

2 WANTED IN TEXAS TAKEN IN BUFFALO

BUFFALO, U. Y., Jan. 16.—(P)—Clyde Roberts, held by Buffalo police for Texas authorities on a series of charges, was identified today as one of a gang that held up a bank in Lamar, Colo., last May, shot and killed the president and his son, and kidnaped a teller. The identification was made by Chief of Police H. D. Happer of Colorado Springs.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 16.—(P)—Plans were under way today for the extradition to Texas of Clyde Roberts, 29, and Fred Nave, 34, arrested here as members of the Ace Pendleton gang, an outfit accused of bank holdups and murders. They were identified by means of finger prints.

Among other things they are wanted for alleged participation in the holdup of the Pampa National Bank of Berger, Texas, during which two policemen were killed.

Five alleged members of the Ace Pendleton gang now are in custody. Ace, himself, is under arrest at El Dorado, Ark., and is held on homicide charges for Texas authorities. Texas has two other alleged members in jail.

Roberts when caught said he was Walter Anderson of Milton, Fla., and Nave described himself as John Ewing of Protem, Mo. Modishly garbed and wearing excellent jewelry, the two suspects said they had committed no crime and had stopped off in this city for a few days before leaving for Florida via airplane.

Both had considerable money in their pockets. Nave's pockets also yielded $480 in traveler's checks. These checks were stolen, the American Express Company announced later, when the vaults of the First National Bank of Washington, Okla., were looted by bandits in November, 1928. Nave, however, insisted he had purchased the checks in the regular way and had no idea they were stolen.

Roberts, according to word received from the Department of Justice, was convicted of grand larceny in Payne, Oklahoma, in 1922, and sentenced to prison to serve five years. Nave was sentenced to two years on a grand larceny charge in Taney county, Missouri, February 24, 1918. He was arrested on different occasions in Texas—cities for selling liquor, according to the telegram.

C. OF C. PRAISED BY BOYS CLUBS OF THIS COUNTY

The Brownwood Chamber of Commerce was given recognition for its work in connection with the boys clubs of the county at a meeting of the boys in the court house Saturday morning.

A resolution, offered by Roy Bird of Blanket, was carried unanimously by the fifty boys present. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce has bought peddled planting seed for all club members; entertained the club at Coggin Park and again at the county camp at Lakewood; paid expenses of two judging teams and a terracing team, eight boys in all to A. & M. College short course; paid the way of several boys to the State Boys Camp at the State Fair of Texas; bought the club pins for each boy who completed his year's work; therefore, be it resolved; that we, the Boys Agricultural Club of Brown County, extend to the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce our sincere thanks and pledge ourselves to do all in our power for the improvement of Brown County agriculture, and to promote friendly relations between the people in town and those in the country to the end that all may work together for a greater Brownwood and Brown county."

The meeting was distinguished by the presence of a number of girls of the girls' clubs of the county, under the leadership of Miss Maye-see Malone. The boys passed a vote inviting the girls of the clubs in the county to join the boys club in their county meetings. Miss Malone was highly pleased at this action, and said she thought the girls would accept. If this meeting goes through the joint meeting of girls and boys will be held here in March.

OIL FIELD WORKER STATES THAT HE WAS BEATEN AND ROBBED

F. B. Golsen, an oil worker in the Fry field, reported to the sheriff's office Saturday of having been beaten unconscious and robbed at some point in the field Wednesday night.

Mr. Golsen said that he was severely beaten while in a tent and his watch taken from him, not regaining consciousness until he was at his home later that night. He found that his locked car had been broken into while he was knocked out, and he claimed to have missed a shotgun, a rifle, a pistol, a kodak and a telegraph key out of the car.

A damaged eye and bruised and cut places about his head when he appeared in town Saturday were evidence of his having had some kind of trouble lately.

BROWNWOOD'S FIRST CARLOAD OF CREAM SEPARATORS

For the first time that such an event has taken place in the history of this section of the state, a straight carload of cream separators has been unloaded here and ready for delivery. Such a large shipment had never been known here before. T. W. Thurmond, local representative of the factory said. "This is an indication and a good one, that Central Texas is going into the dairy business in a determined manner, on a larger scale than ever before," said Jeff K. Wilkes of the Brownwood Implement Company, the firm which is to distribute these machines. 125 McCormick-Deering Cream Separators were unloaded from the car, of which 25 will be sold in Brown county and the balance distributed to dealers close by.

A STORY OF LIFE INSURANCE DISTRIBUTION

Come with us to a great railroad terminal. It is a little after six o'clock. On the track stand a long train, not made up of shiny Pullmans and gleaming parlor cars, but of great steel mail cars, locked and sealed.

The engine, one of the most powerful on the rails, impatient for the "Go" signal, is puffing huge clouds of black smoke. The signal flashes. With a warning whistle, the train pulls slowly past us, weaving a way through the pattern of switches which lead out of the yards.

The train must travel far tonight, for it carries a load of nearly four millions dollars, the daily distribution of the Life Insurance Companies.

Ride through the night like the winter wind, Treasure Train. The right of way is yours.

For tomorrow morning, the money you bear must be in the feeble hands of the old men and old women, who will take it and buy groceries and coal and clothes and rent—and live contentedly even though their earning power has long since fled.

Tomorrow morning widows and orphans will hurry to the mail boxes and with hands that shake from excitement will read the message of life you bring them.

Tomorrow morning, business partners, stunned by the sudden loss of associates and worried lest the business fail to survive the shock of death, will reach hurriedly for the saving strength you bring them.

To your job, Treasure Train. You have the right of way, for tomorrow thousands of men and women will be spared want and suffering through the treasure you bring them.

Day after day, you never fall them. Year after year each night you leave the terminal, bearing your golden load of nearly Four Million Dollars.

When the boys and girls of today are old men and women and when all else has changed, the Treasure Train of Life Insurance distributions will roar through the night, just as surely, then as now.

This is the story of Life Insurance—how much money is the Treasure Train going to bring to you some day? How much is it going to bring your wife and your children should death take you away before you have lived to see them through?

THE CASH VALUE OF CLEANLINESS

Sanitation, Insuring a Healthy, Productive Flock. Pays Actual Cash Dividends, Says Dr. L. D. LeGear, V. S. of St. Louis, Mo.

Little Johnny, in his bath, with ears full of soap and soul full of rebellion, undoubtedly has no use whatever for the doctrine that cleanliness is next to Godliness. To him it is just a pain in the neck—a devilish invention of grown-ups to keep a boy from his rightful occupation of play. Left to himself, he will most certainly have as little as possible to do with that particular kind of Godliness.

Most grown-ups recognize the desirability of personal cleanliness and of common sense sanitation in their homes and places of business. It is more comfortable to be clean after one has reached maturity and too inconvenient to suffer the expensive ills that result from unsanitary surroundings. When it comes to a different story in all too many instances.

The same man who would recoil in horror from a filth-encrusted dish placed before him on his table allows his fowls to eat and drink from utensils that are no less an offense to decency because they are in the poultry yard instead of a dining room. He will howl his head off if Junior tracks a little mud onto the living room rug, but he will allow droppings, decomposed food material and other offensive litter to accumulate in his henhouses until they smell to high heaven. He is scrupulously careful about the lawn near his house, but his chicken yard looks like that lower corner of the "south forty" after the last batch of city picnickers had done their worst to it. Then he wonders why his fowls are such poor layers, look so droopy and dispirited and so readily take on all the ills that chicken flesh is heir to.

The discoveries of Dr. Gorgas in Panama and of Dr. Noguchi, who recently died a martyr to science in Africa, have shown how certain kinds of mosquitoes transmit the germs of yellow fever. This suggests that such parasites as lice, fleas, mites, ticks, and bedbugs, which so often infest chickens, may also be carriers of disease. There is reason for believing that such is the case, but whether they do or not, such parasites cause a heavy drain on the vitality of the fowls. That means decreased ability to block the progress of disease should infection occur from other sources. The simplest kind of sanitary measures will make poultry houses and yards very unhealthy for germs and parasites, so why they should be tolerated is past understanding. Simple cleanliness is the first essential of sanitation. Poultry houses should be made so they can be scrubbed out occasionally and they should be regularly sprayed with coal tar dip and disinfectant.

No animal or vegetable matter should be allowed to remain exposed to air or house until it begins to decay. All such material should be removed and burned or deeply buried. Be particularly careful also to dispose of fowls or animals that have died from one cause or another.

Drinking vessels and feeding equipment should be watched carefully. All fountains, troughs and hoppers should be so constructed that the fowls cannot get in them with their feet or roost on them, thereby befouling the contents with dirt or droppings. Fresh water should be given at least once a day. All feeding and watering equipment should be thoroughly scrubbed out, scalded or disinfected at frequent intervals.

Droppings are perhaps the most dangerous of all possible sources of infection. They are almost invariably breeding grounds for disease germs and, also frequently harbor intestinal worms. These may be picked up by fowls not already affected, thus spreading the evil. Furthermore, nothing could be worse for fowls than to be compelled to roost just above a filthy droppings board. The odors and gases arising from droppings are extremely unhealthy. Continued breathing of air so contaminated weakens the lungs, thus making easy the progress of any disease which may be contracted later on. Both roosts and droppings board should be frequently cleaned and disinfected, as well as the whole house. It is also advisable to cover the droppings board with wire netting so the fowls cannot get into the droppings with their feet.

Birds that show signs of disease should always be put to themselves and treated until it is safe to return them to the flock. If any considerable number of them show signs of the same trouble, they should all be taken out of the flock and a wholesale clean up should be made; clean out and disinfect all houses and equipment; clean up yards and in every way attempt to remove all possible sources of infection.

Not all of the possible sanitary measures can be discussed in an article of this kind, but some of the most important ones are described above. A good dip and disinfectant used regularly and conscientiously will go a long way toward making disease impossible in your poultry flock, not forgetting the most effective of all—God's own great sterilizer, fresh air and sunshine. It is not as easy to keep things sanitary as it is to let them go to pot, but it does keep down disease and THAT PAYS.

Hens that are healthy, robust, strong, free from parasites and disease are better layers, better breeders and are worth more on the market than those that are neglected and compelled to get along as best they can. Maintaining sanitary conditions may mean work, but it is neither difficult nor as trying as fighting disease and it is infinitely more profitable.

W. C. HARRYMAN DIED FRIDAY MORNING HERE

Wesley Charles (Uncle Charlie) Harryman, 77, one of the pioneer citizens of Brownwood, died at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning at his home on West Baker, his death being attributed to influenza. Mr. Harryman had been in poor health since the death of his wife in November, 1926, and had been gradually growing weaker the past two weeks.

W. C. Harryman was born Sept. 30th, 1851, at Cold Camp, Missouri, near Sedalia. He came to Texas in 1876 at the age of 25 and settled in Brownwood, after stopping in other Texas towns for short periods of time. He was married to Miss Alice Eliza Hall in Callahan county, near Baird, Thanksgiving Day, November 28th, 1878. Immediately after his marriage he brought his young bride to a newly furnished home located on the lot where his present home now stands. Throughout their 48 years of married life they never moved once, living at the same place all the time.

After coming to Brownwood, Mr. Harryman entered the business world and at various times operated a bakery, confectionery, restaurant and for several years owned and operated a stage coach line between Brownwood and Cisco, this being prior to the advent of the first railroad to Brownwood. Mr. Harryman had retired from active work since the death of his wife in 1926.

Mr. Harryman was the oldest charter member of the Brownwood I. O. O. F. and was recently presented with a fifty year medal, in honor of his long service with that organization. His lodge paid further respects to the honored member in that they were in charge of the services at the grave where the tired body was laid to rest by the side of his late wife and lifetime companion.

Mr. Harryman is survived by six children, Roy C. and Ray W. of Iowa Park, Texas; Rex R. Harryman of Colorado, Texas; Mrs. Ben Poole of Brownwood; Mrs. Mike Spooner and Mrs. Ruth C. Cox of Los Angeles. Nine grandchildren also survive.

Gas Not Feasible

The bureau of standards says that automobiles could be run successfully on natural gas, but the gas would have to be compressed into steel cylinders which would add considerable weight. The amount of natural gas equivalent to five gallons of gasoline would require enormous containers if it were not compressed.

Canner Pays For Itself Several Times In Year

BRADY, Tex., Jan. 16.—(Sp.)—That it pays to "live at home" is graphically related by a farm woman near Brady, Mrs. M. M. Perry, in her report to the Home Demonstration Agent in which she states that a thirty eight dollar canner bought last April paid for itself nearly 12 times.

Mrs. Perry has canned 1,400 quarts of fruit and vegetables, 100 quarts of jelly, and 75 quarts of pickles during the past summer. At current market prices this splendid volume of canned goods would have cost her $350 at the local stores.

After deducting her overhead expenses in cans, sugar and other ingredients, and the cost of the canner and sealer, this farm woman has a net profit of more than $400. "This is the best way of eliminating all worry about the high cost of living," Mrs. Perry explains.

LOCAL BRICK PLANT AGAIN IN OPERATION

Fires under the first kiln were lighted Monday morning at the Texas Brick Company's plant, and with the starting of this kiln the full force of fifty employees are again on the job for the first time following the disastrous fire of last October.

A loss of $100,000 in the fire, which destroyed the main plant of the company, tied up operations for a little over two months. These structures have been built up again, modern construction being used and all buildings now are fireproof.

RUTH MOURNS DEATH OF WIFE

WATERTOWN, Mass., Jan. 14.—(P)—Babe Ruth, home run king today mourned his wife, while police sought for questioning Dr. Edward H. Kinder, Boston dentist, in whose home here Mrs. Ruth, known to neighbors for the last year and a half as Mrs. Helen Kinder, was burned to death last Friday night.

The New York Yankee star arrived in Boston from New York City yesterday just in time to halt the burial of the supposed Mrs. Kinder, for whom a death certificate had been issued on information supplied by the dentist.

While State Detective Edward P. O'Neil, who investigated the fire at the instance of District Attorney Robert T. Bushnell of Middlesex county, declared that there was no evidence that a crime had been committed, the district attorney ordered an autopsy performed and a search instituted for Kinder.

Ruth was prostrated by grief when he arrived in Boston. From his hotel suite he gave a brief statement to newspapermen:

"My wife and I have not lived together for the last three years. During that time I have seldom met her. I have done all that I can to comply with her wishes. Her death is a great shock to me, that is all I can say now."

Put Ruth, through his friend and legal adviser, John P. Feeney of Boston, immediately took steps to see that a new certificate was issued that the dead woman might be buried as Mrs. Ruth rather than as Mrs. Kinder.

Break News to Daughter

Feeney and members of Mrs. Ruth's family decided to go to Wellesley, where the Babe's nine-year-old daughter, Dorothy, is a student in a private academy, and break the news of her mother's death.

Discovery that the supposed dentist's wife was Mrs. Ruth came with the publication last week of a picture found in the house. A friend of the Ruths identified it as Mrs. Ruth's sisters, the Misses Catherine and Nora Woodford of South Boston were summoned and established identification.

Kinder Disappears

Kinder, who was attending a boxing exhibition Friday when his house caught fire, was paged at the show and returned to identify the dead woman as his wife and to make funeral arrangements. His whereabouts since then constituted a mystery today.

The dentist's father, William F. Kinder, and a brother, William F.

Kinder, Jr., said they believed the couple had been married in Montreal about two years ago.

Ruth first met Helen Woodford shortly after he became a member of the Boston Red Sox in 1915. The girl had been a waitress and was employed at the time in a Back Bay restaurant near the ball park.

Late in 1915 or early in 1916 they were married and in September, 1928, they announced that 16 months previously a daughter had been born but they had decided not to announce it earlier. That the path of their marital life has not been a smooth one in the past few years has been generally known to their friends.

WOODWARD BILL IS ENDORSED

The Brownwood Chamber of Commerce went on record Monday noon as favoring the water bill presented in the Legislature, by Senator Walter C. Woodward, of Coleman. The board of directors voted unanimously to endorse the bill presented by Senator Woodward, it being their opinion that Senator Woodward's bill is the most satisfactory to West Texas.

Secretary Hilton Burks was instructed to write Senator Woodward and advise him that the Chamber of Commerce of this city had endorsed his bill and to extend to Senator Woodward the thanks of the local commercial organization for his efforts in behalf of West Texas.

Secretary Burks was also instructed to write a letter of appreciation to Homer D. Wade, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, for his work in Austin in behalf of the bill introduced by Senator Woodward. Mr. Wade has been in Austin the past week in the interest of the Woodward bill.

Three water bills are now before the State Legislature, these being presented by the Attorney General's Department, Ireland Hampton of Fort Worth and Senator Woodward of Coleman. The first is distinctly favorable to the power interests, it is charged, the second is a compromise and the bill presented by Senator Woodward distinctly favors granting priority of water rights to irrigators, and to cities desiring to use the water over the power interests.

C. OF C. ANNUAL MEET FEB. 19

The annual meeting of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce will be held on the night of February 19th, it was decided Monday noon at the regular weekly luncheon of the board of directors held in the mulberry room of the Southern Hotel. And according to plans discussed the banquet and meeting this year will be one of the largest in the history of the organization.

According to present plans, the Brown County Commissioners Court, the Young Men's Good Roads Committee, officers and directors of the Chambers of Commerce in this section of the state and a large number of rural citizens of Brown county will be invited to attend the luncheon as guests of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce. An attendance of at least 500 is the goal of board of directors for the annual banquet.

The location for the banquet was not agreed on, this being left to the entertainment committee, of which W. D. Armstrong is chairman. This committee will select a place for the banquet as well as have charge of arrangements.

However, it was voted to leave the program and invitation of guests to the secretary, Hilton Burks, and to the president, C. Y. Early. All members of the local organization will have the privilege of suggesting the name of any guest desired for this meeting, it was decided.

Secretary Hilton Burks was granted permission to attend a meeting of fair secretaries in Dallas, Friday and Saturday of this week.

It was voted to dispense with the regular weekly luncheon of the Board of Directors, Monday, January 28th, this action being taken in favor of the local Rotary club.

Goldthwaite

Miss Merth Cook a former resident of this county died in Dallas last Friday and her remains were brought here Sunday morning for burial. Miss Cook was born in Wheatland, Dallas county, and was the daughter of James W. and Sallie H. Cook, who later became pioneer citizens of Mills County. She made her home in Goldthwaite for twenty-five years. She moved to Dallas in 1915 and resided there until her death January 11, 1929 at 1:45 P. M. Several years ago she united with the Methodist Church in Goldthwaite. During her residence in Dallas she was a member of the Oak Cliff Methodist Church. She had a lingering illness of 15 months duration. The remains were carried to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eacott Sunday morning and from there to the Methodist Church where the funeral service was held at 11 o'clock by Rev. S. D. Lambert, pastor of that church. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows Cemetery. Miss Cook is survived by two sisters, Mrs. R. H. Fritz of this county and Mrs. J. C. Davis of Dacey, Texas, besides several nieces and nephews. She has many friends here who are grieved because of her going. To the grief stricken ones we offer sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson are dividing their time now between their two businesses, the HGKD broadcasting station recently moved to Brownwood and that of editing the Goldthwaite Eagle. We are glad to know they have not left us entirely.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wilson of San Angelo but formerly of this place are here now and we are hoping they will decide to move back in the near future and make this their permanent home.

Mills county has lost another one of her pioneer Baptist preachers. Rev. John Boughs died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Reynolds last Friday. Rev. Boughs lived in the South Bend community a number of years ago and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and several children and grandchildren to mourn his death. John Ross returned a few days ago from Ft. Worth where he had been studying pharmacy. He and Mrs. Ross now occupy rooms with Mrs. I. Q. Harvy on Fisker Street. He has a position in Hudson Bros. Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Chambers and children of Santa Anna spent the day here Sunday with Mrs. Chambers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ford.

Poster Brins, manager of the Royal Cafe has had his kitchen enlarged and completely overhauled. Mr. Brins has always tried to give his customers the best service possible and to continue to do this he had to enlarge his kitchen to compare with the growth of his trade. The work adds much to the looks as well as the convenience of the Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutch McKenzie went to Galveston a few days ago to visit his sister in a sanitarium there.

Long and Berry have had the interior of their grocery store improved and the stock re-arranged which adds greatly to the looks of their store.

Mrs. D. T. Hunt of Blackwell is here attending the bedside of her father, P. G. Palmer, who is very ill at his home in the Eastern part of town.

Talmage Palmer returned to his home in Albany a few days ago after spending some time here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Palmer.

The Mills County Cheese and Butter Company report a growing business since their opening here about Nov. 1. They pay fifty cents per pound for butter fat. This will be a great help to the farmers as it will mean a steady income the year round.

The grain crop in this section is not as good as it should be considering the fine season we have had. Some farmers fear the green bugs are working on it.

Mrs. Bins Lewis and daughter, Elaine left the first of the week for Houston to make their future home. They have a host of friends here who wish for them the best of success.

Hon. J. C. Darrough of Brownwood, spent Monday here attending to business.

Harvey Catliff and Miss Jewell Johnson were united in marriage in the County Clerk's office last Monday afternoon. County Judge L. E. Patterson performed the ceremony. Both are strangers here but the father of the groom stated they were on their way to Coleman.

No child under seven years of age on January 1st, 1929, will be allowed to attend, because of crowded conditions. One class of the sixth grade children will be transferred from the Coggin Ward to the Junior High School to make room for the incoming group of children, now becoming seven years of age."

Mrs. Opal Strong - Youngblood, wife of Dewey Youngblood of the Daniel Baker facility, has been elected to a position in the Junior High School for the second semester of the present school year. IS KILLED BY GIGANTIC WAVE

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(AP)—One cook was killed and several other members of the crew were injured by a gigantic wave that surged over the bow of the White Star liner Majestic on the crossing completed when the ship docked here today.

The wave twisted steel bulkheads, wet the mail, ruined part of the cargo and necessitated removal of the 289 third-class passengers to other quarters.

Leonard Florini, 64-year-old assistant cook in the third class, stepped out of the galley, saw the huge wave curling over the bow and hanging above him. He attempted to regain the galley but was overtaken and thrown against a stanchion. His neck was broken.

The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History

- a Six in the price range of the four!

represents 4 years of Development and over a Million miles of Testing

Never has a new motor car come to the public more thoroughly proved in every detail than The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History.

Years ago, the Chevrolet Motor Company designed and built its first experimental six-cylinder motor. This far-sighted step was taken because Chevrolet engineers knew that the six-cylinder motor is inherently the most perfectly balanced motor—the ideal power plant to meet the growing public demand for greater reserve power, faster getaway and, above all—smooth, quiet performance.

During the last four years, over a hundred six-cylinder motors—representing every conceivable type—were built by Chevrolet engineers and tested on the General Motors Proving Ground. This constituted one of the greatest series of tests ever conducted with any automobile. From time to time, the experimental models were torn down for inspection, redesigning and further testing—until the present motor was developed and pronounced correct.

While the new six-cylinder motor was in process of development, other Chevrolet engineers were perfecting other parts of the chassis. And another great automotive organization—the Fisher Body Corporation—was devoting its gigantic resources to the creation of the finest, sturdiest and most beautiful bodies ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

As a result, the Outstanding Chevrolet offers an order of well-balanced excellence that is extraordinary in the low-price field. From every standpoint—power, speed, smoothness, acceleration and quietness—its performance is truly amazing. Its handling ease and roadability are exceptional. Its economy of operation is so great that it delivers better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline. And its outstanding beauty, smartness and luxury are exciting widespread admiration.

You owe it to yourself to see and inspect this remarkable car. Come in today!
