dr. Stanton replied: "Yes Sir, I do." He gave some very good reasons for his answer.

The spectrum could be described as that area in space through which the radio and television waves and beams must travel between the broadcasting stations and the receiving sets. Licenses are granted by the public, who own this spectrum, to the broadcasting companies permitting them to use this public property. The public receives no pay whatever for permitting the broadcasting stations to use this public property which we call the spectrum; therefore, when these broadcasting companies are given these licenses, they, in effect, become trustees of this property. When, as, and if they should violate this trust, the right to continue to use the public spectrum could be, and should be, denied to them.

The reason that the people of this country will never be denied the right to use their television sets as they see fit is because they own the airwaves through which these radio and television waves and beams must travel. Whether or not any portion of that spectrum can or should be used for pay or subscription television is a question that can and should be answered by the people of this country who own it, after they have all of the facts and circumstances involved. Should pay television be permitted at any time, it should be under rigid restrictions and limitations which would guarantee to the American public that their property was not being misused or abused and that their rights and privileges to receive television and radio broadcasts were not encroached or intruded upon.

FROM WARM SPRINGS FACT & FANCY by W. H. Recker

(Wherein the director of public relations at the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation tells of Texas' own physical rehab center and also throws in a little tongue-in-cheek palaver for which, incidentally, the management is not responsible.)

In order that this column not lose its educational identity, I have engaged in a bit of research on the game of golf and have prepared this brief report. It has no particular value except possibly as reference material for young men who aspire to the Presidency.

In the first place, I was amazed at how long this game has been going on. At the time that Chris Columbus was vamping the Queen of Spain to get expense money to line up an overseas junket, they had already buried some old duffers in Scotland who had worn themselves out chasing the little white pellet around over the bonnie Scottish meadows.

One entirely unreliable source even avers that a tombstone has been located near Edinburgh dated 1467 reading as follows:

Here lies MacTavish—
Thy will be done—
He finally made
A hole in one.

It is a fact that as early as 1457 the Scottish Parliament had passed an edict outlawing "golfe or uther sik unprofitabil sportis." The fact that this apparently didn't slow down the golfers—among them King James IV himself—leads one to assume that this legislation simply resulted from pressure from the members' wives. Women folk from the very beginning never cared to play second fiddle to a golf ball.

Of course, once the golfing bug bites a woman—especially the wife of a non-golfer—this can be quite a revolting development. The first "name" woman golfer was Mary Stuart herself, and she is reported to have gone golfing a day or so after her husband was murdered.

My theory is that she had him done in herself because he nagged her about her golfing in the first place. They didn't call her Bloody Mary for the color of her fingernails. Hubert Smolik, Route 4, Hallettsville is a sophomore in high school and plans to keep studying until he gets a college education. He contracted paralytic polio in July, 1952, and entered Gonzales Warm Springs Rehabilitation Foundation for treatment the following fall.

"At that time," writes Hubert, "I was unable to sit or walk. After a few weeks of treatment at Warm Springs I was taught to sit, stand, and gradually to walk. Through the next three years I made frequent visits to the Foundation from which I received advice, morale boosts, and equipment such as braces, shoes, etc. Only through this wonderful Foundation do I believe I could achieve what I have achieved in the way of my physical appearance and attitude toward the future."
