

WOLTERS SAYS GUARD LEAVING A CLEAN CITY

BORGER, Texas, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Borger will bid farewell to Texas National Guardsmen Friday at 3:30 p. m., Brigadier General Jacob F. Wolters announced today. "At that hour the guardsmen, their mission accomplished," will leave, subject, however, to recall by Governor Moody. Martial law will not be lifted until the Governor signs proclamations, the general said.

General Wolters said: "Hutchinson county is the cleanest in Texas, and with a good constabulary, a vigorous district attorney and an untarnished judiciary will remain so. In due time the warden of John Holmes will be brought to justice." "The mission assigned us by Governor Dan Moody has been accomplished," the statement began. It then complimented the new officers. He praised the Governor as O. Moore, appointed sheriff to succeed Joe O'Ney, resigned; W. A. Henderson, mayor, vice Glenn A. Pace, resigned; Albert Mace, police chief, resigned to John W. Crabtree, resigned; Clem Calhoun, first assistant to Borger by the Governor as a special investigator and later named district attorney was described as "able, conscientious and fearless."

"Texas will hear more of this extraordinary young man who is among the state's best prosecutors," Calhoun was district attorney at Abilene before his assignment to Borger.

The constabulary of the guardsmen recommended County Attorney Harry D. Meyers, County Judge H. H. Hood, who "has stood out in bold relief against a background both tragic and pathetic," District Judge E. J. Pickett as "able and courageous" and the county commissioners.

Three to be Appointed
A justice of the peace and two constables remain to be appointed for Borger. Those appointments can be made after martial law is lifted, General Wolters said.

The new officers, the statement said, "are the kind of men and women Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio or any other city would like to have on its city constabulary."

Ranger Captain Tom Hickman is to remain in Borger with his force until the sheriff and police chief's department are in operation, and the Rangers are detailed for "indefinite" duty in the oil field.

Twelve men held under General Order Six, which specified that all members of the entrenched criminal ring could be held until obedience to law had been restored, will not be freed when troops leave Borger. It was believed they would be held until they can be tried.

The twelve under General Order Six are: Cal Baird, former Deputy Sheriff; J. D. Lee; D. T. Blasingame, former policeman; Sim Jones, ousted Deputy Constable; John Harkness, John Ware, G. Louis Crim, Leroy Dempsey, Don McCombs, H. O. Taylor, F. C. Cleveland and T. A. Board.

New Broom Swept Clean
BORGER, Texas, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The new broom had swept clean here today, and all of the county and city officers, suspended when Governor Moody sent troops here to apply martial law after the assassination of District Attorney John A. Holmes, had resigned.

In sending the troops here the Governor charged that a deeply entrenched criminal ring existed, and after his representatives announced martial law would not be lifted until the county and city administrators were in the hands of men approved by Clem Calhoun, district attorney.

Moore Made Sheriff
C. O. Moore, Texas Ranger, was made sheriff of the county yesterday by the county commissioners court, and Albert Mace, police chief of Mexia, was made police chief of Borger. Mace took over his job at Mexia in 1922 when the troops left there after quelling a situation similar to the one which existed here.

Preparations for departure of the troops are expected the moment the county commissioners round out their appointments. Two constables remain to be appointed here as well as a justice of the peace. In addition, a complete set of assignments to the new sheriff must be approved.

Court At Work
In the meantime, the district court ground away at its criminal grid. George W. Hoff, whose trial for possession of liquor was the first criminal trial in the county since the declaration of martial law, won an acquittal, and a similar case against L. W. Rook was immediately taken up.

No indication had been given as to the course of the grand jury's deliberations, but it was supposed the jurors were studying every scrap of evidence available bearing on the assassination of Holmes.

RESIGNS MEXIA POSITION
MEXIA, Texas, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Albert R. Mace, for seven years police chief here, today wired from Borger his resignation to City Manager R. D. Morgau. Marvin Wooten, city policeman, also resigned, saying he would join Mace's force at Borger.

RURAL SCOUTING PROGRAM IS AVAILABLE TO ALL BOYS

This is the second of a series of articles on Boy Scout work as applied to the rural boy, written by Jack Burnberg, scout executive for the Pecos Valley Area Council.

Before going further with a discussion of the program, I wish to state that we will be glad to receive letters from the boys in the rural districts who are interested in Boy Scout work, telling us what their desires are and asking questions with regard to the Scouting program.

The Rural Scouting program is available to all boys. It is just as possible for one boy to do this work as for a group of them. This is made possible by the three-fold nature of our plan. It is true that the one-boy working at the Scouting program will find it more difficult to stick to the job than will the boys who are members of a group. We are now going to explain the nature of these groups.

Under Three Headings
The Rural Scouting program falls under the heading of three types of organizations, namely:

1. The Home Patrol
2. The Farm Patrol
3. The Scout Troop

The Home Patrol organization is intended for the use of the boy who lives at considerable distance from other boys and who finds it very inconvenient to meet at least once or twice a month with other boys. This type organization is composed of the boys of Scouting age in one farm home together with their father or older brother who will serve as the counselor for those boys. This counselor helps to explain the work required, will hear the boys in all their examinations and in other ways assist the boys in acquiring knowledge of those things which form the program of the Boy Scouts. The boy who desires to become a Scout forms his own organization, that is he selects his father or older brother to be his counselor. He then furnishes us with information of this home organization and we enter the organization upon our records and immediately begin to service the boy.

The Farm Patrol organization is composed of a number of boys from different homes who find it difficult to meet regularly at some central point. A Scout Troop may be as much as thirty-two boys. But it is not necessary for Patrols to have more than four to eight boys. Two or three boys may be a Home Patrol. But at least four boys and as many as eight or even ten may be in a Scout Troop.

The Farm Patrol must have an adult leader or leaders who will meet with the boys and will counsel them in the ideals of Scouting. This form of organization is of course more desirable than the Home Patrol because it brings together larger number of boys and so stimulates friendly competition and cooperation. This type of organization is desirable where the boys do not live at widely separated points. The Farm Patrol may meet once or often each month. It may be composed of a half dozen Home Patrols that meet three times each month in the home of the boys themselves coming together in the nature of a Farm Patrol for the fourth meeting.

At Community School
The Scout Troop is of course the organization composed of a number of Farm Patrols. The ideal place for such an organization is in connection with the community school. There the boys from a half dozen or more Farm Patrols can meet together monthly. Where the Scout organization is possible it may be well for the Patrols forming this Troop to meet at Patrols twice each month and on two alternate weeks meeting together as a Troop.

The Troop must of course be officiated by a Scoutmaster who is the executive official of the Troop. Assisting him should be the Counselor of each Patrol. These Counselors should constitute the Troop committee and should cooperate with the Scoutmaster for the purpose of advancing the Scout program among the boys in the Troop.

Within these three groups fall all Scout work in the rural districts. It can be seen how that one boy or more can thus be given the opportunity of enjoying the present program of the Scouting program. I shall be glad to hear from boys living in the rural districts who are interested in the Scouting program. Just address your letters to the Boy Scouts of America, Brownwood, Texas.

ALL MEMBERS OF FARM BODY ARE APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The eight men appointed to the Federal Farm Board by President Hoover today were formally and fully empowered to go ahead with their task of bringing prosperity to the farmer. All were approved last night.

Supported by Democrat opposition to three of Mr. Hoover's appointees, H. S. Neff, representing the field of finance and business, Samuel R. McKelvie, spokesman for the wheat growing industry, and Carl Williams, cotton representative—developed, but was unable to block their confirmation.

Democratic members, for the most part, joined with the administration republican group in supporting the Hoover appointees. Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, democratic leader, voted for all of them. And expressed the attitude of his party colleagues with an assertion that "responsibility must rest where it belongs," and the president be given the men he had asked to administer the act which he had sponsored.

The group of independent western republican senators was divided. Borah of Idaho, supported Legge, but voted against McKelvie and Williams. Norris of Nebraska, voted against Legge and Williams, but by unanimous consent of the senate, did not vote when the question of Neff's appointment was before. The governor of his state came to a ballot. During the debate, he expressed himself as opposed to the wheat man.

Williams Opposition
The greater part of the opposition to Williams, the cotton spokesman, came from senators representing cotton states. Francis and Griffin of Alabama, Connally and Shepard of Texas, George and Harris of Georgia, Smith and Elease of South Carolina, Simmons of North Carolina, and McKellar of Tennessee, all voted against his confirmation.

Neff had been mentioned as a likely candidate for a third term as governor, especially if former United States Senator Earle B. Mayfield should enter the race. Mayfield bitterly opposed Neff's reappointment to the Federal Mediation body.

NEFF NAMED AS SUCCESSOR C. E. GILMORE

AUSTIN, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Pat M. Neff of Waco, former Governor, today was named chairman of the State Railroad Commission to succeed Clarence E. Gilmore who died Thursday.

Neff is a former member of the United States Board of Railroad Mediation. He was appointed by President Coolidge for two terms, from January, 1921, to January, 1925. While the state's chief executive, he appointed Dan Moody, now Governor, as District Attorney.

Assume Duties Soon
Governor Moody, who announced the appointment, said Neff would assume his new duties as soon as practicable.

President Coolidge selected Neff for a second term on the Mediation Board, but the Senate had not confirmed the appointment when Neff died here. The case went to the former Governor O. B. Colquitt was chosen for the place by President Hoover.

Neff had been mentioned as a likely candidate for a third term as governor, especially if former United States Senator Earle B. Mayfield should enter the race. Mayfield bitterly opposed Neff's reappointment to the Federal Mediation body.

The elder Sanderson was shot with a 45 caliber pistol, the bullet piercing his breast. He had come to a meat market here.

The Parent Teachers Association members were honored at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club at the Southern Hotel Thursday noon, there being presidents and secretaries of many of Brownwood's associations present.

Mrs. A. E. Wilson, president of the combined P. T. A. organizations of the city, was honor guest, speaking in behalf of these clubs and expressing the gratification of the club members for the Kiwanis Club's work in its educational program, and for the fact that it took and got the cooperation of all the citizens of the city to put over such a program.

J. R. Staleup, principal of the High School, gave a talk on the development of the high school system and showed by statistics the growth of the institution from 1925 to the present. He said that Brownwood needs another high school.

"In 1925 there were enrolled in the high school," said Mr. Staleup, "383 pupils, and this year 488. After Christmas there will be 490 or sixty more to come in from the Junior High School, but they will not be allowed to enter because of lack of room."

"The present building was erected in 1912 to accommodate 400 students, and the time will soon arrive when the present building will only accommodate the tenth and eleventh grades."

Among the guests were the following P. T. A. officers: Mrs. E. J. Woodward, president, and Mrs. L. H. Taylor, secretary of the high school; P. T. A.; Mrs. G. W. Adams, president, and Miss Frances Cannon, secretary, Junior High School; Mrs. J. K. Wilkes, president, and Mrs. J. E. Stockton, secretary of the Coggins; Mrs. R. L. Farris, president, and Mrs. Hal Cherry, secretary, Southside school; Mrs. C. G. Lockwood, president, and Mrs. A. T. Bryce, secretary of the Ford; and Mrs. R. Q. Harris, president, and Mrs. W. M. Hooper, secretary of the Looey School P. T. A.

Other guests present included: Mr. and Mrs. Evans J. Adkins of Brady; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Trussell. The latter couple entertained with song.

UNITES ORCHESTRAS
ZURICH, Switzerland, Oct. 17.—A wireless invention has been developed by Dr. Erich Fisher, Swiss engineer, which will enable several orchestras in different countries to play simultaneously. A recent test with orchestras in London, Paris, Berlin and Milan proved successful.

R. B. Thompson, 1207 Victoria, has a curiosity in the way of a bean vine growing at his home. Of the many people who have inspected it, only two have been able to classify it, and these have said that it was a coffee bean, native of India. The vine is a remarkable grower, by actual check growing when it first came up an inch an hour.

The product of the vine is also an attention compeller, as there are a number of bean pods on the plant which measure from nine to eleven inches, which have grown to that size in as many days from the time the blooms dropped, according to Mr. Thompson. These pods are from one and a half to two and a half inches in width and half that in thickness. The beans are flat and broad, resembling a butterbean in shape. The seed from which this plant started were found by Mrs. Thompson in a room which she was checking out at the Southern Hotel last spring.

Curious Beans
Grow on Vine at Thompson Home

Only a small amount of rainfall was registered here late Monday afternoon and Monday night. Towns reporting god rains falling Monday night were Bangs, Comanche, Grosvenor, Indian Creek, Mercury, and Paint Rock.

Light showers fell at Brady, Binkley, Eden, Goldsmith, Maryland, Rising Star, San Saba, San Angelo and Winchell.

TEST CASE NECESSARY DECIDE BUYER'S GUILT SAYS MITCHELL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Attorney General Mitchell said today a determination of the liability to arrest of the purchaser of bootleg liquor could be obtained only through the arrest and conviction for actual purchase and then the carrying of the case to the Supreme Court.

He expressed belief no pending case would provide a proper test and that since the recently discussed Philadelphia case, in which the Court of Appeals held the buyer not liable, was based upon conspiracy to violate the law through buying it did not constitute a thorough test.

Carrying the case through the various courts to the highest tribunal, he pointed out, would take many months.

Mitchell refused to express an opinion on the question. He said he had turned the request of Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, for an inquiry to determine the purchaser's liability over to the prohibition division for investigation.

COLEMAN BOY IS ACQUITTED

COLEMAN, Oct. 17.—A jury late Wednesday returned a verdict not guilty in the case of D. F. Sanderson Jr., charged with murder in connection with the death of his father, D. F. Sanderson, on August 31, 1926. The case went to the jury at 11 o'clock Tuesday night following a two-day hearing.

In the previous trial of the case here, the youth was found guilty and assessed a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. The case was reversed by the higher courts, and returned here for a new hearing.

Young Sanderson testified he went to the aid of his mother, whom his father had attacked. The difficulty was the outgrowth of a suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Sanderson Sr., a few days previous to the shooting.

The elder Sanderson was shot with a 45 caliber pistol, the bullet piercing his breast. He had come to a meat market here.

LIQUOR RING'S ARSENAL TAKEN BY PRO AGENTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Foreign agencies, in England and Canada, were linked today by federal attorneys with the $1,000,000 rum smuggling syndicate whose fortified arsenal, radio station, and warehouses extending all the way from Highlands, N. J., to Atlantic City where simultaneously raised by federal agents and New Jersey state officers last night.

Both U. S. Attorney Charles H. Tuttle and Assistant U. S. Attorney Robert Watts referred to the syndicate as "an international ring, with agencies in England, Canada and elsewhere."

At the same time they revealed that the syndicate operated not only along the Jersey coast, but practically controlled all illegal importation of liquor from Maine to the Virginia Capes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A fortified arsenal, equipped with placements for its battery of machine guns and used as headquarters for a $1,000,000 rum smuggling syndicate, was in the hands of federal agents today after a surprise attack on the syndicate extending along the Atlantic coast from here to Atlantic City, New Jersey.

A mile from the armed base of operations at Highlands, New Jersey, the raiders captured a hidden radio station from which orders in code were sent to a fleet of liquor ships and speed boats operated by the syndicate.

A force of 130 special treasury agents, Deputy United States Marshals and New Jersey State Police, going into action simultaneously, made 32 raids, arrested 32 men and seized quantities of imported liquor.

Among those arrested were Emanuel (Mannie) Kessler and Morris Sweetwood, both of whom have served terms in the federal prison at Atlanta for large scale bootlegging operations.

The raids were based on secret indictments returned by a federal grand jury at Trenton, New Jersey. Although Kessler and Sweetwood were not named in the indictments, they were found in the home of one of the men named and taken into custody.

Preparations for the raids began six months ago, when an intercepted message was decoded. From that and other messages information was gleaned which led to the raids.

When the federal agents entered the station at 4:30 p. m. yesterday, the zero hours for the raids, they found Malcolm McMasters, the operator, at his key. He was arrested for operating an unlicensed station.

A federal operator familiar with the smuggler's code then began sending messages to the radio station. The raiders hoped to lure a rum ship off Montauk Point into a trap where a Coast Guard patrol boat lay in wait.

Business Houses
Showing Interest
In U. S. Army Band

Over twenty-five Brownwood institutions are backing the U. S. Army Band which plays here in two concerts, Saturday, November 2, by throwing together their resources in a double page spread of ads for three consecutive weeks in the Bulletin.

The coming of the band is being sponsored by the Lions Club, the Boy Scouts, the local American Legion post and other organizations, and the firms who are contributing to the pages of advertising, realize the greatness of the organization coming to give Brownwood a musical treat and are desirous of seeing the concerts put over in first class style.

Party For Rural Club Girls Given
Saturday Afternoon

A party was given the girls of the rural clubs of Brown County by Miss Maysie Malone at her home on Coggin Avenue Saturday afternoon.

The party, attended by about forty, was in honor of Miss Imogene DeHay of Indian Creek, who won signal honors at the A. & M. course this summer, winning a sewing machine for the dress she had made in a statewide contest.

Appointment of census enumerators for this district will be made April 1, 1930, following a series of competitive examinations, according to W. L. Turner, supervisor for the 14th district. This district includes thirteen counties, namely, Brown, Coleman, Runnels, Concho, McCulloch, Menard, Kimble, Mason, Llano, San Saba, Burnet, Tarrant and Mills.

Mr. Turner said today that persons desiring the appointment as enumerators should make applications to him, at Brownwood, or to the Supervisor of the Census at Washington. In due time a series of tests will be given, the papers being sent to Washington for grading, then referred to him and again forwarded to Washington with his recommendations. The examinations will be designed to determine the qualifications of the applicants for the specific task they are to do, Mr. Turner said.

Each of the thirteen counties in the district will be sub-divided into districts, and enumerators will be assigned to specific districts. Reimbursement will be based upon the number of names enrolled. Anyone desiring detailed information as to the census work may make application to Mr. Turner for it, at his office in this city.

LOBO RUNNING ATTACK DOWNS LIONS, 24 TO 7

Brownwood High School's Lions went down Saturday afternoon but without giving the smooth working and powerful Cisco Lobos a battle. Although Cisco won by a 24 to 7 count and displayed a marked superiority at the great game of football, the Lions never gave up and despite injuries, bruises and what not kept plugging away until the final whistle ended the hectic game. The inability of the Lions to stop the Lobo running attack that centered on off tackle brushes, proved the deciding factor in Saturday's game. With W. Miller, Chamberliss, Whitehead and Turknett carrying the ball on straight line plays, cross backs and occasional end runs, the Lobos were able to stage an incessant parade up and down the Howard Payne gridiron where the battle was decided. The Lobo running offense was the most powerful encountered by the Lions this season or else the Brownwood forward wall was experiencing an off day. And observers of the game were of the opinion that the Lobo attack was a bit more powerful and that the Lions' offense was not up to standard.

Lions Score Early

Brownwood scored in the first minute of play when the ball bounced out of a Cisco ball carrier's arms into the waiting arms of Stubbs. Lion guard. Add with no other business of equal importance to attend to Stubbs decided to try his hand at carrying the ball and this he did for 35 yards across the Lobo goal for the first touchdown of the game. Gilliam added the extra point with a perfect kick from placement. On the next kick-off Cisco again fumbled when Price McQueen tackled Whitehead. McQueen covered the ball on Cisco's 25 yard line and it began to look as if Brownwood might increase their seven point lead. But Cisco settled down and held the Lions for downs taking the ball on their own 29 yard line. Cisco tried two plays and failing to gain punt to Woodward, who made a good return of 24 yards to the Lobo 46 yard line. Failing to make the necessary yardage on three plays for a first down, McQueen punted to Turknett who was downed on the Cisco 19 yards line.

It was then that the Lobos found themselves and began a drive that was not stopped until W. Miller plunged the last yard for a touchdown. This parade down the field netted the Lobos six first downs, but the first was made possible by a five yard penalty against the Lions.

Although decisively beaten, the Lions gave the Lobo a great battle and the outcome of the game should not be a discredit to the youngsters representing Brownwood High School. They held Cisco better than El Paso or any other team the Lobos have met this season.

EXPECT REPORT FROM U. S. GOVERNMENT ON AIRPORT SITES

"I can see no reason why Brownwood should not have an airport with the available sites surrounding it," said W. J. MacKenzie, airport specialist of the Department of Commerce who visited five proposed sites within a radius of five miles of the center of Brownwood Friday.

None of the sites inspected have less than 160 acres, and all of them seemed fair ones. Two of them he commented on as being particularly fitting for this purpose.

Land was seen five miles north of the city, one plot four miles west, one three miles east, one bit of ground west of the country club and another one east of the country club.

He made the trip in company with Hillon Burks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Tom Scott, chairman of the airport committee of the Isham A. Smith Post of the American Legion, following luncheon with the Rotary Club at the Southern Hotel at noon. He took dinner at night with Mr. Burks.

Mr. MacKenzie is making a report of his findings of these fields with his department and a final report will come from the department to those interested here.

'BIG BERTHA' GREETED WORLD NOW FROM HOME OF E. P. WOODRUFF

"Big Bertha" has been moved again.

This captured German field piece that is the property of the Isham A. Smith Post of the American Legion, began a four of Brownwood last week and legionnaires of this city hope that it will "see its" travels are done, have resided in the front yard of every ex-service man in this city. And it becomes necessary to move this six inch cannon twice every week, Brownwood will think there is another war on the "Western Front."

Earlier in the week the gun was hauled from the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall to the residence of John Glover at 1805 Seventh Street. Although instructed to grease the wheels and lighten up the fellows, Mr. Glover was too busy attending to the needs of the Boy, the youngster that got the gun. In fact when the legion buddies called for the gun this morning, Mr. Glover was in the midst of laundering the young son's trousers.

To The Woodruff Home

But the gun had to be moved—for another Buddy, Pinkney Woodruff, had already announced to the world, "It's a Boy," and inasmuch as that is the soldier's requisite to get the gun, "Big Bertha" had to be moved and amidst appropriate ceremonies the 1915 vintage of German artillery was duly escorted to Judge Woodruff's home at 1707 Austin Avenue. And there it stands for a curious public to gaze upon and if one will find the signs: "It's a Boy," Pinkney Woodruff wins the gun."

Dutch Noack with his old reliable truck, Tex Worsham with his megaphone, Ed Henley, Jr., with a drum, Rex Gaitner, with his baggie, Buddies Ben Ludlow, Carl Odell, G. A. Gayney, E. Zno Ingram, Mark Callaway, B. M. Francis and Pinkney Woodruff, the guest of honor, Joe B. Pouns, of the Brownwood News, Hillon Burks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Tom Scott, chairman of the airport committee of the Isham A. Smith Post of the American Legion, following luncheon with the Rotary Club at the Southern Hotel at noon. He took dinner at night with Mr. Burks.

The parade formed at Mr. Glover's house and despite the distance, a trip through the business part of the city was made. Rex Gaitner favored with several tunes on his bugle. Before starting, the bugler inquired as to the appropriate time, some suggesting "Reveille," others saying it should be "Taps," and not knowing whether it was the beginning or the end, the bugler played both tunes. And while the bugler rested, Tex, the human frog horn, told the world what it was all about. And if there is any doubt about what it takes to get that gun, it might be said here that, "It Takes a Boy." Sorry, Buddies, but a girl will never get that gun.

Pinkney Woodruff says his Boy, the one and only son, is breaking into this fast age with ease, pointing out that the son had already seen a picture show and had been to the barber shop. By the time that boy is a week old, he should be running for district attorney.

And after the gun was properly located, to wait until another legionnaire can meet the proper requirements, the new Daddy, Mr. Woodruff, invited the boys to the Palace Drug and the treats were on Brownwood's newest papa.

TWO S'WEST CONFERENCE TILTS TO FEATURE WEEK IN FOOTBALL

BY GAYLE TALBOT, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

A pair of conference struggle and an inter-sectional bout between two old rivals dot the Southwest Conference football calendar for the current week.

The Texas Aggies meet Texas Christian University at Fort Worth. Baylor tackles the Arkansas University Razorbacks at Waco, and Texas University grapples with Oklahoma University at Dallas.

Indications are the prime spectacle will take place at Fort Worth, where the aggie and Horned Frog tie up in a portentous duel. Both are considered of championship timber. That one that emerges will qualify automatically as Baylor University's most dangerous rival for the conference crown.

Both elevens produced whirlwind offensive and staunch defenses in crushing their last preliminary opposition Saturday. The Aggies were impressive in their 19-0 triumph over the Kansas Aggies, despite the fact they were held even in first downs. First downs have come to mean little or nothing.

Texas Christian appears on the verge of making a determined bid for its first Southwest Conference title. In stopping Centenary College, 28 to 6, the Frogs proved themselves at least as powerful as Texas University which downed the Gents, 20 to 0, the previous week. Moreover, the purple eleven, which boasts one of the smartest quarter-backs in the conference in Howard Grubb, began scoring on Centenary in the first period, whereas Texas did not score on the same team until the last quarter.

The Baylor Bears open their drive for the title which most critics have conceded them against the Arkansas University Razorbacks at Waco. The green eleven, boasting a great array of talent, has ripped through four lesser teams without pausing to take a deep breath. Previous to Saturday, the Waco tilt promised to rival the fray at Fort Worth as the week's major attraction, but the Porkers' 27-to-0 loss to Texas in the conference opener at Fayetteville sent their stock mounting. Texas will supply the week's inter-sectional atmosphere in its clash with the Oklahoma Sooners at Dallas. The schools are no strangers on the gridiron, having met in many memorable battles when Oklahoma was a member of the Southwest group. There still is a keen rivalry.

Povar disclosed by the Orange in its victory over Arkansas took most of the conference by surprise. Although they did not count until the last quarter, the Longhorns had the upper hand all the way. It was a slaughter once Littlefield's backfield stars hit their stride.

The Rice Owls, winners over Southwestern University, 14 to 6, will loaf out the week, opening their conference program a fortnight hence. Southern Methodist will play its own Freshmen Friday.

Colts Band For First Time Appeals For Financial Aid

A sum of about $84 is needed to see that every member of the thirty boys of the Colts Band gets to the band contest at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas Saturday, according to Rex Gaitner, manager.

The band trip is $210, or seven dollars each, Mr. Gaitner said, and most of the boys are paying their own way, but there are a few of them who cannot.

Organized in November, 1928, this band, with Merle Baker as leader, has never before asked a cent from anybody. The boys paid for their own uniforms and their own instruments. Since they have been a unit they have played a total of twenty-one concerts, including those at Santa Anna, Zephyr, at the Brown County Fair and over the radio.

The contest at the fair is between bands in the State less than a year old, and the Colts Band just qualifies, and there are substantial prizes for the winners.

The manager thought there would be a group of people in Brownwood who would be interested in seeing the band compete in this state-wide contest, and individuals who would each pay one boy's expenses of seven dollars.

BILLIES SCORE TOUCHDOWN IN THIRD QUARTER
 BY ALLAN CARNEY
 Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor
 LUBBOCK, Texas, Oct. 14.—Slipping and sliding over a rain-soaked gridiron, the Hill Billies from Green had kicked out six points on Saturday afternoon and the T. I. A. A. eleven upset all advance dope by winning the decision, 6 to 2.
 With their running attack demoralized by the glass-like field the Bull Fighters slackened momentarily at the beginning of the second half and the Goats passed over the goal line for the lone touchdown of the game. The Tech forces registered their two points in the final stanza after Green had kicked out six points on Daniel Baker's 1-foot line. Standing behind his own goal line, Graham of Daniel Baker fell prone on the oval and was covered by a mass of Tech tacklers, giving the Matadors a safety.
Teams Are Helpless
 A crowd estimated at 2,700 braved the cold drizzle that was falling on Saturday afternoon to see the two football teams founder helplessly on the slippery field. Despite the fact that the Hill Billies scored their touchdown through the air, the clubs found it equally as difficult to gain through their passing vehicle. Passers and receivers alike were unable to hold the mud-smeared pigskin. The heavens were wild and when a pass did find its goal, it usually slipped to the ground.
 With the mud holding them back and their loutish running assault far from standard, Tech's eleven failed to show anything that might be called impressive in their downfall. Daniel Baker grabbed its only chance to score and catching the Matadors secondary defense off guard, put across the touchdown. The Bull Fighters stopped cold practically every running play that was attempted by the Hill Billies, but made their fatal mistake when Johnson was left wide open beyond the Tech goal line to receive the 15-yard heave from Hunter.
 Tech opened up in the first quarter with its running game functioning nicely, scoring a first down within the first few minutes of play. Clarence Hodges, Matador fullback, carried the ball for 15 yards, but the Scarlet-clad crew, but the march was halted and Brothers was forced to kick. Tech gained 20 yards on the exchange, and the march was resumed and after the locals reached the enemy's 25 yard line, Brothers attempted a field goal which was blocked, the Billies recovering.
 After the Goats had kicked out again, the Matadors again advanced to within scoring distance, and again a field goal was attempted. This time Dewitt gave his educated toe a change, but the boot was wild, Daniel Baker getting the ball on their own 20-yard line. When Hunter attempted to kick out of danger this time, Durham and Whitesides crashed through and downed him on his own 20-yard line. The next kick went out and Green returned to the

 C. T. Satterwhite, a well known pumpman for the Gulf Refining Co. and residing on road route 1, Caddo, Texas, recently made the following remarkable statement regarding his experience with Orgatone:
 "It didn't take many doses of Orgatone to satisfy me that I had found the right medicine for my case at last. For six months I had been in a general run-down condition from indigestion and gas forming on my stomach. I had no appetite or energy and nothing I would eat seemed to agree with me. I was nervous and my heart finally started affecting my heart and it really was almost impossible for me to take interest in anything."
 "I have now taken two bottles of Orgatone and my improvement is remarkable. My strength and energy has returned. I eat like a farm hand and feel fine all the time. My heart does not bother me anymore and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. Orgatone is the greatest medicine I have ever come into contact with."
 Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Brownwood, at the Camp-Bell and Peerless Drug Stores. (adv.)

Brown County At The Fair

BROWN COUNTY has formed the habit of winning prizes at the State Fair at Dallas, and this year was again among the cash prize winners, according to information reaching this city from Farm Agent O. P. Griffin, who is in Dallas with this county's exhibit. This county was graded first in the third group of bounties, and a prize of $125 was awarded its exhibit.

This is very gratifying, especially in view of the fact that a long drought during the summer season materially handicapped the efforts of Brown county farmers and gardeners to prepare creditable products for competitive exhibition. It is also gratifying to note that Hempfield county, still farther out in West Texas, was the first prize winner in the first division, with Eastland county, our neighbors to the north, in second place and Garza, just under the crock of the Plains, in third place. West Texas counties send their products into competition with what heretofore have been recognized as the best agricultural counties in Texas, and their success is a matter of pride for all West Texas people, especially in view of the fact that the general average of all the county exhibits was unusually high this year.

Brown county is as good an agricultural county as there is in Texas, although its tillable acreage is comparatively small. Diversification, which has been practiced here for twenty years or more, gives this county a wide variety of field and garden products for exhibition purposes, and enables the farmers of this county to keep something moving toward the markets every day in the year. That is the reason new people are constantly moving here, and very few are moving away. Production is as safe here, year after year, as anywhere else in the whole state.

Political Farm Relief

ABOUT the only kind of relief the farmers have gotten from the Republican administration is political. That is to say, relief has been promised by the party in power. There hasn't been any change in the price of cotton, except downward; there hasn't been any change in the methods of crop reporting, except a 300,000 bale error in the estimate that cut a big slice off the price. Some of the farmers are growing sarcastic as they think of such a situation. One of them, Mr. T. E. Tucker, living at Fairlie, Texas, wrote the Dallas News about it as follows:

"There are three classes of men that more or less get my goat. One is a man that is always bragging on himself, another is a man who reads off his speech and the other is a Hoover Democrat that complains of hard times. If I had come as much to elect the present administration as Senator Heiflin of Alabama, I'll be damned if I wouldn't help 'em to carry out Mr. Coolidge's policies. The very policies that will make one President famous will make a one-term President of another."

There was a great hullabaloo last year about prosperity and farm relief and a lot of matters like that, and a great many of us were led to believe that the prosperity of the country depended upon the re-election of a Republican administration in Washington. As a matter of fact, times have been getting harder ever since Mr. Hoover was inaugurated, and it is not Mr. Hoover's fault. If Mr. Smith, or anyone else had been elected, cotton would be selling for the same price today that it is now able to command on the market, and general business conditions would be exactly as they now are all over the country.

Prosperity, or the lack of it, is not political. Nor is farm relief. It is a matter of economics, and neither of the great political parties has a corner on brains and ability to deal with economic matters. If any real relief comes to the farmers of the country under the legislation enacted a few months ago it will be because the farmers themselves get together and look after their own interests. The greatest service the federal government can give the farmers is to keep its machinery from blocking the efforts of the farmers as they attend to their own business.

How to Raise Poultry

By Dr. L. D. LeGear, V. S., St. Louis, Mo.

Dr. LeGear is a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College, 1892. Thirty-six years of Veterinary practice on diseases of live stock and poultry. Eminent authority on poultry and stock raising. Nationally known poultry breeder. Noted author and popular lecturer.

A well known, high ranking church official of high days is credited with having said, "Give me the child until he is six years old, and I don't care who has him after that." In other words, this famous prelate believed that any influence exerted on a child during the tender formative years was much more important than anything which might come later. Much the same principle may be applied to chicken raising with good results. The hen is too greatly natural brooding with hens is the easiest and simplest way when comparatively few chickens are to be raised, as on many farms and with practically all of the so-called "back yard flocks." This method relieves you to some extent of the constant watchfulness necessary with artificially raised chicks. Then hen takes much of the burden off your shoulders by protecting, teaching, and exercising the chicks.

If you select this plan, the time to start is when the first chicks are out of the shell. Visit the nests frequently and remove broken shells so that they will not slip over the ends of eggs and smother unhatched chicks. Watch the hens carefully. Some hens have a tendency to desert the nest as soon as one chick has hatched. Either confine such a hen to the nest until the hatch is completed, or transfer her to a broody coop, putting the eggs and chicks under some other hen.

Watch also for nervousness, restlessness, and shift about a great deal. They often crush the newly born chicks as fast as they hatch.

Once the hatch is completed, the next step is to transfer hen and chicks to appropriate brooding quarters. These, of course, will have to be prepared in advance. Such quarters usually consist of a good weather-tight coop that is free from draughts. One side of the coop is partly open as a rule, to provide sufficient ventilation and to let the chicks run in and out at will, when the weather will permit. On this side there should be a runway or small yard so the chicks can get out on the ground for the needed exercise.

Coops should be thoroughly cleaned, disinfected and aired for several days before chicks are placed in them. Under no circumstances feed the hen cracked grains. She should be fed whole corn as the chicks may eat small particles with serious or even fatal results. Carry

The Brownwood Kiwanis Club of which Professor O. E. Winebrenner, head of the Science Department of Howard Payne College, is president, brought one of their objectives to a climax Wednesday by presenting awards to last year's winners in forensic activities of the Brownwood High School. Last year the Kiwanis Club voted as one of their objectives the promoting of the forensic activities in the local high school.

Wednesday morning Professor Winebrenner and other Kiwanians presented sweaters to the following winners: in debate, Robert Henry, Orville Walker, Norma Keeler and Willie Faye McElroy; in extemporaneous speaking, Charles Moore; in oratory, Margaret Damon, and in declamation, Lavern Walker and Ben Arvin.

PRESBYTERY SESSION CUMBERLAND CHURCH WAS HELD RECENTLY

The following report of the semi-annual meeting of Brownwood Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church is sent to the Banner-Bulletin by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Haddon, of Blanket who attended the meeting.

This is an account of a trip we made to Brownwood Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in session with Rick Shoals congregation, San Saba county, Texas. It met Friday night, and closed Sunday about 12 o'clock, Oct. 6.

At Brownwood we met Rev. and Mrs. J. W. West of Santa Anna, who gave us and to Rev. W. H. White the privilege of going with them in their car, to the Presbytery. Bro. White is one of the veteran ministers of the Presbytery, being now nearly 85 years old. He is greatly beloved. Rev. West preached Friday night and the Saturday morning preaching hour was occupied by Brother J. M. Watkins of Post who joined the Presbytery as a candidate. Most of Saturday was occupied with committee reports. Perhaps the most important recommendation was that providing for a Presbyterial Board of Missions of three members. The Saturday evening hour was given over to the Missionary ladies who rendered a program and read from those present an offering of $19.63 for the Woman's Board of Missions of our church.

Sunday at the eleven o'clock hour Rev. J. W. West preached again, using as a text part of 1st Kings 10:7. "The Half was not sold" following this was the Presbyterial communion, administered by Revs. W. H. White and A. J. Mann, assisted by Elders B. H. Fowler and C. L. Haddon. Although Presbytery was over, an interesting service by children and young people was held Sunday afternoon. The noonday lunch Sunday was near the beautiful San Saba river with springs, falls and other spots of natural beauty not far away. "Following the young people's service the larger number of the members of the Presbytery and of the visitors drove to their homes, a few remaining for the protracted meeting to begin that night. The next meeting will be at Blanket Friday night before the second Sunday in March.

BOY SCOUT EXHIBIT TO BE SHOWN DURING FAIR AT BEAUMONT

The archery and Indian exhibits of the local Boy Scout organization will be shown at Beaumont during the annual South Texas Fair, November 11 to 18, it was announced today by Jack Brunberg, executive for this area of the Scout Council.

Mr. Brunberg is in receipt of a letter from W. E. S. Dickerson, executive manager for Luth Stark's Boys, Inc., a Scout organization at Orange which has been endowed by Mr. Stark, in which an urgent request for the loan of the exhibit is made. Mr. Dickerson was in Brownwood during the county fair here in August and carefully examined the archery and Indian exhibit of the local Scouts, and writes that he and his organization are very anxious to show at Beaumont, to supplement exhibits from Scout organizations in that territory.

The archery and Indian exhibit was one of the most interesting exhibits at the Brown County Fair in August, and will be shipped to Mr. Dickerson during the next few days. British Malaya, the world's largest source of tin, supplied 57 per cent of the 1928 output despite ancient methods of mining.

NEW HOTEL IS PROJECTED ON BAKER STREET

A 150 room hotel project at Baker and Brown streets was endorsed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their luncheon Monday noon in the Southern Hotel.

Following the endorsement of the hotel by the industrial committee, headed by Joe F. Renfro, the thirteen directors present, unanimously endorsed the plans of W. C. Hedrick of Fort Worth, for a modern hotel to be constructed on the corner of Baker and Brown streets on the corner where the K of P. building now stands.

Mr. Hedrick, who heads a firm of architects and builders, plans an eight or nine story structure modern and fireproof in every particular, in size about 80 by 140 feet. He not only plans to build it, but to furnish it as well, putting into the project an amount equal to that to be raised in Brownwood.

Asks $100,000 He asks of Brownwood a sum of $100,000, this to be protected by second mortgage six percent bonds, the interest of which is guaranteed. He stated in his letter, which gave the directors his proposition, that he would get a loan of not more than $200,000, and that the balance necessary he would furnish.

In discussing the matter, the directors said that the site would cost about $90,000; the hotel building about $350,000; and the furnishings about $75,000, over half a million dollar investment in total.

The preliminary drawing of the proposed hotel was shown a committee last week. The structure is of plain architecture and is somewhat on the order, members of the committee said, to the Stephen F. Austin Hotel recently built at Austin.

Each room is to have a bath, a ceiling fan and ice water will be piped to it. A large coffee shop and dining or ball room is planned for the first floor.

A suggestion that Brownwood might be made a health center with the properties of the water from Hot Wells used, and piped to this hotel, was made in the course of the discussion.

Harry Knox, a director and a member of the industrial committee, said that his committee liked this plan of a hotel best of all the others because, the builder was willing to put a good sum into the project along with the city; and also because the second mortgage bonds seemed the best method of financing as against the stock and bonuses of other propositions.

BRUNBERG APPOINTED SPECIAL EXAMINER IN LIFE SAVING SERVICE

Scout Executive Jack Brunberg, who is also the chairman of first aid in life saving, Brown County Chapter, American Red Cross, has been notified that he has been appointed a special examiner in the life saving service of that organization.

"We are going to organize a junior life saving corps within the ranks of the Boy Scouts this winter," said Mr. Brunberg. "Regular meetings and drills will be held throughout the winter so that the Scouts, who have qualified as either junior or senior life savers, will be thoroughly acquainted with all their duties before the summer swimming season opens. This life saving corps will be used for the purpose of instructing swimmers and patrolling the swimming holes at the summer camp of the Boy Scouts. Only such Scouts as have passed the A. R. C. life saving tests and hold a certificate from the A. R. C. will be eligible to this corps."

Wants People to Know Provisions of City Plan Report

"The People of Brownwood should be given a chance to read the city plan engineer's report and to study it before any action is taken by the city council in passing any of its provisions," said John L. Starke in a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the weekly luncheon in the Southern Hotel Monday noon.

Acting on this suggestion the directors voted to ask the council to publish the entire report including the proposed ordinances. Hilton Burks, secretary, read a wire from O. L. Bodenhamer, recently elected national head of the American Legion, in answer to the Chamber's invitation to speak here November 11, in which he stated that he could give a definite answer by October 15.

Mr. Burks will attend a commercial secretary's meeting at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas next Saturday.

He reported on the inspection made by a Department of Commerce man last week of available airport sites. Restrictions as to passage through the Klyber pass apply both to men and women. The pass is open only on certain days of the week and at certain designated hours. It is the main strategic point of entry into India from Afghanistan and its theaters, carefully guarded.

TREMENDOUS CROWD HEARS GRAY SPEAK OF SEA OF GALILEE

The First Presbyterian Church was filled to capacity Sunday evening when the pastor, Rev. W. B. Gray, D. D., delivered the third of a series of lecture-sermons on the holy lands. The theme Sunday night was "The Sea of Galilee," and the address was illustrated by a number of stereopticon slides, the pictures for which were made by Dr. Gray during his recent tour of Palestine.

The fourth lecture in the series will be given next Sunday evening, with "The Holy City and Calvary" as the theme.

The Sea of Galilee, which figures so largely in the gospel record of the lives of the Lord Jesus Christ on earth, is a beautiful body of fresh water, 630 feet below sea level and not far distant from the snow-capped Mount Hebron. Dr. Gray said Sunday night in his discourse. It is a particularly interesting place for the Bible student, because it was along its shores that Christ lived and taught, feeding the five thousand, quieting the storm, increasing the draft of fishes and performing many other miracles. It was Dr. Gray's privilege to go fishing in the big lake early one morning, at a spot which is believed to have been the place where Jesus prepared breakfast for some of his weary followers early one morning and where he gave Peter the great commission, "Feed my sheep."

Other scenes shown Sunday night included a picture of the much-discussed "wailing wall," and scenes at other places of interest in Jerusalem.
