Rest Home Sets Formal Opening Sunday 2 to 6 p.m.

Well, the election strain is over, and there's a certain degree of comfort in getting back to normal every day living in spite of the disappointment that goes with seeing one's favorite candidate clobbered. We must admit, however, that the disappointment was not quite as sharp as it might have been. So many signs for so many weeks indicated what the outcome would be. There has been plenty of reason to condition one's self to the news that was practically inevitable.

The outlook in this case was mostly a hope for a miracle. Several weeks ago this column stated that it would take a miracle to overcome the tremendous odds which were stacked up in LBJ's favor. A person can't bank on miracles, but even so, it's human nature to stick with his convictions and hope for the seemingly impossible.

The figures show that Goldwater's defeat was one of the worst ever in the history of this country. The records also show that the combination of forces stacked against him was also one of the toughest ever faced by a political candidate.

The tough grind started back in the race for GOP nomination when all the other hopefuls ganged up in a big alliance to get rid of him. In their all out effort they created unfavorable images which became pre-established handicaps for his campaign.

And then, after the decision was made in San Francisco, liberals of the party added to his troubles by refusing to give their support. It was a shabby deal, especially in view of the fact that conservatives of the party had never failed to support liberal candidates who won the nomination. All the liberal powers backing the eastern kingmakers continued to clamor for his defeat.

That was already a lot of opposition, but only the beginning. As anyone knows, candidates normally get plenty of trouble from the opposition party and its supporters. In this case the GOP hopeful found himself facing the most powerful party machine of the nation's history, helped by millions of people receiving federal pay and federal hand-outs, the labor bosses, the racial organizations, even the communist party, and a lot of foreign propagandists sticking their noses into our affairs. And to top it all, most of the big newspapers, along with radio and TV networks, endorsed Johnson editorially and often favored him in their presentation of news.

Considering all those odds, one must admit that Goldwater could not have won without a miracle, also that the outcome was as good as anyone could expect, perhaps even better.

By our electoral method the election was truly a landslide for LBJ. But the real measure of a candidate's popularity and the public's acceptance of his principles is the popular vote. By that standard we find that almost 39 per cent of the

Muenster, Alvord Will Meet Friday In Cellar Battle

Muenster's Hornets are still having troubles. This week they will take on the other cellar team of the district, which should be at least a fair opportunity for them to rack up their first district win, but that's just when they are feeling the season's worst blow from injuries.

Coach James Polk says the boys put up a gallant fight against the league leading Panthers last week, but they got considerably battered in the process. Tommy Flusche, Eddie Hellman and Tommy Tugle have been hurting all week and are not expected to be ready for action. Some others are still nursing less serious injuries and expect to be in the game.

Alvord's team, says Polk, is light but scrappy and the Hornets will have plenty of competition. He's confident nevertheless that they will break their long losing streak and get away from that bottom rating on the 9-B conference list. As of now Muenster and Alvord are sharing that position. Next to the bottom is Callisburg, with a 1-3 rating.

Other standings are Saint Jo 4-0, Sanger 3-1, Chico 3-1, Valley View 3-1, Era 2-2.

VFW Auxiliary to Conduct Memorial Rite November 11

Muenster VFW Auxiliary members will conduct a memorial service at Sacred Heart Cemetery next Wednesday, Nov. 11, in observance of Veterans' Day. Ceremonies at the graves of service men will consist of placing a wreath on the memorial marker and recitation of prayers. The time is 10 a.m. and the service is brief. The public is invited to attend.

Auxiliary members planned the service at their November meeting Monday night.

Other business consisted of honor roll fulfillment; collection of ten per cent of members' dues and a contribution from the treasury for cancer research.

The organization formed a finance committee to help raise funds and Mrs. Arthur Bayer and Mrs. W. M. DeBorde volunteered as chairmen. First suggestion from the floor to boost the treasury was accepted. It's selling home made baked goods to the local dress factory employees on the first Friday of each month with 15 members baking each time. Fifteen volunteered for Friday Nov. 6.

Mrs. John Mosely, president, conducted the meeting. After adjournment Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid and Mrs. Ray Walterscheid served refreshments and Mrs. Joe Hoenig drew the attendance prize. Twenty-five members were present.

Interior walls and ceilings are textured finished in beige and drapes are eggshell colored. Floors are tan asphalt tile. Halls are wide and, in the patients area have hand rails at both sides.

The front entrance leads to a spacious lounge with piano and TV, and chairs, tables, etc. for reading and writing. Farther down the hall and to the left is the main office and still farther is the nurse's station facing a light panel connected with signal buttons in all patient rooms.

To the right of the lounge a double door leads to the dining room, and just beyond that is the roomy modern kitchen. Meals prepared there will observe the diets prescribed for patients by their doctors, if special diets are recommended. The meals will be placed on trays in the kitchen and served to patients in the dining room.

According to Mrs. Cain, the rest home expects to admit its first patient Monday, and indications are that about ten plan to come within the first two weeks.

The starting staff assisting the Cains will consist of the following workers. Mrs. Charlene Dern, Mrs. Barbara Riley of Whitesboro, Mrs. Otis Cook of Forestburg, Mrs. J. F. Harrison of Saint Jo, and Mmes. Myrtle English, Isabelle Fette and George Mollenkopf Sr.

3.25 Inch Rain

Tuesday night's rain, which started about 6 o'clock and soaked voters for an hour before the polls closed, measured 2.70 inches and brought very welcome help to the farmers of this community. Though not suffering, fields and pastures were beginning to show that their last moisture came slightly more than a month ago. Rainfall in October was only .01 inch.

More Rain

Wednesday night's all night drizzle boosted the moisture measure by .55 inch.

That makes a total of 3.25 inches for the month and 33.94 inches for the year.

$490 Donated for Cemetery Fund

This year's All Saints Day collection for the Sacred Heart cemetery fund netted $490.51 and will probably reach $500 by the time all the money is in. The amount reported was given at the collection by Garden Club members at Sacred Heart church last Sunday. Normally other donations are also received by mail from former residents having family members in the cemetery.

Collections are held twice a year, the other on or near Memorial Day. And the money is used for watering, mowing, trimming and replacements.

Public Invited to See Flower Show

Members of Saint Jo Garden Club extend a general invitation to the public to attend their annual Chrysanthemum Show next Tuesday, Nov. 10, in the new Baptist Church annex. Hours are from 1 to 8 p.m.

Parish Conducts Three Day Drive For Old Clothing

Muenster's annual Thanksgiving clothing drive for the world's needy will be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 10-12. Those dates were set Sunday night by the St. Anne's Society, sponsors of the drive for Sacred Heart Parish.

As in previous years this will be a quickie campaign. The collection depot will be the vacant building formerly occupied by Fisher's Market on Main Street. Use of the building is through courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Trachta.

Heading the committee in charge of sorting and packing are Mrs. Leo Henschel, Mrs. Ted Gremming and Mrs. Alphonse Hoenig. All members who can spare time are urged to help with the enormous task of readying the clothes for shipment. Husbands are invited to be present to rope and wire cartons and sacks.

Everyone is urged to cooperate by bringing contributions on the designated days. They also are urged to have clothing clean and mended. Time does not permit a staff of sewers and menders.

"Operation Clothes Closet" this year will be the sixteenth annual drive for the Holy Family's storeroom. The campaign is accepting all-weather clothing, shoes, bedding and old linens suitable for hospital bandages.

County UF Drive Reaches $44,195

A report this week from Joel Street, United Fund campaign chairman of Cooke County, reveals that $44,194.98 has been contributed so far in the current UF drive. The goal has not been reached, he says, but contributions are still being accepted.

The goal originally set was $48,500, and the present total is slightly more than 90 per cent of that.

Street also mentioned that $1951.95 has been contributed by Muenster, an increase of $287.95 over last year, for which he extends the thanks and congratulations of the county organization.

Former Students Invited to Dinner

Sacred Heart Alumni Association announced this week that all former students are welcome to attend the homecoming dinner Nov. 14.

Previous arrangements were to limit dinner attendance to graduates. A revision of plans, because other students desire to attend, was necessary and those plans have been made. Each former student is permitted one guest. Tickets are a dollar each.

The dinner committee emphasized the importance of needing to know how many will attend. Reservations must be made not later than Sunday, Nov. 8. Telephone numbers to call are 759-4146 or 759-4437.

Graduates received cards to return advising whether they will be at the dinner. These cards also must be in the hands of the committee by Sunday.

Jimmy Jones and his orchestra from Wichita Falls will play for the homecoming dance in the Parish Hall after the football game and the public is invited to the dance.

Local Boys See Texas Boys Choir

Twenty four seventh and eighth grade boys of Sacred Heart School, members of the boys' choir, were in Fort Worth Monday afternoon attending a rehearsal of Texas Boys Choir.

Their purpose was to see and hear a practice session of the nationally famous group, which has also toured in Europe. The boys, ranging 8 to 15 years old, are directed by George Bragg, who extended an invitation to Tony Luke for the Sacred Heart boys.

Other adults there were Sisters Julia and Richard, Father Alcuin Kubis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hess and Mmes. Urban Endres, L. B. Bruns and W. J. Miller.

A cynic is a man who knows the price of everything and the value of nothing.

Mrs. Joe Tischler, Former Resident Dies at Celina

A former Muenster resident, Mrs. Joe Tischler of Celina, died there Thursday, Oct. 29, 9:15 a.m. after a lengthy illness. She would have been 80 years old on Nov. 1.

Funeral services for her were held Friday in Pilot Point where she lived as a girl after coming to Texas from Watertown, S.D., and where she was married to Mr. Tischler on Oct. 17, 1907. They farmed there before moving to Muenster.

Father James Gillespie, pastor, officiated at the requiem mass in St. Thomas Church at 9:30 a.m. and conducted graveside rites in St. Thomas Cemetery. Rosary was recited Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Beck Funeral Home which was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Tischler was the former Miss Clara Julia Denigar. She was born Nov. 1, 1884, and was 14 years old when she went to Pilot Point.

She is survived by her husband; one son Charlie J. Tischler of Pilot Point; three daughters, Mrs. Al Yosten of Muenster, Mrs. Homer Savage of Garland, and Mrs. Justin Jezek of Celina and four grandchildren. Also surviving are a sister in California and a brother in Idaho.

Outlook Better As Tigers Tackle Dallas Christian

The situation looks somewhat better for the Sacred Heart Tigers this week. As Coach Adam Wolf figures it, Dallas Christian is not as potent as Fort Worth Christian, and the Tigers will be in better condition than last week.

Danny Hoenig will be missing from the lineup for the second consecutive week and Larry Hess will be back but on limited service status. And Ray Wimmer is slightly better off than last week when he got in for part of the game.

And a new player has joined the Tigers. Stephen Kralick moved here from Crowell last week with his family, the Dr. Martin Kralickes, and promptly started working with the Tigers. He's a former member of the Crowell High team.

Figuring all the angles, Coach Wolf feels that the odds favor the other team, but not nearly as one sided as last week. It ought to be a good game, and, with a few breaks, the Tigers can come home with a win.

Crippled Tigers Blasted 41-20 by Cowtown Team

As expected, the Tigers encountered a lot of power when they took on Fort Worth Christian's Cardinals last Friday night. And to make matters worse the Tigers were badly handicapped by illness and injury. They were lucky to settle for a 41-20 loss. It could have been much worse but the Cards were considerate and turned more than half the game over to their reserves.

Two of Sacred Heart's boys, Danny Hoenig and Larry Hess were not able to get into the game and Ray Wimmer, after being out of practice all week, was not up to par. That meant serious weakening in three positions, and it hurt.

The Cardinals started their scoring spree in the first play after kickoff, an 88 yard run by Robinson. Later in the first quarter they scored again on a 70 yard sprint. The count was 12-0 as the first period ended.

Recovery of a Tiger fumble on the 25 set up the next opportunity. Two plays, for 15 and 10, followed by a kick for extra point made it 19-0. Fourth TD resulted from a 60 yard run.

Firemen Sponsor Dystrophy Drive

Muenster firemen this year are cooperating with the annual muscular dystrophy drive by sponsoring collections in the business houses.

They have received a supply of the little collection banks identified for the nation wide muscular dystrophy drive, and will have them located in thirty places by the end of this week. The banks will be out until December 1.

Muenster Voters Favor Goldwater By Strong Count

Muenster voters did not go along with the county, the state or the nation in Tuesday's general election. Whereas Johnson beat Goldwater by a ratio of about 61 to 39, the figures here were almost as much in the other direction. Actual count in the two boxes was 474 to 343.

Three other voting boxes of the county joined Muenster's two in favoring the GOP candidate. They were the two boxes of Lindsay, with combined counts giving Goldwater a lead of 181 to 124, and Ward 1 of Gainesville, with 480 to 390 for Goldwater.

In another race also Muenster did not agree with the state or county. It favored Bush over Yarborough. Like the county and state, however, it gave Bush stronger support than Goldwater. Combined counts of the local boxes were 503 to 313. Five other boxes joined Muenster in supporting Bush. They were the two Lindsay boxes, Wards 1 and 5 of Gainesville, and Woodbine.

The rest of the ticket went Democratic by decisive counts. And the only county race on the ticket also went Democratic by a big margin in the local boxes as it did in the county. Mrs. Jo Hillis led James Whaley 557 to 266 here.

The election turnout did not set a new record for Muenster but it came close — within 30 of the all time high, 887, in this year's Democratic primary. The south box listed 189 voters and the north box 658. In the south box there were 163 poll taxes and 6 under age exemptions, indicating a strong turnout of over age voters. Though figures were not available it was believed that in the north box, too, the votes exceeded the number of poll taxes.

Voting for the principal offices was as follows in the two Muenster boxes.

	S	N
Johnson-Humphrey	79	264
Goldwater-Miller	110	364
Yarborough	71	242
Bush	118	385
Pool	92	340
Hays	95	280
Purcell	99	390
Conness	88	254
Cochran	122	444
Crichton	61	175
Hillis	114	443
Whaley	70	196

County totals in these races were as follows: Johnson led Goldwater 4083 - 3118, Yarborough led Bush 3708 - 3490, Pool led Hays 4540 - 2521, Purcell led Core 4838 - 2416, Connally led Crichton 5163 - 1859, Hillis led Whaley 5016 - 2169.

Garden Club Has Bid to Luncheon

Gainesville Garden Club, hosting the District 2 convention next week, has invited Muenster Garden Club members to a luncheon and lecture next Thursday, Nov. 12, in the Community Center. Tickets for the two events are five dollars and must be secured in advance. Mrs. Edwin Liedtke is ticket chairman. Deadline is Friday.

The luncheon at 12:30 will be followed by the illustrated lecture at 1:45. Mrs. Roland L. Fifer of Louisville, Ky. will demonstrate Christmas arrangements.

District 2 officers and affiliated members have been invited to a conducted tour of Colonial Acres Farm on Wednesday, Nov. 11, with Mrs. Ernest Medders as hostess from 2 to 5 p.m.

ENVIRONMENT OF FREEDOM

The magazine Tax Digest has this to say: "Today, the American system of health care is universally recognized as the finest in the world in all respects."

"This progress did not just happen. It was brought about by the constant work and effort of individual physicians and the medical profession, aided by contributions from allied sciences and health professions working together in an environment of freedom." That "environment of freedom" is what we must rigorously maintain if we are to be assured of the medical progress that all of us want and expect. And it is that environment which is threatened by proposals, such as Medicare, which would give the federal government a dominant voice in various aspects of health care and medical practice. It is true that Medicare, as currently proposed, would apply only to people drawing social security benefits. But there is small doubt that, if it is ever adopted, it will simply be the wedge that opens the way to government-paid, government-directed medicine for other groups. And the end of that road is socialized medicine, on something like the British model.

To deal with the purely practical aspect, it is clear that the medical problems of the elderly — and the rest of us, too, for that matter — have been greatly exaggerated. The spectacular growth of voluntary health insurance plans proves that. The indigent and near-indigent are served by a wide range of welfare activities, including the Kerr-Mills law which offers a joint federal-state program for providing medical care to the aged who cannot pay for it. And the medical profession is pledged to serve all who are in need of attention, regardless of the ability to pay.

Political medicine would be the worst kind of medicine.

HOW TO ELIMINATE POVERTY

The much-dramatized "war on poverty" program has undoubtedly given many the idea that government alone can erase the black spots in the economy.

But, whatever the government does or does not do, that idea should be scotched. For if poverty is to be outlawed and depressed areas brought back to health, private enterprise must play and be encouraged to play a major role.

For example, the vast Appalachian region is one of those areas, the basic reason being the decline in coal consumption and employment. A short time ago, a power system* made up of investor-owned utilities broke ground for a $53.5 million power station in West Virginia. This is part of a $350 million new construction program the system will complete by 1970 in its region. By that year, its plants will burn 9 million tons of coal annually.

All in all, investor-owned utilities in Appalachia plan to spend over $2 billion on plants and equipment by 1970. And those plants, along with others outside the region, will use some 28 million tons of Appalachian coal.

Thus, thousands upon thousands of new jobs will be created within and without the coal industry. Vast sums will flow into the Appalachian economy to the benefit of businesses of every kind and size. And taxing bodies will welcome big new sources of tax revenue.

Programs such as this are the answer to those who have been led to believe that government must solve or attempt to solve every problem we face at an ultimate cost that no one can now foresee. The way to progress, whether in the depressed areas or elsewhere, lies in making the greatest possible use of private enterprise in all its infinite variety.

*Allegheny Power System
 According to the findings of a survey released by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, businesses paid an average of $1,431 for fringe benefits for each employee in 1963. The benefits covered are of two types: (1) payments for vacations, holidays, sick leave and rest periods which are part of payroll, and (2) employer payments for social security and unemployment compensation taxes, workman's compensation, employee pension and insurance premiums, and the like which are outside of payroll.

A REAL MARE'S NEST

The sitdown and protests by angry white parents in New York City over forced transfers of their children brings up an interesting facet of the so-called civil rights bill.

Some of the mothers complain their children are being discriminated against because they are white. Logically, the parents point out they are being transported miles from home because the Board of Education insists upon a mixture of races in the schools.

The New York situation is admittedly a difficult one. But it makes little sense to transport children miles from home to achieve integration.

Schools were built in certain areas to serve these areas. In addition, transportation raises the school costs and endangers the children by enforced travel, some not supervised properly.

The claim by white parents in New York shows what a mare's nest the Supreme Court has raised by its civil rights interpretations.

There is no question that in cases like New York City white children are, in a sense, being discriminated against because they are white. What will the Supreme Court do when this issue reaches the high podium?

WE LIMIT OURSELVES

Every time we get to thinking about how hard it is to get started up the ladder to success in any profession, we remember a young negro man we saw on a talent show on television some time ago.

This young man convinced us that most of the obstacles to success are figments of our own imagination.

He was a guitar soloist who came from a poor family, and didn't get much education.

He managed to get access some way to some Les Paul multiple recordings. These are the records where Les records a guitar number, then plays his guitar along with the first recording to add other parts.

This young man didn't know that these records were a compilation of several recordings. He thought Paul was playing all the parts at one time.

Of course Les Paul, or any guitarist, would know that this would be impossible.

But this young negro didn't know it — so he did it.

Most things in this life that are impossible, are impossible only because we know they are.

Subiaco Students Home for Visits

Eight of Muenster's students at Subiaco Academy had a five-day vacation at home, making the trip on the school bus which carried students to Gainesville and then took other students to Dallas and Fort Worth. Father Harold was chauffeur. The school recesses after exams and does not give Thanksgiving holidays.

Parents met their sons at Gainesville last Wednesday and took them back to board the bus again Sunday. The local group included Paul Hoedebeck, Mike Felderhoff, Tommy Hess, Glenn Trachta, Ricky Endres, Pat Hennigan Jr., Mike Stoffels and John Riggs, and the latter's guest Farris Stewart whose home is in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Also in the group were Eddie and Don Schad and Norbert Fuhrmann of Lindsay who vacationed with their families and James Jennings of Wichita Falls. His mother met him here and brought him back. Father Paul Hoedebeck returned with the group after being here about a week at his mother's bedside.

Two Couples Host Party for Doctor

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid were hosts Sunday night in the Fisher home for an informal get-acquainted party honoring Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke who moved to Muenster last week. Attending were the newcomers' neighbors and friends of the hosts. Refreshments were served to about 30 guests.

The pecan is the State Tree of Texas.

Officers Elected By Senior Class

Muenster High School seniors have organized their class, elected officers, selected flower and colors and named class favorites.

Tom Swirczynski is president, Rita Trubebach is vice president, Linda Whitt is secretary, Joyce Rumley is treasurer, Peggy Branch is reporter and Roy Hartman is sergeant at arms. Named as class favorites are Tom Flusche and Rita Trubebach. The group chose the rose as class flower and blue and white as class colors.

Birthday Reunion Fetes Mrs. Koesler

Birthday of Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr., was celebrated with a family reunion and covered dish supper Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Koesler.

The family presented a joint gift and Mrs. Tony Hermes of Lindsay baked and decorated the birthday cake for her mother.

About 25 attended the party. They were Messrs. and Mmes. Norbert and Tony Koesler and J. D. Caplinger, Alfons Koesler Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hermes and members of their families.

Susan Endres Is Birthday Honoree

Susan Marie Endres celebrated her tenth birthday Sunday with an afternoon party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Endres Jr. Her mother was hostess assisted by the honoree's sister Rachel.

Twelve guests including Susan's sister Sally, enjoyed outdoor games, gifts and party refreshments including a decorated birthday cake.

Aborigines of southern Mexico used blowpipes as weapons while the Indians of northern Mexico used bow and arrows.

Two Share Honors Of Joint Birthday

There were two honorees at a dinner party Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schumacher at Gainesville. The event observed the birthday of Mrs. Schumacher's mother, Mrs. Ted Gremminger of Muenster and Mrs. Gremminger's granddaughter, Mary Kay Gremminger of Garland. It was Mary Kay's tenth. Both have Oct. 30 birthdays.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Gremminger and the rest of their family, Wayne, Robert and Brenda. Both of the honored ones received gifts.

School Carnivals Principal Events Marking Halloween

Halloween in Muenster this year was minus the trick-or-treat crowds. The youngsters were having their fun and excitement at school carnivals. Cooperating with a request from the pastors and the city council both schools had carnivals Saturday night as an alternative to trick-or-treat street wandering.

Costume contests were among highlights of the evening. In Sacred Heart School's costume parade there were three divisions with three prizes in each. Judges were Mmes. Lambert Bezner of Gainesville, Weldon Bezner of Lindsay and Jay Pybas of Sivells Bend.

Winners in the pre-school and primary division were Bobby Endres as Frankenstein, first. Tied for second were two groups: Ray, Damian and Cheryl Luke as Wizard of Oz characters and Julia and Janet Bayer as Mr. and Mrs. Scarecrow. Curtis Klement was third as a tired tramp.

In the Intermediate division: first, Yvonne Gehrig as an Indian; second, Steve Sicking as a hobo; third, Mary Lou Kralicke as a Japanese maiden. In junior high, boys rated first and second awards dressed as girls. Robin Wimmer was first and Gary Gieb second. Cynthia Bindel made up as a spy was third.

Parents and family members joined in the carnival attractions and were the audience for the costume contest which was held on the stage. All events were in the Parish Hall.

A cake walk, a white elephant sale and ping pong and basketball throw were popular attractions for the youngsters along with the usual spook features. The carnival was a benefit for the grade school.

In the Public School's costume contest there were three divisions including one for adults and prizes went to the best masculine and feminine entry in each. The kiddies wore Halloween costumes and winners were Susan Sloan as a witch and Randy Williams as a puppy dog.

In the high school and adult divisions the attire was pioneer costumes in keeping with Muenster's diamond jubilee year.

Student winners were Carol Mosman and Joe Hartman. Adult winners were Mrs. Leonard Owen and Carl King. Judges were Muenster pioneers Joe Fisher Sr., John B. Klement and Tony Trubebach Sr. The costumes took them back 75 years for reminiscing.

In addition to carnival attractions supervised by the various classes as class benefits, the sophomores staged a one-act comedy as their contribution to the evening's entertainment. It was called "Father Says No" and was applauded by a large audience.

Community Party Planned Nov. 10 as Hospital Benefit

A community Stanley party as a benefit for Muenster Memorial Hospital is scheduled for Tuesday night, Nov. 10, to start after novena services. It will be held in the Parish Hall.

Mrs. Walter Grewing is general chairman and party hostess for the Hospital Auxiliary. There will be no admission charge. There will be a charge to play favorite table games for which winners will receive prizes. Refreshments will be served.

Available for purchase will be a complete line of Stanley products including special items for Christmas and all-occasion gifting.

The Hospital Auxiliary is inviting everyone to attend.

Gwen Fleitman Is Birthday Honoree

Tenth birthday of Gwen Fleitman was celebrated with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fleitman, Saturday afternoon with her mother as hostess assisted by Peggy Branch in directing games and serving refreshments.

Eight girl friends were guests, bringing gifts, and receiving Halloween surprise packages as party favors.

Refreshments were birthday cake, home made ice cream, chips and Cokes. Present were Jeannine Owen, Phyllis Cain, Becky Davidson, Brenda Wallace, Alice Haverkamp, Joan Monday, Kim Reiter and Kathy Selby. They all stayed until time for the Halloween Carnival and went to the Public School for that event together.

Mrs. Henry Schniederjan of Dallas spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Carra Pagel.

Garden Club Will Have Meet Monday

Muenster Civic League and Garden Club members will have their November meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in the home of Mrs. Joe Galloway with Mrs. Ted Gremminger as co-hostess.

Mrs. John Mosman will present the program on "A Study of Fruits and Leaves of Plants."

Kin from 8 States At Services for Mrs. C. S. Martin

Relatives from eight states were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders last week, all of them staying at Colonial Manor from two to five days. They came for the funeral of Mrs. Medders' sister, Mrs. C. S. Martin.

Those in the family group were the four brothers: S. D. Smiddy of Williamsburg, Ky., C. D. Smiddy of Kansas City, Mo., J. C. Smiddy of Wise, Va., and Robert Smiddy of Decatur, Ga.

Other relatives present were the Medders' children, Frank Medders of Lebanon, Tenn., Cathy Medders of Dallas, Gene Riggs of Knoxville, Tenn., and John Riggs of Subiaco, Ark. The latter's schoolmate Farris Stewart was with him. He's from Alabama.

Niece and nephews present were Jack Smiddy and Dr. Bill Rose of Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brewer of Matawan, N. J.

Friends present were Father Hyacinth of Memphis, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thorpe, Florence Smith and Jimmy DeLoache of Dallas.

Johnny Walterscheid is back in Muenster after being away since last May making the harvest and seeing the world from Oklahoma where he started to Canada where the tour ended.

Argentina Couple Guests of Medders To See Red Angus

Visitors from Buenos Aires, Argentina, were in Muenster last week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders.

The couple from South America, Mr. and Mrs. Abdon Lizaso Bilbao, are interested in Red Angus cattle. They have 4200 head of Red Angus on their farm and are touring the United States looking at top Red Angus herds for purchases to improve their herd.

At Colonial Acres Farm they were greatly impressed by the Medders' Red Angus cattle and reserved the first bull calf from the herd sire. They'll be back in April to see about their animal.

The South American couple learned about Muenster's Colonial Acres Farm when they were at a sale near Jacksboro a week earlier. Farm Manager Bill Oliver met them there.

The Bilbaos invited the Medders family to visit their ranch. They run between nine and ten thousand head of cattle on 42,000 acres of grass. From Muenster the couple went to Wyoming.

Muenster visitor Wednesday was Mrs. John Fette's niece, Sister M. Laudesia, O.S.F., of Milwaukee, Wis. She was enroute to Batesville, Ark., to appear on the program of Arkansas Music Teachers Association Annual Convention Nov. 6. Sister is professor of voice, chorus, and conducting at Alverno College in Milwaukee. Mrs. Ben Seyler and Mrs. Fette took her around town for sight-seeing and for pop calls with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rohmer have named their new daughter Christi Ann. She was baptized Sunday afternoon by Father Bruno Fuhrmann. Her big brother and sister, Donny and Linda Rohmer, were there to be godparents and other family members attended. Afterward the Rohmer home was the scene of a christening supper.

Birthday supper Sunday honored Sandra Kay Insel in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Insel at Gainesville, in observance of her 16th birthday. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kathman were special guests.

Weekending with Mrs. Andy Hofbauer were her children and granddaughters from Dallas, Larry and Jeannine Hofbauer and Mrs. Don Glover and Christy and Cathy. They all attended the memorial services Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman have quit the farm and moved to town. They made the change to their new home in the city Monday. After the farm home undergoes a face lifting it will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hess.

THANKS

My family joins me in this expression of thanks for kind remembrances while I was hospitalized. The get-well cards, visits, prayers for recovery, and other thoughtful deeds are appreciated. Special thanks to the Rev. Fathers for their visits. —Joe Vogel.

We would like to express our appreciation for the beautiful flowers, the many expressions of sympathy, the food, the help, and every other thoughtful deed at the loss of our father. —The children of H. E. King.

The comforting expressions of sympathy and the thoughtfulness of neighbors and friends in our sad loss will always be remembered. We are grateful for the spiritual bouquets, the flowers, food and many other kind deeds. Special thanks to Father Taaffe, Fisher, Walbe, Neu, Wilson and Gajda. —The family of W. J. Neu.

Hornets

those tries gained only 2 but on the last Boyd connected with Arledge across the line. Statistically the Hornets made a fine showing mostly because of their passing, which was their best by far this season. They completed 9 out of 25 for total gains of 166. And their pass defense was good too. They got three of the 13 Panther passes whereas the Panthers themselves actually completed 2 and got credit for two more on interference rulings. In total yardage on ground and aerial play the Panthers led 282 to 245.

After the second kickoff, the one following Saint Jo's return for TD, the two teams spent the first quarter in a deadlock. Muenster made a first down and kicked to end the next series. Saint Jo made two first downs and fell a yard short on the third series. Muenster also made two first downs and failed on the third series. Then Saint Jo lost possession on an interception, Muenster lost on a fumble, Saint Jo lost on a fumble.

That put Muenster on the Panther 46. Two tries gained 3. Then Wimmer took Swirczynski's pass near the left sideline and squirmed and fought to the 5 before he was pulled down. It was first and goal from that point. First play Swirczynski bootlegged for 4. Next two gained as many feet and a quarterback sneak went over on the last play of the series. A run for extra points failed.

The Panthers retaliated promptly with a power drive that went 62 yards in ten plays. Lovett scored from the 9 and went over again for bonus points about midway in the second quarter. Shortly later the Panthers were threatening again but Hornet defense was equal to the job and the Panthers, on the 11, were a yard short for the series.

Next series Muenster went to the 37 on a fourth down gamble, gained 10 more on pass interference ruling and lost on an interception. Next series the Panthers lost yardage. And Wimmer gained 13 as the half ended.

Starting the second half Saint Jo blocked the kick ending Muenster's first series. It bounced back over the goal line and Dale Klement, the kicker, won the race back to the ball. The play cost Muenster 2 points whereas it could have been 6.

Kicking off from the 20 Muenster tried an on-side kick and won the gamble but lost the ball on a fumble two plays later.

After that until near the end of the quarter Saint Jo made 1 first down and Muenster 3. Then Saint Jo started a 60 yard scoring drive that was kept alive by a pass interference ruling netting the Panthers a 23 yard gain and set up on the 100. Lovett scored from there on the next play.

For the rest of the game the teams again played on fairly even terms until that last minute when the Panthers put over their last TD with only 12 seconds left on the clock.

yard drive in nine plays. And moments after that a 44 yard pass play following a Tiger fumble made the fifth touchdown. Try for points was good making the score 33-0.

At that point Cardinal Rockies went in and the Tigers had a better chance. They moved 70 yards in a nice drive but ran out of time on the 5. After intermission, still facing reserves, Sacred Heart got going again. A nice drive made 67 yards in ten plays and Ray Wimmer made the last 3. A run for extra points was good, making the count 33-8.

On the kickoff that followed Sacred Heart tried an on-side kick and won. They were in possession on the Christian 48. Two plays later Ray Wimmer took a pass from Leon Endres and went all the way. After that the Cards made a nice drive, but Tiger defense prevented the payoff. A short time later, however, the Christians made good. It was a 34 yard gallop about midway in the final period followed by bonus points.

And the final Tiger score came just a few plays later as Willie Wimmer went 43 yards to pay dirt.

In Florida for Bankers' Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher are back from Florida where they attended the American Bankers Association 90th annual convention in Miami Beach and made side trips of their own. They were away eight days, going and returning by jet airliner.

Representing Muenster State Bank, they were among 8,500 persons registered.

In addition to business there was entertainment including a boat cruise to Fort Lauderdale; a ball game, Miami vs Indiana, in the Orange Bowl; sight-seeing tours and banquets and special programs for the ladies including a luncheon and a fashion show.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher located Mrs. Clyde Fisher's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Yates of Midlothian, Ill., and they had breakfast together one morning.

After the convention closed the Fishers drove to Orlando, Fla., to see one of Earl's Navy buddies for the first time since World War II. They also visited at Key West.

One statement that sounds like an old wives' tale is actually a scientific fact. You really can tell the temperature by listening to the chirp of the cricket. Both field and tree crickets vary the speed of their chirps with the temperature. One can estimate the number of chirps per minute, dividing by 4.

Ladies, here's our platform:
Easier cooking 4 ways!

Vote for automatic gas

- 1 GRIDDLE-IN-THE-MIDDLE—For pancakes, bacon, toasted sandwiches... has self-regulating temperature control... converts to extra burner.
- 2 AUTOMATIC-ROTISSERIE—It's smokeless... clean... brings meat to full flavor by holding the juices in... keeps meat moist and tender... done to perfection.
- 3 BURNER-WITH-A-BRAIN—Set it, forget it... makes every pot and pan automatic... controls temperature so food can't scorch, burn or boil over.
- 4 COOK 'N' KEEP OVEN—Just set desired time and temperature... when food is done, automatic oven turns itself down... food stays serving hot for hours without over-cooking.

Hop on the bandwagon, elect a modern automatic gas range for your kitchen (don't wait for a ballot—do it today).

James Endres Is PPK Zone Winner; Attends Banquet
The annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest sponsored by Endres Motor Company produced a zone winner this year. James Endres who competed here in the contest for ten-year olds Oct. 10 was high scorer locally and advanced to competition with zone winners from Denton, Wise, Grayson, Cooke, Fannin and Collin Counties. He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Endres, were guests at a winners' banquet in Dallas Friday night. They ate with the Cowboys. Saturday James competed with other zone winners. His score was good but not good enough to advance to the next contest. The Endreses spent the night with his brother David Endres and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jo Walterscheid and little daughter LaQuita of Price, Utah, divided a weekend visit between their folks, the J. C. Trachtas here and the Amos Wambles at McKinney.

Dr. Hugo Hellman was back in his former hometown Saturday for pop calls with relatives. He had been in Austin representing Marquette University at a meeting at St. Edward's University. He heads the speech department at Marquette. Dr. Hellman stopped in Dallas enroute to Muenster and his nephew Dr. Monte Hellman accompanied him. They tried to see all the relationship.

Mrs. Ray Evans spent most of last week in Dallas at market at the New Apparel Mart purchasing merchandise for the Charm Shop. Going with her was a friend from Oklahoma City, Mrs. Elda Manis, who returned with her to spend the weekend in Muenster. They especially enjoyed the Du Pont show and the many style shows featuring new spring merchandise which will be released to stores before Christmas.

Spending Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Cooke were their son and his wife the Harold Cookes and their grandson and his wife the Don M. Cookes and little daughter Dedie, all of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Needham of Omaha, Neb., left Monday morning after dividing a week end visit in Dallas and Muenster. They visited the Needhams here including Frank Needham at Muenster Hospital.

Sunday visitors sending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Toothaker were her sister and brother-in-law, the Bob Hollands of Grand Prairie. Joining them for the afternoon were Mrs. Toothaker's nieces Mrs. Kib Hundley and Mrs. Tony Tornio and the latter's son Joe all of Denton, and Mr. and Mrs. Reeve Cooke.

Visitors Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Horn made a small reunion of her folks. Guests for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schmitz and children of Dallas, their married daughter Mrs. Roy Young of Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Schmitz and son Mike of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilde and family and father of the Schmitz clan, John Schmitz of Thackerville, Okla.

Miss Ida Rohmer returned to Fort Worth Monday after a weekend visit with her parents, the John Rohmers.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. M. H. King and her father, R. M. Felty, were Mrs. King's aunt Mrs. Ora Felty and cousins Mr. and Mrs. Francis Felty of Burk Burnett. They all visited at Muenster Hospital with Mrs. R. M. Felty of Hood. Mr. Felty stays with his daughter and son-in-law while his wife is hospitalized.

WHITE GLOVE CLEAN... that's ELECTRIC COOKING

Ask any homemaker who cooks the flameless electric way about its advantages and she's sure to mention cleanliness. Because there's no fuel combustion, utensils stay brighter... kitchen walls, ceilings and cabinets stay cleaner.

A modern electric range is dependable and efficient, too. Simple controls and 6-side insulation assure recipe-exact temperature in the oven. Surface elements are in direct contact with pots and pans so heat is even and doesn't "spill out" around the sides.

If you're planning to build a new home... remodel your present home... or maybe needing to replace some antiquated cooking equipment, be sure to look into all the advantages of a flameless electric range.

New Liquor Store Opens at Lindsay

Now open for business and preparing for a big formal opening late next week is the Cut Rate Bottle Shop at Lindsay, just completed by Community Lumber Company. It is at the corner of Highway 82 and the FM road approaching Lindsay from the east.

The new building is the first development in Park View Acres, a 25 acre tract in the northeast part of town. The area as well as the building is owned by Frank Haverkamp, Weldon Bezner, and Bruno, Vincent and Henry Zimmerer. Haverkamp is manager of the liquor store.

The new building, made of Acme baked building tile, measures 50x45 feet and its interior is finished tile and paneling. A special feature is a step down wine cellar with carpeted floor. The rest of the floor is ceramic tile.

Lindsay News

Little Annette Gruber visited in Saint Jo with her aunt and family, the Vincent Forrester, while her mother and baby sister were in Nocona Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hermes and sons Ralph, Francis and Randy were in Muenster Friday night to attend a family gathering honoring her mother, Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr. on her birthday.

Eddie and Don Schad and Norbert Fuhrmann of Subiaco Academy spent the recent holidays with their parents. They returned to Arkansas Sunday after a five-day vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laux were in Fort Worth one day visiting her sister and family, the Willie Romos and her parents the Clarence Owens in whose home the David Owens also were visiting.

Father John Walbe announced to the congregation Sunday that now is the time to gather up clothing, shoes and bedding for the annual Thanksgiving clothing drive for the Holy Father's store rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rohleder of Fort Worth spent the weekend with the Matt Neus and joined them in attending the annual memorial services Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jake Horn of Windthorst, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schmitz of Dallas and John Schmitz of Thackerville were among those at the All Saints Day services and procession Sunday afternoon.

Friendly Blue Birds

Second Grade Blue Birds have organized with Mrs. James Mollenkopf as leader, Mrs. Clyde Muller assistant, and Margaret Ann Lawson as junior assistant. They selected for their name "The Friendly Blue Birds."

At their meeting Oct. 27 they met at the clubhouse and chose buddies for a hike to the park. They sang songs and played games and collected acorns. They'll use the acorns in one of their projects.

Johann Galloway was refreshment hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Joe Galloway.

Queen's Crowning To Precede Game At Lindsay Friday

Annual homecoming and queen crowning are on the calendar at Lindsay for this week Friday when the Knights entertain the Community team. Game time is 7:30.

Homecoming queen will be crowned in ceremonies at 7 o'clock. There are four candidates for the crown. Identity of the queen will be kept secret until crowning time. She will be chosen by the high school student body.

Each class has a candidate. They are Annette Fuhrman, Kathy Streng, Margie Hess and Patsy Zimmerer. Their escorts, in the order named are Leroy Sandmann, Kenny Laux, Ronnie Krebs and Andy Arendt Jr. Crowning honors will be shared by Knight co-captains Ronnie Zimmer and Ronnie Fuhrmann.

St. Anne's Society invites a general attendance at a benefit picnic the organization will sponsor Sunday, Nov. 8. Bazaar features, games, eats and drinks are on the program. This is the community's annual observance of Thanksgiving. The party is scheduled early so as not to conflict with scheduled programs on and closer to Thanksgiving Day.

PT Club Plans for Coming Activity

The Lindsay Parent Teacher Club met Wednesday with Norbert Mages presiding. Financial reports of the open house picnic and Halloween Carnival were given.

It was announced that the PTC-sponsored dance will be held Saturday, Nov. 28, in the KC Hall in Gainesville with music by the Twilights.

The club voted to buy a record player and a table and chairs for the grade school and presented $50 to each of the school libraries.

Committees were appointed to check on purchasing a John F. Kennedy picture for each school, and about a window-covering for the south side of the new school.

A film about Texas Fun-tier was shown.

The Joe Schmidkofers won the door prize.

people favored him — in spite of the tremendous opposition stacked against him. By that standard Barry and his supporters have nothing to be ashamed of. He did a good job.

That's that. The election is over now, and looking to the future this column sincerely hopes for the best in every respect. It hopes that our president, who at various times has preached both the conservative and the liberal philosophies of government, will see his way clear for occasional leanings to the conservative side.

He's a shrewd politician who has used the liberal trend very effectively to reach the top position. In this column's opinion he's also a man of judgement who knows there is a limit to how far we can go in deficit spending, and socialism, and limitation of personal freedom, and accommodation of our enemies. He has the power and the ability to check the shenanigans of pinks and reds in our government. Furthermore he has the assurance that at least 39 per cent of the American public would like to see such changes.
