VOLUME XXII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

OCTOBER 10, 1958

NUMBER 46

A distinctive and ornamental little sign . . . which would have been mentioned two weeks ago if yours truly had been more observant . . . is Doc Myrick's name plate at the front of Dixie Drug. Very appropriately it has a small silhouette of a horse and buggy over the name "T. S. Myrick, M.D."

There is rich significance in that little outline of the horse and buggy. To many it is a symbol of the "country doctor," the beloved general practitioner who served his community in the highest tradition of the profession, answering calls at all hours, ministering to every ailment, bringing hundreds of new babies into the world.

It is easy to understand why Doc should want to identify his local career with that tradition. Despite the specializing of our time he has remained the country doctor. He has been a vital part of a community rather than a specialized member of profession.

As beneficiaries of his long record of service, we too have reason to be proud of the sign. We kept our country doctor while thousands of other communities lost theirs. We are definite gainers in health and tradition.

A bouquet to the Muenster State Bank is in order for its civic effort in reducing the amount of litter around town. Those litterbug bags it is distributing can be a real help to all who wish to cooperate in keeping the town clean. After all, so little effort is required. Just keep the little bag handy in a car and use it for discarded items that would otherwise be thrown out of the window, then empty it later in a trash receptacle. Everyone who goes along with the idea will be doing his bit toward keeping streets and highways cleaner.

Likewise, credit is due the city council . . . for its current far sighted interest in more fire protection facilities. The first of these seems like a trifle. It is an approved siren to notify the town if and when a fire breaks out. To us it seems like only a slight improvement over the whistle now in use, but the extra benefit lies in the reduction of insurance rates. Estimates are that its cost would be offset in less than two years by savings on local premiums.

The big item is an adequate fire truck. Because of its high cost, that item has the council thinking more cautiously, but there again the cost can be offset over a period of years by savings on fire insurance premiums.

If we will face the facts we must also admit that such a truck is urgently needed. There has been a big element of luck in the city's low fire losses in recent years. Fires have occurred in buildings that could be served adequately by the limited pumping power at our disposal. The story would have been different if the water were needed in the roof structure of the church or parish hall or the parochial elementary school.

As taxpayers we dread the cost of a good fire truck, but as individuals we get real satisfaction from the thought of lower insurance premiums and better fire protection. As we consider both sides we are inclined to agree that the investment is a wise one.

Another little detail on the subject: Grass fires almost every summer frequently send the city's only pumper truck out of town on emergencies. A fire in town at such a time could be serious. Another pumper would leave comforting protection in town while help is needed in the country.

Incidentally, how many of our country friends have stopped to consider the accommodation provided them by city taxpayers? The fire truck, the swimming pool, the city park . . . all supported wholly or in part by the city. Besides, there's the personal help of the volunteer firemen who take the fire truck out on emergency calls.

Herewith is timely and pertinent comment from National Review on our government's policy of fiscal irresponsibility: Addressing the convention of the American Bankers Association, Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson scolded the nation's "private investment institutions" for failing to give "aggressive assistance in the Treasury financing job." The drop in the market price of its

HIS HOLINESS, POPE PIUS XII, the 261st pope of the Catholic Church died early Thursday in the papal summer home, Costel Gandolfo, after three days of serious illness. He suffered a stroke on Monday and rallied, then a more serious stroke on Wednesday after which his condition steadily became worse. He was 82 years old, had been the pope for 19 years.

Inspired Era Team Triumphs 22-6 at MHS Homecoming

Heavy gloom was cast over the Muenster High homecoming last Saturday night by a determined swarm of Era Hornets. Repeating their performance of two years ago, the visitors ruled the field in every respect. The game was even more one sided than indicated by the score of 22-6. The Era boys were true to the school's custom over the past several years. They shook off all of the weakness or sluggishness of former games and suddenly came up looking like champions. Muenster, on the other hand, seemed to be laboring under the customary Era jinx.

Muenster's only bright spot was in the opening minutes of the game, after recovering an Era fumble on the 20. The visitors' vicious defense threw the first two plays for a loss of 10, but it was caught by surprise on the next maneuver. On a quickie play the ball was snapped before Era was ready and Harris got away on a 90 yard scoring sprint.

From there on Era tore the Muenster defense to shreds and held the offense practically helpless. (Continued on Page 10)

Four Girls Compete For FFA Chapter's Sweetheart Title

Sweetheart of Muenster High's FFA chapter this year will have to earn the title and the honors that go with it. This year's favorite will be determined by a contest.

In previous years the Future Farmers selected their sweetheart by a vote of chapter members. This year the boys chose a favorite from each high school class and asked the girls to help raise funds for their depleting treasury. So the four young ladies are working to secure votes at a penny each.

SECOND GENERATION SCOUT

Scoutmaster Nick Miller now has what he fondly refers to as his "first grandchild." It's a second generation Boy Scout, Danny Wilde, who just became of age and joined the troop. His father, Ray Wilde, was a Scout and Nick Miller was his Scoutmaster. Danny's daddy was with the first troop under Mr. Miller's leadership in 1935.

BIG ANNIVERSARY

By a welcome coincidence last Saturday the Muenster Livestock Auction celebrated the first anniversary in its new sale barn with the biggest sale held there to date. No special plan had been made for the big day, it just happened. Over 1000 head of cattle were sold.

Lindsay Will Host Sherman Deanery At NCCW Institute

Record attendance for a deanery program of the National Council of Catholic Women is expected at Lindsay next Wednesday when the organization meets for its Deanery Institute. This is one of the several similar meetings to be held in each deanery of the Catholic Diocese.

The purpose of the institute is to inform membership of all phases of the NCCW's program, on national, diocesan and deanery levels. A field representative of the national organization will conduct the program and Bishop Gorman is expected to be present.

Pastors of all parishes in the deanery have been asked to emphasize the importance of this meeting and to urge an extra large representation there.

It will be held in the Lindsay parish hall from 9:30 to 4 p.m. on Oct. 15. Those attending are reminded to bring a sack lunch for the noon meal.

Tigers Will Meet Sherman B Team Here Tonight at 8

Another team of unknown power is on schedule for the Sacred Heart Tigers this week. That's the Sherman B team, about which Coach George Petrus has found just one performance report . . . a loss of 42-0 to Leonard.

Other reports say that Leonard is a power house, so the Sherman Bs can still be a potent outfit in spite of the walloping.

Figuring the scanty information, Petrus feels the best he can do is assume the teams are evenly matched and to hope that his lads will be up to their standard of last week. Physically they are ready. The only absentee is Bobby Walterscheid, who is still nursing a ligament injury in his leg.

As regards weight, the team comparison is about the same as usual. Sacred Heart will be smaller.

Game time is 8 o'clock Thursday night on the Tiger field.

Herb Miller Heads Sacred Heart Exes

Herbert Miller heads the list of officers for Sacred Heart Alumni Association for a new year. Members favored him for president in their election Tuesday night.

Other officers are Ed Schneider, vice president, Mrs. Arthur Bayer, secretary, and Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid, treasurer by reelection.

Outgoing president Ed Schneider conducted the business session in the presence of Father Bruno Fuhrmann who gave a short address.

After adjournment there were games of volley ball and refreshments. Dan Haverkamp won the door prize.

Tigers Look Fine In 28-6 Win Over Ladonia Rattlers

Sacred Heart's Tigers were terrific for their homecoming tussle last Friday night as they outfoxed and outfought the Ladonia High Rattlers to a count of 28-6.

Though at a slight disadvantage in weight, the local youngsters dominated both offensively and defensively for almost all of the game. The only exception was in the closing minutes when the visitors gobbled up 63 yards on two big plays and made the last 2 yards on the next effort.

For the rest of the game Sacred Heart was in almost complete control. Four times they carried their offensive all the way but allowed the Rattlers only a few short and scattered gains. Stopped cold on running plays, Ladonia took to the air in the second half and made more headway . . . but still not enough to cause the Tigers any worry.

The opening minutes belonged to the visitors as they held Sacred Heart on the first series of downs and promptly reeled off a first down of their own. On the next series Wimmer stole a Rattler aerial and apparently changed the course of the game. The Tigers used 8 plays in their 48 yard scoring drive, Charles Bayer making the last 6.

For some 10 minutes after that the teams were deadlocked. Ladonia kicked three times and Sacred Heart twice when, about midway in the second quarter, Donald Hennigan broke away on a beautiful 54 yard scoring run. Breaking through left tackle he headed goalward, and helped by the timely block by a teammate he crossed the goal line without being touched.

Early in the third quarter Sacred Heart launched its third scoring drive . . . a total of 48 (Continued on Page 10)

KCs Will Observe Patron's Feast Day With Three Events

Three events next Sunday, Columbus Day, will mark the observance of their patron's feast by members of the local K of C Council.

The first a group reception of communion at the 8 o'clock mass. Promptly thereafter members and their ladies will be guests of the council at a communion breakfast in the Sacred Heart lunch room. Arrangements are underway to have a visiting speaker there but confirmation had not been received up to Wednesday.

A barbecue supper in the KC hall starting at 5:30 completes the day's program. A special guest expected then is District Deputy George Hilz of Pilot Point. As in the morning, ladies are welcome at this event.

Hornets Will Have Revised Lineup in Game with Sanger

Still looking for their first win of the season the Muenster Hornets will invade Sanger Friday night to take on the outfit that is generally rated the weakest in the 12-B conference. Sanger was mauled 36-8 by the Callisburg Wildcats last week.

In spite of troubles up to now, Coach Boze Ansley is optimistic about this one. He bases his confidence partly on the fact that the Indians have shown even greater weakness to date than the Hornets, and partly on the reorganization of the Hornets.

Friday night's lineup will find increased power in the line as Billy Otto and Kenny Klement move their brawn and experience to the front. At the same time the backfield also undergoes major changes. Doug Hellman moves to fullback and his Freshman brother Mark succeeds him at quarterback. Joe Hellman is another candidate for quarterback. Halfbacks are James Harris and Larry Wimmer.

The new lineup got its first test Tuesday in a scrimmage with the Sacred Heart Tigers. According to Coach Ansley it was the most effective combination, both offensively and defensively, that the team has had this season.

Juniors are Proud After 16-0 Loss to Sanger Youngsters

The cocky attitude of George Lemons and his Muenster Juniors Wednesday was misleading. They have been acting like winners but the fact is that they went down by a count of 16-0. Behind Lemons' satisfaction is solid pride in the performance of his pint size elementary kids. They did a magnificent job against boys who had a long advantage in weight.

By prior agreement Lemons held back his Freshman boys because the Sanger coach had only elementary boys on his team. It developed, however, that the visiting lads were as husky as Muenster's regular junior team . . . and dwarfed the local grade schoolers.

The result was that Sanger's boys applied their superior power and ground out a touchdown in each of the first two quarters.

For the rest of the game Lemons' kids held the visitors and made some nice gains of their own. As each half ended they were in possession and gaining.

Next for the Juniors is a clash with Alvord next Tuesday night at Alvord.

Swim Pool Loss For Season Is $572

Muenster's swimming pool this year had the poorest season of the three that it has been in operation. Members of the city council, after figuring costs and inventory of water treating materials, decided that the pool had operated at a net loss of $572. A report submitted by Manager L. B. Bruns at the end of the season was known to be incomplete because it did not include amounts paid out by the city.

A mild summer was responsible for the decline in business volume. There were many cool days when only a few swimmers came, some when no one came.

City officials are not discouraged, however. They feel that the cost was low in comparison with the recreational opportunities provided. Another benefit they figured in was the saving of time and travel expense of many who otherwise would have driven to other cities.

Council Considers Buying Fire Siren And Pumper Truck

Purchase of a standard fire siren and a larger fire truck received the attention of the Muenster city council at its regular meeting Monday night.

Though not actually approved, purchase of the siren is practically assured. The council did not hesitate long after studying figures on key rate reductions in fire insurance. A standard siren entitles a city to a 3 cent reduction in its key rate, which figures to about $250 a year on the insurance premiums of Muenster. The cost of the siren is estimated at about $500.

State fire insurance regulations do not allow any key rate credit for a whistle such as Muenster has used for many years. A siren is required and it must be so located that it can be heard all over town. The council decided to mount its siren on the water tower.

To earn key rate credit a fire truck must be able to pump at least 500 gallons a minute. A greater capacity is recommended so that it will still meet the minimum requirement in case of loss of efficiency. The price of such a truck was believed to be near $10,000.

Offsetting its cost is a key rate credit of 7 cents, which figures to near $600 a year on all local premiums. At that rate it is believed that an adequate fire truck here will pay for itself in reduced premiums in about 20 years. The council has decided to get quotations for fire trucks and study the possibilities.

Cub Grid Schedule Snarled for Sunday

The Cubs of Sacred Heart Elementary will likely have a game next Sunday, but, until Wednesday, Coach George Petrus did not know whom or where they will play.

Behind the confusion is the arrangement of the parochial loop schedule before teams were organized. And now comes the report that Sunday's opponent for the Cubs, Mary Queen of Peace of Wichita Falls, does not have a team. So Petrus will have to make inquiries.

If the game is played as originally scheduled, Queen of Peace will play here Sunday afternoon. If not, Petrus hopes to fill in a vacant date on the schedule of Mary Immaculate Academy, also of Wichita, in which case the game may be either here or there.

6th District KCs To Have Initiation Here December 16

Knights of Columbus of the Sixth Texas District will gather here on Sunday, December 16, for a major initiation, according to plans discussed Wednesday in the regular meeting of the local KC council. Councils represented in the Sixth District are Muenster, Gainesville, Denison, Sherman and Pilot Point.

The local ceremonies will include second and third degrees, following first degree ceremonies the preceding Thursday night in Denison.

Al Horn is chairman of the membership committee, which is working for a big representation of Muenster candidates for the degree.

Della Rose Fette And Donald Bayer Say Vows at Mass

In a morning ceremony at Sacred Heart Church, Della Rose Fette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fette, became the bride of Donald Bayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer. Rev. Christopher Paladino officiated at the Saturday wedding. The couple pledged vows in a double ring service during nuptial high mass. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an antique white taffeta gown with an empire bodice enhanced by shirring at the front and sides and an aisle-wide skirt that swept into a scalloped edged chapel train. It was covered by misty silk illusion which fashioned her full-length veil attached to a crown of bridal jewels. She carried a cascade of white roses and a crystal rosary, a gift from the groom. Della added bridal sentiment to her wedding by wearing the gold band her grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Otto, received when she was a bride 53 years ago. For something borrowed she wore a chain and cross belonging to her sister, Mrs. Dan Haverkamp.

Bridal Attendants

Mrs. Haverkamp attended as matron of honor and Patsy Bayer of Fort Worth, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They were identically costumed. Their street length dresses of royal blue chiffon velvet had shirred bodices and wide gathered skirts over crinolines. They wore matching satin slippers and headpieces with nose veils and wrist length white gloves and carried white baskets of American Beauty roses. Their single strand of pearls and matching earrings were gifts from the bride.

Dan Haverkamp was best man and Jerry Klement, cousin of the bride from Texas A&M College, was groomsman.

Sacred Heart men's choir and Anthony Luke, organist, presented music for the mass and Mrs. Alfons Koesler Jr. sang a post-nuptial solo while the newly married pair went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine where the bride placed white carnations on the altar.

Mrs. Fette attended her daughter's wedding in a black chemise suit with black accessories and Mrs. Bayer, mother of the groom, attended in a toast costume with brown accessories. Both had white carnation corsages, as did grandmothers of the couple, Mrs. J. H. Otto, Mrs. Henry Fette and Mrs. Joe Walterscheid.

Ushers were Willard Hartman of Denton and Billy Otto and Fred Hennigan Jr.

Wedding Day Festivities

Wedding day festivities began with brunch in the Ace Cafe after church services for the bridal party, officiating minister and immediate members of both families. Hosts were Messrs. and Mmes. Leonard Hartman and Johnny Rohmer, brothers-in-law and sisters of the bride.

At 5 p.m. in the parish hall, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception and buffet with Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catering. About 325 guests were registered by Mrs. Gerald Hess of Gainesville and Mrs. Denis Hofbauer, cousins of the couple. Mrs. Fred Hennigan Jr. and Mrs. Ervin Henscheid served the wedding cake. A dance in the VFW hall followed.

Will Live in Crockett

It was after the dance that Mr. and Mrs. Bayer left on their honeymoon trip not disclosing their destination. After Oct. 13 they will make their home in Crockett. For traveling she wore a toast colored sheath dress of wool jersey with black leather accessories and a white rose corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bayer are natives of Muenster and graduates of Sacred Heart High school. She was also graduated from beauty school in Dallas and worked there before her marriage. Mr. Bayer was graduated from Texas A&M College with a bachelor degree in dairy science and a commission as a second lieutenant in the army. He served at Fort Bliss, El Paso, and has since been assistant county agent of Houston County, living at Crockett.

Out Of Town Guests

Among out of town guests at the wedding were County Agent and Mrs. Phillip Nix of Crockett and their niece Rita of Dallas, Joe Felderhoff and Tony McRedmann of San Antonio, Jerry Fette and Delette McKee of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Klement of College Station, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schleicher and the Jim Fettes, Lorette Mages and Harriet Otto of Dallas, Collette Hellman of Fort Worth, David Klement of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Gremminger of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. William Seyler and Mr. and Mrs. James Bayer of Valley View, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pelzel of Lindsay and Messrs. and Mmes. Al Bayer, Roy Dale Davis, Gerald Hess, Walter Wolf, Randy Bayer, George Schmidkofer and Johnny Schmitz of Gainesville.

Double Christening Followed by Party

A double baptism ceremony was held Sunday in Sacred Heart Church for the adopted sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sicking. Father Christopher officiated at the one o'clock service for Larry Charles 8 and Johnny Ray 6.

Sponsors for Larry were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sicking and for Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Prescher of Gainesville. Attending were the parents and baby son Pat, the grandparents Gus Sicking, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prescher of Lindsay, and all the Benedictine Sisters. Johnny started school this year and Larry is a third grader.

After the service, 15 adults and 20 children were guests in the Sicking home for ice cream and cake and picture taking. Those attending brought a shower of gifts for the little boys.

EVERYBODY'S PROGRESS

It's a long journey from that hole-in-the-ground (or under the sea) that yields dark, greasy, crude oil to the nozzle that delivers finished gasoline of the desired octane rating to your car. And it's a lot farther when you consider that the gas you buy today was originally a gleam in a geologist's eye — and got to you through the patient efforts of prospecting crews sounding likely spots in the earth's crust electronically for symptoms of oil, through weeks and months of slugging by drillers probing miles deep for the one well out of nine that will produce the essential fluid that keeps the arteries of trade and transportation pulsing and powers, in a large sense, everyman's pursuit of happiness.

This is the simplest possible picture of that vast organism of thousands of men and women known as the American petroleum industry, that has grown within a hundred years from a dream to the producer of the nine million barrels of oil products the nation must have every day! And the picture grows still more dramatic when it is realized that the 190 million Americans of 1965 will require twelve million barrels a day — and that the industry is now working toward that goal and is expected to spend $80 billion in attaining it!

Such expansion in exploration, drilling, refining, distribution, marketing and research together with constant improvement in products and constant addition of new ones (such as the endless array of relatively new petro-chemicals) is what the industry refers to as "oil progress" — and provides the reason for blowing off a little steam annually during Oil Progress Week.

This year, these festivities will be held from October 12-18 and revolve around the theme: "Today — Oil Builds for Your Tomorrow." The oil man everyone knows is the local service station operator. He and his competitors in communities across the nation are cooperating to bring to the consciousness of every customer the drama of oil. Many are continuing the Scholarship Foundations launched a year ago, and providing thousands of dollars to aid worthy and needy science students in securing college educations. And, in the 35 states without compulsory automobile inspection laws, many are setting up special Oil Progress Week Safety Check stations and giving their time and experience in providing to all comers a free, ten-point safety inspection which should reduce

INSULATION
 Keeps the weather outside!
 It doesn't cost, it pays.
 Heating engineers estimate that insulation will actually pay for itself in fuel savings in as little as 5 or 6 years. Likewise, air conditioning is more efficient in an insulated house. Here's one kind of comfort that actually does not cost you. In the long run you save money by insulating.

If Fire Strikes Your Home...
GET OUT of the house the minute you discover it or smell smoke!
ALWAYS be ready to use different escape routes from any room in your house!
TEST doors before opening. If doors are hot, block them with furniture or wet mattresses to keep out smoke and gases. Get out another way!
NEVER jump from upper-story windows except as a last resort! Wait for firemen.
HOLD your breath if you have to make a dash through smoke and flame!
REMEMBER, the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled room!
CALL the fire department at once! They know how to fight fire. Don't waste your time or your life trying to fight a fire, unless it's so small you're sure you can control it with the right extinguisher.
DON'T ever go back to a burning building for any reason! Smoke and fire gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly.
GET medical treatment at once, if you're burned or exposed to fire and smoke! Seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can have fatal results.

TIME TO SEE RED

Thoughtful and patriotic Americans who constitute the Committee of One Million (Against the Admission of Communist China to the United Nations) have literally "thrown the book" at the fiendish Mao regime — in providing to each delegation at the UN an advance copy of "The Black Book on Red China." A few days later, with the US Ambassador to the UN, Henry Cabot Lodge, leading the fight against permitting Red China to "shoot her way into the United Nations," the powerful Steering Committee voted 12-7, with two abstentions, to table the issue for another year. Later, the General Assembly concurred, but by a smaller vote (44-28 with nine abstentions) than last year or in 1956.

Whatever the relationship between these two events, it might be noted that Mr. Lodge was presented with this copy of the "black book" by General James Van Fleet, commander of UN forces in Korea, and a group of mothers of American POW's who have not been heard from since the gates of Red Chinese prisons closed behind them.

The Committee of One Million was founded in 1953 to oppose not only admission of Red China to the UN, but to fight equally against US recognition of the murderous regime in Peiping. Honorary Chairman is Warren R. Austin, former Senator from Vermont and first US Ambassador to the UN, who describes this committee as representing "the thoughtful and forceful dedication of the American people to the struggle against any tyranny which would enslave the body, the mind and the soul of man."

The completeness with which this tyranny has enveloped 600 million mainland Chinese and sought — with disconcerting success — to impose its lethal ideology on all Southeast Asia is the theme of The Black Book. The matter-of-factness and documentation with which the author, Edward Hunter, presents the annihilation of an estimated 30 to 50 million people through purge or pressure, the methodical destruction of the family — for thousands of years the foundation of China's strength — the use of opium as an instrument of aggression, make the book all the more shocking. But, besides unspeakable cruelty and cunning, it reveals the flaws in Red control in this "land of continuing revolt" and the unquenchable hope for freedom.

The UN admission question is tabled for now, but it will be back again in a year. And it is alarmingly significant that as support of US opposition in the Assembly has been dwindling, pressure for diplomatic recognition of Peiping by the US has been mounting. Today, as we question whether to defend Quemoy or abandon our national honor (and sanity), Red China constitutes our gravest national problem, and The Black Book on Red China the most essential and immediate reading for every good citizen. Published by The Bookmailer, it is now available from the Committee of One Million at 17 Park Avenue, NY 16, NY, and costs $2. When you have read it, pass it along to a friend, or better yet, to the high school library.

GOD'S BOOK - AND MAN'S

by Rev. Neil J. McLeney, C.S.P., Professor of Sacred Scripture, St. Paul's College, Washington, D. C.

Perhaps it's Sunday. Or maybe the book catches your eye and curiosity sends you towards it. You pick up the Bible and begin to read. Before you've gone very far, you ask yourself, "If this is the Word of God, why don't I understand it?"

from all the toil and effort of authorship. The finished work, then, is God's work. It is also man's. Each of them produces it.

There are some interesting consequences of this. What the human author teaches, God teaches. This is why the Bible cannot teach error. It is protected by God's veracity.

THE HUMAN AUTHOR is a true author. He is, moreover, a child of his age, reflecting the mentality, environment, and characteristics of a culture and time far removed from ours. That is why the Bible is so difficult to interpret.

TO SEIZE THE AUTHOR'S meaning we must go back to the times in which he lived. Once we gain some appreciation of the literary forms current in his day, we begin to understand what he is telling us. We see the seven days of Creation as a literary device to impress the Sabbath rest on the minds of his hearers, while he teaches them that God made everything about them. Noah's Flood becomes a story depicting God's justice and mercy. And so it goes.

Obviously this means reading books about the Bible as well as the Bible itself. Effort? Yes, but there is a reward for our effort. We find it in a surer grasp of God's Word as it comes to us through the inspired men of another age.

GOD'S WORD IT IS, and as such it deserves our deepest respect. But suddenly you've become very conscious of the human element in the Bible. You've learned that the Bible has a twofold authorship, God and man each contributing to it. How?

McLeney

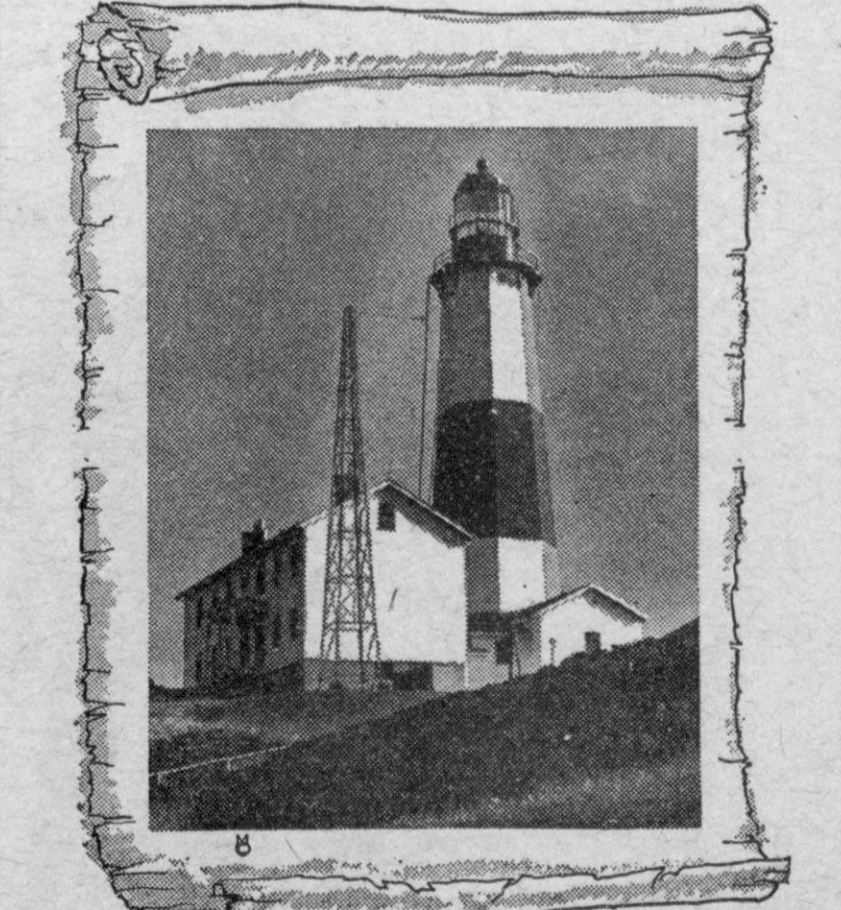

They are not simply co-authors, each doing a part of the work. Nor does God dictate the whole of it, giving the human author nothing to do but write it all down. It is not as simple as that.

GOD "INSPIRES," that is, he moves the human agent to write. He influences the human author in every phase of the activity needed to produce the finished work. He does so mysteriously, in such a way as not to violate the free will of His chosen instrument. As a result, the human author may not even be aware of God's inspiration. And certainly he is not exempt

This country has set all manner of records in recent times. A new one has just been announced by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Harrington. Last year the American people paid an all-time high of $89,171,971,000 in federal taxes — more than the total internal revenue collected from 1789 through 1936, and some $5 billion above the 1956 figure.

Ex-Students Enjoy Program Arranged At MHS Homecoming
 Neither wind, nor chill, nor their favorite football team's short end of the score in the game at Muenster High Saturday night depressed spirits of the school's ex-students who gathered for the fourth annual homecoming program. It was a happy crowd applauding at the coronation of Miss Pat Otto as 1958 homecoming queen — a crowd that brought life and mirth to the dinner meeting and then had a merry time at the dance.

Queen Pat was selected by votes of the exes and her identity was kept secret until the crowning ceremony on the fifty yard line at football half time. Charley Hoffman, treasurer of the Ex-Student Association, placed a crown of pearls and sequins on the head of Her Royal Highness and presented her an arm bouquet of white mums. The petite blonde queen, a senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Otto. She wore a bouffant white ruffled formal of Princesses in her court were Jolene Carlton in mist green, escorted by Butch Hudspeth; Tommie Sue Hamilton in white, escorted by Johnny Fette; and Angela Dern in pink, escorted by Don Lehnertz. The three princesses received mum corsages, pinned on the three other officers of the Ex-Student Association, Mrs. Ervin Hamric, president, Herbert Meurer, vice president, and Rosa Driever, secretary. Tiny Linda Pitman was flower girl and R. D. Rumley was crown bearer. Superintendent H. H. Homsley was at the microphone.

After the game, at the meeting following dinner in the school cafeteria, Mrs. Hamric conducted a lively session, made introductions, gave recognition to those entitled to attention, acknowledged favors and presided for a brief business session.

Awards this year went to John Fisher who traced his school days back farther than any other man present and to Mrs. L. A. Bernauer for that distinction among the ladies. Butch Fisher of Lubbock, who traveled the longest distance to attend also received a gift. More than 130 were at the dinner meeting. Jim Harris and his band played for the dance in the gym. Senior students and their sponsor Mrs. H. H. Homsley and senior mothers prepared the luscious meal and decorated the dining room in red and white, school colors.

Watches, Like Cars, Make Big Changes Inside and Outside

Revolutionary changes in the watch industry during the past decade are equal to or surpass those in the automotive and appliance fields.

This was the statement of Francis Wiese of Wiese Jewelry, who is participating in the eleventh annual "Watch Parade Time" along with 30,000 jewelers throughout the country.

This nationwide accent on watches, according to Mr. Wiese "is an effort to make people aware that styling in quality timepieces is really new today, and so are the mechanical features which keep advancing from year to year.

"For instance, for women, there's the homemaker's watch and the businesswoman's watch. The former types are tightly sealed to resist the cold of the refrigerator, the dampness of doing dishes and all the jolts and jars of housework. And watches for the career girl have high-fashion good looks appropriate for any daytime office or social activity."

Also cited were some of the technological advances made during past years by the jeweled-lever watch industry in developing watches for many occupational and pleasure needs — watches whose performance is as amazing as the most complicated machinery being used today.

These include chronograph wristwatches for split-second timing and for calculating, watches that tell the day and date and those that ring an alarm. Others in the special-purpose field are moonphase and tide-recording watches for sea-going men and outdoor enthusiasts, skin-diver watches; watches with a built-in slide-rule for engineers and global timepieces which tell time simultaneously in all parts of the world.

But the distinguishing feature of all these watches, whether they're men's women's or for the teenager, is they contain what's known as a "jeweled-lever" movement. A jeweled-lever watch means quality, because it has ruby jewels, made synthetically, at all major points of wear.

Crayfish, like lobsters, can grow a new leg or antenna to replace one that is amputated.

"I wish I knew what to do with my hands when I'm singing," she complained to her husband.

"Why not," answered her severest critic, "just hold them over your mouth."

In 1957, 2.1 per cent of the nation's farmers produced 33 per cent of all farm products and half of the farmers produced 90 per cent. Thus, 50 per cent of U. S. farmers produced only 10 per cent of the total farm production.

Homecoming Crowd At SHH Sees Gala Crowning Ceremony

Dressed in white and gold and carrying a gleaming scepter, Queen Marilyn of the House of Hess had a wide smile for the cheering homecoming crowd at Sacred Heart High Friday night when she received her crown and was proclaimed Tiger Queen for 1958. The colorful ceremonies took place on the football field before the Tigers lined up to do battle with the Ladonia Rattlers. And the spectators continued cheering as they watched the Tigers take the bite out of the Rattlers with a 28-6 win.

Tiger Co-Captain Herman Grewing escorted Her Majesty and placed a sparkling coronet on her red-blond curls. Brown-eyed Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hess and a junior student. She won the queen's crown in a highly competitive contest with three other high school class favorites.

Marilyn's floor length formal of taffeta and lace with gold cummerbund and wide skirt of multiple tiny ruffles was topped by a royal cape of white and gold. Train bearers were Alice Klement, Carla Rose Schilling, Debbie Felderhoff and Joey Trubenbach.

Princesses in the queen's court and their escorts, all participants in the pre-game ceremonies were Charlene Otto, freshman, in light blue, carrying the football, escorted by Earl Hess; Betty Ann Dangelmayr, sophomore, in coral pink, bearer of the queen's bouquet, escorted by Leon Fuhrmann; and Virgilla Schilling, senior, runner-up in the contest, in white, the crown bearer, escorted by Roy Swirczynski. Princesses' corsages were red and white carnations, flowers which also composed the queen's bouquet.

After the coronation Queen Marilyn was escorted to her throne, accompanied by her court, to reign over homecoming festivities. A dance in the parish hall was the final social event on the night's program which started with a parade and pep rally.

91 Year Old Lady Joins in Hoeing at Cemetery Cleanup

In spite of unpleasant weather last Wednesday several persons gathered at Marysville cemetery for clean-up day. Busiest of all was 91-year-old Mrs. Mattie Doughty who hoed nine graves — those of her husband, daughter, father, sister, grandmother and four nieces. The energetic Mrs. Doughty spent about two hours at the cemetery.

Others working were Nathan Whitt, Jim Shiflet, Oliver Walker and Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Lyons, and from Gainesville Mrs. Marie Stiles and her uncle Eugene Lyons. Earlier, E. E. Ballinger had done a great deal of general clean up.

Mrs. Lyons, chairman of the cemetery committee, served sandwiches, coffee and cookies for lunch.

Then, there were the two inebriates at the bar. "It says here that they produced over 50,000 carloads of grapes in California last year," said the one to the other.

"Start drinking, man," replied his friend, "they're gaining on us."

COST OF FUEL UP... AVERAGE PRICE PER KWH OF ELECTRICITY DOWN

ONCE making a pie for the family was a major chore because it meant that mother had to build a fire in the wood stove with her own two hands (after Pop and the boys had cut the wood). Today, you get the same tempting result simply by flicking a switch!

Because fuel is an important factor in its service to you, Texas Power & Light Company maintains a fuel exploration and research program in an effort to assure an abundant and economical source of fuel for the future. Its major power plants have been designed for the use of different types of fuel and their location has taken into account not only the centers of the Company's power loads, but also the availability of known fuel reserves.

This is one of the ways in which TP&L research and planning keeps your average cost per unit for electric service down. Despite the rising cost of fuel (up 213% since 1946), and other increased costs of doing business, the average price per kilowatt-hour paid for TP&L residential service has gone down 21% since 1946 and down 43% since 1936.

Electricity is the biggest bargain in your family budget.

How to Help Your Child in School

The best ally your child has in coping with school is you, say the editors of CHANGING TIMES, the Kiplinger Magazine. Whether he's going for the first time, or leaving home for college, you've got to help him get through the difficult periods. According to the editors, here is the best way to do it.

IN THE EARLY GRADES. Best way to help him is to learn what his pace is. Some kids learn to read faster than others. Don't pressure him needlessly. You can stimulate him, however, by talking with him about nature, games, books; by taking him on trips to museums; by reading to him, by helping him build a library.

IN THE MIDDLE GRADES. Conferences with the teachers should begin early. Some things you'll want to know: Is he working at his full capacity? How does he measure up to the standards of his grade? How does he get along with others? Does the teacher have any suggestions about how you can help him?

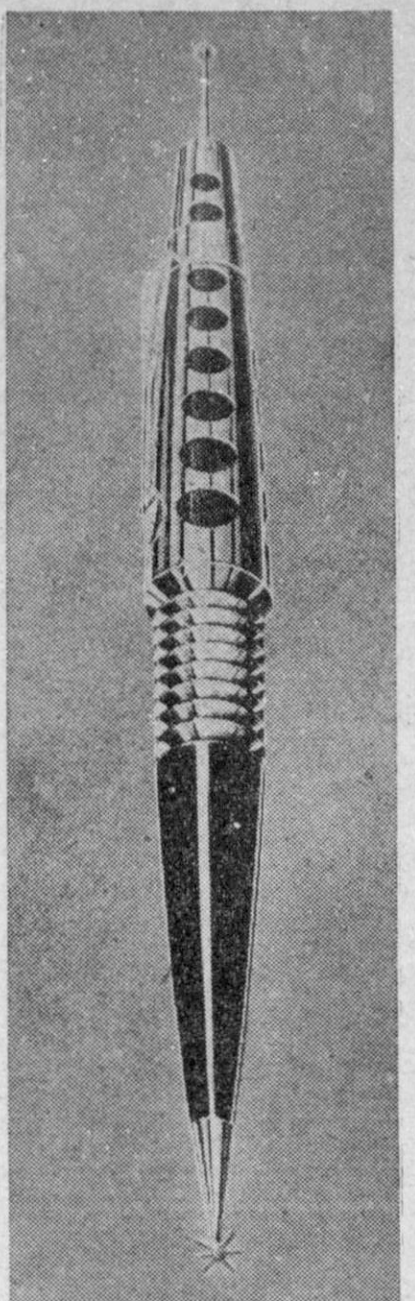

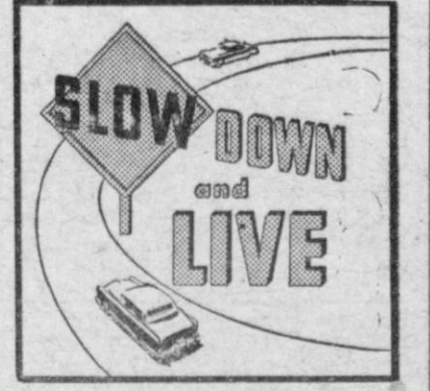

IN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL. By the eighth grade the child has had a good chance to demonstrate his academic potential. Batteries of tests help spot his aptitudes and vocational interests. This is the time for talk about high school curriculum, education after high school and career.

By now your boy or girl should be able to study effectively on his own. Don't hound him to get down to work. Help him understand the importance of setting a definite schedule and adhering to it. See that he has a study place. Help him with his homework only when necessary and only by helping him find the way toward a solution, never by doing the work.

IN HIGH SCHOOL. More understanding than ever of his strength and weaknesses, and of his need to do what other teenagers are doing. Keep in touch with what he's studying and with his teachers and friends.

Don't wait too long to discuss the choice of college. Suggest that he visit the schools he has in mind. Talk over finances with him early.

IN COLLEGE. He's on his own. Your job is to be proud of him, and to be available when needed.

SPACE WRITER — Not yet operational, pen pictured above is designed to use the sun's energy as "ink." 1000 Applications A Week are Faculty For Driver License

The Texas Department of Public Safety reported today that it is returning applications and fees for renewal of Texas Driver Licenses at the rate of one-thousand per week because of information insufficient to identify the applicant.

The wholesale return of DL applications is brought on by the omission of a number of factors that must be included for the proper identification of the person desiring to renew his driver license. The department reported that it must have the full name of the individual, the person's birth date and current address. The number of the old license is a quick means of identification.

Most of the information needed is already included on the renewal notice that is sent by the department to the motorist prior to the expiration of his license. A space is provided for that license owner to change his address.

H. C. Smith, manager of the DPS License Issuance and Driver Record section reports that most of the difficulty comes when a person applies for renewal without returning a renewal notice. In this type of renewal application the individual simply writes a letter and includes the fee.

Insufficient information in renewal applications received by the Texas DPS sets up a chain reaction of processes for identification of the individual asking for a new license. But in many instances the search is hopeless.

When a man gives the name of A. B. Smith in his renewal application, file clerks of the Driver License service of the state police organization set to work in an attempt to identify the individual by birth date, address, or other information contained in his permanent file. However, if all identifying information does not correspond, the application must be returned to the individual.

You can imagine the task that awaits a DL clerk who must search through a file that contains more than five-million individual records, and more specifically, to look for the name of A. B. Smith in 35 trays with each containing 700 personal record files. There are 36,400 files in the department's massive record system bearing the name of Smith.

In order that it may improve its service of renewing licenses with a minimum delay to motorists, the Texas Department of Public Safety asks that you give complete information.

A woman should give her date of birth, all given names, and her surname. If she is married, she should also give her maiden surname and previous married names.

A man should give his date of birth, first name, middle name and surname.

If you have changed addresses, clearly indicate the proper address. And it always helps to list the number of your old license. That number belongs to you and will be on all licenses issued to you.

Texas driver licenses are issued for a two year period and expire on the date given on the face of the license. The fee for an operator's license is $2.00, a commercial operator $3.00 and a chauffeur's $4.00.

The Texas DPS asks that you check the expiration date of your current license and renew it in time — before you discover you are driving without a valid license. And in making application for renewal, include complete information. Correct, complete information on your renewal will result in a more rapid return of your new Texas driver license.

Lindsay News

Joseph Bezner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bezner, who enlisted in the Air Force, is stationed at Lackland AFB in San Antonio for basic training. He is a 1958 graduate of Lindsay High School. Home for the weekend to visit her family and see her brother before he left Sunday was Marlene Bezner, student nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth. New address for AB Joseph Bezner is AF 18561181; Flight 792, Box 1507; Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

A large crowd here Sunday for the Subiaco Alumni's annual picnic made the benefit event a success socially and financially. Heading the alumni association's representatives present was the Rt. Rev. Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco Abbey. Accompanying him was Father David Flusche. Delegations were present from several cities in the North Texas district.

Richard and Fred Arend and their mother, Mrs. Lena Arend, were recent visitors in Durant, Okla., with Mrs. Arend's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Purtell.

Weekending with their parents, the Martin Friskes, were Jere Friske and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Sandmann and baby Steve of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benenate and children Joey, Marguerite, Janie and Frankie have moved from Detroit, Mich., to Dallas to make their home. They had lived in Detroit since their marriage 13 years ago. Enroute to Dallas the family stopped here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Joe Bezner and other relatives.

John Schmitz of Thackerville was here Sunday visiting old friends at the picnic.

Mrs. Al Bengfort has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium following medical care.

The baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerer is at home now doing fine after spending the first weeks of his life in an incubator at Gainesville Sanitarium. Sunday was christening day for Albert Joseph Jr. Father Alcuin officiated at the ceremony in St. Peter's Church with the grandparents, Mrs. Bill Flusche and John Zimmerer as godparents. Christening day was also gift shower day in the Zimmerer home. A surprise layette shower was a courtesy for the baby and his mother. Hostesses Mrs. Norbert Rohmer, Mrs. Ernest Wolf and Miss Cecilia Zimmerer served ice cream, cake and coffee to a large group of guests.

Wayne Rauschuber, grandson of Mrs. Lena Arend, has enrolled in Saint Mary's University at San Antonio as a freshman majoring in industrial engineering. He's the son of former Lindsay residents Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rauschuber of San Antonio and is the first freshman student to take this course introduced at the University this year and had his picture in a San Antonio paper with an accompanying story.

yards in 6 plays with Wimmer reaching pay dirt on a nice 11 yard scamper. A pass, Bayer to Wimmer, made the count 20-0. As the third quarter closed Ladonia was working on its best drive so far. Twelve plays made 3 first downs and 57 yards but the next try lost both yardage and possession on the 25. A fumble gave the visitors another chance but Tiger defense was equal to the job, allowing only 6 yards in the four tries. Then the Tigers scored again . . . an 84 yard push on 14 plays, Bayer making the last foot on a quarterback sneak. Bayer's pass to Haverkamp raised the count to 28-0. Facing the Tiger rookies, Ladonia got its lone TD in a hurry . . . a pass for 31, an end sweep for 34 and a quarterback sneak for the final 2.

What's new under the sun?

Here's something new in outdoor cookery—Old Sol's energy is gathered in a parabolic aluminized reflector and focused on a back yard grill. This gleaming device, called the Umbroiler by its inventor, Dr. George Löf of Denver, Colorado, can sizzle a steak or brown a broiler in about twenty minutes without smoking up the entire neighborhood.

Achievement Day Planned by Club

Plans for Achievement Day and a discussion of what they might do for entertainment was the principal business when Senior 4-H Club girls of Lindsay held their monthly meeting Thursday morning. Other business was routine. Lorine Voht, president conducted the session in the presence of Yvonne Jenkins, assistant county home demonstration agent. Mrs. Jenkins distributed the new 4-H year books to members and also handed out papers for the girls to make a record of work they have done the past year. Rosemary Bezner called the roll and read minutes of the previous meeting.

New Name for Old Society at Lindsay

A new name for one of Lindsay parish's oldest societies has been announced. From now on the Christian Mothers' Society will be known as St. Ann's Society. Along with the change of name are a revision of constitution and by-laws for the organization established on Feb. 2, 1906.

Members favored the changes in a special meeting Friday. Other business conducted by Mrs. Norbert Zimmerer, president, consisted of setting this Friday, Oct. 10, as clean-up day for church and hall and everyone was invited to help with the work.

Announcement was made of the Sherman Deanery Institute for NCCW to be held in Lindsay October 15 and all members were urged to be present.

Father Alcuin Kubis, spiritual director, was present and addressed the group. Hostesses for the social after adjournment were Mes. Henry Kuhn, Albert Kubis, John Hess and Pete Hellinger.

Distinction
Little Freddie, aged 7, was not a mental prodigy. However, he was not exactly hampered by an inferiority complex. When asked how he got along in school, he answered, "Oh, purty good — I'm next to the fastest one in the slow group."

less. During the rest of the half Era rolled up 188 yards and 12 first downs while Muenster made 15 yards and no first downs. The next half was almost as bad with Muenster making 5 first downs and a net yardage of 41 whereas Era made 8 first downs and 171 yards.

The visitors started rolling promptly after the Muenster TD. Nine plays gobbled up 62 yards and the pay-off was a pass from Wilson to Belz for the final 5 paces. Noggler blasted over for another two points and Era was ahead for keeps.

Next Era held Muenster on its first series of downs, then got going on another big push. It was a steady grind down the field for 80 yards requiring 51 first downs along the way. Noggler scored from the 2 and Davis carried over for 2 extra points.

Another drive late in the half started with Era's recovery of a fumble on the Muenster 34, but failed for lack of time. Era was on the 5 when the period ended.

The second half started better as Muenster made two quick first downs on passes. The next series fizzled, however, and Era promptly converted its opportunity into another score. Four plays did it, for a total of 59 yards, and Noggler making 39 of them. One run gained 34 to the 5 and the next finished the job.

From then on the visitors continued to dominate but they did not finish their drives. One played out on the 20 another on the 7.

Prospective Father-in-Law: Young man, can you support a family?"

Bridegroom-to-Be: "Well, no, sir. I was just planning to support your daughter. The rest of you will just have to shift for yourselves."

securities the past year has forced the Treasury to pay a rapidly increasing interest rate to borrow money. The cause, Mr. Anderson declared, is the unpatriotic refusal of the savings banks, savings and loan associations, pension funds and insurance companies to purchase their proper share of Treasury bonds and notes. Holy smoke! Can Mr. Anderson believe what he says? The facts are simple. The investment institutions figure that buying unlimited amounts of Mr. Anderson's paper is not the most sensible way to protect the savings of their depositors and policy holders. If he will give them reason to believe that, when his bonds are due, they will be redeemed with the same kind of dollars that went into their purchase, he will find them clamoring at his door. It is a little tactless of the Secretary of the Treasury of an Administration that expects a ten-billion-dollar deficit this year to scold the people for doing what little they can to protect themselves against the Administration's ravages.

THE LITTLE WOMAN

The weaker sex! It is to laugh! "Woman's Place Is In The Home." Well, maybe so, but an awful lot of them just aren't staying there. One-third of the country's "weaker sex" has deserted the "Place In The Home," for at least several hours a day, and are at work.

And you'll find the ladies at work at some of the most unusual occupations, that is according to our old-fashioned idea of the kind of a job a lady should hold down. For instance, the Census Bureau lists women

Sparky says:
If your clothing catches fire, don't run . . . Roll on floor or ground . . . Smother with coat or blanket

Don't give fire a place to start!

working in the following "un-ladylike" (formerly considered so) professions or occupations: 2,460 Funeral Directors and Embalmers

4,350 Bus Drivers
690 Auctioneers
There are even 450 women bootblacks listed by the Census Bureau; 450 plasterers and 360 locomotive engineers.

In addition to 840 sailors and deckhands, 750 of the "fair sex" are toiling as longshorewomen and stevedettes.

And hold your hat for this one — 120 lady boiler-makers.

Yes, the little woman has certainly stepped out of the home into some strange places and on to some strange jobs. What's more, according to the experts there'll be a lot more of the "Little Women" gainfully, some surprisingly, employed in the years to come.
