While the 4-H clubbers were working on their garments to enter in the dress revue, many participated in clothing workshops where they received specific training in clothing construction. These workshops were held at Sacred Heart, Lindsay, Era and St. Mary's in Gaines-

CDA Members Have Spouses as Guests At Brunch Sunday

Court St. Mary Catholic Daughters of America of Sacred Heart parish were guests at a brunch Sunday and their husbands were special guests for the event in the parish hall

The program followed the court's group attendance at the 10 o'clock mass and reception of Holy Communion in a body.

Father Christopher Paladino, chaplain of the court, officiated at the mass and was a speaker following the meal. Fifty members and guests attended.

Mrs. John Mosman, grand regent, introduced charter members attending. Present were Mrs. J. S. Horn, Mrs. M. J. Endres, Mrs. L. A. Bernauer and Miss Theresa Luke. Miss Frances Spaeth of Denison was an out of town guest.

Decorations on tables stressed the court's colors of purple and gold with floral arrangements of violets, hyacinths and daffodils. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz and Mrs. Al Walterscheid prepared the meal.
