MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JUNE 7, 1968

NUMBER 29

The United Nations just a few days ago demonstrated again why it is unfit to continue as a guiding force in shaping international political policy. Its punitive action against the tiny country of Rhodesia is the ultimate in injustice.

Learning that its economic sanctions of almost a year and a half ago have failed to force the little nation into submission, the UN now applies more drastic trade embargoes intended to ruin it.

From our viewpoint an even greater tragedy is this country's participation in the dirty work. We join with communists who want to create a chaotic climate for their own infiltration, with jealous Africans who have made a mess of their own governments, with Britain which became vindictive after Rhodesia declared its independence.

Tradition and self interest tell us we should be solidly at the side of that heroic little country. Its position now is the same as ours in 1776. It has declared itself independent because it is exasperated with British rule. One would think we should be completely in sympathy with it.

Besides, it is opposing the red conquest, just as we claim to do. It has even offered to send troops to our support in Vietnam. Considering all the angles, no nation of the world deserves more sympathy or support from us. Our participation in plotting Rhodesia's ruin is one of the most shameful deals in all our history.

It should be noted also that the UN is violating its own charter in doing the dirty work. The rule says that any nation accused in the UN has a right to defend itself in the discussions. But not Rhodesia. It was tried and condemned without permission to utter a word of defense.

The greatest farce of all is the charge that the little country does not allow equal representation in its government by colored people. The fact is that its ratio of colored representation based on comparative population is greater than ours or Britain's. And certainly its record is better than any of the several red dictatorships which allow no popular representation whatever in their governments.

Because of that absurd charge UN hypocrites decree that Rhodesia is a threat to world peace and must be forced into line — by economic sanctions, or if necessary by military action. Can you beat that for hypocrisy? People like the Soviets and Arabs and warring tribal chiefs of Africa pointing the accusing finger!

The Rhodesian affair emphasizes again what has often been apparent in the past two decades. UN is not an organization for world peace. It is tool of the communist conspiracy using any kind of injustice or treachery that serves its purpose. It's humiliating to think that our country is a party to the fraud, and that taxes paid by Americans are the UN's principal means of support.

James Kupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kupper of Valley View, was among graduates in commencement exercises at NTSU, Denton, May 31. He received his BS in Industrial Arts.

He was a member of the college Industrial Arts Club, and Iota Lambda Sigma honor fraternity, serving as vice president of both organizations. He will return to NTSU for the summer session, beginning work on his masters.

Going to South Africa

The John Aytes family is back in Muenster for two months of vacation before leaving for their next foreign assignment at Johannesburg, South Africa. They spent the past three years in North Africa, where he was representative for an oil company.

PRESTON SMITH

WALT PARKER

Muenster Favors Smith and Parker

Muenster voters gave comfortable majorities to both of the winners of last Saturday's Democratic run-off election.

Total of the north and south voting boxes gave Preston Smith a lead of 266-51 over Don Yarborough in the contest for the party's nominee for governor. Likewise Walt Parker took a 224-92 lead over Bob Scofield in the race for nominee for state representative.

County wide Smith also ran strong for an impressive lead of 2184-863 over Yarborough. State wide the totals were 756,909 for Smith and 620,726 for Yarborough.

Parker ran second best in the Cooke County race but led sufficiently in Denton County to net a nice majority in the 2-county totals. His total for the county was 1400 whereas Scofield got 1626. However Parker was ahead 5218 to 3234 in the Denton County balloting.

As regards voter turnout Muenster's record was as poor as the county's and state's. The 317 in both local boxes is less than 30 per cent of the potential. Approximately the same ratio applies to the county and the state balloting.

Both Smith and Parker still face another race in the November general election. Smith will be opposed for governor by the Republican nominee Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls. Parker will be opposed for representative by the Republican nominee Zeke Martin of Denton.

Contract Awarded For City Pavement

About 27 blocks of brand new pavement and ten blocks of re-surfacing are due to be installed here as soon as weather conditions permit.

A contract for the project was awarded at this week's city council meeting to McKinney and Deaton, the firm which is building two new lanes on Highway 82 between here and Lindsay. Mayor Earl Fisher expects the contractor to do the city's work just before or after the highway work.

City Manager Steve Moser said that the job will include about 40,000 square yards of new pavement and about 16,000 square yards of old pavement to be repaired and then covered with a new course of seal coat. Since a block averages 1,500 square yards, the entire contract will give about 37 blocks of new street surface for Muenster.

PVT JIMMY PRESCHER of Valley View has finished basic at Fort Polk, La., and is assigned to Fort Sill, Okla., for advanced training with the Artillery. Visiting him Sunday at his new station were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Prescher, his sisters Donna and Jeannie, Linda Bauer, John Luttmner and Bobby Joe Prescher. Jimmy entered the Army on March 28. For the next eight weeks his address will be USACT — FA 4th Plt.; Fort Sill, Okla. 73505.

J. H. Embry, 80, Of Saint Jo Dies

Funeral services were held in Saint Jo Tuesday at 3 p.m. for James Howard Embry, 80, retired teacher and banker who died at Muenster Hospital Sunday 9:30 p.m. after an extended illness.

Services were from the First Methodist Church where he served as a steward for over 40 years. The Rev. H. H. Barnett, pastor, officiated and Scott Bros. Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Burial was in Mountain Park Cemetery.

Embry was born Oct. 2, 1887, in Paulding, Ga. His parents were pioneer residents of Saint Jo. He married Miss Ruby Beale Smith on April 7, 1912, in Saint Jo. She survives.

Other survivors include one son, James C. Embry of Forestburg; one daughter, Mrs. Mildred Precise of Corpus Christi; two sisters, Mrs. Essie Agee of Forestburg and Mrs. Ethel Cook of Saint Jo; four brothers, J. E. of Muleshoe, S. J. of Paris, Lester of Marietta, Okla., and Wright Embry of Saint Jo, and four grandchildren.

Harvest Waits as Rain Continues

The grain harvest in this community is getting poorer every day. At a time when the season should be nearly over very few people have started, and indications are that the yield will deteriorate from now on.

Local grain dealers have bought six loads of wheat to date, the first being delivered last Thursday by Ed Knauf. Even that was later than usual, awaiting suitable weather for combining.

Gerald Pels Gets Master's Degree

Gerald Francis Pels was one of some 2,100 candidates receiving degrees in commencement exercises at the University of Houston Saturday night. He received a degree of master of science in physics.

Gerald is a son of Mrs. Ed Pels, a graduate of Sacred Heart High School.

Thousands of acres which were ready then are still waiting as daily rainfall continues to keep machines out of the field.

Another problem is also showing up. Heads are drooping over, getting constantly lower as renewed moisture softens straws and allows them to bend more. The number of heads which will be too low to be harvested is increasing daily. Oats seems to be drooping more than the wheat.

These problems are a result of one of the most persistent wet spells of local history, the second wettest January through May since the local record was started in 1946.

Total measure for May was 5.87 and the year's total through May was 22.29. Since then the readings were .83 on Saturday, .31 on Sunday, .68 on Monday, .14 on Tuesday, .40 on Wednesday and .32 on Thursday. June's total is 2.68. The year's to now is 25.01.

Father Andrew Observes Silver Jubilee as Priest

Father Andrew Wewer, assistant pastor at Sacred Heart Church, reached a silver milestone in his priestly life Sunday and celebrated his anniversary Mass at 9 a.m. Father John Walbe of Lindsay delivered the anniversary sermon.

In the afternoon, members of St. Joseph's and St. Anne's Societies honored Father Andrew in observance of his silver sacerdotal jubilee at a joint social and fried chicken supper in St. Joseph's Club.

In a short program, Father Benedict Buegler was master of ceremonies and gave a congratulatory talk. Father Andrew responded. Mrs. Arnold Rohmer read a poem, "The Beautiful Hands of a Priest," and society presidents, Dan Luke and Mrs. Tommy Herr presented gifts in the name of members. St. Anne's gift is a two-piece set of matched luggage. The St. Joseph Society and Club gave a money gift.

FATHER ANDREW WEWER

Mrs. Jerry Walterscheid baked the anniversary cake — an open Bible appropriately inscribed.

About 100 members of the two societies attended.

Father Andrew's formal celebration of his 25 years in the priesthood will be later this month in his hometown, Morrison Bluff, Ark., following a celebration at his monastery, Subiaco Abbey, Subiaco, Ark.

Father Andrew is presently on his third parish assignment in Muenster. He was here in 1948 for about four months, was back 18 months later until late 1950, and was re-assigned as assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Church on Aug. 19, 1964.

Following his ordination, June 3, 1943, he spent four years at the abbey. After his first assignment in Muenster he taught math and science at the Benedictine College-Academy in Corpus Christi. In the latter part of 1950 he was pastor in his hometown and the following 12 years served in various Arkansas and Texas parishes.

As a member of Sacred Heart High faculty he taught mechanical drawing and shop. And spent his spare time making science equipment and furniture. His most recent creation is a weaving loom from which he has fashioned beautiful articles.

Insurance Covers Injury Caused by Uninsured Driver

What problems does the average Texas motorist face when injured by a driver who isn't insured?

Very few, if he has "uninsured motorists coverage" in his automobile insurance policy, reports the Insurance Information Institute.

This coverage, available in all 50 states, provides that the policyholder may collect from his own insurance company if he or passengers in his car are injured by someone who has no automobile liability insurance. The coverage includes injuries by hit-and-run motorists.

In Texas, insurance companies are required by a recently enacted law to offer uninsured motorists coverage to purchasers of automobile liability insurance. The cost is $4 per year and the coverage can be declined.

Uninsured motorists coverage also applies to injuries suffered by the policyholder or residents of his household if struck as pedestrians by an uninsured or hit-and-run driver.

David Walter Is Graduate of NTSU

David Walter was among graduates in commencement exercises at NTSU in Denton May 31. His degree is in business administration. He is employed at Texas Instruments.

Among those at the program were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walter, his brother Chris and his sisters Mrs. C. J. Hellman of Lubbock and Mrs. Judy Wolf of Gainesville.

Saturday Mrs. Walter, Mrs. Clarence Hellman and Mrs. Wolf and daughter Kelly took Mrs. C. J. Hellman and daughters Shawna, Rhonda and Christie back to Lubbock after their week's visit here and spent over Sunday with them.

Demonstration Shows Local Renner Project

Results of the first year of the Renner Pasture System at Muenster were shown last Monday in a demonstration conducted by Texas Research Foundation on Al Felderhoff's farm three miles northwest of Muenster.

The demonstration was conducted by Jack Lair, agronomist, who has been helping Felderhoff in the project. Assisting Lair was Calvin Pigz of the foundation's public relations department. About 25 persons were present.

Purpose of the event was to check on progress since work started on the Renner Pasture System about a year ago. Announcement of the program was made at a luncheon March 7, 1967 at Rohmer's Restaurant. Lair said that the system is established and with a normal growing season it will be in fine condition for a bigger demonstration in the fall.

Striving for year round grazing that produces more beef per acre, the local project consists of three grasses. Ermello lovegrass is adapted to spring grazing, De Soto is adapted to warm weather and Coastal bermuda is adapted to late grazing.

De Soto is best established of the three varieties. It is a tall grass of the sorghum family slightly bigger in stem and leaf than Johnson grass. The field of about 17 acres has been grazed at one time by 35 cattle for 45 days. Gain records were not kept here but a similar field in another Renner program produced 401 pounds of beef per acre in 74 days.

Competition of other vegetation has been the principal problem with Ermello. However a good stand is established and will thrive after the competition has been cleared away with a rotary mower.

Coastal was planted during the spring in an area formerly used for pasture. It is also well established and is expected to completely cover the ground by fall.

All of the grass crops were fertilized with 180 pounds of 16-20-0 per acre. The program calls for annual fertilizing.

Hay production as well as grazing is included in the Renner system. Each of the three crops can be harvested for hay, thereby providing feed when the cattle can't get out to graze.

Supplemental grazing on the 185 acre farm is available in a pasture of native grasses and Midland bermuda. The intention is to convert some of that pasture to one of the three system grasses.

History is being made faster today than we can afford it.

QUALITIES OF DESOTO GRASS were explained by Agronomist Jack Lair at a demonstration of the Renner Pasture System last Monday on Al Felderhoff's farm. The program is sponsored by Texas Research Foundation to develop methods of producing more beef per acre. Also included in the local program are Ermello Lovegrass and Coastal Bermuda. Standing in the lush four foot growth of DeSoto are some 25 persons who attended the demonstration. J. M. Weinzapfel and Al Felderhoff are in the foreground with Lair.

WELFARE ABUSES

When the Congress starts looking for places to cut the Federal budget early next month, one place it can profitably spend some time is the outlandish expenditure for "welfare" payments. Reforms are in order at all levels in this Great Society venture, county, state and Federal.

in Douglas County, Washington, published a classic pair of examples on May 16:

"We cite but two examples in our own County. One Deputy Sheriff on a case involving an errant husband found that the welfare recipient family was getting $200 more per month than he received in take home pay! Another case involved a school teacher who was asked by a father who refused to work what could be done for his family of seven — so far as education on the welfare program. He made an investigation to discover that the recipient father who wouldn't work was drawing $275 more per month than he was as a school teacher. You think these are isolated cases; the truth is there are so many more that the Welfare Dept., politicians, and even the Courts won't release the information for fear it would hurt the "image" of welfare recipients!"

Mr. Ordway has struck the nail very squarely, and it should penetrate deeply enough to remind us that these abuses are not peculiar to Douglas County, Washington. They persist in all 3030 counties in our nation, in all fifty States. Welfare programs exist for pre-school age children and span the lifetime of every citizen with the inevitable consequence that literally hundreds of thousands of Americans live on welfare, indoctrinate their children in the art, and it spans generations as a way of life.

There is, it seems to us, a way to curtail this expensive abuse. It was suggested by a man who has observed the welfare program at work in a big eastern city. He seriously proposes that welfare be restricted to school-age children who may be delivered daily to schools or welfare centers in the neighborhood, where they will be fed, clothed, supervised, schooled, and trained for careers. If necessary, they will be fed 3 meals a day. But indigent parents will receive no money beyond temporary and fixed unemployment compensation, if they are healthy enough to work.

When welfare indigents receive more than school teachers and the Deputy Sheriff, it's time to start cutting with a broad-ax.

The cigarette warnings have made many people nervous. I heard of one bank robber who passed a note to a teller that read "Give me all your money or I'll blow smoke in your face."

Late one night a woman excitedly called up her doctor and told him, "I know what's wrong with me. I've got hyperinsulinism."
 "I know," answered the physician. "I just saw the same program."

FARM PRICES TOO LOW

Women used to wear their dresses as long as they could get them. Now they see how short they can get them. That is why the cotton could go down.

Last month wheat went down to $1.20 a bushel and bread went up 2c in the store for a loaf.

Sixty days ago they promised us a raise in milk. Milk went up in the stores, but the Dairymen never got the raise they were promised. If feed would go down when the milk went down, it would be all right. If they wouldn't have promised us a raise, the feed would not have went up in the first place. We were getting $5.56 for a hundred pounds of milk. On the 15th we got $5.38.

Twelve years ago you could sell milk and get seven dollars per hundred pounds of milk. And we were paying eighteen dollars a ton for alfalfa hay. Now we pay as high as forty-four a ton. There is no sense in the farmers filing income tax, because they won't have money for stamps anyway.

FEDERAL AUSTERITY

In speaking about austerity, Rep. H. R. Gross (R-Iowa), said, "Take the Bureau of Mines in the Interior Department. There, $20,188.07 has been spent for fresh paint, rugs, drapes, furniture and lighting for the directors' office. Included in this is $1,500 for the services of an interior decorator. Although the director's office was already equipped with six expensive oriental rugs, wall-to-wall carpeting had to be installed and now the oriental rugs will be laid right on top of the new carpeting. Rug-on-rug is said to be the latest fashion in Washington these days and of course, no government executive could be expected to settle for less even though the federal treasury is busted, and even though this is the glorious year of 'Austerity.'"

Sales Tax Hike Proposed to Boost State's Revenue

AUSTIN, Tex. —State legislators will return to Austin on June 4. This time to complete the budget-writing chore they put off last year ... and to pass a new $125,000,000 tax bill.

Indications are strong that the bulk of the funds will come through the sales tax route.

Gov. John Connally told reporters he is "fairly certain" he will suggest raising the two per cent sales tax rate to three per cent, then refund the increase to the cities on the basis of their 1950 populations. This would replace the present local option city sales levies adopted by 267 cities since last September.

Proposal would provide incorporated cities with $125,000,000 a year overall in state aid. State would gain $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 from the increased rate due to sales in unincorporated areas.

Other recommendations expected in Connally's sales tax package include: removing of some sales tax exemptions; taxing of services like laundry and haircuts; and increasing the auto sales tax to three per cent.

Governor also stated he might suggest a liquor-by-the-drink bill as part of his tax program. Legislative sources say he will suggest local option authority to sell liquor in small, one-drink-size bottles under stiff state tax and strict regulation.

Connally told reporters that overall revision of the liquor law also may be proposed. He intends to submit no other

AMBASSADOR BALL, BY ONE

President Johnson's appointment of George W. Ball as Ambassador to the United Nations won the approval of the US Senate on May 13, by one vote. And that one vote was cast by the presiding officer of the moment, Senator Cannon, of Nevada.

Actually, when the nomination was put to a voice vote, there were exactly four Senators on the floor. Two voted for confirmation. Two voted against. It was thereupon necessary for the presiding officer to break the tie, or the nomination would have had to go back to committee.

The fact that 95 Senators absented themselves speaks volumes as to the low estate in the eyes of the Senate, which is mindful that it has proved useless in resolving the Vietnam war and the Israeli-Arab conflict. But the narrow vote was also a reflection of the Senate's opinion of Mr. George W. Ball. The two Senators who voted against confirmation were John J. Williams, of Delaware, and Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

Here, in part, is what the forthright Senator Thurmond told his constituents: "... Mr. Ball was the No. 2 man in the State Department in 1963 when three of his subordinates testified before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee about wiretapping in the Otto Otepka case, and gave testimony which was subsequently shown to be false. Secretary Rusk put Mr. Ball in charge of handling the affair. Under Mr. Ball's orders, the three witnesses sent in written retractions, which also were shown to be false. Called in a 'bird time, at least one of them lied again."

"Either Mr. Ball knew the statements were false, or he didn't. However, he had the duty to find out the facts in the case. Either he condoned lying, or he failed in his duty to learn the facts."

"When Mr. Ball went before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee this month, he denied the very existence of the State Department's electronics laboratory, the facility which was used to tap Mr. Otepka's telephone. He denied the existence of a facility for which the State Department seeks appropriations every year, and whose blueprints are locked in Senate files..."

At least 97 per cent of the Senators know a foul ball when they see one.

business until financial necessities are handled.

He expressed confidence that the budget and tax bill can be passed within the 30-day limit.

If lawmakers vote the same way their constituents did on the liquor-by-the-drink referendum (May 4) the governor may have a chance with the small bottles bill. At least 82 of the 150 state representatives and 17 of the 31 senators live in districts which voted for mixed drinks, with varying enthusiasm.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL FREEDOM MARCH WAS THE ONE IN COVERED WAGONS

That, too, was made by Americans — looking for work. No demands, no subsidies, no claim anyone owed them anything. They traveled mostly on foot and through deadly danger, to where there was work to do (they didn't ask it be brought to them nor created for them).

Many had never been prosperous — their little farms were worked out, or their skills weren't very good. But their self-respect was real enough to drive them through thousands of miles of unpeppable hardships, and there create their own jobs and their own futures.

And that courage and self-respect and hard work were what made America's splendid West.

Rufus Henscheids Spend Vacation Traveling Abroad

Fifteen days of visiting in Germany and sight-seeing travel through several European countries made a happy and interesting vacation for Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid.

In Germany they headquartered at Neun Kirchen, near Bonn at Rufus' father's homeplace now occupied by a cousin Rudi Henscheid. They also visited two aunts and many cousins.

In company of Rudi they traveled through Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, the French border and visited East Berlin.

A boat trip took them down the Rhine River to Heidelberg; they toured the Black Forest to Freiburg, on to the Rhinefall near Zurich; through the Austrian Alps to Innsbruck, Austria via Alberg Pass; on to Brizen, Italy, and back through Austria to Salzburg, Germany — through Munich, Rosenheim, Nurnberg, Dahau, Wurzburg, Frankfurt, Rudesheim, Weisbaden, Koblenz and back to the relative's home.

The backbone of Germany composed of miles and miles of factories and steel mills around Essen was an interesting tour, as was a trip down the River Mosel to near Luxembourg.

Another highlight was a jet trip to Berlin to spend the day on a guided tour of Communist East Berlin. A planned trip Paris, France, was cut out of their itinerary on account of the political situation there.

Rufus noted the difference in travel time since his father, Henry Henscheid, went over by boat in 1924. It took him almost three weeks to make the trip one way by ocean liner and train. Now it's nine hours flying time from Dallas to Bonn.

Relatives and people in Germany were especially cordial and showed a warm good feeling toward the United States, the Henscheids reported. The trip to East Berlin makes one happy to live in the West, they said.

Knabes Back From Iowa Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knabe and children Terry, Jackie and Janell spent a part of their vacation in Davenport, Iowa, where they attended graduation exercises for Fred's brother Leon Knabe who received his high school diploma and a college scholarship.

Also at the commencement were Leon's brother Gilbert Knabe of Fort Worth and his sister Mrs. Kenneth Reynolds and son Jerry of Forestburg. They were houseguests of an uncle and aunt, the Ward Sheppards, with whom Leon lives.

The visitors made a side trip to see the Duncanville Grotto in Duncanville, Wis., and got in other sight-seeing. Leon accompanied his sister to Forestburg and is visiting the relationship. He is the son of Joe Knabe. Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Leon left for San Antonio to see HemisFair.

Earlyne Lehnertz Is Honor Graduate At Shreveport, La.

Miss Earlyne Lehnertz was among graduates of the 99th commencement class at St. Vincent's Academy in Shreveport, La. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lehnertz of Bossier City, La., formerly of Muenster and Gainesville and a granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Lehnertz of Muenster.

For being one of the top six honor students in the class of 74 girls, Earlyne was awarded the gold cord to wear during the program for her high average during four years of high school.

She also received the special awards for advanced math and art, was chosen class favorite and received honorable mention for outstanding interest in school activities.

Earlyne was the first girl to enroll and be accepted at Jesuit High, an all-boy school, where she completed a course in physics. In March she was sent as a delegate to a rally at Northwestern State College, Natchitoches, La., representing her school in trigonometry.

At the same rally her sister Carla, a freshman at Airline High in Bossier City, represented her school in English Grammar I.

Earlyne plans to attend Louisiana State University this fall.

James Turner Wins Honor at Harvard

James Crewdson Turner, son of Mrs. Arthur Endres, has been awarded the Philip Washburn Prize for 1967-68 at Harvard College.

The Washburn Prize is offered for the best thesis on a historical subject presented by a senior Honors student in the history department. Turner was awarded the prize, of approximately $250, for his thesis "The Origins of Populism: The Texas Experience."

Turner is a graduate of the Jesuit High School in Dallas, Texas, where he was a member of the Student Council and the National Honor Society. He was on the staff of the school newspaper and valedictorian of his class.

At Harvard he has been a member of the debate team and of Phillips Brooks House, the major undergraduate service organization. He is an alternate George C. Marshall Scholar, and holds the Wendell Phillips Prize for oratory, and the Coolidge Prize for the best speaker in the trial debates for the Harvard-Yale-Princeton intercollegiate debates. Salvation Army to Send Truck June 10

Repairable gas and electric room heaters, and comforts, blankets, and bedding are needed by the Salvation Army to prepare for the demands which always arise in the fall of each year, notes Major Byron A. Freeman, commanding officer of the organization's Men's Rehabilitation Center for this area.

"Though winter items are usually forgotten during the hot, Texas summers, we must look ahead and be ready for the sure need for cold weather items. We also need time for any necessary repair of items given," he added.

The Salvation Army truck will be in Muenster on June 10. A telephone call to 759-4311 will bring the Salvation Army truck to any home or business in the area. Persons wishing to deduct the fair value of the gift from their taxable income will be sent receipts on request to the driver, The Salvation Army's rehabilitation center is completely sustained by the salvage of household items.

Overhaul of Well Stops Hard Water

Good news for the housewives — hard water has been eliminated in the city's water supply. Water Superintendent Steve Moster said this week that an experiment on a recent well overhaul job has paid off.

The well on North Main was perforated at a higher sand level and water was found to be perfect. Then the lower level of sand, source of hard water was plugged off. After three days of pumping at 150 gallons a minute the city decided the high level source is adequate and is pumping only from it.

Water from the well goes directly into the main now. Formerly it was piped to the reservoir and mixed with soft water before going into the mains, to assure uniform quality all over town.
