Council Invites Public for Talk On City Planning

As the storm settles down in Gainesville's hospital hassle it seems that Muenster will get a break. There's little doubt that the city will appoint a hospital authority, which then will quietly take over and proceed with the business of studying resources and needs, then strive for the best compromise between those two factors.

In the end, we feel, Gainesville will come out with a solution that is adequate and financially sound and does not impose a tax burden on people outside the city. We ask for no more than that. Muenster intends to have its hospital and lots of people are making big sacrifices to get it. In fairness they deserve to be relieved of the threat of taxation for support of another hospital.

The public is urged to attend the city council's regular meeting next Monday night when Marvin R. Springer of Dallas, a city planning engineer, will discuss matters that a city should consider when looking forward to future growth and development.

Mr. Springer is expected to present a message similar to that of his appearance before an area development seminar sponsored by TP&L in Dallas during the spring. Recommendations include such matters as zoning to protect the value of property, planning for best use of valuable space, allowing for growth in installation of water and sewer facilities, etc.

The inconsistency of the Administration is amazing. Last week President Kennedy delivered a courageous speech announcing our firm intention to defend right and principle in the Berlin issue, this week he asserts support of Adlai Stevenson's willingness to admit Red China to the United Nations.

It's hard to understand how he can reconcile one attitude with the other, how he can defy communism's advance in a hot war but tolerate it in the cold war.

Surely he must understand the many sad consequences of permitting such a thing to happen. The added strength of the communist conspiracy in the UN, which is already dangerously loaded with Reds. The shattering effect it would have on morale of remaining free peoples of Asia with the danger that they would lose heart and give in to red pressure. Our loss of respect and prestige before all decent people as a nation without the courage or integrity to stand up to its principles. The invasion of another mob of red spies taking over their share of official jobs in the UN. The presence of another enemy on the world court. And any number of other dangers that could develop just from having another powerful enemy in that vast and complex organization.

34 in. July Rain Gives No Relief To Local Drought

Rain that fell in practically all parts of the state in recent weeks did nothing to relieve this community's drought. The mere 3.4 inch that fell during July was ineffective in the serious dryness that goes back to the start of the month. Sub-normal rainfall in May and June was responsible for the dryness going into July, so the month's skimpy measure leaves the area in extra dry condition now. Combined with typically hot August weather this dryness is scorching both fields and pastures.

The puny rainfall sets no records, however. The lowest for July was .32 inch in 1957. And several months of the past ten years had lower figures. A few were total blanks.

Total rainfall for the year to date is 15.94 in., which is far below normal.

Progress Noted On Gainesville's Hospital Issue

Apparent progress toward solution of Gainesville's hospital problem was made Wednesday morning when the Gainesville city council in a special session named an 11 member committee to study the advisability of forming a hospital authority and to report their findings in two weeks.

The special session was a continuation of the regular meeting held the night before and adjourned about 10:30.

Central figure in both meetings was Johnnie Wilson who urged the council to form the hospital authority for the purpose of buying and improving M&S Hospital through the sale of revenue bonds. He said that a bonding firm was ready to sell the bonds also that he had an option for the purchase of M&S Hospital. That method was proposed as a means of avoiding a tax, he said.

About 120 persons were present at Tuesday night's hearing, all agreeing to the need of improved hospital facilities but not agreeing on the course to take. Many of them favored construction of a new hospital. Some favor improvements at both Gainesville hospitals. Some favor converting the present hospitals into nursing homes and building a new hospital.

To study those various proposals as well as the feasibility of a hospital authority for working out a solution was the assignment given to the special committee. The understanding was that they will be asked to serve as directors of the authority if, on their recommendation, it is created by the city council.

Named to the study committee are Al Simmons, Ralph Snuggs, F. E. Case, Dr. James Atchison, Ed Wright, Lambert Beznor, Ed Alexander, Virgil Taylor, Paul Campbell, Dick Stark and Ray Kilgore.

School Opening Date Changed to Thursday, Aug. 24
Opening of the two Muenster schools has been postponed from August 22 to 24. Father Bruno Fuhrmann and L. B. Bruns, superintendents, announced this week. They made the change after learning from the Texas Education Agency that the minimum number of required class days in the state will be 175, as usual, instead of 180 days, which was under consideration.

The schedule as drawn up here has extra days, to allow for suspending classes in bad weather.

On the first day of school children will receive books and assignments and be dismissed before noon. On the next day the regular schedule begins.

Both Schools to Start Football Practice Aug. 14

As far as players are concerned football in Muenster will begin on Monday, August 14. That's the date for boys of both schools to report for their first practice.

Both teams have new coaches this year. Adam Wolf, former assistant at Sacred Heart, will have charge of the Tigers, and his brother, Walter, will help him. Glenn Richardson, now a student at NTSU, will start his coaching career with the Hornets.

Each team has a 10 game schedule starting on Sept. 1. Sacred Heart will have seven home games, Muenster High will have five home games.

Denison to Host VFW Convention

Members of the Muenster VFW Post and Auxiliary have a general invitation to attend the District I weekend convention of the two organizations in Denison August 5 and 6, Saturday and Sunday.

Denison Post Home will be headquarters for the convention which includes a dance Saturday night, a joint banquet Sunday at noon and closed business sessions for the men and the women. Of interest to the Auxiliary is the announcement that Department President Lynette Self will be present.

Doing fine in recovering from major surgery is J. W. Hess who is out and around again and getting back into circulation.

Douglas Robison is making improvement in recovering from a fractured vertebra. He has a brace now and may get to leave the hospital this weekend.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Seven-year-old Vivian Yosten had hard luck while having fun at the local swimming pool Friday. A bump on the concrete broke off her two top front teeth almost at the gum line and she had to be hurried to a dentist to have one of the nerves removed and the other sealed in an effort to save the roots. A capping job is planned for later on, depending on how the roots respond to treatment.

Greeting cards will help cheer young Clinton Endres who has a long time to spend in Gainesville Sanitarium. His right leg is still in traction on account of a break between the hip and knee and will be that way for a few more weeks. After that he'll have to be in a full length cast for six to eight weeks. Clinton can't move around or turn over but he can enjoy cards and cheerful greetings will make the days seem less long.

Wedding anniversary — their 55th — was no day of celebration for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Higgins but it was a glad day for them both because Mr. Higgins was back at home, dismissed from the Sanitarium after nine days of treatment and blood transfusions following severe nose hemorrhaging. He is regaining his strength at home and that made the anniversary a happy one.

The Leonard Walterscheids of Moab, Utah, who planned to start home Monday have been delayed in Dallas where their daughter, nine-year-old Cindy, was struck down by a car near the home of relatives while the family was visiting there before starting their homeward drive after visiting here. The little girl was not seriously injured, according to a telephone report to her grandparents, the August Walterscheids but was taken to a hospital with cuts and bruises and they have to wait until she is dismissed before continuing their trip.

Dennis Hess had plastic surgery at Baylor Hospital Tuesday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hess, took him to Dallas Monday and brought him home Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed Eberhart, 1201 Culbertson, Gainesville, is showing improvement after a serious illness following a heart attack Saturday. . . her second of the week and severe enough to put her under oxygen at the Sanitarium through Monday. Members of her family, including a daughter, Mrs. Julius Stelzer of Post, have been in constant attendance at her bedside.

In Wichita Falls the past week for a routine checkup little Vickie Scoggins was dismissed from doctor's care after two years of treatment, therapy and checkups to correct foot trouble.

Jerry Albers, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Albers of Dallas, is out of a cast for the first time since April 20 when he broke his leg in a car-scooter crash. He'll be a bed patient six weeks, the doctor said, then start getting around on crutches. His grandfather Fred Herr and the Harry Scoggins family visited him twice recently, the last time Tuesday after the cast was removed.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Paul Fuhrmann of Lindsay have announced the birth of Albert Joe who arrived Saturday, July 29, 5:29 p.m. at Gainesville Sanitarium weighing eight pounds five and a half ounces. He has five brothers and two sisters and is a grandson for the Willie Fuhrmanns and the J. C. Schmidkofers. At his baptism Sunday, his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidkofers, were godparents.

Pamela Rose, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Herr of Wichita Falls arrived Saturday, July 29, at Bethania Hospital. Her sisters are Tina, Kathy and Janice and her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herr of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mages of Gainesville. And Mrs. Katie Roberg has another great-grandchild. The three little girls are visiting with their grandparents in Gainesville and Mrs. Herr has gone to Wichita Falls to be with her son and his wife and the new baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Klement have named their baby son Kevin George. The eight pound 11 ounce lad joined a family of eight girls and five other boys Thursday, July 27, at Gainesville Sanitarium 1 a.m. His christening ceremony was held Sunday afternoon, Father Alcuin officiating and Joyce and Robert Klement as sponsors for their baby brother. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klement and Theo Schmitz of Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kubis of Gainesville have announced the birth of their son and first child who arrived at M&S Hospital Friday, July 28, 1:30 p.m. weighing seven pounds two ounces. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kubis of Lindsay and there are two great-grandmothers, Mrs. Barney Voht of Muenster and Mrs. Elizabeth K. Kubis of Lindsay.

D. O. Robison, 89, Bulcher Pioneer, Claimed by Death

D. O. Robison, 89, pioneer Cooke County and former Bulcher resident, died Sunday 2:45 p.m. in a Gainesville hospital after several weeks of illness. He had resided in Gainesville since 1948 when he retired from his farm north of Muenster.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Harvey Street Baptist Church at Gainesville and burial followed in Coker Cemetery at Bulcher. The Rev. C. M. Thomas officiated assisted by the Rev. Leon Westbury, pastor of the church. George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Bearers were Harold Otts, James Boone, Bob Hutchison, Roy Ramsey, Doyle Geiser, Hub Seigler, Lynn Lovett, Bobby Ragsdale, and Mac Dees.

David Osmond Robison was born May 30, 1872, in Carroll County, Tenn., and came to Cooke County 70 years ago. He settled at Bulcher and was married to Miss Emma Jewel Smith on August 16, 1896.

Survivors are his wife; four sons, County Commissioner Earl Robison and Ernest Robison of Muenster, Willis Robison of Gainesville and Leslie Robison of Kilgore; two daughters, Mrs. Calvin Dennis of Dallas and Mrs. Otha Whaley of Fritch; 22 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

Hoseas to Teach In Grants, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hosea, former members of the public school faculty, will teach next year in the school system of Grants, N. M. He will teach mathematics. She will teach elementary subjects. During the four years since they left here they have been in the Grapevine school.

The Hoseas stopped here Saturday night and Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trubenbach Jr. on the drive to their new home. John Jr. did not accompany the family. He will continue attending Arlington State College. In Grants the Hoseas will live a few blocks from the M. D. Kaderlis.

Ikard Presents "Capitol Flag" to Parochial School

A new fifty-star flag that has flown over the nation's capitol is destined to fly over Sacred Heart School soon. It is a gift of Congressman Frank Ikard.

The presentation results from a visit to the congressman's office by Sisters Genevieve and Carmelita on Tuesday of last week, and their tour through the Capitol. Their guide was Kenny Leach, who used to visit the Enterprise frequently as a staff member of the Leopard Tale, Gainesville High School's newspaper.

While on the tour Kenny learned that Sacred Heart School has no 50-star flag and mentioned it to Mr. Ikard. He bought one and instructed the Architect of the Capitol to have it flown over the nation's headquarters. A certificate to be sent with the flag will say that it has flown over the Capitol.

Giants and Ravens Are Champions of Baseball Leagues

Kids baseball in Muenster for 1961 came to an end during the past week with Giant and Ravens out in front of their respective loops.

In the Junior League the Giants improved on their previous standing by taking both ends of this double header. Last Friday night they beat the Dodgers 14-6 and the Angels 15-9.

In the Pee Wee League the Ravens held on to their perfect record, again winning by a count that was too close for comfort. They beat the Parakeets 15-12. Next the Jays and Cardinals had an equally tight game. When it ran out of time at 10 o'clock, the Jays were ahead 14-12. In doing so they knotted the loop in a three way tie for second place. Each group has a 2-4 record.

As the season folds up, Supervisor L. B. Bruns expresses the gratitude of the sponsor, Community Progress Association, to all who had a part in the program. He thanks adults who served as managers and officials, the fans who attended and the youngsters who played. The final standings are as follows.

PEE WEE LEAGUE
Ravens	6	0 1000
Cardinals	2	4 333
Jays	2	4 333
Parakeets	2	4 333
JUNIOR LEAGUE
Giants	6	1 858
Angels	4	3 572
Dodgers	0	6 000

Catholic League Hears Warnings On Red Advances

Delegates and visitors to the 63rd annual convention of the Catholic State League at Weimar heard stern warnings of the dangers threatening the United States due to the inroads of communism in Latin American countries. The speaker was John Carroll of the Houston chapter of the Cardinal Mindszenty Foundation.

Mr. Carroll revealed facts gathered on a recent trip through Latin America. He found many communist activities in almost every country, and stated that communists were spending about $100 million on propaganda. Red publications are available on most of the news stands.

Conditions in Cuba were described by Dr. Jose Mendes, who fled from his native country after Castro's regime came to power. He said Cubans have been robbed of property and freedom, and related heart-breaking happenings. He pleaded with Americans to be alert to prevent the same from happening here.

Business of the convention was made up of separate sessions of affiliated sections of men, women, youth and insurance. One of the youth meetings presented awards for the league's annual essay contest on Rural Life. Alvin Haeker of Muenster was awarded a bronze plaque for third in the boys' division.

Leaders elected are Bernhard Reininger, San Antonio, president of the League and also of the men's section; Mrs. S. J. Marturano, Temple, president of ladies section; Anthony Jung, Fredericksburg, youth group; Dr. Hugo Jaekle Jr., insurance union.

Hospital Drive Pledges to Date Reach $205,675

Gradually the Muenster hospital campaign is inching toward its goal. During the past two weeks it has added $7,316.42 bringing the present total of subscriptions to $205,675.43.

At the same time the cash fund is building up gradually, the combined value of cash and securities being about $63,000.

Referring to the drive's progress Chairman J. M. Weinzapfel commented Wednesday that, with less than $45,000 still to go, there can be little doubt that the campaign will reach its goal. People who have been holding back are urged to accept that fact and respond soon so that arrangements for building can be started at an early date.

When the final drive was started the hope was to finish it by August 15, which would allow time to get an application ready for consideration of the State Board of Health at its September meeting. There's still time to meet the deadline, Weinzapfel said, but we must hurry.

One factor still affecting the local hospital drive is Gainesville's hospital problem. While people there are disagreed and while a county hospital tax is not definitely ruled out, some Muenster people are slow to make up their minds. Meetings of campaign workers are held every Thursday in the public school. Persons not working now are invited to join the group and help bring the campaign to an earlier conclusion.

Gainesville Man Will Direct Band At Muenster High

Charles Ray Lynch, a native of Gainesville, will be band director and librarian at Muenster public school. He is single. Superintendent L. B. Bruns announced the appointment after seeing him here Wednesday.

Lynch has completed three years in the TCU music department and will continue his work in summer school. During that time he has been a member of the TCU Horned Frog band. Last year he was the band's vice president. His intention is to introduce the Horned Frog style in the Muenster band.

Also considered is a chorus provided enough interest is shown.

Field Mass and Honor Court Mark Boy Scout Outing

Fourteen Boy Scouts and their fathers attended the dad and lad Scout campout at Lake Texoma over the weekend and along with their guests and Scoutmaster Nick Miller had a fun-filled Saturday and Sunday. Mothers and other family members joined in the Sunday program of activity.

Two outstanding events marked the outing. A field mass was celebrated by Father Alcuin Kubis at the campsite Sunday at 10:30 a.m. and an outdoor Court of Honor was held. Seven Scouts were tagged for advancement and their mothers were pinned with miniature duplicate badges.

Father Alcuin and Scoutmaster Miller conducted the ceremony.

Boys moving up in Scouting are Rickie Stewart and Lawrence Bruns Jr., advanced to second class status, and five earning Star Scout rank. The Star Scouts are Joe Hartman, Willie Wimmer, Sammy Endres, Wayne Reiter and Dwayne Pagel.

The mass drew a big attendance of people holidaying at the Lake and someone counted 233 present.

After services the Scout party featured a picnic dinner and an afternoon of water sports.

Two other members of the troop who were prevented from attending the outing also received badges. Daniel Hoenig earned Star rank and David Hoenig advanced to second class scouting.

A CHARGE ACCOUNT IS NOT PROSPERITY

Sure, you can spend millions for a fancy new Senate office building; a "railroad" so that Congress won't have to walk even across the street to work; printing millions of pages of "reports" you'll never read. Just add that staggering total to the national debt. And of course you can pay for veterans more than five billion dollars every year (much of it for non-service illness). Just charge it to the deficit.

What's another few billions for roads that those who use them should buy, and for schools in communities where people could pay for them, and "benefits" of many kinds to more and more large-voter groups.

"Just charge it."

Except that that adds to debt, which makes your savings and pension worth less. It adds to taxes, which makes your wages buy less. It adds to prices, which means inflation at the expense of American jobs.

And the first of the month when the bills come in, is getting very close indeed for this country.

A LIMIT TO AMBITION

One admires ambition. But there is a point where ambition — if successful — must be halted in the public interest.

This applies with full force to the Teamsters Union. As was made abundantly clear at its recent meeting in Miami, its president and undisputed boss, Jimmy Hoffa, intends to create a labor empire of unprecedented power. There is hardly an important field of enterprise which he means to leave untouched. This would mean that one union, dominated by one man, could virtually bring the economic life of the nation to a halt. If it were so decided, not a train or a truck or a ship would operate. No commodities would move on any significant scale. The national security could be imperiled to the point of disaster.

Mr. Hoffa has said that he would never call a national transportation strike. But times, circumstances, attitudes and people change. The fact that such power existed, even though latent, would be an intolerable threat.

This is a very different thing from a union versus industry fight over wages or working hours or fringe benefits or anything else. This will decide if a single organization can have what amounts to life and death power over the nation. The law must restrict privilege as well as guarantee rights. The national interest, which includes the national security, must always come first.

EXPENSIVE READING

In roughly the amount of time it takes to read these editorials the federal deficit has increased by $50,000. This may sound like awfully expensive reading but it's true, according to a recent report in the Senate by Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.)

Williams told the Senate that the federal deficit has been mounting at the rate of $1 million per hour since President Kennedy took office. That's better than $16,600 per minute or just about $50,000 for three minutes.

He also said the New Frontier program is expending federal payrolls at the rate of more than four employees every five minutes since the new administration took over.

Even when figures of federal finances are brought down to this level, it's hard to grasp them. For example, how many years would the average wage-earner have to work in order to earn $50,000?

This is only one illustration of how big our government is becoming . . . and how expensive. Surely, the time has come to put a tighter rein on federal spending.

The Way of Business

A man lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing so he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers. But he sold good hot dogs. He put up a sign on the highway telling how good they were. He stood by the side of the road and cried: "Buy a hot dog, Mister." And people bought.

He increased his meat and roll orders. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. He got his son home from college to help him. But then something happened. . . His son said, "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio? If money stays 'tight', we are bound to have bad business. There may be a big depression coming on. You had better prepare for poor trade."

Whereupon the father thought, "Well, my son has gone to college. He reads the papers and he listens to the radio, and he ought to know." So the father cut down on his meat and roll orders. Took down his advertising signs. And no longer bothered to stand on the highway to sell hot dogs. And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight. "You're right son," the father said to the boy. "We certainly are headed for a depression."

What We're Leaving To Our Children:

The recklessly planted seeds of inflation that can grow and wipe out savings, insurance, bonds, pensions, security. Whenever the government spends a single dollar more than it takes in, that is another seed of poisonous inflation.

The brain-numbing habit of looking to government for "security" — destroying the self-reliance that built America and without which this nation cannot survive.

The encouragement of pressure groups to "get theirs" at the expense of the nation, by threatening elected officials with defeat unless they truckle to those militant minorities.

Not such a wonderful legacy to leave your children, is it? If the parents would recapture self-respect by self-reliance for a change, there might still be some of America left in the estate you leave.

Warner & Swasey

"When small men begin to cast long shadows, it is a sure sign that the sun is setting"

And too many small men are casting deeply black shadows across America today.

Small-minded business men, more interested in making an easy dollar by manipulation than a harder dollar by producing values.

Petty politicians who act as though they rule the people rather than serve them.

Selfish labor leaders more interested in power than in America, even though their greed brings high costs, destructive inflation, deadly depression.

Greedy people in many walks of life, who want their special interests supported by all taxpayers, when they ought to be paying their own bills.

Long shadows like these will continue to grow until the entire country is in eclipse, unless the real people, who do the work and pay the taxes, wake up to their responsibility and opportunity. By voice and vote, they can take their country back again, and insist on honest values once more, greater public integrity, and hard work so that everyone will earn what he gets. And we had better do it, before that sun sets.

Any Man Can Spoil Himself

He can allow himself to grow so sensitive that he lives in constant pain. He can nurse his grudges until they are an intolerable burden. He can think himself insulted until he is apt to be. He can believe the world is against him until it is. He can imagine troubles until they become real. He can hold so many under suspicion that no one believes him. He can look so askance at his friends until they are no longer friends. He can think himself so important that no one else does. He can have such a good opinion of himself that no one else enjoys his presence. He can become so wrapped up in himself that he becomes very small. — Cheer Magazine.

Not until shortly before noon on Tuesday of every working week does the average taxpayer start working to support himself and his family.

The tax experts figure that it takes the first 11 hours and 25 minutes of the 40-hour working week for the taxpayer to make enough money to pay all the taxes — both obvious and hidden — levied by the Federal, state and local governments.

TEDDY ON AUTOMATION

It seems that Teddy Roosevelt, who probably never heard of "automation," had an answer for critics who said it would reduce the number of jobs.

While he was watching steam shovels scoop up earth at a dam site, someone remarked: "Think of the jobs we would create if we put men in there with shovels, eh Teddy?"

"Yes," replied Teddy scathingly, "and we could multiply that number by thousands if we equipped them with tea-spoons."

Something more precious than gold is flowing out of this country

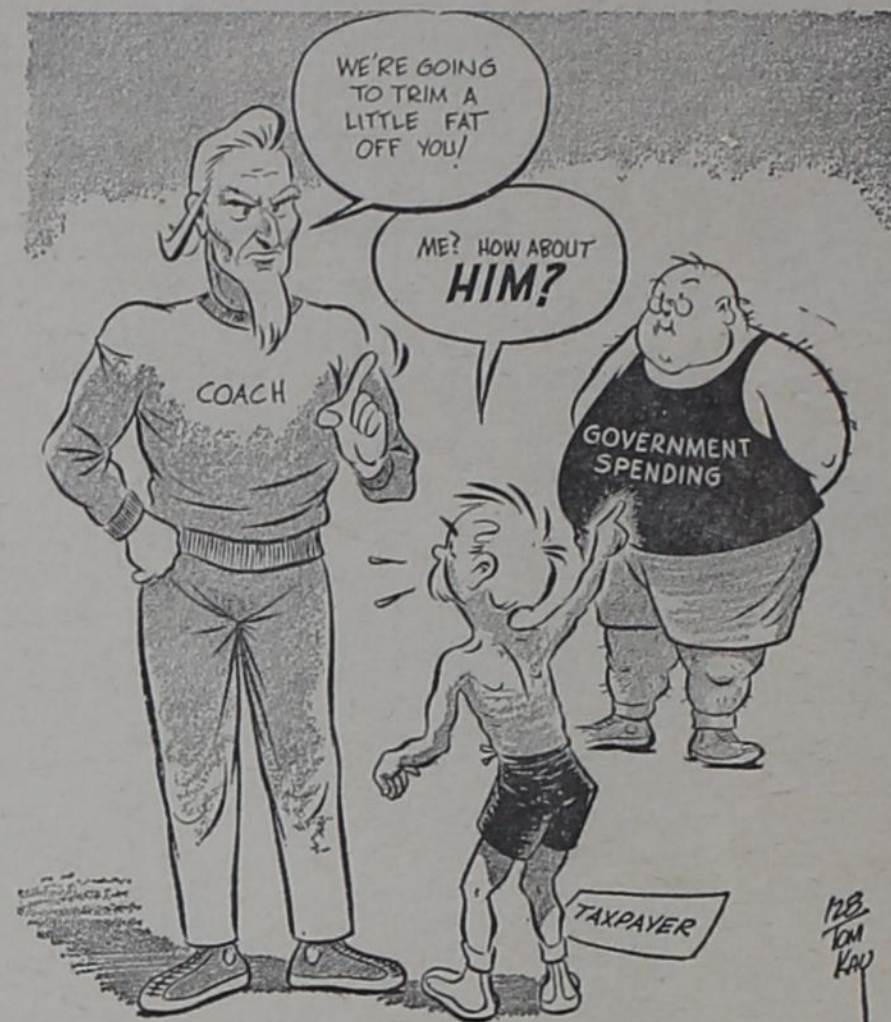

Character, integrity self-reliance — it is the loss of these American traits that is leaving us more impoverished than the out-flow of gold.

As long as Americans earned what they were paid, produced more for more wages, saved for their own security, paid their bills and demanded others do the same — as long as Americans acted like Americans, there was no worry about gold, or balance of payments, or value of the dollar. The dollar was impregnable because American character was behind it.

But when the greedy something-for-nothing, the whining somebody-else-not-me selfishness has sapped American character, American strength goes out with it, as it always does.

As these messages quoted in 1942, "It is later — and worse — than you think."

Class Has Fun at Autograph Party

Seniors of 1961 from both local schools gathered at the David Trachta home one night for an autograph party. Both school annuals had arrived recently.

The party was fun for about 40 young people. After inscribing the year books the group had a wiener roast in the yard and then danced to recording on the patio.

This was before Jim Schumacher left for military training and it was also a farewell party for him — a chance for a visit with his classmates and other friends. His mother and his sister Sharon shared hostess duties.

Miss Mollenkopf Virgil Henscheid Say Vows at Mass

In Sacred Heart Church here July 29 at 4 p.m. Miss Joaline Mollenkopf became the bride of Virgil Henscheid with Father Alcuin Kubis officiating at the nuptial high mass and double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. George Mollenkopf and the late Mr. Mollenkopf and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henscheid.

The bride entered the church with her mother who presented her for marriage. Her wedding gown was fashioned of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over taffeta, over pleated nylon tulle, the aisle-wide skirt sweeping into a cathedral train. Sequins outlined the portrait neckline of the moulded bodice which had long petal point sleeves.

A queen's crown of seed pearls held her tiered veil of illusion which cascaded to her waist and she carried a purple orchid showered with white satin streamers atop a white prayerbook belonging to her mother.

Brother and sister of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. George Mollenkopf Jr., were bridal attendants. She wore a mint green nylon lace dress over taffeta, the bouffant skirt scalloped around the sweep hemline. Her crown pillbox hat, scalloped around the edge, was of the same material and she carried a nosegay of pink rose buds. Ted Henscheid and Herbie Yosten ushered.

Mrs. Ervin Henscheid was vocal soloist before the mass and again afterwards as the bride placed white gladioli on the Blessed Virgin's altar. Anthony Luke was organist and the men's choir sang the mass.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mollenkopf wore a pink lace dress with rose and white accessories. Mrs. Henscheid, mother of the groom, wore a green sheer outfit with beige accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Wedding reception and buffet, catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz, was held in the Parish Hall with some 200 guests present. Miss Charlene Otto was at the bride's book. A dance in the VFW Hall concluded festivities.

When they left on their wedding trip to Colorado the bride was wearing a navy blue suit with white accessories. They will make their home in Denison at 315 W. Morton. He is employed in that city since his return from army duty in Germany. Both are graduates of Sacred Heart High School and she has been on the staff at the Center Coffee Shop.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Yosten of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Walterscheid of Moab, Utah, Mrs. Walter Acker of Midkiff, Miss Janie Hesse of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Ramie Hesse, Mrs. Beatrice Jackamo and Miss Sheila Derichsweiler, all of Denison, Ruth Endres of Fort Worth, Jim Myrick of Artesia, N. SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Madrid sweet clover is still "king" of the soil building crops in the Muenster-Saint Jo area. And it can be a fair cash crop too as most co-operators know and as proven by Jim Embry of Saint Jo this summer.

Jim had 20 acres of barley that he overseeded with Madrid clover in the spring of 1960. It was grazed some after the barley came off but was allowed to make seed this spring. Jim has just harvested slightly under 800 pounds of seed per acre. If past results hold true the yield of following crops will increase by ten to twenty per cent, too. Jim says, "That's not a bad return for an investment of about 20 pounds of clover seed and 100 pounds of 0-45-0 fertilizer."

Soil Conservation Service technicians staked about 12,000 feet of terraces on Leroy Sicking's place the past week. These channel type terraces outlet onto Bermuda grass waterways that Leroy sodded in the spring of 1960.

Joe Lewter is maintaining about 5000 feet of terraces and is building another 4000 feet of new ones on his farm southeast of Muenster. Earlier terraces were constructed without a waterway for safe outlet. In 1959 waterways were sodded and Joe is extending the old terraces onto the grass.

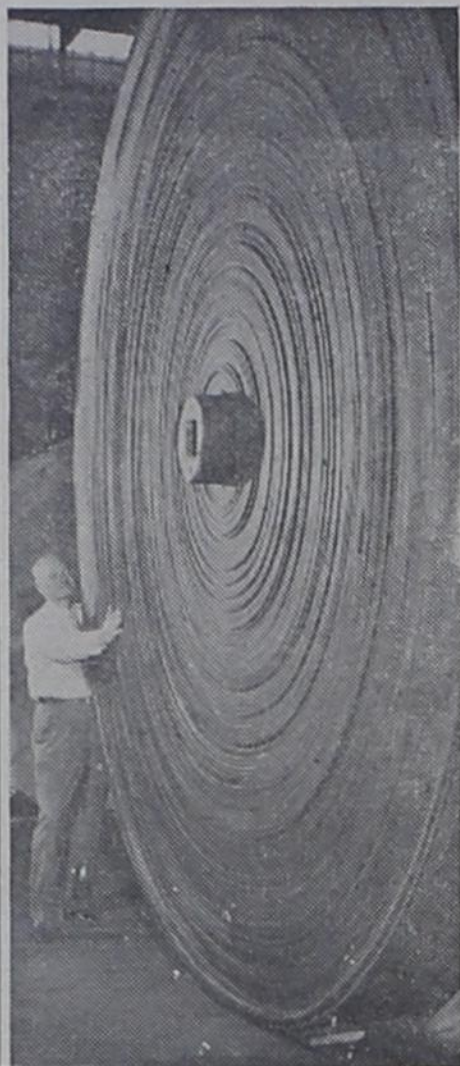

Louis Sicking is building over a mile of new terraces on his place seven miles southwest of Muenster.

Landowners can build terraces for 3/4 cent a linear foot this year under the agricultural conservation cost-sharing program.

"If your land needs terracing, and all sloping fields in the area do, you can't afford to wait at this price," say local SCS technicians.

Six Traffic Signs Are Life Savers

That's what the nation's traffic signs are, J. O. Musick, General Manager of The Texas Safety Association said today.

"Traffic Signs," he said, speaking in behalf of the National Safety Council's Signs of Life program. "Are designed to protect human life. It is essential motorists know the Signs of Life by sight — and obey them without fail."

"Traffic signs represent the expert thinking of traffic engineers and safety officials. The signs are designed for your protection."

He urged motorists to learn these six signs by shape so they can recognize them on sight:

1. Octagon . . . red with white lettering. Means come to a full stop and make sure the way is clear before proceeding. This is a revision of the older stop sign painted yellow with black lettering. But the meaning remains the same.
2. Triangle . . . yellow with black lettering reading "Yield Right of Way." Signifies slow down or stop at intersection to give right of way to cross traffic
3. Rectangle . . . white with lettering in black or another color. Indicates traffic laws concerning parking restrictions, speed limits and turning and passing regulations, for example.
4. Round . . . yellow with "X" and "RR" in black lettering. Warns of a highway-railroad crossing 300-500 feet ahead.
5. Diamond . . . yellow with black lettering. Warns of such dangerous or unusual conditions ahead as curves, side roads, intersections, hills, dips, bumps, school zones.
6. Crossbuck . . . tall white railroad sign with black lettering. Usually placed within 15 feet of a highway-railroad crossing.

Texas Molehills
Texans often are accused of making mountains out of molehills. But, you have to admit, we have some pretty big molehills in Texas.

above sea level. All of these are in our highly touristed western tip of Texas. Our tallest molehill is Guadalupe Peak. It is 8,751 feet high and is located near the New Mexico border in Culbertson County.

Our Texas mountain-molehills once served as guideposts for early travelers — somewhat like a landlubber's light-house.

During the five-year period from 1956 to 1960, snake bites claimed 13 Texas lives during the same period insects resulted in the deaths of 30 persons.

In 1960 there were 18 total snake and insect-bite deaths in Texas, the largest number since 1944, when there were 23 such deaths.

An interesting coincidence can be found by examining rainfall averages for various years, and then relating them to the number of snake and insect bite deaths.

For instance, 1956 had no death from such bites — this was the peak year of the recent drought. The following year, there was a jump to nine insect-bite deaths and one snake-bite death.

Every Texan recalls the spring rains and floods that year.

Rainfall has remained fairly average over the past four years providing an increase in undergrowth, shrubs and other insect and snake-harboring conditions.

Early warm springs also add to the numbers of snakes and insects active in the summer and fall.

In a recent national study involving a five-year period, it was found bees, wasps, hornets and yellow jackets killed 86 persons compared with 71 from snake bites and 39 from spiders.

Bees alone took 52 lives when victims were allergic to their poisons.

Best defense against insect and snake bites is to be watchful. Tramping through woods with thick undergrowth can be asking for trouble.

Around the home, look carefully in tall bushes and vines before trimming to make sure there are no insect nests.

When exposed to snake-ridden areas, carry a snake-bite kit. If bitten, be still to keep circulation at minimum rate while applying snake-bite procedures or waiting for help. The victim should seek medical aid from a physician as soon as possible.

People nowadays worry too much about money. Why should we worry? We have a sound economy in this country. Before you're 21 your parents take care of you. After you're 65 the government takes care of you. All you have is a mere 44 years to look after yourself.

At a White House dinner given by the late President Coolidge, nervous guests decided to do everything Silent Cal did. Things moved nicely until coffee was served. The President poured his into a saucer. So did the others. He added sugar and cream. The guests did likewise. Then Coolidge leaned over and gave his to the cat.

4 Million Benefit From Changes in Social Security

Changes in the social security law, signed by the President June 30, took effect on August 1. More than four million persons are estimated to benefit from the revisions.

Included in the changes, which the President called "financially sound and socially responsible," are provisions: 1. Increasing the minimum benefit to $40.

2. Increasing widows' benefit by 10 percent.

3. Lowering the amount of work-credits to become eligible for benefits.

4. Making old-age benefits available to men at age 62.

The House Committee on Ways and Means, reporting on the amendments to the security law, had said, "The provision of benefits at age 62 for men will help to alleviate the hardships faced by that group of men who, because of ill health, technological unemployment or other reasons, find it impossible to continue working until they reach 65."

That Committee estimated that 560,000 persons would get benefits under this change during the next 12 months.

It is estimated also that one and a half million widows will get the increase in the widows' benefit and that more than 2 million persons would be affected by the increased minimum benefit.

Those persons eligible for the increases will receive them in their checks early next month, Gus Jones, manager of the Sherman office of the Social Security Administration, said today. The increases will be made automatically, he said, and there is no need to apply for the increases.

About 160,000 persons who are not now getting benefits would become eligible during the next 12 months under the lower work-credit requirement.

Jones said that a number of older persons who had applied for benefits before, but who were ineligible because they or their husbands did not meet the old requirement, might now be eligible.

Such people should check again with their local social security office to see if they are now eligible.

It is only 18 miles across the English Channel from Dover, England to Calais, France.

will allow them no part in shaping the destinies of free peoples.

During the past week we heard some brave talk about seizing the initiative in the cold war. Does this look as though we are doing it? Isn't it about time for us to show some resistance in the UN and put a stop to the red encroachment which has already practically dominated that organization?

If we're going to talk big about taking initiative why don't we launch our own counter offensive against the reds? By the rules of UN, by the simplest standards of conscience and common sense, we have a right and duty to demand the elimination of a lot of sorry conditions already permitted to creep into that body. It's high time to quit compromising with evil and start fighting for what is right, to distinguish between God's side and Satan's in playing global politics.

The panicky egg heads, quaking in their boots, have a silly idea that they can eventually win by sacrificing principle for expediency. In the first place they're so tragically wrong. In the second place they're wrong again in their ideas of expediency. Can anyone see how they expect to gain by allowing themselves to be crowded into a corner?
