3 Events to Mark Local Observance of Boy Scout Week

After a bout with the flu bug, in which yours truly came out a very poor second, it sort of comes natural to lean toward the kind of column Glenn Shelton, "The Hired Hand" of the Wichita Falls Record News presented a few days ago.

In fact, since every little achievement nowadays requires such a great big effort, it seems that the smartest thing here is to copy his stuff and admit that Con is just too tired to do his own work. Shelton says, "It seems to me that the long-hair guys who can whip polio, pneumonia and small pox should be able to lick a little thing like a cold."

"As highly paid as they are, it seems to me they should be able to wipe out this affliction. But even they lose time because of colds, and virtually all of us get the sniffles at one time or another. And thousands actually die from ailments that began as a common cold."

"If you want to avoid a cold this winter, you will have your best chance if you're a well-adjusted Eskimo. If you aren't then you probably will be one of the 450 millions who will have one. Colds are less apt to infect people who live in polar regions and those who are over the age of sixty. A man is less likely to have a cold than his spouse or grandma, since males are less susceptible than females."

"About one-fourth of all colds, the doctors say, are triggered by mental tensions. Weak body cells seem more resistant, strangely, than strong ones; that is, a person physically fit may have more colds than one who isn't. If you get a cold, there isn't much you can do. A little soda bicarbonate with lemon juice will help. So will rest and tranquility."

The Hired Hand may be satisfied that he has given the subject sufficient treatment but lots of other guys, like me, know that he isn't half finished. It's that second stage of winter affliction, the one following a cold, which delivers the knockout punch. By the time a person sweats off the siege of chills and fever he can estimate his strength and energy at about 10 per cent of normal.

Here at Muenster this subject is especially significant this year. The absence of a resident doctor leaves us without our former confident assurance that help was near whenever needed. Being sick is more inconvenient, more miserable than it used to be.

All of which should help sharpen the determination of local people to get behind a hospital project as soon as it begins to shape up. Since the signs indicate that we will not have a local doctor unless we have a hospital it follows that we can't settle for half-way measures. We have to work for a really good system or nothing at all.

That's because no doctor will be interested in settling here unless he has good hospital facilities at his disposal. But once we have those facilities we could expect two or three to show interest.

The extra inconvenience caused by our present rash of seasonal illness simply emphasizes the importance of this community's need. A really good medical program including adequate facilities and adequate staff is the foremost item on Muenster's blueprint of progress.

SH Alumni Sets Dates for Picnic And Volley Ball

Plans for a volley ball tournament and a pre-lenten picnic furnished the night's discussion at the Sacred Heart Alumni meeting Tuesday night.

The tournament is slated March 28 through April 2 in Sacred Heart gym and invitations are now being mailed to teams in the area to participate. The Alumni will enter two teams, one for the boys' division headed by George Petrus and one for the girls' division with Adam Wolf in charge.

The community picnic will be a benefit event jointly sponsored by the Alumni and Sacred Heart Choir and will occupy the members with preparations before they turn to volley ball. It will be held Sunday, Feb. 21, in the Parish Hall starting at 2 p.m. and will include the usual attractions and games before and after supper.

Muenster's observance of Boy Scout Week, the 1960 observance marking the golden anniversary of Scouting, will feature three events, the first a church service Sunday morning and the other two a court of honor and a pot luck supper Monday night.

The troop and Scoutmaster Nick Miller will be in full uniform for attendance at the 8 o'clock mass in Sacred Heart Church and will receive Holy Communion in a body.

The Knights of Columbus Hall will be headquarters for the honor court and supper, to be attended also by Scout parents and committee members and their wives.

In the court of honor to be conducted by the Scoutmaster and Committee Chairman Pat Hennigan, some 15 boys will receive advancement and merit badges.

Highest honors of the evening will go to Jerry Mosman, Roy and Tommy Hartman and Jerry Taylor who will become Life Scouts. Tenderfoot badges will be presented newcomers Robert Fisher and William Wimmer.

The other awards will be advancement badges from tenderfoot to second class and from second class to first class ranks. Several individual merit badges will also be presented. While the boys receive their awards their mothers will receive duplicate miniatures.

New License Tags On Sale; Must Be On Cars April 1

New 1960 car license plates went on sale Monday at the Cooke County tax office where 12,115 tags were stacked up for purchase. They must be on all cars by April 1.

New tags are the familiar black and white combination with the colors reversed. White numerals are on black for the 1960 plates.

County Tax Assessor-Collector Rafe Piper said that license tags will be sold only in his office in the court house and that no numbers will be reserved. He said that reserving special numbers is a big headache and runs into such work that an additional clerk is needed to handle the reservations.

Passenger car tags for Cooke County are in two series bearing numbers EU 1825 to EU 9999 and EV 10 to EV 749. A total 8,915 was received at the tax office.

Truck licenses, 1,976 of them, run from 1W 4100 to 1W 6074 and farm truck tags, a total of 1,225 are numbered 5K 5450 to 5K 6647.

During 1959 the number of cars registered totaled 8,619 through Jan. 27. In 1958, the total for the entire year was 8,774. The tax office expects about the same number this year.

March 31 is the deadline for purchasing 1960 license plates and Piper reminds car owners that the last two days are always the busiest.

Besides car, truck and farm truck licenses, there are numbers awaiting owners of trailers, motorcycles and dealers. (Continued on page 8)

Community Hit By Flu, Virus, Mumps

A mild epidemic of flu, along with virus infections and several cases of mumps, is making shut-ins out of a number of grownups and children. Both schools have had some students missing in almost all grades for a few days each the past two weeks but at no time enough to dismiss a class.

At the public school three students have been absent on account of mumps: Tony Holland, now back in the first grade, and Vickie Tuggle and Kenny Roper missing this week from the first and second grades respectively. Bobby Tuggle of pre-school age also has the mumps.

Among flu patients in bed at home this week are Mrs. Tony Felderhoff and Mrs. Lena Streng, Ferd Luttmier and Emil Rohmer. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams are up and out again after a week of illness. C. F. Gobble and Larry are shut-ins since Saturday. Mrs. Gobble is up and out again after being sick first.

Bad Weather Halts City Water Works Improvement Job

Rain and mud temporarily put a stop Wednesday to the city's improvement job for the water system after two days of work which saw the trench dug for the eight-inch water main on Third between Oak and Walnut Streets. The city also made the eight-inch tap and set the eight-inch valve at Oak and Third.

Next on the project is extension of the trench three blocks north to Sixth for the eight-inch line and tie-ins with the six-inch lines at Fourth and Sixth Streets.

This major improvement in the water department will assure an adequate supply in several areas where pressure falls during peak consumption. Cost of the pipe will be about $3500 and installation will be $1,000, more or less depending on how much rock is encountered in digging.

The city is anxious to get the project finished before paving begins on Walnut Street.

Groundhog Had Little Chance to See His Shadow

Maybe spring is just around the corner... that is if there's any truth in that old saying about the groundhog. Nobody would want to get out in weather like Tuesday's so the little furred creature probably stayed holed up all day and didn't have a chance to see his shadow.

Even if he did get out, there was only the slightest chance of a shadow. The weather began with fog and skies were overcast all day except for a few seconds around 4:35 when the sun peeked through faintly.

Blessed Events

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bordeaux proudly announce the birth of Paula Jean's baby sister, Rene Myrick, eight pounds three ounces, Saturday, Jan. 30, at 1:48 p.m. in Gainesville Sanitarium. Getting a new granddaughter to celebrate future birthdays with her was a special joy for Mrs. T. S. Myrick. The paternal grandmother, Mrs. Val Bordeaux, lives in Rumford, Maine. The baby's arrival was appropriately timed to coincide with her daddy's mid-term vacation from NTSC in Denton. Mrs. Bordeaux and the infant were dismissed from the hospital Monday and the family is together in the Myrick home. Here during the weekend to greet their mother on her birthday and also to welcome the latest addition to the family were Jim Myrick of Commerce and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Stelzer of Dallas.

Gayle Marie, seven pounds one ounce, joined the Marvin Rauscher family of Valley View Thursday, Jan. 28, 9:35 p.m. at Gainesville Sanitarium. Others welcoming her are her sister and three brothers and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rauscher and Mrs. Bill Bierschenk, all of Valley View. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Felderhoff went to Valley View Wednesday to be godparents for their niece at her baptism. Father Anthony Gajda officiated at the service in St. John's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Fuhrmann of Lindsay are parents of a daughter born at Gainesville Sanitarium Friday, Jan. 29, at 12:37 a.m. They have five other girls and one boy. Counting another grandchild are Mike Fuhrmann and Mrs. Sophie Stoffels, of Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sanders have a new great-grandchild born in Fort Worth Tuesday. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graham and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sanders of Fort Worth. He's the second great-grandchild — both are boys — in the Sanders family.

Wilson Announces For Superintendent

Irvin Wilson, Superintendent of Schools at Era, authorized the Enterprise this week to announce his candidacy for the office of County Superintendent of Schools. He is asking to complete the unexpired term left open by the recent resignation of W. E. Chalmers.

Tourney Here to Break 3-Way Tie In Cage District

A three team double elimination tournament to be played in the Muenster High gym beginning Thursday night will determine the winner of the local basketball loop. Since Tuesday night's win over Callisburg, the Hornets are tied with Saint Jo and Callisburg for the title of the north part of the district. All games are scheduled to start at 7:30 o'clock.

In Game No. 1 Thursday night Muenster meets Saint Jo.

In Game No. 2 Friday Callisburg meets the winner of Game 1.

In Game No. 3 Saturday night the loser of Game 1 plays the loser of Game 2.

In Game No. 4 Monday night the winner of Game 2 plays the winner of Game 3.

If all that does not get the teams established in their proper order there will be a final game on Tuesday night. It is believed, however, that the fifth game will not be necessary.

Each of the three teams now has a 4-2 record. In games with each other they have records of 2-2, and each team also has a pair of wins over Lindsay.

In their special meeting arranging the play-off superintendents of the three schools agreed on Vernon Austin and Bert Lee Gibbs of Gainesville as officials, also that they will share equally in any profits made from the series of games.

Hornets Win 53-51 Over Callisburg in Overtime Period

In a thrilling overtime win of 53-51 at Callisburg Tuesday night, Coach Charles Smith's Hornets threw the north half of the basketball district into a three cornered deadlock. A loss would have put Callisburg in first place and Saint Jo in second.

The contest was a sizzler all the way through. Ending the first quarter the score was tied 9-9 and at the half Muenster was ahead 25-23. The next quarter ended 33-33 and the fourth quarter 49-49. During overtime Muenster edged ahead on a field goal and two foul shots while Callisburg scored two foul shots. Doug Hellman led the evening's scoring with 16. Mark Hellman and Harris made 13 each and McElreath 10.

In the girls' game Callisburg took an easy win to complete its perfect season. The count was 62-18. Williams led the scoring with 27; Fisher made 10 for the losers.

Playing Lindsay last Friday night the MHS teams came from behind for their wins. In the first game Lindsay girls pulled ahead steadily to 6-2 at the quarter and 11-3 at the half before Muenster got organized. At the third period Lindsay still led 14-12 but by the end Muenster was in front 22-16. Dern hit 12 and Fisher 6 for MHS Delores Hess 8 for Lindsay. The win gave Muenster girls second place in the north part of the district and a place in the play-off.

Muenster boys also made a slow start and trailed Lindsay 12-10 at the quarter. However they were in command the rest of the time for a 24-14 lead at the half and a 50-25 win. Leading scorers were Doug and Mark Hellman with 21 and 18. Sandmann made 11 and Fleitman 6 for Lindsay.

Flu and Cold Cut Annual Reception In Holy Childhood

Flu and colds cut down this year's enrollment in the Holy Childhood Association but a fair number of mothers were present Sunday afternoon with their babies for the ceremony in Sacred Heart Church.

Father Martin Fischer conducted the service and blessed the medals which he then put around each child's neck at the communion railing.

Hard Water Fills City's Lines As Main Pumps Fail

Muenster housewives are asked to be patient and understanding while they complain about the city's hard water. It will be back to normal in a record short time, according to City Waterworks Superintendent Steve Moster.

There's more to it than just turning a tap and drawing water, as members of the department's working crew will confirm after Tuesday's happenings.

First, the big 30 HP motor at the No. 1 main pumping station burned out during mid-afternoon. The stand-by motor was put into use and that normally ends difficulties. But the jinx hung on and that motor went out a few hours later. So the third motor on the hill at the No. 2 booster station had to be put to work. By 10 p.m. everything was under control.

The department wasn't worried. There was still a hole in the card if that motor failed — running water by gravity from the hill storage tank. However, that wasn't necessary.

The motors are in repair shops and will be back at work furnishing the city's usual soft water within a few days.

Swindlers Nabbed And Fined After Roofing Job Here

Two fast operators from Illinois with a flair for swindling elderly people had a poor day here last Wednesday. After pulling their gyp game they encountered officers who demanded refunds and fines to boot.

The two men, later identified as Glenn Ledbetter and Lloyd Robertson, came to the home of an elderly local lady and asked to repair her roof. She consented.

Some thirty minutes later, after batching a section of her roof with tar, they said the job was done and asked for $225. She refused to pay that much, and after some argument they settled for $75.

They promptly cashed the check at the bank, after which suspicious bank personnel notified Deputy Sheriff Bill Pratt. He sent radio reports describing the car and the two men, also naming Ledbetter, who endorsed the check.

The reports were sent out about noon, and for hours it seemed as though the culprits had slipped away. But Denton officers had made their notes and found the suspects.

They were returned to Cooke County by Deputy Pratt and held in the county jail over night. Next morning they pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace, returned the $75 and paid fines and court costs of $36.00 each on misdemeanor charges.

The men had records of conviction for similar deals elsewhere.

New Secretary for City Begins Work

Mrs. Joe Tempel, full-time secretary for the city of Muenster, began her new duties Monday morning and took notes for the first time at the council's meeting that night.

Among first duties facing the new employee is preparation of the monthly water bills. For this collection period there will be no change for customers who have their water bills paid out of their accounts at the bank. But those who pay their bills in person by cash will call at the city hall for that settlement instead of the bank as previously.

Meanwhile the city is working out a system to relieve the bank of collections and will make announcement when the plans are completed.

Council Sets Date For City Election

An election on Tuesday, April 5, to name two aldermen was officially called by the Muenster city council at its meeting Monday night.

Positions to be filled are those now held by Aldermen Richard Grewing and David Trachta. They did not say immediately that they would be candidates for re-election.

Persons wishing to become candidates for these offices must submit their names to City Secretary Joyce Tempel at the city hall prior to March 5 which is the deadline to have a name listed on the ballot.

District Gains 6 In School Census; 1960 Count is 690

A gain of six children in the scholastic census of the Muenster School District since last year is indicated by the annual count just completed by Superintendent L. B. Bruns.

The new count shows 690 as compared with 684 shown on last year's official census roll certified by the Texas Education Agency.

However the new figure still is not official, and it may be revised by the Austin headquarters. Last year the local count of 685 was reduced by 1 when TEA made its final check.

Revisions on the census list result mostly from adjustments for students who move from one district to another during the month of January. Often such children are listed in two districts and the TEA in its final adjustment eliminates the duplications.

The official count becomes the basic figure to determine the district's per capita allotment for the next school year. Transfers into the district are then added and transfers out are subtracted to decide the district's net allotment from the state. A break-down of figures shows there are 342 boys and 348 girls in the district this year. The break-down according to age groups is as follows: 6 year: 25 boys, 28 girls. 7 year: 31 boys, 32 girls. 8 year: 35 boys, 33 girls. 9 year: 36 boys, 29 girls. 10 year: 30 boys, 29 girls. 11 years: 20 boys, 25 girls. 12 years: 31 boys, 33 girls. 13 years: 26 boys, 26 girls. 14 years: 25 boys, 26 girls. 15 years: 25 boys, 36 girls. 16 years: 25 boys, 25 girls. 17 years: 33 boys, 26 girls.

Parochial School Adds Teacher as Semester Begins

Sacred Heart School opened the new semester this week with the addition of a teacher in the grade department and a change of assignments in high school.

The new teacher is Mrs. Lambert Bezner of Gainesville, the former Miss Johann Seyler of Muenster. She is in charge of the seventh grade.

Her assignment relieves Sister Agnes of part time teaching in the elementary department to devote full time to teaching in high school.

Mrs. Bezner resumes classroom work after a semester's vacation. She was a teacher in the Lindsay school for two years and before that taught in Muenster Public School.

The tax receipts were exhausted during the last day's rush of poll tax payments.

Officials said they received many applications through the mail but have not had time to work them. Receipts will be issued, they said, as soon as the new supply is received.

HE CHANGED OUR WORLD

If you are agin' Progress and feel you were born 50 or 100 years too late, perhaps you'd better stay in bed Feb. 11. This will be the 113th anniversary of the birth of Thomas A. Edison and a lot of people are going to be whooping and hollering over the marvels of the Electrical Age which he definitely invented. In fact, maybe you'd better stay in bed all week, since it's going to be National Electrical Week in his honor.

On Edison's birthday, kids in school and their teachers will celebrate National Science Youth Day and will be able to get out of school work by talking about our greatest inventor and Science and how they'd better get with it unless they want to start learning Russian.

Also, 15,000 employees of the McGraw-Edison Company, which the inventor helped to found, will celebrate the event in the scores of plants operated by its 31 divisions in the US and Canada. Many plants will have giant birthday cakes topped by an exact replica of the first successful electric light bulb, and every worker is going to get a slice. The bulbs, however, are not edible and may be saved till next year when, at a signal from whoever may be in the White House at that time, they may be ejected in usison from as many giant replicas of pop-up toasters for the home (developed by Max McGraw).

It has been estimated that Mr. Edison received patents at the average rate of one every 15 days from the time he was 30 until he died at 84 — for a total of 1,093. And if you wince at the electrification of the world, consider that the Wizard of Menlo Park also invented the phonograph (great grandpaw of hi-fi), the movies — both still and "talkies" — the stock ticker, the miner's safety lantern, the medical fluoroscope, waxed paper and gummed wrapping tape, to mention a few items. The Edison notebooks (2500 of them of 300 pages each) contain sketches of what we now call helicopters. And more than half a century ago he predicted that some day a teacup of energy would drive an ocean liner across the seas and back!

Not only was Thomas A. Edison a man who couldn't let well enough alone, but now, 29 years after his death, his questing spirit carries on in the firm that bears his name. We might as well face it, there will be no end to what he started.

$65,000 LUNCHES

There is no dispute of the fact that the American dollar is worth just half now what it was worth prior to World War II.

The end result we call inflation. What can inflation do to a nation's currency? Take a look at Germany after World War

I. In 1919, it took 4-1/5 German marks to equal the purchasing power of one American dollar. Inflation ran wild in 1922-23 and by November, 1923, it took 4,200,000,000 marks to equal $1. Newspapers sold for 200,000,000 marks per copy.

What happened to the people? In 1920 an 18-year-old German inherited 650,000 marks. It was worth $65,000 at the time. He was to receive the money when he was age 21, and he became 21 in the middle of 1923. With his entire inheritance he was able to buy only one meal.

True, our economy may never drop to such a level, but the fact that our dollar has already been cut in half should scare us into doing something about it.

If a dictator declared a law depriving his people of half of their purchasing power, we would call it tyranny.

Yet, in a democracy, wage increases without increased productivity result in the same loss of purchasing power.

As individuals in a country of free men, we have the power to determine how our economy fares. Each of us with the right to vote is a ruler of our country.

As such, only we as individuals can tyrannize ourselves.

Tampa, Fla., Sun Dial

WHY IS IT?

They are shouting that Russia is catching up with us and will soon surpass us. So what? First, are their statements true?

If they are true what should we do about it? The United States has a short history. During our few years we have exceeded every nation in the world in production. As a military power we have no equal. Our people have the highest standard of living in the world. Our wealth is more equally distributed. Get that point, which we repeat, our wealth is more equally distributed than in any other nation.

We didn't accomplish a particle of this by socialism. Socialistic nations striving to divide all the wealth and eliminate class haven't come as close to it as we have under the capitalistic, free enterprise system.

So Russia is threatening to out-produce us. Should we jump into socialistic government spending or should we encourage capitalism and free enterprise, which has made our position in the world possible? We have done nothing, in the past 25 years, to aid the free-enterprise system which made all our accomplishments possible.

— Waseca Herald

Some workers have lots of "get-up-and-go" when it's time to get up and go home. Yes, sir, they're the ones who get "fired with enthusiasm."

Simple Solution

LIFE AND DEATH COMPETITION

Some time ago the Internal Revenue Service and the Federal Power Commission ruled that certain institutional advertising placed by electric utilities was not a legitimate business expense, and hence was not deductible for income tax purposes. The advertising in question presented the utilities side of the public-vs.-private power controversy.

Since then, a great deal of discussion has taken place. And a number of distinguished Americans have charged that this ruling is grossly unjust and punitive.

One of these is Admiral Ben Moreell, chairman of the Task Force on Water Resources and Power of the second Hoover Commission. In filed testimony, he points out that the federal government is by far the largest single producer of electric power in the nation, generating electric energy in 26 states and selling it in 29. This is done in direct competition with private enterprise. So, he states, in the face of this competition managements of power companies are under a "solemn obligation" to tell their security holders, employees and customers the facts about public power through advertising.

Professor William A. Paton of the School of Business Administration, University of Michigan, has presented similar testimony. When any government body becomes a business competitor of any private enterprise, he states, "the company concerned must meet that competition, and the costs involved are necessary and proper business expenses, just as in the case of the costs of meeting private competition."

In the case of the utilities, moreover, government com-

A CHALLENGE TO PARENTS

By Mrs. Sally Leighton, housewife and mother

How to teach our children about God is one of parents' greatest challenges. The task is all the more difficult if parents' own thoughts and feelings about God are uneasy and fearful.

WHY do we find that "instruction" in religion so often becomes a warning? Threats, such as "If you disobey me, God will punish you," do nothing to secure in the child's mind a long-lasting notion of a loving, caring Father. They can even distort the image of God into a Peeping-Tom tyrant, ohly waiting a chance to catch us in wrongdoing. So much less often do we hear the encouraging, "God loves you best of all when you try to be good."

The less parents drag fear of the Lord into ordinary problems of discipline, the greater will be the child's freedom to love both parents and Creator. It is obvious that by limiting appeals to God's authority, their weight when needed will be greater.

HOW, then, do we teach our children to truly love God? We do it by showing them in all we do and say that He is ever in our thoughts, in the most welcome way.

He is our Friend. His problems with people are our problems. His triumphs are ours. His defeats arouse our sorrow. His judgments are our judgments.

In family life, attitudes like this are reflected formally in family prayer. They are shown when we diligently beseech that heavenly lost-and-found department to find the latest mislaid article or when the family fortunes are mentioned to God for His care.

WHEN the baby is ill, a child gains comfort from hearing aloud, "And God, take care of Jimmy, we are pretty worried about him." How fortunate are the children who find father thanking God for both business success and failures as means of growing in His love.

Or when beauty of sky and water, trees and flowers, warm friends and loving grandparents fill the heart to overflowing, what a lesson in thanksgiving and adoration is learned by the child of parents who unself-consciously breathe out, "How good God is! What wonderful things He has made for our happiness! How grateful we are!"

THE CHILDREN who see all these gifts as expressions of God's love for us will know that God is very much to be desired. The fear of not sharing in God's life should be threat enough for them. With children we can safely spare the brimstone.

petition is literally a life and death matter. There is a ceaseless drive on behalf of ultimate total socialization of the industry. Thus, the competition is far more dangerous, far more urgent, than would be the case with competing private enterprises. Finally, if this country is to accept censorship by taxation — which is what the ruling imposes — we might as well quit talking about freedom.

USE TAP WATER

Ordinary tap water can be used in your steam iron if you add a tablespoon of ammonia for each cup of water. The ammonia will not only soften water and prevent accumulation of mineral deposits, but also will give you a smoother, cleaner ironing job.

Much Fun Crowded Into Denver Visit

"It doesn't seem possible to crowd so much into a weekend," was what Mrs. Bruno Fleitman and children John David, Janie and Blondie said after returning from Denver, Colo., where they visited with their daughter and sister, Sarah Ann Fleitman, who is a student at Loetta Heights College. Sarah Ann spent the weekend with them at the Stanley-Plaza Hotel and together they covered miles and miles of sight-seeing and visiting.

Among stand-out attractions were Mother Cabrini's Shrine, a tour of the state capitol and attendance at sessions of both senators and representatives, Buffalo Bill's grave, Lookout Mountain, and Berthoud Pass on top of the Continental Divide, 12 miles from Frazier where they watched skiing contests.

And of course a tour of Sarah Ann's college, meeting her teachers, and amazement at the underground network of tunnels which connect all buildings of the college plant so that students and faculty never have to get out in the weather.

Incidentally, the weather was lovely. All the time the visitors were there it was a bright 54 degrees.

1960, beginning at ten o'clock a.m. at which time and place all parties interested may appear and be heard. Those opposing the granting of said application should file written protests with the Board and the applicant at least five days prior to hearing date, giving their reasons therefor and such other information as is required by Board Rule 305.2. Such hearing will be continued from time to time, and from place to place, if necessary, until such determination has been made relative to said application as the said Board of Water Engineers may deem right, equitable and proper.

Given under and by virtue of an order of the Board of Water Engineers for the State of Texas, at the office of the said Board at Austin, Texas this 25th day of January, 1960.
ATTEST: Audrey Strandman, Assistant Secretary
O. F. Dent, Acting Chairman, State Board of Water Engineers

RECIPE AWARD OF $100 GOES TO MOTHER OF 17 FOR SAUSAGE KOLACHES

Mrs. Harry Jauer of Hobson praises 'wonderful' performance of Gladiola Hard Wheat Flour

A family recipe for a delicious yeast bread variation—golden brown kolaches with tasty pork sausage filling—has brought a special $100 award from the Gladiola Flour people to Mrs. Harry Jauer, Route 1, Hobson, Texas.

She is donating half the money to the Altar Society of St. Boniface Catholic Church in Hobson.

Mrs. Jauer's award is a prelude to regular cash prizes soon to come in Gladiola's continuing Baking-Recipe-of-the-Month contest, now open to all homemakers in this area.

'100 at a Time'

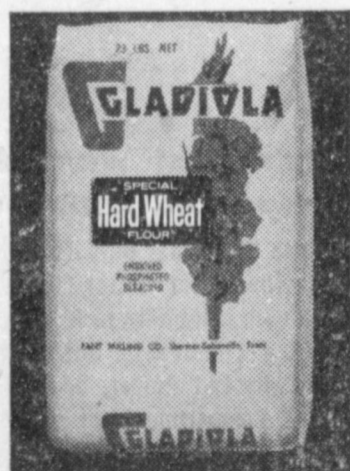

With 12 of her 17 children still living at home, Mrs. Jauer has one of the busiest baking ovens in Texas. "I make these kolaches a hundred at a time," she told us, "but that might be too many for some families." The complete recipe, reduced to fit an average-size household, is printed below.

"I've had my fingers in yeast dough since as far back as I can remember," Mrs. Jauer relates, "and I've made a point of showing my daughters the difference between what I call 'strong' dough and 'weak' dough. It all depends on the flour you start with."

Baking Secret?

"Do I have a baking secret for my yeast breads? Well, certainly there's no secret about Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour. But I notice that some women—especially the younger ones—are trying to make lightbread, kolaches and coffee cake with an all-purpose flour.

"Then, when their baking doesn't turn out right, they get discouraged, and that's too bad. If they'd use Gladiola Hard Wheat Flour, they'd see a wonderful difference the first time. That's how you make 'strong' dough—smooth and springy—instead of the sticky, starchy kind that won't hold up in your oven."

GLADIOLA SPECIAL HARD WHEAT FLOUR

Likes New Ideas

Mrs. Jauer thinks Gladiola's Baking-Recipe-of-the-Month contest will be "a fine way to pass good recipes around" among women here in the Home Baking Heart of Texas. "You can bet I'm going to try every prizewinning idea as soon as it comes out."

Rules of the contest, which pays $200 in cash prizes every month, appear in other columns of Glad Times.

11 CASH PRIZES EVERY MONTH HERE ARE EASY CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone may enter Gladiola's Baking-Recipe-of-the-Month contest except employees (and their families) of Fant Milling Co., its affiliated companies and its advertising agency.
2. Write down your favorite baking recipe using Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour. List all ingredients, then explain briefly each step in the procedure.
3. Cut off the strip that says "Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour" from the folder enclosed in every bag. Send it—with your recipe, name and address—to Glad Times, Sherman, Texas.
4. You may send in as many recipes as you wish. Mail each recipe in a separate envelope, enclosing a Gladiola strip as explained in Rule No. 3.
5. Each month's recipes are judged separately, an independent graduate home economist as the final judge. Recipes received in February will be eligible for prizes to be announced in May.
6. For the outstanding recipe received each month, Gladiola will pay $100. Half the prize money—$50—goes to the homemaker who submitted the recipe. The remaining $50 goes to the church of her choice as her special contribution.
7. Ten other recipes will be chosen each month for Honorable Mention prizes of $10 each.
8. All recipes submitted become the property of Fant Milling Company, Sherman, Texas, with full publication rights. Recipes cannot be returned.

'BAKING HEART' OF TEXAS IS CONTEST AREA

The Baking-Recipe-of-the-Month contest is unique because it is specially designed for a unique part of America—the Home Baking Heart of Texas.

Here, where delicious yeast breads are the pride of all good cooks, this continuing monthly contest invites friendly competition, and the exchange of outstanding recipe ideas, between every homemaker and her neighbors.

There will be new cash prizes every month, new opportunities for homemakers to win deserved recognition for their baking skill.

An extra benefit—particularly for women who have never experienced it—will be the deep satisfaction of working with Gladiola Hard Wheat Flour. It's the flour made expressly for yeast breads, Texas style.

SAUSAGE KOLACHES

Gladiola's Baking Recipe of the Month Mrs. Jauer's Sausage Kolaches

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| 1/2 pound bulk pork sausage | 1 package active dry yeast |
| 2 cups milk | 1 teaspoon sugar |
| 1/2 cup margarine | 7 (or more) cups sifted Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 1/2 cup melted margarine |
| 1 1/2 teaspoons salt | |
| 1/4 cup warm water | |

Cook sausage until done, stirring to break it up; drain and cool. Scald milk, add margarine, sugar and salt and cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast and the 1 teaspoon sugar in the warm water. Add to cooled milk mixture. Stir in enough Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour to make a medium soft dough. Let rest 10 minutes, then work dough in the bowl until smooth, about 10 minutes. Cover tightly and let stand in a warm place until double in bulk.

Punch down. Cut or pinch off 15 pieces of dough about the size of an egg. Flatten each to about 3 inches in diameter. Place a rounded teaspoonful of cooked sausage in the center of each. Pinch opposite sides together to make an oblong roll. After all are formed, roll each in melted margarine and place close together in a 13 x 9 x 2 inch pan, smooth side up. Cover lightly with a cloth and allow to rise again, until double in bulk.

Bake in a moderately hot oven (400°) 18 to 20 minutes. Makes about 2 1/2 dozen medium sized kolaches.

STEP OUT IN IT

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

In other business conducted by Mrs. Leo Lawson, senior vice-president, members completed plans for their annual Valentine dance to be held this year on Saturday, Feb. 13.

The group also made arrangements to help the VFW Post sponsor the District One convention here Feb. 20 and 21.

March of Dimes committee members reported receipts in the campaign which grew during the week from $147 to $188.50. The additional donations came from contributions at a teen sock hop, $9.90, and from Public School student envelopes, $30.81.

Still to be added are donations in canisters in business houses and envelope collections from the Parochial School. Members plan to wind up the drive this weekend.

Thank-you notes for Christmas gifts were read from Navy Nurse Rita Voth in Newfoundland and from Capt. and Mrs. Monte Hellman in Germany.

Members also voted to send a love offering to retiring District President Hedwig Easton who recently lost her husband in death and her home in a fire.

All require new license plates for the coming year.

Piper says car owners must have their 1959 license receipt and a certificate of title to secure a new car license. Anyone appearing at the office without those two items will be disappointed with the outcome, he warned.

Piper urges all Cooke County residents to purchase their license tags early this year. It relieves the late-comer burden of the tax office.

State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer said that about 5,000,000 sets of plates will be purchased in Texas this year compared with 4,700,000 in 1959. Greer warned that failure to register a truck or auto in the owner's home county could cost a $200 fine.

Quilting Party

The home of Mrs. Lee Haverkamp was the scene of a quilting party Tuesday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. George Spaeth and Mrs. Joseph Hundt of Lindsay and Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr. and Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman helping her. They finished a crib quilt to be a gift for Mrs. Haverkamp's daughter, Mrs. Travis Wickliffe of Dallas. After the quilting session the hostess served refreshments.

Before shampooing your hair in the washbowl or shower, place a piece of steel wool over the drain opening. Loose hairs will cling to the steel wool as the water drains, and will not clog the drain.
