Trubenbach and Doc's Tee Coyote garner points...

Mare wins novice finals

"She's been a good touch this year," said Loyd Trubenbach of his black mare Doc's Tee Coyote. The talented horse is owned by Trubenbach and a man from Oklahoma. Doc's Tee Coyote is now a world champion among novice cutting horses.

After competing in Will Roger's Coliseum on Sept. 25-29 Trubenbach and the mare have two saddles and four buckles to add to their collection. Loyd's daughter, Toni, also competed on Doc's Tee Coyote and won a belt buckle in the Youth Class semifinals of the ACHA (American Cutting Horse Association) World Finals. The saddles were won in the 1991 ACHA $3,000 Novice and 1991 Novice $1,500 divisions.

The division that a horse and rider will compete in depends on the amount of money won by the horse at the beginning of that year's competition. For instance to compete in the $1,500 class the horse must not have accumulated more than that amount in winnings.

Also competing on Trubenbach's mare was the controversial sports caster Randy Galloway of WBAP Radio. "People were hoping that he would fall off," remarked Trubenbach. "He said he hadn't been on a horse in 20 years. He went to somebody's house and practiced two times. The newspaper people there were wanting to see him fall off, but he didn't fall off. He had one of those death grips on the saddle."

Some of the other celebrities there were Senator Moncrief, Gib Lewis, and several others. Galloway won the Celebrity competition and has talked about it on the radio several times since. For his efforts Galloway won a belt buckle and got to visit the chiropractor the next day.

Loyd has been interested in cutting horses for a long time. It started out as a hobby when he lucked into owning a stud horse that proved to be a very good cutting horse. He said he has been competing in cutting horse competitions for at least 10 years.

"I've been riding and showing for a long time," Trubenbach said.

"But I just never hauled for the World until the last 10 years. You don't haul every year for the world."

The horseman explained that "hauling for the World" means that you go to a show every weekend somewhere to compete so that you can stay in the standings. The standings go by points and money earned counts as points. To win the saddles depends on who has the most points.

The World Association is a body and there are small bodies that are affiliated with the big body (World Association). To go to the World Finals you have to make the top 10 in one of those affiliates.

Loyd spent most of the last two months this Fall hauling his horses to shows. He figures that he has logged about 8,000 miles showing horses recently. "I wasn't gonna haul for the world this year, but this horse got in the lead early," he said. "She was in the lead half way through the season and you don't just quit then."

To do well in cutting competition takes a good horse. No matter how good the rider if the horse doesn't have the ability you can't do well at cutting. "It's up to the rider to get the ability out of the horse - you train them," commented Loyd. "You do not use the reins, but you can squeeze them with your legs, and spur 'em, and stop 'em. You can not cue the horse other than using the spurs and that must be behind the girt. Any other cues will cost you a penalty if the judges catch you at it."

Some other penalties are for letting the cow get past you, five points; moving reins, 1 point every time you do it; if a cow turns to you and you pick up its a hot quit, a cow is supposed to turn away from you or be dead stopped before you can change and go to another cow.

The scoring ranges from 60 to 80 with 70 being average. "A 73 or 74 is a real good run, way above average," explained Loyd. "I've seen 76's before, but I've never seen above a 76. There is no such thing as a perfect run. There's close but there's not perfect. A lot of it is

by Elaine Schad

The Muenster School Board set the local school district tax rate at 5 cents during its regular October meeting, with the rate expected to be the second lowest in Cooke County by the time all the school districts have set their rates, officials said.

When combined with the new education district rate of 93 cents, Muenster school district taxpayers will be paying a total of 98 cents in school taxes. Sivells Bend ISD is the only district in Cooke County expected to have a lower rate, since that district has stated its intent to set the rate at 93 cents, the same as the CED rate, officials said.

Superintendent Steve Cooper said the 5 cent rate will provide for the district's debt service. He said the combined rate will provide $3,769 per pupil in funding for the school district, compared to $3,340 per student last year.

While the new combined rate is significantly higher than the Muenster ISD rate of 73 cents last year, Cooper said that businesses, Please See MISD, Page 3

Lutkenhaus, Herbold earn Gold Star

Charlene Lutkenhaus of Lindsay and Sean Herbold of Callisburg were announced as having earned the top 4-H honor, the Gold Star Award, at the annual Cooke County 4-H Achievement Banquet on Monday, Oct. 14, in the Gainesville Civic Center.

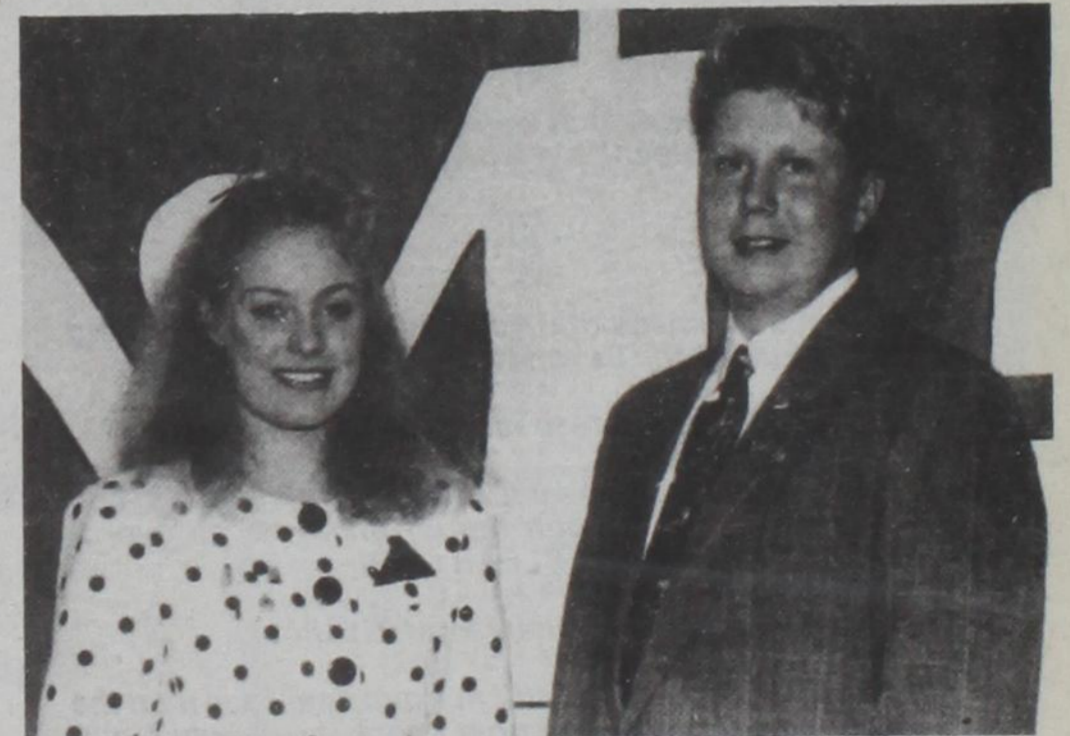

Tom Carson, station manager at Gainesville Radio Station KGAF, spoke about communication and the changes from radio to party lines to the FAX machine. He wondered about the dangers of communication and the graphic details from the world; are we pushing it to the excesses and what are the boundaries, if any, on communications?

Carson told the youths that the most important type of communication was for parents to listen to their children and for the kids to listen to their parents. "Listening is the key to communication," stressed Carson.

Last year's Gold Star Award winners Sherilyn Sicking and Clifford Lutkenhaus were mistress and master of ceremonies for the banquet. Lutkenhaus introduced the special guests, including Representative Ric Williamson and Cooke County District Attorney Augie Boto. Williamson told those present that the state has renewed its financial support of 4-H extension agents with new legislation after considering cutbacks. The new legislation was adopted due to the great support shown by voters. Cooke County citizens were very supportive, he said.

Gold Star Awards were presented by District Judge Jerry Woodcock. This is the highest county achievement award. Recipients must have completed at least three different project areas, including the submission of the appropriate record forms, and have participated in one or more major 4-H events or activities.

Charlene Lutkenhaus, daughter of Dennis and Carolyn Lutkenhaus, has been involved in poultry, clothing, foods and nutrition, recreation, health, shooting sports, consumer education and entomology. She has taught foods and clothing projects and modeling, given illustrated talks, taught bread making classes to more than 160 people.

Charlene's leadership experiences include offices of secretary/treasurer, vice president, president and member of club, county and district committees. Areas of state competition this year include food show, fashion show and illustrated talks.

Lindsay approves street project change orders

by Elaine Schad
The Lindsay City Council approved several change orders to the city's street construction project during its regular October meeting.

The council is working on the reconstruction and upgrading of Circle Drive and Elizabeth Street. The contractor had to tear out a curb that had been done because rebar was not put into the curb. The curb was redone at the cost to the contractor.

The council approved the expansion of the project to allow for reconstruction of several driveways and the addition of about 150 feet of street that was not included in the original project. The project was extended to a little farther in the Parkview Addition that runs west and then south because that part of the road was in need of repair also, officials said.

Several private driveways and private property sidewalks were also added to the project, mostly on Elizabeth Street. The city's engineer is expected to have updated cost figures by the Nov. 4 meeting, officials said. The project is expected to be completed by the first week of November.

In another matter, the council delayed approval of a plat submitted by Scott Fleitman. Fleitman is requesting that property at the corner of Oak and Fourth Streets be redivided from one to three lots. The council still had some questions concerning the sewer lines on the property and must also provide a quit claim deed for an alleyway associated with the plat before final approval can be given, which is expected next month.

A third item at the meeting concerned some reorganization of the council in order to fill the mayor's spot. The city council is looking for someone to appoint to a council position after cancelling the Nov. 5 special election for mayor. No one filed for the position, which became vacant at the death of Doyle Cogburn.

The council is expected to appoint Mayor Pro Tem Don Metzler to the mayor's spot at its Nov. 4 meeting. The mayor's term expires in May 1992. Metzler is a former Lindsay mayor, serving from 1986 to 1990. He has been on the council for six years.

The council is also expected to appoint someone to fill the council position vacated by Metzler. His term expires in May 1993. The council will also expect a new mayor pro tem.

In a final item, it was reported that a trial concerning the city's lawsuit against WGA Cable Company has been postponed. It was set to go to trial Oct. 14, but has been rescheduled for Jan. 13, 1992.

A NEW TROPHY, won by the FMW Insurance Agency, is shown proudly by Earl J. Fisher, at right, who accepts a plaque of appreciation given for representing the company for 50 years, by Mike Wallace, Marketing Representative for Trinity Universal Insurance Company.

Rep. Finnell seeks re-election

HOLLIDAY - To the standing applause of more than 400 area supporters gathered at the Holliday School, State Rep. Charles Finnell announces his plans for re-election.

"There is much that we have accomplished during this session," Finnell, D-Holliday, said, "our rail-crossing act will save lives in Texas' smaller cities, we preserved the communities of interest in the redistricting process, we helped spur employment and economic growth in the agribusiness industry, we made strides in improving the quality of education for our rural communities. But there is much left to do."

The Northwest Texas representative also said he looked forward to continuing his role as a problem solver in the 13-county district in meeting the challenges of the '90s.

Before Finnell's announcement, State Comptroller John Sharp addressed the audience that included several state leaders and recalled his first term as a state representative.

"Charles Finnell was one of the people who showed me what it means to be a representative," Sharp said, "and I still rely on Charles' advice on rural and agricultural issues." Guests at the standing-room only Finnell Fish Fry were also treated to a meal served by the famous Muleskinners of Iowa Park and country fiddle music led by a local vocational agriculture teacher. The master of ceremonies for the campaign kick-off event was Holliday Independent School District President Mike Birdwell, said Don Talley, Finnell campaign treasurer.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS For the November 5, 1991, Election

John Hannah, Jr., Secretary of State

This November, Texans will have the opportunity to vote on 13 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. To help you make informed decisions on these propositions, we present the following summaries of the proposed amendments. Below you will find the proposition as it will appear on the ballot followed by a brief description of the effect the proposition will have if it is passed.

Proposition 1:

"The constitutional amendment allowing home-rule cities with a population of 5,000 or less to amend their charters by popular vote."

Summary: A home-rule city is a city that is able to govern itself, generally through the actions of a city council or commission. To become a home-rule city, a city must have a population of at least 5,000, it must hold an election to become a home-rule city, and the measure must pass by a majority vote. Once a city becomes a home-rule city, it may adopt a charter, and this charter may be amended through an election every two years. However, under current law, if the population of a home-rule city falls below 5,000, the city is no longer allowed to amend its charter. If passed, this amendment would allow home-rule cities whose populations have fallen below 5,000 to continue to amend their charters through elections.

Proposition 2:

"The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to spend money on turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority. The Department of Transportation may use any available money that it has for this purpose. However, if the Department of Transportation uses money from the state highway fund, this money must be replaced by money collected by the Texas Turnpike Authority from tolls and turnpike revenue. Currently, the state is not allowed to use any public money to build or maintain toll roads or turnpikes.

Proposition 3:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

Summary: If passed, this amendment would ease the restrictions on how the Veterans' Land Board can invest money from the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. The board may invest any money that is not to be used for the payment of principal and interest on bonds, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. In addition, the board is no longer limited to investing this money in bonds or securities of the federal government.

Proposition 4:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of the institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the state to issue up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The money from selling these bonds will be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons and substance abuse facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions. This money will also be used to repair and renovate existing facilities. The bonds and interest on the bonds will be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not set aside by the state constitution for other purposes.

Note: A general obligation bond is a bond that is repaid from the State's general revenue fund. Most of the money in this fund comes from state taxes and fees.

Proposition 5:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the exemption for ad valorem taxes of certain property in an enterprise zone."

Summary: This amendment deals with property owned by an individual or organization that does business in an enterprise zone. If passed, this amendment would allow a county, a junior college district, or a municipality to exempt certain personal property from ad valorem taxation. To be exempt from this tax, the following conditions must be met: (1) the property must be acquired or brought into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state; (2) the property must be assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone; (3) the property must be transported outside the state within 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprise zone; and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is in a qualified business.

The purpose of this amendment is to encourage economic development in enterprise zones. Because some personal property will not be taxed, it will be less costly to operate a business in an enterprise zone.

Notes: An ad valorem tax is a tax imposed on the value of property. An enterprise zone is an area that has substantial poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. A qualified business is a business that is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprise zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. "Enterprise zones" and "qualified businesses" are designated by the Texas Department of Commerce.

Proposition 6:

"The constitutional amendment creating the Texas Ethics Commission and authorizing the commission to recommend the salary for members of the legislature and the lieutenant governor, subject to voter approval, and to set the per diem for those officials, subject to a limit."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will create a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by the Texas Constitution. The commission will consist of eight appointed members. These members will be selected by the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House from lists of names submitted by legislators from each major political party. This commission can recommend the salary of the members of the legislature. It can also recommend that the salary of the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor be higher than the salary of the other members. If the commission recommends a change in salary, the voters of the state will be able to accept or reject the salary change at the next general election for state and county officers. If the voters approve the recommended salary, the salary will take effect on January 1st of the next odd-numbered year. If the voters reject the salary, the salaries would remain the same. In addition, the commission can set the per diem of the members of the legislature and of the Lieutenant Governor. This per diem could be raised or lowered every two years, as necessary. The commission will also have other powers and duties as provided by Senate Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, Regular Session (the ethics bill). Finally, this amendment provides that an increase in the Lieutenant Governor's salary will not disqualify a legislator from becoming Lieutenant Governor.

If this amendment does not pass, there will still be a Texas Ethics Commission that is established by statute. This commission could not set the per diem of the members of the legislature.

Note: A commission that is established by the Texas Constitution can only be repealed by the voters. A commission that is created by statute can be repealed by the legislature.

Proposition 7:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the board of trustees of a statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in a manner that the board considers prudent."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will change the way in which the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system can invest the system's funds. Currently, a board can only invest its retirement funds in securities (stocks, bonds, etc.). However, if this amendment passes, a board may invest its retirement funds in any way that it thinks is prudent.

Proposition 8:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the voters of this state to consider state debt questions in the form of ballot propositions that must clearly describe the amounts, purposes, and sources of payment of the debt only after approval of the propositions by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature."

Summary: This amendment deals with the way that voters will vote on legislative action that would create a debt for the State. Currently, all propositions that create state debt must be approved by two-thirds of each house of the legislature and by a majority of voters during a constitutional amendment election. When these propositions are passed, they actually become part of the state constitution.

If passed, this proposition would still require propositions that create debt to be approved by a two-thirds vote of the legislature and a majority of the voters. However, when these propositions are passed, they will not become part of the state constitution. Instead, they will be enacted by statute. In addition, when the proposition is placed on the ballot, it must clearly describe the purpose of the debt, the cost of the debt, and how the debt will be repaid. The amount of the debt in the proposition can not be exceeded or renewed unless the proposition says that the debt can be exceeded or renewed.

Note: Creating a debt for the State means spending money that the State does not currently have. Selling bonds is one way that State debt is created.

Proposition 9:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50 years."

Summary: This amendment deals with lands that are technically owned by the state of Texas. In some cases, people have purchased or acquired this land from someone other than the State. While the State still technically owns this land, some people who purchased or acquired the land did not know that the land was owned by the state. From the time that these people purchased or acquired this land, they have believed that they are the legal owners.

If passed, this amendment will allow the Land Commissioner to give the legal title for this land (called public free school fund land) to certain people. A person is entitled to receive a legal title to this land if: (1) the land is surveyed public free school land; (2) the person could not gain the land's title under previous law; (3) when the person acquired the land, he or she did not know that the land was legally owned by the state and has believed that he or she has owned the land since January 1, 1941; (4) the person has a recorded deed on file in the county courthouse and has claimed the land for at least 50 years as of January 1, 1991; and (5) all taxes on the land, including any interest and penalties for late tax payments, have been paid for at least 50 years.

Note: Public free school fund land is owned by the State. Any revenue that this land generates (through sale, rent, etc.) is placed in the Permanent School Fund.

Proposition 10:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxes certain property of a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater service."

Summary: This amendment deals with property owned by a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater services. If passed, this amendment will allow the legislature to exempt property that is owned by these corporations from ad valorem taxes. In order for this property to be exempted, the nonprofit corporation must meet the following conditions: (1) the corporation's bylaws must say that, if the corporation stops operating, any leftover assets must be transferred to an organization that provides water supply, wastewater service, or both; (2) the leftover assets must be property that can be used for water supply and wastewater services.

Note: An ad valorem tax is a tax imposed on the value of property.

Proposition 11:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing a state lottery."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the State to operate lotteries. The State would also be able to contract with other organizations that would operate lotteries on the State's behalf.

Proposition 12:

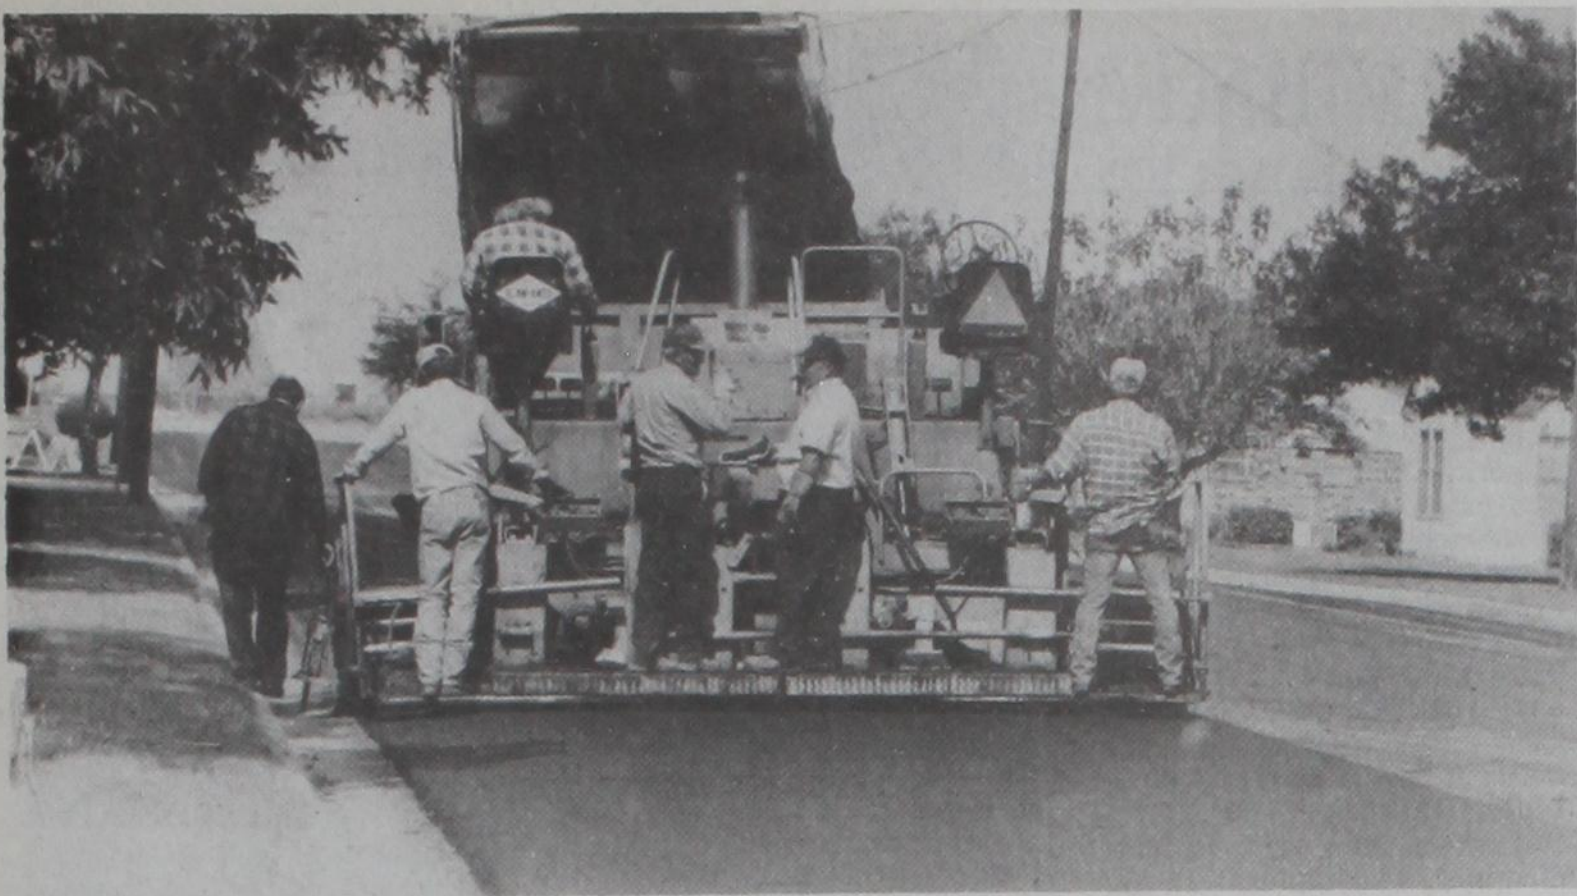

"The constitutional amendment to increase from 20 percent to 50 percent the percentage of Texas water development bonds previously authorized by Texas voters that may be issued for economically distressed areas."

Summary: This amendment deals with reallocating a percentage of the $500 million of Texas water development bonds that were approved by Texas voters in 1989. These bonds were to be issued to fund water supply, water quality, and flood control projects. Currently, the board is limited to issuing 20% of the $500 million (or $100 million) of these bonds to provide water and wastewater facilities to economically distressed areas of the state. If passed, this amendment will allow the board to issue up to 50% of the $500 million (or $250 million) of these bonds for this purpose.

Proposition 13:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds not to exceed $300,000,000 to continue existing programs to provide educational loans to students, with repayments of student loans applied toward retirement of the bonds."

Summary: If passed, this amendment will allow the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to issue up to $300 million in general obligation bonds. The money from selling these bonds will be used to finance educational loans to students. In the past, all bonds in this program have been retired through repayments from student borrowers, not the taxpayer.

AT WORK on a street repair project in Muenster is this paving machine, putting down a hot-laid asphalt mix which will be 1 1/2 inches thick after rolling. The thickness takes the unevenness out of the surface and fills in the rough places. The work is being done by Overland Corp. of Ardmore, Oklahoma on Pecan Street from Hwy. 82 to Sixth Street; also on two blocks of Fourth Street from Hickory to Walnut. Part of the preparation for paving included trimming trees to allow equipment to pass under.

and not the typical homeowner, are expected to bear the brunt of the taxes.

"It might not be quite as much of a shock to the homeowner," he said. The August election that set certain exemptions for homesteads and the elderly could result in some taxpayers paying fewer dollars in local property taxes, Cooper said.

In other business, the board of trustees received an update on the progress of the proposed North Texas Education Network. Muenster Telephone is laying the groundwork for schools in the North Central Texas area to be connected in the future by fiber optic cable. The newest technological advancement, when completed, would allow schools to be connected to each other and allow for interactive televised classroom instruction.

Sacred Heart Principal Jack Murdock is the president of the group that has formed to pursue the project, with Era Superintendent Dale Smiley serving as vice president. The group is seeking grant money for the project. The goal of the network is to eventually allow for schools to interchange their best resources, such as superior teacher in one subject or a school that offers a unique subject, so that all the schools could share through television. The network may also be hooked up with Cooke County College or other educational avenues, officials said.

In another matter, the board discussed the district's possible participation in the Partnership In Schools Initiative. PSI is a statewide plan that would give some 88 schools across the state of Texas greater flexibility from the Texas Education Agency mandates in operating their school districts. Rep. Ric Williamson has nominated Muenster as one of the districts to participate. Officials should know by the first part of January if Muenster will be included in the PSI program, said Cooper.

The board also hired Al Horn as a part-time maintenance employee and Tony Hacker as a part-time custodian.

In other business, the board increased substitute teacher pay from $40 to $45 for certified teachers and from $32.50 to $35 for non-certified to include the additional cost for the new requirement which mandates that districts take out social security from the payments.

eye appeal. It's one of the few sports that you've got about four things working against you, yourself, the horse, the cattle, and the judge."

Toni is 13 years old and has always watched her dad train and work cutting horses. "I always wanted to ride a cutting horse like my dad did," she said. "It looked easy watching Dad ride." She told of the first time she rode the cutting horse, "I wouldn't listen to what Dad was trying to tell me and I fell off of the horse. That was almost my last time on one."

When training a young horse Loyd uses a mechanical cow. It works well he says because you can repeatedly work a side that a horse needs polish in that you might otherwise wait days for that situation if you were using live cattle. There is already a horse being trained for next year's novice class. The young horse will show in futurity competition in a few months and in the novice class next year if all works well.

Doc's Tee Coyote can no longer compete on a novice level since the World Show. She will be used in the Youth Class by Toni and in the Open Class by Loyd.

The talented black mare still has work to do this fall as she is still entered in the National Cutting Horse Competition where she is still in the standings. She will show in Aubrey, Tex. this month and if they win there then next Spring they will go to the area work-offs in Jackson, Miss. for the National Cutting Horse Association. She is also shown in the American Quarter Horse Association.

HealthFind introduces doctors to rural towns October 5 and 6

Recruiting a doctor to a rural area can be a long, expensive process, but as representatives from 29 rural Texas communities, including Muenster learned, it can be just plain fun. Meeting in Fort Worth October 5 and 6 at HealthFind, the Center for Rural Health Initiatives' physician recruitment program, local hospital board members and staff, chamber of commerce representatives, bankers and others had an opportunity to talk about the advantages and benefits of living in their town.

The friendliness and strong sense of community pride were clearly evident, as they interviewed the potential doctors and met their spouses and children. They talked about the quality of hospitals and schools, the availability of recreational facilities, the proximity to shopping centers and cultural events, and the possibility of jobs for spouses. But most of all, they talked about what made their community special.

Physicians who attended said this was a great chance for them to stroll through rural Texas without ever leaving the building, and to view a number of Texas towns in one place without spending time traveling to individual communities around the state.

Representing the Muenster Hospital were board members Debbie Hess, David Bright, and Sharon Felderhoff. "We interviewed six doctors who were real interested," said Mrs. Hess. "Some of them want to come and look us over."

Many of these communities will join other towns in San Antonio for this year's second and final HealthFind Exchange, scheduled for November 2 and 3.

Williamson appointed to committee

Ric Williamson (D - Weatherford) has been appointed to serve a two year term on the Joint Interim Committee on Government Efficiency. Williamson has demonstrated a great deal of interest in the issues related to the cost of state government. The Committee is to develop an Interagency Performance Auditing Strategic Workplan and to study, review, evaluate and coordinate operations of state agencies to increase efficiency, reduce costs, improve administration, enhance information management and otherwise identify areas of potential savings in state government. "This is the area of state government which interests me the most. I have spent seven years developing an expertise in our state budget. This Committee appointment will give me the opportunity to put some of my cost savings ideas to work," Williamson said.

The month of October has started out very well. On the second we had our Wednesday morning Bingo; callers were Romana Bayer, Amanda Fuhrmann, Betty Yosten, Dorothy Yosten and Amy Fleitman.

On Thursday Joe Hoenig came to entertain us on the piano and also brought us some new Bingo cards. We really appreciate them. In the afternoon we all played dominoes. Players were Frances Reiter, Annie Jostwerner, Rosa Collins, Ida Hoenig, Andrew Fleitman, Phil Vogel, Mildred Fulton and Laura Haverkamp.

We are beginning to decorate for Halloween. Come by and see the ghosts and goblins, scarecrows and spiders. It is looking real spooky around here.

Friday morning we got a chance to use our new Bingo cards when Janie called our regular Friday morning Bingo. We were all big winners. Alice Hellman, Theresa Vogel, Rosa Collins won the loser's Bingo. We had fifteen players and plenty of Bingo cards to play with.

October 6 was our monthly birthday party. Ruth Felderhoff, Christi Hesse and Pam Fette provided the entertainment for the party. Betty Gilpin and her daughters Brandi and Tammi were the hostesses because Janie had to be out of town. Honorees for October are Elsie Fuhrman, Rosie Collins, Theo Miller, Lois

Kermickle, Buck Ware and Blanche Weiss.

The V.F.W. of Muenster gave us a new set of Bingo numbers. They sure are nice and easy to read. Bingo players for the last couple of weeks were Romana Bayer, Bonnie and Dorothy Yosten and Betty Yosten, Augusta Walterscheid and Lu Vogel, Mary Kupper, and Margaret Fisher.

We enjoyed our visitors for the Baptist Service Sunday morning. They were Eddie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey, Eula Grace Cain and Chris' two sons Chad and Chisam. Also Charles and Mildred Biffle.

Another volunteer we failed to mention is Joseph Weinzapfel. Each afternoon we use his room to hold rosary. Regular attendees are Sadie O'Connor, Mary Block, Annie Jostwerner, Rosie Walterscheid, Hilda and Frances Reiter, Mary Klein and Joe. Caroline Hess leads them in rosary.

Father Victor has mass and anointing of the sick at 6:30 p.m. on the first Friday of each month. He also comes to the home each Wednesday morning with communion.

The thought for October is: Good old days start with good new days like today.

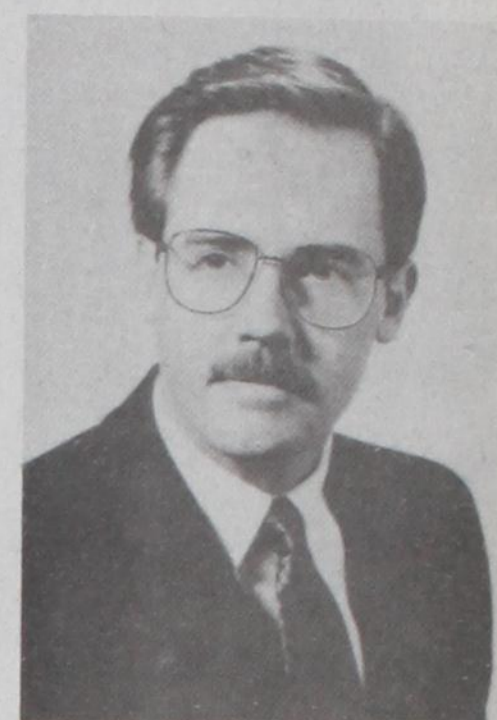

Don't forget to trick or treat us Oct. 31 from 6 to 8 p.m. Until then visit as friend, visit St. Richard's.

Curtis J. Klement has been admitted to the partnership of Coopers & Lybrand effective October 1, 1991.

Klement joined Coopers & Lybrand in 1979 and has served as a general practice manager of the firm since 1983. His experience includes over 12 years in the accounting profession in Houston and El Paso serving clients in a broad range of industries, including utilities, energy companies, financial institutions and manufacturing concerns.

A native of Muenster, Klement received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Texas A&M University. He is the son of Mrs. Marcie Klement and the late Roddy Klement. He is a graduate of Muenster High School.

Currently, Klement serves on the board of directors of the El Paso Symphony Association, Texas Lyceum Association and the Greater El Paso Chamber of Commerce Business Committee for the Arts. He is an alumnus of Leadership El Paso and holds membership in the American In-

Fleitman family celebrates Oct. 13 birthday with party

The August Fleitman family gathered in the family home on Sunday, Aug. 13 to celebrate the twenty-third birthday of their son-in-law Brett Marion, with a hamburger and hot dog cookout. Birthday cake and ice cream were served.

Gifts were presented to the honoree, and pictures were made. Highlight of the party was seeing photos of the Marions' recent cruise to the Bahamas. Mrs. Brett

Marion is the former Jan Fleitman, daughter of Paula and August Fleitman of Muenster.

Dear friends,
Now that Duane is home with us, we wanted to say something to our community of Muenster. Thank you for being there for us, for showing us your love, support and concern over this past year; it has given us strength to continue. We thank God for our Muenster community and ask Him to bless you.

We thank Duane's brother Greg, partner Terry Hess and all of the people that helped put on this benefit Golf Tournament last Sunday. It was really great to see all of our friends there enjoying the day along with us. Our family is touched by all who played, worked or just came to show their support.

MPS 1st graders visit Muenster Telephone

On Friday morning, Oct 11, the first grade classes of Muenster Public School took a walking field trip to the Muenster Telephone Corp. of Texas. Accompanying the children were their teachers, Mrs. Darla Lile and Mrs. Sheila Wilson. Parents accompanying them were Connie Grewing, Sandy Tempel, and Lisa Walterscheid.

Upon arrival the children were greeted with a friendly welcome and "Hello" by Mrs. Gracie Fuhrman. The children were split into groups so more individual attention could be given to them. They were taken through the entire telephone company. They enjoyed seeing everything from the bills to the intricate wiring that goes into making telephones work. The children were really impressed with a computer-operated drawing machine.

been an active member of 4-H for nine years and participated in project areas including consumer education, recreation, fashion revue, leadership, horse and clothing.

Leadership experience for this Gold Star winner have been plentiful and include project leader, teen leader, junior leader, committee chairman, club officer, council officer and district council representative. Also, Sean has participated in leadership lab, officer trainings, tours and field trips, and public speaking.

Sean has gone to state competition with his first method demonstration and he went to state in the fashion show with a tailored suit.

The Danforth "I Dare You" Award was presented by Tim Rieger, compliance officer of Gainesville National Bank. Werner Becker of Muenster was the recipient of this traditional award.

William Danforth first presented this award in 1941. Danforth was a businessman who dared young people to achieve their highest potential and to influence others through lives of leadership and service.

Becker is the son of Linda and Werner Becker Jr. He has participated in competitions at the club, county, district and state levels. Werner was a member of the dairy judging team that placed 4th at State Roundup this past year, and a member of a Share-the-Fun act that competed at the district level.

4-H offices held by Werner have been on the club and county levels and he has participated on numerous committees. He helped plan and lead the three-day self-esteem project at the Youth Center this summer, and also has been a teen leader in the food project for junior and senior members of the Muenster 4-H Club.

Included among Werner's 4-H projects are sheep, dairy cattle, leathercraft, citizenship, foods and nutrition, rifle, drama, ceramics and self-esteem. He is interested in football, baseball, hunting, fishing and bowling.

Dorothy Fisher of Cooke County Extension Homemakers Council presented Extension Homemakers 4-H Scholarships, valued at $300 each, to Christi Mobley and Laura Lutkenhaus. Christi is a member of the Sivells Bend 4-H Club and she attends Lindsay High School. Her parents are Rick and Paula Mobley. Laura is a member of the Lindsay 4-H, attends Lindsay High School and is the daughter of Walter and Kathy Lutkenhaus. She plans to attend Cooke County College after graduation. She will major in Child Psychology or a related field.

Winners of the Farm Bureau Leadership Award were Greg Brooks of Callisburg and Sara Flusche of Lindsay. Greg is the son of John and Beth Brooks and Sara is the daughter of Jim Flusche. Breck Montgomery of the Cooke County Farm Bureau presented the Leadership Awards. The award is given to two 4-H'ers who have demonstrated strong leadership qualities in their 4-H club and their community.

Cooke County Judge Jim Robertson gave recognition to all of the state winners. Recognition of club managers was made by Tammie Montgomery of North Texas Bank and Trust and Cassie Bullock, Cooke County Extension Agent. Certificates were presented to the club managers. "What you've done has not gone unnoticed," they were told.

Earlier in the year, the Cooke County 4-H Club sponsored a membership drive. Charlene Lutkenhaus received a $25 gift certificate to the 4-H catalog for recruiting the most new members. There were six second place winners and each of them received two tickets to Arbuckle Wilderness, compliments of KGAF Radio.

Dan James, Extension 4-H and youth development specialist, announced winners of the Honor Club Awards. These certificates were presented to county clubs who meet certain requirements. Club managers accepted the certificates on behalf of their groups. The outstanding clubs were Era, Lindsay Senior, Muenster, Red River, Sivells Bend, and Silver Cedar.

Hornets defeat Pirates by 14 pts. in second half

The Muenster Hornets opened the 1991 District scraping by Collinsville 14-0 Friday night. "We had a lot of young kids playing," said Coach Grady Roller. "We didn't know what to expect; they play so inconsistent." Roller believed the boys played good as far as executing the offense, especially in the second half.

The Hornets started the offensive game on their 32-yard line, mixing runs by Kenneth Walterscheid, Jay Hennigan, Steven Fisher and Mike Gobble to the Collinsville 41. Muenster then went to its passing attack via the arm of quarterback Mike Gobble, who connected with Ryan Sicking for a 13-yard gain. Two runs by Hennigan and Walterscheid took the ball to the 17. But a 15-yard penalty left the Hornets on a 4th and 21, and the decision to punt.

Collinsville moved from their 11-yard line to midfield. A quarterback sack by Doug Hennigan for an 11-yard loss was followed by Hennigan intercepting a Pirate pass.

Walterscheid, Fisher and Gobble ran the ball into the second quarter. An attempted pass was picked off and Collinsville resumed play near midfield. The teams traded punts when on the Pirates' next drive, Muenster's pass defense held on 4th and 8.

The Hornets ran two plays then a pass was picked off. The teams traded possession again when Mike Hacker covered a fumbled ball two plays later. Collinsville's defense held Muenster to a 4th and 23 situation, taking over on downs. Two incomplete passes and a 7-yard loss forced a punt to Muenster as the first half ended, tied 0-0.

Collinsville's one fullback was injured early in the second half, which limited the Pirates to either passing or quarterback keepers. This helped the Muenster defense read the plays and turn the channels, according to Coach Roller.

Collinsville was held for 2 yards and punted their first possession away the 2nd half. Again runs by Hennigan, Walterscheid, Sicking on a 34-yard run to the 4-yard line. Walterscheid edged the ball to the one where Jay Hennigan crashed into the end zone. A pass from Gobble to Doug Hennigan added the extra points and with 11:10 remaining in the game the scoreboard finally lit up 8-0.

After the touchdown Collinsville seemed determined to extinguish the Hornets' spark and proceeded to march into Muenster territory. The Pirates had a chance to score when they got down to the 6-yard line, but Harvey Hubbard covered a loose ball and Muenster took over on the 12-yard line.

A pass sailed through the Pirates' defense to Doug Hennigan to add 24 yards to runs by Ryan Sicking, Jay Hennigan, Rodney Vogel, Kenneth Walterscheid, and Steven Fisher, taking the ball to the 9-yard line. Rodney Vogel nailed down Muenster's victory with a 9-yard running score. An unsuccessful extra point gave a 14-0 score with 1:40 remaining in the game.

Collinsville moved the ball inside the Hornets' 20 before time expired ending the game in a 14-0 district win for Muenster.

Sophomores Rodney Vogel and Chad Cheaney both are credited by Coach Roller for having an extremely good game, offensively and defensively. Ryan Sicking sat out the first half, while Kody Truebenbah spot-played the final quarter. A.J. Knabe and Chris Kubis remained on the sideline.

Kenneth Walterscheid picked up 78 yards in 21 carries for Muenster. Jay Hennigan ran 8 times for 43 yards, while Ryan Sicking added 42 on 7 attempts.

Coach Roller is very proud of last year's junior varsity members now on varsity. Brian Knabe, Chad Cheaney, Harvey Hubbard, Rodney Vogel, Brandon Walterscheid, Jay Hennigan and A.J. Knabe have all "stepped up and filled some large shoes. They get better every week with less mistakes," said the coach. "They've really grown up."

Turnovers by Muenster defense were fumbled recovered by Mike

Quarterback Club meets

Knights host Hamburger Supper Friday

The Lindsay PTC will host a Pre-Game Hamburger Supper Friday night, Oct. 18, from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Lindsay School Cafeteria. All Muenster High School football fans are invited to join the Knights in feasting on hamburgers and the trimmings before the Knights-Hornets matchup!

Football Contest continues

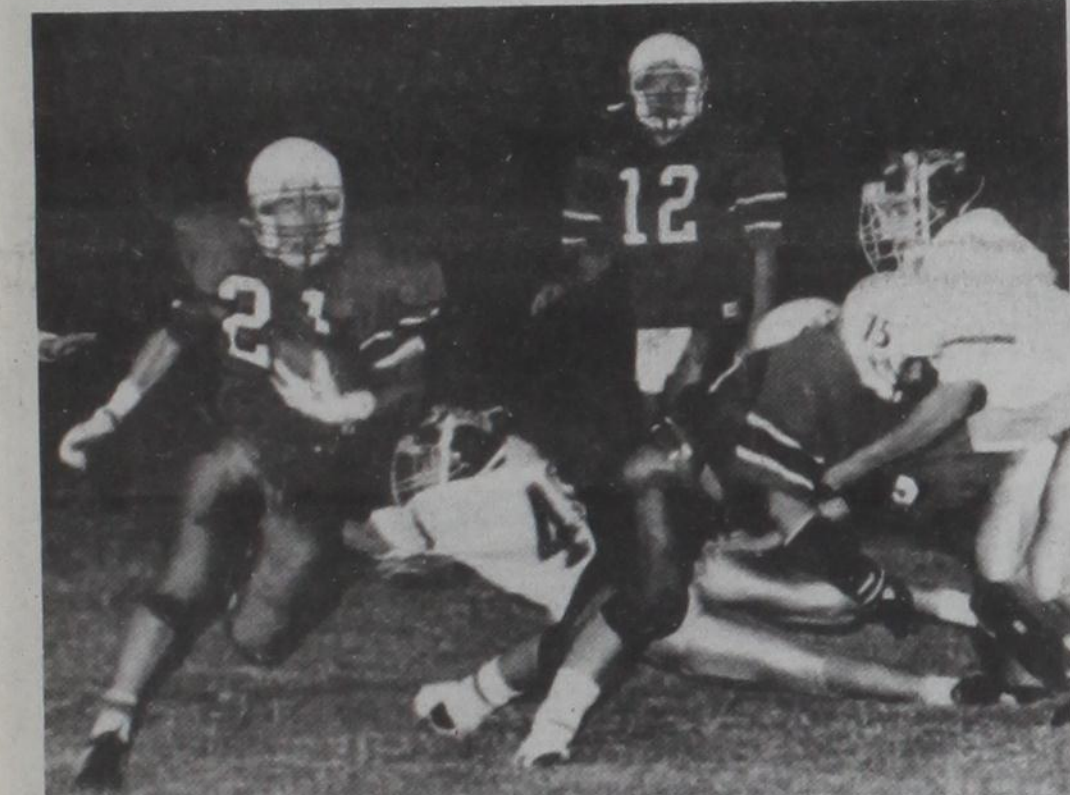

Editor's Note: Due to lack of cooperation from the contest judge, this story will be very brief this week.

Another week of upsets in the game of football kept contestants from earning perfect scores in the Muenster Enterprise Football Contest.

Edna Hermes of Lindsay took the top weekly prize with 21 correct games. Gary Barnhill also picked 21 winners, but was bumped to second place on the tiebreaker. Hermes was 22 points away from Muenster's correct score while Barnhill had a 37-point spread.

Correctly picking 20 games were Jim Endres, Mike Felderhoff and Mike Stoffels. Eight entries had 19 games picked. They include Tim Bindel, Wilfred Bindel, Benny Haverkamp, Duane Haverkamp, Weldon Hermes, Cory Knabe, Brian Mazingo and Tim Mullins.

Weekly winners picked up their cash prizes at the tiebreaker sponsor of the week, the D.I. One Stop.

KENNETH WALTERSCHEID (21) runs through a big hole with key blocking by Tony Perryman (75). Dave Fette Photo and Rodney Vogel moved the ball into the Pirates' end of the field, but a 4th and one run failed and Collinsville again had the ball, but only for a short time. After throwing away three passes, Muenster regained possession after a punt. But once more it was four runs and a yard short for the Hornets.

Muenster's defense remained firm and the Pirates' punt team lined up. The attempted kick was blocked by Darren Bindel, placing Muenster only 24 yards from pay dirt.

The Hornets' running game came up short 4 yards and a field goal was attempted. Mike Gobble's good foot sent the pigskin 36 yards, but the ball went wide left. Collinsville, from their 20, again punted on 4th down.

Ryan Sicking and Mike Gobble ran the ball into the scoreless fourth quarter. Jay Hennigan left a sinking Pirate's defense behind Hacker, Darren Bindel, Harvey Hubbard and Doug Hennigan.

"This will be the district championship," says Coach Roller about the big Muenster-Lindsay game Friday night. "If we can get by this one we'll be in the driver's seat. If Lindsay wins, they'll be motivated to beat Collinsville."

All available Hornets will be dressed and mentally ready to play, but not 100 percent physically. Chris Kubis worked out in pads Monday, the first time in weeks, and performances by Kody Truebenbah, Ryan Sicking, and A.J. Knabe may be limited.

"Lindsay is getting better every week," commented Roller. "They have tall ends to throw to and Hughes running; we'll have to respect them." Lindsay's main problem this season has been turnovers.

The big game begins at 7:30 p.m. this Friday on Knight field.

Tina Klement featured on Ch. 8's Sports Special

Tina Klement, daughter of Dale and Charlotte Klement, has been chosen to be Scholar/Athlete on the Dale Hansen Sports Special, which is aired each Sunday during the WFAA Channel 8 News. The Scholar/Athlete portion of the program is sponsored by McDonald's, honoring students excelling in both Academics and Athletics.

Tina belongs to numerous student groups at Muenster High School. She has served as officer of the National Honor Society and the Future Homemakers of America. Tina has been a member of the MHS Student Council for two years and served as school mascot as a sophomore. She has participated in UIL academic events and helped MHS finish second in the District in 1990. Tina ranks in the top 10 percent of her class and is consistently on the school's top Academic Honor Roll.

Athletically, Tina's accomplishments are well chronicled in this area. She has qualified for State competition in two sports, earning third place honors in Cross Country and second place in both the mile and two-mile events last school year. Tina has earned first place medalist honors at the Regional level several times in several different events. She has set numerous school records and has earned many first place awards in track and cross-country. Tina received the MHS Track & Field Award for the past two years as Hornets Tracksters won two District Championships and, in 1991, the Regional title. She was nominated for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Athlete of the Week several times before receiving the honor in September. Muenster Athletic Director Grady Roller calls Tina "one of the best all-around female athletes I've ever seen in this area."

The criteria for this award go beyond athletic and academic prowess. McDonald's Scholar/Athletes also participate in community projects and set a positive example for other students. "Tina certainly deserves this honor for her own individual achievements," states MHS Principal Jerry Metzler. "However, I'd like to think she represents a lot of students in the area schools who do an excellent job of combining athletic success with high academic achievement. Tina will be the one honored, but I hope other kids take pride in their achievements as scholar/athletes as well."

Muenster High School will receive $100.00 toward its general scholarship fund from McDonald's. The program featuring Tina is expected to air Sunday, Oct. 20, on Channel 8 around 10:20 p.m. after the news.

Sports Card Show set for Saturday

The club's last show, held in May, was attended by over 900 and this show should again house 45-50 tables. Dealers from around the area, the Metroplex, Sherman and Southern Oklahoma are scheduled to display a wide variety of sports cards.

This show is a major fundraiser for the Optimist Club.

Tigers fall to Cistercian 36-8

The Sacred Heart Tigers attempted to shoot down a fast-pass crazy Cistercian team last Thursday night, but didn't have the ammunition and settled for a 36-8 loss to the Hawks.

Three plays, punt, Cistercian scores was a triple occurrence in the first quarter to leave the Tigers behind 21-0.

Sacred Heart started their first drive without a gain, kicking to Cistercian on 4th down. Their luck went from bad to worse as the Hawks flew down field 61 yards in 7 plays for the game's first score. The PAT kick cleared the goal and with 7:33 on the clock, Cistercian had a 7-0 lead.

From their own 15 an incomplete pass was followed by an interception and the Hawks took control only 23 yards from pay dirt. Two plays later the Tigers were behind 14-0.

Sacred Heart couldn't move the ball on its next possession and after the punt, it took only six plays for the Hawks to move 64 yards into the end zone. The extra point pass counted and Cistercian took a 21-0 lead with 3:01 remaining in the first quarter.

Again Sacred Heart was forced to punt on their 4th play of the drive, giving the Hawks' offense the pigskin going into the second period. A 68-yard touchdown pass play by the Irving team was called back because of a motion flag. After the Hawks failed to hit pay dirt on this series of plays, they were forced to punt.

The Tigers were again unable to move the ball and Cistercian began their next drive on their 26-yard line. Jason Frost wasted the opportunity to score when he covered a loose ball near midfield for the Tigers, who again failed to pick up a first down.

Larry Switzer was Sacred Heart's leading rusher with 67 yards in 15 carries.

"We are playing better football, but mistakes continue to hurt our team more than the average team because we don't have any outstanding athletes to overcome those mistakes," said Coach Nasche. "We are capable of playing better."

Sacred Heart will host the Lexington Academy Patriots of Dallas Friday night. Lexington has nine returning starters from their 1990 13-0 State Championship team.

"It's going to be tough again," stated the Tiger coach. "They're struggling with a 3-3 record but they have more talent than any team we've played." Lexington averages over 200 pounds on the line and has a very talented 6'2", 200 pound quarterback. "They have more talent than any area team," concluded Nasche, "but they play as individuals, not as a team."

Stevan Nasche is questionable in returning to the field Friday night. Chris Hess dislocated his big toe, but will start along with Willie Hess in his third week with a broken thumb. Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Tiger Field.

A holding call assisted in making the Hawks punt, but the ball was fumbled returning possession to Cistercian only 3 yards from pay dirt. The next play put another 6 points on the board; with the PAT the scoreboard now read 28-0.

The two teams then exchanged punts as the first half time expired.

Sacred Heart came out the second half outplaying Cistercian, but couldn't dig out of the deep hole they were in. Cistercian started the 3rd quarter moving the ball down, but a quarterback sack by Werner Becker, Scott Hennigan and Gregg Hess stalled the drive. The Tigers ran only two plays and quickly gave the ball back to the Hawks on an interception. Cistercian scored on a 2-yard run, finishing a 3-play drive with 5:48 left on the clock. The extra run counted for a 36-0 score.

The Tigers earned their initial first down on the next drive with a 5-yard run by Jason Hess and a 9-yard gain from Larry Switzer. The next play ended their offense plays when a fumble was covered by the Hawks.

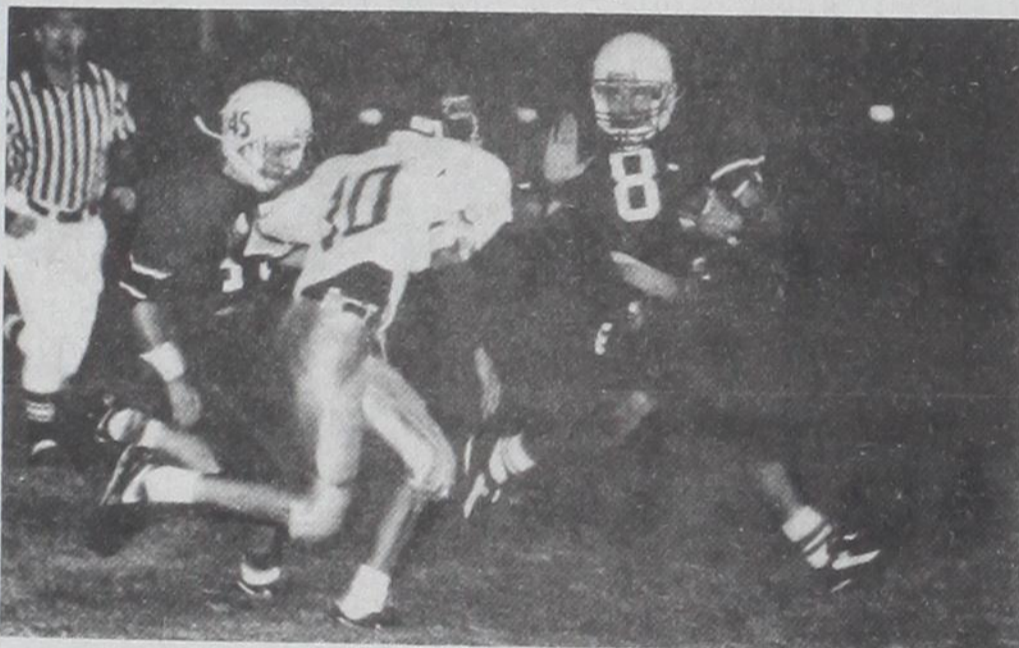

Cistercian moved to the 9-yard line, but two penalties and good Tiger defense left the Hawks attempting a field goal which fell short putting the Tigers deep on their 10-yard line. As the 4th quarter clock began running, the Tigers also started ticking. This time the Tigers slowly moved the ball down the field until they faced a 4th and goal on the 2-yard line.

After several handoffs to Larry Switzer to the 33-yard line, Jason Hess passed to Jason Frost for a 22-yard gain. Switzer, assisted by J. Hess and Werner Becker, racked up more yardage to the 8-yard line. Jason and Chris Hess took the ball to the 2, where Switzer crashed into the end zone to complete a 90-yard drive. A successful pass from J. Hess to Neil Berres made the score 36-8 with 4:25 remaining in the game.

An inside kick gave the Hawks possession on the 50-yard line and in six plays, they were knocking on Sacred Heart's door. The Tigers' goal line defense held for three plays as time ran out.

"We really played better than the score showed. We started slow," said Coach Nasche. "Until we learn to play four quarters we will continue to struggle."

Leading the Tigers' defense were Chris Hess, Kelly Bell, Barry Hess, Scott Hennigan, and Kelly

Junior High/Junior Varsity Action

SH vs. Cistercian

The Sacred Heart Junior High Cubs traveled to Irving Thursday evening to attempt to shoot down the tough Cistercian Hawks. The Cubs took the opening kick, but three unsuccessful plays were followed by a blocked punt, setting up the Hawks' first score. In seven plays, the ball was moved 25 yards to paydirt. The extra point run counted and Cistercian led 8-0.

Sacred Heart's second drive was ended when four plays failed to pick up 10 yards. The Hawks took over on the Cubs' 38-yard line, moving the ball into the second quarter. Flags flew in the next series of plays. After Jake McCoy and Toby Hess dropped the Hawks for a 9-yard loss, three offside penalties, two on the Cubs, one on the Hawks, were followed by a personal foul, giving Cistercian a first down on the Cubs' 11-yard line. An offside and clipping flags backed the Hawks to the 31. Sacred Heart's pass defense then stopped three attempted passes and took over on downs.

After three unsuccessful plays and a delay penalty, the Cubs punted on 4th and 37. Taking control of the ball at the Cubs' 40, the Hawks moved near the 20, when on 4th and 5, Scott Poole and Jake McCoy sacked the quarterback. The Cubs got off one play as the first half ended 8-0.

The third quarter saw Cistercian control the majority of the play in time. The Cubs' second drive was set up when Joel Schilling covered a loose ball near midfield. Jon Klement picked up 11 yards in two plays followed by Joseph McCoy gaining another 10 to the Hawks' 23. Klement took the ball into the final quarter. A pass from Paul Swirczynski to Klement placed the ball on the 12. Klement ran three plays to the 2-yard line, then took the ball in for 6 points. A pass from Swirczynski to Klement added another 2 and the game was tied 8-8 with 5:50 remaining in the game.

Cistercian started their next drive on the 40-yard line. In four plays, the Hawks scored on a 57-yard run. Their extra point run counted, and Cistercian took the lead, 16-8.

Sacred Heart returned the punted ball to midfield, but couldn't pick up the needed 10 yards, giving the Hawks the ball. On their second play, a 61-yard run went into the end zone, followed by the extra point pass, extending the Hawks' lead 24-8. The Cubs got in three plays before time ran out.

"Our defense played well for the size of their runners," said Coach Danny Walterscheid. "They slipped a little in the fourth quarter, giving us easy touchdowns." Walterscheid said the Cubs' offense didn't get on track until the second half and woke up on their scoring drive. "We were outweighed, but the boys have a lot of heart and never gave up," concluded the coach.

The Cubs are scheduled to play

Lexington Academy Friday evening at 6 p.m.

Muenster vs. Collinsville

The young junior high Hornets brought home a disappointing loss last Thursday. After being ahead 20-12 at halftime, the Collinsville Pirates skunked Muenster 30-0 the second half to take a 42-20 victory.

Muenster scored first when Eric Miller hit Cody Sicking for a 13-yard touchdown play. Justin Camp ran in the extra point for an 8-0 score.

Collinsville's offense next hit paydirt, but their PAT failed, and the scoreboard read 8-6.

Muenster's next score was a power play from the 20-yard line by Cody Sicking. The extra point failed and Muenster had a 14-6 lead. Collinsville then ran the kick back for a touchdown, closing the gap to 14-12. Cody Sicking scored once more before the half on a 4-yard sweep for a 20-12 halftime score.

The second half saw the young Pirates scoring 30 points, while keeping the Hornets scoreless. "They were getting outside of us," said Coach Kyle Baker. "Hopefully, we will fix the problem before our game with Lindsay."

The junior high will host the Squires in a 6 p.m. game. A junior varsity 9-man game will follow. Due to a shortage of players, the game will be played two linemen short. Muenster JV did not play last week.

Lindsay vs. St. Mary's

The St. Mary's Mustangs threatened the Junior High Squires until the last seconds of last Thursday's game, but settled on Lindsay winning 28-22.

The Mustangs took the opening play from scrimmage 60 yards for an immediate touchdown. The extra point run followed and the scoreboard read 8-0.

Lindsay drove the ball downfield on their first possession, ending with a 25-yard touchdown sweep by Jeff Hale. The extra point failed and the Squires narrowed the score 8-6.

Outstanding defense by Chris Escobedo and Hale halted the Mustangs' second drive. A pass play to Robert Sharp from Garrett Hellinger took Lindsay to the 1-yard line. Escobedo punched into the end zone for 6 points.

Again, Lindsay's defense held, getting the ball back with a minute remaining in the half. The Squires scored again on a 30-yard pass from Hellinger to Hale. Escobedo took in the extra point for a 20-8 score. The Young Knights threatened to score on the last play of the second quarter when Dave Brown intercepted a pass, running 50 yards before he was stopped at the 2-yard line.

Lindsay took the opening second half kick, ending the drive on a sweep pass from Hale to Brown. Escobedo added 2 for a 28-8 game.

St. Mary's scored with only 20 seconds remaining in the game. The extra point failed and the scoreboard read 28-14.

The Mustangs then successfully covered an onside kick with 10 seconds on the clock and, as the time ticked down to 4, they scored again. The extra point run was good and the game ended 28-22.

Lindsay will take on Muenster Thursday, Oct. 17, for a 6 p.m. game in Muenster.

Lindsay vs. Era

Lindsay played host to an eight-man junior varsity football contest with Era last week Thursday and came out on top 46-0.

"We were out there having a good time," said Coach Pat Benton. "Our nine-member team had lots of fun."

Scoring for Lindsay was Bobby Greener, Dan Zimmerer, Will Thomason, Doug Hellinger, George Lutkenhaus, and Bryan Dulock. Contributing were blockers Greg Arendt, Robert Lutkenhaus and Larry Baldwin.

"We have a secret weapon with 8-man football," concluded Benton. Lindsay will take on an 8-man Muenster team Thursday, Oct. 17 in Muenster after the junior high game.

Knights celebrate Homecoming

The Lindsay Knights played well enough Friday night to thoroughly enjoy their Homecoming dance.

"The boys did a real good job, they played tremendously hard," said Lindsay Coach Pat Benton. "There was a lot of intensity." Benton also credited the defense with an excellent effort, the linemen and especially Travis Huchton.

The Knights' defense smothered Jesuit's quarterback seven times, allowing the Rangers just 80 total yards and only three first downs. Lindsay also picked off two passes and covered three fumbles. Outstanding defensive players included Kenny Fleitman, Shane Huchton, Jeff Hermes, Travis Huchton, Fred Hughes, Jeff Pearson, Patrick Corcoran and Donnie Cox.

"The offense did what they had to do when it was time to do it," said the Knights coach. Fred Hughes picked up 212 yards on 29 carries for Lindsay. "I'm real proud of Hughes. He runs harder and harder each game." Hughes gained over 100 yards every game this season with the exception of Nocona. Benton also commented that Hughes couldn't have made the yardage without the blockers opening the way.

Lindsay took the opening kick, but after gaining only eight yards, punted possession to Jesuit. A out of the hole on a 13-yard run to the 28 but, two plays later, the ball was fumbled back to Jesuit.

A quarterback sack by Patrick Corcoran and an incomplete pass was followed by Travis Huchton popping the ball from the Rangers' quarterback. Jeff Hermes covered the ball and Lindsay took over at midfield. Two fumbled plays were followed by a 31-yard pass reception from Dieter to Corcoran. A carry by Hughes, followed by a 5-yard penalty and two unsuccessful passes, left the Knights with a 4th and 8 situation. Hughes again carried, making a 20-yard gain to the 11-yard line. Though this drive took longer, the Knights finally did score again with 9 seconds left in the half on an 11-yard pass to Kenny Fleitman. Ronnie Dieter added 2 points and Lindsay took a 14-0 halftime lead.

Jesuit was forced to punt on their first second half drive, starting the Knights on their 37-yard line. After Hughes picked up 8 yards on three runs, Lindsay was awarded a first down when the Rangers were flagged for roughing the kicker. Two plays by Hughes and Dieter picked up 8 yards, but the next play saw Jesuit covering a loose ball at midfield. Shane and Travis Huchton were credited with another sack, with the defense holding the Rangers to a 4th and 1. But the next play saw the Jesuit Knights. Although the end of the game was less than 2 minutes away and could have proved some relief to the Rangers, Fred Hughes ripped the field up again on a 33-yard touchdown run. Patrick Corcoran ran in the extra point and Lindsay extended their lead to 24-8.

Jesuit's last attempt to score was immediately stopped when Donnie Cox intercepted a pass. Lindsay played out the remaining time.

"We crossed over a high hurdle," said the coach. "Hopefully, this will turn the season around for us."

Lindsay will host Muenster in the biggest county rivalry game. "As always, it's a big game," said Coach Benton. "We definitely want to do the best we can, but you have to add the rivalry."

Friday night will be the first time the Knights will have everyone suited up, "but they're not going to be 100 percent," concluded the coach.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Knights Field. Statistics submitted by Bridget Anderle

District Meet Tuesday... Cross Country team competes at Lake Dallas

Muenster girls' cross country team ran at Lewisville Lake Park Saturday, Oct. 12.

Varsity girls competed with 89 runners. Muenster girls did a tremendous job, knowing that this was their last meet before District competition. Top runners from Muenster were: 1st, Tina Klement, with her personal best time of 11:56. Cindy Culp greatly improved her time and placed 7th with a time of 13:12; Amy Dankreiter also looked very impressive and placed 8th with a time of 13:18; Denise Russell, 12th, ran a 13:22; Marlene Hess, 22nd, with a time of 13:42. Team totals for Varsity girls were: 1st, Little Elm with 50 points; 2nd, Muenster, with 50 points; 3rd, Krum, Little Elm and Muenster tied for first, but Muenster only had five runners in all on their team and Little Elm had a sixth-place runner, giving them the title for first.

Junior Varsity girls had a great day! Tonya Knabe showed a great deal of improvement, and Tonya knows that hard work does pay off! Tonya Knabe came in first place with a time of 14:00; Misty Knabe, 4th, with a time of 14:21; Sally Fisher, 9th, 14:48; Lisa Russell, 10th, 14:57; and Madoka Miura, 18th, 15:45. Hunters for the Hungry ready for venison gifts

AUSTIN - Hunters can provide thousands of meals to hungry people across the state by sharing their deer and antelope with the Hunters for the Hungry program.

With the help of several public and charitable organizations, including the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, hunters can donate freshly killed deer and antelope that will be delivered to one of 18 food banks in the state.

The program is sponsored for the second year by the End Hunger Network-Houston. "This program gives Texas hunters an opportunity to participate in their sport while not wasting food, and provide the hungry in Texas with an excellent source of low-fat red meat," said Mary Keegan, president of End Hunger Network - Houston.

Hunters will be asked to contribute $15 (tax deductible) to the meat processor to pay for processing and packaging. Two-pound frozen packages of meat will be picked up by the representatives of the food banks around the state and distributed to the needy. More than 170 meat processors have volunteered to accept meat donations this year, up from 70 last year.

There are three participating processors in Muenster. Contact Butch Fisher at Fischer's Meat Market; Don Hess at H&W Meat Co. or Norma Bayer at N.J. Beef Jerky if you are interested in donating your deer.

Lindsay 10-yard penalty assisted the Rangers on their opening drive, but two quarterback sacks by Shane Huchton and a gang tackle by Jeff Hermes, Travis Huchton and Fred Hughes forced a punt on 4th and 20.

The Knights' offense again failed, gaining only a yard, punted the ball back to Jesuit. Once more, Lindsay's defense took control, again getting in two quarterback sacks by Shane Huchton and Kenny Fleitman.

Getting the ball on their own 44-yard line after a 50-yard kick, the Knights, led by Fred Hughes, moved to the 30. Lindsay scored after quarterback Ronnie Dieter handed off to Hughes, who took it through the line for a 33-yard romp to make the score 6-0 as the first quarter ended. The extra point pass failed.

The Rangers started the second period, but the Knights' defense held them to 7 yards, so they kicked. Starting from their 32, Lindsay's drive was lengthened because of numerous penalties. On second and 21 from the Jesuit 35, the Rangers picked off a Dieter pass and ran the ball to their 9-yard line. From first and goal, the Knights' defense held, including a quarterback sack by Jeff Pearson. On 4th and goal from the 15, a Jesuit receiver dropped the ball in the end zone, returning possession to Lindsay.

Fred Hughes took the Knights runners take off 40 yards for a TD. The extra point pass was good and, with 4:07 on the clock, the scoreboard read 14-8.

Patrick Corcoran returned the kick 35 yards to the 45. Three plays later, Lindsay fumbled the ball back to Jesuit. From midfield, the Rangers moved inside the Knights' 10-yard line as the final quarter began. A fourth down pass fell incomplete and Lindsay's offense took control on their 8-yard line. Unable to pick up the needed yardage, Lindsay punted the ball back to Jesuit. A 5-yard penalty on the visitors was followed by a fumble caused by Travis Huchton. Lindsay's next play was intercepted and the Rangers again had the pigskin.

Lindsay's defense held for a 3-yard loss. Fred Hughes then broke up a pass attempt, followed by Jeff Hermes pressuring the punter on fourth down.

From their 37-yard line, runs by Hughes and Corcoran took the ball 58 yards in 12 plays to the 5-yard line. A 2-yard gain by Dieter was a yard short for a first down and the Rangers took over.

The Rangers' attempted play was foiled when Travis Huchton pressured the quarterback in the end zone. An intentional grounding penalty was called against the Rangers and Lindsay was awarded a 2-point safety, taking a 16-8 lead.

Non-toxic shot required for waterfowl hunt

AUSTIN - For the first time non-toxic shot will be required statewide for hunting waterfowl and coots in Texas.

The state and U.S. have been moving toward nontoxic shot since 1987. As of Sept. 1, it is illegal to possess lead shot, either in shot shells or as loose shot for muzzleloading while hunting waterfowl and coots.

Lead embedded in the bird's body from being shot is not the problem. If the bird survives wounds from being shot, the lead is sealed off in the muscles and causes no further problems, he said. The problem occurs when a bird ingests lead shot while feeding. The shot grounds down in the gizzard where it is absorbed into the bloodstream, causing lead poisoning.

Parathion pull possible by EPA

by Bob Keating
Parathion may be at the top of the list of major agricultural chemicals crop producers are in danger of losing next.

An official notice by the EPA of intent to suspend all uses of ethyl parathion could come soon, says Stan Coppock, Oklahoma State University Extension entomologist.

EPA's information-gathering process about parathion has been going on for several years, as proponents and opponents of continued use of the insecticide generated new input.

Coppock's input has concerned use of parathion on the major field crops such as wheat, grain sorghum and soybeans.

Opponents of continued use of parathion cite dangers to people handling it and those living in nearby populated areas among reasons it should be removed from the market. However, parathion as it is used on major field crops and rangeland doesn't present the human dangers that sometimes occur in tree crops, Coppock points out.

For example, he says, producers of field crops aren't required to enter fields soon after spraying, as sometimes occurs in large fruit and nut orchards. Also, nearly all aerial applicators spraying parathion on field crops buy it in drums, and the process of transferring it from the containers to a mixing tank to the spray tank is by a closed system, thereby minimizing danger of exposure to handlers.

USDA estimates more than 37 percent of the parathion used in the U.S. is on wheat. Around 5.3 million acres of wheatland are sprayed with parathion every year.

Among the points Coppock has emphasized in his input to EPA are:

-Ethyl parathion is highly effective for controlling major wheat pests such as greenbugs, grasshoppers, army cutworms, fall armyworms, and brown wheat mites.

-There hasn't been any resistance problems from the major wheat insects reported with ethylparathion use.

-Ethyl parathion performs well under the varied temperature conditions experienced throughout the wheat growing areas of the U.S.

-Ethyl parathion is the most cost-effective treatment for wheat insects, averaging $2.11 per acre.

-Effects of ethyl parathion on aquatic animals and water quality are minimal. It dissipates rapidly in water and seldom is found in groundwater.

Tree program sponsored by SWCD again

The Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD) is again sponsoring the seedling conservation tree program for area land users, announced Richard Connett, District Conservationist with the USDA Soil Conservation Service (SCS) in Gainesville.

Farmers, ranchers and rural and suburban land users can obtain trees at a nominal cost through the program which is now in its third year.

Several adapted species of conifers and hardwoods are available again this year. Conifers include Afghanistan pine, Arizona cypress, Austrian pine, Ponderosa pine and Red cedar. Bare-rooted hardwood species include Green ash, Native pecan, Red oak and several others. Four different types of wildlife packets are also available with each packet containing four species of 25 trees each.

The SCS is the technical agency that assists the Upper Elm-Red SWCD in carrying out its programs. Conservationists are available to assist with questions about the seedling trees or other conservation problems. Seedling tree order forms are available at the SCS office located at 4504A West Highway 82 in Gainesville, 817-668-7794.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Weedless winter without tillage

Reduced tillage systems of crop production have been initiated by hundreds of producers over the state with varying degrees of success. There is one type of reduced tillage program that will work nearly every time if the herbicide is applied early enough.

Fall application of a herbicide will prevent winter weeds and insure a clean seedbed at planting time even if heavy rainfall keeps you out of the field with a tractor from October until Christmas. In the past years many areas in North Texas had unusually wet conditions in the fall and winter. Some areas also had a wet spring which meant that tillage was impossible for as long as 4 to 5 months. Fields grew up in henbit, sowthistles, ryegrass and other winter weeds which made land preparation difficult and delayed planting.

Herbicides available

Herbicides are available that will prevent these problems but you have to know what your planting intentions are this fall so that herbicides can be applied early. If you are certain that a field will be planted in corn or grain sorghum and weather will allow you to prepare the land in September or October, then a herbicide should be applied as soon as soil preparation is completed.

Many farmers have asked about the possibility of fertilizer applications disturbing the herbicidal effectiveness. It is true that deep tillage such as a chisel may disrupt the zone of treated soil and bring up weed seed. Considering the experiences of the past two years I believe it is best to go ahead and apply the herbicide. When it is time to apply fertilizer, there is a strong probability that rainfall will have carried the herbicide into the surface soil to the extent that a fertilizer chisel will not result in weed emergence. Even if some weeds do come through, it is better than having the entire field covered in weeds and not knowing if the rain will let up long enough to get a row disc in the field.

Even if you are not sure what fields will be set aside acreage you can still apply a herbicide because it will probably be cheaper than controlling weeds with tillage equipment.

Herbicide options

According to Dr. Dave Weaver, Extension Weed Specialist, three herbicides are labeled for use in winter. Aatrex 80W, 4L and Nine-0 are all labeled for corn, grain and forage sorghum land as a postemergence treatment in the Blacklands and Gulf Coast. Henbit, seedling dock annual thistle are controlled with this treatment. Apply 1.0 to 1.25 lb./a. of 80W, 0.8 to 1.0 qt./a. of 4L or 0.9 to 1.1 lb./a. of Nine-0 just as weeds emerge. A quart should be the maximum rate per acre. If weeds have emerged, for best results, add a surfactant at 0.5 percent of spray volume (1.0 qt./50 gal. of spray solution) or an emulsifiable oil at 1.0 percent of spray volume or oil concentrate at 1.0 qt./a. Apply the spray solution at a minimum of 10 gal./a. by ground or 2.0 gal./a. aerially.

Nitrogen solutions or a complete fertilizer may substitute for all or part of the water in ground applications. Check fertilizer - atrazine compatibility before mixing in the spray tank. Do not plant any crop except corn, grain sorghum or forage sorghum in the spring.

Dollars worth of tillage and spring rescue treatments can be saved in our area by substituting fall or early winter herbicide. A $5 to $8 per acre investment could save you $20 to $30 in tillage cost. If it starts raining in October you can rest easy, knowing that you outsmarted the weatherman.

Tax Practitioner Workshop available

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, is once again offering the Tax Practitioner Workshops across the state of Texas, in the Fall of 1991.

These workshops are led by CPAs and attorneys who are experienced in the field of income tax reporting and planning. They provide valuable continuing education opportunities for tax professionals seeking CPE and MCLE credit.

This year 26 General Tax Workshops, designed for practitioners who work mostly with individuals and small businesses, are offered in major Texas cities. The nearest one will be in Sherman on Nov. 25 and 26. Fifteen Advanced Tax Workshops are also offered. They are directed at the practitioner with substantial experience with individual returns, who does some business work, and feels the need to develop more skills in business related work. One will be offered in Dallas on Nov. 18 and 19.

In addition to the General and Advanced Workshops, there will be four each of the Estate Planning Workshops, and three each of the Fiduciary Income Tax, S Corporation and Basic Partnership Workshops. The Agricultural Tax Problems Workshop, which was introduced in 1989, will be offered this year in two locations - Corpus Christi and Lubbock.

For a brochure with a complete listing of the 56 Tax Practitioner Workshops offered in 1991, please contact the County Extension Office at 668-5412. Or you may contact the Tax Practitioner Workshop Office, Department of Agriculture Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124, or call (409) 845-5446.

Awards offered to young farmers

Young Texas wheat farmers are eligible to enter an essay contest to compete for two leadership development awards of which 40 will be awarded nationally. The program of the Texas Wheat Producers Association and National Association of Wheat Growers is sponsored by Monsanto Agricultural Products Company and the Production Credit Associations of Texas. The awards are designed to acquaint young wheat farmers with the wheat association's organizational structure, leadership development, policy development, and the education aspects of attending wheat organizational meetings, according to Cagle Kendrick, President of the Texas Wheat Producers Association.

The awards which total more than $1000 each are to defray the cost for the winners to participate in their choice of either the National Association of Wheat Growers 1992 Annual Convention, held Jan. 29-Feb. 1, 1992 in Reno, Nevada; or the NAWG Summer Leadership Conference held July 13-16, 1992 in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Any Texas wheat farmer between the age of 20 and 35 years, who has not previously participated in either of the NAWG meetings mentioned above is eligible to enter. The winners are selected based upon completion of a short questionnaire relative to their perception of the current greatest needs of wheat farmers, how they are or would be utilizing their leadership abilities, along with a brief 50-word essay, explaining why they would like to receive the educational grant.

Entry forms may be obtained by either writing or calling Rodney Mosier of the Texas Wheat Producers Association office (803 Texas Commerce Bank Bldg., 2201 Civic Circle, Amarillo, TX 79109, telephone 806-352-2282).

The deadline for entering the contest is November 10, 1991.

Seal abandoned wells to protect water quality

by Mary Mahoney
COLLEGE STATION - Abandoned wells are a public safety hazard - they can carry contaminants directly into an aquifer and create serious groundwater pollution.

More than 150,000 abandoned, unsealed wells are located across Texas, said Dr. John M. Sweeten, agricultural engineering program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Most of them are either water wells or oil and gas wells.

"To protect water quality and the environment," Sweeten said, "urban and rural Texans can join forces to help locate and seal these abandoned wells. The assistance of every landowner and citizen is essential for this program to succeed."

He said children and small animals do get trapped in abandoned wells, but this is not as common as having the wells serve as routes for groundwater contamination.

"An old well can allow surface runoff water to flow directly into an aquifer, taking sediment, animal wastes, fertilizer or pesticide contamination into groundwater," he said.

Natural processes that filter and degrade contaminants as they move through the soil are bypassed when water flows into an abandoned well, Sweeten explained.

"Groundwater quality also can be in danger if an abandoned well allows a fresh water aquifer to receive flows from another that contains brackish or saline water," Sweeten said.

Sometimes people construct a new well and their drinking water can be contaminated by an old nearby well," he said.

Capping is not enough to keep a well from becoming a problem - it must be both plugged and sealed to be safe.

Before sealing a well, remove any pumping equipment, all removable casing, obstacles or debris.

"The well can be sealed then by filling it with cement from the bottom to within two feet of the surface," said Brad L. Cross, geologist with the Texas Water Commission's groundwater conservation section.

"The well casing should be cut off about 24 inches from the top and the hole filled with soil," Cross said.

Cross said other procedures may be needed to seal large - diameter wells if unique geologic conditions exist or special construction techniques were used.

If cement is not practical because of expense and volume, clay or a mixture of sand and bentonite can be used to fill the hole.

"The goal of sealing abandoned wells is to restore as much as possible the relationship of ground to water in aquifers that existed before the well was drilled," Cross said.

"If you locate an abandoned well, arrange for a well contractor to seal it," Cross advised. "But check with city, county and state government and water management districts for any specific regulations on well abandonment in your area."

Evidence of abandoned well sites may be as obvious as a pipe sticking out of the ground, a ring of concrete, tile, or rocks 12 to 36 inches in diameter, old windmills that are often placed over abandoned wells, or a ground depression, Cross said.
