Newspapers and magazines of this country, as well as the people who read them, should all be grateful to Representative Ralph Beerman of Nebraska for his recent remarks in Congress relative to a proposed increase in rates for second class mail.

Briefly stated, his contention is that the effect of the measure would be to penalize our own publishers and the tradition of a free American press while subsidizing the communist controlled press of other countries.

His logic on the subject is unshakable. He refers to the billions that have been given to Poland, Yugoslavia, Indonesia and other countries with a state controlled press. In all those countries the press is a vital part of the government's propaganda machine and a definite factor in the government's operating budget. The aid which subsidizes those countries subsidizes also their publication of the flood of propaganda which is intended to poison minds all over the world against us and our way of life.

As regards the propaganda reaching this country we pay a double subsidy. After helping pay for its publication abroad we pay for its distribution over here. That's the net effect of the current Post Office policy which distributes free of charge anywhere in this country all the communist propaganda that is shipped in. The expense of that free delivery is a part of the Postal Department's deficit, which is made up out of the tax money that you and I have to pay in.

Referring to that deficit Postmaster General Day seemed to overlook the expense of subsidizing our enemy but pointed accusingly at second class mail for failure to carry its share of the cost. "If the Congress decides that second class rates shall not be raised substantially," he declares, "then, by that decision Congress will have determined that the fair price for delivering newspapers and magazines must continue to be paid, in part, by the taxpayers of our nation."

His solicitude for the taxpayer is touching and unique. Why this sudden concern in contradiction to the long time federal policy of piling on expenses regardless of the taxpayer's wishes? The more likely motive is simply that rate increase seems to be a feasible method of raising a part of the funds required by the government's sky-rocketing budget.

Even conceding that the Postmaster General's solicitude is genuine, however, we see no justification for his failure to give first attention to his expense of subsidizing the enemy's operation. The proper and patriotic solution to his deficit problem would be first to stop the free handling of red propaganda, and next to recommend that additional money needed by his department be acquired by reducing handouts to our enemies. In other words he should suggest taking subsidies away from the enemy and giving them to those who are struggling to preserve the American Way.

Another thought worthy of the Postmaster General's consideration is the ultimate effect his proposal can have on our nation. Our traditional freedom of the press would suffer in two ways: some publications would go out of business, and many readers would stop their subscriptions to those remaining.

There is no doubt that the proposed enormous increase would be sufficient to break many newspapers and magazines. And those who survived could do so only by adding their increased cost to the price of their subscriptions. Many subscribers, unwilling or unable to pay more would cancel their subscriptions.

In the long run it's possible that postal increases would actually cause a decline in postal revenue. If enough publishers went broke and enough readers cancelled their subscriptions, income might be reduced in spite of higher rates. Prices, like taxes, can reach the point of diminishing returns.

The great issue, however, is whether this nation will reverse its traditional policy of supporting freedom by helping the many publications which help to sustain our freedom. Does it wish to decrease circulation of daily and weekly newspapers, of agricultural, religious, educational, scientific, economic and other magazines (Continued on page 8)

Blessing Ceremony and Open House Marks Completion of Sisters' Home

With a tribute of gratitude to the Olivetan Benedictine Sisters and congratulations to Sacred Heart Parish, Bishop Thomas K. Gorman Monday afternoon delivered the principal address in connection with the blessing of the Sisters' new $149,900 convent and chapel.

Sacred Heart parishioners, joined by scores of visitors, including members of the clergy and nuns from a wide area, witnessed the service after Benediction in church by His Excellency at 2 p.m.

"We owe a tribute of gratitude to the Sisters who labor so well and sacrifice much for our schools," the Bishop said. "And the parish is due congratulations for providing a suitable home for them."

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. H. J. Fuhrmann is back at home, dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium last Thursday, after treatment for a vertebra injury sustained in a fall. She will be a shut-in for some time continuing recovery and is still a bed patient.

Mrs. Henry Luke had serious major surgery at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas last Friday. Her husband was with her through Saturday and on his return reported favorably on the operation but said Mrs. Luke will remain a patient indefinitely.

Frank Needham is back at his home, dismissed from Community Hospital in Sherman Sunday and is regaining his strength after a major operation. He is still required to stay in bed this week. His daughter Mrs. Joaline Roberg of Gainesville is here to be with him until he is up and around.

Mrs. Andy Hofbauer and son Larry Hofbauer came home Saturday from Dalas bringing good reports on Andy Hofbauer who is making steady progress in recovering from a major operation at St. Paul's Hospital.

Mrs. Hofbauer and Larry went back again Sunday taking Jeannine with them to see her daddy. Andy will be hospitalized through this week and his wife and son will be back and forth and not in constant attendance at his bedside as they were last week.

J. A. Sanders who was hospitalized at the Sanitarium last Thursday night for medical care and observation after a back injury on the job and following illness was dismissed Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Wilson had a drive to Dallas and back Tuesday by Scott Bros ambulance. She went for a checkup by a bone specialist and learned that her broken hip is knitting satisfactorily. She's not permitted to put her weight on it by walking but will be getting around in a walker.

Tim Hellman is a shut-in at home since Saturday when he was hurt on the job — hit with a drill stem on the shin — and since developed a bone infection.

Mrs. Ray Wilde is a bed patient at her home. After virus pneumonia from which she recovered, she developed hepatitis and has to stay in bed and on a special diet for a few weeks.

by Very Rev. Monsignor Thomas Weinzapfel after a few remarks from the pastor, Father Alcuin Kubis, who said, "This is a dream come true."

After the blessing there was open house and near a thousand visitors toured the new building. Floral tributes added to the occasion and members of the Home-School Society served coffee and cookies.

Monday's program marked completion of a major building project for Sacred Heart Parish. Ground breaking for the convent was held last July 4 and construction started soon afterward.

The listed cost of the structure includes complete kitchen and central heating and air conditioning. Furnishings for the chapel and other furniture for the two-story 21-bedroom building have been donated.

The convent is located north of Sacred Heart Elementary School and west of the Sisters' former home. Its exterior is cream brick matching that of the church and high school. The ground floor measures 182x33 feet and the second floor measures 138x33 feet. The chapel at the west end and the garage at the east end do not have a floor above.

Downstairs are kitchen, dining room, community room, of-

Hellman and Wilde Seek Re-election On School Board

Indications are that no changes will be made this year on the membership of the local school board. Charley Hellman and Ray Wilde are both unopposed as candidates for re-election. Deadline for filing candidacy was 5 p.m. on Wednesday, March 7, so only those two are qualified to have their names appear on the ballot.

The election will be held on Saturday, April 7, in connection with elections for a trustee on the county board and two trustees on the County College board.

Lent Begins With Traditional Ritual

Ash Wednesday was commemorated in Sacred Heart Parish with the age-old ritual of the Church — the blessing and distribution of ashes. Ashes were distributed after the morning masses and again at a 2:30 service.

Special Lenten devotions with the way of the Cross will be held on Friday nights at 7:30. And each member of the parish has received a Lenten folder to fill with dimes in making small sacrifices during the penitential season.

BIRTHS

Christening service was held in Dallas Sunday for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fette. They named her Brenda Jean. She joined the family Feb. 21 and is a sister for Dena Kay and Jimmy Joe. The newcomer is a grandchild for Mrs. Isabel Fette of Muenster and Mrs. Jim Green of Irving. Mrs. J. H. Otto is the great-grandmother.

Former Muensterites Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Hoedebeck of Dallas have announced the birth of a son, March 3. He has four brothers and four sisters and is a grandchild for the Fred Hoedebecks, Muenster, and the Alphonse Preschers, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prescher of Lindsay are the great-grandparents.

County 4-H Club Awards Presented At Annual Event

Thirteen Muenster 4-H clubbers were among honored guests and county prize winners at the annual 4-H Achievement event in Gainesville Monday night. This is the yearly highlight of 4-H Club Week. It was held in Cooke County Junior College.

Highest awards presented on a county level went to two Lindsay 4-H club members: Rosemary Hermes, Gold Star Girl, and Jimmy Flusche, Gold Star Boy. Mrs. Paul Endres, adult leader, made these presentations.

Muenster's winners are Janice Vogel, dairy foods; Charlotte Wolf, home improvement; Mary Ellen Endres and Ruth Yosten, gardening; Doris Lutkenhaus, Janice Yosten, Ben and Pauline Fleitman, poultry; Janie Knauf and Margie Fuhrman, dress review; David Fisher, safety; Roy and Joe Hartman, beef.

Mike Sloan presented awards in dairy foods, field crops, gardening and home improvement.

Lindsay 4-H clubbers gathered up six county achievement awards, and their adult leaders Mrs. Tony Hermes and Mrs. William Flusche were honored with five-year silver clover awards. Dr. Gene Watts made these presentations.

Lindsay winners are Roger and Michael Hundt, swine; Rosemary Hermes, dairy foods; Jimmy Flusche, agriculture; and Jimmy Eberhart, dairy.

Parents and friends attended the program and Cooke County Electric Cooperative provided refreshments. Home Demonstration Club women and 4-H club girls served, including Mrs. Paul Fisher, Janice Vogel and Charlotte Wolf.

Nominee Missing For One Position In City Election

The ballot for this year's city election will have only one name on it even though two vacancies will exist on the council.

Willie Walterscheid, the only candidate, has announced for the position that will be left vacant by expiration of David Trachta's term. The other vacancy is Richard Grewing's position.

Anyone willing to serve on the council is urged to report soon to the city hall so that he can be identified as a write-in candidate. Even though it is too late to get one's name on the ballot it is not too late to tell who are available and let the voters take their choice.

Parochial School Names Winners In Science Fair

Top winners of this year's science fair at Sacred Heart School were announced this week by Sister Richard, director of the event.

Those students, selected to enter their exhibits in the Cooke County Science Fair on March 16, are as follows. Primary division: Margie Felderhoff, Alan Hess, Ricky Wimmer. Intermediate division: Dale Felderhoff, Carol Vogel, Ben Fleitman. Junior division: Marilyn Walterscheid, Carol Mosman, Carol Hess.

Next high winners were as follows. Primary division: Deborah Yosten, Lonnie Hellman, Kenneth Fleitman. Intermediate division: Elaine Otto, James Dangelmayr, Paul Bayer. Junior division: Janice Yosten, Kathleen Yosten, Sammy Endres. They will not get to exhibit at the county fair.

The parochial school's science show was held last Friday. It was made up of the outstanding displays from each grade. Total of entries in all grades was 223.

Local Crops Get Another Wallop From Cold Wave

It's still too early to determine just how much damage was caused by last week's hard freeze, but it is known that some farmers have already lost two crops on the same field.

Members of the local SCS work unit, after their contacts with farmers, say that the early January freeze, which dropped down to zero and remained near that point for several days, killed much of the fall oats.

Farmers followed up as soon as possible with another planting of oats and watched it grow beautifully for more than a month. Then came last week's drop to 12 degrees, killing lots of the new crop.

The amazing thing at this time is that some of the oats crop seems to have survived. Few expected the new growth to live through the severe cold.

Extent of the damage will not be apparent until better weather permits the good grain to start showing progress.

Missionary to Be Speaker Sunday At Baptist Church

First Baptist Church in Muenster will have Rev. David Lockard, missionary to Southern Rhodesia, as speaker at morning and evening services Sunday, March 11.

Rev. Lockard is on a year's furlough, studying for his Doctor of Theology degree at Southern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth. He and his family return to Rhodesia next June.

His mission emphasis Sunday will include sermons, color slides and travel dialogue. All who are interested are encouraged to attend and a special invitation has been extended to the Baptist congregations of Marysville and Myra.

Morning service will begin at 11 a.m. and evening services at 5:45.

Three Weeks Left To Buy Car License

An appeal to buy car license plates soon is sent out this week by City Secretary Joyce Tempel to car owners of the community. The deadline is only a little over three weeks away, which doesn't leave much time for buying the plates leisurely.

Owners who want to avoid standing in line are advised to come now to the city hall, bringing their car title and receipt for last year's license plate. The licenses must be on cars on April 1.

Safety Inspection Sticker Must Be On Cars April 15

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today there will be no extension of the April 15 deadline for inspection of all motor vehicles in Texas.

"The April 15 deadline this year falls on a Sunday, a day when most inspection stations are closed," Garrison noted. "We are not asking these stations to remain open on that day, and, under the law, there can be no extension of the deadline."

He said approximately 2,000,000 vehicles in the state remain to be inspected during the remaining 10 weeks of the 1962 inspection period. He urged motorists to get their inspection stickers early, pointing out that as the deadline approaches waiting lines will begin forming.

THE NEW MUENSTER POST OFFICE, which is intended to meet the community's needs for the next thirty years, was put into service Tuesday morning. It is modern, handsome and roomy inside, has ample parking space outside. The owner, Jack Bleakley of San Angelo, leases it to the Post Office Department. (Boyd & Breeding Photo)

Muenster Post Office Moves Tuesday Into Large Modern New Building

Since Tuesday morning Muenster mail is being handled in the spacious and handsome new local post office. Transfer of equipment and furnishings not included in construction were made during the night and the complete service was given there Tuesday.

An outstanding feature of that service is 24-hour accessibility of the box lobby. People who have boxes can get their mail any hour of the day and night.

Sending mail also can be done at any time. The letter drops in the post office are accessible only while personnel are on duty at the service counter. But another letter drop is available outside for convenient mailing any time of the day or night. It is located to the left of the driveway entering the parking lot and is designed so that letters can be deposited in it easily from the driver's seat of a car.

Postmaster Authur Endres explained that mail from this box is collected just before each dispatch. The pieces are taken inside and sorted into local and out-of-town and handled accordingly. That procedure applies at all times except the Sunday afternoon dispatch. Mail deposited there after the early Sunday pickup is taken by the truck driver who hauls mail to and from Muenster. Local letters that happen to be included are also carried away, but they are sent back the next morning.

Its entrance facing east on Walnut Street has double glass doors leading to the box lobby, which is always open. In that area are 400 boxes and room for 100 more. The former location had 300 boxes.

WE NEED UNITY

By Robert Morris
Cannibalism prevails when men eat other men. A political corollary of this revolting vice is being enacted today by Americans destroying other Americans. Men who should be friends assail other men, warring needlessly and futilely, engaging in hopeless fratricidal strife.

render of our sovereignty, gave credence to the persistent contention that we face a grave danger from within. With every setback the awakening spread. Then came the counter-offensive. The XXII World Congress of International Communism in October, 1961 formally ratified the earlier draft program of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (Chapter 7), which decreed the "Anti-Communism" must be destroyed. The American Communist apparatus responded and the campaign against the "Anti-Communist" spread like proverbial wildfire. Even "Anti-Communists" are now assailing each other.

The Soviet success in this counter offensive has been so spectacular that when Khrushchev and his cronies now read who are attacking whom in the United States, they must close the Kremlin doors from profane eyes, and double up with hilarious knee-slapping laughter. This success alone should be testament to the effectiveness of their apparatus here in the United States.

For despite Khrushchev's rockets and missiles, his perfidy over past agreements and his enslavement of more than a billion human beings, the "Anti-Communist" rather than this blood-stained Soviet dictator, is the villain on the political scene. Recently I read four news articles praising Khrushchev in one edition of a metropolitan newspaper that was, at the same time, replete with condemnation of patriots expressing concern about our deterioration.

The danger facing the country today is not imaginary. It is real and it is grave. It is both internal and external. On the record, countries have indeed fallen because Communists, at least in the past, have penetrated our government. The overriding assumption that the United States, the prime obstacle to world conquest is exempt from a Soviet campaign of subversion and infiltration has no basis in logic or in fact.

Despite serious inner rumblings brought about by their own intrinsic deficiencies, our Soviet enemies are extending their gains around the world. We have spent more than 600 billion dollars to contain Communism but because we have no program to extend the blessings of our western heritage, we simply retreat on all the continents in the face of Khrushchev's bluster.

We need to end the cannibalism and the fratricidal strife. There is urgent need for a united effort to rally resistance to the enveloping decay.

This rallying must have almost universal appeal from which only unregenerate Communists should be excluded. It should not be "conservative" or "liberal." These are divisive terms. Nor should we use other individuating terms that tend to decimate the appeal. It must not be merely "Anti-Communist" for that is negative in tone.

Instead, the preservation of liberty and of freedom and all their thrilling corollaries that abound within our structure of government and our way of life, is a challenging goal that, if comprehended, can bring all men together not only to avert subjugation but to extend what we have to people all over the world.

BIG LIE

A great many people believe — as public opinion polls prove — that the owners of industry get the lion's share of earnings, and that the workers get the short end of the stick. They've been told that, time and time again, by enemies of our free enterprise system.

This is comparable to the "big lie" that was so effectively used by Adolph Hitler.

Allen W. Rucker, a national authority on industrial costs tells a different story. It goes like this:

In a recent year, for every production man-hour worked in this country the produced value was $5.87.

Outside costs, such as depreciation and taxes, came to $1.92. So there was $3.95 per hour of work left to divide.

Of that $3.95, wages and related benefits accounted for $2.27. Salaries and related benefits accounted for $1.15. So the earnings for owners, which was the profit, came to 53 cents.

Putting it another way the tool users got 86.6 per cent of the divisible income — while the tool owners and providers got 13.4 per cent.

Does that look like exploitation of labor?

Easy Come, Easy Go

MORE HOAX THAN HELP

There is a general impression abroad in the land among both the aged and their sympathetic, well-meaning juniors that the Administration's Medicare proposal (specifically, the King-Anderson Bill) now before Congress will provide a neat and comprehensive solution to the health problems of all over age 65.

Cruel as it may seem to question this sublime, if ill-founded faith, it is about time to look into this bill and see just what it does offer. You will find that it would pay for: 1. Up to 90 days of inpatient hospitalization, the patient to pay the first $10 of cost each day for the first nine days. ("Deductible" is the word for that ninety bucks.)

2. After hospitalization (but not without it), up to 180 days of nursing home services.

3. Home health services (by others than physicians) up to 240 visits per year.

4. Outpatient hospital diagnostic services — in this case with a $20 "deductible" (to be paid by the patient) on each examination.

And if these services appear on casual reading to be fairly comprehensive, consider the medical needs that are not provided for:

There is no allowance for the bills of your own doctor or surgeon — in or out of the hospital or nursing home.

There is no provision for drugs needed to continue treatment at home, and no help with doctors' or druggists' bills for those who suffer at home with arthritis, heart trouble, diabetes and kindred chronic ailments.

And it is moot to ask just where those of limited means (for whom this legislation is primarily urged) get the $90 required for the first nine days of a hospital sojourn? The question is especially pertinent when you consider that senior-citizen health insurance policies without deductibles are available for this amount of money from established, tax-paying insurance companies.

The best assessment of the King-Anderson Bill, perhaps, comes from statistics presented by the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in testimony before the House Ways and Means Committee. They show, on careful analysis, that this legislation would cover less than 25 percent of the average medical expense of those over 65. At an estimated cost of $2 billion a year in additional Social Security taxes, it is not only a bad bargain but a costly deception.

INFLATION CHEATS US ALL

Some of our problems develop so gradually that it is difficult to realize the seriousness of their impact. One such is inflation. Oscar Schisgall tells in the March Reader's Digest, for example, how when his son was born in 1931 he arranged to have $2,000 for his college education.

At that time tuition costs at major private universities ran to about $500 a year and it seemed a reasonable idea. But by the time the boy was ready for college tuition costs had more than doubled as a result of continuing inflation.

Despite U.S. cost-of-living figures which show only an average rise of 23.1 percent over the past decade, Schisgall writes, many essential costs have risen from 100 to 300 percent. Medical costs have gone up 47.4 percent. The poor and aged, many of whom live in rooming houses and eat in restaurants, face similarly spiraling costs.

A pencil that cost two cents ten years ago now costs six cents, Schisgall writes; a typewriter which cost $130 ten years ago, was replaced this year by a new one costing well over $200.

FOR and AGAINST

for CHRIST-against COMMUNISM
BY BILLY JAMES HARGIS, LL.D.
FOUNDER CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

A Confusing Book

One of the reasons why most Americans are so unaware of the perils hanging over our nation, and are so confused on the subject of Communism is the type of books they read and trust. In this brief column we will deal with one example, a book entitled "The True Believer."

The July 1961 issue of the Interchurch News, an official monthly publication of the Office of Information of the National Council of Churches, recommended this book by Eric Hoffer to its readers. The Interchurch News told readers: "You will turn again and again to this probing study of fanaticism and mass movements for interpreting the signs of the times." Here is a quote from this fantastic book which shows the type "interpreting" into which it will mislead readers.

"If the Communists win Europe and a large part of the world, it will not be because they know how to stir up discontent or how to infect people with hatred, but because they know how to preach hope." Could the Interchurch News give one example of a country the communists have conquered because of popular support won through the "hope" they preach? Of course not, even though left-wing liberals claim nations were taken over this way. An open minded examination of facts will prove them completely wrong, as has been proven in the case of China, Cuba and other Red-enslaved lands. Communists take over a nation through deceit, clever infiltration, propaganda, subversion, coalition government, and force.

In the preface to his book, Eric Hoffer observed that all mass movements, including Christianity, "share essential characteristics which give them a family likeness." He said that, "All movements, however different, draw their early adherents from the same types of mind." Throughout this ridiculous book the author persists in placing Christianity in the same class with Communism and other totalitarian tyrannies.

Hoffer agreed with the communist view of religion as being the "opium of the people," but he went a little further and also observed that: "Stalinism is as much an opium of the people as are the established religions." I wonder if the millions of suffering human beings in communist prisons and slave labor camps considered Stalinism to be an "opium" relieving their misery, or if they consider the communist tyranny under its present leaders to be such an opium? "The True Believer" is only one example of much absurd and misleading literature recommended by leaders of the National Council of Churches.

Address your questions to Dr. Hargis, Christian Crusade, Tulsa 2, Oklahoma.

The article, titled "Hidden Hazards of Inflation", also notes that the tax collector profits on the 23.1 percent increase in the cost of living: the man who earned $4000 ten years ago, must get about $5000 this year just to keep up. Yet he paid 20 percent income taxes on his $4000 salary and must pay 22 percent on the higher figure, with no increase in his real income.

"Inflation," Schisgall concludes, "is a national problem, a national hazard which affects the lives and fortunes of each of us." Those who wonder how wild inflation can become may well recall that in Germany in 1923 it took a trillion paper marks to equal the value of just one in 1914. Thus, all Americans should read this article now — or be prepared to weep later.

Fashion Show and Variety Acts Draw Round of Applause

The Variety Show and Fashion Parade by Muenster High seniors Thursday night was a great success with a near full house attending.

Variety acts — comedy presentations by local business and professional men — shook the rafters with applause. All the feminine audience oohed and aahed over the spring fashions from the Charm Shop — for themselves and their daughters — and over the men's and boys' styles — for their husbands and sons — shown by Hamric's.

Mrs. Ervin Hamric gave the commentary on little boys' clothes and Mrs. R. T. Brock did the commentary on the other fashions.

In addition to styles and comedy the program included vocal numbers by Mrs. Rody J. Klement, a tap dance by a trio of little girls and performance by another dance group. Miss Doris Vavra made introductions and Miss Bettye Dodds was piano accompanist.

There were about 40 models showing fashions from the Charm Shop and Hamric's presenting the latest in wearing apparel from bathing suits through casual clothes to formal. And there were about a dozen comedy acts. Seniors are pleased over the results. It was a class benefit.

Heading the official roster as new president is Mrs. Charlie Pagel. Mrs. Don Flusche is the new senior vice president and Mrs. Ray Voth is new junior vice president. Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was re-elected treasurer.

Mrs. Arthur Bayer is the new chaplain; Mrs. Ray Walterscheid is continuing as conductress and Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid is continuing as guard. Mrs. Joe Henry Walterscheid is the new trustee for a three year term.

Appointive officers named at the meeting after the election are Mrs. Paul Sicking, secretary; Rosa Driever, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Norbert Koessler, flag bearer; Mrs. Clifford Richardson, Mrs. Wilfred Bindel, Mrs. W. M. DeBorde and Mrs. Al Walter, color bearers; and Dorothy Hartman, historian.

Still to be appointed are the honor roll chairman, musician and banner bearer.

Formal installation ceremonies will be held at the April meeting.

In other business, members approved honor roll requirements for the month. They contributed to the Health and Happiness Fund for the National VFW Home and to the Memorial Chapel in Austin. With this contribution goes the privilege of inscribing a name in the arch and the Auxiliary continued by listing the name of a deceased veteran according to date of death.

This year's memorial is in honor of Clarence (Bud) Hoehn who made the supreme sacrifice in 1944. Previous contributions are in memory of Robert Weinzapfel, M. J. Endres Jr., Frank Yosten, Frank Moster and August Fleitman. Members also voted a spiritual remembrance for Mrs. Henry Fette, first Gold Star mother of the community to die. A mass will be offered.

Mrs. Arthur Bayer, president, presided, and announced that a new United States flag has been ordered for the service men's section of the cemetery to replace the one being used. This is a part of the Auxiliary's Americanism program.

After adjournment hostesses served refreshments, there was a social hour and Mrs. Don Flusche won the attendance prize.

TURBINE ENGINES SOON MAY POWER MANY FAMILY CARS

DETROIT—Family passenger cars powered by the gas turbine engine moved a step closer to reality as Chrysler Corporation weighed a decision to build a limited number of gas turbine powered passenger cars for use by selected typical motorists.

Announcement of Chrysler's advance in the revolutionary gas turbine field was made jointly by Robert Anderson, vice-president and director of Product Planning and George J. Huebner, Jr., executive engineer—Research, for the automobile company.

They spoke at the start of a 3,000-mile, five-day test evaluation run from New York to Los Angeles by a modified 1962 Dodge powered by a gas turbine. In Los Angeles, the Turbo Dart was joined by a 1962 Plymouth Turbo Fury, also equipped with a turbine engine. Together, the cars began a tour from Los Angeles to Cleveland, Ohio, for public display in dealer showrooms.

"The coast-to-coast Dodge trip is one phase of a program of evaluation we are taking at Chrysler Corporation to guide us in our decision — to build a limited number of turbine powered automobiles and to place them in the hands of typical motorists who will use them under a variety of normal driving conditions," Mr. Anderson said.

"On the basis of the public interest shown in our turbine engine, and on the basis of our own knowledge of the engine's many advantages and benefits, we believe a market for a turbine-powered automobile may be possible."

Mr. Huebner, who directs Chrysler Corporation's turbine development program, listed the following passenger car gas turbine engine benefits.

The gas turbine has only about a fifth as many parts as the reciprocating engine, it runs smooth and practically vibrationless, it does not require a distributor or breaker points, needs only one spark plug, and no oil changes. In addition, the Chrysler gas turbine has a clean, cool exhaust, with no carbon monoxide and no unburned carbon.

If built in a volume comparable with a piston engine, turbine costs would be comparable with those of piston engines, Mr. Huebner said.

Booklet information on the Chrysler-developed gas turbine is available to the general public at all local Chrysler, Plymouth and Dodge dealerships. Printed matter includes turbine engine illustrations, diagrams of Chrysler-developed regenerative turbine engine principle, engineering data and statements of the company's program for the development of the turbine engine in future passenger car production.

Tips From Your Hatchery

Got a lot of new products this week. Tree Tanglefoot is one of them. It's a sticky substance applied around the trunk of trees and vines to keep crawling insects such as ants, termites, worms and beetles from foraging in your tree. It comes in a tube, is easy to apply.

Want an eye-catching lawn this year? We have fertilizer that will do the job. By mixing organic fertilizer with two commercial fertilizers you can give your lawn a steady food supply for the entire summer. Call us for an estimate of the cost. You will always be glad you did.

The story of
WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE and The Church Bell

"I don't need to advertise," an established merchant in Kansas once told William Allen White, renowned publisher of The Emporia Gazette. "Everybody knows me and knows what I sell."
 "In that event," replied the thoughtful publisher, "we can dispense with the oldest advertising medium for the oldest institution in the world. See that church down the street," continued Mr. White, pointing to one of Emporia's oldest and most beautiful structures, "That church has been established here for many years. Everyone knows what it is and what it does. In the tower of the church is a bell and every Sunday it rings out to remind folks to come to church."
 "Shoppers go where they are invited and stay where they are well treated," concluded the publisher.

"Regardless of how well established a firm may be, newspaper advertising is a repeated invitation and a reminder to come and do business with that store."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Old Man Winter still makes his presence felt in the Muenster-Saint Jo area of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District.

Several farmers have lost their oats crops for the second time. These farmers must decide again what to do with their land. Several choices are available:

Re-seed to oats, plant to alfalfa or Madrid sweet clover, sow for summer grazing, put in a summer cover crop, sod to grass for permanent pasture, or just forget it until next fall. The decision is the farmer's, of course, but technicians for the Soil Conservation Service suggest giving serious thought to seeding or sodding at least some of this land for permanent pasture.

Pasture areas should be chosen carefully for their affect land use for a long period of time. Grass is a crop just as much as oats. Generally speaking, areas which produce poor oats will produce poor grass and those that produce good oats will produce good grass.

Many district cooperators have areas on their farms which should be in permanent grass.

Grass is like the brake on a car. There is always a need for it. But the need is greater on a steep hill than on level ground. The greatest benefit from grass is permanent soil protection. In addition to soil protection and erosion control grass improves the soil structure, builds and maintains organic content of the land and increases the bacterial activity.

It is doubtful if planting oats at this late date is economically sound, according to soil conservationists. On the other hand, with the cost-share program available for grass planting, with land available and the season right, and with the need so great, grass planting not only is economically sound but also keeps the farmer from having all his eggs in one basket.

Grass sprigging machines are available to all district cooperators. Arrangements can be made by contacting the local SCS technicians.

Good permanent pasture can plug the hole in the basket . . . the hole left by frozen oats.

MOST REPRESENTATIVE—Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., right, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, congratulates W. E. Turner, Dallas, upon being named 1961's Most Representative Hobbs Knight of the Road. The truck driver was one of four finalists, from among nearly 100 drivers, who were honored during the annual Knight banquet in Austin. Knight citations are made by DPS patrolmen who witness or investigate incidents in which commercial drivers perform exceptional acts of courtesy. Each year one driver is selected as "Most Representative" of the others. Turner was chosen for his helpfulness at the scene of an auto accident, driving record and exemplary private life. The Knight of the Road program is sponsored by DPS, Hobbs Trailers and Texas Safety Association.

Experts Back Versatile Youths

When 400,000 men and women volunteer their time and know-how to help 2.3 million 4-H Club members "learn, live and serve," the results are no less than spectacular.

For instance, the Head, Heart, Hands and Health youths finished nearly 4 million projects in more than 40 different categories just this past year.

In almost every instance, the completed project benefited the entire family and in many cases, the community as well.

The information comes from the Cooperative Extension Service which directs 4-H Club work.

Further proof of the far-reaching effect of 4-H was found in 1,900 record books maintained by state award winning club members. The records were reviewed in the headquarters of the National 4-H Service Committee last November, said Norman C. Mindrum, director, for the purpose of selecting boys and girls for scholarships and trip awards to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Miss Sheila Nixon, 20, of Pomona, California, winner of a $400 Ford scholarship, commented: "The awards we win in 4-H work aren't totally ours. Many people have helped us win them."

Another national champion, who won a Sears-Roebuck Founation scholarship for leadership, is 20-year-old Hoosier farmer Wayne Buck. He has a 4-H record so long "it would fill a book." Now a student at Purdue University, Buck credits 4-H training with teaching him how to accept responsibility, and to better understand the world and the people in it.

President Kennedy expressed a similar feeling when he said in a recent message to 4-H members: "I would commend you especially for your constructive and worthwhile efforts in learning to live and work cooperatively with others."

In the beginning, 4-H Clubs were intended for farm youngsters, and offered only projects in crops, livestock, home canning and cooking. The present program embraces a wide range of agricultural, home economics and scientific programs. With the exception of a few such as livestock, tractor and field crops, the projects can be carried on in town as well as on the farm.

4-H Moves to Town
Today, membership in 4-H Clubs is about equally divided between farm and non-farm boys and girls. The main reason for this shift is the disappearance of the small farm from the American agricultural scene.

Meanwhile, more and more business people are participating in 4-H as it moves into suburban and urban areas, Mindrum points out. National 4-H Club Week, National 4-H Club Congress, Farm-City Week, achievement days, county and state fairs, Farm-Safety Week and the like are but a few examples, he said.

Director Mindrum, who is a former 4-H member and state extension official, has this to say: "To sum up 4-H achievement one should call special attention to the concurrent efforts of many which, over the years, have made the 'learn by doing' program the success it is.

Business Gives Cash
"Besides the paid and volunteer workers who carry out the teaching-training aspect, there are business people who contribute know-how and money," he added.

Approximately 60 different business concerns provide funds for 4-H through the National 4-H Service Committee, he said.

Donors of awards for the last 25 years or more include: International Harvester, Montgomery Ward, Westinghouse Educational Foundation, Kerr Glass Mfg. Corp., Cudahy Packing Co., Armour and Co., Livestock Conservation, Inc., Wilson & Co., Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen. Also, Santa Fe, Chicago and North Western, Illinois Central and Burlington railways.

Newer 4-H backers are the Sperry and Hutchinson Co., Ralston Purina, Moorman Mfg. Co., General Foods, E. I. du Pont de Nemours and John Deere. Also, Pyrofax Gas and International Minerals & Chemical corporations. These firms have supported the program for five years or less, according to the 4-H Service Committee.

Rev. Mother Philippa came with four other nuns from Jonesboro, Ark., to attend the convent blessing. They were Sister Lugardis Felderhoff, Sister Anselma Haverkamp, Sister Thomasina Walterscheid and Sister Helen Swirczynski. The visit here Monday and over night gave the four former Muenster girls an opportunity for a visit with members of their families.

Among the happiest at the convent blessing was Sister Bertha, former veteran second grade teacher at Sacred Heart School. She recalled that it was 50 years ago this November that she moved with the parish nuns into the then new convent now being vacated. She came from Rhineland with Mrs. Eugene Michels and son Leon in company of Sister Kathleen Schmitt and Sister Christopher. Sister Kathleen visited her family, the Eddie Schmitts. Mrs. Michels and son were with her cousins the Joe Lukes.

Among earliest arrivals "back home" to attend the convent blessing were three former local girls stationed in Louisiana: Sister Mary John Seyler of Erath, Sister Georgia Felderhoff of Lake Arthur and Sister Zita Zipper of New Iberia. Friends of the nuns, especially of Sister Michael, brought them. They are Misses Adelaide Kessing and Marie Touchet of Baton Rouge. Sister Mary John Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? Post Office - - - delivering parcel post, and delivering general delivery mail.

Complete inside area of the building is 2709 square feet. Most of that space is taken up by tables and racks used by postal employees in handling the mail. Other areas are used for the postmaster's desk and record files, the box and service lobbies and rest rooms, store rooms, heating room etc.

Interior walls are two-toned with dark green below and light green above. Floors are buff colored vinyl tile. Ceilings are white and abundant non-glare lighting is provided by 71 fluorescent fixtures with two tubes each.

Year round comfort is provided by two heaters and two air conditioners.

There are two areas of parking for the post office. On the north side diagonal parking is available at the right side of the one-way driveway, which has its entrance on Second street and its exit on Walnut. Other parking space is on Walnut in front of the building. Paved space behind the building is for use of mail haulers and for employee parking.

New Convent - - -

there is an abundance of fluorescent lights.

Each of the bedrooms has a saint's name above the door and on the door a small plaque with the name of the donor.

Furniture for the bedrooms consists of modern bookcase bed, desk, desk chair, and rocker. The dressing table, mirror and lavatory are built-ins. Desks are hand made by the Sacred Heart High shop class. They are stained oak.

The dining room has three Duncan Phyfe tables and chairs in mahogany. The kitchen is equipped with caloric gas ranges, wall ovens, electric dish washer and walk-in refrigerator and freezer. The community room — the Sisters' recreation room — and the reception rooms were unfurnished at the open house. New furniture is coming for the former, furniture for the latter is being moved from the previous residence.

The chapel is complete with sacristy, confessional, and organ. The walnut altar is hand carved by the local Bavarian Woodcarvers. It's back wall is marble imported from Italy.

Much still remains to be done outside — landscaping, lawns, other outdoor details. The Sisters will move Friday to their new quarters.

Heading the delegation of Sisters attending the ceremonies was Rev. Mother Philippa of the mother house in Jonesboro, Ark.

Others among the clergy present were Father Cyril Lange of Windthorst and Father Hubert Neu of Ennis who were the Bishop's deacon and sub-deacon. Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus served as an honor guard for His Excellency and Knights and Ladies of the Holy Sepulchre attended in their formal robes.

The handsome modern convent replaces a building that has served just short of fifty years. It was occupied in November 1912 upon its completion after the convent and school were combined in the early days. Benedictine Sisters from Jonesboro, Ark., have staffed the parish school since 1895.

which contribute so greatly to keeping our free people informed?

There's much more to this issue than getting the post office department out of the red, which is not even assured by the proposal. The real issue is penalizing our own free press while subsidizing the red propaganda flood which is intended to destroy us. It's not hard to imagine the ultimate effect on American minds when loyal American reading material becomes less plentiful and more expensive while communist poison, is abundant and free. Think it over. This is what the administration is trying to do.

Loving County, Texas, is the least populated of the nation's entire 3,072 counties, with only 266 people living in its 647 square miles.
