4th Degree KCs To Have Initiation Sunday in Dallas

Members of the Third Texas District, Guadalupe Province, of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will have a district initiation in Dallas next Sunday. The local Fourth Degree Assembly is a part of the district and plans to be represented at the event.

The day's program will begin at 9:30 with assembly of members and candidates in front of Statler-Hilton Hotel and march to Sacred Heart Cathedral led by Jesuit High School Band.

At 10:30 they will attend a Pontifical Mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Bishop Thomas K. Gorman.

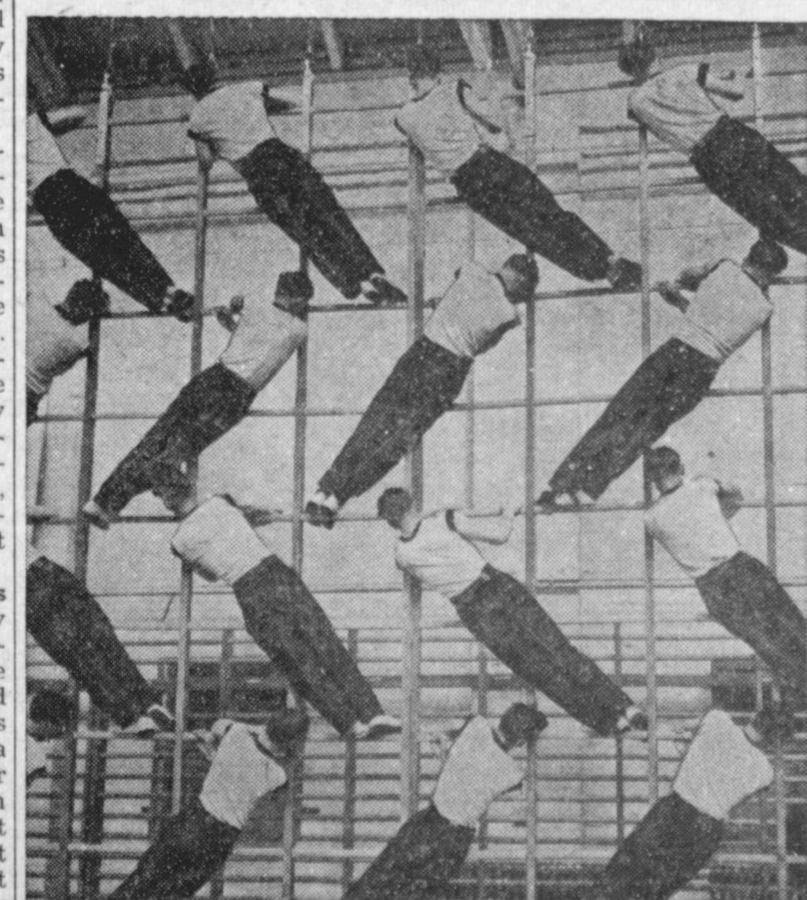

Exemplification of the Fourth Degree will begin at 2 o'clock in the Embassy Room of the Statler-Hilton. Meanwhile entertainment for ladies is provided in another part of the hotel. Finally, at 6 p.m., the program ends with a banquet.

Joint Banquet of FFA-FHA Set for Next Wednesday

Homemaking and agriculture students of Muenster High School this year will combine their annual big social events. FFA's annual Father-Son banquet and FHA's annual Mother-Daughter banquet will be held as a single program next Wednesday night, April 27.

Arrangements for it are not complete, according to Ag instructor Edgar Dyer, but the general plan is to make it an all-student program. There will not be a guest speaker. Details decided so far are to have students review aims and activities of each organization, to recognize the sweetheart of each and to present awards.

Decorations will feature the Hawaiian theme and the meal will be prepared and served under direction of Mrs. Joe Lehnertz.

CROSSED UP—British sailors lend themselves to a herringbone pattern while exercising on a floor-to-ceiling contraption at Portsmouth, England. The activity is a required program.

Long Illness of 'Lefty' Roberg, 45, Ended by Death

Lawrence J. "Lefty" Roberg, 45, died suddenly at 2 a.m. Tuesday in Veterans Hospital, McKinney, where he was taken nine weeks before for treatment of a heart condition. Other ailments seriously complicating his illness were discovered later, however, because of the suddenness, a heart attack is believed to be the direct cause of his death.

Showing some improvement, he was permitted to visit at home during the past week but had to be rushed back early when his condition became worse.

Rosary services for him were held in Nick Miller Funeral Home Tuesday night at 8 o'clock and the funeral was held at Sacred Heart Church Wednesday morning at 10. Father Christopher Paladino officiated, celebrating the requiem mass, delivering the sermon, and saying prayers in church and at the graveside.

Burial, under direction of Miller Funeral Home, included both religious and military rites. Muenster VFW Post had charge of the military service. Casket bearers were six ex-service men: William Walterscheid, Wilmer Walterscheid, Weldon Bezner, Robert Bayer, Tony Yosten and Theo Noggler.

Lawrence Roberg and his brother Louis were co-owners of the Muenster Machine Shop and Supply Co.

He was born here on May 9, 1914, and attend school here. During World War II he served in the navy about 3 years, mostly in the Pacific. He was married here to Joanelle Richter on Nov. 22, 1949.

Surviving are his wife, a step-son Billy Frank Richter; his mother, Mrs. Katie Roberg; two brothers, Louis of Muenster and Frank of Gainesville; and four sisters, Mrs. Frank Herr, Mrs. Jerome Pagel and Miss Carrie Roberg of Muenster and Mrs. Orval Malone of Fort Worth.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral were Messrs. and Mrs. Frank Roberg, Billy Frank Roberg, Ronnie Herr, Lawrence Bruns, Sam Hayes and Frank Bruns and Miss Christine Bruns, all of Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. Orval Malone of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Herr and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yarborough of Wichita Falls; Misses Joan Roberg and Joan Herr of Fort Worth; Miss Kathleen Pagel of Denton; Mrs. Ed Bond of New York; Mrs. Ruth Roane of Houston; and Mike, Karen and Jackie Needham of Del Rio.

Wilfred Klement is a patient at the Dallas VA Hospital for treatment and observation, entering the past week. Wednesday he was cheered with a visit by his wife Julie, his mother, Mrs. Norbert Klement, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher and Harry Fisher as they waited for Harry's plane. They had just seen Mrs. Clem Fladung off on a plane to Longmont, Colo. Wilfred's address is: Lisbon VA Hospital, Room 163, 4500 S. Lancaster Road, Dallas, Texas.

Holiday weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke were their nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Herr of Houston.

WHY NOT?—Not only Del Vermillion, but the rest of the citizens of Fox River, Ill., are ready to talk boating. The local river flooded the area, including this boat shop.

Notes on Building and Improvement

Newest on the local building program is the Maurice Pagel home, started last week in the southeast part of town. It's going to feature a split level arrangement of 4 bedrooms, living room, den, dining room, kitchen and utility. There will be an electric heat pump for year round cooling and heating, double garage, brick siding.

Well advanced are two other new homes; John Herr's 6 room house with garage on North Elm and David Trachta's 8-room, 3-bath, centrally heated and cooled home in the northwest part of town.

Nearing completion is the business building beside the city hall. The south part of it will be a combined gift shop and bakery operated by Mrs. Al Horn, the rest will be available as a business location.

At Lindsay Mike Fuhrmann has started work on a new 2-bedroom home.

An addition at Rohrer's Restaurant is a 28x40 canopy at the east side for drive-in customers. It will have a framework of steel pipe and cover of aluminum, and will probably be finished by the end of this week. Also in progress there is new paint for the outside wood work.

A coat of aluminum paint has brightened the grain elevator at Stockmen's Feed Store.

Word has reached here of the death of Dr. E. H. Steffensen who was a major at Camp Howze during World War II. He was 47. Death was attributed to a heart ailment and came while he was at his home in Detroit, Mich. Major Steffensen was a frequent visitor in Muenster with the Joe Lehnertz and G. H. Hellman families while he was stationed at Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fuhrman and Bobby of Fort Worth were Easter guests in the home of his parents, the H. J. Fuhrmans and this week are on a vacation in St. Louis, Mo., with her family.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Debbie Felderhoff, 7, has recovered from a tonsillectomy performed at Gainesville Sanitarium last Thursday. Her mother, Mrs. Vincent Felderhoff stayed with her that day and until she was dismissed the next day.

Dave Trachta is back at home, out and around in circulation as usual, following surgery in a Dallas hospital April 6. He says many thanks for friends' remembering him in many thoughtful ways while he was hospitalized.

Mims Lewis continues recovery from a major operation performed at Nocona Clinic Hospital April 12 and expects to be dismissed the latter part of this week.

Donna Kay Endres, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Endres, missed a lot of Easter fun because she was a shut-in with measles.

Clear Creek Plan For Flood Control Shown at Hearing

A work plan on Clear Creek's flood prevention program was submitted to more than a dozen representatives of state and federal agencies at a special hearing conducted by the Clear Creek Watershed Authority Tuesday afternoon in Sanger.

Directors of the Authority had invited more than twenty to consult with them with a view to coordinating the program with aims and plans of others. There were members of county ASC offices, a state highway engineer, a wildlife representative, and several agencies from the Department of the Interior.

Sponsors of the hearing were Upper Elm Red and Denton-Wise Soil Conservation districts along with the Clear Creek Watershed Authority. Their work plan, prepared by SCS personnel, showed the type of flood control structures planned, the conditions to be eliminated by them, and the location of each of 52 reservoirs and 26 special treatment areas to reduce erosion.

The special treatment area was introduced as a brand new practice in conservation and flood control. Watersheds of many proposed dam-sites in the Clear Creek system are highly susceptible to erosion and would cause the reservoirs to silt rapidly. To prevent the erosion, gulleys and ditches would be filled in and sodded. The Clear Creek project is the first in the nation to get this special anti-erosion treatment.

A brief history on the Clear Creek program, including organization of the watershed association, creation of the watershed authority and provisions made for maintaining flood control structures was presented by J. M. Weinzapfel, president of the Authority. Technicalities on flood control were presented by SCS personnel.

General Meeting Monday Opens Parish Campaign

The coming week will find the Sacred Heart Parish buzzing with activity on its $250,000 campaign to raise funds for a new sisters' home, addition of two classrooms to the parochial school and continued reduction of the parish debt.

Clerical and organizational work in preparing for the actual drive, has been under way for about four weeks and will come to a climax next Monday night at a kick-off meeting for the entire parish in Sacred Heart gymnasium at 8 o'clock.

Featuring that meeting will be talks by two laymen from a Dallas parish explaining the objectives of the Diocesan Educational Development Campaign, of which the local drive is a part, and the ease with which the goal can be reached if every parishioner will do his part. They will also emphasize that the success of most drives depends on pledging regular smaller payments rather than attempting large donations in a lump sum.

Promptly after that meeting more than a hundred solicitors will begin making their contacts with a view to getting all pledges and initial payments turned in early. Persons missed the first week will be asked to stay home on May 1 so that solicitors can see them then.

Because this drive overlaps another parish drive which is still in progress donors will be invited to start their schedule of payments after they have finished the other.

For convenience in conducting the organizational work the parish has been divided into two groups, each with its own group of solicitors. One group of workers is ready to start, having received assignment cards at a meeting Wednesday night. The other group will meet and receive assignments Friday night.

Civic Progress Club Organized By Young Group

A new organization for promoting community growth and welfare is the Community Progress Association, which got started last week Wednesday night and is still in the process of organizing.

It is a group of young people mostly in their twenties and thirties, headed by Henry Weinzapfel as president, Dan Luke as vice-president, Willard Hartman as secretary, Weldon Holland as treasurer, and Steve Moser as Parliamentarian.

The officers were elected at the opening meeting. Next to be undertaken, probably this week, is drawing up and adopting a set of by-laws, also naming committees to take on the detail work of community promotion. Some of the committee designations, as determined at the opening meeting, will be on industrialization, brochure, agriculture, publicity, finance and planning.

The objective of the organization is "to create the ways and means by which the Muenster Community can best realize the utmost from its vast potential." To accomplish that the organization proposes to improve local industrial opportunity by financial help and educational effort, to promote industrial growth by soliciting industry—and providing vital information for anyone interested, to advance agricultural opportunity through cooperation with farmers, to improve appearance and civic assets of Muenster, and to work toward additional inducements for young people through employment and recreational and educational facilities and opportunity to participate in civic activities.

While planning to take on the bulk of the work in their community improvement endeavors, the new organization will be looking to older civic leaders for advice and help.

Ed Wright of Hesperian Savings and Loan Assn. of Gainesville was guest speaker at the organizational meeting. Another visitor was Dr. L. E. Lake of Gainesville.

Leonard Sr. Tuesday next week, April 26, the club will present its Iris Show with headquarters in First Methodist Church on South Denton Street. Theme of the show will be "Chasing Iris Rainbows."

Newcomers See Muenster While On County Tour

A good look at Muenster along with lunch and a program of "Texas Brainwashing" were among the high spots of a county tour by Gainesville Newcomers Tuesday.

The bus load of about 50 persons who had moved to Gainesville during the past year were guests of an all day tour sponsored by First State Bank. The group came here shortly before noon and had lunch in the K of C hall with a Gainesville catering company doing the serving.

Their luncheon program included a welcome by Mayor Herbert Meurer, two songs, "Texas Our Texas" and "Have You Ever Been to Texas in the Spring" by Sacred Heart eighth graders under direction of Sister Carmelita, and the "brainwashing" recitation by Claude Jones of the First State Bank.

The visitors toured the city before noon and afterward saw Sacred Heart Church with Father Martin Fischer as guide.

Local people who joined them for the meal and program were Mmes. T. S. Myrick, J. M. Weinzapfel, Herbert Meurer and G. H. Hellman, and Father Martin, Mayor Meurer and Henry Weinzapfel.

The Proposed 23rd Amendment to the Constitution is making progress, little by little. Nevada has become the third state, following Wyoming and Texas, to favor its adoption and reports are that sentiment in its favor is building up in many other states.

This is the amendment that seeks to relieve the nation of the agony of income tax by the simple expedient of getting the government out of competition with its citizens. Its first provision is that "The Government of the United States shall not engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise except as specified in the Constitution". And farther along is another provision made possible by the first, that "Congress shall not levy taxes on personal incomes, inheritances, and/or gifts."

The significant point about the proposed amendment is that it would not add to or take from the original terms of the Constitution, but rather would give that document new force and effect. It's first section would only eliminate a practice that has not been specifically authorized in the first place. It would change the bureaucratic interpretation of doing anything that is not forbidden to doing only what is allowed.

The process of getting the Government out of business would have a tremendous effect on the country's economy. Willis E. Stone, author of the amendment, explains how the sale of those enterprises, over 700 of them, to the American people can raise many billions of dollars, all of which can be applied to reducing the national debt. Furthermore, getting rid of them would reduce the cost of federal government by more than half, which is more than enough to offset the revenue lost through repeal of the 16th (income tax) amendment.

From those two considerations alone the Amendment appears to be a wonderful bargain. But that isn't the half of it. Thereafter all those vast enterprises would become tax-payers instead of tax-consumers. They would start paying toward support of local, state and federal governments, relieving other property and business activity of some of the burden they carry now. Last, but far from least, in the economy of us individuals it would amount to a big increase in the take-home pay every person gets from his work. Anyone can figure his own gain by just recalling what he pays now in income tax. And this gain could be realized without increasing pay rates by as much as a single penny. Carrying that thought a bit farther, we can imagine how this tremendous nation-wide increase of net pay would affect the overall economy of the country.

The possibilities of the 23rd Amendment are fabulous. It's hard to imagine how anyone can think of it seriously without going all out for its support, and without understanding just how much our nation is being retarded by its present adventure in bureaucracy and socialism.

All of which shows the urgency of our need of swinging back to more conservative standards of government . . . and encourages us to hope, in spite of current liberal trends of the leading national campaigners, that traditional Americanism will somehow work its way to the front as an issue in the coming presidential election.

This column is firmly convinced that a candidate running on such principles as the 23rd Amendment, economy in government and firm dealings with communism, could clobber anyone who runs on the past record of either party. Good straight-forward campaigning by such a candidate could convince the country that we're still making progress not because of government policy but in spite of it, and we'll get along much better when the burden of that policy is removed.

General Mark Clark was talking sense last Sunday when he said that this country should withdraw from the United Nations. He stated that no useful purpose is served by the US being a member and sees a threat to our country as more nations join and gravitate to the Soviet bloc. The good general isn't the first one to make that proposal. Dozens of other patriotic Americans have said the same, and many have added another thought. "Get

WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

Every wage earner in America is a capitalist. Our American system of free enterprise and individual initiative has provided for us, as wage-earners, many of the good things of life that can only be enjoyed by the wealthy of other lands.

Every GOOD American — wage earners — professional man — businessman — industrialist — or housewife — is PROUD to be an American — PROUD of American CAPITALISM that has provided for all of us the best things in life and the highest standard of living in all the world's history.

The good American doesn't want something for nothing. He doesn't want his neighbor — or his government — to take care of him — to do for him the things he can and should do for himself.

All he asks is the FREEDOM of OPPORTUNITY to get ahead, as far as his initiative, his skill, his ability and his own perseverance and prudence will carry him.

The socialist, on the other hand, is a pitiable character. Possessing neither the desire nor the will to get ahead in life on his own merit, he seeks to advance himself only at the expense of the toil and prudence of others.

His heart and soul are filled to overflowing with envy, jealousy and hatred toward all those who possess more than he. His perverted dream of happiness can be fulfilled only in tearing down that which better men have succeeded in building up.

It is true — socialism is the great equalizer — the great DIVIDER — for it divides, equalizes and spreads POVERTY throughout the land.

Socialism would reduce the thrifty to the level of the spend-thrift; it would lower the industrious to the level of the indolent; it would punish success and reward failure; in short, socialism would SOAK the rich, but DROWN the poor.

HOW IS THIS FOR A SWITCH?

"The Revolt of Enoch Peters" is the rib-tickling satire recently published by that stimulating, conservative journal, NATIONAL REVIEW. Imagine, if you can, a steel company getting weary of the time-hallowed pattern and pulling this dramatic switch:

"Bankfire Steel announced today a demand by management . . . that the union be prepared to accept a ten per cent cut in wages by 16 July, the revocation of pensions for workers who do not fulfill production standards, a guaranteed annual profit for the company to be paid out of union funds, a contribution by the union to Bankfire Steel's new Educational Fund for Intelligent Government, and a position on the union's executive committee.

"Enoch Peters, President of Bankfire steel, further announced that if these conditions are not met by the July 16 deadline, Bankfire Steel will close down its plants at Pittsburg, . . . Akron, . . . and Detroit.

"Mr. Peters, while refusing comment, . . . did mention a faltering American market and the uncompetitive position . . . in relation to European steel."

Of course, it's just satire. It couldn't happen here! But an interesting pause for reflection, don't you think?

RED-FACED REDS

All over the world today Communists' faces are as red as their politics. And all because of a state in southern India called Kerala.

Most people might never have heard of Kerala if it hadn't earned the dubious distinction of being the only state in the world to elect a Communist government in a free vote. That was three years ago.

Last summer the people of Kerala got tired of their Red regime's misuse of power to promote party aims. They rose up and gave the Communists the boot.

The government of India had to step in to restore order. Another election — also free — was held. This time the Communists suffered overwhelming defeat.

Communist governments like to style themselves "people's republic." But they have always had a distaste for testing the label by free elections. They'll like it even less now. — San Antonio Light

"Since President Eisenhower announced the probability of a surplus of $4 billion, the line has formed on the left by socialist legislators who have dreams of new ways of pouring money down a rat hole."

THEIR DREAM

IT'S YOUR MONEY

A stiff 10% is added to your telephone bill every month by federal excise tax. Furthermore, the tax rate is that which is usually reserved for luxury items.

It is a direct tax on you. The telephone companies merely collect this $150,000,000 tax for remittance to federal government. Its removal, therefore, would be a direct and immediate benefit to you — not to the telephone companies.

Following the end of World War II, 15 years ago, Congress was supposed to remove this tax from your telephone bill. It was imposed as a wartime measure to restrict use of long distance facilities and to conserve critical materials.

But, the telephone tax remains despite the fact that similar taxes on other home services have been removed. It is an unfair tax because it discriminates against the telephone utilities and puts them in a class separate from all other utility services.

Unless reversed by the current session of Congress, a bill passed last year will remove the federal tax on local telephone service on June 30, this year.

Now, however, there is talk by the President and some members of Congress of continuing this tax.

If the government needs more money, there are certainly more equitable ways to solve the problem. The government might for instance, turn over to private enterprise some of its many hundreds of businesses which are competing tax-free against private enterprise.

Latin-American expert Edward Tomlinson, in his shocking report on "Appeasement in Panama" in the April American Legion Magazine, quotes from Article III of the Isthmian Canal Convention, signed in 1903: "The Republic of Panama grants to the US all the rights, power and authority within the zone . . . which the US would possess and exercise if it were the sovereign of the territory . . . to the entire exclusion of the exercise by the Republic of Panama of any such sovereign rights, power or authority."

How's that again — about flying two flags over the Canal?

The late President Theodore Roosevelt once said: "Americanism means the virtues of courage, honesty, justice, truth, sincerity and hardihood — the virtues that made America. The things that will destroy America are prosperity-at-any price, safety-first, instead of duty-first, the love of soft living and the get-rich-quick theory of life." And former President Hoover says: "We are in the midst of an increasing moral slump, as witness the increase in major known crimes."

The American Hospital Association points out that some 150,000 teenagers are busy these days proving that adolescence is not necessarily a time of delinquency. They serve as volunteers in some 5,500 American hospitals. Their duties range from counting linen to feeding patients.

A conceited bachelor was invited to dinner by a lady of consequence, but didn't accept. Meeting her on the street a few days later, he said in his best manner, "I believe you asked me to dine with you last week."

"Yes, I believe I did," responded the lady. "Were you there?"

HOW MATURE ARE YOU?

By Donald J. Thorman, author of SANCTITY FOR THE MARRIED

WE ARE surrounded today with men whose job is to make us live in a dream world. TV is a handy whipping boy to illustrate the point.

The Westerns and the cop-and-robber shows that clog the channels are designed to save us from the task of thinking. They catapult us into the make-believe world of the young child. Here everything ends happily and the good guys always win.

THE SOAP OPERAS do the same thing for the daytime audience. They catch countless women up in an unreal world of phony people.

When you come to think of it, there isn't a whole lot of difference between the children's programs and those aimed at adults. And when you do think about it, the implications become somewhat frightening.

THEN, TOO, there's the world of advertising. This is a real pipe-dream world if there ever was one. Little Susie Stenographer is lulled into thinking that her romantic life will shift into high gear if she just uses the right soap.

And thousands of ad agency man-hours are spent in trying to fool Charlie Clerk into believing that smoking a certain brand of cigarette will make him seem more masculine and, therefore, more attractive to a swooning Susie.

EVEN CURRENT funeral practices are aimed at trying to make the sting of death appear to be merely a mild itch. The appearance of calm sleep carefully shades the fact that a person has either won undying happiness or has run into an eternity of hell.

Yes, it's tough to be realistic these days. Despite the traps of an unrealistic civilization, it's just as important for us to cling firmly to a healthy and true outlook as it has been for every generation before us. Why? Because sooner or later death will come to us, and we will end up in heaven or hell.

WHAT WILL keep us in contact with the truths of life and death, the reality of sin, and the prospect of Judgment Day? A short time each day for thoughtful reading will help. So will prayer and a little thought about eternity.

But perhaps the most important step of all is the first one by which we learn to distinguish between reality itself and the dream world that exists all about us.

Family Reunions Highlight Easter Social Activity

Four generations of the Ed Eberhart family were together for an Easter reunion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sicking at Myra. Joining the hosts and their family were their parents, the Ed Eberharts and Mrs. Bill Sicking, and Mrs. Bill Eberhart and children, the Bill Flusches and family including William Flusche of Stephenville, and the Albert Zimmerers and children, all of Lindsay, the Walter Eberharts and family of Gainesville and the Herman Eberharts and son and the Eddie Krahlis and two sons of Muenster.

All of the John Fisher family was together for Easter. Coming from out of town were Lt. and Mrs. Max Rumelhart and Matt of Corpus Christi, Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Galloway and Jonann and Mary Ellen of Wichita Falls, Johnny Fisher and a friend from Houston and Butch Fisher from Lubbock. The Clyde Fisher family joined them and other houseguests, vacationing for a week, were Mrs. Fisher's niece and family Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rashko and children Ron and Ruthie of Walla Walla, Wash.

Some 40 members of the Schmitt families were together for a reunion and covered dish dinner on Easter honoring Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rashko and children Ron and Ruthie, visitors from Walla Walla, Wash. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Schmitt was the party scene and all the little cousins enjoyed an egg hunt.

Having the grandchildren around and helping them hunt eggs made Easter a real holiday for Mrs. Tony Gremminger. With her for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Howell and daughters of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer and daughters of Pilot Point and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pagel and family. The group drove over to where the Maurice Pagels' new home is being built and inspected construction progress. The new split level house is located on South Sycamore Street, south of the Marty Klement residence.

A long distance telephone call from Roosevelt, Utah, added to the enjoyment of a family reunion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Herr Sunday and everybody said something to the caller, Sister Regina, the former Veronica Koelzer, sister of Mrs. Herr, and a former resident. Visiting with the Herrs were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shephard and family of Dallas, the Leonard Bengforts and children of Lindsay and the Don Wilsons. The Q. D. Pettigrew family of Kaufman was here the latter part of the week but had to be back at home Sunday and missed the get-together.

The J. A. Klements had visitors and went visiting during the holidays. Their sons, Jerry of Waco, and David of Denton came home and joined them and Betty Jean on a drive to Dallas for Sunday supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schleicher where their daughter and family, the Dick Schleicher of Fort Worth, were also guests for a reunion.

All members of the John Mosman family were together for a happy holiday. Tim came from Texas A&M College. Becky was recessed from TWU at Denton and Tommy was out of classes at Subiaco, Academy, Ark.

Worth. The Ronnie Herrs also visited her family, the Albert Henschels, and the Melvin Herrs spent part of the weekend in Gainesville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Magee Jr.

A supper party for all the family and an Easter egg hunt for the children, and home moves, made Sunday a happy day for the Adolph Walterscheids who were hosts at their home, entertaining their children and grandchildren.

All of Mrs. Bob Yosten's children were at her home for a covered dish Easter supper. Present from out of town were Mrs. Curtis Holland and Ben Holland of Cleburne, the Stan and Paul Yostens and their families of Fort Worth and the Tony Wiesmans of Gainesville.

Monday night the group was together again for a barbecue supper on the patio at the Klement home.

Little Joe rated a lot of attention. It was his first trip to Texas and his get acquainted visit with his daddy's folks.

The Californians left Thursday to return home.

4 Generations at Muller Clan Fete

Adding to the general interest at a reunion of the Matt Muller clan on Easter was getting acquainted with the newest addition to the family, three-day-old Monica Jenelle Gehrig.

Mrs. George Gehrig and infant daughter came home from Nocona Clinic-Hospital in time to join in the family fun.

Features of the get-together were a covered dish dinner, an egg hunt for the children — about which Monica Jenelle couldn't have cared less, she slept through that excitement — taking pictures and showing home movies.

The engaged pair are both graduates of Muenster High School and Colette is a graduate of St. Joseph's School of Radiology, Fort Worth, and has been employed in the X-ray department at St. Joseph's Hospital since July 1959. Jimmy attended East Texas State Teachers College at Commerce and is in business with his father. They will make their home here.

A Jack Rabbit Is Not a Rabbit

AUSTIN — The cottontail rabbit is very important to the balance of the animal community, and he's probably the target of more hunters than any other single animal. Texas has four species of the genus Sylvilagus, or cottontail, according to the director of wildlife restoration, Texas Game and Fish Commission.

"The biggest of the four is the swamp rabbit. The eastern and desert cottontails are smaller but very similar in color and appearance. The fourth bunny is called the marsh rabbit.

"These animals are true rabbits," reports the director. "By this, I mean they are not hares like the jack rabbit. The difference between a rabbit and a hare is that the hare has much longer legs and the structure of their digestive tracts is different. Therefore, the jack rabbit isn't really a rabbit at all, but a hare."

Another definite difference in the two is that hares are born completely covered with hair, and with their eyes open. Rabbits enter the world naked and their eyes remain closed for at least a week. Since the cottontail is born hairless and with closed eyes, he's not a hare but a rabbit.

Whether hare or rabbit, the bunny plays a very important role in nature's balance. One of the most important values of the mammals, according to the director, is their role as a buffer species. They serve as food for both man and animal.

"Everyone in town is talking about the Smith's quarrel," remarked the wife. "Some are taking his part and some are taking hers."

"And," interrupted her husband, "I suppose a few eccentric individuals are minding their own business."

Mary Pick, Bride Of James Schwartz In Nuptial Mass

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of an impressive wedding service on Easter Monday evening when Miss Mary Pick pledged vows with James Schwartz at 6 p.m. Father Martin Fischer celebrated the nuptial high mass and performed the double ring ceremony.

Sacred Heart men's choir and organist Anthony Luke provided the mass music and Mrs. Rody Klement gave a post-nuptial solo, "On This Day" while the bride presented a bouquet of pink gladioli at the Blessed Virgin's altar. Easter lilies and greenery decorated the altar before which the couple exchanged vows.

Parents of the young newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pick of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz of Grand Rapids, Minn.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a floor length gown of frosty white Chantilly lace over layers of tulle and taffeta. A scalloped Sabrina neckline enhanced the moulded basque bodice and the long tapered sleeves ended in petal points over her hands.

Scalloped-edged lace ruffles formed the bouffant skirt, accented with an overlay of lace divided at the center front and back revealing full tiers of lace and tulle ruffles and swept into an aisle-wide chapel train.

A crown of seed pearls held her tiered waist-length veil. And she carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Attendants

Bride's cousin Miss Theresa Fisher was maid of honor and the groom's sister, Miss Beverly Schwartz of Duluth, Minn., and a friend Mrs. Gene Grabber of Fort Worth, were bridesmaids. The trio wore identical dresses of blue chiffon over taffeta with wide skirts and shoulder draping forming a circular collar. Their half hats and slippers matched their dresses and they carried a single long-stemmed Calla lily.

The groom's attendants were his brother Jerry Schwartz of Fort Worth, best man, and the bride's brother Edward Pick, and Gene Grabber of Fort Worth, groomsmen. Another brother, Paul Schwartz of Grand Rapids, and the bride's cousin Jerry Taylor, ushered.

Two younger brothers, Dwayne and Edwin Schwartz, also of Grand Rapids, were mass servers with William and Donald Fisher, bride's cousins.

The groom is one of a family of nine and most of them were at the wedding with his parents and some 175 other guests from a wide area.

Wedding reception and smorgasbord were held in Muenster High School dining room with Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catering. Guests were registered by Miss Helen Fisher of Oklahoma City and Miss Janice Klement of Dallas.

Live In Ft. Worth

After their honeymoon at an unrevealed destination Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz will make their home at 1612 Saint Louis in Fort Worth where he is employed in a bank after being stationed at Carswell Air Force Base. Mary will be graduated from St. Joseph's School of Nursing in August. For traveling the bride wore a pink and white candy striped outfit with pink and white accessories and a white rose corsage from the bouquet she carried.

Out Of Town Guests

Among the many out of town guests were Harry Fisher of St. Bernard's Ala., Mrs. Clem Fladung of Longmont, Colo., Mrs. Leo Appel and family of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. John Hosea of Grapevine, Donna and Michael Schwartz of Grand Rapids, Lt. and Mrs. Max Rumelhart of Corpus Christi, Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Galloway of Wichita Falls.

Miss Betty Curda of Azle, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gallagher of Ranger, Miss Betty Rose Kupper of Valley View, Misses Clara and Emma Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Stokley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips, Misses Suzanne Hesse, Berta Lou Schroeder, Judy Quinn, Betty Stevenson, Elaine Norman, Bobbe Phillips and Marcy Klement, all of Fort Worth, and William Fisher of Subiaco. Ark.

Holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Melton Ramsey and sons Ricky and Robby were her sister and brother-in-law, the Milton Deans and daughter Jan of Hereford. When they returned home Monday Mrs. Bill Duncan went with them, returning to her home, after a vacation visit here with her daughter and family.

POOR RELATIONS

What would you think of a relative who had an income of $7,000 a year, but had run up a debt of $29,000 of which $5,000 was payable on demand and $7,500 more within a year?

Well, don't disown him too soon. Add seven zeros onto those figures and you've got your Uncle Sam.

Two coats who were nosing around behind a Hollywood set found an interesting looking container. One of the goats kicked it open, allowing folds of film to fall out. After cautiously sniffing, he started to eat the film.

"Is it any good?" asked the other. "Fairly good, but I liked the book a lot better."

A suitcase was heavy with Muenster cheese on a trip back to Temple when Mary and Gena Niehues returned home Tuesday evening after a two-day visit with their aunt Angela Laake and cousin Rosa Driever. The visitors had requests to bring back Muenster cheese and packed away several chunks of it to take to the Temple gourmets.

"A man and his little girl were among the passengers in an overcrowded elevator. Suddenly a lady standing in front of the man turned around and slapped him. Before the man had a chance to ask why he deserved such treatment, the lady had left in a huff. The little girl, however, innocently explained the whole thing by saying, "I don't like her either, Daddy, she stepped on my toe and I pinched her."

"Just what have you done for humanity," asked the judge before pronouncing sentence on the pickpocket. "Well," said the pickpocket, "I've kept three or four de-tectives working regularly."

NOTES FROM

"The Challenge of the Retarded Child" by Sister Mary Theodore, O.S.F., is one of the new titles of books in Muenster's City Library.

For more than 30 years Sister Theodore has worked with retarded children at Coletta School for Exceptional Children in Jefferson, Wisconsin. Thus she is qualified to discuss the problems of these "Angels of God" with great sympathy and understanding.

Sister points out the need for special guidance so the retarded may become as responsible, helpful and cooperative as possible.

This book is written with parents in mind, stressing the individuality of each child and emphasizing that each has been placed in this world by God with a specific purpose in mind.

The author writes in a conversational style, making it easy to read and to understand.

"My gal's beautiful — bleached hair, green eye shadow, black mascara, pink rouge, red lipstick. . . ."
"What's her name, Cowboy?"
"I call her Old Paint."

Deadline Set for ASC Program on Seeding, Sodding

May 2, 1960 has been established as the final date for requesting assistance for the sodding and seeding of all grasses under the 1960 program with the exception of waterways. May 15 is the final date for completing seeding and reporting completion of this practice to the ASC Office. The producers should keep the above date in mind for making application if they plan to carry out these practices.

In submitting prior approvals and applications for payment, the producers should be sure to enter the number of acres that they have completed under the practice in the extent performed column of the prior approval. The county office has received a number of prior approvals with this column left blank. An extra mailing of the prior approval to the producers is then required for this entry.

A number of prior approvals have been received without the sales receipts attached. These approvals cannot be accepted unless the sales receipt is attached. These receipts must show the number of pounds and the cost of the seed and if the material used is based on a pure live seed basis the receipt must show the germination and purity. Receipts for bermuda grass must show the number of cubic feet of sprigs.

Ray Laux Home Is

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Laux at Lindsay was the gathering place for an Easter reunion with dinner, and an egg hunt for the youngsters.

Together for the party with the hosts and their children were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Owen and Billy and Henriette of Fort Worth, her brothers and their wives, the Gene Owens and two children of Jacksboro and the Dan Owens of Fort Worth, her uncle and aunt, the Ray Owens and her grandmother, Mrs. Joe Pautler of Muenster.

Deep in gloom over prospects of his business, he told his friend, "The thing that worries me most is that I can't eat — haven't touched a bite the last two days."

"Well, keep me company at lunch anyway," urged the friend, hopeful he could at least persuade him to take enough nourishment for survival.

To his astonishment, the gloomy fellow ordered an inch-thick steak and several heaped side-dishes.

"I thought you couldn't eat," said the friend.

"Couldn't," came the reply. "I'm broke."

Superintendent

I am thirty-three years old, married, and have three children. All decisions and actions that I will make, if elected, will be my own and subject only to the communities and rural schools concerned. I am looking for a place to grow in school work and gain experience. I am not being run by anyone.

Having been a teacher for nine years, I am well acquainted with the problems of both teachers and parents. I believe that our rural schools add to the desirability of our county, and I would consider it a privilege to help them grow.

I am a graduate of Texas A & M and will finish my master's work in Administrative Education at North Texas State this summer. I already have a professional superintendent's certificate from the Texas Education Agency.

I served two years with the Navy during World War II and am presently a reserve Lieutenant (Senior Grade) with a squadron at NAS Dallas. I am a deacon and a Sunday School teacher in our church and a life long resident of Cooke County.

I will always keep an open door and open mind to everyone and would appreciate your vote and influence.

"If fishing requires the same mad pace that our daily routine requires, it provides little recreational value."

"The best example of successful fishing that we know of is the small boy or the man who sits happily dangling a hook from a country bridge or a shady bank. They may not have boats and fine tackle, they may not catch any fish, but their relaxed attitude is right, and they're having fun. The secret of successful fishing is not catching fish, but taking it easy."

up current business for any dealer, would require 50,000 square feet of floor space for a dealer with accompanying high costs for overhead, rental and maintenance.

By having a satellite warehouse in every major market area, complete stocks of all items can be maintained and made available to all dealers in the area.

The Columbus depot, embracing some 700,000 square feet of floor space, has just been completed and its opening permitted completion of the depot system. Adjacent to the Westinghouse appliance plant (largest in the world under one roof), it is linked directly to the assembly lines by automatic conveyors.

Very shortly highly complex computers, now on order, will keep track of every single product in the vast chain. Dealer orders are fed into the intricate teletype network that practically connect them with the factory assembly lines. The computer will match the order with the depot inventory.

A similar system has been set up by Westinghouse to speed delivery of repair parts to dealers and service organizations.

Westinghouse Depot System to Speed Deliveries

Faster delivery and savings in shipping and handling costs are the results of a gigantic depot system just opened by Westinghouse Electric Corporation. The depot chain should mean greater values for Westinghouse customers, company officials believe.

Based on two huge depots and dozens of smaller warehouses located strategically throughout the country, the depot system has just gone into operation.

Key to the streamlined appliance delivery service are the two mammoth depots — one just completed at Columbus, Ohio, serving Westinghouse dealers from the Atlantic to the Rockies, and another near Ogden, Utah, already serving 11 western states. These two and the satellite warehouses in nearly every state are linked by high-speed teletype and computer network.

DEPOT SPURS SALE

Taking advantage of the savings possible with the new Westinghouse depot system, Community Lumber Co. is planning a special Westinghouse sale.

The event is scheduled for April 28th through May 31st and will feature the complete line of Westinghouse major appliances, television and stereo-fidelity products.

The complete system embraces more than 3,000,000 square feet of appliance storage area.

Westinghouse officials explained that the company manufactures some 20 different major appliances, television and high fidelity items. These have from three to 20 different models of each and make up more than 350 different individual products.

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET DRIVE IT! GET OUR DEAL!!!!

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:

Practically flat floor . . . real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride. Rear-engine traction . . . that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels.

You probably realize already that the mileage figures Corvairs recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the cars meet every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.

An Easter egg hunt for some 30 little cousins was a gay event on Easter Monday when Mrs. Andy Arendt entertained at the family home. The children's mothers were guests and so were the Clem Reiters of Muenster and Mrs. Paul Arendt Sr.

Prizes went to Janie Arendt for finding the most eggs, to Janet Arendt who was a close second, and to Sheila Arendt who found the golden egg.

Games followed the hunt and refreshments concluded the party.

Henry Zimmerers Hosts at Reunion

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerer was the scene of a family reunion on Easter, the 30 guests enjoying a barbecue chicken menu prepared by the hosts in their out door living room.

Special guest was Mrs. Zimmerer's mother, Mrs. John Wilde, visiting from Harlingen who returned to her home Monday after a week's vacation.

Others present were the Paul and Tony Walterscheids and their families from Muenster, the Johnny Baileys and two daughters of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mages III and two sons of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hess and two children.

Sandmann Home Is Reunion Scene

Together for the reunion were the Herman Stoffels, Pat Hennigans and Tony Rohmers and their families of Muenster, the Edward Sandmanns, the John Louis Hess family, Paul Sandmann and Jake Boeskin visiting from Downey, Calif.

Stopping in for an afternoon visit were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidtkofer, visitors from Hanford, Calif., and Sister Mary Olive of Ennis who were holiday guests of the John P. Neu family.

LITTLE NIPPER—It looks as if this London zoo keeper has a painful surprise in store with a cuddly Syrian bear cub apparently ready to take a nip out of him. But the baby bear, only a few weeks old, was only kidding.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann entertained at their home Sunday with an Easter egg hunt for their grandchildren, then supper for the Diamond Fuhrmann, Harold Nortman and Ray Hess families.

William Flusche, on a holiday recess from classes at Stephenville, joined his parents and family, the Bill Flusches at a family reunion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sicking at Myra for Easter. Others from here attending were Mrs. Bill Eberhart and family and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerer and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dieter of Dallas divided their holiday visiting time between their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Val Dieter and Mrs. Joseph Hundt. Joining them at the Hundt home for a visit were the Al Hess family of Muenster and the Joe and Gregory Hundt families.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hermes had their out-of-town children at home for the holidays. Mary Margaret came from Fort Worth and Leonard was on vacation from Dallas.

Rosemary Hermes, president of the Lindsay senior girls 4-H club, teamed with Janice Vogel of Muenster, will be in Denton Saturday competing in district contests. They'll present their dairy foods demonstration "Ice Cream Pie" on which they were winners in county competition. In the annual Dress Revue for 4-H clubbers Rosemary made a score of 92 on a blue Easter dress she made and modeled and received a blue ribbon award.

CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks to Father Alcuin and Father Lane, to the Sisters, to classmates and many friends for the cards, letters, masses and remembrance in prayer during the recent illness and hospitalization of our son Michael. We are grateful for every kindness.

Henscheid Family Marks Anniversary At Easter Reunion

Among happy holiday reunions was one for the Henry Henscheid family who gathered in Fort Worth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Darlek. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henscheid were special guests for the day, their children and grandchildren helping them celebrate their 32nd wedding anniversary. There was a handsome cake. The youngsters present had a party of their own, with an Easter egg hunt.

Joining the hosts and the honorees and Janie were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid and children from here, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Metzler and sons of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. John Kelley and son of Fort Worth. Mrs. Kelley and Jeff spent a ten day vacation here while her husband was away from home on business and returned to Fort Worth with her parents.

Joe Schad Family Has Get-Together

Easter at the Joe Schad home in Gainesville found most of the couple's children and grandchildren present for a reunion dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felderhoff and family went from here, Capt. and Mrs. Paul Schad and son Tommy came from Topeka, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whittaker and four children attended from Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Naughton and three children joined them from Gainesville.

Planning to be present but telephoning regrets were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schad and five children of Dallas. Measles invaded their home and kept them there.

Off by air Wednesday after a holiday visit at home and attendance at their niece's wedding Monday were Harry Fisher of St. Bernard's, Ala., and Mrs. Clem Fladung of Longmont, Colo.

the UN out of the US."

There's plenty of good reason behind that attitude. The very first is that it was officially set up as a Godless organization. To please the Soviets weak kneed countries, including our own, agreed to snub God by eliminating the old Christian custom of opening official meetings with prayer. And what of its record? Instead of guarding world peace and welfare it has permitted, even aided, the enslavement of hundred of millions of people by communism. It has been from the beginning and it remains today the tool of communism. It has made this country a sucker, paying the lion's share of UN bills and carrying most of the military burden . . . also sacrificing most of the men . . . in its farcical campaigns of maintaining world peace.

There's more good reason for getting it out of the U.S. From its very beginning the UN has been headquarters for Soviet spies and saboteurs. It has caused us nothing but trouble.

Our country should not only heed the advice of General Clark. It should go farther and encourage every self respecting nation to pull out also, then proceed with the organization of a Freedom bloc of nations dedicated to the restoration of peace and human dignity throughout the world. As a Christian nation in our position of world leadership we have a sacred duty to take a stand on God's side and call for the cooperation of all who cherish the same ideals.

Lindsay News

Lindsay's annual homecoming date has been set for June 19 and the word is being sent around to former residents and to relatives and friends of members of St. Peter's Parish. Initial program plans were made and the date slated at a meeting of parish societies the past week. Committees are being lined up to take charge of the various details.

Lambert Hess joined his family by long-distance telephone Sunday when he called the Henry Hess residence from Fort Knox, Ky., where he is serving with the National Guard. Everybody talked. Lambert added that he is looking forward to May 15 when he gets a two-week leave to spend at home.

Californians Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidtkofer, formerly of Lindsay, are back for a month's vacation with relatives and friends in Cooke County. They have been living in California about 18 years. Their home is in Hanford. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hess and her visiting cousins enjoyed seeing old friends in Muenster Monday when they attended the parish picnic.

All of the Tony Hermes family was together for a few hours on Easter Sunday when Soldiers Cecil and Cyril Hermes dropped in unexpectedly. The twin brothers had just been transferred from San Antonio to Fort Sill. As yet they have not been assigned at their new station. They had to leave before they could join the rest of the family in a reunion at their grandmother's home in Muenster. Mark Hermes of Subiaco, Ark., had a recess from classes for the holidays making the family circle complete while the twins were there.

H. J. Zimmerer is back at home since Tuesday after spending four days in Gainesville Sanitarium as a medical patient. Home for the holidays because their daddy was sick were Sister Mary Rose of Rowena, Sister Herman Mary of Broussard, La., Sister Barbara James of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Betzen and two children of Hereford.

Holiday visitors with Mike Fuhrmann at Gainesville Sanitarium and with all the relationship in Muenster and Lindsay were Mr. Fuhrmann's daughter and grandson, Mrs. George Hartman and son Paul of Elmhurst, Ill. A treat for Mr. Fuhrmann on Easter was permission to leave the hospital for a drive and a visit with his family. The doctors haven't said when he will be dismissed from the Sanitarium.

Holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Friske were their daughter and family, the Barney Sandmanns and Stevie of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nortman were hosts for a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nortman on their wedding anniversary Easter Sunday. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hermes.
