VOLUME XXXVI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JANUARY 14, 1972

NUMBER 8

The decision of the San Antonio federal court declaring that Texas public schools are partially financed by an unconstitutional system of taxation is a sure bet to cause a lot of headaches, among rank and file citizens as well as schoolmen and legislators.

It's quite a shock to be told that our method of raising local taxes has been wrong all the time and a new method has to be adopted in two years — especially when most of us are aware that the most likely result of the change will be another increase in taxes.

The court's verdict derived from the Gilmer-Aiken major shakeup some twenty years ago when schoolmen decided that the old per capita system did not give Texas children a fair and equal opportunity. Up to then the state provided a specified allotment for each child and local taxation raised the remainder of funds for the local school budget. As a result rich districts were able to afford plush school systems and poor districts had to put up with shortages and sub-standard conditions.

To correct that the state's top schoolmen established the system in which more affluent districts receive less state aid and the poor districts get more. The method was intended to equalize the amount of funds available for the children's education.

But somehow that did not get the job done. The court now tells us that the system is still hopelessly unequal. Many counties and districts don't raise their fair share to pay the school bill while others have to pay exorbitant taxes. So, something else has to be done.

No one can argue with that statement. Furthermore we of the rural area have to admit that we generally are enjoying the lower rates. Our taxes often are a third or a fourth as much as the urban residents' on comparable value of property.

This doesn't necessarily mean that we have been delinquent in our obligations. Rather it's a condition that had to develop eventually. As each sector tried to take care of its own needs the city folks found their need growing faster and their cost rising faster. So, many of them now find that their share of a child's school bill is much greater than ours. Sympathetic judges say something has to be done to correct this.

We hear from some quarters that the new system will bring big changes in our taxing methods, perhaps even an end of the property tax. It's suggested that the state should turn to an income tax, that the fairest method is to take a part of each person's income. Also suggested is a sales tax increase to gear state income to people's spending. And still others think that property taxes should be continued but some method should be devised to equalize them.

Considering the suggestions one is inclined to think that all have merit and all should become a part of the state's revenue raising process. Until we realize that it does not get any help from people who have it made and now receive little or no income. Those are people who can and should carry their part of the load. The sales tax, likewise, seems like an equalized method because everybody has to spend to keep going. But then one remembers that hoarders would be able to evade their fair share. Ad Valorem tax, too, seems like a fair way of spreading the tax load, until we think of how many do not acquire property.

All three sources of revenue, it appears, are needed to assure a fair distribution of the tax load. Average people can live with a system that taps both their income and their spending, but they'd have to carry all the load if property owners were not also taxed. There also has to be a way of collecting from those who simply hold property.

As studies begin on revising the tax method we are inclined to think that the end result will be combination of the three taxing methods — not only because it seems more reasonable but also because the politicians aren't likely to overlook a source of revenue. And, if so, we hope very much that some foolproof method can be devised for the ad valorem tax. As all of us know, there's nothing equal

225 Boys to Compete in Weekend Boxing Tourney

The second annual boxing tournament sponsored by the Muenster Boys Club will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week in Sacred Heart gym.

It is sanctioned by the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma Amateur Boxing Association and will be conducted according to the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union.

About 180 youngsters from eleven boys clubs of Texas and Oklahoma are expected to compete. Four of those clubs are in Wichita and one each is located in Muenster, Lawton, Comanche, Walters, Waurika, Duncan and Ardmore.

In addition there will be teams specially invited from Subiaco, Ark., and Arlington. The Arlington club will have about 25 entries. The Subiaco club, under direction of Father Nicholas Fuhrman, will have 22 entries. Also, as an added attraction, Fro's Boys of Subiaco will accompany the team and present musical numbers. The Subiaco group will be here Friday and Saturday nights.

Thirty two Muenster boys, including seven who won trophies at a tournament in Duncan last week, are booked for action in the local tourney. They are members of the Muenster Boys Club with Mike Stoffels as director and Chris Walterscheid as assistant. Sponsors of the club are the Muenster Jaycees, K. C. Council V.F.W. Post and Youth Council.

Stoffels said the AAU regulations, which apply to the tournament, require that all contestants must be amateurs and must furnish proof of age along with releases from parents indicating permission to compete. Boys are also required to use protective cups and teeth protectors and to have protective bandages on their hands.

Also, Doctors Antonetti and Graham will be present to help promptly in case of injury. And men from the Sheriff's office will help keep order.

The contestants are divided into four classes according to age and experience. They are the junior and senior special classes, novice class and open class. And each class is divided into weight brackets varying by five pounds. Boys will compete in their respective weight brackets and a trophy will be awarded to the winner and the runner-up of each.

The total number of trophies to be given has been estimated at 86. However the number to be actually presented will be determined by the number of brackets drawn up. Along with all of those is the Leon Endres memorial trophy to be given to the team selected for outstanding sportsmanship. Hosting officials and coaches of the visiting teams will determine the winner by ballot.

All bouts will consist of three rounds with one minute rest periods. Time per round will be one minute in the special classes, one and a half minutes in the novice class and two minutes in the open class.

Ernest Jaska, publicity chairman, said the tournament will be under direction of Willie Walterscheid and a number of local people will help in various ways to keep the program going.

Adult tickets to each evening's program will be $1.75 for ringside seats and $1.25 for general admission. Children under 12 will pay 75 cents.

Spectators and entries are reminded to use the east entrance to the gym, which opens to the outside. The hall entrance inside the building will not be open. Snacks and drinks will be available during the tournament at a concession operated by Sacred Heart Alumni.

Students are seeking entries for the competition and inviting everyone interested to play and/or attend and watch the rounds. Trophies will be awarded to winners.

Those entering the tourney must have their names and entrance fee of one dollar turned in to Cletus Bayer or Ronnie Hess by midnight January 23.

Half of the proceeds will go to aid the starving people of Bangladesh, formerly East Pakistan.

In Muenster the flu has not reached epidemic proportion although many people are afflicted, some of them needing hospitalization. There has been no great absenteeism from Muenster schools which continue classes.

Superintendent Glenn Hellman dismissed classes for the rest of the week.

Local Schools to Observe Arbor Day By Planting Trees

In keeping with a project sponsored by the Muenster Garden Club, both local schools will observe Arbor Day, Friday, January 21, by planting trees on their campuses.

Sister Mary John Seyler, principal of Sacred Heart, said the planting there will be a joint ceremony by grades and high school beginning at 2:15 p.m.

Superintendent L. B. Bruns said that the public school's observance will consist of three events beginning at 2:30 p.m. Elementary grades will plant one, then junior high, and finally the high school.

At this time it is understood that all of the trees will be pecans.

Bank Progress Of 1971 Reported To Stockholders

Stockholders of Muenster State Bank in their annual meeting last week heard a report of increased business activity during the past year, which was explained by President Herbert Meurer as due partly to the nation's over-all economic trend, partly to community progress and partly to inflation. Deposits, he said, showed an increase of over a half million dollars during the year.

After paying the usual annual dividend to stockholders the bank followed its custom of strengthening its capital and reserve account. The amount was raised $22,174.72 to $601,815.98 as of December 31, 1971, including reserves for payment of income tax.

The Board was continued as follows: J. M. Weinzapfel, chairman of the board; Herbert Meurer, president; Earl J. Fisher, executive vice president; Henry Weinzapfel, vice president; John D. Meurer, cashier; J. R. Dangelmayr and J. W. Fisher, directors.

Members of Muenster Garden Club heard Eual Davis, area conservationist, speak on Soil Conservation at their January meeting Monday night.

He told how conservation is one solution to pollution and placed special emphasis on the problems created by silt or sediment drifting into lakes and ponds. He also illustrated with a number of colored slides on gully erosion control and water resource conservation. Afterward he answered questions asked by members.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. John Fisher with Mrs. Joe Fisher as co-hostess. They served a dessert plate and coffee as members arrived. Three guests, Mrs. Eual Davis, Mrs. Al Trubebach and Mrs. Ben Seyler also attended.

Mrs. Arthur Endres, president, conducted the business session and reported on the meeting of the Gainesville Council of Garden Clubs. Mrs. Joe Luke, librarian, told about new books on gardening and flower arranging now available from Muenster Public Library.

Mrs. Paul Endres, Arbor Day chairman for the Gainesville Council of Garden Clubs, discussed plans for Arbor Day observance January 21. She said the day will be observed in all schools of Cooke County and that members of the four Gainesville Garden Clubs and Muenster Garden Club will attend the ceremonies.

New members of the telephone committee appointed are Mmes. R. R. Endres, Tony Gremminger and Steve Moser.

Before adjournment Mrs. Endres reminded members to attend the next meeting of the Gainesville Council of Garden Clubs which will be in Muenster's TP&L community room on Feb. 7 at 9:30 a.m. She and Mrs. H. H. Houtchens will be co-hostesses.

February meeting of Muenster Garden Club will be held February 14 at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Tony Gremminger and Mrs. Steve Moser as co-hostesses. Sister Mary John Seyler, member, will present a program on Ecology.

You can measure the size of a man by his reaction to flat-tery.

Volley Entry Deadline
Sacred Heart Alumni president Joe Felderhoff, now accepting entries in the one-day volley ball tourney Jan. 23, reminds teams to sign up before the deadline which is Jan. 17 to allow time for drawing up the brackets.

Knights Consider Building Program

Whether or not to enlarge their facilities, and if so how much, are the big questions confronting members of the Muenster K of C council now.

Grand Knight Dan Luke said it was the principal topic at the regular meeting last Wednesday night but no decisions were asked for because of a current survey on the subject conducted through the council's monthly bulletin. Officers wish to have a definite count on the answers to a number of questions and are urging every member to fill out his copy and send it in.

First question of the survey asks whether the community has an adequate facility for entertaining a large group or holding a large meeting.

Then, whether the members favor enlarging their present space. And would the member prefer a new building or addition to the present building.

SH Students Win Two Trophies in Speech Tourney

Eight Sacred Heart High freshmen attended Wichita Falls Rider High School Novice Speech Tournament during the weekend and came back with two winning trophies. This tourney was for first year speech students only.

Linda Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller, won a third place trophy with her recitation of "Wild Grapes" by Robert Frost.

Laura Kralicke, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke, was chosen, along with two other girls from different schools as "Best Girl Debater." Laura and Linda won a total of four out of four debates.

Barbie Hess and Sandy Reiter reached finals on their recitations.

Others attending were Kathy Luke, Linda Hess, Chris Felderhoff, Karen Stoffels, Janet Bayer, Karen Luttmir, Joey Koessler and Gail Miller.

Brother Thomas Moser, speech and drama instructor, was unable to accompany his students. He was confined to his home on account of illness.

Going with the group and helping judge in various events were Miss Donna Rohmer, student at the University of Dallas, and Miss Mary Lou Kralicke.

MHS girls have a pair of wins and the boys have two losses after their first encounters in the District 12-A basketball race.

Doris Felderhoff had two big nights for scores of 47 and 56 as the girls tripped Pilot Point and Sanger.

In the first game Muenster gained all the way with counts of 17-10, 29-18, 46-26 and 58-32 ending the quarters. Janet Swirczynski, Dolly Bayer, and Joyce Swirczynski added 6, 3 and 2 respectively to the scoring.

At Sanger the competition was hotter as MHS held the lead all the way but by closer margins of 19-16, 37-32, 53-44 and 61-49. The team's strategy was to avoid the long shots and play it cautious while working Felderhoff in for set up shots. Dolly Bayer hit 4 and Joyce Swirczynski 1.

Muenster boys were handicapped by the flu in their opener with Pilot Point. Three of the starters, Jim Endres, Mark Lippe and Tom Otto played only part time and were not up to par when in the game.

The first quarter was a see saw, the visitors nudging ahead 15-13 just before the first period ended. After that they gained to 23-18 at half-time and 45-32 at the third and coasted to the 57-45 win. Jim Endres and Mark Lippe shared MHS scoring honors with 10 each, and other point makers were Tommy Otto 8, Ronnie Felderhoff, Randy Wolf and Lonnie Hellman each 4, James Eckart 3.

Effects of flu were still hanging on when they lost 62-56 at Sanger Tuesday night. For three quarters they trailed by scores of 17-9, 28-21 and 48-31 then put on a last quarter rally that gained 11 points but still left them 6 points shorts.

Jim Endres was top scorer with 18. Mark Lippe and Ronnie Felderhoff each hit 8, Jerry Eckart made 7, Tommy Otto 6, Claude Klement 4, Randy Wolf 3.

Next games on schedule are at Frisco Friday night and Nocona here next Tuesday.

Funeral Friday for Mrs. Mary Voth, 93

Death has claimed one of the few remaining pioneer residents of Muenster, Mrs. Barney Voth, who died Tuesday at 1 p.m. in Muenster Hospital the day before her 93rd birthday. She was born Jan. 12, 1879 in Rollo, Nebraska and had lived here continuously for 79 years.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 9:30 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Placidus Eckart, pastor, officiating and also conducting graveside rites in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. Grandsons will be bearers.

Rosary services will be held in the Miller Chapel Thursday at 4 and at 8 p.m., the 4 o'clock rosary conducted by St. Anne's Society and the Third Order of St. Francis of which she was a member.

The former Miss Mary Trubebach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Trubebach, came to Muenster with them in 1893. She married Mr. Voth on May 17, 1898. They were parents of 15 children. In May 1948 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and he died August 31 that year.

Surviving are six sons: John and Leo of Gainesville, Ben, Joe, Ted and Ray of Muenster; six daughters, Sister Agnes Voth of Wynne, Ark., Mrs. Lena Zimmerman and Mrs. Albert Kubis of Lindsay, Mrs. Gertrude Lawing of Iowa Park, Mrs. Bob Dixon of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Marie Kappas of Muenster.

Also 36 grandchildren and 50 great-grandchildren; one sister Mrs. Margaret Sicking of Gainesville and one brother Tony Trubebach Sr. of Muenster.

CCJC Trustees Extend Contract Of Dr. Shasteen
Dr. A. E. Shasteen's contract was extended and a basketball coach was hired at Monday night's regular meeting of the Cooke County Junior College board of trustees.

The board reviewed Dr. Shasteen's contract as president, then extended it through August 1974.

The newly appointed coach of the recently organized basketball program is Dr. F. H. George, who has an outstanding record as a basketball coach in several high schools before coming to CCJC. Along with coaching he will assist Vice President Scott in the college's guidance and counseling program. His doctor's degree is in student personnel services.

The trustees also accepted the recommendation of a committee appointed to study a site for the school's beef cattle evaluation center. It will be located on the Mary Josephine Cox farm. The board also decided that the farm would be used for experiments in the ag department.

The board ordered the annual trustee election for the first Saturday of April. It will be held in connection with other school trustee elections of the county.

Boxers Win Seven Trophies at Duncan
Seven members of the Muenster Boys Club came home with trophies from a boxing tournament in Duncan, Okla., during the past weekend.

Four of the prizes were for first place and three for runner up. In addition the Muenster team barely missed the tournament sportsmanship trophy. It was runner up in that respect.

The four champs of their respective divisions were Jerry Caplinger, Tracy Holsey, Roger Haverkamp and Neil Huchton. The three runners up were Curtis Pagel, Damian Walterscheid and Bill Huchton.

Whopper Turnip
Ernest Huggins, Rt. 1, Muenster, claims this year's champ title as a turnip raiser with a specimen that measures 25½ inches in circumference and weighs six and a half pounds. The bumper crop produced many large turnips of which the sample he was showing around town this week was the champion.

From the Pinceton (West Virginia) Observer: "Civilization doesn't always time things right. Lipstick would have wiped off the old celluloid collars."

Song-Dance Party Of Choir, Frohsinn Set February 12

Preparations are beginning for the annual joint songfest and dance of Muenster Sacred Heart Choir and the Frohsinn Singing Society of Dallas.

Sponsored by the local choir, it will be held Saturday, Feb. 12, in the Sacred Heart parish hall. The program will begin with the concert at 8 o'clock presenting the two singing groups separately and together.

The dance beginning about 9 o'clock, will feature polkas, waltzes and schottisches by the Polka Tones.

For those who wish to have a meal with the program, food will be available in the hall beginning at 7 o'clock.

Lately the Sacred Heart Choir has made guest appearances at area churches one Sunday a month. It has sung at services in the Catholic churches of Gainesville, Valley View and Montague and at the State School for Girls.

Car Wash Installs Automatic Unit
An automatic car wash is Muenster's latest business addition. It is being installed by Gilbert Endres as a replacement to one of the do-it-yourself units in the Jet Age Car Wash a half block north of Highway 82 near Sycamore.

Endres expects it to be ready for business before the end of the week.

The unit is a coin operated machine with several high pressure spray jets mounted on a track surrounding the car. A 75 cent deposit activates the machine for two trips around the car spraying a hot detergent solution followed by two trips spraying clear cool rinse water. An extra deposit of 25 cents adds wax to the second round of rinse water. The entire operation takes two minutes.

People who prefer to do it themselves will find one of the former units still in use at the car wash.

Roy Huchtons of Gainesville Dies
Roy William Huchtons of Gainesville, 62, died unexpectedly at 4:30 a.m. Wednesday before arrival at Gainesville Hospital.

He was a native of Saint Joe where he served on the city council and school board, was a steward in the Methodist Church and taught a Sunday School class before moving to Gainesville where he owned and operated a service station.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Geo. J. Carroll & Son Chapel and burial followed in Fairview Cemetery. The Rev. Bourdon Smith officiated.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Roy and John of Dallas; one daughter Mrs. Johnny Lynch of Plano; two sisters, Mrs. Marie Johnston and Mrs. Marguerite Dill of Gainesville, and two grandchildren.

A new building should be erected on every college campus. — A WOODSHED.

To Sell Doughnuts
Seniors of SH High will conduct a doughnut sale Sunday as a class benefit. They'll sell doughnuts individually, by the dozen, or with coffee in Sacred Heart High School hall. The sale will begin at 7:30 a.m. and continue until 11 o'clock.

A Case for the Civil Righteous

Advocates of civil liberties so frequently heard from in American politics now have a chance to prove the authenticity of their concern for freedom.

This opportunity is presented by agreements reached between California growers and the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee of Cesar Chavez. These agreements contain some of the most flagrant denials of civil liberties that one can imagine — impinging on the right to work, and including provisions denying the right to freedom of speech and opinion as well.

Compulsory unionism had long been one of the major demands of the Chavez union — meaning no picker could get a job unless he paid his tribute to Chavez. The necessity of this provision from the union's point of view may be appreciated when we note that pickers would not join up with Chavez voluntarily. Barely 2,000 of them had enlisted in his ranks before the massive grape boycott across the nation forced growers to sign their compulsory unionism contracts.

As if this compulsion were not bad enough, the memorandum of agreement between Chavez and his growers contains a punitive clause by which the union can have anyone fired for the sin of disagreeing with Chavez. This clause says that "there are certain employees... whom the union claims have substantially impaired the union's organizing efforts in the grape industry, and who might disrupt the contractual relationship between company and union if their anti-union activities are allowed to continue."

Therefore, the contract goes on, the "company agrees to carefully explain to said employees that they can no longer engage in such activities and that, if they continue to do so, they will be immediately fired." It is specified that the identification of such employees and the final determination as to whether they shall be discharged rest with the Chavez union.

So, if you are a picker, you must not only pay tribute to Cesar Chavez in order to work, you may also be fired at the discretion of the union if you have opposed the Chavez organizing effort — or if you commit unspecified anti-union activities in the future.

Here, I think, is an interesting test of sincerity for the professional friends of civil liberties. If they really mean all those things they keep saying about the freedom of the little man, they should denounce this study in coercion in no uncertain terms.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

By Crawford C. Martin
Attorney General of Texas

Have you ever purchased on the time installment plan? Sure you have. Practically all major appliances are purchased in this manner.

Here's how it works: You, as the consumer, purchase a washer and dryer from one of the local appliance dealers in your city. You sign a time installment contract and promissory note for the total purchase price, payable in monthly installments ranging from 12 to 36 months.

(It should be noted that the time installment plan is utilized in the purchase of furniture, dance lessons, etc. as well as appliances.)

Your promissory note for the total price of the washer and dryer is in turn assigned or transferred by the appliance dealer to a bank or other lending institution. By the terms of this assignment or transfer, the appliance dealer who sold you the washer and dryer is paid in full by the bank and you now begin to make regular payments to the bank for the purchase of your appliances. The bank, who owns your promissory note now, is probably a "Holder In Due Course".

So what does this mean to you, a consumer? Legally speaking, it means a great deal in terms of the rights and liabilities of all three parties — you, the appliance dealer, and the financial institution — to this everyday commercial transaction.

What exactly is a "Holder In Due Course"? Generally, a "Holder In Due Course" is one who takes a negotiable promissory note in the regular course of business, paying a valuable consideration for it, and who has no reason to believe that the original transaction between you and the appliance dealer is other than legitimate. As a "Holder In Due Course", the bank is legally entitled to expect payment to be made by you according to the terms of your note. All well and good so far!

But, consider this situation: As you begin to use your new appliances, suppose the dryer ceases to function due to faulty installation by the appliance dealer. If the dealer is a reputable one, he will repair it or see that it is installed properly pursuant to your warranty. But suppose that the appliance dealer has in the meantime quit doing business or has moved from your city and cannot be located. What do you do now? Can you legally cease making payments until your dryer is repaired or replaced? If the bank is a "Holder In Due Course", the answer is no.

Remember, the bank paid valuable consideration for your note. It paid the dealer cash in full. It makes a profit from the interest you are paying on the note, and the bank more than likely would have had no reason to believe the dealer was other than reputable. (Or at least it will be extremely difficult for you to prove otherwise.)

Where does this leave you legally? This leaves you with monthly installments to pay on your note stuck with a faulty appliance with a questionable appliance dealer unavailable.

Before signing the contract and making your purchase, know with whom you are dealing. Is he a reputable and honest businessman? If you are not sure, check with your local Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau.

Remember, when purchasing products or services on the time installment payment plan, your contract and note in many cases will be assigned to a "Holder In Due Course".

Electricity Is A Bargain

In case you wonder what it costs to operate certain electrical appliances in your home, a fact sheet issued by an electric power company will prove interesting. The figures it contains are based on averages. For instance, an electric bed covering costs .7 of a cent per day; an electric blender costs .06 of a cent per use; a can opener costs 1.5 cents per year; a clothes dryer (five loads a week) costs 3.2 cents per use; a clothes washer (not water not included) costs .3 of a cent per use. To make coffee three times a day takes $2.15 worth of electricity per year; a freezer, $11 a year; a single 100-watt incandescent light bulb burning five hours a day costs $1.65 a year and a 40-watt bulb, .84 cents. One of the most expensive items is color television which operated eight hours a day draws $11.40 worth of energy annually. A frost-free refrigerator is even more expensive, it runs to $27 a year. Items, such as electric fans, fry pans and hair dryers range from .09 of a cent to 7 of a cent per hour. An electric iron costs one cent an hour to operate.

Many will no doubt disagree with these figures, but they were assembled by a marketing development coordinator of an electric company who also has a few words to say about how much can be saved on the average electric bill by a few simple economies. He suggests setting back the thermostat at night which may mean a saving of six to seven percent. He suggests closing draperies to cut down on excessive heat loss. He recommends avoiding setting hot water heater thermostats to above 160 degrees. He warns against long pipes as each 25 feet of pipe wastes one gallon per drawing of hot water. Leaky faucets, even a very small leak, is equivalent to adding one person to the family. In addition to offering helpful information, the fact sheet prepared by this power company shows that it would be hard to find a bigger bargain than electricity.

The Problem of Inferior Work

A conspiracy of silence seems to afflict a large area of the consumer protection movement. Emphasis has been on demanding laws that hold manufacturers solely accountable for the quality and safety of products. No consumer protector has questioned the hazards to consumers that arise from faulty workmanship — something wholly apart from faulty engineering or poor design. No consumer protector has a word to say about the danger to consumers of overly protective union rules that make it impossible for management to discipline or control the inefficient worker.

The president of the Southern States Industrial Council remarks that, "If management could exercise some control over its hiring, wage and disciplinary policies, a lot less shoddy merchandise would reach the consumer. And if pride of craftsmanship were still present in the American industrial scene, it is the consumer who would benefit." The consumerist conspiracy of silence, with regard to the rising gravity of the problem of worker indifference, makes suspect the strident consumer protection campaigns.

Well, What Do You Know?
fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

Would you like to make Valentines?

Valentine cards can easily be bought in stores, but it is good fun and a pleasant pastime to make them yourself. They also mean more to the persons who receive them.

The basic materials needed are scissors, paste, and colored paper, such as construction or drawing paper. Lace paper doilies, gummed paper and seals, embossed gummed letters, colored foil, and narrow ribbon will add attractive decorations.

But the most important "material" of all is your imagination. These designs are only suggestions. They can be changed or added to in any way you wish.

The heart is the Valentine's Day symbol. You can make Valentine's cards from folded designs, by cutting heart shapes along the folded edges. A 5-inch square of paper is good workable size. First fold the paper in half, then in quarters. Or fold it diagonally or in accordion folds.

Draw hearts in different sizes along the folds, lightly, in pencil. Then cut them out; you can save the cutouts to use on other cards. You can also add other simple shapes, such as circles, diamonds, and narrow rectangles for variety. Scallop the outside edges if you wish.

When you are finished, carefully unfold the designs and paste them to the front of construction paper cards. Use a different colored card so that the designs will show up against the background. Write your Valentine greetings inside the card.

These simple designs may be further decorated with ribbon, gummed letters, and flower seals.

Course in German Offered at CCJC

German is one of the many courses offered at CCJC this spring. Cooke County citizens, aware of a strong cultural heritage throughout the area, should be pleased with the opportunity to study the German language at the local college.

German 114, an elementary course in the language, was taught last semester at CCJC by Mrs. Connie Hudspeth on Tuesday nights. She will teach 124, the second semester of elementary German, on Tuesday nights during the spring semester. The class will begin at 5:30 this semester. It includes one hour of listening-speaking practice in the Language Laboratory as well as the regular class session each week. Laboratory facilities are available to students daily Monday through Friday as well as Monday through Thursday nights. In the fall semester students enjoyed songs, films, and conversational practice in German.

French and Spanish are offered in daytime courses. Conversational Spanish, keyed to business and travel, is offered on Wednesday nights. Now German completes the full scope of language study available at CCJC. In addition, the International Club opens its membership to all students in foreign language courses as well as others who are interested in foreign cultures and exchange of ideas.

FB Get Change of Driver Regulations On Farm Trucks

WACO — (Spl) — Farmers and ranchers have won a clear-cut victory in regard to farm truck driver regulations, according to J. T. (Red) Woodson, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

The final revised regulations which have been issued and in effect since Jan. 1 are in accordance with Farm Bureau's recommendations, the state farm leader said.

Woodson said Farm Bureau members around the nation responded to a call for action last Spring that resulted in a decision by the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety to change the proposed stringent rules on farm truck driver qualifications. Leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation said the response by farmers and ranchers was one of the greatest they had ever seen. The proposed revisions announced on June 8 are similar to the final revised rules.

In brief, these revised regulations provide a complete exemption from federal regulation of truck driver qualifications in the case of a driver of a farm truck:

- (1) If the gross weight of the truck is 10,000 pounds or less, or
- (2) If the truck is a straight truck with a gross weight over 10,000 pounds, within a radius of 150 miles of the farm, or
- (3) If the truck is engaged in transporting machinery or supplies to or from a farm for custom harvesting or transporting custom harvested crops from the farm to storage or market, or
- (4) If the truck is engaged in hauling bees in seasonal movement.

A partial exemption is made in the case of the driver of a farm truck which is a combination truck with a gross weight in excess of 10,000 pounds, within a radius of 150 miles of the farm. In such cases, the driver must be at least 18 years of age, and after next Jan. 1, must carry with him while driving a certificate showing he has passed a medical examination.

In addition to the provisions spelled out in the revised rules, the Bureau of Motor Carriers said that: "Generally, the operation of trucks wholly within a state are not subject to the Driver Qualification Regulations."

Farmers or their employees who are not exempt as provided above are subject to the same regulations as non-farm drivers. These requirements are that the driver must:

- (1) Be at least 21 years old.
- (2) Take a road test in driving a truck.
- (3) Take a written examination in the federal motor vehicle safety regulations.
- (4) Pass a medical examination and carry a certificate so indicating.
- (5) If an employee, file with his employer information relative to items 1 through 4 above, and information relative to his background and experience. The employer is required to file such information.

The Department of Transportation is preparing a leaflet summarizing the revised regulations. These will be distributed by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Birth Certificate Needed to Apply For SS Benefits

Do you have a birth certificate to support your claim for social security benefits?

If not, and you were in Texas in 1910 or later, your birth certificate probably is on record at the State Bureau of Vital Statistics in Austin, Gus Jones, social security district manager in Sherman stated. This is important to people who will reach age 62 in 1972 or later, and are planning to apply for social security benefits.

If you do not have a copy of your birth certificate, or a baptismal record recorded before age 5, you should attempt to get one by writing to the Bureau of Vital Statistics for a birth record, or to the church where you were baptized for the baptismal record.

"If you can bring one of these with you when you apply for benefits, or be able to show social security that no birth certificate or baptismal certificate was recorded for you, you'll be a step ahead in processing your application and getting that first social security benefit check when it's due," he said.

Free forms for requesting birth certificates from the Bureau of Vital Statistics are available at your local social security office, 810 North Travis, telephone 893-4301. If you have any questions regarding proof of age requirements, Jones said to be sure to call the social security office.

Persons living in Gainesville may call the Sherman social security office toll free by dialing the long-distance operator and asking for ENterprise 6-2528.

A representative may be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon at the Federal Building.

Gas Drying

Electric Drying

Either we're four times cheaper, or they're four times more expensive.

Gas drying is not only easier on your pocketbook, it also makes life a whole lot easier. For one thing, gas drying practically eliminates the need for ironing. The new gas dryers are so gentle that clothes come out almost wrinkle-free. Clothes are tumbled dry, then cooled, and gently fluffed. Automatically, Pleats stay pleated. Creases stay creased. All this for a cost of about a penny a load. (Or $2.00 a ton.)

Take a look at the new gas dryers at your gas appliance dealer. Then do something nice for yourself. And your pocketbook.

Donna Janicki and Capt. Tackaberry Say Wedding Vows

Fort Sam Houston Gift Chapel in San Antonio was the scene of the marriage of Miss Donna Marie Janicki and Captain Burt Stewart Tackaberry on December 30.

The bride is the daughter of CWO and Mrs. John P. Janicki. The groom's parents are Brigadier General and Mrs. Thomas Tackaberry of Fairfax, Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pagel of Muenster are the bride's grandparents.

As the bride proceeded to the altar on the arm of her father, she presented a long-stemmed red rose to her mother. Her bridal gown was of white re-embroidered Alencon lace on white silk organza with fitted bodice and long full sleeves of the organza. The high waistline was accented by re-embroidered Alencon lace with tiny buttons from the high neckline to the hem, where the lace motif was repeated. The chapel-length bridal veil of illusion, circled in Alencon lace, flowed from a Victorian lace cap. Her bouquet was a nosegay of white roses and holly surrounding an orchid which later served as her corsage for her going away costume.

Miss Janelle Janicki was her sister's only attendant. Her dress was of red chiffon velvet. Her headpiece was of holly and red velvet ribbon and she carried a nosegay of red feathered carnations and holly with red velvet streamers.

Captain Kief Tackaberry of Fort Rucker, Ala., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Lieut. Walter W. Wakefield of Fort Rucker, brother-in-law of the bride, and Lt. Jim Johnson of San Antonio.

As the bride left the chapel she presented a long-stemmed red rose to her husband's mother.

Wedding reception was held in the Aztec Room of the Fort Sam Houston Officers Club. Misses Starla and Renee Janicki, sisters of the bride registered the one hundred and fifty guests. Mrs. Walter Wakefield, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Stoney Burke and Miss Lynn Bowman served the four-tier white wedding cake which was baked and decorated by the bride's father. Mrs. Jim Johnson served the punch.

The bride is a graduate of Nuremburg American High School, Nuremburg, Germany and represented Fort Sam Houston as a princess in the Battle of the Flowers Parade in the city of San Antonio. She has been employed as personnel assistant at the Alamo Exchange Region at Fort Sam Houston.

Captain Tackaberry is a graduate of the University of South Florida in Tampa, has served a tour of duty in Vietnam and is presently attending Rotary Wing Flight School at Fort Rucker, Ala. The newlyweds will be at home at Ozark, Ala., until March when he will receive a new assignment.

New residents for Muenster are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gehrig and son, moving from Lindsay to Mrs. Cecil Rathburn's former home on W. Hwy 82. It's a return to the couple's hometown. He is a teacher at Sacred Heart High this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fleeman and children Cindy and Tim left Muenster Wednesday to make their home in Hinckley, Ohio. They had lived in a mobile home on Myra Road.

Juniors Take Two From Lake Dallas

Junior teams of Muenster Public School were winners and the high school girls B team was a loser in the three-game program with Lake Dallas Monday night in MHS gymnasium.

The little girls had no problem whatever running up a score of 35-8 in three quarters and the reserves went on for the 41-14 win. Becky Fields scored 19 and Debbie Schneider 12.

The boys game was different as the visitors led 4-3 and 11-9 ending the first quarters. In the next period Muenster jumped to an 18-12 lead then survived a Lake Dallas rally in the fourth for the 22-20 win. Danny Endres scored 13 and Tim Wolf 6.

B team girls held their own in the first period for a 5-5 tie and fell behind the next three by counts of 14-9, 18-12 and 29-21. MHS scorers were Mary Lou Fleitman 9, Becky Jaska 6, Sandy Dittfurth 4.

The junior teams are playing in a division of the 12-A junior conference with Sanger and Nocona. Up to now both have a 1-1 standing. Boys lost 46-15 and girls 52-32 to Nocona before the holidays. And last week both won at Sanger. The girls did it easy by a count of 36-11. The boys were tied 24-24 in regular time and squeezed out a 26-25 win in overtime.

Parochial Teams In Losing Streak

Basketball has been a losing proposition at Sacred Heart High for the past week. In seven games played by A and B teams they failed to get a single win.

Four of those games were with TISC opponents in which the Tiger A teams were hopelessly outclassed and thoroughly clobbered by Trinity Valley and Dallas Christian. As a result Sacred Heart now has a conference standing of 0-4. Dallas Christian leads with 4-0. Preceding both of those games the Tiger B team lost by equally sad scores.

Less discouraging was last Friday's three game event with Era on the local court. The boys B team started the action with the best game of the night, a hot contest finally won 23-22 by Era. Kenny Hess led Sacred Heart's scoring with 13.

Next one was another good game in which Era girls came out with a 32-23 win. Top scorers for the Tigerettes were Peggy Hoedebeck 11 and Nanci Fuhrmann 9.

For the finale the Tigers were swamped again, and the score was 60-33. Gary Endres accounted for 12 of the SH points.

B Teams Drop Two Games to Nocona

Muenster High B teams were two time losers in a pair of games with Nocona last week.

The girls were trimmed 37-22 in the opener as Becky Jaska scored 9 and Sandy Dittfurth 7 for MHS.

Future Hornets lost theirs 47-35, and their leading scorers were Curtis Klement 10, Robert Johnson 9, Lyle Klement 6.

Death Valley is the lowest point on the continent.

about it now. The inequity exists between urban and rural and even between pieces of property in the same area. All this theorizing is based, of course, on the assumption that taxes are needed and must be raised. We'd all be happier, however, if the tax study commission came up with recommendations for some spending cuts. Wouldn't it be nice if those people, for a change, tried as hard to save our money as they try to find new ways of taxing us?
