VOLUME XII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY MARCH 26, 1948

NUMBER 18

There's profound wisdom behind the recommendation of a New England legislator that Congress recess for Good Friday and its members spend their time in church. According to him those few hours spent in prayer and meditation would be of greater value to the country than if spent in the usual round of arguments.

The man has lots of good horse sense in his remark. If all legislators made it a point to think seriously about Good Friday, about Christ and His suffering and the cause of His suffering, about His doctrines, which have become the foundation for Christian civilization and democratic government . . . if they concentrated on those facts for a while they might find themselves better oriented to think their way through the confusion of our times.

What's true of congressmen applies equally to the rest of us. Everybody ought to do a certain amount of "Good Friday thinking" in order to understand more about the basic truths which will make better Christians and better Americans of us.

In keeping with traditions of this community the mayor has proclaimed this Good Friday as a day of special reverence, and asks all business houses of the city to observe it by closing from 12 to 3.

As usual, many will spend that time in church. Others, no doubt, will show their traditional respect by keeping activity down to a minimum.

Will someone please explain what justification Mr. Bushy Brows Lewis has for instigating this latest coal miners' strike? When a person considers the compensation that miners already get, the question becomes rather difficult to answer.

Statistics indicate that coal miners already enjoy the most favorable contract labor has ever known. Pay is based on a standard rate of $13.05 per day amounting to average earnings of more than $75 a week. This average includes persons who were absent or worked a short week, hence those who really worked at their job received considerably more than $75.

A breakdown of payroll figures in one mine reveals that of 209 miners one earned over $700 a month, eleven earned over $600, 48 earned over $500, 91 got over $300 and only 22 received less than $300.

Pay like that, along with the many other concessions miners now receive, deserves more appreciation and cooperation. But Lewis apparently prefers to take a different view. He believes in using his monopolistic labor advantage for every hard bargain the traffic will bear.

The whole deal goes against our grain not only on general principles but also because of its indirect effect on the rest of us. Coal is a basic material and its cost affects the cost of countless items in everyday use. The labor dictator's demands in the end are levied on consumers. He isn't fooling anybody with that talk of making rich operators divvy up with his boys. To be more correct he should admit that he's demanding tribute of people who are less able to pay than the miners themselves.

The recommendation to return Trieste to Italy, the haste to put through the European Recovery Program, the steps to re-establish Selective Service, the efforts to re-organize a strong military force, are only some of the many indications that our country is getting ready for a show down with the communist monster of Moscow.

As a nation dedicated to the preservation of democratic government and Christian civilization we have unofficially served notice that we do not intend to permit further violation of human right and dignity to go unchallenged. Soon, we hope we'll get around to stopping communism under our very nose.

We have a wonderful set of ideals and a noble cause. And we also have a conglomeration of bungling methods that go far toward nullifying the effects of some very worthy efforts. By a misguided application of sacred principles we set up standards of unfairness, godlessness and corruption which are eagerly grasped by radicals as concrete evidence that democracy won't work . . . and which, unfortunately, causes some of our confused countrymen to listen to the wild promises of red idealists. ## '48 Red Cross Fund Reaches $549.36 As Drive Nears Finish

With only a small percentage of the contacts yet to be made, this community's Red Cross drive reached $549.36 by Wednesday, and apparently has little chance of reaching the quota of $725.00.

According to Mrs. Ben Luke, community chairman, efforts have been made to contact all people of the community, and the few who were missed are urged to leave their donations at the bank. The drive, though considerably slowed down, remains (Continued on Page 7)

Marker Erection at Fort Fitzhugh Opens County Centennial

With Former Governor Coke Stevenson as guest of honor and principal speaker, the Cooke County Centennial celebration got off to a double barreled start last Saturday, March 20, with erection of a marker at old Fort Fitzhugh at 10 a.m. and a formal opening program at the entrance to Fair Park at 3 p.m.

Erection of the marker was principally a boy scout program. Some 100 members took part in the event which included making the concrete and bronze marker and erecting it at the ceremony.

Stevenson's short address consisted principally of tribute to the county pioneers and of praise to the boy scouts for their part in the celebration. He was preceded by County Superintendent H.H. Moss who gave a brief outline of the county's history as far back as the days of Coronado, who visited this area in 1540 or 1541.

The bronze marker erected by the scouts carries the following inscription: "Fitzhugh's Fort. Site of the first known settlement in Cooke County. Established by a detachment of frontier guardsmen commanded by Col. William Fitzhugh in 1848-50. Erected by Cooke County District, Circle Ten Council, Boy Scouts of America, March 20, 1948, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of Cooke County."

At the formal centennial opening County Judge Carroll Sullivant was master of ceremonies and Former Governor Stevenson was principal speaker.

Simultaneous with the opening ceremony the centennial commission issued an official program listing 20 separate events between now and the opening of the County Fair in September. Other events are to be added as plans are completed.

Notes On Soil Conservation

Joe Hoenig called an application meeting for his group last Monday night. Lee Toothaker, Soil Conservation technician, stressed the importance of sowing sweet clover in oats that have been winter killed to a thin stand. Cooperators attending the meeting were Joe Hoenig, Tony Hacker, Bernard and Ben Sicking, Henry Streng, Andy O'Connor, Arthur Hellman, Darrell McCool and Joe Vogel. Joe Hoenig, Tony Hacker, Andy O'Connor, and Arthur Hellman are planting sweet clover in oats that have been winter killed.

The recent hard freeze has put many seed beds in excellent condition for planting Buffalo, Bermuda, Love Grass and Blue-stem. Roy Endres, Henry Pick and Tony Walterscheid, Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district cooperators, have recently planted Bermuda grass seed with the new grass drill belonging to the Soil Conservation district. A grass seed drill, three planters adapted for grass planting, and 4 cyclone seeders are available to cooperators in the Muenster Work Unit. A side delivery rake is also available for harvesting Bermuda grass sprigs. Seed is on hand to get pastures and waterways established to grass.

Mrs. Henry Branham spent last week in Denton with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Selby and family. Her little granddaughter, Carol Ann Selby, had her tonsils removed on Tuesday.

John Mahan, Founder Of Lumber Company Here In 1896, Is Dead

John Mahan, 79, pioneer Gainesville business man and civic leader, and organizer of the Muenster unit of the Waples Painter Lumber company, died Sunday at his home in Gainesville after an extended period of ill health.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. in the chapel of the Carroll Funeral Home and burial was in Fairview cemetery.

Born December 4, 1868, in Denton county, the son of an early day merchant, Mr. Mahan was educated at Baylor University and came to Gainesville in 1890 to enter the employ of Waples Painter company.

Six years later, as secretary of the company, Mr. Mahan came here, purchased the location which has been the site of the company's Muenster branch ever since, and supervised construction of the first building erected here.

Since 1936, when the late J.D. Leeper passed away, Mahan had been president of Waples Painter company. From 1912 until that date he was vice-president of the company.

FOUR CANDIDATES RUN FOR TWO POSITIONS ON LOCAL SCHOOL BOARD

Four candidates are in the running for the two positions on Muenster's school board, according to a statement Tuesday by Herbert Meurer, secretary of the board. At the election to be held Saturday, April 3, the two high men will be declared the winners.

Those in the race are R.E. Ryle, General Morris, C.M. Walterscheid and J.B. Klement, of whom Klement is the only person seeking reelection. J.J. Wimmer, the other trustee terminating his term this year, declined to run for another term.

Mrs. R.L. McNelley spent Monday and Tuesday in Dallas visiting friends.

HIGHWAY COLLISION INJURES ROY NUNNLEY DEMOLISHES HIS CAR

Roy Nunnley sustained four rib fractures and minor injuries early Saturday morning about 6 miles west of Gainesville in a highway collision which caused extensive damage to his car and the trailer truck that hit it.

On Wednesday Nunnley was still in the Gainesville Sanitarium but resting easy.

According to Highway Patrolman Bill Simmons the east-bound trailer truck loaded with maize and driven by William Dodson of Trenton struck the rear of Nunnley's car which was parked diagonally on the pavement. The truck overturned completely spilling its entire load and blocking traffic for about six hours while the grain was scooped back into the truck.

The right side and rear of Nunnley's car was almost completely demolished, the estimated loss being $700. The truck damage, in addition to the loss of about 1000 pounds of maize, was estimated at $1600.

News Of Sick And Injured

Miss Alvina Derichsweiler entered Gainesville Sanitarium Friday for a series of penicillin treatments preparatory to having her tonsils removed Monday morning and is recovering normally at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Derichsweiler since Wednesday when she returned home.

Norbert Mages was absent from duties at Muenster Manufacturing company Friday and Saturday on account of illness.

Mrs. Herman Fette is able to be up and around and was in town Tuesday for the first time following a recent illness that confined her to Gainesville Sanitarium for a week.

Mrs. Ferd Luttmier, joined by her mother, Mrs. Adam Beyer and her brother, Lambert Beyer of Lindsay, spent Wednesday in Wichita Falls visiting her husband who is a patient at Wichita Falls Clinic recovering from injuries received in an oil field accident two weeks ago. According to present plans Ferd will come home this weekend.

E.P. Buckley returned home Thursday morning from Gainesville Sanitarium where he underwent surgery and is convalescing nicely.

Jerry Hoenig, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig, cracked a bone in his left foot Tuesday while playing and was absent from school Wednesday as a result. The foot will probably be placed in a cast when the swelling goes down.

Some people create happiness wherever they go — others whenever.

Tell Hoffman if Your Child Was Bypassed On Scholastic Census

With only a few days left to complete this year's scholastic census, John Hoffman appealed Wednesday for cooperation in a final check-up in which he hopes to make sure that not one school-age child has been overlooked.

If there is anyone with children of scholastic age who has not been contacted up to Saturday, March 27, Hoffman asks that they send word to him immediately and he will arrange to make a call. This applies especially to those whose children are just reaching scholastic age, he said. Since he has no prior record of those children he has no way of knowing if any were missed.

Older children are on previous records and are not likely to be overlooked, he said.

The present indication, according to Hoffman's estimate, is that the census will be somewhat smaller this year, probably less than 500 as compared with last year's 505. One reason is that the number of those growing out of the age bracket outnumber those growing into it. Another is that the number of children moving away outnumbered those moving in.

Cooperation has been very gratifying, he said. Almost everywhere people had records handy and enabled him to complete his entries in a very short time.

The proclamation requests that all business houses close between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock.

The Mayor asks for full cooperation . . . that all business houses close their doors, that workmen lay down their tools, that activity on the streets be kept down to a minimum.

In the past Muenster has been respectful in its observance of Good Friday and he asks that the record be carried through again this year.

Kaiser-Frazer Introduces Four New 1948 Models

- The 1948 KAISER • The 1948 KAISER CUSTOM
- The 1948 FRAZER • The 1948 FRAZER MANHATTAN

AT NO INCREASE IN PRICE!

While Other New Car Prices Are Advancing

HERE'S WHY Kaiser-Frazer can make this announcement while other new car prices spiral upward. Kaiser-Frazer controls its own supply of many basic raw materials . . . has its own engine plant, foundry and steel mill. Materials from these sources funnel into new and modern Willow Run—the largest automobile manufacturing plant in the world under one roof.

Unfinished steel goes in one end of this great plant and comes out a quality automobile, ready to be driven away. All this is accomplished in a matter of hours, and with the economy of Kaiser-Frazer straight-line production. This is an achievement of men who are injecting new methods and ideas into an old industry.

In the new 1948 Kaiser, Frazer, Kaiser Custom, and Frazer Manhattan you get all the features that others have attempted to copy since Kaiser-Frazer design was introduced in 1947.

So far no one has been able to more than approximate the graceful exterior body lines. No one has come near matching the roadability . . . the ride resulting from seats cradled between the front and rear wheels, such wide seats with both elbow and shoulder room. And none have the style features, the wide choice of colors and fabrics.

You get all this plus the many refinements made possible by years-ahead engineering and design. And, of course, all 1948 Kaiser or Frazer cars have the new Goodyear 24-pound pressure Super-Cushion tires that make bumps something you see but never feel.

Enjoy a ride today in America's newest new cars—the 1948 cars that have not gone up in price!

WHAT PRICE WATER?

The editor of the "Printer-Review" of Barstow, California, has made a comparison between water rates in effect in Barstow and those being charged at Victorville, a town of about the same population located some 36 miles distant. Both towns get their water from the same source, the Mojave river.

The rates in Barstow for domestic consumption range from 12½¢ a hundred cubic feet down to 8¢, according to the quantity used; in Victorville, the rates vary from 18½¢ down to 10.7¢ per hundred cubic feet.

In Barstow a citizen who has built a new house and applied for water service, is charged nothing for connection; in Victorville there is a connection charge ranging from $45. for a ¾-inch main to $138 for a 2-inch main. In the case of the latter, it is not just a deposit; it is not returnable; it is so much water over the dam, never to flow back.

Now, why do the good citizens, yes, even the bad citizens of Barstow get their water so much cheaper than the good and bad people of Victorville? Simply because the Southern California Water Company, a privately-owned concern, supplies water for Barstow, while Victorville's water is furnished by a publicly-owned concern, the Victorville Water District.

But don't stop reading, — you ain't read nothin' yet. The privately-owned Southern California Water Company paid $9,500 in taxes last year to the town of Barstow which helped to finance its schools, roads, and various public improvements; in Victorville the publicly-owned water company contributes nothing in the way of taxes toward the support of various civic activities.

Please keep on reading, there is still more. The Southern California Water Company has taken every precaution, spared no expense, to assure uninterrupted water supply to Barstow residents. It has different wells located at three strategic points. Two of these are electrically driven; one is gasoline-powered. If there is an extended power shut-off depleting the water reservoirs, water will be pumped by the gasoline-driven motors. When a main breaks on the west side of a Barstow home, water is supplied from the east side as all the mains are in loops.

To provide these safeguards, to furnish new mains, and equipment, the California Water Company has been spending from $20,000 to $33,000 a year in capital investment. That has been done at no cost whatsoever to either water consumer or the tax-payer.

By now you should be, just about convinced that Barstow citizens really are getting a "break" (a financial break, that is, not a water-main break) on their water supply as compared with the citizens of Victorville. The one remaining question is — why is this a fact?

I will let editor Caryl Krouser answer that. Says he: "We have tried to go beyond these figures to find why a publicly-owned utility in Victorville costs much more than a privately-owned utility in Barstow. Among the responses is that a privately-owned utility is more efficient and has sounder management."

And our California editor's conclusion is that: "It appears from the facts that the privately-owned utilities can supply far better service, at less cost, than the publicly-owned utilities."

NEW ANTI-FOG DOPE KEEPS GLASSES CLEAR

A new anti-fogging agent for use, among other things, on car windows and eye-glasses, has been developed by an Eastern manufacturer.

The new formula has been tested for months on safety goggles and car windows. The manufacturer says one application, made by wiping the glass with an impregnated cloth, prevents fogging for several hours.

Everything But Freedom

"The slave starts out as a Welfare State. It promises freedom from worry, want — as many freedoms as you wish, except freedom from state itself."

REALLY SHARING THE WEALTH

Every radical attack on the American economic system is based on the old gag that, under capitalism, "the rich get richer and the poor get children." And every advocate of communism or any other totalitarian system argues that it offers the only road to a diversion of wealth and a higher standard of living for the masses of people.

One of the best answers to that all important question was recently given by the Reverend Edward A. Keller, C.S.C., who is director of the Bureau of Economic Research of the University of Notre Dame.

Father Keller's study is called, "The National Income and Its Distribution," and is written in language any layman can understand. Here are some facts he has correlated:

First of all, the rich are not getting richer. In 1917, Americans with a personal annual income of $25,000 or more got 7 per cent of the nation's entire income after taxes. By 1928 they were getting 11 per cent. But in the latest year for which complete figures are available, 1944, they got only 1 per cent. Their dollar income was almost $9,000,000,000 in 1928, while it was less than $2,000,000,000 in 1944.

If that is true, where is the money going to? Father Keller answers that also. Americans making under $5,000 a year, the group to which most families belong, have immensely improved their position. They received 87 per cent of our total personal income in 1917, 77 per cent in 1929 — and 90 per cent in 1944. The dollar figures are still more impressive. The under-$5,000 Americans received a total of $47,000,000,000 in 1917, and $140,000,000,000 in 1944 — a gain of nearly a hundred billions in one generation!

Another catch-phrase is that owners of industry — the stockholders — get an inordinate share of earnings, while workers don't get enough. Here too the figures tell a remarkable story. In the 17 years from 1929 to 1946, national income rose 93 per cent. But corporate dividends went down 14 per cent! As Father Keller puts it, "Taking our economy as a whole — the main item of cost of production of all goods and services is labor cost (90 per cent,) while cost for the use of tools is a relatively minor cost (6 per cent.)" Capitalism gives more people more benefits than any other system. Capitalism is the only system which makes possible the largest possible degree of maximum economic progress with personal liberty for all. Americans can well be proud of their capitalistic system. Most of the "isms" seek to live off of it while working to destroy it — then what would they have to divide? Nothing but their own poverty until new capital could be saved.

Hardening of the heart ages people more quickly than hardening of the arteries.

The 81-year-old man, who was as unconscious of his age as a 21-year-old, came in the house one day wet and muddy from the knees down. "I wanted to cross the creek to see about the cow," he explained. "I used to jump it clear and easy, but now every dang time I try I land in the middle. Guess I just ain't noticed it getting wider."

No Book Larnin'
Texas had a governor quite a few years ago who had no book-larnin'. He thought "grammar" was father's mother. Every time he made a speech, he left the English language bleeding at every pore. The question was asked, "What is the difference between Julius Caesar and the Governor?" The answer was, "Caesar came, he saw, he conquered — the Governor come, he seed, he taken."

Child Loses Eye In Freak Million To One Accident

TELL CITY, Ind.— A million-to-one accident in which a homemade arrow passed through the keyhole of a closed door blinded five-year-old Earl Senn in one eye.

The child was sitting in the living room of his home Saturday. Outside, his brothers were playing a game of cowboys and Indians. They had made bows and were using the slim stems of dried weeds for arrows.

One of the homemade arrows, aimed at the front door of the Senn home, passed through the keyhole and struck little Earl in the right eye.

Nancy and her husband were talking about a recent funeral of a member of their race at whose funeral there had been a profusion of floral tributes.

Said the husband: "Dat's all very well, Nancy, but when I dies I don't want no flowers on my grave. Jes' plant a good old watermelon vine; an' when she gits ripe you come dar, and don't you eat dat melon, jus' bust it on de grave, and let de good old juice dribble down though de ground."

Advised the Judge

A few years ago I had before me a "character" charged with petty theft — stealing chickens. He pleaded guilty. In order to get the facts before pronouncing sentence, I examined an arrest report which disclosed that the chicken coop or premises entered were securely locked and enclosed by a "thiefproof" fence. Apparently no key was used to unlock the gate.

Being a little puzzled I asked the prisoner: "How on earth did you ever get into that chicken pen?"

He paused, and, with a studied expression on his face, replied like a sage of old: "Judge, I'd advise you to stick to the bench."

BE ON LOOKOUT FOR RABIC ANIMALS, STATE FOUND 1099 IN 1947

AUSTIN, TEXAS — The recent death of a child in south Texas from rabies emphasizes the danger of this disease and its importance to public health.

According to a statement just released by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, there were 1,099 rabic animals discovered by laboratory examination in Texas last year. There were undoubtedly many more rabic animals running loose which were never examined. Since most of these animals were dogs, children are especially vulnerable to this dreaded disease.

"All dogs should be vaccinated annually as a rabies control measure," Dr. Cox said. "When a child is bitten by an infected dog, the dog should be penned up for observation for 10 days. If he shows no signs of illness in that time he is not rabid, but if he sickens, he should be killed in such a manner as not to injure the brain. The brain should be packed immediately in ice and sent to the State Health Department for examination. If rabies is shown to be present there is still time to begin anti-rabies treatment on the child."

Cities and towns should take firm steps to control the presence of stray and ownerless dogs since they remain unvaccinated and are usually the principal source of rabies.

"52-20 CLUB" AIN'T WHAT IT USED TO BE

Austin — The Texas Employment Commission says the state's "52-20 Club" isn't what it used to be.

Figures back up the commission's statement. On March 6 a total of 30,600 veterans were drawing readjustment allowances. The record week of June 12 last year saw 108,000 ex-GIs on the rolls.

Better still, the commission has announced it believes the veteran problem has largely been solved and that the 30,600 claimants are only temporarily unemployed. It believes these will largely go back to work when the winter unemployment slump is over.

The commission adds along these lines that a sharp break in both veteran and non-veteran unemployment is expected within two or three weeks.

AN IRONICAL FACT

It is an ironical fact that American communists and fellow travelers always scream to high heaven about their Constitutional rights when called to the witness stand. They fervidly embrace the protections which the communist ideology, by its very essence, is determined to destroy.

They have, of course, a perfect right to do this — the Constitution was drawn to defend the liberties of people of all political faiths, all races, and all creeds. But there is a grim humor in seeing it used as a defense by men and women who would destroy it.

C.D.A. PLANNING FOR BIENNIAL STATE CONVENTION

Announcement has been made by Mr. A.J. Le Blanc, state regent, and Mrs. J.M. Weinzapfel, grand regent of the local court, Catholic Daughters of America, of the 16th biennial state convention of the organization in Galveston on April 27, 28, and 29.

Officers of the local court urge members to consider attending this session. Owing to the serious conditions of world affairs this will be one of the most important meetings ever called by the state court, Mrs. LeBlanc said. Each court is urged to present at least one resolution at the conclave, she added.

Muenster women who may be able to attend are requested to get in touch with the local grand regent, as it may be possible to arrange transportation by cars.

Mrs. Le Blanc will preside over the convention to be attended by delegates from 29 courts. In addition to business there will be a banquet and various entertainment features. Hotel Galvez will be the convention headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morris have moved into Mrs. John Meurer's house formerly occupied by Ed Pels. Previously they lived north of the city in the Valley Creek district.

ELM-RED MEN RUSH SEEDING AND SODDING AS WEATHER IMPROVES

Cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District located in various Conservation Groups throughout the District have been making use of the lapse in bad weather this past week to get their planting in and work on other practices in their conservation program.

In the North Lindsay Group, located northeast of Gainesville near the Camp Howze area, Joe Spaeth has overseeded 14 acres of Biennial White Sweet Clover in oats. Phillip Metzler of this same group has also overseeded small grain with sweet clover for soil building purposes.

John Kupper, Westview Conservation Group, located 3 miles west of Gainesville, has seeded Buffalo grass to acreage to be used for a terrace outlet, using the broadcast method of seeding.

Arnold Friske of Mount Pleasant Conservation Group has nearly completed a diversion terrace and with the help of Soil Conservation Service tech-

Greeting the spring season in Chicago is this mammoth Easter basket, 25 feet high, in the Walnut Room restaurant at Marshall Field & Company. At the top of the basket, beneath the huge lavender bow, are Mr. and Mrs. Rabbit with smaller rabbits and several boys and girls in a tulip bed. Around the base of the basket are more children, rabbits, and huge eggs inside the border of white and yellow tulips.

Technicians of the Gainesville headquarters, assisting the district, has run and staked off for construction 2,330 feet of large ridge type terraces. He has proper terrace outlets ready to receive the water diverted by these terraces.

Soil Conservation Service technicians have assisted Johnnie Zimmerer of the North Lindsay Group in developing a conservation plan on his farm during the past week. Mr. Zimmerer has already staked off a waterway to be used as a terrace outlet. It is planned to sod this waterway to Bermuda grass in the very near future.

Technicians of Soil Conservation Service headquarters, assisting the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District, recommend that superphosphate at the rate of 200 pounds per acre be applied before planting sweet clovers and that the seed be inoculated with the proper inoculant.

Sister Patricia, Down With Flu, Misses Saint Pat's Day Program in Her Honor

Members of the Sacred Heart P-TA enjoyed a delightful musical program of Irish folk songs and instrumental numbers at their meeting last Thursday night in the parish hall. The program was arranged by Mrs. John Furbach, sophomore room mother, to honor Sister Patricia, sophomore instructor, in observance of her feast day. Sister Patricia, however, was not present at the meeting to receive the congratulations and a gift from her students, because earlier in the day she was forced to bed because of an attack of influenza.

With the exception of the feast day greetings and the gift presentation the program was presented as previously planned. The opening number was an Irish lullaby by the class, Jeanette Meurer playing the piano accompaniment, and was followed by two vocal solos by Doris Hellman, and two violin solos by Johnny Furbach, Mrs. Furbach playing the piano accompaniment. The closing number was a song by the class.

OLD AGE IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

At the age of 77, Benjamin Franklin went to Paris to serve his country and after 80 wrote his famous Autobiography.

At 80, Plutarch began to learn Latin, Socrates to play musical instruments, Cato to study Greek. Clara Barton founded the American National Association for Field Aid at 84, took up typewriting at the age of 89.

Gladstone at the age of 80 started his campaign to overthrow the Conservative party, became Prime Minister of England at 83.

Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt extended the mileage of his railroads from 120 to 10,000 miles between the ages of 70 and 83, earning more than 100 million dollars.

Von Moltke still served as chief of staff of the Prussian army at 88.

Galileo Galilei discovered the diurnal and monthly changes of the moon at the age of 73.

At 89, Michelangelo painted immortal canvases, at 82 Goethe completed Faust, at 85 Verdi composed Te Deum, at 83 Tennyson wrote Crossing the Bar.

All of which goes to prove that man has no "best" age. It's by what you make of it that old age is measured. — Vernon E. Brink in Rotarian Magazine.

LARGE LENS-WINDOW ALLOWS PILOT TO FLY BY STARS IN DAYTIME

An airliner window designed to let plane navigators see the stars in daytime has been completed by an American manufacturer as a contribution to flying safety.

Intended for both warplanes and commercial stratoliners, the window withstands a total of 3½ tons. The outer plate is a large optical lens, ground and polished to lessen refraction errors. The inner plate is plastic and houses a defrosting system. It was built to enable navigators to take "starsights" regardless of weather or time of day.

COUNTY AGENT URGES POULTRYMEN TO ENTER EGG-LAYING CONTEST

If you are a poultryman in Cooke County who has been wondering just what kind of an egg production your flock has, here is your chance to find out, according to information received by B.T. Haws, County agent and Mildred Chapman, Co. Home Dem. Agent.

A state wide Farm and Home Egg Laying Contest is being announced at this time so Texas poultrymen will have a chance to purchase their baby chicks now, and have them in production when the contest gets under way next October.

Rules and regulations of the contest as well as application blanks for entering the monthly report may be secured at the office of the county agent or home demonstration agent. These report cards are filled out at the end of each month and sent to the county agent's office. Since the contest is based on a record of the number of eggs per hen and not on the number of eggs per flock, any hens that die or are culled from the flock during any month will not interfere with the progress of the contest.

The five objectives of the contest are to get higher egg production in Texas poultry flocks, to demonstrate the value of record keeping in the poultry business, to put poultry production on a sound basis, to demonstrate the advantages of good feeding, breeding, and management and to market eggs on a quality basis when it is possible to do so.

The contest is open to all poultry producers in Texas who own and manage 100 or more hens of not more than two breeds or varieties. However, to keep the contest on a fair basis, the R.O.P. breeders will not be allowed to enter the contest, since they are on a professional standard.

Each contestant must tell how many chickens he expects to enter at the beginning of the contest, and all pullets over four months old and all hens on the farm must be entered.

All poultrymen, who expect to enter the contest must have their entry blanks turned in by September 15. The contest ends July 31 of next year.

The first prize is $100. The second prize is $75, and the third prize is $50. Fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh place winners will receive cash awards ranging from $35 down to $15, and the next eight high place winners get $10 each.

Give some men an inch and they think they are a ruler.

Confetti---

One incident was last week's farce ending of the butter-oleo fight in congress. The discriminating tax against the latter was permitted to continue, thanks to the influence of a powerful dairy lobby. So the consumer continues to pay higher prices . . . and also wonders how such legislative favoritism can be reconciled with the American principles of fair play.

In a dairy community like this, that remark may appear to border on treason, but we doubt whether the average dairyman doesn't feel a bit self-conscious about the handicap given him in the competitive race with margarine. Even the favored person has to admit that a tax imposed in his competitor gives an unfair advantage. There's no real satisfaction in winning a race if one's opponent was forced to carry a heavier load.

Specific cases could be multiplied by the dozens but a brief glance at prevailing conditions is enough to serve our purpose here. When profiteering business men demand exorbitant prices, when trifling workers give a half day of inferior work for a big day's pay, when public officials stoop to graft and irresponsible squandering of public funds when politicians incite class and race friction or stoop to gangster methods to get votes, when courts ban religion but permit irreligion in public schools . . . in short when dishonesty, injustice, and godlessness become rampant in a country which is "dedicated to freedom and equality, one can understand why people turn a sympathetic ear to the honeyed words of false prophets.

This country has thousands of red fanatics preaching that democracy and citizenship have failed. And it has thousands of confused persons who are on the verge of believing such rot. Unless we do something to correct that condition we might discover that we're losing more at home than we gain abroad.

There's an easy remedy for all this. If individual Americans will live up to their heritage, communism can't make even a faint impression. Our trouble isn't that democracy has failed us but that we have failed democracy.
