

100th birthday celebrated for "Grand Old Lady"

By Janet Felderhoff

It was a joyous occasion Saturday, Nov. 12 for Cooke County residents interested in the historic County Courthouse. A celebration was held at 1 p.m. marking the completion of restoration to the building's interior and of the building's 100th year of existence.

Restoration Project Chairmen County Judge John Roane and Precinct #4 Commissioner Leon Klement served as masters of ceremonies for the celebration. St. Peter's Parish Pastor Fr. Raymond McDaniel offered the opening prayer.

Judge Roane praised Klement for his part in the restoration. He stated, "Without his presence and guidance, this whole project would not have been possible. Leon has been great through this whole thing and his leadership has shone forth mightily during all of this."

Muenster VFW Post 6205 performed Posting of the Colors and gave a 21 gun salute. Gainesville Boy Scout Troop #7777 led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Lori Hart sang the national anthem.

Judge Roane told the crowd that the Courthouse was occupied sometime between July 4 and Dec. 19, 1911. He said he feels Nov. 12, 1911 is close to that date because the Nov. 11, 1911 Commissioners Court hired a janitor to make sure there was a sufficient supply of spittoons in the Courthouse. He displayed one of the actual spittoons from that time.

Roane continued, "One hundred years ago today was a Sunday and that particular day we had a very strong norther coming through the night before. The temperatures went from about 83° the day before to somewhere in the teens and single digits on this day 100 years ago."

While giving credit to the people who helped with the Courthouse restoration, Judge Roane said, "One person that I would like to mention in particular is Virgil Hess. He was the commissioner of Precinct #4 who had a lot to do with, and especially guided this County through the external phase of the restoration. Without Virgil, it just couldn't have been done."

Boy Scout Grant Wilson performed his moving rendition of "Ragged Old Flag."

Commissioner Klement had words of appreciation for the many, many people involved in the renovation of the Courthouse, including previous judges and commissioners, architects, project managers, and the employees and people of the County who were inconvenienced at times during the process. He urged those present to look around and take in the moment. "This is a historic moment in the County. When they built this Courthouse a hundred years ago, they built it for us. They built it for the future and that's what this is today.

"Another thing about the old building - they call her the Grand Old Lady and she is the Grand Old Lady. As such she needs to be treated with respect like a grand old lady would be. I hope in the future we do treat her with respect and we keep taking care of her."

Klement shared stories of people in the County teasing him about what decade they might be moving back into the Courthouse. One person, after being informed it would be before Thanksgiving, replied it would be when pigs fly. So, on the day they began moving back in, Klement said he checked for flying pigs, but saw none and is yet to see any pigs fly.

Erik With, district director with the office of Congressman Michael Burgess, on behalf of Congressman Burgess, presented a U.S. flag that had been flown over the capital in Washington, D.C. With said, "The county courthouses have always stood as a symbol of the leadership in our state and that's no truer in any other county than it is right here in Cooke County."

Gainesville Mayor Jim Goldsworthy welcomed guests. He welcomed visitors to Gainesville and said, "We like to call ourselves the star of North Texas. With the remodel and opening of the Courthouse, the star is shining brighter today. I'd like to thank the foresight of past County leaders to keep the County Courthouse on the downtown square. You're an anchor for the County."

Texas Senator Craig Estes spoke of the Texas Historic Preservation Program, noting that it is one of the more exciting things done in the State. "It's been made possible by a $20 million bond funding provided by the recently adjourned 82nd Legislature. With more historic county courthouses than any other state, Texas has been instrumental in preserving these remarkable structures designed by very notable architects. This program was announced in June 1999 and it provides partial matching grants to Texas counties. Since the program's inception, it has awarded $227 million to counties and local governments have matched with more than $150 million so these restorations have generated more than 8,600 jobs and more than $19 million in local taxes. The program's accomplishments have garnered national and international attention with honors from the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Texas Society of Architects. In

Master Gardens get approval for project at AgriLife building

By Janet Felderhoff

Cooke County Master Gardeners Allen Comer is project chair for a rain harvest/butterfly educational garden in front of the Extension Office at 301 South Chestnut in Gainesville. Master Gardeners have been working on the project for quite some time and are ready to put their plan into action.

County Extension Service Agent Wayne Becker explained that there are 20 to 30 Master Gardeners in Cooke County. These are people who are interested in horticulture and who learned more about horticulture from the Extension Service. In turn, they agreed to do service hours and community service in the County to promote the education of horticulture issues. He asked Commissioners Court for approval to start the plan.

Comer explained to the Court that the project has been well researched, thought out, and expertly planned. He said it will be an asset to the community, not only by serving as an educational aid in rain water harvesting, but it will use native and adaptive plants for this region that require low water usage and low maintenance. Comer added that it will serve to beautify a city government building that has no landscaping.

Comer added, "The garden will also serve as an educational tool teaching fresh water conservation. Fresh water is a precious resource.

Conservation needs to start now on a local scale and the rain water harvesting and butterfly garden will add to the local interest. There is nothing like this in the County."

After reviewing the plans, Commissioners Court unanimously approved the project.

Cooke County Fire Marshal Ray Fletcher made no recommendation to reinstate a burn ban. He said, "We've had very little fire activity. The issues we've had are people doing too large of typically brush piles and it scares them as they don't realize what they have when they light it up. What few we've had have been minor things like that that haven't gotten out of control too bad."

Fletcher said that with recent frost, grass is beginning to go dormant and even though there is decent moisture, it bears watching.

The current KBDI shows a low for the County of 357, high 588, with a mean of 458 across the County. The Drought Monitor shows most of the County still to be in the D-3, D-4 drought category for the most part. The outlook is not promising with a drier and warmer winter predicted.

In other business conducted at the Nov. 14 meeting, Commissioners Court:

- Approved sale of 11 properties that were not sold at the Nov. 1 sale. This may be at a price lower than the amount needed to pay off back taxes.

- Approved mutual aid agreement between Cooke County and Clay County for firefighting assistance, a request of Clay County Judge.

- Accepted the Humanities Texas Community Project Grant with four other Texas libraries to bring the humanities program, "The Story of Music, Stories From Home" in the amount of $800 for the Cooke County Library.

- Approved renewal of contract with Tutor.com for the County Library.

- Accepted a $50 donation to the County Library in memory of NaDeanne Calhoun from the Wally Culums.

- Accepted donations from Kinne's Jewelers in the amount of $100, from Mrs. J.E. Pybas in the amount of $250, and from Cross Timbers Genealogical Society, Inc. in the amount of $75 for the Cooke County Historical Commission's book project.

President Bayer then placed a memorial wreath in honor of the Veterans who made the supreme sacrifice for their country as the choir sang "America the Beautiful." Auxiliary Conductress Linda Knabe explained the colors of the wreath.

all countries. President Bayer thanked and acknowledged all Veterans present by asking them to step forward and be recognized as she read the words to "Service." The choir ended the program with "God Bless America." Assisting with the program were banner bearers Auxiliary Senior Vice President Mary Lee Hennigan and Auxiliary Treasurer Lucille Hesse.

If pickings are slim, head for the freezer

The produce section may be a bit bare this time of year, but that doesn't give anyone a free pass to skimp on fruits and vegetables.

Dr. Jo Ann Carson, professor of clinical nutrition at UT Southwestern Medical Center, said the solution lies in choosing as much fresh seasonal produce as possible, then augmenting it with a mixture of frozen and canned offerings.

Frozen fruits and vegetables often contain nearly as many nutrients as fresh produce because they have been picked, frozen, and packaged at their peak, she said.

Dr. Carson also notes that some canned vegetables, including pumpkin, provide more vitamins per serving than their fresh counterparts.

The key is to watch the sugar and sodium content, because canned produce can be higher in both.

Fr. Ken Robinson led the group in prayer and petitions for all Veterans, prisoners of war, missing in action, and their families, and leaders of Monday, Nov. 14.

2008, the Program was recognized with an award from the White House."

State Representative Rick Hardcastle offered congratulations on the restored Courthouse. He quipped, "We'll go another hundred years and see what West Texas looks like or whether ya'll are part of the Metroplex."

Janelle Haverkamp, 235th District Judge, expressed her honor and pride in presiding over the newly restored 235th District Courtroom. "The District Courtroom is quite impressive. My bench is the original judge's bench that was used in 1911. In fact, 100 years ago, someone wrote in the drawer of my bench, and I quote, 'Court held in this building on Nov. 20, 1911.' On our first day in the Courtroom, I proudly inscribed, 'Court held in this newly restored building on Oct. 31, 2011, signed Judge Janelle Haverkamp.'"

In thanking those who worked so hard to see the renovation project through, Judge Haverkamp remarked, "Truly Commissioner Hess was the driving force behind this restoration. Although, he did not live to see that his dream was completed, I know he's looking down and saying, 'Job well done.'"

"In the two weeks that I have been presiding in this Courtroom, it has been my experience that all who enter are awestruck by the grandeur of the Courtroom and show more decorum and are more respectful of the court and the proceedings of the Court. And, yes, that does include the defendants."

Texas Historical Commission (THC) Director of Architecture Stan Graves explained that the THC has a public/private partnership with the Texas Land Title Association that is funding a series of conferences. All counties that took part in the Historic Courthouse Preservation Program are invited to come together to share information and continue ongoing maintenance.

"We don't ever want our Texas courthouses to get back in the condition they were in when this program began," stated Graves. He expressed appreciation to Hardcastle and Estes for their support of the program. Without the Texas legislature, this program would not exist, and they have been very generous in very difficult times, including this last session and we are able to keep this program going."

Estes continued, "This Courthouse actually represents the frugal way that we are trying to make this program work and stretch the dollars as far as we can," he said. "Ya'll were at the bottom of the list when we ran out of money in Round III of the program, so you only got the exterior funded. We kept the faith, and ya'll kept the faith, and we were able to come back and finish the inside in Round XI of the program."

Graves then presented a plaque to be displayed on the Courthouse. He said it represents a unique partnership between both the state and the counties, but also each of the 55 other courthouses that have been restored around Texas. Following the dedication program, tours were given to those who visited the inside of the Courthouse. Refreshments were served.

NCTC's Jazz Band provided music during the program and the tour.

Commissioner B. C. Lemons said of the restoration, "It's just a whole lot handier and a lot neater. I think it is real, real nice for the people of the County. It is mainly for the people of the County that we serve, so it's really good."

Precinct #1 Commissioner Gary Hollowell stated, "It's good to have everybody back in close proximity. It makes us more efficient."

Commissioner Al Smith added, "It's very beautiful. It's a big commitment for downtown Gainesville to re-establish the beauty of it."

Judge Roane agreed, "It's important for downtown Gainesville commerce and people coming back to this part of town."

In all my perplexities and distresses, the Bible has never failed to give me light and strength.

Police Notes

from Muenster Chief of Police
Mark Blankenship

The Police Department responded to 19 CALLS FOR SERVICE during the first two weeks of November. There were 34 CITATIONS issued, three arrests made, two INCIDENT REPORTS taken, and two VEHICLE ACCIDENT REPORTS made. These services were in addition to routine patrol along with safety and security checks within the city.

Our 60 day WARNING PROGRAM seems to have had little effect on traffic violations in our community. We still are experiencing a lot of bad habit drivers. REMEMBER that enforcement of traffic laws is now in effect city-wide. Everyone has the ability and responsibility to do the right thing and DRIVE SAFELY.

Juanita died at the age of 88 at 12:45 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 10, 2011 in Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Born in Rosston on May 2, 1923, Juanita was one of six daughters and three sons born to Matt A. and Angeline Herr Muller. The family moved about 1 1/2 years later to Ardmore, Oklahoma, then in 1925 back to the Hood area about 10 miles south of Muenster. They remained in the Muenster area after that time. She married Norbert Knabe on Nov. 25, 1941 in Sacred Heart Church. They purchased a farm and dairy business in 1943. In 1950, all was lost to a massive fire. They later purchased the Fleitman home in Muenster. Juanita then went to work for Jr. Elite. She sewed all the family clothes, including underwear. Ten years later, she decided to stay at home to care for her family.

Even though she was diagnosed with bladder cancer in 1984 and colon cancer in 1986, Juanita maintained her spirit physically, mentally, and spiritually. She enjoyed her family immensely and also her hobbies. She loved sewing, crocheting, and visiting with her eight children, their children and grandchildren. She also enjoyed her annual trips with her sisters and/or the local senior citizens. She was a member of the local VFW Ladies Auxiliary, St. Anne's Society, Catholic Daughters, and was SNAP director for many years.

Grandma's sewing skills always provided its benefits for the ones around her. In her later years, she spent much of her time constructing quilts, crocheting blankets, and hemming the family's clothing. "Grandma's sense of outdoors and adventure has always been involved heavily in the hunting and fishing lifestyle... Grandma had a knack for keeping the family close...

"She also washed and ironed altar linen for the church regularly. It really is difficult to say just how many were affected by her good deeds..."

Walterscheid plants wildflowers near Lake for Gold Award project

Many generous volunteers joined Bailey Walterscheid in planting wildflowers for her Girl Scout Gold Award, on Nov. 5. This Gold Award project was the main service project that will count towards the many hours needed to complete the Gold Award.

the planting began near the dam on the east side of the Muenster Lake and then moved to the west side by the walking trail. The group spread 22 pounds of seed mixed with mortar sand on approximately an acre of land. A variety of 26 types of wildflower seeds were in the seed packets that were planted. All the various wildflowers are native to the North Texas area and will establish themselves well.

These wildflowers will begin to bloom in mid-spring through early summer and will enhance the beautification of the Lake for all to enjoy!

Bailey noted that the project was made possible by all the volunteers who helped plant, Keep Muenster Beautiful, generous donors, and the Muenster Lake Board by their support and cooperation for this project.

The "Vivaldi Gloria" is one of the great works in choral literature and is an audience favorite. The Chorale will be accompanied by a chamber orchestra. ## In the Service

Jake Freeman
Navy Seaman Jake C. Freeman, son of Jamai Freeman of Gainesville, was recently promoted to his current rank of E3 Seaman upon graduation from recruit training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Illinois.

Jake was promoted to E3 before he left for basic training. He entered the Navy as an E3 Seaman because he had a Bachelor degree upon enlistment. He did graduate from basic training at Recruit Training Command, however had the Rate when he arrived. It is termed Rank for officers and Rate for the enlisted.

Freeman received the early promotion for outstanding performance during all phases of the training cycle. Training included classroom study and practical instruction on naval customs, first aid, firefighting, water safety and survival, and shipboard and aircraft safety. An emphasis was also placed on physical fitness.

Jake's outstanding performance and leadership early on in basic training earned him the role of Recruit Chief Petty Officer of Division 820. He led 92 recruits through their basic training and into graduation.

The capstone event of boot camp is "Battle Stations." This exercise gives recruits the skills and confidence they need to succeed in the fleet. "Battle Stations" is designed to galvanize the basic warrior attributes of sacrifice, dedication, teamwork, and endurance in each recruit through the practical application of basic Navy skills and the core values of Honor, Courage, and Commitment. Its distinctly "Navy" flavor was designed to take into account what it means to be a Sailor.

His graduation from basic training was a small step towards accomplishing his dream of becoming a Navy Special Warfare Operator known to many as Navy SEALs. In order to become a member of this elite group, he must first endure a six month BUDS training school. The acronym stands for Basic Underwater Demolition School. He and the remainder of his class are currently in BUDS prep training with instructors, coaches, and dieticians to prepare them for the strenuous ordeal. He will enter into BUDS Class 293 upon arrival at Coronado California training facility in early January for Phase 1 of the school. Jake is currently a boat team leader in his BUDS prep class.

Freeman is a 2003 graduate of Muenster High School. He is a 2009 graduate of Texas Tech University, Lubbock, with a BBA degree.

Give gifts from the Arbor Day Foundation

Celebrate the holiday season with friends and loved ones this year and give back to the Earth at the same time with the help of the nonprofit Arbor Day Foundation.

Send holiday greetings and plant a tree - all at the same time - by using the Foundation's Give-A-Tree cards. Give-A-Tree cards are unique in that every card plants a tree in one of our National Forests in honor of the recipient. By sending Give-A-Tree cards, you are helping to replant forests that have been devastated by wildfires, insects, and disease.

Give-A-Tree holiday cards come in 20 varieties. This year, an option is available to customize Give-A-Tree cards, including using your favorite picture in a Give-A-Tree photo card.

When you give the gift of Arbor Day Specialty Coffee, you're helping to preserve the Earth's precious rain forests. Arbor Day Specialty Coffee is shade-grown under the canopy of Latin American rain forests. Unlike sun-grown coffee plantations, this traditional shade-grown method gives the coffee a delicious, rich flavor and helps preserve the rain forest as part of the Foundation's Rain Forest Rescue program.

The Foundation's Trees in Celebration program allows the giver to honor loved ones while at the same time making a positive impact on the environment. Trees in Celebration includes a certificate for the recipient, and for each dollar donated a tree is planted in a damaged forest.

Give special friends a membership to the Arbor Day Foundation, and they will also receive 10 free trees. A membership costs $10, and includes many great benefits, including 10 free trees that will be shipped at the right time of year for planting.

"The holidays are a time for thinking about others, and as you do, take a moment to think about what you can do to protect the beauty and splendor of the Earth," said John Rosenow, chief executive of the Arbor Day Foundation. "We encourage everyone to give gifts that will have a lasting impact on the world for generations to come."

To purchase holiday gifts that give back to the Earth, go to arborday.org.

Heavy packs can be a pain in the back

A backpack bulging with books and school supplies may be a sign of a good student, but doctors at UT Southwestern Medical Center say it can also cause back strain and even nerve damage.

A condition called Rucksack Paralysis is caused by the strain on shoulders and arms. Symptoms include pain and tingling in the hands and arms. The problem could become permanent if kids are too heavy.

"If the child is straining or slouching, that is a sign the pack's too heavy," said UT Southwestern orthopaedic surgeon Dr. Kevin Gill, co-director of the Spine Center at the medical center. "You can often lighten the load by ensuring that kids don't carry anything in their packs that isn't necessary."

In addition, Dr. Gill recommends avoiding slinging a backpack over just one shoulder.

"Use a pack with a waistband and carry it with both straps to distribute the load," said Dr. Gill. "Or you may want to consider a rolling backpack or luggage cart."

AARP Foundation seeks volunteers

AARP Foundation had a Tax-Wise free tax site in Gainesville for years until 2010 when a volunteer tax preparer quit. One of the two volunteers who used to run the site is going to drive to Denison for training and certification this year and if the communities can get at least two more volunteers to carpool with him to training, AARP would be able to reopen a free tax site in Gainesville this year or next year.

Tax season is just around the corner—which means that you have an opportunity to make a real difference in your community. Be a client at one of the AARP Tax-Aide Sites in Sherman, Denton, or various other sites (Feb. 1-April 15), or become a volunteer for the nation's largest *FREE* tax preparation and assistance service so that a site can be reopened in Gainesville.

There are many kinds of volunteer opportunities, from tax volunteers to greeters as well as communications and technology coordinators. One could be right for you!

Tax volunteers interact with clients by filling out tax returns. Even if you don't have accounting or tax preparation experience, becoming a tax volunteer may be right for you. AARP provides training in preparing tax forms and using tax preparation software for IRS Certification in Denison, Denton, or Carrollton in Deember and January.

An AARP Tax-Aide greeter is the first person clients meet when they enter a tax site. Greeters make sure the client has all the necessary paperwork before meeting with a counselor, and they manage the flow of clients being served.

Technology coordinators manage computer equipment, work to ensure taxpayer data security, or provide technical assistance to volunteers at multiple sites on technology issues.

Communications coordinators promote AARP Tax-Aide to potential clients from February to April and recruit volunteers in the fall for the following tax season. They may also seek in-kind donations or help raise funds for computer equipment and other materials to maintain and expand services in their communities.

When you volunteer for AARP Tax-Aide, your expertise will be appreciated more than you can imagine. More than 35,000 volunteers across the country get the satisfaction of helping others in many ways.

Register and fill out a Volunteer Application at: <https://volunteers.aarp.org/>

In 2011, some 35,000 volunteers at 6,500 Tax-Aide sites in all 50 states and the District of Columbia helped 2.6 million people—many age 60 and over—navigate complicated tax codes, ensure proper credits and deductions, and file their federal, state, and local tax returns. By using AARP Foundation Tax-Aide, these taxpayers also avoided tax preparation fees.

Lindsay ISD names students in the Merit Scholarship Program

Phillip Hall, principal of Lindsay High School, announced that Amelia Haverkamp, daughter of Greg and Amy Haverkamp, and Lucinda Krahl, daughter of Damian and Lucy Krahl, have each been named a Commended Student in the 2012 National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), which conducts the program, will be presented to these scholastically talented seniors.

About 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise. Although they will not continue in the 2012 competition for National Merit Scholarships, Commended Students placed among the top 5% of more than 1.5 million students who entered the 2012 competition by taking the 2010 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT).

"The young men and women being named Commended Students have demonstrated outstanding potential for academic success," commented a spokesperson for NMSC. "These students represent a valuable national resource; recognizing their accomplishments, as well as the key role their schools play in their academic development, is vital to the advancement of educational excellence in our nation. We hope this recognition will help broaden their educational opportunities and encourage them as they continue their pursuit of academic success."

Don't despair of a student if he has one clear idea.

Students Study Canadian History

Recently, Annette Bayer's 6th grade class at Sacred Heart Catholic School studied Canada. In learning about Canada and the "First Nations," they discovered that many of these people were from the Cree, Micmac, Abenaki, and Ojibwa Indian tribes. Totem poles are symbols that tell stories, celebrate important events, and preserve native clan history. Pictured are the totem poles designed by her students using various materials and following criteria given for the project. What NCTC means to me...

Rodney Fuller, Gainesville
Lifelong Learning Welding Graduate

NEW LIFE, BRIGHTER FUTURE – North Central Texas College literally changed my life. I was unemployed, with a prison record, and without many prospects, so obtaining job training was my last chance. But Djuna Forrester, the Dean of Lifelong Learning, and Cheryl Davis from Workforce Texoma were able to get me started in the welding course at NCTC. I completed it in 2010, thanks to instructors Kenny Smith and Dennis "Hoot" Beane who did not give up on me. On their recommendation, I soon landed my first job as a welder at Titan Tanks, now Forum Energy Technologies. I was able to move up from part-time assembly welder to full-time tank welder, fabricating custom-made skids (platforms for tanks and other equipment). That was something I could not have done without the blueprint reading and industrial math I learned along with welding at NCTC. Now I've been promoted to quality control at Forum. I think every kid should be challenged so that they stay focused in life. The welding program at the college gave me back the focus that I had lost. I now have a very good job, and together with my wife, who is an NCTC nursing school graduate, I have bought a good house here in Gainesville in which to raise my family and continue building my new life. None of this would have been possible without North Central Texas College.

Discipline your son, for in that there is hope; do not be a willing party to his death.

Proverbs 19:18

First State Bank launched a contest via Facebook to help support education. Users could log on, visit the bank's page - facebook.com/FirstStateBankTX, and vote daily for their favorite elementary school. When the contest ended on Oct. 15, First State Bank would donate a total of $8,500 to the parent teacher organizations of the three schools with the most votes. The top school would receive a check for $5,000.

The public's response to the contest was overwhelming. People all across the nation were logging on to Facebook to help support Texas elementary schools. In less than 30 days, the bank went from just over 800 "likes" on Facebook to 11,134 on the day the contest ended. "That just goes to show that people take the future of our children's education seriously," stated First State Bank's Executive Vice President Ryan Morris.

Throughout the voting period, it was a tight race for the $5,000, and it came down to two schools – Sam Houston in Denton and Thomas Edison in Gainesville. For most of the contest, these two schools remained within just one or two votes of each other at the end of each day. Participants were determined to show support for their schools. One Gainesville parent created a video instructing Facebook fans how to vote. There was also a talking sock puppet show one very creative fan posted about the contest. Sam Houston staff members made a final effort to secure the money the night before the contest ended by setting up computers for voting during their PTA meeting. One Sam Houston parent even visited local restaurants on the last evening of the contest, going from table to table with a laptop, asking people to vote for her daughter's school. Sam Houston eventually took the lead just hours before the voting ended.

Although Thomas Edison Elementary School couldn't claim the $5,000 first prize, the hard work and determination of the Gainesville community paid off. First State Bank presented Thomas Edison Elementary School's PTO with a check for $2,500 for earning the second place spot in the contest. The giant check was given to students during a special ceremony at the school as students eagerly chanted, "First State Bank!" After the check presentation, a parent from Thomas Edison commented on Facebook, "These wonderful kids deserve it! I know FSB must be proud and humbled by such a response from kids that young. It was an exciting contest and our school did an awesome job!"

Chartered in 1905, First State Bank is the oldest state bank in Texas. For over 100 years, they have been doing business on the philosophy of "if it's good for the community, it's good for the bank." For more information, call (940) 349-5444 or visit HYPERLINK "http://www.F-S-B.com" www.F-S-B.com.

Tigers wrap up Warriors

The Sacred Heart Tigers began their trip down playoff road last Friday hosting the Rockwall Christian Warriors in first round action. It wasn't much of a contest, as the Tiger offense dominated the field, taking a 59-14 win from their visitors.

"The Tigers played well on offense, defense, and special teams," noted Sacred Heart Coach Dale Schilling. "It was nice to see the seniors going all out to win their last home game."

Rockwall took the opening kick, gained 8, and punted. Three plays later, the Tigers were on the board with a 14 yard run by Josh Biffle. Austin Aldridge added the extra point for a 7-0 score.

The Warriors got in two good runs, but a loose ball was covered by John Paul Hesse on the Rockwall 23. A 1st down Bob Bartush to Keith Metzler pass put the Tigers in the end zone. The PAT was good for a 14-0 score.

Rockwall fought back, taking nine plays to get on the scoreboard, 14-7. Metzler took the Warrior kick and returned it 90 yards for a 20-7 score.

Tackles by Mark Bartush, Michael Davis, Justin Brown, and Benjamin Yosten forced another Warrior punt.

From midfield, runs by M. Bartush and Biffle, a pass interference flag, and a B. Bartush to Austin Miller pass play took the Tigers to the 10 yard line. M. Bartush had the honor of taking the ball into the end zone to give Sacred Heart a 26-7 lead to end the 1st quarter.

Again it was three attempts and a punt for the Rockwall team, placing the Tigers on their 35 yard line. It took Sacred Heart 14 plays, as they ran time off the clock, before M. Bartush scored from the 2. The PAT kick failed and the Tigers took a 32-7 lead.

Tackles by Davis and Quinn Sicking once more held the Warriors. The punt put the Tigers on their 33. Three B. Bartush to Biffle pass plays, and runs by Brown, M. Bartush, and B. Bartush steadily moved the ball to the Warrior 14. M. Bartush finished the drive with 46 seconds remaining in the 1st half. Aldridge's PAT was good for a 39-7 score.

Rockwall got in one good run before Davis, Hayden Schilling, and M. Bartush stopped the Warriors at midfield. With time remaining for one more play, B. Bartush connected with Biffle for a 50 yard TD play with no time on the clock to give Sacred Heart a 46-7 half-time lead.

Sacred Heart took the 3rd quarter kick, taking seven runs and 3 minutes to find the end zone and increase their lead to 53-7.

The Rockwall offense continued to struggle, with a three run and punt attempt. Starting on their 30, runs by Miller, Metzler, and Dylan Clure took the Tigers into Warrior territory before running out of downs.

Austin Springer caught Rockwall for a 6 yard loss, followed by two incomplete passes. A blocked punt was picked up by Biffle and returned 10 yards for another Tiger touchdown. The PAT failed for a 59-7 score with just under 2 minutes remaining in the 3rd period.

The Warriors got a break their next drive when an intercepted pass was nullified by a penalty and another flag gave the visitors another 1st down at midfield. Five more plays and Rockwall was in the end zone for a 59-14 score with 7:20 on the clock.

Each team got in plays before time expired.

Next Action

The Tigers advance to round two of the TAPPS Division IV State Playoffs, facing the Warriors of The Woodlands Christian Academy.

The Warriors, undefeated in District with a season 9-2 record, smashed the Savio Eagles of Austin 57-12 in last week's playoff game.

"The Woodlands has a quarterback that has thrown around 90 touchdown passes the last two years. So the key to the game will be to pressure their quarterback and stop their passing game," Coach Schilling said. "They also have very good skill kids, and four receivers who are 6'3" or taller."

The Tigers and Warriors will meet this Friday for a 6 p.m. showdown in Tyler.

Hornets hope to swarm Riesel

With a 10-0 season and a week off, the District 5A Muenster Hornet football team is ready for playoff action.

The Hornets will face the Riesel Indians this Friday night in the Area round of the playoffs. In Dave Campbell's pre-season picks, Riesel was rated 4th in District 8A, but the 10-1 Indians proved the stat keepers wrong. Riesel's only loss was to their district champion team Mart. In Bi-District last week, the Indians defeated Santo 58-44.

"Riesel is a very run oriented team, basing their offense around their running game," noted Muenster Coach Brady Carney. "They average 30-35 points a game with good young skill kids with good speed."

Carney added that the Indian defense puts a lot of pressure on their opponents' running game, so the Hornets may be throwing the ball more. Riesel also has good numbers - around 60 players suiting out.

"We'll be running on all cylinders," Carney concluded, noting that the Hornet team is without injuries.

The Area playoff game will be at Brewer High School stadium. Muenster will be the visiting team. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for children, with senior citizen passes accepted. There is also a $5 parking fee.

Also in the area, the Lindsay Knights, after a 21 point deficit at halftime, defeated Honey Grove 34-28 in overtime and will face District 7 Champions Bosqueville. The Collinsville Pirates, after a 48-0 Bi-District victory over Quinlan Boles, will face Mart, District 8 Champs.

Cross Country season ends at Round Rock

As a team, Lindsay's Lady Knights finished in 4th place, while the Lady Hornets of Muenster settled for 10th. Taking the top three positions were Gruver, Sunray, and Hamlin.

Lindsay Coach Robin Hess noted that the race was very difficult, with the runners fighting the wind and the hills. Lady Knights Megan Holt and Lauren Gibbs were chosen for the CCCAT All-State Cross Country Team.

Knights win playoff game in overtime, 34-28

By Pat Springer

No one gave the Lindsay Knights much of a chance Friday night at halftime when they were behind 21-0 to a heavily favored 9-1 Honey Grove team: no one but the coaches, players, and die-hard Knights fans.

The Knights, who are coming to be known lately as the "comeback kids," pulled out another close win... this one in OT by a margin of 34-28 against the Warriors in the first round of the state playoffs at Pottsboro.

On Nov. 4, they did it in the last 23 seconds of the game against Valley View, with a field goal by Yancey, and again Friday in overtime against Honey Grove when Hud Harrison sprinted across the goal line to score the winning touchdown.

The Warriors scored initially by putting 14 points on the board in the first quarter and adding 7 in the second. Honey Grove dominated in the first half offensively and kept the Knights out of the end zone.

Lindsay also had to overcome a rash of turnovers and mistakes initially, head coach Cody Bounds said, and find a way to get the job done.

Bounds and his coaching staff told the boys, "This is your time. Go out and get the job done."

The Knights charged out of the locker room after the half ready to redeem themselves by playing some hard running, quick catching, and solid tackling football. They took the kickoff and moved 69 yards in 12 plays before Blake Walker crossed the goal line for the first of his two TDs on the night.

The Knights were on the board for the first time with seven points in the third.

Honey Grove later missed a field goal attempt, turning the ball back over to the Knights.

As the fourth quarter began, the Knights drove down field when Walker struck again from 29 yards out to add another 7 to the Knights' tally.

Lindsay was behind, 21-14, when the Warriors' quarterback Dillon Baugh ran 51 yards to score, putting Honey Grove up 28-14.

The Knights showed character by staying focused on the goal as sophomore quarterback John Haverkamp threw a long pass to Yancey.

Yancey added yardage on the ground to score his only TD of the night, then added the extra point himself to take the game to 28-21.

Yancey made a big play defensively when he intercepted the ball, giving the Knights a chance to come back from the deficit. Haverkamp led the charge to the goal, running the ball in from the 29-yard line. Yancey added the point after and the score was tied.

The Knight defense held strong, but Honey Grove made a valiant effort when Baugh threw the ball to Nathan Warren near the end zone. The Warriors' dream of a last minute win were shattered when Walker intercepted the pass intended for Warren. At the end of regulation play the score was tied 28-28.

Harrison assured the win in overtime when he raced from 23 yards out to score the winning TD. The players on the field celebrated as cheers from fans in the stands erupted.

"These boys played with a lot of heart. They never gave up. That shows their character and what's been instilled in them. I'm so proud of them," Bounds said.

The Knights will take on the Bosqueville Bulldogs (7-3) Friday on Pennington Field in Hurst. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Rushing: Hud Harrison 19-115; Blake Walker 15-114; John Haverkamp 19-44. Total: 53 carries, 273 yards.

Receiving: Jace Wann 1-10; Garrett Yancey 2-71; Blake Walker 1-10. Total: 91 yards.

Defensive leaders: Blake Walker 2 interceptions; Drew Cooney; Dean Fleitman; Trevor DeBord; Connor Fuhrmann; Hud Harrison; Garrett Yancey 1 interception; Dylan Hughes; Elijah Walker; Tanner Kuhn fumble recovery; Darryl Block; Chisam Reiter.

First downs - 12

It helps to be able to see when you shoot

Tarrant County Game Warden John Padgett made contact with a dove hunter on Sept. 10 and asked if he had any luck. The hunter said he had shot one dove and one pigeon, and was looking for another bird. In his vest he had two pigeons and no dove. When asked about his dove, he said he didn't have his glasses and thought one bird was a dove. After locating his third bird still alive in the field, Warden Padgett told him he had shot an upland sandpiper. The hunter said he had thought that bird was a pigeon. He again mentioned that his glasses were at home. Cases pending.

Craig's List ad leads to arrest

On Sept. 15, Fort Bend County Game Warden Barry Eversole, with assistance from Galveston County Game Warden Bobby Kana, made contact with an individual who had placed an ad offering waterfowl mounts for sale on Craig's List. Working in plain clothes, Warden Eversole met the individual and bargained a deal to purchase a pair of mounted widgeon. Case pending.

Fed cattle prices reach highs as drought continues

Fueled by declining beef production due to the drought and booming exports, fed-cattle prices soared to "unprecedented" levels, according to a Texas AgriLife Extension Service expert.

Fed cattle prices were $127 per hundredweight last week, said Dr. David Anderson, AgriLife Extension livestock economist. In comparison, they were $113 per hundredweight two months ago.

"Fed-cattle prices" typically refers to the price of live cattle coming out of feedlots after being fattened on rations consisting largely of grain.

Last year at this time, the price per hundredweight was about $98, with an average of about $95 for 2010, Anderson said.

"The seasonal price pattern usually peaks in the spring-time, but with another peak late in the year, and that's exactly the kind of seasonal pattern we've seen this year," Anderson said. "Prices were more than $120 for fed cattle in April, and now were back up over $120 again, after hitting a summertime low of about $104."

Though the seasonal ups-and-downs are to be expected, the prices are being driven to unprecedented levels by several factors, he said.

First, though the Texas corn crop was largely a failure due to the drought, the harvest was good in the corn belt, which cheapened feed, Anderson said. Another factor is increased demands in overseas markets.

But the big factor is the drought, and the effect it had as livestock producers were forced to aggressively cull herds, send calves to market early, or, in many cases, liquidate entire herds because of lack of grazing, hay, or water — or a combination of all three, he said.

"Earlier in the year, as we really pushed large numbers of cattle through as the drought got worse and worse, we forced a lot of calves to market early, and we did see price declines across the board," Anderson said.

This means the calves that would have been normally held and sold in Texas and Oklahoma this fall are already long gone because they were moved out earlier in the summer, which makes supplies weak and drives prices up, he said.

"If you had to sell a few months ago, that's not much consolation, but I think it is a positive thing overall," Anderson said.

Committees struggle to draft farm bill

Things are heating up in Washington as lawmakers juggle the next round of farm legislation with cutting the deficit. While lawmakers are closer to having a plan for the 2012 Farm Bill, there still is a long way to go, according to a report on Agriculture.com.

"There's a lot of debate about how to structure the commodity program," Senator Chuck Grassley (R-La.) said in the report. "There have been real challenges for the ag committee to come up with something to replace direct payments."

The ag committees remain under pressure to finish a draft in time for the Super Committee to consider it for deficit cutting legislation that's due on Nov. 23. So far, the ag committees have proposed $23 billion in cuts to commodity, conservation, and disaster programs.

Just a thought

Real happiness is cheap enough, but how dearly we pay for its counterfeit.

TDA market recap

For the week ending Nov. 12, feeder cattle prices at select Texas auctions were steady to $10 higher per hundredweight. Oklahoma City was steady to $3 higher, and Texas direct feeder cattle sales were steady to $4 higher. Competition for a smaller supply of available cattle continues to support the market. Fed cattle prices averaged a record high $125 per hundredweight, up nearly $6 from a week earlier as the Choice beef cut-out value also reached a new record high.

Grain prices were lower amid continuing global economic uncertainty, sluggish exports, and reports that some U.S. livestock feeders are importing cheaper feed-grade wheat.

Most crops were again rated in fair to very poor condition, except grain sorghum and wheat, which were mostly good to very poor. Grain sorghum harvest was 85% complete, slightly ahead of average. Winter wheat seedings were 88% complete and 56% of the crop has emerged, well behind the normal 74% because of the very dry conditions. Pastures were rated in 91% very poor to poor condition.

Late rain in Texas does little good

Late rain in Texas did a little good, but it won't be enough to save many pastures parched by extreme drought across the Lone Star State, according to a Texas AgriLife Extension Service expert.

"The reason is that we have predominantly warm-season, rangeland-type grasses here in Texas," said Dr. Charles Hart, Texas AgriLife Extension range specialist and associate department head of the department of ecosystem science and management at Texas A&M University. "Most of the grasses are warm-season grasses and their growing season is during the hot months of the year."

However, the recent slow drizzles to a few heavy downpours of rain in Texas over the past few weeks will have a slightly positive effect on some grasses, trees, and crops.

"It's probably going to help some of the trees we have that have been dropping their leaves," Hart said. "It will perhaps even save them from dying, but we won't know until this spring."

Hart noted that winter wheat and winter rye growers will see positive effects of the rain in Texas, particularly as it came while some still are planting this year.

"For the winter wheat pastures and winter rye pastures, the rain is going to help tremendously," Hart added. "It'll help a lot of people in terms of having some feed through the winter as opposed to having [to depend upon 100% hay.]"

County Agent's Report

Should homeowners clean up fallen twigs?

Most everyone is aware of the fact that fallen leaves and other plant litter can be very beneficial to the soil. It will decompose, release nutrients, act as mulch, and increase soil organic matter. However, sometimes it may be beneficial to clean up the litter to help eliminate insect and disease potential for next year. If you noticed twigs with leaves still attached falling from your tree earlier this year, the problem may be insect related; gathering the leaves and twigs is a good idea.

One common insect that causes late summer, early autumn twig drop is the twig girdler. This insect's egg laying activities cause the noticeable damage. Trees you may notice the girdler on include: pecan, mimosa, chinaberry and huisache. The adult causes the damage; it is grayish-brown (1/16 inch long). It will girdle limbs during the fall (late August through mid-November) by chewing a V-shaped groove entirely around twigs, branches, or terminals. Eggs are inserted into the bark on the girdled part of the branch away from the tree. Girdled limbs eventually break and fall to the ground, particularly during high winds and storms. Damage can disfigure a young tree and leads to secondary branching, particularly if the terminal is attacked.

Another group of insects known as twig and branch pruners produce damage similar to that of twig girdlers on elm, hackberry, hickory, maple, oak, pecan, persimmon, redbud, sweetgum, and other trees. With these insect species, it is the larvae that girdle twigs and branches underneath the bark. The surface of the severed end of the twig is smooth. The insect usually severs branches where small twigs branch from the main, girdled branch.

In both cases, there is very little that can be done with insecticides to control the problem. Instead, it is recommended that a homeowner clean the yard. Removing and destroying the girdled twigs and branches from the ground during winter and spring can reduce the population of these insects and reduce the number of twigs falling next year.
