

Another big Kremlin lie was that of a few days ago when Khrushchev brazenly stated that he would resume nuclear testing. As pointed out by Lewis Strauss, former chairman of the US Atomic Energy Commission, the fact is that Russia has not stopped testing.

That's another prime example of Soviet hypocrisy. During the three year period while Khrushchev and company were mouthing pious objections to any mention of testing they were busy violating their own preaching. Developing and proofing of nuclear bombs was going on steadily under their supervision while other countries, especially our own, held back out of concern for the widespread fear of fall-out contamination, which Russia all the while was exploiting to the limit.

And now comes K's insolent, sneering announcement that he has decided to test only because the West is getting ready to do so, along with his boast that he has the super weapon capable of annihilating his enemies. What's behind the statement? Why does he express intention to do openly what he has done secretly all along? Especially when it clashes with his own propaganda line.

U.S. News and World Report this week offers an explanation in the article "Khrushchev's Big Fear". This, like the Berlin crisis, is the method of a scared madman who realizes he has to shoot the works in a desperate effort to win before time runs out for him. He's leading from fear, not from confidence, in a gamble to split the allies and win Western Europe while there is still a chance to intimidate them with his bluster.

Among the more impressive cold realities staring him in the face are the growing strength of Western European countries and the increasing danger of a strong political unity growing out of their mutually beneficial trade alliances, also a strengthened alliance of all of them with United States. Another big factor is fear of revolt of his East European satellites. The trend is there plain for him to see. He suddenly realizes the need of acting fast and bluffing his way through the deteriorating condition.

The bomb rattling act is intended to terrify Western allies into making further concessions to him, to cause disunity among them, possibly to break up the NATO alliance and get United States out of Europe. Doing that would serve the double purpose of tightening his grip on the satellites and leaving the rest of Europe exposed to his plan of continued expansion.

Some of the facts which he must see as handwriting on the wall are 260 million people rapidly gaining in industrial strength and war potential in the former devastated group of countries, as compared with his 214 million now far behind in industrial strength. Even militarily, in spite of his huge war machine, he sees that his Western foes, because of greater farming and manufacturing efficiency, will be able to put more men in uniform and carry on more effectively. And the outlook gets much more one-sided when he figures in the United States and possible revolt of his 110 million captive East Europeans. Actually, he cannot count on a big part of his huge military machine to fight a war because too many would be needed for police duty in the satellites.

Along with all that is the possibility that even the Russian people will turn against him when the chips are down. After more than forty years of slavery, while news of other people's freedom and prosperity trickles through to them in spite of propaganda and censorship, many would not have the heart to back up their slave masters.

At the same time people elsewhere have more reason than ever before to resist. There was a time shortly after the war, while conditions were deplorable, when communism made notable gains among them. But their own progress since then compared with the drab picture coming from behind the iron curtain convinces them that the red way is not for them.

Realizing all those things, Khrushchev's new tirades and bluffs become understandable. His empire is on the verge of falling apart and desperation

Tigers Rally for 14-14 Tie with Alvord Bulldogs

Sacred Heart's Tigers in their season opener here Friday night showed that they can play under pressure as they came from behind twice to tie Alvord's Bulldogs 14-14.

While doing so they were also overcoming a few tough breaks. One was a fumble that prevented the pay-off for a fine 90 yard drive. Two others were fate's helping hand to the Bulldogs.

The visitors' first score was set up by a freakish play in which one Bulldog and two Tigers were going for a pass. In the mixup the Bulldog tripped and officials conceded the pass to him on an interference ruling. The gain was good for 30 and set Alvord up on the 10.

The next score was a pass into the end zone. A Sacred Heart defender tried to knock it down but instead knocked it into the waiting hands of the intended receiver.

As the game opened Tigers and Bulldogs both kicked on their first series, then the Tigers started moving. Claude Bayer did the heavy work as they advanced 90 yards, from the 2 to the 8, and then fumbled.

Two plays later however Alvord's center made a bad pass and Sacred Heart caught the runner behind the line for a safety. For the rest of the half Sacred Heart was held to one first down and Alvord to two. The period ended on a count of 2-0.

Four fumbles marked the early part of the next quarter. After one first down Alvord fumbled. Tigers ended their first series with a kick, and so did the Bulldogs. On that kick Sacred Heart's receiver fumbled. Two plays later Alvord lost possession on a fumble, and another two plays later Sacred Heart did likewise.

Three plays thereafter was the pass interference ruling which put the Bulldogs in scoring position. Monk, top hand of the team, picked up 7, missed two pass tries, and hooped it behind nice blocking for the last 3. Monk also

Tigers Look for Season's Toughest Saturday at Era

Probably the strongest competition of the season awaits the Sacred Heart Tigers at Era Saturday night at 7:30. Coach Adam Wolf has lots of respect for the big, husky Hornets who opened their season last week by dumping Sanger 14-0.

As usual Era has one of the heaviest outfits in District 12-B as compared with the traditionally undersized Tigers. And there's skill and spirit to go with the weight. Era is in the habit of being at or near the top in district ratings.

The one factor Skipper Wolf is depending on is the stout defensive work his boys have done lately. In their game with Alvord and also in practice they have been looking good, and there is a fair chance of slowing down the big opponents. Tiger offense has been less encouraging, however, and Wolf is expecting to have real trouble in that department.

Physically the Sacred Heart players are in good shape. They came through the Alvord game without injury and all should be ready for Saturday.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Eight-month-old Janelle Hellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hellman, playfully tumbled off a bed at home Friday and broke her collarbone. So for three weeks she'll be wearing a brace and an elastic bandage.

Mrs. Matt Muller was out for the first time Sunday, to attend church services, since recent major surgery.

Mrs. Ed Eberhart of Gainesville is up and about again after being a shut-in on account of a heart attack.

Charlie Pagel has been dismissed from Baylor Hospital — he came home Friday afternoon — and is up and out but not ready to return to work yet on account of a hip injury.

County FB Plans Series of Local Policy Meetings

Plans for the annual series of policy development meetings in the Cooke County Farm Bureau were started Monday when officers, directors and committeemen held their regular meeting in the organization's headquarters.

Dates for the community meetings so far established are as follows: Valley View Community Center, Sept. 18; Downard-Fairplains Club House, Sept. 22; Gainesville area in FB office, Sept. 28; Woodbine School, Oct. 3; Sivells Bend School, Oct. 13; Lindsay Parish Hall, Oct. 16. Dates are still to be set at Muenster, Myra and Rosston.

Plans also got under way for the county convention and election of officers in the Gainesville Community Center on October 24. Carl Kempf, E. V. Fox and Joe Krahl were named as the nominating committee to select a slate of candidates for the offices.

Other elections coming soon are those to select two directors each for a period of two years in the communities of Muenster, Lindsay, Myra, Gainesville, Sivells Bend and Woodbine.

The meeting also interviewed Jerry Spillers of Waxahachie as applicant for assistant service agent to work with Bruno Zimmerman as FB insurance representative.

Fund Growing For 2-Way Radio On Fire Truck

The fund for a two-way radio on the city's rural fire truck is making progress, but it still has a long way to go. Henry Weinzapfel disclosed Wednesday that payments by farmers to the Community Progress Association have reached $185, which is about one fourth the estimated cost of a new unit, or probably about half the cost of a used unit. . . provided a good one can be located.

The association urges area farmers to help in this project, which is intended to give them better fire protection.

Hornets Bumped 16-6 in Opener At Pilot Point

In spite of a 16-6 loss to Pilot Point, Muenster High fans were proud of their Hornets last Friday night. Considering shortage of manpower and experience, the close loss to their highly rated Class A foes stands up as a notable achievement.

To the hard working boys up front goes most of the credit for the team's good showing. Their efforts helped to offset the handicaps in a backfield that was operating with recruits and without its regular quarterback. Wiesman, at fullback was the only veteran. Vogel was new at quarterback and McElreath, Dickerson and Wimmer were playing their first game of high school football. The regular quarterback, Mark Hellman, was out with a foot injury.

The team looked its best in the closing minutes of the first half when it threw the Bearcats into confusion and set up its only score. In one series of downs it stuck Pilot Point with this record: 13 yard loss, 15 yard loss, 5 yard penalty, 3 yard gain, and then smothered an attempted kick for a 7 yard loss. The fiasco ended on the 5 yard line, from where Wiesman knifed through for the Hornet counter.

Starting the game the Bearcats failed to gain on the first series and kicked. Muenster made two first downs and kicked on the next series. Then Pilot Point appeared to be on its way but fumbled after three first downs.

After that the teams played it even until the Cats' series of losses to set up the Hornet score.

But the hosts apparently got organized during intermission. Taking the kickoff they marched 61 yards to a score in 11 plays. T. Whitley made the TD and Hammons followed over for extra points.

Then again the game featured defensive play. Hornets made a first down and failed

Sanger Favored In Tussle with MHS Here Friday

More trouble is in sight for Glenn Richardson's Muenster Hornets Friday night as they take on the Sanger Indians on the local field starting at 8 o'clock.

Hopes of getting the regular lineup in action fizzled out Tuesday when Mark Hellman discovered his injured ankle still is not equal to the job. A re-injury definitely side-lined him for the next game and possibly will keep him out for a few more weeks.

There are no other injuries, but the team is still seriously handicapped by its shortage of experience and reserve strength. The starting lineup will include three beginners, the substitute list will have only five or six players.

Reports are that Sanger is similarly handicapped by a shortage of reserves, with only 17 or 18 players on the squad. However the team is due to have a big advantage in tonnage. It averages 160 pounds per player whereas Muenster averages 143. As regards overall strength, the early season opinion is that the Indians are big contenders for the 13-B title, and they opened their season with a 14-0 loss to always rugged Era.

Report Sent to State Board on Hospital Project

Application for construction of Muenster Memorial Hospital will be submitted to the State Board of Health at its meeting next Sunday.

A report from the office of the architect, J. R. Killibrew of Wichita Falls, states that a member of the firm is in Austin this week working with the State Health Department in preparing forms for presentation before the State Board.

Included in the papers is a financial statement prepared by J. M. Weinzapfel, president of the Muenster Hospital Authority. His report indicates that subscriptions in the local drive now stand at $217,186. 93 and about $71,000 is now available in cash. This is short of the $250,000 in subscriptions with one third of it in cash as required for application. However it does not include the Kreitz Estate donation which had been set aside as a reserve to guarantee the first year of operation.

On recommendation of the architect that amount was also shown as an asset on the statement, and it raises the total value of resources to more than the required amount.

If that statement, as well as other application data, is approved by the board it will clear the way for the next stage of the project, that is, the detail work to get construction started. If not accepted the project will be delayed at least three months.

20 Lads Compete For Places on Tiger Cub Team

Twenty youngsters of the Sacred Heart seventh and eighth grades are working daily nowadays under the coaching of Adam Wolf to shape up their team of Tiger Cubs. The boys have been at it since school started and hope to be organized in time for their first action on Sunday the 17th.

The Cubs along with Lindsay, Windthorst and St. Joseph's of Sherman make up this year's membership of the North Texas Parochial League. They will have a double schedule, each team playing each other member twice. In addition, says Wolf, the Cubs will be available for a few games with non-member teams.

City Gives Ear To Proposal for Control of Dogs

A plan to eliminate dangers and damages caused by stray dogs was considered by the city council at its meeting Tuesday night.

Formost concern was the possibility of rabies or other serious infection resulting from dog bites. Another problem was the nuisance or destruction of dogs for whom no one can be held accountable.

The answer proposed is a system whereby a dog is licensed and identified by a license tag and a record of its medical immunizations kept in the city hall.

Here's how the proposed system would work. To obtain a license tag from the city the owner would present a veterinary's certificate showing that the animal had received the required shots. The city would prepare a card showing the dog's breed, and other identifying description along with medical record and owner's name. The owner would be required to put a collar with the tag on his dog.

After allowing reasonable time for dogs to be licensed the city would dispose of unlicensed dogs.

By doing that the city would not only eliminate the unsafe and unclaimed strays, but would also be able to hold owners responsible for licensed dogs that cause trouble or damage. Such procedure cases like that of Tuesday night when several dogs got into the FFA project pens and killed one sheep. One dog was killed. Had it been licensed the owner could have been held accountable. Other dogs might have been identified if records were available.

It's conceded that this move would cause a sharp decrease in the town's dog population. The expense of collar, tag and shot would rule out all but the animals that are really wanted. And the element of responsibility would prompt remaining owners to take better care of their dogs.

Enterprise Must Tax Subscriptions And Job Printing

The Enterprise this week joined the thousands of business firms now serving as state tax collectors.

Charges on which it collects the two per cent tax are subscriptions and commercial printing, as explained in a bulletin sent out by Texas Press Association to all its members.

The sales tax on subscriptions applies only to those within the state. Out of state subscriptions are tax free.

Rain Measures .85

Rain of .45 inch Sunday night and .40 inch the next day did little to relieve the critical moisture shortage. Surface soil again was slightly and temporarily muddied but sub-soil is still in poor condition.

That rain was the first of the month so far and it followed scattered rains for a total of 1.98 inch in August.

Rainfall for the year is falling farther and farther behind normal. Through August it measured only 17.92. Up to Wednesday it was 18.77 inches.

The Pete Hawthornes and four sons ended their vacation here Tuesday and returned to Longview accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Kathman. She'll be with them at their home through his week.

Muenster Native Elected Abbot at Corpus Christi

Rt. Rev. Alfred Hoenig, O.S.B., 49, has been elected the first abbot of Corpus Christi Abbey at an election held at the abbey on Saturday, September 2.

Sixteen priests of the abbey took part in the balloting, presided over by Rt. Rev. Gilbert Hess, O.S.B., abbot of Blue Cloud Abbey, Marvin, South Dakota, and vice-president of the Swiss-American Congregation of Benedictine abbeys.

Abbot Gilbert also confirmed the election and installed the new abbot in the name of Pope John XXIII.

Abbot Alfred will receive the abbatial blessing from the Most Rev. Mariano S. Garriga, D.D., LL.D., bishop of Corpus Christi, in a solemn ceremony within the next three months. The exact date will be determined later.

As abbot of Corpus Christi Abbey and president of Corpus Christi Academy, Abbot Alfred is the religious superior of 24 priests, brothers, and seminarians at this time. Among his privileges as a church prelate, he may pontificate within his monastery, ordain his subjects to the church's four minor orders, and wear the insignia of his office — a black skull cap, a pectoral cross, and a ring. The abbot is elected for life.

Born on May 22, 1912, at Muenster, Abbot Alfred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoenig, both deceased. He received his elementary education at Sacred Heart School, Muenster, and entered New Subiaco Academy and Abbey, Subiaco, Arkansas, for his high school and seminary studies. He made his vows as a religious of the Order of St. Benedict on September 15, 1932, and was ordained to the Catholic priesthood on May 26, 1938, by the Most Rev. John B. Morris, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Little Rock, Arkansas.

The election of Abbot Alfred followed the Holy See's erection of the former Corpus Christi Priory to the dignity and status of a Benedictine abbey one month ago. The new abbey raises the number of abbeys to 25 in this country. Corpus Christi Abbey is the only one in Texas.

Corpus Christi is now ready to accept applications from young men or unmarried older men to enter the abbey as candidates for the Benedictine priesthood and brotherhood, the abbot said.

Sister Carmelita Named Principal At Sacred Heart

Sister M. Carmelita, O.S.B., is the new principal of Sacred Heart High School succeeding Sister M. Celine, O.S.B., who died suddenly of a heart attack last week.

An announcement this week discloses that she was transferred from the eighth grade of the elementary department and has two English classes in addition to her duties as principal.

Her successor in the eighth grade is Sister Richard, who came here from Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Ark., to fill the vacancy in the local faculty. Sister Richard returns to Sacred Heart after an absence of about six years. She taught three years of her former assignment here.

To make an easy job seem difficult, just keep putting it off.

COULD END INCOME TAX
 Fantastic as it may sound, it is estimated that sale of all the federal corporate activities of the U.S. back to the people — from whom they were taken — would result immediately in a savings of $44 billion a year.

Since individual income tax payments produced a revenue of about $37 billion in 1959, it is calculated that it would be possible for the government to stop levying taxes on personal incomes, estates and/or gifts, and still have a saving of more than $7 billion a year. It is also estimated that in private operation, the enterprises thus sold would yield an additional 15 per cent increase in corporate and excise taxes.

The overall increase in corporate and excise tax income under this plan is estimated at close to $9 billion a year, which added to the difference between what it costs the federal government to run its business empire and what it receives in individual incomes taxes, would produce a saving of over $15 billion per year, not mentioning the additional amounts that would be saved in other costs relating to the collection of individual income taxes.

The "Liberty Amendment" to U.S. Constitution which would force the federal government to sell all of its business or commercial enterprises and prohibit it from levying taxes on personal incomes, estates and/or gifts, has been approved by the states of Wyoming, Texas, Nevada and Louisiana.

It is estimated that sale of the land, buildings and facilities for these activities would bring $65 billion which, applied to the national debt, would mean a saving in interest charges alone of $1,950 million yearly.

Saving of the annual amortization cost on $65 billion would mean an additional $1,625 million per year. Savings made by removing the free services provided by government agencies to the corporate bodies are estimated $4,300 million while another $12,900 million would be saved in cost of goods, services and facilities.

If the amendment were adopted by the federal government it would mean better than a 20% increase in take home pay for the American people without changing the rate a single cent.

Perhaps to better understand the proposal, it is necessary to realize the federal corporations have now taken over control of 40% of the land area and 20% of the entire industrial capacity of the U.S.

More than half of the current federal revenue is required to pay the losses of these government corporations and defray the hidden costs of their operations, according to statistics compiled by the Liberty Amendment supporters.

Perhaps even more astonishing is the fact that these savings mentioned so far would wipe out the 1959 U.S. deficit of 12,900 million and still leave $2,507 million to apply to the national debt.

In addition to this the costs of tax collections are estimated at $200 million, savings in printing costs of tax forms, etc., at $100 million and savings of franked postage on all tax mail at $40 million.

Not estimated are the savings in costs of protective lobbying, cost of ferreting out, prosecuting those who fail to conform to tax directives and the savings on special book-keeping, reporting, accounting fees and other impositions.

It would be interesting to have a similar assessment of the situation in Canada.

The foregoing was chosen as an editorial of the week by the Weekly Bulletin of Largo, Florida. It was originally printed in the Kam-sack (Sask., Can.) Times. The Canadian observation of our income tax situation is worthy of consideration.

Taxes have ruined more than one nation and are capable of ruining many more. The weekly Bulletin is engaged in a commendable public service.

Off to the Moon!

NOWHERE TO NOWHERE

The Santa Fe New Mexican recently devoted a lengthy editorial to waste and inefficiency in the spending of funds under the multi-billion dollar interstate highway program. In its words, "We refer to the federal rules and regulations governing the Interstate Highway System which apparently were drafted by persons who never set foot west of the Appalachians."

The New Mexican deals with several examples of this needless waste. For one thing, the "limited access" rules which are necessary in heavily populated Eastern areas amount to nonsense in thinly-populated Western country. On the specific side, it points to an expensive cattle under-pass built near a New Mexico town, because the rules won't permit a rancher to make a once-a-year cattle drive across the highway — which blocked the highway for about an hour at a time of day when there was no traffic. It also cites a massive, high-cost interchange over a four-lane highway which "leads from nowhere to exactly nowhere."

The New Mexican is not alone in this kind of criticism of the highway program. Many other newspapers and magazines, as well as official investigative bodies, have made similar contributions to the record. The presently estimated cost of the completed system is many billions higher than the initial estimates. One reason is waste — and, in some revealed instances, fraud. A great many people are reaching the conclusion that the whole project is far too big and far too expensive — and that, in addition, there should be a relaxation of federal rules applying with equal force to congested and little-settled areas, and a policy of giving much more discretion to the state highway authorities who understand local needs and conditions.

FOR and AGAINST

for CHRIST-against COMMUNISM

BY BILLY JAMES HARGIS, LL.D.
 FOUNDER CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

The Force That Could Destroy Communism

There is a powerful force in America which could turn the tide against the international communist conspiracy, and eventually destroy that satanic menace to all we hold dear in America. That force is American business and industry. Unfortunately, business and industrial leaders of the United States have refused to take a serious look at the communist-socialist monstrosity which is destroying our nation. Of course, there are a few notable exceptions to this general tragic neglect.

In one of his weekly reports during 1959 Dan Smoot summed up the tragedy of the failure of American businessmen to oppose our enemies in the following words: "America's high standard of living has resulted primarily from the vision and aggressive leadership of businessmen, mass producing what the public wants... But in the most important area of all, the American businessman has stupidly neglected his own self interest; and in a business society like ours, when business betrays its own interests, it betrays the nation."

"While brilliantly developing a profit-motivated capitalism that has built the greatest nation on earth, the businessman has done little to maintain an intellectual climate necessary for his own survival... American businessmen have furnished the money for socialist-collectivists to brainwash the American people into believing that profit-motivated capitalism is bad! Businessmen have even failed to help educate their own employees in the meaning of free enterprise. While spending millions to give employees training in job skills, management leaves their training in economic and political thinking to able socialist professionals who run unions and most governmental agencies, and who control vast segments of such mass media as magazines, newspapers, radio and television.

"Result: management frequently finds that its own employees, having succumbed to socialist brainwashing, swell the ranks of those who will destroy the very system that makes their own good jobs possible."

Even though there are notable exceptions, as we mentioned above, the businessmen of America as a whole are allowing themselves and the nation to be destroyed by the communists and their allies without even fighting back. One of the crying needs in our nation today is for mass economic education. This essential program could be put on and put over by leaders of free enterprise business in America if these leaders themselves would read the truth, and then get into action on behalf of our nation.

Mary Weinzapfel William L. Birden Say Wedding Vows

Honeymooning at the Lake of the Ozarks are Mr. and Mrs. William Lowell Birden who were married here Saturday, Sept. 2. The bride is the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Weinzapfel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell C. Birden of Frankfort, Indiana.

The couple met at Marquette University where both are students. She was graduated from Our Lady of Victory Academy in Fort Worth after attending Sacred Heart School and is a graduate of the University of Dallas. She is nearing the end of her work on her master's degree in Economics.

Her husband, a petty officer, second class, U.S. Navy, was graduated from Sugar Creek High School and Purdue University. He is at Marquette as an active duty member of the Navy under the Naval Enlisted Scientific Educational Program. Upon completion of his course he will be commissioned an Ensign.

Bride's Brother Officiates
White gladiolas in sunburst arrangement decorated the altar before which the couple pledged vows. The Very Reverend Monsignor Thomas W. Weinzapfel of Dallas, brother of the bride, officiated. Also present in the sanctuary were the bride's brother, the Rev. Joseph Weinzapfel of Dallas and the Rev. Aleuin Kubis, pastor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in ivory satin. The gown, designed with fitted midriff, long tapered sleeves, sweetheart neckline and voluminous skirt with a cathedral train, is the dress worn by her sister Dora, Mrs. Hugh L. Jackson of Fort Worth, at her wedding in 1941.

A pearl tiara held the bride's waist-length veil and she carried a yellow-throated white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and feathered carnations. Only jewelry worn is a treasured keepsake, a gold link and pearl necklace, a gift from a former classmate who is now Sister Mary Ruth at OLV. For sentimental reasons — something old and something borrowed — the bride fashioned her tiara from a strand of pearls belonging to her mother.

Honor Attendants
Miss Judy Hellman of Tulsa, niece of the bride, and Henry Weinzapfel, the bride's brother, were honor attendants. P. W. Hellman, Tulsa, and Hugh L. Jackson ushered.

Miss Hellman wore a Kelly green taffeta dress with bell silhouette and matching accessories. Her flowers were a bouquet of yellow rose buds. Anthony Luke, organist, and Mrs. Roman Klement, vocalist, furnished wedding music. "Ave Maria" was presented pre-nuptially and "Mother at Your Feet" post-nuptially as the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine and the bride placed a bouquet of white gladiolas on the altar.

Reception and Dinner
Wedding reception and dinner followed immediately in the MHS dining room where Miss Carmen Jackson, niece of the bride, registered about 150 guests. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the smorgasbord and Mrs. Nick Miller carried out a color scheme of white, yellow and green in decorations.

The bride's table held the handsome three-tier wedding cake flanked by tapers in candleabra. White wedding bells and styrofoam wedding rings with yellow gladiolas as the floral complement completed the decor.

At Home in Milwaukee
When the couple left on their wedding trip she was wearing a brown tweed two-piece outfit with beige accessories. They will make their home at 6263 N. 84th St. in Milwaukee.

Out Of Town Guests
Among out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Lottie Young, aunt of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Tipton, Ind., Messrs. and Mmes. Hugh L. Jackson and family, Clyde and Dennis Morbitzer and their children, Floyd Morbitzer, Mrs. Katie Morbitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Howell and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips, all of Fort Worth.

Also Mr. and Mrs. William Weinzapfel and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hoff and Mrs. Katie Meurer, all of Windthorst; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hemmi of Scotland, Mrs. Margaret Rasch and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rasch of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Viegl and Mrs. Ed Otto of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hellman and daughters of Tulsa and two of the bride's former classmates Miss Sylvia Kotch of Bremond and Miss Mary Weaver of Borger.

St. Anne's Society Has Business Meet

Routine business and reports occupied members of St. Anne's Society at their September meeting Sunday night, Mrs. Frank Herr, president, presiding.

Mission Chairman Mrs. Joe Swirczynski told of sending fifty pounds of clothing to Fort Worth for St. Vincent's Store and having fifty pounds more ready to go. Mrs. Herbert McDaniel relayed information gathered by attendance at the quarterly meeting of the deanery NCCW in Sherman.

She asked members to save and turn in old nylon hose and eye glasses, either complete or frames or lenses. The latter cost-offs do tremendous good in providing glasses for poor people through "Eyes for the Needy."

Mrs. Herr explained how members can make a day of recollection at home and Father Martin gave a short reading entitled "A Mother's Mirror."

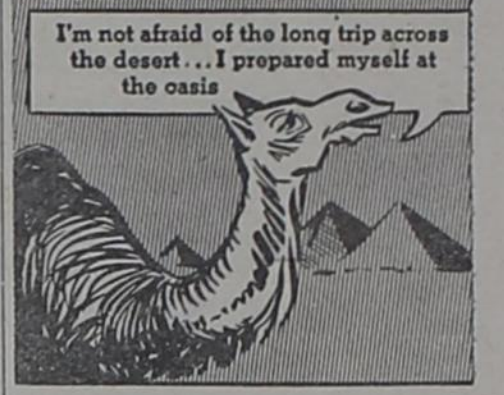

Members to serve refreshment when the North Texas district meeting on the Catholic State League is held here in October. A committee will be on hand to sell barbecue and chicken salad sandwiches and coffee.

Membership also decided to give a cash attendance prize at each monthly meeting and set the amount at one dollar. After business there was a social hour.

Misses Carolyn Cunningham and Margie and Lois Owen of Dallas were here Saturday through Monday with their parents, the Herb Cunninghams and the Ray Owens.

Miss Lavonia Williams has moved from a farm north of town to the former home of the Henry Felderhoffs which she bought. The Felderhoffs and family are settled in their new home on N. Hickory.

Garden Club Will Have Meet Monday

Muenster Civic League and Garden Club will meet Monday night to reorganize for a new year after being disbanded during the summer. Though no formal meetings were held in June, July and August members were not inactive and the program and year book committee was in session a number of times making plans for the new year, outlining programs and compiling copy for the new year books. Mrs. Dan Luke heads this committee. Likewise cemetery, park and highway committees worked through the summer. They will give their reports Monday. Mrs. Arthur Endres and Mrs. R. N. Fette will be co-hostesses for the September 11 meeting, entertaining in the latter's home. The program promises to be interesting with Mrs. Dan Luke giving a demonstration on memorial arrangements suitable for decorating graves on All Souls' Day. Starting time is 8 o'clock.

Tips From Your Hatchery

Worried with weeds or crab grass in your lawn? STA-GREEN, the new 10-5-5 fertilizer with Simazine kills weed and crab grass seed while seeding your lawn the newest and most effective lawn food. It's been tested by Dr. Gangstad of the Renner Experiment Station. His article on page 7 March issue of "Southwest Gardener" tells about Simazine. IT HAPPENED 20 YEARS AGO

Aug. 29, 1941
August, cool and wet this year, brought 4.19 inches of rain. Juanita Weinzapfel has appendicitis operation. Mrs. Mollie Walterscheid and family move this week from Tishomingo. Mary Wiedemann and her mother are back after spending the summer in Denton where Mary attended school. The Ed Jeskos and children are visiting her brother, R. M. Zipper and family. Sisters Anastasia, Theresina, Frances and Gebharda have arrived for the new school term. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hess and Mrs. and Mrs. John Hess and children are visiting relatives in Kentucky.

Sept. 5, 1941
Both Muenster Schools will open Monday; 350 children are expected to register on opening day. Garden Club and city sponsor weed-mowing campaign. Total rainfall for August is 6.90 inches. The J. B. Wildes and daughters return from trip to Kentucky, New York and Canada. Tommie Weinzapfel and Ray Wilde receive private pilot's license. Mrs. Henry Pick is recovering from major surgery. At last Muenster is dry — at least that is the opinion of state liquor control officers; most of Muenster prefers the town to be dry until beer is legalized and can be kept under control. Father Conrad moves into new rectory at Lindsay.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Early seedbed preparation is the first step toward getting a good stand of grass on waterway. The land should be plowed in the summer or early fall so that it can mellow during the winter rains and freezes. Land plowed at this time and worked just enough to keep it clean will be in good condition and will contain adequate moisture for planting grass in the spring.

Grass needs just as good a seedbed as any cash crop if it is to come up to a stand and make good growth. Early seedbed preparation means that the waterways must be located and marked out now so that waterway seedbed preparation will fit in well with normal summer and fall seedbed preparation for other crops.

Waterways are located at the time the terrace system is planned. However, the waterway must be installed and have a good grass cover before terraces can be built. A natural drainage way is generally the most satisfactory location for the waterway. Here the slope of the channel is usually the flattest in the field. Natural shape tends to confine the flow to the waterway.

Soil and moisture are favorable to vegetative growth. Sometimes, however, it is not practical or desirable to locate a waterway in a natural depression in the field. Waterway many times can be located along a field boundary where it will least interfere with farming operations. The waterway can usually be located where it may be fenced to connect with a pasture.
Waterways and terraces are an important part of conservation on cultivated land. They support cropping practices to help maintain and improve the land. Soil Conservationists with the Soil Conservation Service assist the Upper on a waterway problem can be secured.

Home Is the Hunter - We Hope

If the nation's communications systems were suddenly to blare out that sixty-six divisions of armed men would, within the next few weeks, be invading our marshes and forest lands the results would amount to a near panic. Yet this is exactly what's going to happen between now and October when more than a million bright-eyed nimrods will eagerly turn into walking arsenals, set out to drink in the autumn air and return home loaded with prized venison, rare fowl, and in some cases the pelt of a fellow hunter. This is also the time when forest rangers, gamekeepers, local sheriffs and first aid stations tensely prepare for the possible carnage that could ensue when the eagerly sought target turns out to be the backside of a brother in arms.

The National Rifle Association of America suggests that rigid adherence to a few basic rules of sane and sensible gun handling can spell the difference between a robust, happy holiday and tragedy. N.R.A.A.'s more than half million members live by these rules: (1) Treat Every Gun As If It Were Loaded—it is always the unloaded gun that seems to do the damage. (2) Always Point The Muzzle In A Safe Direction—the true gun expert is easy to spot by the way he handles his gun. (3) Be Sure Of Your Target—no trophy is worth an uncertain shot. (4) Be Sure Of Your Backstop—bullets can go for incredibly long distances. (5) Avoid Alcoholic Beverages Before And During Shooting—it really doesn't keep you warm and can affect your judgment.

A forest with its autumn colors is a beautiful thing to contemplate thus if you are not sure of your target, light up a cigar—sit down—relax until you have planned your next move.

Lindsay Knights will be looking for a win this Friday when they play at Collinsville. Game time is 7:30 p.m. In the season's opener last Friday, the Windthorst Trojans proved much too much for their visitors. The hosts romped to a 46-12 victory in the non-conference eight-man football game. Richard Haverkamp, talented Lindsay fullback, ran 40 yards for one of the tallies and Roy Morisak, quarterback, intercepted a pass and scooted 25 steps for the other.

Father John will be back Friday night from a two-day visit in Subiaco. The occasion of his trip was profession of temporary vows at the abbey by his nephew, Novice Edward Adams. While he was away Father Francis was in charge of the parish.

on the next series. Bearcats did the same. Failure to get off a kick cost the Hornets 5 on their next series. Pilot Point lost possession on a fumble and Muenster lost it on an interception.

That interception and a nice run back by J. Whitley to the 10 seemed to set up the Cats for their second TD. But Hornet defense was equal to the job and the series ended 2 yards short.

Muenster followed with a first down and kicked on the next series and Pilot Point was in business again on the 25. Two plays made 3 and 4 and J. Whitley on the next got around left end for a score. His brother Tom made 2 more points and the final count of 16-6.

With about 2 minutes left Muenster made two first downs to the Bearcat 29 as time ran out.

Tigers Rally - - -

repeated the performance for extra points.

On kick return Bayer shook off four tacklers to the Tiger 41 and quick kicked on third down, a dandy 44 yard tumbler against the wind setting the Bulldogs back to their 15.

Alvord advanced one first down but a holding penalty forced a kick on the next series. The kick return reached the 26.

Runs by Bayer plus two offside penalties on Alvord made two first downs to the 5. From there Bayer almost made it and Wolf sneaked the last half foot. A pass for extra point failed. The score 8-8.

Two passes produced the next Alvord TD. From the 30 Monk passed to Caraway for 38. Two plays later he heaved a long one that was obligingly tapped to Davis in the end zone. A try for extra points failed.

Kick off return reached the Tiger 47. Next play Pat Knabe snared Wolf's pass on a dead run and gained 34 to the 19. Bayer made 8 and Hennigan 3 to the 8. Bayer made 3, Klement 3, Bayer 1½, and Wolf sneaked over. The try for extra points failed and the score was 14-14.

In the final minutes Alvord made two first downs. Sacred Heart made one and was still going at the final whistle.

is forcing him to put up a brave and belligerent front.

All of us fervently hope that this appraisal by US News and World Report is correct and that leaders of the West will keep it firmly in mind at the upcoming conference that Krushchev is demanding on the Berlin issue. Favored by such facts they are in a position to talk turkey with the big bully, and for once to leave the conference with the lion's share of concessions.

Not to be overlooked is the danger of setting off a war, which could be Krushchev's last desperate effort. But even that would be preferable to allowing Krushchev the advantages which improve his chances of eventual world conquest.
