MVFD hosts record crowd

Muenster Volunteer Fire Department broke its record, serving more people than ever before at the Annual Bar-B-Que, Auction, and Raffle this August. Community and area support was exceptional as the Department served around 1200 people, using all 800 pounds of meat that had been prepared. There was none left to auction off as they had done in previous years. Muenster Fire Chief Herbie Knabe reported that the crowd was the largest ever served since the event's inception, and the Auction participation was also excellent. There were many items donated and the auctioneers worked the crowd, supplying entertainment and good prices. Many said the crowd looked as large as some at Germanfest.
