1992 Germanfest benefits from beautiful weather

by Janet Felderhoff

Bonny weather brought crowds estimated at 35,000 to the 17th annual Muenster Germanfest. As one visitor commented, "The weather couldn't have been better. It's cool, but not too cold to keep you from doing anything you want."

The pleasant weather seemed to carry over to the mood of the crowds as local law enforcement reported fewer incidents than usual from the 'Fest. "It was nice and quiet, nothing major," said Muenster Police Chief Helen Tompkins.

There was a burglary of a motor vehicle which was parked at Muenster Milling Co. A cellular telephone and a purse were taken when entry was gained by breaking a small window. The perpetrators were later caught by the Gainesville Police Department.

Patti Bayer, coordinator of the 11th Annual Metric Century Bicycle Rally, reported that there were 2,035 participants in the rally. The courses selected for the rally draw cyclists from the Metroplex and Wichita Falls area year after year because they enjoy the challenge of the routes and the beauty of the countryside.

The injury list was short this year and included a broken collarbone, broken finger and some scrapes. The Cooke County EMS and the sag wagons were on the spot and able to get the injured under care very quickly. "They were very efficient and did a super job," praised Mrs. Bayer.

Volunteers played a big part in the success of the Bicycle Rally. Rest stops and sag wagons were mostly manned by the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department and their families, friends and coworkers, and Bluebonnet members and their families and friends. "It takes about 400 volunteers and we'd be sorely pressed to put this on without their assistance," Bayer said.

Also helping with the on-road bicycle maintenance were three Metroplex bicycle shops - U-Cycle, Wheels in Motion and 2-Wheel Transit. The Red Cross was on hand at the last rest stop and provided towels, ice, Gatorade, and administered minor first aid. Sports massages were provided by Beginnings. Shirts for the rally officials were donated by the Muenster State Bank.

Proceeds from the rally will be donated to various worthy causes during the year including love funds, county organizations, senior citizens and community projects. Half of this year's proceeds will go to the Muenster Fire Department for the purchase of a new truck and equipment.

Ben Bindel, coordinator for the 1992 Knights of Columbus German Fun Run, announced that there were 2,500 runners registered. That

Lady Hornets win Regional track meet

The two-day UIL Regional Track Meet last Friday and Saturday was held at McMurray College in Abilene. Thirteen Muenster girls competed and, at the end of the last race, the Lady Hornets took the Regional Championship.

Friday was the field events, the running preliminaries and the 3200 meter final.

Amy Dankesreiter and DaLana Walterscheid both took part in the high jump, finishing 8th and 9th place. Brandi Grewing placed 10th in the triple jump. "We did very well in the preliminaries," said Coach Brian Strother. "If the girls performed like they ran we knew we could reach and win the meet. We were the only school to have three relays at regional."

After Friday's preliminaries, Dianne Pagel was sitting in 3rd and 5th place in the 100 meter and 300 meter hurdles. The 400 meter relay sat in 4th, the 800m relay in 3rd and the 1600m relay in 3rd with a new school record of 4:16.04. "The two seniors did really well," continued the coach. "Amy Dankesreiter was sitting with the third best time and had an opportunity to go to Austin."

In the 3200 final, Tina Klement earned a trip to Austin with a 2nd place finish of 12:20.06. "Tina ran well," said Strother. "The first two laps it was a four person race; after a mile it turned to two runners. It was a dual for three laps." Klement earned eight points for the team and achieved a new season record in the run.

Saturday's action was highlighted with Roxie Knabe winning the shot put. Her throw of 40'7 1/2" set a new regional record and earned her the opportunity to go to the state meet in Austin. Roxie, at present, has the best Texas Class A throw of 42'. Please See REGIONAL CHAMPS, Page 9

Six sentenced from drug raid in Cooke County

by Elaine Schad

Six people arrested in a November Gainesville drug raid have been sentenced after pleading guilty in Cooke County District Court, according to officials with the Cooke County District Attorney's office.

McKinney Joe Henry, 38, of Gainesville received four sentences of 50 years each for delivery of a controlled substance, cocaine. Velma Brown, age unknown, of Gainesville received three sentences of 35 years each on the same charge. Laurie Carriker Kish, 21, of Whitesboro received three sentences of 10 years for three counts of possession of drug paraphernalia. Wilber Lawrence Manuel, 28, of Gainesville received five 25-year sentences on five counts of delivery of a controlled substance. Ray Moore, 50, of Gainesville, received three five-year sentences on three counts of possession of a controlled substance. Billy Konzer, 39, of Gainesville received two sentences of 10 years each on two counts delivery of a controlled substance. All the sentences will run concurrently, officials said. All were sentenced by 235th District Judge Jerry Woodlock.

The six were among 22 people arrested in a November 1991 raid of a tin storage shed in Gainesville known as the "Bread Barn." The arrests came following a six-month undercover investigation by the North Texas Drug Enforcement Task Force.

More trials and pleadings are expected to come within the month, said Assistant District Attorney Don King.

Three others were sentenced in February in connection with the raid. Peter McCoy of Muenster received a life sentence. Pamela Biggers Davis of Gainesville received 50 years in prison for each of five counts of delivery and 20 years for each of three counts of possession of a controlled substance. Carla Jane Palmer received 50 years in prison, one each of five counts for delivery. The sentences will run concurrently.

Lindsay City Council recognizes former mayor

by Elaine Schad

The Lindsay City Council dedicated a memorial plaque to its former mayor as they seated a new mayor at the council's regular meeting this week.

The council dedicated a plaque on the outside of City Hall to the memory of Doyle Cogburn. Cogburn was in his first term as mayor when he died in June of 1991 of an apparent heart attack. The plaque was in memory of Cogburn's service and commitment to the Lindsay community, said City Secretary Wilbert Block.

Eugene Hermes took his seat as Lindsay's new mayor after the council canvassed May 2 election returns. Final official voting tallies showed Hermes with 97 votes to challenger Steve Bell's 34 votes. Don Metzler, who was appointed to finish Cogburn's term, did not seek re-election to the council.

Other new council members also took their seats on the council. Wilbert Block was re-elected with 102 votes. Danny Zwinggi will be a new member, running as an official write-in candidate and receiving 66 votes. Michael Hermes also ran as a write-in and will serve a one-year unexpired term. He received 114 votes.

The council elected Robert Walterscheid as the new mayor pro tem and recognized Metzler and Manley Taylor as outgoing council members.

Voth joins City Council

The Muenster City Council has one new member. Fran Voth won Saturday's election with 211 votes to replace Joe Koesler who got only 97 votes for Place 1. She and incumbents Aubry Tuggle and Arthur Hennigan were sworn into office for two-year terms by City Secretary Celine Dittfurth at Monday's regular council meeting. Tuggle received 211 votes over challenger Pat Dennis' 95. Hennigan was unopposed and received 275 votes.

Old business on the agenda included further consideration of Muenster's membership on the North Texas Regional Drug Enforcement Task Force. The council agreed in principal to the Task Force proposal but was concerned over what function local police officers would have if operations happened to center in Muenster. Council members and the police wanted detailed answers, but Sgt. Jerry Riley of the Task Force was not at the meeting. Muenster and all other member entities have been asked to pledge $5,752.00 to support the task force if necessary outside of their regular support from law enforcement grants. But since the task force usually makes substantial income from drug-related seizures, the pledged money may only be requested in part or not at all at the end of the year. Last year, members Cooke County and Gainesville paid a little over $1,000.00 as members. Sgt. Riley said at last month's meeting that chances are good for big seizures this year.

Several residents came to the council meeting to discuss the street paving project proposed for South Willow, Cross Street and Park Lane. Some want a hot mix asphalt paving job, but most want the less-expensive oil and chip-rock method. A meeting has been set tentatively for May 18 at City Hall to hear pros and cons from a disinterested expert in order to reach a decision. Spokesman Glenn Hess said they were concerned that some of the street frontage still has no curbing.

The traffic visibility problem from diagonally parked cars at the intersection of Main and Second Streets was discussed again. The city will probably experiment with a lower parking angle to see if it helps.

The first item of new business concerned appointment of commissions for the aldermen. Mayor

Ted Henscheid was not at the meeting, having had cattle problems during the day and again immediately before the meeting. In the mayor's absence, Mayor Pro-Tem Aubry Tuggle asked for a motion that all commissions remain the same. The council so moved and so voted. Mayor Henscheid said later that he had talked with Tuggle shortly before the meeting and agreed that commission appointment be delayed until a later date. Henscheid was slightly injured by one of his cows. The animal died about 8:30 p.m.

Longtime Mayor Pro-Tem Tuggle declined that position for another term, recommending Arthur Hennigan instead. The council agreed and Hennigan accepted. He took over the mayor's chair for the rest of the meeting.

The closing of South Maple Street for Germanfest carnival rides brought up questions of insurance and liability. Opinions seemed to indicate that the street will stay open next year and the Chamber will have to put the rides elsewhere. Councilman Hennigan said that might take some of the traffic off the park and possibly avoid taking six months for the Spring concert set for May 12

The Cooke County Chorale will present a program of coronation music for its Spring Concert on Tuesday evening, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster.

The Chorus will sing the Coronation Mass in C major by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart which was composed in 1779 for the annual coronation of the Statue of the Virgin Mary, at the Shrine of Maria Plain, near Salzburg, Austria.

This work was written for orchestra, chorus and solo quartet, and will feature Mrs. Ann Dark and Miss Melissa Logan of Wichita Falls, and Allan Andrews and Frank Sargent of Dallas. Mrs. Dark holds degrees from Midwestern State University and has been a soloist with the Wichita Falls Symphony. Miss Logan will graduate from Midwestern State in May and will be a teaching assistant at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia this fall.

Mr. Andrews, who will be making his second appearance with the Chorus, holds degrees from Midwestern State and is Choral Director at W.T. White High School in Dallas. Frank Sargent is Choral Director of Highland Park High School in Dallas and also is Director of Music for First Presbyterian Church in Richardson. He has sung professionally with the Rockefeller Chapel and Chicago Symphony Chorus and is the former director of the Dallas Symphony Chorus.

The Cooke County Chorale will also perform two anthems by George Frideric Handel, composed for the coronation of King George II in 1727, entitled "Zadok, the Priest" and "Let Thy Hand Be Strengthened."

Dr. Michael Linder, music instructor at Cooke County College, directs the Chorale. Dr. Martin Kralicko of Muenster is the president of the Chorale. John Dill of Gainesville will be organist for the work. He is an organ student at the University of North Texas and is the organist/choirmaster of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Gainesville. Mr. Dill will also present two organ solos for the concert. He will play an Allen Please See CONCERT, Page 3

Area elections present new faces

by Elaine Schad

Some new faces are holding elected offices this week following May elections throughout the county.

In Lindsay, Eugene Hermes is the new mayor. Hermes received 97 votes to challenger Steve Bell's 34 votes. Don Metzler, who was appointed to the position following the death of Doyle Cogburn, chose not to seek another term on the council.

There will be two new aldermen and an incumbent on the council. Wilbert Block was re-elected to his council position with 102 votes. Write-in candidate Danny Zwinggi won a seat with 66 votes for a two-year term. Michael Hermes, another write-in candidate, will fill a one-year unexpired term. He received 114 votes.

In the Lindsay School Board election, four positions were up. Incumbent Jim Neidhardt ran unopposed for a one-year unexpired term, receiving 131 votes. Susan Metzler also ran unopposed for a one-year unexpired term she was appointed to and received 141 votes. David Arendt won a three-year unexpired term, receiving 103 votes as did incumbent Mark Krebs, who received 95 votes. Challenger Michael Bengfort received 93 votes.

In Era, incumbent John Smith held on to his Place 1 seat on the school board. He received 54 votes to challenger Harold Bowles' 43 votes. Two other incumbents ran unopposed. Gene Sadau won Place 2 with 68 votes. G.C. Ellis won Place 3 with 66 votes. Write-in votes included Herbie Richardson with one vote for Place 3, Junior Worthey and Randy Johnson each received one vote for Place 2. A total of 97 people cast ballots in Era.

In Valley View, the city council still has one vacant position following the elections. Eugene Miller received 68 votes and John Kubicek received 56 votes to become the new aldermen for two-year terms. A third position remains vacant since no one else filed. The city council is expected to discuss how they will fill the position at Monday's city council meeting at 7 p.m. at City Hall.

In the Valley View School Board race, all three incumbents successfully retained their seats for three-year terms against stiff competition.

Jerry McKown received 118 votes, Charlene Ritchey received 111 votes and Harold Alexander had 91 votes for re-election to their seats. Challengers Billy Kupper received 85 votes, Rickey Barthold 85 votes, Jimmy Meyer 73 votes and Eleanor Woods received 48 votes.

Academies seeking applications

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm is pleased to announce the beginning of the 1993 United States Service Academy cycle. At this time, information is being forwarded to all area high schools and those individuals who have expressed interest in applying for a nomination to the United States Air Force, Merchant Marine, Military or Naval Academy.

Applications are currently being accepted from individuals who wish to be considered for the classes entering in July of 1993. The academies seek well-rounded, intelligent young men and women who are accustomed to balancing many activities while maintaining a high level of academic excellence. The academies offer an excellent educational opportunity, while achieving their goal of preparing tomorrow's military leaders. The academies are seeking individuals of high moral character with much leadership potential, who thrive under pressure.

Individuals who are at least high school juniors, and who will be between 17 and 22 years of age on July 1, 1993, may be eligible for consideration. Selections are made in mid-December, using a formula based upon the candidate's high school record, class standing, SAT and/or ACT scores. Involvement in athletics and school and community extracurricular activities are important factors in determining the individual's ability to effectively function under pressure. Evaluations by school officials and other individuals who are familiar with the candidate are also used in the decision-making process.

Motivated, self-starting individuals who like to be challenged are strongly encouraged to contact Congressman Stenholm's Stamford office for further information. All inquiries should be directed to: Congressman Charles W. Stenholm, P.O. Box 1237, Stamford, Texas 79553, ATTN: Academy Applications.

park to recover from the Germanfest.

The council expressed concern for the welfare of certain individuals who make a habit of rummaging through dumpsters for salvage. They discussed ways of preventing this practice. Duane Rohmer asked the councilmen to investigate current laws before creating more new ones.

The Emergency Management Ordinance was tabled.

Councilwoman Mary Ann Grant reported on the repeated occasions of sewer line cleaning made necessary by grease deposits which can only be coming from The Center Restaurant. The city now intends to request that The Center install a grease trap. Applicable ordinances are being studied.

City Administrator Joe Fenton reported to the council that the city park had been well cleaned after Germanfest except for the swimming pool building used solely by the Jaycees and the Jaycees beer van which had been left in the park past clearance deadline. He asked for permission to require a park use permit and deposit from the Jaycees in the future as well as from the Chamber of Commerce.

Council discussion indicated that the overall cleanup responsibility belonged to the Chamber of Commerce, not the Jaycees. They discussed raising the deposit to the Chamber but did not. The Chamber will remain responsible for overall park cleanup and must forfeit the deposit for failure to meet the deadline.

The municipal swimming pool will open on Saturday, May 23, for the 1992 season.

Monthly bills totaling $49,885.10 were approved for payment.

Councilwoman Grant, in a final off-agenda item, asked for information on the cleanup and repair of First Street and its adjoining curbs and yards torn up during installation of underground cable by Muenster Telephone Corp. The damages are covered under franchise agreements. Muenster Telephone Corp. Manager Alvin Fuhrman later said all damages will be repaired within agreed time frames, including damage to lawns.

Judge Russell attends conference in Lubbock

Cooke County Judge Ray Russell attended a judicial conference in Lubbock, Texas, April 29-May 1, to fulfill mandatory educational requirements mandated by state law. Judge Russell explained that all Constitutional County Judges must receive a minimum of fifteen hours in judicial education each year, and new County Judges must receive thirty hours during the first year. Since Judge Russell is in his first year, the thirty hour requirement applies. The agenda for the conference includes the role of the judge in the court and the community, communications techniques for the courtroom, effective strategies for case and calendar management, court personnel management, judicial ethics, and courtroom techniques.

Judge Russell pointed out that, in reality, many more hours of continuing legal education are required for a County Judge in a county such as Cooke County. Since Cooke County has no County Court at Law (as does Denton, Grayson, Dallas, Tarrant, and other more populous counties), the County Court of Cooke County must handle a wide range of legal matters. The County Judge must decide all probate matters (decedents and guardianship estates), civil lawsuits, criminal misdemeanor cases, juvenile cases, mental illness cases, and appeals from Justice of the Peace and Municipal Courts within the County. Therefore, the range of legal knowledge required by the County Judge is extensive and requires constant updating to stay abreast of the many laws involved. Judge Russell has plans to attend a civil law update seminar soon, as well as a probate law seminar in the near future.

Judge Russell stressed that while the trips out of town are tiring and time consuming, the alternative, a County Court at Law to handle part of the litigation, would be a staggering expense to the taxpayers. He said he is very happy to be in the position to save the county that expense.

The Texas Railroad Commission reviewed oil companies' May nominations to buy a total of 1,769,127 barrels of Texas oil per day. The nomination total, a decrease of 9,131 barrels daily when compared to April purchaser nominations, estimated Texas oil purchases in the coming month. May 1991 nominations totaled 1,868,705 barrels daily.

It was also reported that May nominations for the purchase of Texas gas totaled 19,002,149 Mcf/d (thousand cubic feet per day). May 1991 nominations totaled 19,933,104 Mcf/d.

Major purchasers filed these May nominations from the floor at the hearing: Exxon Company, U.S.A., 117,000 barrels per day, down 2,500 barrels; and Amoco Production Company, 142,000 barrels per day, unchanged. Crude oil and petroleum products imported into the U.S. averaged 6,888,000 barrels per day for the month of February 1992. This was an increase of 44,000 barrels per day from the same period a year ago.

The Railroad commission assessed $21,000 in administrative penalties to five oil and gas operators for violations under Commission well plugging and pollution rules.

To date in 1992, the Railroad Commission has levied more than $359,000 in pollution and well plugging penalties. Last year, the Commission assessed $732,000 in such penalties.

Brazos Electric Co-Op re-elects Robert T. Lewis Jr. to board

Three incumbent officers were re-elected by the board of directors of Brazos Electric Cooperative at the organization's 51st annual meeting recently at the Waco Convention Center.

Sam Houston, general manager of Hill County Electric Cooperative in Itasca, was re-elected president of the board. John Hartgraves, manager of Hamilton County Electric Cooperative in Hamilton, was re-elected vice-president. Robert T.

Lewis Jr., a Gainesville rancher and president of Cooke County Electric Cooperative in Muenster, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Following the annual business meeting, service awards were presented to 42 Brazos Electric employees whose service totals 550 years. Richard E. McCaskill, executive vice-president and general manager, made the presentations before a luncheon crowd of about 320 people.

During the luncheon program, McCaskill also recapped some of the events of 1991, including an 8.5 percent reduction in the average price of wholesale power to members. The cooperative also recorded an all-time record for reliability: an average outage time per substation of 20 minutes on a system comprising 2,500 miles of transmission line and 203 substations.

Brazos Electric provides wholesale electric power to 20 member cooperatives and seven other customers.

AMPI protests duty-free goya cheese imports

A proposal to allow duty-free status for Goya cheese imports is opposed by U.S. dairy farmers because it would reduce U.S. milk prices.

"Expansion of Goya cheese imports would reduce milk prices to U.S. farmers, displace domestic products and cause a general reduction in domestic activity," according to Irvin Elkin, president of Associated Milk Producers, Inc., the nation's largest dairy farmer cooperative. "It would also increase government costs as displayed U.S. milk production is channeled into products purchased under the Dairy Price Support Program."

Elkin made his comments in testimony before the House Livestock, Dairy and Poultry Subcommittee on April 9. AMPI joined with National Milk Producers Federation and other dairy industry representatives in protesting duty-free status for Goya cheese.

"We must protest the unusual circumstances under which this request for Generalized System of Preference (GSP) status is being considered," Elkin, a dairy farmer from Amery, Wis., said. "It was reviewed and a decision made to deny the Hungarian petition last May. Under our government's regulations covering the GSP program, that should have settled that matter for at least three years."

"Unfortunately, this appears to be another example of foreign policy taking precedent over the needs of America's farm families," Elkin said.

Elkin cited a national Milk Producers Federation estimate that a 10,000 ton Goya cheese import expansion would mean a reduction in U.S. farm income of more than $1.2 billion. The additional Commodity Credit Corporation costs would be more than $360 million.

"When U.S. dairy farmers are being assessed to reduce price support program costs, when dairy farmers are struggling to stay in business and when every effort is being directed toward pulling the economy out of recession, it is incomprehensible that the government would act so irresponsibly," Elkin said.

Edith Luke dies April 14

Edith Faye Luke of Holbrook, Arizona died at age 53 on Tuesday, April 14, 1992 enroute to a hospital in Flagstaff, Arizona, following a brief illness.

She is survived by her husband, Eugene C. Luke of Holbrook, one son Robert A. Luke of Albuquerque, N.M., and one daughter Donna M. (Luke) Roman and one son-in-law, Pete Roman of Phoenix, Arizona. Eugene Luke, a Muenster native, is the son of the late Ben and Mary Luke.

Edith Luke, the former Edith

EDITH LUKE

Jackson, was born in Port Arthur, Texas. She married Eugene Luke there in 1960. She received her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in English at the University of North Texas, and a degree in Library Science, and taught in the Junior High School in McKinney, Texas, in Lake Worth High School, followed by teaching at the University of Wisconsin in River Falls for three years. As a legal secretary she worked at the University of North Texas for another three years, moving then to Holbrook, Arizona in 1974.

In 1979 she became Librarian of Holbrook High School. She was recently named "Teacher of the Month." As a member of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, she served many years as church organist. The choir of students she trained and directed at Holbrook High School sang the sacred music for her funeral Mass. Eugene and Edith had planned to host a reunion of the Ben Luke family at the Grand Canyon this summer and were preparing for the event. Edith's parents and her only brother are deceased.

Mass of Christian Burial was offered in Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Holbrook, delayed until Monday, April 20.

Because of Holy Week and the Easter vigil, a simple burial service was held Saturday, April 18 at the church at 10 a.m. Interment was in Holbrook Cemetery. Owens Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Officiating for the Mass on Monday, April 20 were Father Eugene Luke OSB of Subiaco Abbey, Arkansas and Father Lawrence O'Keefe, pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.

Participating in the special funeral liturgy on Saturday were Harold Luke and Marianna Kuhn, with Readings from the Old and New Testaments. For the Mass on Monday Al and Marianne Kuhn gave the First and Second Readings. Offertory gifts were presented by Edith's husband, daughter and son.

Eucharistic Ministers were Father Eugene Luke, and a former assistant at Our Lady of Guadalupe, who is a priest at an Indian Reservation near Holbrook, and a family friend.

The choir offering sacred music for the funeral Mass was the Holbrook High School Chorus trained and directed by Edith Luke.

On Good Friday, at 6 p.m. a Family time was held at 4 p.m. and a Rosary service at 7 p.m. in the Owens Mortuary Chapel.

Relatives attending were Father Eugene Luke OSB of Subiaco Abbey, Arkansas; Marianne and Al Kuhn of Hot Springs Village, Arkansas; and Harold and Pat Luke of Arlington, Tx.

AN IMPRESSIVE PRESENTATION of Handel's Messiah! was a Christmas gift from the Cooke County Chorale on Dec. 1, 1991 in Sacred Heart Church. This spring, the singing chorus will present a Coronation Concert on May 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the same edifice. It promises to be even more beautiful. Of the 40 members, nine are Muenster residents.

organ donated for this occasion by Organ Associates of Carrollton.

The Cooke County Chorale has 40 members who come from Muenster, Gainesville, Lake Kiowa, Nocona and Woodbine. The nine Muenster members are Dr. Martin Kralicke, Tony Luke, Gene Gieb, James Walterscheid, David Fette, Pam Fette, Juanita Bright, Ruth Felderhoff, Christy Hesse and Anne Poole, also former Muenster residents Coralee (Fuhrman) Pulte and Linda (Lutkenhaus) Coursey.

As part of the Cooke County Arts Council, the Chorale is dedicated to the preservation of masterpieces of choral music each year, that will be appreciated for its beauty, discipline and music education. Diligent practice for this program began in January, as a gift to the community.

Everyone is invited to attend. There is ample seating room and there will be no admission charge.

Those attending the free program will be treated to an inspiring, musically satisfying and memorable event.

Cooke County College to hold commencement exercises

Cooke County College will officially confer degrees on 296 graduates in formal commencement ceremonies Friday, May 8 beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Gainesville High School auditorium.

In addition to the conferring of degrees, CCC officials will formally recognize 25 honor graduates who hold a place in the top 10 percent of their class.

Honor graduates for 1992 include: Collete Bayer of Muenster, Barbara Sue Brooks, Marty Miles Brown, Connie A. Campbell, Betty Jo Carroll, N. Lauri DeFoore, Christina Lynne Edmondson, Robert M. Golden, Brad W. Hackbart, Cecilia Hoenig of Lindsay, Lari Blake Howard, Alton Van Little, Craig R. Mabie, Connie S. Maring, Lowell Ray McCormack, Sharon Elaine McHorse, LaDonna Garrett Mills, Eric Alfred Murrill, Sheri Patton, Connie Ruth Self, Shirlene Mays Theobald, Patricia A. Thies, Kay Thomason, Patricia S. Walker and Norman S. Worth Jr.

In addition, the "Triumph of the Spirit" award will be presented to a graduate who has persevered in pursuing his or her educational goals despite extreme personal hardship and other obstacles.

"A great deal of consideration goes into deciding the recipient of this award," said CCC President Bud Joyner. "Nominations are received from faculty and staff throughout the year, and the award is given only when we feel truly extraordinary courage, determination and persistence have been demonstrated by a student in getting his or her education."

Another award to be presented at the ceremony is the CCC's Faculty Association's choice of "Teacher of the Year."

A formal reception honoring all members of the Cooke County College Class of 1992 will be held immediately following the commencement ceremony at the CCC Student Center on campus. All graduates and their families, friends and other guests are invited to attend.

Support Special Olympics during Olympic Spirit Week

Local residents can add their names to Olympic history and send their best wishes to the U.S. Olympic team by signing a piece of the world's largest postcard during U.S. Olympic Spirit Week, May 11-17. During the week, 28,000 post offices across the country will bring their communities together in an effort to raise funds and rally national support for U.S. Olympic hopefuls.

The focal point of U.S. Olympic Spirit Week is a piece of a giant postcard featuring a good luck message to the athletes. For a $1 contribution, customers can support America's Olympic team by signing pieces of the giant postcard. They also receive two personal postcards addressed to Olympic athletes: one to save as a souvenir, the other to send with personal greetings to U.S. Olympians competing at the Barcelona Games. Muenster's piece of the postcard will be on display and available for signing daily from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. until Saturday, May 16.

In July, when Olympic spirit is high and the athletes are preparing to leave for Barcelona, Muenster's piece of the card, along with the 28,000 other pieces, will be assembled for the "America's Salute to Team USA" celebration in Washington, D.C. The fully-assembled card, larger than three football fields and bearing hundreds of thousands of signatures, will convey the best wishes of Americans to their team as it prepares to leave for the summer games.

During the Games in Barcelona, the Postal Service will run a team message center, providing daily mail service to America's athletes and delivering personal postcards bearing American's best wishes.

"The Postal Service is an organization that touches all Americans," says Postmaster Virgil Henscheid. "It is proud to sponsor the Olympics, a competition that touches the hearts of all Americans."

and Molly Poehlein of Plano, 5th.

An estimated 4,000 spectators were entertained for hours as 12 men's teams and 2 women's teams vied for championship titles in the North Texas Championship Tug-of-War on Sunday. The tugs lasted anywhere from a short 40 seconds to a grueling 28-plus minutes.

The final pull was between Prime Cut and Martindale's. Winning the title of champion was Martindale's. Members of the Martindale team were Coach Bret Walterscheid, Muenster; Troy Huchton, Gainesville; Shawn Flusche, Muenster; Damian Hellman, Muenster; Chris Klement, Muenster; Bruce Bezner, Lindsay; Dan Bezner, Lindsay; Frank Fangman, Gainesville; and Bubba Klement, Muenster.

Prime Cut members were: Coach Billy Henley, John F. Womack, Brad Keck, Eddie Fenoglio Jr., Stan Phipps, Eddie Waldrip, Wesley Keck, J.T. Hancock, all of Nocona, and Donnie Fenoglio of Montague.

Winning the women's championship title after a 40-second pull was the Bud Light Girls. Team members included Kathy Felderhoff, Nancy Barnes, Peggy Sparkman, Lisa Haverkamp, Jeannie Alexander, Vickie Schmitt, Dorian Aston and Sherrie Kuykendall.

Gray gets notice from NET

Eric Gray, a teacher of Math, German and Religion at Sacred Heart High School, will take a temporary leave of absence to spend eleven months, January to November 1993, in Australia as a member of the National Evangelization Team, (NET) an evangelistic retreat ministry for Catholic youth. NET Australia is exactly like NET America.

His notification of acceptance to NET was dated March 15, 1992 in Queensland, Australia and signed by Shayne Bennett, Australian Director of NET.

It related that the first five weeks will be spent in team training and practical experience before beginning about ten months of ministry which will take the team right across Australia.

NET asks each team member to raise a sponsorship of $2,500 to contribute to their practical support during the time of ministry. This money is used to provide a monthly stipend to the team member as well as covering medical insurance and training costs. As well as this amount, NET has requested Eric Gray to raise sufficient funds to cover his return airfare.

By being a member of NET, Eric Gray will be providing an invaluable ministry to youth. Supporting his need for sponsorship will be an investment in a ministry to Catholic youth now, and in the formation of a young person in his service within the Catholic Church.

NET presents the Catholic Faith to youth in a way that is meaningful to them, without sacrificing church doctrine or dogma along the way. It operates on donations only, which are tax deductible.

After completing 11 months, Eric Gray will return to Sacred Heart Parish where he is a junior high youth minister, director of Altar servers, music minister and member of the Liturgical Commission.

Traditional ceremony unites couple March 21

The wedding of Julie Beheler and Steve Sandusky was held in Forestburg Methodist Church on March 21, 1992 at 4 p.m., with Rev. Millard Fairchild officiating for the traditional double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Billy and J.R. Biffle of Forestburg. She is a graduate of Forestburg High School and Cooke County College and is employed by R.W. Gas and Grocery and is the convenience store manager.

The groom is the son of Faith Sandusky of Forestburg. He is a graduate of Forestburg High School and NIT, and is employed as a Telephone Service Man for North Texas Communications Company.

Spiral candelabras and lighted candles decorated with wildflowers enhanced the altar space, where the couple repeated their vows.

Given in marriage by her brother, Allen Beheler, the bride was wearing a formal white satin wedding gown with reembodyered Alencon lace overlay embellished with beads. It was designed with high neck, long sleeves pointed over the wrists, and a satin train bordered with matching lace. Her illusion veil was held by a lace caplet, accented with a triple-loop strand of pearls at one side.

She carried a cascading bouquet of wildflowers, with pearls and lace entwined.

ATTENDANTS

Maid of honor to the bride was Nancy Traylor of Forestburg. Bridesmaids were Shelle Perryman of Wichita Falls and Gina Wade of Forestburg.

They wore purple, tea-length satin gowns designed with high-low hemlines, and carried sprays of wildflowers, with pearl and lace accents.

The flower girl was Erica Cain of Forestburg. She wore a white cotton dress, designed with a pearl neckline; and carried a white flower basket, with illusion and bows.

Willy Sandusky was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Rodney Hess and Joe Yosten of Muenster. Ushers were Jeff Lanier of Forestburg and Dan Cook of Garland, groom's nephew.

Ruth Felderhoff presented wedding music on the organ, with guitar accompaniment by Larry Eldridge. Vocal selections were "Years From Now" and "Isn't It Amazing?" sung by Willy Sandusky.

RECEPTION

An informal reception followed in the Forestburg Community Center, with a theme of spring wildflowers and heather, hosted by Linda Biffle and Jeannie McKinney. Presiding at the guest book were Linda Domer and Candy Jones.

The bride's table was decorated with white tulle, silver lame and silver cherubs.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with spring flowers.

Reception assistants were Sherri Jo Boyd, Shana Haverkamp, Melody Rohmer, Sara Lanier, Helen Steadham, Jeanne Rasure and Liz Sharp. Betty Jean Miller was the wedding consultant.

The couple resides in Forestburg since returning from a wedding trip to San Antonio.

MPS students to be honored at Banquet

Muenster Public School students will be honored at their All-Awards Banquet next week.

On Monday, May 11, the high school banquet begins at 7 p.m. A meal, catered by Rohmer's Restaurant, of chicken fried steak is included in the $5.00 ticket price. All MPS students are admitted free. Tickets are on sale in the school lobby, or contact Herkey Biffle at 759-4677.

On Tuesday, May 12, the Junior High Awards Banquet is scheduled to start at 7 p.m. A hamburger supper is to be served, with tickets costing $3.00.

Both awards banquets will be held in the Sacred Heart Community Center.

Former resident celebrates 90th birthday

Mrs. Mary Eva Wiesman, a Muenster native and longtime Fort Worth resident, celebrated her 90th birthday in her home. She was born in Muenster on April 26, 1902 to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walterscheid.

In attendance at the celebration and dinner were her three children, Albert, Ella Mae and Elmer, seven grandchildren, spouses, eight great-grandchildren and special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerer of Lindsay. At age 90, Mrs. Wiesman is still quite active in senior citizen and church activities.

TRAVIS JOSEPH REITER

KARISSA MICHELLE REITER

Travis, Karissa Reiter celebrate birthdays

Travis Joseph Reiter and Karissa Michelle Reiter, children of Lloyd and Mary Reiter of Decatur and grandchildren of Wilfred and Polly Reiter of Muenster and Julius and Marcella Metzler of Lindsay, recently celebrated birthdays. Travis was honored with a birthday party with a soccer theme, held at Grandmother Reiter's house on March 25. Polly Reiter made and decorated a soccer ball-shaped cake for the occasion. In attendance were Travis' grandparents, Wilfred and Polly Reiter, and uncle Roger Reiter. Also, Lloyd, Mary, Karissa and Austin Reiter, and Kim, Brian, David, Stephen and Christina Wiese.

On Travis' birthday, a party was held in his new tree house that his dad and mom built as a special birthday present. Testing the strength of the new tree house were 24 of Travis' pre-school and neighborhood friends. After the tree house was kid-approved, the children enjoyed a clown-shaped cake and cupcakes made and decorated by Travis' mom.

Attending the celebration were Travis and his parents and siblings, Karissa and Austin; also 24 little friends. Montanna, the neighborhood dog made an unscheduled appearance and enjoyed the cake very much as he ate all the leftover cupcakes which were unattended while the children were playing in the tree house. The children squealed with delight as Montanna finished off the ice cream.

Karissa Michelle celebrated her third birthday on April 15. A birthday party was held at Grandmother Reiter's house on April 12. Polly Reiter made and decorated an Easter basket cake filled with flowers made out of candy and a chocolate bunny. On hand for the celebration were Karissa, her brothers Travis and Austin, and her parents. Also, Wilfred and Polly Reiter and Roger Reiter; Don, Kim, Brian, David, Stephen and Christina Wiese; and Tim, Lynn, Brody and Tyler Gibson.

On Karissa's birthday, a party was held in her home. It began with an Easter egg hunt, then everyone was served lunch and a Raggedy Ann-shaped cake which was made and decorated by Karissa's mom. The afternoon was filled with games and ended with playing in the rain - much to Mom's dismay. Guests included five little friends and Karissa's siblings, Travis and Austin, who also joined in on the fun.

Show Mom your appreciation with Texas potted plant

Don't forget Mom on Mother's Day - but don't forget Texas either. The state's greenhouse operators may not be who you think of first when Mother's Day rolls around, but Texans are asked to give Texas-grown plants when honoring Mom May 10.

Texas-grown blooming potted plants earn more than $34 million each year for the state's greenhouse operators, according to the latest U.S. Department of Agriculture's Floriculture Crops Summary.

Overall, ornamental plants, including landscape and house plants, are the state's fifth largest agricultural commodity, earning $500 million a year. Texas is the nation's third largest nursery product producer, just behind California and Florida.

So, how can you tell if it's Texas grown? It's simple, look for the Texas-grown label, or simply ask your retailer for Texas products.

Schedule of Meeting

A. A. Meeting

A.A. will hold an open meeting on May 19 at 8 p.m. in the Community Center meeting room, to celebrate birthdays of members. All interested persons are invited and will be most welcome. Ice cream, cake and coffee will be served. Entrance is through the north door of the meeting room, where a sign will be in place.

Sacred Heart Student Council wins awards

by Lisa Schilling

Sacred Heart Student Council was recognized as the Outstanding Student Council in Texas, and notification was made when the students attended the 56th annual Texas Association of Student Councils State Convention in Austin, accompanied by two sponsors on April 30. Approximately 4500 students and their sponsors attended the convention.

The students were presented with many activities and sessions with which they learned new ideas from other student councils. Special guest speaker for Friday's general assembly was Texas' Governor Ann Richards. She expressed her feelings on how student council and student leadership activities have a lasting positive impact on students, helping them to set goals and to realize dreams. Saturday's guest speaker was Emmy winner Pat Hurley, who enlightened the audience with his humorous presentation of "The Four Loves of a Leader."

During the convention, Sacred Heart Student Council received special recognition for their many activities which they sponsor. They received the SMILE award for drug and alcohol awareness projects.

Sacred Heart Student Council members who attended were seniors Lisa Schilling, Jennifer Walter and Stevan Nasche; sophomores Jennie Endres and Donetta Hess; and freshman Stephanie Grewing. Sponsors Debbie Endres and Donna Maxon also attended the convention.

SH Preschool marks ten years with celebration

It was a day of celebration, reunions, and reminiscing Sunday, May 3 as former and present students of the Sacred Heart Preschool and their families gathered at the Sacred Heart Parish pavilion. The occasion was the 10th anniversary of the Sacred Heart Preschool which opened in August, 1982. Approximately 160 people attended Sunday's party.

An Open House was held for the Preschool building from 5 to 5:30 p.m. A short program was followed by a picnic supper and visiting.

Don Hartman of the Sacred Heart School Board emceed the program. He recognized Loretta Felderhoff, Jeannine Flusche and Peggy Grewing for their work and contributions to establishing the Preschool. He also offered special thanks to the school's staff members, benefactors, supportive businesses and school organizations.

Pat Jackson, president of the Preschool Parent Group, spoke on behalf of the parents. She remarked on how fortunate this area is to have two good local schools and how important the parent's support is.

Loretta Felderhoff, founder and former director of the Preschool, reminded those present that 90% of a child's learning skills has already been developed by age 6. Therefore the Preschool was established to make available an enriched environment from which children can absorb vast amounts of information almost without effort in an environment that capitalizes on the natural learning potential of each child and which helps that child develop the foundations for a lifetime of creative learning. The program selected was a Montessori based curriculum.

Students now attending the Preschool entertained during the program with two songs, "Hello Song" and "Thank You Jesus." They were assisted by their teacher Pam Dangelmayr and teacher's aide Kathy Berres.

When it first opened the school was located in a house on Maple Street that was owned by Dan Luke. It was remodeled with child size furniture, etc. and had a fenced yard and garden. The school was then called Young Children's Learning Center.

In 1985 a new facility was built on the grounds of Sacred Heart Parish. It was unique with sinks, lavatories and toilet facilities built at child height and included a special reading loft. Classes began in the new building in the Fall of 1985. In 1986 approval was granted for integration into the Sacred Heart School system and the name became Sacred Heart Preschool.

There have been 244 graduates from Preschool. Nineteen children are now enrolled. Children from age 3 to kindergarten attend with half or full days.

SNAP hosts free cataract screening

A Free Cataract Screening will be held at the SNAP Center on May 13, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The Mobile Unit will be on the parking lot of the Community Center, but those wanting to receive the service must come in to register first in the meeting room of the SNAP Center.

NOTICE!

A JELLY meeting will be held on Sunday, May 17 at the Road Runner Ranch north of Muenster. There is no charge and supper will be provided. All junior high (seventh and eighth graders), including new members, are welcomed. The topic will be on Faith.

At 3 p.m. the bus leaves Sacred Heart Community Center parking lot and it returns at 8 p.m. For more information contact Eric Gray, 759-4743, or Jeannine Flusche, 759-4497.

Secular Franciscans meet with Jewell Sweeney

Jewell Sweeney hosted the Secular Franciscans of Lindsay at her home on April 21. Minister Theresa Hermes conducted the meeting and led prayers for the Congress to be held at the University of Dayton, Ohio Aug. 2-7, 1992. Ritual prayers followed. Marie Zimmerer gave the Scripture reading.

A letter was received from Sister St. John Begnard, SSMN, thanking members for books sent to be distributed among prisoners; also from Chaplain Anthony Plathe of La Tuna Correctional Prison for books and Bible guides. Father Tom Gardner of the Franciscan Mission Union sent his thanks for the donation of $115.00 intended for a fund to help build a Retreat and Formation Center in the Amazon Valley of Brazil.

Theresa Hermes reported on the Franciscan Forum in which Provincial Spiritual Assistant Father Martin Wolters, OFM, discussed Saints, Stigmatics, the St. Francis Peace Prayer and Learning To Be A Loving Neighbor.

Anna Kramer of Omaha, Nebraska wrote on the changing needs of Franciscan communities, large or small.

Elvira Flusche donated 12 blocks of fabric which members will embroider, to be put into a quilt for a raffle next fall.

Ritual prayers and petitions concluded the meeting. A get-well card was signed and mailed to Marie Badgett, a member who is ill.

Mrs. Jewell Sweeney, the hostess, served chocolate cake, ice cream and coffee.

Love Fund established for Erin

Beta Kappa has opened a Love Fund at the Muenster State Bank for Erin Marie Endres, who is a patient at Baylor Hospital in Dallas. Erin is the newborn daughter of Monte and Jacque Endres of Muenster.

Clover Kids receive awards

The Muenster Clover Kids held their final meeting of the school year on Monday, May 4. Jerry Sicking presented each Clover Kid with their participation ribbon for the crafts they displayed at the 4-H Roundup on April 9.

A special project for Mother's Day was completed by the Clover Kids with help from their leaders. Silk corsages and small silk potted plants were made of flowers chosen by the children from their favorite colors and flowers. These flowers and supplies were generously donated by Bouquets and Gifts. A swim party and cookout to be held sometime this summer was discussed. Clover Kids monthly meetings will continue next fall. Anyone age 5 to 8 can join.

Attending the meeting were members Joseph Davis, Andy Davis and Michelle Bayer. Leaders present were Christy Hesse, Jerry Sicking and Annette Bayer. Helper was Yvonne Martin.

"Oliver!" opens May 7

The curtain goes up May 7 on Butterfield Stage's and Cooke County College's production of the musical "Oliver!" The "Dickens" of a musical follows the trials, tribulations and final triumph of Oliver, the young, spirited hero of Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist." As the lad musically travels from the workhouse, to the thieves' den, to the wealthy home of his saviour, Brownlow, he encounters a host of crafty and comic Victorian characters including the sly Fagin, the witty Artful Dodger, the kind-hearted Nancy, and the evil Bill Sikes.

Directed by BSP Artistic Director, Thom Talbott, "Oliver!" will act as the finale of the Butterfield Stage 1991-92 season. Performances of the Lionel Bart musical are slated for May 7, 8, 9, 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, 23 at 7:30 p.m. nightly and on May 10, 17 and 24 at 2:30 p.m. at the Butterfield Stage Playhouse, 201 S. Denton. Reservations may be obtained by calling the theatre box office at 817/665-8152, Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. Ticket prices are $10 for adults and $5 for students.

Loyalty Day observed by VFW Auxiliary

Loyalty Day was observed by V.F.W. Aux. #6205 on April 30 by a presentation of a United States Flag to the Sacred Heart Preschool to replace a classroom flag. Frances Bayer, local Auxiliary president, made the presentation to Pam Dangelmayr, teacher, and her students. Mrs. Bayer also gave a program on "What the American Flag is all about." Accompanying Mrs. Bayer were Janet Barnhill, Loyalty Day chairman, and Ethel Hennigan, Auxiliary member. The presentation of the flag helped kick off the Open House for the Preschool, which was held on Sunday, May 3. The Loyalty Day program is a part of the VFW State and National programs of Americanism, youth and community activity.

Another part of the Loyalty Day program was the gifting of a flag to Muenster Memorial Hospital. It was given to the hospital earlier in the month because a new one was needed at that time.

First Communion celebrated

First Holy Communion Day, for children or adults, holds a most important place in their memories, and in family observances of treasured events. In importance, First Holy Communion Day is second only to the Day of Baptism.

Parents and other close relatives find various ways to mark the day for special memories. Reunions are frequently included to honor the children or adults.

Toby Walterscheid

Toby Adam Walterscheid, son of Damian and Margie Walterscheid, was the center of attention in observance of his First Communion Day, April 5. Immediately after church services, Toby and his parents were invited to the wedding reception of good friends, Chris and Sharen Aston with dinner and visiting.

Following this he attended the birthday party for three of his cousins Russell, Scott and Clayton Meyers of Decatur, held at the home of his paternal grandmother, Mildred Walterscheid in Muenster.

Finally, it was time to celebrate Toby's own big day, so the family returned home to begin preparing the evening meal, a hamburger feast with all the trimmings. Toby helped his dad cook out on the pit, always a treat.

For this family gathering, Toby's mother made a cross-shaped white cake, decorated with a kneeling First Communicant boy figurine, a gift from his parents.

The children enjoyed playing outdoors and later gathered to watch Toby open his First Communion gifts.

Guests included the paternal grandmother Mildred Walterscheid; maternal grandmother Aileen Knabe; aunts, uncles and cousins Janet Felderhoff and Deann; Carol Sicking and Amy and Corey; Gary Knabe and Pam Felderhoff; Joe Walterscheid and Reann, Mark, Jacob and Rachelle; Cal and Ruth Wells and Audra and Heather; Kelly and Sara Meyers and Russell, Scott, Clayton and Trenton; and Tim Walterscheid.

Unable to attend but sending congratulations were Grandpa Knabe; Uncle Darrell Knabe; and Lorie and Donnie Grewing; Ross and Jody Felderhoff and Bobby Sicking.

Jeremy John Yosten

P.J. Fleitman

Jacqueline Knabe

Three cousins, Jeremy John Yosten, P.J. Fleitman and Jacqueline Knabe were the honored guests at a family celebration observing their First Communion Day, April 5, hosted by Paul and Susie Fleitman in their home.

Jeremy is the son of Gene and Linda Yosten; P.J. is the son of Paul and Susie Fleitman; and Jacqueline is the daughter of Martin and June Knabe of St. Mary's in Gainesville.

A grilled hamburger feast-dinner with all the trimmings, visiting and volleyball were enjoyed. Prior to this the baptism of the Yosten twins Josiah James and Gene Robert Jr. was held in Sacred Heart Church, following the 10:30 a.m. First Communion Mass.

The children's First Communion candles were made by Linda Yosten, mother and godmother. Three personalized cakes were made by Betty Rose Walterscheid; Jeremy's was white with blue roses, chalice and host, grapes and wheat; P.J.'s was chocolate with white icing, purple roses, a kneeling communicant, chalice, host and Bible; Jacqueline's was a strawberry cake iced in white with red roses, a heart and rose cluster and a gold cross theme.

Visiting all day, games and volleyball were enjoyed.

Special guests for Jeremy were his brothers Jeffrey Robert, Joshua Jared and newborn twins Josiah James and Gene Robert, Jr. and his parents, Gene and Linda Yosten; his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knabe, Sr., grandparents to all three communicants, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Yosten and godparents Arnold and Kathy Yosten.

Special guests for P.J. were his brother A.J., his sister Brianna and parents Paul and Susie Fleitman; the Knabe grandparents and Mrs. J.W. Fleitman and the godparents Yosten.

Special guests for Jacqueline Knabe were brothers Stephen and Nicholas, and parents Martin and June, the Knabe grandparents and Mrs. Wanda Mitchell and the godparents Yosten. Unable to attend was Grandpa Buck Mitchell.

Other guests attending were Ray, Dorothy, Becky, Barry, Brian and Justin Fleitman; Alvin, LouAnn, Allen, Lonnie and Jason Knabe; Dominic and Valerie Knabe; Karla Stevenson; Rachel and Kristin Yosten; Troy Yosten; Kerri Yosten and T.J. Acuna.

Kristen Yosten

A family gathering hosted by James and Susan Yosten to honor their daughter Kristen on her First Communion Day, April 5, was the occasion for a reunion that included four generations of relatives, who were served a barbecue lunch.

The decorated First Communion cake was made by Kristen's mother. Visiting and gift opening were enjoyed.

Guests included Great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ben

Voth; Grandparents Alfons and Mary Ann Koesler and Frances Yosten; aunts, uncles and cousins Barbara, Carol, Max, Joe and Kristy Koesler; Mary and Duane Knabe and Diana; Jerry, Chris and Mark Yosten; Cindy Schilling; Ronny Yosten and Matthew, Aaron and Andrew Yosten.

Luke Endres

Luke Endres, son of Gary and Mary Endres, was among the 40 children receiving the Eucharist for the first time on April 5 in Sacred Heart Church, during the 10:30 a.m. Mass con-celebrated by Father Victor Gillespie OSB and Father Camillus Cooney OSB.

A family dinner was served. The group included Luke's cousin Lacy Endres and her parents, the Phil Endreses and children, the godparents, Clinton and Debbie Endres, and grandparents Gary and Caroline Hess, and Luke's parents and his sisters Nicole, Shauna, Lisa and Natalie.

The First Communion cake was baked by Marlene Endres and decorated for both honorees, Lacy and Luke. Their grandparents Ed and Clara Endres visited later in the day.

Ashley Klement

Ashley Klement, daughter of Claude and Deb Klement, was the honored one at a family gathering hosted by her grandparents Ed and Ginny Schneider, at noon dinner in their home following the special First Communion Mass in Sacred Heart Church at 10:30 a.m.

A decorated First Communion cake was the table centerpiece.

One special activity was conducted by her mother, by a poem that directed Ashley on a scavenger hunt. Each prize was an item pertaining to her First Communion Day. Picture taking and opening of gifts were added to the day, along with visiting.

Guests were Don, Shawna, Doug and Eric Schneider of Dallas; Pam, Jimmy, Trey and Doug McDonald of Farmers Branch; John and Jenny Schneider; Wanda, Ricky, Katy and Kristina Cloud of Denton; Timmy and Kristi Schneider of Denton; Wayne, Tudor, Misty, Jeff and Kami Klement; Sharon, Billy, Kevin Wolf and Amber Wolf; Lea Hancock; Mark and Carol Klement all of Muenster. Special guests were Ashley's godparents, Doyle and Carla Klement and Stevie Rae and Jackie; grandparents Ed and Ginny Schneider and Walt and Eleonore Klement; and her brother Aaron Klement.

Kimberly Klement

Kimberly Carol Klement, daughter of Roy and Carol Klement, celebrated the joyous occasion of her First Holy Communion Day during the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church on April 5, 1992. Adding a touch of sentiment, Kimberly's veil and candle were used by her mother on her First Communion Day 27 years ago.

A fried chicken dinner followed in the family home. The table centerpiece was a decorated cake with a First Communicant figurine.

Pictures were made and Kimberly opened and displayed her gifts.

Invited guests included her grandparents Vince and Trudy Felderhoff and Tony and Sis Klement; her godparents Debbie Brittain and Robert Klement; aunts and uncles, Mike Felderhoff of Gainesville; Brenda Felderhoff of Lewisville; Janie and Mike Hennigan, Jack Brittain of Muenster, also cousins, Dyan, Bradley and Greg Fisher; Michelle, Mindy, Megan and Meredith Hennigan; Chris, Jeff and Vince Felderhoff. Friends Steve, Amanda and Jenny Simpson of Arlington, Texas. Also Kimberly's brothers Ryan and Brandon.

Pamela Lutkenhaus

Pamela Gayle Lutkenhaus was honored by her parents, Leo and Peggy Lutkenhaus, on her First Communion Day, April 5. They hosted a noon meal following the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church, celebrated by Father Victor Gillespie OSB and con-celebrated by Father Camillus Cooney OSB.

The dinner table centerpiece was a decorated cake baked in the shape of a cross, carrying the inscription: "Pamela Receives Jesus, 4-5-92." It was baked by her godmother, Lynn Hacker.

Gift-opening, picture-taking and visiting were enjoyed. Guests were Great-grandmother Pauline Block; Damond and Evelyn Fuhrmann; Gus and Armella Lutkenhaus; Maurus and Lynn Hacker and Cheryl; Gene Block; LuElla Fuhrmann; and Pamela's siblings Kristie and Patrick Lutkenhaus.

Matthew Curtis Grewing

Matthew Curtis Grewing, son of Anthony and Linda Grewing, was honored twice on his First Communion Day, April 5. Following the 10:30 a.m. Mass, lunch was held at home with his favorite hot dogs, chips and dips.

In the afternoon, all the family went out to Grandma Lulu Hess' get-together with his cousins Ashley Hess, Tanya Hess and others of the Howard Hess family and Brent Hess family. They played volleyball and other outdoor games.

Other guests were Jim, Donna, Jack and Jayna Biffle, and Tammy Hess. Matthew's big sister Julie Walterscheid made his special white cake, baked in the shape of a cross and decorated in blue. Other guests included Julie, Greg and Eric Walterscheid; Tammy and Billy Brown; Shawna, Darrell and Mackenzie Herr and Tony and Billie Grewing.

Matthew's birthday on April 7, Julie's birthday on April 3 and Tammy's birthday on April 5 were also celebrated Sunday, with a special birthday cake and gift exchange.

Christopher Michael Luttmr

Christopher Michael Luttmr's parents, Mike and Anita Luttmr, hosted a family gathering in his honor on his First Communion Day, entertaining in the family home in Myra. His big brother, Charlie, prepared and cooked the barbecued chicken for the dinner at noon.

The beautiful First Communion cake was made by Betty Rose Walterscheid. Picture-taking and gift opening were followed by volleyball games after lunch.

Guests included the grandmother, Gertie Luttmr; Grandpa and Grandma Joe and Theresa Grewing; and Great-Grandmother Mrs. Charlie Haverkamp of Gainesville; Don Grewing and Brandon and Kristen; Linda Grewing; and Mark, Carol and Rebecca Grewing.

Unable to attend were Bill, Katrina and Ashley Grewing and Lorie Grewing.

Daniel J. Rohmer

In observance of their First Communion Day of their son, Daniel J. Rohmer, Bill and Laurie Rohmer entertained in their home with a dinner and family reunion for grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and great-grandparents.

Mayfest set for May 9

The Whitesboro Area Chamber of Commerce announces the Fourth Annual Mayfest scheduled for Saturday, May 9, at Godwin Park in Whitesboro. The Mayfest planning committee has announced the theme for this year's Mayfest is "A Day In The Park." Community Development Vice-President Cynthia Wood and Mayfest Chairman Penny Renfroe are keeping in tradition in planning this special event for the enjoyment and entertainment of the area youth and children. Wood and Renfroe hope that everyone will bring their lawn chairs to the park to spend "A Day In The Park" with their families and friends and have an enjoyable day.

Special guest at the 1992 Mayfest is Lollipop the Clown. A few of the activities and events being planned include a children's parade, arts and crafts entry, a fun walk and a talent contest.

Other activities will include Moon-Walk, Maypole dances, entertainment, booths, face painting, food and drink concessions, dunking booth, balloons and game booths.

For more information call the chamber office at 564-3331.

Dinner was served about noon, after the 10:30 a.m. Mass. The special cake was made by Betty Rose Walterscheid and carried the inscription: "Today Daniel received the 'Bread of Life'."

Guests included William and Mary Evelyn Hermes; Marjorie and Tony Rohmer; Alyce and Elizabeth Cler; Steve, Kim, Nicole and Michelle Rohmer; Cheryl, Jon and Carrie Martin; Kenny, Cindy, Jayna, Kalynd and Holly Rohmer; Denise and Dwayne Pagel; Terry, Lisa and Delana Rohmer; Pam Sidwell; Renee, Adam and Jeffrey Schniederjan; Cecilia and Julius Hermes, Sr. and Helen Hofbauer.

Ashley Dawn Hess, daughter of Brent and Mary Hess, was honored at two family gatherings on her First Communion Day, April 5. Following the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church, guests gathered for a barbecue buffet served at the VFW Hall.

The special cake was decorated with pink flowers and a rosary. Gifts and cards were opened and displayed; and pictures were taken.

Guests included Ashley's maternal grandparents, Gene and Elsie Hoedebeck; uncles, aunts and cousins, Gilbert, Linda and Mary Knabe; Peggy, Leslie, Courtney and Ricky Grewing; Joe, Shellie, Jennifer and Christopher Hoedebeck, all of Muenster; Chris, Terri and Preston Cagle of Dallas; and Ashley's parents, Brent and Mary, and sisters, Kristen and Haylee.

A second family get-together was held at Grandma Lulu Hess' home, when she entertained for three of her grandchildren, Tanya Hess, Matthew Grewing and Ashley Hess.

The First Communion dress worn by Ashley was a gift from her godparents, Terri and Chris Cagle.

Grant Hartman

Grant Andrew Hartman, son of Roy and Irene Hartman, was a member of the First Communion class of Sacred Heart Church on April 5, 1992, when 40 second graders received the Eucharist for the first time during the 10:30 a.m. Mass. He was honored by his family, who hosted a noon dinner at The Center Restaurant following the church service.

White cloths covered the table, where two floral arrangements held daisies, purple statice and larkspur. The main centerpiece was a decorated cake emphasizing wheat and purple grapes, carrying the inscription, "Today Grant received the Bread of Life." Pictures were made and Grant opened and displayed his gifts.

Guests included Grant's sister and brothers, Ashley, Justin and Lucas Hartman; the parents, Roy and Irene; the grandparents, Herman and Della Hartman of Muenster and Mrs. Don Fazzino Sr. of Bryan; uncles, aunts and cousins, Tom, Debbie, Tony and Craig Hartman; Don, Kathy, Jeff and Cindy Hartman; an uncle, Don Fazzino; and a family friend, Krista Strenge of Bryan.

Lisa Schilling earns MSU scholarship

Midwestern State University of Wichita Falls has announced that Lisa Schilling, a senior at Sacred Heart High School of Muenster, is one of ten students who won $1,000 scholarships and will be in-coming freshmen on campus during the coming academic year.

Each scholarship is for $1,000 and recognizes leadership abilities and encourages participation as Midwestern State University campus leaders.

Lisa is the daughter of Eileen and Frank Schilling Jr.

New Arrivals

Walford

Brooke Walford, age 13 months, announces the birth of a baby brother, Alexander Brett Walford, on April 27, 1992 at 2:40 a.m. in Brookings, South Dakota. "Alex" weighed 8 lb. 9 oz. and measured 19 1/2 inches in length. The parents are Brett and Julie Walford of Brookings. The grandparents are Ben and Carole Walford of Milbanks, South Dakota and Clyde and Polly Fisher of Muenster. There are two great-grandmothers, Margaret Fisher of Muenster and Edna Walford of Walford, South Dakota.

Alex was baptized on Sunday, May 3, in St. Thomas More Catholic Church following the 11 a.m. Mass. His godparents are Virginia Fisher of Denton and Karl Kelson of Bedford. Clyde and Polly Fisher were godparents by proxy.

Marshall

Allen David and Tina Marshall are proud to announce the birth of their first child, Allen David Marshall Jr. on April 29, 1992 at 5:33 a.m. in Gainesville Memorial Hospital. Allen weighed 7 lb. 1 1/2 oz. and measured 19 1/2 inches in length. Allen joins his half-brother, Jesse, 4 1/2 of the home. Two half-sisters, Renee 18, and Melissa 16, live in Pelzer, South Carolina. Grandparents are Diane Koelzer of Greer, South Carolina; Norman and Joyce Koelzer of Muenster; and the late Allen J. and Norma J. Marshall of Pelzer, South Carolina. Great-grandparents are Arthur and Angie Lutkenhaus of Muenster; and Gertrude Koelzer of Muenster and the late Pete Koelzer.

Weinzapfels and Scotts host YFU International students

Two local families, the Henry Weinzapfels of Muenster and the Larry Scotts of Forestburg will welcome new "daughters" in August 1992, through the Youth For Understanding International Student Program.

YFU, established in 1951 is one of the world's oldest and largest nonprofit international exchange organizations, dedicated to international understanding and world peace. About 4,000 U.S. families open their homes and hearts to YFU international students each year.

Henry and Janie Weinzapfel will be hosts to Vivian Andrea Bolanos from Ecuador. Vivian, a YFU Exchange student, will be a student at Muenster Public High School and will live with the family for an Academic Year, participating in all family activities from vacations to household chores. While sharing the culture of Ecuador with her host family and schoolmates, she will learn about U.S. culture.

During the current year, August 1991 to July 1992, Henry and Janie Weinzapfel were hosts to Madoka Mimura of Japan and they and their children Ronnie, 34, Milissa, 33, Robert, 30, and Joe, 19, and Ronnie's wife Tina and little daughter Christina have been showing Madoka what life is like in America. In return, she teaches them about the Japanese culture. They have shared many memorable experiences, one especially was a complete Japanese dinner for the family Madoka prepared for Janie's birthday.

Together they enjoy cooking, shopping and athletic activities. Madoka attends Muenster High School. She is their second exchange "daughter." The first, Hiroko Miura of Japan, will return soon to be their guest while she attends Cooke County College. Prior to that, the Weinzapfels' exchange "son" was Yoshitaka Nakamura of Japan. His fellow students at Muenster High School will recall that "Yoshi" was the talented member of the Hornet Band, who advanced to UIL, all the way to State, playing the Tuba.

In Forestburg, Becky and Larry Scott will welcome a new "daughter" in August 1992, - Maki Kawakami, a YFU International Exchange student from Japan. She will attend Forestburg High School and live with the Scott family for an Academic Year. As a member of the Scott family, Maki will participate in all family activities, from vacations to household chores. While sharing the culture of Japan with her host family and schoolmates, she will in turn learn about U.S. culture.

Watch for coming feature on the guest in Forestburg and other exchange students.

Registration deadline May 22

Vacation Bible School has been planned for the week of June 22 through June 26. This year's theme is "The Eucharist Makes Us One." All enrollment forms must be in by Friday, May 22.

The program is open to all children who are 4 years of age by September 1, 1992 to those who have completed the fourth grade. Children who have completed the fifth grade may volunteer as a classroom helper.

Adult volunteers are needed to assist with Bible School as teachers, teacher's aides, nursery helpers, etc. There is a list of volunteer positions on the enrollment form and volunteers can use the forms to sign up.

Enrollment forms will be available in the west vestibule of Sacred Heart Church, distributed to local school children, and printed in the May 1 edition of The Muenster Enterprise. After completing the form it should be returned to the box in the west vestibule of Sacred Heart church or brought to Lanie Bartush at 613 North Hickory in Muenster.

Lanie Bartush, 759-4215, and Debbie Cochran, 759-4898, have volunteered to organize Vacation Bible School and they can be contacted if further information is required. Bible School will be from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. each morning.

Remember the deadline is May 22. Please, no late registrations!

Flusche returns to Rome

Laura Flusche, daughter of Harold and Jeannine Flusche of Muenster and a graduate student at the University of Illinois, will be returning to Rome, Italy this summer to continue working on an archaeological excavation in the center of the city. She is a member of a 60-person team headed by Professor Eric Hoster of the University of Illinois and funded in part by the American Academy in Rome. The project explores the northeastern slope of the Palatine Hill. The site is directly across the street from the Arch of Constantine and the Coliseum. Under excavation is a late Roman (approximately 3rd century AD) mansion.

The archaeological team is comprised of about 45 students and 15 professional staff members from various universities in the United States, Great Britain, Norway, Finland, Canada, Italy and Spain. The students participate in various capacities including: excavation, botanical and other environmental sampling; conservation of objects and of Roman and medieval paintings in the house; object drafting, and architectural drafting and surveying. Laura will serve as an assistant supervisor for a portion of the excavation team this year.

Summer 1992 will be the fourth year that this site has been excavated. The dig seasons last for 10 weeks, during which most of the archaeological team lives and works together. The site is rich in finds because it was used as a Roman trash dump after the palace was abandoned. Most commonly found are pottery shards, ancient lamps, dice, buttons, coins, jewelry, animal and human bones, pieces of glass and roof tiles. All finds are cleaned and stored and remain the property of the Italian government.

Laura is a 1986 graduate of Sacred Heart High School. She received a Bachelor of Arts in Art History from Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas in 1990 and is currently pursuing a PhD in Classical Archaeology at the University of Illinois.

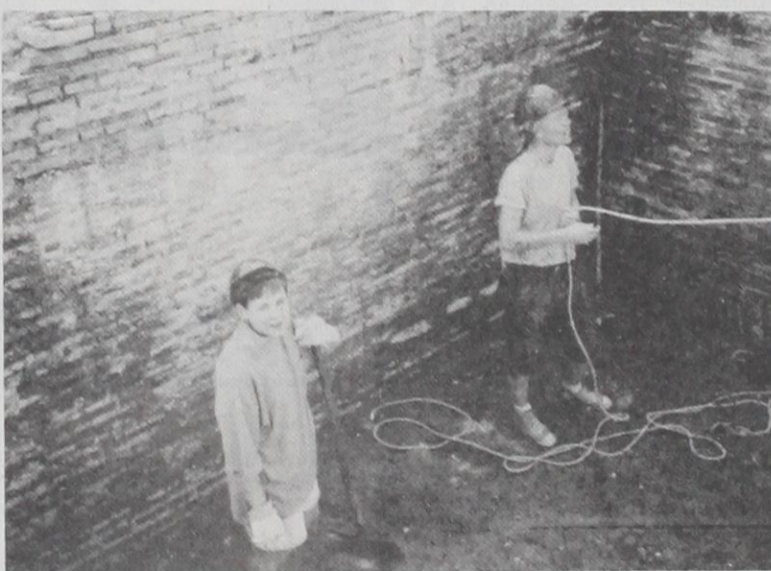

Era students qualify for State

by Elaine Schad

Two Era students will travel to Austin to participate in the University Interscholastic League State Literary Meet.

The students took two first-place and one third-place finish in recent regional competition to become eligible for state participation.

Clint Alphin took first place in two events. He was first in literary criticism and first in editorial writing in regional. Gayle Lange qualified for the UIL state meet by placing third in accounting at regional.

Girl golfers finish third at Regional competition

Muenster's girls' golf team competed in the Regional tournament last week and brought home the 3rd place team bronze medal.

The first day was beautiful, sunny and no wind. Kim Stewart shot her best score of 129, as did Lori Graham with a 111. Brandi Grewing shot a 112, Jami Flusche 110 and Kelley Wimmer finished with a 108.

"We were nervous, hoping for the opportunity for a chance at Austin," said Coach Brian Strother. After the first day, Muenster was in third place behind Bronte and Robert E. Lee. "They were too far ahead to catch but we had a battle on our hands for third." Baird was 10 shots back and Brock 11 shots. Muenster's team score was 441.

The second day the Lady Hornets relaxed and were determined to take home the bronze team medal, dropping their score 16 strokes. Kim Stewart shot a 127, "two good scores for a beginning golfer. I was proud of her both days," commented Strother. Graham brought in a 112 for her best two scores. Grewing shot a 109, three strokes better than day one. "Lori's getting more and more consistent and we are expecting big things from Brandi," said the coach.

The two seniors, Flusche and Wimmer, both settled down and improved their strokes, Jami 101 and Kelley 103. "They had some difficult holes and scrambled back for pars and birdies," stated Strother. These seniors have had a good high school golf season: Four year District Champions, the last two years medalists. They have picked up Regional bronze medals as a team and participated in the State golf tournament in Austin. "These girls have been a real pleasure to coach and I wish them well in their future endeavors," concluded the coach.

Hornets compete at Regional Muenster sent six boys to the Regional Track Meet last weekend and returned with one medalist and several placings in the meet.

Senior Ryan Sicking earned a bronze medal in the 300m hurdles with a time of 39.3. He didn't make the finals in the 110 hurdles. The 1600m relay team of Doug Hennigan, Kenneth Walterscheid, Mike Gobble and Sicking finished 4th with a time of 3:33. Gobble also placed 7th with a 41'6" triple jump and was entered in the pole vault. Eric Van Swearingen's 11:20 run in the 3200m added to the team's points with a 6th place. Mike Hacker threw the discus 122'3 1/2" to come in 10th in his event. This concluded the Hornets' track season.

Golfers get ready for Scramble

An 18-hole 2-man scramble golf tournament is scheduled for Sunday, May 17 at Nocona Municipal Golf Course. Golfers are invited to pick their partner and mixed and ladies' teams are welcomed. The $60 entry fee per team includes green fees. There will be a shotgun start at 8:45.

Sandwiches will be available and the beverages are free.

Sunday's schedule includes: 8 a.m., arrival; register; purchase cart rental, and Rules Meeting at 8:40 a.m. (See ad below.)

REGIONAL CHAMPS

On the track, the final 400m relay finished 5th, with the team of Denise Russell, Amy Otto, Amy Sturm and Theresa Kubis. Dianne Pagel also clocked in 5th place in the 100 meter hurdles.

The Lady Hornets' second medal of the day came when the 800m relay team of Amy Sturm, Amy Otto, DaLana Walterscheid and Denise Russell finished third. "This gave the girls a shot of confidence; we were now 14 points (54-40) behind first place Miles," the coach commented. Dianne Pagel ran her best time of the year in the 300 hurdles, but settled for a 5th place.

The most exciting race of the day was the 1600m. "Tina Klement tried to run the kick out of the girls; this was the strategy and for 3 3/4 laps it worked," remarked Strother. "Then two girls passed her, putting Tina behind by two yards and only 50 yards to go." Tina had something a little extra, her heart was a little bigger today; she found her kick 20 yards from the finish," continued the coach. "It was a 3-way tie and a photofinish that took over 30 minutes to figure the winners." The end result placed Tina in third, 4/100 of a second short. Her time was 5:36.04. Marlene Hess finished the race in 8th place. Muenster now edged up to a 54-48 team score behind Miles.

"It was the same story as last year; we needed a fourth place in the 1600m relay, the last race, to win the meet," the coach recalled. "Denise Russell flew around the track and we're in first place. Amy Otto finished her lap and we're now in 3rd, DaLana Walterscheid fell to 5th in the third lap, but she's a gainer in the back stretch. Amy Dankesreiter brought home the final victory for Muenster for a fourth place finish."

For the second consecutive year, the Lady Hornets earned the Regional Track Championship and again will send Tina Klement and Roxie Knabe to the State Meet in Austin May 15-16. Both girls' events are scheduled for Saturday. The girls' Class A shot put begins at 4:00 p.m. The 3200 meter run is scheduled to start at 5:45.

Lindsay girls' relay team advances to State Meet

The Lindsay Lady Knights' 400 meter relay team of Angela Luttmer, Christi Secrest, Rachele Sharp and Janel Hellinger not only finished second at last weekend's regional track meet, but also set a new school record with a preliminary time of 51.03 and advanced to the State Meet in Austin.

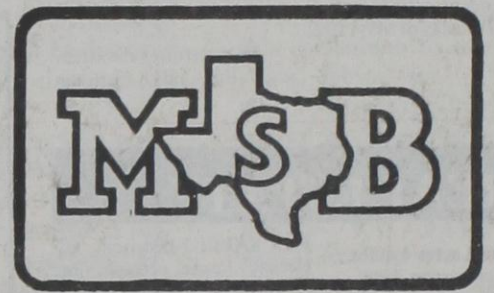

Also placing in regional competition was the mile relay, finishing 6th with a time of 4:28. The team is made up of Brandi Bezner, Tammy Wilson, Christy Zimmerer and Rachele Sharp. Janel Hellinger's 200 meter run finished in 6th place with Rachele Sharp ending the 400 meter also in 6th and her long jump of 16' 1/4" only placing her 7th.

In boys' competition, only one Lindsay runner earned a place. Donnie Cox cleared the 330 hurdles for a 5th place. Other Knights competing included Jeff Hermes, Leslie Hess and Doug Hellinger.

Every American Wants A Safe Blood Supply.
 Here's What We're Doing About It.

- 1 THE AMERICAN BLOOD SUPPLY is constantly and thoroughly tested
- 2 BLOOD BANKS HAVE ADDED FIVE ADDITIONAL SCREENING TESTS for infectious diseases since 1985 to increase safety. Seven separate screening tests are now conducted on each unit of blood donated, including tests for AIDS, hepatitis and syphilis.
- 3 THE U.S. DOES NOT ALWAYS HAVE AN ADEQUATE SUPPLY OF BLOOD. While protesting it against infectious diseases is of primary concern, maintaining an adequate supply of safe blood has become increasingly important as donors receive more scrutiny.
- 4 BEFORE DONATING BLOOD, EACH DONOR IS ASKED MULTIPLE QUESTIONS about high-risk behavior that could result in a blood-borne disease.
- 5 STERILIZED NEEDLES USED TO DRAW BLOOD ARE NEVER REUSED. This is to avoid the risk of AIDS or other infections to the donor by donating blood.
- 6 AS AN ALTERNATIVE TO BLOOD TRANSFUSIONS, today a growing number of people benefit from autologous cell transfusions.
- 7 HEALTHY AMERICANS ARE ENCOURAGED TO VOLUNTEER TO GIVE BLOOD to the 10 million people who depend on blood transfusions each year.

Committee responds to increased horse thefts

County Agent's Report by Craig Rosenbaum

Observe Drinking Water Week with checks, testing

One healthy way to observe National Drinking Water Week on May 3-9 is to check for cross connections that can spoil water supplies in homes. Also, people living out in the country should have their well water tested very two or three years.

Cross-contamination of water supplies is probably one of the major problems facing the agency. The simplest type of cross connection often occurs at the kitchen sink. The culprit is a small hose attached to the faucet head that is sometimes used in dishwashing. If the hose is long enough to fall into dirty dishwasher while the water pressure drops, the backward suction can contaminate water in the pipes.

Other examples of cross connections can lead to more serious problems than drinking dishwater. One man was burned while taking a shower when lye accidentally leaked into the water system. Hoses left in animal watering troughs can cause illness. Evaporative coolers plumbed directly into water lines also can contaminate.

The solution is simple - air. Air gaps between the water source and the potential contamination stop siphonage. New plumbing regulations mandate that air gaps be left between faucets and lips of sinks and certain types of valves or vacuum breakers installed in certain equipment.

However, this applies only to new construction, not older plumbing. Any good plumber can troubleshoot a home for cross connections.

Approximately 3 million people in Texas drink water from private wells or rural water systems, but being out in the country doesn't guarantee a clean water supply. Many people don't test their wells unless the water tastes or smells funny, but wells ought to be tested every two or three years. The health department once tested private water wells, but that responsibility has fallen to city and county health departments and private laboratories.

Private wells also need to be checked periodically around the casing and "bore" of the hole. Anything that falls into that hole, whether inside or outside the casing, can go straight into the water supply. This can include septic tank effluent or pesticides or herbicide runoff from fields or yards.

Additionally, abandoned wells are against the law. A 1983 law requires landowners to plug or cap any abandoned wells found on their property. The well standards board can levy a penalty of up to $2,500 for noncompliance.

Children can fall into abandoned wells, and the hole is a direct conduit to ground water for surface runoff.

New label allows tank mixing for better weed control in pastures

Cattlemen and hay producers in Texas now have a new tank-mix option for improved control of ragweeds and other problem broadleaf weeds in their pastures.

Producers can now tank mix five common herbicides under a seasonal label issued by the agricultural department. The herbicides are Grazon P+D, Grazon PC, 2,4-D, Banvel and Weedmaster.

Reginald Young, Du Pont Ally product manager, says producer can use the tank mixes to get better control of ragweeds, cocklebur, prickly lettuce, sunflower, milkweed and horsenettle.

"The payback for producers in controlling these difficult weeds and improving their overall weed control is they'll improve their forage production and cow-carrying capacity in their pastures," Young says.

Other advantages of a tank-mix program include: broader-spectrum weed control; quick burndown of weeds; control of larger weeds; residual weed control, which can reduce the number of applications, saving time and money.

For good service, examine your bull!

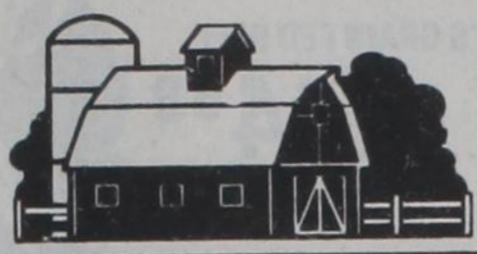

Despite the importance of breeding bulls, many producers neglect to have their bulls examined, according to Duane Rice, University of Nebraska veterinarian.

"Bulls should be examined each spring to ensure the success of next year's calf crop. If a problem arises, there is still time to buy a replacement bull or correct deficiencies."

He said a proper bull evaluation should include a complete examination as well as specific evaluation of the entire reproductive tract and semen quality.

The Texas House of Representatives Committee on Agriculture and Livestock has been charged by Speaker Gib Lewis to look into the increased reports of horse theft and to determine if Texas laws are sufficient to deal with the thievery. In response, the Committee has appointed Representative Charles Finnell (D-Holliday) as chairman of the subcommittee the theft of horses, along with Rep. Renato Cuellar (D-Weslaco) and Rep. Dan Kubiack (D-Rockdale). Rep. Finnell has called a public hearing on May 11, 1992 at 1:00 p.m., at the John H. Reagan State Office Building in Austin, Texas, to hear testimony from those interested in the issue.

The issue of horse thievery has come to the attention of more people as cases are reported such as one in Williamson County in 1991, where two horse thieves were sentenced to 20 years in prison. Similar reports of stolen horses have appeared in Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth newspapers. Many people speculate that the increased number of horse theft reports correlates with the rise in demand for horsemeat overseas and thus the rise in the price offered for horses at slaughter.

My Views from the Farm

by Ed Cler

A few weeks back, while looking for fire ant mounds in the east fence row of our farm, our new neighbor, Ollie Sicking, came by in his pickup and stopped to chat awhile. We went over most of the country's problems pretty well, but, unfortunately, failed to solve many of them. Yet, we enjoyed ourselves anyway.

Ollie remarked about the fact that this type of visiting isn't done much anymore, at least not since the virtual disappearance of the horse and wagon. Seems like folks had more time then, to stop on their way to or from town with a loaded wagon and team. The horses needed a rest anyway, so why not stop and visit with whomever was close to the fence, and maybe catch up on some local news, and tell a few tales, maybe stretch some facts a bit. After all, many good stories have been spoiled by sticking a little too close to the truth.

Most people, working horses or mules in the field, did a lot of their visiting over a barbed wire fence between their fields. Some teams got a lot more rest than others, depending on who was driving them, how big a hurry one was in and maybe how well one liked to talk.

Nowadays, there are a lot less people working the land and running livestock than there used to be. Each farmer now runs several farms, some they own, and others are rented.

The horse and wagon have been replaced by various types of pickup trucks, that get from one place to the other in a hurry, and all farming is done with a tractor or self-propelled equipment that is stopped only long enough to shoot a little grease, take on more fuel or more seed. Since these machines don't require rest, the farmer finds little time to talk to a neighbor, who, like himself, is about as busy as a hound dog following two trails.

People in the country used to visit each other more, in the evenings. We used to go to the neighbors just to listen to a radio now and then, and also just to talk awhile, but in the '50s, televisions became popular and many folks would be invited over to watch a program or so, and the visiting continued. But soon, more and more of us had our own televisions and it was simply too convenient to just stay at home, and to a lot of us it became a habit.

Most of the theaters were soon closed. I believe there is one movie house in all of Cooke County now.

Retail food price increase slowed

The rise in retail food prices slowed in 1991 as a result of large food supplies and a recession-weakened consumer demand.

Food prices during 1991, as measured by the Consumer Price Index, increased 2.9 percent above those in 1990. The 1991 increase was the lowest since 1985 and half of the 1990 price increase.

Reversing the trend for the prior four years, food prices in 1991 rose more slowly at supermarkets and grocery stores than at eating places. Prices in grocery stores increased only 2.6 percent while prices for restaurant meals increased 3.4 percent.

One of the principal reasons for the slowdown in the increase of food prices was that production of livestock increased and generated record meat supplies. Additionally, per capita disposable income, adjusted for inflation, fell 1 percent in 1990. This decrease forced food marketers to either limit price increases or watch already weak sales erode.

Lately, and for some time past, the quality of TV fare has gotten so poor, people are inclined to turn the "boob tube" off, or just watch old movies, as they become available, or be very selective of their programs, especially if children are present. A lot of programs are sending the wrong messages to our kids, telling them a lot of wrong things are the things to do.

Proper storage promotes safety

By DONALD STOTTS

Shelf and storage life of pesticides is difficult to predict and is dependent on storage conditions. Unfortunately, storage problems can lead to safety hazards.

Most chemical manufacturers recommend storing pesticides no longer than two years. Some pesticides lose active ingredients because of chemical decomposition or volatilization, explains Pat Lewis, Oklahoma State University Extension safety specialist.

"Under conditions of high temperature and humidity, dry formulations can become caked and compacted and emulsifiable concentrates may no longer form emulsions," says Lewis. "Also, containers of pesticides stored for long periods eventually may corrode, crack, break, tear or fail to seal properly."

Some liquid pesticides may form a gas as they deteriorate, and this can make opening and handling containers hazardous. In time, the gas pressure may cause the container to rupture.

Quick action must be taken if a pesticide spills or otherwise escapes into an area. If somebody is contaminated, any contaminated clothing must be removed immediately. Affected areas of the body should be washed with detergent and water. The person then should be examined by a physician.

If the pesticide is a liquid, Lewis suggests scattering activated charcoal, absorbent clay, vermiculite, pet litter, sawdust or sweeping compound over the affected area.

"Make sure you use enough to soak up most or all of the liquid," says Lewis. "Then, the material should be swept or shoveled into a leak proof drum. This process should be repeated as needed."

Pesticides of a dust, granular or powder nature should be swept or shoveled into a leak proof drum. Absorbent materials generally are not useful for dry spills.

Once the material is removed, a decontamination solution recommended by the manufacturer should be applied to the affected area. Materials commonly used are hydrated lime, lye, ammonia, laundry bleach or detergent.

"Always make sure to wear protective clothing when cleaning a spill or using a decontamination solution," says Lewis. "Protective cloth-

Armyworms in Small Grain

Quite a few reports have been coming in about armyworms infesting various grain fields in North Texas and Cooke County. Most wheat has been damaged by rust and with the high temperatures and lack of moisture, we do not expect many armyworms. Traditionally, armyworm outbreaks are favored by cool, damp weather. The caterpillars are attracted to green, lush growing grains. Early armyworm detection is important because small worms are more easily controlled.

Producers need to take into consideration several things in making a decision whether to control armyworms or not. In the case of wheat, we need to look at the amount of green foliage, what the armyworms are eating, and the size and color of the worm. Armyworms consume approximately 80 percent of the forage that they eat in the last two to three days of their life cycle. Producers should look at the size of the worms and determine if spray can be applied in time for economic control. The mature armyworm will be approximately one and one-fourth inches long and will have developed a darker color when their life cycle is near completion. Check what the armyworms are eating. If they are eating lower leaves and there is some damage to the flag leaf, then control may not be needed. Also, check the stage of growth of the wheat. Wheat that is in the soft dough stage should not be hurt much. Wheat in the milk stage could receive more damage. And, again be sure and check what the armyworms are eating. If they begin to eat the green, then there are problems. Many wheat infestations have been light and have required no control.

It appears that we will have a pretty good oat crop in the county. Producers certainly need to check their oats for the presence of armyworms. Armyworms can cause a little more damage to oats in that there is the possibility of them cutting off the heads. Oats are a lot more green and lush and will be more attractive to the armyworms. An economic threshold for armyworm control is four to five armyworms per square foot if conditions and growth of small grain is favorable for control.

Some good news, those armyworms that are feeding and are beginning to pupate now should not develop a second generation this spring. Producers need to check their fields and evaluate all conditions in deciding whether to control armyworm infestations.

ing includes a hat, a respirator, goggles, rubber gloves, rubber boots and some type of covering for exposed skin."

Cleaning equipment that can not be decontaminated should be disposed of in a safe manner. Contaminated absorbent, equipment and decontamination solution must be disposed of in specially designated landfills.

"Fewer problems will occur with stored pesticides, and they will have a longer shelf life, if the storage area is cool, dry and out of direct sunlight," says Lewis. "Protection from temperature extremes is important because both excessively hot or cold conditions can shorten pesticide shelf life."

To reduce the problem of having old or ineffective pesticides, Lewis suggests trying to purchase only the amount of pesticide needed for the season. If circumstances make it necessary to maintain a large inventory, the stock should be rotated, with older pesticides being used first.

"One method to make certain older pesticides are used first is to tag the pesticide with the date of purchase," says Lewis. "In addition, they should be more readily accessible than pesticides purchased more recently."

Lewis adds it is vital pesticide containers be stored in a locked cabinet that is inaccessible to children. Anyone wishing to obtain additional information on chemical and pesticide safety should contact the nearest OSU County Extension Office and ask for Extension Facts No. 7453 "First Aid for Pesticide Poisoning," and No. 7457, "Toxicity of Pesticides."
