CCAD passes budget

by Elaine Schad

The Cooke County Appraisal District Board of Directors cut almost $100,000 from a proposed budget before approving a $607,700 budget for district operations for 1991.

Taxing entities in the county have until Oct. 15 to act on the budget, which will automatically take effect if a majority of the entities do not submit a written rejection of the budget by the deadline, officials said.

The budget approved Friday is a 37 percent budget increase from last year's $442,000 budget, but includes a new function, tax collection, which the district will assume for the county's taxing entities beginning Oct. 1. The county had assumed those duties two years ago after a petition to move the tax collection under the county's jurisdiction was approved by voters. The tax collection budget was set at $112,000.

The appraisal budget for the 1991 budget year, which begins Jan. 1, is $475,700, a 7.6 percent increase from last year's $442,000 appraisal budget. The new budget includes a 5 percent raise for all CCAD employees, a 20 percent raise for the computer supervisor and a 12 percent raise for the mapping supervisor.

Chief Appraiser Pat Pickett's salary will remain at $35,600, but she will receive an extra $2,400 for additional duties associated with the collection function, officials said. Ms. Pickett also receives a $300 a month car allowance. Brenda Urrutia has been serving as acting chief appraiser on several occasions for the past three weeks during Ms. Pickett's illness.

The business manager will receive $1,200 for new collection duties in addition to a 5 percent raise. The board also voted to set the salaries of three CCAD supervisors, mapping, collections and computer at the same level. The computer supervisor's salary will go from $14,000 to $16,800, a 20 percent increase; mapping from $15,000 to $16,800, a 12 percent increase; and collections supervisor from $16,800 to $16,920, which takes into account that person's longevity pay.

The district has budgeted $20,800 for two additional temporary deed clerks and $10,000 to begin upgrading the district's mapping department. The board voted down 5-0 a proposal to include $50,000 in the budget to purchase a Geographic Information System computer this year. The district has budgeted $20,000 for collection of personal tangible property, which includes such things as airplanes and boats, for six taxing entities which have chosen to collect taxes on those items.

The board had several split votes on the salary increases, with board member Lloyd Marshall most strongly opposing raises in excess of 5 percent. "With the type of economy we've got and compared to others, I think 5 percent is a generous raise," Marshall said. The board voted 4-1 to give the 5 percent raises, with CCAD Board President Roger Martin voting against, stating he favored higher raises, ranging from 6 to 20 percent, which he felt would bring CCAD employees in line with similar positions in appraisal districts statewide.

The board has budgeted $12,000 for overtime pay, which is an increase from the $2,000 budgeted last year. The district went over budget in that category this past year, spending about $18,000 to date. Ms. Pickett said the overtime is needed in several departments during the busy times of the year, so is needed instead of paying an additional employee to work in those areas.

Muenster youths enjoy benefits from United Way funding

by Janet Felderhoff

According to the leaders of many of Muenster's youth organizations their groups would not be able to operate as efficiently, or would perhaps not exist at all, if they didn't receive generous funding from Cooke County United Way. "Muenster receives between five and six thousand dollars annually," said John Bartush, Muenster United Way chairman.

Muenster is unique among towns in Cooke County because the Muenster Park Board has undertaken the responsibility of distributing the funds from United Way to the various local youth organizations that request financial assistance. Other organizations must apply directly to the Cooke County United Way.

Each Spring the Park Board or Muenster Youth Council requests that all youth organizations in need of funding submit a budget. From these budgets the Muenster Park Board sets up a budget proposal detailing what the money will be used for. The proposal is then presented to the Cooke County United Way.

Because the Muenster Park Board distributes the United Way funds in Muenster, it also takes on the task of distributing donation envelopes to all local businesses. The envelopes have been distributed in Muenster this past week.

Currently serving on the Park Board are John Bartush, Ben Bindel, David Flusche, Jr., Loree Bruns, and Mattie Swirczynski.

Several years ago Muenster was receiving more United Way funding than the Muenster people were donating. It was getting difficult to get the requested funds, but things are better organized now and the donations have been better the last few years, said Bartush.

Also Bartush added, it's important that people donate because they partially base the amount allocated to the town on the money received from the town. Some of the Muenster youth organizations that use United Way donations are Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Camp Fire Girls.

Camp Fire is an organization that is open to all girls and boys from kindergarten through high school. Billie Friday Fleitman is the leader for Muenster's Camp Fire group.

"If we didn't receive United Way funding there is a possibility that our group could not exist, because we would be spending our time calling upon the community to buy goods and services rather than our serving the community," stated Mrs. Fleitman.

The Camp Fire organization in Muenster has three main service projects. They visit residents at St. Richard's Villa each month to play Bingo, do skits, or sing songs. In April they help with clean-up at Germanfest and each year they participate in the Christmas Parade.

Including the visits to St. Richard's and picking up litter, the group spent 62 hours serving the community last year. They also sponsor a Little Angel in the Cooke County program, as well as helping to distribute the gifts.

Some of the things that donated money is used for besides service projects are workshops at the Science Place; attending camp as a group each summer; and attending a week-end camp each Spring and Fall to work toward developing their outdoor skills.

United Way donations provide a major portion of the budget for Pack 664 Cub Scouts. United Way, along with the Scouts, own two fund raising drives, selling Scout Show tickets and popcorn, which allow the pack to purchase rank awards, patches, and special event items such as pinewood derby kits, rain regatta sailboats, and turkeys as prizes during Turkey Shoot (when not donated).

The Blue and Gold banquet, and three summertime events are also funded from the budget. In some cases the membership fees for boys enthusiastic about Cub Scouting but unable to pay are also paid with the donations.

Without United Way donations the pack program would have to be cut down drastically or funded by parents, which would leave many deserving youngsters out of the fun.

"United Way pretty much funds everything we do," remarked Cub Scout Leader Shirley Knabe.

Cub Scouts is an organization open to boys in first through fifth grade. It teaches them morals, citizenship, to help others, to enjoy themselves, and to share and get along with others.

After boys have completed the fifth grade and until the age of 18 they can join Boy Scouts. Besides the lessons stressed in Cub Scouts the older boys are schooled in leadership and citizenship.

Waylon Poole, Muenster Boy

Scout leader, said that the Boy Scouts' major expenses are the insurance and up-keep on the bus that they use for transportation to camp-outs.

They must also purchase patches and awards. The boys use some of the funds to finance their Eagle projects.

Each month the boys spend a weekend camping. They also take a number of field trips. In the past some of the United Way funding has been used to purchase troop equipment.

The boys have a booth at Germanfest to raise funds for summer camp, said Poole. "Without United Way funding we would have to solicit more funding or have other projects to earn money."

Loretta Felderhoff is the leader for the Muenster Girl Scouts. She said that there are between 15 and 40 girls involved in scouting in any year. It is for ages kindergarten through high school.

The Muenster group is a part of the Cross Timbers unit in Denton. There are many activities set up by the Cross Timbers Council and United Way funding is used to finance the Muenster group when they decide to participate in an activity.

Some of the things that they participate in are career day. Please See UNITED WAY, Pg. 2

City of Lindsay files lawsuit against cable company

by Elaine Schad

Saying the city and its residents have lost its patience with poor quality service, the City of Lindsay has filed suit against the Houston cable television company that holds the city's cable franchise.

The city is seeking cancellation and termination of its contract with Weik, Gores & Associates, Inc., doing business as Lake Kiowa Cable Television, L.P. and-or WGA Cable. The city further seeks an injunction ordering the company to immediately remove all of its equipment and facilities from the streets and property of the city of about 1,000 residents located in western Cooke County, and that the company incur all costs, according to the suit. The company has until Oct. 2 to respond to the suit, filed in the 235th District Court in Gainesville.

The council in May gave WGA officials two months to make corrections in its service. WGA representatives told the council that the company was working to upgrade its service. Since that time, the council has requested that representatives meet with the council on three separate occasions, but the company has failed to respond, said Mayor Pro Tem Don Metzler.

City officials are studying alternatives for providing some 140 customers with cable service should the courts decide to terminate the contract, said Metzler, who said several area companies are interested in picking up the contract.

Customers have been complaining about poor service and poor reception since the company took over the franchise from Community Cable Company in April of 1982, according to the suit. The city has seven years remaining in its contract with the company.

In the suit, the city charges the company has "wholly failed to comply with its promise and assurance to provide quality cable television service." The city charges the company has failed to perform under the terms of the contract, including timely payment to the city of 5 percent of the gross

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Having just read section 152.016 of Vernon Civil Statutes entitled "Functions of Grievance Committee in Relation to Elected Officers" and especially paragraph (d) pg. 213 which states - "The Committee's authority is limited to the consideration of increases in the salaries or personal expenses of county and precinct officers. The Committee may not set policy of the county or add new items to a proposed county budget" - I am a bit at a loss to understand how the committee can literally mandate a line item of 20,000 to fund an independent salary study of county employees or else bypass the majority decision of a 50.00 per month salary increase, and instead grant a 5 percent increase with no one receiving less than $50 per month.

Yes, I was present when the proposed $50 per month salary increase was made and was also present when the Salary Grievance Committee's report was made at the commissioner's court meeting on 9-10-90.

There is an honest question whether or not the committee complied with the Open Records Law - having conducted the entire process in executive or secret session. Too, as I understand paragraph (d) pg. 213 of Vernon Civil St.'s - the committee failed to follow the "letter of the law." To say the least it raises some unanswered questions in the minds of many serious thinking Cooke County residents???

seminars; weekends at Science Place; trips to Heard Museum in McKinney; and camping trips.

Materials for service programs and general craft projects at local meetings are also financed with United Way money.

Girl Scouts are patterned after the Boy Scouts program but the girls' organization focuses more on developing them as young women and encourages them to look more toward their career goals, said Mrs. Felderhoff.

"We wouldn't be able to operate the troop without the United Way financing," she concluded.

It would seem that the community benefits two-fold by the United Way money brought back into Muenster, first by giving the youth an opportunity to belong to organizations that teach morals, life-long skills, and responsibility; second by the enrichment those organizations bring to the community with their service projects.

Dear Friends,

The Sacred Heart Alumni would like to thank all the table sponsors, prize donors, bakers, workers, food table donors, and everyone else who gave their time and effort to make a successful Vegas Night. We would also like to thank all of you who joined in the fun. We hope to see you again next year.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM
STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Thousands of American servicemen who fought in Vietnam are still missing and unaccounted for, their fates uncertain.

We owe a special debt of gratitude to these noble Americans who sacrificed so much to preserve and protect the ideals of liberty and freedom. We must never forget these individuals; neither must we ever forget the courage of their families.

In conjunction with the national effort, and in recognition and remembrance of the 137 Texans still unaccounted for in Southeast Asia, we are observing September 21st, 1990, as POW/MIA Recognition Day.

Resolving the fate of the Americans missing and unaccounted for in Indochina is an issue of fundamental importance and continues to be a matter of the highest priority.

Therefore, I, William P. Clements, Jr., Governor of Texas, do hereby designate September 21st, 1990, as:

POW/MIA RECOGNITION DAY

in Texas and urge the appropriate recognition thereof.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 12th day of June, 1990.

An open letter to the citizens of Muenster.

During the first week of July my family and I had the privilege of being in your fine town after attending the Felderhoff reunion in Wichita Falls. While we greatly enjoyed our stay in Muenster (as we have many times before) we unfortunately experienced some car trouble, which brings me to the reason for writing this letter.

As everyone knows, car problems can be a real nuisance, but to have car problems 1,800 miles from home can be even more exasperating. Not knowing who to go to for quality work at a fair price is one thought that leaps to one's mind in this kind of situation. However, thanks to the efforts of several of your fine citizens our car was quickly and professionally repaired for the return journey home. In particular, I'd like to thank Mr. Mike Hennigan, owner of Hennigan Auto Parts for making the parts available on short notice and Mr. Bobby Dale Walterscheid, owner of Bob's Auto Repair for making the repair. These 2 gentlemen were very helpful, knowledgeable and extremely proficient. Enough good things cannot be said about these 2 professionals. Muenster should be thankful to have businessmen of this caliber - not every city does. I should like to add that not only were they professional but they were very pleasant to deal with. I strongly recommend them to anyone needing car repairs. Thank you both for ending our automotive nightmare!

I would also like to thank 2 other young men, Mr. Mike Felderhoff and Mr. Kenny Felderhoff for their assistance in our time of need. I would especially like to thank them for getting the ball rolling by introducing us to Mike Hennigan and Kenny for introducing us to Bobby Dale Walterscheid. To all of the aforementioned men, we once again say, "THANKS!"

Sincerely yours,

Muenster School District holds routine meeting

by Elaine Schad

The Muenster School District fared better than expected on final expenditures for the 1989-90 school year, but final revenue totals did not keep up with expectations, school trustees heard during their regular September meeting.

The final 1989-90 amended budget showed the Muenster ISD spent $1,272,959, which was $26,588 less than was budgeted. The district received some $1,083,000 in revenues, about $23,000 less than expected, said Superintendent Steve Cooper. The revenue shortfall was due to the district receiving fewer state funds than anticipated and from prior years delinquent taxes, he said.

Cooper reported that Muenster student scores excelled for those taking the state-mandated college test for entering freshmen, call TASP. The TASP test has been required the past two years, but many students were able to obtain an exemption from taking the test because they had already enrolled in college credit courses the first year the test was in effect. Of the 12 Muenster students taking the test the past two years, the average score was a 270 out of a possible 300, with several students attaining the perfect score, said Cooper.

In other business, the school board:

- Approved transfer students.

- Reviewed the Muenster district's selection as a nominee by the Governor's Education Excellence Committee. Results should be available by November.

- Heard the district will have a compliance visit from the Texas Education Agency in December. The TEA will be reviewing all the district's programs which receive federal funding, including Chapter 1, vocational, drug-free program and science programs.

- Discussed roof repair on the woodshop area. Officials will begin to draw up specifications for the job and will seek bids.

- Set parent-teacher night for

Oct. 15, an opportunity for parents to meet with teachers after the first six-weeks grading period has been completed.

- Approved the use of four classrooms on Wednesday nights for religious education classes for Sacred Heart's program.

- Approved the selection process for the gifted and talented program. This is the first year the program has been provided for grades kindergarten through 12. About 18 students are presently participating in the program.

- Hired Dorothy Fleitman as an elementary aide.

- Joined the Region XI Title II program, which will allow teachers to take advantage of workshops on critical thinking and higher level problem solving.

Bill Harris to serve as county coordinator for Bob Bullock's Lt. governor campaign

AUSTIN - Comptroller Bob Bullock has named City Attorney Bill Harris to serve as the coordinator in Cooke County in his campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

Bill Harris, along with Senator Steve Carriker and Representative Ric Williamson, will head up a grass roots organization to promote Bullock's candidacy that will be linked to county organizations across Texas to carry the campaign's message about Bullock's experience and leadership to Texas voters.

Serving on the Steering Committee with Bill Harris are Gene and Glendora Davenport, Allen

Fleitman, David Shasteen, Joe A. Stout, Urban J. Endres, Democratic County Chairman Bill Sullivan, Jo Ann Powell, Evelyn Yeatts, District Clerk Bobbie Calhoun and Tax Assessor - Collector Joyce Zwingsi.

"With the help of these leaders in Cooke County, and others in our state, we're going to find practical, compassionate answers to issues facing us. The best days of Texas are ahead," Bullock said in a statement from his Austin campaign office.

Bullock is considered the front-runner to replace retiring Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby.

An independent poll conducted by the Dallas Morning News and Houston Chronicle recently shows Bullock with a commanding lead in the campaign for Lieutenant Governor over challenger Rob Mosbacher.

The Texas Poll, conducted by the Texas A&M University Public Policy Resources Laboratory this spring, showed Bullock had a 47-10-27 edge over Mosbacher. Mosbacher slipped from an earlier Texas poll and Bullock posted a gain.

Members of the 71st Legislature overwhelmingly named Bullock's office the most helpful and efficient agency in state government.

NRA, TSRA endorse Bob Bullock

AUSTIN - National Rifle Association and the Texas State Rifle Association announced last Friday their endorsement of State Comptroller Bob Bullock for Lt. Governor.

"Bob Bullock has been a longtime member of the Texas State Rifle Association and the National Rifle Association," said Dr. James Brown, Legislative Director of the 25,000-member Texas State Rifle Association, an affiliate of the NRA. The NRA has some 200,000 members in Texas.

Alvin Fuhrman receives outstanding achievement award for phone service

The Outstanding Achievement Award was presented to Alvin Fuhrman at the closing banquet of the Texas Telephone Association annual convention. The convention was held at the Stouffer Hotel in Austin, Texas, September 9-12.

The Outstanding Achievement Award recognizes exceptional and highly effective service by an individual in a given year, or for a single outstanding accomplishment of direct benefit to the telephone industry and the Association. The award was created in 1988.

Fuhrman was delegated the task in 1988 by the Chairman of the Texas Telephone Association to select a committee that would direct the publication of a history of telephony in the state of Texas.

The association had been attempting to publish a history since 1968 without success. The committee terminated dormant contracts with previous authors, then selected Jerry Hall of Dallas to write the book. Histories were solicited from the 60 telephone companies in Texas. Curtis Media publishing company of Dallas was chosen as the publisher.

Hello Texas, A History of Telephony in the Lone Star State is an 8 1/2" by 11" book containing 231 pages of pictures and text. Telephony in Texas is traced from its beginning in Galveston in 1878 to the present time. It is loaded with old pictures and vignettes. It contains a history of each of the telephone companies still operating in Texas today. A superb job was accomplished by the author in taking the individual histories along with his own research and weave them into the evolution of the telephone in Texas.

Over 500 representatives from telephone companies, retired telephone company personnel, long distance companies, consulting engineers, operator service companies, and accounting firms attended the convention.

Those attending the convention from Muenster were Alvin and Gracie Fuhrman, Gene Fuhrman, Bill and Terese Miller, Ken and June McDougle, Steve and Kyla Henscheid and Ronnie and Tina Weinzapfel.

Alvin Fuhrman plans to present a copy of the book to all the schools and libraries in the serving area of Muenster Telephone Corporation.

The book can be purchased for $29.95 plus handling. 1500 copies have been printed with over 1200 books sold before the book was printed. For information please contact the telephone office.

Muenster's tax payment soared 42.13 percent!

AUSTIN - State Comptroller Bob Bullock said earlier this week that his office sent checks totaling $84 million in monthly local sales tax rebates to cities and counties in Texas.

"Merchants reported healthy sales statewide so the sales tax money they collected shows a good increase over last year," Bullock said.

Muenster's September payment of $12,206.48 was up 42.13 percent from last year's $8,588.19. Also gaining over last September were Lindsay, $3,492.24, up 1.55 percent; Oak Ridge, $3,049.18, up 39.03 percent; and Valley View, $1,729.15, up 24.78 percent.

Gainesville's payment dropped 8.00 percent. They received $79,375.22 this year and $86,281.07 in September 1989.

Total payments to Cooke County cities came to $99,852.27, a decline of 2.00 percent from last September.

Lindsay busy planning for Centennial year

THE ENGAGEMENT and approaching marriage of Julie Fisher of Denton to Brett Walford of Brookings, South Dakota has been announced by her parents, Clyde and Pauline Fisher of Muenster. The future-groom's parents are Benjamin and Carole Walford of Milbank, S.D. The couple will be wed on Oct. 27, 1990 at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Catholic Church with Fr. Victor Gillespie, OSB, officiating. Miss Fisher is a 1986 graduate of Muenster High School. She graduated from Cooke County College and attended the University of North Texas. She is presently employed at Miller Beer of Denton. Mr. Walford graduated from Milbank High School in 1986 and is attending South Dakota State University where he is working toward a Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering. He is employed at 3M under the student co-op and is also a member of the National Guard.

The citizens of Lindsay are busy making plans for their 100th anniversary celebration, which will be held in the Spring of 1992. Overall chairman of the Centennial Planning Committee is Clara Hermes. Members of this committee have been given chairmanship of various other sub-committees.

Ladies in the community are busy making quilt blocks depicting the history of Lindsay. Other plans are being made for purchasing souvenirs, writing and presenting an historical play for the celebration, etc.

The Centennial Book Committee continues to compile the history of the community of Lindsay, as well as the family histories of past and present residents. They would like to remind everyone that they need the stories and histories, at once, so they can meet the deadline at the printers.

Orders for the books are being taken. If ordered by Jan. 1, 1991 the price is $45.00, and after that time they will be at least $50.00. The committee plans to have them ready for distribution by Sept. of 1991, making it an excellent gift for Christmas giving. Members of the book committee are Diane Hermes, chairman, Rosalie Sandmann, Kathy Lutkenhaus, Danny Nortman and Mary Ann Arendt.

Stories can be given to these members or mailed to Lindsay Centennial History, P.O. Box 151, Lindsay, Texas 76250. Orders for books can also be mailed to this address. Checks or money orders must accompany the book order. Also, commemorative pages for parents or a loved one can be purchased. Cost of a full page is $200.00 and a half page is $125.00. These should be turned in soon, also.

Rita Sandmann heads the books' finance committee, while Susan Metzler will be in charge of the overall finances for the centennial.

The book finance committee will be at the Sacred Heart - Lindsay football game, which is Lindsay's Homecoming game, on Oct. 5 to take orders for the book. They will also have a table set up at the Jaycee's Octoberfest on Oct. 7, in the Lindsay Park.

Brights receive call from son in Persian Gulf area

David and Juanita Bright had a pleasant surprise in a telephone call early Monday morning from their son, Major Joseph A. Bright. He is a Tactics Officer in the Air Force and flies C-130 cargo aircraft. He is currently on duty in the Persian Gulf area.

Major Bright's discussion with his parents ranged over his very busy activities, the weather, living conditions, etc. He said that the American people should well be proud of the efficient manner in which the Persian Gulf operation is being carried out.

Bright then had each member of his aircraft crew talk with his parents. Each crew member projected an up-beat positive attitude reflecting full faith and confidence in their mission to the area.

Joseph said his chances of contacting his brother, Lt. James M. Bright, U.S. Marine Corps, who recently arrived in Saudi Arabia, are remote due to the sheer numbers of people involved.

David and Juanita say the call was clear and a most welcomed way to start a Monday morning.

CCC offers free "test drive" for fall

Fun, fast and free is the best way to describe the special lineup of nine "introductory" mini-courses - including three especially for senior citizens - being offered by Cooke County College during the week of September 24-28.

"We're offering these free classes as a sort of 'test drive' opportunity," said Cathy Keeler of CCC's Division of Continuing Education, "not only for people who've never taken a mini-course before but also for former students who may want to 'sample' some of the regular fall semester mini-courses we'll be starting up early next month."

"Everyone signing up for one or more of these free sessions will also get a sneak preview of our beautiful new Community Education & Cosmetology Building where a large number of our non-credit classes will be meeting this fall and from now on."

Speaking of new facilities, heading up the list of free "mini-courses" will be a Monday (September 24) evening tour of CCC's new library building. Patsy Wilson, director of library services, will lead point out all the features of the impressive new edifice with special attention given to services provided to the general public. The time is 6 to 7:15 p.m.

Another new facility getting a lot of attention in this area is Lake Ray Roberts, and another Monday session, from 8 to 9 p.m., will cover camping, fishing, boating and other recreational uses of the new lake. Leading the class will be Don Freeman, fishing guide and owner of the Fish 'N' Hook tackle shop in Sanger. He will be joined by a Corps of Engineers representative who'll discuss open boat ramp locations at the limited access lake.

For those who like to spend their recreation time on drier ground, "A Taste of Country & Western Dancing" will meet from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday. This preview of two regular mini-courses to be offered this fall - one for adults and one for youngsters - will be given by popular instructors Virginia and Jerry Rainey.

Another preview is "Super-Write - How to Increase Your Notetaking Speed." Instructor Brenda Haverkamp will give a demonstration of this speed writing system, based on the longhand alphabet and abbreviations of frequently used words, from 6 to 7:15 p.m. on Tuesday.

On Thursday from 6 to 7:15 p.m., all "cowboy-want-to-be's" can get the lowdown on CCC's immensely successful new Equine Technology program. Instructor Terry McCutcheon will give students a tour of the college facilities, show off the herd of college horses and tell about the wide variety of both credit and non-credit classes offered. Three regular mini-courses will be offered this fall - Recreational Horse Management, Horsemanship & Training and English Riding.

One very special feature of the new Community Education & Cosmetology Building is a new art room fully equipped with potter's wheels and kilns for ceramics - from throwing to glazing and firing. Students who want a sample of credit and non-credit offerings can get it from instructor Sylvia Deaver on Tuesday from 6 to 7:15 p.m.

Rounding out the lineup of free mini-courses will be three especially designed for senior citizens (and that includes all persons age 50 and older). "Introduction to Computers" will meet on Thursday from 10 to 11 a.m.; there will be a special "Senior Citizen Library Tour" from 3 to 4:15 p.m. on Thursday; and "Aerobics for Senior Citizens" will meet on Wednesday from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

"Everyone needs to understand that space in all these free classes is limited," said Keeler, "so those who wish to attend need to contact us in the Continuing Education Office here on campus as soon as possible. Come by the office across from the entrance to the old library, or call us at 817/668-7731, extension 272."

THE MÜNSTER Garden Club has announced the Yard of the Month Award for September to Ricky and Sherry Wimmer whose home is on West Cross St. Earning the award in particular was a profusion of colorful flowers in beds on the west side of the house and driveway, several large planter boxes accenting the green lawn and a row of young shade trees on the east side of the spacious yard. Inset photos show 3-foot tall zinnias that attract numerous butterflies.

Extension Homemakers reactivate

Münster Extension Homemakers Club members met on Sept. 12 to resume regular meetings after a summer break when no meetings were held in July and August.

Irene Klement was hostess in her home with a perfect attendance of 19 members.

Dorothy Fisher, president, conducted the meeting and together with Florence Fisher took members on an imaginary supermarket tour which included reading of labels for nutrients, calories, additives, and preservatives.

Also on the agenda was a reminder of the Sell-A-Rama to be held in Gainesville Nov. 9 and 10; and a reading entitled "Capsule Sermons" by the hostess, Irene Klement, who served refreshments of apricot delight dessert and coffee.

During the conversation time over dessert and coffee, members enjoyed recalling summer happenings when they treated themselves and their spouses to a fish dinner at Catfish Louie's in July.

They also discussed hand made crafts which were enjoyed and demonstrated in the home of Olivia Wimmer in June. Lucille Lutkenhaus was presiding officer and gave an inspirational poem "Life Is Worth Living." Members chose Dorothy Fisher as their nominee to attend the State Convention in October.

Olivia Wimmer, the hostess served cherry cheesecake dessert and coffee to thirteen members.

Summer meetings were not held.

Texas heat entombs SH School

by Sharon Fuhrmann
Submitted by the Journalism Dept. of Sacred Heart High School

With Texas temperatures ranging from the upper 90's to the lower 100's this past week outside, the temperatures inside the Sacred Heart High School have not been much less. On Sept. 7, at 1:40 p.m. a temperature of 90 degrees F. was reported in the high school classrooms. Temperatures often reach the 100 degree F. mark by the end of the school day. Only four rooms in the high school building are equipped with air conditioners. These include the math room, library, computer room, and office. Lights are left off in the English room in an attempt to reduce the heat. Ceiling and box fans are the only relief from the sizzling temperatures that entomb the school. These just recirculate the already warm air. Heat advisories warn people to stay out of such heat, but this precaution is sometimes overlooked because school must go on. As the days of summer dwindle on, the students of Sacred Heart look forward to the temperatures that accompany the fall season.

Hogan-McDonald reunion held Labor Day

The annual Hogan-McDonald reunion on Labor Day weekend, always held in Muenster, was a traditional event again this year. Bringing together the sons and daughters of the late James Spencer Hogan and Edna McDonald, with grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a few of the great-grandchildren, is a cherished and much-anticipated accomplishment, considered "sacred and beautiful" by the families.

It is a time of "togetherness, music, dining and dancing at the festival." This close-knit family chooses Muenster as the gathering place each year, because facilities, restaurants, motel and parks and meeting halls are to their liking.

Montague, Texas. To this union eleven children were born, seven boys and four girls. The sons are Cloyce, Columbus, Hugh, Jack, Frank, John and Jerry. The daughters are Eula Grace, Leona, Naomi and Bobbye.

The families usually start arriving on Friday, and most stay over through Monday. They reserve the VFW Hall for Labor Day Sunday where the central meeting is held, with a covered dish noon feast, and an afternoon of their Country and Western bands, the Cherry Rhones of Wichita Falls, and the Hogan Westerners of Nashville, Tennessee, headed by Bill Hogan, son of Tommie Hogan of Saint Jo and the late Jack Hogan.

Judy Cain Hartman of Denton is the "Manager and Master of Ceremonies" - each year doing an excellent job. Next year's plans include having all families send in Favorite Recipes which will be compiled and ready for distribution on Labor Day weekend, 1991. The family dates from 1905, when James Spencer Hogan and Edna McDonald were married in Surviving sons are Frank of Saint Jo and Jerry of Amarillo. Surviving daughters are Eula Grace Cain of Muenster, Naomi of Lubbock and Bobbye of Amarillo.

Joining the James Hogan descendants at each reunion are surviving descendants of the Earl McDonald-Susie Hogan family which also claims 1905 as its origin. Of the two daughters and four sons born to this union, only Joe, Charles, and Ivy survive.

A host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, including some double cousins came from Dallas, Coppell, Denton, Sanger, Valley View, Gainesville, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Amarillo, Bellvue, Fort Worth, Bryan and cities in Oklahoma.

Tigers trounce the Trojans 13-9

When Coach Danny Walterscheid was asked to say a few words after Friday night's Sacred Heart-Windthorst football game, "Thank You Pooter" was all he had to say. "Pooter" or Larry Switzer, was the man of the hour for the Tigers in their 13-9 victory. Besides an outstanding defensive game, including an interception late in the fourth quarter, Switzer also caught a touchdown pass as the clock ticked away the first half.

"Switzer has great hands, he's a good athlete," said Coach John Nasche. "He stretched out and clinched the victory for us."

Sacred Heart outplayed the Trojans, but two fumbled balls cost the Tigers points. The Tigers picked up 196 yards rushing, 82 in the air and 13 first downs, compared to Windthorst with 87 yards rushing, 105 passing and 9 first downs.

minimum mistake we knew was coming."

The extra point kick was blocked by Stevan Nasche and the Trojans took a 6-9 lead with 6:19 remaining in the game.

The Tigers started their next possession on their own 26-yard line. Outstanding offensive efforts by C. Hess, Switzer, R. Hess gave Sacred Heart a first down on the Trojan's 26-yard line. Quarterback Nasche circled around the left on a 22-power keeper into the endzone, only to have the play called back on a clipping call. Beyer picked up 14 yards to help Nasche, who on a 49-option turned upfield to an open field, this time for 21 yards and 6 points. C. Hess kicked the PAT and the Tigers took a 13-9 lead.

Windthorst came back strong moving to the Tigers' 32-yard line. On first down Larry Switzer killed the drive by picking off a Trojan

Hornets sting Rams

Sadler-Southmayd fans had little to cheer about Friday night as the Hornets' football team invaded Sadler, giving the Rams a 28-0 beating.

Friday to buzz the Cowboys. "They look real good, they execute the ball better than the other teams we've played," said Coach Roller. "We have to play good defense or they'll burn us." Roller predicts if the Hornets move the ball as well as last week, they should be in good shape. "Bryson's not too physical. Muenster has a reputation of being physical," concluded the coach. Game time is at 8 p.m.

(Game statistics submitted by Nick Walterscheid)

It didn't take the Muenster defense long to show the Rams what they were made of. After the Hornets gave up the ball on downs during the opening series of plays, S&S had a 71-yard touchdown run called back because of an offside penalty. Two plays later, on their own 20-yard line, a bad snap was fumbled and Paul Black recovered, setting up the Hornets' first score. Runs by Mike Vogel and Ryan Sicking took the ball to the 1-yard line where Vogel ran in the ball. Rajko Jelen kicked the extra point and, with just under five minutes remaining in the first quarter, Muenster had a 7-0 lead.

S&S fumbled on the kickoff, this time Troy Pagel covered the ball. Starting on the Rams' 41-yard line, a 32-yard pass to Doug Hennigan took the ball to the 8. Two plays later, Pagel dove in from the 1 for another touchdown. Jelen's PAT was good with the clock reading 14:00 with 3:08 remaining in the first period.

The Rams picked up 5 yards, then punted the pigskin back to Muenster. A drive, including an 11-yard run by Sicking, a 29-pass gain to Sicking from quarterback Mike Gobble and an 11-yard pitch to Terry Felderhoff gave the Hornets a 1st and goal on the 3-yard marker. Vogel ran the ball in for another 6. Jelen again booted the PAT and the Hornets took a one-sided 21-0 lead.

S&S again fumbled on their next possession with Chris Kubis covering the ball at midfield. Both teams exchanged plays till the players headed to the locker room at halftime.

The third quarter saw the Hornets' backs Ryan Sicking, Troy Pagel, Mike Vogel and Kenny Walterscheid, running. Four passes were attempted with one being picked off. Kubis also covered his second fumbled ball.

Muenster controlled the ball the final period, gaining 95 yards. Helping ball carriers Pagel, Sicking, and Vogel were Steven Fisher and Tony Perryman.

The Hornets started their first drive of the quarter on their own 37-yard line, controlling the game for 4½ minutes. Ryan Sicking ran in from the 2-yard line to score with Jelen adding the extra point and Muenster stretched their lead 28-0.

A quarterback sack by Kubis pushed the Rams back 11 yards on their next drive of the period, forcing a punt. The Hornets and Rams each worked on another drive before time ran out.

"It was a good team effort with tremendous improvement," said Coach Grady Roller. "The defense was outstanding, holding S&S to only 5 first downs." The defense covered 4 fumbles, 2 caused by defensive standouts Jason Biffle and Troy Pagel; the other 2 were caused by the Rams mishandling of the ball.

The defense also had 3 quarterback sacks by Brad McDaniel, Chris Kubis and Mike Vogel. S&S threw the ball only 4 times, and were sacked 3 of those attempts. Troy Pagel was in on 25 tackles.

"Our offense is picking up," said Roller. "The boys are starting to feel comfortable with the game plan." Roller credited all the backs for running the ball well and playing great football. He also noted that the offensive line opened good holes for the runners.

Mike Vogel led the Hornets' offense by rushing for 97 yards, including 2 touchdowns. He was followed by Troy Pagel and Ryan Sicking with 52 yards each. Steven Fisher gained 16 and Tony Perryman 9 yards to round out Muenster's running attack.

The Hornets' top receiver was Sicking, catching 2 passes for 35 yards. Doug Hennigan caught one pass for 32 yards and Terry Felderhoff one for 11. Quarterback Mike Gobble completed 4 of 11 passes for 78 yards, throwing one interception.

Muenster picked up a total of 304 yards and 21 first downs. While holding the Rams to 103 yards rushing, the Hornets also allowed no yardage gained from the passing game.

Chris Hess was the leading rusher for Sacred Heart, picking up 94 yards on 15 carries. Quarterback Stevan Nasche gained 36 yards with Ryan Hess carrying 10 times for 25 and Switzer three runs for 24 yards. Jason Beyer caught three passes for 33 yards while Switzer and Shawn Dangelmayr caught one apiece for 24 and 22 yards. Each team threw one interception.

Chris Hess booted the opening kickoff into the endzone, giving Windthorst the ball on the 20. Seven plays later the Trojans kicked to Darren Klement, who returned the ball to the Windthorst 35. Nasche, C. Hess and Ryan Hess moved the ball to the 14-yard line where on fourth and three, the Trojan defense held, taking over on the 12-yard line. Windthorst could not move the ball across their line of scrimmage, booting the ball to their 44-yard line.

The first play for Sacred Heart was fumbled and the visitor took over on their 43. The Tigers held again, including a quarterback sack by Chris Hess. Beyer returned the kick 20 yards. A 15-yard clipping call put Sacred Heart deep on their 13-yard line. A 19-yard run by Switzer was followed by the Tiger's second fumbled ball and the Trojans played out the scoreless first quarter.

On third and 9 on the Tiger's 30, Windthorst, on the first play in the second quarter, was sacked by Jason Endres and Ryan Hess, returning the ball to Sacred Heart.

Each team had possession twice before Sacred Heart took over on their own 38-yard line. A pass from Nasche to Dangelmayr picked up 21 yards, then with 32 seconds on the clock Beyer made a good catch and a good move to pick up 13 more yards. Chris Hess added 3 yards. With seven seconds remaining, a second and 7 on the 24-yard line turned a Nasche pass to Switzer into 6 points. "They were covering our receivers all night," said Nasche. "Virgil (Henschel) spotted from above that the middle field was open, so Switzer played the area successful." An official mix-up on the extra point attempt may have caused the Tigers a missed extra point. "Officials can make mistakes, it's all part of the game," commented the Tiger coach. "The good teams will overcome the mistakes, which we did."

Sacred Heart received the second half kickoff but kicked the ball back to Windthorst. The Trojans moved the ball to the Tiger's 15-yard line and with 5:40 on the clock connected a 25-yard field goal to make the score 6-3.

Sacred Heart threw an interception on their next series of plays, but with some outstanding defense from Endres, Switzer and R. Hess, the Tigers regained possession going into the final quarter at midfield. Sacred Heart worked over two and a half minutes off the clock before the Trojans took over on downs.

Windthorst made their move two plays later on a 63-yard touchdown pass to Russell Zotz. "Windthorst's usual pass play run is down-out-down," said Coach Nasche, "they beat us deep on a pass with 1:02 remaining in the game.

The Tigers then worked the clock and took their first season win 13-9.

"I was very impressed with the enthusiasm, our conditioning and the boys' desire not to give up," said the Tiger coach. "Our offense is getting better, including our passing, with our receivers and quarterback making the connection."

Nasche notes defensive standouts in Chris Hess, Gary Hess, Jason Endres, and Bill Parks. He was most pleased with the improvements of the "HOGS," the Tigers' offensive line, including

Sacred Heart travels to Collinsville Friday for their next contest. The Pirates are 1-1, defeating Bryson 8-6 and losing to Celeste last week. Collinsville runs an unbalanced line with 4-4 defense. "It will be a close, physical ballgame. Mistakes will pick the winner," Nasche commented. Game time is 8:00. (Game statistics submitted by Alvin Hartman)

Jr Hi Hornets scrimmage S&S

Last Thursday night, the Muenster Jr. High Hornets made their 1990 debut in a scrimmage against the S&S Rams. The Hornets suited up 22 eager 7th and 8th grade youngsters.

The Hornets began the scrimmage on defense, giving up 2 touchdowns in the first 15 plays. Coach Tim Ratliff commented, "S&S was bigger and faster than us, but that is no excuse for allowing them to score. We need to get a lot better defensively."

Muenster also had a tough time on offense. The Hornets were unable to mount any kind of a drive against the Rams. After the first teams were finished, the second string got a chance to play. "I was real proud of our younger players, many of them playing football for the first time and are having to learn a lot of things in a short time," said Coach Ratliff.

MUENSTER HORNET OFFENSE starts as one man with the handoff by quarterback Mike Gobble (12). One of the S&S faithful along the sideline commented that he hadn't seen such an explosive and coordinated start off the line, as a team, in quite a while! Dave Fette Photo

LHS grabs 2nd win

The Lindsay Knights, behind a smashing running attack, defeated the Chico Dragons 34-14 Friday to boost the Knights' season record 2-0. The offense gained a total of 223 yards rushing and 159 yards passing with the defense causing four fumbles and grabbing two interceptions.

The Knights' first score was set up when Patrick Schully caused a fumble on the opening kick off. Jeff Parsons recovered the ball on the Dragon's 20-yard line. Four plays later quarterback Scott Hermes scored on an 8-yard keeper. His PAT kick was good and Lindsay took an early 7-0 lead.

Chico started their first drive on their 24-yard line, getting in seven plays before Patrick Corcoran popped the ball loose for David Parson to recover. This set Lindsay's second scoring drive. Beginning on their own 34-yard line, a 30-yard Hermes pass to Chris Hanks highlighted Lindsay's drive to the 1-yard line. The next play saw Jesse Barnes in for six points. Hermes kicked the extra point and the Knights increased their lead to 14-0.

Chico again attempted to drive the ball in their favor, only to have Corey Sandmann pick off a pass and return it 14 yards into Dragon territory.

Two big plays put more points on the board for Lindsay. Hermes hit Corcoran for a 19-yard pass then Ronnie Dieter hit pay dirt on a 26-yard run. Again Hermes booted the PAT and Lindsay took a commanding 21-0 lead.

Chico fumbled once more the first half when Patrick Schully knocked the ball into the possession of Fred Hughes on the Knight's 44-yard line.

A couple of key plays, including a 20-yard pass to Corey Sandmann and a 13-yard run by Dieter got Lindsay 9 yards from the endzone. Hermes attempted a 27-yard field goal, but the ball traveled too wide left and the Dragons took over on their own 20.

Chico marched 80 yards in 10 plays scoring on a 2-yard run. The extra point counted and Chico was on the board 21-7.

Lindsay shut down another Chico threat when Marty Neu intercepted a pass to end the half.

In the third quarter a Knight fumble set up the Dragon's second score on the Lindsay 25-yard line. It took one play to score, the PAT was good and Chico closed the gap 21-14.

Outstanding defense forced both teams to give up possession of the ball, with the Knights sitting on their own 26-yard line and 6:58 on the clock. On third and 18, Hermes hit Hanks for a 74-yard pass play. Hermes again booted the extra point, dampening Chico's defensive effort with a 28-14 score.

David Parson recovered another fumble, but no score resulted from the turnover.

The Knights increased their lead with a minute left in the game. It took Lindsay four plays, by Marty Neu and Jeff Hermes, with J. Hermes running 50-yards for a score. S. Hermes' PAT failed and the Knights had a 35-14 victory.

"We got a lot of playing from Chico," said Lindsay Coach Pat Benton. "They played hard, never gave up and put a scare into us. They hit hard and fought well."

Ronnie Dieter led his team with 67 yards on 9 carries. He saw action only the first half after receiving a hard hit, reinjuring his cracked ribs. Dieter will probably miss two games. Jeff Hermes added 57 yards on only three attempts, with Marty Neu gaining 38, Jesse Barnes 29, Scott Hermes 24 and Fred Hughes rushing for 8 yards. "Our opponents don't know who we give the ball to," said Benton. "We've let them all run a little bit."

Scott Hermes threw 15 passes, completing 6 for 159 yards. The Knights' top receiver was Chris Hanks, catching two passes for a total of 104 yards. Patrick Corcoran caught two for 30 yards with Corey Sandmann and Travis Huchton connecting for 20 and 5 yards. "We didn't have as many completions, but we gained a lot of yards," said the coach. "We dropped a few, but Scott's throwing good, he needs better protection."

Lindsay's defense held the Dragons to 121 yards rushing and 56 yards in the air.

Lindsay earned 14 first downs to Chico's 13 and each team punted five times, averaging 34 and 35 yards. Turnovers killed the majority of the Dragons' drives, and set up three of the Knight's touchdowns.

David Parsons and Corey Sandmann led the Knights' defensive tackles, assisted by Fred Hughes, Patrick Corcoran, Patrick Schully and Travis Huchton.

The victory was Coach Benton's first win at home with the Knights.

Lindsay will host Whitewright Friday, Sept. 21 for a 8:00 p.m. contest. It will also be parents' night. Parents are asked to be at the field by 7:30 for the pre-game activity. "Whitewright is a better than average size team with a lot of quickness," said Coach Benton. "They have lots of quickness, big on the line and will be the toughest club we played this season."

Whitewright, a 2A school, is 0-2 for the year. (Game statistics submitted by Bridgette Anderle)

A COMPLETED CHICO PASS was knocked from the receiver by Patrick Corcoran (89), then recovered by David Parsons (60) for the Knights. Also pictured is Corey Sandmann and Marty Neu (7).

Contest boasts 56 entries

The second week's football contest showed much improvement as contestants bettered their averages. Three entrants correctly guessed 19 games, with the tie-breaker determining the winner. Tim Ratliff placed first, with an eleven point difference on the Muenster vs. S&S game. Mark Grewing took home second, missing the tie-breaker by 16 points, while Ron Dangelmayr settled for third with a 21 point miss.

Missing only five games were Barbie Barnhill, John Bartush, Mark Fuhrmann, Steve Fuhrmann, Henry Kessler and Mike Pagel. Twelve contestants guessed 17 correct.

Three chose Muenster to lose, with Jason Biffle and Tony Fuhrmann correctly picking the 28-0 score. Only three missed

Saint Jo's loss to Prosper, because they forgot to pick a winner on the entry page. Three also wrongly picked the give-away game, Houston's 51-35 Thursday night victory. Everyone picked A&M to win while nine made the wrong choice on the Lindsay match.

The most missed game was Era's victory over Archer City, 41 failed to pick Era, while 40 wrongly picked Alabama over Florida. Others highly incorrect were Sacred Heart's win over Windthorst, Indianapolis' loss to New England and Tulane's victory over SMU.

Of the 56 entries, the Cowboys still have ten loyal fans.

This week's local winners picked up their cash awards at the Muenster Pharmacy, tie-breaker of the week.

Lindsay juniors win three!

The seventh, eighth and junior varsity squads traveled to Chico last Thursday night and brought home three victories. The junior high teams shut out the little monsters 24-0 and 14-0.

Seventh grade quarterback Garrett Hellingner scored one touchdown, while Josh Hale went in for 12 points. Extra points were made by Henry Jones and Chris Escobedo, to make the score 24-0.

Eighth graders Chris Brown and Will Thomson scored 6 points each for their team. A pass to George Lutkenhaus made the extra point for the 14-0 victory.

The junior varsity came from behind, driving 70 yards to score with one minute remaining in the game. Donnie Cox and Jason Benton made the touchdowns to give the Knights a 12-10 win.

The junior high teams travel to Whitewright Thursday, Sept. 20 for 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. contests. Junior varsity will play Sacred Heart, Thursday, Sept. 20 at Muenster. The game is scheduled to begin at 7:00.

Shooters invited to join sporting clays fun shoot

Marksmen are challenged to display their skills at a Sporting Clays Fun Shoot on Sunday, Sept. 30, from 12:30 to 5 p.m. The Red River Valley Chapter of Ducks Unlimited is sponsoring the shoot which will be held in a pasture one mile south of Gainesville on Old Denton Road.

Entry fee is $20 per shooter. A $5 fee will be charged per station to reshoot and better your overall score. There will be 50 targets, five stations with 10 targets per station. Shooting clays will simulate darting rabbits, passing dove, flushed quail and ducks setting into decoys.

The top prize is an O/U shotgun. A variety of prizes will be given away and anyone can win. Up to eight tokens per shooter will be awarded according to number of hits with 0-10 receiving one token and 46-50 hits receiving eight tokens. Prizes will be awarded based on a random drawing of tokens to prove the theory that "it is better to be lucky than good."

Also there will be a special award presented to the shooter with the highest overall score for the following categories: Top Gun, men; Top Gun, women; and Top Gun, greenwings (17 years of age or younger).

For further information, contact Phil Bellows, 665-0581, or Mark Gregory, 665-2461.

Ducks Unlimited is a non-profit organization to help protect and increase the population of wild ducks and geese in North America.

Cubs win opener 18 - 8

The Sacred Heart Cubs won their first game of the season, defeating Windthorst 18-8 last Thursday night on the Trojan field.

"I was real pleased with the boys' effort," said Coach Danny Walterscheid. "Especially considering we were a lot smaller and still won."

Quarterback Jason Hess made a 6-yard touchdown run with Trent Trubenbach going in for two distant touchdowns on the pitch from Hess. The coaches were pleased with their offensive line of Toby Hess, Mike and Joel Schilling, Heath Bayer and Jacob Luke.

"They opened holes real well making the job easier for the backs," said Coach Walterscheid. Neil Berres was also noted for playing a good offensive match.

The coaches were also pleased with their defense for only allowing one touchdown for the limited amount of practice. Playing defense were John Bartush, Paul Swirczynski, Jacob McCoy, Trent Trubenbach, Jason Hess, Neil Berres, Joseph McCoy, Heath Bayer, Mike Schilling, John Klement and Brandon Naylor.

Coach John Nasche added his enthusiasm toward the young team which consists of only three eighth graders.

The junior high will host Collinsville this Thursday, Sept. 20. The game begins at 6:00. A junior varsity match with Lindsay will follow.

Muenster JV shuts out S & S Ram JV 40-0

The Junior Varsity Hornets, behind a strong running attack, whipped the S&S Rams Thursday night 40-0. "All 14 guys played a tremendous game on both sides," said Coach Brian Strother. "It was a lot of fun to win 40-0."

The Hornets' outstanding rusher was Jay Hennigan, who gained 140 yards, made 3 touchdowns and 2 extra points. Johnny Moster ran for 50 yards and 2 extra points; Rodney Vogel 45 yards; Chad Cheaney 40 yards and Darren Bindel 35 yards and 3 touchdowns for a team total of 310 yards rushing. Quarterback A.J. Knabe threw the ball for 150 yards, which included 2 touchdowns.

Muenster's offense highlighted the show, running a normal game with the run and shoot offense. "We looked like the Houston Cougars," said Coach Strother.

The first score was a 30-yard pass from A.J. Knabe to Darren Bindel, the extra point failed. Later, Bindel scored on a 5-yard run. Again, the PAT failed, giving the Hornets a 12-0 lead in the first quarter.

To start the second period, Jay Hennigan scampered 47 yards to score. The extra point attempt failed. With less than 2 minutes remaining in the first half, Jimmy Fisher covered an on-side kick. Muenster worked the clock, then, with 6 seconds left on the clock, Knabe threw a pass to Bindel that covered 42 yards. Jay Hennigan ran in for the extra point and Muenster led 26-0 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Hennigan scored on a 3-yard run. The extra point play was unsuccessful. The final score came in the fourth quarter when Hennigan scored his third touchdown on a 33-yard run. Johnny Moster completed a pass from Knabe, making the score 40-0.

"The offensive line blocked great, they drove their men off the line of scrimmage," said Strother, naming Jon Fleitman, Justin Hartman, Harvey Hubbard, Jimmy Fisher, Charlie Luttmner and Brian Knabe as doing an outstanding job.

County Agent's Report by Craig Rosenbaum

Insurance is still available for small grain crops

Planting time for wheat, oats and barley is rapidly approaching, and the deadline for obtaining Multiple Peril Crop Insurance for these small grain crops is September 30.

Multiple Peril Crop Insurance is a proven alternative for dealing with crop damage risks. It provides a financial buffer that enables producers to continue farming next year if a major crop loss occurs. Small grains in the County in recent years have been hit with floods, freezes, drought and rust.

Texas farmers have until September 30 to insure small grains against losses from these calamities and others including hail, wind and insects. Growers cannot change their insurance plans after the deadline.

Insurance coverage levels and costs of premiums are determined primarily by a combination of yield guarantee and price election. Dr. Ashley Lovell, Extension Economist, offers the following explanation of coverage.

A farmer must choose a yield guarantee of 50, 65 or 75 percent of past production history. Essentially all 1991 price elections have been changed for wheat, barley and oats. The low and medium-price election for each crop are, respectively: $2.40 and $2.85 per bushel; $1.40 and $1.65 per bushel; and $1.15 and $1.25 per bushel. For the first time, the high price election for each of these crops is market-price determined and should be known in the near future.

For example, the market-based price (MP) election for wheat is equal to 90 percent of the simple average of the daily settlement prices for the succeeding July wheat futures contract traded on the Chicago Board of Trade in August 1990, preceding the September 30 closing date. In case the wheat market during that period is weak, the market-based election will be less than the medium-price election at $2.85 per bushel.

Interested small grain producers should contact a local firm that offers Multiple Peril Crop Insurance to obtain complete details for insuring the 1991 small grain crop.

With respect to the status of crop insurance as of mid-August, full funding of 1990 crop coverage exists. Only growers of 1991 winter wheat with a September 30 or earlier sign-up deadline are safe. The crops such as peaches where insurance attaches later this fall are not currently insurable.

Approximately 95 percent of current crop production capacity next year will not be covered. Why? Because crop insurance is being squeezed by proponents for program reform, House Appropriations, and budget negotiations. Observers expect that crop insurance will be addressed in the House-Senate conference of the Farm Bill in September.

Growers interested in the status and future availability of MPCI should contact their farm organization and Congressional representatives.

A hard red winter wheat performance

Each year we get many questions as to what is the best wheat variety to plant. It would probably be easier to identify the varieties that would not work well, more so than those that perform well. One tool that producers have in selecting wheat variety is to look at their performance over an extended period of time.

Recently I was at College Station and visited with Dr. Travis Miller, Extension Agronomist in charge of wheat and other small grains for Texas. Travis had worked up a summary of hard red winter wheat varieties relative to check varieties in the Texas Blacklands. This work is the result of some 20 locations throughout our area. This would encompass an area roughly from Cook to Hill County and east through Hunt County. The following summary shows the percent increase or decrease over a number check variety along with the number of test plots the varieties were located in. An example of the chart using Mit wheat would show that in 1986 Mit wheat was at 11 locations and produced 110 percent of the average or check varieties. In 1987 the Mit variety was at 5 locations and produced 76 percent of the average or check variety. This was primarily due to the Mit variety being an earlier maturing variety and the late freeze that caused its reduction.

One item that producers should look at in analyzing the accompanying chart is the consistency of a variety to produce. Some varieties started out in 1986 producing well and over the subsequent years have declined in their yield potential. Producers have many excellent varieties to choose from. We need to look at consistency, disease pressure, forage production, and any other factors in choosing a variety. Don't put all your eggs in one basket, incorporate 3 or 4 varieties of wheat in your growing plans for the coming year.

Pioneer Valley dispute may resolve

by Elaine Schad

A precedent-setting move by the federal government could resolve a 10-year dispute among three government agencies and Pioneer Valley over who is responsible for a soil conservation dam in Cooke County.

Representatives of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District told Cooke County commissioners this week that their agency has been given permission to de-commission and relinquish their responsibilities over Site 18 on the Elm Fork of the Trinity River, also known as the Pioneer Valley dam, because the structure is no longer effective as a flood-water retarding structure.

Commissioners voted this week to relinquish all claim to the property when paperwork is completed, and stated their intent to turn the dam over to the Pioneer Valley Association if an agreement can be reached.

If an agreement with the association fails, commissioners stated their preference would be to turn it over to the corps, quit claim it to the individual property owners, or abandon the site, in that order.

"We've been working on this since 1982, and this appears to be the easiest way to get out of it for all of us," said Clyde Hale, director of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District. "The Pioneer Valley people will be expected to carry out and operate the dam with respect to state water laws, but they will be able to control their own destiny."

Regulations require that federal projects may only be turned over to other public agencies, said Hale. This agreement gives the soil conservation service, for the first time in history, the option to turn the property over to a private entity, either the Pioneer Valley Association or the property owners themselves, or to corps. "This is an original," said Hale. "This is what we've been waiting for," he said. "It's been a real headache, and Pioneer Valley had ended up being victims and fall guys."

The Soil Conservation Service built some 30 dams in Cooke County during the 1950s and 1960s as flood control structures for the Elm Fork Subwatershed project. The Upper Elm-Red district and Cooke County agreed to maintain the sites in a Feb. 17, 1960 maintenance agreement.

When construction began on the 29,000-acre Ray Roberts Lake in southeastern Cooke County, a dispute ensued over who would be responsible for maintenance of the dam, especially since the new lake's water would probably back up to the dam.

About 100 homes and lots were inundated during May flooding at Pioneer Valley, a community of about 700 residents located in Cooke County about eight miles east of Valley View along FM 922. While water levels have risen on several occasions in recent years, county and Pioneer Valley officials claim the main problem in May was Ray Roberts Lake, which filled to capacity for the first time, backing up against the tow of the dam so that the water could not release through the Pioneer Valley spillway. Most of the lots remained flooded for almost two months, as flood waters slowly receded from Ray Roberts into the Trinity River downstream, officials said.

Cooke County had claimed that the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers owned the land underneath the dam and were therefore liable for the flood damage. Corps officials claimed they could not proceed with anything concerning Pioneer Valley unless they had permission from Cooke County and the soil conservation service. "I got to the point, where we simply could not negotiate," said Cooke County Commissioner Kenneth Alexander. "The corps forced us into this action."

Cooke County commissioners in August approved quit claim deeds and granted easements to the corps for six of seven soil conservation dams that lie within the flood plain of Ray Roberts Lake. That left Pioneer Valley as the only dam still in dispute.

The corps will wait for final action on the de-commissioning and the determination of who will have ultimate responsibility for the dam, said Sally Werst, public information officer for the corps. "If there is a corps role later on down the road, then we'll comment at that time," she said.

If the association were to gain control of the dam, residents hope they could proceed with lowering the Pioneer Valley spillway by about eight feet, a move which would virtually solve all their flooding problems, said Bob Webb, director of the Pioneer Valley Association.

Webb said the Pioneer Valley Association is eagerly looking forward to working out an agreement with the conservation service. "These past 10 years have been very difficult," he said. "We're closer than we've ever been."

MGA elects new officers

The Muenster Golf Association kicked off a new year Sunday, Sept. 16, with the annual Club Championship Tournament. The championship, held at Nocona Municipal, drew a nice crowd of 50 golfers who teed off between 7:45 and 9:30. Later, at the park in Muenster, winners were announced as follows: club champion, Cal Wells (72) and Dot Endres (82); 2nd place, Lucille Hesse (85) and Larry Wimmer (73); 3rd place, Kenny Hartman and Mike Hesse with 74s and Della Hellman (85). In the handicap division (where everyone has the same chance of winning), the ladies' winners were: Bertha Hamric, 86/62; Beutie Ellis, 87/64; and Carol Klement, 93/69. Men's handicap winners were: Mike Hesse, 74/64; Sonny Fore, 81/66; and Kim Walterscheid, 79/66; and Roy Monday, 91/66. Closest to the pin honors went to Lucille Hesse and Bud Graham, while longest drive honors were taken by Tom Flusche and Margie Wimmer.

New officers for 1990-91 were elected at the barbecue dinner that afternoon at the park. Brian Herr, tournament director for the past two years, succeeded Dan Hamric as president. Tournament Directors will be Shirley Grewing, Kim Walterscheid, Della Hellman and Doyle Hess. Dot Endres is the outgoing director.

Brian is urging as many members as possible to remember the monthly tournament held on the first Sunday of each month. Dues are $5.00 per year, with one dollar earmarked for the hole-in-one club and the rest is for expenses as they arise. Bank balances are $301.00 in the hole-in-one account and $1650 in the general account. Dan Hamric moved that the general account money be saved, if possible, till Muenster has its own, operating course. Motion passed unanimously.

Football managers: New tradition?

by Jason Beyer
Submitted by Journalism Department of Sacred Heart High School

Over the years it has been a "man's position" to be manager of a football team. This year at Sacred Heart High School it is different. For the first time ever, the Sacred Heart Tigers have two girl managers Sharon Fuhrmann and Robin Greathouse. When asked, Sharon said "It's the next best thing to actually playing the game. None of the guys have given us any flack about being managers."

In an interview with Robin, she said "I hope that we will start a tradition that will continue in years to come. I enjoy the work and am always happy to help whenever I am needed."

In an interview with Bill Park, a varsity football player, he gave his ideas about the girl managers, "It's really awesome. Most of the guys on the team do not mind the girls being there. It really helps out Coach and helps us out as well."

Coach John Nasche said "The girls are really a big help to our team. I really appreciate the time and effort they have put into everything they do and for putting up with any trouble the players may give them."

Good Luck to Robin and Sharon! Maybe this will start a tradition for girls at Sacred Heart High School.
