MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 AUGUST 15, 1969

NUMBER 38

The new welfare program recommended by President Nixon last Friday night has several very appealing features which deserve warm approval from the American public. Of course, as he admitted, there will be controversy on the methods adopted for applying the new policies. Lots of work is still needed to transform good theory into good practice.

In that we wish our legislators the ultimate in success. We hope they will make improvements on the president's program. We especially hope they will find a method of administration which will assure needy people a decent living while avoiding waste and graft. Let this be a break for the taxpayers as well as welfare beneficiaries.

Merit number one is the program's requirement that every able bodied welfare recipient, except mothers with children under 6, accept offer of a job or job training. Doubtless this can bring on some difficulties because opportunity cannot always be made available to all. However, it will turn most of the welfare loafers into workers.

A related merit is the financial incentive to work. Our present system is bad in that many jobs offer less pay than welfare, or so little more that the beneficiaries had little incentive to work. The new program is different. Families receiving the welfare minimum can earn limited additional income without losing any welfare pay, and they can receive further additional income with only a part of that amount deducted from the welfare check.

The important point is the incentive to work and improve their standard of living. Under the circumstances it may be assumed that very few will want to loaf. Anyone with a minimum of gray matter will be eager to improve on the welfare minimum.

Another good recommendation is equalizing benefits over all the country. Much has been said about present wide variations of benefits, which encourage mass migrations to the states paying more. A sad result is overcrowding in big city slums, worsening conditions which were already bad.

The new policy offers hope for a change in that trend. Rural and small town poor folks will be more willing to stay at home if they can receive equal benefits there. In fact, it might even reverse the migration trend. Poor of the big cities, fed up with slum conditions and slum attitudes, may now prefer to go back home. It's possible to visualize desirable results as some go back to a better environment, thereby also relieving some of the human pressure in slum environment.

The various favorable developments are more easily visualized than achieved, however. Getting results from the program will require fair and efficient administration along with creation of new job opportunities. And there again the president's recommendation offers new hope—by transferring much of the administration from federal bureaucracy to state and local agencies.

It will make a difference when beneficiaries and administrators are responsible to their own communities rather than the far away bureaucracy. When people deal with their neighbors the odds for chiseling are decreased and the odds for sympathetic understanding are increased.

While praising those several merits, however, we still have a big problem that was not even mentioned in the president's speech. Inflation, which caused a lot of our poverty in the first place, can wreck the improved program if it is not brought under control. Unless the value of the dollar is stabilized soon, unless people have the opportunity to provide better for their own future, the program will remain in serious trouble.

Our government is principally responsible for the Poverty of millions of poor folks who saved enough to sustain them in old age but were robbed of their money's value by inflation. Federal policy of reckless spending and continuous budget deficits, along with encouragement of ever increasing wages and prices, has left old folks with less than the original value of their savings. People today are still saving, but will they have e-

Garbage Disposal Opinion Survey Receives 53 Votes

The city's opinion poll on the preferred method of garbage disposal is running about 2 to 1 in favor of a voluntary system. Mrs. Glenn Richardson, city secretary, said Wednesday afternoon that she had 53 responses up to then. 35 were for a voluntary disposal system, 17 were for compulsory, and 1 had no preference.

Among the 35 were six who specified the voluntary way as their first choice but added that they are willing to go along with a compulsory system rather than have no service at all.

The poll was initiated last week after the city council meeting in which two methods of garbage and trash disposal were proposed. One was for twice a week pickup for $2.25 a month, the service to be used by all homes and business places.

The other was a voluntary deal with pickup to be made on alternate Saturdays at $1.00 for two barrels of trash or less and 25 cents more for each additional barrel.

Councilmen passed the proposals to local residents, asking for an expression of preference. Results will be reviewed at the next meeting of the council.

Ice Cream Supper Friday Night Is Hospital Benefit

Muenster Hospital Auxiliary is sponsoring a benefit ice cream supper this Friday, Aug. 15, and is looking forward to a big attendance.

Members will be making many freezers of home made ice cream and baking pies for the event. Coffee and cold drinks will be available and tables will be set up for games.

Serving will start at 7 p.m. People who attend the holy day evening Mass are reminded to stop in afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartman of Denton and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolf of Gainesville visited Tuesday evening with Victor Hartman, a surgical patient at Muenster Hospital.

Faculty Complete at Muenster High

The two vacancies on the Muenster High faculty have been filled since last week. Superintendent L.B. Bruns announced that Mrs. Juanita Bright will teach band and elementary music and Miss Virginia Sims of Gainesville will be an English teacher.

Mrs. Bright is a graduate of Our Lady of the Lake College, San Antonio, with a Bachelor of Music degree. Her experience includes two years in Fort Worth and two years at an Army post in Weisbaden, Germany, and one year at Muenster Public School.

Miss Sims taught at Bridgeport last year.

Rev. Vincent Orth Early Resident of Community Dies

Solemn Requiem Mass and funeral services were held Monday at 10 a.m. in Subiaco, Ark., for Father Vincent Orth, 81, who died there the preceding Friday.

Services in the abbey church were followed by burial in the abbey cemetery.

Father Vincent was a native of Iowa but came to Muenster with his parents when he was ten years old. He entered the Benedictine monastery at Subiaco from Muenster and was ordained a priest in 1913. By this time his family had moved to Lindsay but he celebrated his First Mass in Muenster.

Throughout his active lifetime he taught at Subiaco Abbey and Corpus Christi Abbey.

In 1963 he celebrated his golden sacerdotal jubilee at Lindsay.

Surviving are four sisters: Mmes. Matt, Willie and Joe Fuhrmann of Lindsay and Mrs. Annie Devers of Oklahoma.

Among relatives at the funeral were Mmes. Matt and Willie Fuhrmann, Joe Zimmerer, Alvin Loerwald and Bill Dankesreiter and Ray Fuhrmann of Lindsay joined at Hugo, Okla., by Mrs. Paul Devers.

It's not difficult to meet expenses these days. In fact, you meet them every time you turn around.

Teacher pay raises approved this year by the Texas legislature are reflected in the higher budget for the coming school year adopted last Thursday night by the Muenster school board.

The figure is $234,671, an increase of $8,690 in spite of anticipated savings on some of the items. The amended budget for last year, which shows actual cost of operation, was $225,981.

Worst problem about the new budget is the fact that local tax sources would not be enough to break even, that is, at the rates which have been in effect. The board estimated on the basis of a 25 per cent tax increase, and that still fell short. So valuations were upped 33 1/2 per cent across the board, as indicated on postals mailed this week to taxpayers of the district.

The biggest item on the budget is $147,806 for salaries. It includes an increase of over $16,000, which is explained partly by raises and partly by addition of one full time and one part time teacher.

Totals of the actual operation last year indicate that the district was almost $24,000 short and required the trustees to borrow money to finish the year. Increased revenue from the tax raise will be sufficient to avoid that shortage and also provide for the teacher pay raise.

If operation goes according to estimate the district will have almost $3,000 left at the end of the year. But it still will not be out of financial trouble. Besides deficits of a few years past there will be a $10,000 payment on the elementary building constructed two years ago.

The era of big expense started at the Muenster school two years ago when a sudden jump in enrollment required an additional building and several additional teachers. And inflation plus pay raises continues forcing the budget higher.

Herewith are the principal items of the 68-69 amended budget and the estimated budget for the coming school year.

Heart Attack Fatal To Mrs. J.H. Payne Former Resident

Muenster friends have learned of the death of Mrs. Ethel Irene Payne of Lakewood, Calif., wife of the late Dr. J.H. Payne, formerly of Muenster. She died in California on August 3.

According to word reaching here, Mrs. Payne suffered a fatal heart attack while she was on a trip with her niece. They had visited in San Francisco and were enroute back to Lakewood. They stopped for lunch in San Luis Obispo and it was there that she was stricken and died instantly.

Services were held August 7 at 11 a.m. in Sheelar-Stricklin Chapel and interment was in Westminster Memorial Park at Lakewood.

Mrs. Payne was born in Oklahoma Feb. 4, 1893. She and her husband lived here about ten years while he was resident doctor, beginning practice in 1927. He died in Lakewood in September 1960.

Survivors include two sisters, one brother and nieces and nephews, all of California.

SH Students Will Register Friday

Registration day arrives Friday for students who will attend Sacred Heart School this school year.

Father Placidus Eckart, superintendent, said that the enrollment will take place in the high school library following all church services at Sacred Heart Church. Friday is the feast of the Assumption, a holy day of obligation, and the regular Sunday schedule of Masses will be observed.

After that students will have 10 more days of vacation before reporting for the first class day on Monday 25th.

Purpose of the early registration is to allow teachers more time for preparing schedules and other pre-school chores.

VFW Cookout Saturday

Muenster VFW Post is sponsoring a cookout for members, Ladies Auxiliary and guests Saturday, Aug. 16, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the post home. Fried chicken dinner will be one dollar a plate and a free dance will follow.

Hospital Auxiliary Finishes X-Ray Project

It was a big day for both parties last week when the officers of the Hospital Auxiliary delivered a $500.00 check to the hospital administrator in final payment of the recently completed X-Ray reading facilities. Thanks to the efforts of the auxiliary and the support of the community, the hospital now has one of the finest such facilities in North Central Texas.

Since the opening of the hospital, X-Ray films were read in the laboratory office, using a 4-in-1 viewer. That arrangement was less than satisfactory since the congestion from laboratory activities seriously interfered with the work of the radiologist in his concentration on the films. In addition, the one view box limited his scope of review to four films at any one time. If there was a larger series he was forced to view the pictures in separate lots thus losing some degree of continuity.

To alleviate that condition, the hospital management converted the space previously used for storage of soiled linen to an X-Ray reading room. At the same time the auxiliary was asked to take on the project of equipping the facilities. They are now finished and paid for.

The new reading room is approximately 6 by 12 feet and is reserved exclusively for the radiologists, where X-Ray films may be read without interruption. It is equipped with four 4-in-1 boxes, which is four times the prior capability. This allows the radiologists to view as many as 16 films at one time and is particularly helpful in intestinal tracings and other recuperative stage comparisons.

A remotely controlled spotlight provides high intensity lighting for specific areas of a particular film. In addition, a built in desk area extends beneath all view boxes providing plenty of working space for sorting and other handling of films. These accommodations, together with the self contained filing cases and dictaphone, constitute what the consulting radiologists describe as "one of the very best facilities made available for their use."

This is only one of a long list of valuable contributions to the hospital by the auxiliary since the guild was formed.

To mention a few, the Bennett machine, flower carts, corsages for all ladies on admission, and writing materials. The value of these reaches into the thousands of dollars and have enhanced both service and prestige of the hospital.

These contributions have been financed by the auxiliary's fund raising projects, some of which have become established affairs— notably, the annual dance. Other events were a variety show, bake sales, chili supper and ice cream social. All of the projects are demanding in time and work, but the auxiliary keeps going and the hospital keeps reaping benefits.

Members of the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary make the final payment on their project of equipping the X-ray reading room at the hospital. D. M. Bright, administrator receives the $500 check from Mrs. Gerald Walterscheid, auxiliary president. Others present are Mmes. Ted Henscheid and Walter Grewing, vice presidents, Roy Monday, secretary and Billy Don Wolf, treasurer.

Football Practice Starts Monday for Muenster Hornets

Next Monday is the beginning date of 1969 football for the Muenster High Hornets. It is when Coaches Glenn Richardson and Dan Hamric will take charge of the remnants of their bi-district champions in hopes of shaping up another strong team.

The boys will report for the season's first meeting in the field house Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and they will go to work at 7 o'clock Monday night. Thereafter they will have practice twice a day until Wednesday the 27th.

The morning session will begin at 6:30 and last until 8. The evening session will begin at 7 and end at 9:30. It adds up to four hours of work daily until two days before the first scrimmage, which will be at Chico on Friday the 29th.

Practice through the first week will be in shorts, according to interscholastic league regulations. The next Monday players will put on the full gear for four days of contact work before their test at Chico. The following week the Hornets will go into their regular afternoon practice session and after four more workouts they will host Alford in the season's second scrimmage.

Their schedule of games is the toughest ever drawn up for a Muenster High team. First is Aledo, a class A district and bi-district champ and a title favorite again this year. Then Celina the powerhouse that crushed MHS 40-0 in regional last year, and rated about as strong this year. Collinsville made lots of progress since it was trimmed by Muenster last year, gave Celina a good game. S & S strength is a question mark. And the last pre conference foe is Lake Dallas, expected to be champ of its district again this year.

The schedule:

- Sept. 12 Aledo, here
- Sept. 19, open
- Sept. 26, Celina, there
- Oct. 3, Collinsville, there
- Oct. 11, S&S, here
- Oct. 17, Lake Dallas, there
- Oct. 24, Era, there
- Oct. 31, Valley View, here
- Nov. 7, Lindsay, here
- Nov. 14, Saint Jo, here
- Nov. 21, Windthorst, there

Tigers to Report Early Friday for First Grid Work

The hard grind of football practice for Sacred Heart's Tigers begins bright and early Friday morning. Tom Joy and his assistant, Joe Felderhoff, will issue equipment and direct the season's first workout from 7 to 8:30.

The Tigers will be on a twice a day schedule from then until the end of the first school week. However morning practice will be shorter after school starts.

To begin, linemen will have a session from 6 to 7:30 each morning and backs and ends will have theirs from 7:45 to 9:15. And all of the boys will be together for the evening practice from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. Starting on August 25 all the boys will be together for a one hour morning session and will go into the regular afternoon practice, from 2:30 to 5:30.

In keeping with interscholastic league rules, they will work out in shorts until August 25 and then start their contact work. After that they will have four days of work in their battle attire before getting their first test. That will be with Callisburg's Wildcats at Callisburg on August 29. A week later they will go Pilot Point for a scrimmage with the Bearcats B string.

THE SCHEDULE

- Sept. 13, Saint Jo, there
- Sept. 19, Alford, there
- Sept. 26, F. Worth Day School, here
- Oct. 3, Era, there
- Oct. 10, Anna, here
- Oct. 17, Collinsville, here
- Oct. 24, Greenhill, there
- Nov. 1, Dallas Christian, here (Homecoming)
- Nov. 8, Cistercian Prep, here
- Nov. 15, F. Worth Christian, here
- The last four dates and September 26 are conference games in the Texas Independent Schools Conference.

Cubs' Meeting to Include Fun Night Set for August 18

Muenster Cub Scouts' Pack meeting for August has been moved forward one week and will be held next Monday, August 18, instead of August 25.

Two reasons were given for advancing the date— while watermelons are still available and because the following Monday is the first day of school.

Highlight of the meeting will be a swim party and watermelon feast.

Starting time is 7 p.m. Families are invited to attend with the Cubs.

SECOND CLASS PEOPLE

The Marshfield, Missouri, Mail has expressed some thoughts on the quality of people and the quality of nations that while sounding uncompromisingly harsh, embrace a fundamental truth. It says: "Only second-class people make a second-class nation. People who want to be paid without working enough to earn it are second-class people, not Americans. People who want to be protected without having the courage to fight, and earn their own protection, are second-class citizens. People more anxious for security than self-respect, comfort above accomplishment... are dragging America down to the second-class nation status... Run this nation once more by hard work — and for those Americans with self-respect, not for whiners — and we'd sweep that scornful 'second-class' sneer and all excuses for it down the rathole where it belongs."

—Industrial News Review

DO YOU UNDERSTAND IT?

Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania and Rhodesia are all African nations.

Uganda and Kenya are not what you would call staunch allies of the United States that could be counted to stand with us through thick or thin for what is right, but they are not automatically against us except on certain types of issues.

Tanzania is a Communist-oriented country that is definitely against us and serves as a base for Red export of subversion. It is almost the "Castro Cuba of Africa."

Rhodesia is strongly and unequivocally anti-Communist, wants to be friendly with the United States, has offered troops to fight with us in Vietnam.

What is our reaction?

We have signed a deal to give U. S. taxpayers' money to Uganda, Kenya and Tanzania. We have turned down Rhodesia's troop offer and have joined in a vicious anti-Rhodesia trade boycott that could result in 10 years of imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for any American doing business with Rhodesia.

Meanwhile, we continue to trade with Russia and its satellites. Figure it out, if you can. —Chattanooga News

HE ISN'T SO TOUGH. JUST FAIR

Hats off to Edward U. Green —the sock it to 'em judge from Long Island, N. Y.

At a time when long-haired, shaggy students feel free to rampage through schools, smashing, burning and disrupting, Judge Green has jolted us back to sanity.

In a world where senseless student violence is punished with tut-tuttering and "naughty boy" reproofs from spineless university administrators, Judge Green is a rock of common-sense.

And he has done it by jailing 21 students for 15 days.

The 21 — including five girls — had been part of a student band who took over the library of the State University at Stony Brook, N. Y. Files were thrown about, windows broken, telephones ripped out and the place left in a shambles. The students were ordered out — but 8 hours later cops had to arrest the 21.

And what did the university do then? They asked to have the charges of loitering withdrawn!

But Judge Green would have none of it. Commenting: "Frankly I'm amazed at the university," he proceeded to impose the maximum jail sentence of 15 days on each student. And — as their faces whitened with shock — he added: "When you people get out, act like citizens, not animals."

It's just the medicine the country needs. If the students want to learn, help them. If they want to destroy, jail them.

The people of America — sick of the weakness and anarchy in our schools — are looking to men like Judge Green to see that students have no special rights to indulge in lawlessness.

If we can get more Judge Green's we'll have fewer campus riots. And that's telling it like it is!

MEMO ON MORTALITY OF BUREAUCRATS

Latest red-tape parody to make the rounds in Washington is this memo, dealing with the mortality of bureaucrats:

"On or after Feb. 15 any employe found sitting up after he has died will be dropped from the payroll at once (i.e., within 90 days). Where it can be proven that he is being supported by a bench or property marked U. S. Government, an additional 90 days will be granted. The following procedure will be strictly followed:

"If after several hours, it is noted that a worker has not moved or changed position, the supervisor will investigate; because of the highly sensitive nature of government employes and the close resemblance between death and their natural working attitude, the investigation will be made quietly so as not to disturb the employe if he is only asleep.

"If some doubt exists as to the true condition of the employe, extending a government check is a fine test. If the employe does not reach for it, it may be assumed that he is dead. In some cases that instinct is so strongly developed, however, that a spasmodic clutch or reflex may be encountered. DON'T LET THIS FOOL YOU.

"In all cases a sworn statement by the dead person must be filled out on a special form P.U. 66.78.334 1/2. Fifteen copies will be made; three copies are to be sent to Washington and three copies given to the deceased. Destroy the rest.

"On Form 22W Application of Permanent Leave must also be filled out by the employe. Be sure to include correct forwarding address. If he cannot write, his signature must be witnessed by two other employes, preferably alive. Complete case by pushing body to one side to make room for the next incumbent."

GOVERNMENT GOBBLEDYGOOK

Gobbledygook (see Webster's Unabridged) is that peculiar language spoken by agencies in Washington in lieu of simple, understandable English, and Rep. H. R. Gross (R. Iowa) is the most recent to propose that something be done about it. He has urged the administration to knock the federalese out of it, and get back to the mother tongue.

For example, Congressman Gross reported, the Bureau of Public Roads dreamed up "Impact Attenuation Devices" for their inventory lists. What are they? They're old oil drums placed around highway obstructions to act as cushions.

The Air Force is supposed to stock an item officially referred to as an "Aerodynamic Personnel Decelerator." That's a parachute. The Defense Department has a "Combat Emplacement Evacuator" which is the government's way of describing a shovel.

An efficiency expert might tell you that in the time it takes a government secretary to type out invoices bearing federal nomenclature, the department concerned probably could have purchased at least one Combat Emplacement Evacuator. Or maybe even two.

HIRED TO SELL, NOT TO SPELL

A newly hired traveling salesman wrote his first report to the home office. It stunned the brass in the sales department because it was obvious the new man was almost completely illiterate. Here is what he wrote:

"Dear Bos— I seen this outfit which ain't never bot a dimes worth of nothing from us and I sole them a couple hundred thousands dollars of guds. I am now going to Chicawgo."

Before the illiterate could be given the old heave-ho by the sales manager, this letter came from Chicago:

"I cum hear and sole them a haaff a millyon."

Fearful if he did and fearful if he didn't fire the illiterate, the sales manager dumped the problem in the lap of the president.

The following morning the ivory tower members were amazed to see the two letters posted on the bulletin board—and this memo from the president above:

"We ben spending two much time trying to spel insted of trying to sel. Let's watch thoes sails. I want everybody shud reed these leters from Gooch, who is on the rode doin a grate job for us, and you shud go out and do like he done."

No Indispensable Man . . .

Take a bucket and fill it with water. Put your hand in it up to the wrist. Pull it out, and the hole that's remaining, is the measure of how you'll be missed.

You may splash all you please when you enter. You can stir up the water galore. But stop and you'll find in a minute, That it looks quite the same as before, The moral of this quaint example, Is "Do the best that you can, Be proud of yourself, but remember, There is no indispensable man."

Earline Otto and Danny Dennington Say Vows at Mass

Sacred Heart Church was the scene Saturday evening of the wedding of Miss Earline Otto and Lance Cpl. Danny Dennington, on leave from Marine duty in Vietnam.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Otto, Muenster, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Dennington of Gainesville.

Father Bede Mitchel celebrated the Nuptial Mass at 7 p.m. and directed the exchange of vows in a double ring ceremony.

Mr. Otto presented his daughter for marriage. She wore a formal gown of white chiffon and lace, the lace forming the Empire bodice and bell sleeves. Forestburg Greets Two Hundred at 1969 Homecoming

Forestburgers greeted some 200 visitors at their annual homecoming Sunday in a grove behind the old log cabin where a picnic dinner was spread and reunioning was the main attraction throughout the afternoon.

Schol Superintendent Koen Iunz gave the welcome and Horace Dillingham of Payola, Okla., 87, oldest former resident present, responded. L.W. Young gave the invocation. Rex Anderson was master of ceremonies.

One of the topics of conversation annually is the age of the log cabin, a one-room cottonwood shelter. The community acquired the cabin about a dozen years ago as a gift from Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Dunn.

The picturesque building was on the Dunn's property until 1957 when Montague County celebrated its centennial. Mr. Dunn and helpers dismantled and marked each log and reconstructed the cabin downtown.

A stonemason reconstructed the chimney, Dunn went to Oklahoma to find old-style wooden shingles and he and an old man who remembers such things styled persimmon tree pegs into hinges for the doors.

Since then it has served for birthday parties, reunions, a few wiener roasts and a museum. Vandals force the town to put a lock on the door. Now it is open on special occasions or by request.

The Wichita Falls Times used a picture of the cabin and of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn on the cover of its Feature Magazine Sunday.

Forget the past—you can't saw dust!

Pilot Point Rites
 Unite Miss Evans
 And Richard Gross

Miss Maurine Evans of Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans of Pilot Point, and Richard Jean Gross of Bonham, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Gross of Bonham, were married Saturday, Aug. 2, in St. Thomas Church at Pilot Point.

The pastor performed the double ring ceremony and Miss Clara Ann Gilespie, organist, accompanied George Tschoepe who sang traditional wedding songs.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk organza with Empire bodice, the slim lines enhanced by cameo lace which formed the short sleeves and a panel at the bottom. The cathedral length train was attached at the shoulders. A headpiece of lace and pearls held her veil. She carried a prayerbook topped with an orchid and shower with stephanotis and streamers.

Counselors will also assist students in completing the required medical forms for college entrance.
 Students may obtain information from the counselor relating to jobs that might be available as a result of training at Cooke County Junior College or information regarding the transfer of credits from one institution to another.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH
 Earle Otto recently finished building a farm pond on his farm north of Muenster. The sandy soil in that area does not hold water very well so Earle has been treating his pond with a product called Bentonite. It is a clay product designed to stop ponds from leaking. It seems to be working very well. Some of you who have ponds which seep badly or go dry after a few days or weeks following a good rain might try this product. Call Earle or Soil Conservation Service for more information.

About four or five days following a good rain, weeds will generally begin active growth. Many of them can be easily killed with chemicals at that time. It would be a good idea to increase the normal rate and also to add about one pint of 2,4,5-T for each gallon of 2,4-D used. You are reminded to observe all regulations when using chemicals.

Art Bayer has cleared another 50 acres of post oak timber and built two farm ponds on his Red River farm. About 340 acres of timber has been cleared on this farm and about 335 acres of bermudagrass has been established. The looks of this farm as well as the number of livestock it will carry have been drastically changed for the better.

Clifford Hudspeth has had about 16 acres of critically gullied areas shaped with a dozer and a seedbed prepared. He also built a farm pond and cleared about four acres of brush. His farm is beginning to take shape under his G.P. Contract.

H. H. Houtchens is a new cooperator with the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District. He was assisted in developing a conservation plan by Arlin Naegeli, Soil Conservation Service at Muenster.

A grade stabilization structure was recently installed on the Alex Lutkenhaus farm near Saint Jo.
 Now is the time to build those parallel terraces you have been putting off all these years. The ACP office in Gainesville still has money for this practice and the Soil Conservation Service is ready to do the field work. Help keep America beautiful and productive by building some parallel terraces today.

"SPLASH"

"SPLASH" is a word which portrays many meanings to the hearer, said Eual Davis of the Soil Conservation Service in Muenster. It could mean that a big fat fish is out there just waiting for your first cast. It could also mean that the friend who went fishing with you that morning just fell in the lake.

There are other meanings, of course, and one is the sound a raindrop makes when it strikes the unprotected soil in a cropland field. Raindrops act as tiny bombs which explode when they hit the ground making tiny holes and loosening the valuable topsoil which is carried away by running water. When crop residue is left on or near the soil surface it acts as a protective cover to prevent raindrop "splash".
 When you finish harvesting and plowing this year, why not leave some residue on the surface to protect the soil and reduce soil erosion.

Police Science Is New CCJC Course

Dr. A.E. Shasteen, Dean of Instruction at CCJC, has announced that a course dealing with law enforcement procedures and police science will be added to the curriculum of the local college with classes to begin with the opening of the fall term.
 A series of meetings is currently being held to work out details concerning the instructional program. Cooperating in the planning are Dr. A.E. Shasteen of CCJC; Terry Hauck, a criminologist with the Dallas City Police; Cooke County Sheriff Bill Pratt; and Gainesville Police Chief Lewis Theobald.

Local law enforcement agencies are eagerly looking forward to inception of the new program.
 Further information will be available to the public when course plans are finalized.

A Chigger by Any Name Is a Menace

A rose by any other name is still a rose, and a chigger—whether called a harvest mite or a red bug—still can give you sleepless nights and ceaseless spasms of itching misery. The threat of chigger bites will last until cold weather cuts into their ranks but there are some steps which can be taken to offset this threat, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

A few people have an apparent immunity to chigger attacks, but the vast majority of us are oh-so-susceptible. They—the chigger, have a special affinity for low, damp places covered with vegetation. Bermuda grass harbors them well, but for some unexplainable reasons they are not usually found in carpet grass. Just for the record, it's the larvae which do the damage, attaching themselves with their mouthparts and sucking blood until they become engorged and fall off. The fiery itching is caused by an anticoagulant material they inject into their victims.

Although adult chiggers are probably harmless to humans, their wayward offspring can be serious as well as annoying. Not that they spread any specific disease—at least not in this country, but their bites demand scratching which frequently causes secondary infections in the form of sores and boils.

To find out if your back yard or your picnic area is infested with chiggers, stand a piece of black cardboard on end where you suspect they might be. After a few moments you see tiny yellowish or pinkish mites accumulating on the upper edge, you'll know its time to check your supply of insect repellent.

Chiggers attack lizards, snakes, birds, and rodents with the same vigor and resourcefulness they display in attacking humans. They draw no distinction between mankind and lesser animal species.

Light applications of sulphur dust on lawns and low branches of shrubs have been used successfully for years to control chiggers. Certain insecticides are very effective when used strictly according to directions.

But perhaps the biggest guns in the arsenal of chigger control are the repellent products which can be applied directly to exposed skin surfaces and to clothing. They come in spray, liquid and stick forms, and when properly used will keep most insects at arms' length.

Junk is something you keep for many years and then throw away two days before you need it.

Sister Theresina J. Hellmans Meet In Switzerland

Sister Theresina's final message from Switzerland, written just before she returned to Jonesboro, Ark., and to Muenster this week, tells of a pleasant visit with Dr. and Mrs. John Hellman who are summering in Switzerland. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Hugo Hellman of Wauwatosa, Wis., and has just earned his doctorate at Harvard as French History professor.

Sister Theresina wrote that the young couple visited her at St. Johann in the homes of her two brothers, then took her in their car to Wattwil to see her sister. On the way they saw the home of Sister Theresina's brother, Dr. Walter Grob who spent his lifetime in the practice of medicine.

So well had the late Mrs. Gus Hellman detailed on her visit with the Grob families in 1960 that Dr. John knew very much in advance. Both young people speak German to some extent and she is native of France so there was no language barrier. Mrs. Hellman studied Greek and Latin at the University of Paris where she met her husband who studied there also. Each year her family summers in Switzerland and the entire family gets together for mountain climbing. One of her brothers climbed the Matterhorn this summer. It was a wonderful visit, Sister Theresina said, thoroughly enjoyed by her and her family.

"Cabaret," winner of 8 Tony Awards and the New York Drama Critics Award, will be the final show for the Dallas Summer Musicals' 1969 season. The national touring company of the Harold Prince production is headed by Tandy Cronyn, daughter of the famed actor and actress, Hume Cronyn and Jessica Tandy. It will open its national tour in Dallas, Aug. 19 and play 14 performances through Aug. 31. "Cabaret" is both an engaging plot musical and a spectacular cabaret entertainment, with Tandy Cronyn playing the role of a good-time night-club entertainer, Sally Bowles, and Jay Fox as the clown-like Master of Ceremonies.

Stephens Back From Vacation Trip

Mrs. Mel Stephens and children Anita, Michael and Jon have ended a five-week vacation in California and Indiana.

They flew to Los Angeles with Mr. Stephens when he was piloting from Dallas to California, he joined them for a short vacation at Lake George in Indiana, and they joined him in Denver for the trip home. He flies for Continental Air Lines.

In Los Angeles, their hometown before they moved to Mueaster, Mrs. Stephens and the children visited former neighbors and friends. At the same time the the people who bought their home there vacationed with relatives at Hood and visited here with Mr. Stephens.

From there Mrs. Stephens and children went to Chicago and Elgin, Ill., to see friends and then to Fort Wayne, Ind., to spend most of the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frederick at their cottage at Lake George. That was where Mr. Stephens joined them. Another visit at the parents' home in Fort Wayne and sight-seeing in Chicago and then the flight to Denver where the family joined for the trip home.

Oil and Gas Production of County Estimated $28.3 Million Last Year

Cooke County oil and gas wells pumped some $28.3 million into the county's economy last year, according to a study just released by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Value of production from oil wells was $27.9 million and from natural-gas wells $391,000, based on the most recent U.S. Bureau of Mines figures compiled by the Association. The county ranked 43rd in the state in value of production.

"Output from Cooke County is part of this country's domestic oil supply which is endangered by some of the proposals now before Congress," commented Corbin J. Robertson, Association president. "Attempts to destroy percentage depletion provisions of our income tax laws and to nullify present controls over imported oil could discourage further development of Texas oil resources. Eventually oil markets now shared by the county would be given over to foreign producers."

Last year, the county produced 9.6 million barrels of crude oil and 3 billion cubic feet of natural gas.

Of this total, county landowners and others with mineral interests received royalty payments of $3.5 million.

The state received $1.3 million in production taxes with crude oil accounting for $1.3 million and natural gas $27,000. A number of school districts in the county lean heavily on oil production for ad valorem tax support, such as Callisburg, 91.7%.

Drilling expenditures were an estimated $2.5 million. Of the 127 wells drilled in the county, 67 were completed as oil wells, according to Ira Rinehart's Yearbook. The 60 dry holes cost $1.1 million. There were 24 wildcats drilled.

The Texas Employment Commission lists 626 workers on oil and gas payrolls, which totaled $3.5 million.

Also adding to the county's economy, the Oil and Gas Journal shows 4 natural-gasoline processing plants with a daily capacity of 105 million cubic feet.

Our economy is producing a thousand new corporate "millionaires" each year! The Dun & Bradstreet Million Dollar Directory now lists more than 31,000 companies in the United States having a net worth of more than a million dollars each. The first issue of the same Directory just a decade ago listed only 21,000 such companies.

Anyone who stops learning is old, whether this happens at 20 or 80. Anyone who keeps on learning not only remains young, but becomes constantly more valuable, regardless of physical capacity.—Henry Ford.

Purpose of the conference is to consider recommendations of a special study committee appointed earlier this year by Texas Farm Bureau President Sidney Dean to study the state organization's structure and operating procedure. The committee completed its work last month and made its report to the TFB directors July 29 in Waco. The board accepted the report and set the Aug. 18 meeting so that the recommendations of the six-member Study Committee could be explained in detail to county leaders. Following the Austin meeting, the county presidents are expected to take the proposals back to their home counties to be considered in the Farm Bureau's policy development process which begins on the county level. After consideration at county conventions in October, the counties' recommendations will be submitted to the state convention in November in San Antonio. Voting delegates from county Farm Bureaus adopt policies for the Texas Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fette and children Jimmy Joe, Deana Kay and Brenda Jean of Dallas spent Saturday with their mother and grandmother Mrs. Isabell Fette.
