VOLUME XXV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

JANUARY 6, 1961

NUMBER 7

In Hollywood a few days ago a dozen traitors, who call themselves movie writers and actors, announced that they are suing major studios for $7.5 million and demanding abolition of a blacklist which they claim has denied them employment for several years.

Four of the group were convicted for contempt of Congress and sent to jail in 1947 after refusing to say whether they had ever been members of the Communist party. All the others likewise have identified themselves as members of the red conspiracy by invoking the fifth amendment before a congressional committee.

There is no doubt about the submissive attitude of any of them. All have clearly established themselves as enemies of the country, but all are calling on a court of this country to uphold their civil right to continue their subversive activity.

To us this appears to be the height of absurdity. But don't brush it off lightly. The mere fact that the suit has been filed is alarming. The scoundrels and the equally contemptible shysters representing them obviously think they have legal grounds on which to win the case. And no wonder. There have been other cases of convicted communists taking advantage of our legal absurdities and returning freely to their treasonable activity.

Some have been permitted to return to classrooms with their poisonous teaching. Some have been permitted to return to vital government jobs with their subversive inclinations. Maybe these will be permitted to continue injecting their red propaganda into movies, TV and radio.

It's easy to see where our trouble lies. America's standard of judicial fairness, though admirable in dealing with most people, is ridiculous when applied to the reds. It respects their rights as long as they are not caught red handed in the act of attempting overthrow of the government. Which seems about as reasonable as allowing poisonous snakes to go free as long as they are not caught biting someone.

This column hopes it is true, as alleged, that movie producers have blacklisted the pack of traitors. If so, they are entitled to the profound gratitude of all Americans for having shown better judgment and having exercised their loyalty more practically than the courts.

Considering red advancements during the past several years it's high time that our legal leaders came to their senses. By now they must know that every communist is an enemy of the nation and should be dealt with accordingly. Like the poisonous snakes they should be, whenever possible, taken out of circulation before they have a chance to do harm. Not necessarily exterminated, because they still are human beings . . . though many of them actually deserve that treatment, and furthermore it is no different from their way of dealing with enemies. At best they deserve no better than our other public enemies, or deportation to Russia or China where they can get their fill of the system they love.

A glance at trouble spots around the world leaves little doubt that the time of decision is here. Free countries everywhere, and America especially as their leader, have to take their stand or realize soon that civilization is doomed. Our first and only logical step in that direction is to see first that communism is wiped out at home. After that we can turn our attention to organizing the remnants of freedom elsewhere on the globe . . . with the sole thought of eventually wiping out the red menace.

It's folly to kid ourselves about this thing. Reds have told us many times, and by now we should know anyway that their ultimate goal is world domination. For a couple of decades we have stood by complacently watching their relentless advance, knowing all the time that the farther they go the harder they will be to stop. We've already crowded our luck much farther than we should. Can we delay any longer and still expect civilization to survive?

Regardless of the risks of war, our only course is to take the offensive, not only stopping the red conquest but

Grocery at Myra Destroyed by Fire

A fire in Myra shortly after midnight last Saturday completely destroyed the building and all contents of Black's Grocery. The loss, partly covered by insurance, has been estimated at about $7,000.

C. A. Sherrill discovered it as he was about to leave on a truck trip for NTPA and he promptly notified the owner. Apparently hampered by shortage of oxygen in the closed building, the flames made little progress until they entered the building to fight it. Then it spread rapidly and got out of control in minutes. Shortly afterward Earl Fisher and Curley Pels arrived with Muenster's pumper truck but were too late to help. They stood by for more than an hour to protect neighboring buildings.

However a drizzling rain did that job for them. Burning particles carried to nearby roofs failed to ignite the wet shingles.

The Myra telephone system was a temporary casualty of the blaze. The nearby cable was destroyed putting every phone of the exchange out of order. Muenster linemen, with the help of an emergency crew sent from Fort Worth by Herman Younger, had the service completely restored by 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

Urges Retreats

Here next Sunday to encourage attendance at the diocesan sponsored retreats will be Father McCown, S. J. of the retreat house near Lake Dallas. He will speak at all the masses in Sacred Heart Church.

Muenster Total Of 1960 Rainfall Is 31.70 Inches

Rainfall in Muenster for 1960, as recorded on Steve Moster's official weather report, adds to 31.70 inches, which is slightly less than the average of 32.18 for the preceding 10 year period . . . or slightly more than the 31.00 for the 10 year period ending last Saturday.

Though only normal, however, moisture of the past year was very nearly ideal. Its timely arrival in the spring carried crops through to abundant yields, then halted long enough to allow exceptionally good harvesting. Again in the fall it came in good time and quantity to get current crops off to a fine start.

As indicated by its nearness to the average, this year's total is about midway in the list of this decade's totals. Four figures were higher, five were lower. Included in the list are two all time record breakers, 19.06 in 1956 and 51.80 in 1957.

Last month's rainfall ending with several light drizzles and light snowfall last week, came to 3.54 inches.

Receipts of Local Post Office Gain $1,596 in 1960

Postal receipts at Muenster made another substantial gain last year, an increase of $1,596.66 for an all time high of 18,367.84.

Reporting the volume this week, Postmaster Arthur Endres said that receipts for the first five months were almost identical to those of the same period last year. Since then they have shown a steady gain.

Endres also reports that the volume has more than doubled in the past decade, while the city's population increased from 896 to 1190. Receipts for 1950 were $8,539.74. Each of the following years showed a gain until 1957, which fell $38 under the preceding year. Since '57 the receipts have increased over $5,000.

Gains during the forties also increased by more than 100 per cent. In 1940, when the population was just under 600, postal receipts were $3,873. The gain for the 10 years was $4,666. The increase was steady until it reached $8,132 in 1945. Next year it fell sharply to $6,679 then gained steadily again to 1949 and dropped slightly in 1950.

Pilot Point Rites Held Tuesday for Mrs. Heitzman, 78

Funeral services with requiem mass were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. Thomas Church at Pilot Point for Mrs. Pauline Heitzman, 78, a resident of Tioga and Pilot Point since early childhood. Burial was in St. Thomas Cemetery.

Mrs. Heitzman died Sunday in the home of a son, Edward Heitzman in Gainesville.

Other survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Frances Konecny of Fort Worth, and three sons Leonard Heitzman of Omaha, Neb., Milton Heitzman of Garland and Gene Heitzman of Houston.

R. M. Zipper was among friends of the family at the funeral.

School Tax Office Open Each Monday Wednesday, Friday

With the taxpaying deadline less than a month away, Superintendent L. B. Brunns reminds taxpayers of the Muenster school district that the tax office is open every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. After January 31 taxes become delinquent and subject to penalty.

Remittances by mail are welcome, but people are encouraged to report personally so that they can make renditions for this year's assessments at the same time.

Garden Club Will Hear About Birds

Muenster Civic League and Garden Club members will have their January business meeting and program Monday night, January 9, in the home of Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel with Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel as co-hostess. Starting time is 8 o'clock and the hostesses look forward to a full attendance of members.

Mrs. Arthur Felderhoff will be in charge of the program on "Birds" and the month's table setting will feature a January theme.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Miss Joaline Mollenkopf underwent surgery Wednesday at M&S Hospital in Gainesville and will be a patient there about a week.

Mrs. John Schmitz is recovering from a severe case of flu that kept her a shut-in at her home during the holiday season.

Bank Will Accept Poll Tax Payment

Poll tax payments this year, as in many years past, can be made at the Muenster State Bank. President J. M. Weinzapfel this week announced continuation of the service for the convenience of any who prefer not to make a special trip to the courthouse.

At the bank the taxpayer will fill out an application for poll tax receipt and pay the $1.75 poll tax. The bank then forwards application and remittance to the county tax collector's office, which issues the receipt and mails it directly to the taxpayers.

Deadline for paying poll tax is January 31.

Practice Games At MHS Prepare For Loop Opening

Brushing up for their coming season of District 37-B basketball Muenster High teams Tuesday night won a pair of practice games over faculty members and Exes.

The girls, in their first action since before Christmas beat the school's former players 29-22. After a 16-16 half-time tie they took charge in the final quarters for the 7 point margin.

The other game was very similar. In the tight first half the Hornets posted an 18-17 lead and gained steadily in the next half for their 38-31 win.

In two other practice games, played during the holidays, the Hornets beat Sacred Heart's Tigers 43-31 and lost to Sacred Heart Alumni 40-29. Playing the Tigers they scored first and were crowded until their fourth quarter surge. Score by periods was 10-8, 19-16, 24-20 and 43-31. In their other game the Hornets got the slow start and followed all the way.

Muenster High opens its conference season here Friday night with Lindsay, Tuesday night it plays at Valley View.

Parochial Teams And Alvord High Split Two Games

Teams of Sacred Heart High broke even in a pair of games at Alvord Tuesday. The Tigerettes won their 45-34 and the Tigers lost 59-29.

In the opening game the Sacred Heart girls took a 17-8 first quarter lead and kept comfortably ahead for the rest of the time. Dangelmayr and Hacker each hit 18 points.

The other contest was considerably more one sided, and in the hosts' favor. Alvord practically iced the game away in the first quarter with a count of 21-4 then coasted in for the easy 30 point margin. Wolf and C. Knabe led Tiger scoring with 9 and 8. Big Nikirk ran up 23.

Another decisive loss for the Tigers was the practice game with a group of Ex-Tigers last Friday night. It started close but the Alumni spread its lead steadily to the 50-29 win. Haverkamp with 17 and Hartman with 13 were top scorers for the Exes. Wolf made 13 and Kappas 11 for the Tigers.

Next for the parochial teams will be a pair of games at Windthorst Friday night.

FRIDAY, Jan. 6, SHHS vs Windthorst, there.

Andy Yosten of Fort Worth was here to spend the New Year weekend with home-folks.

MISS CORINA VOGEL was graduated Dec. 31 from Harris Hospital in Fort Worth as an anesthetist. She was highest in the class of four graduates making a 92 average in the final examinations. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vogel, Corina was graduated from John Peter Smith Hospital School of Nursing in August 1958. The following June she began the course in anesthesia at Harris Hospital.

Hospital Drive Will Re-Open in Meeting Tuesday

After a break for the holidays, Muenster's hospital campaign will pick up momentum next Tuesday night at a meeting in the NTPA community room.

Everyone interested in bringing the drive to an early and successful close is invited to come to that meeting. Its purpose is to bring directors and workers together in order to make a fresh start on the unfinished part of the campaign.

Up to this time the drive's total is $170,573, a gain of $1,055 in the past week and $5,930 since the drive was temporarily halted on December 23.

At the meeting workers will re-organize to complete remaining contacts and in some cases to urge that token subscriptions be raised to more substantial amounts.

Headquarters for the hospital campaign is now located in Dixie Drug Store and records are under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Hartman. Anyone wishing to make a subscription or cash contribution is asked to see her.

J. M. Weinzapfel, campaign chairman, also urges seeing her soon about subscriptions that have been made. In most cases, he said, the agreement was to begin payments on January 1. If people will remember and make remittances without waiting for a reminder they can save time and administrative expense.

Another reason for prompt payments, Weinzapfel said, is to get the required amount of money on hand so that negotiations with the State Health Department can go on. Regardless of total subscriptions, one third of the amount in cash must be available before further progress can be made.

Ninety three members were there to vote on a resolution, submitted at the December meeting, authorizing addition of a monthly assessment to raise the specified amount over a period of four years.

The resolution was defeated after several members objected to the principle of forcing an obligation on the membership.

More favorably received was an alternate proposal to raise the amount by voluntary efforts such as picnics, dances and other benefit events sponsored by the council.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steinberger and two children have returned to Moorcraft, Wyoming, after a holiday visit with his mother, Mrs. Louis Setinberger, sister, Mrs. Geo. Mollenkopf and family here and another sister, Mrs. L. V. Henry and family of Gainesville.

THE CHIPS ARE DOWN

A message to the President-elect, written and published before the election returns were in, provides the lead article in the November issue of that vigorous voice of the right, American Opinion, edited by Robert Welch in Boston. This presentation of our situation and the choice of action confronting our incoming President is something that not only he but every American should read. And it should be apparent that this message would have been equally appropriate had it turned out to be addressed to Vice President Nixon instead of Senator Kennedy. We quote:

"You stand exactly at the supreme crisis, up to this date, of all human history. That crisis has been long in the making. The struggle is not between two philosophies of economics, of government, or even of life itself. For the philosophy of Communism is but the cloak of a conspiracy. The struggle is between a small but worldwide esoteric clan, which seeks to enslave all of mankind for its own demonic purposes, and the rest of us, who wish to escape that enslavement.

"In sheer numbers we have more than 95 percent of the human race on our side. But, through long planning over the decades, and to some extent even over centuries, the enemy now has in its grasp most of the reins and mechanics of power throughout the world. And this enemy has no slightest concern about the cost of its victory. Not only are the conspirators willing to see every truth denied, every humanitarian instinct betrayed, every noble tradition destroyed, every divine faith uprooted, in the achievement of their ends. They actively promote and use this destruction of man's spiritual inheritance, as a means of establishing their ruthless tyranny.

"The Communists have now infiltrated so insidiously and so far into the organized framework of all human activity that they consider total victory both imminent and assured. The innate strength of the United States remains, despite all of the erosion of that strength which the Communists have so patiently contrived, as the one serious obstacle still to overcome. And now the Communists are freely predicting that the United States and its people have only 100 more months of Freedom. The hundred months, you will note, are just about coextensive with your expected two terms of office. And there is little doubt that the final decision of this struggle, affecting man's whole life and history for many future generations, will be reached during these next eight years. (The emphasis is ours.)

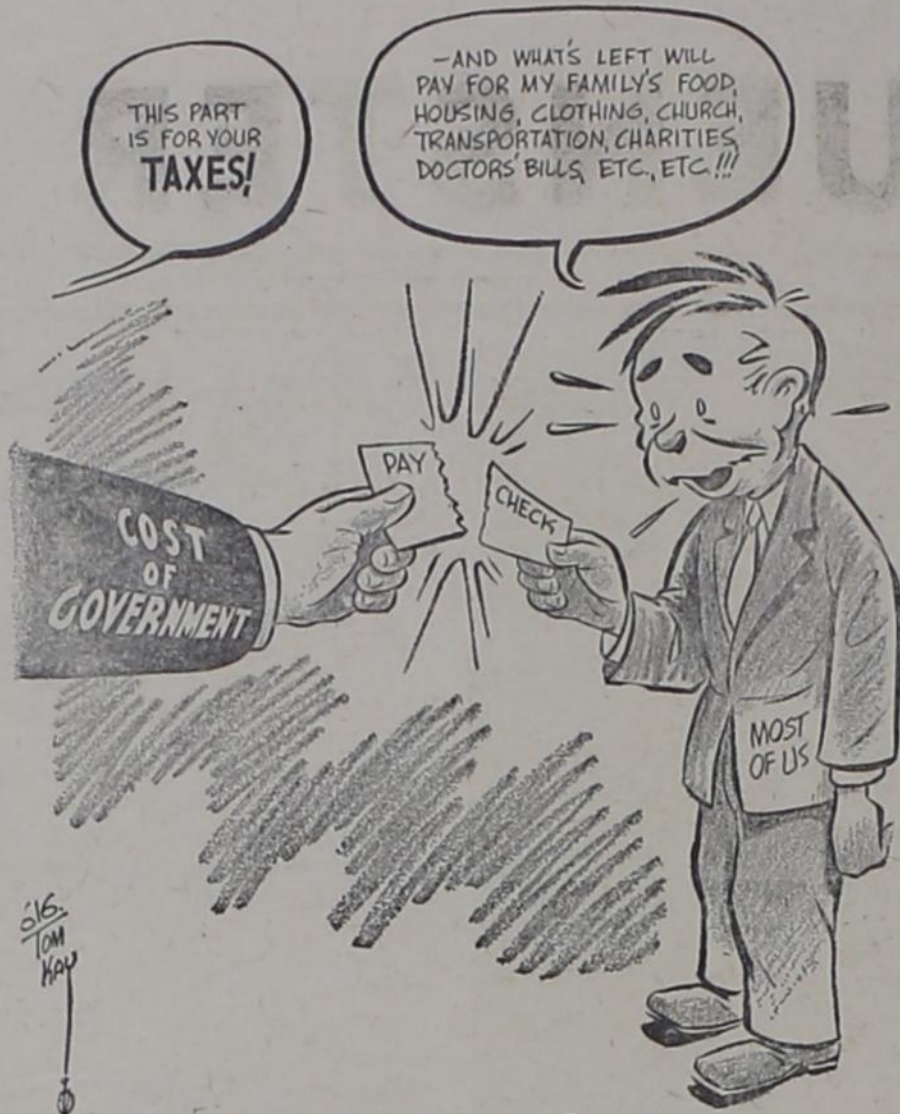

"In fact, the balance of power is already in your hands. The future of our country and our civilization may be yours to decide. Those of us who 'know the score' are well aware of how much easier it would be for you quietly to join the conspirators, add the force of the presidency to the strength they already have, and make treason so prosper that 'none dare call it treason'. Thus you might readily emerge in due time as yourself the top man in a one-world socialist government, kept in power by the brutality of Communist police. The other course is to use the power of the presidency to reassert our nation's already fading independence, and to reestablish its influence on the side of individual freedom and national freedom everywhere. To follow that path is now much more difficult and more dangerous, even for the President of the United States. But it is not yet quite too late for such a purpose to prevail.

"When the true history of the Twentieth Century comes to be written your name will loom large on its middle pages. Those pages may record that under your complaisant opportunism, during the years 1961 through 1968, all resistance to tyranny, in the United States and throughout the world, was completely crushed. Or it may read that, by your incessant labor and courage and determination, you were able to save for your children and their children some semblance of the glorious country and humane civilization which you yourself had inherited.

"Which course those pages will record is up to you. May God help you decide aright."

When Social Security taxes were first levied in 1937, the maximum combined annual tax on employer and employee amounted to $60 — or $30 each. By 1969, the combined tax on employers and employees will be $432 — or $216 each. Since 1957, when more people became beneficiaries, the Trust fund has been declining because it has been paying out more than it received. The deficit in 1959 amounted to $1.7 billion. Social Security cannot continue to go up and still be security.

A LONE DISSENTER

On a recent evening we were present at a meeting where the speaker was holding forth on the benefits that would accrue to America with the enactment of the Proposed 23rd Amendment — the Amendment which will abolish the personal federal income tax and take the Federal Government out of competition with private enterprise. The speaker stressed how nice it would be if three years from now, one would not have to struggle with form 1040, and on or before April 15, send Uncle Sam a huge slice of one's earnings. He asked for a show of hands of those who would welcome such a relief from both toil and attack on pocketbook. Every hand went up but one.

Toward the close of his address, the speaker could contain his curiosity no longer. He asked the lone dissenter why he wouldn't welcome the end of personal federal income taxes. His answer was short, simple and much to the point. "You see," he said, "I'm a certified public accountant. Each winter and early spring I derive a considerable income helping out poor unfortunates with that form 1040. Would you have me help kill that golden goose that lays those golden eggs for me?"

Well, anyway, he had a reason — if not a good one.

A woman filed suit for divorce because her husband was careless about his appearance. He hadn't shown up in nearly two years.

HAVE YOU NOTICED

... that it's unpopular to suggest government getting completely out of agriculture?
... that it is becoming an accepted belief that government services must continue to expand?

... that government employees should be as well paid, if not better paid, than people in private industry?

... that government by regulation is replacing government by laws?

... that racial and religious tolerance is more important than individual freedom?

... that welfare payments are considered a right rather than a privilege?

... that as the population increases the government increases its land ownership?

... that other nations seem to get mad at us just so we will give them money and goods as a pacifier?

... that honesty and character is a second place runner for success?

STRENGTH IN CRISIS

by Eugene Kinkead, editor of the NEW YORKER, and author of IN EVERY WAR BUT ONE, a study of American P. O. W.'s in Korea.

In August of 1955, President Eisenhower issued the Code of Conduct for the American Fighting Man. The code is our answer to the Communist brainwashing, or indoctrination, inflicted on our servicemen. The code contains no new American ideals, but it does re-emphasize old ideals at a time when such emphasis is very much needed. To men without moral stamina, however, the code is six paragraphs of empty words.

What is moral stamina? In a word it's character — good, tough, old-fashioned character. The armed services cannot teach good character. They can broaden character, but by the time a boy enters the service his character is already formed.

CHURCHES and schools are more influential than the services in character formation, but they do not sow the seed. Good character is formed in the home — through the family.

In a family the father should be the head of the household. Then the boy has a guide to show him how to act. He patterns himself after his strong father and thus becomes strong himself. The father's guidance must be almost entirely by example. In order to have a son with good character, a father must realize that raising a fine family is the highest achievement possible in our society.

THE COMPETENT father has complete confidence in his wife, and she in him. Each has a rightful place in the family. And despite the importance of the father's role the mother's is even more important to the child.

The relationship between a mother and infant is so sensitive that if early love is lacking to any great degree a baby may refuse food from its mother. If lacking to a lesser degree, insecurity results. Some of our prisoners in Korea refused food, turned their faces to the wall — and died. They had been denied love by their mothers. Feeling they were being denied it again by fellow captives, they did not have the courage and hope to go on. Yet early love can so strengthen an individual that he can accept and survive almost any future hardship.

This is only the barest description of the kind of parents who produce good character in their children. First through their efforts, and then through his own, their son achieves within himself a sense of self-esteem, of hope, of purpose in life, belief in his fellows and in God.

THESE THINGS are a real support in times of crisis — whether on the battlefield, in the enemy indoctrination chamber or the misfortunes of daily life.

January 1 was a quiet day in Muenster but a lot of folks here went all out to see the new year in. At the Parish Hall some 250 to 300 attended a joint social sponsored by the St. Joseph and St. Anne Societies — a six o'clock dinner and dance. In the VFW Post Home a similar party drew a large crowd of Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary members.

The telephone rang three times while the Joe Vogel family was together for a holiday reunion, the long distance calls coming from those unable to join in the gathering in person. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hess called from Chula Vista, Calif., PFC Lennie Vogel from camp in Arizona and Wilbert Vogel from Houston. Those visiting in the Vogel home were Corina and Lillian Vogel of Fort Worth, the Don Mullers and Ron of Dallas, the Robert Beyers and children of Lindsay and the Clifford Ottos and children of Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Reiter and family had their holiday reunion on Dec. 29 with a supper party before their out-of-town children left to return to their homes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Knabe and family who started back to Hereford Friday morning, Basil Reiter who returned to Lexington, Ky., Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Arendt and children of Lindsay, the Bob Reiters and sons and Reynold Reiter.

Father Stephen Eckart had a few days' visit here with his brother and family, the James Eckarts, spending the weekend and until Tuesday when he drove the Subiaco students from this area back to school. Coming with him was Father Paul Hoedebeck who visited his family, the Fred Hoedebecks. He returned to Subiaco Monday afternoon with Father Bruno Fuhrmann who made a business trip to the Abbey and came back Tuesday. While Father Paul was here, relatives dropped by to see him at his parents' home and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoedebeck of Gainesville visited him Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hartman spent the New Year weekend in Rosebud with her family, the Ed Kosels.

A full house gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski for a New Year's Day celebration with four generations present from various points.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Erpelding and five children of Colorado Springs, Colo., were holiday guests ending a ten day visit this week Wednesday.

Others from out of town joining all the family from here were Mr. and Mrs. Al Swirczynski and Mrs. Virgil Doty and three children of Mesquite, Mrs. Townsend Miller and three children of Austin and the Ed Swirczynski family of Fort Worth.

It was the first visit here for one-year-old Robert Erpelding and he was meeting all his mother's family.

Jan. 1 is Linda Kay Erpelding's birthday. She was 13 Sunday and an honoree at the gathering, sharing honors with her grandfather, Joe Swirczynski, who marked his 80th birthday Tuesday, Jan. 3. There was a decorated birthday cake and an afternoon party for children at the reunion.

The recent holidays brought a family gathering in the home of W. T. Richter with children and grandchildren from here present, also Misses Kathleen and Clara Richter of Dallas. Surprise visitors from out of town were Mr. Richter's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richter of Pauls Valley and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baldwin of Madill, Okla. A sad note of the otherwise happy get-together was word of the death of David Henderson, husband of the former Sunshine Richter. He died suddenly Dec. 14 of a where the couple lived after moving there a number of years ago from Fort Worth.

Sister M. Berenice Sees Relatives and Friends on Visit

Two days of visiting in Muenster for Sister Berenice Trachta were filled with seeing old friends, former classmates and relatives while she was a guest in the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Trachta.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Trachta came from Ardmore to see his sister and Mr. and Mrs. Orris Russell and son Billy were here from Gainesville, then saw Sister Berenice off on the train Tuesday afternoon for her return to St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind. She had been in San Antonio at Our Lady of the Lake Convent for the holidays and visited here on the way back to Indiana. She is nearing the end of study for her Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Theology.

Monday and Tuesday mornings Sister Berenice received visitors in the home of her mother and many former classmates called to renew acquaintance and recall old times at Sacred Heart School. Monday afternoon she visited at the Benedictine convent with a number of nuns who are former schoolmates and some who have been her students during summer school.

New Year Birthday Celebrated Sunday

New Year Day gathering at the home of Mrs. John Tempel marked the birthday of her grandson, Jimmy Mosler, Route 1, Gainesville. He had spent his holiday week with his grandmother.

His family, the Johnny Moslers, were here for the day and his aunt, Miss Anna Markowitz, joined in the turkey dinner prepared by Mrs. Mosler. Miss Roselee Mosler baked and decorated a handsome birthday cake for her brother.

See Relatives on Trip to Arkansas

Nick Mayer and daughter Mary Rose of Fort Worth were Tuesday overnight visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yosten and took Gerald Mayer home with them Wednesday. Gerald had visited his uncle Henry Yosten and family while his daddy and sister went to Jonesboro, Ark., to take Lorraine Mayer back to the juniorate at Holy Angels Convent.

Joining them on the trip, also returning to Jonesboro juniorate, were Bernadette Yosten, Kathy Voth, Sharlene Sicking and Ruth Bayer. Mrs. Felix Yosten accompanied them remaining in Little Rock for a visit with her daughter, Sister Celeste, and enjoyed being among her first grade pupils at Holy Souls School for her day there.

When Mr. Mayer and Mary Rose stopped there for her on the way back they enjoyed a visit with their cousin Sister Helen Swirczynski.

Gerald Mayer is back in school now for the first time following electrical burns that sent him to the hospital the middle of October.

"I used to be terribly conceited," said the young man, "but my psychiatrist straightened me out, and now I'm one of the nicest guys in town."

March of Dimes Research Grants Awarded Only to Top Scientists

By THOMAS M. RIVERS
Vice President-Medical Affairs
The National Foundation

If there is any one point that we scientists must get across to the "average man" (if there is any such person), it is that conducting a first-rate research program is much more than just giving money indiscriminately to various laboratories.

The key to right giving is selecting the right people to whom to give. This is a most difficult task but it is a job at which The National Foundation has proven itself exceptionally competent.

Research may be said to be a journey into the unknown to push forward the frontiers of knowledge. Inevitably, its nature is such that no man can foretell exactly where it will lead.

But this "average man" to whom we just referred, and who is perhaps dissatisfied with the uncertainties over where research will lead, might be reminded that The National Foundation has shown in the past what it can do—as, for example, initiating the research that developed the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines. This and other major accomplishments constitute the credentials of the world's largest voluntary health organization for going ahead.

A great deal of basic research, of this journey into the unknown, was needed to create the bases which made possible the development of the polio vaccines. This again will be necessary as The National Foundation moves forward in its expanded program which includes birth defects and arthritis in addition to continued work in polio. Perhaps you have heard the comment that a camel is a horse put together by a committee. This illuminates what I think is one of the principles of research. Great research is done by great men, not by committees. It is The National Foundation's job, among others, to find those great men, and to see that they have adequate equipment with which to work.

It is natural for the public to want immediate results. For the parents of a child afflicted with arthritis, for instance, to want quick cures is understandable. But we are trustees of public funds. We cannot spend those funds save for projects that have some promise of success, conducted by people who have shown what they can do.

If our aims in research could be summed up, I would say that The National Foundation operates like a rapier, not a bludgeon. We are selective. We put March of Dimes funds in the exact spot and under the specific man who will make the most of it. We do not dump millions into hundreds of projects with a vague hope that by the law of averages some may produce.

Dr. Albert B. Sabin at his University of Cincinnati laboratory examines samples of his live-virus anti-polio vaccine, developed by him with $1,500,000 in March of Dimes public contributions. Sabin vaccine, to be taken orally instead of by needle, has been approved for eventual use in the U. S.

In short, we try to be as careful in the selection of research projects as an extremely fussy woman is in selection of a spring hat.

The research future is bright. With laboratory methods that have been developed, many under March of Dimes grants, we can move farther and faster than in years past. Indeed, I often think of the polio struggle as a time when we toiled up for what is to come. The methods that were so successful in that polio challenge are now being applied to the greater challenges that lie ahead.

To accomplish what The National Foundation desires requires great men. We have had them in the past. We shall have them in the future and, with public contributions to the March of Dimes, those men will accomplish much for the good of mankind.

MINERAL ESTATE

The ownership of the minerals is the same as the surface estate with the two exceptions of M. T. Farr having conveyed all of his interest therein to Marian Jean Smelcer and C. W. Farr all of his interest therein to Mamie Mae Farr.

Further the Plaintiffs plead that the land involved is not susceptible of division in kind, and that a receiver be appointed to sell the same for the best price obtainable, reserving unto the owners thereof an undivided one-half (1/2) non-participating royalty interest therein; and all of the costs of the aforesaid mentioned be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the land and the balance be paid and divided between the joint owners of the property according to their respective interests.

If this Citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

Issued this 28th day of December, A. D. 1960.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Gainesville, Texas, this 28th day of December, A. D. 1960.

Taking advantage of Wednesday afternoon's sunshine, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Watts drove over from Gainesville for an outing and Mr. Watts, who hadn't been here in over six months — since he suffered a stroke — was hailed and greeted by lots of old friends.

Former Muensterite Mrs. Alford Harrison entertained her children and grandchildren in her home at Gainesville during the recent holidays. Visiting with her were Mrs. Ernest Craven and Mrs. Dub Crawford and son joining Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Harrison and family of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Harrison and family of Irving.

Farm Facts

Usually when we think of the farmer it is as a supplier of food and fiber. This, however, is only one aspect of his importance in the economic scheme of things. While he is a consumer and a purchaser of nearly all the goods and services his urban neighbors buy, he provides a major market, furthermore, for many additional items. It is estimated that farmers spend more than $25 billion annually for labor and supplies, providing employment for millions of people on and off the farm.

Expenditures for feed, livestock, seed, fertilizer and lime, repairs and operation of capital items, and for miscellaneous necessities amount to more than $16 billion a year.

Farmers pay out nearly $3 billion a year in wages. Repair and maintenance bills on buildings, vehicles, and machinery amount to nearly $4 billion. This includes expenditures for gasoline, petroleum fuel and oil—about $1.5 billion.

major improvements of farm buildings, the outlay amounts to more than $1.7 billion. Purchases of tractors, trucks, and automobiles exceed $1.6 billion; and farmers spend another $1.4 billion for other machinery and equipment.

Holiday company filled the house at the Dick Cain's for the New Year weekend with all their children and grandchildren there including Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCollum of Dallas who entertained with a New Year Eve party attended by some 40 guests. Another party was Saturday afternoon when Debbie Cain had 15 guests present to help her celebrate her tenth birthday.

For You And Your Town

No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name or business being mentioned somewhere in its pages. This does not mean that you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page advertisement in each issue of the paper but your name and address should be mentioned even if you do not use more than a two line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town . . . it is the best possible town advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town.

WINTER WONDERWEAR
The newest wrinkle in cold-weather fashions is clothing with foam interlining. Warm and almost weightless apparel lined with slim sheet of polyurethane foam, in a great assortment is currently on the market.

You can see that the fashions are handsome, but you'll have to try them on to understand how light they are.

In the old days, folks used to figure how warm a coat would be by how heavy it was. They picked a coat from the rack and if it had a good heft, they knew it would keep out the cold.

This weight, incidentally, also made the shoulders ache. Now clothing makers have come up with foam-lined materials that do away with back-bending winterwear.

Foam is an insulator. It keeps cold out, body heat in and, most important of all, it "breathes." When moisture can evaporate, you are protected from chills resulting from temperature changes.

And foam is feather-light. These qualities have now been combined in a thin, drapable, easy-to-tailor material that can be bonded right to an outer fabric — either natural or synthetic.

For example, wool fabric becomes 79% warmer when bonded to foam. The results are a new outerwear — light, warm, and sturdy.

Clothing made from this material needs no ironing because the foam snaps the outer fabric back into shape. And because the foam is bonded, it won't lump or bunch up. It's unaffected by water, oil, detergents, grease, or dry-cleaning agents, and non-allergenic.

Foam-lined garments are available in the stores. You'll also be able to buy fabric by the yard and make your own winter wonderwear. The cost is reasonable.

Red Chinese Urge Young Generation To Be Like the Ox

HONG KONG. — The young people of Communist China are being urged to emulate the ox and be "submissive tools" that labor throughout life "without complaint."

The urging is given in a Peiping Kuang Ming daily newspaper article dedicated to university graduates. They are told they should "work without being particular about remuneration."

The spirit of the ox, the paper said, "is the spirit of working practically and quietly in the heat of summer, the ox turns the water mill around. In the cold winter it draws the big cart. The ox can lie down in water and mud. It can stand up against a thunderstorm. It endures all adverse conditions. . . ."

Mao Tze-Tung, Red China's Communist boss, first suggested 18 years ago that good Communists should be oxen for the party, "bending their backs to the task unto death."

Spice of Life

The crusty president of a country bank, celebrating his 80th birthday, was asked, "How did you get started in the banking business anyway?"

"Wasn't nothing to it," confessed the old moneybags. "I just hung out a sign saying 'Bank.' Fust thing you know, a fellow comes along and deposits $100. A little later, another comes along and deposits $200. By that time I was so confident I put in $10 of my own money."

Teacher asked the pupils to list the nine greatest Americans and all but Johnny submitted their lists.

"Have you finished yet, Johnny?" she asked.

"Not yet," he replied, "I can't decide on the catcher."

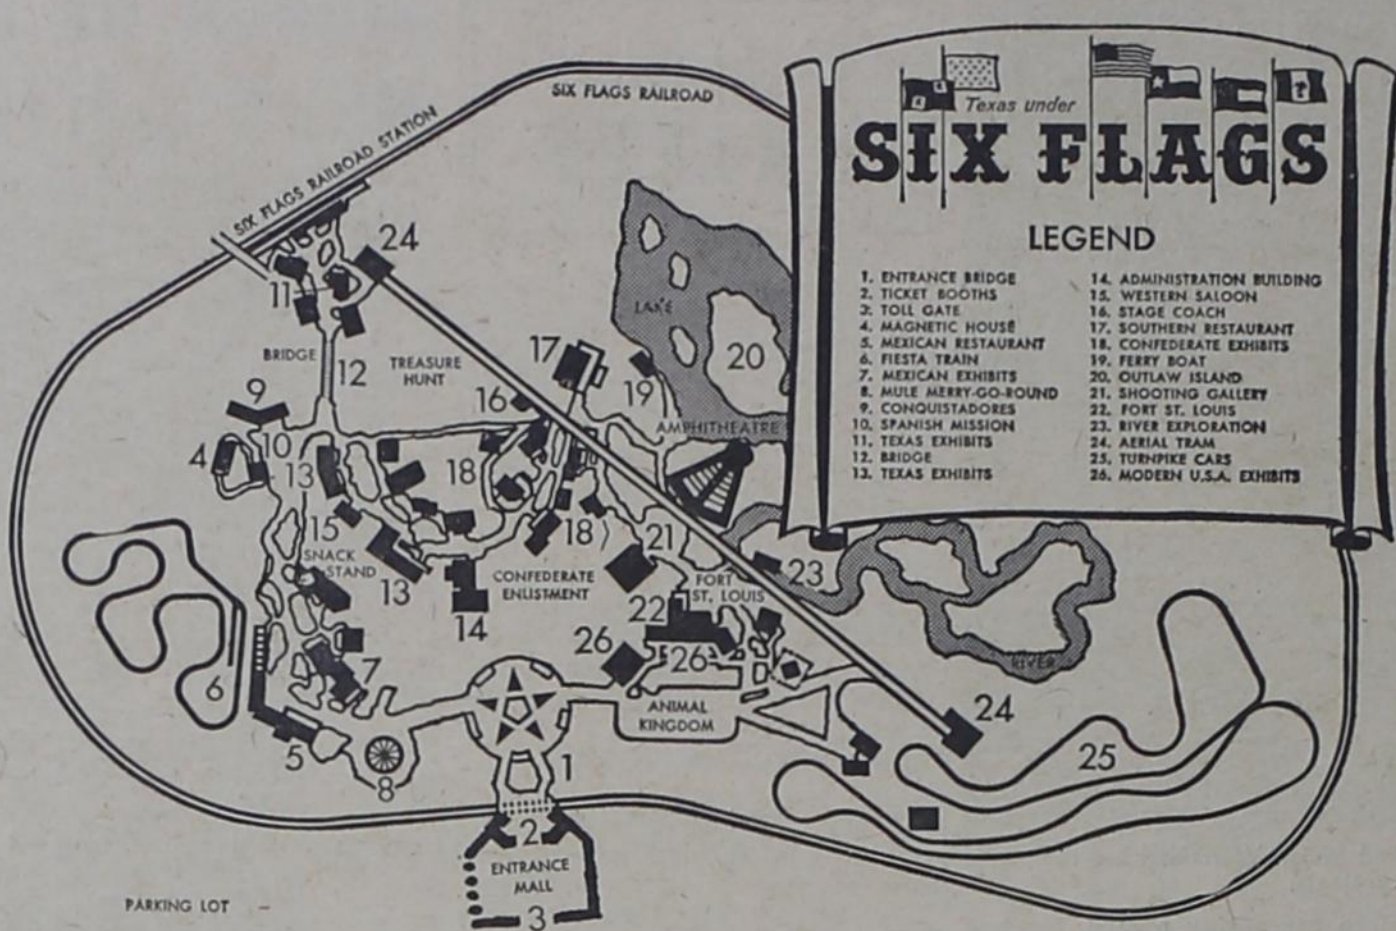

The question, "What do you do?" had long dismayed a woman who considered herself "just a housewife."
