VOLUME XXVIII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

JANUARY 24, 1964

NUMBER 9

Community pride soared in Muenster last Sunday as our wonderful new hospital was dedicated and shown to the public. The largest crowd ever assembled in our town was unanimous in describing the building and facilities as magnificent, a great achievement in community spirit. Home folks glowed with satisfaction. Visitors marveled and admired.

There is no doubt that the event marks the biggest single step ever in area progress. There have been other occasions, several of them in recent decades, that have brought significant improvement in living standards and have done much for the town's prestige, but no single one of them can match this one. The project itself was the biggest of them all. The service it brings was the biggest of them all. The presence of thousands was the biggest compliment ever extended to our community. Muenster is honored. It is thankful for all the congratulations and good wishes. It feels that the day ended most appropriately with the group singing of "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name." Divine Providence has smiled on us.

While enjoying this deep satisfaction, however, it's a good idea to remember that we are still far from reaching our goal. Our job is not finished until our debt has been paid.

A glance at our project's financial statement reveals that the community's part in it is $500,000, of which we have paid $200,000 and still owe $300,000. But a little more thought reveals that a lot of interest will have to be added to the principal. Our real obligation is much larger, and the amount of additional payment will be determined by how long we take to do the paying. As all of us know, the quicker we pay, the less we pay. We have a big inducement to get at our fund drive with real enthusiasm.

Likewise we have a big inspiration in the pride and satisfaction we felt last Sunday. Looking forward thankfully to the comfort and expert care the hospital offers our sick people, to the economic opportunities it makes possible in continued development of our area, we have abundant reason to give quickly and generously. And there's also the matter of maintaining community pride. It was at its peak Sunday. We can keep it at its peak by paying off in record time.

All of us are aware that terms of the bond issue require the hospital itself to pay the debt out of its earnings. But we are also aware that the original plan was to complete it debt-free and not burden it with an obligation. In fact, that was the principal condition offered when the Benedictine Sisters were asked to take over the administration.

So, despite the legal technicality required to qualify for the bond issue, the all important fact is that, according to conscience, the community is still obligated, not the hospital or its administration. Because of that the Hospital Authority expressed its firm intention to continue its drive for funds. Community pride and responsibility could not permit us to do otherwise.

Nor is the outlook a gloomy one. After all, this isn't just a (Continued on page 8)

MOD Collections Set for Sunday At Church Doors

Muenster's annual March of Dimes collection at Sacred Heart Church is set for Sunday, Jan. 26. Members of the VFW Auxiliary, the sponsoring organization, will be at the church doors soliciting contributions after all services. Mrs. Don Flusche is general chairman.

Other donations will come in through the small banks in business houses and from school children's envelopes. The Auxiliary believes the community is aware of the great good accomplished by contributions to the New March of Dimes and looks forward to a generous response.

The campaign now furnishes funds for research, education and patient care in connection with birth defects, arthritis and polio.

IN THE LABORATORY SISTER ROMAINE explains to one group touring Muenster Memorial Hospital last Sunday. Attendance for the dedication and open house was estimated from 3,000 to 5,000.

Pay Your Poll Tax

Final Reminder! The deadline for paying poll taxes is only a week away — and this is a general election year. There's lots of important voting to be done on local, state and national levels.

If you are one of those holding back because of the possibility that poll tax will be abolished as a voting requirement in elections for federal offices, better be cautious. Though the amendment is likely, it isn't a cinch. You may lose your vote altogether waiting for a free vote.

And that's only the half of it. Even if you get to vote for free in the races for federal office, you still need a poll tax to vote in county and state races. So, don't fail. You need it for sure in part of the election. You may need it in all of the election.

Paying the poll tax this year is the most convenient ever for Muenster folks. You don't have to go to the courthouse. The bank will help. So will Tommy's Barber Shop. And Jaycees stationed in grocery stores Saturday, Wednesday and Friday will also help.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wieler and Mrs. Ervin Hamric are back at home, dismissed from St. Frances Cabrini Hospital in Alexandria, La., where they were kept for treatment and observation after a traffic mishap last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wieler came home Saturday. Mrs. Hamric returned Monday. None was seriously hurt and Mrs. Wieler escaped without injury. The car was completely demolished.

The accident happened as the three were on their way back to Muenster after returning the Wielers' daughter, Mrs. Mike Newbill, and little daughter to their home in Cocoa, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Walterscheid and Mrs. Joe Trachta left immediately after getting word from John Wieler who phoned about the accident.

Ervin Hamric left the next day after learning that his wife would be in the hospital longer. She received rib fractures and a gash on her forehead. He stayed until she was dismissed Monday and brought her home.

Contact Bruns if Child Was Missed In School Census

With only a week to go in the scholastic census, Superintendent L. B. Bruns this week urged parents to get in touch with him at once if their child has been overlooked.

As far as he knows, Bruns said, his work is finished until final tabulation. He has sent out census forms, and most of them have been returned. Also he has seen all the people he knows of who have children reaching their sixth birthday on or before September 1. His only concern now is whether forms have been lost or whether new scholastics have been overlooked.

So, if parents of present school children have not received census forms, or parents of new pupils have not been contacted, Mr. Bruns would like to be told, the sooner the better.

He's especially concerned with the new scholastics who have no older brothers or sisters in school now. Up to now the school has no contact with them and they can easily be overlooked. Other new pupils should be added to the census forms that parents receive.

Elm-Red District Essay Contest Will End February 1

Harold Skaggs, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District, reminded all high school students in the district today that the time is running out on the 1964 essay writing contest.

February 1st is the closing date and all entries should be mailed to Harold Skaggs, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Upper Elm-Red SCD, Route 1, Sherman, Texas, on or before that date.

This year's contest is the fourth in which the local SCD has participated. The approved subject, "Youth's Stake in Conservation," is a challenging subject to discuss. Certainly the youth of the district have a precious stake in the conservation of the soil and they should be vitally interested in the conservation of it. Unless the soil is cared for and protected some of the youth may not have land available to them when they reach maturity.

The Upper Elm-Red SCD Board will grant incentive awards of $15 for the best essay, $10 second place essay, and $5 for the third best essay on this subject. The essay should be written in the student's words as much as possible and confined to not over 300 words. The best group of essays will be entered in the state wide contest sponsored by the Fort Worth Press where a $200 award is given for the best essay on the subject in the state of Texas.

Over 3,000 Attend Hospital Open House

By the thousands, they came, they saw, they were amazed at Muenster Memorial Hospital's dedication and open house last Sunday.

Estimates of the attendance range from 3000 to 5000. Actual count of registrations shows 1144 listed as Muenster residents and 1213 out of town visitors. Besides, it is known that many persons did not bother to register. And there were some who were discouraged by the length of the waiting line and did not remain to see.

Farmers' Income Tax Reports Due On February 17

Farmers earning at least two-thirds of their 1963 gross income from agriculture must file their final Federal income tax returns and pay any taxes due by Monday, February 17, 1964, if they did not file estimated returns by January 15th, according to Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue in Dallas.

"Farmer's Tax Guide," which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, is available upon request from the Internal Revenue Service.

Gains Reported at Muenster Mutual Annual Meeting

In both membership and total insurance, Muenster Mutual Fire Insurance Association continued moving forward in 1963.

At the organization's 70th annual general meeting held in the Muenster VFW hall on January 16, W. H. Endres, secretary, reported a gain of 15 in membership, of 21 in the total number of policies and $762,250 in total insurance. There are 625 members with $6,753,690 of insurance on 777 policies. Many policies were raised during the year following changes adopted in last year's general meeting.

Endres also reported that combined losses and expenses for 1963 cost the members 18 cents per $100 of insured valuation. That was one cent higher than last year and 10 cents higher than in 1961. The expenditures were $6,112.27 for fire and lightning losses, $1,619.06 for storm and hail losses and $4,451.17 for operating expenses. Included in the losses and accounting for most of the past year's total losses were the storm at Muenster and fire destroying a farm house near Henrietta.

Despite total expenses of 18 cents per hundred, the association again approved an as-

It's Time to Get Dog Tags for '64

It's time for dog owners of Muenster to renew their licenses and get their 1964 dog tags. Steve Moser, city superintendent pointed out this week that the change was due at the beginning of the year but many dogs are still wearing the old tags. Owners are urged to come in soon.

According to city ordinance a license is required for every dog that is not confined to its owner's property or controlled by a leash.

The crowd passed through in a steady stream from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., except for part of the noon hour and the dedication period. Tours through the building were suspended during the thirty to forty minutes of ceremony.

The dedication program, with Herbert Meurer as master of ceremonies, started with Mayor Earl Fisher's short message of welcome and a reminder that the hospital though located in Muenster is intended to serve a wide area around Muenster. Next Rev. Wilbur Mix of Gainesville responded as a visitor from outside the community.

Dr. L. O. Laughlin, chief of the medical staff, expressed his appreciation of the excellence of facilities, Sister Mildred Felderhoff, administrator, praised Muenster as an outstanding community and congratulated its people for their vision and cooperation in building the hospital. Maggie Simons, 77 Dies in Arkansas Of Heart Attack

Miss Margaret Simons, affectionately called "Miss Maggie" during her 42 years as housekeeper in Sacred Heart rectory, died suddenly of a heart attack Tuesday in Jonesboro, Ark. She would have been 78 next March 19.

Her retirement from work February 1, 1960, came just short of completing a half century of service as a rectory housekeeper. Since then she made her home at Holy Angels Convent.

Funeral services with requiem mass were held Thursday morning in Windthorst in St. Mary's Church. Burial was in the parish cemetery.

A native of Windthorst, Margaret Simons started her career at the age of 20 when she became housekeeper for Father Frowin Koerd when he was assigned there as pastor. When he transferred to Muenster in 1918 she transferred too and remained after his death as housekeeper for succeeding pastors.

Only near relatives surviving are one sister, Mrs. Nick Martini of Raymondville and one brother, Pancratius Simons of Corpus Christi. A large number of nieces and nephews live in Archer and Wichita Counties.

Money is Burned, Don Is Burning

Being accused of having money to burn are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Endres. Burn it they did. But it was heart-breaking. Now they are awaiting word from the Treasury Department. Seventy dollars is involved.

Don who is secretary-treasurer of the Petroleum League at 77 Bowl left league funds with Dot for a bank deposit. She laid the money in an envelop on her electric range, and stepped from the room momentarily. She returned to find the $70 in currency going up in smoke. The couple's 17-month-old daughter Linda had turned on the range. She had never been interested in the range before.

The charred bills were sent to the Treasury in hope they can be salvaged. The silver was reported "well warmed."

NEW YORK TIMES ON EXTREMISM

To be opposed to a government policy, however mildly, is to be classified as an extremist. To favor a government policy, even though favoring be intemperate, volatile, emotional or even quiet, is to be linked with sweet reason, tolerance and good will.

We have been reminded recently of an editorial which appeared in the New York Times of May 30, 1965, and which comments on this same matter of which we speak. It is found in the archives of John D. Kirwan and is entitled: "Extremism in Williamsburg." The item is nearly 200 years old.

"We have increasingly become disturbed by the rise of sister colonies, notably Virginia and Massachusetts. The latest example of this unwholesome trend is a speech by Patrick Henry in the House of Burgesses in Virginia, where he was quoted by reliable authorities as having said, 'Caesar had his Brutus, Charles I his Cromwell, and George II — may profit by their example.' Such tactics do ill service to the colonies' image in Parliament and the Courts of Europe.

"Mr. Henry, whose credentials as a lawyer are dubious, has long been a spokesman of that small but vocal minority who seek to undermine confidence in the crown and its institutions. It might be well for His Majesty to appoint a commission to investigate any possible connection between Mr. Henry and the smuggling interests in Boston and certain other ports.

"This diatribe, which upset the dignity and decorum of the House of Burgesses, is typical of the emotional and dangerous sentiments being stirred up by opponents of the Stamp Tax. The Virginia extremists are deliberately seeking to weaken the ties of royal authority over the colonies. Rather than listen to such irresponsible outbursts, the subjects of His Majesty should put their trust in the government in London and the good faith of their King. To do otherwise is to court the unthinkable policies of sedition and separation."

Still True Today

IS SOCIALISM THE OBJECTIVE?

Citing the recent closing down of the New York Mirror, which eliminated 1,600 jobs, the AFL-CIO is asking Congress for legislation to require 90 days notice before a paper could shut down or be sold to a competitor.

If a newspaper claims to be losing money, the proposal would require the Justice department to appoint an appraiser to determine its fair market value, after which it would have to be thrown open for bids by those promising to continue its publication.

The publisher would be forced to accept any bid equal to the appraised value.

Obviously any business which is losing money isn't worth ten cents on the dollar, so the owner might be forced to practically give it away.

While proposed legislation is aimed only at newspapers, next step probably would be a demand that NO business be permitted to suspend operation or sell to a competitor without the same procedure.

What the AFL-CIO seems unable to understand is that demands of union employees has been the major reason for unprofitable operation and consequent suspension of newspapers.

In its current demand for a 35-hour week with no loss in weekly earnings and double pay for everything over 35 hours, organized labor is hastening the day when thousands of other firms will be forced out of, and government forced into, business.

That would be socialism. Is that the object of organized labor?

It will come as a surprise to many, we know, that long ago, before World War I, Czarist Russia, in a favorable harvest year, exported 10 million tons of grain. Soviet propagandists, native and foreign, have taken pride in pointing up a contrast between progress under communism and the so-called hopeless backwardness of pre-communist times. But the record export figure of 10 million tons of grain has never been equalled in 46 years of Soviet rule — and this year it seems likely that the Soviet will have to import grain to a total of 10 million tons or more. Collective farming seems no more efficient than does nationalized industry.

WIRE TAPPING

We must not tap the telephone wires of an avowed Communist or of one suspected of infiltrating the government. We must not tap the wires of communication used by a bootlegger or a thief or a common crook.

But we can tap a citizen's telephone wires to prove that he has ideals high enough up the scale of morality to tell the truth.

Otto F. Otepka told the truth. Scoundrels tapped his telephone wire, locked him out of his office, rifled his waste basket and denied him access to his files. And by so doing they proved that Otepka told the truth. And for telling the truth Secretary Dean Rusk fired him.

"This is a shocking matter," said Sen. Thomas J. Todd, Connecticut Democrat and vice chairman of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. He was referring to what he said was in effect an admission by three State Department officials that they had lied under oath. The three testified under oath that listening devices had not been placed in Otepka's office. Later they admitted wire tapping.

Two of the three accused of lying under oath have been placed on "administrative leave." The third was permitted to remain on the job. Remember that for telling the truth, Otepka was fired.

The Ten Commandments are fast going out of style in these United States.

Ford Wins Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

January 8: Motor Trend magazine's "Car of the Year" Award goes to an engineering breakthrough! It honors all the '64s from Ford "For engineering advancement in the concept of Total Performance, proven in open competition."

Thunderbird, Falcon, Super Torque Ford, Fairlane (reading counterclockwise): winners of Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

Here's what the Motor Trend Award means to you...

The editors of Motor Trend, America's largest general automotive magazine, watched Ford's total performance in open competition... saw competition-modified Fords win every 500-mile stock car race in the last year, saw Ford-built engines end an era at Indianapolis and sweep the sports car circuits.

Then they drove the 1964 Fords, Falcons, Fairlans and Thunderbirds and discovered how the lessons of open competition have helped breed into them a new kind of total performance for the open road, for your kind of driving. And then they made their award!

The "Car of the Year" Award is an impressive testimonial, but see for yourself—take the wheel of a '64 from Ford. These cars speak for themselves with their ease of handling in a supermarket parking lot or their greater stability on a rain-slick blacktop.

Before you buy any new car this year, test-drive total performance in a Solid, Silent Super Torque Ford, now hundreds of pounds more car than anything in its field. Try America's only total performance compact, the Falcon V-8, totally new, totally changed. Or, any of the '64 Cars of the Year from Ford!

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!

42 Members Attend 4-H Boys' Meeting

Sacred Heart Junior 4-H Club boys enjoyed their January meeting with Robert Degner, assistant county agent, explaining about car motors.

He illustrated with drawings the motor, gears and spark plugs and other parts of an automobile, telling how the many parts work. He also showed pictures relating to car accidents and how they happen.

The group learned that the Share the Fun contest will be held in Gainesville on March 2.

Bobby Bruns conducted the business session and Terry Miller counted 42 members present.

YOUNG TEXAN FOR DECEMBER— Jerry Thomas Akers, 18-year-old president of the student body at John Tyler High School in Tyler, has been chosen by Texas Optimist Clubs to receive the Troy Y. Post Award designating him Young Texan of the Month. A senior student, Jerry carries a 95 scholastic average, is a football letterman and game captain — he participates in practically all popular competitive sports — and is a junior deacon, member of the Youth Choir, and district service chairman of the Christian Churches of Texas Young People Department. At a workshop for Student Council Presidents in San Antonio last summer, he was recognized as the outstanding member. Akers will compete with other monthly winners for one of three valuable scholarships at the Young Texan of the Year banquet in Austin, February 22, 1964. He was chosen Young Texan of the Month in competition with nominees throughout the state by a panel of state leaders headed by U. S. Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark.

County FB Hears Convention Report

Texas Farm Bureau was one of 24 state organizations receiving awards for membership increase and one of seven cited for achievement in national legislation at the national convention of the Farm Bureau last month. That report was given at the county FB meeting last Monday by J. T. Cole who attended the convention.

Cole also reported on the talk by Charles Shuman, national president of the FB. He said "Farmers are ready to lead the way. They ask only to be unshackled and given the opportunity to produce for consumers rather than for politicians. Farm Bureau will gladly cooperate with the administration in any sincere re-evaluation of government agricultural programs and policies."

Shuman said the government farm policy could be ended on short notice with no adverse effects. All that is needed is congressional action to prohibit the dumping of government surplus stocks.

assessment of 30 cents per $100 of insured valuation on its members. That rate, in effect for several years, results from the State Insurance Commission's recommendation to accumulate a fund of 2 per cent of total insured valuation in order to be ready in case of heavy losses. At this time the association has total assets of $94,013, of which almost $90,000 is invested in bonds. The group voted to invest $10,000 more in bonds soon.

Attending the meeting were delegates from Muenster, Lindsay, Valley View, Electra and Windthorst, the five districts of the Muenster Mutual.

They re-elected directors as follows: Albert Henscheid, president; Al Hess, vice-president; W. H. Endres, secretary; Victor Hartman, treasurer; Al Fleitman, director.

FHA Members Give Style Show At PTA Meeting

Muenster Public School Parent-Teacher Association's meeting Monday night featured a style show for the program. The fashion parade was presented by the school's FHA Chapter girls.

Twenty models appeared in 35 garments the Future Homemakers had made themselves during class and as home projects. Themed "Portrait of Fashion," the show presented the girls first in a huge picture frame. They stepped out of the frame to model, then stepped back in. This presented an unusual and very attractive picture.

The costumes modeled included a full length, fully lined coat, three lined wool suits, cotton dresses and skirts and blouses. One pre-schooler modeled a child's dress.

Commentary was presented by Margaret Ann Lawson. Sandra Cain provided background piano music. Jimmy Lawson "filled in" during a break. He appeared as a bum and the narrator described what a well dressed hobo wears.

After the meeting the home-making girls served coffee and cookies.

The business session was short and routine. Paul Fisher, president, presided.

Hoenig, Prescher Herds Lead DHIA In Production

Cows belonging to Jerry Hoenig and Pete Prescher chalked up top honors in the Cooke County Dairy Herd Association for the month of September according to the association report for that month.

The Prescher cows were close behind in milk production with 1180 pounds. Two of the herd were the individual milk champions accounting for 2460 and 2350 pounds. Paul Fisher's Mable was next with 2330 pounds.

Thirteen herds were tested, 528 cows were in milk and 127 were dry. A total of 91 cows produced 50 or more pounds of butter fat with the average at 31 pounds. Average pounds of milk per cow stood at 905.

High test in butter fat was claimed by a cow in Hi Lo Farms herd. That figure was 4.9.

TP&L Will Spend $48 Million in '64 For Construction

Texas Power & Light Company will spend $48,715,000 for construction of new facilities in 1964 — the largest annual construction budget in TP&L's history, W. W. Lynch, TP&L president reported.

A large part of the over-all expenditure will be for continuing work on two steam electric generating stations now under construction. They are the Stryker Creek unit north-west of Nacogdoches and the Trinidad unit near Athens in Henderson County, with estimated maximum capabilities of 500,000 and 240,000 kilowatts. The former unit will be completed in 1966 and the latter in 1965.

To be completed in 1964 is the Dallas to Houston 345,000 volt transmission line being constructed by TP&L and three other Texas investor-owned electric utilities. The over-all 345,000 volt project, when completed, will extend from TP&L's Valley Steam Electric Station in North Texas to Houston, westward from Dallas County to the Permian Basin in West Texas, and eastward from the Trinidad plant to the Stryker Creek plant.

To be constructed also in 1964 are several major transmission lines and a number of new substations which will provide ample electric power for the needs of TP&L customers.

Transmission lines will be built in the Tyler, Waco, Denison-Sherman and the Decatur-Bridgeport areas.

New substations will be constructed in the Centerville, Sherman, Tyler, Waco, Killeen and Temple areas. Improvements also will be made to the Company's distribution system.

Lynch said that on a nationwide basis the electric industry in 1963 increased its electric generating capability 6.7 percent, from 198.1 million kilowatts to 211.4 million kilowatts.

The TP&L president also pointed out:

— During 1963 the United States increased its lead over the second-ranking Soviet Union to 137 million kilowatts.

— During the year, advances continued to be made in the nation's vast interconnected electric power networks.

— By the end of 1963, the total investment in electric plant and equipment by investor-owned companies was about $54 billion. An estimated $3.3 billion for new plant and equipment was expended by investor-owned electric companies in 1963. This was the equivalent of 8.4 percent of the new construction by all American business combined (excluding agriculture).

— On an average annual basis for the period 1958-1962, the electric power companies paid more taxes than any other industry in the nation. The companies were expected to have a 1963 tax bill of $2.67 billion.

Area Shows Good Soil Conservation Records for 1963

Beginning of a new year is traditionally the time to take stock of what has been accomplished during the year just ended.

Looking over records of soil conservation in the Muenster-Saint Jo area of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District reveals some good steps forward in improving and protecting the land.

Last year the number of district cooperators advanced to include 637 farms and ranches. This is nearly 80 percent of the area's farms and ranches.

Cooperators planted some 5,000 acres of alfalfa, clover, peas and vetch for soil improvement and protection.

Progress in terracing shows 121,736 feet of broad-base channel-type terraces built to outlet onto established pastures and grassed waterways to prevent erosion.

On pastures and rangelands of the area an estimated 30,000 acres of grass were properly grazed to leave one-half of the year's growth to serve as a protective mulch to prevent erosion, increase water intake and maintain the stand and vigor of desirable grasses. Over 11,000 acres were deferred from grazing on native grass-land.

Sixteen ponds for livestock water were built last year. A total of 1,170 acres of brush was cleared so that pasture grasses can be planted and native grasses can spread, and 2,585 acres of land were planted to adapted grasses for pasture.

Good progress was also made in this portion of the district on upstream flood prevention. There are now 28 reservoirs completed on the Elm Fork Watershed in the area. On Clear Creek 21 reservoirs and 13 sediment control structures are finished. Easements were granted for the construction of seven more reservoirs during 1963.

All in all it was a good year for conservation accomplishments and many landowners took a big step toward their goal of using each acre within its capabilities and treating each according to its needs for protection and improvement.

Tips From Your Hatchery

How bright are your Evergreen shrubs? Are the leaves nice and waxy on those anemous bushes, or did last summer's dry weather and fungi leave them looking a little shabby? Shrubs properly fertilized are less likely to fall victims of fungi during the hot weather. Now is the time, and we have the correct fertilizers and the "know-how". If you have a magnolia tree, acid fertilization twice each year is a must if you want a vigorous tree.

We have a store full of new insecticides. Stuff to control about every pest except the neighbors' kids and bill collectors.

March of Dimes Plans to Double Birth Defects and Arthritis Centers

Announcing plans to double the present number of March of Dimes birth defects and arthritis centers in the nation, the world's most successful voluntary health organization this week launched its traditional January fund-raising appeal.

Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, which financed development of both polio vaccines, said the goal this year would be $45 million, "a sum our medical and scientific advisers agree we can wisely use to combat the ravages of these crippling. This sum would apply to patient care, research, professional and public education."

The March of Dimes now supports some 77 birth defects and arthritis treatment centers across the country. According to Dr. William S. Clark, director of the medical department of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, the national dimensions of the health problems posed by birth defects and arthritis "have grown to a point where this nation requires at least 100 centers for birth defects and 50 for arthritis."

"Through the generosity of the American people, we will build up our chapter and center programs across the United States to meet their needs. Our offensive against both these crippling afflictions will be re-doubled in 1964."

Leading in this offensive will be the members of the 3,000 March of Dimes chapters in the nation plus the volunteers they enlist—an expected army of two million people. The campaign continues throughout January and culminates with the Mothers' March during which some 15 million homes are visited from coast to coast. In addition, a total of 36 million "mailers" are distributed nationally to inform families of the health aims of the March of Dimes and they also serve as a means of returning contributions to local chapters. The herculean task of addressing these envelopes regionally is unselfishly assumed by volunteers—thousands of teenagers, homemakers, grandmothers. Helping to dramatize the campaign will be the cross-country tour of winsome Mary Lou Graves, 5, of Flint, Mich., who was born with an open spine, since repaired, and who developed excess water on the brain, another birth defect which has now rectified itself. Mary Lou, however, is paralyzed in the legs but moves with surprising alacrity with leg braces, crutches and her wheelchair. In addition to vivacious Mary Lou as the National March of Dimes Child, many states, counties and municipalities across the country designate their own March of Dimes Child symbolizing the aims of their local campaigns. In her travels this month, accompanied by her parents, Mary Lou is scheduled to call upon President Lyndon B. Johnson at the White House and has already visited with many Senators, Congressmen, Governors and other high officials. The pretty five-year-old has "interviewed" the heads of such influential national organizations as the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Elks, Rotary, Kiwanis and other service clubs including the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, Catholic War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans and others. An estimated total of 250,000 infants are born each year in the United States with serious birth defects. This is equivalent to one in 16 births, or 700 children a day. Of the quarter million total, more than 30,000 die, including stillbirths. As to arthritis, the other major health area in which the March of Dimes leads the attack, fully 11 million Americans are tormented by one or another form of this, the Nation's No. 1crippler.

Confetti - matter of taking on a big debt, but rather one of enjoying a wonderful blessing while we pay for it. It's the same arrangement that most of us have in our personal finances. We live in our houses, drive our cars, use our appliances, while making the payments. We think the inconvenience of debt is more than justified by the benefits received. The same applies here. The community benefit easily justifies the community debt. Appreciating that, we can gladly do our part. And we can do it soon if we'll make our gifts match our pride.

Another angle worth considering is a person's moral obligation of returning some of his blessings to the Lord. Modern generations have become lax in the matter, we know, but conscience still reminds us of the duty. In our hearts we know we should support the church and charity. And we feel guilty when we skimp on that duty. Well, care of the sick is one of the works of the Lord. Our hospital qualifies as a charity worthy of our support. Why not adopt it as a project of returning some of our blessings every year until the job is done? You can be sure it's a very comforting way of combining community pride with spiritual satisfaction.

Hospital

Weinzapfel, president of the Muenster Hospital Authority, thanked all for their help so far and asked continued help in retiring the bond issue.

Mrs. Dan Luke, in behalf of the Garden Club and VFW Post presented bronze plaques to be used as markers for two live oak trees dedicated to Sister Mildred and Mr. Weinzapfel in recognition of their outstanding work for the hospital. The trees and plaques were given jointly by the two organizations.

Abbot Alfred Hoenig of Corpus Christi, a son of community pioneers remarked that this great occasion came appropriately in Muenster's diamond jubilee year and said he is looking forward to a community observance in

Parochial Teams Divide 2 Games With Whitesboro

Sacred Heart's basketball teams divided honors with two Whitesboro High School teams Monday night. Tigerettes were swamped 45-14 by the Whitesboro regular team and the Tigers won 42-33 over the Bearcat second string.

Starting the evening's program, Sacred Heart got on the scoreboard first, but that was about its only satisfaction. After that the home towners had everything their way. Mary Wimmer hit 8 for Sacred Heart.

Next one was more of a contest. The Bearcat B team took a 10-6 first quarter lead and the Tigers got sizzling hot for a 20-15 half time lead. In the second half the Tigers added four more points to their lead and the final count was 42-33. Top scorers were Virgil Hess 13 and Cyril Yosten 9.

MHS Loses 2 to Callisburg, Splits With Saint Jo

In basketball games of the past week Muenster High teams lost a double header to Callisburg and split one with Saint Jo.

Tuesday night on the local court MHS girls beat their Saint Jo visitors by a count of 37-28. For the first three quarters they gained steadily by counts of 8-3, 17-11, and 32-16, then coasted in as reserves took over the last period. Sandy and Cindy Cain did all the Muenster scoring, 20 and 17 respectively.

The Friday before the girls were outclassed 38-22 as Callisburg took a first quarter lead and gained in every period. The Cain girls scored 10 each for MHS.

A big second quarter salted the game away for Saint Jo Tuesday night and the final count was 57-44. First period was close, the Panthers leading 11-9. Then the visitors hit a hot streak and made the count 26-14 at half time. For the rest of the way they were about even and the game ended with Saint Jo leading by 13. Top MHS scorers were Roy Reiter 13 and Jimmy Don Robison 11.

Callisburg boys, tall and handy with the ball, had a picnic beating MHS 63-30. Local scorers were Roy Reiter 10, Chris Cain 8, Weldon Vogel 7.

December. Then he proceeded with the first ceremony of actual dedication, blessing the national flag presented by Mrs. Charles Pagel in behalf of the VFW Auxiliary and the state flag presented by Arthur Hess in behalf of the VFW Post. Then the flags were raised by Boy Scouts while the crowd, led by Sister Geraldine at the microphone, sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Eyes of Texas".

Father Alcuin Kubis spoke briefly before he continued the ceremony. He praised the community for its achievement and noted that it is doing the work of God in providing for the care of its sick. Then he blessed a crucifix, given by Mrs. Dick Cain, to be placed in the front lobby. From there Father Alcuin went on a tour blessing the principal rooms of the building.

The final event in the dedication was a mass with Father Alcuin as celebrant in the hospital chapel starting at 5 o'clock. Because of the chapel's limited seating space the public was not invited, only members of the hospital authority and their wives, Sisters Mildred, Romaine and Leonard, Abbot Alfred Hoenig and Father Bruno Fuhrmann. As the mass ended a choir just outside the door sang "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

The building and facilities were shown in guided tours conducted by members of the VFW Auxiliary, Garden Club, Catholic Daughters and St. Anne Society along with members of the hospital staff. VFW Auxiliary with Mrs. Paul Sicking as chairman, was the coordinating organization.

As visitors arrived they were asked to register and form groups to be escorted by guides from one area to another.

At each of the stops narrators pointed out items of equipment and described special features. There were eight of those stops before cookies, coffee and cold drinks in the staff's dining room. The tour lasted about 40 minutes. Refreshments were catered by Emil Rohmer, who based one estimate of the attendance on the number of coffee cups used. There were 1400. At such occasions, he said, normally one out of three will accept the coffee, and if that was the case here there were 4200 in all.

Speaking for the hospital board and the staff Mr. Weinzapfel and Sister Mildred expressed their delight over the day's success. They thank all for coming and they thank their volunteer hostesses for a fine job.

In one part of ancient Greece, it long was the custom, when a man proposed a law in the popular assembly, he did so on a platform with a rope around his neck. If the law passed, they removed the rope. If it failed, they removed the platform. If this system were instituted in our Congress, it would, no doubt, cut down on the number of bills introduced each session.
