

Labor union bosses now say that their objective is a minimum wage of $2.00 an hour, an increase of 40 cents per hour over the present legal minimum. The intention, of course, is to guarantee an income which will bring a better standard of living to all workers.

It's amazing how those people keep butting their heads against the unyielding laws of economics. For the past two decades they have had many opportunities to see that general wage increases do more harm than good.

The first effect is the loss of jobs by many workers whose productive ability does not justify the higher wage. Then comes a chain reaction of wage increases. The new minimum is equal to the wage formerly paid to workers whose skill and judgment entitled them to more. So the second group has to be raised. And so on and on until the higher minimum wage has upped the entire range of wage scales.

All of that combines to increase the cost of production, which is inevitably followed by a higher price on the product.

That completes the spiral. Workers find that they haven't really gained. Though the pay check is bigger it buys no more than before. Wage increase has been absorbed by price increase and the worker is back at the same economic level—that is, regarding his current earnings and living expense.

Meanwhile however, he has lost in another way. Savings he had in the form of insurance, checking account, savings account, savings bonds, etc., have lost some of their buying power. Over all the man is a loser in spite of higher wages.

Even bigger losers are people on a fixed income. They get no raises. Their current income as well as their savings has shrunk in value. Losses of all those people is reflected in a nationwide loss of sales potential. There simply is no denying the fact that the public would buy more if its money would go farther. And that in turn leads to the fact that a greater national demand would stimulate more production and more jobs.

Replying to this line of reasoning, higher wage advocates will claim, of course, that the nation's standard of living has been improved wonderfully and the gross national product keeps going up. While that claim is true it does not really explain our national prosperity. It's more correct to say we are prosperous in spite of wage increases than because of them.

Technological progress more than any other factor accounts for our increased production and higher standard of living. Efficiency tends to hold down costs and compensates to a great extent for the higher cost of arbitrary wage increases.

Actually, this increase of efficiency is the only valid justification for increase of wages. The worker whose improvement in skill and knowledge enables him to produce more in quality or quantity is entitled to more. On the other hand, an arbitrary demand for more pay just because the employer can be forced to pay it is neither just nor economically sound.

If we give the subject some serious thought we realize that increase based only on merit is fair and works best in the long run. Workers have the opportunity for promotion. All can get more as they earn more. Meanwhile unit costs can remain stable, consumers get the benefit of stable prices and the over all economy remains stable.

We can easily imagine what conditions would be like if such a policy had been adopted years ago. Pay checks, though smaller, would go farther than today. Savings funds and fixed incomes too would buy more. We'd have more consumption, more production, more jobs.

The point to remember here is that prosperity is not measured by the money in circulation but rather by the volume of goods we produce and use.

Another side of this subject is related to current national worries about balance of payments. The high cost of labor has priced many American products out of the market. It has reduced our exports and increased our imports. It

Observance Set for Public School Week

A combined open house and science fair next Tuesday night will be the big event in observance of Public School Week in Muenster.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Science fair entries will be on display in the gymnasium and exhibits of work in other subjects along with teaching aids and equipment will be on display in their respective classrooms. And refreshments of coffee and cookies will be served in the corridor.

Another program of the week is an organ concert by Gerald Payne, head of the school's music department. It will be a combination of prepared numbers and request numbers. People will be invited to submit their requests in writing and drop them into a box. Selections taken from the box will determine the request numbers played. Date of the concert is Friday.

One custom of the past is not being observed this year. Visitors are not asked to join the students for lunch because facilities are already crowded.

On Thursday night the school board will have its regular monthly meeting. Superintendent L. B. Bruns stated that this is another opportunity for people to get in closer touch with their school system. They are welcome at this meeting, and at all meetings.

For senior class members the special week will begin Friday, when they will attend a career day program at Cooke County Junior College.

Displays will be judged in time to show their ribbons during the open house, which begins at 7:30.

The local event is one of the thousands of local preliminaries connected with the nationwide science contest. First and second place winners of each division here advance to the county contest at Cooke County Junior College. Winners from there advance another step in the competition, and so on.

The local show is held in fourteen classifications, all of which are eligible for first, second and third place ribbons. Nine of those classifications are the first nine grades. The other five, for the three top grades, are math, girls' biology, boys' biology, girls' physical science and boys' physical science.

The community's first volleyball trophy of the season was brought home Saturday night from Prairie Valley by the Sacred Heart Alumni ladies. They were consolation winners.

In their opener they lost to Russell Newman of Saint Jo, then eliminated the Bowie Independents and beat Prairie Valley Seniors in the final.

Also entered in the tourney were Alumni men and Center men and women. They were disqualified when they failed to report for last Thursday night's game despite rough weather.

Four Muenster teams are entered this week in a tournament sponsored by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at Gainesville.

Council Calls for Hearing Monday on Proposed Paving

A hearing set for Monday night in the city hall will determine what streets will be selected for a paving project during the summer.

Mayor Earl Fisher said this week that the city has requests for paving some streets and all the proposed projects have been listed in an official notice of the hearing. The hearing will determine which projects are wanted by a sufficient number of property owners to justify doing them.

Possibly the hearing will require the city to decide which projects will be favored and which rejected. City participation consists of paying for the pavement at street intersections and the gaps between property lines at alleys. Since city finance is limited a few projects may have to be scratched to keep the over all cost in line.

Filing Deadlines Nearing for Three Local Elections

With the filing deadlines near for this community's three elections on April 6, no contest has developed on any of the tickets.

To date two of the ballots have one candidate for each open position, the other ballot is one name short.

The ticket with a vacancy is in the school board election. Ray Wilde has filed for reelection but Charley Hellman indicated he will not be a candidate and no other candidate has appeared.

On the city ballot Aubrey Tuggle and Richard Greiving have filed as candidates for reelection but neither has an opponent to date.

Filing deadline for both of those races is set by law as 30 days before election, which is March 6. Names are to be submitted to School Superintendent L. B. Bruns and to City Secretary Mrs. Arnold Henschel.

The hospital district ticket has five candidates for five positions, all seeking reelection. They are Alphonse Felderhoff, Norbert Felderhoff, Albert Dangelmayr, Ray Voth and Rufus Henschel.

Filing deadline for the election is 25 days before, which falls on March 12. Names are to be submitted to Rufus Henschel, secretary.

Names of candidates must be submitted before the deadline to qualify for listing on the ballots.

Before joining the division staff, Rogers served as district manager of the Company's Mesquite District since 1957. He joined the Company in 1949 and served in the engineering, test, rate and sales departments in Dallas until 1954, when he was named assistant manager of the TP&L Temple district. In 1955, he was named manager of the Company's Lancaster area.

Muenster Has Another Doctor

Another doctor for Muenster will be on the job within a few days, probably early next week.

Dr. Alfredo Antonetti of Wichita Falls informed David Bright, Muenster Hospital administrator, by phone Wednesday night that he has made arrangements to move immediately. Earlier in the week he announced his intention to come here about March 15.

He will have his office in the Muenster Medical Center, in the suite formerly occupied by Dr. Hejduk. His temporary home will be the living quarters at the hospital, formerly occupied by the Benedictine Sisters.

For a while his wife and a son, 12, will remain in Wichita Falls to make arrangements for moving and selling their present home.

Dr. Antonetti, 49, is a native of Cuba and the former president of Antonetti Clinic in Havana with a staff of about 50 doctors. When the Castro government took over the clinic he declined to remain and came to this country. He has spent most of his time since in Wichita Falls, first on the staff of the State Hospital, the past two years on the staff of a clinic.

He is the son of a doctor, now retired in Miami, and has a son now studying medicine at Oklahoma University. He also has a son studying psychology at Midwestern University. Another son, married, is not in the profession.

CALLING THE KETTLE BLACK

There's one thing about television, especially where matters like the Pueblo crisis are concerned — it brings to light the two-faced, lying and deceiving attitude on the part of diplomats.

As we sat and viewed that fiasco at the United Nations Assembly, the statement by the ambassador from the Soviet Union made us sick at our stomach.

U. S. Ambassador Goldberg had pinpointed radio messages from both the captain of the Pueblo and from North Korea, and both messages showed clearly that the Pueblo was in international waters when it was kidnapped.

The Soviet delegate used diplomatic language in trying to get across his contention that Ambassador Goldberg was telling a bald-face lie.

Here is an underlying contention of ours as to why the United Nations will never be an effective organization for world peace. It is merely a place where well-versed diplomats can swap stories, with both sides claiming they are right.

But what stirred our blood was the Soviet snake's appeal to the United Nations to help get the United States out of South Korea. He urged the U. S. to withdraw from South Korea "so Korea can unite as one democracy and run their country as free peoples."

Poppycock! Ambassador Goldberg missed a golden opportunity to let the Soviet spokesman know that people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones.

He could have pointed to Poland, to Czechoslovakia, to Hungary, to East Germany, to other once-free countries that have been gobbled up under the heels of the Russian bear.

A nation that turns its back on God, that denies free assembly, free speech and free elections, that destroys individual initiative, shouldn't be allowed to call the kettle black — even in the two-faced United Nations assembly.

Soviet Russia is not only the father of Communism, but also the father of the Pueblo crisis. Divide and conquer. That's the theory of the big Red Bear.

THE DEPRIVED

In a Christian nation such as ours concern for the deprived is proper and expected. Indeed it is the history of our people that concern for the deprived has prompted generosity admired by the entire civilized world.

Within our own borders, however, concern for the deprived has waned. And the deprived are grievously in need. Federal funds and projects have not been enough. Appropriations and budgeted bounties have not done the job. There have been commissions and authorities. Experts have been empanelled. Yet the plight of the deprived in our country grows worse, not better.

Who are the deprived? The woman whose purse is snatched from her hand in the street.

The merchant whose cash register is emptied while he is held at bay.

The teen-age daughter of a neighbor who is deprived of her virginity, by force.

The homeowner who returns to a house from which the TV, the radio, the silverware and the piggy bank have been stolen.

The taxpayer whose family automobile has been stolen.

The job holder who has had a knife or gun jabbed into his ribs a block from home, is mugged and beaten and robbed.

The vacationing family who returned to find the house stripped of even the furniture.

These are the deprived in our land. The really deprived. They outnumber the dead-beats on welfare, the poverty program spongers and the black power marchers by ten to one.

Our police have been cowed into docility toward those who deprive us. Our courts have pampered those who deprive us. Our politicians have been nauseating in their pandering to pressures — and votes.

We are the deprived — we who pay taxes, we who suffer pain and loss — or property and even life.

And the time has come to tell the judges, the police, the politicians, and Washington, that you don't aim to be deprived any longer.

If you are one of the deprived, start making noise. Loud. You'll be heard.

ORDINANCE NO. 117
AN ORDINANCE DECLARING THE NECESSITY FOR AND ORDERING THE PAYING AND IMPROVEMENT INCLUDING CURBS AND GUTTERS OF CERTAIN STREETS OR PORTIONS THEREOF IN THE CITY OF MUENSTER, APPROVING THE PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS FOR SUCH WORK, AUTHORIZING THE CITY SUPERINTENDENT AND OR MAYOR TO ADVERTISE FOR BIDS DIRECTING THE PREPARATION OF ESTIMATES INVOKING THE PROCEDURE PREVIOUSLY ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MUENSTER, DETERMINING THAT A PART OF THE COSTS SHALL BE BORNE BY THE CITY AND THAT A PORTION OF THE COST SHALL BE BORNE BY THE ABUTTING PROPERTY AND THE OWNERS OF SUCH PROPERTY, PROVIDING FOR THE ASSESSMENTS OF THE PORTION OF THE COST TO BE BORNE BY THE PROPERTY OWNERS, AND FOR THE FIXING OF A LIEN TO SECURE THE PAYMENT OF SUCH COSTS, DIRECTING THE CITY SECRETARY TO CAUSE NOTICE OF THE ENACTMENT OF THIS ORDINANCE TO BE FILED IN THE LIEN, MORTGAGE OR DEED OF TRUST RECORDS OF COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS AND CALLING AND ISSUING NOTICE OF HEARING, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY, AS SPECIFIED IN ARTICLE 1105b REVISED CIVIL STATUTES OF TEXAS —

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF CITY OF MUENSTER: SECTION 1. That a necessity exists for the permanent improvement of certain streets or portions of public streets herein listed, by excavating, grading and paving the same by the installation of drainage facilities therein, and by constructing of curbs and gutters where adequate curbs and gutters are not in place, and such improvements are hereby ordered: (1) ON SECOND STREET, from the boundary line of Hickory to Sycamore Street; (2) ON EIGHTH STREET, from the boundary line of Main Street to past Oak Street; (3) ON PINE STREET, from the boundary line of Division to Cross Street; (4) ON MESQUITE STREET, from the boundary line of Division to Cross Street; (5) ON PINE STREET, from the boundary line of Edy Street to North End of Street; (6) ON CROSS STREET, from the boundary line of South Sycamore to Mesquite Street; (7) ON PECAN STREET, from the boundary line of Sixth to Seventh Street.

SECTION 2. Streets will be paved from curb to curb curbs and gutters will be constructed where none now exist, and necessary drainage facilities will be installed. In instance where there is now some existing pavement which may be adequate, such pavement, if possible, will not be removed, but repaired and/or necessary work and materials will be done upon said street units in order to effect a good and sufficient paving, from curb to curb, and the plans and specifications for said improvements heretofore prepared by the City and/or its agent and now on file with the City Council are hereby in all, and its entirety approved.

SECTION 3. The City Superintendent and/or the Mayor is hereby authorized and directed to advertise for bids for the improvements and work herein described; the advertising, receiving and opening of such bids to be handled in a manner prescribed by law. Upon the receipt and opening of the bids for such improvement work, the said City Superintendent and/or City Secretary is directed to prepare and file with the City Council an estimate of the total cost of the improvements herein ordered and the total amount of the part of the costs thereof to be paid by the City of Muenster in accordance with the provisions outlined in Article 1105b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and in accordance with instruction given by the City Council.

SECTION 4. The City Council of the City of Muenster deems it advisable and hereby determines to proceed under and in exercise of the powers, terms and provisions of Chapter 106, of the First called Session of the 40th Legislature of Texas, being Article 1105b R.C.S. of Texas and all subsequent revisions and amendments thereto.

SECTION 5. The cost of said improvements shall be paid as follows: (a) The City shall pay the cost of surveying the proper boundary lines of said streets and shall take care of drainage installations wherever located and some of the base preparation and paving within street and alley sections, and not less than 20% of the cost of excavation, base preparation and paving of all other portions of street units involved. The remaining street units and cost thereof of all such improvements shall be paid by the property abutting said street units and the owners thereof.

(b) The City shall proceed to accept bids and/or make provisions for all the necessary work required to be done on said improvements, and the pro rata share to be paid by the abutting property and the owners thereof shall be submitted a statement showing the portion due on the said pro rata basis. (c) The remaining pro rata share costs of such improvements shall be assessed against the respective abutting properties and the real and true owners thereof in accordance with Article 1105b and other regulations pertaining to said assessments. No assessment shall be made against abutting property or real and true owner thereof for costs in excess of the benefits such property in enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements. The amount of such assessment shall constitute a first and prior lien upon all such properties and a personal liability of the true and real owners thereof, whether correctly named or not, and shall be payable as follows:

Thirty days after completion and acceptance of said improvements, thereafter six (6%) percent interest will be charged on all delinquent accounts.

SECTION 6. The construction and installation of the improvements herein ordered in each street unit or portion of street herein designated and described shall be separate and independent of the construction and installation of such improvements in each and every other street unit or portion of street. The assessments to be levied for improvements in each such street unit shall be separate and distinct from the assessments levied in every other street unit; and in making and levying assessments against property for the improvements in one unit or portion of street, no other concurrent or circumstance in connection with any other unit or portion of street shall be considered, all as fully and to the same extent as if separate contracts were executed and separate proceedings had with reference to each such street unit or portion of street. And this assessment shall apply whenever such improvements are made as authorized by the City Council, whether the same be for curb and gutters or the paving of said street or streets or portions thereof. It shall be the same whether the liens are directly taken by the contractor or whether the liens are assigned to the City and that the holder of said liens shall be the person, persons or firms entitled to said liens as security for the improvements done, and the liens shall be fixed by the filing of this Ordinance with the County Clerk of Cooke County, Texas. Upon payment in full, releases may be executed by Mayor and City Secretary of the City of Muenster, removing such liens from record, at the expense of the person or persons against whom such liens are made. All unpaid liens shall bear interest as allowed by law and no liens are authorized to be released without the full and final payment of the amounts due by the abutting property and the true and legal owner thereof.

SECTION 7. The City Secretary is hereby directed to cause to be prepared a Notice of enactment of this Ordinance and to file said Notice with the County Clerk of Cooke County, Texas, among the records of said County, and also to cause Notice to be given to the citizens of the city as prescribed by law.

SECTION 8. The fact that the streets and portions thereof to be improved as herein provided for, are in bad and dangerous condition and should be improved without delay and the further fact that such type of work must be done during the proper and correct weather creates an emergency and imperative public necessity for immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety and general welfare, and therefore, the rule requiring more than one reading of the Ordinance before passage is hereby suspended; and this Ordinance shall be passed and take effect as an emergency measure and be in full force from and after its passage by the City Council as provided by law, and it is so ordained.

FERTILIZER PRICES TO RISE IN SPRING

Fertilizer prices, already on the rise, will probably increase another 5 per cent by next spring, according to Jaral Aston, vice president of marketing, Agricultural Chemicals, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation.

Mr. Aston said the increases are in store for mixed fertilizers and phosphates, and he named these four reasons for the increases:

1. The sulfur industry has increased prices three times over the past year—incomes totaling $12 a ton or more than 40 per cent.

2. Limited sulfur supply will restrict phosphate production and thus increase production cost per unit.

3. Labor, warehouse and transportation costs have been climbing continuously, and these increases must be added to fertilizer costs.

4. Phosphate costs themselves have increased because of the increased expense of handling and processing phosphate rock.

"Sulfur is fundamental to the production of phosphate fertilizers," Mr. Aston explained. "An average of one-third ton of sulfur is required to produce one ton of phosphate fertilizer."

He said since 1963 the consumption of sulfur in the United States has exceeded production. Consumption of sulfur has become so great it has reduced inventories to a point where allocation to customers has become necessary, he added.

Rapidly increasing labor costs, increases in warehouse and terminal expenses, as well as transportation costs for raw materials have added considerably to the cost of fertilizers, Mr. Aston said.

Mr. Aston said approximately a ton of phosphate rock is necessary to produce a ton of fertilizer. Labor and processing costs of phosphate rock are other factors causing the increased cost of phosphate fertilizers.

"In all, these increased fertilizer prices could mean an additional investment of from 10 cents to 30 cents an acre to the farmer, depending on the type of crop and location of the farm," Mr. Aston said.

He said even with this increase, fertilizer is still one of the farmer's best investments for increased profits.

"The United States Department of Agriculture recently put out a study of farm costs, and the most staggering increase—almost 100 per cent—is in farm real estate. These figures were based on 1950 prices compared with prices through 1965. Farm wage rates went up more than 70 per cent, farm machinery went up more than 50 per cent, and fertilizers went up less than 5 per cent," Mr. Aston said.

Knight and Lady J. M. Weinzapfel receive promotion honors in Equestrian Order. John Hartmans celebrate 55th wedding anniversary. The Ed King family moves back to Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hess celebrate 25th wedding anniversary. New arrivals: boys for Messrs. and Mmes. Larry Hennigan, Ray Laux, Bill Martin, Leroy Schmidkofer and Richard Schumacher; a girl for the Billy Joe Reiters.

On the bulletin board of the Methodist Church at McCune, Kansas, are the words: "Going to heaven? Get your flight instructions here."

Catfish Farming Continues to Expand in Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 27 — Production of catfish for commercial purposes has continued rapid growth in 1967, announces W. G. Klussmann, Extension specialist in wildlife conservation at Texas A&M University.

From 300 acres in production in 1960, catfish farming has grown to an estimated 3,000 acres in 1967. Klussmann says about 20-25 million pounds of catfish were harvested in 1966 compared to a few thousand in 1963.

"By 1970, the number of farm-raised catfish will likely increase from 100 to 200 percent," he said.

For many people in Texas fish farming is a profitable sideline, but for many more it is a full-time business. A few are losing money fish-farming but this is mainly because of merchandising and marketing problems, Klussmann points out.

At an initial stocking rate of 1,500 yearling catfish, the farmer can expect an average yield of 1,600 pounds per acre, per year.

With prevailing market prices between 35 and 75 cents a pound and the costs of raising fish, including feed, from 25 to 30 cents a pound, Klussmann said the profit may vary between $80 and $800 a year per acre.

This wide variation in expected profits is probably the result of the unorganized nature of this new industry and the variations in management and marketing abilities of the individual producers, Klussmann concludes.

SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS SETS APRIL 13 OPENING

An exciting new addition for 1968 at SIX FLAGS Over Texas is a $180,000 air conditioned Music Hall seating 1,200 guests. Regularly scheduled shows starting collegiate talent will be presented throughout the day, beginning April 13 when the giant 140-acre family entertainment center opens for the season.

Arlington, Texas — SIX FLAGS Over Texas, the 140-acre, multi-million-dollar historical-theme park located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, has set April 13 as its opening date for the 1968 season.

Lavish changes, new attractions and rides, and other projects stemming from a $2,000,000 expansion program are in store for SIX FLAGS visitors during 1968.

SIX FLAGS will operate in the Spring on Fridays from 5-11 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Starting May 25 and throughout the Summer, SIX FLAGS is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. After September 2, until closing December 1, operations will be on weekends only from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The Amphitheatre in the Confederate section, where talented collegians present bright and original musical variety shows, has been torn down to be replaced with a new and beautiful $200,000 white-columned, enclosed, air-conditioned theatre which will be known as the "Music Hall."

Talent scouts from SIX FLAGS are nearly completed with an extensive audition tour covering about 250 colleges in the South, Southeast and Midwest, picking outstanding performers for this year's shows.

The Mexican section of the Park, with its Fiesta Train Ride, has been completely redone to the tune of $400,000 to make it even more colorful and exciting. Imagine passengers' reactions when the sombrero-topped trains run through an erupting volcano, just to name one innovation.

Sid and Marty Krofft, world-famous puppeteers, will present at SIX FLAGS this year The Krofft Bros. Puppet Circus. The spectacular $350,000 production, which includes a new 1,200-seat theatre costing $200,000, will stage shows 10 times each day.

SIX FLAGS, which introduced the first Log Flume ride in the country in 1963, has added another $350,000 model for 1968 because of its popularity and appeal.

Angus G. Wynne, Jr., creator/developer of SIX FLAGS Over Texas and president of the parent company, Great Southwest Corporation, said, "We are anticipating an even larger attendance in 1968 than last year's record of 2,036,000 visitors. And this year our guests and their families will be able to enjoy and participate in SIX FLAGS' activities in even greater comfort, because we have increased our capacity to handle 29,000 visitors per hour on the rides, attractions, and shows, as compared to 22,000 per hour in 1967."

Tickets are $4.50 for adults and $3.50 for children under 12 years of age. As in prior years, the one ticket purchased at the main gate enables visitors to ride all the rides and see all the attractions and shows as often as they wish during the day.

SIX FLAGS, with nearly 11,000,000 visitors since opening in 1961, is the most popular single tourist attraction in the State of Texas, according to the Texas Tourist Development Agency.

Old Method of Learning to Read Gains Popularity

For forty years education in this country has been handicapped by a method of reading education called "whole-word" method, "look - say" method, picture reading or configuration reading. "Look-and-guess" would have been a better name. The child has been exposed to pictures which he is to associate with words. Actually, this "modern" innovation constituted a revision to the use of pictographs of the kind used by primitive man. In adopting the system, our educationists threw overboard the alphabet, invented over 3,000 years ago, and adopted first by Greece and later by nearly all civilized nations.

Parents and the public at large were generally unaware of this new word-picture method of primary education until the disastrous results were apparent. Johnny couldn't read. And when he couldn't read, he couldn't master English nor any of the other subjects being taught. Reading ability, after all, is the indispensable requirement for all subjects.

Six years ago, a group of 250 alarmed educators, authors, civic leaders and parents formed what they called the "Reading Reform Foundation." The purpose: to expose the obvious failure of the look-and-guess method, and to force the educationists to restore the alphabet to its proper place as the basis of elementary reading instruction. The good news is that they are beginning to win their battle.

DAVENPORT CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC

No less a person than the top man in education in this country, John Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, has gone on record describing as "the most important book on American education of the past 10 years," a book which has analyzed all the research on beginning reading, and finds: "... the research from 1912 to 1965 indicates that a code-emphasis (the alphabetic) method... produces better results." In other words, for 40 years, the educationists have been using an ineffective method. The fact is that alphabet-trained students read better, spell better, understand better. (The book: Learning to Read, the Great Debate, by Jeanne S. Chall, Professor of Education, Harvard University — McGraw-Hill Inc.)

Frantic and frustrated parents need no longer be afraid to tackle their local school boards and school administrators on the subject of restoring the alphabet method of teaching beginners to read. If your child, niece, nephew or grandchild can't read, send off a letter to the Reading Reform Foundation (36 West 44 St., New York) and ask them what to do. They'll tell you how to win the battle for your child's right to learn to read.

has reduced the flow of money into our country, increased the flow of money out. So our dollar and our gold reserve are in trouble.

Suppose our wage level had remained lower, and our prices had remained lower, allowing us to compete with foreign production. Our balance of trade would be more favorable. We'd have more production, more employment. And we'd be living better because of a better purchasing value in our money.

It is most disappointing to realize that labor leaders, who claim to have the country's welfare at heart, are aware of our balance of payment problem and the threat of inflation, but persist with the same old demand which contributed to the trouble.

In fairness it should be admitted that unwise labor policy is not due all the blame. Spendthrift government and many greedy industrialists share in the guilt for the mess.

Isn't it time for Labor and Government and Industry to take a good look at basic economic facts, and then work together at stabilizing wages and prices?
