

Gusting winds whip fires, exhausting area firefighters

By Janet Felderhoff
Temperatures are warm, vegetation is extremely dry, humidity is low, and combined with recent high winds, this creates an overwhelming danger of wildfires. "If anybody spots smoke in our area, call 911 immediately," urged Muenster Volunteer Fire Department Chief Herbie Knabe. "Don't hesitate. We'd rather turn around from a false alarm than try to fight a fire that's gotten out of control."

Knabe explained that with current weather conditions, a grass fire can travel 25-35 miles per hour or faster and it gets too big to get ahead of. Once it gets to a certain amount of acreage, they change tactics from offensive to defensive. That means that rather than trying to put the fire out, they must attempt to protect structures.

On Wednesday, Knabe said that the early morning humidity of 65% had dropped to 35% by mid morning. When the humidity is in the 30s, there can be problems. When the humidity dips into the teens, anything can happen, said Knabe.

Fires were burning all over the Texoma region Sunday. Cooke County Emergency Management Coordinator Ray Fletcher said that he called the Forest Service to get a dozer to assist with the fire in Precinct #1. "There wasn't anything available," he noted. "They were all wrapped up on fires with structures threatened."

Fletcher said that when winds are high, there is no way to stop a fire. "What we did last night (Sunday) was to protect the structures and let it burn around it. We take care of lives first, homes second, and forget the rest of it."

He said a tire being blown out sparked it. A college student returning to Texas A&M at Canyon was pulling a trailer loaded with wood and had a tire blow out. That resulted in sparks on the asphalt that caught nearby dry vegetation on fire.

Winds were gusting at over 40 miles per hour; the humidity was a very low 13%. "If it hadn't been for that creek and plowed field, we'd have been fighting that fire for a very long time," Knabe noted. Two trucks from the Myra Volunteer Fire Department and one truck from the Saint Jo Volunteer Fire Department assisted Muenster Volunteer Fire Department.

Area fire departments have been assisting each other during this critical period. Callisburg has had three or four fires burning off and on since Sunday. At least one was caused by fire jumping the Red River from Oklahoma on Sunday when winds shifted and whipped flames toward Texas.

Muenster, Lindsay, Myra, and other area volunteer fire departments have sent trucks and firefighters to assist Callisburg. As Callisburg VFD firefighters work to douse fires that are being rekindled, they are wearing down. Muenster VFD Chief Knabe said that they are sending fire equipment and firefighters to assist, but are taking care to make sure that sufficient men and equipment remain to protect all areas.

Wednesday, the Texas Forest Service was called in to assist in dousing a fire in the Callisburg area.

Bowie also had a serious fire problem that burned seven structures, some being homes.

The situation is very serious and Knabe worries that it may go on for months. Until sufficient moisture remedies the problem, wildfire danger will continue to haunt the area. He recalled 10 years ago when the weather conditions were similar and wildfire danger was high.

A press release from the Texas Forest Service warned that arsonists are taking advantage of the weather conditions. There were 21 recent arson fires in Jack, Palo Pinto, and Parker Counties that burned more than 1,150 acres.

"Conditions are so volatile right now, that the last thing we need is another arson fire," said Jack County Rural Fire Chief Jim Richardson. "The fire this person set on Sunday grew to 415 acres, and was extremely difficult to extinguish because of the strong winds. We're concerned that someone will be injured, or even killed, because of this arsonist."

The public is asked to be alert for any suspicious behavior and to report it to the arson hotline at 1-800-364-3470.

Annual Muenster Christmas Parade draws 40 entries

By Janet Felderhoff
From famous storybook characters, such as Goldilocks and the Bear family and Mother Goose, to marching bands and dancing girls, to fire trucks complete with Santa and some unusual reindeer, the Muenster Christmas Parade wowed the crowd. Its 40 entries created a colorful sight as they wound through the streets of town last Saturday. The theme was a Storybook Christmas.

Capturing the titles paying $150 in Muenster Marks were Cooke County Electric for Best Business and Trailblazers Camp Fire Girls for Best Theme. Cooke County Electric entered with "Twas the Night Before Christmas". They had an elf in Santa's sleigh on a CCEC bucket truck pulling a trailer with the storybook scene. The Camp Fire Girls wished all a Merry Christmas from Goldilocks and the Three Bears.

Sacred Heart Preschool's entry won Best Religious. It was "The Story of Jesus" and scenes from three important times in Christ's life were depicted. This category was awarded $75 in Muenster Marks. The winner of the Most Creative, Nortex Communications, also received $75 in Muenster Marks. Its theme was also "Twas the Night Before Christmas", but it took a modern twist as the computer was drawn and there was no way to email Santa until a Nortex repairman came to the rescue. Visions of computers and cell phones were dancing in heads instead of the usual sugar-plums.

Muenster Marks in the amount of $50 each went to the Best Marching Band - Muenster Hornet Band, Best Drill Team - Sacred Heart Red-N-Motion, and Best Equestrian Unit - Miss Clay County Shirley Tully.

While the children lined up for visits with Santa, the adults listened in hopes that their name might be called for a Muenster Marks prize. Local merchants contributed to a fund for Parade and drawing awards. A total of $1200 was awarded in the Muenster Marks drawing.

Winners were: $300 1st prize - Nannette Walterscheid; $200 2nd prize - James Hennigan; $100 3rd prize - Diane Muller; $75 - Wayne Muller, Michelle Hennigan, and Missy Dangelmayer; $50 - Sandra Hennigan, Ham Stoffels, Carol Grewing, Judy Hall; $25 Janie Hartman, Deuce Charles, Lisa Rohmer, Valerie Bartush, Sally Stoffels, Frances Bayer, and Mark Stoffels.

Mike Milburn won the holiday gift basket valued at $100 from Main Attractions.

Parade Chairmen Rick Walterscheid and Leon Klement were recognized for five years of service.

Renate Pagel introduced as new MMH director of nursing

By Janet Felderhoff
Muenster Memorial Hospital has a new director of nursing. Renate Pagel stepped into the position on Oct. 28 after the resignation of Laura Stoffels, the former director of nursing. Renate has worked at the Muenster Hospital as an R.N. since 1990. Her experience with nursing began when she was 16 and worked as a nurse aide at the Muenster Hospital. Born and raised in Muenster, Renate lived in Denton a while when at school, but returned home to work and raise a family. She and her husband Jacob have five children, Kelsey, Derek, Miranda, Collin, and Logan.

Renate was introduced to the Hospital Board of Directors at their regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 15.

"I am excited about the new position and look forward to continuing to serve the hospital" remarked Renate.

Administrator Lynn Heller reported that the laboratory had been inspected and will receive its CLIA accreditation from COLA. A certificate of inspection was received from the Texas Department of State Health Services. It said, "This certificate is only being issued to those facilities that are clearly above the average in comparison with their peers. I congratulate your facility and the mammography staff for achieving excellence in women's health care related to mammographic studies."

Continuing the Hospital's tuition reimbursement is part of the Board's plan. Tuition for work related subjects, or a degree program pertaining to hospital related fields, if approved by the department head or administrator, will be reimbursed when complete. Reimbursement for failed classes or grades less than a "C" will not be made. Reimbursements are approved as follows: "A" at a rate of 100%;

"B" at a rate of 50%; and "C" at a rate of 25%. Books will be reimbursed at a rate of 50%, and tuition, building fees, and lab fees, as listed. To be eligible, the applicant must be a full time or part time (20 hours per week) employee of Muenster Memorial Hospital and have been employed for at least 12 months. An employment agreement will be required.

It was noted that several people had taken advantage of the program in the past. "By doing this, you are kind of growing your own people,"

Winds were gusting at over 40 miles per hour; the humidity was a very low 13%. "If it hadn't been for that creek and plowed field, we'd have been fighting that fire for a very long time," Knabe noted. Commissioners contract with B.J. Construction for EMS substation buildings

By Janet Felderhoff
Three areas of Cooke County will soon see buildings being erected to house the County's EMS substations. One will be located just east of Muenster on 10 acres that will serve a dual purpose. Precinct #4 Commissioner Virgil Hess plans to build a new county barn on that same property. Sharing a water well and septic system will save some money for the County. The other two will be located on Rice Avenue in Gainesville and in Woodbine.

Jess Cason of B.J. Construction offered five alternative building propositions to Commissioners at their regular Court meeting on Monday, Nov. 28. After a lengthy discussion on what would be best and with the knowledge that the County had no reserve money to spare, it was agreed that County Judge Bill Freeman would iron out the remaining details with Cason and sign the contract.

Judge Freeman charged Commissioner Hess with meeting with Cason next week to show him the Muenster location. Precinct #1 Commissioner Gary Hollowell was assigned the Rice Avenue location and Precinct #2 Commissioner Bill Cox the Woodbine substation location.

Will fireworks use and the sale of fireworks be allowed in Cooke County this year? That is a question currently being investigated by Commissioners Court due to extremely dry conditions and high fire danger. In question were certain types of fireworks such as skyrockets, sticks, and missiles with fins.

Should an ordinance be put in place, it would apply only to the New Year's fireworks season. That begins Dec. 15 and concludes with the start of 2006.

Emergency Management Coordinator Ray Fletcher confirmed that as of Sunday, the County's KBDI average was in the 650s. He reported that Sunday night hundreds of acres had burned in Precinct #1 and it was still burning.

"There's no end in sight right now," remarked Fletcher. "Hopefully it will rain like heck in another week. It's just going to be dry and above average temperatures."

Fletcher said there wasn't any way to know what it would be like, especially on New Year's Eve. "If it is anything like it is today with a little breeze, and people start shooting bottle rockets and aerial fireworks, we're not going to have enough fire coverage to take care of it."

Judge Freeman noted that most cities have bans on fireworks, so the order would be to protect the unincorporated areas.

Commissioner Al Smith commented that the fires in the County were not caused by fireworks. He worried about restricting the sale of the product.

Commissioner Hess said he felt that if there would be some rain and things get wetter, the restriction wouldn't be necessary.

It was decided to table action until the Dec. 12 meeting.

The County has 1,259 votes to cast on one or more nominations to the Cooke County Appraisal District's (CCAD) Board of Directors. Commissioners nominated Bob Knauf earlier. He is currently serving as a director on the CCAD Board.

Kenneth Arterbury of Dexter addressed the Court. He asked, "Since we don't have any representation on our side of the County and we have a gentleman running for the CCAD Board who is a tad short of votes, I'd like to ask my commissioner to throw some of his weight towards Wayne Dodson's nomination. It'd be nice to see all for our districts represented by somebody."

Commissioner Hollowell said that there are two taxing entities in Precinct #1 that have cast their votes for Dodson and asked that Commissioners Court consider him for some of their votes.

Commissioner Hess requested that Knauf be kept on the Board since he knows the ropes.

Judge Freeman noted that there is usually not a vote because there aren't six nominees. This is a first since he has served on the Court.

Crime rate escalates in Cooke County

According to statistics found in the uniform crime reports recently released by Texoma Council of Governments, Cooke County has experienced an extraordinary rise in crime in the past few years. This rural county with a population of 36,363 at the 2000 census has roughly a crime rate equivalent to the City of Dallas.

According to the Uniform Crime Reports:

- 67% increase in crime in Cooke County Texas over last 5 years;
- 4% decrease in neighboring Grayson County during same time period;
- 10% increase in Fannin.

Over the past five years in the City of Gainesville, the RATE of reported burglaries has increased 102% and the RATE of reported larcenies-thefts has increased 50%.

Dallas has a crime rate of 8972 per 100,000 population while Gainesville has a rate of 8498 per 100,000 population. Usually smaller cities have lower crime rates and larger urban areas have higher rates. These are rates of crimes per 100,000 population rather than the actual number of reported incidents. The smooth increase would suggest that there was no sudden change in reporting procedures to the state.

Changes on the street in numbers and rates of crime always translates into the need for more jail space, more prosecutors, and more help for the judges.

OBITUARIES

Margaret Bicsak

1918 - 2005

A memorial service for Margaret (Tykody) Bicsak, 87, of Saint Jo, was held Sunday, Nov. 27 in her home with her family officiating. She died Nov. 22, 2005 at her home.

Margaret was born Aug. 8, 1918 in Lorain, Ohio to Letiel and Elizabeth Szucs Tykody. She married Frank Bicsak on Nov. 27, 1939. She lived most of her life in Lorain, Ohio, moving to Saint Jo five years ago to live with her daughter. She was a member of the Hungarian Reformed Church, Hungarian Young Men's Society, and worked for Lorain Products. She enjoyed doing crossword puzzles, bird watching, gardening, cooking, and being with her family.

Margaret attended church at Sacred Heart in Muenster with her family, even though she was not Catholic.

Survivors include: one son Frank Bicsak and wife Linda of Elyria, Ohio; one daughter Margaret E. Heim and husband Al of Saint Jo; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; a sister Elsa Annosky; and a brother Louis Tykody.

Frankye Shields

1908 - 2005

Funeral services were held for Frankye Shields, 97 of Saint Jo, who passed away Nov. 26, 2005.

Born Sept. 21, 1908 in Midlothian to Jefferson Martin and Amma Hill Burks, Frankye taught school for awhile before she and Jesse Shields were married on May 29, 1927 in Litton Springs, Texas. They immediately moved to Saint Jo where they spent the remainder of their lives together on a farm they owned and operated.

Survivors include daughter June Dickerman of Saint Jo; son Gene Shields of San Angelo; a sister; seven grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and 17 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, a son Dean Shields, two sisters, three brothers, and three great-grandchildren.

Edgar Klement

1917 - 2005

By Elfreda Fette

Mass of Christian Burial was held for Edgar Klement on Wednesday, Nov. 23, in Sacred Heart Church at 10 a.m., officiated by Father Don Brennan, assisted by Deacon Jerry Klement.

Mr. Klement died at 9:30 a.m. on Nov. 20, 2005 in Muenster Memorial Hospital at age 88. He was a lifetime resident of the Muenster area.

Survivors include four sons Kenneth and his wife Mary Klement, Ronald Klement, Robert and his wife Gloria Klement, and Leon and his wife Christi Klement, all of Muenster. There are 14 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. Also surviving are a sister Marie Reiter and a brother Walter Klement, both of Muenster.

Preceding him in death were his wife Rose, who died on July 12, 2003; a son Glen Klement; his parents John Baptist Klement and Margaret Knabe Klement; six brothers Norbert, John Albert, Ray, Martin, and Rody; and a grandson Travis Klement.

Edgar Klement was born on June 29, 1917. On May 14, 1940 he married Rose Sandmann in St. Peter's Church of Lindsay. They owned and operated a dairy farm for most of his life. He took great pride in being the only Jersey dairy in the area. He and Rose were the parents of five sons, all of which remained on farms, dairy farms, and/or ranches.

Edgar enjoyed reading, gardening, watching baseball games, and the Dallas Cowboys, his Jersey cows, that he raised from calves; and especially enjoyed being with his family, in particular the grandchildren. He was a member of Sacred Heart Parish, and the Knights of Columbus.

In the afternoon at 4 p.m. preceding the day of the funeral, a Rosary Service was held in McCoy Funeral Chapel, led by Sister Jeanette Bayer. Wake Service was held in McCoy Chapel at 7 p.m. led by Father John Ohner OSA.

Participating in the liturgy of the Mass of Christian Burial on Wednesday morning with Father Don and Deacon Jerry Klement were altar servers Butch Fisher, Alvin Hartman, and Sylvan Walterscheid.

Andrea Klement gave the First Reading, Carol Krebs gave the Second Reading, Leslie Dangelmayr read the Prayers of the Faithful, Melody Rohmer, Shelley Kline, and Bridgette Klement presented the Offertory gifts of bread and wine at the altar.

Edgar Klement

Eucharistic ministers were Mark Klement, Kathleen Schroeder, Viola Rohmer, Rudy Koesler, and Darla Anderle.

Music ministers were Diane Grewing, Linda Flusche, Doug Yosten, Jim Endres, and Denise Bayer. Music included "Amazing Grace", "Softly and Tenderly", "Just A Closer Walk With Thee", "Only This I Want", and "And I Will Follow".

Remarks of Remembrance were given by Leon Klement. He stated, in part: "...Pop was a dairy farmer all his life and in addition, ran a milk route in his younger years hauling 10 gallon cans of milk to the Muenster cheese plant in his old truck. He was a true steward of the land, as is evidenced by the fact that he purchased an old washed away cotton farm and converted it into a prosperous dairy farm..."

"He was a quiet man, honest and generous; a man of integrity and faith... great at one-liners... had a song to sing for every occasion... He was proud of his grandchildren and always got the biggest grin on his face when he saw them..."

"He was quiet and strong; always behind the scenes; would do anything for you, and always be there to catch you if he could."

"He's now at rest with Mom and enjoying his long-awaited reunion with Glen."

Burial in Sacred Heart Cemetery was directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Muenster.

Pallbearers were Elliot Klement, John Klement, Bryan Klement, Keith Klement, Daniel Klement, Scott Klement, Justin Klement, and T.J. Walterscheid.

New Arrivals: Melinda Schmitz to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Schmitz; Lucien to James and Cindy Gehrig.

I am writing in response to the enormous support for the 2nd Annual Trunk-or-Treat hosted by the Muenster Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. Without the support of numerous citizens in the community, we would not have been able to have the vast success we had this year. It is so wonderful to know that the people of Muenster are behind us 100%. We had over 90 volunteers who helped contribute to this year's activity. It was with your help that we were able to handle over 500 children. I would like to personally thank each one of you who gave of your time and/or money. With your continued support, we can make next year's even bigger and better.

Machinators Thank Sponsors

The last five years have resulted in ever increasing success for the Sacred Heart Machinators. The foundation for their many successes was built on the generous sponsorships and continuing support of the area businesses.

As the Robotics team prepares for the Texas Boosting Engineering, Science, and Technology (BEST) Competition, coming up on Saturday, they would like to thank all the people who have contributed to the success of the team. Their corporate sponsors this year, those who donated over $200, were: Community Lumber, Muenster Drilling, North Texas Dental Specialists, Muenster Jaycees, Knights of Columbus, Superior Machining, American Filter Film, Knabe Tire, Llummar Window Tinting, and Nortex Communications.

The team's other generous sponsors were: Bayer's Kolonialwaren, Chuck Bartush, Jr. P.C., Gehrig Hardware, Hess Furniture, Muenster Building Center, Muenster Enterprise Muenster Farm Mutual, Muenster Garden Center, Muenster State Bank, and Steven's Floor Coverings.

Larry Wassell from Llummar Window Tinting has offered, for the second year in a row, to design a banner with all of the Machinator's sponsors on it. This banner will be displayed at the Texas BEST Competition. Again the Sacred Heart Machinators greatly appreciate the funds they received from all of these local businesses.

The Machinators would also like to thank Darrell Walterscheid for heading the Robotics Team for the past two years and for allowing the team to use his shop, JAW Construction, to build their robot and hold meetings.

Finally, the SH Robotics Team would like to thank the community for its continued support of the team. The Machinators encourage everyone to come and enjoy a day full of excitement and learning at Southern Methodist University for the Texas BEST Competition on December 3. They receive points in the competition for fan attendance, so please come out once again and support them!

It was decided to divide the County's votes as follows: Knauf 383; David Clifton 425; and Jim Myrick 451. The vote was Hess, Smith, Freeman, and Cox for and Hollowell abstaining.
Bids were opened for a 2005 or newer pickup for the Cooke County Environmental Health Department. Glen Polk of Gainesville bid $20,553 for a 2005 quad cab pickup. Klement Ford's bid was for $12,977 with trade in on a 2006 regular cab and for $17,047 for a stretch cab with trade in of the 2005 Dodge. Brown Motor Company of Gainesville bid $18,000 on a 2005 extended cab pickup with trade in.

Klement was awarded the bid. Commissioner Hess was asked to check to be sure it met bid specs.
In other business Commissioners Court:
• Courthouse Security Funds amounting to $2,800 were approved to purchase two digital radios for the Courthouse bailiffs. Emergency Management Director Fletcher said that they now have the older type. The upgrade is needed to enable them to communicate with the Sheriff's Department and others in the event of an emergency in the Courthouse. "This will bring them into the digital age," he said.

• Heard report from Library Director Jennifer Johnson Spence. From the State, a Hurricane Grant for $1900 was received. It will be used to upgrade the children's section. In October 5,200 items were checked out of the County Library. So far in November, 4,700 had been checked out. Extended hours are well received, as use during those times is good. Children's Hour has up to 29 children taking part.
On Saturday, Dec. 2, Cooke County Friends of the Library is hosting Santa Claws. People can bring their children or pets for a photo for $5 each.

• Tabled action on proposed Policy Manual for the Cooke County Library. Commissioners Cox and Smith were appointed to assist the library director with the updates and bring recommendations to the Court.
• Approved a resolution regarding submission of a grant application to the Texoma Council of Governments Homeland Security Advisory Committee.
• Approved at Commissioner Hess' recommendation a scale size variance for the re-subdivision of Hill Top Estates of Moss Lake, Lots 2 and 3, located in Precinct #4. It will be 1 inch=100 feet rather than the usual 1=200. As is, it is too small to read on the plat.
• Approved the preliminary plat for Tower Hill Subdivision, Lots 1-3, located off Hwy. 82 East and Tower Hill Lane in Precinct #1.

Donna Corcoran, president of Keep Lindsay Beautiful, presents a program on recycling to the Cooke County 4-H Court. See story on pg. 5.

Heller commented.
The Board approved the policy, as it was written, but deferred it to the Staff Development Committee for further study.
Michael Kent submitted a written update for the Board on two grants that the Board had previously approved. The first is a Rural Health Technology Grant from ORCA for $40,000. The second is a Capital Improvement Grant from ORCA for $50,000. If worked properly, and the grants are received as he hopes, Kent indicated that the Hospital would need to be prepared to fund about $25,000 to $30,000 to complete the PACS and CR systems for the Radiology Department.
"Michael has exceeded $300,000 in grant money in the last three years. He's been outstanding," Heller commended.
Kent was appointed by the administrator as the chairperson of the Hospital's Safety Committee and as its Safety Officer. As was required, the Board authorized Kent to act on his own in critical situations where the administrator might not be available and as Safety Officer, he'd need to take action.
Prior to giving the authorization, Board member Angelo Nasche asked if Kent was qualified. Heller responded, "Michael is ex-military, served in Desert Storm, and he gets the job done for us."
Heller said that of the 2,000 flu vaccinations received by the District, 400 remained. He said that they had shared 200 with the Gainesville Hospital.
MMH's indigent and charity care program will be sent to the Hospital's attorney for review. It may require upgrading.
Several years ago, the Hospital contracted with Joe Rogers, a Human Resource consultant, to develop a job description program. Part of that program is a wage and salary program which establishes a base rate and a grade level for salaries. Heller said that he can't find where it was approved by the Board or ever implemented.
"I do think that we need to look at something like that, but the problem with that is you can't just turn a switch with that sort of deal," Heller said. "It would result in some people getting tremendous raises and some people not getting any raises. We'd have to develop a transition program to get us where we need to be."

The program would have base salaries according to skill levels. "Our wage level is all over the place. I think we have some nurses, especially, who don't get paid enough money for the length of time they've been employees. Then we may have some that, compared to the experience of others, are getting more than what they should have. It's a tough thing. To pay people what they are worth is probably the hardest job that we do here, to figure out what's fair to everybody," Heller stated.
Heller continued explaining that he'd like to incorporate a way to pay people who do extra work. This is regarding things done in addition to their regular job.
Discussion followed on the pros and cons of the proposal. Dan Hamric said, "I like the idea very well, except for the part of merit. It is so hard to give somebody a raise on merit because you will be showing favoritism to this employee in the eyes of other employees."
John Aytes and Dr. Walter Knight agreed that it was a necessity to be able to reward the best performers.
Hamric and Danny Walterscheid are on the Staff Development Committee and were charged with studying the program to make recommendations. Rogers will also be consulted again before any action is taken.
CFO Dick Teter gave the financial report for October. "It was a good month as far as revenue," he noted. "It was our best month since October of last year and that was an outstanding month."
Teter gave the net revenue as $566,326 with gross revenue of $698,330 and total adjustments at a negative 132,004 with total revenue over expense of $20,729. Taxes collected were $14,083.
Swing bed patients averaged an increase of 2.5 patients per day, while the number of acute care patients was down. October's average daily census was 10.90 and the length of stay averaged 11.32.
In the absence of Kenny Klement, Board president, Dr. Walter Knight, vice-president, conducted the meeting. All members were present except Klement.

Joe and Alice Hermes celebrate Golden Anniversary

Joe and Alice Hermes of Lindsay celebrated 50 years of marriage during an anniversary party held in their honor on Saturday, Nov. 12, at the Roadhouse Restaurant in Lindsay. Approximately 70 guests, including the couple's children, grandchildren, siblings, and their spouses were in attendance. The couple's actual wedding date is Nov. 10, 1955. They were married at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Muenster, with Clem Hermes of Lindsay serving as best man, Veronica Koelzer-Jones of Muenster serving as maid of honor, Wilfred Koelzer of Muenster serving as groomsmen, and Bernice Strittmatter of Pilot Point serving as bridesmaid. The couple resided in Muenster and Myra during the early years of their marriage. They moved to their present home in 1965, located on land, which was previously owned by Joe's parents north of Lindsay. Joe is a retired machinist and Alice is retired and is a homemaker.

The couple still manages a farming and cattle operation at their homestead. Anniversary guests enjoyed a buffet-style meal of grilled pablano chicken, sirloin steak, new potatoes, green beans, salad, and a three-tiered anniversary cake, prepared by Claudia Zimmerer of Lindsay, a niece. A family history was recited by Danny Nortman, a son-in-law, and a musical slideshow was presented by Glenn Hermes, a son. Children and grandchildren of the couple include Sherry and Rodney Betts of Amarillo with Geoffrey, Elissa, Abigail, Jacob, and Nathan; Kathy Hermes of Farmers Branch; Della Hermes of Denton; Joyce Hermes of McKinney with Elena; Carl and Beny Hermes of Plano with Nicholas and Christina; Linda and Danny Nortman of Lindsay with Amy, Amber, and Katie; and Glenn and Mary Hermes of Fort Worth with Tiffany and Steven Collinsworth and great-grandson Zachary.

Six from area attend Republican Convention

The Cooke County Republican Women elected six delegates to represent the group at the 25th Biennial Convention of the Texas Federation of Republican Women in Corpus Christi, Nov. 11-13.

Attending were Glenda Vowell, Phyllis Pitts, Pat Peale, LaVerna Nasche, Sharon McCormack, and Dorothy Hesse. Guests attending were Angelo Nasche, Nels Thomsen, and Mundy Peale.

The theme of the Convention was "Texas Federation of Republican Women Making Waves For 50 Years", as the Federation celebrates the 50th anniversary of its founding in 1955.

Over 1,000 members from across the state gathered at the Corpus Christi Convention Center to hear inspiring speakers, elect new officers, revise the Bylaws, mingle with elected officials and candidates, and enjoy just being a part of the festivities.

To open the proceedings, a special celebration of Veteran's Day was held on board the USS Lexington, anchored in Corpus Christi Bay.

All statewide Republican office holders, including U.S. Senators Kay Bailey Hutchison and John Cornyn, Govern-nor Rick Perry, and Lieutenant-Governor David Dewhurst, were invited to address the convention.

Golden Wedding observed by Raymond and Helen Metzler

Raymond and Helen Metzler celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24. The date was exactly 50 years from their wedding day of Nov. 24, 1955. On that day, Raymond Metzler married Helen Corcoran in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Gainesville. The bride was the daughter of John and Catherine Corcoran of Gainesville. The groom was the son of Phillip and Frances Metzler of Lindsay.

They celebrated their anniversary with a special Thanksgiving Day dinner in the home of their daughter and son-in-law Sharon and Ronnie Felderhoff of Muenster. All of their family was present. They have five children: daughter and son-in-law Sharon and Ronnie Felderhoff; sons and daughters-in-law Karl and Kathy Metzler of Era, Chris and Brenda Metzler of Lindsay, Jeff and Karen Metzler of Bowie, and Brad and Ronda Metzler of Lindsay. There are 20 grandchildren.

At the dinner on Thanksgiving Day, a specially decorated cake was served, commemorating the occasion. Family members gave toasts. The grandchildren presented a special memory scrapbook to which each had contributed a page.

The Metzlers have lived in the rural area north of Lindsay/Gainesville throughout their entire marriage, and currently reside on the family farm northeast of Lindsay. Raymond retired from Metzler Brothers and continues to farm acreage and raise cattle, and Helen retired from Weber Aircraft. They are active members of St. Peter's Catholic Church and Parish in Lindsay.

In retirement, his special activities revolve around his cattle and his farming, conceding that these are more than hobbies. Her special activities revolve around reading, sewing, and crocheting, which she enjoys, and she creates beautiful keepsakes.

During dinner time, and reunioning, family conversations delighted in re-telling tales they have heard from older relatives - recounting the original wedding day, what the bride wore, what kind of reception they held, the wedding trip, etc.

Of special interest were the members of the original wedding party, Rudy and Annabelle Dieter, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, Harold Corcoran, brother of the bride, and Vivian Kasperek, sister of the bride. Linda Corcoran, sister of the bride, was flower girl. The bride was presented at the altar by her father. Reception and dance were held in the Lindsay Gun Club.

KLB celebrates Recycles Day

On Nov. 15, Keep Lindsay Beautiful celebrated Texas Recycles Day with a program for the Cooke County 4-H Council. The Council heard how using compost not only reduces waste that would ordinarily go into a landfill, but also benefits your lawn and the environment by reducing water and fertilizer needs. The Council was also told about the benefits of vermiposting. In Cooke County there are 11 4-H clubs and over 330 members.

Texas Recycles Day was the nation's first statewide "recycling day" and served as the model for America Recycles Day (ARD). In Texas, the Recycling Alliance of Texas works as the ARD affiliate. Community events are held statewide each year from mid-October through the officially observed day of Nov. 15. As Texans have made recycling a part of their everyday lives, additional events are held year-round.

Donna Corcoran, president of Keep Lindsay Beautiful, and Pat Zimmerer, board member, presented the program to the Cooke County 4-H Council.

Stevens earns Doctoral degree

Woman's University of Denton has awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in School Psychology to former Muenster resident Suzanne Huchton Stevens. Dr. Stevens received the degree on Aug. 13, with a final grade point average for her graduate work of 3.939. Dr. Stevens received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas Woman's University when she graduated Summa Cum Laude in 2000. She is currently employed by the Gainesville Independent School District. Suzanne attended Sacred Heart School for the first eight years of her schooling, before attending Muenster Public High School for four years and graduating there.

Dr. Stevens is the daughter of Billye Huchton of Muenster and the late John Huchton. She is married to Ike Stevens, and the couple has two adult sons John Stevens of Austin and Aaron Stevens of Dallas, daughter-in-law Theresa Messier Stevens, and a grandson Collin Isaac Stevens.

Adolescent inhalent use jumps

National survey shows that nearly 10% of 8th graders used inhalants last year.

The good news is that overall drug abuse by teenagers is still down, but the use of prescription drugs and inhalants has increased. The results of the 2004 Monitoring the Future Study showed that annual use of inhalants by 8th grade students has increased to 9.6%, up from 7.7% just two years ago. The survey is conducted annually by the National Institute of Drug Abuse (NIDA) to assess drug use among 8th, 10th, and 12th grade students.

The latest information from the Drug Abuse Warning Network (DAWN), which tracks drug-related emergency department admissions, showed an increase of 187% of inhalant mentions from 2001 to 2002. The total number of new inhalant users in 2002 was about one million Americans, with 78% of them under the age of 18. Inhalants are generally classified into three categories: solvents, gases, and nitrates. Examples of these chemicals include paint thinners, glue, gasoline, butane, nitrous oxide, ether, cleaning products, and aerosol sprays for paint, hair, and deodorant.

Most of the chemicals that are sniffed or "huffed" are commonly found in the household, where young children and adolescents can easily obtain them.

Use of inhalants brings many negative effects on a person aside from the initial high they may feel. Adverse effects of sniffing toxins include damage to the liver, lungs, kidneys, and brain, which opens up to a variety of symptoms and illnesses. Sniffing high concentrations of some chemicals can cause heart failure and even death.

"We've seen what inhalants can do to a person," comments Gary W. Smith, who is a Certified Chemical Dependency Counselor and is the Executive Director of Narconon Arrowhead. The center is one of the nation's largest and most successful drug rehabilitation and education programs by using the effective drug-free methodology developed by L. Ron Hubbard. "After years of inhalant abuse there are very definite signs of permanent damage, even when the person is now drug-free."

A report released by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) found that 12 and 13 year-olds who used inhalants were more likely to experiment with other drugs in the future and engage in delinquent behavior than kids who never tried sniffing.

Based on information from the 2002 and 2003 National Survey on Drug Use and Health, young persons who used inhalants were twice as likely to be in a serious fight and six times more likely to have stolen or attempted to steal something worth more than $50.

Effective drug education and prevention programs can help reverse this trend and the behavior associated with it. For more information visit www.stopaddiction.com. You may also view more statistics on inhalant use at www.inhalants.org and www.oas.samhsa.gov.

Tickets now selling for The Littlest Angel

"It's a wonderful, wholesome, entertaining show the whole family can enjoy together," said Thom Talbott of North Central Texas College in announcing the opening of the box office for the upcoming production of "The Littlest Angel." Tickets went on sale to the general public Monday, Nov. 21. For reservations, call 940-668-3355.

A joint production of the NCTC Drama Department and Butterfield Stage, "The Littlest Angel" is set for five performances in the First State Bank Center for the Performing Arts. Dates are successive Friday-Saturdays, Dec. 2-3 and 9-10, plus a Sunday matinee on Dec. 11. Curtain is 7:30 p.m. for the evening performances and 2:30 p.m. for the matinee.

"Although all the characters are angels," said Talbott, who is directing the show,

"the play tells a story that all faiths can embrace and one that all ages can appreciate. Coming to the show would be a great family outing for the holiday season."

Tickets are priced at $12 for adults and $8 for youth. Admission is free to NCTC students showing their ID, but they must make reservations. The Littlest Angel has just arrived in Heaven and simply cannot adjust to all the new rules.

Fuhrmann inducted into honor society

Clint Fuhrmann has accepted membership in Golden Key International Honour Society and was honored during a recent induction ceremony at Oklahoma State University (OSU). "It is only fitting that a top academic achiever like Clint be recognized by Golden Key," said Alexander D. Perwich II, Golden Key's Chief Executive Officer. "Our members are inspired and motivated not only to achieve exceptional academic accomplishments, but also to make a positive impact on our world through the Society's commitment to service."

Clint is the son of Mark and Linda Fuhrmann of Muenster. He is a graduate of Sacred Heart School, and a junior Accounting major at OSU in Stillwater.

Considered a classic work of children's literature, Tazewell's original story was written first as a radio show and was later published as a book in 1946. Since then, more than seven million copies of the book have been sold.

Talbott said the show has a huge cast, including a large number of young elementary school age actors from throughout the area, along with several middle and high school actors reported, in fact, cast members represent 10 area communities including Gainesville, Lindsay, Muenster, Valley View, Whitesboro, Saint Jo, Era, Sanger, Decatur, and Denton. Jenna Spivey of Lindsay will appear in the title role as the Littlest Angel, joined by Brandon Martin of Decatur as the Understanding Angel and David Gentry of Gainesville as the Gatekeeper.

Lindsay Knights beat Albany 31-14

The Lindsay Knights advance to the Texas State 1A High School Football Quarter Final round after defeating the Albany Lions 31-14 in Regional. The Knights, District 16A Runner-up, and the Lions, 9A Champions, met last Friday at Elk Stadium in Burleson. Lindsay now faces Windthorst.

"I'm real proud of the way the boys played, and the heart and character they are showing," noted Coach John Erwin. "Albany's a good team. Again, our defense played super, the defensive line and the secondary that picked off five passes." Erwin also noted that the Knight offense also did well, putting 31 points on the board. "A super effort all the way around," Erwin added.

The Knights took the opening kick at their 28 yard line. Alan Trammell and Adam Kasperek gained 14 yards, then a flag lost 5. A Dustin Hughes pass to Kristopher Creed moved Lindsay to the 48. Trammell got in a 15 yard run, with Hughes adding 2. From the 35, Hughes connected with Brandon Huckaby to the 13. A flag, back field tackle, and dropped ball in the end zone were followed by a 13 yard pass to Trammell. On 4th and 5, Hughes picked up 3 yards and Albany took the ball on their 5 yard line.

Two plays later, Dustin Hughes intercepted a pass, returning the ball to the Knights 33 yards from paydirt. Seven runs by Trammell moved the ball to the 2 yard line. Hughes got to the one. On 4th and goal, Dustin Neu kicked an 18 yard field goal for a 3-0 score with 17 seconds remaining in the 1st quarter.

John Mosman's kick was returned to the 23 yard line.

The Lions moved the ball into the 2nd quarter, getting a 1st down before Christopher Dieter, Josh Jones, and Creed defensively forced a kick on 4th and 9.

It was three plays and punt for the Knights, and for the Lions after Trammell, Kasperek, Austin Buck, Levi Hermes, Michael Eckart, and Gary Anderle allowed only 4 yards.

The Knights started their next drive on their 20. Three Trammell runs, and a pass to Creed got Lindsay to midfield. Hughes, Derick Murray, and Trammell ran the ball to the 14. On 4th and 1, Hughes passed to Creed for a touchdown with 46 seconds on the clock. Neu's PAT gave the Knights a 10-0 lead.

Albany got in six plays before Hughes intercepted a pass to end the 1st half.

The Lions took the 3rd quarter kick. Two long passes assisted the seven-play drive, then ended with a touchdown. With 8:30 on the clock the Lions closed the point spread to 10-7.

The Knights moved the ball from their 18 to the Lion 30 before running out of downs. Albany threatened to score, but Creed picked off a pass at the 10. Unable to get 10 yards, Huckaby punted. Incomplete passes, a Buck tackle, and a flag forced an Albany punt on 4th and 17. Two plays later, Alan Trammell broke through the line for a 74 yard race to the end zone. Neu added the PAT for a 17-7 score with 10 minutes remaining in the game.

Two plays later, Levi Hermes picked off an Albany pass, placing the Knights 25 yards from the end zone. Runs by Trammell, Hughes, and Murray got a 1st and goal at the 1. Hughes then scored with 6:31 on the clock. Neu's kick gave the Knights a 24-7 lead.

The Lions built a passing drive, with gains of 12, 43, and 13 yards. A pass interference call helped move the ball to the 3. The next pass was good for the touchdown. With 4:32 on the clock, the scoreboard read 24-14.

Beginning at midfield, a Hughes to Levi Hermes pass was good for 37 yards. The four-play drive ended with a 13 yard Trammell run. Neu's kick gave the Knights a 31-14 lead with 2:44 on the game clock.

The Lions again went airborne, completing three passes and missing four, two of which were broken up by Clint Williams and Chad Dieter. The Knights got in three runs and punted, then ended the game with a Kris Creed interception.

The Lindsay Knights now face the Windthorst Trojans for the Regional 2 Finalist, Quarter Final round of the playoffs. Eight teams remain in the battle for a State Championship. Joining Lindsay and Windthorst are Stratford, Quanah, Iola, Big Sandy, Chilton, and Bremond.

The Trojans road to the playoffs started as District 14A Champions. They then defeated Baird 49-20, Valley View 28-20, and last week Haskell 42-20. Windthorst has a 13-0 season record compared to the Knights at 10-2.

"We're excited about playing another game," said Erwin. "Windthorst is a very good team. It's no surprise they're here (in the playoffs)." Erwin noted that both teams have strong defenses and the game will be decided on which offense can put points on the board.

The Regional 2 Finalist playoff game, Knights vs. Trojans, will be played in Decatur, Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Support the Sacred Heart School Trust Fund

A memorial gift will earn income for Catholic education in memory of the donor.

An annuity gift will earn interest for the donor or designate for the rest of their life after which the gift will be used for Catholic education.

A donation to the Sacred Heart School Trust Fund is an investment in Catholic education.

Auto Home Life INSURANCE

In good times and in bad we've stayed with you.

We've been here, through the good and the bad. We didn't leave or raise our prices like other companies did during the insurance crisis. In fact, we've lowered rates and added discounts that can save you up to 40%.

Call today for a free no-obligation review of your personal insurance needs. We will be there when you need us the most.
