Local Industrial Foundation Will Vote on By-Laws

The solicitude of certain drys for the people of Muenster in their hour of decision is most touching. As we approach our local option election on legalizing the sale of alcoholic drinks, they are expressing grave concern over the civic and moral deterioration which they claim must inevitably follow if we fail to heed their advice.

Far be it from this column to question their sincerity. No doubt they are speaking from conviction. But the plain fact is that they are basing their plea on nothing more substantial than their personal opinions. They seem to ignore, for one thing, that many a wet city or area in this state already lives under the condition we seek without evidence of the dreaded ill effects on community welfare. Facts just do not support their dire predictions.

They also seem to ignore that the people of Muenster might possibly have plans to prevent the disorders which the solicitious brethren are expecting. We here have always believed that we have the judgment and temperance not to get out of hand just because we acquire a new freedom. We're not afraid of our community's behavior. Nor are we afraid of the behavior of less discreet visitors. On the contrary we are determined to convince any unruly visitors that they will be unwelcome the moment they get out of line.

Several precautions are already planned to assure continued orderly behavior in our town. One is a special ordinance limiting the sale of alcoholic drinks to a small area. That will prevent disturbance in the residential section and also aid peace officers in their supervision.

Even more important is the assured cooperation of County and Liquor Control officers in the legal and orderly conduct of local affairs. Their first and most effective control is a rigid standard for securing and keeping a license.

There will be a careful screening of all applicants, and there will be close observation to make sure that every license holder lives up to the letter of the law. It can be assumed that a proprietor will be hesitant to allow disorder or illegal sales when he knows that his place can be closed on a moment's notice. Another important consideration is the supervision of officers. Sternness in dealing with trouble makers will soon discourage the rowdy element.

So much for the claim that we are inviting a lot of trouble. Present signs are that we have both the will and the way to keep this an orderly, respectable town.

Another sincere objection by many drys is that drink so often leads to other evil, and they can quote abundantly from statistics to support their claim. But that does not necessarily make it a valid objection. They know as well as we that the vast majority of people can and do have their drinks without going on to other evil. Still they insist that the many must give up a legitimate liberty because of the few who get out of line.

To persist in their logic they would have to condemn any number of other activities and customs which frequently lead to tragic consequences. Do they object to car driving because of accidents? To swimming because of drowning? To football because of injuries? To social evenings because of broken homes? It's plain to see that these comparisons can be carried to infinity and absurdity. And, as our good prohibitionists would doubtless admit, not one of them should be prohibited.

Regardless of what activity a person is engaged in, he should exercise his own God-given judgment and conscience. We prefer to assume that the Creator knew what he was doing when He endowed human beings with intelligence and free will and when He also created the conditions which would allow people to use those faculties.

Our entire social system is built on this principle. We do not condemn car driving or swimming or football or social relations or the other activities and customs. We regard all of them as God-given rights. However we have laws and rules to restrain us from using them improperly. None of these liberties are evil in themselves, but applying any of them beyond reasonable limits becomes an evil.

A special meeting of the Muenster Industrial Foundation next Monday night, August 31, will be the last step prior to putting the organization officially in business.

It will be held in the Muenster High auditorium, starting at 7:30.

The purpose is to adopt by-laws after which the foundation can apply for its charter an transact business as a corporation.

Members this week are receiving letters urging them to attend Monday's meeting and explaining that at least half of them must be present to make up a quorum. With the letter is a proxy form so that any person not attending can assign his vote to someone else.

Another phase of organizing the foundation has also been in progress the past few weeks. Membership has grown from 93 to 98 and the fund has increased from $18,800 to $21,000. New members are Hubert Felderhoff, V.F.W. Post, Scott Bros. Cooke County Electric Co-op. and Texas Power and Light Co.

Officers beginning a new year are President Mrs. L. B. Bruns, Vice President Mrs. Edd McGannon, Secretary Mrs. R. N. Fette, and Treasurer Mrs. Steve Moster.

Sisters Extend Thanks for Shower

Muenster's Benedictine Sisters say "Thanks to everyone for a wonderful shower." They want everybody to know how grateful they are for the generous donations of canned foods, the things for their deep freeze and all the other necessary and useful items for the convent pantry and kitchen, and for cash contributions.

The annual community shower for the Sisters was held Sunday evening in the Parish Hall. A large crowd was present to greet the Sisters and welcome them back.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Little Susan Stoffels didn't get to start classes in the first grade at Sacred Heart School because a sprained ankle and bruised leg are keeping her in bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meinrad Stoffels. And Susan's baby brother, Nicky Joe, entered Baylor Hospital Wednesday for plastic surgery Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Stoffels took their six-week-old son to Dallas and are remaining with him until he is dismissed. Meinrad is on vacation from the milk plant.

Mrs. John Fette has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium after medical care.

Mrs. Ray Swirczynski is continuing recovery at home following surgery at Gainesville Sanitarium. She was dismissed Sunday.

Mrs. Wayne Thompson of Saint Jo is a patient at Mayo Brothers Clinic in Rochester where she'll be staying about five weeks. She'll enjoy hearing from her friends. Address greeting cards to her at Mayo Bros. Clinic, General Delivery, Rochester, Minn. Mrs. Thompson's friend, Mrs. O. R. Cook of Forestburg who is a nurse, went along as her companion.

Equalization Board Sets September 8 For Tax Hearing

Members of the Muenster City council in session Monday night, continued in their year by year effort to equalize city taxes. According to Mayor Herbert Meurer their work consisted mostly of changing low renditions back to the former valuations and, for those who failed to render, copying valuations from last year's tax sheet. In addition there were, as usual, changes to equalize discrepancies that were not noticed before and listings of some items that are either new or previously overlooked.

Wherever changes were made, either from the rendered figure or from last year's amount, a notice postal was sent advising the taxpayer he may appear at a hearing on September 8. However the board did not follow its old custom of advising all who failed to render. So there are no notice cards for persons whose renditions are unchanged or whose taxes are unchanged.

Tigers Expect to Be Set for Opener With Alvord High

Though they have only a week to go before their season opener, George Petrus and his Sacred Heart Tigers expect to be ready when they tangle with the Alvord Bulldogs on September 4. The beginning of school, as usual, brings in a few who were not able to start the early practice, and the difference is important in this case.

Included with some half dozen new arrivals are Joe Streng and Donald Hennigan who are slated for key assignments that should make a big difference in team organization.

Monday night in their scrimmage session with the Valley View Eagles the Tigers were caught off guard by a series of long passes and appeared to have a weak defense. However some of their mistakes were already corrected in the next night's practice with the Muenster Hornets and more improvement is assured when the team gets to its full strength.

After starting their season with a home game, the Tigers will play their next five away from home, then stay here for the rest of the season. Since dropping out of the Southwest Academic League they are not members of any conference, but three of their opponents are members of District 37-B.

Sudden Death Ends Brief Illness of Mrs. W. B. Hoover

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. W. B. Hoover of Myra, a life-long resident of the Myra-Muenster area. She was 67.

Mrs. Hoover died at a Gainesville hospital Friday afternoon where she was a patient for medical care less than a week. She was sitting up, talking with her husband, when death came suddenly. It was attributed to a stroke. Mrs. Hoover had been in failing health for about a year.

Officiating at the last rites in Myra Methodist Church was the Rev. Jerry Bledsoe of Denton, former pastor, who also delivered the sermon. He was assisted by Rev. Robert Everett, pastor.

Serving as bearers were Ernest Biffle, Jake Biffle Jr., Charles Sherrill, Olen Rennels, Ed Cato and Ike Fulton.

George J. Carroll and Son directed funeral arrangements and burial in Reed Cemetery.

Mrs. Hoover, born April 5, 1892, south of Muenster, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosson. She lived at Myra since her marriage.

Survivors are her husband, two sons, Albert Hoover of Myra and Walter Hoover of Sherman; five brothers, Will Rosson of Valley View, B. C. Rosson of Myra, D. R. Rosson of Muenster, Roy Rosson of Fort Worth and J. T. Rosson of San Antonio; two sisters, Mrs. Lillie Caldwell of Myra and Mrs. Karen Harrison of Bellevue, and five grandchildren.

Pool Closes Sunday

Muenster's swimming pool will close Sunday. George Petrus announced this week that school schedules and cooler evenings are combining to reduce attendance to a comparative few and it would be impractical to keep the pool in operation any longer.

Remodeling Work Starts on Building For Dress Factory

Special remodeling work is now under way to accommodate Muenster's Dress Factory and indications are that the firm will be in operation on or before 15th of September, as estimated about two weeks ago.

With details of the loan to be made by the Muenster Industrial Foundation to Sam Raden completed during the past week end, work got under way Monday at the front of the Tractor Sales building, which was selected for the factory site.

To clear the location the implement company's office and displays were moved into the area formerly used for parts and service only, condensing total floor space to about half its former area.

Preparations should take a week to ten days. In the meantime sewing machines are being reconditioned at Dallas and will be moved in as soon as the building is ready. As a starter there will at least 25 of them and probably a few more.

Electrical installations, to accommodate six groups of eight machines each, constitute the greater part of the remodeling job. Machines in a group consist of two rows of four facing each other and the electrical installation will include a row of fluorescent lights about 3 feet over the machines and eight plug-in outlets for the power connections. Extending across the front of the building the six groups of machines will occupy about half of the space leaving the remaining area for other factory work.

Other preparation consists of remodeling and installation for office and rest rooms and setting up a cooling system. The heating system will remain as it is.

Mr. Raden intends to start with at least 25 workers and to increase to 75 or 80 by the end of the year.

Outing, Field Mass And Honor Court on Boy Scout Calendar

Big doings are on the calendar for Muenster Boy Scouts during the Labor Day weekend which will permit time for a hike and camp-out, a field mass and a court of honor. All events will take place at Voth's lakesite.

Readying the campsite for the important occasion, the boys and Scoutmaster Nick Miller have been spending most of their spare time clearing brush from the area where mass will be celebrated by Father Christopher Sunday morning and also on the surrounding grounds where breakfast will be served to the Scouts, their parents and guests.

The Court of Honor will likewise be an open air ceremony in which the Scouts will receive their badges and their mothers will be presented miniature replicas.

Capps Corner and Saint Jo Combine School Districts

Voters at both Saint Jo and Capps Corner voted last Saturday in favor of grouping their school districts in order to form a combined high school district but separate grade school districts.

Saint Jo polled an overwhelming majority of 205-11 in favor of the proposition and Capps Corner favored it 68-47.

Exactly a week before Capps Corner had rejected a consolidation opportunity with Nocona by a count of 68-34. Nocona at the same time voted 116-1 in favor of consolidation, but the effort was wasted because both districts must approve to make the merger effective.

The election brings no noticeable change in the operation of the two districts. Each has its elementary department as before and both have their high school students at Saint Jo. The difference is technical. Capps Corner high school students now belong to the Saint Jo district whereas they used to go through the formality of transferring. The arrangement also strengthens the Saint Jo system and assures Capps Corner that its school can continue until enrollment falls below 20.

Light Weight and Lack of Reserves Handicap Hornets

Spirit will have to be a big ingredient in the Hornet make-up his year if they are to enjoy success in their rugged schedule. Coach Charles Smith is convinced of that as he looks over his prospects after almost two weeks of intensive practice.

As of now two handicaps are staring him in the face. One is an average weight falling somewhat below that of a normal Class B outfit. The other is a shortage of reserve strength. Though he expects to have a nice line-up of starters he is worried about the help that will be left on the bench. That problem became critical as he saw his original squad dwindle in number to less than a double team, including some who are shy in both weight and experience.

Despite the odds Smith and his charges are putting in hard practice sessions and hoping that their first stringers, composed mostly of veterans, will be able to get along with a minimum of reserve help.

The Hornets will open their season at Pilot Point on Sept. 4 facing the Class A Bearcats. Next come two more rugged non-conference tussles, with the Wichita Falls Rowdies and the Valley View Warriors of Wichita County. After that they skip a week and spend the rest of the season playing the other seven members of District 37B. They will have only four home games.

The schedule is as follows. Sept. 4, Pilot Point, there Sept. 12, Wichita Rowdies, there Sept. 18, V' View (Wichita) there. Sept. 25, open Oct. 2, Saint Jo, here. Oct. 10, Era, there. Oct. 16, Sanger, here. Oct. 23, Alvord, there. Oct. 30, V' View (Cooke), here. Nov. 6, Callisburg, there. Nov. 13, Chico, here.

John Aytes Joins Engineer Staff of National Supply

John G. Aytes, of Muenster, a graduate of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, is one of 21 college graduates selected to take part in a comprehensive training program conducted by The National Supply Company, world's largest manufacturer and distributor of oil field machinery and equipment.

Each man enrolled in the program is given experience in one of the nation's active oil fields and studies the operations of the company's manufacturing plants. He also attends an executive seminar, lasting a month, at National Supply's general offices in Pittsburgh.

Aytes has worked for various drilling and producing companies in Texas oil fields and for a gas company in Arkansas. He received his bachelor of science in mechanical engineering degree in 1959. As part of the training program, he had oil field experience at Shreveport, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hofbauer and daughter Sylvia of Dallas brought his sister, Sister Frances, to Muenster Tuesday and visited homefolks before returning. Sister Frances had been their guest for a few days.

Muenster Schools Gain 10; Combined Enrollment is 685

The highest opening day enrollment in the history of the two local schools was recorded here Wednesday as the combined figure reached 685, an increase of 10 over last year's total. The next highest previous opening enrollment was 683 in 1955.

Compared with revised enrollment figures, however this still does not set a record. Ten late comers last year upped the enrollment to 685 in the second week of school. It remains to be seen now whether the number will increase again. If so, it will set a new high.

A breakdown of the starting enrollment figures shows 517 in the parochial school and 168 in the public school. Last year's totals were 494 and 181. Sacred Heart has a gain of 23 while the public school has a loss of 13.

Still another breakdown of figures shows that Sacred Heart Elementary has gained 25 for a present count of 416 while Sacred Heart High has lost 2 for a present count of 101. Muenster Elementary has lost 20 children dropping its total to 70 whereas Muenster High has gained 7 for a total of 98. There were 199 students in the two high schools on opening day, 486 in the two grade schools.

Enrollment by grades in the two schools is as follows:

	S. H.	Public
First	57	7
Second	67	5
Third	61	7
Fourth	49	6
Fifth	46	6
Sixth	48	9
Seventh	46	12
Eighth	42	18
Ninth	21	26
Tenth	30	28
Eleventh	22	24
Twelfth	28	20

Fire Causes Heavy Damage to Tractor

A heavy earth moving tractor owned by Gilbert Endres was badly damaged Tuesday morning in a fire that apparently was caused by a faulty fuel line. While the motor idled Endres worked on one side of the tractor and the blaze started on the other. When discovered it was too far advanced to be stopped.

It happened on the Foster Davidson farm about seven miles northeast of town. A phone call got the city's small pumper truck speeding to the job but not before flames had spread to three of the huge tires valued at several hundred dollars each. They make up most of the loss estimated at near $2,000.

Upon arrival the fire truck brought the tractor fire under control quickly then doused a grass fire that ignited from it.

A number of Muenster friends of the Burchfiel family were among guests at the wedding and reception.

Are Tax Collections "Breaking Your Back"?

Texans alone have been taxed more than $235 million to help pay for the multi-billion-dollar federal "public power" program. About $5 1/2 billion from you and other taxpayers around the nation have already gone into federal electric power systems.

If the pressure groups for federal "public power" have their way about putting the federal government further into the electric business under present proposals, unneeded spending will soar another $10 billion... bringing the total to some $15 1/2 billion. The cost to Texans will be almost tripled.

The $235 million that Texas taxpayers have already been required to pay toward this government spending would contribute measurably today toward helping to solve the financial problems facing our State.

The independent, business-managed, investor-owned, electric light and power companies are able and ready to provide all the low-priced electricity people will need. Instead of depending on your tax dollars for support, they pay in taxes nearly one fourth of each dollar received.

TP&L and other electric power companies have doubled the supply of electricity in the past 10 years, and present plans call for doubling the supply again in the next 10 years.

Twins Christened In Joint Service

Joint christening services conducted by Father Martin Fischer were held Sunday afternoon in Sacred Heart Church for the identical twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pagel. They're named Marlene Ellen and Sharlene Helen and their maternal aunts and uncles are their godparents.

Marlene's sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Howell of Fort Worth and Sharlene's are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer of Pilot Point.

There was more picture taking which was already old stuff to the six-day old girls who have been photographed repeatedly, the first time within thirty minutes of their arrival at Muenser Clinic on August 18.

The Howells and their daughters and the Mayers and their daughters were Saturday overnight and Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. Tony Gremminger.

Joan Hennigan and Felix Pelzel Wed at Nuptial Mass

In a double ring ceremony at nuptial high mass here Saturday at 4 p.m. Joan Hennigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hennigan Sr., was married to Felix Pelzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Pelzel of Pilot Point. Father Bruno Fuhrmann officiated in Sacred Heart Church.

For her wedding Joan wore an aisle wide floor length Chantilly lace and misty tulle gown with taffeta and net petticoats over hoops. Sequins dotted the scalloped V neckline, the lace-edged overskirt and the scalloped short sleeves. Her tiered elbow length veil was edged in matching lace and secured to a lace half-hat sprinkled with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a purple throated white orchid on top of a white prayer book, a gift from the groom. Her father gave her in marriage.

The couple's attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Jaresh and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pelzel of Pilot Point. Mrs. Jaresh, the groom's sister as matron of honor, was in Nile green chiffon over taffeta and Mrs. Pelzel, brides matron, was in orchid chiffon over taffeta. The ballerina length dresses were identical in design and were worn with white half hats and gloves. They carried pink carnations in white baskets.

Mr. Pelzel was his brother's best man and Mr. Jaresh was groomsmen. Sonny Walterscheid and Pete Pelzel ushered.

The church choir and Anthony Luke, organist, provided music for the mass and Joaline Mollenkopf was post-nuptial soloist presenting "On This Day" when the bride placed a bouquet of pink carnations on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

The altar before which the couple pledged vows was adorned with coxcombs and greenery and these same floral complements were used in decorating the parish hall where the wedding reception was held after the service. About 200 relatives and friends were guests for a buffet supper catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz and afterwards there was a dance in the VFW Hall.

Betty Ann Hoenig of Wichita Falls and Carolyn Cunningham presided at the guest book and Jeanne Walterscheid and Betty Landsfeld served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Hennigan attended her daughter's wedding in a brown and green floral lace dress and Mrs. Pelzel, mother of the groom, wore an ivory lace dress. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer was in a navy outfit and also had a pink carnation corsage.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip, not revealing their destination, she was wearing an ice blue two-piece suit with matching accessories. They will make their home on a farm at Pilot Point.

The bride was graduated from Sacred Heart High School and before her marriage was employed at Linda Jo Shoe Factory. Mr. Pelzel is a graduate of Gee High School at Pilot Point.

Relatives and friends were present from Dallas, Fort Worth, Pilot Point, and Wilson, Okla., in addition to those from Cooke County.

Jim Fisher who attends Texas Tech in Lubbock is on a two-week vacation here with his family, the Joe Fishers, between summer school and the regular term.

Involved militarily with international Communism.

Aid For The Enemy

Specifically, Bridges told the House Un-American Activities Committee that members of his union would boycott cargoes at the request of foreign unions — including those behind the Iron Curtain, which are 100 per cent Communist operated. He said that in event of war between Nationalist and Communist China he would use his personal and union's power to block United States aid to our ally, the Nationalists. He was asked point-blank whether he was a Communist. He refused to answer, taking refuge in the Fifth Amendment.

He did talk freely on a few things calculated to hurt the United States and help International Communism. For instance, he sought to uphold the Communist propaganda charges that the United States used germ warfare in Korea. Our government has proved these charges to be utterly false. But, as he did on his recent international Communism in Moscow, Bridges praised things Communistic and depreciated things American.

Bridges' Background

What is the background of this man Bridges who has challenged the sovereign power of the American people, our government and its leadership. He is a native of Australia, a labor union radical from youth, constantly associated with Communists and Communist causes, constantly peddling the Communist line.

In 1941, the U. S. Justice Department, in a series of hearings which permitted Bridges to present a full defense, found (1) That he was a Communist; and (2) That the Communist Party advocated violent overthrow of the United States government. As an alien Communist, Bridges was ordered deported. In 1945, the Supreme Court, in a 5-3 majority opinion written by Justice William O. Douglas declared that Bridges was not a member of the Communist Party although he might be affiliated with it — and the high court revoked the deportation order. Bridges immediately became a naturalized citizen.

Convicted Again

In 1950, a Federal Grand Jury in California indicted Bridges, and the Justice Department brought him to trial for perjury denying Communist Party membership when he was naturalized. It was a jury trial. He was convicted and sentenced to five years, after which he would be deported. In convicting him the Jury concluded that Harry Bridges, in person and as all-powerful head of the Longshoremen's union,

The Important Question

"imperiled the war effort in Korea" and constituted "a threat to U. S. security."

Communists, fellow travelers and dupes went to work. A few weeks later Bridges was freed on bail by two judges of the 9th Federal Circuit Court. The third judge dissented, saying: "The danger here suggested (by having Bridges at large) is not a fanciful one. The ability of Bridges and his I.L.W.U. to paralyze Pacific Coast shipping has been demonstrated more than once." A Congressional study committee reported that Bridges' I.L.W.U. also has complete "economic control over Hawaii." But in 1953, the Supreme Court in a 4 to 3 decision overruled the California court verdict; lifted the sentence and freed Bridges!

No wonder Bridges now feels he is beyond the reach of U. S. law. As a citizen I am disturbed by this potential menace. I wrote every member of Congress, asking each one what he was going to do about the threat raised by Harry Bridges, and the danger of his great power as boss of the longshoremen.

DESIGN FOR HAPPINESS

A delightful story is gaining currency and should be widely heard. It's about a storekeeper who, in traditional fashion, says "thank you" to a lady customer as he takes her money for her purchase, and she surprises him by saying:

"Thank you! You've done me a big favor as I have you. I wanted this item more than I wanted the money I paid for it. We both profit!"

That is the way of all free enterprise, for every purchase and sale is a voluntary exchange for which the customer is a grateful as the merchant.

It is not so when government steps into the picture. When we shell out for taxes, for instance, the government does not thank us, nor do we feel happy about the transaction. Instead of thanking us, government is likely to ask for more, and we have to pay whether we like it or not. Nor are we thanked by those who, through the "bounty" of the welfare state, are recipients of our taxes.

Voluntary, free enterprise is designed to make people happy. It supplies what we want, and in so doing has created the richest nation in the world.

Do we want to exchange this for government-managed economy, welfare statism, or socialism, in which ultimately nobody is satisfied?

Bible and Science - Conflict?

By Rev. Neil J. McEleney, C.S.P., Professor of Sacred Scripture, St. Paul's College, Washington, D. C.

HAVE you ever compared an apple to an orange? What's that you say? There's no basis for comparison? You're right, of course — but not entirely. Apples and oranges do have a lot in common. Still, you'd do better to judge apples by apples and oranges by oranges.

Now what has all this to do with our subject? Just this. Some people expect the Bible to be a scientific textbook. When they find something in it which is not written in the precise language of the scientist, they think it ridiculous. They do not understand that to make the Bible a scientific textbook is like seeing the apple as an orange.

FOR EXAMPLE, Genesis pictures the creation of light before that of the sun. But astronomy tells us it was the other way around, because our daylight comes from the sun. Is there a conflict here? No, the first chapter of Genesis was never meant to tell us how the world was created, but simply that it was created, and by God. So to oppose Genesis and astronomy is to misunderstand the message of Genesis. It is like saying the apple is no good, because it is not an orange. The biblical author teaches us whatever God inspires him to teach, and this can include scientific truth. But he is not a twentieth-century scientist, and his interest is primarily religious. Where the Bible and science overlap, the sacred writer often is not concerned with relating the matter in the manner of modern science. It is too much to expect him to do so.

DOES this mean we have two sets of truths at odds with one another, one biblical and the other scientific? No! It is one thing to say, as we have, that the Bible is not a scientific textbook. It is something else again to say that its teachings contradict the truths which man's scientific research has uncovered.

This takes us back again to the apple and orange. The apple and orange differ in taste, color, and shape. But they are both food. Both contribute to our well-being, each in its own way. So with biblical and scientific truth. Each contributes to man's well-being. Each gives us God's truth in its own way.

SCIENCE has helped us to understand the Bible better. The Bible, in its turn, helps us to direct our lives and use correctly the knowledge we receive through scientific investigation. Rightly understood, they work together. The Bible and science — conflict? Definitely not!

one of 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any car in its field

Proof that Chevy delivers the most miles from a gallon comes from an indisputable source: this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. For a pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class — got top mileage, in fact, of any full-sized car. Over the Run's long, rugged course, over mountain and desert in the long, long haul from Los Angeles to Kansas City, the winning Chevrolet averaged a whopping 22.38 miles per gallon. That's the kind of economy-engineering that keeps you saving while you drive!

BEST STYLE—It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCI-

ENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST BRAKES—In competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevy outstopped both of the "other two." Naturally—Chevy brakes with bonded linings are far larger, built to lengthen brake life by up to 66%.

BEST TRADE-IN—Look at the record—the used car prices in any N.A.D.A.† Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST ENGINE—Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ROOM—Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.‡ make this abundantly clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for instance, is as much as 5.9 inches wider than in comparable cars.

BEST RIDE—MOTOR TREND magazine names Chevy "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But this is one Chevy feature you really should discover for yourself, at your Chevrolet dealer's. Stop by soon!

Human Nature

Things were quiet at the police station. One officer yawned and complained: "What a dull week! No burglaries, no fights, no murders. If this keeps up, they'll be laying us off."

"Don't worry, Murphy," said the chief. "Something's bound to happen. I've still got faith in human nature."

There was a young dentist named Fiddle,
Who refused to accept his degree.
Said he: "It's enough to be Fiddle,
Without being Fiddle D. D."

The governor of the state one day appeared before the convicts at the state prison to make a speech. Forgetting his audience, he began in the usual manner: "Fellow Citizens" — a murmur of laughter ran about the hall. The governor became confused, and began: "Fellow Convicts" — the laughter increased. "Oh, you know what I mean," he stammered. "I mean I'm glad to see so many of you here." Uproar.

Pre-Nuptial Fetes For Wanda Richey

Wanda Richey, who will be married August 28 to Gale Scott, has been feted at two gifts parties.

Mrs. Dick Cain and Mrs. Willie Walterscheid were co-hostesses in the Cain home Friday evening for a linen shower. The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth and was ornamented with blue streamers, carrying out the colors of the bride-elect. Gifts were arranged in a display in the living room.

The other courtesy was a miscellaneous gift shower with Frances Loerwald as hostess in her home at Gainesville. The table was covered with a white cloth and was centered with a decorated cake iced in blue.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Richey of Gainesville, formerly of Muenster.

Mary Lee's color of mint green and white were used in the party rooms and on the refreshment table. Carnations were the floral complement.

The honoree and her mother, Mrs. Starling Lawson, received the 20 guests who were registered by Patsy Lawson, sister of the bride-to-be. Her grandmother, Mrs. E. S. Lawson, assisted in serving the punch and cake squares.

The wedding will be solemnized in Saint Mary's Church Saturday afternoon and the reception will be held here in the Parish Hall.

Many New Laws For Texans Go Into Effect This Month

Scores of new laws passed during the regular Legislative session ending in May go into effect this month.

From here on, anyone convicted of four moving traffic violations within 12 months will be classed a "habitual violator", subject to drivers license suspension for any period up to a year. Same rule applies to anyone convicted of 7 or more violations committed within a 24-hour period.

New, tightening laws are in effect on the waterways, too. Now against the law are: operating a boat or skiing while under the influence of liquor, skiing at night and "reckless or negligent" boating and skiing.

Now required by law are: a life preserver for every passenger on a boat and a lighting system according to size, for every boat. Boat registration fees will not be required until next April.

Another new law makes taking a ride in someone else's car without his permission a felony offense. Previously, it was hard to get more than a misdemeanor conviction for car stealing.

Ranchers and farmers will be required to fence land along state and U. S. highways to prevent cattle from roaming on the road. Law does not apply to farm-to-market roads.

Retail merchants no longer may advertise goods at "wholesale" prices. Only firms that sell only to retailers may claim wholesale selling.

Other new laws won't be noticed until later. For example, the new "stick with the party" law requires that a poll tax holder have his receipt stamped "Republican" or Democrat" the first time he participates in a primary or convention. From then on, in effect, he's stuck with the party stamped on his tax receipt —until he gets a new poll tax.

A new program to inspect for cattle disease at live stock auctions was authorized, but is expected to be very small scale for the first two years, at least. It was given only a fraction of the money supporters said was necessary.

At a social tea at which Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes was present, the hostess, who had put the cream of her acquaintance on parade and quite expected and looked for effusive admiration from the great man, said to him as he was about to leave:

"Well, Doctor, what do you think of afternoon tea?"

He replied in these four strikingly graphic words:

"It is giggle — gabble — gobble — git!"

U.S. OIL

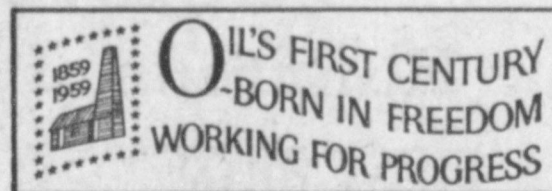

Indispensable in our way of life...
vital to our national defense

In the 100 years since the drilling of the first oil well in the United States, the usefulness of petroleum has been often demonstrated in many ways . . . It is an economical and efficient source of energy and a raw resource convertible through petrochemistry into innumerable useful materials. . . It is indispensable in our way of life, and vital to the national defense.

It is comforting to know that today's reserves are ample for today's needs. And if incentives to undergo the heavy risks involved are continued, there is no doubt that more oil will be discovered and produced to replace the oil we use . . .

The United States has found, produced, refined, and used more oil than any other nation. This has made petroleum products a feature of the abundant American life. Americans use more petroleum products than any other people on the globe.

The past is prologue to the future. During its second century, oil can serve you and your grandchildren, and the nation, as well or better than ever before.

Thank You

. . . for your patronage and friendship during my 11 years in business here.

I am deeply grateful for every favor and hope to continue serving you in my new location at Kinne's Jewelers in Gainesville.

The Humble Company, incorporated in 1917, has participated in the development of new and better ways to find and produce oil, and in the research that has improved petroleum products and discovered countless new uses for oil and natural gas. Humble is a major producer of U. S. oil, with production extending all across the southern tier of states from Florida to California. Marketing operations are carried on in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona. Humble's Baytown refinery, near Houston, is one of the great refineries of the world. (Humble Pipe Line Company, a major transporter of crude oil and finished products, operates more than 9000 miles of pipe lines in Texas.)

GAINESVILLE COLLEGE will begin the coming school year in its new building on highway 51 southwest of Gainesville. Pictured here is an artist's sketch of the new structure.

Student of Limited Means Finds Opportunity at Gainesville College

Gainesville College is advancing in her student-teacher-learning situation. She has acquired a new administration building; has added well trained, experienced teachers to her staff in library, speech, music and teacher-education; and is adding subjects to strengthen and expand her curriculum offerings.

Yet, this is an education which the student of limited means can afford, for his college education is nearby, whether he lives in the Gainesville area or on one of the modern highways which make the College accessible to any student of the North-Central Texas area.

Since living expenses represent five-sixths of the educational costs at a state college away from home, the student going to the community college will save from $800 to $1,000 in almost unavoidable costs of room, board, and travel.

Fees at Gainesville College are at a minimum of $55.00 per semester for the full course of work plus the laboratory fees which amount to about $6.00 for the average student.

The college bookroom furnishes texts at a minimum cost and re-purchases usable books.

Student activities available to the college people are the yearbook, the newspaper, parties, banquets and picnics, and athletic and club activities.

The deserving student needing aid with tuition may find it through the Mary Josephine Cox Foundation scholarships which have been available to hundreds of students through the years.

Man who tries to do something and fails is a lot better off than the man who tries nothing and succeeds.

The Meaning Behind The Soil Conservation Stamp

The soil conservation postage stamp, issued on August 26, 1959, to go on sale here Sept. 1, commemorates more than a quarter of a century of intensive work to protect and improve our most valuable natural resource—the soil. Formally released at Rapid City, S. Dak., at the 14th annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America, it is the world's first commemorative soil conservation stamp.

Issuance of the stamp is a tribute to farmers and ranchers who have put to use such soil and water conservation measures as those shown in the stamp design—terracing, strip-cropping, pasture improvement, pond construction, tree planting.

It is a salute to the Nation's soil conservation districts—locally organized by landowners to marshal all possible effort toward stopping erosion and building up the productivity of the soil.

It is a salute to State and Federal scientists and technicians who have carried on research, found better ways of protecting the land, and helped landowners carry out conservation plans. It is an expression of gratitude to those carrying on other programs—such as education, credit, and cost sharing—that have helped farmers and ranchers install conservation improvements more rapidly.

The silhouette of a city in the background is a reminder of the common concern of city people and farmers for the care of the land—our primary source of food, shelter, clothing, and wildlife.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

This is a black and white reproduction of the 4-cent soil conservation stamp now on sale at the post office here. The stamp, printed in three colors, went on sale yesterday (August 26) in Rapid City, S. D., at the annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America.

The stamp portrays a modern conservation farm. Grasses in the rolling pasture, foreground, prevent soil erosion and conserve moisture. Grazing is regulated to favor growth of the best forage grasses.

A farm pond, lower right, provides water for domestic and livestock use, for fire protection, for wildlife, and for recreation such as fishing, swimming and boating.

Contour stripcropping and rotation systems, left and right center, include grasses and cultivation crops in alternating bands. The grassed strips catch and hold soil that may move out of cultivated strips during rainstorms, and they increase moisture in-soak.

Trees and shrubs control erosion, provide a home for wildlife, and protect the farmstead from the hot winds of summer and the cold winds of winter.

Conservation farming, as depicted in the stamp, gives assurance of a plentiful supply of food and other products of the land for the seven-eighths of the people who live in town, symbolized in upper right.

New Traffic Law
Toughens Penalty
On Habitual Violator

AUSTIN—The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety cautioned today that a new state law provides for the suspension of the license of any driver convicted of four moving traffic violations within a 12-month period.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., said the new law, passed by the recent session of the Legislature and signed by Governor Price Daniel August 5, for the first time defines the term "habitual violator." The definition is as follows:

"The term 'habitual violator' as used herein, shall mean any person with four or more convictions arising out of different transactions in a consecutive period of 12 months, or seven or more convictions arising out of different transactions within a period of 24 months, such convictions being for moving violations of the traffic laws of the State of Texas or its political subdivisions."

Garrison said if a justice of the peace or other designated magistrate finds a driver to be an habitual violator, the Department of Public Safety is authorized to suspend the driver's license for any period up to one year.

The new law also establishes detailed procedures for appeals of persons whose licenses have been suspended and requires the courts to give priority to the setting of such cases. It designates local prosecuting attorneys to represent the state in such appeals cases.

N. T. Dairymen Get
$4.61 per Cwt for July Production

The minimum uniform price that North Texas producers will receive for 4.0% milk delivered to plants of regulated handlers located within 110 miles of the City Hall of Dallas, Texas, during July will be $4.61 per hundred-weight, according to an announcement by Byford W. Bain, Market Administrator. (For producer milk delivered to Monett, Missouri, the above price should be reduced 58.5c.) This price is subject to a butterfat differential of 0.0 cents for each point (0.1%) that the average butterfat test of producer milk deviates from 4.0%.

During July 1959 daily Class I utilization by North Texas regulated handlers increased 1.48% over June and was 1.76% above the daily utilization during July 1958. Total Class I utilization during July amounted to 54,891,988 pounds for a daily average of 1,770,709 pounds.

Softball Season Ends, Auctioneers Turn to Baseball

Not satisfied with their short softball season, members of the Auctioneers team have turned to baseball for additional activity. They are not in a league but they are matching games with a few teams of this area.

Two games on the schedule now are with the Gainesville Tigers, a colored team. The first contest is booked for Thursday night on the local field and the next will be on Gainesville's Locke Field Sunday night.

In their first encounter Muenster blanked Pilot Point 3-0 at Pilot Point. Willie Walterscheid was in his old time pitching form as he fanned 17 batters and allowed only one hit in the 7 inning event. Meanwhile Muenster men slammed out 7 hits, Speedy Reiter getting two of them.

Back From Trip The Matt Mullers Recount Activity

Sight-seeing and visiting their daughter and family, the C. D. Richards in Stoughton, Mass., a suburb of Boston, made vacation wonderful for Mr. and Mrs. Matt Muller. They've just returned home after being away a month and are recounting many interesting experiences for the family here.

They made the trip especially to see Sgt. Richards before he leaves for duty in Korea on Sept. 11. Rosalie and their four children will remain in Stoughton where they have a three-story home and lots of friends.

The Richards took her parents to visit all the places of historic and scenic interest including Plymouth Rock, the Pilgrims' dwellings, Bunker Hill Monument, the Mayflower, Old Iron Sides, the fishing piers where boats were unloading tons of fish and packing them in ice, and Summer Tunnel at Logan Air Port.

They saw acres of cranberry bogs and picked blueberries which grow wild, attended a major baseball game and had dinner in China Town. Among the high spots was the beautiful shrine of Our Lady of Lassalette at Addleboro.

The Mullers were impressed by the scenic beauty, the old English type homes and the miles of fences built of native rock. Mr. Muller noted that nowhere was a single barbed wire fence.

No less exciting and an experience of its own was a stop-over visit in Grand Central Station—the couple traveled by train—and also Penn Station in New York City.

Their next visit was in Kentucky with their short daughter and her husband, Lt. and Mrs. C. C. Blanton, with whom they spent a week. And this brought more sight-seeing. Lt. Blanton is a helicopter pilot at Fort Campbell and the couple's new home is in walking distance of the Cumberland River where they went boat riding. They also saw a sports club put on an air show.

Back in Dallas, they visited their son Don and his wife and baby Ronald, then went to Arlington to visit Mrs. Muller's brothers, Paul, Joe and Adolph Herr and their families.

Mrs. Henry Henscheid has returned from a get-acquainted visit with her grandchild, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Darilek of Fort Worth. The baby's christening was held Sunday and she was named Kathy Marie. Grandfather Henscheid and Uncle Ted met the new arrival Sunday and brought Mrs. Henscheid home with them. Visiting the Darileks Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid and children and Jamie Henscheid, and earlier Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Metzler and sons of Gainesville who took Mrs. Henry Henscheid to Fort Worth. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly in that city.

Mrs. John Aytes and children are visiting here with her parents, the Arthur Hellmans while John is in Ohio on a training program with National Supply.

The spiritual program was given by Maxine Schmitz and Cecilia Neu. Their topic was "What is a Distraction?"

Michael Bezner and Richard Haverkamp were appointed to bring the spiritual at the September meeting.

Adult leader Welden Bezner attended with the members and gave a short talk. After the meeting adjourned there was social hour.

people this same logic applies to the use of alcoholic drinks. There is no evil in the drink itself. In fact it is one of the many blessings provided by Almighty God for man's use and enjoyment. The only evil is in using it immoderately. And the only reasonable law regulating its use must necessarily deal with temperance, not prohibition. That's the kind of law we want in Muenster, a law which does not deny man's right but holds him accountable for abusing that right.
