

Lions Are Set for Banquet Honoring Man of the Year

A decision just handed down by Attorney General Will Wilson explains why this paper has been reluctant to publicize the weekly Appreciation Day held here at Muenster. He has confirmed yours truly's opinion that the promotion is a lottery. And since it is a lottery, Mr. Wilson points out, it is illegal in Texas.

It wasn't the state law, however, which prompted this paper to shy away from the promotion. Rather it was the Post Office Department's interpretation with regard to its regulations on lottery.

The Post Office not only forbids sending lottery tickets through the mail but also forbids publicizing a lottery through papers and magazines sent through the mail. A penalty for violation of that regulation is the loss of second class mailing permit. Imagine us licking stamps for all the papers we mail, and paying several times as much postage to boot! We have no wish to risk anything like that.

In trying to play it safe this paper's attitude was that postal authorities would most likely brush aside the one obvious escape clause and rule that our promotion has all the elements of a lottery. Our deal seeks to by pass the element of "consideration" by claiming that a person does not have to buy something to get a chance ticket. The tickets are free for the asking. However, the usual method of giving tickets is with purchases, and that method therefore seems to be the one that should apply in deciding the issue.

But the attorney general goes even farther. He says the consideration element applies also when tickets are absolutely free . . . that the mere appearance of a person in a store constitutes something of value to the merchant.

While interpretation of the state law remains this rigid, and while interpretation of the postal regulation may be equally rigid, this paper will continue leaving out all lottery publicity. For the benefit of those who did not know, this is why we have not named winners of the drawings. Postal regulations do not allow even that much publicity.

This year the coming of Brotherhood Week, which extends from Feb. 16 to 23, takes on a new significance. This annual effort to promote a better understanding between creeds and races comes at a time when the relationship between races is more strained than ever before . . . and threatens to get worse. Obviously this is no longer a time to content ourselves with nice words but to recognize a shameful situation, determine its causes and seek a real solution.

The situation in New York nowadays, along with the highly publicized Little Rock case, prove beyond a doubt that our country goofed in its efforts to create a better relationship between the races. Crimes in Harlem and Brooklyn schools are not just cases of juvenile delinquency, as usually stated, but incidents of racial violence.

No wonder people all over the South are voicing their indignation. Little Rock still has its National Guard spending thousands of dollars to protect nine negro children from possible harm by white children. In New York the problem is to protect white children from possible harm by the Negroes.

This is not intended to point the accusing finger at either race but only to point out that each obviously resents the kind of intimate association that is inherent in integration. Whichever race has the upper hand is inclined to impose on the other.

Forced integration unfortunately has no relation to the charitable attitude which admits Negro children in many private white schools. There's a big difference between the offers of a majority and the demands of a minority. It's like the difference between giving something and having it taken away.

Not is there any point in insisting that Whites are at fault because they fail to ask the Negroes into their schools. The simple fact is that they sincerely think they should not. They are completely conscientious in their attitude.

Furthermore, it might be pointed out, the "charitable" Whites, though agreeable to integration, still draw a definite line a little farther along. They (Continued on Page 10)

Plans are all set for the big event of the year on the Lions Club calendar, the dinner and program honoring this year's selection as Muenster's Man of the Year.

It will be a ladies night event, to be held next Tuesday night in the public school lunch room. The program will feature the introduction of the 1957 Man of the Year and the presentation of the club's award to him along with a special feature relating to the honoree. Other numbers scheduled are musical selections by the Sacred Heart choir and the appearance of two visiting Lions, Deputy District Governor Tom Lowry of Denton and Zone Chairman Gene Davenport of Gainesville. Lion President Steve Moster will be master of ceremonies.

Lions are urged to assure a good attendance by making sure to come themselves and to sell additional tickets to non members. To help cooks decide how many to prepare for each member is asked to report Monday morning or before on the number of tickets he has sold.

County Has 7064 Voters on Record

Consistent with its record of the past, Cooke County in this local election year will have more qualified voters than in "off-years," but fewer than in a presidential election year.

County Tax Collector-Assessor Rafe Piper disclosed early this week that the county has 7064 recorded eligible voters . . . 5126 who paid poll taxes and 1938 who secured exemptions. A breakdown of the figures showing recorded voters in each voting box will not be available for several weeks.

The figure however does not show the county's actual voting strength, because over-age voters in communities outside of Gainesville are not required to get an exemption certificate. According to Piper's estimate the county has over 1500 of such exempted voters.

The number of recorded voters in the county last year was 4360 poll tax payers and 1577 exemptions. In the general election year of 1956 the figures were 5996 and 1798.

A snarl in the tax office caused a delay in reporting the number of recorded voters this year. A group that was soliciting poll tax payments failed to submit some of its applications before the Jan. 31 deadline and the tax office declined to issue the receipts until it received a ruling from the attorney general's office. The answer was that if the group worked in cooperation with the tax office and had filled the application forms before the deadline the receipts could be issued.

Insufficient postage on an envelope of applications caused another delay. It was mailed in time but was picked up four days after the deadline.

Building And Improvement Notes

Two new homes of the community are now occupied. The Joe Hoenigs moved Wednesday into their new house on Hickory Street and the Alphonse Reiters are settled in their house eight miles northwest of town.

Urban Endres has about another month to go before he can move into his home in the northwest part of town.

Another new building, the VFW post, is temporarily delayed by rough weather. Outside walls of structural tile with a brick face are just well started.

Also just started is a remodeling job on the upstairs at Ed Cler's to be followed by paint and paper throughout the house.

Two farm buildings just finished are a brooder house for Julian Walterscheid and a barn for Paul Sicking.

Getting ready for their shoe store the Jesse Sanners have started on shelves, counters and other furnishings in their location in the Variety Store building.

Another improvement in the business area is a new coat of paint for the interior at Scott Furniture.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Awaiting Discharge

Airman Vernon Clayton, in a letter to his parents, the C. G. Claytons, this week tells that he is processing for his discharge and will be on his way home Feb. 17. Since being on duty in Korea, Vernon served at England AFB, Alexandria, La. He will receive his discharge there.

Okay In Korea

Daniel Owen, writing from Korea, tells his parents, the Clarence Owens, that he's fine and keeping busy. He added that the Christmas gift from the VFW Auxiliary caught up with him and that he enjoyed the candy very much.

Receives Discharge

Richard Hellinger has received his army discharge in Denver, Colo., and is visiting there with relatives — his mother's sister and family. He wrote his mother, Mrs. Ben Fleitman and family, that he didn't know when he would return to Muenster. Richard spent three years in the service with one year of duty in Korea.

Awaiting Orders

Rodney Walter who left here almost two weeks ago for the west coast enroute to Hawaii is still waiting in San Francisco, according to a letter to his parents, the Oscar Walters, this week. Other members of the Navy outfit he's with are waiting too, for orders to proceed. Rodney said nobody knew when they would go but that according to reports making the rounds they'll go by plane to Honolulu.

Settled In Germany

Douglas Doughty has written his parents, the Joe Doughtys, that he is settled in Germany with his army outfit. His brother, Jimmy Doughty, who enlisted in the Air Force is still in basic training at Lackland AFB.

Nurse Is A Patient

Capt. Jane Hoehn has written her sister Mrs. Ed Cler of her safe arrival in Germany. Jane told of the plane trip to her new station with a stop-over in Scotland and of getting settled at the base hospital at Baumholder, about ten miles east of Nuremberg. But instead of nursing Jane tells of being in the hospital as a patient herself. She goes on to explain that after she got to Germany she bought a car and was in a car wreck. A girl friend was driving at the time and the car skidded on slick, snowy road, then crashed into a tree. The driver wasn't hurt but Jane received head and skull injuries for which she is now hospitalized.

Watershed Group Meets and Elects

The annual meeting of the Elm Fork Watershed Association was held Tuesday afternoon in the National Guard Armory at Gainesville.

Tom R. Hickman, president of the Association presided over the meeting. J. M. Weinzapfel, president of the Muenster State Bank, gave the group a brief history of the struggle to get the flood control program started back in the early 1940's. He reviewed the progress of reservoir construction during the last four years informing the group that seven structures had been completed during 1957. The completed structures are in the Muenster community on the Voth Brothers, C. J. Fette, W. W. Otto, Rudy Hellman, Parker Estate, Joe Fisher and Weinzapfel farms. He also urged the group to intensify all efforts to get soil and water conservation practices applied to the land in the watershed to prevent soil and water losses.

Jack McFerran of the Gainesville Soil Conservation Service used colored slides made last spring to show how floods on Elm Creek were prevented by the reservoirs that were built at that time. He also pointed out how soil conserving practices protected the farm land during the excessive rains.

The group then held their annual election. Officers for the coming year are Tom Hickman, president; H. D. Fields, vice president; J. G. Biffle Jr., secretary-treasurer. Directors for the coming year are J. M. Weinzapfel, Muenster; Roy P. Wilson, Gainesville; Bruno Zimmerer, Lindsay; George Elkins, Gainesville; and Jack Martin of Valley View.

Illness Postpones Operetta Showing To Sunday, Feb. 23

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, an operetta in three-acts scheduled for presentation Sunday, Feb. 16, by seventh and eighth graders of Sacred Heart school, has been postponed until the following Sunday, Feb. 23.

An epidemic of measles hit the young actors and actresses and makes presentation this Sunday impossible, Sister Carmelita said Wednesday.

Although the disease is not the serious variety and confines the youngsters to bed an average of only three days, the absences were scattered and hampered rehearsals for more than two weeks. Most of the children are recovering now and with one week of practice will be ready to go on the stage, on the 23rd.

The ninety-minute operetta will star Lucille Dankesreiter as Snow White. Carol Henscheid, seventh grade pianist, will play the entire musical score. The complete cast consists of more than 80 children. Sister Carmelita, whose talent for producing student operettas is well known, is being assisted by Sister Jane Francis in directing the presentation.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Joe Fisher Sr. was dismissed Monday from Gainesville Sanitarium where he had been a patient since Dec. 19 and had undergone two operations. He's doing fine now, convalescing at the home of his son Earl Fisher.

Mrs. John Eberhart is staying with her daughter Mrs. Joe Swingler now. Though she is in bed most of the time at the Swingler home, Mrs. Eberhart is up and around for short periods each day.

Mrs. Lena Bernauer spent this week in Gainesville at the bedside of her daughter Mrs. Harry Dennis who was suffering from a severe case of flu.

Mrs. Ben Hellman continues as a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium. She's been hospitalized for more than a month since she entered the sanitarium for treatment of virus pneumonia.

Mrs. David Trachta is recovering normally from major surgery performed at Gainesville Sanitarium and expects to be permitted to return home this weekend.

Mrs. Frank Trachta is a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium for medical treatment and observation. She was admitted last Friday and her doctor hasn't said when she will be permitted to return home.

Era Edges Muenster In Double Thriller

Even though they were slapped down for two more losses, the basketweavers of Muenster High School gave fans their money's worth Friday night in a pair of thrillers with Era. The girls opened the program with a 42-41 loss and the boys followed with a 56-51 loss.

Both games were played hard all the way through with a maximum of bodily clashes and infractions. Officials called 94 fouls in the two games and four Muenster boys had to quit the game because of fouls.

That factor helped the Era fellows in their close decision. Though trailing by 4 points in field goals they led by 9 points in foul shots for their final 5 point advantage.

Top scorers for the Muenster boys were Harris 12 and Hamric and Wolf 11 each. Wieler and Cain hit 19 and 17 for the Muenster girls.

It was a different story at Saint Jo Tuesday night. The title-bound Saint Jo gals rolled on to an easy 40-18 win after which Muenster boys kept the game interesting for three periods before going to pieces and allowing the Panthers to run up their one sided 59-34 win. Leading MHS scorers were Wieler with 14 for the girls and Harris and Hudspeth with 12 and 10 for the boys.

Joe Moster and Larry Yosten were in Denton Tuesday night attending the regular monthly meeting of the North Texas Waterworks and Sanitation Association.

SCS Begins Plans For Detention Dams Along Clear Creek

Efforts of the newly organized Clear Creek Watershed Association are already paying off. Responding to requests from the organization the Soil Conservation Service has started a new survey to plan reservoirs for the watershed.

A group of technicians from the Fort Worth SCS office, headed by Harry Armstrong, a former member of the Muenster SCS unit started working Tuesday in the Dye Mound area.

The party is not preparing a completely new plan but rather revising one that was drawn up a few years ago. Excessive rate of siltation was given then as the reason for not building reservoirs. Since then the siltation rate has been decreased by improved land practices.

Nick Miller Plans Separate Building For Cleaning Plant

A new building, due to begin as soon as weather permits, is destined to be the new home of Nick Miller's cleaning and shoe repairing business . . . and to make room for more facilities in the Miller Funeral Home.

Dirt moving for the new building was finished last week. It will measure 20x60 and will be similar in design to the funeral home, but not similar in color. Red brick will go up part of the way and white siding the rest of the way. Trimming will be in red. Its entrance will be at the south side.

After it is finished and equipment moved into it work will start on remodeling the other building to use all of it for the funeral home. The opening date will probably be in July.

Waco Nips Tigers; SH Girls Wallop Two Big D Teams

Catholic High of Waco made it a decisive clean sweep over the Sacred Heart Tigers Friday night with a count of 55-27. As before, the Waco fellows clearly outclassed the Muenster team and gained constantly through the game. Hartman and Walterscheid shared scoring honors for Sacred Heart with 9 each.

During the same week Sacred Heart girls added three more to their long list of wins. Friday night they topped LGC Academy of Dallas 46-37 and Saturday night the first stringers and reserves beat two teams from Hockaday of Dallas.

Playing LGC Sacred Heart took a first quarter lead of 11-5 and held the margin for the rest of the way. Zimmerer led Tigerettes scoring with 24 and Bayer was next with 12.

In the double header with Hockaday here Saturday night the second stringers, in the opening contest, put on the best show. Sacred Heart started strong for a 9-3 first quarter lead then had a hard time holding out for their final 30-28 win. Leading scorers were Helen Hacker 13 and Betty Danglmayr 12.

In the main event the Tigerettes moved on consistently for their 57-30 decision. The count by periods was 15-8, 30-14, 40-16, 57-30. Bayer hit 25, Mages 17 and Zimmerer 15.

Only three more twin bills are on schedule for the parochial teams. Friday at Dallas the boys will play St. Mark's and the girls play Hockaday. On the 20th the girls' A and B teams meet LGC Academy in Dallas and on the 25th boys and girls play Era here.

Drawing for Prize Is a Lottery, Says Attorney General

AUSTIN — In a far-reaching opinion, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson today ruled illegal any drawing for prizes involving tickets given away free by merchants attempting to stimulate trade.

The fact that customers went into a merchant's store to get the tickets was a valuable consideration to the merchant, he said, thus making the plan a lottery.

Wilson's ruling was made at the request of A. G. Mueller, county attorney at Llano.

Mueller described a plan through which a drawing for (Continued on Page 10)

Mrs. Fred Herr, 87, 67 Year Resident, Dies Here Sunday

Death late Sunday night claimed one of the few remaining early-day pioneers of Muenster, Mrs. Fred Herr Sr., a continuous resident here for 67 years, all but two of the community's history. She was 87 and this city's oldest citizen.

She seldom left home during the past five years, but remained fairly active for her advanced age. She had not been seriously sick. Her death was unexpected since she had been in jovial spirits Sunday. She died quietly at about 10:30, a half hour after her daughters discovered she was not resting well.

Funeral services with solemn requiem mass were held Tuesday morning at 9:30 in Sacred Heart church with Rev. Christopher Paladino officiating assisted by Rev. Martin Fischer and Rev. Bruno Fuhrmann.

Acolytes for the mass were Jerry, Ronnie and Clinton Endres and Richard Herr, grandsons, and Eddie Hellman, a great-grandnephew.

Father Christopher delivered the funeral sermon and conducted graveside services in Sacred Heart cemetery. Nick Miller was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Blanket of Snow Covers Community

Muenster was included Tuesday night in the vast area of the state and nation covered by a blanket of snow. Measuring 2½ inches deep on an average, the snow was the community's first of the season to fall in considerable quantity and to remain for more than a few hours.

Because of it classes at both Muenster schools were dismissed Wednesday.

Melted down the snow measured .22 on the city's rain gauge and combines with readings of the 6th, 10th and 11th for a total of .78 so far in February. This year's total to date is 3.68 inches.

Valentine Festival Date Is Unchanged, Crowning to Wait

Students and faculty members of Muenster Public School have all arrangements made for their Valentine Festival Friday night. This is the event that replaces the usual Halloween Carnival which was not held last October on account of conflicting activity.

The Valentine party, like the Halloween program, was planned as a two-night event, but Superintendent H. H. Homsley disclosed Wednesday that the second night's activity has been postponed, the date to be announced later. That part of the program consists of the crowning of two queens, one from the high school and one from the grades, in elaborate ceremony and the presentation of a play and musical numbers.

But the Valentine Festival Friday will go on as planned with carnival attractions, refreshment booths, and other money-making attractions sponsored by classes and school clubs for their treasury's benefit.

Highlight of the night will be the announcement of the Valentine queens. For several weeks queen candidates, one from each of the 12 grades, have been soliciting votes to win the crown. Everybody is invited to join in the fun and frolic Friday night at the public school.

H. N. Fuhrmann and son Michael were visitors last week in Rhineland with Mr. Fuhrmann's brother Rev. Alois Fuhrmann who is in charge of the Rhineland parish while Father John Walbe is convalescing from recent illness. Father John, former assistant pastor here, became ill early in January and was a patient at Bethania Hospital at Wichita Falls. Now he is at Van Buren, Ark., for a rest and to regain his strength. While they were at Rhineland, Mr. Fuhrmann and Michael took Father Alois with them on a drive to Slaton to visit the Mosser families and to Abilene to visit their sister, Sister Henry Ann.

Four-H Girls Plan For Dress Review

At the girls' 4-H club meetings for February at Sacred Heart school members were told about the annual 4-H dress review to be held April 1.

Mrs. Charles Jenkins, assistant county home demonstration agent, explained the style show plans and distributed pamphlets on sewing, charts of measurements and instructions on "Simple to Make Skirts."

Mrs. Jenkins also told about the Fun Show to be held in March. This is a talent show and Muenster girls are planning to take part.

Patsy Endres of the Intermediate club demonstrated how to make a milk shake and will enter the demonstration in a dairy foods contest in Gainesville next Saturday. Mrs. Paul Endres, adult leader, attended the meeting.

While the program was the same for both the intermediate and the junior clubs, the groups met separately. Dolores Monday conducted the business session for the junior club. Thirteen members were present. Bernadette Yosten presided for the intermediate group's business session. Eighteen members attended.

Prosperity goes to the heads of some — and to the waists of others.

Jerry Hoenig and Lucy Stoffels Say Vows at Lindsay

St. Peter's church in Lindsay was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Lucy Stoffels and Jerry J. Hoenig. The young couple's parents are Mrs. Sophie Stoffels and the late H. P. Stoffels of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig of Muenster.

Father Conrad Herda performed the double ring ceremony at 5 p.m. and officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Billy Ray Stoffels of Dallas, wore a bouffant floor length dress of white lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with a sheer net yoke and petal point sleeves.

Lucy's veil was finger-tip length caught to a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried white carnations on a white prayer book.

Her jewelry, a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, are gifts from Jerry, sent while he was with the Marines on Okinawa. She also carried a crystal rosary, a gift from the groom.

Emma Grace Stoffels of Dallas was her sister's maid of honor and Raymond Hoenig attended his brother as best man. Lawrence Dankesreiter Jr. of Denton and Henry Fleitman of Lindsay were ushers.

Emma Grace wore a pastel green ballerina length bouffant of taffeta with a matching cummerbund that tied at the back, and a matching tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, and St. Cecilia's choir presented the wedding music. After mass Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer, Mrs. Ben Hermes and Mrs. William Schmitz, as a trio, sang "Mother at Your Feet" while the bride placed a bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

After the service a reception was held in the Lindsay parish hall and a buffet supper was served in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the meal.

Mickey Fuhrman and Marie Popp, at the guest book, registered about 125 relatives and friends of the two families.

After Lucy and Jerry return from their wedding trip they will make their home on a farm south of town. She was graduated from St. Peter's High school in 1956 and worked as a long distance telephone operator in Dallas until she resigned preparatory to her marriage. Jerry was graduated from Sacred Heart High school in 1953 and served in the Marine Corps for three years with duty in Korea and on Okinawa. He engages in farming and dairying.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pelzel of Ennis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeFrance of Fairfield, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hoenig, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert B. Shrodes and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Stoffels, all of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fetsch of Munday and Miss Anna Hoenig of New York City.

Third Order Hears Plans for Annual Tridium in March

Members of the Third Order of Saint Francis at their February meeting Sunday heard plans for the fraternity's annual tridium. A letter from Father Elias Koppert, provincial from Chicago, reveals that he will be in Muenster the first week in March and plans the three-day services here for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 3, 4, and 5.

J. W. Hess, prefect, read the letter from Father Elias, and with members planned a program for the tridium. Tentatively, the schedule of services consists of mass at 8 a.m. each morning followed by a sermon, and a conference at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, with the exception of the last day when Father Elias will have a conference with members of the St. Peter's fraternity at Lindsay.

The closing session here will feature the election of officers. These are named for three-year terms. Mr. Hess who is ending his second elective term is not eligible for re-election and the Muenster fraternity will be under the direction of a new leader after the election. The order's ritual specifies that no member may hold office for more than two consecutive terms.

In retiring, Mr. Hess listed progress in the local fraternity during the past six years. Membership rose from 70 to pass the 100 mark, mass attendance and reception of the sacraments increased, the fraternity keeps the sanctuary light burning in Sacred Heart church, members attend a holy hour on Thursday of each week and they helped in promoting the First Saturday devotions and the Sacred Heart devotions. During the time Mr. Hess was prefect he was instrumental in organizing fraternities in Lindsay and Gainesville with a total membership of 60.

A nominating committee for the March election has been appointed. It consists of Misses Lena Kleiss and Mary Becker and Mmes. Frank Herr, Joe Bayer and John Fisher.

Mrs. J. B. Wilde, treasurer, gave a report on receipts and expenditures during the past year.

Among announcements were change of the time of the holy hour on Thursday. It will in the future be held from 2 to 3 o'clock and will close with Benediction. This earlier service will permit school children to attend.

Father Christopher will be the spiritual director succeeding Father Louis.

Members volunteered to serve as church door collectors following all services next Sunday for the donation of funds for the needy of the parish.

The business session in the parish hall was attended by about 45 members who met at church first for recitation of the seraphic office. The afternoon's sermonette was a reading by Mrs. Leo Henscheid, Entitled "Leisure" the article brought out that leisure hours need not be idle hours and that one may play as well as pray for the glory of God.

What Is An American

by Harold W. Ruopp
 Published in the interest of Brotherhood Week, Feb. 16-23.
AN AMERICAN is one who believes in the right of men and women of whatever creed, class, color or ancestry, to live as human beings with the dignity becoming the children of God.
AN AMERICAN is one who believes in the right to be free; free not only from crushing coercions and dictatorships and regimentation, but free for that way of life where men may think and speak as they choose and worship God as they see fit.
AN AMERICAN is one who believes in the right to vote, the right to work, the right to learn, the right to live, and — what is equally important — in the right to be different; for he knows that if we ever lose the right to be different we lose the right to be free.
AN AMERICAN is one who believes in democracy, not only for himself but for all his fellow-Americans. By democracy he means not simply the rule of the majority but the rights of minorities; and those minorities have rights, not because they are minorities, but because they are human beings.

AN AMERICAN is one who believes in the responsibility of privilege. What he asks for himself, he is willing to grant to others, what he demands from others, he is willing to give himself. His creed is not alone, "Live and let live," but "Live and help live."

AN AMERICAN is one who acts from faith in others, not fears of others; from understanding, not prejudice; from goodwill, not hatred. To bigotry he gives no sanction; to intolerance no support.

The only question THE TRUE AMERICAN ever asks is not, Are you a Protestant or Catholic, Gentile or Jew, white or colored, but, Are you an American? If you are, then give me your hand, for I am an American too.

Nightmares In Moscow

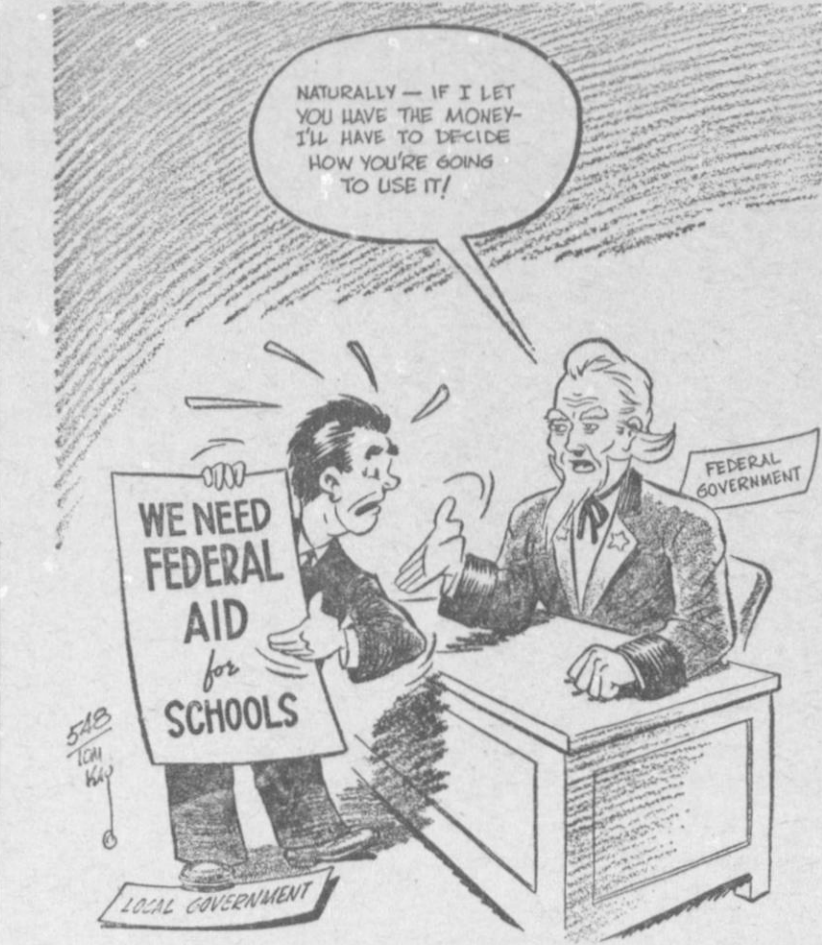

In the long view of history, governments and civilizations are judged by what they do or fail to do in behalf of the spiritual and material welfare of peoples.

Judged by this standard, the Soviet Union is a monumental failure, despite its achievements in certain fields of science.

For instance, some time ago an American woman physician, Dr. Carolyn Taylor, visited Moscow. She was then an American army doctor. And what she saw there, she told a reporter from the Portland Oregonian, was "enough to give you nightmares."

Russia has gone "missile mad" she said. There was grim determination on the part of students at Moscow university, with none of the pleasant social exchanges between classes that are commonplace in the free nations. Most revealing of all is what she found when she visited Russian hospitals. Care was "exactly adequate" and no more. She watched a man having his gall bladder removed — "he was squirming all over the table." She learned that local anesthetics are used in about 98 per cent of all operations.

Practicing doctors in Russia are extremely poorly paid — about $80 a month. The big rewards go to scientists who devote themselves to research. In other words, human life in Russia is cheap, and medical standards and policy reflect that belief.

We are about to embark on a gigantic weapons program, out of sheer necessity. Vast scientific resources will have to be devoted to it. But this will not be done at the expense of the individual's health — and it will not be done by turning our hospitals and other medical institutions into impersonal assembly lines. That symbolizes the difference between our society and the Soviet society.

Teachers of Tomorrow

The Chicago Daily News says that "... we get high school graduates who don't know democratic capitalism from communist dictatorship." That sad observation was prompted by an astonishing report from a professor of economics at a well-known university which specializes in teacher training. He asked 80 freshmen who are preparing to become teachers to define "capitalism." Almost all of them, he found, "not only called capitalism a form of government, but they also thought it an evil and dangerous form of government."

One student, for instance, said: "Capitalism is more on the dictator type of government." Another said: "Capitalism is the extreme measures that are taken by a group, country, or even a single person... It can be dangerous if allowed to spread into the wrong hands." Another said: "I am sure there are many places where capitalism is going on at the present time, and if this practice should ever become nation-wide, the country is in for a lot of trouble." Still another said: "Capitalism...

"A bore is a person who often and at the same time makes you keeps you from being lonely, wish you were!"

Crepe Myrtle is Garden Club Topic

Muenster Civic League and Garden Club members heard an entertaining and informative discussion on crepe myrtles at their February meeting Monday night in the home of Mrs. Ted Gremminger with Mrs. Tony Gremminger as co-hostess. Mrs. L. B. Bruns presented the program using as her topic "Crepe Myrtles Are Easy to Grow."

Among points brought out by the speaker were these: crepe myrtles can be grown from seed but the young plants are not as hardy as those grown from cuttings. Cuttings give the same color of bloom as the plant from which they are taken, but plants raised from seed do not. Prune crepe myrtles in winter. Set out plants from January through March. Avoid soft green or old gray wood cuttings. Crepe myrtles can be transplanted satisfactorily but this should be done during the winter and one half of the top growth should be cut off to balance the root loss. The crepe myrtle is the club's chosen shrub and also the city's official shrub.

Mrs. T. S. Myrick, presided for the business session. Among committee reports was Mrs. Tony Gremminger's on the cemetery. She told about the planting of new shrubs at the cemetery and that the arch over the main gate has been refinished and put in place.

Members voted to give a five dollar donation from treasury funds to the March of Dimes campaign.

Mrs. Myrick read a letter from Gainesville Garden Clubs inviting Muenster members to attend the district meeting in Gainesville on Feb. 20. Those wishing to attend the noon luncheon can make reservations with Mrs. Myrick but must let her know before Saturday, Feb. 15.

After adjournment the hostesses served salad plates and coffee to those present. The Valentine theme predominated in refreshments and Valentine candy hearts were plate favors.

Water Fluoridation Value Established By Dental Health

Three of the greatest public health programs in history are generally acknowledged to be immunization against infectious diseases, chlorination of water and pasteurization of milk.

Now, after years of investigation, a fourth has been added—fluoridation of water to reduce tooth decay.

"What was the hope of a generation ago is now a fact of preventive dentistry," says the American Dental Association. "Today, the overwhelming accumulation of evidence on the effectiveness and safety of fluoridation is a matter of record."

Almost 1,500 United States communities, with a combined population of well over 25,000,000, are now drinking artificially fluoridated water. Millions of others are drinking water in which fluorides are naturally present.

So thoroughly has the effect of fluorides on tooth decay been investigated that the American Medical Association has recently given its unequivocal endorsement to the program, thereby joining practically every other reputable health and medical organization in the United States.

The nation's second and third largest cities — Chicago and Philadelphia — are among the cities which have fluoridation programs in operation. Other major cities now giving their children the benefit of the progressive measure are Cleveland, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis, San Francisco, Milwaukee, and Pittsburgh.

In addition to the ability to reduce dental caries by as much as 60 percent among children — and most authorities are convinced the benefit extends throughout life — fluoridation of community water supplies is shaping up as one of the best public health bargains of all time.

For less than 15 cents per person per year, the ravages of tooth decay can safely and conveniently be cut by two-thirds. The cost of a single filling would pay for the fluorides for one person for many years.

point, according to a water works association, the mechanism of adding fluorides to water supplies is no more involved than adding chlorine. Furthermore, fluorine is not a medicine any more than chlorine. It is not a cure-all. It cannot entirely eliminate tooth decay. It can do nothing about teeth that are already decayed.

In fluoridation we have the weapon against tooth decay that men of all ages have sought. Not a single valid argument can be raised against it. To deny it to children is to deny them the best that preventive dentistry has to offer.

—that the Army provides Sunday morning recreation for civilian members of thousands of private rifle clubs with $300,000 of your tax money?

Money Can't Buy Friendship

Money can not buy friendship. The friendship ceases as soon as the money is spent.

This remarkable appraisal of a policy which the United States has followed since the war was not made by a critic in 1957.

It was uttered by a ruler who was asked to be the recipient of foreign funds and refused. He was the great King Khusrau of Persia in the year 540. And it was Justinian the Great, ruler of the Roman Empire, who sought to buy his good will.

It has always been thus, but the lesson seems not to have been learned by the rulers of the 20th Century's great world power, the United States. The disaffection of Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia should be another reminder of the impossibility of winning friends by cash.

Tuesday Club Has Valentine Party

The Tuesday Neters regular February social was a Valentine party with a surprise gift shower for Mrs. Ed Schneider. Members were entertained in the home of Mrs. Bill Lindsay with Mrs. D. C. Jones as co-hostess.

Upon arrival Mrs. Schneider was presented a pink and white corsage from the hostesses, who directed games relating to the chosen themes. Heart fortunes was another entertainment feature. And members derived a great deal of fun from trying to identify each other from baby pictures. In the who's who contest Mrs. Ed Schneider and Mrs. Bill Hunt tied, each identifying six out of the 12.

The party rooms were gay with pink and white decor stressing pink hearts. The mantle held a miniature stork and baby crib flanked by candles, and the centerpiece for the refreshment table was a miniature decorated bassinet.

After Mrs. Schneider opened and displayed her gifts, the hostesses served angel cake with pink topping, strawberry ice cream and pink lemonade. Plate favors were heart-shaped nut cups of lace and pink ribbon filled with tiny Valentine candy hearts.

Present were Mmes. Leonard Owen, Melton Ramsey, Oscar Miller, Leo Lawson, James Mollenkopf, Joe Voth, Bill Hunt, Tom Hamilton, Schneider, Jones and Lindsay. Mrs. Hamilton was welcomed as a new member.

LONE STAR GAS COMPANY

Taxes on Gasoline In Texas Increase 72-Fold Since '23

DALLAS, Texas — Gasoline taxes paid by Texas highway users during the first six days of 1958 reached the sum of $3,777,000 — as much as was once collected in gasoline tax revenues in Texas in an entire year.

This was pointed out by Charles W. Alcorn, President of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, in commenting on present estimates that Texas' 5-cent state gasoline tax will take in $171.8 million during 1958, while the 3-cent federal tax will swell the total tax cost to motorists in this state to a predicted $273.6 million.

This, he noted, means that Texas highway users are now pouring motor fuel tax revenues into the tax coffers at the rate of $1 million every 32 hours, or as much in six days as Texas' original 1-cent gasoline tax brought in during the whole year following its enactment in 1923. The federal tax was not added until 1932.

"This 72-fold increase in annual gasoline tax revenues can be explained partly by the fact that there are now 5 1/2 times as many motor vehicles in Texas as there were in 1923, but it must also be noted that the present combined tax rate is now 8 times as high," Alcorn said. He added: "An interesting thing about gasoline is that this is one product on which the price today, excluding taxes, is actually lower than it was back in the 20's." He noted that in 1920, the average price of regular gasoline in Texas was 29.1 cents a gallon. Today motorists are getting a far better quality of gasoline for less, but taxes now add 37 per cent to the cost, he said.

Cole is described as follows: Born, March 24, 1927, Philadelphia, Pa. Height, 6 feet 1 inch. Weight, 160 to 178 pounds. Build, medium. Hair, brown, receding. Eyes, brown. Complexion, medium. Cole has previously been convicted of grand larceny and robbery. He reportedly has stated that he will shoot any police officer attempting to apprehend him. Cole is considered armed and dangerous.

C., or the Special Agent in Charge of the nearest FBI Division, the telephone number of which appears on the first page of local telephone directories.

distinct hazards to customers and to store employees stationed nearby.

The new Board of Health regulations say "shoefitting fluoroscopes are hereby declared to be neither diagnostic nor therapeutic." But that does not preclude their use as a means of checking a corrective shoe fit as prescribed by a physician.

For persons with normal feet, most shoe stores fit shoes by the time proved methods of pressure, feel, and comfort. But there are persons who require special built in corrections in their shoes. In many of these instances fluoroscopic devices are valuable in checking the accuracy of the correction.

Parents should never submit themselves or their children to fluoroscopic shoe fittings unless their physicians recommend the procedure.

Public Health and medical authorities have a responsibility for seeing that the best possible use is made of x-ray devices in detecting and treating human ills. The public has a responsibility too — in not demanding x-ray from their physician when he does not find one necessary.

Use of Paper Clips

It's hard to keep track of all the various committees of one kind or another that pop up in Washington and so it's not surprising to have the "Manchester Guardian" report on one that a few Americans have heard about.

It's a committee which investigated the use of 100,000 paper clips to make sure that they were put to economic and useful purposes. The findings:

About 20,000 were used properly to clip paper. Of the remaining 80,000, more than 3,000 were used as pipe cleaners, 5,309 as nail cleaners, 5,434 as toothpicks or ear scratchers, 19,413 as chips in card games, 14,163 were destroyed or bent out of shape during boring telephone conversations, 7,200 served as emergency hooks on suspender belts and brassieres, and the balance fell to the floor, were swept up or were swallowed by small children. —Milwaukee Journal.

"Henry," puffed the fat woman plaintively as her husband failed to assist her onto the street car, "you aren't as glib as when I was a gal."

"I know, dear," puffed Henry, "but you aren't as buoyant as when I was a boy."

Excessive Use of X-Ray Dangerous,
Public is Warned

There was a definite Jeykell-Hyde element in Wilhelm Konrad Roentgen's discovery of the x-ray phenomenon in 1895. Used by trained technicians, x-rays become peerless tools for diagnosing and treating human ills and injuries. But used by untrained hands, they become errant destroyers of living tissue.

Even Roentgen didn't realize the danger of his discovery. He apparently did not receive any significant injuries, but his good fortune stemmed from the fact that he constructed shields not for his own protection, but to keep his highly prized photographic plates from being fogged by scattered radiations.

Today there is agreement among many medical authorities that x-ray exposures cause tissue damage. Generally speaking, however, as used by competent physicians the value of diagnosis and treatment far exceeds the controlled damage which must inevitably result.

Recent stringent regulation by the State Board of Health against exposures of humans to x-rays prohibits indiscriminate fluoroscopy. Fluoroscopy is authorized when supervised by persons licensed to "engage in the healing arts."

A case in point is the relatively common practice in recent years of using x-ray machines to visualize feet of normal people, including children, in retail shoe stores.

That they are dangerous has been shown by the State Health Department's Division of Occupational Health as long as five years ago. Engineers extensively examined machines in various parts of the state and found the vast majority of them to be accidents is met on a pay-as-you-go basis. However, he pointed out that this is small consolation since, as matters stand, every citizen can count on his share of this economic waste to increase each year for the rest of his life. "These losses will continue," Mr. Boate said, "until we are ready and willing to pay reasonably for safe vehicle and driver control through effective enforcement, engineering and education and until each individual accepts his personal responsibility for complete obedience to the traffic rules."

The safety authority added that until then, motorists with a realization of the danger and a strong will to live have the best chance of avoiding accidents. Such people, he said, will keep their minds on their driving, will not take small risks to save time and will not violate obvious safety rules like driving after drinking.

That is particularly important in the coming holiday season, he said, if present human and economic loss estimates are not to be exceeded.

Nation's Bill for Traffic Accidents Is Over $7 Billion

The nation was handed its 1957 traffic bill today by Thomas N. Boate, manager of the Accident Prevention Department of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, and it came to a staggering grand total of $7,255,600,000!

That is the estimated cost of a single year's traffic mayhem based on figures for the first nine months of this year and a projection through December 31. It is the highest figure in the history of the automobile.

"The pro rata share borne by each of the nation's 171,790,000 citizens amounts to $42.23," Mr. Boate said, "while the cost for a family of four is $168.92. Included in the sum are charges for property damage, automobile repair, legal and medical fees, insurance expenses and loss of income through absence from work."

He added that in amassing this bill the nation's traffic losses will reach an estimated total of 38,300 deaths, 1,856,000 injuries and 11,700,000 accidents. An extended period of bad weather during the month of December could reduce this toll some by reducing the number of cars on the highway. Otherwise, he said, the usual annual round of holiday shoppers and seasonal celebrants will make December once again the deadliest month of the year.

While deaths will be below the all-time high set in 1956, accidents and injuries, like the dollars cost, are continuing their steady climb and will reach new high levels. Mr. Boate said that this steady increase in the total traffic casualty experience exposes the error of measuring highway safety progress solely on traffic death figures.

As for the $42.23 "bills" charged up to every man, woman and child in the country, Mr. Boate said that they can be marked paid since the cost of ac-

Prices were good during the early part of this week and have a good chance to get better as rough weather retards the regular flow of livestock to market.

As a rule, this situation brings on better prices. If you can move yours, bring them in. It looks like you'll be well paid for your effort.

Mrs. Herr, the former Katherine Eickhoff, was born in Westphalia, Germany, April 3, 1870, and came to the United States with her parents settling with them in Westphalia, Kansas, when she was 11 years old. In 1891 she was married to Fred Herr in Westphalia and they moved to Muenster the same year. For six months he owned and operated a general merchandise store here, then bought a farm north of town and engaged in farming. He died April 12, 1936.

Mrs. Herr continued to live on the farm until 1942 when she moved with her three unmarried daughters to town to occupy a new home. The daughters continued to reside with her. For many years they have been associated with Muenster Telephone Company.

Mrs. Herr is survived by four sons, John and Frank of Muenster, Emil of Hereford and Carl of Pilot Point; five daughters, Mrs. Ben Luke, Mrs. R. R. Endres and Misses Lena, Elizabeth and Katie Herr, all of Muenster; 35 grandchildren, 60 great-grandchildren and one sister, Miss Elizabeth Eickhoff of Santa Ana, Calif.

As an early day resident Mrs. Herr was active in parish and community work. She was a fifty-year member of St. Anne's Society and a long-time member of the Third Order of St. Francis.

Among out of town relatives here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Herr of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herr of Pilot Point, Adolph Herr of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuhn and Melvin Herr of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Herr of Wichita Falls, Wilfred Herr of Purcell, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Al Schnitker of Pottsboro.

All Around the World

For visitors from the States, Mexico has published a "helpful hints for tourists" booklet. One pertinent paragraph reads:

"In Mexico, you don't whistle for a taxi, or a waiter, or a bellhop, or a redcap. In Mexico, you whistle at only one thing . . . yeah, you're right."

the merchant thereby had an opportunity to display his merchandise," the opinion continued. "It is a fundamental rule of merchandising that the first step in selling is to bring customers to where the merchandise is on display. Merchants pay money for advertising merely to get customers in their place of business, because if customers come into the place a part of them usually buy."

"The fact that the customer went to the merchant's place of business was of value to the merchant," Wilson ruled, "and constituted a consideration."

As a result, he said, the plan amounted to a lottery and therefore is illegal.

are opposed to close friendship between the races, or at least to courtship or marriage.

The same applies to the vast majority of colored people. Many do not favor integration in the schools and many more oppose the more intimate integration. Whites and Negroes alike are generally agreed that God made the races different and expects them to remain separate.

During this Brotherhood Week it would be a good idea to consider current troubles and acknowledge that integration, like the old prohibition law, is a futile effort to legislate a so called virtue. We might also take notice that the big pushers behind this integration issue seem more determined to mix the races than to educate Negro children.

David Lawrence suggests a solution for the integration problem. He says enforce it all the way all over the country. That will cause public opinion to assert itself in sufficient volume to force legislative action. The result, he predicts would be the same as on prohibition. The nation would turn it over to the states, where it belongs anyway.
