

Let no one underestimate the powers of a good publicity agent. That point was emphasized last Sunday when Elvis the Pelvis got generous front page space in big newspapers on being granted the first leave in his current tour of duty in the Army. He was there in a big way, sharing the limelight with the men and events that are shaping world history.

That story, along with all those released at the time of his induction bring out an interesting question. Will these efforts actually succeed in bridging his career over his period of comparative obscurity? When his tour of duty ends, will he be able to continue to wow the crowds of squealing teenagers with his vocal and anatomical exhibitions?

It has been claimed that shrewdness of management has been Presley's biggest financial asset from the very beginning. Publicity at induction and now seem to bear out that claim. But will it be good enough to keep the records selling and to sustain him as a teen age idol? It will be interesting to watch.

As we look back at precinct and county Democratic conventions of the past we are not surprised at the efforts of Governor Price Daniel and other conservatives to elect county delegates in the primaries. The rowdiness and bitterness that have characterized many of the gatherings place an ugly blemish on Texas politics. Leaders of the State Democratic Executive Committee are convinced that more peaceful and orderly methods must be adopted.

Obviously there are political motives as well behind the proposal. The governor and other members of the SDEC are fully aware that the calm procedure of electing delegates by ballot favors the conservative element. That's because the average conservative goes to the polls anyway, and while voting for office holders he is glad to vote for party delegates as well. However, that average conservative doesn't bother about precinct conventions and he thoroughly dislikes those that develop into squabbles. The net result is that the conservative view would be more adequately represented if the delegates were chosen by ballot rather than in the small precinct gatherings.

Experience here many a time points up the shortcoming of the present system. Even when voting was heavy, running to several hundred, a mere few grudgingly appeared for the precinct meeting. At any time a small organized group could have taken charge and elected delegates who represented the exact opposite of the precinct's wishes.

That very maneuver has succeeded hundreds of times all over the state, even in our own county. In a predominantly conservative precinct a small group dutifully assembled to name their delegates but discovered to their sorrow that a sufficiently large group of well organized radicals took charge of the meeting and elected their men. In all cases the radicals had one purpose only . . . to take over completely . . . and when their opponents gave them a contest the meeting got ugly.

It is hardly necessary to mention that the radical element in the state's Democratic circles is clamoring loudly about the proposed change. They rightfully see it as a possible end of their mob method of controlling precinct politics. But that isn't the reason they give to the public. They contend instead that the change would eliminate the democratic "town hall" procedure . . . which, they ought to add, often degrades into mob procedure.

Also by way of criticism, there are cries of protest about the "corrupt SDEC" and its efforts to dominate the party in Texas . . . when it would be more correct to state that the change is actually an attempt to protect the party from its corrupt elements.

The fight against the proposed changes is headed by an organization known as the Democrats of Texas. It is the organization backed by the CIO's Political Action Committee, The Americans for Democratic Action and various other groups of Socialists, Pinks and Fellow Travelers. It is an organization which, like some of its component elements, debauches the word Democracy by applying it to their methods

Area War Victims Honored Sunday at Memorial Service

Some 400 persons attending memorial services here under a blazing sun about 11 o'clock Sunday morning were reminded to be eternally grateful to all the men who had fought in defense of our country's rights and ideals, and especially to those who gave up their lives in the fight.

Father Christopher Paladino compared the sacrifice of war victims to that of Christ on the cross. "Our Savior gave his life for our eternal spiritual salvation, these men gave theirs to preserve the right and dignity endowed on man by Almighty God."

Referring to those who returned, he said that being more fortunate does not detract from the value of their service . . . that they share with their fallen comrades in the credit for defending our God-given rights.

The ceremony was the annual event sponsored jointly by the VFW and VFW Auxiliary. It started as a procession from Sacred Heart Church, following the 10 o'clock mass, led by the VFW honor guard detail consisting of color bearers, rifle squad and bugler. At the cemetery the group paused first before the crucifixion group where Father Christopher led in prayers and Rosa Driever left a bouquet for all deceased of the parish.

Then the group proceeded to the memorial section of the cemetery, where the flag flew at half mast over 18 graves and markers. At the front of the group were the gold star mothers and fathers wearing carnation corsages and boutonnières which had been provided by the VFW Auxiliary. Also at the front were 18 children each with a bouquet for one of the graves and Auxiliary President Mrs. John Huchton with a bouquet for the large memorial monument.

After prayers and the memorial sermon by Father Christopher the VFW rifle squad, under direction of Arthur Bayer, fired a three volley salute and Jim Harris played taps.

Rev. Whitt Resigns As Muenster Pastor

Rev. Billy Whitt, pastor of the First Baptist Church here for more than a year, has submitted his resignation to become a relief minister and theological student in Fort Worth.

He told Aubrey Tuggle last Sunday that he will continue his studies in the Baptist seminary and expects to spend most of his Sundays as a substitute for ministers who are on vacation.

Up to Wednesday the local church has had no applicants for the vacancy left by Whitt.

Jerry Henscheid is St. Ed's Graduate

Jerry Henscheid was among seniors of St. Edward's University in Austin receiving diplomas in the school's formal commencement program Sunday. Jerry received a Bachelor of Science degree in Commerce with a major in accounting.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Henscheid, accompanied by Georgia Ann Owen, attended their son's graduation and he accompanied them home. On the commencement program was mass at 9:15 followed by presentation of diplomas and a banquet at 12:30.

Complete Slate of Officers Re-elected By Muenster KCs

Not one change was made in the list of officers when the Muenster Knights of Columbus held their annual election Wednesday night. Some of the nominees were unopposed and were elected without a ballot. The others, most of them completing their first terms, were strong favorites in the balloting.

The list is as follows. Grand Knight Pat Hennigan, Deputy Grand Knight Leo Sicking, Chancellor Leo Lawson, Recorder Ed Endres, Treasurer Clyde Fisher, Advocate Arthur Endres, Warden Albert Herr, Guards Eddie Fleitman and Walter Klement, Trustee Charley Hellman. Trustees with unexpired terms are Glenn Hellman and Herbert Meurer.

Appointed officers also remain on the job. They are Father Christopher Paladino, chaplain; Francis Wiese, financial secretary and Earle Otto, lecturer.

After the election J. W. Fisher and J. P. Fusche gave reports as delegates to the state convention.

The meeting was preceded by a chicken supper in the KC clubroom.

Swimming Pool Starts Season With Good Attendance

The Muenster Swimming Pool is off to a fine start for this season. Manager L. B. Bruns reported Wednesday that about 350 reported Sunday for the opening and almost as many were there on Tuesday. Wednesday's crowd was somewhat smaller but fair.

Receipts were slightly over $120 for the first two days, a great improvement over last year's $10 for the opening day. Cool and rainy weather hurt the pool's popularity for the first few weeks last year. Encouraged by this start Bruns has hopes of showing a profit for this season's operation. In 1957 the pool lost money.

The pool is open daily except Monday from 2 to 9 and admission charges are 15 cents and 35 cents. Dan Hamric is assisting Bruns in managing the pool.

Teachers Needed For City to Have Swimming Class

Whether or not beginners' swimming classes will be taught at the Muenster pool this year depends on the number of qualified personnel available to do the teaching.

Pool Manager L. B. Bruns said the classes will be taught providing he and Dan Hamric can get the help of at least five persons who have a Red Cross rating of Senior Life Guard or Instructor. Of the several persons who took the Red Cross classes in former years none are available now. Some moved away, some cannot get away from their jobs.

Apparently the only way to have a beginners' class is to have a senior life saving class first, Bruns said. Boys and girls who complete the course will be qualified to assist Bruns and Hamric in teaching the kiddies.

The course Bruns refers to is an authorized Red Cross course conducted according to Red Cross regulations and those who pass it receive Red Cross certificates.

Applicants for the course are invited to report to Bruns now. Requirements are that the person must be 16 years old or over and must be a strong swimmer. If there are enough to justify holding a class, plans will be started promptly. And if this class is organized it is also very probable that the kiddies will have their class.

Maynard Williams Joins MHS Faculty As English Teacher

Maynard Williams, a former student of the Muenster public school, will be a member of its faculty next year. The school board in its regular session Tuesday night appointed him as the teacher of high school English.

The appointment leaves only one vacancy on the faculty, a teacher for the seventh and eighth grades. Applications for that job are on file now and the board's decision is expected soon.

Williams is a brother of Mmes. Henry and John Huchton and C. L. Williams. He will receive his degree from the University of Texas at the end of this summer. His major is in business administration and his minor in English.

A graduate of the public school's elementary department in the late forties, Williams transferred to Saint Jo High School and graduated in 1951. He completed two years of college work at Midwestern and a half year at Texas U. before enlisting in the Marine Corps for three years. While with the Marines he spent some time at George Washington University in Washington D.C. then, after his discharge, returned to Texas U.

Williams was married in January of this year to Miss Beryl McKinney of Washington D.C. The couple will move here after he finishes the summer session at TU.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. C. B. Sears who had been visiting her son, Tom Sears and family at Orange, underwent major surgery at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston on May 30. She'll be hospitalized for some time and cards from her friends here will cheer her.

Ernest Martin, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin, is recovering satisfactorily from rheumatic fever and is up and around the house most of the time now after spending several weeks in bed.

Charlie Pagel came home Wednesday from the VA Hospital in McKinney. He'll return in two weeks for more treatment of his injured knee. Meanwhile he's getting around fine on crutches.

Returning from a visit with her husband Tuesday night, Mrs. Paul Tempel said he continues in recovery of health and that daily therapy is contributing to marked improvement in the use of his left arm. Doctors at Veterans Hospital are considering a weekend leave from the hospital for him to visit at home in the near future.

Ed Eberhart underwent surgery at Gainesville Sanitarium Tuesday to remove a piece of wire from his right foot. The operation was the result of an accident a week earlier when a power mower he was using threw a piece of wire into his foot. At the time he supposed the injury was no more than a cut which was visible. After several days of severe pain and swelling an X-ray showed a small section of wire embedded near a bone.

Attend Profession Of Brother Gerald

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Swirczynski and sons Virgil and Rickie, joined by their daughter Edna of Dallas, were in San Antonio May 26 to attend ceremonies at the monastery where their son and brother, Brother Gerald, made his solemn profession as a member of the Carmelite Order.

The Swirczynskis were overnight guests in the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knauf at Bandera before returning home.

Harvest Prospect Improves as Fair Weather Continues

Ideal harvesting weather is still hanging on as farmers of this area are getting started on the second phase of harvest activity. Days are hot and dry enabling combines to work fast and for long hours.

As this is being written, Wednesday, the wheat harvest is just getting started. One load of wheat was delivered here Monday. It tested 60 and was brought in by H. N. Fuhrmann. Tuesday both local elevators received a few loads each and Wednesday they were doing a fairly steady business. If the weather continues they expect to be going strong by the start of next week.

Work has not advanced far enough to estimate an average yield for the community, however two reports have been made. H. N. Fuhrmann made 18 on a field and Tony Felderhoff expects about the same on a field he has almost finished.

Around here, Arthur Felderhoff said, quantity is good but not the quality. Tests generally run a few points under 60. An exception to that is a load of beautiful wheat from the Era community received by Stockmen's Feed Store. Albert Herr said it tested 63.

The baling phase of the oats harvest is finished and the threshing phase is well started. At this time most farmers have their oats windrowed and are waiting to run it through combines. A few farmers have cut with binders and shocked their oats for an old fashioned threshing job.

Though wonderful for the harvest this dry weather has been severe on other crops. Corn, pasture, alfalfa, cotton . . . all the growing crops . . . have use for a good soaker.

Parish Procession Will Observe Feast Of Corpus Christi

Observance of the feast of Corpus Christi will be held in the traditional manner here Sunday when a procession outside the church will commemorate the institution of the Blessed Eucharist.

The ceremony will be held after the 8 o'clock mass with the procession moving to a specially prepared altar on the front of Sacred Heart elementary school. After prayers and sacramental benediction there the procession will return to church for final prayers and benediction.

"THE TALKINGEST"

It may have something to do with the midnight sun, but — American Telephone & Telegraph Company reported that the Alaskans unseated the Hawaiians as the "talkingest people on earth." The score: Alaska averaged 630 phone conversations per person per year, Hawaii 531. The United States hit 426 and the world average was 51. A. T. & T. noted that 7,500,000 new phones went into service last year, bringing the total number to 110,000,000.

Formal Installation Features Meeting Of Muenster CDAs

Formal installation of newly elected officers featured the June meeting of the Muenster court Catholic Daughters of America Sunday afternoon in the K of C hall. Mrs. Fred Polansky of Dallas, district deputy, was the installing officer assisted by Mrs. J. W. Fisher of the local court.

Rev. Christopher Paladino was guest speaker for the occasion and Mrs. Polansky gave a short address.

During the business session Mrs. Joe Swirczynski reported on mission work, telling that 25 hospital shirts are ready for shipment to a Hereford mission hospital and 100 pounds of used clothing is being dispatched to an Indian mission. Being readied for "Eyes for the Needy" is a box of eye glasses and frames to go to a charitable organization. Anyone with frames, lenses or glasses to add to the package is invited to do so.

In his talk Father Christopher appealed for modesty in dress, deploring the wearing in public of abbreviated shorts and blouses. He appealed to CDA members to set a good example themselves and to admonish their daughters in this regard.

Mrs. Polanski congratulated new officers, urged an effort to increase membership and encouraged the court to perfect the routine of its drill team. She was presented a purple and gold corsage.

After adjournment members enjoyed a social hour. The refreshment committee headed by Mrs. Henry Pick, Mrs. Herbert Meurer and Mrs. L. A. Bernauer served sandwiches, cake squares and punch.

The court will not meet in July and August. Activity will be resumed in September.

Weinzapfel, organist; Mrs. Ted Gremminger, prophetess; Mrs. Steve Moster, lecturer; Mrs. Joe Horn, financial secretary; Mrs. Joe Hoenig, monitor; Mrs. L. A. Bernauer, sentinel; Mmes. Ed Cler, Frank Kathman, Charlie Fisher, Joe Swirczynski Charley Hellman and John Fisher, trustees.

Oil Strippers Never Die — They Just Fade Away

"Strippers" may conjure up happy thoughts of the Folies Bergere for some people. In oil lingo, however, a stripper is a well that produces barely enough to earn its keep. Over two-thirds of the oil wells in this country — almost 358,000 of them — are marginal or stripper wells that average only a little over three and one-half barrels of oil a day. Yet conservation-conscious oilmen still manage to wrest almost 19 per cent of the nation's entire crude oil production from stripper fields.

GOV'T DEBT $1600 FOR EACH PERSON

The Federal Government could pay off the national debt if it could collect about $1,600 from every man, woman and child in the country.

For the average man with a wife and two children, this would mean, $6,400!

Poor Fish

A couple of old cronies in a small town were fishing enthusiasts, and one afternoon, while fishing the local river, to make matters more interesting, agreed that the man who made the first catch should buy a drink.

Minutes later of of them drew his friend's attention to the fact that he had a bite. Seconds later he pulled in a fish. It was a very poor catch, but the man kept his word and poured drinks from his bottle.

"Well, now," said the friend, wiping his lips, "I think I'll bait my hook now."

About 60 relatives and friends called between the hours of 9 and 12. Gwen and Elaine Friske of Gainesville assisted their aunt with the serving.

Among out of town guests were the Harold Lukes of Arlington, the Martin Friskes of Lindsay, the Glenn Catheys visiting here from California, the Barney Sandmanns of Fort Worth and the Bill Seylers of Valley View.

The Norman Luke family left Sunday afternoon to return to their home in Shreveport, La.

Games, birthday cake, ice cream and cold drinks made it a jolly event. The guests brought gifts for the honoree, had their pictures taken and received a bat and ball as favors.

NOT ALL CROPS ARE "POLITICAL"

A good many people who have no personal connection with farming may think that the government supports and subsidizes all agricultural production. But that is not the case. Supports apply only to six so-called basic crops, which are frequently and accurately called the "political crops." And these six crops, as Karl D. Butler, a leading agricultural economist points out, make up only 24 per cent of the value of all crops.

He adds: "What most people forget is that some of the most important farm commodities are not price-supported by the government. For example, livestock and their products represent more than half of the gross income of farmers, yet the only commodity in this group that is price supported is butter."

Meat, in other words, moves in a free market, all the way from animals on the hoof to the favorite cuts you buy from your butcher. And the producers of meat — as spokesmen for livestock associations and others have said time and time again — want and mean to keep it that way. They have had their troubles. They've known bust as well as boom. They've been plagued with drought. They've seen prices tumble to levels that brought them heavy losses. But they prefer to take their own chances and work out their own destinies without bureaucrats giving the orders and making the rules. And over the years they've done well.

So have consumers. The free market sees to it that we get the kinds and cuts of meat we want when we want them. And price is established by the natural law of supply and demand — not by fallible political judgment.

Even though some of your fondest dreams fail to materialize, you can be thankful that many of your nightmares don't come true either!

PARABLE OF TWO NEIGHBORS

Once upon a time there was a farmer named Brown who raised corn. He had a neighbor named Smith who raised chickens, but no corn.

Now, Brown needed help on his farm, so he employed Smith one day each week, paying him $5 a day in cash. Smith then bought five bushels of corn at $1 a bushel from Brown for his egg-laying hens.

One day chicken-raiser Smith told corn-farmer Brown that the cost of everything was going up, so he'd have to get $6 a day for his work. Replied Brown: "Everything I use is costing more, so I'll have to get $6 for five bushels of corn."

After a while chicken-raiser Smith told farmer Brown that with everything still going up, he'd have to get $7.50 for a day's work. Whereupon corn-raiser Brown allowed as how everything he used was costing more, so he'd just have to get $7.50 for five bushels of corn.

Both Brown and Smith were so pleased over the idea of $7.50 for a day's work and $7.50 for five bushels of corn that they both exclaimed: "Happy days are here again."

By and by, chicken-raiser Smith told corn-raiser Brown that everything had gone up still more, so he just couldn't hire out for less than $10 a day. Brown said that seemed fair to him, but since everything he used was going up too, he'd have to get $10 for five bushels of corn, which was agreeable with Smith.

Smith told his wife: "Ain't it wonderful . . . $10 for a day's work."

Brown told his wife: "Ain't it wonderful . . . $10 for five bushels of corn . . ."

That's the way inflation works. It gives us the pleasant but dangerous feeling that everything's wonderful, while it eats away at our pocketbook and savings, our insurance and pensions . . . and everything else of value. —W. G. Vollmer, President, Texas & Pacific Railway Company.

IS THE BACK DOOR OPEN?

History records that while the Christians were holding the city of Constantinople in the 15th century behind its massive hundred foot high wall, an enemy soldier discovered a back door in the wall, open and unguarded. While the Christians battled from the parapets, the Moslems slipped through the unguarded door and the city was taken.

The United States is perhaps as impregnable from outside attack as was Constantinople but it may also be as vulnerable

DO SOMETHING ABOUT CRIME

By J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

LOOK AT your watch as it ticks off 12 seconds. In that span a major crime has been committed somewhere in the United States. Odds are that it was a juvenile crime.

Daily, news reports remind us of the rampaging reign of lawlessness and, particularly, of the shameful juvenile crime picture expanding throughout the Nation. Not only has the number of juvenile offenders increased tremendously but so has the viciousness of their crimes. The harmless prank has given way to the premeditated act of violence. Disrespect for lawful authority has blossomed into complete disregard for the individual rights of others.

Hoover

OF COURSE, we can point with pride to the vast majority of our youth—fine, wholesome people deserving of our congratulations and encouragement. But, unfortunately, they must suffer the disgrace and shame brought down upon their age group by the relatively small percentage of youth who have become enmeshed in the tangled web of crime.

Behind this crime wave is a vicious movement to undermine the traditional spiritual and moral principles of our Nation. Freedom, divorced from authority and discipline, is a frightening thing and is the first step toward total moral degeneration. It is this insidious movement that we must attack. We need to reacquire ourselves with the moral values which inspired our forefathers to lead our country to the pinnacle of world leadership.

ANY LASTING corrective steps against crime must begin at the cornerstone of our society—the home. It is my conviction that only when the family returns to living as a unit will we be moving in the right direction. The child with a secure, happy, religious home rarely becomes a delinquent.

Responsibility falls first upon the parents. But it does not end with them! The task of salvaging our youth must be shared by all of adult America—it is inescapable, and we must turn our faces to it, not our backs. What can we do?

WORSHIP of God, dependence upon God's guidance and prayer to God have been characteristics of American life since the earliest years of our history. What is needed to revitalize the outlook of our youth is a total effort—beginning in the elementary grades and soundly bolstered in the home—to instill in our youth a belief in the dignity of man; belief in themselves; and faith in a Supreme Being. Then will our religious traditions live anew.

By reflecting upon the glories of our past, we can advance to even greater heights of achievement in the future. We are challenged to fortify the moral and spiritual bulwarks of our country. This task must start with the individual—with you!

from within. While our country is spending billions of dollars for defenses to protect itself from freedom-destroying invaders, is it leaving a back door open?

A socialistic trend that has persisted in the U. S. in recent years continues to encroach on private citizens and industry. The affairs of the country fall more and more under the control of invading bureaucracy. Thus we are gradually breaching our defenses of individual opportunity and personal liberty.

BUSINESS' BIGGEST CUSTOMER IS FARMER

Farmers are steadily decreasing in numbers, but their importance to business has not diminished. They are still the biggest customers business has. They buy 6,600,000 tons of steel annually. This is more than the entire auto industry uses in a year. In addition they spend $3 billion for the maintenance and operation of farm machinery and other vehicles which use 17.5 billion gallons of gasoline and oil.

The combined spending of the 4,700,000 farmers of the nation in 1956 was greater than the retail sales of Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit and Los Angeles combined.

The amount of capital the farmer has to invest per man is greater than that which industry must invest per worker. Livestock farmers have an average investment of $37,862 per man. This is almost three times as much as industry's $14,000 per worker.

All-Family Reunion Of Tony Otto Clan Is Happy Occasion

A complete reunion of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Otto was an enjoyable event Sunday afternoon and evening at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Noggler under a grove of trees. Those attending brought covered dishes for a six o'clock dinner.

The Otto family has a get-together once a year and this year's party brought the entire family together for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Otto have seven children, 30 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren and every one was present.

Attending from Muenster were Messrs. and Mmes. Tony Otto, J. P. Flusche and family, Tony Hoenig and family, John, Ray and Earle Otto and their children, Julius Hermes and sons, Alvin Noggler and Ann and Al Schmitt and family.

Present from Gainesville were Messrs. and Mmes. Tommy Otto and family, Sid Otto and Ben Weber and Ben Otto, his daughter Louise Otto, visiting from San Antonio, and Jo Anne Weber and a friend from Fort Worth.

Guest Speaker and Plans for Social Highlight Meeting

An address by Mrs. A. T. (Mae) Koriath of Sherman was an inspiring and entertaining feature at the June meeting of the St. Anne's Society Sunday afternoon in the parish hall, and plans for a benefit card party furnished the principal topic for discussion during the business session.

Mrs. Koriath explained NCCW citing the purpose, the organization, service and activity, the cause and result in an over-all picture of the National Catholic Council of Women. She knows NCCW thoroughly and presented her talk in a charming, informal manner breaking away from the smooth flow of words occasionally to relate actual experiences she has had in work of the organization on a parish, deanery, diocesan and national level.

She was introduced to the 40 members present by Mrs. Victor Hartman, society president, who presided for the meeting.

During the business session the group set Sunday, June 15, as the date for a card party to be held in the parish hall after evening mass. It will be a benefit event with an invitation for community participation. A committee is making arrangements for refreshments and another committee is securing game prizes which members have been asked to contribute.

By a vote of the membership the organization gave one hundred dollars from its treasury to the church fund.

Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman was elected as the delegate to represent the society at the state meeting of the Catholic State League in Windthorst in July. The quilt made by Mrs. Fuhrman for the convention's mission exhibit was on display.

Members were reminded to keep the Benedictine Sisters in mind when they are canning and deep freezing vegetables and fruits.

Mrs. Lena Streng won the attendance prize, a miniature picture of the Infant of Prague.

The trouble with many club meetings is that they open at 7:30 sharp and close at 10 o'clock dull.

Auxiliary Arranges Social for Teens Picnic for Members

Arrangements for the monthly teen party next Sunday and for a swim party and picnic for members, along with routine business, occupied members of the VFW Auxiliary at their June meeting Monday night. Mrs. John Huchton, president, presided with 21 members in attendance.

This month's party for young people of the community will be held Sunday, June 8, with Mrs. Clarence Hellman as chairman of the hostess committee consisting of Mmes. Francis Wiese, Clarence Hudspeth, Ray Wilde, Ferd Luttmner and Rody Klement. The party will begin at 8 and conclude at 11 p.m.

As an entertainment for themselves and their husbands the Auxiliary members slated a swim party and picnic for Thursday night, June 26. There'll be no admission charge to the Muenster pool which the organization has rented from 7 to 9. Those attending will bring their eats and drinks for the picnic.

Reports were given on last month's district meeting here, on the Memorial service, the Buddy Poppy campaign and last month's teen party.

Four young women were approved as eligible for membership and were accepted as candidates for reception. They are Mrs. James Mollenkopf, Mrs. Tommy Knabe, Dolores Reiter and Carolyn Swirczynski.

After adjournment there was a social hour and refreshments. Mrs. Ray Swirczynski, hostess for the evening, served.

Mrs. Pete Hawthorne and four sons of Corsicana are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Frank Kathman and other relatives. Pete brought his family to Muenster and stayed for a week-end visit. He'll be back this weekend to take them home.

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot fully express our thanks but gratitude is in our hearts for the kindness and consideration shown us by so many friends. Special thanks to the blood donors, the Muenster VFW for help, to the Muenster and Gainesville pastors, to neighbors, relatives and friends for many favors, to everyone who said a prayer, for spiritual bouquets, get-well cards and visits and for every other courtesy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Wolf and daughter Charlotte spent the weekend in Houston. Their sons Mitchell and Roger received their diplomas Saturday in the formal commencement service at the University of Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf and Charlotte were joined by the couple's other daughter, Lou Rena Wolf of Houston, in attending the program.

Mitchell and Roger both earned their degrees at mid-term in January. But since the school does not have a winter graduation program they received their diplomas in the May exercises. Mitchell's degree is a BS in Agriculture Economics and Roger's is a BBA in business. There were more than 900 graduates.

A Fish Story

For those of us who have had to divert our one-time fly-casting skill into the knack of opening a sardine can, there has been a definite loss in excitement, but a proportionate gain in nutrition. You just can't eat the ones that got away.

And it now develops we haven't known how lucky we were—and neither have the sardine packers on the Maine coast, whence come those fat and sizable fishes' pups that are good for a meal rather than merely a snack.

Dr. Frederick J. Stare, professor and chairman of the department of nutrition at the Harvard School of Public Health, and world-famous authority on what food does to us and why, says they've really got it! In fact, he went all the way up to Bangor to tell the annual research meeting of the Maine sardine industry what is in their fishes.

A Maine sardine — which is really a herring, junior-grade — is not merely full of fish-meat, says Dr. Stare, but of Grade A protein. This protein, in turn, is fit-to-bust with vitamins and minerals; but it has very little fat—that is, the kind of fat that way. Instead it contains arachidonic acid, which is one of the two "essential fatty acids." Linoleic acid is the other one, and Dr. Stare didn't say where to go for that.

But don't go anywhere. We're just getting to the exciting part. You've been hearing about that newly-discovered public enemy, cholesterol, which is receiving much of the blame for the increase in coronary heart disease and cerebral hemorrhages, or strokes. This cholesterol forms in the blood — some say from eating too high on the hog — and then collects on the walls of blood vessels, restricting traffic and encouraging a type of hardening of the arteries called "atherosclerosis."

At this point, the thing for you to do is eat a can of sardines —right out of the can is best, says Dr. Stare. You get a charge of this arachidonic acid, that moves this cholesterol along and prevents it from hanging around to make trouble!

SNAKES GET RATS, SCARE BURGLARS

SYDNEY. — Harry Kemp didn't exactly build a better mousetrap but he's doing right well. He rents out six-foot snakes as rat catchers and night-watchmen for warehouses.

The brightly colored carpet snakes are non poisonous, but nonetheless terrifying to burglars and sudden death to rats. Kemp buys them from farmers for $1 and rents them out for $3 a week or sells them at $1 a foot. "The demand is fantastic," the 76-year-old Kemp said. "I take them around in wicker baskets and turn them loose at night. Next morning back they go into the baskets. They scare burglars half to death."

DO YOU KNOW . . .

That between 1948 and 1956 hourly pay in manufacturing increased 55%, but increase in output per man-hour was only 26% — less than half as much?

That in 1948 taxes took 38 cents from every dollar of industry's earnings while today's tax bite is 52 cents per dollar?

That since 1948 taxes on profits have increased 85%?

That profit, after taxes, per unit of output declined 25% from 1948 to 1956?

That profits as a percent of sales dropped from 4.9% in 1948 to 3.1% in 1956?

Discretion is something that a man develops when he is too old for it to do him any good.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

"Plant guar or summer cowpeas for soil improvement and protection after hay or grain is harvested." That's advice from the local Soil Conservation Service personnel this week.

These summer crops will produce optimum green vegetative tonnage in 90 days with adequate moisture. When properly fertilized and inoculated 18,000 to 24,000 pounds of green vegetative matter can be expected. This green matter, when returned to the soil, will give big benefits in increasing organic matter, soil conditioning and land fertility. In addition to the green manure crop, these plants are legumes and increase soil fertility by adding nitrogen to the land through the nitrogen fixing nodules on the roots.

Guar is relatively a newcomer to the Muenster-Saint Jo area. Last year Tony Walterscheid planted guar on June 27 after grain was harvested. The guar received no moisture until July 22 when a two-inch rain fell. Clippings in September yielded 15,000 pounds of green forage per acre. Guar is a drought resistant crop which can be grown in between grain crops for soil improvement. The beans are high in protein and can be harvested for livestock feed. Guar is a row crop and matures in 90 days.

Make plans now to improve the land during the hot summer months with either guar or summer peas. Plant them for soil improvement and protection after hay or grain is harvested, urge SCS technicians.

Henry Wolf recently completed a pond for livestock water on his farm west of Muenster. The pond is equipped with a two-inch pipe running through the dam. A watering trough will be installed behind the dam and fencing will be arranged so that livestock in two pastures will be served.

The pond and dam will be fenced to keep cattle out of the water. This arrangement will insure a cleaner and cooler source of water for the livestock and also will provide a much more desirable pond for family recreational activities. The water trough for the two pastures will also enable Mr. Wolf to practice rotation grazing and improve the grasses.

Safety Association Urges Caution in Using Power Mower

AUSTIN — "Power mowers are a real boon to father's back, but if they are improperly handled they can be more of a hazard than a help."

J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, made the above statement today as he warned Texans to take extra common sense precautions in handling power mowers and edgers.

"Such power tools have not been in use long enough," he said, "for us to have any accurate accident data, but we do know that thousands of persons are injured, and several hundred killed, each year as a result of unsafe handling of power lawn tools."

Musick offered the following twelve safety suggestions as an aid to reducing hazards to a minimum when working with power lawn equipment:

1. Never permit pre-teenage children to operate any kind of power mower, edger or clipper.
2. Know how to throw mower out of gear quickly.
3. Know how to stop engine or motor immediately.
4. Allow for gas expansion when filling tank and be sure engine is turned off and cool before refueling.
5. Use approved fuels and store them in safe containers.

6. Clear yard of debris before mowing; i.e., sticks, bones, rocks, etc.
7. When starting mower, maintain your balance and have solid footing.
8. Do not allow pets, children or other bystanders near mower during operation. This will prevent their injury by objects thrown from the mower blades.
9. If using an electric mower, be sure motor is grounded and wiring is in perfect condition. NEVER mow when grass is wet.

10. Maintain firm control of mower. Mow hills sideways — not up and down.
11. Disconnect spark plug, or electric plug, before working on mower's parts or while oiling. Always keep hands away from blades or other moving parts if possible.
12. Be AFRAID of all power mowers and other tools — you are not as apt to become careless.

Cause and Effect
A neighborhood garage man was praising the new minister, but finally admitted that he had never heard him preach. "If you haven't heard him," he was asked, "how do you know he's good?"

"Because," was the reply, "the members of his flock are beginning to come in and pay their bills."

Bill says he wishes his wife could make bread like his mother used to and she says she wishes Bill could make dough like her father.

To bore a large hole over an existing smaller one, drive a wood plug or dowel into the small hole. It is then easy to center the large one.

Favorite Story

A school's inspector entered a classroom whilst the Scripture lesson was in progress, and to get an idea of the standard of teaching he decided to ask the children some questions. Calling on one small boy, he asked, "Who broke down the walls of Jericho?" The boy answered, "Not me, sir." The inspector turned to the teacher and asked, "Is this the usual standard in this class?" The teacher replied, "The boy is usually quite honest, and I believe him."

Leaving the room in disgust, the inspector sought out the headmaster and explained what had transpired. The headmaster said, "I've known both teacher and boy concerned for several years, and I'm sure that neither of them would do a thing like that."

By this time the inspector was furious and reported the incident to the Director of Education. The Director said "I feel, y'know that we are making a mountain out of a molehill in this case. I suggest that we pay the bill and write the sum off."

Their daughter Susan celebrated her seventh birthday, sharing honors with her grandmother Mrs. John Herr of Muenster who was also a birthday honoree, and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bengfort of Lindsay whose 38th wedding anniversary was June 1.

Susan had her party in the afternoon with 15 classmates, nine cousins, her sister and brother and her grandparents as guests. The children played games and received horns and whistles as favors. Ice cream, birthday cake, soda pop and candy were refreshments.

In the evening the Herr and Bengfort families were guests for an anniversary supper. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Herr, Alma and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bengfort, Wilfred, Stella and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Stoffels and Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stoffels and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Zimmerer and three sons. Mildred Krahl and Airman H. R. Kessler Wed at Gainesville

Mildred Krahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Krahl of Gainesville, route 1, exchanged marriage vows with Airman Henry R. Kessler of Ardmore AFB Monday evening at St. Mary's church in Gainesville with Major William F. Banick, chaplain of the Oklahoma air base, officiating.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kessler of Adah, Penn.

The bride's dress was of lace over bridal satin designed street length with a princess bodice and bouffant skirt. A daisy-trimmed lace headpiece held the elbow length veil and she carried an orchid bouquet.

Patsy Krahl attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a princess style dress of embroidered faille, pink gloves and a daisy headdress. Her flowers were pink carnations.

James Krahl attended his brother-in-law as best man and another brother of the bride, George Krahl, and Robert K. Gibson, Ardmore, were ushers.

Ann Gallagher, organist, and Charlotte Hoedebeck, soloist, furnished the wedding music. For the reception in the church basement Jane Mallicote and Ann Marie Wiesman poured punch and Shirley Hoedebeck served the wedding cake. Genevieve Noggler registered the guests.

Relatives from out of town were present from Muenster, Lindsay, Valley View and Scotland.

The couple left for a trip to Wichita Falls and will make their home at 921 N. Washington St., Ardmore. She attended St. Mary's parochial school and was graduated from Gainesville High. Her husband attended school in Adah and has served overseas with 14 months on Okinawa.

Easy to Please

A timid little guy with a bald pate appeared at an information window in the Department of Socialized Medicine in an English city and said to the clerk, "Please, sir, I'd like to get a free wig — a brown one, with just a dash of gray at the temples, if it isn't too much bother."

"Very well," said the clerk, scribbling something on a sheet of paper. "Take this order up to our perwig department on the 4th floor — room 437. They will take care of you."

"Oh, thank you, sir!" said the timid little bald-headed guy, as he clutched the paper and departed.

An hour later he was back, his pate as naked as before.

"Why aren't you wearing a new wig?" the clerk asked.

"Wrong number," lisped the timid little guy. "Pullf aw my teef insteff!"

At Least That Long

It was a hot, sultry day at the Army camp, and the tough sergeant had been drilling the basic trainees until the awkward troops were ready to drop.

The passing officer stopped to watch the drill, and grew progressively more displeased. Just as it seemed things could get no worse, one lanky recruit dropped his rifle. The officer ordered the offender out of formation. "How long have you been in the Army?" demanded the irate officer.

The weary rookie looked up at the officer. All cares of the troubled world were written across his face as he stammered, "All day, sir!"
