All Indications Point To Bigger And Better Fair Here Sept. 14-15th

September 14th and 15th are County Fair days in Donley County says county agent H. M. Breedlove and manager of the fair. The fair will be held in Clarendon at the new fair building.

Community committees are already working on their booth exhibits and even though we are in a dry spell the exhibits will be good. These exhibits will be set up on the 13th of September so that they will be ready for the judging on the 14th at 10:00 A. M. The judge will be from out of the county and a qualified judge.

The individual agriculture exhibits will feature a new part of the fair and any person can enter one farm commodity listed in the catalog in each class; any person might enter a number of different commodities as long as he does not have two entries of the same commodity. This is also true with canned goods, to be canned in glass jars. There will be no premium money on these classes but ribbons will be given for the placings.

The catalog will be off the press in the next few days listing all the commodities that can be shown in this class. The committee would have liked to make the classes much larger but due to space they had to limit to the most important for this county.

The poultry department will be a big show this year and will feature all standard breeds of chickens. The home economics department will feature the home makers in the schools and will be open to the three schools in the county. The flower show is always a beautiful display and the ladies of the county in charge urge that every one bring flowers to the show and have them in place by nine A. M. on the 14th so that they can be judged by ten o'clock. Ribbons will be given for the placings.

The horse show will be held on Saturday afternoon at 1:00 P. M. at the rodeo grounds on the 15th. Mr. John Stotts of Matador and an approved judge of the American Quarter Horse Association will be the judge. The Donley County show is an approved show and the association will furnish trophies for the winners. The association requires that all horses be registered.

The home made cake department will have two sections with plain cakes and special occasion cakes. A sale will be held on Saturday afternoon at 5:00 P. M. to sell the cakes and prize money will be given.

The merchants department will be a department that the fair board hopes to increase this year. The swine show and sheep show will not be held in connection with the fair; therefore there will be plenty of room for the merchants, and all merchants are asked to have a display at the fair.

Breedlove says that the catalog will be off the press in the near future and will be given to all committees and in the places of business in the county. This catalog was made possible by the names of business firms and individuals appearing on the ad pages.

Remember the fair dates and make your plans to attend.

Women Urged To Enter Cake Dept. Of County Fair

To all women and girls of Clarendon, every community and club of Donley County, let's make the Cake Department the best feature of the Fair this year, stated Mrs. John Goldston, chairman of the Dept.

It is open to everyone in the county. There will be two types of entries, plain cakes and all occasion decorated cakes for amateurs only. A five dollar prize will be awarded for 1st place, $3 for 2nd and ribbons for 3, 4 and 5th places. The Home Economics teacher of Pampa will be the judge and a Memphis auctioneer will be in charge of selling the cakes at 5 o'clock the last day of the fair.

We have women and girls in our county that can bake cakes equal to any you read about and it is amazing what amateurs are doing in the way of decorating in our own county, added Mrs. Goldston.

All-Indian Ceremonial To Be Held At Canyon September 1-2-3rd

The largest all-Indian ceremonial between Anadarko, Okla., and Gallup, N. M. and the only full-scale Indian celebration in Texas will be unveiled Sept. 1, 2 and 3 in Buffalo Stadium in Canyon.

With a cast of 80 Kiowa, Comanche, Apache, Caddo, Geronimo Apache and Wichita Indians from Oklahoma, the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will feature performances twice daily during the Labor Day weekend. The afternoon performances, which begin at 2 p. m., will consist of authentic Indian dances and games, and each afternoon performance will be different from the others.

The evening performance each day, beginning at 8 p. m., will be a historical pageant entitled "The Peace Pipe of the Prairie." The script for the pageant calls for a recollection of Indian history from pre-Spanish times to the present.

Included in the pageant program will be a dozen Indian social and ceremonial dances, a representation of historic Indian village life and several forms of Indian entertainment as they were used in the days before the White Man drove the Indian from the plains.

The Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial is sponsored by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. The Ceremonial started with an invitation to the Indian tribes who once lived in Palo Duro Canyon to return for a visit. The Indians suggested the ceremonial, which will become an annual celebration.

It is hoped that after the first year's Ceremonial, it will be moved from Buffalo Stadium to the Palo Duro Canyon itself.

The Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will get underway with a parade in downtown Canyon at 10 a. m., Sept. 1, which will depict the Indian mode of travel from historic times to the present. Invitations have been given to riding clubs in Dalhart, Borger, Pampa, Hereford, Amarillo, Dimmitt and Plainview to participate in the parade.

Tickets for the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will be available at the gate of Buffalo Stadium. Prices are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

High School Students Will Not Be Allowed To Take College Subjects

At their regular August meeting, the board of trustees for the Clarendon Consolidated Independent School District and Junior College, voted to discontinue the practice of allowing high school seniors to take college subjects. In the past, seniors with 14 or more credits were allowed to take college subjects, however, at their spring meeting in Austin, the College Administrators and School Board Members Conference recommended that this be discontinued.

The Local School Board here decided that in order to uphold the high standards of the Clarendon Junior College, that the recommendation be followed.

Bronchos Start Fall Training Monday

Coach Tom Jinks reported yesterday that around forty boys reported Monday morning for football training and are being put through the paces in two training sessions each day in preparation for their first game with Stinnett here Friday, September 7th.

These dual practice sessions will be held the remainder of this week and only one practice session will be held each day of next week. This will give Coaches Jinks and assistant Kenneth Clapp very little time to get ready for a polished outfit like the Rattlers from Stinnett. Jinks reported only thirteen returning lettermen this year which will bring about quite a problem in the replacement department in both the line and backfield. The Bronchos will go to Ralls Saturday night for a scrimmage game which should give the coaches some idea of the main points they will have to figure out next week.

Dove Season To Open September 1st

Nimrods of this area can be oiling up their shot guns the next couple of days in preparation for the opening of the dove season Saturday, Sept. 1st. This is the first open season of the fall hunting which is always awaited by many.

Shooting hours are from 12 o'clock noon to sunset. The bag limit is 10 per day with not more than 10 in possession. Shotguns must be plugged to three-shell capacity and may not be larger than 10 gauge. Hunters should remember too that shooting from a public road is prohibited by law and your return from a hunting trip is always more welcome to your family than a bag of game—always be careful.

Record Second Primary Vote Cast Here Saturday

According to those who have held here in past years, the votes cast in the second primary election last Saturday is said to have set a record in comparison with the number of votes cast in the first primary in July. Ordinarily a second primary election will draw one-half to two thirds of the first primary vote. Last Saturday a total of 1851 votes were cast as compared with a total of 1943 votes in the July primary. This is only 92 votes under the large vote cast at that time.

In the local race which drew the votes out, Lonnie (Bill) Cornell unseated Truett Behrens for Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector by 1015 to 824 votes. In the other race of local interest, John T. Forbis polled 1058 votes to Allen Harp's 754 here in Donley County and Forbis won the office in the district by some 500 votes and will be the new District Attorney in 1957.

In the state races Price Daniel was elected Governor over Ralph Yarborough. Daniel received 908 votes and Yarborough 919 here in the county. Ben Ramsey, unopposed, received 1824 for Lt. Governor; Will Wilson won the Attorney General's race and received a total of 1127 votes here to Tom Moore's 568.

Voters will be able to rest awhile as far as State and local politics are concerned but will be hearing plenty between now and November in the race for President.

News from CITY HALL

Since school is beginning next week, we would like to remind everyone to observe all traffic regulations with reference to speeding, stopping at street intersections, running red lights, and double parking. As everyone knows, these are violations of City Ordinances, and also State Laws.

We do not care to fine anyone, and we are only trying to keep down traffic accidents and congestion.

If we are forced to it, it will be necessary to fine anyone who fails to observe these regulations. We would like to call your attention to another thing. We have a letter from the Fire Insurance Division of Texas, insisting that with the approach of the Fall season, an unusually large amount of fires are caused by people being careless about burning yard grass, rubbish, etc.

We shall appreciate it very much if everyone will observe this warning. Also we shall appreciate it very much if you will not burn trash in your trash can, because these are the cause of most fires here in town. We will try to pick up your trash often enough that it will not be necessary to burn it. And as the Fire Insurance Division says, "People and Not Things Cause Fires."

One of the dances scheduled for the evening performance of the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial to be held in Canyon on September 1, 2 and 3 is the colorful, weird Geronimo Apache Fire Dance, also called the Mountain Spirit or Horn Dance. The very sacred dance is performed only after hours of religious preparation by the Indians.

Range Improvement Field Day Cancelled

The U. S. Southern Great Plains Field Station, Woodward, Oklahoma, has announced cancellation of its Twentieth Annual Range Improvement Field Day, previously scheduled for October 6, 1956.

This action was deemed advisable because the severe drought conditions necessitated removing many experimental cattle on June 19, 1956. All spring grass plantings failed due to drought, and forage production on the grazed ranges has been only one-third of normal.

Present plans are to hold the educational Field Day in the fall of 1957, at which time the public is cordially invited to attend.

How Much Does It Cost You

when your neighbors go out of town to buy?

COPYRIGHT 1936 D. E. SCOTT

We may think . . . when one of our neighbors buys a shirt, or a car, or a hot water bottle in the city . . . that it's nothing to us . . . unless we happen to be trying to make a living in the shirt, or car, or hot water bottle business here in this community.

But . . . as a matter of fact . . . every time a dollar leaks out of local circulation, it hurts everybody who lives around here.

Because . . . financial anemia is a very contagious disease. Trade volume . . . the lifeblood of every community . . . when drained off to invigorate some other place . . . leaves us weaker, our schools and churches poorer, job opportunities fewer, our own businesses less profitable, our property worth less, our living standards lower, and important help and services less convenient to us.

On the other hand . . . Prosperity is also contagious.

Every single dollar that stays here at home turns over again and again as long as it's here . . . to account for two, three, or more times it's value in increased local trade volume . . . to keep every single one of us in better economic health.

Blowin' Out the Corners
by Uncle Zeb

Most of us worry and fret about our forgetting things that we ought to remember; especially those of us who admit that we are getting older, but you know what, sometimes it seems to us that most folks like us should be worrying because we remember so many things that we ought to forget, especially the bad things about other folks which we hear.

Each year as school begins again we are made to feel guilty because we have not as we should paid tribute during the year to the great army of our people who are our children's teachers. Outside of in the home, there is probably no place where a greater influence of one personality upon another exists than in our schools. Sometimes we wonder if even this influence is actually greater than that of the home. When we realize that more of the waking hours of our children's lives are spent in the schools for the greater part of the year we are astounded at the importance of this influence. We believe that teaching is more than just a job; it is certainly a profession. Actually, it is a calling to a special service just as much as that of a nurse or a doctor. A teacher cannot be the best in her field unless she has more than just the desire for a job holding her to this work. In fact if money was the main thing most of them would have gone into other fields. Recently, our teachers have been paid much better and I am sure this has helped wonderful in this profession but we still have a crying need not only for more teachers but for more and more dedicated Christian men and women to choose this all important profession. We don't know the answer to the problem but we only want to express our appreciation to all the wonderful teachers in our country that take serious their responsibility and try with all their heart to help our boys and girls to be better men and women. Maybe more pay would help, perhaps more understanding and cooperation from the parents would help, also it could be that too many, far too many demands outside of the realm of teaching has caused many good teachers to drop out. We need to find the answer to this question and soon.

Anyway, before we get all wound up on the subject of teaching and preach a sermon we might better leave the answer to the professionals on this subject. We just started out to give our teachers a pat on the back, so to speak, as they teach this new year. Somewhere we ran across the following little article that is called:

THE SCHOOL TEACHER'S FAITH
"Here am I chosen by the Creator to look after the little flock He has placed in my care—Young minds that I must teach more clearly to understanding; young hearts that I must guide to the ways of kindness and sympathy. How can I impress them with my thoughts of them; that they can find life beautiful every day through it all if they will be gentle, kind, and helpful to others. More and more it comes to me that I can convince them that LOVE is all - - if loveliness is in my own life—And with this FAITH as my inspiration, I will try to be worthy of the CREATOR'S TRUST."

The above just about sums up our idea of the great calling to which we believe our real teachers are called. So more power to you, our teachers of our children. May God Richly Bless You This Year In Your Chosen Work.

We received the following letter from one of our little friends who went to live at Boys Ranch a few weeks ago;
Dear Uncle Zeb,
How are you? Me, I am fine.

Given in marriage by C. E. Maedgen, the bride wore an original gown of dupioni silk embellished with re-embroidered alencon lace sparkled with sequins. At a reception which followed in the church parlor, the bridal table was laid with a white linen damask cloth brought from Denmark by the bride's grandmother. Centering the table was a pink and white floral arrangement flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers.

Assisting in hospitalities were Mmes. C. Paul Mills, R. C. Badgett, L. C. Walker, T. J. Harris, Z. A. Moore, Eugene Baker, Cecil King and Wallace Sasser of Port

DELEGATES RETURN HOME

Wearry Texas delegates to the Democratic National Convention have returned home to face still bigger tasks. Their goals: (1) to win undisputed party control at the Sept. 11 state convention and (2) to swing Texas back to the Democratic column in November. In both efforts they will have the guidance of two of the party's most influential leaders — U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn. Hopes are based on the mild civil rights platform plank adopted at the Chicago convention. Both Johnson and Rayburn are credited with significant roles in gaining this "moderate" victory. Many of the Texas delegates say they will have a hard time selling the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket in this state. There is considerable muttering about the prospects of victory in November. And former President Harry Truman's cracks at Stevenson

DROUGHT AID PROGRAM LAUNCHED

Federal and state machinery are grinding out a three-phase drought aid program for Texas farmers and ranchers.

Action came as mounting disaster conditions caused federal officials to release "one of the bleakest crop and cattle situation reports in 22 years."

Present plans would provide (1) certificates good for $1.50 per hundredweight toward feed grain purchases, (2) certificates for $7.50 per ton to buy roughage and (3) Farmers Home Administration loans to refinance debts on family-size farms.

Initial details were worked out at an Austin conference of U. S. Dept. of Agriculture officials, Gov. Allan Shivers, Agriculture Comm. John White and the Texas Emergency Drought Committee.

USDA is providing $1 million to finance the roughage program. Gov. Shivers has allocated $100,000 from his emergency funds for administrative operations.

Texas reaction to the federal offers ranged from "fairly satisfactory" from Governor Shivers to "too little and too late" from some South Texas farmers.

USDA's weekly report on Texas agricultural conditions termed the drought "one of the most severe on record." It reported pasturage conditions "lowest since 1934" and feed crops "very short" over most of the state.

RESERVOIRS DROP
 Water in Texas' major reservoirs was down 20 per cent during July, from 1955. Average storage was 51 per cent of capacity.

As evidence of "critical conditions" the State Board of Water Engineers' monthly report cited these further statistics: (1) July rainfall was less than half of normal. (2) Observation wells continued a decline to all-time lows in five areas of South Central and West Texas. (3) Dwindling streamflows and decreasing storage resulted in water rationing in many cities in all areas.

MORE SAFETY AIDS ASKED
 Next year's Legislature may be asked to double the present 470-man state highway patrol.

Such an increase was urged by Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, in a talk before the Texas Safety Association Women's Conference.

Cost of safety precautions is cheap compared to accident costs, said Garrison. Property loss alone has exceeded $1.5 billion in the past 20 years.

A legislative program being pushed by the Association includes: (1) more patrolmen, (2) county-wide traffic courts, (3) state-financed driver education, (4) prohibiting sale of fireworks, (5) chemical tests for drunken drivers and (6) laws to punish juvenile traffic offenders.

BIGGER HIGHWAY PROGRAM STARTED
 Expanded highway building under the new federal program is off to a fast start in Texas. In the first tabulation since U. S. aid bill passage, the State Highway Commission received low bids totaling a whopping $18,494,446. Of this, some $5,847,678 was represented by six bids for improvement of federal interstate routes.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

POLITICS ARE FUNNY

Whenever things seem to be running smoothly in a political party, you can usually look for a blowup of some kind. This seems to be what happened in the Republican Party when Harold Stassen decided he did not want Nixon for Vice-President. His public announcement to that effect certainly threw things in an uproar on Capitol Hill among the Congressmen and Senators. The day that Stassen did this trick, he was probably called every name known in the English language and a great number in foreign tongues. It was difficult to discuss anything with a Republican Congressman other than what a low-down heel Harold Stassen was. It was very obvious that many of these men had certainly not anticipated such a move and knew nothing of it beforehand. However, some excellent political prognosticators in Washington believe that this entire episode was a preconceived and deliberately planned publicity scheme to help Nixon. The upper echelon, or heavy thinkers in the Republican Party, realized that many people in this country did not look with great favor upon Vice-President Nixon. Some would be skeptical because of his extreme partisanship, others doubting him because of the unanswered questions concerning his political slush fund raised by California millionaires, others feeling that he was a front for the Old Guard Republicans who have caused Eisenhower much trouble, others thinking that he did not have mental presidential stature. That because the President's health is in a state of touch and go, these directors of the Republican Party were thought to feel that they either had to ditch Nixon or build him up. They had difficulty in finding someone who would pay the lead role in this Madison Avenue conceived publicity stunt. However, Harold Stassen, realizing that he had little chance for the Vice-Presidency or Presidency, might have thought that, if he could be Secretary of State or Secretary of Defense, his political wounds would be well salvaged. So, he volunteered his services as the hatchet man in this drama. The politicians figured that they did not stand to lose. In the first place, if the Stassen movement took hold and "Dump Nixon" recruits were large in number, a satisfactory replacement would be chosen. On the other hand, if the "Dump Nixon" movement did not take hold, it would provide an excellent publicity stage from which Nixon could repeat his "Checkers" performance of 1952. In this latter case they figure that Nixon, with his present experience, can put on a tear jerking act that will surpass his previous performance and result in "poor Richard" playing the role of a martyr attacked by self-centered politicians, that he will be the proverbial American underdog, the modern day David, who will slay the political Goliath, alias Harold Stassen, and save the country. As many people say, "politics are funny!"

through with strong endorsements of particular "favorite sons". This lack of enthusiasm didn't exactly add fuel to the fire some of the "favorite sons" were trying to get started.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Oswalt and girls of Clinton, Okla. were week end guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Buel Sanford and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Skelton and family.

All the Patman's children were present except Billy who is in Venezuela.

Chauncey Thompson and sons, Sloan and Chauncey, Jr. of Breckenridge visited last week in the homes of L. E. and George Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson and Carrie Kimbell went to Amarillo Sunday where they celebrated Mrs. Johnson's birthday at the homes of her daughters, Mrs. Perry Wood and Mrs. Hence Dixon.

Texas Department of Agriculture
Many people today are puzzling over the "programming" of farming by the government. They wonder why we have controls and quotas and price supports. More clearly, they want to know why the farmer can't just "take his chances" in growing and selling with no holds barred.

They wonder, without realizing that the well-being of agriculture is an absolute essential to the economic health of our nation, just how the farmer became such a governmental concern. Quite a few years ago, when the entire national economy was on wobbly legs, first efforts for restoration were aimed at agriculture. Farm programs and adjustments and allotments were set to work.

Since that time when the age-old barometer for farm success—supply and demand—became top-heavy, new programs and new words began showing up on the agriculture front. Controls were born of necessity; allotments, restrictions and subsidies became their expression.

There are those who cling to the hope that eventually food and fiber demands will catch up close enough to supply that every man can be for himself as in any competitive business. Others more realistically expect controls to be permanent. And if so, then it's time to be thinking about how to live with them and to face their long-time effects.

Guidance and regulation of agriculture by the government can go in several directions: the government can allow itself to become the "market" with most areas of trade and disposition covered by regulation; controls can be slackened to such a degree that the "big business" farmer could easily encroach on and swallow up the small farmer; or, through careful selection of leaders in policy making posts, farmers will have personal agents to see that their interests are protected, not overruled.

This latter ideal is that which we work toward: to keep our farmers both free and prosperous, with proper alignment in the national economic picture. There will be little danger from government controls so long as they are tempered with concern. And this concern will prevent our farm people from becoming a peasantry working under rationed opportunity.

LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Frewitt

Perhaps after the first we can do some dusting, book mending and destroy some useless material that has accumulated. Several children whose parents are with the elevator crew, highway 66, and some near farm to market road, do not know anybody, so they stay here all afternoon reading geographics, comics, encyclopedias and various things. Then there are a few farm boys who spend hours in here waiting for their parents. This is practically the Children's amusement center.

We have a few new books to comment concerning: "Farewell the Stranger" by Sallie O'Brien is one of my Book Club editions that is described as "a heartening, adventurous novel of wilderness life when the midwest was a real frontier." "The Hardhats" is by H. M. Newell, and is a book club edition too. It is a construction camp story of what takes place at "Mighty Squaw," one of the great northwestern dams.

There are some excellent books that we have not had time to post. Our magazines vanish before they have been on the rack thirty minutes. We take some excellent periodicals, and I wish we had time and material for keeping some of the articles.

You should plan to read with us this winter.

DONLEY COUNTY
SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Because of the Conservation Reserve phase of the Soils Bank Bill, there is likely to be an increased demand for all kinds of grass seed next spring. Due to an extended drought over a large part of the southwestern United States, there is also likely to be a below normal grass seed harvest. However some excellent blue grama seed suitable for harvest has been found on J. H. McMurry's, Faye Scoggin's, and parts of the JA Ranch southwest of Clarendon. The value of this seed could easily run from $15.00 to above $30.00 per acre, and it can be harvested by most combines with minor adjustments.

Because of the shortage of grass seed and the likely high demand, the Soil Conservation Districts and the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Districts, are encouraging all possible grass seed harvest. Anyone having grass which they think might be suitable for harvest can contact the local SCS office for technical assistance in determining its suitability and advice on harvesting methods.

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE INCOME TAX EXEMPTION

Parents of youngsters who are working during the summer vacation were reminded today by James Z. Pearce, Administrative Officer of the Amarillo, Texas Office of Internal Revenue Service, that under certain circumstances their children may still be claimed as full exemptions for Federal income tax purposes. And the children themselves may be entitled to refunds in whole or part of income taxes withheld from their wages during their employment. The special exemption rule, Mr. Pearce explained, applies to children who will still be under 19 years of age at the end of the year and to children who are full-time students, regardless of their age.

Exemption may be claimed by the parents if they contribute more than half the child's support, regardless of the amount earned by the child. This new law was passed by Congress in 1954, Mr. Pearce explained. Prior to 1954, no person earning $600 or more could be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer. Inquiries received, however, indicate that many who are entitled to this benefit are not aware of it. And some parents continue to have their dependent children stop work before earning $600.

Children 19 and over must be engaged in full-time study at a recognized educational institution for at least five months of the year or must be pursuing a full-time accredited on-farm training program.

Mr. Pearce said that any questions regarding individual cases should be referred to the Amarillo office, phone DR-2-6516.

Boys Rancher Build New Rodeo Arena

In preparation for their forthcoming 12th Annual Rodeo, which will be held at Boys Ranch September 2 and 3, the young Ranchers have completely rebuilt and relocated their rodeo arena. More chutes, more space and better equipment will help assure this year's show the best yet.

Besides the new arena, the boys have relocated the bleachers so that now most of them will be in the shade all day.

The young cowhands have been preparing and practicing for the rodeo and all signs point to a thrilling, fast-moving, fun-filled show.

Boys from five to seventeen will be riding for points and prizes in at least 12 separate events covering everything from calf riding to bronc busting. Regular rodeo stock will be used in the Labor Day weekend event and highlight of each day will be the bareback bronc and bull riding, plus an exciting calf scramble.

Jake Mitchell, the famous rodeo clown from Dalhart, will be the only participant who is not a Boys Rancher. Jake, with his trained Brahma bull, will provide plenty of comedy to liven up an already lively show.

The rodeo will start at 2:30 P. M. both days, September 2 and 3rd. Admission will be $1.25 for adults, 75 cents for children under 12. Tickets will be available at the Ranch each day of the rodeo.
