by Janet Felderhoff
Windy, but fair weather greeted visitors to the first two days of the 1998 Germanfest. People came in large numbers on Friday and Saturday to enjoy dancing, rides and other entertainment and to sample the assortment of food and drink.

Sunday dawned with partly cloudy skies that turned to a gentle drizzle in early afternoon. Predictions of rain held crowd numbers down considerably. Reports came in before 6 p.m. Sunday of a tornado touching down west of Muenster and of cloud rotation. Muenster Chief of Police Bob Stovall notified the Chamber of Commerce that the Weather Bureau in Fort Worth had advised clearing the park.

When the announcement was made at Germanfest people remained calm and congenial clearing the park in an orderly fashion, said Muenster Chamber of Commerce Secretary Margie Starke.

"I think we had a fairly successful Germanfest," reported Mrs. Starke. "Overall the numbers were down. Saturday was a big day, but Sunday's numbers were down. Everybody seemed to have a good time. People came from different areas. There were more from the west. Before the 'Fest we received more calls from Abilene and that area." She attributed some of the new interest to the news media who were very good about public service coverage to the event this year.

Sponsors of the 17th annual Metric Century Bicycle Rally, Sacred Heart Alumni, Miller Lite and Muenster State Bank, reported that there were 1,384 participants this year. "We feel very fortunate to have that many after the big rain out last year," noted chairman Neil Hesse. Last year 1,020 pre-registered, but due to cool rainy weather only 180 actually rode. Normal participants range from 1,500 to 1,600.

According to Hesse one rider received injuries serious enough to require being transferred by Care Flite. It was a one bicycle incident, but we're not sure what caused it, he said. The accident occurred in the early part of the race on FM 373 near Fisher Road.

"I thought it went well for that amount of wind, 30 to 40 miles per hour," Hesse said. "Overall it was a big success." The last riders came in around 6 p.m. Those who made the decision to ride the longest course, 100k, had to battle the wind as they rode against it for the last 14 miles.

Ted Heers, coordinator of the Knights of Columbus 23rd Annual Germanfest Fun Run, reported 1,150 runners in Sunday's run. "We had a wonderful event with no complaints and happy runners," he commented. "The threat of rain held off, though that may have contributed to an unusual number of no-shows among the pre-registered."

Keith Johnson, 36, bettered his time from 52:02 last year to 51:33 to capture first place in the 1998 15k. He placed third in 1997. Coming in second was Terry Garrett, 34, with a time of 52:35. Third and fourth were Josh Ward, 18, with 53:04 and

County jail experiences growing pains

by Janet Felderhoff
"When I took office we had 50 prisoners, now we have 80," remarked Cooke County Sheriff Mike Compton. He was addressing county commissioners at a special Commissioners Court meeting called Friday, April 24 to deal with the overcrowding situation.

The county jail's capacity is 73. When there are more than that number or when classification of prisoners causes problems in how they are placed in cells, jailers face problems. Sheriff Compton explained that there were presently too many females. The big problem is classification. There are three different areas for women, said Compton.

Fifteen of the prisoners are "paper ready" and waiting to be transferred to Huntsville by the TDC (Texas Department of Corrections). It was stated that they are not counted in the number of prisoners which the county is allowed to house by the Jail Commission even if they are stacked in like cord wood. Sheriff Compton replied that he had no problem with crowding except for the classification problems. "I don't want to be in violation of the (Jail Commission) standards," Compton said. "The situation I do want you aware of is when you stack them in like cordwood, it may not count against you on jail standards but they are still there and we still have to take care of them. The staffing, as you well know, is well below what the Jail See JAIL, Page 2

Public Awareness Week

Public Service Recognition Week is May 4-11. This year's theme is "Public Service: Working for You, Working for America." This service provides you with police protection, parks and recreation, water and sewer utilities, and services at City Hall. May 4-11 is also Water Utilities Awareness week. When we turn a water faucet on, we expect good water to come out in quantities sufficient to meet our needs. Often, we forget that city employees check the operation of the water wells at least four times a day, that they respond quickly to repair broken water mains, and that they serve the city 365 days a year!

Repairs scheduled this summer for courthouse

by Janet Felderhoff
Built in the early 1900s, the Cooke County Courthouse is in need of restoration, especially to the north and south facades. Cracks in the terra cotta have allowed water to seep in at the second floor level and leak down to the first floor and basement.

This has caused a number of problems including moldy walls, rusting file cabinets and damage to books containing county records. County Clerk Evelyn Walterscheid noted that she has just had $40,000 worth of repairs done to records which were damaged when water seeped into them from under shelves where they were stored.

Commissioner Virgil Hess noted that the last major repair work done on the outside of the building was in 1991. At that time the courthouse dome and roof were repaired. Last summer saw renovations to the crumbling steps on the building's east side. Hess is a member of the committee overseeing the courthouse restoration.

According to Hess a Preservation Maintenance Plan was developed for restoration of the courthouse when it was accepted as a historical landmark by the Texas State Historical Commission in the '80s. Komatsu Architecture works in conjunction with the Historical Commission to ensure that all renovation meets their specific requirements.

Repairs are expected to take most of the summer. Plans are to try to schedule the work around Sesquicentennial activities at the courthouse. Testing is currently being done to determine the extent of damages and required repairs.

Junior Durham, maintenance supervisor, recommended that things be put in motion soon to ensure that work could be completed before bad weather sets in this fall. Commissioner Court voted 4-0 to approve the fee proposal submitted by Komatsu. They work on a percentage of the bid. If the bid is under $100,000, the fee is 15 percent, over $100,000 is 10 percent.

Cooke County has officially joined the Texas Clean Air Coalition. Commissioners gave their approval in a 4-0 vote to join the Coalition and to pay a joining fee of up to $5,000. "This money will go towards attorneys' fees trying to influence rampant legislation by the TNRCC (Texas Natural Resource Commission Committee)," said Cooke County Judge Russell Duncan.

The Coalition has a steering committee of eight and consists of members from Wichita Falls to the Louisiana border. Cities, counties and a few small private industries have banded together in hopes of influencing laws being drafted by the TNRCC.

As explained by Duncan, Cooke County and other affected counties would have the same laws as Dallas because of the pollution coming from the Metroplex. "If we're not careful, we'll have the same scrutiny, the same standards as Dallas and Fort Worth does," Duncan remarked.

Some of the proposed laws would effect gas stations and vehicles. Changes are proposed in five categories.

Judge Duncan is one of the eight members of the steering committee. The committee has been holding its meetings in Gainesville at the Civic Center. From the archival Commissioner's Court Road Minutes Judge Duncan read minutes from the Nov. 17, 1862 meeting. This is in celebration of Cooke County's sesquicentennial year.

In other business Commissioners Court:

- Accepted a performance bond from American International Company for $52,725, to be used for road construction in Phase I of the Ranch Subdivision.
- Approved public official bond for Chad Betts of the Cooke County Sheriff's - department.

- Approved final plat for Phase I of the Ranch Subdivision in Precinct #2.
- Approved the 1998-99 Budget Calendar.
- Approved month bills, reports, and minutes of last meeting.

Commission recommends. We're understaffed anyway and it puts more of a burden on the staff."

It quickly became apparent that the county takes a dim view of reducing sentences or not sentencing people to jail just to relieve jail crowding. "We would be in error if we reduced sentences or would not sentence people to jail because it would relieve crowding," stated Sheriff Compton. "We'd be doing a disservice. That's what the jail is for."

Commissioner Virgil Hess agreed. "The first thing that happens is a bunch of them are going to go to stealing and what ever they can get away with." Others added that there would be no fear.

"I'm proud when the jail is full. I know that the policemen out there are doing their job," said the sheriff.

Compton noted that he feels that overcrowding from a growing jail population will be a continuing trend. A contract with Clay County to house prisoners would give Cooke County a relief valve, he observed.

Clay County has the capacity to accept up to 15 prisoners in addition to their own. There would be a charge of $35 per day per prisoner which Cooke County would have to pay to Clay County.

Commissioners Court approved the contract 5-0 and agreed that it would be the decision of Sheriff Compton and Cooke County Judge Russell Duncan to determine which type of prisoners would be transferred. Up to 10 prisoners from Cooke County can now be transferred to Clay County when necessary.

Cooke County Electric Co-op scholarship awarded

The Cooke County Electric Cooperative Scholarship Fund Selection Committee met recently to determine the 1998 scholarship recipients. Thirty applications were received from high schools throughout Cooke, Montague and Grayson counties. Three recipients and three alternates were selected. The scholarships are for $500 per semester and are renewable for up to four semesters for a total possible value of $2000.

Recipients are: Matthew Fuhrmann, son of Mark and Linda Fuhrmann, from Sacred Heart High School; Leigh Ann Reiter, daughter of Johnny and Jeanette Reiter, from Muenster High School; and Becki Woodruff, daughter of Gary and Judy Woodruff, from Collinsville High School.

The alternates are Kylie Barrick from Callisburg High School, daughter of Keith and Marilyn Barrick; Bonnie Brooks from Whitesboro High School, daughter of John and Beth Brooks; and Anna Paschall from Nocona High School, daughter of Martin and Lisa Paschall.

The funds for these scholarships were provided by Texas HB 3203. This bill made it possible for any unclaimed funds (capital credits) to be used for the establishment of an educational scholarship fund. Prior to HB 3203 these monies were escheated to the State.

"We are excited to be able to keep the funds here and to provide scholarships," stated Kathy Bauer, Member Services Coordinator and Scholarship Administrator. "Each of the applications were deserving of a scholarship, and all members of the Selection Committee were impressed with the academic and extra curricular achievements and leadership qualities of the applicants." It was a relief to be an observer and not a committee member!

From My Side of the Fence

by Ed Cler

Judging by the stories and commentary in the papers and on T.V., the whole country, as well as myself, are somewhat shaken by a series of events, all bad, that have taken place in the last few weeks.

The shootings in Jonesboro, Arkansas, and Plano, Texas, then the assault of a three year old girl in Fort Worth, all done by children aged eleven and under, make folks wonder what is wrong in this country.

After considerable thought, I have come up with some ideas and questions of my own, the first being, who has failed these kids?

Well, the first guilty ones are the parents who have failed to teach their young right from wrong, then many of our schools are also shirking this duty.

Then we have some politicians and a President and the Courts who make laws that effectively have taken God and any reference to Him out of the Public classrooms.

With divorce being so common, many kids live in broken homes with single parents who necessarily must work to make a living. Their hours often are such that the kids are without supervision for several hours a day. These kids are free to watch any T.V. programs where they see and hear much that should be denied them, so the media must also share the guilt.

Our President seems to get himself into one personal mess after another, thereby destroying much of the dignity of, and respect for, the Office, while other Nations are laughing and waiting to see what is next.

Clinton's stand for abortion and his use of the veto to preserve the right to kill innocent babies in the cruel partial birth procedure, does much to teach our kids that life is very cheap - just don't amount to anything, at the same time telling all that truth is used only for expediency. He also should share the guilt.

Our National government seems to think that throwing money at a problem can fix it. They have been trying to fix our messed up educational system for many years by doing this and it hasn't worked. Clinton is now asking for more billions so more good money can be thrown after bad.

What we really need in our schools is discipline, old fashioned teaching, and cooperation between parents and the schools.

Allowing voluntary prayer and teaching family values would be more than beneficial to all concerned. These are some of my own personal views. I am sure there are many others to consider, but we need to get the teaching of our kids back as much as possible into the control of our States, and local School Boards, where the kids are a little more than a statistic.

Lindsay Franciscans meet, make plans to auction quilt

The April 21 meeting of the Lindsay Franciscan Fraternity was held at the home of Lawrence and Marie Zimmerer. The meeting was opened with the singing of the St. Francis song led by Therese Hermes, followed by the traditional prayers of St. Francis. The Scripture prayer was read by Marie Zimmerer.

They received a letter from St. Francis Village thanking them for the stamps mailed to them, which they can use in their charity work.

Members received quilt blocks which they will quilt, and after the quilt is completed, it will be auctioned off to benefit the Lindsay Franciscan Fraternity in its charity work.

They received a letter from Bishop Peter Chenoprampel of Kerala India and he relates that with God's grace he is healthy again and the Bishop's Cathedral should be finished by February, 1999.

A thank you letter was received from St. Peter's pastor Father Eugene Luke OSB for the Christmas gift from members.

People are invited to a retreat at Casterville, Texas at the Moye Center the weekend of May 22-24.

In reading the Communicator pamphlet, Therese told members that "Mass is the most important thing we do, and God is with us every step of the way. Formation of a group is a charity of daily living, in which the Holy Spirit serves us in all our needs. When we pray and work we are doing penance."

Two guests were welcomed to the meeting; Mary Ann Arendt and Gerta Geray. Elvira Flusche made the motion to adjourn and Mary Stoffels seconded it. The petitions were prayed by all the members.

Hostess Marie Zimmerer served coffee and cherry cobbler for dessert.

Free vaccines provided at MMH Family Health Clinic

Mary K. Endres, Family Nurse Practitioner, is pleased to announce that the MMH Family Health Clinic, located at 509 North Maple, is now a provider of the Texas Vaccines for Children program. This program expands the Shots Across Texas services by providing free vaccines to children who meet certain criteria.

"Under the Texas Vaccines for Children program, all children are eligible for free vaccines unless they have insurance that pays for immunizations," explains Endres. Children with insurance that does not cover vaccinations are also eligible for free vaccine. The Vaccines for Children program identifies a child as a person under 19 years of age. Persons who are older and at high risk for a vaccine-preventable disease can also be immunized.

Call the MMH Family Health Clinic at 759-2226 to schedule an appointment to have your child immunized. Please bring your current shot record to the appointment.

Then, when you have something to write about, crank it out. Write, write, write. And then, most importantly, revise, revise, revise."

McMurtry, a short-story author and brother of Pulitzer-prize winning novelist Larry McMurtry of "Lonesome Dove" fame, is also a literature and writing teacher at Angelo State University in San Angelo, Texas. LESSONS IN

In recognition of NATIONAL SAFE KID'S MONTH

Here are a few lessons in electric safety to help keep our children safe:

Some lessons should be practiced during the school year and the summer — lessons on electric safety. Electricity does a lot of great things for all of us. Yet it must be treated properly to ensure our safety and well being. Here are a few lessons in electric safety that will help to keep you safe:

1. Always respect electricity and ask your friends and relatives to respect it too. Unfortunately, electricity is very, very unforgiving when unleashed and one little mistake can be deadly.
2. Electricity and water do not mix. Always keep blow dryers, radios and other electric appliances well clear of sinks, bath tubs and swimming pools. Also, never plug in or operate an electrical device when you are wet or standing in water.
3. Always stay far away from electric wires and lines that have fallen down. Primary power lines are not insulated and any contact with them can cause serious injury or death. Remember, stay away and call Cooke County Electric Cooperative for help immediately.
4. Climbing trees is always great fun for children, but climbing a tree near an electric power line can be very dangerous. Always make sure there are no power lines running through or near a tree that your young one is about to climb.
5. Always look up. If you are installing a new television antenna or if you are positioning a ladder next to your home or business, make sure you are clear of any overhead power lines. Aluminum ladders and antennas are great conductors of electricity!

So remember, parents, when it comes to electricity, take all the necessary precautions to ensure your safety and the safety and well being of your children. It may be one of the best lessons in life that your children ever learn.

Families honor Communicants

To mark a child's First Communion Day, and to relate its religious significance to family involvement, the happy day frequently includes family gatherings and special or traditional celebrations after Mass and also later in the day. In importance, First Holy Communion Day is second only to the Day of Baptism.

Many observances include the attendance of several generations of many who attend the Mass with the children. Reunions held on this day honoring the children are truly "Memories In The Making."

ANDREW YOSTEN
Andrew Michael Yosten, son of Ronald P. Yosten of Muenster and Suzanna Yosten Murray was honored on his First Holy Communion Day by his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Frances Yosten. She hosted a dinner in her home after Mass. Table centerpiece was a cake decorated like a Bible. Guests included his dad; his godparents Wendi Moore of

Houston, and Chris Yosten. Also Callie Moore of Houston; Mark and Donetta Yosten, Adam and Danielle of Frisco, Texas; James, Susan, Kristen and Debra Yosten; Steve and Janice Yosten; Joe, Michelle, Natalie and Whitney Yosten; Jerry Yosten and Jeremy Scott Yosten; Aaron and Matthew Yosten. Later, his sister Katy and his Dad and his grandparents went out together to have dinner at Burger King. REBECCA LYNN GREWING
Mark and Carol Grewing honored their daughter, Rebecca Lynn Grewing on her First Holy Communion Day, when they invited grandmothers, uncles, aunts and cousins for a feast of hamburgers and all the trimmings, an assortment of chips and dips and three types of desserts.

Attending the noon meal were the grandparents Peggy Walterscheid, and Joe and Theresa Grewing; godparents Anita Luttmere and Lloyd Walterscheid; Rebecca's brother Blake Grewing, uncles and aunts Mitch and Linda Rains, Tim and Ramona Felderhoff, Glenn and Jean Walterscheid, Mel and April Walterscheid, and cousins Charlie and Chris Luttmere, Nicole Rains, Kristin and Brandon Grewing, Kelly, Lisa, Derek and Travis Felderhoff, Melinda, Collin, Amber and Cole Walterscheid. Rebecca's grandmother, Peggy Walterscheid made her First Communion dress. Her veil was a family treasure, worn by her mother and her aunts on their First Communion days. TYLER ROHMER
Tyler Rohmer, son of Alan Rohmer and Connie Rohmer, was a member of the second graders' First Holy Communion class in Sacred Heart Church Sunday, April 19. His dad honored him with a family gathering and noon meal at their home following

Mass. His grandmother, Viola Rohmer provided a decorated First Communion cake for table centerpiece. Attending were his big sister Lisa Rohmer, Connie Rohmer, Viola Rohmer, and uncles, aunts and cousins Gary, Robin, Lauren and Andrew Rohmer; Kathy Rohmer; Curtis, Pat and Thomas Rohmer. CLAY KNABE
Grandparents, godparents, uncles, aunts and cousins came to celebrate with Clay Knabe on his First Holy Communion Day. A fried chicken dinner with all the trimmings was served to her guests. Betty Rose Walterscheid made Paige's special cake with the inscription, "Today Paige received the Bread of Life," and was topped with a Precious Moments First Communicant keepsake. Attending the Mass and celebration were Paige's mom; brother and sister-in-law, Mark and Karri Rigbsy and nephews Tyler, Chance and Wyatt; grandparents, Raymond and Margaret Henson of Bowie, Jane and Walter Rigbsy of Mesquite; aunts, uncles and cousins, Linda and John Smith of Garland, Phyllis and Bruce Taylor, Sarah and Crissy, all of Irving; special friends, Charmaine and Gary Cummons (Paige's godfather) of Mesquite, and Rebecca Robertson of Muenster. They hosted a family dinner at noon at Harper's Restaurant in Gainesville, with a feast day menu. Special guests were the maternal grandparents, Pop and Nanny Staley who came from England for this special day. Later in the day, homemade chocolate cake was served at the family's farm home in the country. There William opened and displayed his First Communion gifts.

MHS places second at Regional Academic Meet, 8 advance to state

Muenster High School sent 22 students to the Region II academic meet held in Abilene last weekend. Their efforts in these academic contests resulted in a second place finish in the battle for the sweepstakes trophy.

Eight students placed high enough to advance to the state academic meet to be held in Austin the weekend of May 8-9. Those students advancing to the state meet include Valerie Erwin, Leigh Ann Reiter, Joyce Hacker, Emily Felderhoff, Brent Sicking, Stephanie Bierschenk, Doug Knabe, and Karen Cler.

The Literary Criticism team of Leigh Ann Reiter, Joyce Hacker, and Emily Felderhoff garnered first place. Individual awards in this event went to Leigh Ann for first place, and Emily for second place.

The Computer Science team of Brent Sicking, Stephanie Bierschenk, Doug Knabe, and alternate Karen Cler also came in first. Individual awards in Computer Science went to Brent for second place, Stephanie for third place, and Doug for fourth place.

Valerie Erwin placed third individually in the Spelling and Vocabulary contest for the right to go to the state meet. The spelling team, which included Valerie, Janet Fetsch, Dolly Patel, and alternate Telisha Reid missed the opportunity by a slim margin. If each girl had missed one less word, they would be the first place team and would be representing Region II at state. However, they wound up in second place as alternates.

Eric Fisher placed fourth in Lincoln-Douglas debate, and Raegan Koesler placed fifth in Persuasive Speaking to round out Muenster's scoring.

Other students making the trip to Abilene included Matt York, Lucas Hartman, Jeff Klement, Keisha Dill, Mary Skinner, Kelly Felderhoff, Jackie Henscheid, Diane Britain, and Kristen Dickerson.

Region II consists of approximately 80 Class A schools and covers about one fourth of the area of the State of Texas. Students who advance to the state academic meet become eligible to apply for various Texas Interscholastic League Foundation scholarships. Over $760,000 in TILF scholarships were awarded statewide last year.

SHYM

by Kelly Bayer

Our second Germanfest, I'm happy to say, was a much better Germanfest than our first. Just so everyone knows, we ran games for the youngsters in the small tent on the southeast side of the park. The money that was made will go to the junior high and high schoolers that worked and to the youth ministry budget.

This Sunday in SHYM - "We Are One Body" - J.E.L.L.Y. 1:30-3:30 p.m. and Life Teen 1:30-3:30 p.m. in church. Come on out, we'll have fun. For the lowest price to go on the Canoe trip, sign up by May 1. For the highest price, May 7.

National Library Week celebrated at Sacred Heart

Famous baseball and football players, Indians, cowboys, dinosaurs, and Nancy Drew, to name a few, were in the hallways of Sacred Heart Elementary School last week. National Library Week was celebrated on Tuesday, April 21, 1998, with grades K-3 dressing up as their favorite storybook character. The faculty and students paraded their costumes and shared with others their favorite book character. There were a lot of eye-catching costumes that kept everyone guessing. Books were awarded to the top three choices in each class and posters were awarded to the fourth and fifth place winners.

In Kindergarten: Mrs. Bonin dressed as Fern from "Charlotte's Web," Morgan Herr was "Little Red Riding Hood," Gene Yosten dressed as "Huck Finn," Leah Hess was "Snow White," Kristen LeBrasseur was "Alice in Wonderland," Erin Endres was Minnie Mouse, and Zachary Moritz was a dinosaur.

First grade was delighted with Mrs. Poole as "Nancy Drew," Abe Fuhrmann as "Clifford" the big red dog, Joe Hesse was "Tom Sawyer," Samantha Wimmer was "Pippi Longstocking," Kaitlyn Felderhoff was Laura Ingalls in "Little House on the Prairie," and MacKenzie Herr was Mary, the mother of God.

Second grade had a variety of characters beginning with Michele Knauf as "Amelia Bedelia," Joshua Yosten as "Peter Pan," Paige Rigsby as Rapunzel (after her hair was cut), Cletus Fuhrmann as Saint Sebastian, Javier Mabrey as "Babe Ruth," and Kristina Koesler as Dorothy from "The Wizard of Oz."

Third grade showed a different assortment of characters. They were: Amber Fuhrmann as Felicity from the American Girls Series, Jessica Schilling was a grown up Laura Wilder, Jessica Walterscheid as the girl in "Millions of Cats," Mark Fleitman was "Huck Finn," and Micah Flusche was "Tecumseh, the Indian Chief." Their teacher, Mrs. Ashley, dressed in character, but the class was unable to guess who she depicted.

There were so many excellent characters that the judges had a hard time choosing winners. The children are encouraged to keep reading through the summer because there are a lot of delightful characters to read about and enjoy.

The Sacred Heart track teams participated in a Regional Qualifiers meet at Lindsay last week, competing against area 1A and 2A UIL individuals. The Tigerettes collected six personal records, one first place, Sarah Hess' 33' 9 1/2" shot put throw; 3 seconds and 4 third place finishes. Second place finishers included Hess with a 105' 5" discus throw, Dana Miller with a 18.97 100

Third placers were Miller in the 300 hurdles, Debra Dangelmayr in the 400m at 66.78, and Kayla Felderhoff's 20.82 100m hurdle run.

For the Tigers, Matthew Fuhrmann finished in second place in the 800m run and 110m hurdles with times of 2:12.02 and 16.23. Keith Felderhoff's time of 5:29.37 in the 1600m run was good for third. Sacred Heart's pole vaulters competed against each other with Charlie Moster clearing 9 foot, Matthew Nasche 8'6" and Josh Walterscheid 8 foot.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

WHEAT DISEASE UPDATE

Cooke County, along with much of the state, experienced a wet, mild winter. These weather conditions frequently lead to the proliferation of foliar fungal diseases such as wheat leaf rust and powdery mildew. Despite conditions which apparently favor the progress of these diseases and a wide scale planting of susceptible varieties over many areas of the state, little problem with disease was observed in the county through the month of March and the first half of April. Opinion says that the above normal wind which seemed to be present almost every day during March was responsible for reducing the incidence of these diseases.

One of the principle requirements of these disease organisms is the prolonged presence of water on the leaf surface. If dew or rainfall dries quickly due to environmental conditions such as wind, low humidity and bright sunshine the fungal body does not have time to penetrate the leaf surface. For example, 6 to 8 hours of free water on the leaf surface is required for spores of leaf rust to germinate and penetrate the leaf surface. Weather conditions which result in even longer leaf wetness are more favorable for the transmission of this disease. High and prolonged winds cause leaf surfaces to dry quickly, resulting in conditions less favorable for the incidence of leaf rust

This past week we did observe several infestations of stripe rust and leaf rust in the county. Farmers will be well advised to scout fields and learn the status of their crop with respect to foliar fungal diseases.

WHEAT TOUR

Mark your calendars for the Cooke County Small Grain Tour and Field Day scheduled for Wednesday, May 6. Results of County Wheat, Oat, Barley Trials and Herbicide Demonstrations will be reviewed and toured. Other tour stops include: Wheat Forage Yields, Insect Control, Fertility with Row Phosphate, and Hard and Soft Wheat Variety freeze susceptibility. The tour starts at 8:30 A.M. at the State Breeding Nursery located on Highway 51, approximately one mile north of Era.

EXPERIMENT STATION FIELD DAY

Small Grain Producers will have the opportunity on Thursday, May 7, to tour and review research being conducted at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station located at Prosper. From Cooke County take Hwy. 380 to Hwy. 289, go north to Business 289 to County Road 5.

Activities will begin at 10:00 A.M. with field tours. Other sessions will be held and a lunch will be served. It's all free, and producers are invited to attend.

Plastic works best on bunker silage preservation

At the Wisconsin Farm Progress Days, demonstrations proved that tightly sealed plastic does the best job of preserving silage.

The test compared coverings of clear plastic, 5 inches of sawdust, 5 inches of barn lime and 1/2" of molasses. One cylinder was left uncovered and another had oats sown, but the oats did not germinate.

Alfalfa haylage was used, being stored outside in June and July, then stored indoors, where weekly 1/2" water was applied to the top of each cylinder to simulate rain. The silage was analyzed 112 after filling.

Mold was observed in all the cylinders, with much less on the plastic and lime covered silage. The lime had good results, but could be hard to do on a large scale because lime tends to shrink and crack.

Ag Briefs

Persons with unpermitted 200-acre-foot lakes may simply register with the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Service by Sept. 1, 1999, instead of going through the permitting process. The provision is part of Senate Bill 1 passed by the Texas Legislature last year. It provides that if a dam or reservoir used for domestic and livestock purposes was constructed before March 2, 1997, it is not subject to certain penalties; however, it must still meet the construction requirement for dam safety. Copies of TNRCC rules are available from TNRCC Publication at (512) 239-0028; ask for document GI-32. Also available is a regulatory guidance document for the water rights permitting process; request publication No. RG-141.

Group presents contractor awareness program to public

The Pipeline Group's annual "Public Education - Contractor Awareness Program" will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 7 at the Gainesville Civic Center, 311 South Weaver, in Gainesville. The program will be sponsored by a group of companies with a common goal of preventing accidents and damages to underground pipelines and utilities. A free dinner will be catered by The Neu Ranch House for all persons involved in excavation related activities in Cooke and Grayson counties. Following the dinner, a brief safety program will be presented which stresses the importance of accident prevention by identifying pipeline and utility rights of way, use of one-call systems, and the importance of working with pipeline and utility companies to safely excavate in the vicinity of underground facilities.

Sponsors will provide promotional materials, including notification information for their companies, safety related brochures and other safety reminders.

Each year many lives are injured or lost, plus millions of dollars in repairs and lost products are incurred due to "third party" incidents - someone digging into a pipeline. Thousands of communications, some life-threatening, may be disrupted when expensive fiber-optic cables are damaged or severed. These types of excavation can be financially devastating to the responsible party. This safety program is an attempt to help those who do excavation work to avoid such situations.

Sponsors for the program include: Citgo Products Pipeline Co. - Koch Pipeline Co. LP - Lone Star Pipeline Co/Texas Utilities Fuel Co. - Seaway Pipeline Co.

Trade Fair trades technology

The Oklahoma Commission on Marginally Producing Oil and Gas Wells is holding its Spring Trade Fair on Thursday, May 14 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma. The doors will open at 10:00 a.m. and the show will run until 3:00 p.m. The Trade Fair is free and is designed to display all types of oil field technology for operators of over 70,000 low-volume wells in Oklahoma and thousands more in the North Texas area, but the show is also open to the public.

Commission executive director Richard Chapman said, "The Marginal Well Commission (MWC) has drawn several thousand people to the fairs we have held in Tulsa, Enid and Oklahoma City, and we have sold out exhibitor space at every fair". Carter County, Oklahoma is still the largest oil producing county in the state so it made sense for the MWC to have our 1998 Spring Trade Fair in Ardmore. We will have about 90 booths displaying all kinds of low-tech and hi-tech products, office management products, royalty owner associations and all of the state agencies will be there to update producers on the incentives Oklahoma has created to help oil and gas operators. Not to mention there is always our sponsored hamburger lunch", Chapman said.

The MWC was created in 1992 by the Oklahoma legislature, and is funded by a voluntary fee paid by the producers and royalty owners of Oklahoma to aid in the preservation of the state's $1.5 billion marginal well industry. Over 75% of Oklahoma's 225,000 barrels of oil per day come from wells that average only 2.37 barrels per day. Many of the North Texas area wells produce the same low-volumes. "Every producer in America is captured by the instability of the low and fluctuating oil prices, so the process of technology transfer for lower cost and more efficient production has never been more critical. The Trade Fair gives service companies, special equipment manufacturers and all vendors of products that assist the small operator a volume that is a one-stop-shopping experience that hopefully will sustain these invaluable marginal wells", said Chapman.

Booth rentals are $100 for a 10x10 and $150 for a 10x20 foot space. Exhibit space is limited, and exhibitors must register soon to be added to the trade fair handouts. For more information call the Marginal Well Commission at 800-390-0460.

Protect your lungs from grain dust

Many farmers wear a paper dust mask, when they wear one at all. These masks will not protect your lungs.

Masks should be a "respirator mask" that meets OSHA guidelines. The average mask will not protect you from grain dust. It must be a two-strap mask, marked TC for tested and certified. Remember a chemical respirator mask is different than a grain dust respirator. A chemical mask will work for dust, but dust masks not for chemicals.

Weather forecast appears all wet

The weather outlook through mid-May appears to be wet.

The area remained fairly dry until last week, when showers gave us cooler weather, with overnight temperatures in the mid-40s.

Scattered showers are favored through the weekend, with light showers likely from May 4 through the 6th with a dry day on the 7th before showers again sprinkle the state next weekend, mostly light amounts.

Mostly scattered shower around the state are expected from the 12th through the next weekend.

June should be warmer than normal with generous rains in the east.
