Dear Santa,
I have tried to be good this whole year. But I have one question for you. How come our elves have not come yet? My sister has been begging for our elves so I am wishing for a toy robot with rocket boots but with no flames because it might burn someone in the face. And the reason I like it is because it can fly up the cabinet and get spoons and forks. The second thing I'd like for Christmas is a robot dog. It can actually bark like a real dog and it flips, and you can control it on an iPad. The third thing I'd like for Christmas is a air hog. you can control it with your hand.
love, Reccle
