BROWNWOOD, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1932

NUMBER 13

Brown County Courthouses

BY Z. R. HAVINS.
Brown county was created by an act of the state Legislature August 27, 1856. However, the county government was not set up until some time during the first half of 1858. An amended act of the legislature in February, 1857, gave the name of Brownwood as the county seat and directed the county judge of Lampasas county to hold an election and institute the county government. The date of the election and the date of the installation of the officers can not be accurately determined because of the destruction of the county records in both Lampasas and Brown counties.

The site chosen for the county seat when the officers were elected was about a mile and a half east of the present courthouse, on land owned by W. W. Chandler. A log courthouse was erected, but for some reason the site was unsatisfactory, and the courthouse was moved to the Connell farm about two miles south. This must have been some time in the summer of 1858, as the postoffice was established August 23, 1858, and the post office department records in Washington have no information with reference to the change from one site to another. Tradition has it that the log building that was erected on the Chandler farm was moved to the second site. There is no way of determining the truth of the statement. That the courthouse remained on the second site until after 1865 we are certain. The Masonic Lodge was established there in 1865, the members of the order having built a second story on the log structure used for the courthouse. Just when the county seat was moved to its present location is also shrouded in uncertainty. Personally I think it was early in 1867. However, this is mere conjecture on my part. We do know that the postoffice was discontinued January 23, 1867, and re-established

March 31, 1868. Thus it would seem that the removal of the townsite from across the Bayou to the present location would have provided the government with a proper cause for discontinuance. On the other hand the office was again discontinued in September 9, 1868, and was not re-established until July 27, 1870. Judge Greenleaf Risk donated the present townsite, and when the courthouse burned in 1880, he gave the county commissioners a substitute deed to the county land in which he speaks of "a former deed of about ten years ago." From this information we might reason that the present site was not acquired until 1870, and the re-establishment of the postoffice in July, 1870, might have been following the removal.

The first courthouse on the present townsite was a log structure located on East Broadway on the corner just south of the Empire Furniture Company's building. This building was in use until 1876 when a stone structure was erected on the present courtyard. This was a two-story building. The first floor was used as a jail with office accommodations for two or three of the county officers. The upper floor was given over to offices and courtroom. This building burned early in 1880, and a new stone building was erected in its place. This new courthouse was of gray sand stone and was one of the most commodious courthouses in all West Texas.

The stone building continued to serve the county until 1917. At that time the present building was erected. The Commissioners' Court erected the new building on a warrant plan, the court resorting to the measure of repairing the old stone structure. Some of the interior walls were left and the brick of the new building was substituted for the stone of the old one in all the outside walls.

BURKS REPORTS ON PROSPECTS ROAD BUILDING

If right of ways for highways from Brown county line to Brady and from the county line to Lampasas are secured the State Highway Department will build the roads, according to a report Secretary Hilton Burks made to Chamber of Commerce directors in luncheon today at noon.

Mr. Burks said he conferred with W. R. Ely, chairman of the Highway Commission, at Abilene last Thursday. Ely is interested in filling the gaps in the road system of this section, Burks said.

Report on a conference with County Judge Rice of Hamilton county regarding destination of a road from Hamilton to Brownwood was also made by Secretary Burks. With the active road committee, headed by F. S. Abney, of the Chamber of Commerce, the highway system in this section of the state should be worked out satisfactorily and work on closing some of the gaps should start soon, Mr. Burks said.

Report of the finance drive showed $6,897 subscribed to date. Some of the committees have not turned in all their cards as yet.

Invited to Lampasas.

A letter inviting a delegation from Brownwood to the Chamber of Commerce banquet at Lampasas on April 7 at 7:30 p. m. was read. The letter was referred to the entertainment committee, J. J. Timmins, chairman, with the understanding that a large delegation from Brownwood will attend.

Letter regarding public expenditures and taxation from the comptroller of West Texas Chamber of Commerce was also read and then referred to the legislative committee. Business men are being asked to write congressmen giving their viewpoints on balancing the nation's budget.

Progress on plans for constructing a laboratory at Federal Penitentiary Station was reported. J. H. McKee is chairman of the committee on the building and is being assisted by James C. Jones.

Two Young Bulls From Brownwood Herd Purchased by Mexico Dairyman

Two fine young Jersey bulls from the Shelton Brothers herd will be shipped to Adelaida, Tampico, Mexico, within a few days, or as soon as necessary papers are prepared.

Francisco Benitez y Leal, who owns a large 400 cow dairy and creamery at Adelaida, Tampico, was here last week, looked over the Shelton herd and bought the two young bulls for his herd in Mexico. His dairy and creamery is one of the largest in Mexico and he was in search of first class bulls, saying he had heard of the fine Brown county cattle and came here to get the kind of stock he wanted.

High bred Brown county cattle have been sold to people in various parts of the country and are known by dairymen for their fine quality.

DEATH CLAIMS AGED CITIZEN ROAD MATTERS ARE DISCUSSED

Mrs. Lydia N. Brandenburg, a resident of Brownwood for 56 years, a highly esteemed citizen here during all of the more than a half a century, having a large number of friends, died at her home at 505 Melwood Tuesday night.

Mrs. Brandenburg was born July 19, 1843, at Fayetteville, Ark. She passed 88 years of age at her death. She was the widow of J. W. Brandenburg, who died here in 1908. Her husband was a well-known carpenter, contractor and business man here, and with Mr. Phil Eskridge operated the first furniture store in Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandenburg were married at Fayetteville, Ark., in 1860, and moved to Brownwood in 1876. To their union the following children were born: Fenn Brandenburg, deceased; Mrs. Sallie Knight, Brownwood; Miss Maud Brandenburg, deceased; Mrs. Hal Hardeman, Coahoma, Texas; Ford Brandenburg, Amarillo.

Mrs. Brandenburg was one of the early members of the First Presbyterian church of Brownwood, continuing a faithful member until her death.

Funeral services were held from the Austin-Morris chapel Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Foster officiating, assisted by Rev. John Power. Active pallbearers were Jesse M. Perry, W. A. Butler, Brooke Smith, Walter U. Early, W. A. Bell and E. J. Miller.

The road committee of the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting at the chamber offices Monday for a general discussion of road matters. Members of the committee are: F. S. Abney, chairman; E. J. Weatherby, H. A. Frain, Roy Morris, Cap Phillips and R. E. Dudley. Mr. Dudley was added to the committee at the Monday meeting.

Secretary Burks of the Chamber of Commerce, who talked with W. R. Ely, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission in Abilene last week, told the committee that Mr. Ely was interested in filling in the gaps in the roads in this section.

Mr. Burks also reported on a visit to Hamilton and Indian Gap. He said that Judge Rice of Hamilton was still very much in favor of the Hamilton and Brownwood road, through Indian Gap and Priddy, and that the business men of Hamilton were also for it.

Commissioner Barker of Hamilton county has under advisement now the opening of the road to the Hamilton line, which would leave only two or three miles to carry it on to Priddy.

The committee heard the news that the completion of the Brazos bridge on Highway 10 at Granbury is soon to be celebrated.

The road situation throughout this section was discussed and encouragement seen in the progress that is being made toward a good highway system.

From Stephenville, the following item regarding work on a section of Highway 10 appeared in some of the state papers Sunday:

"The final drive is on for the rebuilding of Highway 10 through Erath county. Field notes of the survey are coming in. County Judge Scott is ready to call the members of the Commissioners' Court to Stephenville as quickly as everything is in readiness. Deeds are now being written and with the arrival of the field notes land owners will be asked to assign the acreage for the right-of-way."

COMPTROLLER'S AGENT PUSHING COLLECTIONS OF OCCUPATION TAXES

Boyd Rhea of the State Comptroller's office at Austin is in Brownwood in interest of securing payment of occupation taxes due the state. He is rounding up persons who are subject to occupation taxes and having them to pay.

Mr. Shropshire says he hopes to have other parachute jumps at the airport during the summer for the entertainment of the public.

THOROUGH INSPECTION VACANT HOUSES URGED BY INSURANCE BOARD

In a recent letter addressed to all fire insurance agents of Texas, the board of insurance commissioners of the Texas Fire Insurance Department urges agents to make inspections of vacant houses which they have insured and which they will insure in the future.

The department gives figures on the number of vacant dwelling fires and warns that the situation is becoming alarming. The number of vacant dwelling fires must be reduced and therefore all agents are being asked to make inspections and reports to the department of all vacant houses on which they have insurance.

The letter is in part as follows:

"According to the local fire marshals' reports, which do not cover the entire state, there were 769 vacant dwelling fires in Texas during 1931, the loss on which amounted to $662,000. During January of this year, out of 483 fires on dwellings, 71 were vacant. Twenty-two of these 71 were reported as being of incendiary origin. Eight of the 22 were over-insured. Approximately one-sixth of the dwelling fires are on vacant dwellings, while certainly one out of every six dwellings in Texas is not vacant."

Active Steps Necessary

"These amazing figures have pictures in their own minds of the danger by an approaching disastrous situation, that we feel it necessary to take an active step toward the elimination of this large number of vacant dwelling fires and thereby protect the insuring public from higher insurance premiums."

The department is sending all agents a supply of "Agent's Vacant Dwelling Inspection Report" blanks and asking the agents to inspect all dwellings which they have insured and that are now vacant. The agents are also requested to fill out blanks on dwellings that become vacant in the future. If the agents, after making the inspections, find the insurance is too high, the department asks them to reduce it. If any undue fire hazards are found in the house, the agent should see that they are corrected, the letter states.

The fire marshal is also asked by the department to assist the agents in the inspections and make suggestions for removal of fire hazards.

She had been a resident of Mills county for many years. She was converted when she was a young girl and united with the Methodist church. She was a consecrated Christian woman. Never had any children of her own but loved and cared for children to her last days. It was her request that her close neighbor and friend, Rev. H. E. Moreland, hold her funeral. Aunt Harlie had been growing feeble for several months, but was able to be up and around the place until about two weeks before her death she stumbled and fell in her room. Her bones were broken and only small bruises were made by the fall, but she was never able to sit up after that. A few days before the accident she remarked to one of her neighbors that she wondered why God had let her here so long, but she knew he had a purpose in so doing but she felt that that purpose was about fulfilled and she would soon be going on. Just before the dawn of Good Friday, the day celebrated as the time her Savior died on the cross, she quietly fell asleep. Not a struggle nor a sigh. Just quiet breathing and her spirit passed to its reward. To the sorrowing nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends we offer sympathy. Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, W. J. Richmond and Mrs. J. C. Hicks, all of Blanket, were here Monday.

MORE PROOF of RIVERSIDE QUALITY "I Have Never Seen Anything Like" Montgomery Ward & Co. Chicago, Illinois 1319 W. Nickett Seattle, Wash. Three years ago in July I purchased a Riverside 33x6.00 Studebaker Commander. This tire was in service on the wheel for two and one-half years before changed to the It gave 49,126 miles of continuous service without ever been off the rim, and my car has had hard wear, traveling many miles of rough country roads. Such service as rendered that tire is certainly worthy of publicity. I have never anything like it in automobile tires. Sincerely yours, W.C. Bailey. This interesting letter from Mr. Bailey is one of many thousands in our files. It was entirely voluntary—sent to us without solicitation. Nothing was paid for it. It is a genuine expression of gratitude for meritorious service. And Now We Offer 6 PLY RIVERSIDES AT 4 PLY PRICES! UNLIMITED GUARANTEE All Riverside Tires are guaranteed to give satisfactory service regardless of time used or mileage run. Any tire that fails to give satisfactory service, will, at our option, be REPAIRED FREE OF CHARGE or replaced with a new tire—in which event you will be charged only for the actual service the tire delivered. We'll match Riversides on the road against any tire and beat it in price. So why be satisfied with other 4 ply tires when you can buy full 6 ply Riversides for the same money? Think of this—the BEST tires we have ever sold! The LOWEST prices in our history! The GREATEST tire values we have ever offered! That's what Ward's offer A genuine full 6 ply Riverside for the usual price of other 4 ply tires. A FULL 6 ply Riverside at the lowest price at which any heavy duty 6 ply tire has ever been sold. A $250,000 Failure

THE COTTON acreage reduction law, enacted last summer in a special legislative session costing the state a quarter of a million dollars, is now officially dead.

The cotton control law was enacted in response to what the Governor and the Legislature believed was a popular demand for it originating with the producers themselves.

The cotton control law was enacted in response to what the Governor and the Legislature believed was a popular demand for it originating with the producers themselves.

This legislative failure, one of many that have been recorded in Texas in the past half dozen years, was inspired by conditions of hysteria prevailing throughout the country last year; and in spite of the fact that it has cost the state approximately $250,000 to enact the law and to defend it in the courts, it may prove to be worth all its cost if it serves in the future to warn against the type of frenzied law-making on an emergency basis that has been witnessed far too often in this and every other Southern state.

New Radio "Racket"

A GREAT DEAL is wrong with radio besides static, and ever since this modern utensil of communication and entertainment was discovered Congress has been trying to devise governmental machinery for its control.

Radio stations are protesting to a House committee that composers of music and songs—the word "music" is used here only in a technical sense—have consolidated their interests and organized a holding company under the guise of an association of composers, authors and publishers, and steadily increasing fees are being collected for the use of their copyrighted products.

The truth of the matter is that radio broadcasting has become a big business that is gradually being compelled to pay for its merchandise. In the beginning musical talent was abundant and cheap, because of the novelty of the thing, and almost any kind of program could be broadcast with little expense to the broadcaster and without complaint from listeners. Now the broadcasters are being made to pay for what they use in their business, and in order to secure the permission of copyright owners they must pay fees based upon the market value, if any, of what they propose to use.

There Must Be a Manager

IN VIEW of the overwhelming opposition to the combination of the two offices of Mayor and City Manager, as expressed by the public and by most of the candidates for places in the next city administration, there seems to be little likelihood that such a step will be undertaken following the election of next Tuesday.

The effect of such statements as have been made is to remove the danger that the outcome of the election may be interpreted by the next City Council as a mandate for the consolidation of the mayor's and manager's positions; and for that most of us are grateful.

The City of Brownwood is a multi-million dollar corporation. Annually it collects tremendous sums of money from the people, for use in current operation and in retiring bonded indebtedness.

A Free Ireland

NOMINALLY Ireland is a free state, autonomous in its government and conducting its own affairs with but little interference from Britain. President Eamon de Valera proposes to make it actually a free state, and in order to do so has prepared a note to Great Britain renouncing the oath of allegiance and stating that hereafter Ireland will retain all her own taxes for her own use, thus stopping the land annuities to the Crown.

Such an attitude on the part of the Irish President is certain to provoke trouble, but de Valera has the support of a majority of the Irish people who by their votes have placed him in office at the head of the government. The Irish leader, moreover, has chosen a propitious moment for drawing the issue with Great Britain, for at the Easter rebellion season the thoughts of patriotic Irishmen go back to the incidents of 1916, during which a number of leaders were summarily executed by the British government, the present

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

Irish Free State President being the only one to escape.

It is nothing new to find Ireland battling against British sovereignty, for such a struggle has been under way for hundreds of years. Dozens of times the parent government has "settled" the controversy, only to find it breaking out anew within a few weeks or months.

The effect of such statements as have been made is to remove the danger that the outcome of the election may be interpreted by the next City Council as a mandate for the consolidation of the mayor's and manager's positions; and for that most of us are grateful.

This Feature Discontinued

This column is to be discontinued as a regular feature of this paper. For several years it has appeared in many Texas papers, and the continued use of it by so many publications proves that the public has been interested in the kind of constructive news comment that has always characterized it.

Centennial Press Resolution

Practically every Texas press organization has given hearty endorsement to the movement for a Texas Centennial celebration in 1936.

Pat Neff to Baylor

As has been expected by his intimate friends ever since the presidency of Baylor University was offered Ex-Gov. Pat M. Neff, he has accepted the position. He could do nothing else.

Building Texas Highways

Communities that want to get large visitations from tourists who will be coming to Texas for the Centennial celebration of 1936, should not delay the building of highways of a kind to invite travel.

One Man's Vision

Nearly everything worth while that is accomplished comes as the result of the vision of one individual. One enthusiast who will not acknowledge defeat, who works only the harder in the face of criticism, who faces discouragement heroically, after a time will draw to his help others who are inspired by his courage, still others follow, and in time the vision, if really a worthy one, will be transformed from a dream into a fact.

Three Day Jubilee

Eagle Pass is to have a three-day jubilee, April 7, 8, & 9, celebrating the completion of the first unit of its $8,000,000 reservoir and irrigation project.

Big Texas Resort

Chicago parties, with faith in Texas, are getting ready to spend $600,000 in building a club house near San Benito, which will be part of a $2,000,000 resort project of a 700 acre tract of land that contains numerous reservoirs and other attractive resort features.

New Radio Station

Eagle Pass, on either the Mexican town of Piedras Negras across the river—is to have a 50,000 watt radio station that will be built during the summer. The Texas-Mexican border appears to offer exceptional facilities for broadcasting.

Land Deals Increase

Real estate activities are increasing in many parts of the State. The most noticeable increases are in suburban acreage and in ranch properties. Most of the ranches that are being sold are either to be retained by purchasers for sheep and goats or are for sub-division into small lots.

Pat Neff to Baylor

As has been expected by his intimate friends ever since the presidency of Baylor University was offered Ex-Gov. Pat M. Neff, he has accepted the position. He could do nothing else.

Putting Them To Work

It is surprising how many newspaper men are being put to work on public jobs—a non-paying kind, of course. Editor Schofield, as mayor of Lockhart, has almost transformed the appearance of that town.

Newspaper Changes

The editor of the Mission Enterprise says that in his three years residence in the Rio Grande Valley all but three of the newspapers of that section have changed editors.

Move By County Agent For More Hogs On Farms

The county agent's office hopes to interest farmers in shipping in a truck load of twenty registered sows from Stephenville to be placed on farms in this county. These sows would cost $20 to $25 a piece, it is stated.

In this connection attention is being called to the small number of hogs in Brown county. A census bureau report issued in July 1931 placed the number of hogs in this county at 1,807 and the number of farms at 2,158, or considerably less than one hog to the farm. Hundreds of cars of meat are shipped into the county.

With the raising of more hogs it is also contemplated that a motion picture will be made for farmers to secure their own meat, securing a cold storage room and making other necessary arrangements. R. W. Snyder of A. & M. College has stated that he will come and spend a few days with the farmers here, instructing them in meat curing methods and advising with them as to the requirements of such a plant if this step is taken.

Still Drilling in Oil and Gas Sand

The deep oil test well, two miles northeast of the city, is drilling at 460 feet in the oil and gas sand found at 420 feet.

Those who had been most interested in promoting this test are much pleased with this showing and are encouraged by it to believe that they are "on the right track." The 40 feet of sand drilled through thus far has carried a good oil showing and a considerable amount of gas.

NEW V-8 FORD CAR WILL SOON BE SEEN HERE

DETROIT, March 31.—(UP)—Henry Ford's new eight cylinder automobile went on display throughout the country today, priced as low as $490 F. O. B. Detroit. The first car in its class to enter the low priced field, and selling at only $50 more than the new Ford four.

It was Ford's bid for "the end of the depression" forecast several weeks ago when he indicated he was going to stake millions on his belief the public would buy if offered value at the right price.

The majority of the 8-cylinder models are only $10 to $25 higher in price than corresponding models in the now retired model A four-cylinder line.

The new Ford four-cylinder car is virtually the same as the eight except for the motor.

8 NAMES CITY SCHOOL TICKET

There are to be eight names on the ballot for election of Brownwood Independent School District trustees Saturday, April 2, according to T. E. Denman, secretary of the board. Five trustees will be selected from the eight candidates. Wednesday was the last day that names could be filed and be placed on the ballot for the election.

The four present trustees whose terms expire and who are candidates for re-election are: A. N. Thomason, J. C. Galloway, J. K. Wilkes and Will H. Talbot. Four new names on the ballot are: Henry Wilson, Robert R. Holloway, Joe Blagg and James Ming.

There would have been only four trustees to be elected, but D. F. Abney recently resigned and a new trustee will be elected to fill his place.

Also on city ballots will be the three names of county school trustees to be elected at the same time. Only three county school trustees are to be elected this year and their names will appear only on the ballots in their respective wards—that is the wards that are included in their respective commission precincts. The entire city votes for city trustees but in the case of county trustees only the people in the candidate's respective precincts and wards vote.

The three county trustee candidates that will appear on the ballots are: Ed Hennigan, George McHan and Anderson Newton.
