President Carter's fireside chat last week for the purpose of conning the country into giving the Panama Canal to Dictator Torrijos was a disappointment in more ways than one. Since the issue obviously has two sides and we the people have a right to hear both, the program really should have presented the pros and cons. Either the President should have told about the objections or he should have arranged to have another person do it.

To be really fair about it, he should have had Ronald Reagan on the same program. That would have been a sort of summit meeting, the number 1 men on each side of the issue, a really good opportunity "lay the cards on the table" for all of us to see.

Another unfair aspect about this thing is the President's use of prime TV time at no cost whereas the opposition does not have the same right. Reply time would cost enormously, and even more so if it is prime time. We hope that the Senate will keep these things in mind when considering ratification of the treaties. It needs to realize that ethically this deal is about at the level of an old time horse trade, where the seller carefully keeps the buyer away from the blind side.

Even a person who is not thoroughly familiar with the subject is aware that the President's talk was one sided. It tried to assure us that when Torrijos takes over the canal this nation will become the favored customer, especially in war time, when our ships would be moved to the front of the line for easier passage through the canal.

Such assurances are only as good as the promises of Communism have been since we first dealt with them. The fact is that Reds honor a pledge or treaty only when it serves their purpose. Torrijos will allow US ships to pass when it pleases the Red world conspiracy, otherwise we'll be banned, maybe even attacked. This is the fact and Carter knew it, even though he did not say so.

Another disappointment was the reference to the Torrijos dictatorship as "people of Panama." In view of Carter's many pious pronouncements on human rights, he must know that the term does not apply. Their scheme is for the benefits of Torrijos and his cronies anywhere else in the communist world. The people have nothing to do with it.

The shocker to most of us is the President's statement that US doesn't own the canal in the first place, that it was only leased, as shown by the fact that Panama received a yearly lease fee. It's an interpretation that surely does not harmonize with the report in history books. As we heard it, our country bought it from both Panama and Colombia, to make sure just in case there was a doubt about the rightful owner of the time. And in addition US bought the entire canal zone from the individual landowners.

Furthermore, after all that US paid out its own hard money to build the Panama Canal, and during the many years of operation it has paid the Panama government handsomely for its help in running the place.

All of that ought to be enough to convince anyone that US has a valid title to the zone, and that the President's statement probably derives from another case of Communist semantics. They twist word meanings to serve their purpose and our State Department obligingly accepts their interpretation. Well, even though our President permits himself to be conned by the Communist liars, the fact is that US bought and built the Canal fair and square, and it's ours without a doubt. Isn't it absurd that a genuine commercial title like this should be questioned when so many titles based on conquest are accepted?

Another great fault about Carter's speech was his failure to mention the cost to American taxpayers. There have been charges that this is a plain rip-off... that Torrijos owes American banks over $2 billion and our payments of that approximate amount actually amounts to paying a

Remodeling Project For City Hall Okayed

It's official now, the city hall will be enlarged and remodeled to make it more attractive as well as provide adequate space for its several operations.

The project was officially approved at Monday's City Council meeting after no one appeared at a special hearing intended as an opportunity for residents to air their opinions. The council had previously agreed on the plans and voted to proceed when they heard no objections.

They had decided that the program serves the city's purpose as well as an elaborate new structure and will cost less than half as much. The estimated cost is under $50,000 which can be financed out of current revenue, requiring no bond issue.

The plan calls for a 16 foot addition to the south of the building providing space which will serve as the city council's meeting room and the municipal court, plus space for police headquarters and the fire trucks.

Warning Sounded By AMPI Relative To Milk Imports

The Agriculture Department is considering changing the federal regulations making it easier to import milk and milk products from countries where foot-and-mouth disease is always present. Foot-and-mouth disease is a highly communicable livestock virus disease and is found in nearly all of Western Europe. These countries could become a source of most imported dairy products. Livestock in the United States are free of the disease, after very expensive eradication programs and would have no resistance to an outbreak.

Irvin J. Elkin, President of Associated Milk Producers recently announced "it would be disastrous if the cattle in this country became infected. There would be increased risk of the disease being carried into this country through human error despite some proposed safeguards." Dairy Farmer Co-ops and National Milk Producers Federation plan on submitting analysis relevant to the suggested methods of controlling the imported products. "All cloven hoofed animals are subject to infection, so that the risk of devastating infection to beef, dairy, sheep, goats and swine is enormous," Elkin said. Consumers also would suffer tremendous injury if domestic livestock should be infected. It would reduce meat and milk production by 25 percent.

Public comments on the proposal may be submitted through Feb. 13 to the Deputy Administrator for Veterinary Services, USDA, Hyattsville, Md., 20782.

Grewing, Sloan Re-Appointed to City Water Board

The Muenster city council at its meeting Monday night re-appointed Richard Grewing and Michael Sloan to a term as directors on the Muenster Water Board. The appointment becomes effective March 1, at the expiration of their present term. Others on the board are Henry Weinzapfel, Al Walter and Gene Hoedebeck.

The board's prime concern is the city's proposed reservoir, which continues on schedule in the planning stage while it is temporarily delayed by a hearing before the state water board, in which the City, of Dallas challenges Muenster's water right. Big D, with major water problems of its own, wants exclusive rights to all of the Trinity watershed above the city.

It can furnish the stickers for cars, pickups, vans, motorcycles — almost everything except the heavy trucks.

The store's hours will be 9 to 5:30, Monday through Saturday.

Deb Bindel Wins Region Free Thow

Debbie Bindel, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bindel, was one of the winners at the regional Free Thow contests in Irving last week. With a score of 13 out of 25 tries she qualified for the state contest at San Antonio in March.

The contest is statewide and sponsored by the state council of the Knights of Columbus. Starting at the council level it advances through district and regional levels to the state final.

Local runners-up in the regional were Marcus Tate, son of the Wayne Tates and Leslie Reiter, daughter of the Bill Reiters.

Texas Hospitals Oppose Revised HEW Guidelines

Hospital planning and services will be substantially removed from local and state authority if Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (DHEW) revised guidelines are adopted.

So said O. Ray Hurst, President, Texas Hospital Association (THA) as he described the revised guidelines proposed by DHEW as published in the "Federal Register" on January 20, 1978.

Hurst went on to point out that these proposed regulations as revised from the September 23, 1977 draft, will cause all hospitals in the state some problems.

Hurst stated that "we are concerned with the failure of DHEW to separate its continued insistence on awkward and unworkable cost controls from the primary intent of P. L. 93-641, that being planning. Although the revised proposed guidelines permit the twelve (12) Health System Agencies (HSA) in Texas to apply for exceptions to the guidelines, the Secretary of DHEW could have the final say by withholding funding and redesignation of the HSA. This would be a serious blow to local and state authority in the planning process."

THA did a survey of hospitals in Texas based on the first set of guidelines. That survey indicated that over 90% of Texas Hospitals could not comply. The announcement of these results disturbed hospitals and the public. Over 25,000 communications were sent to DHEW from Texans.

Hurst stated "the new thrust of these proposed guidelines is to have compliance in an overall HSA area. As an example, since hospitals in the HSA area must have a composite occupancy of at least 80%, then if some hospitals fall below this amount, others must make the difference. Another part permits smaller hospitals to have obstetric departments that provide primary or uncomplicated delivery services. Complicated obstetrical cases and intensive neonatal cases would be referred to other hospitals and as a result, patients currently being served near their homes will have to travel many miles for the same care at greatly increased total cost and inconvenience."

Office of Planning, Evaluation and Legislation, Health Resources Administration, Center Building, Room 1022, 3700 East-West Highway, Hyattsville, Maryland 20782.

Hurst closed by saying "we strongly recommend the DHEW withdraw these proposed regulations or as a minimum clearly state that they are bench marks with final implementation in the hands of local and state authority. Since there appears to be a difference of opinion between the intent of Congress and DHEW concerning P. L. 93-641, we are consulting with the Texas Congressional Delegation on this matter. I testified on February 1st before a Congressional Committee concerning renewal of the planning law, P. L. 93-641, which expires in September 1978."

THA is the Austin based trade association of hospitals and health care institutions in Texas with over 700 institutional members.

Bright Resigns Mayor's Office

Mayor David Bright announced at Monday night's city council meeting that he is resigning from his office effective April 1.

He made his statement in connection with the Council's order for the regular election, explaining that the purpose will be to name a mayor for a one year term as well as three aldermen for two year terms. Bright, with five years of service on the council, has one year remaining of his third term in office. And the resignation is timed so that it becomes effective on the day his successor is elected.

Other council places to be filled are No. 1, now held by Leonard Endres, No. 2, now held by Aubrey Tuggle and No. 4, now held by Leo Hess. At this time no candidate has announced for any of the positions.

Election date has been set at Saturday, April 1. The deadline for filing candidacy is March 1.

Overpass Project Due to Start Soon

Approach of the project to remove the local overpass and replace it with a 4 lane divided ground level road was indicated Monday night when the city council passed a resolution to cooperate in all phases of the work. The council also authorized the mayor to sign any of the project documents for the city.

The meeting disclosed that preliminary work is in order and the contract for all phases of the job will be awarded soon, probably about April 1.

The job consists of demolishing the two-lane overpass which was built in the early thirties and has been obsolete since MK&T quit operating its railroad through Muenster. With four-lane highways leading to both ends, the elevated road now is a traffic bottleneck and hazard.

The next step after removal will be to build the short distance of 4-lane road replacing it.

Related work, which will have to precede the project, is building a detour for the duration. From the intersection at the traffic light it will be routed south to Cross Street, west to Maple then north to a point beyond the north right of way and west to the highway.

2 Band Members Of MHS Play with NTSU Honor Band

Two members of the Muenster High School Band, Julia Bright and Allen Bayer, had the privilege of performing last Saturday with the 1978 North Texas Honor Band in Recital Hall of NTSU.

The honor band is a distinguished group of students from Class A high school bands of the North Texas area. They were selected on January 29 in competitive auditions of more than 300 students from seventeen schools. Of that number, 93 instrumentalists and 15 alternates were chosen.

Bob Hayes, director of the MHS Hornet Band, accompanied Allen and Julia to NTSU early Saturday for the full day of strenuous rehearsals under the clinician, Bill Woods, who currently directs the band at Seagraves High School. During 17 years there, Woods has served as all-region band clinician in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas and has judged contests in those states and New Mexico and Colorado. His bands have amassed 18 UIL sweepstakes awards, and his band was judged the Outstanding Class A Band at the 1974 Greater Southwest Music Festival.

The all-day clinic, a thrill and privilege to the MHS students, concluded with a concert Saturday night. Attending from Muenster were the Robert Bayers and Susan and Henry, also, the David Brights and James.

Aerobic Class Filled
Enrollment is filled for the Aerobic Dancing Class for this session and no more students can be accepted. Classes will be held again in the future, according to Theresa Walterseid.

Rough Winter Adds Eight Inches of Snow

After moderating only slightly for most of last week, winter came back Monday with another vicious cold blast. Again the community was partly paralyzed by snow which was measured at 2½ inches Tuesday morning by Steve Mosler, and the situation was worsened by more snow, which was measured Wednesday morning at 1½ inch.

As a result, the community, like all of North Texas is operating at considerably less than half its usual tempo. Muenster schools were among just a few of the county which were not closed Tuesday, and they made it unanimous on Wednesday. Meanwhile the effect was felt all over town. Dress factory employees were mostly absent, as were the customers in local stores.

The reason is that roads have been very slippery and people generally are not venturing out. In spite of very careful driving there have been cases of getting stuck and creasing fenders.

Snow was accompanied by a plunge of temperature. After several days up to the thirties and forties, the high fell to 28 on Tuesday and 25 on Wednesday. However the low on those days was 24 and 22, a welcome change from the teen temperatures of two weeks ago. The readings since February 1 on Steve Mosler's low-high thermometer are: Feb. 1, 32 & 38; Feb. 2, 28 & 34; Feb. 3, 23 & 50; Feb. 4, 28 & 43; Feb. 5, 33 & 48; Feb. 6, 21 & 44; Feb. 7, 24 & 28; Feb. 8, 22 & 28. Thursday started with a low of 24.

Moisture in this week's snow measured 41 and .12 on Tuesday and Wednesday. Along with .11 on Feb. 1, it brings the month's total to .64 inch and the year's total to 2.36.

Names Listed for Primary Ballot

Names of the two Muenster precincts will find three county contests on their ballots for the May 6 Democratic primary along with uncontested nominations for nine positions. The list was reported Tuesday by Mrs. Wanda Britton, county Democratic chairman after the close of the candidates' filing deadline.

Local ballots will also include nominees for the 17th Congressional District and the Senate along with those for state offices.

In the race for county judge are Greg Underwood and Frank (Junior) Heath. For district clerk are Sue McFarlin, Dorothy Franklin and Bobbie Calhoun. And for county surveyor are N. L. Schoppa and Delbert West.

Uncontested nominees are Robert Bayer for commissioner of Precinct 4, Harold Freeman for county attorney, Irene Bryant for county treasurer and Frank Scoggin for county clerk. Larry Sullivan for judge of District 235 and Bill Sullivan for state representative are unopposed in the county but may have opposition from elsewhere in their districts. All of the above six are incumbents.

Also unopposed on the local ballot are Wanda Britton to succeed Billy Ray Hill as county Democratic chairman, Mike Hennigan to succeed B. J. Swirzynski as precinct chairman and Janet Fisher to succeed Paul Fisher as precinct chairman.

In Capping Ceremony
Mrs. James Dennison of Lindsay, the former Marcia Cler daughter of the Werner Cler, was among nurses in the recent capping ceremony at Cooke County College, held in Whaley Memorial Methodist Church. Her parents, and her husband and two children attended the ceremony.

C of C Meeting

Council Approves Park Improvement For Germanfest

Availability of the city park for Germanfest, which has been taken for granted in planning up to now, became certain Monday night at the city council meeting.

Johnny Pagel, president of the Chamber of Commerce, appeared to present the request and also to ask for rest room facilities supplementing those at the swim pool and pavilion. The Council ruled that existing accommodations are adequate for normal needs, so it does not feel justified in providing for the big crowds.

However, councilmen agreed to allow construction of the rest rooms provided the Chamber of Commerce will assume the cost. The proposal is to build the structure as an addition to the swim pool's dressing room, saving the cost of one wall. The location is directly over the sewer line, also saving the cost of sewer extension. Estimated cost is $4,000.

Pagel also obtained approval to haul gravel to traffic areas where the ground is exposed.

PhD Thesis Based On Muenster Court

A candidate for a PhD degree in psychology has chosen the system and record of Muenster's municipal court as the subject of his doctorate thesis, and the Muenster City Council has agreed to cooperate. The OK was given at Monday's meeting when Ron Crawford of Dallas, accompanied by City Judge John Marshall, appeared before the council.

The man's study will include court procedure here as well as enumeration of the kinds of offenses, age of offenders, recurrences, etc. A copy of the completed paper will be presented to the city.

Janet Pels and Danny Voth United at Saturday Nuptial

When Mr. and Mrs. Danny Voth return from a trip following their wedding they will be at home in their new house recently constructed in the northwest section of town.

Miss Janet Pels became the bride of Danny Voth in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony on February 4. Father Stephen Eckart officiated in Sacred Heart Church Saturday at 5 p.m.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Pels and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Voth.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a gown of white Poly-Sheer organza designed with a Czarina bodice with appliques of French Venice lace defining the fitted back bodice and curving around the high standing collar in front, over the illusion scoop neckline.

Long, sheer, sleeves were gathered to Venice lace cuffs. The full skirt fell in folds in front and merged into a semi-cathedral train edged with a narrow band of lace florets.

The double veil of imported English silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of French lace.

Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink silk roses and greenery.

For sentiment and in keeping with tradition the bride wore her mother's pearl necklace and a blue garter. Preceding the ceremony, she presented a long-stemmed silk rose to her mother and, following the ceremony, a similar rose to the groom's mother.

Attendants

Mrs. Doreen Taylor was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lynda Klement, a friend, and Brenda Voth, and Mrs. Linda Fuhrmann, both sisters of the groom. They wore long pink velvet gowns, empire-styled, with burgundy ribbon drawn through white lace around the square neckline and waist, and a burgundy bow in back. Each wore a small pink velvet hat with attached silk rose, and each carried a nosegay of pink carnations, red roses and burgundy ribbons.

The best man was Mark Fuhrmann, brother-in-law of the groom, and groomsmen were Doug Yosten and Steve Fuhrmann, friends of the groom and Steve Taylor, brother-in-law of the bride. Ushers were Phil Endres and Dave Voth, cousins of the couple. Mass servers were Tim Voth, cousin of the groom and Kevin Wolf, a friend.

Wedding music, as guests assembled, included "Nadia's Theme" on the organ and flute by Mrs. Linda Flusche and Connie Walterscheid, and vocal solos "Follow Me" and "And I Love You So" by Doug Yosten. A vocal trio, Mrs. Mary Endres of Dallas, Laura Kralicke and Mrs. Linda Flusche sang "Prayer of St. Francis", "Love Is Real", "Wedding Song" and, when the couple presented a floral offering at the Blessed Virgin's altar "Mother, At Your Feet". The processional, with flute and organ was "Colour My World" and the recessional was "Joy".

During Mass, Sharon Voth, sister of the groom gave the Reading and Rita Pels, the bride's sister and Craig Voth and Jeannene Voth, brother and sister of the groom presented Offertory gifts and the memory candle, which the couple lit following their vows. Rita Pels also presented the floral offering.

Decorations in church were arrangements of pink gladioli on the main altar and arrangements of pink carnations and gypsophila on the side altar. Candelabra holding votive lights and entwined with greenery marked the center aisle.

The bride's mother was attired in a long dress with matching jacket of green Quiana and the groom's mother wore a long dress of soft peach knit. Both had a corsage of pink rosebuds. Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Albert Henschel, had a corsage of pink carnations.

Reception

A reception, dinner and dance followed in the Sacred Heart Community Center. Joan Hesse and Karen Schilling registered guests. The bride's table held the wedding cake and arrangements of pink carnations and lighted candles, with appointments of crystal. Ferns at table height, were in front of the bride's table, and just in back, tall ferns on pedestals were accented with a pair of lighted candelabra.

Guest tables held candles or pink geraniums. A hanging basket overflowing with white flowers was suspended from the ceiling.

The white wedding cake, baked and decorated by Carolyn Luke, was four tiered held an ornamental, white heart centered with three white bells and white tulle ruffling. The tiers were decorated with cascades of miniature roses matching the pink bridesmaids' dresses.

Encircling the cake was a ring of fern and pink gladioli florets. A row of white wedding bells each held a pink gladioli bell-ringer.

The cake was cut by Carolyn Luke and served by Rhonda Endres, Colynda and Tammy Henschel, and Brenda Henschel.

For traveling, the bride wore a blue pants and sweater set.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Sacred Heart High School. She is a secretary employed at W. J. Luke Co. and he is a carpenter employed by Norbert Zimmerer.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included the rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents in their home on Friday evening and a shower given in the Eugene Klements' home, another in the Mark Fuhrmann home, and a third shower in the W. J. Luke home.

Among guests from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arendt and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Ford and daughter, Sara of Arkansas. Also a number of relatives and friends from Denison, Dallas, Pilot Point, Lindsay and Gainesville and Muenster.

The Tiger Cubs made a terrible start, trailing 17-0 at the first period. Thereafter they played even, scores being 22-8, 28-16 and 38-23, but they were out of contention all the way. Brian Herr led with 10 points, Britt Smith made 8, Hal Mollenkopf 4 and Greg Walterscheid 1.

WE GET THEM, TOO.

It's a big reason why the price you pay for electricity keeps going up.

In order to supply the present needs of our customers and to keep pace with anticipated future needs, TP&L must constantly plan and build generating plants and other essential facilities.

Unfortunately, like the escalating costs you see in your family budget, the expense of this construction is rising rapidly... from $64 million in 1968 to our expected cost this year of $326 million.

For example, one major expense is in the anti-pollution equipment we're adding to help assure a cleaner environment. At one new plant, this equipment will add some $178 million to the cost of the plant and increase the cost of electricity produced at that plant by 15 to 20 per cent.

We're helping hold the line on costs by building plants that use lignite coal and nuclear materials for fuel. Both cost less and are more readily available than natural gas and oil, which are being phased out.

As these construction costs and the other expenses of producing and supplying electricity keep increasing, so must the price we ask our customers to pay for the electricity they use. But, by paying more now, TP&L customers can be assured of an adequate supply of electric power with the lowest possible fuel cost.

More Than Two Million Tourists Receive Texas Treatment in 1977

For the first year since the state opened its highway tourist bureaus in 1936, more than two million real, live travelers got the "Texas treatment" during 1977.

The "Texas Treatment" is a caliber of hospitality that set standards for the nation. When the first, rustic log or adobe huts opened in 1936, nobody knew they were to become the nation's first permanent highway tourist bureaus . . . the first organized effort by any state to make hospitality a state service.

At times, it seems like today's travel counselors may be overwhelmed by success. At the busiest tourist bureau on I. H. 10 near Orange, counselors served a tourist every 36 seconds during 1977. On the average at all 11 bureaus, each travel counselor served a visitor every 2.3 minutes . . . nine hours a day, seven days a week, 361 days a year (they were closed 4 days for Christmas).

But actually, it's not really quite so hectic. Counselors talk mainly to the head of a travel party, although there's always a friendly word for others in the group. Travel parties these days average about 2.4 people, so during 1977, the average state travel counselor spent about 5 1/2 minutes with each travel party.

wining 160-page travel guide, add a few colorful folders from cities and attractions along his route, add a litter bag for good measure, and tell him we're glad he came to Texas.

Many's the overwhelmed traveler who leaves a Texas tourist bureau with a sort of glassy-eyed grin. What a way to start a visit!

That's the "Texas treatment" employed by the State Department of Highway and Public Transportation. It is exercised with calculated pleasure and forethought. Greet them, serve them, and make them glad they came! The payoff is when they tell others about Texas, and when they come back.

The technique has been honed to near perfection during four decades of experience. Throughout the nation, other states have studied and emulated the Texas formula. Throughout Texas, the visitor industry has never been better, thanks largely to the pleasant ambassadors of the state tourist bureaus.

Next time you see a Texas tourist bureau near the state line, drop in for a look at the way the state's front doors are handled. It'll do you proud!

Mural Reflects Area's German Tradition

German tradition of the Muenster community is reflected in a handsome mural on a wall of Associated Milk Producers' local milk products plant. It was painted by members of Sacred Heart Art Club with assistance from several other interested persons.

The idea originated in a meeting of the Bluebonnet Home Demonstration Club as a suggestion to beautify Main Street, and discussion led to a proposal to paint a mural on the AMPI plant's wall, located some 30 feet back from the property line. Members favored the proposal heartily and asked their president, Mrs. Monica Hess, to get approval of the plant manager, Vernon Sparkman, and then sponsor an art contest as a source of ideas for the mural. From concessions earnings in last year's Germanfest they offered prizes of $50, $25 and $15 for the best paintings or sketches of German scenes.

Bert Hesse won the contest with a scene of a village at the foot of a mountain. The painting was turned over to Mrs. Patti Eberhart, Sacred Heart art instructor, and Steve Walterscheid to serve as a guide for painting the wall, which measured 66 feet by 13 feet 11 inches.

Their project started with an enlarged sketch and calculation of the scale to apply in transferring a further enlarged sketch to the wall. With Mmes. Eberhart and Hess and Mr. Walterscheid standing by as coaches the art club completed the sketch and started painting. The date was October 26, 1977. From then on students, club members and other interested persons worked on the project as time and weather permitted. They applied finishing touches on December 4.

While generally following Bert Hesse's painting the mural has a number of changes. In keeping with the original intention it uses ideas from the other contest entries, and more details were added while painting was under way.

The end result is a picture from the old country showing a cluster of buildings at the foot of a mountain with flowers on the hillside and trees in the background.

Plans now developing are to enhance the scene by landscaping in front of the mural. It will include potted plants and trees, which, hopefully will be in their prime for Germanfest, the last three days of April.

An extension of the original project is a continuation of the east wall mural around the corner to the south wall. Painters got carried away by their mission and added more scenery because the blank wall was drab compared with the other. The south wall painting measures 33 feet by 13 feet 11 inches.

Favorable comment on the mural keeps coming in from near and far. Residents are proud of it as an attractive landmark. Also word is coming back that people driving through on Highway 82 are making many complimentary remarks.

Peanuts were called "earth chocolate" in the early South. Later, George Washington Carver — the great scientist — found many new and important uses for this highly nutritious food.

Hamburger is a favorite dish of every American teenager. But, why is it called hamburger when there is no ham in it? You might ask your children this question the next time you serve ground beef patties and give them a history and geography lesson, too.

People of every land have enjoyed ground meat in one form or another, but the typically American hamburger had its origin in Russia. As far back as medieval times, the people of the Russian Baltic provinces considered it a delicacy to eat raw, red beef, seasoned and chopped fine. The sailors from the seaport of Hamburg, Germany, became fond of this dish and eventually introduced it at home. The Hamburgers developed a liking great enough to immortalize the dish with their name.

Later, some unknown cook formed the meat into patties and broiled them ever so lightly until they were brown and crisp on the outside and very rare within. In the early 19th century when German immigrants settled in the U.S., they brought Hamburg steak as part of their tradition of good cooking.

There are several stories about the way the meat patty and the bun got together. One story reports that Frank Menches created the sandwich at the Summit County Fair in 1892 at his fairground eatery. He ran out of bulk pork sausage and substituted ground beef in his sandwiches.

The owners of Louis' Lunch in New Haven, Connecticut, state that Louis Lassen created the hamburger sandwich in 1900 as a means of using the trimmings from the steak sandwich he featured in his lunch wagon. There also is a report that the hamburger as we know it was created at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition of 1904 in St. Louis.

The important thing is that the hamburger caught on quickly as a delicious and economical way to get fine food and excellent nourishment. Nutritionally, all beef meat — regardless of the cut has the same amount of protein, vitamins, and minerals. While the percentage of fat in the meat will have some effect on the total amount, the degree of difference will be relatively minor.

When buying ground meat, look for meat with a bluish red color, an indication of freshly ground meat. Remember, too, ground meat is more perishable than steaks or roasts because grinding exposes more of the meat's "surface." It is best to purchase only enough ground meat for two days unless you plan to freeze it. Store the ground meat in the coldest part of your refrigerator — usually near the ice cube compartment or in a special meat keeper.

For longer storage in a freezer, try freezing the ground meat in patties. For easy separation, put two layers of waxed paper between each patty. Then wrap the patties in freezer paper or in plastic bags and freeze at 0°F. The frozen patties can be stored this way for two to three months. Whenever possible, defrost ground beef in your refrigerator. The method you use to thaw ground meat is very important to its wholesomeness, too.

Hamburger is a thrifty and versatile meat that not only is an American tradition, but is featured in restaurants and homes around the world. There may not be ham in hamburger, but there is enough good eating to influence food habits across the globe.

Gambling Winning Must Be Reported For Income Tax

Taxpayers must report all winnings from gambling as income on their tax returns, the Internal Revenue Service said.

For tax purposes, gambling activities cover raffles, lotteries, horse racing, and bingo games. The IRS also considers cash won as prizes in contests and as awards from employers to be taxable income.

Non-cash items such as house-hold appliances, all-expense paid vacations, and cars won as prizes or donated by employers must be included in income at fair market value. Taxpayers should report both cash and non-cash winnings on Form 1040 under the category of "other income."

If a taxpayer loses money while gambling, the taxpayer may deduct his or her gambling losses on Schedule A of Form 1040 to the extent of winnings. For example, a taxpayer who loses $200 and wins $150 during the tax year may deduct $150 on his or her itemized deduction schedule in addition to reporting the $150 as income. A taxpayer must have records to substantiate gambling losses, such as racing stubs or lottery tickets, the IRS said.

If a prize or award is payable at some future time at the option of whomever is giving the prize, the amount is not taxable as income until the taxpayer either receives it or the prize is made available to him or her.

The caribou is the only deer in America with part of the antler extending forward toward the nose. All other species have antlers spreading sideways, straight up or back over the head.

now belonging to Mrs. Joe Hoenig. It was worn by the bride's great-grandmother, Mrs. Henry Fleitman at her wedding in 1899 and has been worn by the bride's mother and all daughters and granddaughters of Mrs. Hoenig.

Attendants

Honor attendants were matron of honor Mrs. Steve Zhanel of Rice, Texas and bridesmaids Mary Ann Zhanel and Mary Jane Blazek of Ennis. They were attired in rust colored gowns with long capes.

Best man was Jeff Bond of Waxahachie and groomsmen were Thomas Pelzel of Ennis, brother of the bride and Ronnie Joe Harper of Dallas. Ring bearer was Michael Pelzel, brother of the bride. Ushers were Terry Fincher of Dallas, Reggie Calhoun of Ennis and James Pelzel, brother of the bride of Oak Harbor, Washington.

The altar and sanctuary were decorated with white gladioli, mums, candelabra and greenery.

Wedding music included a vocal group and the traditional wedding marches on the organ.

Reception

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception, with dinner and dancing, was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Ennis.

Members of the house-party were Mrs. Mike Chapman of Houston, Donna Bolin, Diane Bouska, Mrs. O. Z. Wade of Ennis and Mrs. Billy Mayo, sister of the groom from Palmer, Texas, and Mrs. Terry Fincher of Dallas.

Grandparents attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig of Muenster, Mrs. Angela Pelzel of Pilot Point and Mrs. Mattie Moreland of Palmer.

Guests were registered from Ennis, Palmer, Waxahachie, Rice, Dallas, Irving, Carrollton, Denton, Pilot Point, Lindsay, Gainesville, Muenster, Houston, Tulsa, Okla. and the Naval Air Station, Whidbey Island, Washington.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of St. John High School and the groom of Waxahachie High School and he has served in the U. S. Navy.

Letter To the Editor

Dear Editor,
 We think the Friends of the Library did an excellent job in preparing the "Cooking With Friends" Cookbook. In it are over 700 of your relatives', friends', and neighbors' tested recipes. Don't forget to purchase yours soon. You won't be disappointed! Special thanks go to those who submitted recipes and especially to those who collected, typed, and prepared the recipes for publication. It's a great cookbook!

SH JV Teams Split 2 With Callisburg

Junior varsity basketballers of Sacred Heart broke even Monday night in a pair of games at Callisburg. The Tigers had a 79-35 run away and the Tigerettes lost 39-22. After a slow start by both teams, SH led 8-6 at the quarter then hit its stride and kept pouring 'em in through the next three. At the half and third they led 33-16 and 55-25. Four of the boys scored in double figures: Mark Nasche 18, Ken Hartman 17, Angelo Nasche 16 and Mel Walterscheid 14. Also Brian Bindel hit 4, Monte Endres 4, Brian Beduorz 4, Kirk Moltenkopf 2. Tigerettes trailed 20-13 the first half, then 30-13 after a scoreless third period. Finally they broke even in the fourth period and ended with the 39-22 loss. Tammy Henscheid and Shellie Walterscheid each made 5, Renetta Walterscheid and Virginia Bartush made 4 each, Angie Bartush and Christy Felderhoff scored 2 each.

Going-Away Party

A party in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Simmons Saturday evening honored Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atkins of Decatur who will move to Edinburg, Texas soon. About 30 relatives and friends from Gainesville, Lindsay and Muenster attended. Mrs. Atkins is the former Janet Stoffels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffels. Assisting Mrs. and Mrs. Simmons were family members.

"Psychiatrists say girls tend to marry men like their fathers. That explains why mothers cry at weddings."

The cuckoo, which places its eggs in the nests of other and smaller birds, does this through necessity. The largest of the insectivorous birds, it requires a large quantity of food, keeping it constantly on the search. If it sat on its egg, it could not obtain this food. If it left its eggs, they would become chilled.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

The Good Book says, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." This not only is good moral advice, it's practical as well. Because with a good name, riches often are available - at least for temporary use. Few of us could manage a home, a new automobile, or other major purchases without credit.

Credit can be your greatest friend - or your worst enemy. A small group of Americans, 4% to be exact, presently are in "financial difficulty" because they never learned how to master credit spending. One of the tragedies of credit abuse is that many who overextend themselves are not chronic spenders - they are young people who begin to use credit for necessities and then luxuries, forgetting they are spending real money.

If you need credit, or if you have questions concerning how much credit is wise for you, ask any of our officers. When they advise you on matters of credit... you can BANK on it!

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

The Forestburg 4-H met Wednesday, Jan. 25. The program for the day was on "Wildlife Habitat." Discussions were held on the Project Show, different classes and also on Method Demonstration. Members were informed that the Record Books are due July 1 so everyone needs to start working on getting theirs together. The next meeting will be Feb. 8. Everyone is to make a homemade Valentine, bring to the meeting for exchange. Those in charge of refreshments for Feb. 8 will be Chana Brewer, Karen Bell and Jackie Farrell. Pam Edwards and Leann Hays will be in charge of recreation. Present at this meeting were: Tina Wade, Jackie Farrell, Danny Souther, Page and Bart Sirman, Pam, Veronica and Doug Edwards, Jeff and Tracey Lanier, Leann Hays, Karen Bell, Chana Brewer, and Janice Lanier.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Traylor are the parents of a little girl — Jodie Deann — born Thursday, Jan. 26. Jodie weighed in at 5 lbs. 7 oz. and "discovered" America in the Bowie Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Traylor of Forestburg.

Brent and Misty Walker of Hurst spent Sat., Jan. 28, visiting their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George Osteen and family of Dallas visited Mrs. Osteen's mother Mrs. June Eldridge and Connie Sunday, Jan. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamoine of Dallas have themselves a new baby boy as of Friday, Jan. 27. His name is Eric Russell. Young Eric's mother is the former Shelia Ellzey. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ellzey of DeQuincey, La. Great grandmothers are Mrs. Ty Cook and Mrs. Decie Ellzey.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Gates are the very proud parents of a baby boy — Rocky Dale — born Thursday, Feb. 2, in the Muenster Hospital. Rocky's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Perryman of Forestburg and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gates of Torrance, Calif. and the burg. His great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dill of Era and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Freeman of Forestburg. His great-great grandmother is Mrs. Maude DeBorde.

It has been requested that I announce in this column that there will be a Special Called Meeting of the Forestburg Riding Club at 7 p.m. Monday night Feb. 20 at the Forestburg Community Center. This meeting is very important so anyone and everyone interested is urged to attend — all past and present members plus any potential new members. Due to various circumstances membership seems to have dropped from 50 members to about 4 or 5 families — so do make your plans to attend to help get this Riding Club membership on the go again.

Mrs. Judi Moore and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. Embry Clark of Bowie, Sat. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards and family visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Embry of Dyemound Sunday, Jan. 29.

Dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shears on Sunday, Jan. 29, were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neeley of Gainesville, Oscar Whiteside of Sanger, Mrs. Esther Shears and Rhett Shears.

Recent visitors in the Willard Freeman home were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colwell of Farmers Branch.

John C. Blankenship of Lindsay, Okla., had the misfortune of falling recently and breaking his arm. John is the son of Mrs. Regina Blankenship of Forestburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Galmor and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wayne Shults and family spent Sunday, Jan. 29, in Montague visiting the Jody Hoover family.

Feb. 4 and 5 weekend visitors in the home of Mrs. Wanda Perryman were Mrs. Christine Box of Hart and Mrs. Charlotte Lemaster of Tulia. They all visited with Mrs. Eula Moore at Saint Richards Villa in Muenster Sat. and Sun. On Sunday the 6 they were joined in Muenster by Terry Box and Bobbie Cheryl (Box) Pepper to visit Mrs. Moore.

Guy Gates was in Era Sunday, Jan. 29, visiting his parents-in-laws the Ray Dills.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parsons and Tonya were Jan. 28 weekend visitors in her parents home — the Buford Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Salinis of Haltom City and Mrs. Billie Steadley and sons of Deatur visited in the Joe Hunt home Sunday, Jan. 29.

Mrs. Alice Shears has gone to work at the Yes-ter-yeer Rest Home in Saint Jo. Alice started her duties as Activity Director last Thurs., Feb. 2. She will work three days a week and is very thrilled with it all.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jackson were in Muenster Sat., Feb. 4, on business and to do some shopping.

Friday, Jan. 3, found us Denhams on the way to Muenster to see "the sights", to shop and we visited with Mrs. Bess Orrell and Eula Moore at Saint Richards Villa. Yours truly also dropped by the hospital there to say "hello" to Mrs. Doyle Gates and to view the new son of Mrs. Gates.

Saturday the 4 also found the Charlie Barclays in Muenster on business and to visit Mrs. Doyle Gates and baby. Seems us Forestburgers keep the road between the burg and Muenster very well traveled for various and sundry reasons.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hudspeth spent the weekend of Feb. 4 in Wichita Falls visiting three of their daughters — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Woods and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald O'Brien and family and Paula Hudspeth.

Talked with Mrs. John (Imogene) Links recently and learned that she and her daughter Mrs. Peggy Davis have been in the earth-worm business since last May. Imogene says they have a ready market for all their worms when they get ready to sell some. She says they sure are easier to tend to their cows — no bawling, or complaining, etc. She may have something there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ellzey of DeQuincey, La., arrived in the Burg Sunday, Feb. 5, to visit her mother Mrs. Ty Cook and his mother Mrs. Decie Ellzey. They had been to Dallas to visit their daughter Shalin Lamoine, her husband Jim and the new grandson Eric.

One seedling planted to-day will produce enough wood in 20 years to make paper for over 400 First Grade readers.

Too many people believe the misconception that a forest which is being "harvested" is being "destroyed". A well-managed forest, however, will result in one-third more wood products from the same area.

Improvising:

Ben Franklin Did It... So Can You

Some people are born improvisers. Take America's pioneering families who built houses from sod, plows from scraps of metal and tables from tree trunks. When Ben Franklin needed something, he often simply invented it: his bifocals, his bathtub, his stove. "Franklin stoves" are still popular in homes today. Franklin's famous electrical experiment was an improvisation, too. With a metal wire attached to the top of a silk handkerchief kite — and a key tied to the bottom of the kite string — he ventured out into a storm. As electrical charges in the air travelled down the wet string, the key danced just as metal had reacted in his experiments with static electricity. Franklin proved his point — though at some personal risk: lightning and electricity were one and the same. Improvisation also pulls performers through many a mishap on stage. Viennese tenor Leo Slezak, stranded in center stage when overzealous stagehands removed the swan which was to whisk him off mysteriously in the third act of Lohengrin, made operatic history with his improvised riposte: "When does the next swan leave?" This is "winging it", in the vernacular — what improvisation is all about. Whenever old material is put to new uses, that's improvising. Schools often employ such simple tools as newspapers, tape and ice cream sticks to bring out a child's imaginative skills. One of the greatest boons to improvisers was the development of pressure sensitive tape. The 3M Company, which invented the first of its "Scotch" brand tapes 50 years ago, says there is hardly an imaginable use to which the tapes have not been put, at least once. People use tape to mend everything from underwear to window shades; to fasten fallen hems; to temporarily fix flat tires; to flatten protruding ears; to repair cracked eggs before boiling as well as to hold false teeth together until a dentist can bridge the gap. Motorists patch up their cars and secure sagging tail pipes with tape; bird lovers bind broken bird wings with tape; a jeweler whose fatigued eyelid droops after 40 years of squinting holds it up with a strip of tape. And, a belly dancer even uses double-coated tape to hold the jewel in her navel. Many of the company's more than 600 different types of tape have been developed to meet needs brought to its attention by improvising users: a special hair set tape, a pressure sensitive tape to fasten disposable diapers, and many others. Considering the everyday inventiveness of Americans, a U.S. senator displayed exceptional blindness early in this century when he suggested closing the U.S. Patent Office — because everything already had been invented. (In 1902, there were 690,385 patents on file in the U.S. Patent Office. Today, there are more than 3,903,000.) Americans haven't stopped improvising yet. Let's hope they never do.

bad debt for the dictator. What was Carter's purpose in completely ignoring the monetary consideration? Has he perhaps reasoned that the less said is better? He must realize that we the people can see no justification for giving away the canal in the first place and we're completely flabbergasted at the thought of paying the reds more than $2 billion to accept it. Also, we're considerably miffed at the thought of endorsing a worthless note of that size for Wall Street bankers.

And let's not overlook that talk about US right to defend the canal for years to come... to make sure that our interests are protected. If it's worth defending, why are we giving it away?
