Muenster ISD approves two contracts for roof repairs

by Elaine Schad

The Muenster School Board awarded two contracts for roof repair and discussed the district's preliminary budget for 1989-1990 at its regular meeting this week.

Two contracts for roof repair were awarded to Structures, Inc. of Muenster. A contract for $4,200 was awarded for repair for the roof on the junior high building. A $9,865 contract was awarded for installing a new metal roof on the wing of the high school that houses the fifth and sixth grades. Both roofs had been damaged by recent hail. The board is still considering repair of other damaged roof areas that are currently not leaking, including the shop, agriculture, woodshop and band hall areas.

The board is expected to approve the district's budget by late August. The district is expected to receive about $529,000 in state aid, a reduction from the $567,000 received last year. "A large part of the reduction is because we've lost some enrollment," said Superintendent Charles Coffey. He said the district could lose about 25 students in its average daily attendance, on which a major part of state aid is based. The district graduated 39 seniors and has estimated about 21 entering kindergarten students so far.

The district will continue to pay $800 above base salary for teachers with bachelor's degree and $1,300 above base for those with master's degrees. Included in the budget will be a state-mandated salary increase of $1,800 for teachers.

In another matter, the board approved a tighter remedial policy for students who fail to master the state-mandated TEAMS test in grades 7, 9 and 11. Students who do not show at least 75 percent mastery of the elements will be required to attend tutorials, which had been optional. The board also adopted a uniform grading policy, putting in writing how grading is calculated during a six-week period.

In other business, the board: - Authorized the purchase of new mini-blinds for the elementary building, three new typewriters for the high school business classes, and the purchase of eight new computers for the high school so a new computer science class can be added.

- Selected Muenster State Bank as the district's depository for the next two years.

- Reported the district still has one vacancy in special education for grades K-12. The district may also hire a part-time gifted and talented teacher.

C & A Longhorn finished third and McKamy Land and Cattle Co. of Muenster finished ninth.

The Top Hand Award went to Brad Biffle; he was given a breast collar; and Chris Baldwin, a member of Bonita Cattle Pens' team, was awarded spurs for being the Hard Luck Cowboy.

Cash prizes were given to the team placing first in each event. Winners and their times were: Mugging - McKamy Land and Cattle, 0:39.27; Wild Cow Milking - Biffle Cattle Co., 0:51.11; Team Roping - Bonita Cattle Pens, 0:26.60; Team Branding - Rocking I, 0:49.18; and Team Penning, Cross N, 1:10.59.

Lindsay ISD approves campus improvements

by Elaine Schad

The Lindsay School Board has awarded a $17,000 bid to JAWS Construction of Muenster for roof repairs on the Lindsay campus.

The roof on the gymnasium will be replaced, and the roofs on the high school and elementary will be repaired.

At their regular July meeting, trustees approved the campus and district improvement plan for 1989-1990. Included in the goals will be working on increasing the number of volumes in the library, painting and upkeep of district facilities, working on development of a gifted and talented program to be implemented for 1990-1991, and improved technology in the classroom, including having calculators available to all grade levels.

The district will receive about $160,000 in increased state aid this year. The district received $600,000 in state funding last year, officials said. Some of that additional aid will go toward state-mandated teacher pay increases. The board will consider the 1989-1990 budget at its August meeting.

In other business, the board: - Approved a 3 percent salary increase for para-professional and auxiliary personnel.

- Approved catastrophic insurance for football athletes at a one-time total premium cost of $381 for up to $250,000 in coverage with a $10,000 deductible.

- Approved Heritage Insurance of Springtown as the student insurance carrier.

- Reported the district received a 92 percent rating on a recent inspection from the Texas Department of Health. All recommendations have been corrected, officials said.

- Approved the purchase of a new stove from Dal Max of Sherman for the cafeteria at a cost of $4,150.

- Approved James Anderson as the textbook custodian.

Regional landfill is a future possibility

by Elaine Schad

Cities in and bordering Cooke County may have future access to a regional cooperative landfill under plans being studied by area officials.

Representatives of the Cooke County Commissioners Court - Tioga, Collinsville, Whitesboro, Valley View, Gainesville, Lindsay and Muenster - met recently to discuss more stringent state landfill regulations, which take effect Jan. 1. Many of the new rules deal with restricting or eliminating potential contamination to surface and well water resources, and could eventually cause some landfills to close because of cost or lack of compliance.

"We have been interested in a 'regional' landfill for quite a while," said Muenster City Administrator Joe Fenton. "It looks to me like it's going to go."

The Muenster City Council has shown support for the project, and other entities are expected to join the project within the next couple of weeks. Muenster presently uses the Gainesville landfill.

The City of Muenster is still working on receiving a permit to open a landfill north of Muenster, said Fenton. That permit will hopefully be approved by August, he said. "We always thought that the landfill north of Muenster would be for the short-term," Fenton said. "We knew the stricter regulations were coming, and that it would eventually become too costly to operate. We thought of it as a way to cut our operating costs of traveling to Gainesville while waiting for the regional landfill to come along," he said.

Other small towns are in the same situation as Muenster, according to Valley View Mayor John Kubicek. "These smaller towns and counties may be forced out of the trash business, so there is a lot of interest in a regional landfill," said Kubicek. Many of the Cooke County entities now use either public or private landfills, but some may be forced to close down while others won't even be able to obtain permits under the new regulations, he said.

The Wichita Falls consulting firm of Biggs and Mathews will conduct a study for participating entities to determine the best centralized location for a landfill in Cooke County. Included in the study, which should be ready in about 90 days, will be a 100-year plan for the county, approximate cost of the landfill, soil conditions, approximate cost per customer, whether the landfill would be owned by a cooperative arrangement or by the private sector, and whether a transfer station would be feasible.

The study will be based on an approximate use by 8,900 people, Kubicek said. Participating cities will fund the study according to population ratio, he said.

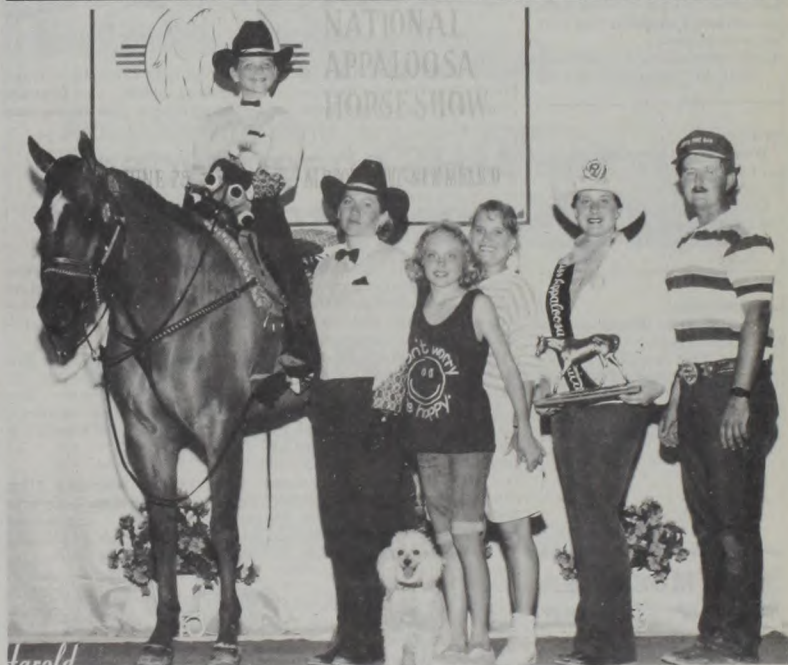

Minibus provides a real service locally

Pat Walterscheid and Traci Stoffels of the Muenster Minibus program reported that in 1988 there was a total of 1,082 trips made with passengers ranging in age from 5 to 93. The minibus's medical trips came to a total of 421 trips. These trips included going to our local doctors and pharmacy, the Denton AMI facilities for cataract surgery, allergy and asthma problems, and for dialysis. The bus also takes MHMR-related appointments, Scottish Rite Medicaid children, and Muenster Memorial patients for blood work and X-rays.

Another 661 trips were made that included helping local people with in-town grocery shopping and errand running, or to pick up and drop off passengers at the Gainesville bus station. Two trips are made daily through the summer months for local kids to work at Joe Walter's Workshop.

The Minibus staff and board wish to thank everyone for using the Minibus and welcome any and all new riders. If you or someone you know needs a ride, call City Hall and ask for Pat or Traci. When making an out-of-town appointment, please check with them first to see what is already scheduled. Call 24 hours in advance to assure your trip is possible. The number at City Hall is 759-2236.

JONNA SCHNEIDER on her horse, Shannon Lace, took first place in her age group, 6 and under, in the Western Equitation in the Appaloosa Nationals which were held in Albuquerque, New Mexico recently. Tax seminar scheduled July 26

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has announced that a representative from his agency will be in Gainesville on Wednesday, July 26, to answer questions about Texas taxes and assist taxpayers with paperwork and problems.

"I do not want to see state taxes turn into a burden for folks who cannot get to a field office. Our visits are a service we are happy to provide to Texas taxpayers," Bullock said.

Marvin Smith, Enforcement Officer, Sherman Enforcement Office will be at Gainesville Chamber of Commerce, 101 S. Culberson from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The public is welcome and there is no charge.

"I am sending my employees out to help people with questions, filling out forms, and working out problems on a local, one-to-one basis. There are some things you just cannot do as well over the phone or through the mail," Bullock said.

Gainesville area taxpayers who cannot attend the courthouse seminar can still get individual tax assistance by calling the Comptroller's toll-free telephone number, 1-800-252-5555, from anywhere in Texas.

The Sherman Enforcement Office, headed by Linda Kissinger, serves Collin, Cooke, Delta, Denton, Fannin, Grayson, Hopkins, Hunt, Lamar, Rains and Red River counties.

Letters to the Editor

My very dear friends,

For nearly a decade, it has been my custom to send a summer message to you, and this is an exceptional summer for you and for me.

In the first place, I wish to congratulate you a thousandfold on the marvelous Muenster, Texas; Celebrating 100 Years 1889-1989; Centennial History, published by the Muenster Enterprise and printed by the Gainesville Printing Co. What a magnificent souvenir!

Every individual involved, either on a tremendous scale or in a small way, may justly be proud of the Centennial History, and we are grateful to them - yes, very grateful.

You can imagine what blissful hours I spent with the History. Muenster was only 37 years old when I arrived there to teach. I relived my life as I slowly leafed through the volume, contemplating the photos. What amazed me very much was the excellency of the very old photos.

I was very happy and pleased with the selection of my photo in the Centennial History. My, how young I looked once upon a time! I give the studio the credit.

At this time, I have a considerable number of letters which are way overdue and become daily more so and, of course, new letters arrive nicely, nearly daily.

In summer, it is impossible to sit pleasantly at my desk and write for hours per day, because there are a lot of exceptional events taking place, such as a retreat, a workshop, meetings, celebrations, etc. It is also a time of reunion of the entire community, which is of course a great pleasure.

The latter is, however, of a short duration because many Sisters taught Vacation School, and summer is the time when most of the Sisters take their vacation. So, it is at this time a going and a coming here at the Convent, comparable to a bee's hive. I am only too happy that I am stationed at the Convent at this stage of my life.

I think this message ought to draw to an end. My thoughts and prayers are always with you, and from this very moment on, to the very last affair of the Centennial Year, I shall pursue the events thereof in The Muenster Enterprise.

It's just that this is the one and only Centennial Year I can help you celebrate.

Always your ancient, loving friend,
Sister M. Theresina Grob, OSB

David,

We enjoy the paper very much, but I do miss your dad's "Confetti" column.

Give your mother our regards and speedy recovery.

Theresa and Urban Flusche

Janie Hartman,

I wanted to let you know how much I appreciated your coming to Vacation Bible School to get pictures. I liked the pictures that were put in the paper.

Thanks for your contribution of time to the Bible School.

MHS cheerleaders receive spirit award

On July 12-15, the Muenster High School cheerleaders had the opportunity to be recognized for their athletic skills and dedication to their school as they attended the National Cheerleaders Association Camp at the University of North Texas in Denton.

The girls had the chance to be in the spotlight and receive some of the support that they are used to giving. For the second consecutive year, the MHS cheerleaders were awarded the coveted NCA Spirit Award. They were chosen to receive this award by the vote of all the squads in their division in recognition for their strong school spirit.

In addition to receiving the Spirit Award, the girls were also honored with six blue Superior ribbons for their almost-flawless performances during evaluations. The evaluations were based on techniques, jumps, voice control and spirit projection.

The cheerleaders were also presented with a Spirit Stick each night and received the honor of taking it home as reward for the hard work and determination they expressed throughout the week.

Tina Klement, the squad's Hornet Mascot, was awarded three blue Superior ribbons for her character antics and ability to work with the cheerleaders.

Throughout the week, the girls learned many new cheers that emphasized crowd involvement. They learned new chants, partner stunts, jumps and pom pom routines as well.

Era ISD reviews budget

by Elaine Schad

The Era School Board has reviewed a preliminary $1.4 million budget for 1989-1990.

The budget is about a 7.8 percent increase over last year's $1.3 million budget. Much of the increase is a result of a state-mandated $1,800 salary increase for teachers. Total budgeted salaries are expected to rise from $456,000 to about $501,000.

The district is expected to receive about $100,000 in increased state aid, but that will not cover the salary increases and other state-mandated programs, such as a gifted and talented program, the district must implement, said Era Superintendent Dale Smiley. The board is expected to approve the budget at its August meeting.

Budweiser family of beers reigns supreme on market

The pairing of the long-reigning "King of Beers," Budweiser, and the fastest growing major beer brand in America, Bud Light, has provided Anheuser-Busch with a formidable double-play combination in the US beer industry. Now, with the introduction of Bud Dry, the Budweiser "family of beers" offers consumers a whole new taste that "Comes On Strong, Then It's Gone."

In 1988, the Budweiser family sold 60 million barrels and accounted for 30 percent of total beer industry sales, catapulting Anheuser-Busch over 40 percent market share.

Introduced in 1876 as America's first national beer brand, Budweiser today accounts for one of every four beers consumed in the US. Operating from the largest volume base in the industry, Budweiser continued to outperform the industry in 1988, and "The King of Beers" is entering its 32nd consecutive year as the world's best-selling beer.

Since its introduction in 1982, Bud Light has matured into a strong complement to the best-selling Budweiser, making the Budweiser-Bud Light tandem the dominant one-two punch in the US beer industry.

Bud Light, the fastest growing major beer brand in America, is enjoying volume gains rarely seen in the beer industry and showing no signs of leveling off. In 1988, Bud Light moved up to the number three position in the US beer market.

Much of the success of the Budweiser family of beers can be attributed to highly popular advertising campaigns for the two brands and innovative sales promotions where Bud and Bud Light are combined.

For example - "Bud Bowl I," the Super Bowl XXIII advertising and sales promotion campaign - which featured longneck bottles of Budweiser and Bud Light playing football - vaulted the two brands to their highest-ever combined sales for January. The "Bud Family" is also being featured together again this year in promotions involving the Major League Baseball All-Star Game balloting and the Muscular Dystrophy Association. "More and more, we recognize that Budweiser and Bud Light are synergistic in the marketplace," said Michael J. Roarty, Anheuser-Busch executive vice-president and director of marketing. "If Bud Dry continues to perform as well as expected, we feel it can be a strong addition to our successful 'Budweiser Family.'"

Sam Bass Pioneer Day ... a page in history
Sam Bass Pioneer Day in Rosston is history. It was all well attended and everyone who came seemed to have a good time. That was our goal to try and provide fun and happiness for everyone young and old.

It was a first time for our style show, "Fashions and Music," and also a first for the "Cannonball Cloggers" of Sherman. We hope you enjoyed these added attractions in the program this time.

We would like to offer our thanks to everyone who came, and to everyone who helped in any form or fashion to make the day a success.

The wedding of Debra Leigh Nortman and Donald Joseph Neu was an event of Saturday, July 15, held in St. Peter's Church of Lindsay at 5 p.m.

Msgr. Hubert Neu of Arlington officiated for the Nuptial Mass and double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of LaVern and Harold Nortman of Rt. 2, Gainesville.

The groom is the son of Mary and Charles Neu of Rt. 2, Gainesville.

Sanctuary decorations included blue votive candles on the Communion railing. Arrangements of white roses and white gladioli were on the altar, and more baskets of matching flowers were used in the altar space. Outstanding was an arch decorated with blue and white flowers and English ivy enhancing the entrance way to the church. Baby blue tulle bows marked family pews in the center aisle of the church.

In this altar setting, the bride was presented by her father. She wore a designer gown of bridal white satin and crystalline accented with Alencon lace, sequins and pearls. The fitted bodice with Victorian neckline had long bishop sleeves tapering to a point over her wrists. Beaded Alencon lace highlighted the bodice and sleeves. The full skirt was enhanced in front at slipper-length by an elegant detail of lace that matched the lavish edging of the cathedral-length train. Lace tiers of crystalline ruffles cascaded down the bustle-effect bow at the back waistline.

The bride designed her veil with a crown of flowers and delicate ribbon. It held three tiers of net in succeeding lengths flowing down the back of the dress.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white silk roses, baby's breath, and pearl sprays, detailed with blue and white ribbon and delicate pink ribbon. The bride also wore a family tradition red ruby ring that was her grandmother's engagement ring.

ATTENDANTS

Sandra Hess of Lindsay, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Deana Tharp of Gainesville, bride's sister, and Lucy Fuhrmann of Lindsay, classmate and friend of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They wore tea-length dresses of baby blue satin. The fitted bodice with rounded neckline had elbow-length puffed sleeves. The full skirts had tiers of ruffles cascading from the bustle-bow in back.

Each carried a fan of blue, white and pink flowers with matching ribbons, and an accent of pink pearl sprays.

Jennifer Nortman of Bay City, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Mark Neu of Lindsay, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Stanley Hess of Gainesville, a friend of the groom, served as best man.

Eddie Hughes of Gainesville, classmate and friend of the groom, and Greg Zimmerer of Lindsay, classmate of bride and friend of groom, were groomsmen.

Michael Nortman of Bay City, bride's nephew, and Brian Hermes of Lindsay, a friend of the groom, were Mass servers.

Ushers were David Tharp of Gainesville, bride's brother-in-law, Leslie Neu of Lindsay, groom's brother, and Tommy Neu, groom's brother, and Leslie Sandmann of Lindsay, groom's brother-in-law.

Danny Nortman served as lector for the wedding liturgy and David and Barbara Nortman, and Michael and Joyce Bengfort presented Offertory gifts at the altar.

Ruth Felderhoff presented traditional wedding marches and accompanied Emily Klement who sang "Treasures," "Let It Be Me," "Wedding Song," "Like A Seal On Your Heart," "Wherever You Go," "Beginning Today" and "Hail Mary, Gentle Woman."

RECEPTION

A reception followed in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gainesville.

Tonya Hess of Gainesville and Shelly Fleitman of Lindsay secured guest signatures in the bride's book.

The bride's cake was made by Cathie and Francis Fuhrmann. The groom's cake was made by Joyce Bengfort.

Reception assistants were Angie Bengfort, April Sandmann, and Tina Brozovich, all of Lindsay, and Cheryl Hacker of Myra.

When the couple returns from a wedding trip, they will reside north of Lindsay.

The bride is a 1988 graduate of Lindsay High School and attended Cooke County College. She is employed by Southwestern Diabetic Foundation and Gainesville Memorial Hospital.

The groom is a 1987 graduate of Lindsay High School and is employed by Valenite Industries.

First birthday celebrated

KIMBERLY BLOEDEL
Kimberly Kaye Bloedel was honored on June 4 with a party for her first birthday in the home of her maternal grandparents, Gene and Judy Hartman, of Denton. Her birthday is June 3.

A teddy bear theme was used and dozens of teddy bears in vivid colors were cut out and strung together by Kimberly's mother, Pam, to use in decorating. Balloons and crepe paper in the bright colors to match the teddy bears were draped throughout the party room. Signs proclaiming "Kimberly's 1st" and "Happy Birthday" were hung in the windows.

The Panda Bear birthday cake was baked and decorated by Kimberly's mother. The theme was in keeping with Kimberly's favorite bedtime story, The Three Bears. A story that has been told to her since before she was born by her "G-Ma."

The children all received summer beach pails filled with all sorts of goodies to play with and to eat. Kimberly's mother had painted each guest's name on their pail.

There were 10 children and 27 adults present to help Kimberly celebrate. The event was videoed by Kimberly's grandfather, Gene Hartman.

Guests attending besides the host and hostess were: Kimberly's parents, Pam and Dana Bloedel; great-grandmothers, Mrs. Victor Hartman and Mrs. Dick Cain, of Muenster; LaQueta and Bill McCollum, (a great-aunt and -uncle); Kelley and Keith Orsburn; Tracy and Andy Lawson; Charlotte, Mandy and Molly Ragel; Tracey Nichols; Uncle Doug Hartman; Aunt Jeanna and Uncle Tim Sutton, Kimberly's godparents; Jim, Beth and Christy Davis; Sharon Arnold and Kenny, Luke and Jesse; Craig Stensgard; Judy, Jerry, Kari and Jay Stensgard; Willie and Rosa Adam; Melanie Hesse; Stacey Sutton; and Lisa, Jim and Ross Collins.

"Vial of Life" explained to AARP meeting

Two outstanding speakers highlighted the meeting of AARP No. 1049 at Whaley United Methodist Church July 14, 1989. After the noon luncheon, Mrs. Marge Tittsworth of Lake Kiowa explained the "Vial of Life" program to the membership. These vials, to be kept in the refrigerator, contain important information such as medical problems, medications and allergies, also doctors' names and numbers, next of kin, etc.

The "Vial of Life" program is a method of giving fast, accurate medical and personal information in the event of an emergency. Vial should be placed in back right-hand corner of refrigerator, with a sticker on the entry way door.

The women's group at Lake Kiowa implemented the program there by going door to door. In Gainesville and other parts of the county, it would probably be more feasible to contact people through service clubs and other organizations.

The EMS, Kiwanis Club, Plaza Pharmacy and others have been very helpful in implementing the program. For information, contact Cole Bower, 665-1177, Marge Tittsworth, 665-9967, or Joyce Borden, 665-9379.

"This is my second time to see the show," Wilburn added. "I was here last year and liked it so much I came back."

Set beneath the 600-foot cliffs of Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo and Canyon, "TEXAS" is performed nightly except Sundays at 8:30 p.m. from mid-June through late August.

Commissioners get 'thank you' from Cub Scouts

The Texas Highway Commission got a big "thank you" June 28 for satisfying a decades-long quest for a bridge across the Red River.

Ten members of Nocona's Cub Scout Pack 108 presented the commission with a 4-foot-square, hand-painted plywood "card" in appreciation for funding construction of a bridge across the river. The commission approved the funding in December.

The card was presented to the Oklahoma Transportation Commission earlier in June. Scoutmaster Tracy Mesler said the boys spent several weeks cutting, sanding and painting the plywood card, and they hope to see the two halves joined when the bridge is dedicated.

Commission Chairman Robert Dedman assured the scouts that the spirit of cooperation between the two states would get the bridge built. Such cooperation and the scouting program, represent the "best of Americana," Dedman said.

In January 1988, a delegation from northern Texas and southern Oklahoma filled the hearing room in the Dewitt C. Greer Building in Austin, asking for a bridge. The scouts were disappointed they didn't get to make that trip, so they became involved in the "thank you."

Scout James Booth, 10, said he enjoyed his first trip to Austin, and was looking forward to a tour of the Capitol. "The most fun was going into the auditorium" to present the card, he said.

Mesler said area residents and their neighbors north of the river have been trying to secure a crossing since the last bridge burned in 1950. Three bridges and five ferries, all privately owned, once crossed the river in Montague County, and Interstate 35 north of Gainesville, in Cooke County, is the longest unbridged section along the Texas-Oklahoma border.

John Speed, district environmental coordinator in Wichita Falls, said preliminary plans call for the construction of about 18 miles of farm-to-market road and half of the 3,000-foot bridge. The concrete bridge will stretch from about two miles northwest of Illinois Bend on the Texas side of the river to Courtney on the Oklahoma side.

Texas' price tag for the project is estimated at about $12 million, Speed said. Construction of the two-lane bridge will probably begin in 1992, he said.

Local Scouts plan trip

On Sunday, July 16, Jon Fleitman and Gus Felderhoff of Jamboree Troop 1719, Boy Scout Troop 664, attended the final planning session for their trip to the National Jamboree in Virginia.

The boys received their itinerary for the pre-Jamboree tour of Washington, Philadelphia and New York City. While in Washington, they will be part of a special committee to welcome the King of Saudi Arabia to the United States. They will meet President Bush, Vice-President Quayle, and Secretary of State Schultz. The troop will present plaques to President Bush and the King of Saudi Arabia.

Gus and Jon will also visit the Washington Monument, the Lincoln Memorial, the Vietnam Memorial, the Library of Congress, the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Iwo Jima Statue, the Jefferson Memorial, the Embassy Row, the White House, the FBI Building, the National Archives, the US Capitol, Ford's Theatre, the Lincoln Museum, Bureau of Engraving, the National Air and Space Museum, the Natural History Museum, the Arlington National Cemetery, the Pentagon and the American History Museum.

The following two days will be spent in Philadelphia and New York City. The highlights of this visit will include Independence Hall, the home of Betsy Ross, Christ's Church and its cemetery, Congress Hall, Old City Hall, the US Mint, Fireman's Hall Museum, Elfreth's Alley, and Ben Franklin's gravesite. The New York City tour will include the Statue of Liberty, the World Trade Center and the United Nations.

The next morning will be spent traveling to the actual Jamboree site at Fort A.P. Hill, Virginia where 40,000 Scouts and leaders will participate in Jamboree activities for the remaining seven days of the trip. These activities will include waterfront sports, swapping patches, new skills, the great arena show and other challenging activities.

Fette family holds memorable reunion

After a year of work and planning by Kay Fette Hickey, assisted by her sister, Linda Fette Goodwin, descendants of the John and Annie Fette family gathered in Muenster on the weekend of June 30 through July 2 for a memorable family reunion.

More than 160 descendants of John Fette and his brothers and sisters, Henry, William, C.J., Anda and Agnes, attended the reunion.

Activities began Friday evening when families assembled at the local motel to get acquainted and visit. Books consisting of individual family histories, pictures, anecdotes, genealogies, and mailing addresses were distributed.

On Saturday, a noon meal was catered by Ed and Ginny Schneider to all members present in the Muenster City Park. Later, family portraits were made by Karen Trubenbach of Memories Studio.

Sam Ratliff, disguised with cane and glasses to portray a likeness of John Fette, emceed a program to welcome and recognize individuals with fun trophies. Marge Fette Ratliff's family entertained with an original song.

Afterwards, Evelyn Meurer hosted a watermelon treat which was served by Martha Sue Meurer and Sr. Mary John Seyler. The day ended with swimming.

The 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church Sunday was offered for the living and deceased Fette families and was attended by many members.

Agnes Fette Seyler and her three

While in Vancouver, Washington, they were houseguests of Howard and Ruthie Mollenkopf. One day was spent on Mt. St. Helen.

The scenery was beautiful and the trip was interesting and memorable for both couples.

Farm News

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Farm values on decline

The slide in farmland values continued in Texas in 1989, dropping 5 percent from last year to $443/acre. Nationwide, farmland values rose 6 percent to $597, still 27 percent below the $823/acre peak of 1982.

"The good news is that the depression in our nation's farm economy appears to have bottomed out after the catastrophic farm policies of the past eight years," Commissioner Hightower said. "The bad news is that Texas, along with over half a million family farmers and ranchers nationwide who were pushed out the land during the decade, is not part of the recovery. Statewide, farmland values are 32 percent below the peak of $652/acre in 1985."

This information was taken from the Survey of Agricultural Financial Conditions conducted by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service as a cooperative function of TDA and USDA. The survey group was sampled by region to be representative of Texas producers. A sample of 6,250 producers was selected. Responses were obtained from 72 percent by mail and telephone follow-up.

Agricultural Land Values (Dollars/Acre)
	1985	1987	1989
TEXAS	652	482	443
U.S.	679	547	597

There has been a lot of discussion over seed quality this year. Many fields that were cut with wheat and oats had seed of low bushel weight. Recently, Jim Black, our Area Agronomist, ran some germination tests on various varieties of wheat and a single oat sample. The results were as follows:

VARIETY	BUSHEL WEIGHT	GERMINATION %
Aurora	50#	94
Calderwell	50#	98
Pioneer 2551	53#	97
McNair 1003	49#	91
Florida 302	53#	75

TE 5221 50# 98
Pioneer 2157 57# 96
Collin 59# 92
Harpool 833 Oat 34# 92

This data indicates that germination has very little relationship to bushel test weight. Even the Florida 302 sample will be adequate for fall planting in this particular test at normal seeding rates.

Producers wishing to have a germination test run on their seed can send it to any private laboratory or to the Texas Department of Agriculture Seed Testing Laboratory at Stephenville. The Stephenville address is Texas Department of Agriculture Seed Laboratory, 241 East McNeil, Stephenville, TX 76401. Checks should accompany samples and the fee is $12 per sample. The turnaround on samples is approximately 12 days. Producers should get a good representative sample of their seed and state the kind of variety, the year it was grown and the test desired. Be sure and indicate on your sample if there has been any seed protectant or treatment placed on the seed. This will help those handling the seed use some type of protection.

On wheat and oat samples, the lab needs 2 pounds of seed to run a sample.
