VOLUME XXII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

NOVEMBER 7, 1958

NUMBER 50

An inconspicuous news item this week suggests that communism itself, which has bragged loud and long about its schemes to help bring about the financial collapse of this country, may soon be encountering serious money problems of its own.

A Japanese traveler coming from Moscow says that the American dollar there is currently buying 20 to 25 rubles in the Russian black market, and that tourists are openly receiving 10 rubles for a dollar. That's quite a drastic drop in the value of money which is officially listed at an exchange rate of 4 for a dollar.

This doesn't mean, of course, that the big red model of economic stability is on the rocks, but it does show a weakness along with the important fact that in this phase of the cold war at least we seem to have the better weapon.

Another sign of Soviet trouble comes from the Baltic states, where anti communist sentiment is running so high that red bosses find it necessary to carry out wholesale deportations. Obviously they expect by this new reign of terror to prevent another version of the Hungarian uprising.

As they know very well, a government founded on treachery and brutality can never relax. It must constantly apply the pressure if it is to remain in power. And it must live in constant fear, always aware that the memory of cruelty and injustice can spark a nation wide revolt the moment the Kremlin gang loses control.

Similar signs are reported in China. According to well informed analysts the serious upheaval there is the big reason behind resumed shelling of Quemoy at a time when the Reds had chances to gain by continuing the cease fire. Faced by open rebellion against the ever increasing wretchedness, red leaders are trying desperately to take people's minds off their troubles by uniting them against the "foreign enemy."

And again, the thought of what may happen must be haunting the red bosses. Resentments which have been building up for almost a decade, which are now being aggravated by even more intensive efforts to destroy human dignity, can reach a limit and erupt into a mighty revolution.

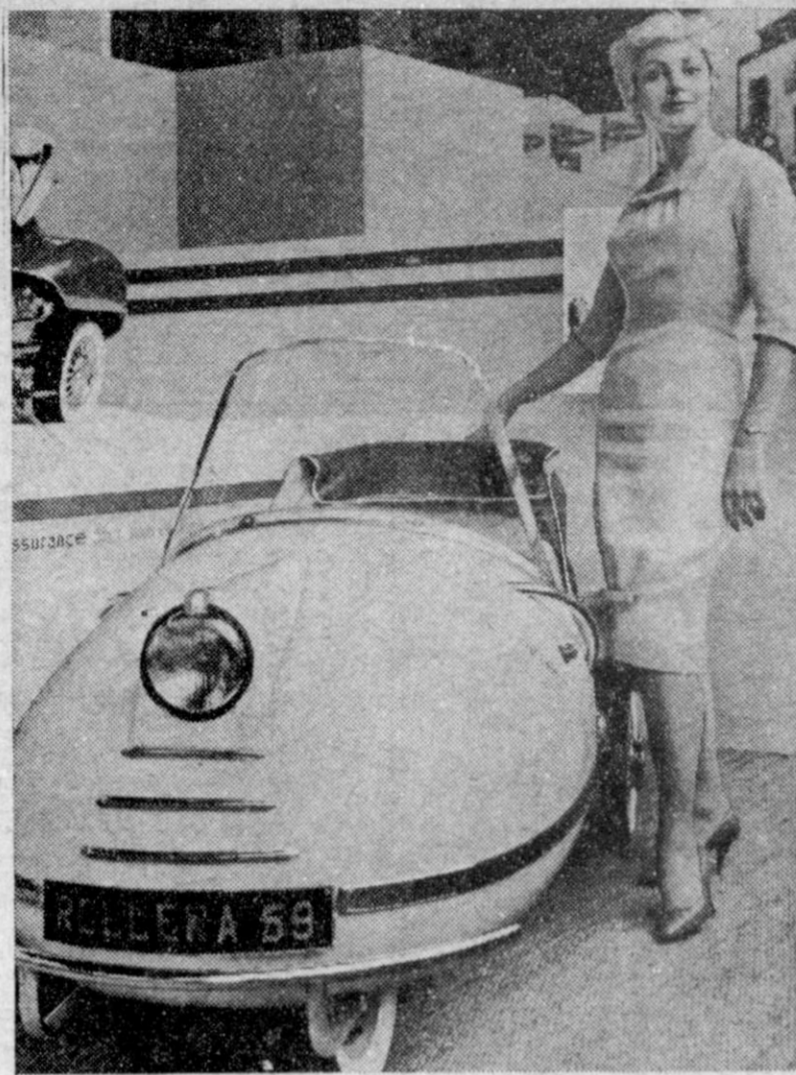

This possibility lends definite significance to the statement of Chiang Kai-shek that, though he does not intend to attack the China mainland, he will answer the request of his countrymen to help them when they rise up against the reds. There can be no doubt that the situation is tense. Civil war can flare up in China any day.

Realizing this, the big problem in this country nowadays is why we waste time and allow a golden opportunity to waste away. Let's face this thing realistically. We are at grips with a vicious and depraved enemy that has often bragged about his intention to annihilate us. Unless we are plain simpletons we should know that eventually the showdown will come. Then why aren't we doing something about it?

It's high time that we started fighting fire with fire, to provoke the very same kind of trouble the reds have provoked in dozens of other countries. Agents there started revolutions and red "volunteers" moved in to help them set up communist governments. It happened in Indo China, Indonesia and Korea. It was tried in Central and South America.

Well, here's the chance to give the reds some of their own treatment. Chiang should get every encouragement and support to touch off that revolution on the mainland . . . and to drive the reds out of the country. He can do the job and he will do it if given a reasonable chance. His conquest would be another version of Franco's in the Spanish revolution, when the reds held the country in their iron grip. The job does not require a huge invincible army but only enough men to get a foothold. From there on the liberation army would get hundreds of volunteers for every mile it moves forward.

This whole thing is as simple as that. China will crumble if only someone will show up to lead its embittered millions. Meanwhile Russia will sit tight completely forgetful of all the tough talk it used to give out. Because Russia, like China, is in danger of going to pieces

Spokane Watches as Former Muensterite Grows Cotton Stalk

A cotton stalk in Spokane, Wash., is news. Evidence of that was sent to the Enterprise by Joe A. Klement, former Muenster resident, in the form of a newspaper clipping with picture showing himself with a cotton stalk in his flower garden.

Mr. Klement had planted the cotton in hopes of giving friends and neighbors a look at one of the South's basic crops. It grew nicely and attracted lots of attention, and an alert photographer snapped it for a Spokane newspaper.

The picture shows Klement beside the plant, almost waist high, with one hand holding a matured boll beside several blossoms and the other holding leaves aside to show several unopened green bolls. Descriptive lines explain that the blossoms become "hard nut-like bolls, several of which are visible low on the bush. The ripened cotton is plucked from these "nuts" when they mature."

Project Sheep Shed Built from Salvage By FFA Members

Muenster FFA members have gained in two ways by a project they have just completed. They have experience in building plus a shelter for their project sheep.

The sheep shed, measuring 15x30, was built adjoining the chapter's project pens northeast of the Hornet football field. It is made from lumber and corrugated iron salvaged when a part of the old bus shed was torn down last summer. Albert Fleitman supervised the work.

Achievement Event For County 4-H Set Next Monday Night

Cooke County's annual Achievement Event for 4-H clubbers has been set for next Monday, Nov. 10, in the Community Center in Gainesville. Starting time is 7:30. Notices of the meeting have been sent to club members, adult leaders and other interested persons and a large attendance is anticipated.

The program will feature presentation of county awards, entertainment from Texas Women's University, and refreshments.

On Six Months Tour

Paul Hesse, electrician's mate second class, has let his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meinrad Hesse, know that he left the west coast with his squadron aboard the Aircraft Carrier USS Yorktown on Oct. 31 for a six-month tour to the Philippines and the Far East. The carrier will be at Subie Bay, P.I., over Dec. 25. After that it will be operating around Formosa and the Philippines and will also visit Japan. Plans are to return to the states by the first of May next year.

Lady Luck Sneers At Hornets, Hands Callisburg 8-6 Win

Two all important breaks made the big difference last Friday night as Muenster's Hornets lost an 8-6 decision to the Callisburg Wildcats.

Both breaks came in the attempts for extra points after touchdown, one of them netting 2 points on an apparent failure, the other getting nothing on an apparent successful play.

Callisburg's bonus points were made on a double fumble. As Banks was stopped some two yards short of the line the ball squirted forward and was handled momentarily by a teammate before it tumbled to the ground. Officials decided that the split second handling before the ball got away the second time constituted possession and entitled the Wildcats to 2 points.

After the Hornet TD Doug Hellman rammed the line in his conversion attempt and apparently made it. After the play ended he was lying across the line with the ball about a foot into the end zone. But officials ruled that forward progress ended where his knee hit the ground, which was short of the goal.

If either or both of those

Hornets Use Gap in Schedule to Prep For Saint Jo Game

Muenster's Hornets will not have a game this week, but it would be less than correct to say they are inactive. The fact is that they are putting in rugged practice sessions in a two-weeks build-up for their top game of the season next Friday night at Saint Jo.

According to all the signs, that game is practically in the bag for the Panthers, but the Hornets have elected to ignore the bad omens and consider it as another clash in the long and keen rivalry between the two schools. They are working intensively in hopes of dumping the favored Panthers.

Meanwhile all other teams of the district have more immediate interests. Friday night Saint Jo will go to Alvord and Valley View will go to Sanger. The next night Callisburg tackles the district leaders at Era.

As a result of last week's decisive 26-0 win over Saint Jo, Era now leads the conference with a perfect record of 4-0. Saint Jo, with a 3-1 record, has dropped to third place after sharing the lead position with Era. Callisburg stepped up to second place as a result of its 8-6 win over Muenster. It now has a 4-1 record. At the same time Muenster dropped to fourth place with a 3-2 district score. Before their game Muenster and Callisburg were tied for third. Other loop standings are Valley View 1-3, Alvord 0-4 and Sanger 0-4.

Voters Here Favor Democrats, Oppose The Amendments

In sharp contrast with their strong turnout in the July Democratic primary, voters of Muenster made a feeble showing for Tuesday's general election. The total number of voters in both local boxes was only 399, about half of the estimated voting strength of the community. 341 of those voted at the north box, 58 at the south box.

Results here were about the same as in the county and the state as regards voting on candidates but differed in voting on the proposed constitutional amendments. The big majority voted a straight Democratic ticket, joining the county and state in giving long leads to the party nominees. However, as in the rest of the state there were dissenting votes, especially in the senatorial contest. Whittenburg received 81 as compared with Yarborough's 273.

On the amendments Muenster agreed with the state on only four issues and disagreed on the remaining five. They agreed in opposing propositions 1 and 2 and again in favoring propositions 3 and 4. From there on they opposed every proposal

The play, a royalty presentation, is by Heuer Publishing Company of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Admission price is fifty and twenty-five cents. The three-act comedy will have an intermission between acts one and two and students will sell coffee and doughnuts.

New Project Will Complete Pavement Here to Bulcher

A paved road from Bulcher to the end of FM 373 at Valley Creek is on schedule at the Texas Highway Department according to a report this week from L. B. Dean, district engineer of the department's Wichita Falls office.

The project is part of the state's 1959-60 program, funds for which are derived from federal aid highway funds matched by state funds on a dollar for dollar basis.

The new road, costing about $131,900 and measuring about 4.6 miles, will complete a paved loop extending from Muenster through Bulcher to Saint Jo. Paving from Bulcher to Saint Jo was formally opened about two weeks ago.

Two other projects were announced for Cooke County on the 1959-60 program. One is south of Gainesville the other southeast of Gainesville.

Micks of Laneri Run Up Easy 34-6 Count Over Tigers

Sacred Heart's hustling and scrappy Tigers did a good job last Saturday night holding the smoothly operating Laneri Micks of Cowntown to a count of 34-6.

The visitors, who are rated to give Waco Catholic a real tussle for the district SAL title, were matched 12-12 in the first downs count and led by the slim margin of 179-159 on running plays. The big difference was in the passing game, at which Laneri led 198 to 79.

A sign of things to come was given by the Micks as soon as they got hold of the pigskin. Fast and shifty Gardoa, who accounted for about half of the total Mick yardage, broke away for a 49 yard sprint before being nailed on the Tiger 44. Three plays later he took a pass from Allen Keyer and went the rest of the way to the goal.

Sacred Heart snapped back with a nice drive that moved 36 yards before ending in a fumble. Handicapped by a 15 yard penalty, the visitors failed on their next series and kicked, backing the Tigers against the goal. An attempt to kick out of trouble fell short and Laneri was set up on the 15. A heave from Keyer to Partlow produced the next TD and another pass added 2 points.

Next Sacred Heart made the Micks work for their score. A 53 yard drive required 10 plays, the last a 15 yard gallop by Gardoa.

In the closing minute of the half the Tigers pulled a surprise play that caught the Micks off guard and missed a TD by only 3 yards. The next effort lost 2 as the period ended.

Early in the third period the Micks marked up another fast one on Keyer's pass to Gardoa for 59 yards.

Again, shortly after the start of the last period, the visitors

Another Rough One In Sight as Tigers Meet Gainesville B

The Sacred Heart Tigers will be almost but not quite back to their own class this week when they take on the sharp and rugged B team of Gainesville High. The Leopard Cubs, who have played close games with some members of the 12-B loop, probably rate below the last two Tiger foes but they still rate as tough competition for the local fellows.

A big reason for that is the presence of one Pat Mitchell who actually has the ability for the regular Leopard team but is ineligible because this is his first year in the school. Mitchell has been a standout in every game to date, and the team's record is a very creditable four wins and two losses.

Another reason, especially as regards this game is a few physical handicaps on the Sacred Heart team. Werner Becker one of the stalwarts of the line chipped a bone in his wrist during practice this week and will be out for the rest of the season. Herman Grewing, recovering from an old injury is due for only limited action. Likewise Charles Bayer is still handicapped by his two-week-old shoulder injury. Good news is the return of Bobby Walterscheid after being out last week.

The game will be played on the Tiger field Thursday night starting at 7:30.

43 Girls Report For Basketball at Sacred Heart High

Only a few girls at Sacred Heart High failed to report this week for the first practice session of the Tigerettes' 1958-59 basketball season.

Coach George Petrus said there were 43 girls in all, including four lettermen and several others who had good experience last year. He is confident that the group has the makings of a hard working and nicely coordinated team.

First action for the team is set for Monday, Nov. 17, with girls of the State Training School. Next is participation in the Invitation tournament at Forestburg on Nov. 20, 21 and 22.

Margie Flusche Is Hornet Sweetheart

Presentation of Margie Flusche as Muenster High Hornets' football sweetheart for 1958 was an added attraction at the last home game of the season Friday night.

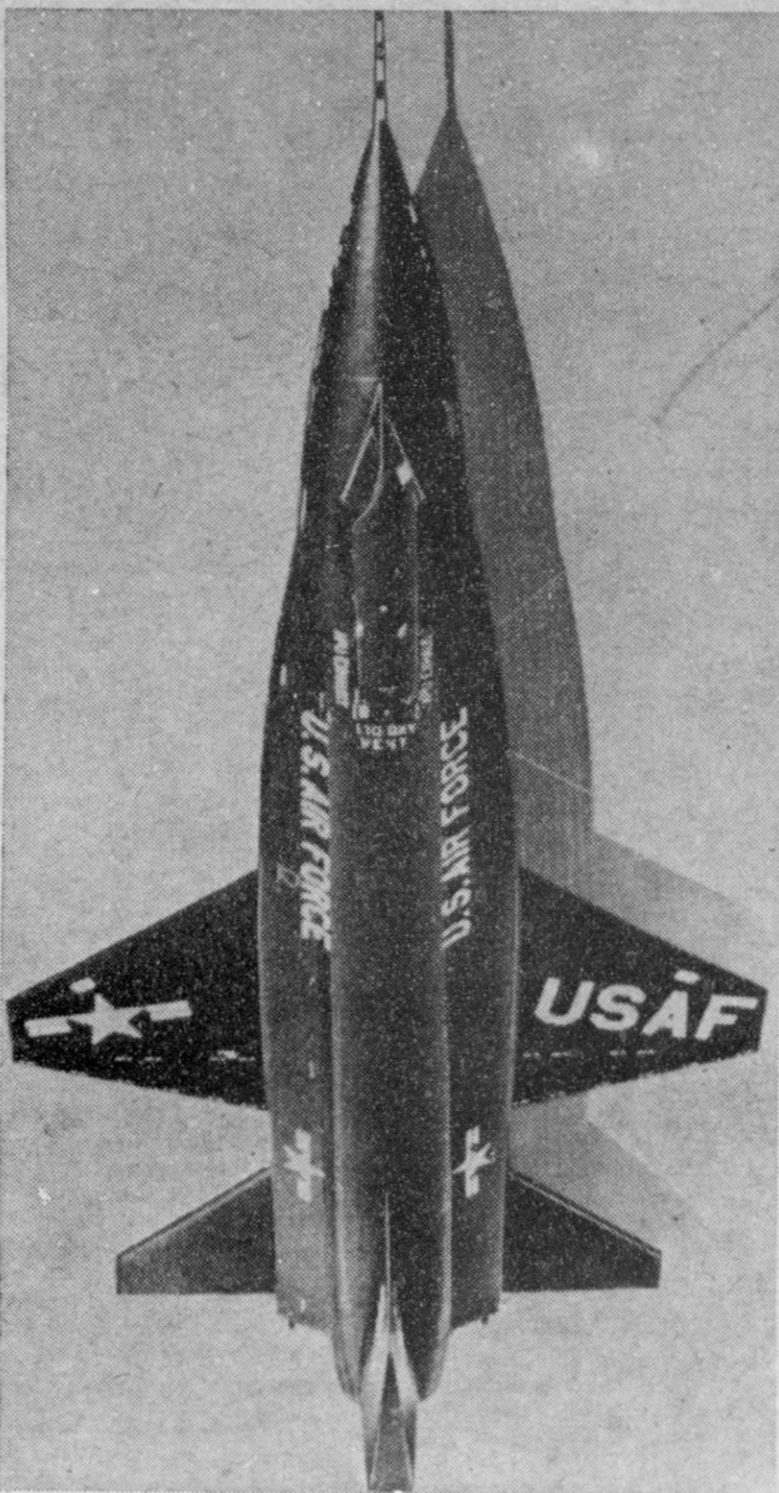

Margie is a senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flusche. Her crown was a football helmet presented by Billy Otto who was her escort for the ceremonies at game half time. Margie also received a bouquet of red roses. She wore a black and white tweed suit.

Other sweetheart candidates, Pat Otto and Jolene Carlton, were presented white mum corsages with red satin showers. Their escorts were Kenny Klement and Doug Hellman, respectively. The boys are tri-captains of the Hornet squad. Identity of the queen was kept a secret until the presentation ceremony.

The Gene Hoedebecks had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spencer of Dallas. Formerly both of Denison, the couples were neighbors in that city.

Kansas City Rites Confer Papal Honor On Weinzapfels

Attendance at the annual meeting of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher in Kansas City, Mo., was the purpose of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel's trip from which they returned Tuesday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Weinzapfel were knighted by the late Holy Father. The papal honor is bestowed upon men and women who, to an outstanding degree, have made Christ's charity and concern for His Church the hallmark of their lives.

During the Kansas City meeting when promotions were made Mrs. Weinzapfel rose from Lady of the Holy Sepulcher to Lady Commander. Mr. Weinzapfel holds the rank of Knight Commander.

The meeting with its general sessions, investitures and promotions was held during the weekend.

While in Kansas City the Weinzapfels visited in the home of their niece Mrs. V. T. Riley, the former Loretta Jensen, daughter of Mrs. Weinzapfel's sister, Mrs. Lucy Jensen of Canon City, Colo.

Going and returning they enjoyed visits with their daughter and family, the P. W. Hellmans, in Tulsa where they were overnight guests.

breaks had gone the other way Muenster would have been the winner. One break would have made it a tie score and Muenster would have got the decision on statistics. Two breaks would have made the score read the other way.

During the early part of the game Hornets dominated the action but missed two opportunities to score. About midway in the first quarter they fumbled on the 24 and at the start of the next quarter they lost possession on the 13 after failing by 1 yard to make their first down. For the rest of the period the visitors were on the offensive. Banks, Lassiter and Boley took turns advancing the ball in a nice drive including a TD that was called back and penalized. As the series ended Muenster took over on the 19 but an interception 2 plays later gave Callisburg its second chance from the 13. Four plays did it, Lassiter scoring from the 2. The try for bonus points was judged good and the visitors led 8-0 at intermission.

The third quarter was almost altogether Muenster's. Callisburg failed to make a first down and the Hornets, after being temporarily stopped twice, got going on a 67 yard drive that ended in a TD. Joe Hellman made the final yard on a quarterback sneak. The try for extra points failed and Muenster trailed 8-6.

As the last quarter opened the Hornets seemed to be headed for the all important TD to regain the lead. Harris intercepted on the Muenster 44 and two stubbornly contested series reached the 35, then an interception blasted Muenster hopes. After that Callisburg and Muenster were both forced to kick... then the visitors started a drive that gained 35 before running out of time on the 20.

VFW Auxiliary Sets Membership Drive Supper November 10

Reception of a new member and plans for a social in connection with a membership drive featured the November meeting of the Muenster VFW Auxiliary Monday night. The new member is Mrs. Leo Voth of Gainesville. She brings membership in the organization to 70.

The social event will be held next Monday night, Nov. 10, in the public school lunch room. It will be a supper party for members, each of whom will bring prospective members as guests. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz will

Mrs. Richard Grewing, honor roll chairman, read requirements for the month and members voted unanimously to comply. They bought a five dollar TB bond and sent a five dollar check to the Sweeney Diabetic Clinic. The other requirement, to collect ten percent of remaining dues, was also fulfilled. Mrs. John Huchton, president, presided.

Hostesses for the November

Teen Party, Sunday night, were appointed; program for the District One convention in Greenville this weekend was read; and members voted to remember each local service man overseas with a Christmas gift again this year. In that connection the Auxiliary solicits names and addresses which may be phoned or mailed to Rosa Driever. A prompt report is invited so that the wrapping and mailing committee can post the packages early enough to assure delivery by Dec. 25.

Report on the Halloween costume dance showed a dandy attendance and lively interest. Cash prize for the best costumed couple, selected during one of the dances, went to Emma Lou Hess dressed as a man and Johnny Rohmer as a girl in gaudy finery, high heels and wig.

A social hour followed business and Mrs. John Huchton, refreshment hostess, served an attractive cold plate to those present.

Back at school the program included Halloween games, a spook house and refreshments of soda pop, brownies and cup cakes. Winners in the treasure hunt were Johnny Stoffels, Pat Knabe, Paul Dangelmayr and John Dave Fleitman.

DO LOOK NOW

A worldwide scourge of typhoons, cyclones, hurricanes, droughts and floods and earthquakes added to the man-made destitution that follows armed uprisings and insurrections gives special urgency to "Operation Clothes Closet" for 1958.

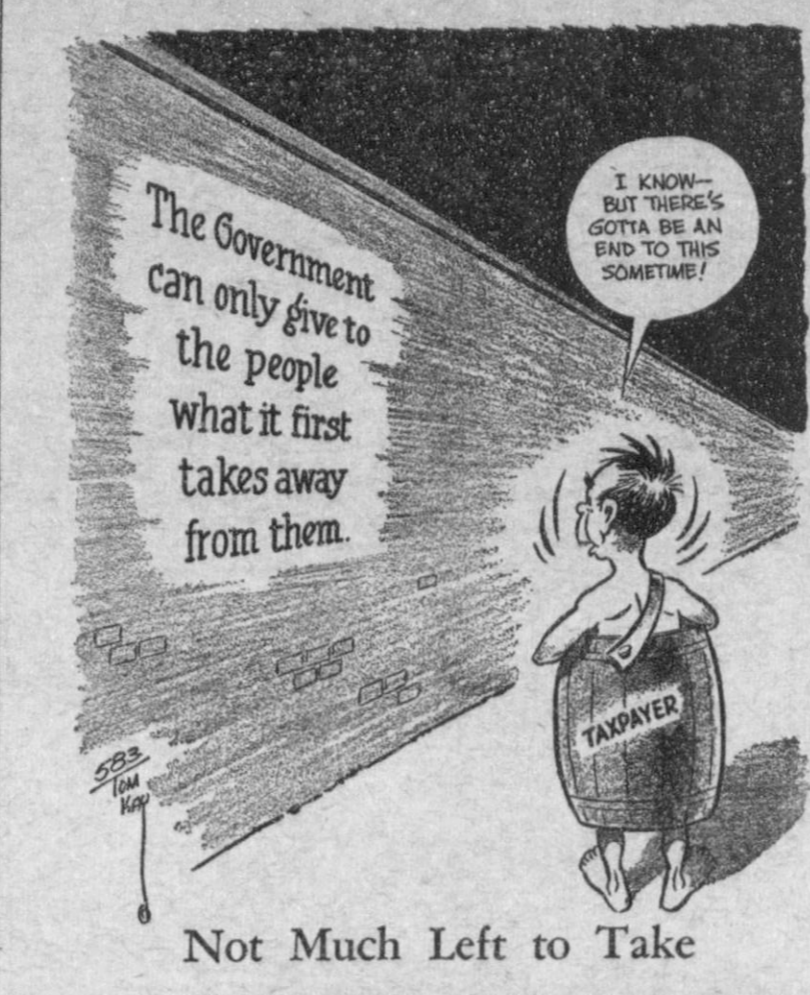

Appropriately linked with the season of Thanksgiving in America, this tenth annual nationwide collection of used clothing, blankets and shoes, by the more than 16,000 Catholic parishes of the nation will be conducted from November 23 to 29.

Operation Clothes Closet is an event in which all Americans—not just Catholics, but all creeds — are urged to participate. As the name implies, this is the occasion for going through clothes closets, attics and other storage spaces for the usable clothing, shoes and blankets that are not doing anyone any good. In most households over the land, such still serviceable items have been stored away with the thought of using them "sometime." But sometime never comes, and there are millions over the globe who desperately need these things now, thousands whose survival through the coming winter may well depend on this protection. Any Catholic church in the land will be happy to receive your "surplus" during the week of November 23rd. To deliver this bundle by Thanksgiving should make the turkey taste even better.

Processing, shipping and distribution of these collections is the work of Catholic Relief Services — NCWC, whose executive director, Msgr. Edward E. Swannstrom reports that the present need is especially urgent since disasters over the globe have emptied the warehouses. In the past nine years, he says, Americans have provided CRS with 90 million pounds of useable clothing, shoes and blankets — in addition to their cash contributions that have bought plane-loads of medicines and met the cost of distributing surplus foods provided by the US Government to "millions of people who live on the brim of starvation."

The record Thanksgiving clothing collection — 16,592,833 pounds — occurred in 1956, the year of the tragic Hungarian Revolution, and doubtless reflected the tremendous wave of sympathy felt in America for enslaved peoples. This year, however, it is hoped that the tenth annual Operation Clothes Closet will exceed even the 1956 performance. And there is good reason to expect that it may since Catholics have been receiving increasing support in these collections from their Protestant and Jewish friends. This, we think, is not only an encouraging sign of emotional maturity, but is also a reflection of the nation's growing admiration for the world wide efficiency of Catholic Relief Services—NCWC.

WHO PAYS FOR "SOCIAL SECURITY"

Like all welfare state measures, Social Security is tempting because the average individual believes he will receive much more than he pays. If a taxpayer and his employer had paid the maximum amount since the scheme was started 21 years ago about $1,700 would have been collected. If such a one had retired January 1st, 1957 and he and his wife had reached the age of 65, they would be entitled to benefits of $162.80 a month. If they live their normal expectancy they will collect something like $30,000 or about $28,300 more than they and their employer paid into the scheme. After allowing generously for the interest earned on the amounts they paid in from time to time, they would still be collecting more than $25,000 from other taxpayers.

Ponzi lasted a year or so by collecting from new investors to pay previous "clients." This government scheme lasts longer because it is supported by the taxing power of the Federal Government. In essence, however, it piles a heavier and heavier burden upon the future in order to give those who are retiring now more than they have earned.

The OASI (Social Security Administration) estimates its present accrued liability at about $350 billion, against which it has government bonds amounting to about $23 billion.

Meanwhile the tax one pays to Social Security seriously hampers any private investment program he might undertake on his own behalf. At the same time it gives him a false sense of security based on political promises and rests finally on the ability and willingness of a future generation to tax itself to meet the astronomical liabilities that are being "rolled" up.

One cannot measure the loss of incentive and initiative that this scheme induces due to the false hope of security in old age. The drive to push ahead and provide for one's self, which has been the mainspring of the vast wealth created in our country, is being lost as people settle back with a comfortable feeling that Uncle Sam is going to provide for them. Probably he will but in sadly inflated dollars. "Something for nothing" is a deadly virus that has destroyed any people who succumb to it. It violates the Commandment of God against stealing, and no people can long do that without loss of their prosperity or freedom, or both.

THE TWO BIG STEPS

"Even in political circles there is increasing interest not just in union corruption, but in the tremendous coercion unions exercise through union-shop and maintenance-of-membership agreements," says Fortune magazine editorially. It quotes the distinguished Harvard University teacher and writer, Professor Edward H. Chamberlin, as saying: "The public interest requires the imposition of major restrictions on the monopoly power of labor."

Actually, there is a distinct and inevitable connection between corruption in unions and the unions' coercive powers. Their membership is captive — a man can't quit without losing his job. It doesn't make any difference whether he approves or disapproves of union officers and union policies — if he is to keep on supporting his family, he has

by Antoinette Bosco, contributor to INFORMATION and other magazines

IT USED to be that if you pilfered, wasted, or damaged another's property, you were guilty of stealing. The modern conscience has decided that is not the case.

People go to restaurants or hotels and walk off with towels, soap, spoons, napkins, ash trays and other "souvenirs." On these items alone, owners lose millions of dollars yearly.

THE SOUVENIR HUNTERS would protest violently if you said they stole these items. They are only taking a memento of their visit. If you convince them that taking these items really is stealing, you get an answer such as I did recently, "The hotel expects these losses and wants them for income tax deductions."

Certainly, those without a "tender conscience" justify walking home with merchandise, even things that have a pretty high value. They have names for their action, such as "squaring accounts," "taking souvenirs," "being smart," or "raising take-home pay." In fact, they call it anything but stealing.

WHO ARE some of the people involved in this modern shoplifting craze? Surprisingly enough many "respectable" people are listed among the guilty. In a men's clothing store, the following people were picked up for shoplifting within twenty days: an insurance company executive, a lawyer, a doctor's wife, a factory owner, the manager of another store and a federal employee. Many shoplifters are teenagers who lift goods "for a lark," or to avoid being called "chicken" by friends.

Last year, market owners in four southern California counties had over a million and a half dollars worth of shopping carts stolen—some 55,000 of them—mostly by customers who pushed them home.

What is behind this sudden surge of stolen goods?

SHOPLIFTERS and pilferers simply want something for nothing. Many people subconsciously believe the world somehow owes them a living. They often have the muddled idea that taking something from a big company really isn't stealing. They don't see until they are caught that they are breaking God's commandment — THOU SHALT NOT STEAL.

HOW CAN WE teach honesty to a materialistic society which is "broad-minded" in its interpretation of the morality found in the Ten Commandments? We must teach honesty—the strict honesty of Thou shalt not steal—by the way we live and by what we say. We won't be popular because of our stand on honesty, but we must convince the "something for nothing" crowd that the real word for their actions is steal, and stealing violates the law of God.

As Father James Keller of the Christophers has written, "Honesty must begin in a man's conscience. If he is to show an abiding respect for the property of others, despite all temptations, he must realize in his own heart that God sees all that he does, and that one day he must render an account of his stewardship."

to pay his dues and keep up his membership. Under such a condition, the field is wide open for graft, racketeering, goon-tactics and all the other abuses.

There won't be any really thorough union reform until two steps are taken. First, the unions must be brought within the scope of the anti-trust laws — which simply means that they must be placed in the same legal position as all other organizations within this country's economic framework. Second, the right-to-work law must become universal. A better description of this law, some think, is found in the phrase "voluntary unionism." It simply provides that a man has the right to join or not join a union, as he freely decides — just as he has the right to join or not join any other organization.

All other proposed legislative reforms are minor compared to these.

Third Graders Give Classmate Surprise

Two special events came close together for Larry Sicking, almost nine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sicking. He made his First Communion on All Saints Day and was the honoree at a surprise class party Monday.

Sister Genevieve and her third graders planned the classmates party and while Larry was sent out of the room on an errand they grouped a shower of gifts together and shouted "Surprise! Surprise!" when he returned.

After admiring the gifts the children enjoyed cup cakes, pop corn balls and soft drinks, provided by the class.

Mission Chairman Asks for Bedding

Used quilts and comforts that will make welcome additions to the local Thanksgiving clothing drive, but which may not be included by their owners because the bedding needs re-covering or re-working, are being solicited by sponsors of the drive.

Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman, said this week that she has a group of volunteer helpers and they'll re-do quilts and comforts if they are brought to her home early enough to be finished before the drive gets under way here Nov. 18.

PAVED BARNLOTS PAY

In muddy lots cattle use up energy that could have gone into extra weight gains. A concrete paved strip along side the feed bunk means more beef from each pound of feed, Purdue University agricultural researchers report.

Beef cattle kept out of the mud will gain extra pounds. When the cattle have a firm footing they put on more weight than when they have to wade around in muddy yards, say animal husbandry research men at Purdue University.

Dr. W. M. Beeson and Dr. T. W. Perry found out that even a small strip of concrete alongside a feed bunk will more than pay for itself in increased beef gains. In a research trial (using two lots of 14 steers confined for 112 days) the average gain per steer in the lot with a 16-ft. concrete strip on one side of the feed bunk was 95 pounds compared to only 62 pounds for each steer confined to the unpaved lot. Each steer on concrete gained 33 additional pounds. The steers in the unpaved lot ate less total feed, but each steer required 35 pounds more feed to make a pound of gain.

We like this one about the judge who decided he'd swear in the witness — a pretty blonde woman.
"What is your age?" he asked.
"There was a slight hesitation. "Uh . . . 26," she answered.
"Fine! Now then, do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth in your following statements?"

"Now, then, Tommy Brown," said the teacher, "I want to set you a little problem. Suppose there were five children and their mother had only four potatoes to share among them. She wanted to give each child an equal share. How would she do it?"
"Mash the potatoes," said the boy.

ITS EPITAPH — "OBLIGATIONS IGNORED"

We hear much of what the last Congress did. But a big story is what it didn't do. David Lawrence dealt with that in a late column in which he said that the 85th Congress "had by its inaction and failure to deal with vitally needed legislation turned out to be the worst in a half century."

Mr. Lawrence cites a number of diverse legislative areas in which Congress failed to discharge its responsibility. It did nothing "to stop the drift in Federal finances toward inflation and bankruptcy." It passed no laws to curb communist infiltration, or to punish those who openly preach the overthrow of our government by force — laws made necessary by United States Supreme Court decisions. It passed no laws to prevent usurpation of basic rights by the Federal Government — laws also made necessary by United States Supreme Court decisions. And it did nothing to stop labor racketeering and gangsterism, or to control labor union monopolies.

The bills that Congress did pass, Mr. Lawrence goes on, "were of financial benefit largely to special voting groups and, while some of the measures were meritorious, they do not by any means off-set the major failures." Economy was a forgotten word. The dangers and abuses that Congress failed to act upon — for purely political reasons in many cases — cannot be endured much longer. The hope is that the public temper is approaching the boiling point, and that a massive weight of public opinion will force the next Congress to recognize its obligations to all the people instead of just pressure groups and treasury looters.

Health Department
Makes Report on Effect of Smoking

It all started with Sir Walter Raleigh and a Y-shaped pipe. The pipe was a gift to Raleigh from Sir Francis Drake — a souvenir from the West Indies, where natives put the pipe prongs in their nostrils and inhaled the smoke of a smoldering substance they called "tobacco." Raleigh apparently set the style of his day, for when he took up smoking the practice soon became fashionable. All this happened nearly 400 years ago — in 1586. Since then smoking has become the most deeply ingrained habit of humanity. Today in the United States alone, more than half the men and a fourth of the women smoke cigarettes daily, and additional millions smoke pipes and cigars. Altogether it adds up to almost 40,000,000 smokers — 26,000,000 men and 14,000,000 women — out of an adult population of approximately 50,000,000.

The seriousness of the smoking habit has been made clear in a recently finished study by the National Institutes of Health. Results of the study, already widely publicized, indicate a strong and undeniable relationship between cigarette smoking and increased death rates from lung cancer and heart disease.

The studies reveal a death rate among cigarette smokers 58 percent greater than the rate for non-smokers. Moreover, it shows that heavy smokers die off quicker than light smokers.

In addition to lung cancer and heart diseases, smokers run a much greater risk of dying from such diseases as bronchitis, ulcers, and cirrhosis of the liver.

The connection between cigarette smoking and high death rates has been so definitely proved that cigarettes would probably be banned for public sale if introduced as a product on today's market.

The British Ministry of Health for some time has been warning about the hazards of smoking.

Now the U. S. Public Health Service has begun a similar campaign.

The Texas State Department of Health will support such a drive to the fullest.

The late Dr. William Mayo used to say that cigarettes, cigars and pipes were nothing more nor less than "adult pacifiers," something for idle hands to play with. If true, breaking the smoking habit probably isn't as hard as it is supposed to be.

Should you, personally, make the effort? That's your decision. But while you're making it, keep in mind that the best research talent in the world is convinced that heavy smoking shortens life.

Marysville News

By Mrs. B. G. Lyons

MARYSVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Max Harrell and children Rhonda Kim and Rex of Sherman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moon. Mrs. Moon is recovering following treatment for a bronchial infection.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davidson have as their guest this week their daughter, Mrs. Bo Snow of Gainesville while her husband is spending the week in Waxahachie on business. Mrs. Snow came to Marysville Sunday with her parents who spent the day in Gainesville in the Snow home. At night they were joined by the Charles Davidson family for attendance at services in Saint Jo Methodist Church. The Charles Davidsons had been at Walnut Bend visiting her parents, the O. B. Seigmunds during the day.

Has Birthday Party

Fourth birthday of Becky Davidson was celebrated with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davidson, where the Halloween theme was carried out in decorations, favors and refreshments.

Little guests remembered the honoree with gifts and a new red wagon given Becky by her parents was the big events of the afternoon with the grown-ups giving the children rides.

Favors were Halloween hats, balloons and whistles and refreshments were orange ade, a four-candled, "Happy Birthday" chocolate cake with orange icing, ice cream and candy. Pictures were made of the party scene.

Becky's grandmother Mrs. W. F. Davidson was a special guest and other grownups present were Mrs. Melton Ramsey and Mrs. Leonard Owen.

Invitation list of children included Rickey and Bobby Ramsey, Jeannie Owen, Colleen Lindsay, Kelly and Tracy Hunt, Christi Koesler, Betty, Barbara and Helen Rohmer, and Becky's sister and brother Barby and Mike. Those who couldn't attend sent gifts.

WOMEN'S WORK

Women have known all along that a housewife's chores require more energy than a man's occupation, and now science backs them up after conducting tests. The report cited specific male jobs and compared them with work the average wife has to do. For instance:

1. A woman ironing or mopping a floor uses up more energy than a bricklayer.
 2. Making beds is a harder task than shoe repairing, beating a carpet is tougher than pushing a 115-pound wheelbarrow.
 3. Wringing out a wash or hanging it is more taxing than plowing with a tractor.
 4. Opening a can of beans requires more energy than ringing up a sale on a cash register.
- The above might be the answer to why the average woman lives several years longer than the average man — she gets more exercise day in and day out.

Windthorst Juniors Slip Past Cubs 14-12

The Windthorst juniors continued on their merry way toward the loop championship Sunday afternoon when they nudged Sacred Heart's Cubs 14-12 on the local field. It was the fourth straight win for the Windthorst lads and their second over the Cubs.

Recovery of a fumbled kick in the first quarter put the visiting youngsters on the scoreboard. In the next quarter Pat Klement got loose for a 60 yard scoot and the score was tied 6-6 at half time.

In the third quarter Klement did it again, that time for 40 yards, and put the Cubs in front until shortly before the end of the game when Windthorst again knotted the score on a 25 yard TD play. Then came the crucial play, the attempt for extra points. It was good giving the visitors a lead of 14-12.

"John," said the woman to her slightly flushed husband as they left a large cocktail soiree where he had been the life of the party, "did anyone ever tell you how fascinating — how romantic — how handsome you are?"

The man looked at his wife, pleased. "Why no, dear. I don't think anyone ever did."

"Well," she snapped, "then where did you ever get the idea?"

An old Wisconsin farmer was showing one of his city relations some of the country sights.

"My goodness," exclaimed the urbanite, "look at all those fields, all those cattle, the splendid farm buildings, and the up-to-date farm homes. This community must certainly abound with prosperity."

"Tweren't prosperity that built all those fine homes," the farmer said, "Twas jealousy."

Local FFA Attends District Meeting, Officer Training

Sixteen officers and members of the Muenster FFA Chapter, accompanied by their adviser, Glenn Hellman, and sweetheart, Jolene Carlton, were in Pilot Point Tuesday night attending a district meeting and special officer instructions for Future Farmers of America.

Miss Carlton was elected chapter sweetheart in a special session last Friday. Other business completed at that meeting was setting a date for a donkey basketball game sponsored by the chapter. It will be played in the MHS gym on November 24.

At the Pilot Point meeting Tuesday night a separate instruction class was conducted for each office in order to make every officer thoroughly familiar with his duties. The class was followed by the regular district meeting.

At a party one night, Oscar Levant, the composer and pianist, who is not an even-tempered person at best, was being annoyed by a woman who chattered constantly during his playing.

When he finished, she rushed over to him enthusiastically. "Oh, Mr. Levant," she gushed, "that was perfectly lovely! Do tell me something about yourself. Why did you take up the piano?"

"Because," said Levant sourly, "my beer glass kept falling off the violin!"

Hobby Club Reports Reveal Enthusiasm Of Lindsay Pupils

Month's meetings for seventh and eighth grades' Hobby Club of Lindsay school reveal lively interest and educational projects with entertaining reports.

Combined membership's planned undertaking for the year is a turtle garden and students are elated over the progress made by their pet, shipped from New York. Another project accepted by the group will be collection of insects and their preservation under the direction and with the help of Sister Victorine, science instructor.

Hobby reports of individual members consisted of the story of a coin collection told by Pat Hermes. He has been collecting for only a short time and already has almost two books complete. Doyle Voth reported on model boat making. He displayed a finished flat top. Jimmy Flusche reported on 4-H Club work which is his hobby. He told of interesting experiences he has had with his projects. Tommy Zimmerer entertained his audience with his hunting tales and described a very old gun which he uses in his hobby.

Larry Sandmann and Leon Neu volunteered to give their hobby reports at the first meeting in November. Barbara Esker and Robert Feitman had the entertainment program of jokes, riddles and tricks.

Patsy Hermes, president, presided, Judith Bezner, secretary, called the roll and Ewald Hoelker Jr. read the treasurer's report. Prayers were led by Mrs. Lambert Bezner and Rose Ann Mosler. Members voted to have St. Aloysius Gonzaga as patron saint of the Hobby Club.

Big Concrete Court Meets Sports Need At Lindsay School

A single project recently finished at Lindsay is the biggest step yet toward meeting the athletic needs of the school. It is a big concrete platform which can be used for basketball, volleyball and tennis.

The job is financed by the Lindsay PTA and most of the work was done by its members. It consists of a five inch slab of concrete on a five inch layer of sand and heavy pipe frames supporting the basketball goals at either end. These frames, extending into the court about 8 feet, are designed so that they can be swung back to allow more room when the court is used for volley ball. There is space for three volley courts side by side.

corrugated iron, Fleitman's measuring 28x34 and Berry's 24x36.

Only slightly less than a new house is R. E. Hamrich remodeling, now finished. It includes addition of a den and double carport, remodel kitchen and add lots of built-ins and paint all over.

The Ray Ottos have installed a central heating system in their home.

Permanent camps have just been completed for Commissioner Precincts 3 and 4, one at Hood the other at the northeast limits of the city of Muenster. The jobs are almost identical consisting of a graveled lot surrounded by chain link fence topped with barbed wire and a machine shed for serving equipment. Both buildings are 30x70 with a 20 foot shed at the side for space to park trucks.

At the Community Lumber Co. a 44x41 addition will enlarge office and display space. It fills in between the present office and a lumber shed. The building itself is finished but shelves, bins, etc., and final finishing work will require a few more weeks.

Loading and unloading docks which have been replaced several times at the Muenster Mill are now being replaced for the last time. Wood is being replaced by concrete.

A series of improvements for the K of C hall is almost finished. Included are upstairs rest rooms, downstairs floor covering of vinyl asbestos tile, new paint and new draperies upstairs and downstairs.

New outside paint jobs were recently finished for Mrs. Frank Kaiser, Mrs. D. R. Martin, Henry Fette, Willie Walterscheid, and Adolph Walterscheid. Inside and outside painting was done at Miss Lena Herr's.

Chain link fences have been finished recently for Steve Mosler, Paul Luke, Andy Hofbauer, Frank Needham and Alphonse Luke. Mrs. W. M. Trubenbach has a white woven wood fence.

A. B. Williams Sells Oil Field Supplies

Add one to the list of Muenster business firms. It is the Muenster Pump and Supply, owned by A. B. "Mudhole" Williams, who has been in the oil field supply business in North Texas for more than 15 years.

The store, still in the organizing stage, has actually been in operation for about two weeks. It is located on Walnut between the highway and First in the building formerly used by the Charm Shop.

Williams is well known in Muenster, having worked in the local Jones & Laughlin supply store from 1944 to 1952. Since then he has worked in oil field supply stores at Wichita Falls and Nocona.

Leo Mosser, 68, 50 Year Resident Of Lindsay Passes

Requiem high mass in St. Mary's Church, Gainesville, at 9 a.m. Friday morning and burial afterwards in St. Peter's cemetery at Lindsay were final rites for Leo Mosser, 68. He died the preceding Wednesday at Gainesville Sanitarium.

Rev. E. J. Gerlich officiated at the services and George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home directed arrangements. Rosary was recited at the Carroll Chapel Thursday night.

Mr. Mosser, a retired farmer, lived at Lindsay for more than 50 years. A native of Missouri he was born Jan. 13, 1890, and moved to Lindsay with his parents when he was a small child. He was married in Lindsay to Catherine Krebs and they moved to Gainesville eight years ago. They had no children.

Survivors are his wife, one brother Joseph Mosser of Durant, Okla., and one sister, Sister Frances Helen of Abilene, and a number of nieces and nephews.

The father was royally outfitted in complete fishing regalia including a hat with his fishing license prominently displayed on the side. After some hours of fruitless casting his small son said to him, "Daddy, why don't you turn your hat around so the fish can see your license?"

The children were in the midst of a free-for-all when father unexpectedly entered the room.

"Tommy, who started this?" he asked.

"Well," replied Tommy, "It all started when Albert hit me back."

when its people see a chance to revolt, and the Kremlin mobsters will not stick out their necks.

This isn't a belligerent attitude, just a realistic one. Common sense dictates that we seize the opportunity to stop a maniac who for years has boasted his intention to murder us. Furthermore there's an element of duty in this case. We can't deny that our country, more than any other, is responsible for allowing communism to enslave China. Accordingly, our country, more than any other, has a sacred duty to help China regain its freedom.

It doesn't cost, it pays.

Heating engineers estimate that insulation will actually pay for itself in fuel savings in as little as 5 or 6 years. Likewise, air conditioning is more efficient in an insulated house. Here's one kind of comfort that actually does not cost you. In the long run you save money by insulating.
