

CONFETTI
CON FETTE

A topic that's already getting monotonous, though, apparently, we're destined to hear a lot more of it, is the one pertaining to a Catholic's fitness to serve as president of the United States.

From the volume of static already generated by this subject we are inclined to wonder how much is based on sincere conviction, how much on prejudice, how much on the ugly and subversive motive of stirring up religious friction in this country.

We have no doubt that all three help to account for the current hassle. There are people who constantly fret over the pope's influence and prestige and the possibility that he may some time find willing tools to impose some of his ideas on us. While mustering all their alertness against fast deals that might be slipped over by Rome, they remain blissfully blind to the tricks of Moscow. They are determined that no Catholic child shall receive tax money toward its education, but they think our government is out of line when it denies public funds to young communists who refuse to pledge their loyalty to this country.

Incidentally, do you recall reports a few months ago of the several big Eastern colleges that arrogantly declined federal aid rather than demand an oath of loyalty from the students receiving it? One of these schools has just completed a drive for $82.5 million, made up in part by fat contributions from public men who apparently were not influenced by the school's twisted attitude on loyalty. Yes, there are people who worry about infiltration of the state by the church but don't bother about infiltration by communism.

The really tragic side of this absurd situation is that they base their fear of Catholics strictly on their unfounded opinion while overlooking solid facts which should justify an intense fear of communism. The records are there, plain for anyone to see, without a single instance of any of hundreds of Catholic office holders who attempted to sell out their country. On the other hand there are many instances of red agents in high position who sold out to Moscow.

If the facts of recent history are not sufficient, more food for thought can be gathered from our country's early days. Those who fear Romanism might be imposed on them ought to check back to the origin of religious freedom in America, when Lord Baltimore, in the predominantly Catholic colony of Maryland, decreed that each person would be permitted to practice freely the religion of his choice.

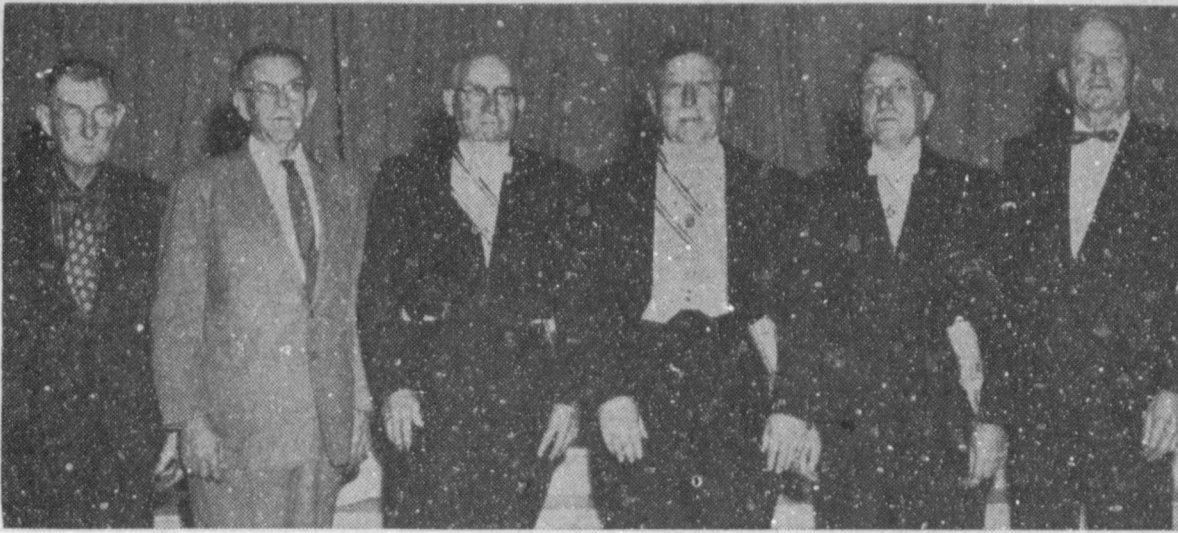

Likewise on the basis of service, Catholics have earned the right to equal and unbiased recognition. Records of our wars show that their representation in uniform exceeded their representation in the country's population. And they had their full share of men who served with distinction and died with honor. There was no discrimination against allowing them to share their nation's responsibilities.

An outstanding case of such heroic service was related a few weeks ago as an editorial in U. S. News and World Report, a reprint of an article appearing in Reader's Digest of August 1944. It is the epic story of a young naval officer's personal heroism and devotion far beyond the call of duty during the few days after his small boat had been destroyed by a Japanese ship. The ordeal he endured in his efforts to save the small group of survivors distinguishes him as one of the truly great heroes of the war. That man is the present Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, whose eligibility for the Presidency is challenged because he is a Catholic. Editor David Lawrence heads the reprint "Ineligible for the Presidency?" and introduces it with the question: "Is it possible that many Americans consider as ineligible for the Presidency the young naval lieutenant whose heroism is described here?"

The answer is self evident. Anyone who renders that kind of service to his country does not deserve to have his loyalty questioned. Who of all the contestants can claim that he is more entitled or more eligible to his country's highest position?

Plainly it's a violation of SIX CHARTER MEMBERS of the original forty five were present and received 50 year pins at the golden jubilee observance of the Muenster K of C council. They are H. M. Schmitz, W. H. Endres, L. A. Bernauer, Joe Fisher Sr., J. C. Trachta and Ben Luke.

Religious and Social Program Marks Golden Anniversary of Muenster KCs

With ceremony and festivity the Muenster Knights of Columbus last Sunday observed the golden jubilee of the founding of their council.

The celebration started at 11 o'clock with a Pontifical High Mass celebrated by The Most Rev. Bishop Augustine Dangelmayr of Dallas, assisted by Fathers Christopher Paladino, Martin Fischer and Bruno Fuhrmann of Muenster, Father Alcuin Kubis of Lindsay and the Sacred Heart Choir. Fourth Degree KCs in full dress were there as the bishop's honor guard.

In his jubilee sermon Father Martin reminded the Knights that origin and growth of their order was founded on charity, and its future success will be proportionate to their practice of that virtue. He further pointed out that this applies on the local as well as the global level, that the council should be alert to the needs of less fortunate people at home while participating in the more extensive program of the national headquarters.

After mass some 250 knights, ladies and guests assembled in the parish dining hall for their jubilee banquet. Headliner for that event was Past State Deputy Reynaldo G. Garza of Brownsville. He said that the order can recall with pride its glorious service to God and Country, but it faces a much greater assignment in the challenge of the future . . . that of preserving Christianity and human dignity by resisting the spread of communism. Reds have predicted, he said, that America, after years of subtle indoctrination, would fall into communist hands like an over-ripe fruit. The mission of the Knights of Columbus is to counter with Christian principles, which will not only defeat the communist plan but help bring our country nearer to God.

Honored guests at the banquet were the charter members and their wives and widows. Of the 45 who are listed on the charter, sixteen are still living and nine are still members of the local council. Six of them, Joe Fisher Sr., H. M. Schmitz, W. H. Endres, Ben Luke, L. A. Bernauer and J. C. Trachta, were present to receive honorary 50 year pins from Grand Knight Patrick Hennigan. The three others were unable to attend because of illness and received their pins in absentia. They are W. T. Richter, John Fette and Henry Fette.

Grand Knight Hennigan also introduced visitors and the council's officers and extended the council's thanks to all who had a part in the program, particularly Mrs. Joe Lehnertz for supervising the dinner, Mrs. Nick Miller for decorations, and Eddie Fleitman for dinner music.

Others who participated in the program were Herbert Meurer, who extended the Welcome and served as master of ceremonies, Bishop Dangelmayr, who spoke briefly and also gave the invocation and benediction, and Father Christopher, who spoke briefly.

After the banquet the celebration transferred to the K of C hall. Three events featured the festivities there: an afternoon concert by the Sacred Heart Choir and the Eric Hanza Bohemian Band of Ennis, a barbecue supper, and a dance in the evening.

Rural Fire Calls Outnumber City's 28-19 in 2 Years

During the past two years the Muenster fire department has answered more calls and done more work outside the city than in the city.

A report submitted to the city council by City Superintendent Steve Moser shows that 28 rural fire calls have been answered as compared with 19 city calls.

In 1959 the truck made ten rural runs, nine for grass fires and one for a building. Meanwhile it made eleven runs in the city, nine for grass fires, one for a building and one for an oil rig.

During the dry year of 1958 the firemen had 17 rural calls for grass fires and one call for a burning car. In the city they went to five grass fires and three building fires.

The city's total revenue for rural fire runs during the two years was $337.50. In 1959 it received $100 from the county and $25 from landowners. In 1958 it received $175 from the county and $37.50 from landowners.

Total insurance losses reported from fires within the city limits were $173.98 in 1959 and $500.40 in 1958.

Lively Election Awaits Lindsay Voters on Jan. 26

A lively election with a full slate of candidates will launch Lindsay's history as a municipality. At last Friday's deadline for filing in its first election of a town council, the ballot had two candidates for mayor, three for town marshal and eleven for the five alderman positions.

The list of candidates is as follows. For mayor: Joe Bezner Jr., and Ferd Albers. For marshal: Wilford Bengfort, Raymond Laux and George Moser. For aldermen: Nick Block, Paul Hellinger, Frank Haverkamp Jr., A. I. Kubis, Adolph Fuhrmann, Joe Bengfort, Anton Laux, Pete Block, Joe Sandmann, Al Bengfort, and Jake Bezner.

The election is set for next Tuesday. In deciding the date people of Lindsay and County Judge Fletcher rushed to get it booked in January while 1958 poll tax receipts were still valid. Beginning February 1 the new poll tax receipts are in use, but several days of delay would have been necessary for the tax office personnel to compile the new list of eligible voters. Another reason for the rush is that short terms of office would have been made even shorter. Another election has to be held in April in accordance with the state's municipal regulations.

Henry S. Fuhrmann will serve as election judge at Lindsay's first town election.

Post Office Swaps Museum Piece for Modern Mail Box

Something new at the post office this week is a large, blue and red regulation receiving box for letters and small parcels. Standing on the sidewalk just north of the post office entrance, it replaces the small cast iron box that used to be mounted on the wall to the left of the door.

There's a story behind the change of boxes. Months ago, the Post Office Department inquired about possible museum pieces and Arthur Endres suggested the old box, which apparently has been here for fifty years, and may have been old before it got here. So the department arranged a swap, a modern box for the relic.

In calling attention to the new box Postmaster Endres encourages its use. It's there to receive letters any time of the day or night, and it's always emptied a few minutes before dispatching time . . . a real convenience to those who care to use it.

Death Cheated in Tractor Accident

Twenty-five-year-old Jerry Hoinig had an experience Monday afternoon that few have and live to tell about. A heavy tractor turned over on him and pinned him to the ground for at least a half hour until help came to free him. Through it all he never lost consciousness. The soft mud is credited with saving his life . . . by allowing him to sink in rather than being crushed.

Here's how it happened: Jerry, who is a farmer and dairyman, was feeding his cattle, about 4 o'clock, using a small tractor to haul hay. The tractor became stuck and he hitched a big tractor to it to pull it out. In the process of pulling the large machine somersaulted backward and fell on him. As it went over he cut off the ignition.

What seemed like a long time later — but was really about a half hour — Ed Sicking passed the Hoinig place, noticed the tractor with its wheels in the air, and stopped at the house to inquire.

After putting in a call for a winch truck and to summon help, Mr. Sicking and Jerry's young wife ran to the accident scene and dug furiously, first with a hay fork and then with their bare hands in the mud. Wilfred Sicking and Gus Lutkenhaus helped in the final minutes of dig-out and had the victim freed before the wrecker arrived. Lutkenhaus took Hoinig to a Gainesville doctor's office for examination. Nothing serious showed up. The only injuries are a blistered right arm from seeping gasoline and some body burns from battery acid.

School Tax Office Provides for Rush To Beat Deadline

Expecting a late rush for payment of school taxes before the delinquent penalty becomes effective, members of the school board Tuesday night decided to have their tax office open for extra hours next week. The deadline is January 30.

The office will be open Thursday and Saturday in addition to the three regular days . . . that is all of next week except Tuesday. Hours will be 9 to 4.

Taxpayers are urged to come as soon as possible and avoid a late rush. While there they are also urged to render their property for taxation next year.

Bank Will Accept Poll Tax Payment

People of Muenster have the opportunity again to secure their poll taxes without making a trip to the court house.

The procedure, as usual, is to fill out an application and pay the $1.75 at Muenster State Bank. Application and money are sent to the tax office, which fills out the poll tax receipt and sends it directly to the person concerned.

One detail should be remembered, says Earl Fisher, vice-president. The bank closes at noon Saturday, so the deadline for paying at the bank is earlier than at the tax office. Furthermore, the deadline of January 31 falls on Sunday this year, so the actual deadline is Saturday, the 30th.

Persons who owe a poll tax are those who were between the ages of 21 and 60 before January 1, 1959. A person whose 21st birthday fell on or after that date is not required to pay the tax but must secure an exemption certificate showing his eligibility to vote.

Since a person becomes qualified to vote on his or her 21st birthday, an exemption can be secured in advance to become effective on the birthday.

Over-age exemptions apply to persons who reached their 60th birthdays before January 1, 1959. If the birthday fell on or after that date a person is required to pay poll tax for the year.

Over-age voters of this community do not have to secure a certificate of exemption . . . in accordance with a state law which requires certificates only in cities of 10,000 population or higher. In smaller localities it is assumed that the person is known by election personnel and does not have to furnish proof of his identity or age.

A record number of poll tax receipts and exemptions is

Windthorst Loses 6 Classrooms in High School Fire

All the classrooms of Windthorst's comparatively new high school building were lost early Tuesday morning in a fire that completely destroyed that part of the building. A faulty heater is believed to have been the cause.

Firemen from near-by towns saved a wing that included the gymnasium, library and cafeteria.

Loss in the fire has been estimated at $120,000, some of it covered by insurance. Cost of the complete building when constructed in 1954 was $150,000, and many additions have been made since then.

Students got only one holiday as a result of the fire, however. Classes were resumed Wednesday in the gymnasium and lunchroom and the adjoining elementary building.

Firemen came from Jacksboro, Olney, Henrietta, Archer City and Sheppard AFB to fight the blaze.

County Attorney L. V. Henry authorized the Enterprise this week to announce his candidacy for re-election in the coming Democratic Primary. He will submit his formal statement to Cooke County voters in a later edition of the Enterprise.

Two Collections Slated Here for March of Dimes

The New March of Dimes campaign is under way here in Muenster with coin banks up in business houses, posters displayed all over town, and benefit events planned by the VFW Auxiliary, sponsors of the drive with Dorothy Swirczynski, Auxiliary president, as general chairman.

Church door collections are scheduled for Sunday following all masses in Sacred Heart Church, a sock hop for teens is set for the following Sunday, Jan. 31, a porch light drive will be conducted by Muenster High FHA Chapter members next Tuesday, January 26, and envelopes have been delivered to both schools for all the students.

With the coin envelopes are cards with five questions for parents to answer, if they will. They ask if anyone in the house has arthritis, or a physical defect, has anyone had polio, how many are in the family, and how many have had three or more polio shots. This information helps the National Foundation establish a program for dealing with these problems in each community.

The New March of Dimes helps fight polio, virus diseases, arthritis and birth defects. It supports the National Foundation for medical research to prevent crippling disease, medical care to prevent disease crippling and professional education to train disease fighters.

Mrs. Joe Tempel Gets Appointment As City Secretary

Mrs. Joe Tempel is the new full time city secretary appointed to take over the duties of several part time employees. She was employed by the city council Monday night and will start work on February 1.

She will relieve Anthony Luke as city secretary, Mrs. Steve Moser as treasurer, and Mrs. Nick Miller as tax assessor-collector besides taking over the water department's job of preparing monthly bills and the bank's job of collecting them.

This means that after February 1 people can pay taxes, and also render for the next year, at the city hall. Water bills paid in person are also to be paid at the city hall. Those who wish can pay by mail or arrange to have the secretary draw on their bank accounts.

Instructor Lauds Exceptional Class For Sales Course

A group that was exceptional both in community representation and class participation reported last week for the four day course in "Dynamics of Selling" conducted by Francis Flynn of the University of Texas Extension Service.

Twenty eight completed the course and will receive their certificates by mail from the extension service. Total enrollment was 32 but some were not able to attend all the sessions.

The group was unusually large for a community of this size, Flynn said. Normally there are about half as many, and some larger towns have had classes of only 10 or 12. Class interest was also very encouraging.

ANTI-TRUST LAWS FOR UNIONS

The following editorial is reprinted from The American Press:

"During the next few months there will undoubtedly be a flood of suggestions for dealing with management-labor relations. The tremendous losses to workers, manufacturers, government and the public resulting from the steel strike cannot help but lead to fervent demands for legislation to prevent repetition.

"In the editorials of the newspapers of the country, we have read many proposals for dealing with the situation. But we have read none that make more sense than the seemingly simple answer of making anti-trust laws applicable to labor as well as to management.

"The anti-trust laws were enacted in the first place to prevent industry from ganging up on labor and the public and taking unfair advantage of the power which could be wielded by building monopolies.

"Now the shoe seems to be on the other foot. Business and the public now need similar protection against labor. For it seems just as dangerous for labor to form tremendous, industry-wide unions, which are in a position to break the back of industry and inflict hardship on the public, as it would be to permit industries to form monopolies.

"When bigness reaches monopoly proportions, history has taught us that it must be broken up."

IMMUNITY A ONE-WAY STREET

Not only is it becoming less and less fashionable to be a patriotic American — it is becoming downright dangerous. It seems that America is carrying the State Department's "turn the other cheek" policy to the point of national cowardice. Just check the news reports.

In Washington, a pipsqueak from Iran, the son of the director of exchange students at the embassy, slaps an American girl, then hides behind diplomatic immunity. In New York, the son of the Irish Ambassador kills an American woman in an auto accident, and is protected by diplomatic immunity. A United Nations functionary from overseas crashes his car and kills an American woman pedestrian in New York, and again diplomatic immunity is the refuge.

Apparently the immunity is a one-way street, for when an American Marine is savagely beaten in India by Communist Chinese, the lace hanky lads in the State Department are aflutter, writing a "strong note." Other Red Chinese attempt to steal American documents, and again nothing is done. Red Russians slaughter American airmen on official flights over Europe, and our "leaders" chit-chat with the Soviets about it — over cocktails of course.

Where is "diplomatic immunity" for American boys sent against their will to protect apathetic nations unwilling to protect themselves? When they step ashore in a NATO country, they are stripped of their Constitutional rights as Americans, and are subject to the same Old World laws their forebears fought to escape.

A GI in France served years in solitary confinement for stealing a French taxicab. A Yank in Japan was tried for his life for the accidental killing of a Japanese woman — he was on official duty, and she was on ground barred to civilians. Throughout the world, the picture is the same. America insulted in Cuba, trouble in Panama (accelerated by the "Goodwill" trip statements attributed to Milton Eisenhower), the stoning of Nixon in South America. Isn't it time Uncle Sam decided he's had enough? Or is he officially afraid? Americans have the right to know. Montrose, Calif., Ledger

IGNORANCE IS A WEAPON

Economic ignorance can be about as dangerous a weapon as an atom bomb. It leads to beliefs, attitudes and demands that could ultimately eat away the foundations on which this kind of country and this kind of government rest.

For instance, polls have shown that large numbers of employes have an unbelievably mistaken idea of what happens to the money taken in by corporations. They think that only 25 per cent of corporation income goes to employes — and 75 per cent to the owners.

The truth is that of all the money in a corporation going to employes and owners, the employes get 87 per cent and the owners 13 per cent.

A breakdown of total national income also produces some significant facts. Two thirds — 66 1/2 per cent — is received by employes. Pro-record books and demonstration. She is vice president of the Gainesville Girls 4-H Club.

4-H Champions Back from Chicago

On her Chicago award trip she was the guest of Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co.

Canning expert for 1959 is Miss Kolar.

Junior and recreation leader, this eight-year 4-H'er is county council secretary and past president of the McLennan County 4-H Club. She also was named county Gold Star 4-H Club Girl.

She plans to attend North Texas State College as a major in home economics, then become a home demonstration agent.

Her Chicago trip was provided by the Kerr Glass Mfg. Corp. The Cooperative Extension Service directs 4-H activities.

A Sinking Ship

Professional people, farmers, landlords and others get a share of the remainder. Owner-stockholders are well down the list, with six per cent. Then, of that six per cent, about 2 1/2 per cent, on the average, is retained in the business for expansion, machinery and similar uses.

The people who use the tools of industry get the big share of industry's earnings. The people whose savings provide the tools get a far, far smaller share. And that is one of the reasons why capitalism has provided the highest mass living standards ever known.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reports that the annual cost of crime in the United States amounts to approximately $128 for every person in the nation, or $506 for every family.

American families, on the average, spend 22 per cent of their income on food. But they could duplicate their 1935-39 food purchases for 16 per cent of their income if they could be satisfied with the same foods they were buying then. Modern-day housewives demand foods and services unheard of a decade or so ago.

Washington news columnist Peter Edson recently offered to publish the names of all candidates receiving campaign contributions from the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE). The reply from COPE: "We don't publicize whom we give money to. It would be dynamite in some agricultural districts if it was known we supported certain candidates."

OUR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION

By James P. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor

There is turmoil in our educational system. There is equal turmoil among its critics and defenders. I am not a professional educator, but I have a great professional interest in the proper use of human resources. And I have some serious misgivings about a school system that overlooks the three major requirements for full education—discipline, excellence and faith.

APPARENTLY our schools are trying not to frighten anyone. They don't want to frighten the parents by disciplining the children. They don't want to frighten the children by proposing long hours of arduous work. They don't want to frighten the school boards by suggesting a weeding out of useless courses. As a result they fail to come to grips with the basics of education.

You cannot educate without somehow linking the student, binding him to his own social and spiritual and intellectual inheritance—to his culture. And in order to make that essential connection, the mind of the student has to be made capable of understanding.

IN MY DAY we did not have million-dollar educational plants with super gymnasiums and fluorescent blackboards and rule by the will of a child. All we had were comparatively dingy little rooms ruled by good teachers who knew what their purpose was.

One educates, if one is going to educate at all, the entire person—with full acknowledgement of man's spiritual soul.

Education is not entertainment; it is difficult work with great rewards. Any education, for example, that fails to provide a student with some basis for belief, some respect for authority, and some reverence for his own tradition is a failure.

IF OUR CHILDREN are agnostic, disrespectful and irreverent it is because we have failed to teach them otherwise. They might turn out to be first-rate technicians and high-class engineers and marvelous businessmen who make breathtaking fortunes—but they will still be agnostic, disrespectful, and irreverent—incomplete men and women—poor citizens.

To teach a man or woman the values that should govern his life is more important than teaching them the prices of things. It has been said that a cynic knows the price of everything and the value of nothing. And in the same way far too many of our students in this country know the facts about everything and the meaning of nothing.

THESE THREE things—excellence, discipline and faith—are the very business of education.

Candidates are 12 girls from the freshman class. Parents and friends are being invited to attend the ceremony.

In other discussions the girls and their advisor, Mrs. H. H. Homsely, made tentative plans for the annual Parents Banquet which will be an event in March.

The chapter also outlined plans for its Porch Light Drive in connection with March of Dimes campaign here and set Tuesday, Jan. 26, for that activity.

The group met in the Homsely home with Judy Cain, president, presiding.

Lu Ann Reiter and Theresa Fisher Win Homemaker Honors

Muenster has two 1960 winners of the Betty Crocker award this year, one in each school.

Sacred Heart High's senior home economics girls entered the contest for the first time this year and Lu Ann Reiter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Reiter, claimed the honor. At Muenster High, where senior girls have participated in the contest for several years, Theresa Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, secured the title.

Both received the highest scores, in their respective school, in a 50-minute written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating senior girls. Each will receive an award pin manufactured by Jostens and representing the slogan, "Home is where the heart is."

These examination papers will be submitted for competition with other high school winners to name the state Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The test, which was prepared and judged by Science Research Associates of Chicago, was taken by a record number of 379,018 girls in 12,597 schools, an increase of 29,868 girls and 337 schools over last year. Alaska and Hawaii participated for the first time this year.

Each state Homemaker of tomorrow will receive a $1500 scholarship and an educational trip with her school advisor in April. From states winners the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be announced. The runner-up in each state will receive a $500 scholarship and the school of each such winner will receive a set of Encyclopedia Britannica. The national winner will have her scholarship increased to $5,000.

Advisors for homemaking classes here are Sister Carmelita at Sacred Heart and Mrs. H. H. Hosley at Muenster Public School.

W. E. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hoenig and Mrs. Charlie Wimmer Jr. were in Dallas Monday attending a furniture show.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Trachta were attendants for the couple and others from here present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Wieler and Otto Walterscheid. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wamble attended from McKinney.

After the service the group had brunch in the Bamboo Room at the Tower and in the evening they were here for dinner in the Wieler home.

Marysville News

By Mrs. B. G. Lyons

MARYSVILLE — Mrs. Bill Moon is back at home after being in Gainesville at the home of her daughter and family, the Max Harrels, taking care of them while they were sick, then in turn being taken care while she was sick with the flu. She returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Nig Wilson and daughter Linda visited her mother, Hattie Burk at Myra Saturday and heard about Mrs. Burk's recent visit in Jackson, Mo., where she was the guest of her son and family, the M. F. Burks.

Albert Shaw has gone to Winooski to spend several weeks there on a building job.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Miller have returned to Texas and will make their home in Gainesville since his retirement after 29 years with Shell Oil Company, the past six years in Calgary, Canada. They have been visiting with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moon here and other relatives in Gainesville since their arrival by train Monday. Their new home is at 503 Whaley Drive in Gainesville and they will move as soon as their household furnishings arrive. Mr. Moon and Mrs. Miller are the only children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Moon. She is a Marysville girl and he formerly lived at Bulcher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richey, accompanied by their guest, their young nephew, Mark Barnes, visited Sunday in Gainesville with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cochran, and the two ladies who are twins, observed their birthday. In the afternoon the Richeys visited his aunt, Mrs. Bessie Gaston at the Sanitarium and also Mrs. Robert Richey and infant son John Allen who was born Sunday morning. The baby has a sister and two brothers.

Rev. Henry Mozingo was here Sunday to fill his regular appointment at the Baptist Church.

55 Million Homes Due to Receive '60 Census Forms

WASHINGTON.—A couple of do-it-yourself gimmicks to be used in this year's census will save the government considerable time.

The Census Bureau made public one of two do-it-yourself forms — a four-page item that will be mailed to the nation's 55,000,000 households late in March.

Householders will be asked to fill out this form before census takers make personal visits starting April 1. The census takers, officially called the enumerators, then will merely copy down the information instead of asking questions that might be difficult to answer on the spur of the moment.

The bureau tested this advance form last February in two North Carolina counties. It said use of the form cut the average visit of the census taker to seven minutes from about 15 minutes and produced more accurate information.

Basic questions on the advance form include: Names of all residents of the household, address, sex, color or race, date of birth, marital status number of rooms in the household, whether the dwelling is owned or rented and whether it has running water, plumbing and cooking facilities.

In addition, census takers will leave at every household a somewhat longer form asking more detailed questions about the dwelling and its residents.

Householders will be asked to fill it themselves and mail it promptly to the local census office. In past head counts, it took census takers about 20 minutes to get answers to this second set of questions. This time they will only have to copy down the answers after the forms are received by mail.

The advance form to be sent to all households carries a message from Census Director Robert W. Burgess which notes:

"The information that you are required to furnish is held confidential by law. Your census report can not be used for purposes of taxation, investigation or regulation."

Burgess also said the 1960 census will be the basis for reapportioning the 437 seats in the House of Representatives, which are assigned on the basis of population.

Final total population figures for each state must be sent to the President by Dec. 1, 1960. Preliminary totals for counties and places with 10,000 or more inhabitants will be announced by district offices much sooner, some by late April.

Field reports will be sent to an operations office at Jeffersonville, Ind., where they will be microfilmed before being forwarded to Washington for compilation by electronic computers.

The last big census was in 1950.

Local News BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kathman and their children and grandchildren over for a dinner party, a belated holiday gathering postponed because of illness. Present were the Stan Wylies and children of Lewisville — their youngsters recovered from chickenpox — and the W. E. Inseles and their children of Gainesville — with their son Eddie all right again after a fall that inflicted a head gash requiring nine stitches. For Jimmy Wylie it was a belated birthday observance. He was five years old on Jan. 13.

Spending the weekend at the Fischer Ranch as guests of Judge and Mrs. F. W. Fischer was a treat for Sandra and Debbie Cain. The Fischers are Sandra's godparents. Another guest, and adding to the fun, was the Fishers' granddaughter, Peachy Fisher of Dallas, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Fischer of that city. The couple and their granddaughter brought the Cain sisters home and visited here in the Dick Cain home.

Damian Hellman of Irving was among the more than 300 Dari-Cool dealers attending the Dairy Equipment Company national conference in Hotel Loraine at Madison, Wis., January 12, 13 and 14. A highlight of the meeting was a tour by chartered bus to the company's large, modern plants in Hartford and Madison.

Newlyweds Margie and William Martin Jr. have let her family, the J. P. Flusches, know that they had a happy honeymoon to California and are now settled in their home. Their address is 4225 Front St., Apt. 2, San Diego 2, California. He is stationed in San Diego with the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fisher were in San Antonio during the weekend attending a sales meeting. Others there and enjoying a visit together, were Bill Hess of Ardmore and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Schmitz of Gainesville. While the Fishers were away their children Chuckie and Nancie visited at the Paul Fisher farm and Dickie and Darnie stayed with their grandparents, the John Fishers.

Elementary Kids Divide 2 Games With Rad Ware

Weldon Holland's elementary cagers of Muenster Public School divided honors in a pair of games with Rad Ware last Thursday.

The opener was hotly contested for a 13-13 tie at half time, after which Muenster had a good third quarter and held on in the last period for a 28-22 win. Sandra Cain and Marilyn Golden led the scoring with 14 and 10.

Next the boys had a thriller. Muenster nudged to a 9-8 lead at the half and a 20-19 lead at the third period and went down as Rad Ware broke a 29-29 tie about 30 seconds before the end. The final count was 32-29. Allen Reiter hit 13 and Butch Hammer 8 to lead the Muenster scoring.

L. V. HENRY (Re-election)

Many Changes in New Election Law

If you plan to attend your Democratic precinct convention on May 7, you'd better vote in the first primary earlier that day and have your poll tax receipt stamped to show that you voted in the Democratic primary.

Otherwise, you'll be left out with no-say-so at the grass roots level of politics.

A new law in the state election code limits admission to precinct conventions to those who have a poll tax receipt stamped to show that they voted in the primary of the party whose convention they are attending.

This is just one of the changes noted in the state election law which steps up the filing deadline for the primary more than three months and advances the primary and runoff election dates.

Under the new state election law, the deadline for filing is Monday, February 1. The first primary and precinct conventions will be held on Saturday, May 7, and the runoff on Saturday, June 4.

That's the main reason that some candidates are getting out and hustling months early this year.

The county convention will be held on May 14. The state presidential convention, at which delegates to the nation convention are chosen, is slated for June 14, and the state governor's convention will be September 14.

Delegates elected at the county convention on May 14 will be delegates to both the presidential and the governor's conventions. Formerly the delegates were selected at two separate precinct meetings.

The delegation strength will be based next year as usual on the vote for governor in 1958. But in 1962, the delegation's size will be based on the votes for governor in the preceding presidential year.

Absentee voting has been tightened up. From now on, only sick and disabled voters will be able to receive absentee ballots by mail within the county where they live. This is believed to eliminate "solicitation" of absentee ballots.

Voters absent from the county can still vote by mail, but they must make application from outside the county of their residence.

SPARKS FOR MINDS

ALMOST five centuries ago, Gutenberg's invention of movable type started a revolution. It has been going on ever since.

For five times five centuries—and eons before—a few men were the privileged rulers—by accident of birth or of circumstance. The people were subjects, supporting those thus kept in authority.

However, movable type, by cutting the cost of printing, began the process of making knowledge more widely available. People's understanding then grew. Sparks of hope were awakened in the minds of men... When it became apparent to entrenched authority that permitting wide dissemination of information and ideas might in time destroy their sinecures, censorship was exercised.

In a search for greater freedom, men of many races and creeds crossed the ocean to establish homes on this continent. They and their children founded here a nation dedicated to a new principle: government by the people, and for the people. And knowing that liberty could be overthrown only by subduing freedom of speech and the press, they provided further that this basic freedom should never be abridged.

That system of government created an opportunity for all men to advance, limited only by their efforts. In but a few generations it won for this people a higher standard of living and of human welfare than had ever before been dreamed possible.

America's freedom of the press has proved to the world that the patriotic instinct of an informed plain people can be relied on to govern wisely and well.

Livestock prices go up and down, and it's a lucky man who is able to pick the time when his cattle bring the most.

But it's a cinch to pick the right place. Just bring them here... where prices consistently top the current market... where commission charges are lower... where your haul is shorter, saving you money on both hauling charge and shrinkage...

A roll of white reflector tape in the glove compartment of your car and truck is a worthwhile safety measure. If a headlamp burns out on the road and you have no spare bulb, reflector tape strips on the burned out lamp will at least show up in the headlights of any car you may meet. This will let the driver of that car know where both sides of your car may be. The tape will make your trip much safer until you can replace the bulb.

Peter Prescher's Herd Is On Top in DHIA Production

Peter Prescher's cows took top honors in both milk and butterfat production in the Cooke County Dairy Herd Improvement Association for December, according to the technicians' report for the month.

Prescher's herd led with an average of 1190 pounds of milk and 47 pounds of butterfat. H. H. Moody's cows were second in both categories with 1144 and 45 pounds, and third place was split between Ben Davis' herd which accounted for 1109 pounds of milk and Carl Kemplin's with 41 pounds of butterfat.

Other high herds included those belonging to Felderhoff and Sicking, Tommy Knabe, Paul Fisher, Charlie Fisher, Paul Fetsch, Paul and Mrs. Ben Sicking, and Jerry Hoening.

During the month 19 herds were tested. The average pounds of milk per cow was 871 and the average butterfat per cow was 42 pounds. There were 723 cows in the association with 603 in milk and 120 dry.

In state averages among 28 associations, Cooke County was tied for third spot in butterfat production for November — the last month available — with Wise County, at 33 pounds and was fourth in milk production with 839 pounds. Bureau Head Urges Poll Tax Payment

Cooke County Farm Bureau President Paul Fisher this week urged all county farmers and ranchers and their wives to be qualified to vote this year by paying their poll taxes. He reminded them that the deadline is January 31.

Individual participation in election of public officials is especially important this year since it is a presidential year, he said. He also said that there are important local, state and congressional offices to be filled.

"Therefore it is important that every citizen of voting age participate in the elections for the party of his choice, not only in casting a ballot but also at the precinct conventions, because it is on the precinct level that the policies of the party are initiated," he added.

Notes on Building and Improvement

Two new homes are on their way within the city limits. Foundation has just been poured for Ed Schneider's new 3-bedroom home on West Sixth. It will have central heating, attached garage, brick siding.

Also just starting is a new home for the Albert Schillings. Located in the 300 block of East Division, it will have 2 bedrooms, attached garage.

Three new homes have just been completed in the rural area. Mrs. Bruce Steadham, at Rosson, has a 3-bedroom house to replace the one she recently lost in a fire. Hardy Bullard of Era has just moved into his house, with three bedrooms and attached garage. And the Emmet Sickings are moving this week into their new house. It features three bedrooms, carport, central heating and extra bathroom.

A business building under way on east Highway 82 has been slowed down lately by bad weather, but should be finished in a few more weeks. It's a 50 x 100 structure of heydite tile partitioned into two separate locations, one of which was leased by Richard Grewing for a liquor store the other by Alphonse Felderhoff for a snack bar and on-premise consumption of beer and wine.

A new farm building just started is a 44 x 18 dairy barn for Herman Eberhart.

At Julian Walterscheid's farm home a new 30 x 40 welding and machine shop is nearing completion. It is of concrete tile and steel with fiberglass roof sections for added light.

An addition for Mrs. G. H. Hellman's mobile home is a 40 x 10 brick patio with banister of concrete tile under the aluminum awning at the east side. More concrete tile was used to build a foundation for the house. A finishing touch is a post light.

Recent home repair jobs include a new roof completed last Saturday on the Mrs. Ben Hellman house, paper and interior paint for Katie Hacker, and remodeling on the kitchen and bathroom at Alvin Cler's.

Parochial Cagers Nipped in Three Games this Week

The Tigers and Tigerettes of Sacred Heart High lost three straight in their basketball games of the week. Last Friday night the girls were edged 34-31 by Lady of Good Counsel of Dallas and Tuesday night both teams lost at Alvord, the girls by a count of 45-38 and the boys by 69-37.

At Dallas the Tigerettes ran close from beginning to end and fell short by only three points. They trailed 17-18 at the half. Joyce Hacker scored 13 and Danglemyr 12.

Alvord's strong final quarter spelled out their doom in the next game. At half time the Tigerettes led 19-18 and the lead changed several times in the third quarter, then Alvord pulled ahead for a final 7 point lead. Joyce and Helen Hacker scored 16 and 13 and Danglemyr scored 9.

In the boy's game Alvord made a slow start and led 24 to 18 at the half. Then the Bulldogs pulled away fast for the decisive count of 69-37. Streng was leading Tiger scorer with 11. Haverkamp and Wimmer were next with 10 each.

The teams see their next action at Fort Worth Thursday night, playing Laneri and OLV. Sunday they go to Ennis for games with St. John's.

justice and common sense to challenge the eligibility of any deserving and qualified presidential candidate on the basis of his religion. But it's being done, and we're due to see much more of it as long as Kennedy is a candidate. We still have many fuzzy thinkers who see imaginary dangers in the direction of Rome while blind to real dangers in the direction of Moscow. We still have people who cling to inherited prejudice, even though they don't know why. We have reds and fellow travelers who thrive on this opportunity to create religious strife. We have unscrupulous politicians who do not hesitate to play up any issue if it will influence a vote.

This is not intended as an endorsement of Kennedy for president. There are other possibilities whose political records and views are more appealing to this column. But it is intended as a denunciation of the unfairness and bigotry of challenging any candidate's eligibility on the basis of his religion.

MHS Rushes Grid Season to Avoid Rough Weather

Muenster High School's Hornets will start their 1960 football season early and end it early. Their first game is set for September 2, the earliest date allowed by Interscholar League regulations, and their last is set for November 4.

Announcing the schedule this week, Superintendent L. B. Bruns said that weather was the big factor in the decision. The school wants to finish as many games as possible while the weather is more pleasant, especially avoiding the last date which is usually rough on players and spectators alike.

Another reason was to give the team an earlier start in basketball practice or, in case they happen to win the district, a day of rest for the weekend preceding the bi-district game.

The slate consists of five games at home and five away from home. The home games include two Saturday dates, which, it is hoped, will result in attendance from other schools of the district. The first six games will start at 8 o'clock and the last four at 7:30.

Five of the games will be with other foes of District 12-B. They are with Sadler-Southmayd, Era, Valley View, Saint Jo and Callisburg. Absent from the schedule are two former conference foes, Alvord and Chico, who are now in another loop, and the Wichita Falls Rowdies. Two former opponents Whitesboro and Newcastle and the new 12-B member are taking their places.

The schedule is as follows:
Sept. 2, Pilot Point, here.
Sept. 9, Sanger, there.
Sept. 17, V'View (Wichita), here.
Sept. 23, Newcastle, here.
Sept. 30, S-S High at Sadler.
Oct. 7, Whitesboro, there.
Oct. 15, Era, here.
Oct. 21, V'View (Cooke), there.
Oct. 28, Saint Jo, there.
Nov. 4, Callisburg, here.

MHS Teams Split Twin Games with Lindsay, Saint Jo

Basketball teams at Muenster High won two and lost two in their games of the past week. The girls beat Saint Jo and lost to Lindsay, the boys beat Lindsay and lost to Saint Jo.

In the Panther's den last Friday night Muenster girls took a 9-4 half time lead and saw it slowly melt away in the next half until Saint Jo led by a single point, but another field goal gave Muenster its 20-19 lead. A foul at the final whistle gave Saint Jo a chance to win after time ran out. It was a one and one situation, a second shot if the first was good. But the first try failed and the count stood at 20-19. Fisher, Hellman and Dern were the MHS scorers with 9, 7 and 4 respectively.

In the next game the Panthers pulled ahead steadily for a 22-13 half time lead and a 60-36 win. Doug Hellman hit 20 for Muenster's top score.

Hosting Lindsay Tuesday night Muenster girls made a bad start for a 17-7 deficit at intermission, then failed by a point to take up the slack, leaving Lindsay with a 23-22
