

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1947

Another Thanksgiving day, another Enterprise anniversary. Besides being the day officially set aside by our nation to give thanks to Almighty God for His many blessings, this also happens to be an occasion for us of the Enterprise staff to thank our many friends for their favors. It's really a double Thanksgiving day to us.

And so, in a spirit of deepest gratitude the column hereby calls attention to the change of Volume Number of this edition. It is this paper's happy privilege to launch its twelfth year of service to a grand community.

Lots of things have happened here since the publication of Volume 1 Number 1 on Thanksgiving day 1936. The community has grown and improved. We have more prosperity, more comfort and a much sounder foundation upon which to build future progress.

All these things have enhanced Muenster's desirability as a place to live and make a living, they have also contributed to the success of this paper. The worth while things that people did enabled us to publish a worth while paper, and the present tempo of their achievements is quite definite assurance that the paper can find an abundance of good publication material for many years to come.

Yes, the Enterprise is thankful — for the wonderful privilege it has had in the past — for the more wonderful opportunity that still lies ahead.

According to the latest report the Hornets will have just one more football game, Saint Mary's, of Gainesville, itching for a chance to avenge their beating of several weeks ago have asked for a return game, and the Hornets were glad to oblige.

Developments in the Hornet schedule have reached a rather discouraging state. The boys have done a good job of ironing out their kinks. They have better teamwork, more confidence and a tighter defense. Comparing performances of early and more recent games, a person would hardly realize that he's seeing the same team. But here's the rub. Now that the boys are better able to handle the competition they can't get it any more. At least two teams that had tentatively agreed on a return match have lost interest. With a win already on the record they apparently aren't in a mood to take chances.

All of which should be a valuable lesson to the Hornets. The way to clinch a return game, if one is wanted, is to lick the other team the first time. It's a lot easier to interest an opponent when he has more to gain than to lose.

Winning the early games, however presents quite a problem around here. Results are slow to show up when the training season starts late and practice sessions are short. The Hornets did not have much of a chance to hit their stride before mid-season, and the same is likely to be true next year unless their boosters get together and solve a few problems for them.

As regards practice time, the only apparent solution is a car pool to provide late rides for out of town boys. Under the present system the boys have to be ready for their busses immediately after school, so their practice is cut down to a scant hour during the noon period.

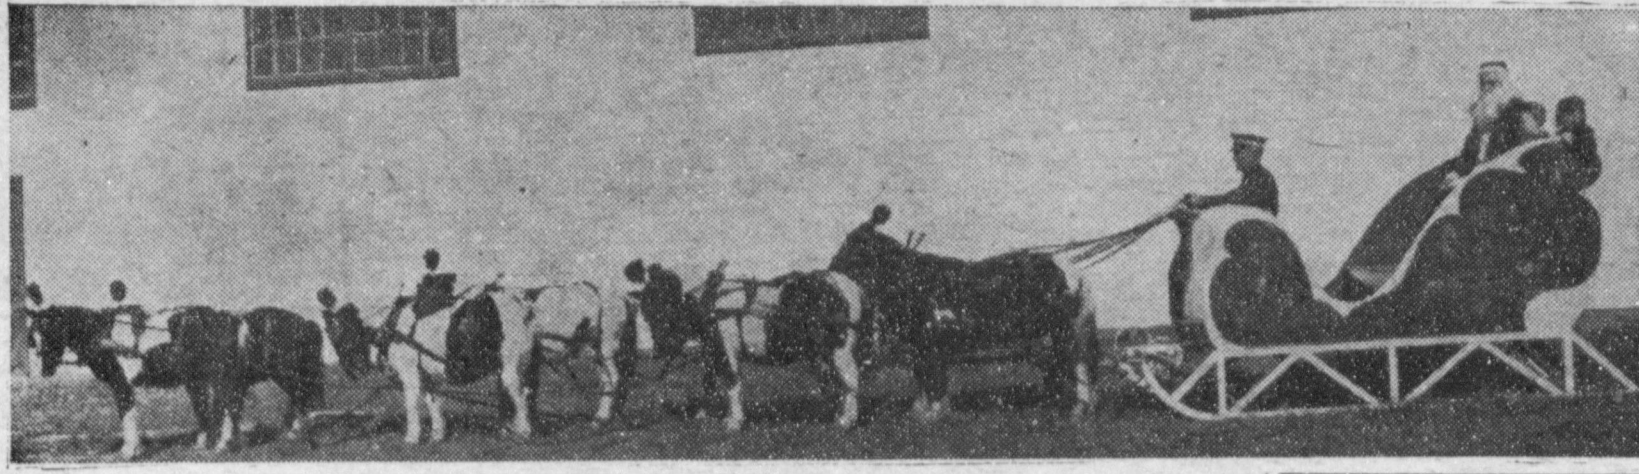

Several factors enter into a good football season. Most important, of course is the ability and spirit of the players. Next comes fan support. Not just cheering at the games but helping along in other substantial ways. Those who like to see the boys win will do well to start thinking about that.

The privations and inconveniences that important people sometimes endure voluntarily to help along a noble cause can be truly inspiring. For instance, the Harry Trumans have adopted an austerly diet for this Thanksgiving as a means of saving food.

A news story from Washington Monday discloses that there will be no bread, dressing nor pumpkin pie at the presidential feast. Guests of the executive mansion will have to tighten their belts and skimp along on mushroom soup, roast stuffed turkey, cranberry sauce, giblet gravy, mashed potatoes, buttered peas, braised celery, fruit salad, mince pie and coffee. Now, ain't that tough?

There are times when the publicity guys can be quite amusing. Giving a man ... even the president ... a big build-up on a trifle is a ticklish job, like

Mrs. Leo Zwinggi, Lindsay Pioneer Resident, Passes Sunday After 1-Day Illness

Mrs. Leo Zwinggi, 54, life long resident of Lindsay, died shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday morning in a Gainesville hospital as the result of a heart attack which afflicted her Saturday morning. Her death was a severe shock to all who knew her as she was aware that she had a heart ailment.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 Tuesday morning in Saint Peter's church at Lindsay and burial was in the parish cemetery. Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor, officiated.

Pallbearers were Pete Block, Tony Hermes, Ferd Albers, James Geray, Adolph Fuhrmann and Herman Zimmerman. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of George J. Carroll and Son Funeral home.

Mrs. Zwinggi, the former Miss Leona Geray, daughter of the late Stephen Geray, and Mrs. Geray, was born in Lindsay on August 7, 1893, two years after the founding of the colony, and had resided there all her life. She was active in parish and community work and was a member of the Mothers' Society.

The illness that caused her death afflicted her Saturday morning while she was doing her household tasks, and she was immediately taken to a Gainesville hospital. She was in apparent good health up to the time she was stricken and had not mentioned before that she was feeling ill.

She is survived by her husband, five sons, Leonard of Gainesville; Oscar, Kenneth and Alrich of Lindsay, and Pfc. Roy Lee Zwinggi with the army in Erding, Germany; two daughters, Mrs. Loretta Bassett and Mrs. Frieda Sutton, Dallas; two grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Stephen Geray of Gainesville; a brother, Al Geray of Lindsay, and four sisters, Mrs. John Mosser and Miss Marie Geray, Gainesville; Mrs. J.E. Williams, Jr., Wichita Falls, and Mrs. F.W. York, Oklahoma City. One son, Lt. Joe Zwinggi, lost his life in a glider crash on Jan. 27, 1944, at Bowman Field, Ky.

P-TA MOCK WEDDING WILL BE PRESENTED FRIDAY AT LINDSAY

Reports on the success of the Public School P-TA's farce comedy "Wedding in the Hills" have led to at least one repeat performance. Mrs. Joe Parker, program chairman, reported Wednesday that arrangements are complete for an appearance at the Lindsay hall this Friday night, Nov. 28, at 8 o'clock.

The program will be somewhat similar to that held here last Friday. A pie supper will follow the "wedding" and proceeds from pie purchases will be shared by the P-TA and the Lindsay parish. The "style show" which was an added feature here last week will not be included in the Lindsay program.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO CECIL SIMS' BROTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sims returned last Thursday from a three-day trip to Houston for the funeral of his brother, Curtis Sims, 40. Apparently enjoying the best of health only a few days before, Sims survived only three days after a sudden illness was identified as double pneumonia. His work in an ice vault is believed to have aggravated a minor illness into the serious condition.

During the stay Mr. and Mrs. Sims visited briefly with her brother, Ed Wolf.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AND PACKED PROGRAM FEATURE P-TA MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Sacred Heart Parent-Teachers Association last Wednesday night in the parish hall was marked by a record attendance and featured an interesting program consisting of a talk by county Red Cross officials, a program by the press club of Sacred Heart High school, a moving picture and social hour.

Mrs. Rudy Hellman, president, presided during the business session and routine procedure followed. Mrs. Hellman announced that the lunch program served 9,238 meals during the month of October, and Father John gave a report on athletics.

Mrs. Hellman introduced Miss Doris Price of the County Red Cross chapter, who in turn, introduced Mrs. E.J. Huffaker, production chairman of material of the county chapter. Both gave addresses. Mrs. Doris Sutton, home service secretary of the chapter, was also introduced and Mrs. G.H. Hellman, who is supervising Red Cross knitting here, was recognized.

The press club students presented a delightful program of songs and addresses in connection with enrollment of six members in the International Order of Quill and Scroll. Sister Patricia directed the program.

A movie, current events, was presented through the courtesy of Mitchell Studios, Dallas, by Herbert Short. The projection machine is used in many schools in the connection with studies, and films are available on history, science, religion and other subjects. Mr. Short stated. After the film, Father Herman Laux spoke very favorably in regard to purchasing a machine for the Sacred Heart school, and members of the P-TA will probably vote on the issue at their next meeting.

After business, a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

PROCLAMATION URGES COOPERATION IN FIGHT WITH TUBERCULOSIS

Cooperating with the Cooke County Tuberculosis Association, Mayor J.M. Weinzapfel this week issued an official proclamation urging chest X-rays and a generous purchase of Christmas seals.

His statement points out that the County Tuberculosis Association is waging an effective campaign to control the dreaded disease and, as part of its case-finding program, advocates that every adult have a periodic chest X-ray, also, that all activities of the association are supported by the sale of Christmas seals.

Other "whereases" of the proclamation emphasize that tuberculosis is a communicable disease claiming 53,000 lives in our country each year. It kills more persons between 15 and 45 years of age than any other disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cook returned Sunday from a three-week vacation trip that took them to New York City for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Anthony Tagliavia and husband, and Mr. Cook's uncle, a retired army major, whom he had not seen since he was a child. From there they went to Washington, D.C., Niagara Falls, into Canada, and back to Chicago where they visited Mr. Cook's two sisters.

Santa Claus and his driver are already heading South and they will be in Gainesville for a big pre-Christmas parade next Wednesday night (Dec. 3) at 7 o'clock. For his early trip South, Santa will use his eight black and white Shetland ponies. While he's in the county he will also make a tour of all schools and has a stick of peppermint candy for each student.

PARADE WEDNESDAY WILL WELCOME SANTA CLAUS TO GAINESVILLE

Old Saint Nick wants to check up on all his little friends in Cooke county before Christmas this year, and has sent word that he will be in Gainesville for a big parade in his honor on Wednesday night, Dec. 3, at 7 o'clock. He will toss peppermint candy to the boys and girls as he rides in his sleigh down Gainesville's main streets. Instead of reindeer, he will use eight Shetland ponies.

Santa's early visit to Cooke county and Gainesville will be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce's Retail Trade Committee.

Committee has also arranged a window display contest with three prizes amounting to $50.00. Object of the contest will be for observers to find the mistake each store has made in its window decoration. For instance, a hardware store may show a pair of shoes, which obviously would be a mistake. Instruction blanks will be distributed before the parade.

News Of Sick And Injured

Mrs. Joe Luke submitted to major surgery at St. Vincent's hospital in Sherman Saturday and is resting as well as can be expected.

General improvement is noted this week in the condition of Mrs. Herman Danglemyr who is a patient at Saint Paul's hospital in Dallas, according to members of her family who have visited at her bedside. Her husband spent Wednesday with her.

A recurrence of the eye ailment that has afflicted little Robert Hesse, 3, son of Joe Hesse, almost since birth and has already caused the loss of one eye, started him last week on another series of trips to Dallas for treatment. The child receives his treatments on alternate days at the Medical Arts Clinic. His latest previous series was during last March and April.

Mrs. John Beard is confined to bed this week at her home following an illness that afflicted her Monday.

Peggy, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Moore of Saint Jo, had her tonsils removed at the Muenster clinic Wednesday.

Miss Emily Fette, a student nurse at St. Paul's hospital in Dallas, underwent dental surgery Monday morning. She had four embedded wisdom teeth extracted and will finish her convalescence here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fette, by spending the weekend at home.

TWO GI AG STUDENTS TO APPEAR ON RADIO PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

Next Wednesday, Dec. 3, will find members of the Muenster GI Vocational Agriculture class appearing on the radio for the second time in recent weeks. Hugh Barnhart, instructor, disclosed this week that Billy Joe Miller and Eugene Klement will join him for discussion on poultry and alfalfa at 1 o'clock over the Gainesville station, KGAF (1580).

This week's class activity was featured by a field trip Monday inspecting pasture grasses at Muenster, Gainesville and Valley View. They were accompanied by Robert Mitchell and Jack McFerran, directors of the Muenster and Gainesville soil conservation work units.

Community Cautious And Curious After Jail Birds' Escape

After a day or two of curiosity and caution Muenster has practically forgotten the two convicts who escaped from Sheriff W.T. Rankin of Throckmorton last Sunday night at Saint Jo.

The town was talking, tuning in for radio reports and wondering whether the jail birds had chosen this direction for their get-away. Meanwhile people were more than normally careful with their cars, removing ignition keys no matter how short the parking time.

By Wednesday most of the tension was worn off, perhaps, partly because of reported thefts in Nocona which were taken as indications that the fugitives were traveling the opposite direction.

The convicts escaped about 6:30 p.m. Sunday from the rear of a garage after being left for a few minutes in the rest room. Both were said to be without coats, and one also lost a shoe near a fence behind the garage. They were handcuffed together.

Reports of the break circulated rapidly and within a few hours more than a dozen peace officers were searching barns and outbuildings in Saint Jo. Early Monday as many more joined the hunt.

Bad weather prevented effective tracking with bloodhounds. The fugitives are Gene Ballard and Glenn Whitley, under prison sentence from Bowie county and wanted in Throckmorton in connection with burglaries there.

COUNTY RED CROSS ACTIVITY REVIEWED AT PARISH GATHERING

Achievements of the Cooke County Red Cross chapter, a program of work done, and a resumption of work still to be accomplished, were topics discussed at the monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Sacred Heart school on Wednesday night, Nov. 19. Featured speakers were Miss Doris Price, head of the county chapter, Mrs. E.J. Huffaker, production chairman of materials, and Mrs. Doris Sutton, home service secretary.

Mrs. Huffaker gave a short history of Red Cross in the county since it was organized during World War I, and Miss Price continued by listing aims and accomplishments that the chapter hopes to bring about successfully.

She complimented the citizens of Muenster for their loyalty during the past and for their help in every phase of work that was brought to their attention. She announced that the annual drive for funds will get under way in the county in March, and stated that she was pleased to advise that Muenster's quota this year will be about half of the usual amount. This is made possible because the county quota is smaller as the direct result of cutting expenses in the chapter and by maintaining only a staff of personnel that is absolutely necessary to carry on the work.

Recognition was given to Mrs. G.H. Hellman of this city who is instructing school children in knitting. Twenty four knitted sweaters for overseas relief were on display, and Mrs. Hellman announced that 50 more are now being knitted. The first assignment was done by high school girls and the present work is being done by seventh and eighth graders. Also assisting the students are a number of older ladies of the community.

Arnold Knabe has returned home after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Hereford. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schumacher who are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knabe.

Mrs. Gus Sicking, 59 Dies Early Thursday; Funeral Saturday

Mrs. Gus Sicking, 59, a resident of the community since 1909, passed away at 3 o'clock Thursday morning in Saint Vincent's Hospital, Sherman after about a year's illness with liver and heart diseases.

Taken to the Hospital Tuesday night when she had a relapse she continued to sink rapidly until the end. Less than a week before she was permitted to return home because of her improved condition.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning from Sacred Heart church. The hour has not been determined at this writing.

Mrs. Sicking, formerly Miss Augusta Flies, was born at Willie, Iowa, August 22, 1888, and has been a Muenster resident ever since moving here with her parents 47 years ago. She married Gus Sicking on Sept. 23, 1909.

Rain Soaked Hornets Score 26-6 Win Over Bowie High Reserves

The small crowd of Hornet fans who toughed out a continuous slow drizzle had their patience and loyalty rewarded by a 26 to 6 victory last Thursday night.

Before the game had a good start the Hornets looked more like a swarm of mud daubers, but they also looked like a football team. They did not give the Bowie Reserves a ghost of a chance. In their best display of teamwork this season they mixed steady gains with spectacular gains while holding their visitors almost completely helpless on the defense. All did their parts. Linemen provided the openings to give ball toters a good start, and the backs carried on from there.

The first few minutes of play netted the first Hornet touchdown. After the kickoff they carried the ball without interruption from their 30 to the goal line, Sicking marking up the counter with a 5 yard line plunge.

The next score followed two exchanges of the ball near midfield. Bowie took the kickoff, failed to advance, and kicked to Muenster. After two first downs to midfield the Hornets kicked and held the visitors for three downs on their 30, then came through and smeared the kicker on his 20 after a bad pass from center. A pass, Endres to Pels, from there was good for the score.

Throughout the second quarter and for some of the third Coach Hennigan turned the game over to the younger lads. They played on even terms most of the time but early in the second half permitted the visitors their only score.

A nice run on the second half kickoff gave the Bunnies the ball at midfield. Failing to advance they kicked, and recovered the ball a few plays later on a fumble on the 20 yard mark. Line and end plays carried the ball to pay dirt.

The tide turned fast as the regulars returned to the fray. A first down following the kickoff put the ball on the 40 where perfect teamwork gave Sicking a clear opening through the line and he did the rest, evading three would be tacklers on his romp to the goal. Gremminger's help to Reiter added a point.

The final score, also by Sicking, was the result of a long run. Taking over in mid-field the Hornets picked up 15 on Gremminger's run then Sicking got loose again for the remaining yardage. Gremminger carried the ball around end for the extra point.

SOPHOMORES, 8TH GRADERS WIN P-TA LOVING CUPS

The High School sophomore class and the Eighth Graders took possession of the galloping loving cups as the result of the attendance of the most parents at the monthly meeting of the Sacred Heart P-TA last Wednesday night.

Relinquishing the cups were the freshmen and the sixth graders who won the contest the previous month.

Miss Dorothy Rohmer of Fort Worth spent the weekend with her parents.

LOUISE FELDERHOFF, EDWARD KNAUF ARE MARRIED TUESDAY

In impressive double ring rites Miss Louise Felderhoff became the bride of Edward Knauf Tuesday morning at 9:30 in Sacred Heart church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff, and Mr. Knauf is the son of Mrs. John Knauf and the late Mr. Knauf.

Relatives and friends attended the ceremony performed by the bride's uncle, the Most Rev. Augustine Dangelmayr, Auxiliary Bishop of Dallas, who also officiated at the nuptial mass.

Anthony Luke, church organist, played the wedding processionals and remained at the console for muted organ strains, during the ceremony. Leo and Vincent Becker and Leonard Hartman sang "Ave Maria" as a trio selection at the offertory of the mass.

The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory brocaded satin designed with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in petal points over her hands, fitted bodice and voluminous skirt belled out about the hips in a double-pannier pouf. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip length falling from a wreath of orange blossoms and valley lilies. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom, and carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid and showered with white sweet peas and satin streamers.

Mrs. Joe Knauf, sister-in-law of the groom, was brides matron, wearing a pink taffeta frock made identical to the one worn by the bride with the exception of short puffed sleeves. She wore a pink flower headdress and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Norbert Felderhoff, brother of the bride, was best man. Immediately after the services brunch was served in the home of the bride's parents to the bridal party, their parents, the officiating minister, Rev. Herman Laux, Rev. John Walbe and Very Rev. John Gulczynski and Rev. McCuey of Dallas.

The bride's table was beautifully appointed in crystal and silver and was covered with a white linen cloth. The centerpiece was a huge decorated cake, flanked with tapers. White mums further decorated the board and were used throughout the home in arrangements at vantage points.

At 3 o'clock the Felderhoff home was the scene of an informal reception and at 5 a buffet supper was served to about 80 guests. Mrs. Albert Dangelmayr aunt of the bride, presided at the bride's book. A dance in the K of C hall at night concluded the day's festivities.

It was during the latter event that Mr. and Mrs. Knauf departed on a wedding trip not revealing their destination. Mrs. Knauf wore a three-piece brown wool suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. When they return they will make their home on the Knauf farm north west of the city.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Knauf are natives of Muenster and attended Sacred Heart school. Mrs. Knauf also attended Ursuline Academy in Dallas and has been active in work of the Young Ladies Sodality.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Alex Knauf of Emporia, Kansas; Charles Schmitt of Washburn, Wash.; Charles, Matt and Joe Pulte of Gainesville; Messrs. and Mmes. Jim Embry; Jim Embry Jr., Ted Redman and Gus Livingston, all of Saint Jo.

Rev. Gerald Sacra, visiting here from Subiaco, Ark., and Rev. John Walbe were Sunday supper guests of Wilmer Luke at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luke.

Ma Hoskins Sneezed at Cats!

Ma Hoskins couldn't understand why she got a fit of sneezing every time Harpo, the cat, came in the room. Finally figured she'd have to get rid of Harpo altogether.

Then Doc Hollister explained she had an "allergy." Cat's fur made her sneeze like strawberries give some folks rash. He gave her an inoculation so she and Harpo could live sneezelessly together.

I guess a lot of us have "allergies" in the social sense. Some folks just can't stand movies, or radio comedians. Other folks don't go for beer. Myself, I enjoy a moderate glass of beer or two with friends ... but it's up to them what beverage they choose.

From where I sit, the important thing is not to let our social allergies result in antisocial taboos. Let's not criticize the fellow who likes beer if we like cider. A little inoculation of tolerance can help us live-and-let-live happily together.

TPA Offers New Service to Texas Newspapers

December 1 will mark the dawn of a new era for the Texas Press Association in the opinion of Paul Fulks, president of the Texas association and publisher of the Wolfe City Sun.

On that date the daily and weekly newspapers of Texas join hands to open their own central office with a full-time staff of experienced press association workers in charge.

Texas Press Association directors have contracted with Vernon T. Sanford, for 13 years secretary-manager of the Oklahoma Press Association, to manage the Texas association. Officials of the Texas organization are now endeavoring to locate office headquarters in Dallas.

Said Fulks, "Our central office will issue information bulletins to the newspapers, serve as an employment bureau for newspaper workers, look after the legislative interests of the publications, represent our newspapers in the sale of political and state advertising, and arrange our convention programs."

The TPA president also stated that "our plans call for activities not alone in the interest of the press of Texas, but for the state in general. Details of a promotion program for Texas will be announced as soon as the central office can complete arrangements with other interested groups and individuals who want to see the great state of Texas grow greater and greater."

cy looks long and hard.

"In America we can save ourselves from this tragedy, but only if we get back on the beam quickly. Our ancestors came here to put into practice this scripture: 'Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.'

"But in recent years, our leaders have substituted other formulas for us to live by. We have almost accepted the idea that science and a 'Papa knows best' government could solve all our individual problems.

"Also, our politicians are acting like they had a divine mission to run the world. Unless we can make these officials stop trying to play God, we may soon be in real trouble, both at home and abroad.

"For many generations we helped humanity everywhere work toward freedom and justice. If the people can regain a decisive voice in our Government, we will get back on that track again."

POLITICIANS PLAYING GOD

"Have you ever listened to the 'Coffee with Congress' radio program which goes out over the National Broadcasting Company's network each Saturday? If you haven't, I recommend your doing so.

You'll hear a Congressman and his family being interviewed over the breakfast table by an expert interviewer. You'll get, among other things, the low-down on how the Congressman met the lady who shares his joys and woes, how he got into politics, etc., etc. It's a human, down to earth program that takes you behind the family circle and lets you see just what kind of fellows we've elected to represent us at Washington.

A few Saturdays back, Congressman Howard Buffett, of Nebraska, and his family were "on the spot" on the "Coffee with Congress" program. When it came time for Mr. Buffett to say his particular thing, he said something so important and said it so well, I wrote asking him to send me a copy of his closing statement, with permission to quote it. He graciously complied with both requests. I know you will enjoy and profit by reading Congressman Buffett's statement which follows:

"Well, the outlook for the world in general is pretty tough. In most countries the humble people are suffering misery and want because they listened to smooth-talking politicians — they promised a more abundant life if the people would give up some of their liberty in exchange for a political guarantee of a full dinner pail. The result has been that the people have lost their liberty and have an almost empty dinner pail as well. Their road back to freedom and decen-

FEED YOUR HOGS OATS COUNTY AGENT ADVISES

In these days of talk about saving food and feed . . . it's a pleasure to hear that we have plenty of one thing — and that is oats. There are about two billion bushels of oats on hand, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. And that's plenty.

If you're feeding out hogs, it'll pay you to look into the matter of substituting oats for corn in the hand and self-feeding rations. B.T. Haws, County Agent, says that a good quality of ground oats — not light, chaffy stuff — at 32 pounds per bushel, can be used to replace from one-fourth to one-half of the corn in the rations.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To: Hendrix Payne, if living and if dead his unknown heirs and legal representatives, the unknown heirs of T. D. Payne, deceased, and all persons claiming any title or interest in land under deed heretofore given to T. D. Payne, as grantee, Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Cooke County at the Court House thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 22nd day of December A. D. 1947, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 30th day of October A. D. 1947, in this cause, numbered 15107 on the docket of said court and styled Emily Kidd, Plaintiff, vs. Ieene Katzburg and husband Louis Katzburg, Gertrude Payne, Ouida Payne Foster and husband Lester Foster, Carie Nowak Payne, Walter Desmond Payne, Thomas Payne, Hendrix Payne, if living and if dead his unknown heirs and legal representatives, the unknown heirs of T. D. Payne, deceased and being all of the heirs of T. D. Payne, deceased, except Ieene Katzburg, Gertrude Payne, Ouida Payne Foster, Carie Nowak Payne, Walter Desmond Payne, Thomas Payne, and all persons claiming any title or interest in land under deed heretofore given to T. D. Payne as grantee, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows to-wit: That on October 1st, 1947 plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land in Cooke County, Texas, holding and claiming the same in fee simple, to-wit:

All that certain lot of land in the City of Gainesville, Cooke County, Texas, out of the T. Tobey Survey and described as follows:

BEGINNING at the SW corner of a lot sold by the Guarantee Loan and Banking Company to L. A. Gandillon, by deed dated March 27, 1905, and recorded in Vol. 90, page 437, Cooke County Deed Records, which point is on the north line of Belcher Street:

THENCE West 50 feet;

THENCE North 147 feet to corner on NB line of Thompson tract;

THENCE East 50 feet to NW corner of said Gandillon lot;

THENCE South along the WB line 147 feet to the beginning, being the same land conveyed to C. G. Bosley by deed from J. L. Gettys recorded in Vol. 183, page 116 of Cooke County Deed Records.

That on the day and year aforesaid defendants unlawfully entered upon said land and ejected the plaintiff and unlawfully withholds from her the possession thereof to the damage in the sum of $100.00.

That an affidavit, purported to be signed by plaintiff, was filed of record in Book 204 page 361 of the Deed Records of Cooke County, Texas, wherein the above described lands and premises were set out to be the community property of plaintiff and T. D. Payne, deceased. That the said affidavit is untrue and erroneous in that said land is her separate property and casts a cloud on her title.

That said lands was purchased by and paid for by plaintiff out of her separate funds and that said land is her separate property. Plaintiff further alleges she has held peaceable and adverse possession of said land for more than ten years and by reason thereof has acquired and perfected her title to said land under the ten year statute of limitation.

Plaintiff prays for title and possession of said land, rents and damages, judgment removing cloud from title and costs of suit, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and Seal of said Court, at office in Gainesville, Texas this 3rd day of November A. D. 1947.

AL YOSTENS CELEBRATE 10TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Al Yosten celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary Sunday with a buffet supper in their home, and were the recipients of lovely gifts in keeping with the occasion.

Enjoying the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pelzel and son of Pilot Point, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Jezek of Celina, Miss Sue Tischler of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Yosten, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, Mrs. Bob Yosten and son, Buddy, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tischler, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Wiesman and family of Gainesville, the hosts and their children.

Mrs. Yosten is the former Miss Dorothy Tischler. They were married on Nov. 23 in the first Catholic nuptial ceremony to be held in the city of Celina. Father Charles Schmid of Sherman, newly ordained priest, officiated. It was his first marriage ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Yosten are the parents of two children, Bobby Glenn, 5, and Judy, 3 years old.

FORMER MUESTER COUPLE SURPRISED ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Schumacher of Gainesville, formerly of Muenster, were surprised with a party at their home on Sunday, Nov. 9, in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

At 1 o'clock dinner was served to the honored couple, their children and their families. The table was laid with white linen and held a decorated cake at one end and an arrangement of mums at the other end. Informal diversion was enjoyed and in the evening a buffet supper was served and other relatives and friends visited in the Schumacher home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Schumacher were born in Illinois, each having moved to Muenster in early childhood with their parents. Mrs. Schumacher is the former Miss Elizabeth Schniederjan. The couple was married here on Nov. 7, 1922, in Sacred Heart church.

They lived in Muenster until 1934 when they moved to Gainesville and are engaged in dairy farming. They are the parents of four children: Mrs. Paul Wiesman and Richard, Melvin and Mary Lu Schumacher, and have one grandson, Paul Wiesman Jr. Another son, Pvt. Henry Schumacher, lost his life on Luzon May 7, 1945.

Many lovely gifts were presented to honor couple. Out of town guests at the celebration included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schniederjan and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck and son, Norbert, Mrs. Maggie Schumacher and Miss Florence Haverkamp, all of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bumpass and family, Mrs. Verona Jackson, Ed Gausman and Leon Krebs, all of Dallas.

MALE THESPIANS AND MANNEQUINS CLICK AT P-TA BENEFIT PARTY

"Wedding in the Hills", presenting an all male cast, was acclaimed by a large assemblage as one of the most hilarious comedies ever enacted here. It was given in the parish hall Friday night under sponsorship of the Public School P-TA and was directed by Mrs. Ray Evans. The play was given in connection with a benefit pie supper to raise funds for the P-TA treasury.

The cast of characters included: Jack Robertson as the bride and Elmer Fette as the groom, John Hoffman, preacher; Anthony Luke, pianist; Joe Parker and T.M. Hammer, flower girls; Earl Robison, ring bearer; Lindie Dickerson and Howard Beauford, train carriers Ray Evans, bride's mother; Jap Reeves, bride's father; Gene Morris, Clyde Howard, Bill Luke, Herbie Miller, Steve Moster, Enlow Teague and Maurice Pagel as wedding guests. Maurice charmingly portrayed the role of an infant.

A solo, "I Love You Truly," was presented by Linton Mitchell, and a duet was rendered by Mitchell and Howard Beauford. Orchestra music was furnished by Jones Playboys of Gainesville.

Another outstanding feature of the evening's program was a style show, men modeling feminine attire, in which Jess Mitchell received a prize as the best contestant. Second and third best contestants were Stanley Wylie and Jack Biffle, respectively.

Other models were George Hammer, Robert Mitchell, Herman Fette, Ray Luke, L.M. McGowan, General Morris, Wayne Anderson, Andy Hofbauer, George Gehrig, John Fisher, Ervin Hamric, Bill Luke, Allen Hoffman, Buck Owens, John Steele, W.B. Wylie.

Serving as judges were Mesdames Ben Seyler, Tony Gremminger, J.B. Wilde and John Furbach and Miss Olivia Stock.

One hundred and twenty five pies several baskets of groceries and other merchandise, were sold to the highest bidder with Dick Cain serving as auctioneer and the door prize was won by Claude Cannon. It is a turkey, donated by Joe Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Seyler were hosts in their home for two turkey dinners honoring their daughters, Miss Margie of Jonesboro, Ark., and Misses Johann and Mary of Lubbock. Guests for the Sunday night party included Messrs. and Mmes. Herman and Steve Fette and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Anderson and children of Gainesville, Tuesday night guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman and children of Saint Jo, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer and family.

Get-Together Club members are reminded that the December meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3, with Mrs. J.B. Wilde as hostess in her home.

Norb Mages, Gerald Bayer, A.J. Felderhoff and Alphons Koesler, went to Subiaco, Wednesday to attend the Thanksgiving celebration and football game at Subiaco Academy-College. They planned to return home Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H.N. Stoffels are the parents of a daughter born Friday in a Gainesville hospital.

Herman Neu of Los Angeles, Calif., has returned home following a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Neu, Sr., members of the Neu families and other relatives and friends. He was on a two weeks' vacation. While here he was honored with dinner parties at the homes of his brothers, John Neu Jr., and Frank Neu at Valley View. He was also accompanied by his parents and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neu to Schulenburg for a visit with his sister, Sister Mary Olive. This was the first visit for the brother and sister in about twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bengfort and family are visiting here with his parents.

MILDRED WIESMAN AND HENRY YOSTEN ARE UNITED SATURDAY

Miss Mildred Wiesman became the bride of Henry Yosten Saturday morning in an impressive ceremony held in Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiesman and the groom is the youngest son of F.J. Yosten.

Rev. Benedict Boergerding of Subiaco, Ark., great-uncle of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial high mass in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends of the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white bridal satin. The dress was designed with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in petal points over her hands a tightly fitted, long waisted basque bodice, and extremely full skirt that featured a modified bustle and a cathedral length train. The bridal veil was edged with lace and was attached to a beaded halo. The bride's only jewelry were a single strand of pearls and a matching pearl ring, gifts from the groom. She carried a white prayer book topped with a gardenia and tube roses and showered with white satin streamers.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Raymond Stewart of Houston and Mrs. Leonard Yosten of Muenster, and the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ferd Yosten of Fort Worth. They wore identical frocks of rose taffeta featuring short sleeves, fitted basque bodices and full skirts. Their head dresses were matching rose taffeta braided halos, and Mrs. Stewart as matron of honor, wore a pink shoulder length veil. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of white mums.

The groom's attendants were his brothers, Fred and Felix Yosten, and the bride's brother-in-law, Leonard Yosten.

After the ceremony brunch was served in the parish hall to members of the wedding party and immediate members of both families. The bride's table was laid with linen and appointed with silver and crystal. It held a large decorated wedding cake flanked with tapers in crystal holders.

At 2:30 in the afternoon the parish hall was the scene of an informal reception honoring the couple and in the late afternoon a buffet supper was served to some one hundred guests. Mrs. Melvin Fisch, sister of the bride, of Chicago, was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Yosten departed on a wedding trip by car, not revealing their destination. For traveling Mrs. Yosten wore a light gray two piece suit with matching felt hat and other accessories in black. When they return they will make their home in their new bungalow that has just been completed in the west part of town.

Both young people are natives of Muenster and graduates of Sacred Heart High school with the class of 1945. He served with the navy during the war and since his return home is employed with Endres Motor company.
