Group Solicits for Fund to Develop Local Industries

Several weeks ago in Montague county a report came out that the commissioners' court, in its tax equalization efforts this year, would require the listing of notes and money as taxable property. Now comes another report saying the members have changed their mind.

Apparently there has been a howl from some of the people with sizeable quantities of notes or cash. But it is possible also that the commissioners after deciding that the idea is OK in principle, realized that it is practically unworkable because of other complications.

In the first place it would require adoption of lower tax rates to offset the enormous increase in total valuations. Then, after the first year, the commissioners would probably discover that the new rate is no longer sufficient because lots of those cash and notes values would have vanished before the next rendition date. Big deposits would be transferred to out of county banks or perhaps even buried. Anything to keep the tax collector from finding out about them. Records of notes also might be concealed from the tax man's notice.

Considering the problems, it's easy to understand that no one county can put a tax on those values. As long as cash or notes can be transferred to a tax-free location there would be a big percentage of people evading all or a big portion of the assessment on those items.

So it seems that practical considerations as well as gripes may have influenced the Montague commissioners to change their minds.

Nevertheless they deserve some credit for their effort. From the mere fact that they considered taxing cash and notes it is evident they were seeking a fairer system of spreading the tax load.

Anyone will admit that money is property. It is a personal possession just as definitely as land or machinery or any other item subject to tax. And the person who owns it is equally obligated to carry his share of the expense for maintaining the common welfare and an orderly society. But under our present system he is exempt from that obligation. The result is that one group of values carries all of the tax burden, the other gets by for free. Obviously it would be more fair if part of the load were transferred from one to the other so that they shared equally in the support of services and facilities that both are using.

A person might go even farther and inquire why some of the other items on rendition sheets are not filled in. Such as furniture, diamonds and jewelry. All are property, representing value just as definitely as real estate. Is it perhaps because these things, like cash and notes, can be too easily concealed, and tax people are willing to excuse some people because they know so many others would evade rendering them?

This column does not claim to know how these other values could be successfully assessed but it is sure of one thing. The people now paying ad valorem taxes could get by for much less if others could be charged for their fair share. The man who can figure out such a system and make it stick would be the greatest benefactor yet to our present taxpayers.

In relation to this community's present efforts to organize a clothing factory, and especially its number one job of raising the necessary funds, the current issue of Texas Towns and Cities has a few enlightening remarks. It points out the industrial development game is highly competitive and costly, but profitable.

Because so many other places are doing it, the creation of such a fund becomes both a necessity and a matter of community pride. Firms looking for a location are interested in getting help and towns looking for industry are eager to keep pace with the enthusiasm shown by others. The net result is that the community nowadays has to work and invest to get an industry established.

And there's a good reason for all the effort and financing. Statistics show that a good going concern is tremendously valuable to the community. Benefits it brings in far surpass the cost.

Experts on the subject have figured that a factory employing 100 workers has the following economic impact on the community: 296 more people in 112 households . . . 51 more children

Auctioneers Nail Down Champ Title In Softball League

The Muenster Auctioneers are champs of the Cooke County Softball League. They put their claim on the loop title Monday night by routing Lindsay 7-2 and sweetened their season record the following night by blasting Tom Thumb 8-5.

In Monday's contest Muenster scored 2 in the third to overcome Lindsay's 2-1 lead and gradually extended its margin the rest of the game. Cecil Cain gave 4 hits while Richard Hermes and Frank Haverkamp allowed 10 safeties.

Muenster hitters were Brewer with 3 singles, Petrus with a triple and a single, Dickie Cain with 2 singles, Cecil Cain with a triple, and Harris and Speedy Reiter with a single each.

Tuesday's game with Tom Thumb was tighter and the Auctioneers had to come from behind after the Grocery Boys' 4-3 lead in the fifth. Muenster scored 3 in the third and Tom Thumb nudged ahead with 3 in the fourth and 1 in the fifth. A sixth inning rally for 3 put the Auctioneers ahead again but Tom Thumb's run in the same inning cut the margin to 1. In the final frame Muenster pushed over 2 more then held the grocers in their half. In the pitching duel Cecil Cain bested Puckett, allowing 8 hits to 9.

Brewer led the Auctioneers hitting with a triple and a double while Dickie Cain and Cecil Cain got 2 hits each. Season records after those games were Muenster 11-4, PGAC 7-6, Tom Thumb 6-8 and Lindsay 4-10.

Clear Creek Group Assumes Direction Of New Authority

Directors of the Clear Creek Watershed Association meeting Tuesday night in the Muenster State Bank officially took over direction of the Clear Creek Watershed Authority which was created by the Texas Legislature in its last regular session.

The bill creating the authority had listed the watershed association's executive board as its directors and they made the appointments official by signing acceptance. Then they completed their organization by electing officers as follows: J. M. Weinzapfel of Muenster, president, J. C. Donnell of Saint Jui, vice-president; Tom L. Muir of Sanger, secretary-treasurer.

Purpose of the authority is to empower an organization to create and maintain flood control projects. In that connection the group discussed policies and regulations of the State Board of Water Engineers.

With reference to the Association's business the group set Sept. 15, 8 p.m. as the date for a general membership meeting of the watershed in community building of Ross Point. Landowners then will see maps and slides and hear talks to acquaint them with the area's conservation plans.

350 Pounds Clothes Sent to Missions

This community's most recent contributions of clothing to the needy consist of four shipments totaling 350 pounds. In addition a box of used eye glasses and frames went to Eyes for the Needy in New Jersey.

Mrs. Joe Swirezynski, parish mission chairman, gave a report on mission work at the July meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America. She said three one hundred pound shipments went to three places: St. Anne's Indian Mission in Belcourt, N. C., Christ the King Colored Mission in Louisiana and to St. Vincent's Store in Fort Worth. A 50-pound package was dispatched to a Colored orphanage in Fort Worth.

Members held their meeting on the lawn at the home of their grand regent, Mrs. Steve Moser. Father Christopher was present and gave a short talk.

The monthly business session was held a week early, on July 3, so members could complete plans for their parcel post booth, a feature of the July 4 picnic. Their venture was an outstanding success, more than 100 packages being bought up in short order and putting the booth out of business by 2 o'clock.

Electric Day Draws 80 Four-H Clubbers From Cooke County

Annual 4-H Electric Day in Cooke County drew some 80 club boys and girls to Gainesville Tuesday for a full day of instructions. The program began at 8:30 in the morning and concluded about 5 in the afternoon. Ten 4-H clubbers were present from Muenster.

Instructors for the day were furnished by TP&L Company, Frigidaire Corp., and the Cooke County Electric Co-operative Association. Joe Sicking, an engineer for the Co-op, was in charge of a crafts program in which pin-up study lamps were made.

Other instructions included simple electric circuits, electric brooding and motor overload protection for the boys and on washers, driers and vacuum cleaners for the girls.

Fred Lynn, district manager of TP&L, and Michael Sloan, REA manager, welcomed the 4-H clubbers and after that instructors began their classes. Groups were together until after lunch when they were broken down by sex. At 4:30 electric notebooks were distributed. These are useful as reference books and contain an outline of the material covered during the day.

Three years ago the three sponsors agreed to prepare a program for 4-H members for a three year period. This was the third year of the electric day. Meeting place was Whaley Memorial Methodist Church.

The Muenster group attending was Charlotte Wolf, Kathy McGannon, Patsy Endres, Blondie Fleitman, Carol Mosman, Mary Wimmer, Janie Hess, Barbara Schmitt and Rickey and John Paul Endres.

83 Kids Graduate In Muenster Pool's Swimming Course

Eighty three youngsters received Red Cross buttons here Thursday and Friday signifying their successful completion of swimming courses offered at the Muenster pool. All are also due to receive certificates directly from Red Cross.

Of the group 50 completed the beginners class and 33 the intermediate class. In addition there were dozens of others who showed progress in their courses but did not get far enough to rate a certificate. They have a good start for next summer's class and almost a cinch to finish them.

The class this year was the community's largest ever, with a total enrollment of 276. Thirty three of them were from out of town.

Bruns Continues to Head Faculty; Two Vacancies Remain

The appointment of two members on the public school faculty by the school board in its July meeting leaves two positions open. Still to be named before school starts late in August are the English teacher and the Math teacher and coach.

The two just appointed are L. B. Bruns and Weldon Holland. Bruns, completing the unexpired year of H. H. Homsley, was named to continue as superintendent. Holland, after considering administrative work elsewhere, applied for his former post of 7th and 8th grade teacher.

As of now there are five new members on the school faculty. Mrs. Jane Weinzapfel, in the 3rd and 4th taught at Sacred Heart last year and at Southmayd the year before. Mrs. Prudence Selby in Grades 5 and 6 was a teacher at Era for nine years. She moved here last month when her husband was transferred here as resident service man for TP&L.

Emmett Walterscheid, a native of Muenster and a graduate of NTSC will start his career as shop and driver education teacher. He replaced Bruns, who became superintendent.

Joseph Huff of Henderson, a graduate of NTSC and also a beginning teacher, will have charge of the band and the library.

Edgar Dyer of ETSC will teach vocational agriculture succeeding Glenn Hellman who gave up his Smith-Hughes appointment in order to become principal. Dyer's previous experience consists of a year as assistant instructor at ETSC.

Former Muenster teachers to be back on the job are L. B. Bruns as superintendent, Mrs. Bessie Miller in Grades 1 and 2, Weldon Holland in Grades 7 and 8, Mrs. Marie Mosman in science, Mrs. LaVerne Homsley in home-making, Miss Bettye Dodds in commercial subjects, and Glenn Hellman as principal and history teacher.

Building And Improvement Notes

Framework and the roof are now finished on the new home under construction for W. J. Miller, and inside work is just starting. It will be a 4-bedroom job with attached 3-place garage, central heating, 2 baths and lots of built-ins.

A remodeling job that practically amounts to new construction has started at John Huchton's. Additions are 2 rooms and a bath and central heating and the old part of the house is being changed in both plan and finish.

New barns are almost finished at the Livestock Auction and on Bruno Fleitman's farm occupied by Meinrad Hesse. Both are metal and both are combination hay barns and feed shed. Fleitman's measures 60x68, the Livestock Auction's 54 x 100.

J. W. Hess is due to finish this week on general interior repair and refinishing job on his house on North Main.

R. E. Hamric is getting an outside paint job, the Magnolia Station both outside and inside paint, and Jerry Hoenig outside paint and new roofing.

New curbs have been finished lately for John Wieler, Paul Luke and The Enterprise and Joe Moser is waiting for his at the north side of his home. Other curbing jobs, on about 80 per cent of the footage on North Hickory, have been finished to qualify the street for paving.

City Council Urges More Projects in Paving Program

It won't be long until another paving program gets under way here, and the city council at its meeting Monday night issued invitations for all interested persons to work out their own projects. The program is dated for early in August.

To qualify, a project must be at least a block long and the pavement must tie to either curbing or pavement at the two sides. If pavement is to be a new job the street must have curb established at both sides and the paving must go the full width. A narrow strip of pavement in the middle of the street is no longer permitted because of the greater maintenance problem.

However, persons now having narrow paving and a curb can get paving for the space between provided the job extends at least a block.

Persons wishing to apply for a project or get more information about it may see Street Commissioner Ray Otto or City Superintendent Steve Moser.

The cost of paving has not been determined, however the price paid on the city's last program can serve as a guide in estimating. That was 67.5 cents per square yard.

The following projects are in sight at the present time. Six blocks on Hickory Street from the highway to the cemetery, one block on Second Street between Hickory and Pecan and one block completing the gap between existing pavement and curb on First Street between Main and Oak.

Three resurfacing jobs are also planned. One block on Second between Main and Oak, two blocks on Elm between Fourth and Sixth, and the lot adjoining the NTPA warehouse.

Swimming Pool Nets $100 in First Month's Operation

The first month's report on the swimming pool as submitted to the city council by the pool manager, George Petrus, indicates that it cleared about $100 in its first month of operation.

To the council this means that it has a good chance of going through the summer without getting into the red.

Two factors make this figure especially pleasing. Average attendance was good despite several cool days. And treating expenses ran high because of the heavy traffic as more than 270 took swimming lessons.

The swim course was also marked up to the pool's credit. That in addition to the profit made the month a very successful one.

Petrus reported that the month's deposits, after paying expenses, amounted to $347. But there were other expenses, $248 in treating chemicals, paid out by the city, so the actual profit was just under $100.

Auxiliary Plans Picnic for August

Plans for a swim party and picnic at City Park furnished discussion at the July meeting of the VFW Auxiliary Monday night and members set Saturday, August 1, as the preferred date.

The ladies will bring a picnic supper — and their husbands — and the Auxiliary will provide other refreshments and rent the pool. Committees will make arrangements and announce the exact time and date.

Members voted to have the next formal initiation in October and expect to have several candidates for reception at that time.

Other discussions at the session concerned routine business. Mrs. Richard Swirczynski, president, presided and after adjournment there was a social hour with Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid and Mrs. James Mollenkopf as refreshment hostesses. They served a cold plate.

Weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cain were her sisters Mrs. T. C. Rhone and children of Bellevue and Mr. and Mrs. O. Z. Smith and family of Lubbock, and Tommy Mullins of Lubbock.

Bryan Stephen is the name given the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wiesman of Gainesville at his baptism. Mr. and Mrs. David Forgey of Dallas are godparents for their nephew who was christened Sunday in St. Mary's Church.

Mildred Fisher and David Shenk Pledge Vows During Mass

In a formal wedding ceremony at 7 p.m. on July Fourth, Mildred Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher of Muenster, became the bride of David Shenk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Shenk of Fort Collins, Colo. The nuptial high mass and double ring ceremony took place in Sacred Heart Church here with the Rev. Martin Fischer, assistant pastor, officiating. Rev. Anthony Gajda of Valley View was present in the sanctuary.

Both young people are in the Navy on duty in U. S. Naval hospitals. He is at Bainbridge, Md., and she is at Bethesda, Md.

Mr. Fisher escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a white chiffon gown over taffeta, the aisle-wide skirt designed with a chapel length train. Full length mitts met the short sleeves of the moulded bodice fashioned with a sweetheart neckline.

The bride's tiered veil was fingertip length caught to a rhinestone tiara and her flowers were pastel tinted carnations in S shape with a sterling and crystal rosary attached.

Clara and Emma Fisher of Fort Worth were their sister's attendants. They were dressed alike in ballerina length bouffants of heavenly blue organza over taffeta with wide cummerbunds and matching mitts. They completed their costumes with matching open-crown halo hats with short circular veils. Their flowers were Robert Newton of Takoma Park, Md., in service with the bridegroom, was best man and Dr. Robert Bartlett of Castle Rock, Colo., was groomsmen.

Anthony Luke, organist, and the church choir sang the mass and after the service presented "On This Day" while the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine where the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli on the altar. Gladioli, greenery and candles adorned the altar before which the couple pledged their vows.

Lighting the candles and serving as acolytes for the mass were cousins of the bride: Roger and Jerry Taylor and William and Donald Fisher.

Muenster High School dining room was the scene of a reception and buffet dinner. The invitation list included 140 relatives and friends of the two families. Mrs. Robert Newton poured punch while Mrs. Clyde Fisher registered guests. They were present from Cooke County, from Colorado including the groom's parents and other relatives, from Maryland, from Sherman, Wichita Falls, Southmayd, Irving, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City and Valley View including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Schmitz of Valley View. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the meal.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fisher wore a rose-beige sheath dress of lace with matching hat and other accessories in black patent. The groom's mother wore navy lace with navy accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

The newlyweds' honeymoon trip took them to Colorado for Mrs. Shenk to get acquainted in her husband's hometown, then back to Maryland where they will be at home in Tacoma Park. Both have one more year in the service.

The bride was graduated from Muenster High School in 1954 as valedictorian of the class and from St. Joseph's School of Nursing in Fort Worth in 1957. After being night supervisor for a year she joined the Navy Nurse Corps in August 1958 and was in training at St. Alban, N. Y., before being assigned to duty in Bethesda, Md. Her husband was graduated from Fort Collins High School and entered the Navy in October 1956. He took training in New York where he met his future bride and was later stationed at Bethesda before being assigned to Bainbridge.

Among wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Shenk and Mrs. Ann Stevens of Fort Collins, Colo., Mrs. Lynn Pitcher of Eaton, Colo., Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bartlett and family of Castle Rock, Colo., Sharon Ray of Lakewood, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bundschuh and son of Sherman, Mrs. J. H. Bundschuh of Southmayd, Mrs. Charlie Lang and son Jim, of Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bundschuh and daughter of Irving, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Snow capped mountains were an impressive sight as Mr. and Mrs. Al Wiesman and son Jimmy drove into Yellowstone National Park, one of the places of inter-

During the ten days the trio visited in Rushville, Neb., with the Ted Bare family — Mrs. Bare is the former Marie Sturra of Muenster — from there on a tour of the Black Hills of South Dakota, Mount Rushmore and Deadwood, S. D., through Montana and Wyoming and Colorado. In Colorado, Denver and Colorado Springs were stop-over places to see all the sights of tourist interest in the area and take time out for fishing.

SHAME HAS DISAPPEARED

Used to be it was a pitiful thing, with some connotation of shame and disgrace, for a person to fall upon such evil days that one sought public aid. In those days there was the pity and shame of being upon the "pauper list" of the county commissioners or having to be sent "over the hill to the poor house."

But in this day of wholesale government aid to all classes of persons, there is neither shame nor disgrace. Instead, it is becoming the accepted, if not popular, thing to do. Government welfare grants and government pensions are going regularly to a large portion of the population and the number is growing. Soon it may be that it will become more of a disgrace, a mark of stupidity and ignorance, not to be getting regularly some sort of government check or hand out.

As the number of recipients of government welfare and pension allowances grows, the less becomes the shadow of shame that once fell upon the individual recipient of public assistance. As a result, the greater has become the need for withdrawing the curtain of secrecy which the governmental agencies dispensing these funds have drawn around their activities. There is no longer need to keep the veil of anonymity over those who receive government welfare and pension aid. The names of the recipients should be revealed and open to the public.

It is time that the wraps should be taken off these government funds, much of which is distributed by persons who themselves have never had to make a living and who make a career of dispensing public charity.

There has just appeared in the papers a story from Wilkes County about one smart lady who was taken off the welfare rolls of the county because she had bought herself a new automobile. But because of the present rules of secrecy governing the dispensation of welfare grants, the name of the lady was not revealed. It would have been embarrassing to her for the public to know that she had been a recipient of public funds.

The shame of it — phooey. Make public the welfare and pension rolls. Ahsokie, N. C., Herald.

Fire! Fire! Pour on the gasoline!

Prices of most things are higher, so millions of workers demand and get higher wages to pay them.

That means higher costs, which force prices up again, which brings another wage demand — the destructive flames of inflation reach higher and higher. The only answer is higher production to earn the high wages. Without it, the worker is going to be the worst sufferer.

If anyone poured gasoline on a fire to put it out, he'd be locked up as a dangerous lunatic.

What Is Our Duty As Christian Citizens?

by James F. Mitchell, U. S. Secretary of Labor

TWO societies are at war in the world today: one is our own Christian society which believes that God exists and that He cares for each individual man; the other society is Communism which insists there is no God and that man has no rights. In the conflict between these two societies, the Christian conscience has a stern and unavoidable call: to restore order and purpose to our Christian society which is in danger of breaking up because there is no real unity of moral purpose.

Mitchell

The Christian helps to heal this breach by doing that most simple but difficult of all acts — by living in the world. While the chief purpose of every life is the salvation of the individual soul, the commitment of the Christian to better his world makes that salvation more probable by providing the opportunity for the expression of Christian ideals. We need more Christians who know how to live in the world on Christian terms — and not on the world's terms.

BUT in order to revitalize the world through our Christian principles we must first rid ourselves of our "ghetto complex" — this living in a private world of our own. It's time we Christians come out of our ghetto and get to work in the world to instill purpose and give direction to our society. Merely talking about social principles is not enough. The man at the lathe must bring his Christian ideals to his union meetings just as much as the corporation executive must measure the responsibilities of his company in light of Christian standards. The action of all men in their everyday life is absolutely necessary if any headway is to be made toward a God-centered life.

It is my conviction that lasting peace will come only when Christian men and women make use of their Christian beliefs to meet the problems of the world. We must always be aware that the less fortunate members of the human family — a family that is predominantly non-white and to a great extent, diseased, hungry, or illiterate — may not mind being under Communist rule if they are promised security. They may not care whether Communist society is artificial and a thief of their true liberties if it can provide medicine, communication, food, housing and all the rest of the benefits of technology.

If the peoples of the world sense in us a real dedication to the sacred principles we so often voice, then we have defined for them our purpose and our goals. If they sense instead that the western world is unsure itself of what it stands for, then how can they be expected to sympathize with our policies?

It is the conviction of the Christian conscience that mankind will endorse a society whose unity is based firmly upon moral ideals. But the Christian must help create that unity before it can be displayed. Such action will be difficult. To persevere, we must be fully aware and fully armed to face the obstacles and the setbacks which will mark the beginning of the long, difficult road to a better world.

In a frightening and real sense, the salvation of the world depends upon the way we serve God in the world.

T. Fredrick Fester, Washington, D. C.

THRIFT PENALIZED

"One of the homespun virtues of America has been to work and save. Even though a man knew he couldn't take it with him, he could hope to provide for his old age and for his wife and children after he was gone. But inflation has turned this virtue into a mockery. Americans who have worked hard and lived carefully find now that the value has been sapped from the hard-earned dollars they put aside. . . ."

"Yet inflation is not inevitable. It is caused by our actions and can be cured by our own actions. A major cause of inflation is heavy government spending and debt — caused by our demands on government. We can remove this cause of inflation by stopping our demands for government handouts and by demanding government economy instead. . . ."

Chewelah, Wash., Independent. Early history of North Carolina: "The first English colonists fell on their knees; then fell on the aborigines."

The stamp is a tribute to the countless farmers and ranchers who are demonstrating good soil

Local observances noting the issue of this three-color, four-cent stamp will be sponsored in thousands of cities and communities by the Soil Conservation Society of America, soil conservation districts, by the Soil Conservation Service and other agencies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and by other conservation-minded groups. On August 27, one day after its first-day release at Rapid City, 120 million copies of the stamp will go on sale at post offices throughout the country.

The observance being planned will combine pride of accomplishment in soil conservation with serious acceptance of the big job ahead. Many commemorative postage stamps are issued to observe the anniversary of a noteworthy historic event or to honor a long-dead national hero.

The world's first soil conservation stamp, to be released on August 26, 1959, at Rapid City, S. D., celebrates no anniversary and honors no man.

Its issuance is, rather, a dramatic recognition by a grateful Nation that American farmers and ranchers, and their government, are hard at work to protect and improve for the benefit of us all, the most valuable natural resource, the soil.

The stamp portrays the beauty as well as the bounty that modern conservation farming brings to rural living. The city skyline on the horizon signifies at the same time that dwellers of skyscrapers

One girl who did not make nursing school this year flunked out on her very first question.
"What is a practical nurse?" she was asked.
"A practical nurse," answered the would-be Florence Nightingale, after some thought, "is one who marries a rich patient."

Jenkins: "Then, would you care to help me pay off some of the installments?"

The dry cow is one of the important animals on a dairy farm. She represents your future milk check. Yet, just think of all the dairy cow has to do in a 60-day period. It is the only time of the year that the cow can build up body reserves and get set for the next lactation period, but she also has to build the final two-thirds of the calf she is producing. That is quite a job and it calls for plenty of good nutrition.

Insure that you provide your dairy cow with the help she needs to perform her job properly. Our fortified dry and freshening ration is formulated to provide the critical balance of vitamins, minerals and other essential nutrients your cow requires for proper nourishment during this calf-building, body-building time.

Come in today and let us fully explain to you the many advantages you obtain when you feed

Lindsay News

Short vacation was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hermes and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Blouk and daughter Carolyn when they went to Clarksville, Ark., to see their former pastor, Father Conrad Herda. He accompanied them on a drive to Subiaco where they saw the new abbey church. The Lindsay group also visited Sister Olivia, formerly of Lindsay, at Clarksville.

Mrs. Ed Corcoran and daughters Joyce and Kathleen, visiting from Baldwin Park, Calif., left Lindsay Wednesday to continue their vacation in Dallas with relatives. They were guests of her mother, Mrs. Joe Bezner and family here. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cutaia came from Dallas to get them. Otherwise the Californians are travelling by train.

Father Francis Zimmerer ended a vacation visit with his family here Wednesday and so did Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zimmerer. Father Francis returned to Little Rock, Ark., with his brother and wife who returned to their home in New York by that route.

Mrs. Theresa Schreiber is back in Lindsay after a vacation visit in Arkansas.

A group of Lindsay 4-H club boys and girls attended the annual electric day program in Gainesville Tuesday.

Al Bezner, who spent a week's vacation with his mother, Mrs. Joe Bezner and family, returned to his work in Dallas Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Sandmann and son Stevie are getting settled in their own home, a new three bedroom brick house which they bought in Farmers Branch. Their new address is 13526 Glenside Drive, Dallas 34, Texas.

An outing with boating and a picnic dinner observed David Laux's tenth birthday Sunday. The Laux family spent the day at Walnut Creek, Lake Texoma.

Writing from Clarksville, Ark., Linda and Ewald Hoelker Jr., tell their parents that they are enjoying their vacation there with their uncle, Rev. Herman Laux. They accompanied him home after his vacation visit here.

Confetti . . . $580,000 more spent each year in personal income . . . $260,000 deposited each year in area banks . . . 104 passenger cars (new and used) purchased . . . 164 more workers needed in businesses, professions and services . . . 4 additional retail establishments with $350,000 more retail sales a year . . . plus attendant tax benefits.

While admitting that such figures obviously refer to the kind of factory which provides a family's main income, we can see that possibilities, even in the kind of operation considered here, are still enormous. Wages for this are mostly supplementary. However that supplement is important. It will bring in at least a few more people, increase retail business and deposits, and generally improve the local standard of living.

One point to consider especially is the present trend of decrease in rural employment. Many who run out of work on the farm will not have to leave home for a job. Along with new faces hereabouts we'll continue seeing lots of old faces who are spared the necessity of moving away.

Blessed Events

It's a girl was good news for Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Yosten and their two sons Gary and Gregg of Hereford, formerly of Muenster. The little daughter arrived Monday, July 6, at 7 a.m. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Yosten, Muenster, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwald Berend, Hereford, and has two great-grandparents, Mrs. Mary Berend of Gainesville and Frank Mages of Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie Arendt of Gainesville have announced the birth of a six pound three ounce daughter. She arrived at the Sanitarium on July Fourth 5:30 p.m. The Arendts have three other girls and one boy. Counting another grandchild are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Otto, Muenster, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arendt of Lindsay.

"Up and down streets" in San Francisco were fascinating and the snow capped mountains of Colorado were an impressive sight says Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus after a ten day trip she and her husband had in company of Mr. and Mrs. George Witherell of Syracuse, N. Y. For Gus it was a return to his old "stomping grounds" . . . he spent two years in the army in California and they visited one of his army buddies in San Rafael. The car trip included sight-seeing in Colorado, Nevada and California going and in Arizona and New Mexico returning. In Fallon, Nev., the two couples surprised the Frank Sickings with a visit. First time anyone from Muenster, besides members of his family, stopped by in 20 years, Frank said, and he enjoyed hearing all the latest happenings in his old hometown.

Wednesday Mrs. Dick Cain and children drove to Burleson to spend the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hogan.
