

In recent years there has been increasing complaint that the revised system of American justice goes to extremes in protecting the rights of criminals and abandons to a corresponding degree the rights of society. New laws and new court rulings are most scrupulous in their desire to see that no one is unjustly convicted, or even unjustly accused, but seem unconcerned that their protective policy allows an alarming number of criminals to escape justice.

Then, as if deliberately creating a new obstacle for law enforcement, the Supreme Court on Monday of this week came forward with another decree to guarantee that criminals are further immunized against effective prosecution.

In essence the court said that police, when questioning a suspect, must first advise him that he may keep silent and that anything he says may be used against him, also that he has the right to have a lawyer beside him. Furthermore, if the accused indicates at any time that he wants the help of a lawyer the questioning must stop until a lawyer is present. And even further, whether or not he wants a lawyer, if he is alone and indicates in any way that he does not want to be questioned the police may not question him.

It is not surprising that the new decree brought on a barrage of criticism from law enforcement officers all across the country. To most of them it was a matter of adding a new difficulty to the many other difficulties that already stand in their way. To most of them it simply means that an increasing number of criminals will escape justice and continue their dirty work.

It used to be that many crimes were solved in the police station by alert and experienced officers able to match wits with the trickiest criminals. But it's different now. An officer's investigative skill is no match for the impenetrable stony silence which has become a suspect's sacred right.

The reason behind this over solicitude, of course, is the principle that no person can be forced to testify against himself, and perhaps a precaution against an undeserved conviction. American justice demands that the burden of proof in a person's trial must be presented by society and not by the accused.

However, it seems only reasonable that this rule, like most others, should have its exceptions. There are times, many of them, when vital facts in a case could be obtained by questioning. And there are also cases when a suspect can be reasonably accused of guilt if he cannot give some good answers in his own behalf. Nevertheless the Supreme Court's decree is equivalent to saying that the suspect who claims up because he has no good answers must be given credit for having nothing but good answers.

A classical example of that policy has been seen many times in questioning before the Un-American Activities Committee. Asked whether they are communists they refused to answer on grounds of self incrimination. To you and me that answer in itself is self incriminating. A person who cannot give a straight answer in defense of his innocence admits by implication that he is guilty. It's as simple as that.

As so many officers have said, the Supreme Court adds another difficulty to society's already difficult job of dealing with criminals. It used to be that many cases were partly or completely solved by police questioning. Hereafter such evidence will be lacking and more criminals will go free. Society will pay the price of misguided solicitude for people who deserve no solicitude.

Another discouraging situation in law enforcement was mentioned in this month's bulletin from FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover to all law enforcement officials. He deplors that law enforcement nowadays is being degraded by widespread indiscriminate use of the term "police brutality." As so many of us are aware, that term is exploited to the limit by communists and

ALL FOUR SONS of the Herman Hartmans are Eagle Boy Scouts since Sunday night when Donny received his award. Here are Tommy, Roy, Joe and Donny with their mother and father.

Muenster Hospital Approved for Medicare Program

Muenster Memorial Hospital has been found eligible by the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare to provide services to the older people of Muenster under the medicare program when it begins July 1. A letter of agreement was presented today to the hospital administrator by Gus Jones, Social Security District Manager in Sherman.

The conditions for participation in the health insurance program, announced in January by John Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, after extensive consultation with organizations and experts in the field of hospital and medical care, are designed to see that medicare patients receive quality care. Participating hospitals must also not discriminate among patients or staff on the grounds of race, color or national origin.

As of June 10, a total of 428 hospitals in Texas already were listed as eligible as were more than 72 percent of the hospitals in the Nation.

Hospitals in the Sherman area, currently listed as eligible, include: S. B. Allen Memorial and Risser Hospital of Bonham, Gainesville Memorial; Muenster Memorial; and Denison Hospital, Madonna Hospital, Memorial Hospital, and MKT Hospital of Denison.

Parish Donates $305 to Cemetery

Mrs. Steve Moster announced that the Semi-annual Cemetery Fund Collection amounted to $305.67. She thanked the community for its generosity.

Area Receives Good Soaker as Harvest Ends

Weather in Muenster is just what the farmers ordered. After the most favorable harvesting weather of recent years, this community has received two rains which definitely put the rest of its crops back in business.

Sunday night's rain measured .55 on Steve Moster's Weather Bureau rain gauge. And Wednesday night's measure was 2.65. The two combined are plenty for a strong boost to row crops, pastures and hay fields.

For most farmers of this area, the rains came after their grain harvesting was finished. The timing was perfect for them. And people who had not finished were not hurt. After Sunday night's rain some were back on the combines Monday afternoon and all were going Tuesday afternoon. Unless prolonged wet weather sets in they have fine prospects for finishing their jobs. Less than ten percent of the grain is still in the fields.

Sunday's rain was the first to date for June and followed a comparatively dry 2.30 measure for May. The area's moisture situation was getting urgent.

Total rainfall for the month is 3.30 and for the year is 22.81 inches.

She also said that anyone who wishes to may leave a contribution at the Bank or with Mrs. Tony Gremminger, chairman of the Civic League's Cemetery Fund Committee.

Four Boy Scouts Advanced In Court of Honor

Two Muenster boys reached the Eagle rank of Scouting and two made a start by reaching the Tenderfoot rank in court of honor ceremonies at the K of C Hall Sunday night. They were Don Hartman and Kenny Swirczynski as the Eagles and Hank Trachta and Alan Miller as the Tenderfoots.

The ceremony also completed a distinguished family record in Scouting. Donny is the fourth of the Herman Hartman family to earn the Eagle award. His brothers are Brother Eagles Tommy, Roy and Joe.

The ceremony likewise completed a very impressive display of badges for their mother — the miniature mother's awards she received over the years as her sons received their awards. That makes four each of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, Life and Eagle awards. And there were two additional emblems belonging to Roy and Tommy, for rank of Brother in the Order of the Arrow.

Scoutmaster Ed Schneider made the Tenderfoot awards, consisting of a regular emblem and a miniature and a certificate to Hank Trachta and Alan Miller in the presence of their mothers, Mrs. David Trachta and Mrs. W. J. Miller. Then the boys pinned the miniatures on their mothers and mothers pinned the regular emblems on the Scouts.

Father Alcuin Kubis made the Eagle Scout presentations, which consisted of the regular emblems, miniatures on chain and tie clasp, a kerchief, and the certificate, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartman, Mrs. Ray Swirczynski and Tommy Swirczynski, who substituted for his father. The Eagle Scouts then gave the pendant and clasp to mother and father, the mother pinned the emblem on her son, and the father put the new kerchief around the son's neck.

Joe Sicking of the Muenster Boy Scout committee was master of ceremonies for the program and praised both parents and Scouts for all the achievements required for the Eagle Rating. Father Alcuin also congratulated parents and Scouts and encouraged the young Scouts to set their sights for the top rating.

After the ceremony mothers of the Scouts served punch and cookies.

1692 Books Were Loaned in May, Library Reports

Mrs. Steve Moster reported to the CDA that volunteer workers have given 263½ hours at Muenster Public Library during May and that 1692 books were loaned. Thirty six new books were bought and twenty eight donated. A daily paper, the Wichita Falls Record News is also a new donation. Two hundred and six members were registered within the past month, including about sixty first graders who came in groups with their teachers before the close of school.

Long Illness of Mrs. J. W. Hess, 75, Ended by Death

Mrs. J. W. Hess, 75, a resident of the community for 61 years, died in Muenster Memorial Hospital Monday at 9 p.m. following an illness of about four years. She had been critically sick for about two weeks.

Funeral service was held in Sacred Heart Church at 10 a.m. Wednesday with Father Frowin Schoech as celebrant of the Solemn Requiem Mass and Father Benedict Buegler and Andrew Wewer as assistants. Father Benedict delivered the funeral sermon.

Also present in the sanctuary were Father John Walbe of Lindsay and Father Thomas Taaffe of Gainesville.

Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery under direction of Nick Miller Funeral Home with Father Frowin officiating at the graveside services. Bearers were nephews: Andy Schumacher, Frank Schilling, Tony Klement, Albert Klement, Leonard Hartman and John J. Hess.

Rosary services at the Miller Funeral Home Chapel were held Tuesday at 4 o'clock by the St. Anne's Society and the Third Order of St. Francis. She was a member of both organizations. Another rosary was recited at 8:30.

Mrs. Hess, the former Miss Margaretha Klement was born at Unter Wichtach, Germany, on March 20, 1891, and came to this country with her parents in 1893. The family lived at Austin and Granger before coming to Muenster in 1905.

Swimming Class Starts Monday in Muenster Pool

Everything's all set for the annual Red Cross swimming classes starting next Monday and Tuesday at the Muenster municipal pool. Carl King, pool manager said this week that six class periods are set up and students are invited to enroll in the period that suits them best — with the understanding that some can be transferred to another period if the period of their choice gets too crowded.

Three of the periods are on Monday, Wednesday, Friday starting at 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30. The other three are on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday starting at the same hours. The full staff of instructors will be present at all the periods and all levels of instruction will be offered at all periods. King said fifteen boys and girls have signed up to help him as instructors, and more are welcome.

The course is an official Red Cross program supervised by the county Red Cross Chapter. Mrs. Paul Yarborough, chairman of the chapter's swimming program for many years, will be here to help conduct the classes.

Both children and adults are welcome in the classes. A child to be eligible must have finished the first grade of school and all must have an application form signed by a doctor indicating physical fitness to take the course. In addition children must have a parent's signature on the application, indicating permission to take the course.

The application forms are available at both local doctors' offices and at the Enterprise.

Remedial Reading Classes Offered At Sacred Heart

An opportunity to improve their reading ability awaits the school children of Muenster. Sister Christopher revealed Wednesday that a Remedial Reading Program is under way now with an enrollment of 30 and more students are welcome.

Anyone wishing to take the course can get all pertinent information at Sacred Heart School. Pupils eligible to attend are grade schoolers who have had at least three years of school.

Each day's class consists of two hours which is divided into periods of oral reading and special help from teaching aids such as tape recorders and film projectors. In addition the children get individual help. An aide is provided for each four or five children.

Parish Is Ready for Sixth Homecoming Celebration Sunday

Plans for Muenster's sixth annual homecoming celebration are at their climax this week as final preparations are under way for the big event Sunday at Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

A general invitation is extended to all neighboring communities, and special reminders have been mailed to many former residents and friends at a greater distance.

If any old friends have been overlooked in that special mailing, the invitation committee wants them to know that they are welcome. The general invitation applies to all, near and far. Furthermore, there was a special reason for having the homecoming on Father's Day — it seemed like a day when more people could and would be back home.

Festivities for the occasion start with the traditional community dinner prepared and served by ladies of Sacred Heart Parish, beginning at 11:30 in the parish lunch room.

For the rest of the day and into the night the carnival spirit will prevail on the grounds outside the parish hall. There will be refreshments, the usual concessions for adults and children, and especially the opportunity for old friends to see one another.

New for this year's homecoming are additional accommodations built by a crew of volunteers working evenings. There are sixteen picnic tables with iron frames and wood tops and seats, all to be under the canvas topped metal framework which shades a big area south of the parish hall. The shelter likewise is new for this homecoming — finished recently in time for first use in the parish reception for Father Frowin Schoech.

The party continues with a dance at night featuring music of The Croquettes.

A dance in the VFW Hall Saturday night is also a part of the homecoming program and proceeds from it will be added to those of the main event Sunday. The Panics will play for the VFW dance.

Over a hundred persons in about thirty committees have parts in planning and conducting the homecoming activities. General chairmen are Dan Haverkamp, Ed Schneider and Sylvan Walterscheid.

Charles Moster Killed as Auto Strikes Bicycle

Charles Frank Moster, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Moster was killed at 5:15 p.m. Monday when struck by a car while riding his bicycle on FM Highway 1630 in front of his home about ten miles southwest of Muenster.

He was pronounced dead upon his arrival by ambulance at Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Highway Patrolman Bob Doherty, who investigated the accident, reported Mrs. Mary Mooney Hodges, 24, of Alvord was the driver of the car involved. She was accompanied by her three small children.

She told Doherty that she was driving east on the road when the boy rode in front of her. She tried to avoid him by swerving to the right and almost cleared, but hit him with the left fender and continued on to the ditch at the right side of the road. Doherty said the bike was demolished and damage to the car was about $250.

Funeral services for Charles Moster were held at 9 o'clock Thursday morning in Sacred Heart Church with Father Alcuin Kubis officiating at the Requiem Mass and also at the grave side rites. Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery under direction of Nick Miller Funeral Home. Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the funeral home chapel.

Survivors are the parents; five brothers, Mark, Robert, Michael, Wayne and Ronnie; three sisters, Frances, Donna and Rhonda; and the grandparents, Mrs. Ed Moster of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Paine of Croctaw, Okla., and Mrs. Cletus Underwood of Oklahoma City.

"TAX FREEDOM DAY"

Representative Edward J. Gurney of Florida has introduced a Resolution in Congress which would designate May 1 as a day of celebration. But the odds are that government leaders would rather not call the significance of this day to the public's attention.

Regardless of that, Representative Gurney's Resolution has merit. It would hail May 1 as "National Tax Freedom Day". It is the first day of the year that people begin working for themselves. From January 1 until April 30, every dollar the taxpayer earns belongs to the government; he must pay it out in federal, state, or local taxes. In the words of Representative Gurney, "This is simply another way of saying that the average American's tax load is costing him one-third of his income, or 33 cents out of every dollar he earns. Certainly, this day of relief throughout the land deserves to be marked appropriately, and the bill I propose would do this by giving it the status of a national holiday."

As Congress votes more billions to further the ideology of the welfare state, National Tax Freedom Day will move forward on the calendar. When it reaches July 4, there will no longer be any reason to celebrate American independence. There won't be any.

A $48,000 ELECTRIC BILL!

A one cent postcard, bearing a 1907 postmark and a $7 billing for one month's electric power service from a mid-western utility* brings up a point of economics to often forgotten. Private enterprise has a much better record of protecting consumers than government has in terms of prices charged and services rendered.

The $7 electric bill, as described in a recent Freeman article, was for 14 kilowatt-hours of electricity. In the 59 years since 1907, postcard postage has climbed from one cent to four cents—a 400 per cent increase, while the price of electricity has steadily declined from the then fifty cents per kilowatt-hour to a current two cents per kilowatt-hour—a mere four percent of what it was in 1907.

Today, the average American family can fully electrify its home, including air conditioning and heating, using some 24,000 kilowatt-hours, at a cost of about $480 annually. At the 1907 rate, the electric bill in such a home would run $12,000 and had the cost of electricity increased at the same rate as the cost of delivering a postcard—400 per cent—the electric bill today for such a home would be an astonishing $48,000.

These figures provide good reason for one to speculate, suggests Freeman, "... as to what those respective rates might be today had the situation been reversed, with a government monopoly of electrical service, and a free enterprise postal service!"

State Tax Boost Coming Next Year

A state tax rate boost next year is inevitable, according to House Speaker Ben Barnes. He predicted the 60th Legislature will "definitely face tax legislation."

Barnes declared that increasing cost of education alone will "require additional monies raised by taxes." Forty-eight per cent of every tax dollar paid to the state goes to education, he noted.

In brief preview of his own ideas for legislative action, Barnes said he will ask an increase in juvenile parole officers to help curb teenage crime. He noted a study committee is exploring possible need of legislation dealing with obscene and pornographic publications.

The Nationalist Chinese have an estimated 600,000 troops and it doesn't take any Phi Beta Kappa to know that they have been kept, food and lodging, for the most part by the American taxpayers for 10, these many years. Another known fact is that they have been chomping at the bit ... to engage the Chinese Reds in mortal combat. Why they cannot be used in Viet Nam instead of feeding American troops to the jungle hell is one of the things we will never be able to understand. And if some highly intellectual member of the Great Society can explain it intelligently to us we promise to listen to the next LBJ sob story on the tube.

—Tallassee, Ala., Tribune

"Now that the economists and politicians figure that everybody should get $3,000 a year whether they work or not, whether they are sick or healthy, educated or illiterate, we sometimes wonder just what the heck is the use of beating ourselves to a pulp trying to make a living."

WHAT PRICE KIDS?

There's no price tag on the kids at our house. We learned long ago that any parent who thinks he can budget a precise figure for shoes, pants, vacations, doctor bills, church and school activities and the inevitable unforeseen expenses in stark, raving mad, or soon will be How much food can a teenager consume, for example, in a year?

But Uncle Sam very confidently does set a price tag on our kids. $600. That figure was established by the 1939 Internal Revenue Code. That's what the government allows us for each dependent child, as a deduction on our income tax.

Several million young married couples who were not yet born in 1939 are raising families and paying taxes now under that antiquated $600 deduction per dependent. And while we all struggle, Uncle Sam is establishing new dependency "allowances" everywhere you look.

For example: it costs the government $7,000 a year for each member of its Job Corps. Not $600, mind you, but $7,000. The cost of maintaining an inmate in a federal prison is $2,300. Social Security pays up to $186 a month to some persons. That is to be compared with the $50 per month deduction we are allowed for each of our kids.

The Aid to Dependent Children program pays more than $800 a year for the upkeep of an illegitimate child. Refugees from Castro's Cuba are allowed a minimum of $1,200 a year by the government with an additional $1,000 a year budgeted for each Cuban child entered in school.

In New York City's Harlem, poverty-war officials have been shovelling out $190 a month to hundreds of teenagers requiring only that the payee stay out of trouble with the police.

In short, when Uncle Sam "adopts" a dependent, that $600 business goes out the window. Believe it or not, last year's budget for the Vista program (Volunteers in Service of America) reflected an expenditure of more than $15,000 per trainee. How would you like to have that much for your college-bound youngster's expenses next year?

That 27-year-old $600 deduction is preposterous by any measuring stick. Making it even more ridiculous is the fact that we have a 42c dollar today as compared with 1939. Realistically the $600 deduction is only $252.00.

Geology Reveals Over 100 Years Of Gas Reserves

Contrary to published claims that natural gas shortages are imminent, U.S. government sources indicate that there are enough reserves of this natural resource in the ground to serve this nation's needs for the next 100 years, according to the American Gas Association.

A.G.A. cited the most recent findings of the Geological Survey conducted by the United States Department of the Interior as published in Circular 522, "Resources of Oil, Gas and Natural Gas Liquids in the United States and the World," released in late 1965.

The authoritative report estimates that there are now 4,000 trillion cubic feet of natural gas in place in the United States and that approximately half of this is economically recoverable. The report emphasizes that these are minimum quantities to furnish this nation's natural gas needs for more than a century.

Based on the current production rate, A.G.A. asserted, the 2,000 trillion cubic feet of natural gas economically recoverable is of sufficient quantity to furnish this nation's natural gas needs for more than a century.

The Geological Survey pointed out that its estimates have been compiled on an extremely conservative basis. It reported:

"Because man cannot see oil and gas resources, it is not surprising that he has been ultraconservative in estimating yet undiscovered quantities. Repeatedly, expert estimates of total undiscovered quantities have been exceeded within a decade or so by quantities actually discovered."

Jo Ann Fisher and John Pagel United At Nuptial Mass

Miss Jo Ann Fisher became the bride of John Pagel in a double ring ceremony at Nuptial Mass Saturday in Sacred Heart Church with Father Alcuin Kubis, pastor, officiating at the 6 p.m. service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Pagel.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candle light peau de soie and lace. The skirt was caught in soft pleats at the waist and the train was held by cabbage roses of self material at back. The scalloped white lace jacket with three-quarter length sleeves was worn previously by the bride's sister, Mrs. James Walterscheid at her wedding.

The bride's veil of silk illusion was held by a circlet of baby cabbage roses of self fabric. She carried a white prayer book topped with white rose buds and a shower of streamers tied in love knots.

For something old she wore a gold cross drop which was a gift from her father to her mother on their wedding day. She added further sentiment by wearing the wedding band that belonged to the bridegroom's late grandfather Bruns.

Mrs. James Walterscheid was her sister's matron of honor, Miss Kathy Pagel, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and Little Susan Fisher, niece of the bride, was flower girl. They wore white eyelet dresses over polished cotton in shades of green, pink, and yellow, respectively. They were styled with Empire waist lines accented by velvet ribbon with a bow at the back, and floor-length A-line skirts. Velvet bow headpieces completed their costumes and they carried rose buds in shades matching their dresses.

The bridegroom's father was his best man, Dickie Pagel, naval airman, Moffet Field, Calif., attended his brother as groomsman, and Dannie Fisher, cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

George McCleskey of Denton and Sandy Skelton of Lubbock were ushers.

Sacred Heart men's choir and Anthony Luke, organist, provided music for the Mass and afterward when the bride placed the traditional bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Tips From Your Hatchery

It's bagworm season again, and they are here. Check your trees before the little rascals defoliate your trees. Each year seems to bring new pests. This year we have web worms that specialize on Paradise trees, heretofore these trees seemed immune to all pests. Look at yours today before it's too late.

Ever bothered with sugar ants? We have an ant trap that does the job. Just slip it under your stove or refrigerator. It's built like an elephant trap, only smaller. Costs a quarter.

Yours for bug free living.

Teacher: "Johnny, I'm surprised! Do you know any more jokes like that?"

Johnny: "Yes, teacher." Teacher: "Well, stay after school."

Tommy looked up from his book and asked: "Pop, is it true that a man is known by the company he keeps?"

"Yes, Son, and always remember that." "Well, Pop," said the boy. "If a good man keeps company with a bad man, is the good man bad because he keeps company with a bad man, or is the bad man good because he keeps company with a good man?"

TEXAS OIL PIONEER — L. T. Barret, who drilled the first oil well in Texas 100 years ago, will be honored by this brick and concrete memorial structure to be erected on Stephen F. Austin State College campus, Nacogdoches. Dedication ceremonies are scheduled for Sept. 30, according to joint announcement made Saturday by college authorities and the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce. The memorial was designed by Wilbur Kent, Lufkin, architect for the College.

County's Oil and Gas Production Valued at Near $30 Million a Year

As Texas celebrates its 100th anniversary as an oil-producing state, Cooke County shares in the development that made the Lone Star State the No. 1 energy source for a booming American civilization.

In 1866 Lyne T. Barret — a man most history books forgot — drilled the first Texas oil well near Nacogdoches at a depth of 106 feet. In the one hundred years that followed, the search for oil and gas spread to every county in Texas, and today Cooke County is one of 210 which produce oil or gas.

Barret and other pioneer Texas oil men left a legacy for Cooke County that can be measured at approximately $29.7 million a year, based on statistics compiled by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

During Texas' first century of oil production (29 billion barrels), Cooke County has contributed approximately 207.5 million barrels, its record dating from 1926.

The latest U.S. Bureau of Mines figures (1964) shows Cooke County produced more than 9.9 million barrels of crude oil valued at $29.2 million; and 4 billion cubic feet of natural gas worth about $504,000. The 1965 output would be approximately the same, preliminary estimates indicate. Cooke County ranks 37th among the Texas counties producing oil and gas. It includes one of the state's 97 fields which are classified as "giants" with ultimately recovery estimates in excess of 100 million barrels — the Walnut Bend Field.

under way. The Oil and Gas Journal reported 166 wells were drilled in the county last year. Twenty six of these were "wildcats" seeking new fields or production from new strata. Results: 92 oil wells; 61 dry holes; 13 service wells. Oil men and other investors risked an estimated $3.4 million in Cooke County to drill 438,000 feet of hole. Some $1.3 million disappeared forever in dry holes.

The Texas Employment Commission reports an industry payroll of about $2.7 million a year for Cooke Countyans who are directly employed by oil and gas firms. This, of course, is only part of the total employment created by petroleum operations for many others work in related service and supply jobs.

One of the most significant technological developments of the last two decades has been the high recovery of liquids like butane and propane from natural gas. Two plants operating in the county process approximately 33 million cubic feet of gas a day, which gives added value to gas production here.

Petroleum refining and production of chemicals from oil and gas account for a large part of the total value created by manufacturing in Texas. This county's manufacturing industry includes one refinery, which processes some 2,000 barrels of crude a day.

Jointless Tomato Shows Promise

Researchers at Texas A&M University's Plant Disease Experiment Station at Yoakum are on the brink of developing a jointless tomato.

A jointless tomato is the dream of big-time tomato growers, since it can be mechanically harvested. The idea is to eliminate the joint on the stem located about an inch from the fruit.

On ordinary varieties, when the tomato is picked, a stem remains on the fruit. The stem punctures other tomatoes and causes rapid spoilage. The stems must be removed by hand or during processing.

Dr. A. L. Harrison, plant pathologist at the A&M field unit, has been selecting tomatoes which have the jointless characteristic. He has one in breeding stock now — still just a number — but it shows promise, he says.

At a recent field day, Harrison demonstrated to visitors that the tomato cannot be picked from the vine and leave the stem on. It comes off every time, since there is no joint to break, he said.

Work is being carried on at other A&M field stations and on the main campus at College Station. The researchers are optimistic that before long a jointless variety will be ready for release to Texas tomato growers.

Success has been defined as the art of making mistakes when no one is around to notice them.

LYNDON JOHNSON, circled at left, was a young congressman from Texas when this picture was taken on March 12, 1941. The occasion was the commissioning of the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station. The late secretary of the Navy, Frank Knox, is at the podium. President Johnson has been invited to return for the station's 25th birthday party and the 15th Navy Relief Festival, which is expected to attract 300,000 people this June 17, 18 and 19.

Ford sales are at an all-time high. During May Ford outsold all other car makes!

The word is spreading—fast—that Ford Division is building the best cars it has ever built. And it's true. Never have Ford cars been so good—never have Ford sales been so high.

People discovered our 1966 Ford was the strongest Ford ever built. A strong car, well-engineered, is a quiet car—and the '66 Ford has a ride that is quieter even than some of Europe's most expensive hand-built luxury cars.

Over a million people have already bought Mustangs. This rare blend of sports-car excitement and solid value is the most popular new car in history . . . and right now it's the world's best-selling hardtop and convertible.

Wagon buyers are excited about our Magic Doorgate—the greatest step forward in wagon convenience in years. It opens out like a door for people and swings down like a tailgate for cargo. It's standard equipment on all Ford and Fairlane wagons.

Car shoppers discovered a whole new range of comforts and conveniences. The '66 Ford offers power front disc brakes, a Stereo-Sonic Tape System, America's largest V-8 to perform on regular fuel, Silent-Flo Ventilation that keeps air fresh with all windows closed, and a new Safety/Convenience Control Panel that lets you lock all doors with one switch, has lights to warn if fuel's low or a door's ajar, reminds you to fasten seat belts.

A whole new group of sports-minded car buyers has come over to Fairlane. We've redesigned it completely with 30 new models, including GT's, sports-luxury XL's, convertibles, Squire wagons, and an exciting new Sport Shift Cruise-O-Matic Drive (on GT/A models) that gives you the ease of an automatic—or lets you shift manually for the fun of it.

People everywhere are finding out just how much extra value we've built into today's Ford cars—extra value that's the reason why Ford sales have soared to an all-time high.

And that's why Ford Dealers . . . leading from strength . . . are now offering you the best deals ever. There are specially equipped, specially priced Fords, Fairlanes and Mustangs, and special values on all our cars—across the whole line. See them soon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fuhrmann. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderle of Windthorst.

The long fitted sleeves tapered to wrist points and she carried gardenias arranged with stephanotis on a white prayer book of her grandmother's, Mrs. Tony Fuhrmann. They wore jonquil yellow chiffon dresses and embossed taffeta, fashioned in a sheath silhouette with empire lines. A Dior bow complemented the back lines. Their flowers were yellow bouquets of gladioli flowerets trimmed in pale green.

thugs and beatniks and dopes. If an officer forcibly carries off a limp civil righter blocking a street, it's police brutality. If he slugs or shoots a punk slashing him with a knife, it's "police brutality." If he uses force in dealing with a riot its "police brutality." It seems that anything an officer does to displease the trouble makers comes under the heading of that indefinite and worn out term.

To cope with that nuisance and to counteract obvious ill effects, Hoover suggests that all reporters and commentators stop using the term and insist that any accusations against police hereafter be specific. The man's right. Our officers are doing a mighty good job, often under most difficult conditions. They deserve more than the smear of an ugly general term, and responsible people can help by refusing to use it in their reports. Likewise the reading and listening public can ignore it. Let's remember that an officer who gets out of line can be and should be charged with a definite offense. And one who is charged with only the general term "brutality" was probably just doing his job.

Earliest recorded biological or germ warfae was waged in 1347 at Caffa in the Crimea, where the besieging Tartars catapulted over the city's walls corpses of men who had died from the plaque.

Miss Diann Henzler, a former teacher at Muenster High School, has spent the past school term teaching in Formosa, left Thursday on her trip home. She will visit Hawaii and other places and arrive home the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fisher of Houston had a four day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher. On Saturday they attended the Fisher-Pagel wedding. Also here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, Houston, who also visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fisher. A diet is for people who are thick and tired of it.
