Mrs. Ben Roewe, 59 Muenster Native, Dies in Sherman

Did you ever happen to think what the local fire department means to you? If you have had a fire in your house the chances are that you have been lavish with praise and appreciation. And still you do not feel that your words were quite adequate. The value of a saved life, or even of treasured possessions, cannot be measured in money or expressed in words.

But there is another and less important value which can be measured. That is the mere presence of the firemen. Even though the fellows should never be called to fight a fire of yours they are your benefactors in a big way. You save a nice sized chunk of money every year just because your town has a fire department.

That fact was brought home to us last week when we received word that residents of Muenster would continue receiving 25 per cent credit for the city's low record of fire losses. Good and efficient work by the firemen has earned an actual saving of 25 cents for every 75 cents we are now paying. And that only begins to count up the benefits.

First of all the insurance key rate applying to a city is affected by its and the fire department's facilities. Our rate is 51 cents whereas it would probably be about $1.00 if we had no protection.

Now let's consider possible differences in loss ratings. With good protection we have a good rate of credit. Poorer protection would earn less credit, and no protection would probably have us in the penalty bracket. Some years ago we were paying a penalty of 20 per cent.

Figure in both of those factors to estimate what the fire department is worth to us in dollars and cents. Our key rate might possibly be almost twice as high, and a maximum penalty instead of our present maximum credit could give the cost another big boost. We could be paying three times as much for our fire insurance. The figures leave little doubt that firemen are our financial benefactors, and in a big way, even when they are not busy saving lives and property.

While giving credit in this respect we could also remember the fellows who voted to make this an incorporated city. They set up the means for providing water supply, adequate pressure and adequate equipment. And now our savings on fire insurance premiums are going a long way toward paying our city taxes.

It seems that the Senate investigation of misconduct in the Teamsters Union has already had some effect. The state legislature of Indiana has passed a "Right to Work" law, joining seventeen other states that are now operating on the principle that a person cannot rightfully be required to be a union member to hold his job.

The mess in the Pacific Northwest presents a pretty shabby picture of what can develop when rank and file union members are forced to pay tribute for the privilege of holding their jobs. The little fellows are helpless when goons and racketeers take over. They can't do anything about getting the organization back in line. They can't quit paying their dues.

This scandal of using members' money to buy power or illicit income is only one of the problems faced by union members. Another abuse often and loudly deplored is the use of union funds in political campaigns. Too often the member sees his share of the local's contribution going to the support of the candidate he opposes.

No doubt the current senate investigation will help eliminate much of the corruption, but that alone is not enough. The only real solution is to make the unions entirely dependent upon merit. As long as members are helpless the goons can hold control. But once a man can drop out without losing his job the goon's power begins to decline. This incident will help to convince lots of states that union membership should be strictly voluntary . . . for the sake of the member and for the sake of the union itself.

Our friend Editor Peters of Nocon brings up an interesting problem in relation to the new license plates. Will there be more or fewer arrests for traffic violations? (Continued on Page 10)

4 Are Unopposed on City Election Ballot

The passing of the deadline for filing for the city election again sets up a simple ballot of one unopposed candidate for each of the offices. City Secretary Anthony Luke said this week that no one has filed to oppose the four incumbents who are seeking re-election.

Candidates to be listed on the city ballot are Urban Endres for mayor and J. A. Fisher, Rudy Hellman and Herbert Meurer for the three alderman positions.

City Council members with unexpired terms are Jimmy Lehnertz and M. D. Kaderli.

Services Held for Alphonse Fleitman

Funeral services with requiem high mass were conducted at Sacred Heart church Friday at 9:30 a.m. for Alphonse Fleitman, 43, who died suddenly the preceding Wednesday in a Dallas hospital about eight hours after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage at his home in the Spring Creek community.

Rev. Anthony Gajda, pastor of St. John's church in Valley View, officiated and Rev. Elias Koppert, Franciscan from Chicago here for his annual conference with members of the Third Order, delivered the funeral sermon. Burial in Sacred Heart cemetery was directed by Nick Miller Funeral Home.

Nephews were bearers: Wilfred Bindel, Eddie Fleitman, Rupert Hoenig, Henry Fleitman, Walter Hermes and William Flusche.

Two rosary services were held at the funeral home Thursday at 4:30 and at 8 p.m.

Alphonse Fleitman was born in Muenster Sept. 26, 1913, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fleitman. He attended the local school and was married to Miss Zita Flusche of Lindsay Oct. 24, 1939. ## Local Lions Hear Linda Jo Head and Highway Patrolman

Three representatives of the Linda Jo shoe factories of Gainesville and Denton and a member of the Texas Highway Patrol were special guests of the Muenster Lions at their meeting Tuesday.

Jack Silven, president of the Linda Jo Company and Charles Carr and Henry Curtis, plant superintendents, were here in response to an invitation from Mayor Urban Endres to "come and visit the community which is furnishing some of Linda Jo's best employees."

Silven talked briefly on the plant's history, crediting its growth to pleasant employee relationships and the firm's reputation for dependability. He said it has grown from its original 75 employees to 650 employees. The present sales volume is about $5 million a year.

Patrolman Everett Scott was in Muenster to give exams to driver training students on the classroom phase of their course. Students who pass that exam are eligible for a permit to learn to drive which is needed for the behind-the-wheel part of the course.

Patrolman Scott talked about the need for more patrolmen in the state. The number now on duty is 700 and authorization is expected for 200 more. If those are added Cooke County will probably get another patrol car, he said.

He also mentioned that the department of Public Safety is accepting applications now to the patrolmen's training school.

Service to Rosston Is Next Expansion Of Phone Company

An extension to Rosston is the next expansion project for the Muenster Telephone Company. The firm's outside crew is busy now, when not on its regular maintenance, securing easements and staking for the lines. Construction will begin as soon as the current job is finished.

The extension is expected to add more than 40 phones to the system. About 30 connections are planned immediately in the community and a few will be connected along the way. Besides there are possibilities of more phones later.

First requests for the telephone service were received here several years ago. The lines are expected to be ready in about six months.

Opening Events of District Meet Set For This Weekend

Interscholastic League activity for Muenster students will begin this weekend as both the high school and grades enter boys and girls in a district volleyball tournament. Preliminaries are set for Thursday and play offs for Friday and next Tuesday.

Other dates announced for Interscholastic League events are as follows: Friday, March 8, playground ball at Sanger. Thursday, March 14, Declamation at Sanger. Friday, March 15, other literary events at Sanger. Tuesday, March 19, one act play at Saint Jo. Friday, March 22 track and field meet at NTS, Denton. Dates for tennis have not been received here.

The volleyball tournament starting Thursday is different this year. Schools matched in the preliminaries will use their respective gyms, and winners of those games will arrange among themselves for semifinals the next day, then again, the winners will arrange for the final's next Tuesday.

Muenster's preliminary opponent is Saint Jo. So local elementary kids will go there while Saint Jo high school teams come here.

Muenster will enter all events of the meet except high school playground ball.

Diocesan Unit of NCCM Will Meet in Ft. Worth Sunday

Father Louis Deuster and several members of the Sacred Heart Parish will be in Fort Worth next Sunday attending a two hour workshop of the Dallas-Fort Worth Council of Catholic Men. The event will be held between 1:30 and 3:30 in the Texas Hotel.

Father Louis will be workshop moderator and J. R. Parker of Fort Worth will be chairman. Other leaders of the meeting are Henry Nigrelli of Dallas, Walter Piper of Fort Worth, Joe Walter of Gainesville and W. G. Langford of Abilene. All are chairmen in their respective deanery committees.

The purpose of the committee is to encourage a constantly improving moral level in programs and articles offered through the several mediums of communication. The committee seeks to encourage what is commendable and to discourage what is objectionable in radio, TV, movies and the press.

The Dallas-Fort Worth Council of Catholic Men operates on the diocesan level and is affiliated with the National Council of Catholic Men.

Hornets Will Play 5 Baseball Games

Muenster High School is back in district baseball competition this year. They are practicing nowadays, as often as weather permits for their quickie schedule consisting of five district games to be played at the rate of one a week.

Superintendent Lassiter of Callisburg is the district baseball director and will draw up the schedule of games. Schools entered are Muenster, Saint Jo, Era, Valley View, Callisburg and Sanger. Alvord, the other district member in football and basketball, will not have a baseball team.

By mutual consent the district members are playing only one game a week instead of the customary two games.

April 6 Is Date For School Election

Members of the Muenster school board Tuesday night completed the formalities of officially ordering the annual trustee election on the first Saturday of April. The election will name two members in the positions now held by B. J. Sicking and J. J. Wimmer.

Up to now neither of the two has announced whether he intends to seek re-election, nor has any other person announced his candidacy. The deadline for announcing is Wednesday, March 27, ten days before the election. A name submitted after then is not eligible for listing on the ballot.

4-Member Hornet Team is Second in County Track Meet

A small but mighty team of Muenster High trackmen made a big impression in their first appearance last Friday, racking up a strong second place in the county's annual Class B track meet in Gainesville. Valley View took the meet with 54½ points, Muenster had 39½ and Callisburg had 33. Era had no entries in the meet.

Three of the four Muenster entries won six of the meet's 13 first places, Richey taking individual honors with three first places, two seconds, and a third place. Wolf won two first places and Hamric one. They took first in all running events except the hurdles and relays.

Sorely missed in the relays was Dee Kaderli, a regular member of the quartet who was not present for the meet. Freshman Johnny Hosea, who replaced him in the events, was light for the job. Kaderli is also a high jumper.

Events in which the Muenster boys earned their points were as follows:

- 100 yard dash: Wolf first, Richey tie for second
- 440 yard dash: Richey first
- 880 yard run: Hamric first
- 220 yard dash: Richey first
- 1 mile run: Wolf first
- Discus: Richey first
- High Jump: Richey third
- Shotput: Richey second

Valley View's advantage in the meet was in numbers. There were plenty of fellows to take second and third places along with first places in the two hurdles events, the high jump and the shot put. Callisburg won the relays, the pole vault and a few second and third places.

Next action for the Hornet trackmen will be Saturday at the Possum Kingdom Relays in Graham. On March 22 they will be in the Interscholastic League district meet in Denton and a week later they will be in the Cowtown Relays at Fort Worth. Winners in the District Meet will be eligible for the Interscholastic League Regional Meet in April.

VFW Auxiliary Has Election of Officers

Mrs. L. J. Roberg, as president, heads the list of officers for the Muenster VFW Auxiliary for the coming year. She was favored in the annual election at the organization's meeting Monday night. Mrs. Roberg had served as senior vice president for the past four years.

Others elected to serve with her are Mrs. Richard Grewing, senior vice president; Mrs. Ray Swirczynski, junior vice president; Mrs. Lou Wolf, chaplain; Mrs. J. B. Golden, conductress; Mrs. Richard Swirczynski, guard; Mrs. Hank Walterscheid, three-year trustee; and Mrs. Steve Moser, treasurer by re-election.

Appointive offices will be filled before the next meeting in April when formal installation will take place.

Honor roll requirements for the month were approved. These were contributions from the Auxiliary's treasury to the VFW National Home's Health and Happiness Fund and to the Memorial Arch Fund for the new Department Headquarters building in Austin.

Mrs. Emil Rohmer was accepted as a candidate for membership and it was announced that the final figure in the March of Dimes campaign here was $250.10. That amount has been forwarded to the county chairman of the polio fund.

Mrs. Richard Grewing, retiring president, conducted the business session and served as hostess for refreshments after adjournment.

John Kreitz Dies Suddenly Monday After Short Illness

John Kreitz, 73, a resident of the community for 52 years, died at his home Monday morning at 10:15 following an illness of about six hours.

The end came shortly after he said that he was feeling better and apparently was recovering from strains of the previous hours. About 4 a.m. he drove the 5 miles to town to get relief from his cold. He declined to stay in the hospital but found later that he could not complete his drive home. He stopped and a milk truck driver helped him the rest of the way. After resting a while he drove to a neighbor, Herman Luttmr, to ask for help with the morning chores, and again he needed help to get home. A few hours later, while resting comfortably, and seemingly in no danger he died suddenly. With him were his three sisters. His out of town sisters, Mrs. John Sontag of Denton and Mrs. Bill Seyler of Valley View had been notified by Luttmr.

Rosary services for Mr. Kreitz were held Tuesday at 4 and 8 p.m. in the Miller Funeral home.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 9:30 in Sacred Heart church with Father Louis Deuster as celebrant of the requiem mass. Burial services in Sacred Heart cemetery, under direction of Nick Miller, were also conducted by Father Louis. Bearers were Henry and Ferd Luttmr, Louis Sicking, Paul Endres, Herbert Meurer and J. R. Danglmayr.

John Kreitz was born at Bastrop on May 26, 1883, a son of (Continued on Page 10)

Moisture for 1957 Measures 5 Inches

An even 5 inches of moisture has fallen in Muenster as of 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The reading on the city's rain gauge at that hour shows .10 bringing the moisture for March to .78. Totals recorded for January and February are 1.43 and 2.79.

The combined result of these 5 inches, along with about 7.5 inches the last quarter of '56 is an excellent surface moisture even though the subsoil moisture is still not up to par.

However the community finds itself with a new worry, even before the drought has been completely overcome. The ground is too wet for tillage and planting time is just around the corner. The same applies to garden planting. Some is past due, some due soon, and much of the ground still isn't ready.

Lions to Sponsor Crippled Children At Kerrville Camp

Members of the Muenster Lions club are offering again to sponsor local children at a two weeks encampment at the Lions Crippled Children's camp near Kerrville. The camp is supported by Lions Clubs of Texas and admission must be arranged through a local Lions club. Guests from here attending the camp last summer were Dennis Koessler and Margaret Knabe.

Special guests were Father Christopher and Father Patrick. The group presented the honoree a cash gift and after the meal played cards and dominoes.

Mrs. Edd McGannon returned Monday from Clarks, La., where she spent the weekend with her son Eddie, a student at St. Mary's School.

Fashion Authority To Present Program

Girls and women of Muenster and surrounding area have a general invitation to attend a fashion show and lecture next Wednesday, March 13, in Muenster High School Auditorium. The program is to be presented by Mrs. Bess Rothman, fashion consultant for Volk's in Dallas, and is open to the public without admission charge.

Mrs. Rothman's visit here is arranged by the local chapter of Future Homemakers of America, and the girls and their instructor, Mrs. H. H. Homsley, invite a full attendance.

An authority nationally famous in her field, Mrs. Rothman talks about and demonstrates fashions, poise, how to apply make-up, discusses skin care, consumer buying and related subjects.

The sponsoring group has sent invitations to area FHA chapters and their mothers, and already 50 from Saint Jo and about 30 each from Alvord and Era have sent word they will be here.

It is pointed out that a special invitation is not necessary — that everybody is welcome and is urged to attend.

FHA girls will be hostesses at a tea in the homemaking department immediately after the lecture. Registrations will begin at 12:30 and Mrs. Rothman's program will begin at 1. It will be delightfully informal, spiced with humor, and those attending can expect a lot of fun.

St. Francis Third Order Ends Triduum

The local fraternities of the Third Order of Saint Francis received their yearly visit from the commissary provincial, Rev. Elias, Koppert, O.F.M. of Chicago during the past week.

Sacred Heart fraternity had its annual triduum to which members of the Lindsay and Gainesville organizations were invited. For his conferences Father Elias chose the following subjects: Purpose of the Three Days' Retreat, Examination of Conscience, The Tertiary's Attitude to the Blessed Eucharist, Promoting Works of Piety (Chapter II of the Rule), Worship of God, and The Tertiary's Attitude Toward Work.

Excellent attendance marked the services. About 65 attended throughout the triduum here. A social hour with refreshments followed the final meeting last Thursday. Mass and sermon was held each morning at 8:15 and the second daily conference was held at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Before the triduum began here, Father Elias and local members went to Gainesville for a visit and services with the St. Mary's fraternity. Thirty-five members were present. On Friday Muenster members accompanied Father Elias to Lindsay for a conference with 18 tertiaries there.

This was Father Elias' fifth visit in Sacred Heart parish. His territory extends throughout the Middle West with 155 fraternities and some 16,000 tertiaries to visit.

Forty Members Join St. Anne's Society In Sunday Service

Forty new members were received in Saint Anne's Society Sunday afternoon during a formal candle-light ceremony in Sacred Heart church. Rev. Patrick Hannon, spiritual director of the organization, conducted the impressive rites and presented membership medals to the candidates.

This is the largest single enrollment of new members in the society's 66 year history and pushed total membership well past the 200 mark.

Joining the candidates at the reception ceremony and prayer service, and later at a short business meeting in the grade school auditorium were 64 members for a total attendance of 104.

Mrs. Victor Hartman, president, conducted the meeting and welcomed new members. Father Patrick continued his series of short sermons on Vice and Virtue and listed next month's subject as "Virtue in Marriage."

Announcement was made of a special high mass for 50-year members to be held March 25, and it was decided to have a 4 o'clock rosary service at the Miller Funeral Home every time there is a local death.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger, newly appointed society organist, played the hymn, "Our Lady of Good Council," then sang it as a solo. The membership plans to learn the song and make it a feature of every meeting.

Mrs. Herbert McDaniel won the attendance award, a miniature shrine of Saint Joseph to whom the month of March is dedicated.

After the meeting several members returned to church for the pre-natal blessing given by Father Patrick.

THE "WORKERS' PARADISE"

Peter F. Hurst, president of Aeroquip Corporation, Jackson, Michigan, recently returned from a visit inside Russia. He reports his observations in his company's employees' magazine, The Flying A. Facts in his report should be brought to the attention of every employee in America. Communism, as well as Socialism, claims to be "The Workers' Party." It directs most of its propaganda in America toward the wage earners, trying to undermine their confidence in the American system, describing Russia as "The Workers' Paradise" and boasting that under the Socialist-Communist system the wage earners live better and are their own "bosses." Mr. Hurst, a keen observer, didn't find it so. He visited a number of factories in Russia, escorted by guides from Intourist, the Russian travel agency operated by the government. "I presume they showed us the best," he observes. And yet, in most cases, what he saw was production machinery, industrial techniques and working conditions far inferior to America's. And the Russian factory, he reports, "gives the impression of what we used to call 'a sweat shop.'" He talked to the factory "director" in many plants, probing into the questions of wages, employee advancement, etc.

Wages Low

Although he could see on all sides evidence of the shabby living standards of employees working in this Socialist-Communist "paradise," Mr. Hurst's careful studies on the scene in Russia permitted him to document their true plight. "Let us analyze the situation," he suggests in his report. "An average 'well paid' factory worker gets about 800 rubles a month for working six days a week . . . or about 198 hours each month.

"Income taxes and union dues take about 10 percent. The worker subscribes 'voluntarily' to some government bonds equal to about 8 per cent of his pay . . . He has left about 650 rubles to spend. At the 'official' rate of exchange that is about 162 U.S. dollars. Now, let us see what he can buy with this amount.

Necessities High

"A pair of poor quality men's shoes . . . 400 rubles of $100.

"One pair of poor quality women's shoes . . . 250 rubles or $62.

"Or he could buy one bicycle for 650 rubles, his monthly 'take home' pay."

Here are some other items jotted down by Mr. Hurst:

"Men's suits . . . 1000 to 1500 rubles or $250 to $375.

"One yard of rayon material

Is the Bible Out-of-Date?

By Rev. Bruce Vawter, author of A PATH THROUGH GENESIS

THE AUTHOR of the Book of Genesis says that the world was made in six days. Geology teaches that the world was gradually formed over a period of millions of years. The author of Genesis thought of the world as flat. We know that it is round. How, then, can we say that the Bible is God speaking through men?

If I tell you that I saw a marvelous sunset last night, you would not accuse me of disagreeing with science, even though science tells us that the sun doesn't move. You know that I was using an accepted figure of speech; a popular description, not a scientific observation. There are many such things in the Bible.

FOR EXAMPLE, the author of Genesis arbitrarily divided the story of creation into six days' work. Why did he do this? First of all, he wished to insist on the holiness of the seventh day then observed by the Jews as the Sabbath. He pictured God as resting on the seventh day, to give an example to his people.

He knew that God did not really rest. Just as he knew that God did not talk and take counsel with Himself, and that he did not walk in a garden in the cool of the day.

THIS WAS A HOMELY, earthy way of speaking of God which would appeal to a simple, uneducated people. We use the same principle when we speak of "God's anger" or "wounding God" through sin. We call it "anthropomorphism," that is "manlikeism." Speaking of God in human terms sometimes makes Him easier for us to understand.

The important point to bear in mind is that the Bible does not teach these scientific errors. The makeup of the universe interested the author least of all. He wrote about the beginning of the world only to tell what God had made known — that God had created it. He was interested in religious truths, not natural history.

THE PERSON WHO believes the Bible can accept scientific discoveries about how long it took the world to evolve. The Bible and the science book are speaking of things entirely different.

Religion and science complement each other. One does not substitute for the other. Together they give us a knowledge that is complete, each in its own field.

THE MAN WHO wrote the first chapters of Genesis did not know much about the workings of natural forces. Yet he expressed a wisdom unknown to many today who have this knowledge. He voiced a truth God had revealed, which never before or after has been put so eloquently. "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth . . ."

UN ON "CORNERSTONE"

In an address before the Women's Forum on National Security in Washington, D.C. and attended by nearly 1,000 delegates from fourteen of the nation's largest women's patriotic organizations, National Commander Dan Daniel, of The American Legion, urged the establishment of Middle East NATO, international control for the Suez Canal and charged that seizure of the Canal and the "entire Suez crisis" were engineered by Moscow.

Further, Commander Daniel advocated for this country a "revitalized, realistic" foreign policy that recognizes: the UN as a "tool" of that policy "and not the cornerstone;" the Middle East mess as a part of the Communist world-conspiracy; Britain and France as the major powers on whom we could rely in a shooting war; Middle East resources as essential to Western economic strength . . . that admits the ineffectiveness of US foreign aid, and is based on honor and strength.

Having heard all our lives about "how women talk," we suspect the Commander could not possibly have had a better sounding board.

Hammerfest, Now Norway, is Europe's most northerly city.

We would often be sorry if our wishes were gratified. Let us recall the tale of Aesop: An old laborer, bent double with age and toil, was gathering sticks in a forest. At last he grew so tired and hopeless that he threw down the bundle of sticks and cried out, "I cannot bear this life any longer; I wish Death would come and take me!"

As he spoke, an angel in the form of Death appeared and said to him, "What wouldst thou, Mortal? I heard thee call me."

"Please, sir," replied the laborer, "would you kindly help me to lift this faggot of sticks onto my shoulder?"

BULK MILK COOLER

THE ICE BANK COOLER THAT OUTPERFORMS THEM ALL

Milk may be poured or piped into cooler.

In sizes from 100 gallons to 700 gallons capacity.

Cools Milk Faster Than Any Other Cooler... and NEVER FREEZES THE MILK!

No other cooler can match Dari-Kools fast cooling and year-after-year low operating and maintenance costs.

• Milk is cooled to 38° in only one hour — assuring a lower bacteria count and better milk. The milk cannot freeze because it is cooled with ice water.

• Dari-Kool's inner milk tank — with its moist, refrigerated side walls — retards the formation of milk stone. This makes Dari-Kool tanks much easier to clean.

• All Dari-Kool tanks are stainless steel — inside and out (not painted black iron). A rugged 10-gauge steel frame and pre-expanded milk tank assure accurate calibration and correct payment. Dari-Kools are electronically calibrated at the factory.

• Compare them all and you'll choose a farm-proven, guaranteed Dari-Kool — America's largest-selling bulk milk cooler.

DARI-KOOL MEETS ALL 3A SANITARY STANDARDS

Here's How Dari-Kool Pays for Itself

The cost of hauling milk in cans is 40 cents per 100 pounds as compared with 25 cents per 100 pounds for hauling tank milk, thus a saving of 15 cents per hundred.

Elimination of wastage of milk spilled or left in the can at the plant is 7 cents per 100 pounds.

Improved butterfat test gained by selling all the cream instead of leaving some of it sticking to the can and lid account for another 6 cents per hundred.

THIS GIVES A TOTAL SAVING OF 28 CENTS FOR EACH 100 POUNDS OF MILK HANDLED. THIS 28-CENT A HUNDRED SAVING WILL PAY FOR YOUR DARI-KOOL.

A producer with an average of 10 cans of milk (86 pounds each) a day will sell 25,800 pounds per month. At 28 cents per hundred saving, he will be ahead by $72.24 each month.

The approximate cost of a 250-gallon tank installed is $2,400 with interest of $216 for a total of $2,616. This can be divided into 36 monthly installments of $72.11 each. THUS YOUR SAVINGS MAKE YOUR PAYMENTS FOR YOU. This estimate is without down payment or trade-in, which would cut the principal and monthly payment substantially.

NOTICE. Another Service for Dari-Kool Customers from Schad and Pulte

Effective January 1, 1957 each time contract with Schad and Pulte is automatically protected by LIFE INSURANCE.

This is with no additional cost to the customer and OUR TOTAL INTEREST RATES ON BULK TANKS ARE STILL LESS THAN USUAL STANDARD BANK RATES.

Example: On a four-year contract the straight interest rate of a DARI-KOOL contract amounts to less than 4½% per year and this low rate of interest INCLUDES LIFE INSURANCE PROTECTION that pays the balance of the contract if the cooler owner should die.

Chevy is America's "hot" car —officially!

Chevrolet Wins Coveted Manufacturers' Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile"!

Want facts about performance?

Then look at the official figures from NASCAR's* internationally famous Daytona Beach competition for stock cars. Here's what you'll find: Chevrolet, in two weeks of blistering competition, proved itself as America's Number One performance car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it.

No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!

The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Best of all, this superiority isn't limited to just a few extra-cost high-performance models. Every type of Chevy—from the six-cylinder models right up to the 283-horsepower "Super Turbo-Fire" V8's, from the single-carburetor V8's with Powerglide to the stick-shift "270's"—is a championship car.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The spring offensive in the battle against the forces of soil erosion and depletion being waged by landowners of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district began to roll last week with the planting of grass and clover in fields in the Muenster-Saint Jo area.

Among those getting started are Roy Kingery and J. C. Donnell of Saint Jo, planting Coastal Bermuda grass on bottomland fields. These plantings will be used as nursery plots to produce roots for additional plantings next year.

Kingery used a root planter which he built especially for planting Coastal Bermuda grass roots. The machine presses the roots into the ground, leaving a part of the plants sticking out above the soil. Wayne Cook and Lonnie Young operated the machine to get 15 acres of the grass planted.

Donnell used the district-owned two-row sprig planter to put in five acres of grass roots. The district planter has been modified to plant the Coastal roots so that a part of them is left above the ground.

According to local soil conservation service technicians, Coastal Bermuda is a high producing hybrid. It makes no seed so must be planted by using roots or runners. The best method is to place the roots in the soil so that one end is in the moist ground while the other is above the soil surface. Once a stand of grass is obtained and fertilized, yields up to six tons of air-dry forage per acre can be expected.

Arnie Wimmer evidently knew the rains would come again this spring. He has been busy building some 3542 feet of broad easy-to-cross channel type terraces on the farm he operates for R. M. Zipper, northwest of Muenster.

Arnie constructed the terraces with a three-disc plow using the island method of construction. The terraces empty onto a Bermuda grass waterway that was put in to make a safe outlet for run-off water. He has now completed all the terraces needed on the farm. In addition he planted 15 acres to grass and uses sweet clover in his crop rotation to protect and improve the land. As a tenant he has gone a long way toward the goal of establishing a complete coordinated soil, water and plant conservation plan to protect and improve the soil.

Burglary at Andy's Farm Store Results In About $150 Loss

A burglary in the early hours of last week Wednesday at Andy's Farm Store in Pilot Point resulted in an estimated loss of about $150 in property damage and stolen merchandise. Andrew H. Flusche, formerly of Muenster, is owner of the business.

The thief or thieves entered the building through a window and got away with about $50 in merchandise. They failed to open the store's safe. Had they succeeded the loss would have been considerably greater, it was said.

A store employee, John Schon, discovered the robbery when he opened up for business and was confronted by a strong odor of gas. A knob had been broken off the safe. It is believed that the gas bomb caused the intruders to leave before they broke into the safe.

The dining car waiter had taken the customer's three 1-dollar bills in payment for a $2.40 dinner. Presently, the waiter returned the change — a 50-cent piece, and a dime. The customer, a dour man, looked at the waiter's face. He rose from the table, puffed on his cigar, picked up the half-dollar, glanced again at the waiter with a cool eye.

"It's all right, boss," and the waiter grinned from ear-to-ear. "I win mo' times than I loses."

BUILT-IN CONSCIENCE

As we see it, the problem of traffic accidents must be attacked from three directions. We need safe, durable motor vehicles, adequate highways for them, and alert and careful drivers.

Thanks to the efforts of many civic-minded groups, a big, well-planned road building program now is under way. Manufacturers are striving constantly — as they have through the years — to make their cars, trucks and buses as safe as possible to occupy and to drive. That leaves the human factor — the most elusive element of the three.

In general the public is aware of the menace of reckless driving and the need for driver regulations and intensive education. But aware as drivers are, they have the all too common trait of forgetfulness, on town streets and on the open road.

Recognizing this, Buick recently took a noteworthy step toward making it easier for drivers to be careful. It introduced one of the most sensible and useful devices to reach the market in years — a Safety-Minder.

The Safety-Minder is a speedometer attachment as simple to set as an alarm clock or a food cooking timer. A driver decides how many miles per hour his top speed should be, and sets the Safety-Minder at that figure. Then he forgets about it, for the attachment does the worrying. When the predetermined speed is reached, the Safety-Minder "sounds off" and continues buzzing until the driver slows down.

Buick calls this a "built-in conscience." It's a built-in memory too.

New Feed Program Provides Insurance Policy for Chicks

Now available is a chick and pullet program which provides for payments to poultry raisers for birds lost from disease, malnutrition, fire, wind, hail, cyclone, tornado or lightning.

This new program is announced by Stockmen's Feed Store, Nutrena feed dealer for this area.

The payment schedule for the new program takes into account the increased investment growers have in older birds. Payment for each bird lost includes the purchase price of the chick and the cost of Nutrena feed it used. Poultry raisers can collect up to $1.50 per bird for any they lose. Protection can last until pullets are five months old.

Tim Stormer described it as a "Livability Insured Chick and Pullet Program."

Poultry raisers can get the insured loss protection of the new plan at no extra cost by following the Nutrena chick and pullet feeding program.

All poultry raisers have to do to qualify is register at Stockmen's Feed Store and agree to follow the Nutrena feeding program for the first 5 months.

In addition to the five-months program, an 8-week protection plan is also available. It qualifies the grower for insurance protection against loss from disease or malnutrition only, during the first eight weeks of the chick's life.

Growers can start on either program any time up until chicks are four weeks old.

Poultry raisers who are interested in the complete details of the "Livability Insured" program can get more information

Mr. and Mrs. Bomar Woods and sons of Denison spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. John Bezner. She was at her home Saturday and Sunday after being a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium for X-rays and observation and returned to the hospital Monday for treatment.

From Baldwin Park, Calif., come greetings from E. J. Corcorans, now 15-year residents of California who still call Lindsay and Cooke county "home." Mrs. Corcoran wrote that they were vividly reminded of Texas the past week when they experienced an electrical storm which is a rarity in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mages of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mages and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mages and children, all of Fort Worth, and Charlie Berend and his daughter, Mrs. Tommy Albright, both of Hereford, visited relatives here last week after attending funeral services for their nephew and cousin, Frankie Fleitman.

Joan Friske, Bride of Bernard Sandmann In Lindsay Nuptials

St. Peter's church at Lindsay was the setting Saturday afternoon of the wedding uniting Joan Friske and Bernard Sandmann. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Friske and Mrs. Ben Sandmann, all of Lindsay.

Officiating at the nuptial high mass and double ring ceremony was Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor. The Lindsay choir and Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, furnished the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white imported French Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. A scoop neckline was accented with iridescent pailletes and the moulded bodice was complemented with long lace sleeves ending in points over the hands. The bouffant skirt was panelled in front and back with Chantilly lace. A white satin half hat covered with rhinestones held the shoulder length veil. She carried a white orchid.

Ethel Sandmann, sister of the groom, and Ann Luke of Muenster, cousin of the bride, were maid of honor and bridesmaid. Mary Jo Sandmann was flower girl.

The bride's attendants wore full-length dresses of blue lace and net with billowy skirts designed with a panel of lace ruffles. Short lace boleros topped the fitted bodices. They carried blue colonial bouquets. The little flower girl wore white and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Jere Friske and James Sandmann, brothers of the couple, attended the groom. Arnold Friske and Clem Hermes ushered.

After the services, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gainesville. Mrs. John Hess and Mrs. Johnnie Neu Jr. served the wedding cake.

For their honeymoon trip the bride wore a beige suit with matching accessories and her orchid from the wedding bouquet.

They will make their home in Fort Worth where he is employed by Convair Aircraft Manufacturing Company. Mrs. Sandmann attended Sacred Heart school in Muenster and was graduated from Mary Immaculate Academy in Wichita Falls. Her husband is a graduate of Lindsay High school.

lations? It's mighty hard now to distinguish, especially through a rear view mirror, between a regular license plate and an officer's plate. Will more of us get caught because we're unaware of the cop's presence? Or will we be more cautious than ever because we don't know when an officer is following?
