Candidates announced for May elections

By Janet Felderhoff Monday's deadline to file as a candidate in local elec-tions passed with at least enough candidates to fill all positions and in some cases produced contested races. There is still time to file as a write in candidate. That deadline is Monday, March 16.

a write in candidate. Infat deadline is Monday, March 16. Muenster ISD's Board of Trustees drew the most in-terest. There are three plac-es with expiring terms. Place 5 is held by Jim Endres who chose not to seek another term. Filing for that seat are Richard Dangelmayr and Doug Hermes. Place 6 in-cumbent Ronnie Felderhoff filed for another term and is opposed by Kimberly Hess Walterscheid. Place 7 in-cumbent Steve Trubenbach has no opponent and he filed for another term. Hesse honored as Muenster Jaycee Outstanding Citizen

By Janet Felderhoff In announcing the recipient of the Muenster Jaycees' Outstanding Citizen Award, Darren Bindel noted, "The last line of our Jaycee Creed is 'service to humanity is the best work of life.' You will hear us emphasize this last line be-cause this is a huge part of what we are. I also believe this has been a huge part of this year's recipient for the Jaycees' Citizen of the Year." He then announced Christy Hesse as the honoree Citizen of the Year." He then announced Christy Hesse as the honoree. The Award was presented Saturday, March 7 at the an-nual installation and award banquet held by the Muenster Jaycees in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Bindel also said of the award, "We are very fortunate to live in a community such as this where there are so many people volunteering and giving back without expecting anything in return. The recipient for this year's award is one such person." Bindel said that Christy received the calm nerve and easy going nature of her father and the beautiful mix of wit and musical talent of her mother. Christy earned a degree at Midwestern State University and taught primary grades at Sacred Heart School. While teaching, she earned a Mas-ter's degree in Early Childhood Development from Texas Woman's University and became certified in the Montessori method of teaching. During that time she still found time to volunteer.

proved a rund transfer that will make the purchase pos-sible. "We've got the opportunity to go back in with Grayson and Fannin counties and make a large purchase of radios for all three counties and get a lot better deal if we all go together," explained County Judge Bill Freeman at the Monday, March 9 Commissioners Court meet-ing. The amount of $2,227.11 will be transferred from Cooke County's 2006 Home-land Security Grant back to Grayson County through TCOG (Texoma Counci) of Governments) to make the purchase. Cooke County Emergency Management Coordinator Ray Fletcher explained that the hand-held radios and chargers will be kept at the Emergency Management Command Center. They will be available when needed, especially in emergency situations when outside as-sistance is needed and their radio frequencies don't work with those in Cooke County. He expects to get four to six radios. radios

Fletcher said that the 2006 Fietcher said that the 2006 money being put into the pool is left over and uncom-mitted. He noted that we will be getting equipment valued at more than the amount of money being spent by the See COUNTY, pg. 11

Paul Trayler 1923 - 2009

Funeral services for Paul E. Trayler of Forestburg were held Saturday, March 7 at the United Methodist Church in Forestburg with Rev. Sam Campbell and Steve Sandusky officiating. Burial followed in Perry-man Cemetery in Forest-burg. Services were directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Saint Jo. Visitation was held at the funeral home Friday, March 6. Mr. Trayler died at the age of 85 at 12 a.m. on Thursday, March 5, 2009 in Nocona.

Nocona. Born in Forestburg on May 7, 1923, to Roy 'Pat' and Gertie Batts Trayler, Paul grew up in Forestburg where he attended school. Shortly before graduating, he was drafted and inducted into the U.S. Army where he served during World War II. While in the service, he was engaged in heavy combat, a portion of which was in Oki-nawa. He received two pur-ple hearts along with other medals for his time and ef-forts during the war. Most of Paul's civilian oc-cupation was associated with the oil industry. Starting as a roughneck, then a driller, Paul became a tool-pusher. He worked for several years for Crawford Drilling Com-pany. He retired from the oil industry in 1985. At age 80, Paul crossed the stage at high school graduation in Forestburg, where he was presented his high school diploma, a moment that was cherished by him and his family. After retirement, Paul really enjoyed his fam-ily including his wife of al-most 59 years, six children, his may grandchildren and isretired life enjoying the out-doors. He loved watching the birds, rabbits, and other ani-mals, and enjoyed gardening, watching sports (especially baseball – Texas Rangers), and caring for his family and visiting with friends. Survivors include his wife Betty Trayler of For-estburg; daughters Gayla

Nine prepare to receive Sacraments

tian Initiation at Sacred Heart Church who are ready to receive the sacraments ex-perienced two special "rites." The first, the "Rite of Send-ing," occurred at the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 1. During this ritual, the cat-echumens Isaiah Bayer and Blair Waneck were presented and their sponsors affirmed that they were ready to be "sent" to the Rite of Elec-tion with Bishop Kevin Vann and affirmed that they were ready to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil service on April 11. Isaiah Bayer is the son of Olivia and Heath Bay-er. Blair Waneck is the son of Daniel and Cicily Waneck. Then the candidates who have been baptized in other denominations were present-ed by their sponsors who af-firmed that they were ready to make profession of faith and receive Confirmation and Eucharist. Since they have alerady been baptized, they call come into the Cath-olie Church and receive these sacraments at the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, April 5. These candidates are Paul Mouring, Sr., Rachel Mour-ing, Paul Mouring, Jr., Kim Budish, Brad Budish, Tanda Nasche, and Jay Vanet. Jay has been in the RCIA pro-cess at St. William Church in Durant, Oklahoma, and has asked to make profession of faith and receive Confirma-tion and Eucharist here at Sacred Heart Church. Primary Montessori students practice recycling at school

The Sacred Heart Pri-mary Montessori Recy-cling program began as an idea for a hands on project which allowed the students to be involved and person-ally invested in recycling. Dr. Elaine Schilling, Board member of Keep Muenster Beautiful, donated materi-als to bring the project to fruition. Mrs. Debbie En-dres and the Sacred Heart 7th grade students assist the K-1 in collecting, sort-ing, and bundling the paper once a week, Julian Hernan-dez picks up the bundles and delivers them to a recycling facility in Fort Worth.

A few of the students share their thoughts about recycling: Kelsey Hennigan - I think it is a great to recycle plastic bottles and have them re-made into new things. Four pianists advance to State

Eight area piano students competed in the University Interscholastic League's Solo and Small Ensemble Music Contest on Feb. 21. Under the direction of Muenster music teacher Rosemary Dankesreiter, the students competed in the Region II contest at Gainesville High School.

The students chose from a predetermined list of com-positions in Levels 1, 2, or 3, with level 1 being the most difficult. Students' perfor-mances are graded 1 through 5, with ones receiving a gold medal. Level 1 selections which receive a score of 1 ad-vance to State competition on May 30 in San Marcos.

Commissioners agreed to contract with First South-west Asset Management, Inc. for Arbitrage Rebate Compliance Service. Cost should be $2,000 since most of the (Jail Bond) funds are already spent. Completing the parking lot and some landscaping are all that re-mains to be done, according to Judge Freeman. County Auditor Shelley Saunders explained, "Any time a government entity is-sues any kind of bonds, the IRS has what is called Arbi-trage. Every five years you need to take a look at your bonds and how much interest you've earned off of it. In the "80s, there were some gov-ernment entities that were selling bonds and holding on to the money and making a profit off of the money with-out doing the project. Now, if you earn more interest than you sell the bonds for, you pay the IRS that difference." The County's 2004 General Obligation Bond is about to hit its five-year mark. Commissioners Court is-sued a proclamation declar-ing March 15-21 as Poison Prevention Week in Cooke County. Poison Prevention Week has been observed in this nation for the past 45 years to call attention to the hazards of household prod-ucts, medicines, and sub-stances that can be hazards.

stay vigilant around those animals. "Most ranchers and farm-ers who have cattle and hors-es like working with animals and interacting with them," North Dakota State Univer-sity Extension Service vet-erinarian Charlie Stoltenow says. "The more they work with cattle and horses, the more comfortable they be-come around the animals. And with that comfort, pro-ducers sometimes take their animals for granted. This is a serious and dangerous mis-take. Worker safety around cattle and horses requires respect for the animals and concentrating on the task at hand." Data collected in Colorado of cattle-related injuries in-volved cattle confined for medical procedures or for loading and transport. Livestock-related injuries

Livestock-related injuries do not happen only to adults. Stoltenow says A study published in 2003 from the University of Kentucky in-dicated that the injury rate for farm children age 18 or older was 2.8 per 100 chil-dren. Boys ages 16 to 18 had an injury rate of 9.2 per 100 children. Cattle and horses were one of the primary ex-ternal causes of nonfatal farm work injuries in chil-dren, the study shows. TDA market recap

For the week ending March 7, feeder cattle prices at Texas auctions were again uneven and up and down the board, from $4 lower to mostly steady to $7 higher. Fed cattle cash prices were near unchanged. Uncer-tainties about future beef demand and volatile grain prices pressured cattle mar-kets.

prices pressured cattle mar-kets. Grain prices ended the week modestly higher. Stock markets and crude oil prices continue to be the primary drivers behind fluctuating grain markets. As for futures markets, feeder cattle, finished cattle, and cotton were lower, while wheat, corn, and lumber were higher. The entire state is in ab-normally dry to exceptional drought conditions and top-soil moisture was reported in mostly very short to short supply statewide. Spring fieldwork continued with field preparations and plant-ing underway in many ar-eas. However, dry conditions have slowed progress.
