VOLUME XXX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 MARCH 25, 1966

NUMBER 18

Last week's passage of a special tax by Congress was motivated by two reasons, both of which, unfortunately, deal more with symptoms of this country's economic malady than with the cause. We are trying to relieve the distress resulting from inflation and reckless spending, but apparently nothing is being done to stop the inflationary trend nor to trim the unnecessary appropriations out of our budget.

The official theory seems to be that inflation is threatening, if it has not already arrived. There's always the danger that our over abundance of money can influence people to spend it too freely, thereby accelerating the tendency toward higher prices which would be quickly followed by higher wages. We have to agree with that thinking, so we have to agree also that a tax program to take more money from the people can check some of their spending.

The other reason is the simple fact that the government needs more money to meet its huge appropriations and its anticipated supplemental appropriations. The administration is admitting, indirectly, that the combined cost of war and the Great Society is bigger than stated in the budget message.

However, that isn't how it will be told by official Washington. The version as we'll hear it is that the war is getting bigger and costing more, so the only course left to us loyal and patriotic people is to dig deeper and give more help to the war effort.

But there is another side to the problem, as pointed out recently by a senator on the TV program "Face the Nation." He said that a number of people in Congress felt from the beginning that the war budget was deliberately estimated low so that the appropriation for domestic spending could be set at a higher figure.

It was a political maneuver whereby a future request for funds, if needed, could be asked for the war effort rather than for the Great Society. Now it seems we are being conditioned for the inevitable supplemental appropriation to the war budget — and its inevitable approval. What congressman would conscientiously refuse additional help to the fighting men?

You and I know there is a better solution to this problem. In fact, it is the solution we would use if we faced a similar problem in our personal affairs. Suppose we had big plans for high living along with estimates for essential needs, and then discovered that the latter fund was running short. Would we risk worse trouble by borrowing for the latter while keeping the same pace of high living? You know the answer. We'd trim off some non essentials, perhaps all of them, in an effort to make ends meet.

Government could do the same thing. And it has plenty of non essentials that could be sacrificed for the war effort. We the people are getting a raw deal when government fails to do that.

Incidentally, that situation is also very much concerned with inflation. Borrowing more money and increasing the national debt puts more pressure on the inflationary trend. Then to relieve the ill effects of inflation the government taxes more money away from us. What a deal!

Regardless of official Washington's seemingly helpless attitude to the danger of inflation this column refuses to admit the problem can't be licked. It is amazed that big shots of government, industry, labor and education did not pool their brains and courage long ago in a positive program to end the folly. It is amazed that they apparently have so little confidence in public willingness to go along with constructive ideas to prevent economic chaos.

Getting back to the new tax bill — its purpose is to speed up collection of taxes so the government will have more funds available this year. The plan possibly can save millions in interest by reducing somewhat the need for borrowing. But it also presents another problem. The implied intention is to collect and spend much of the money the government would otherwise have at the end of the year. Then what will it do for money at the end of the year? Again, would you call this solving or

Don King Resigns, Accepts Security Job at Medders

Don King has resigned his job as deputy sheriff stationed at Muenster to accept a job as security officer at Colonial Acres Farm. The change becomes effective April 1.

Sheriff Bill Pratt revealed King's resignation this week and added that he is already looking for a replacement. He plans the same arrangement that has been in operation here — the new man to be stationed here and his salary to be paid equally by the City of Muenster and Cooke County.

King has been the local deputy since January 1, 1965, when Bill Pratt left here to become county sheriff.

Higher Fees for Postal Services Begin Saturday

Most of the service fees in post offices will be increased Saturday of this week, according to a report from Postmaster Arthur Endres.

In some cases the increases are accomplished by eliminating the lowest valuation. For instance, in the case of registered mail the 60 cent fee for valuations to $10 is dropped and the 75 cent fee for values to $100 is extended to include valuations under $10. Fees for higher value of registered mail remains unchanged.

The new fee for uninsured mail begins at 20 cents for values to $15 and increases to 60 cents for values to $200. Formerly the fee ranged from 10 cents to 40 cents.

Fees for C.O.D. Mail are graduated from 60 cents to $1.00. The old rate increases in steps from 40 cents to $1.00. The fee for certified mail is up a dime — from 20 cents to 30 cents.

Money orders are up 5 cents in all brackets. Formerly 20 cents to 35 cents, the fee now starts at 25 cents and the maximum is 40 cents for a $100 money order.

Fees for return receipts, restricted delivery and other special services remain unchanged.

250 Tons of Local Car Bodies Going Into Metal Baler

About a half million pounds in old car bodies, appliances and other kinds of sheet metal will soon be leaving Muenster in compact little bundles about the size of a bale of hay.

J. P. Flusche has a contract with a firm in Vernon to clear the old sheet metal from his scrap iron lot. The metal balers have been here since Tuesday and expect to be on the job about a week.

Car bodies are baled in two steps. First they are put through a huge shearing machine which cuts each car body into four or five pieces. Then the pieces are fed into the baling machine which compresses them into small blocks about 18x24x30 inches.

One of those blocks weighs about 370 pounds and an average day's work is 110 bales.

Muenster School Enters Six Events Of Literary Meet

Muenster will have entries in three high school events and three elementary events at the Interscholastic League literary meet at Cooke County Junior College next week Thursday and Friday.

The following entries were listed this week by Principle George Petrus. High School spelling: Rose Eckart and Betty Knabe with Glenn Klement as alternate.

High School number sense: Robert Fisher, Dale Klement and Joe Hartman.

High School science: Joe Hartman, Robert Fisher and Carol Mosman with Wayne Sicking as alternate.

Seventh and Eighth Grade spelling: Chellene Streng and Sandra Sloan with Debra Sicking and Sue Flusche as alternates.

Fifth and Sixth Grade spelling: Debbie Allen and Nancy Shastean with Phyllis Cain as alternate.

Fourth and Fifth Grade picture memory: Vivian Ayles, Susan Sloan, Barbara Davidson and Kathy Selby, one of the latter two to be the alternate.

Roving Contractors Are Here Again

There at it again. Building repair contractors from distant cities are calling on Muenster people to sell them home improvement jobs of various sorts. Perhaps a new roof, or new siding, or both.

A few attempts to make such deals have been reported this week, and it's very likely that many other people have been approached. In the cases reported, both persons checked the local prices for a similar job, and discovered that the price offered was far out of line.

But that's only a part of the problem. The worst feature about such deals is that the "here today, gone tomorrow" breed of salesmen are primarily concerned with getting a customer's money and usually hard to find in case the job turns out to be unsatisfactory. Several persons of this community have learned that, the hard way.

Relative to such deals, a few reminders are in order. Some of those people are more interested in getting the easy dollar than in giving the money's worth in value. Of course, some may be OK, but there's certainly no harm in checking on them — and an honest salesman will not object to such a check-up.

On the other hand the local business man's success, even his continued existence, depends on giving people their money's worth and standing behind every deal. There's no question about his dependability.

Furthermore, the local business man is a local taxpayer, one of the builders of the community, your friend and neighbor. He deserves your support. But who is that out of town fellow and what has he done to deserve your business?

Meatless Fridays In Schools Ended By Dispensation

Fridays are no longer meatless for Catholic school children of the Dallas-Fort Worth Diocese. A dispensation was granted last week by Bishop Gorman "in order to forestall practical difficulties and inconveniences arising from ordering, preparing and serving school lunches." It became effective last week Friday.

The dispensation applies to all students in elementary, junior and senior high schools whether parochial or public schools, and includes all who eat there whether they carry their own lunches or eat in the cafeteria. However, it does not apply to students who go home for a meal.

Also included in the dispensation are teachers and any other school personnel provided they take their meals in the school cafeteria on school days during school hours.

The bishop's message added that the dispensation is not intended to eliminate meatless fare of nutritious value from the menus.

KCs Prepare for Parish Gathering On Easter Monday

Plans are beginning to shape up for the community's traditional Easter Monday get-together.

Co-sponsored by the Muenster Knights of Columbus council and Sacred Heart parish it will be held on the grounds outside the parish hall beginning at 2 p.m. and lasting into the night. Eats and drinks plus the usual picnic concessions for the kiddies will be available.

An added attraction for the night is a dance in the parish hall.

Albert B. Knabe Family Assembles For Golden Anniversary Observance

A family reunion Sunday observed the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Knabe, early day residents who grew up with Muenster.

Their children and grandchildren were hosts for dinner which they took to the family home along with anniversary gifts.

Mrs. Knabe is the former Miss Annie Stoffels, a native of Muenster. Mr. Knabe considers himself a native. He was two years old when his parents brought him to Muenster 70 years ago. They reached the golden milestone in their life together on March 16 but held the observance Sunday when the family could be together. The anniversary Mass was on the anniversary date and family members joined Mr. and Mrs. Knabe for the 6 a.m. service.

The goldenweds, now retired from active farm work, still live on a farm three miles north of town where they settled after their wedding in 1916.

They are parents of 11 children, eight are living, and seven attended the anniversary observance. They have 33 grandchildren and four

Local FFA Chapter Sets Next Monday For Project Show

About sixty entries are expected next Monday in the annual project show sponsored by the Muenster chapter of Future Farmers of America in their project pens at the public school.

Purpose of the show is to exhibit project animals raised by the boys in connection with their vocational agriculture course. Entries include any kind of livestock project such as breeding stock or animals fed for market and beef and dairy types of cattle.

Show animals are due to be in the display pens by 10 o'clock and they will be judged at 1:30. Judge of the show is Jack Clark, vocational agriculture instructor of Era High School. Actually he will classify animals rather than judge them competitively. That means according to Edgar Dyer, Muenster ag teacher, that the awards will be given on merit. It is possible for all of the entries or none of the entries in a class to receive blue ribbons.

Some of the animals shown there Monday will be in Gainesville the following Friday, April 1, for the annual Cooke County Junior Fat Stock Show. Entries there will be strictly slaughter type animals ready for the market. Breeding stock and dairy stock as seen in several FFA and 4-H project shows of the county are ruled out of that event. After the fat stock show the exhibitor has a choice of selling his animal at a special livestock auction or taking it home.

Repeat Showing of SHH Senior Play Booked April 3

A repeat performance of Sacred Heart High's senior class play "Little Moon of Alban" is scheduled for Palm Sunday, April 3.

The demand performance was booked this week after repeated requests from people who missed the first showing March 20. The play showed to a full house that night and those who saw it are still talking about the splendid acting of the various characters Brother Thomas and Sister Roberta directed the cast of 37 and supervised set designing, lighting and making costumes.

Curtain time April 3 in Muenster High Auditorium is 8 p.m.

Monday this week students took some of the scenes to Dallas for presentation at Holy Trinity School and St. Peter's School. From nuns at these schools came some of the habits worn by nuns in the play — Sisters of Charity. Other habits of the outmoded style were secured from convents in Houston, El Paso and San Antonio. Setting of the play is in Ireland in the 1920s.

Going to Dallas Monday with Brother Thomas were Steve Krallicke, Janice Yosten, Candy Fette and Sylvia Hofbauer.

Colonial Acres Hosts Angus Convention

The program for Saturday

will begin at 9 a.m. with coffee followed by a tour of the farm. The business meeting will begin at 10 and recess for lunch at noon. Business will reconvene at 1 p.m. and conclude about 4 p.m.

Social events in connection with the convention will be held Friday night. Cocktails from 8 to 9 will be followed by dinner and dancing to 1 a.m. Jan Garber's Orchestra will play.

All events will be held in the recently completed new show barn at Colonial Acres Farm.

Knights Sponsor Recollection Day

Next Sunday is a Day of Recollection for Sacred Heart parish with special services scheduled from 1 to 4:45 p.m. in the church. It is sponsored by Knights of Columbus for their members and Catholic Daughters, and others of the parish were invited to join.

Msgr. Vincent Wolf of Fort Worth will be speaker at the three conferences, which begin at 1 p.m. 2:15 and 3:30. The remainder of the schedule lists confession at 1:30, rosary at 1:45, coffee break at 3 followed by Way of the Cross and the closing service at 4 consisting of Mass, Communion and Papal blessing.

Local Team Gets Champ Trophy in Volley Tournament

Muenster Mill's volley ball team made the grade last week in an invitation tournament at Prairie Valley. They took the champ trophy after having been nudged out for the top honor in two previous tournaments.

The big game was Saturday night with Bowie Independents. In other games of the tournament they started with a win over Rick's Drive In of Nocona, then beat Sacred Heart Alumni and Nocona FFA.

The two other Muenster teams also won opening games but were promptly eliminated in the champ bracket — the Alumni men by Muenster Mill, the Alumni ladies by Ray's Food Store of Nocona.

The same three teams are playing this week in a tournament at Collinsville.

In their opener the Millers beat Hilz Ford of Polit Point to qualify for the champ bracket. The Alumni teams lost and got into the consolation bracket—men lost to Pedigo Insurance of Pilot Point and ladies lost to Pilot Point National Bank.

JOB CORPS INDOCTRINATION

The Camp Gary Job Corps Center near San Marcos, Texas is something special to President Johnson. It's in the hill country near the LBJ ranch and the President considers the center a showplace in his war against poverty.

Camp Gary was one of the first Job Corps training centers opened and Johnson indicated he would like to see the facility set the pace for efficiency and discipline for others to follow. Several months ago he toured the camp and was given national TV coverage.

Johnson's current assessment of Camp Gary is not generally known, but it is common knowledge the discipline of trainees off base leaves something to be desired. For instance, earlier this year two trainees on the town in San Antonio beat up a military policeman and more recently in Austin a trainee got mixed up in a drunken brawl and ended up dead. He was stabbed to death.

Incidentally, the Office of Economic Opportunity which operates the Job Corps centers, provides funds (tax money) for lawyers to represent trainees who get in trouble with the law. An OEO spokesman said the government feels the trainees "are our babies" and it has a responsibility to furnish legal counsel for the accused youngsters. How's that for a paternalistic attitude of Big Brother government?

Information on what's going on at Camp Gary is not too easy to get. However, the Dallas Morning News assigned two reporters to do some digging for facts at the camp and, with an assist from the News' Washington Bureau, they came up with a creditable account of the center.

Among other things, the story said Camp Gary has 2,457 trainees and a staff of 1,100, or one staff member for each 2.23 trainees. (Texas schools have one employee for each 20 students.)

The camp budget for 13 months (Dec. 31, 1964, to June 30, 1966) is $8,160,000. An OES spokesman predicts the camp will have an enrollment of 3,300 next June and assuming the center has an average of 3,000 trainees for the 18-month period, the budget would break down to $2,700 for each, or a yearly expenditure of $1,822 per trainee.

Trainees at Camp Gary and other centers will grow up with the erroneous conviction that the government owes them a job, a home, medical care and everything else for the rest of their days, which is exactly what the Great Society proposes to provide.

They're getting complete care now and in all probability such underground movements as free enterprise and individual responsibility are seldom, if ever, mentioned by instructors at the camps. So what else could we expect?

One thing can be said of President Johnson: he's not overlooking a single facet of our society in his campaign to indoctrinate one and all with socialism.

"RATS!"

This copy could very well be titled "U.S. Wheat to India — Rats." If after reading this you too don't comment: "Rats!" then you're missing the point. Straight from India comes the report that the entire shipment of United States wheat destined for India during 1966, which is something like 200 million bushels, will not even equal the amount of grain devoured by India's unmolested hords of rats. Nearly 2.5 billion rats, five for each of India's 480 million inhabitants, eat more than 875 million bushels of cereal grain each year, it is estimated.

Without the rats, it would appear to this writer that India would immediately become a food-surplus nation. But, as is the story in so many instances, in India, rat poisons are not available. It is difficult for anyone to understand just how many bushels this waste actually is but suffice it to say that in the United States last year three out of every five bushels of wheat grown went for export; and of these three bushels, two bushels went to India. Think of it, rats in India eat almost four and one-half times the total amount of wheat shipped by the U.S. to India each year.

Bringing this thing down to a little more realistic and understandable basis, let's look at our own local Wilson County Grain elevators, located north of town. These silos have a total capacity of 1 1/2 million bushels. It would take the total capacity of these elevators, removed and shipped to India every 32 hours, all weeks, all months of the year to equal the amount of wheat we here in the United States are shipping to India and this would represent only about one-fourth the amount the rats are devouring annually.

And to add insult to injury, late in December of 1965, the Indian government informed the U.S. government that they could no longer afford to pay freight costs of shipping the free grain. This cost, ranging from $42 million to $104 million, depending upon the amount of grain shipped, is now being paid by Uncle Sam.

No wonder the Indians are this year facing the worst famine since the Bengal disaster of 1942, in which 3 million people died. All these statistics are from the Kansas City Grain Market Review. Wouldn't you think at least one person would come up with the idea of shipping these people some rat poison? About all one can say on the subject is "Rats!"

—Fredonia, Kans., Daily Herald

According to the American Hospital Association, in most hospitals only 20 per cent of the space is allocated to beds. The remaining 80 per cent is occupied by equipment for tests and procedures unknown a few years ago, and to the professional, administrative, engineering and maintenance departments necessary to keep a hospital functioning 24 hours a day.

MORE ZIP NEEDED!

SPEED UP THE MAIL

A letter can sometimes take a couple of days to travel across town or almost a week to make a 100-mile trip, according to "Crisis in the Post Office" in the March issue of Reader's Digest.

After researching the archaic methods of sorting mail in the major post offices, and comparing them to a mechanized operation, the authors conclude that a new era of prompt mail delivery is in prospect when ZIP (Zoning Improving Plan) is fully operative, and will save at least $100 million a year.

However, this will also require additional federal funds, according to the article, to improve facilities and equipment, as well as positive action. Both Congress and the Administration need your support to offset the powerful pressure groups attempting to retard the acceptance of the ZIP code and the installation of automatic sorting devices.

The increase in mail volume, plus the normal 55,000 a year attrition leaving the service, makes it possible for Post Office officials to guarantee that no workers will be fired or downgraded by ZIP or mechanization. But the unions refuse to believe this and are fighting hard for a delay.

"If we continue postal operations as they are," Postmaster General O'Brien said, "there's no doubt that in a couple of years we could be facing a true disaster in the mails."

Taxation is a lot like sheep shearing. As long as you shear a sheep it will continue to produce a new crop. But you can skin the animal only once.

Anthropologists say that one time in the life of man might be termed the "B" period — Baldness, Bifocals, Bridgework and Bulge.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

The good tax folks remind us that students must file a federal income tax return if they earn $600 or more. However, thousands of students work during the summer and earn under $600 — those students must file a return to get a refund of income tax withheld by their employer.

Students who file their own return must claim their own exemption. They may also be claimed as a dependent by their parents. You'd better check your instructions. It may save you quite a bit.

Monsieur Jean Bauchet is an art collector and a connoisseur of fine automobiles. He understands that quiet in a car means quality. After driving a '66 Ford XL, he said, "They would not have to make Paris streets so smooth if all cars rode like this."

Who says a '66 Ford rides quieter than Jean Bauchet's $12,000 Facel Vega?

Jean Bauchet!

Ford's Quiet Man, who recently toured Europe demonstrating the exceptional quality of the '66 Ford to owners of some of the world's most expensive cars, here discusses a '66 Ford XL with Monsieur Bauchet outside of Monsieur Bauchet's Paris home.

"Such smoothness, such silence," says Jean Bauchet. "Your Ford is quieter, M'sieu."

Ford's quiet quality is the result of advanced engineering features like a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" road vibrations... the strongest body ever on a Ford. But the quiet ride is just one of many reasons why you're ahead in a Ford all the way.

Only Ford in its class offers a Stereo-Sonic Tape Player option that brings you over an hour of uninterrupted music of your choice, on each self-threading, snap-in tape cartridge. Magic Doorgate for wagons (standard equipment) that opens out like a door and down like a tailgate, depending on whether you are loading kids or cargo. Silent-Flo Ventilation (on 4-door hardtops) that brings in fresh air and gets rid of smoke and stale air with the windows closed. Even Ford's keys are special—they're double-edged so they fit in locks either side up. Visit your Ford Dealer and test-drive a '66 from Ford. See how many ways Ford can put you ahead in '66.

The Post Office plans to spend about $65 million by June 30 in a stepped-up automation drive, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien announced.

They are Wilfred Bindel, first vice president; Anthony Klement, second vice president; Tommy Herr, secretary; Virgil Henschel, treasurer. They succeed Don Bayer, Andrew Wimmer, Ray Sicking and Albert Hess, in that order.

President Schneider thanked outgoing officers whose assistance helped further the cause of the society during the past year. Two new members Wayne Trachta and Jim Hermes were welcomed.

Before the meeting, members attended 7 p.m. Mass and received Communion in a body in Sacred Heart Church and afterward joined members of Saint Anne's Society for a catered meal in the Parish Hall. About one hundred were present.

St. Anne's Society Sponsors Shower For Yosten Family

Members of the parish St. Anne's Society, at their March meeting Saturday night made plans for a community shower for the Werner Yosten family whose home and furnishings were heavily damaged by fire last month.

The shower was set for Wednesday, March 23, 2 to 5 in the Parish Hall.

Mrs. Al Walterscheid, president, presided. Father Andrew Wewer, spiritual director, led the opening prayer.

Members elected Mrs. Ed Schneider and Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid delegates to the Catholic State League district convention. They voted to pay from treasury funds $60 state per capita tax, $12 district per capita tax and $10 to the Madonna Plan.

Mrs. Leo Henschel read two short articles, one pertaining to Lent, the other entitled "Printed Poison." Spiritual recording for the month, one in a series by Rev. Bertin Roll, director of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers, Pittsburg, Pa., was entitled "Purpose of Christian Mothers in the Children's Home Education."

Driving Is Safer Than in the 40s

Think driving today is more hazardous than it was 20 years ago? It isn't.

In fact on mile-for-mile basis the traffic death rate has been trimmed almost in half over the last two decades.

Back in 1946 nearly 10 people died in traffic accidents for every 100 million miles to travel. The death rate in 1964 was down to 5.7.

Had the death rate of 20 years ago continued, the 1964 traffic toll would have hit 82,000 not the actual 47,700.

Maps are produced for free distribution by Texas Highway Department's travel and information division.

New maps shows 521 more miles of divided highways than appeared on 1965 maps and over 22,000 miles of farm-to-market roads, an increase of 7,500 miles over 1965. Also shown are all highways, public lakes, safety rest areas, city routes and mileage between points.

Vaccination — now a common preventive against many diseases — dates back to 1796, according to World Book Encyclopedia. Edward Jenner developed a vaccine against smallpox in that year, giving the first vaccination to an eight-year-old boy named James Phipps.

Garden Club Hears County Agent on Grafting, Budding

Tree grafting and budding was demonstrated for members of the Civic League and Garden Club at their March meeting Monday night. County Agent Neil Tibbets of Gainesville presented the program.

In his demonstrated lecture he showed tools to use and grafted small limbs. He also presided for a question and answer session and distributed leaflets on the subject.

Twenty-two members and guests attended the meeting in the home of Mrs. R. N. Fette with Mrs. Arthur Felderhoff as co-hostess. They served dessert and coffee after the program.

Business was brief and routine with committee reports. Mrs. Dan Luke of the hospital grounds beautification committee reported red canas being separated and replanted, and addition of three liveoak trees on the grounds. These trees are a gift from L. W. Powell of Dallas.

Mrs. Joe Luke, city librarian, announced open house at the library on April 24.

Members were reminded of the Flowercade in Fort Worth at Leonard's April 27-30. A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders offered the use of their new show barn for flower shows, district meetings and other club activity that needs a large area.

April meeting will feature a talk on lawn care by Mrs. L. B. Bruns. Mmes. Earl and John Fisher will be co-hostesses.

A timid little employee approached his boss. "May I please, sir," he asked, "take Wednesday off? My wife and I are celebrating our silver wedding anniversary."

The boss frowned. "Look here," he cracked, "do I have to put up with this every 25 years?"

Mother-Daughter Banquet Given by MHS Homemakers

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

Staffers at Muenster Public Library are busy preparing for the summer reading program which annually is big business with a large number of students participating. In anticipation of a big turn-over of books, staffers have shelved some 200 books on loan from the State Library. These include reading for all age groups, pre-school through high school.

Another new book is Sorensen's "Kennedy." The author was special counsel to the late president and reviews his association with him from 1953 until his assassination.

The book contains two appendices: a — selective legislative accomplishments of the 86th and 87th congress; b — selected milestones in the Presidency of John F. Kennedy.

National Library Week will be observed from April 17 through 23 and librarians are planning to close it with an open house on Sunday, April 24. Everybody is being invited to attend.

If life is worth what it's costing now, then it was certainly a bargain 30 years ago.

This from an exchange: I dreamed death came the other night, heaven's gates swung wide; With kindly grace an angel stood and ushered me inside. And there, to my astonishment, stood folks I'd known before, Some I'd judged and labeled "Unfit for heaven's door."

Indignant words rose to my lips, but never were set free; For every face showed stunned surprise—no one expected me!

Mrs. John Hacker Birthday Honoree At Denton Reunion
 Birthday observance for Mrs. John Hacker had all the family together for an all-day reunion in Denton Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Strittmatter, a son-in-law and daughter, entertained in their home with dinner and supper complete with birthday cake and ice cream.
 Others present were Shirley and Maurus Hacker, Mrs. Clyde Muller and daughters Debbie and Vickie of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pelzel and daughter Lisa of Pilot Point.

Kin Help Observe 79th Birthday of Mrs. Frank Klement

Relatives from up north were in Muenster this week visiting the Hartman relationship and Tuesday night they joined the clan in observing Mrs. Frank Klement's 79th birthday.
 The visitors were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman of Fort Wayne, Ind., another brother Albert Hartman of Dearborn, Mich., and a cousin Mrs. Annie Hausemann of Pesotum, Ill. They arrived Saturday and left Thursday.

The birthday party was held in St. Joseph's Club with about 40 in attendance. A buffet was followed by table games. There was a decorated cake for the honoree. Gifts included a new radio. Mrs. Klement's children were hosts. The George and Victor Hartmans presented the cake.

During the week the visitors were honorees at a round of dinners and suppers given by the relationship: the Victor Hartmans, Joe Vogels, Felix Beckers and Mrs. John Hartman. They headquartered at the Klement home.
 Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Vogel were hosts for an all-day reunion in their home. Their out of town children came home to join in the gathering and see the visitors.

Weldon and Leonard Vogel and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hess and children attended from Dallas, Lillian and Virginia Vogel came from Fort Worth and Mrs. Robert Beyer and daughter Carol came from Lindsay.

Mrs. Hellman Back From Wisconsin

It wasn't all baby sitting for Mrs. Rudy Hellman while she was in Waukesha, Wis., getting acquainted with a new grandson in the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Syverson.
 She saw other relatives including Dr. and Mrs. Hugo Hellman, and friends who took her to luncheons, the Milwaukee Memorial Art Center, and a fish fry for which Milwaukee and Wisconsin are known.

They drove to Racine and the Loom of Denmark, shopped for Danish wares, and had a christening dinner Sunday when the new baby, Keenan Thomas, was baptized. Proxy sponsors stood for Mr. and Mrs. Damian Hellman of Irving.

The previous Sunday Mrs. Hellman and her son-in-law shared honors at a birthday celebration after seeing him bowl in the Kearney Trecker bowling tournament. Mrs. Hellman returned home Monday.
 When man makes full use of his knowledge, we shall have a Great Society — not based on the Great Society of today, founded by socialist-minded planners, with promises of something for everyone — there will be a place for everyone in the great society, but everyone must earn that place.

2 Cub Scout Dens With 16 Members Are Thriving Here

Two Cub Scout dens with eight members each are thriving and busy since their organization some time ago. Mrs. Calvin Evins and Mrs. Ernest Jaska are den mothers. The boys meet once a week, Mrs. Evins' group on Thursdays and Mrs. Jaska's on Wednesdays.

This month's theme of activity is "Knights of the Round Table" and members are making "armor" from cardboard. In February the two dens joined for a blue and gold banquet — a pot luck supper in the Public School lunch room. Parents, families, and Cub leaders were guests.

Once a month the boys have a pack meeting which their parents attend.

Al Felderhoff is Cubmaster, Ernest Jaska is assistant, Mrs. Richard Watkins assists Mrs. Evins and Mrs. Al Felderhoff assists Mrs. Jaska.

Members of Mrs. Evins' den are Mike and Steve King, Ray and Damien Luke, Mark Hess, Ronnie Weinzapfel, Dwayne Evins, and Ritchie Watkins.

Members of Mrs. Jaska's den are Scotty Felderhoff, Timmy Felderhoff, Carl Hess, Johnny Henscheid, J. T. Pagel, Kevin Pels, Frank Moster and Mark Jaska. Johnny Felderhoff is den chief.

The modern girl usually gets along with her mother-in-law because she can't afford to pay a baby-sitter.

Colorado River Water for Texas?

Texas Water Development Board has asked Congress to include this state in the proposed Federal study to use water from the Western Colorado River to meet the needs of 11 other Western states.

The regional plan would call for potential diversion of water to El Paso, West Texas and the South Plains area if Texas is included.

Resolution before Congress directs the Bureau of Reclamation to report within three years on the feasibility of diverting 8,500,000 acre-feet of water annually from the Columbia River's surplus into the Colorado basin.

3028 Texans Died In Traffic in '65

AUSTIN — Texas Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr. announced today the annual traffic "death book" has been officially closed for 1965, showing that more people were killed on the streets and highways last year than ever before with a total of 3,028 fatalities.

This total was 22 above the 3,006 traffic deaths recorded in 1964, which also was an all-time high.

However, Garrison said, there were 28 fewer fatal accidents in 1965 than in 1964. Whereas 3,028 persons were killed in 1965 in 2,460 accidents, 3,006 killed in 1964 in 2,486 accidents.

"In addition to this tragic loss of life," Garrison said, "there was an estimated 186,062 injuries suffered in traffic accidents, compared to 182,081 in 1964. The economic loss in traffic reached an estimated $498,087,000, compared to $486,846,000 in 1964.

He explained that the traffic toll almost throughout last year was running slightly less than the year before, until a tremendous unexpected upsurge came in December, when 363 persons were killed in 293 fatal accidents. In December 1964, 280 persons were killed in accidents.

December, 1965, was the highest month on record for traffic fatalities. On the weekend prior to the Christmas holidays last year, a traffic toll of 49 lives was lost in just two days in 39 accidents. On the corresponding weekend in 1964, 20 lives were lost in 17 accidents.

There's no such thing as an idle rumor — they're always busy.

Synthetic Meat Is on the Way Says A&M Expert

"Make Believe" meat — a substitute for red meat and poultry could have a severe impact upon the economy of Texas, says Ed Uvacek, Extension Livestock marketing specialist, Texas A&M University.

Recent developments in the use of spun fibers of soybean protein as a substitute for almost any food with natural fiber texture may bring this problem closer to farmers and ranchers in the foreseeable future.

The fiber can be treated to imitate such foods as meat, dried fruits, potato chips, nut kernels and many vegetables. Since it has no taste, it may be given any flavor desired.

Substitution of synthetics for farm products is not new. Nylon, rayon, dacron and other synthetic fibers have cut deeply into wool and cotton utilization. Soybeans or other substitutions for meat is therefore not too surprising.

The final story will be unfolded in the future. Since these synthetics are new, research is still in progress and many product developments and consumer response problems still have to be worked out.

In Texas, livestock provides the major source of farm income, and any development in the competition for meat production could have a substantial effect upon the income and type of products produced by individual farmers and ranchers.

Currently, synthetics are not yet major competitors with fresh meat. With further developments, however, Texas producers may face some severe problems in the competition for real meat.

In the event that synthetic meat products find a strong market in the future, it may be that soybeans, now a relatively small crop in the state, could increase substantially.

Texas farmers and ranchers must assume the correct attitude toward these new products, says Uvack. Probably the most logical approach is to understand nature and potential of these products and thus devote their efforts toward the improvement of production, processing and marketing of livestock.

6 From Muenster Attend Diocesan Music Workshop

Six Muenster musicians were among a large group attending the fifth annual Diocesan Liturgical Music Workshop at Nolan High School in Dallas Saturday and Sunday.

There were Anthony Luke, Frank Luke, Sisters Leonarda, Jean Marie and Richard, who attended both days, and Ben Luke who attended Saturday.

Three nationally recognized leaders in the field of sacred music conducted sessions which included both Latin and English Mass music.

Father Ralph March, assistant professor of music at the University of Dallas, led sessions devoted to Gregorian Chant. Father Richard Schuler, musicologist and assistant professor of music at St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn., discussed the norms in Catholic worship as prescribed by the Vatican Council's "Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy," and Paul Salamunovich, assistant conductor of the Roger Wagner Chorale of Hollywood, Calif., conducted sessions in polyphony and contemporary music and four-part choir.

Dr. Dobbs Family Weekend Visitors

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dobbs and six children of Dallas spent the weekend in Lindsay with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burrows, and were in Muenster Friday night and Saturday night.

Friday Dr. and Mrs. Dobbs attended Sacred Heart High School's senior play with the Larry Yosten family and Saturday they were among guests at a party in the Gary Hess home.

Others there were Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Schilling, Gene Klement, Alfred Bayer and Bobo Jaska and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Nasche and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shutter of Garland. The Nasches and their two sons and the Shutters and their four children spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess and family.

Safety Expert Is Guest Speaker for Hospital Auxiliary

Muenster Hospital Auxiliary had a full house at its March meeting Thursday night — members and visitors — to hear a guest speaker and see a demonstration of mouth to mouth resuscitation. Giving the program was B. B. Cooper of Dallas, assistant manager of Safety for TP&L Co.

His lecture was illustrated with films and he used a dummy to demonstrate artificial respiration.

Cooper was introduced by Mrs. Ervin Hamric, Auxiliary president, who was in charge of the business session which followed.

Members discussed their current project — providing door plaques for the local hospital — plaques listing names of donors of rooms, furnishings and equipment.

To help finance the project the organization will present a fashion review and variety show Sunday night, March 27. Plans for the benefit were discussed and members reported on numbers they are rehearsing. They also plan to buy a hair dryer for hospital patients.

Meeting was held in the dining room at Muenster Memorial Hospital. After adjournment Mrs. Rufus Henscheid and Mrs. Ernest Jaska were refreshment hostesses and Mrs. Ray Wilde won the door prize, a silver bon bon dish, courtesy M&W Oil Field Supply.

Brandons Honored At Housewarming

A housewarming party honored Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Brandon in their new home at Rosston Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5. Sixty-eight relatives, neighbors and friends attended.

Hostesses Mmes. Andrew Hacker, Paul and Edward Hacker and R. D. Brandon served punch, cake and cookies from a pretty table covered with a white lace cloth and appointed in crystal and silver. Spring flowers formed the centerpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandon, daughter Beverly and son Stanley, showed guests through the three-bedroom house with bath and a half, central heat and attached garage.

Those attending the party showered the honor couple with gifts for the home. Guests were present from Valley View, Sanger, Krum, Forestburg, Rosston, Dallas, Muenster, Hood and Gainesville.

Mrs. Yosten Hosts 42 Club Meeting

Progressive 42 Club members gathered at the home of Mrs. Buddy Yosten for their March social. After the games she served a dessert plate and coffee to nine members and three guests.

Mrs. Ray Walterscheid was high score winner, Mrs. Larry Yosten, a guest, was second high and Mrs. Eddie Fleitman, also a guest, secured the galloping prize. The other guest was Mrs. Pat Hennigan.

Millers, Fuhrmans Attend Telephone Assn. Convention

Muenster Telephone Corporation owners Alvin Fuhrman and Billy Joe Miller and their wives were in Houston last week at the 61st annual Texas Telephone Association convention in the Rice Hotel.

While the men tended to business ladies had luncheons and tours and both groups got together for a banquet and dance. The Fuhrmans and Millers also attended the Pioneer Luncheon.

Tours included the Warwick Hotel, Westbury Square to see candle making, glass blowing and candy making, and the Space Center. And men and women were together at Clear Lake Country Club for luncheon.

Also at the convention and visiting the Muenster couples were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Horn of Windhorst, former residents. The Fuhrmans and Horns fished at Galveston Bay Thursday after the convention closed.

Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman accompanied her son and daughter-in-law to Houston and spent the time with another son and his family, the Jerry Fuhrmans where she got acquainted with a new grandson.

Going with the Millers were their daughter Joanie and Mrs. Miller's sister Mrs. Andy Hofbauer. They were guests in the home of another sister, Mrs. John O'Dowd family.

After the telephone convention, the Millers went to Dallas for the Thursday and Friday Humble Oil Company convention at Marriott Motel. It was "convention week" for them with more of the same... meetings, entertainment, banquet and dance for some 1400 Humble people from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Mrs. Hofbauer returned from Dallas after a visit with her children and Joanie Miller was the guest of her aunt and family, the Don Glovers, while her parents were at the convention.

Lindsay All Set For Full Week of Volleyball Play

Principal business on the agenda for Lindsay Athletic Association at their meeting last week was completing plans for a week-long volleyball tournament starting March 28.

Glenn Hellman was assigned the job of being in charge of admissions and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer got the job of being in charge of the refreshment stand. She received a round of applause for all the work she did in the concession stand during the basketball season.

James Bezner, president, presided. Gregory Hundt and Julius Hermes Jr. were named to head a committee on nominations for officer election next month.

There was further discussion on purchasing a scoreboard for the Knights' football field. A committee is being appointed to get a fund raising drive started.

Coach Henry Schroeder reported on a coaches' meeting he attended in Austin recently. He took three senior boys with him; Skipper Bezner, Andy Arendt Jr. and Kenny Laux. They arrived in Austin in time to have breakfast with Skipper's brother-in-law and sister, Airman and Mrs. Roy Morisak, who later took the boys sight-seeing in the capital city while Coach Schroeder was at the meeting.

This measure completes about as much as possible the process of gaining a year in tax collections. Before World War II, you remember, you paid your income tax at the end of the year. Then came withholding to collect on wages and salaries as they were earned. Then came quarterly payments on estimated tax by the self-employed. What now? Bigger advances on income tax estimates and pre-payment of social security by self-employed? And credits rather than checks for overpayment?

Whatever the method, it's distressing to think of this hand to mouth policy in a great and powerful nation — whose government brags about being responsible for unprecedented national prosperity.

Lindsay Man Heads District of Catholic League

Election of officers for the North Texas District of the Catholic State League was the principal business at the group's meeting in Windthorst Sunday.

The complete slate of officers is new. David Strittmatter of Lindsay heads the organization as president, Mrs. Adolph Fuhrmann of Lindsay is vice president, Miss Judy Lynn of Windthorst is secretary, Albert Osterman of Windthorst is treasurer, Robert Wolf of Windthorst is Rural Life chairman.

Mrs. Ted Gremminger of Muenster, district president serving the unexpired term of Andy Roewe of Windthorst who resigned at becoming state president, conducted the session. Welcome was extended by Father Cletus Post, pastor of St. Mary's Parish, and by officers of the host parish societies: Mrs. E. A. Hoff, Christian Mothers Society; George Beaman, men's society; David Berend, CYC; and Albert Osterman, representative of Catholic Life Insurance.

Principal speakers were Father Cletus on Vocations and Msgr. Andrew Marthaler of Rowena on The Lay Apostolate.

Presidents of parish societies in the district presented quarterly reports. Muenster's were given by Ed Schneider and Mrs. Al Walterscheid. Nick Block and Mrs. Adolph Fuhrmann reported for Lindsay, Frank Heitzman for Pilot Point, Mrs. Ray Lindmann for Scotland, Beaman and Mrs. Hoff for Windthorst.

Young people participated in a talent show. Sacred Heart High seniors and juniors presented scenes from their class plays. And there was a volleyball tournament in which boys and girls of the district competed.

State officers present were Mrs. Arnold Frerich of Rowena and Mrs. Al Walterscheid of Muenster, state president and vice president of the Women's Union. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kraus of Dallas who rarely miss a meeting were present.

Meeting was held in the KC Hall, youth events in the school gym. A social hour and refreshments followed adjournment.

Fall district meeting will be held in Scotland.

Muenster Team Places Fourth in Land Judging

Muenster's Junior FFA land judging team tied for fourth place in the junior division of the tenth annual land judging contest sponsored by Upper Elm Red Soil Conservation District. The event was held last Saturday at Cooke County Junior College.

Top honors were won by Era FFA in the junior division and Prairie Valley FFA in the senior division. Next four junior places were Prairie Valley second, Nocona third and Muenster tied with Sherman for fourth. The next four of the senior division, listed in order, are Sadler-Southmayd, Nocona, Sherman, and Forestburg tied with Gainesville for fifth.

Seventy seven boys representing eleven schools participated. The schools were Muenster, Era, Gainesville, Callisburg, Prairie Valley, Nocona, Forestburg, Whitesboro, Sadler-Southmayd, Gunter and Sherman. Most of them had both senior and junior entries.

Each team was allowed four members and scores of the top three were totaled for the team score. Best senior score was 501 out of a possible 720 and the best junior score was 483 out of 720. Best individual score was 184 out of 240 by Norman Lee of Forestburg.

Soil conservation service technicians assisted the Soil Conservation District personnel in conducting the contest. All participants were guests of the District at a noon luncheon in CCJC gymnasium. At that time the best three teams of each division received trophies and the best three individuals received medals.

Teachers Seek Another Raise

Texas State Teachers Association plans to ask the next Legislature to bring the salary of teachers up to the national average.

That would mean a boost of about $56 to reach $6,506 average mark. A $553 hike last year cost $101,000,000.

TSTA notes Texas teachers now rank 28th in the nation paywise.

Teachers' legislative goals for 1967 also include five days a year authorized sick leave and retirement system improvements.

Almost 295,000 students are enrolled in the 132 colleges and other higher educational institutions within Texas for the 1965-1966 school year, according to a compilation made for a publication of the Texas Power & Light Co. Educators estimate that enrollment in colleges and universities in Texas will reach 400,000 by 1970.

Grayson County Junior College, which opened this fall, is listed as having 1,327 students in its first year, about double the enrollment projected when the college was organized.
