New Building For Post Office Considered Here

A new postoffice for Muenster is under consideration. Whether or not it will be built remains to be decided by the Post Office Department on the basis of data obtained by a postal representative here last Thursday. An announcement is expected within four months revealing whether or not the project gets official approval.

While here the postal official inspected several available sites for the building. He also disclosed that the building, if approved, will be erected by private capital for lease to the government.

Tigers Drop 6-0 Heartbreaker to Rams of Sadler

The Tigers of Sacred Heart missed their best chance Friday to break a long and disappointing string of defeats. They lost 6-0 to the Rams of Sadler-Southmayd after three heart-breaking failures to cash in their scoring set-ups.

Their first chance came early in the game. S&S fumbled on its first series, Sacred Heart kicked on its first series then blocked the S&S kick ending the next series.

That put the Tigers in business on the 8. Three plays lost 2 yards and Miller hit Virgil Hess with a jump pass that fell a foot short of the score.

Next the Rams moved to their 19 and ended their second series with a punt. Sacred Heart also booted on the fourth try and Patterson for the Rams took off on the big run of the night. Receiving at about the 15 he streaked for 70 yards before being stopped by Miller on the 14.

On the next play Patterson finished his job with a run around right end. The attempt for extra points failed setting the count at 6-0 just as the first quarter ended.

The third play of the second period S&S intercepted and started another drive in midfield, then lost possession on a fumble after gaining to the 20. The Tigers got back to midfield and also fumbled. For the rest of the quarter each team was held to short gains.

Opening the second quarter Sacred Heart kicked on fourth down and Patterson on second scrimmage play ripped off 33 (Continued on Page 4)

News of the Men in Service

Enters Service
Larry Hennigan left Wednesday to enter the armed forces.

Return To Georgia
Major and Mrs. Hal Falck left Thursday to return to Augusta, Ga., after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pagel. It was the Major's annual leave and the couple visited his sister in Houston and friends in San Antonio before coming to Muenster.

Telephone Visit
Navy Nurse Rita Voth, Lieutenant Commander, on duty in Newfoundland, telephoned to Muenster Thursday evening for a visit over the phone with her mother, Mrs. Barney Voth. She inquired about all the family, especially her sister, Sister Agnes, who is at Jonesboro, Ark., following a sick spell here. Sister Agnes has written her mother that she is making improvement, attends church services at the convent chapel and looks forward to being back on the staff at Sacred Heart School within a few weeks.

Spook Carnival Sunday Promises To Be Fun Packed

Fun, festivity, food, chills and thrills are all on the program for the annual Halloween Carnival Sunday in the Parish Hall. It will be a benefit for the parish parochial grade school, sponsored by roommothers and their assistants.

In an old fashioned county fair atmosphere, youngsters and oldsters alike will find a variety of games, eats, drinks, contests and sales booths. And there'll be a spook house and fortune telling.

Special attraction for the children only — their parents will want to watch — is the costume contest timed for 4 o'clock on the stage.

From the kitchen, lunches and supper will be served from the time the carnival starts until it ends. Food will feature such delicacies as home made chili and pie and will include hot dogs, barbecue and hot beef sandwiches, coffee and cold drinks.

The sponsors are preparing for a big turnout. They hope everybody will join in the fun.

J. M. Weinzapfel To Head Hospital Fund Campaign

J. M. Weinzapfel, president of the Muenster Hospital Authority is also chairman of the building fund campaign now gradually taking shape and due to be launched in a few weeks. The appointment was made Tuesday night in a meeting of Hospital Authority directors at campaign headquarters.

The board also named J. J. Wieler as a new member succeeding Mrs. Frank Schilling, who resigned recently. His appointment is subject to approval of the city council, which originally created the hospital authority and named the board members.

At this time the hospital fund campaign is still in its early stages of organization. Leaders are being selected and promotional work is under way to have everything ready when kickoff date arrives.

J. T. Cole Elected New President of Cooke Farm Bureau

Annual election for Cooke County Farm Bureau officers put J. T. Cole of Sivel's Bend at the top of the executive committee as president. He replaces Paul Fisher, out-going president.

Other officers named are Frank Neu of Valley View, vice president, and R. S. Hassenpflug of Valley View, second vice president. At the same meeting, delegates to the state convention in Dallas in November were chosen. They are Cole and Neu, Joe Bauer, Charley Kammerdiener, Al Walter and alternates, R. B. Durham and Paul Fisher.

New directors affirmed at the Thursday session, which was the group's county convention, are Henry Schumacher, Downard Fairplains; Reuben Hassenpflug and Carl Kemplin of Valley View and Charley Kammerdiener, route 1, Gainesville.

Policies approved at the convention will be released at a later date.

Knights Observe Feast of Patron

Muenster Knights of Columbus last Sunday observed the feast of their patron saint with group attendance at the 10:30 mass followed by breakfast in the parish hall. The event, traditionally held on the Sunday before or after Columbus Day, was postponed this year because of conflict with special mission services in church.

Headlining the event was a talk by E. H. Jaska of Sherman, district deputy of District 6. His principal message was "do a little more." Pointing out that most people use only 50 to 60 per cent of their capability, he urged the group to increase their efforts and reap the satisfaction of greater achievement . . . in council activity as well as in their other interests.

Father Alcuin Kubis, chaplain, also spoke briefly and John Mosman, grand knight was master of ceremonies.

About 150 knights and ladies were there.

Patsy Endres To Be Queen at 1960 SH Homecoming

Miss Patsy Endres has won the crown in this year's contest for homecoming queen at Sacred Heart High. She is a junior student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Endres.

When the votes were counted Tuesday, Patsy led with 38,862. Not far behind was Miss Jeanette Muller, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Muller, who had 30,646 votes to her credit. As one of the princesses in the queen's court she will be maid of honor.

The other princesses will be Miss Joan Hundt, sophomore, who gathered up 17,357 votes, and Miss Rita Noggler, freshman, who had 15,747 votes. Together they brought in a total of 102,612 votes at a penny each as a benefit for the school's athletic department.

Coronation ceremonies will be the social highlight of Saturday's homecoming festivities. Queen Patsy will be crowned before the Tigers start their homecoming game with the Laneri Ravens of Ft. Worth. Participating in the crowning will be Tri-Captains Claude Bayer, Anthony Knabe and Teddy Miller. A dance will follow the game.

Odds Appear Even For Big Clash of Hornets-Panthers

The battle of the season faced the Hornets this week as they prep for the Saint Jo Panthers, traditionally the number one rivals of the season and also equal contenders for a share in district honors.

According to the records the teams appear to be perfectly matched. Muenster's score is 4-3-1, Saint Jo's is 4-3. Furthermore the teams are about equal in performance against two common foes. Both lost to Newcastle and both beat S&S. However Saint Jo's score was slightly better in each.

In their district 12-B standing the teams also rate as equal, each having one loss and a chance to take second place honors. There's even a slim chance that one or the other could share in the loop title, or possibly win it . . . if the two present leaders, Era and Callisburg should both happen to lose two of their remaining games.

Coach Bob Gay and the Hornets have lots of respect for the Panthers. They know that they will be outweighed in the line and will face a backfield threat that's good at both passing and running. They know that hustle is a must and alertness to take advantage of breaks may be the real deciding factor.

Yet weather is hampering the Hornets' practice schedule this week. They have had light workouts in the gym but no opportunity for real work to polish up their game. However, says Coach Gay, Panthers are probably missing the same opportunities.

Home-School Group Has Guest Speaker For Tuesday Meet

Sacred Heart Home-School Society meeting Tuesday night featured a guest speaker for the program and appointment of committee chairmen during the business session.

Dr. Harold Baker, professor of chemistry and physics at TWU in Denton, gave an informative talk on Radiation, his easy-to-understand explanations giving his audience an insight into radio activity. He was accompanied by his wife and both were introduced to the assemblage by Sister Celine.

Society President Ray Wilde announced committee chairmen. They are Mrs. C. O. Taylor, program; Mrs. Paul Endres, Girl's 4-H Club; and Mrs. Arnold Rohmer, school grounds. They will appoint their assistants.

Father Bruno told about booking a food demonstration, through which the society earns funds for attendance. This event is scheduled for Tuesday night, November 8. At least 50 couples will be expected to come, watch the demonstration, see an accompanying movie and sample the cooking.

In other business, Sister Canisia volunteered to take care of the annual invitation to St. Nicholas and his party with the school children. And Sister Henrietta explained the children's weekly book club.

Garden Club Sets Collection Tuesday For Cemetery Fund

The semi-annual collection for the Sacred Heart cemetery fund will be held next Tuesday, All Saint's Day, following all masses in Sacred Heart Church. Members of the Garden Club, sponsor of the cemetery upkeep project, will be at church doors with baskets accepting the donations.

Money received is used primarily for watering, mowing, trimming shrubbery, replacing shrubbery, and making the less expensive permanent improvements.

Lindsay to Host Christ the King Deanery Service

This year's Christ the King procession and service for the Sherman deanery of Catholic parishes will be held in Lindsay Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Representations from all the parishes are expected at this event and each is asked to assemble in its own group.

Word from Father Damian of St. Peter Church asks visitors to begin assembling at 2:30 in the parking area in front of church and be ready for the procession to start moving at 3. Services in church will end with Benediction.

Another service at Muenster is scheduled for the benefit of local people who cannot go to the Deanery gathering at Lindsay. The Blessed Eucharist will be exposed following the 10:30 mass and adoration hours will continue until closure at 2 o'clock with procession inside the church and Benediction.

Hornets Win 14-6 In Tight Contest With Valley View

Muenster Hornets came through as predicted Friday night, taking the big end of a 14-6 tally, but they certainly had no cinch. They were crowded all the way by a determined team of Valley View Eagles who gave them a tougher contest than the score indicated. The Hornets led 12-0 in first downs and 186-171 in total yardage from scrimmage.

The big difference was a play that did not count as a gain from scrimmage. Harris took an Eagle kick on the 10 faked a handoff to Wimmer and sailed all the way to a touchdown. Faking the hand-off to the Hornet work-horse served its purpose perfectly. By the time the Eagles realized what had happened Harris had a good chance to outrun them, which he did . . . all except a lone defender blocking his way at about the 20. Harris used a bit of fancy footwork to get past him.

Another factor was the try for bonus points. The Hornets made good on Joe Hellman's pass to Mark Hellman. The Eagles failed on a run.

Muenster started its scoring drive the first time it got hold of the ball. A kick ending Valley View's first try was returned for short yardage to the Hornet 49. Eleven plays from there did it and Wimmer carried on six of them, including the last three. Eight tries gained 39 and a first down on the 12. Wimmer reached the 5 on his first try, missed the goal by inches on the next and breezed around right end on a pichtouch play for the TD. A Pass to Mark (Continued on page 4)

Demonstration on Yule Wrapping and Gifting Set Nov. 2

A program on "Christmas Day Hospitality," featuring a demonstration of gifts and gift wrapping, will be presented November 2, beginning at 2 p.m. in Muenster High home-making room. Everyone interested is invited to attend this free meeting.

Lone Star Gas Company's home economist Miss Pat Russell will lecture, display, and demonstrate appreciated homemade gifts that bring Christmas cheer in their holiday wrapping.

A similar program last year was so popular and so enthusiastically received that Muenster Home Demonstration Club women made arrangements to sponsor a like program in preparation for the Yule season this year.

Community Grain Given Big Assist By 2.49 in. Rain

General rainfall that spread over the state early this week, dumping more on some localities than they had use for, was kind to this community.

Total moisture measured on Steve Moster's Weather Bureau gauge Tuesday and Wednesday was 2.49 inches. All but .28 inches of it fell in a steady rain over several hours prior to 8 a.m. Tuesday. Most of it soaked in, however there was still enough run-off to put a good supply in farm ponds.

As regards the soak-in portion, there was plenty of room for it despite showers of recent weeks. Reports on one pond building project said, dry dirt was found three to four feet down. Subsoil had a good use for this rain. Conditions for grain are fine, and it can be improved by more rain. Total moisture now measures 4.35 for the month and 27.87 for the year.

Muenster Blanks Lindsay in Second Battle of Exes

Gridiron has-beens of Muenster and Lindsay proved Monday night that they are still able and willing as they clashed in a real classic on the Sacred Heart field. Muenster won 26-0, but the contest was lots closer than the score. Lindsay led 11-9 in the tally of first downs.

With two wins chalked up, the local fellows are quite pleased with themselves. Besides, they've had a big time playing, so they've thrown out a general challenge in hopes of promoting another game or two.

Spark plugs on the Muenster team Monday night were Lawrence Noggler and Virgil Henscheid. Noggler's speed accounted for two scores and lots of other gains. Henscheid's slick ball handling and good passing caused Lindsay more trouble. Standout for the visitors was Ronnie Herr, a former Tiger, recruited from Gainesville by the Lindsay fellows.

Muenster's first score came about midway in the first quarter ending a 69 yard drive that had started with an interception. Henscheid passed to Petrus for 23 yards on the scoring play then hit him again for bonus points. Just before Noggler had made 13 to the goal but a clipping penalty nullified the play and moved the ball back 15 yards.

Next score, also in the first quarter was practically a gift. Muenster recovered a Lindsay fumble on the 1 and Carl Walterscheid hit pay dirt on the first try.

The rest of the half was taken up mostly by two drives. Lindsay advanced 61 yards and lost the ball on an interception. Muenster moved 37 and ran out of time.

Opening the third quarter the ball changed hands twice before Lindsay started grinding out a 41 yard march that bogged down on the 22. On the next play Noggler breezed 78 yards to the goal.

Moments later he repeated the performance. Muenster intercepted and two plays later Noggler got loose for 60 yards and the score.

"KNOW THE DIFFERENCE"

The following editorial is reprinted from the Indianapolis News:

"It is dismaying to find that such simple terms as 'private' and 'public' ownership are not clearly understood by the American people. Even more so is the unfavorable connotation attached to 'private' ownership by those who think they understand it.

"A recent exhaustive survey of customers of investor-owned electric utilities discloses that a majority of Americans regard private ownership as something restricted to a favored few. On the other hand, they think public ownership means, not statism and suppression of individual rights, but something that is 'available for everyone'.

"This confusion extends on through words which seem more explicit in their meaning. Less than half of those surveyed grasp the meaning of 'nationalized'. Nor is the term 'socialized' clearly understood.

 "It may be that the unfavorable meaning attached to private ownership is a hangover from the long-gone days of the 'robber barons' and 'monopolists'. Yet it is hard to see how anyone can fail to be aware that private ownership is the foundation of free enterprise, and has brought incalculable benefits to the nation.
 "Just to keep the record straight:
 "Private ownership means ownership by private individuals, as opposed to government ownership, whether that ownership is vested in one person, or in hundreds of thousands of owners, as in the case of great corporations. Public ownership is government ownership, and government ownership is the first step on the road to Socialism."

SPACE AGE PIONEER

Man stands today on the threshold of the space age — with man-made satellites hurtling around the earth and a shot at the moon a certainty of the near future — largely because Elmer A. Sperry, the American inventor born 100 years ago, put the gyroscope to work!

He took what was thought to be merely a mathematician's toy and converted it into a mechanical sixth sense that guides the movements of men, machines and missiles in space and under the sea.

Dr. Sperry was born in Cortland, N. Y., October 12, 1860, at the dawn of another exciting age — that of electricity. He spanned these two ages and contributed to both, is ranked as second only to Edison for his work and his inventive genius.

The gyroscope came relatively late in Dr. Sperry's life. He was continually busy with a flow of inventions — arc lights, dynamos, electric locomotives, mining machines, trolley cars, storage batteries. From a tricycle built to travel on railroad tracks that he built when he was a boy to a rail flaw detector, developed shortly before his death, his life was occupied with new problems to be solved. Altogether, Dr. Sperry registered almost 500 patents.

In 1910, when Dr. Sperry turned his full attention to the mysterious workings of a child's spinning toy, the gyroscope, he forged the key to the future. That year he formed the Sperry Gyroscope Co. and a year later saw his ship's gyro-compass perform successfully on the U. S. S. Delaware. Unaffected by the steel of the ship, and free from variation, this compass became in demand all over the world.

He next arranged the gyro-compass to control the steering engine so it became a robot helmsman, more sensitive than a human and less subject to error. During the First World War, Dr. Sperry developed a gun fire control system for the Navy which was installed on the entire fleet. Shortly afterward, he launched the first "guided missile", controlled by gyros.

As flying became popular, Dr. Sperry began work on stabilizing systems for aircraft. His gyro turn indicator was one of the single most important contributions ever made to air safety. Added to the directional gyro and the gyro horizon indicator which he later developed, the system became the nucleus of the flight instruments used in every airplane today.

Now, a full century after his birth, Dr. Sperry's spinning top is basic to the inertial navigation systems man uses to navigate the unknown — in nuclear submarines under the polar ice caps, in the three-stage rocket that may send him to the moon.

Thanks to Dr. Sperry, the future can be ours!

Gonzales Honors Flag

A plaque commemorating the making of the first battle flag of Texas hangs on the walls of the museum at Gonzales, in South Texas, the town where the flag was made.

It was the first flag on which the now famous "lone star" was used.

This flag carried the words

"Come and Take It" in answer to the Mexican Army's demand for return of the Gonzales cannon. The cannon had been given to the Texans by the Mexicans for defense against the Indians.

According to recently published figures, our gross public debt exceeds that of all the other nations of the world combined.

A NIGHT OF NONSENSE

by Rev. John Maguire, C.S.C., Magazine Editor

Gone are the days when Halloween was synonymous with overturned outhouses — not that human nature has changed, but because outhouses are no longer a familiar part of the American scene. But still, as in the past, Halloween is a night of nonsense. Maybe it's the invigorating autumn air — cool, but not yet cold — that makes us go in for costume parties, pumpkin lanterns, flying witches and grinning ghosts. And although many adults like to join in the fun, Halloween is mostly a night for children.

SUCH A NIGHT of nonsense can be a good thing in a child's life. Their trick-or-treat episodes can be great fun for them. Because they are so much fun, the lessons they learn from the experience become quite vivid and meaningful in their lives.

On of the most valuable lessons a child can learn on Halloween is the difference between acceptable playfulness and wanton destruction. Often children are destructive only because they don't realize this difference. What begins as acceptable playfulness can easily pass to irresponsible property damage.

HALLOWEEN mischief should not be so supervised by adults that it loses its childish spontaneity, but a minimum of guidance can often prevent serious destruction.

Another lesson a child can learn from his trick-or-treat experience — one that everyone has to learn in his maturing process — is sensitivity to the character and feelings of others. A heated tongue-lashing by a neighborhood crank generally makes children seek revenge by some mean trick, but if they have been prepared beforehand for such possibilities, they can learn the valuable lesson that it's often better in life to let grouches alone in their moody sullenness. Or better yet, they can be encouraged to turn the tables and "treat" the neighborhood grouch by some act of kindness instead of demanding from him a treat under threat of a trick.

BUT CHILDREN aren't the only ones who can learn on Halloween. A little window-tapper can spur most of us into impotent rage. As soon as we have located and gotten rid of the maddening gadget, we realize with humility just how little it takes to make us lose patience, a real lesson.

REAL NONSENSE — nonsense that is just that and not viciousness or plain stupidity — is one of the things that separates man from lower animals. For only a being with reason can indulge in nonsense. And, as G. K. Chesterton used to remark, a little nonsense now and then is welcomed by the best of men.

Reception, Buffet Mark J. P. Flusche Silver Anniversary

Happy silver wedding anniversary was observed Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flusche who were married here in Muenster 25 years ago on October 22 and have lived here all the time except for about a year when they lived in Pilot Point. Both are natives of Muenster.

Mrs. Flusche is the former Miss Hazel Otto and their children, grandchildren and relatives from both sides of the family helped them celebrate at a reception and buffet supper Saturday evening in the VFW Hall.

One hundred and twenty guests were registered by the honorees' daughter, Mrs. Julius Hermes Jr. of Lindsay, who presided at the anniversary book.

In addition to Muenster relatives, including Mrs. Flusche's parents Mr. and Mrs. Tony Otto, guests were present from Gainesville, Lindsay, Valley View and Decatur, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Flusche have six sons and three daughters and three grandchildren. One son and one daughter missed the celebration. Unable to attend were Margie — Mrs. W. B. Martin of San Diego, Calif., and Dave Flusche of Lubbock. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hermes Jr. and sons Bobby and Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Don Flusche and Connie Jo, Harold, William, Thomas, Ronald and Susan Flusche.

Mrs. Flusche wore a becoming black party dress with a white mum and silver ribbon corsage. Her sister, Mrs. Tony Hoenig, who as Miss Allene Otto was her maid of honor in 1935, attended the celebration in a mauve outfit with a white corsage. And Andy Flusche who was his brother's best man was present from Dallas.

Other out of town guests included Mrs. Andy Flusche and Mr. and Mrs. Urban Flusche and their families of Dallas; the Al, Conrad and Lawrence Flusches and the Arnold and James Flusches and children, all of Decatur; Misses Betty Ann Hoenig and Evelyn Flusche of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. James Bayer and family of Valley View.

Messrs. and Mmes. Sid Otto, Tom Otto and children, Alvin Noggler and family and Gerald Metzler and sons, all of Gainesville; Messrs and Mmes John Kelley and J. C. Darilek of Fort Worth; Messrs. and Mmes. Lawrence and Raymond Zimmerer and Charles Neu and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Neu and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidkofer and family, all of Lindsay; Raymond Hoenig and Miss Cecilia Neu of Dallas.

Decorations arranged by Mrs. Nick Miller carried out the silver theme, so did the anniversary cake, and the silververved received a shower of gifts in keeping with the occasion. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz presided at the buffet and served the cake.

Sister and Brother Share Honors at Birthday Party

A sister and brother, Betty Mae and Gene Douglas Rohmer, observed their birthdays with a joint celebration featuring a dinner at noon for family members and a party in the afternoon for a group including 46 children and ten grownups.

Hosts were the honorees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Rohmer. Entertainment with gifts, games and picture taking was at the Rohmer home. Favors were whistles, balloons and candy and party refreshments were birthday cake, ice cream and soda pop. Guests were present from Muenster, Lindsay, Gainesville and Marysville. For Gene Douglas it was his first celebration. His sister was seven years old.

Guests for the Sunday dinner included the honorees' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voth Sr. and the great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trubenbach Sr. Also Mr. and Mrs. Martin Becker and children Shirley and Paul Joseph.

Shoolmates of Betty Mae attending the afternoon party were Claudia Hundt, Carol Bezner, Sharon Gieb, Marian Arendt, Brenda and Janie Beyer, Janie Arendt, Susie Bezner, Patsy Arendt, Lucille and Mike Bengfort, Tommy and Robert Eberhart, Beverly Gossett, Kathy Arendt, Anthony and Stevie Felderhoff, Paula Owen, Robert Hundt, Ernest Voth, Cousins: Kathy and Alan Rohmer, Donna Marie Rohmer, Glen Voth and Shirley Becker. Friends: Becky and Barby Davidson, and Debbie and Alyce Hermes.

Gene's guests were Mary Margaret Rohmer, Sharon and Gary Rohmer, Mary Ann and Sharon Voth and Paul Joseph Becker, cousins, and Pat and Mike Davidson, Cheryl, Denise and Gary Hermes, Robert Owen and Carole Beyer, friends. Also the honorees' sisters Barbara and Helen Ruth Rohmer.

Back From Trip

Back from a vacation visit with their son and family, the Al Seylers, at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. William Seyler of Valley View are telling about a great time. Together the two couples did lots of sight-seeing including places of interest in Washington, D. C. The trip was made by car, bus and plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Seyler left Valley View in their car, stopping in Dallas to visit a daughter and her family, then took the bus to Raleigh, N. C., where their son and his wife from the air base met them. Coming home the Seylers went by car to Washington, D. C., with their son and from there back to Dallas by plane in five hours. Their daughter met them and they visited there again overnight before returning home.

Tiny Tots Present Program for PTA At October Meeting

First and second graders of Muenster Public School entertained PTA membership at the organization's October meeting Monday night with a program consisting of two skits, a reading and four songs. The presentation, themed on Halloween, was directed by the children's teacher, Mrs. Bessie Miller. A big crowd cheered.

In a playlet, "A Treat for a Trick," roles were portrayed by the following first graders: Jeannine Owen, Becky Davidson, Bobby Tuggle, Ricky Swirczynski, Martha Lin Hott, Gwen Fleitman and Colleen Lindsay.

In another skit entitled "Safe or Sorry," the cast was composed of Ricky Tuggle, Brenda Wallace, J. D. Rumley, Joy Pittman and twins Jerry and Gary Doughty, second graders, plus two from first grade, Billy Joe Pratt and Beverly Bruns.

The two groups joined in a sing-song and Ricky Swirczynski, wearing a pirate outfit, gave a reading.

PTA business session was brief. Conducted by President Mrs. Paul Fisher, it consisted of announcements and reports. Superintendent L. B. Bruns listed coming events including the homecoming festivities on Nov. 4, and especially for the ladies, an afternoon demonstration on Nov. 2 by Lone Star Gas Company's home economist, Miss Pat Russell, who will present a program on Christmas Gifts and Wrapping in the home ec room at 2 o'clock. Herbert Meurer reported on progress made in soliciting funds for the school's new grandstand.

42 Party Fun For Progressive Club

Members of the Progressive Club gathered at the home of Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid for their October party Thursday night and had fun playing progressive 42 until refreshment time.

When tally cards were gathered up and scores counted, Mrs. Ray Walterscheid, a guest led with points to take top prize. Mrs. Charlie Wimmer Jr. was second and Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid secured the galloping award. Mrs. Joe Trubenbach was consolation winner. Another guest joining club members was Mrs. Ray Otto.

A dessert plate and coffee were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Charlie Wimmer Jr. will entertain for the November meeting.

Birthday Surprise For Mrs. Fuhrman

Happy birthday surprise greeted Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman at her home Sunday when her children and grandchildren came over bringing covered dishes for supper, a decorated cake and a birthday gift.

Bill Fuhrman and son Bobby came from Fort Worth to join in the party. The rest of the family present attended from here. They are Messrs. and Mmes. Alvin Fuhrman, Gilbert Endres and Lou Ann, Robert Bayer and Carol, Carl, Dolores, Betty Lou and Allen.

Miss Joann Roberg of Fort Worth spent the weekend here with homefolks, was accompanied back in her car by Miss Kathy Pagel who was home for a weekend visit with her family.

Local News BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sicking have named their baby daughter Rita Gerardine. She was baptized Sunday by Father Bruno in Sacred Heart Church with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Prescher of Gainesville as sponsors for their niece. The Preschers were dinner guests in the Sicking home, so was Mrs. George Lutkenhaus of Gainesville who is here for an extended visit with her daughter and family.

Pretty weather Sunday prompted the Anthony Lukes and the Bill Lukes to load their youngsters in the former's station wagon and drive to Arlington for a visit with the Harold Lukes. It was Mrs. Harold Luke's birthday and they helped her celebrate.

Leonard Endres of Dallas stopped for an overnight visit with his mother, Mrs. M. J. Endres, Monday. He was enroute to Oklahoma City on a business trip.

Five sisters and their preschool children had a full day together Tuesday when Mrs. Earl Walterscheid entertained visitors in her home in Wichita Falls. There for the visit were Mrs. Ray Voth, Danny and Brenda and Mrs. Albert Herr and Marlene from here, Mrs. Vincent Zimmerer, Carol and Susan of Lindsay and Mrs. John Hoberer and Tommy of Hood.

Annual meeting of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher took Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel to Tulsa, Okla., during the weekend. In addition to business they enjoyed a visit with their daughter and family, the P. W. Hellmans. Enroute home Monday they stopped at Atoka, Okla., to tour a new hospital. That night visitors came. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Grimes were guests overnight and Tuesday. Their home is in Dallas.

Visitors from California are Mrs. Frank Haynes Jr. and children Juanita Marie and Kenneth, on vacation from Chatsworth, Calif., visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Milner. This is two-month-old Kenneth's first visit in Muenster. Before coming here the Haynes family had a short visit in El Paso with his parents who also were seeing the baby for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Milner drove to El Paso to bring their daughter and grandchildren to Muenster Friday. Mr. Hayes Jr. had only four days off and will join his family here when he gets his vacation next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pagel entertained with an all-day reunion of the Pagel family Sunday in their home, while his sister and her husband, Major and Mrs. Hal Falck were visitors from Augusta, Ga. With the hosts and the Falcks were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pagel and the Jerome Pagels and family, including Miss Kathy Pagel who came from Fort Worth.

While Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel were in Dallas last Thursday they planned to see their sons, Father Joseph and Father Thomas Weinzapfel, but learned they had come to Muenster for a surprise visit with them. But they got together here anyway for a six o'clock dinner and visit. Father Thomas Weinzapfel came to Muenster after being in Henrietta where he was guest speaker at the deanery meeting of NCCW.

Mrs. Paul Nieball has as weekend guests her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nieball Jr. of Odessa and together they attended the State Fair Saturday and saw the musicale, Flower Drum Song. Joining them for a visit before they returned to Odessa were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Nieball and son Joey of Gainesville.

The Henry Henscheid family was all together during the weekend. First at the J. P. Flusches' silver anniversary party, then at the family home, and then at a supper party in Gainesville with the Gerald Metzlers. Joining the local relationship were the J. C. Darilecks and Kathy and the John Kelleys and Jeff of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sanders returned Tuesday from a two-week business visit in Oklahoma.

A family usually eats better when dining together, and children eat better when someone supervises their eating. Breakfast is the most important meal of the day. If you aren't hungry first thing in the morning, try to get a little exercise and fresh air before eating.

Hornets Win - - -

Hellman was good for extra points. Muenster led 8-0.

Valley View snapped back with a 24-yard kick return to the 34 and an attack that clicked. A pass to Young for 26 yards was the big gainer in the drive of eight plays that reached a first down on the 8. Four plays from there did the job, Alexander making the last few inches on a quarterback keeper. The try for extra points fell short.

With a 30 yard gain on two first downs the Hornets seemed to be moving again but a fumble put the Eagles in charge. They made a first down and kicked to end the next series. That's when Harris got loose on his scoring sprint. A pass for extra points was batted down. Muenster led 14-6.

For the remainder of the half Valley View made a first down and missed its second by inches. Muenster fumbled its second play. Valley View was in possession as the period ended.

Opening the next half Kleiment's scramble for the Eagles' on-side kick gave Muenster a good start at midfield. An interception two plays later spoiled the advantage, however the Hornets regained possession on a fumble.

Wimmer made 8 and Harris 6 to reach the Hornet 47. A pass to Fette for 22 plus gains by Harris and Wimmer made the next first down in spite of a 15 yard penalty, but an interception on the next series put the Eagles back in charge, on their 29.

The hosts kicked on fourth down. Muenster made a first down and kicked on the next series. Again the Eagles kicked on fourth down. Then Muenster started its last drive of the game, from its 49.

Wimmer made 4 and Wolf 12 to the Eagle 35. Hellman gained 5 on a keeper and Wieman went to the 24. A penalty set them back 5 yards but a pass to Mark Hellman for 10 plus Joe Hellman's 2 and Wimmer's 4 reached the 13.

Two short plays made 4 and a pass to Mark Hellman reached the 3 but a penalty nullified the vital gain and moved the ball back to the 24. On an attempted pass Joe Hellman lost 11 more and the next pass went incomplete. Valley View took over on the 35.

Two short gains and a screen pass got the Eagles back to midfield. Another short play a 15 yard penalty advanced them to the Hornet 33 a fumble there stopped them.

Muenster regained 16 yards in three plays and also fumbled.

On their last play the Eagles passed for 12 yards to the Hornet 35.

In 1874, Chief Quannah Parker, son of the famous Cynthia Ann Parker, led some 700 picked Comanche, Cheyenne, and Kiowa warriors in battle against 28 brave frontiersmen and buffalo hunters in the Texas Panhandle.

He was defeated in this attempted "Alamo" style massacre by the small band of men that included the famous Bat Masterson and Bermuda Charlie.

This "Battleground of Adobe Walls" now rests peacefully just thirty miles north of Borger.

When the examination was over, the teacher in a mountain school told her pupils to write a pledge that they had neither received nor given help. One gangling youth, who had squirmed in dismay and mopped a bewildered brow throughout the ordeal, wrote: "I ain't received no help in this matter, and God knows I couldn't have gave any."

NOTES FROM CITY LIBRARY

Are you tires of watching Westerns on television? Have you seen so many that you are beginning to walk and talk like Chester, or cheat and gamble like the Maverick Brothers? Why not give up these habits and READ a Western?

Muenster Public Library has an excellent supply of historical novels. Most popular is the Zane Grey series (minus Dick Powell) which contains, among others, the well known "Western Union" and "Trail driver."

A recent addition to the library is "Clattering Hoofs" by William MacLeod Raine. The things Cape Sloan, the hero of this story, does would make Wyatt Earp. There is also a series by Henry Herbert Knibbs, a well known writer of the old West.

These are only a few of the historical novels now on hand at the library, so "head 'em up, move 'em out" to the library and read a Western.

Tigers Lose - - -

yards to the Tigers 30. There the Tiger defense stood pat and allowed only 3 yards the next four tries.

Then the Tigers started moving. Six plays, including passes to Virgil Hess for 20 and 28 advanced 59 yards to the Ram 14. The next four attempts, however fell a yard short of first down and the visitors claimed possession on the 5.

For the rest of that quarter and about midway into the fourth neither team made any progress. Then Sacred Heart got its passing attack to clicking again.

Three aeriels accounted for 12, 14 and 23 yards in the 67 yard push to the Rams 6 yard stripe. Finally it seemed that the Tigers would get their long awaited TD, but their hopes were blasted on the very next play. Miller aimed a touchdown pass at Virgil Hess but Carney saved the game for the Rams. He intercepted on the goal line and almost turned the play into another S&S score. He was wide open as he snared the ball and streaked up the sideline to the 50 before Anthony Knabe stopped him. The game ended on the next play.

Blessed Events

Proudly announcing a son are Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lutmer, parents for the first time with arrival of the nine pound eight ounce boy Monday, Oct. 24, 1:08 a.m. at Gainesville Sanitarium. He's the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. John Kubicek of Valley View and another grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lutmer.

It's a second little boy for Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pagel, a nine pound brother for Darrell. He was born Friday, Oct. 21, at M&S Hospital, 11:42 a.m., and has been named Carl Ray. The grandparents are Mrs. Carra Pagel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Otto and Mrs. Joe Otto is great-grandma again.

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Arendt of Lindsay and makes two boys and two girls in the family now. He's a brother for Sheila, Hank and Marian and a grandson for the Henry P. Schads of Gainesville and the Paul Arendts Sr. He weighed in at eight pounds ten ounces Oct. 18, 10:52 p.m. at Gainesville Sanitarium.

From Muskogee, Okla., former Muensterite M. P. Theisen writes, telling that he has become a great-grandfather. The new arrival, Barbara Ann Treesh, was born Oct. 14 in Fairbanks, Alaska, where the father is in the service. The baby's mother is the former Dolores Dum whose mother is Mrs. Tony Dum of Muskogee.

BILL OTTO, right, is the newly elected president of the Gainesville College student council. With him are John Wall, vice-president, and Nancy Knight, secretary. Otto is a 1958 graduate of Muenster High School.

Texas Has Taj Mahal

The Mission La Bahia del Espiritu Santo, located in Goliad, north of Corpus Christi, often is called the "Taj Mahal of Texas".

Established in 1749, the mission stands proudly today in a rare and enviable beauty—a reverent beauty that is only bestowed upon the great during the ages.

Near the mission is the site of the infamous massacre of General Fannin and his Texas soldiers by the troops of the Mexican General Santa Anna.

Famous Tree Near Rockport

You won't believe it until you see it yourself.

It's the largest live oak tree in the world, and it's located by Goose Island State Park near Rockport, in Arkansas County, on the Gulf Coast.

This majestic symbol of the ages is more than 2,000 years old, having burst into life a hundred years before the birth of Christ.

From its majestic trunk, branches spread forth 118 feet to shade the approximate area of a city block.

Look not upon the cannibal As just another animal, But please remember, if you can, How he enjoys his fellow man.

For You And Your Town

No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name or business being mentioned somewhere in its pages. This does not mean that you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page advertisement in each issue of the paper but your name and address should be mentioned even if you do not use more than a two line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town . . . it is the best possible town advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS
OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

that can be used by Muenster-Saint Jo farmers to aid in adding soil organic matter are alfalfa, hairy vetch, winter peas, sweet clovers and summer peas.
 In addition to being high residue producers, the legumes improve field tillability by penetrating compacted layers in the ground. Legumes, in association with bacteria, fix atmospheric nitrogen in its roots and the fixed nitrogen is available after decay of legume roots.
 Legumes are valuable for supplementary grazing which saves a large feed bill. This has been proven by farmers in the Muenster-Saint Jo area.
 Two things to keep in mind when using legumes: first, legumes are heavy users of phosphate and secondly, proper bacterial inoculation of seed is necessary for nitrogen fixation.

Weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe were their grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schroeder and Denise and Cyril, of Windthorst.

Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Galloway and daughters Jonann and Mary Ellen of Wichita Falls were here for a weekend visit with her family, the John Fishers.

Local News BRIEFS

Sunday visitors with Angela Laake and niece Rosa Driever were Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Laake of Dallas, the former's brother and sister-in-law. A gift they brought their niece is a conversation piece — a gold colored buckskin jacket made from deer that Dr. Laake shot on a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke returned Monday from their annual vacation, dividing three weeks of visiting among relatives in Louisiana, South Texas and Munday. In Shreveport they were with their son and family, the Norman Lukes, in San Antonio, Houston and Robstown they visited cousins and at Munday Mrs. Luke remained with cousins while her husband joined a party of men on a deer hunt north of Pagosa Springs, Colorado. Luck was good and the Lukes have venison in the deep freeze.

First trip to Muenster and meeting family members made it a big weekend for month old Mark Henscheid who came from Dallas with his parents, the Jerry Henscheids, and his brother Jeffrey. Mark also got acquainted with both his great-grandmothers, Mrs. Anna Trachta and Mrs. Joe Pautler while the family was here with the couples' parents, the Leo Henscheids and the Ray Owens. Coming with them from Dallas were Misses Margie and Lois Owen and Carolyn Cunningham. They visited their parents, the Ray Owens and the Herb Cunningshams.

Father Martin Fischer is on vacation, driving through to Binghamton, N. Y., to officiate at the silver wedding anniversary mass of his brother and sister-in-law. Stops along the way will be made with other relatives and friends. He'll be away about three weeks. Assisting in the parish here while he is gone is Father Gregory Kehres of Subiaco, Ark., who came to Muenster from Odessa where he had been assisting with parish work.

Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer is back at home after a two-week visit in Dallas with her daughters, Mrs. Irene Nall and Mrs. Eddie Magas and their families. Mrs. Nall brought her back Sunday and they were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Wimmer. Mrs. Nall visited overnight with her mother and returned to Dallas Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Nasche of Fort Worth were weekend visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess.

Mrs. Joyce Tempel and five daughters spent the weekend in Houston with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker and helped them observe their 34th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Seeing relatives and catching up on family happenings made a pleasant two-week vacation for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrison. They're back at home after visiting in Breckenridge, Moran, Abilene and Sweetwater.

Visitors Sunday from Dallas were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schniederjan and children Donna Kay and Johnny who were guests of her mother, Mrs. Carra Pagel and brother Charlie and also stopped at M&S Hospital to see Mrs. Charlie Pagel and infant son Carl Ray.

The new bookkeeper at Muenster Equipment Company is Mrs. Leonard Owen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Homley came from Fort Worth Monday to visit their daughter and family, the Willie Walterscheids.

Former Muenster residents Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beasley drove in Tuesday for a visit with friends. This is vacation time for the couple whose home is in Sweetser, Ind., and their trip includes visits with relatives and friends in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Their daughter, La Trelle, is a freshman in college this year. She's attending Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hamric spent the weekend in Oklahoma City, their son Burt Hamric of the University of Oklahoma joining them for attendance at the OU-Kansas football game and for visiting in the homes of Mrs. Hamric's sister and family, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Hellams and Mr. Hamric's aunt, Mrs. Ruby Pace.

Playing in the Exes football game here Monday night was former Tiger backfield star Tommy Herr of Fort Worth. His wife Virgilla was cheering on the sidelines. The couple came to Muenster especially for the game and were overnight guests in the home of his parents, the Frank Herrs, returning to Fort Worth Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Kirk who formerly lived in the city in one of Joe Trachta's houses have moved to occupy the Sicking place a mile and a half south of Myra. Kirk is a milk hauler for Louis Sicking.

Joanie Sicking Is Birthday Honoree

Eleventh birthday of Joanie Sicking was celebrated with an afternoon party Sunday at the family home with her mother Mrs. Emmett Sicking, entertaining.

Gifts, games, and refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream, soda pop and cookies made it a gay afternoon for the honoree and 16 classmates, cousins from Valley View and Gainesville, sisters and brothers, for a total of about 30. Her grandmother, Mrs. Joe Krahl of Gainesville, was a special guest. She brought Carol Schniederjan with her. Present from Valley View were Lynn, Gary, Elaine and Grant Krahl and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Krahl.

Lindsay News

Mrs. Conrad Flusche has returned to Decatur after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Schmidkofer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuhrman and their granddaughter, Darlene Hess of Muenster, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nortman and Davie enjoyed a weekend visit in Subiaco, Ark., with their son and brother, Brother Louis. Little Danny Joe Nortman visited his uncle and aunt, the Ray Hermeses while his parents were away.

Lindsay Mayor and Mrs. Joe Bezner and daughters Joann and Kathy have returned from a week's vacation with Mrs. Bezner's parents and family in Marerro, La. With them on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. William Pulte of Gainesville. In addition to visiting they enjoyed fishing and shrimping and sight-seeing. While they were away Mrs. Johnny Schmitz of Gainesville was here to take care of weekend appointments at Mrs. Bezner's Beauty Bar.

Little Miss MaQuita Schmitz of Gainesville spent the weekend with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pelzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luebbert enjoyed a Sunday visit with their son and family, the Henry Luebberts in Fort Worth and also visited in the home of their granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Christian, where they got acquainted with their first great-grandchild, Heather Elise Christian, who was born Oct. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bezner and children Debbie and Stevie of Dallas thought Sunday's weather too pretty to stay indoors. They took a drive that brought them to Lindsay for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Joe Bezner and other family members.

Joyce Helen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidkofer, was baptised Oct. 19 in St. Peter's Church with Father Damian officiating and Mr. and Mrs. James Flusche of Decatur as godparents for their niece. Also here for the christening and getting acquainted with the newcomer were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Flusche, an uncle, Jerry Flusche, and cousins Kathy and Paula Flusche, all of Decatur.

Tommy Zimmerer and Pat Hermes, students at Subiaco, Ark., arrived Wednesday for a school holiday until Nov. 1. They are visiting their parents, the Bruno Zimmerers and the Julius Hermeses. Mr. Hermes drove to Subiaco to get the boys, also brought Denis Hess and Melvin Sicking of Muenster along. All students of Subiaco College-Academy have the five-days to spend at home.

PT Club Sponsors For Spook Party At Lindsay Sunday

Ghosts and goblins and all sorts of characters will be "all over" Sunday night when Lindsay PT Club sponsors a Halloween carnival in Lindsay Parish Hall. A costume contest for the children, with prizes, is one of the party highlights.

Committees are teamed up to present a variety of entertainment for all age groups. A spook house promises thrills, chills and surprises. There will be an assortment of food and hot coffee and cold drinks. Homemade candy and other goodies will be sold and a cake walk is included in the fun.

Starting time is 6:30 and the sponsors are looking forward to a full house. Everybody is invited.

Reception, Business And Social Feature St. Anne Meeting

A reception ceremony for two new members, a business meeting and a social were on the agenda for the October meeting of the Lindsay St. Anne's Society with 33 members present and Father Damian, spiritual director, in attendance.

Recitation of the rosary in church and enrollment of Mrs. John Aytes and Mrs. Leroy Schmidkofer preceded the meeting in the school cafeteria. Father Damian officiated at the reception ceremony.

Mrs. Ben Hermes, president, conducted the business session. She commended members who helped so willingly to take care of the altars and sacristy and assisted with the big paint job in the sacristies. That improvement is finished.

The society voted to buy a new buffer to use in church and in the rectory and set Oct. 27 aside to give the church a thorough clean-up. Members with names N to Z made up the clean-up list.

Principal discussion on coming events concerned the annual Thanksgiving picnic. The date for the community party was set for Sunday, Nov. 20, with the society as the sponsoring group. Committees will take charge of games, eats, drinks, a cake booth and other concessions stands.

Members were asked to bring in broken rosaries or rosary pieces they may have and the beads and crosses will be turned over to Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann who has acquired a new hobby — making rosaries for the missions. She has already made six new rosaries for needy missionaries.

Mrs. William Fleitman reported on the recent meeting of the Catholic State League in Pilot Point and Mrs. Tony Hermes and Mrs. Lawrence Zimmerer told members about the retreat they attended in Dallas. Mrs. Gregory Hundt read an article and explained the Madonna Plan and the society contributed five dollars toward this work of charity.

Mrs. Theresa Schreiber won the door prize and hostesses, Mrs. Pete Hellinger, Mrs. Joe Hermes and Mrs. Julius Hermeses, served ice cream, cake and coffee to the group.

5 of Family Have Birthday Parties

Birthdays in the Clarence Owen family came thick and fast within the week and five were marked with celebrations.

Saturday, Mrs. Clarence Owen was the honoree, and overnight visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Owen in Fort Worth were their daughter and family, the Buck Lauxes. A party was held at 3041 Club on the Mansfield Highway where Billy Owen and his Silver Star Band play. There was a shower of gifts. David Owen whose birthday was Tuesday, also was remembered.

Danny Owen's birthday Tuesday was celebrated with a party at his home in Gainesville.

And two parties were held at the Buck Laux home for their children Jerry and Dolores.

Jerry had ten boys over Sunday afternoon for games and refreshments. He was nine... was remembered with gifts.

Dolores, who was eight Wednesday, celebrated after school with classmates and cousins as guests. Gifts, games and refreshments made it a happy birthday party.

Mary Jo Howard Is Party Honoree

Miss Mary Jo Howard, bride-elect of Gilbert Kubis, was honoree at a miscellaneous gift party Sunday afternoon in the community room at the First State Bank in Gainesville with about 25 guests from Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville attending.

Sharing hostess duties and serving refreshments of pie a la mode, coffee and punch were Mrs. George Grimshaw, Miss Joanie Wilson, Miss Joanie Kubis, Mrs. A. J. Felderhof and Mrs. Adam Wolf Jr.

The bride elect's chosen colors, white, toast and peacock blue, were stressed in decorations and floral arrangements and a miniature bride and three bridesmaid dolls centered the table.

The engaged couple will be married in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville in a 5 p.m. service on November 5, Father Alcuin Kubis officiating at his nephew's wedding.

Tiger Cubs Blast Lindsay Kids 34-6

Sacred Heart's Tiger Cubs had a big day at Lindsay Sunday rolling over the Junior Knights for a convincing count of 34-6.

While all the Cubs played a nice game scoring credits came to just two of them. Dale Hess made three touchdowns, all on short yardage from inside the 10 yard marker. Roy Wimmer made the other two, on gains of 20 yards and 3 yards.

The contest completed the Cubs' schedule in the parochial league with a standing of 2-2... two wins over Lindsay and two losses to Windthorst.

Off To Chicago To 4-H Club Congress

Lindsay's Rosemary Hermes is headed for the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, leaving Thursday. She is the state 4-H canning winner and the trip is one of her prizes.

Rosemary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hermes, is a member of the Lindsay Senior 4-H Club and a junior in the local high school. Her records have been entered in the national finals canning contest.

During the past seven years she has canned a total of 253 containers of jelly, 610 pints and 1,026 quarts of fruits and vegetables.

All expenses of the trip are being paid by an Oklahoma glass manufacturing firm.

Mrs. Schmidkofer Birthday Honoree

Mrs. J. C. Schmidkofer was greeted Sunday night when a group of relatives and friends surprised her with a birthday party. Mrs. Herbert Schmidkofer, assisted by Mrs. Tony Voth and Mrs. Joe Fuhrmann arranged the party.

Card playing, picture taking and visiting entertained the group until time for refreshments when birthday cake, peach halves filled with ice cream, and drinks were served. The honoree opened and displayed a shower of gifts.

record kept by Americans for Constitutional Action, an organization that has checked the voting of every senator since 1955 and every representative since 1957 on the basis of his support of constitutional principles. Johnson, who wants Texans to think he's conservative, scored just 10 per cent on that rating. Kennedy scored 11 per cent. Nixon, as a non voter in the Senate, and Lodge, not a member, have no score on the rating, but it is significant they have the support of men who scored highest in the rating.

That ACA rating reveals other interesting facts worthy of our attention. Of 437 members in the House only 13 have a perfect record on support of constitutional principles. All are Republicans. Of 277 Democratic members, 200 scored 29 per cent or less, and only 58 rated above 50 per cent. But all Republicans were above 50 per cent. In the Senate 31 of 33 Republicans were above 50 per cent but only 17 of 64 Democrats were above that rating. Four Republican and one Democratic senator rated above 90 and two Democratic senators rated above 80.

Further study of the report shows that most conservative strength among the Democrats came from the South. In other words Southern Democrats are more in harmony with Republicans than with northern members of their own party. All of which leads to only one conclusion. Constitutional principles and Southern conservatism have a better chance of survival under a Republican administration. People who glory in sticking with the Democratic party had better consider whether the party is sticking with them. Times have changed. If they're still old time Democrats they're more at home with the Republicans.
