NUMBER 42

Larry Yosten Is New Manager of NTPA Milk Plant

It has been said that statistics can be found to support practically any statement under the sun, which seems to be substantiated by political polls. President Johnson said that he had polls taken for him and he was pleased with what he found. He also said that a poll influenced him in selecting Humphrey for vice presidential candidate.

This column has just come upon a report that other polls are popping up to support the other side of the political picture. Desired results can be obtained if a person will just go to the right places.

The Panola Watchman of Carthage says that its poll went 85 per cent for Goldwater. Gary, Ind., with lots of Negro and Labor votes was reported at 52.3 per cent for the Arizona senator. Also, the Chicago Times found that a count of the city's steel workers went 46 per cent for Barry, which is quite something, considering the solid support labor bosses have pledged to LBJ. And some really one-sided counts seem to be showing up down south — 8 to 1 in Alabama, 9 to 1 in Mississippi, 50 to 1 in Georgia.

Less spectacular but probably more significant is the opinion of Robert Taft Jr., who says his soundings lead him to think Goldwater is a head of Johnson at this time.

That's how the polls go. No matter what your preference, you can find polls to support it. And the purpose of mentioning it here is obvious. If you have been somewhat discouraged by polls indicating that your man does not have a chance, cheer up. He may be in better condition than you think. Furthermore, an election year privilege is to take stock in the polls that lean your way.

There's sound psychology in getting polls and statements in a candidate's favor. Lots of undecided people wait for the band wagon, eager to cast their votes for the winner. Lots of them also think that the voice of the majority is right, and they wait for the polls to help them make up their minds. So, it's understandable that candidates on both sides are thinking of more than just personal assurances in favorable polls. They are equally interested, probably more so, in the influence those polls will have on undecided voters.

The same applies to endorsements of prominent people. The real value in such statements is the effect they are calculated to have on people who haven't made up their minds.

Realizing those facts, voters have good reason to be cautious of reports and statements, lest they are unwarily led to adopt a stand that they consider as popular rather than one that fits their basic principles. After all, a vote should not be cast on the basis of a popularity report, but on conscientious consideration of issues and qualifications.

On this Labor Day, again, the country heard many speeches on the wonderful things unionism has done for working people — higher pay, shorter hours, better working conditions and fringe benefits, all combining to give the American laborer a higher standard of living than any other on the face of the earth. As usual, however, too little has been said about the free enterprise system which has been equally helpful in bringing our people the good life. Research and mass production financed by industry have provided the means to assist labor in producing the abundance enjoyed by all.

It's an obvious fact that unionism is responsible for much of the advancement that has been made. By sticking together workers have attained benefits that some selfish employers would not have allowed. But it's equally obvious that the union movement in many cases has gone too far. Some union bosses are more autocratic than industrialists ever were. Workers are no less helpless. They are economic slaves, facing the alternative of enduring abuses or going hungry.

That's the element of unionism that needs correcting. Workers need to get back to their original status, where they could organize freely and elect their leaders to represent them at the bargaining table, but still having the means to deal

Tigers Face Tough Test Friday with Saint Jo Panthers

The Sacred Heart Tigers face one of their season's toughest games Friday night as they take on the Saint Jo Panthers, rated as strong contenders for this year's District 9-B title.

Tiger Coach Adam Wolf has lots of respect for the Saint Jo team, estimates it is about as strong as the outfit that clobbered Sacred Heart last year. Despite the fact that the Tigers are stronger too, the Panthers are definite favorites. They lost only four of last year's starters while their returning starters gained in weight and experience. In average weight the two teams are exactly even, 162 pounds, but Saint Jo has the advantage in speed and versatility.

The team's ability was demonstrated in two scrimmage sessions. It bested Gainesville's Red Devils 5 touch downs to 3 and Boyd 2-0. Indications are that Sacred Heart will get to resume its original lineup for the game. Leon Endres has been back on the job as quarterback, the gash on his forehead completely healed. His return allows a few other boys to resume their regular positions, so the whole team is expected to operate more smoothly than it did at Whitesboro last week.

A possible loss to the team is David Hess, a shoulder injury received at Whitesboro kept him out of practice for three days and may keep him on the bench Friday. Otherwise the Tigers are in good condition physically and mentally.

The game will be on Sacred Heart field, starting at 8 o'clock.

Optional Plan for Garbage Disposal Proposed to City

A garbage and trash disposal service to be available on a voluntary basis was proposed and considered at the Muenster City Council's meeting Tuesday night.

Fred Hennigan told the council he is thinking of starting the service and asked whether he could get a franchise. Assured that he can, he said he will conduct a survey to decide whether the project is feasible.

Hennigan proposes to offer the service for $1.75 a month and would pick up garbage, tin cans, bottles, paper, etc. He emphasizes that it will be a strictly voluntary service. Anyone in the city can get it whether or not it is taken by others in the block or neighborhood. He said he will begin his survey immediately to determine whether to continue the venture.

The city council also considered the proposed annexation of an area to the southeast part of town. Urban Endres said it is being subdivided into blocks and streets suitable for development as a residential area. The council agreed to annex as much as it is able to reach with sewer service, which in turn depends on whether another sewer main is built in the area. Much of the area is too low to be served by the existing sewer lines.

W. J. Luke Reveals Intention to Open Accounting Office

A public accounting office to be opened here in the near future was announced this week by W. J. Luke. It will offer complete accounting service, preparation of income tax returns, payroll tax returns, reports to the Oil and Gas Division of the Railroad Commission and routine hearings before the Railroad Commission. Arrangements for the office location are not complete at this time and will be announced at a later date.

Assisting Luke as bookkeeper will be Mrs. Thomas Hesse, who has been associated with him for three years at the Muenster Equipment Company. Assisting as secretary will be Mrs. W. J. Luke, who has had extensive secretarial and financial experience with C&E Railroad, The Oil and Gas Journal, and Petroleum Life Insurance Co.

Garden Club Will Resume Activity At Monday Meeting

Muenster Civic League and Garden Club will re-organize for a new year Monday night when members meet at 8 in the home of Mrs. Arthur Felderhoff with Mrs. R. N. Fette as co-hostess.

The club disbanded annually during the summer and starts the new year with distribution of a new year book. The book was compiled by a committee headed by Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel.

Monday's program will feature a book review by Miss Diane Henzler. Also on the program will be Mrs. Earl Fisher giving a short talk on preparing a compost heap.

In addition to the main program feature each month, one member will present a short talk on a timely subject relating to gardening.

The year's program, as listed in the year book, include Clive Gobble as a guest speaker on proper pruning and Marvin Davenport of Gainesville on landscaping. It includes Christmas ideas, care of Christmas plants, discussions on bulbs, lawn care, peonies, dahlias, and plants that are poisonous. And a film, a flower show and guest day, and a flower arranging demonstration.

The club's horticultural project this year is dahlias. Officers are Mrs. Dick Cain president; Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel, vice president; Mrs. R. N. Fette, secretary; Mrs. Steve Moser, treasurer.

Mike Kleiss Makes Vows at Subiaco

In ceremonies at Subiaco, Ark., Tuesday at the Abbey Church, Mike Kleiss made his simple vows and received his name in religion. He's Frater Xavier.

Going to Subiaco to witness the services were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Kleiss and his sisters Ruth and Mary Ann from here. His brother Gene Kleiss, a student at Subiaco, joined them.

Also there were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sturm and his uncle Joe Kleiss, also of Muenster.

Going especially for the ceremonies also were friends from New Orleans, La., Mr. and Mrs. Francis Berlin and her mother, and two seminarian friends Denver Pentecost and Drew Anderson. The three young men studied together at St. Joseph's Seminary in Louisiana.

Frater Xavier left Subiaco Tuesday night to continue his studies at the Benedictine Seminary in Conception, Mo. Seven others from Subiaco are also there this year. They include Frater Guy Pels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pels and Frater Lucian Gehrig, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gehrig of Muenster.

Hornets, Knights To Open Season Here Saturday

Lots of action and a close score seems to be in sight at the Muenster High field Saturday night when the Hornets take on the Lindsay Knights in the season opener for each team.

The power packed Knights of last year have been weakened somewhat by graduation, but the present team is far from a push-over. That was shown last week as Lindsay and Callisburg tested each other in scrimmage. Coming on the field the Knights looked like kids, but in action they looked a lot bigger. Though they failed to score they got inside the 10 yard line four times, leaving no doubt that that they are able to advance the ball.

Unlike their visitors, the Hornets will be heavier this year than last. While losing four of their former starters they gained 16 pounds in average weight.

They, too, had a scrimmage test last week, with Sadler-Southmayd, which is regarded as one of the top outfits in its district. The Hornets held the Rams to short yardage and no scores while making a touchdown and a few nice runs for themselves. Virgil Swirczynski's pass to Tommy Swirczynski was good for 70 yards and the score. Roy Hartman and Dale Klement got loose for 40 and 30.

A casualty of the practice was Ken Stormer's broken finger, which is expected to keep him out of action for three weeks. All other members of the squad are okay and ready, says Coach Polk.

CORRECTION

Admission prices for 9-B district games were reported incorrectly in the Enterprise last week. Student prices, for both high school and elementary, will be 50 cents a game, not 25 cents as quoted. Adult admission was correctly quoted at $1.00.

At Muenster the charge will apply to all games, so the charges Saturday night will be $1.00 and 50 cents.

Koelzer Kin Dies

Relatives have been advised of the death of Miss Maxalinda Koelzer, 60, in Gary, Indiana Saturday, Sept. 5. Requiem mass and funeral services were held Wednesday in St. Benedict, Kansas. She was a cousin of the Koelzers, Flusches and Hoening and also had friends in Muenster through visits with relatives. She was a registered nurse, was working until a short time before her death.

Tigers Lose 20-12 In Opener with Whitesboro Cats

Three big tough breaks robbed Sacred Heart's Tigers of a win in their season opener even though they had a long lead in yardage and first downs. Whitesboro Bearcats won 20-12, making their three touchdowns on a fumble and two long kick returns while the Tigers ground theirs out on short plays.

The home team's first break came early in the game when it kicked from midfield and the Muenster receiver fumbled at the goal line, and Lauderdale recovered behind the line for the TD. A pass was good for the bonus points and the Cats led 8-0.

Break No. 2 came just a few minutes later. On the second series after kickoff Sacred Heart booted and Miller took it on about the 25. He did a bit of neat side stepping, got loose and sprinted down the left side, just slipping past before the Tiger secondary could corner him. Next attempt for extra point failed.

After next kickoff the Tigers failed on their first series and promptly regained possession on Whitesboro's fumble. That was on the Bearcat 43, where they launched their first scoring drive. It went 23 yards in eight ground plays and a pass to Larry Hess was good for the TD. An attempted run for extra point failed.

Then Whitesboro's next and final score. Case took the kickoff, drifted to the right side and went all the way. The kick was short and the run was good for about 60 yards. (Continued on page 4)

Plans Shaping For United Fund One Day Drive

A whirlwind campaign to complete this year's Cooke County United Fund campaign in a single day is shaping up now as County Chairman Joel Street and directors are organizing workers in all parts of the county.

The big day is Tuesday, September 22 and the goal is $48,500. To make it possible, Street said, workers will have to stay on the job until they have made all their contacts and the public will have to cooperate. He suggested that people try to determine in advance what they will give and have the donation waiting. On "United Fund Day" the county will be divided into nine areas, each of which will send its funds frequently to the central location in the community center building of Gainesville, where totals will be posted as contributions come in.

Workers will gather the night before at Cooke County Junior College for a banquet, pep talk, briefing, etc. Principal attractions at that event are a talk by Pierce Allman, program director of Channel 8 TV, local entertainment, and catering by Jetton's. The charge will be $1.50 per ticket and others besides workers are welcome. Directors decided to make the program pay for itself rather than charge it to the drive's expense.

Another economy feature: They will not have a professional fund raising organization to assist with this year's drive. The amount normally paid for commission remains in the fund this time.

Coordinating with the county effort, Muenster will have an additional meeting, with Steve Moser and Henry Weinzapfel as co-chairmen, at which the workers will decide what contacts they will make. The local work force is being organized now and the local meeting will be a breakfast party at the Center on Monday, Sept. 14, 7 o'clock. Names selected then will be in each worker's packet to be issued at the banquet the following week.

The United Fund budget as set by the directors was announced as follows by Mr. Street.

Campfire Girls	$ 5,500
Circle 10 Boy Scouts	5,000
County Red Cross	9,000
County Council on Alcoholism	300
4-H & FFA	2,000

Diabetic Foundation	6,500
USO	500

HOW TO USE ANTI-POVERTY MONEY

President Johnson has asked all his officials to quickly come up with some kind of a poverty fighting program. He didn't have one when he asked for 955 million dollars to put it into effect.

His aides are running in every direction to get anti-poverty working before voting day, November 3rd.

The amount appropriated amounts to approximately $5.00 for every man, woman, and child. There is a difference of opinion as to whether it be doled out on that basis or to give it only to voters. It would amount to about $8.00 a head for voters only.

We suggest that each voter get a certificate from the election clerk stating that he voted Democratic; present that statement to the nearest Federal Government office, and get his $8.00. This method would be less subtle, but would accomplish the same purpose.

CAMPAIGN FACTORS

Write down Social Security as a campaign factor right along with civil rights, peace and prosperity. This gigantic tax and payments system isn't often thought of as political force, but it is.

The new increase in Social Security benefits, for example, goes into effect before the election. The parallel increase in Social Security taxes to pay for them goes into effect after the election.

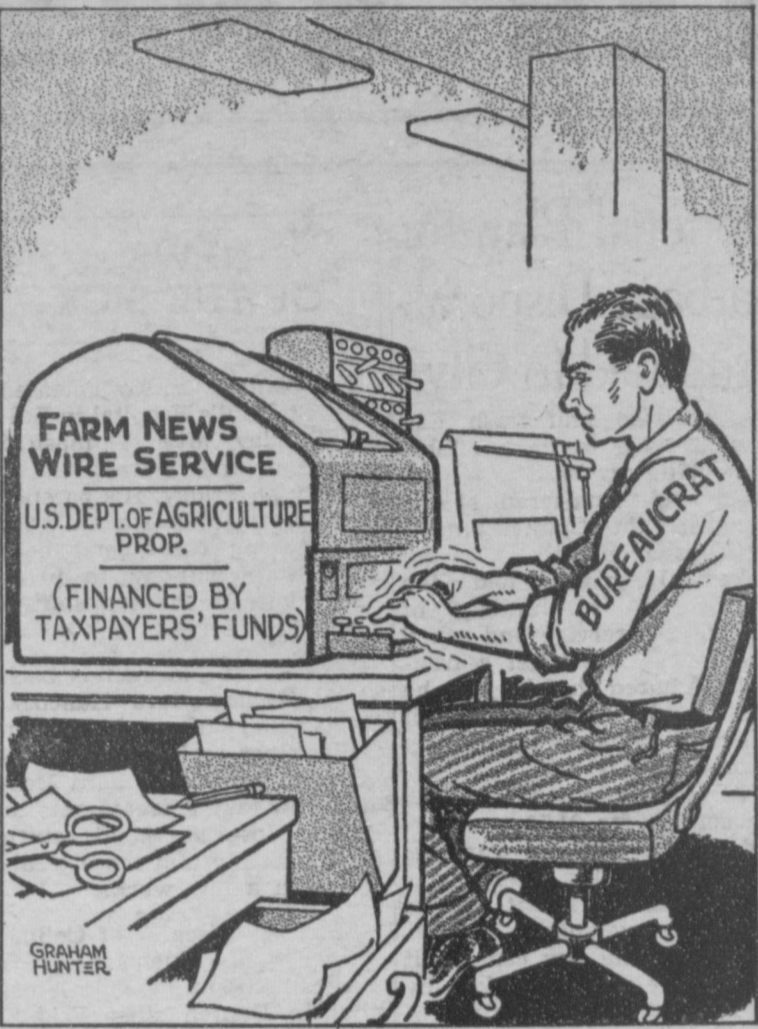

Thus, those who will receive the benefits will realize them before they head for the polling places, while those who must pay for them vote before they see the bill.

There is no question that living costs have advanced since the current benefits were set, but there is no question, either, that there is no surplus rolling in at present rates to cover the increase.

The timing must be thought of as purely political.

NEW TOOL FOR NEWS MANAGEMENT

THEY MAY ALL GET INTO THE ACT

The machinations of the bureaucratic mind being what they are, it is not surprising that a clever tool has been devised to implement news management.

This tool, according to Rep. Findley (R-Ill.), is the "Farm News Wire Service" established by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and operated at taxpayers' expense in competition with privately-owned wire services.

Rep. Findley is in a unique position to underscore the implications of this governmental operation because he is the owner of a weekly newspaper.

After pointing out that the assembly, evaluation, preparation, editing and wire delivery of the information is entirely at government expense and under government control Rep. Findley correctly declared:

"This apparatus is a tempting tool for government news management, and as such poses a serious threat to the press freedom guaranteed by the first amendment of the constitution."

We agree, wholeheartedly, with our fellow editor and publisher, and pose two questions.

If the Department of Agriculture has been able to organize a wire news network, is it not likely that other governmental agencies will follow suit?

Will we soon have a "War News Service" by the Defense Department, a "Business News Service" by the Commerce Department, a "Crime News Service" by the Attorney General's office, and a "Labor News Service" by the Department of Labor?

We believe that the "Farm News Wire Service" should be shut down at once, before things really get out of hand, and further unfair penetration is made into the domain of private enterprise news organizations.

ONE MIRACLE COMING UP?

This could be the year of the political miracle.

Every once in a while in history there occurs a happening which is unforeseen, extremely unlikely, and against which the odds are staggering. This seems to be the situation right now as regards to charges of Barry Goldwater being elected president. There are surely those who are of the opinion that nothing short of a miracle could get Mr. Goldwater into the White House.

This includes those who would like to see the miracle happen, and those who are horribly afraid that there is the barest chance the eventuality could occur.

As for some of the wild statements and hysterical thinking that seems to be quite prevalent these days among diehard Republicans, most of it borders on asininity. The thought that if Barry Goldwater is elected president we will immediately be plunged into a nuclear holocaust is ridiculous. Likewise a real close look at the Arizona Senator's record will reveal that he is far from all of the things he is accused of—both in thought and in deed.

Look for more and more of a change in thinking along these lines between now and election day. And if the miracle happens, don't be too surprised. Besides, the country could use a miracle of this nature.

THEY'RE SMOKING AGAIN

Texans, who showed signs of slowing down on their smoking in February shortly after medical scare reports, are now at it again as heavy as ever.

Tax revenue from cigarette sales, which dropped sharply soon after the federal report on smoking dangers was released, jumped nearly $1,400,000 during March, according to State Treasurer Jesse James.

"It looks like they have gone back to smoking," shrugged James. "At least, there's not any big wholesale quitting."

Comptroller Robert Calvert said it worked out about the way he had figured — smokers would go back to their cigarettes after the first shock of the warnings faded.

Bats are not "blind as bats." As far as naturalists can tell, they have fair day-time vision.

JOHNSON'S PROFESSOR OF BUDGETING

President Johnson's suggestion that trained government workers be used to help low-income families learn more about budgeting and how to "get the most for their money" has been greeted with some hilarity.

As Sen. Byrd has pointed out, the administration which now proposes to tell low income how to spend their money has gone in the hole more than $16 million in the last two years. By the time another year rolls around, the three-year accumulated deficit will total more than $20 billion, and the secretary of the treasury has forecast another deficit year still to follow.

In which case, the federal workers who set out to instruct their fellow Americans in the intricacies of budget-making would have a background of six consecutive deficits, totaling more than $35 billion, in their government housekeeping.

Would the government-trained fiscal missionaries counsel their pupils to reduce their incomes, increase their expenses, and spend themselves into prosperity? That's what might be expected if they follow the Washington fiscal textbook.

Heaven help the bankrupt courts if Uncle Sam ever tries to inflict his own principles of fiscal management upon those Americans who gather 'round paper-strewn kitchen tables to try to make ends meet.

Joan Kupper and Mr. Walterscheid Say Vows at Mass

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of nuptial mass Saturday, Sept. 5, uniting in marriage Miss Joan Kupper and David Walterscheid. Father Aleuin Kubis officiated at the 10:30 a.m. service and performed the double ring ceremony. Father Anthony Gajda of Valley View was in the sanctuary.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kupper of Valley View and Mrs. Alphonse Walterscheid and the late Mr. Walterscheid of Muenster.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of diamond white silk peau de soie touched with re-embroidered French Alencon lace. The Empress Josephine styling featured a high-rise bodice with rounded neckline and long sleeves. The cone-silhouette skirt swept into a semi-pointed train.

Appliques of lace adorned the bodice front and extended in spray design down the front of the skirt. Lace also traced the empire bodice and ornamented the train. A coil of lace held her veil and she carried a yellow-throated orchid and feathered carnations on her prayer book, a gift from the bridegroom.

Bridal Attendants
Mrs. Gerald Walterscheid, sister of the bride, and Miss Frances Walterscheid, sister of the bridegroom, both of Muenster, and Miss Sally Trachier of Arlington were the bride's attendants wearing topaz silk brocade gowns with bell skirts, rounded necklines and elbow length sleeves. Puffed circular veils fell from matching hats of topaz brocade in a hand-rolled rose design. They carried bronze mums.

Gerald Walterscheid was best man and Lambert Walterscheid, a cousin, and Wilmer Walterscheid, a brother were groomsmen. Tommy Kupper of Valley View, brother of the bride, and Weldon Bezner of Lindsay, groom's brother-in-law, ushered.

Sacred Heart men's choir and Anthony Luke, organist, presented the mass music and Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid and Mrs. Rody Klement sang a duet, "Heart of Jesus," before mass. Mrs. Walterscheid sang "Mother at Your Feet," after the service when the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli on the Blessed Virgin's altar. Gold glads and bronze mums adorned the altar before which the couple exchanged vows.

Day's Festivities
Wedding day festivities began with a brunch in the home of the groom's grand-aunt, Mrs. John Kathman, for the bridal party and immediate members of both families. Reception started at 5 p.m. in Muenster Parish Hall and Rohmer's Catering Service was in charge of the buffet dinner. Some 300 guests were registered by Mrs. Hank Walterscheid, aunt of the groom, and his sister Miss Florence Walterscheid who presided at the bride's book.

After a wedding dance in the VFW Hall the newlyweds left on their honeymoon not revealing their destination. For traveling the bride wore a silk linen ecru sheath with black patent accessories and the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

They will be at home in Muenster at 603 Elm Street. She was graduated from Valley View High School and St. Paul's School of Nursing in Dallas and attended the University of Dallas. She is a registered nurse on the staff of Muenster Memorial Hospital. He is a graduate of Muenster High School, served his tour of military duty with the Air Force and is employed at National Supply Company in Gainesville.

Out Of Town Guests
Among guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bump and family and Wayne Duke, Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kupper of Kaufman, Mrs. F. J. Wilder, Brownsville, Joyce Hacker of Denton, Patty Schmitz, Leroy Kupper and Ginger Wolf of Dallas, Maurine Evans and Messrs. and Mmes. Donald Pelzel and Bobby Simmel of Polit Point, also relatives and friends from Valley View, Lindsay and Gainesville and friends from Dallas.

Grandmothers of the couple were among guests. They are his grandmother Mrs. Jos. F. Neu who came from Garland and her grandmother, Mrs. John Schilling of Muenster. Additional guests at the dinner were Abbot Michael Lensing and Father Paul Hoedebeck of Subiaco, Ark., They joined the local pastors in going to the hall.

FHA Chapter Has Officer Election At First Meeting

Future Homemakers of America have organized their chapter at Muenster High School and have elected officers for the new term. Thirty-four girls reported for the first meeting.

Heading the chapter as president is Norma Lutkenhaus. Others on the roster are Sandra Cler, vice president; Joyce Rumley, treasurer; Florence Walterscheid, secretary; Rita Trubench, parliamentarian; Debbie Fette, reporter; Margaret Lawson, historian; Debbie Russell and Rose Knabe, song leaders; Linda Owen, pianist.

Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel is chapter adviser. The group set the first Tuesday of every month as meeting day. After adjournment there was a social period with punch and cookies.

Meeting Outlines College Courses In Fine Arts

Outlines for accredited college courses in the fine arts brought an enthusiastic response Thursday night as near 60 people attended an impromptu special board meeting for Activity House, Inc. Cooke County Junior College President John Parker and Dean of Instruction John Sheppard emphasized to the group the interesting new areas of adult education that would be available to the entire community. These areas would include basic oil painting, freehand drawing, creative design, music appreciation, sculpting, pottery, ceramics, creative writing and dramatics.

"The need for adult education today is tremendous," said Parker, "for if you have been out of college 10 years, you are now obsolete. In this rapidly developing 20th century the average person will have to re-educate himself three times as his job changes or becomes obsolete."

Parker also remarked on the opportunities this program would offer to senior citizens, giving them a chance to develop new and often profitable interests. Enrollment for the courses will be September 10 and 11, at the college. Late enrollments will be accepted until September 29. Fees average $20.00 for a three-hour course. Since these classes are special interest groups, the student would be able to meet and select the time for their session, providing instruction is available for that time.

Vogel Home Scene Of Get-Togethers

Leaving Muenster Monday to return to Little Rock after a week's visit were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Keys — she's the former Corina Vogel — who were guests of her parents, the Joe Vogels. Other family members coming and going to see the visitors were Lillian and Virginia Vogel of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hess and son Brian of Dallas, and the Clifford Ottos and Lina Michael and Susan of Gainesville.

Most of them also went to Sherman to visit their sister, Mrs. Robert Beyer of Lindsay, who was a surgical patient at Wilson N. Jones Hospital last week.

Donnie Vogel also joined the family group. He came in from Avery, Idaho, where he worked during the summer, and is getting ready to go to Texas A&M University.

Names of Vacation Ranch, Restaurant Are Made Official

While architects go ahead with plans for the Medders' vacation center at Saint Jo, the names "Four Trails Inn" and "Colonial Acres Vacation Ranch" have been officially registered in Austin as trademarks for the big project.

Architects and engineers working on the golf course, the restaurant and the motel complex have assured the owners that the vacation ranch will be ready for operation by June of 1965.

A total of 120 permanent employees will be at work when the guest ranch opens, spokesmen for the Medders said.

Work on the mammoth project now entails minute planning of every detail including a home for the Medders. Interior decorating staff has planned several features in Western motif and work is going smoothly, according to Carl Webb, project coordinator.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herr of Pilot Point visited Sunday with his sisters Lena, Lizzie and Katie and told some of the highlights of their summer trip to California. They visited her sister and went sight-seeing . . . put 4000 miles on the car speedometer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Otto and Elaine visited over the weekend with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hoffman in Lubbock. They left Friday night, returned Sunday night.

Holidaying with relatives over the weekend and Labor Day were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fahey of San Antonio, guests of her sister and family, the Al Schmitts here and her father, Ben Otto at Gainesville. Sunday evening the relationship got together at the Otto home so all would have an opportunity to visit with the San Antonians.

SH Drill Team Is Ready to Perform At Football Games

Sacred Heart High has added new and different half-time entertainment for football fans at the games this season. Spectators will see a drill team in new uniforms.

The girls worked all summer to perfect their drills. There's a variety of the acts to last all through the football season.

Captains of the drill team are Marilyn Walterscheid, Janie Hess and Alma Herr.

The Pep Squad will also have its special numbers. Squadron leaders are Rachel Endres, Eileen Hesse and Gloria Haverkamp. Cheer leaders are Blondie Fleitman, LaVerne Otto, Angie Hess, Barbara Schmitt and Debbie Fette.

Newlyweds Return. Leave for Lubbock

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Dolphy Joe Hellman returned Sunday from their honeymoon to Colorado and Nevada and spent until Thursday getting their things together and packed to move to Lubbock where they will be at home while he finishes his senior year at Texas Tech. His grandmother Mrs. G. H. Hellman had the going-away dinner for them at noon. The menu was her grandson's favorite: chicken and dumplings, home made bread and home made ice cream.

Sister Francesca, writing from Hollister, Calif., tells her parents, the August Walterscheids, that she is settled for the school term at Sacred Heart Convent, 670 College St., in that city.

Tigers - - -

For the rest of the half Sacred Heart ground out its second TD in a determined 64 yard drive. Seventeen plays were used and Ray Wimmer made the final two yards on a quarterback sneak.

A Tiger fumble early in the third quarter was followed by a good play that went all the way. Miller took a screen pass and raced 69 yards for a well earned TD but was deprived of it by the over enthusiasm of a teammate. A clipping penalty at the 27 set the ball back to the 42.

The Cats failed on the next series, the Tigers fumbled on theirs and regained possession on an interception. Three downs then gained 35 to the 20 and the next series gained only 1 yard.

Three plays later Sacred Heart got back into business on a Bearcat fumble. Three more plays and Whitesboro intercepted, followed by another fumble on the very next play. So the Tigers had their third change at a score, this time from the 17. And again it fizzled. Whitesboro took over on the 26 and moved back to the 38 during the remaining time of about a minute.

FARM SHOP WELDING PROGRAM. . . Instructor and Saturday morning farm shop students at Cooke County Junior College review welding program.

Farm Shop Class Meets Saturdays At County College

A course in Farm Shop is in the curriculum at Cooke County Junior College for the 1964 fall semester. The class will meet three hours each Saturday morning in the Industrial Arts Building with instruction offered in welding and wood-working.

In welding, the fundamental principles of forging, oxyacetylene and arc welding, and sheet metal soldering will be taught.

Students may take this course for credit or non-credit and concentrate on either welding or woodworking, or both.

The course is designed for students who are majoring in agriculture and, also, for local and regional farmers who would be interested in learning practical aspects of the farm shop. Practical problems will be stressed.

The course will be taught by Fred Young, instructor of Industrial Arts at CCJC, who has had many years of experience in general metals, machine practice, welding, and woodworking. Mr. Young has taught for a number of years in the Cooke County area.

It is hoped that farmers of the surrounding area will take advantage of this course to learn skills that would be useful to them in their work.

Registration for the 1964 fall semester will be conducted Thursday, September 10 and Friday, September 11, in the College gym. Both day and evening registration periods will be conducted. Registration will be conducted Saturday morning, September 12 for the Farm Shop course, also.

Over 5 Million Cars Await New Safety Stickers

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today that the time has arrived for Texas motorists to have their vehicles inspected again.

Garrison said September 1 marked the beginning of the 1965 vehicle inspection period as prescribed by the Public Safety Commission. As in previous years, the period will end on April 15, 1965.

"This means that between now and April 15, 1965, more than 5,200,000 Texas registered vehicles will have to be inspected at the 5,200 official inspection stations in Texas," he said.

Garrison urged motorists to have their vehicles inspected in the routine visits to garages for ordinary maintenance and repairs and thereby eliminate the necessity of having to wait in line at a later date for an inspection sticker. He further pointed out that with the ever increasing number of vehicles registered in Texas, it is becoming ever more difficult for the motorist to get an inspection sticker without some delay.

"With the hard summer driving coming to an end, fall is an excellent time to have vehicles safety checked for the winter months ahead," Garrison said.

In announcing the new inspection period, the Public Safety Director pointed out that vehicle inspection in Texas has apparently been a valuable tool in reducing traffic accidents due to vehicle defects. When compulsory vehicle inspection began in 1951, 19 per cent of all vehicles involved in fatal accidents had a defect that contributed to the accident, while in 1963, that percentage had been reduced to 4 per cent. In non-fatal accidents, vehicle defects as a contributing factor were reduced from 20 per cent in 1951 to 5 per cent in 1963.

Waterways Protect Cropland From Excessive Runoff

The picture shows a waterway located on the Arendt Brothers farm three miles southeast of Myra. In September 1962 almost seven inches of rain fell in this area in one night. The picture was taken in mid-November of the same year. There was no damage to the waterway. Several acres of good cropland were saved from severe damage by keeping the excess water on a prepared Bermuda grass waterway.

Many waterways are needed in Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District. A good waterway is often the basis of a good conservation cropping system. In addition to controlling excess water it can be used as pasture or cut for hay.

Bermuda grass hay when handled right is of high quality and is readily eaten by all types of livestock.

Early seedbed preparation is a must for establishing a waterway. The area should not be planted to small grain.

Call or stop by the local Soil Conservation office for help to lay-off and mark the waterway so it will not be planted.

Conservationists remind all cooperators that this is a conservation job that can and should be done now.

In Texas ...

after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Texas... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Draft Dodging Carries Penalty

Noting that an estimated 6,000 to 8,000 18-year-old men have not conformed with the draft regulation law, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Director of Selective Service, issued a reminder that 18-year-olds who wait more than five days after their 18th birthday to register with their local board are subject to penalty.

Maximum penalty for failure to comply with the draft law, Schwartz said, is five years in prison, a $10,000 fine or both.

DO IT BETTER Electrically!

COOK flamelessly!

"Really, Martha, the first time you cook with an electric range you'll wonder why you waited so long to see what it's like!"

This bit of conversation is typical of that you'll hear from the thousands of housewives who have made the change to flameless electric cooking. And, it's easy to understand when you consider that with electric cooking simple controls provide recipe-exact temperatures... top elements are in direct contact with utensils so that very little heat "spills" out into your kitchen... and, with no flame, pots and pans and your entire kitchen stay cleaner.

P.S. to Martha: Before you buy a new range, work up a "Dutch Dinner" evening with a friend or a member of your family who owns an electric range. Try for yourself cooking the flameless electric way. We know you'll like it.

Mrs. Robert Beyer was dismissed from Wilson N. Jones Hospital in Sherman Friday after major surgery a week earlier. She'll be taking it easy for a couple of weeks as she regains her strength.

Rickey Beyer spent a two-week vacation with his parents, the Frank Beyers, and returned to Denton State School last week.

Pat Hermes will leave Sunday to continue study at St. Bernard, Ala., Seminary.

with leaders who got out of line. In their hearts most union members know that is the kind of organization they want — one to which they belong by choice and not compulsion, one in which leaders work for them and not for personal power and wealth.

Something else that seems to be lacking nowadays is the old idea of labor as a dignified occupation in the eyes of God and man. When Labor Day was proclaimed a national holiday, some 80 years ago, labor meant just that instead of a political and economic force. People took pride in the quality of their work, in their reputation of giving an honest day's work for an honest day's pay. Too little of that attitude remains. Too many in and out of unions think more of their pay than the service they render. Work to them is no longer an end in itself, by which worth while things are to be accomplished, but only a way of getting the things they want. Labor Day will have a richer meaning if we'll strive to restore that original attitude.

Miss Hoedebeck Becomes Bride of Clarence Zimmerer

The wedding of Miss Charlotte Hoedebeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoedebeck of Gainesville, former Muenster residents, and Clarence Zimmerer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Zimmerer of Lindsay, was solemnized at 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 5, in St. Mary's Church, Gainesville.

Father Paul Hoedebeck, bride's uncle, came from Subiaco, Ark., to celebrate the nuptial mass and perform the double ring ceremony. Father Thomas Taafee, pastor, was in the sanctuary.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a light pink lace dress over taffeta fashioned with an empire bodice, sabrina neckline and short sleeves. Her brief pink veil was attached to a pink half-hat. She carried a white Cattleya orchid and stephanotis on her prayerbook.

For something old and borrowed she carried a rosary used by Mrs. Kenneth Hoedebeck at her wedding and wore a pearl pendant, also belonging to her sister-in-law. And she had a new penny in her shoe.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Charles Barnes of Gainesville a former classmate of the bride, and Billy Zimmerer of Lindsay, brother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Barnes wore mint green and carried a bouquet of French pink carnations.

Charles Barnes and Willard Kuhn were ushers. Wedding music was presented by Don Owen, organist, and Frank Halliburton, soloist. Twin arrangements of pink gladioli were on the main altar and the bride placed a bouquet of pink carnations and heather leaf on the Blessed Virgin's altar after the mass.

Wedding reception and buffet were in Lindsay Hall where Miss Linda Hoedebeck, bride's cousin of Muenster, registered some 300 guests.

For a honeymoon trip to Colorado the bride wore a two-piece rose silk linen suit with black accessories and the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

When they return they will live north of Lindsay in a new brick home recently completed. He attended Lindsay schools and is employed at National Supply Co. She is a graduate of St. Mary's High School, Gainesville, and was employed as a legal secretary in Gainesville, Denton and Dallas before her marriage.

Relatives Welcome Family Newcomer At Shower Party

The party welcomed the new Mrs. Reiter into the family and got her acquainted with her husband's relatives. Mrs. Andy Arendt entertained in her home at Lindsay for her brother and sister-in-law and Mrs. Clem Reiter helped serve thirty guests.
