

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XXVI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

FEBRUARY 2, 1962

Starting this week in the Dallas News and Fort Worth Star Telegram, and presumably in many other metropolitan papers, is a series of articles by Relman Morin on the political movement currently identified as the Far Right.

From the first installment a reader gets the impression that every follower of the movement ought to be brushed off as an imbecile. Says the author "He sees a monstrous conspiracy in every cranny of the United States. He accuses eminent Americans, including two former Presidents and Chief Justice Earl Warren of degrees of complicity. And the Kennedy administration, as well, is 'very weak and soft in dealing with the Communist threat,' he says."

In the far righter's opinion, as further pointed out by the writer, "most Americans are unaware of the situation, having been blinded by Communist infiltration of the federal government, the churches, schools and armed forces." He also believes that press, radio and television have deliberately misinformed the people or failed to print the facts.

Those and several other much publicized characteristics, which are listed with apparent ridicule by the author, "form a composite profile of the ultra-conservative, the member of the Hard Right, the "double patriot."

What's to follow in remaining articles of the series remains to be seen. The introduction uses terms and accusations that have been used many times in presenting the subject. Other installments may go on to justify the movement or to condemn it. So far, however, it seems that the Far Right will receive some rough criticism.

Regardless of how later comment is slanted, the article has already indicated an old familiar pattern of most critics of the right. They ridicule charges rather than answer them. They seek to discredit all members by referring to extreme remarks of a few of them.

For instance, much has been said criticizing and ridiculing the uncompromising references to presidents and the chief justice. The critics put up a terrific howl about branding such persons as traitors. And, no doubt, their criticism is justified in some cases. It's easy to understand that remarks can be intemperate on both sides of an issue. The fact that a person's action in the end has served the purpose of our enemy does not necessarily prove that he was a traitor, consciously in cahoots with the enemy.

When Truman and MacArthur had their clash of opinion in the Korean war it was purely a matter of conflicting judgment. MacArthur insisted on going all out to win the war. Truman insisted on caution to avoid touching off a global war. The president's decision in the end hurt this country and helped the enemy. But it was not treason. Rather it was a tragic mistake, and that's how most of the rightists consider it.

Somewhat less costly in American prestige, also less profitable to the communist cause, was Eisenhower's effort at co-existence with the reds. Urged by a sincere desire to preserve world peace he agreed to negotiate with the reds, and was insulted and double crossed for his good intentions. He too made mistakes, principally the mistake of expecting his own level of integrity in the person he dealt with. Under him we lost more ground in the cold war, but he was not in cahoots with the enemy.

President Kennedy's dealings with the enemy likewise have been disappointing. The Cuban invasion debacle and the tractor deal made our country look ridiculous. And communism has been thriving in Cuba. Few can deny that mistakes were made, but there is no basis to question the president's loyalty.

Rightists generally also feel that Earl Warren was not deliberately aiding the reds in his Supreme Court decisions on the extent of personal freedom. He went the limit in his ideas of fairness, and in effect actually extended the opportunity for reds to continue their dirty work. Many will say that his decisions hurt us, but few will question his motives.

Through one issue after another the same clash of opinion keeps bobbing up. A general characteristic of rightists is their belief that the country has been taking a beating these many years in both domestic

Purcell Is Strong Winner in Race To Succeed Ikard

Last Saturday's special election of a successor to Frank Ikard in the national legislature was a sweeping victory for Democrat Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls. By a ratio of more than 3 to 2 he swamped the Republican candidate, Joe Meissner, also of Wichita Falls. Unofficial count in the 19-county 13th Congressional District was 23,815 to 14,060. Purcell carried all of the counties except Cooke and Hardeman.

Muenster's two voting boxes went along with the county in favoring Meissner. Counts were 45-19 in the South Muenster box and 136-100 in North Muenster. Also for Meissner were four of the five wards in Gainesville, North and South Lindsay, Burns City and North Woodbine. The total county vote was 1327 to 1076.

Purcell and his family flew to Washington Sunday and he took his seat in Congress Monday with praise for the Kennedy administration generally but opposition to the administration proposals on federal aid to education and medical care for the aged through Social Security.

Date Undecided For Dedication of New Sisters' Home

Date for blessing the Benedictine sisters' new home still is not decided. But it is known that work should be finished in about two weeks, and the sisters can move in whenever they wish after that.

A slab of marble is the bottleneck in the planning. It must be finished and installed to complete the chapel in the building. And then a date must be picked that is available on Bishop Gorman's calendar.

The blessing will be a double event. One ceremony will be for the building as a residence. The other for the chapel inside the building.

The case of the marble bottleneck is a story in itself. The material was selected but finishing work was postponed by bad weather. Meanwhile a salesman, not knowing it was sold, sold it to another customer and had it moved away. When the boner was discovered a replacement had to be ordered from Italy. That marble has arrived and finishing work in Dallas is under way now.

Other work on the building is well advanced. Bricklaying, painting and work on drainage gutters is almost finished. Floor covering, the last job begins next week.

Another event postponed is the sale of the present sisters' home. Originally set for this Thursday, it has been postponed until the building is vacated.

Probable Date of Starting Hospital Estimated July 1

A delay of about three months in the anticipated date for starting construction of Muenster's hospital was indicated this week in a report from the architect, J. R. Killebrew of Wichita Falls. The work is due to begin about July 1 instead of April 1.

Now that preliminary plans are approved, the architect said, his office is working on the long job of preparing the many detail plans for construction. Those plans will probably be finished about May 1.

Allowing a month for approval of the plans by state and federal officials, bids can be requested about June 1 and work should start a month after that.

His report was given by J. M. Weinzaepfel, president of Muenster Hospital Authority, in a meeting of directors and workers in the city hall Monday night.

Also given was a report on the finances of the hospital drive at this time. Records of Secretary Dorothy Hartman show about $100,000 cash on hand and unpaid subscriptions of $128,000. Judging by normal payments on subscriptions, it is estimated that about $110,000 will be paid on those subscriptions, making a total of about $210,000 in hand and in

Tigerettes Nudge Whitesboro Girls, Swamp St. John's

As a matter of prestige the big achievement of Sacred Heart's Tigerettes this season is their win over Whitesboro Monday night. The Whitesboro girls at this time are undefeated in the race for the title of their Class A district.

It was a double triumph for Sacred Heart, the B team leading off with a 39-34 win and the A team following with a 50-46 win.

The headliner was quite a game, too. After a bad start the Tigerettes recovered for a 19-19 tie at the half and then zoomed to a 37-25 lead at the third quarter. Then Whitesboro hit its hot streak and outscored Sacred Heart 21-13 in the home stretch. But that was still 4 points short.

Joyce Hacker had another big night. She hit 33 points and Patsy Endres made 10.

In the other game Alice Walter and Ruth Wimmer led Sacred Heart scoring with 22 and 13.

Another Tigerette win for the week was the 60-22 decision over St. John's of Ennis. The game was played at Palmer. It was one sided all the way as Joyce Hacker led the scoring with 34 and Carol Wimmer and Joyce Haverkamp made 11 and 9.

For the Tigers, however, it was another of many setbacks, and especially so after a rally that had a chance of paying off. Behind 22-12 at half time, they tied the count at 25 early in the fourth then had their hopes blasted as Virgil and Frankie Hess fouled out. Playing without John Wolf was another handicap. The final count was 36-27. Charles Knabe and Jimmy Otto scored 13 and 9 for the Tigers.

Next, and possibly last on the Tigerette schedule is Friday night's double header in which the As play OLCG of Dallas and the Bs play the State School for Girls. First game starts at 6:30.

For the Tigers the season is over. They have turned in their uniforms and are spending practice periods throwing baseballs to get ready for their next regular practice.

Thursday night meeting of the discussion club headed by Mrs. L. A. Bernauer as chairman had 13 members present for study of the chapter on Matrimony. The group met in the Bernauer home and after adjournment the hostess served pie and coffee.

Mrs. Ferd Yosten and Suzy and Mrs. Nick Mayer and Suzanne of Fort Worth drove over Monday to visit with their folks, Mrs. I. A. Schoech and the Frank Yostens.

Directors Solve Fence Problem on Clear Creek Dams

Good news to some farmers of the Clear Creek watershed is the decision Tuesday night by directors of the Clear Creek Watershed Authority to replace fence which is removed for building dams.

Contracts with the Soil Conservation Service on reservoir projects do not include replacing fence. The custom is to take down the fence, roll it up and give it, along with posts, to the landowner. After the dam is finished the farmer is expected to replace the fence himself.

Re-installing that fence is a special accommodation now offered by the watershed authority in appreciation of the landowner's cooperation in the flood control program. The authority will pay for putting the fence back.

Directors in their meeting also started on plans for their reservoir construction program in the 1963 fiscal year. To help spread the word on benefits to be derived from flood control they voted to publish a brochure on the project.

Meeting for the first time since their recent election the directors re-elected both of their officers. J. M. Weinzapfel is president, Tom Muir is secretary-treasurer.

The directors are, for 1 year: J. M. Weinzapfel, J. C. Donnell, Dr. C. H. Saunders; for 2 years: H. D. Field, J. A. Stovall, H. K. Armstrong; for 3 years: James McCall, Tom Muir and George Berry. Berry, replacing Orin Fortenberry, is the only new man on the board. Hereafter elections will be held annually as terms expire.

Margorie Schoech resumed classes at the University of Dallas Monday after a five day visit between semesters with her parents, the Andy Schoechs.

Another guest Sunday was Mrs. Schoech's sister, Miss Frances Spaeth of Denison.

Get-Acquainted Open House Set At Medders Home

An open house and get-acquainted party will be held Sunday from two to five in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders, 203 S. Sycamore and everyone is invited to attend.

While the event will honor Mrs. Medders' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Martin of Etowah, Tenn., it will also be a get-acquainted occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Medders and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smiddy, who moved to Muenster from Memphis, Tenn., in December.

The Medders children are better acquainted through their attendance at Sacred Heart School. Sarah is a first grader, Francis and Mary Margaret are in the third grade and Kathy is in the sixth grade.

Mrs. Medders and Mrs. Jerome Pangel left Tuesday by jet from Dallas, their husbands seeing them off, to Memphis where they will visit Mrs. Medders' relatives and drive back to Muenster the latter part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Martin. The Martins will visit here and will move to Muenster later to make their home. They will occupy the place the Medders occupy now after the Medders' new home is built. Mr. and Mrs. Smiddy will continue living with the Medders.

A man misses silent films. It was so good to see a woman open her mouth and have no sound come out.

Family Joins for 25th Anniversary Of Robert Knabes

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knabe helped them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary Friday, Jan. 26.

They all attended an anniversary mass in Sacred Heart Church at 6 a.m. and had breakfast in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bayer. At noon the family was together again for a covered dish dinner in the Knabe home.

The children gave their mother a pink sweetheart rose corsage and gave their parents an electric blanket as a joint anniversary gift.

Miss Elizabeth Schroeder and Robert Knabe were married in Windthorst in 1937 by the pastor Father Bonaventure Maechler. Their attendants were her sister Dorothy, now Mrs. Robert Buckholt of Robstown, and his brother Albert A. Knabe of Muenster.

The couple spent the first year after their marriage in Muenster, then lived at Gainesville four years and returned to Muenster in 1944. In the early days of their marriage he farmed. Then he went to work in area oil fields and is now employed by Felderhoff Brothers Drilling Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Knabe's children all of Muenster, are five daughters: Mrs. Arthur Bayer, Mrs. Fred Hennigan Jr., Kathleen, Mary and Barbara, and three sons Robert, Anthony and Charles. They have five grandchildren: Janet and Julia Bayer and Diane, Billy and Bobby Hennigan.

Urban Endres Is Elected President Of Subiaco Alumni

Muenster placed four new officers on the official roster of the North Texas Subiaco Alumni Association in the annual election Sunday night.

Urban Endres was favored for president to head the organization. His assistants are Arthur Felderhoff, first vice president; Wilmer Luke, second vice president; Carl Schilling, secretary; and Lambert Bezner of Gainesville who continues as treasurer by reelection.

In other business the group made plans for the annual benefit picnic, setting the date for Labor Day this year and Muenster as the host parish.

Bruno Zimmerer, outgoing president, conducted the meeting in the Lindsay Parish Hall.

The Rt. Rev. Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco, Ark., attended the meeting with Father Herbert Vogelpohl, also of Subiaco. Others present in addition to those from Lindsay, Gainesville and Muenster were Dr. E. A. Steinberger of Dallas and Frank Walterscheid of Hereford. Their wives accompanied them to join in a social hour and refreshments after the business session. Some 75 members and their ladies attended.

Charlotte Wolf Honored at Youth Achievement Event

Muenster's Charlotte Wolf represented Cooke County at the second annual Rural Youth Achievement Award Banquet in Fort Worth Friday in the junior ballroom of the Texas Hotel.

She was among the 44 honorees — all 4-H and FHA girls and FFA boys — who received handsome bronze medals in recognition of outstanding achievements exhibited in rural youth activities during club work. Charlotte was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lou Wolf.

The program began at 3:30 in the afternoon with a meeting for the young people and their chaperones. The banquet and friendship party started at 5:30 and ended with a dance. Those present received tickets to the Fat Stock Show.

The event was sponsored by the Sears Roebuck Foundation in cooperation with the Rural Youth Committee and the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. Amon Carter Jr. presented awards.

Four Generations At Birthday Party

Four generations of the J. A. Sanders family were together Sunday in Fort Worth to celebrate four birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders went from here to join in the dinner party at which she was one of the honorees.

The other honorees were C. A. Sanders, a son, Walter D. Cooke, a son-in-law, and Randy Holcombe, a great-grandson, three years old.

The reunion was held in the Cooke home with four showers of birthday gifts, four decorated cakes and picture taking.

The huge national debt our younger generation will inherit should keep them from one indulgence — ancestor worship.

Marysville News

By Mrs. John Richey

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davidson and granddaughters, Becky and Barbara Davidson, drove to Callisburg Sunday and were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roe and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richey enjoyed Sunday's pretty weather at Sulphur, Okla. where they visited her aunt, Mrs. O. A. Ballinger. Going with the Richeys to Sulphur were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richey and son Larry of Sivelis Bend. Joining them there was Mrs. Toney Denton, a cousin, and they all drove out north of Sulphur for an afternoon visit at the farm of the Gene Ballingers of Pauls Valley who spend weekends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Winchester left Sunday afternoon for visiting in Dallas, Lewisville and Arlington with their children.

Mrs. George Richardson has been a shut-in on account of flu the past week. And Peggy Branch and Wanda McElreath have missed classes on account of illness.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnhart were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schmidkofer of Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richey were supper guests Monday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Binford at Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fletcher of Muenster visited Sunday with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shiflet.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Morris attended the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth Saturday. Sudden illness Monday morning sent Mr. Morris to Gainesville Sanitarium for medical care.

The Ernest McElreaths had as guests Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pawless of Callisburg.

County Farm Bureau President J. T. Cole attended a statewide membership meeting at Austin four days last week, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hickman of Dallas visited Saturday with their son and family, the Milton Hickmans and daughters Nancy, Tommie and Paula.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davidson attended the funeral of Sam Epps of Myra in Gainesville Friday.

Among friends at Earl Ward's funeral in Gainesville Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Linzie Branch and Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. John Richey, Mrs. J. T. Cole and Jim Shiflet.

It's hard to realize these days that this country was founded partly to avoid taxation.

Tips From Your Hatchery

The gentlemen with white coats and test tubes have come up with a dilly. From the Geigy Labs. (the folks who gave us DDT) comes miticide emulsion chlorobenzilate 25E. It gets all the mite family...

red spider, aphids, melon and cucumber mites and all the rest. Please don't ask me to pronounce it, just call and say you want to get rid of the red spider in your evergreen shrubs or trees. We'll tend to the rest.

If you have a St. Augustine grass lawn and would like it to be a real eye catcher, a rich dark green that will stay put for the growing season, we can do the job. This stuff does a good job on other grasses and lowers your water bill, too.

Sure is good weather to get those sick looking shrubs fertilized and sprayed so they will look respectable for the Easter parade. We need the business. Clive

Lindsay News

Forty Hours Adoration starts at St. Peter's Church Friday with special services and ends Sunday with solemn closing ceremonies.

Mrs. Jos. Hundt is spending a week in Dallas with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dieter. She left Tuesday making the trip by car with the Andy Schoechs of Münster. Also going were Mrs. George Spaeth and Mrs. I. A. Schoech. For the others it was a one-day combined business and pleasure trip.

Lora and Dena Rohmer, young daughters of the Emil Rohmers of Münster, are here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hermes, while their mother is staying in the hospital with their brother Dwayne who had surgery in Dallas Monday.

Miss Frances Spaeth of Denison was a weekend visitor with her mother, Mrs. George Spaeth here, and her sister, Mrs. Andy Schoech in Münster.

Valentine Dance Slated at Lindsay

Principal business at the Friday meeting of the Lindsay boys and girls club leaders was completion of plans for a Valentine dance the adult leaders will sponsor on Feb. 14. Billy Dean Owen and his band from Fort Worth will play. The dance will be held in the Lindsay Gun Club Hall. Club leaders met in the home of Mrs. Ray Laux to make arrangements for the benefit event.

Next meeting for leaders will be on the regular first Monday Feb. 5, in the home of Mrs. Norbert Rohmer to plan the children's program for their next meeting.

Fred Bezner, 59, Former Resident Of Lindsay, Dies

Fred Bezner, 59, of 712 N. Weaver St., Gainesville died at 4:45 a.m. Monday in a Gainesville hospital where he was admitted Sunday afternoon. He was a native of Lindsay and spent most of his adult life in that community farming.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's Church, Gainesville, and burial was in Lindsay cemetery. The Rev. Richard Sokolski officiated at the requiem mass and graveside rites. George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Rosary was recited at the Carroll Chapel Monday and Tuesday nights.

Mr. Bezner was born at Lindsay March 18, 1902, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Bezner. He was married there to Miss Anna Krebs. After quitting farm work they moved to Gainesville and he was employed for a time by the Joe Schadt Tire Co.

Survivors are his wife; four sons, Don and Floyd Bezner of Gainesville, Bill Bener of Fort Worth and James Bezner stationed in Germany with the army; three daughters, Miss Shirley Bezner, Mrs. Willie Fuhrmann and Mrs. Lawrence Sicking, all of Gainesville; one sister, Mrs. Henry Wolf of Münster, and 14 grandchildren.

Here this week to get acquainted with her new grandson is Mrs. John Pelzel of Pilot Point, visiting the Donnie Watterscheids and infant Craig Donald since they were dismissed from the Sanitarium Sunday.

Rockwall Judge -

ocrat, is a member of the Texas State Teachers Association and has stated that he will favor any legislation that will be of genuine benefit to the school system of Texas. He favors equal rights for women.

In 1953, Judge Hall and his county, being the smallest county in Texas, received national recognition for an economy drive instituted by the Rockwall County Commissioners Court. The Judge was quoted as stating: "If one fund of the county is sick, I believe in treating all of the funds of the county. In 1953, Rockwall County was met with such a situation. We reduced salaries — including my own, took out telephones — including my own telephone, and it has been said that we even unplugged the clock in the Court Room." Hall pledged that same outlook if he is elected to the State Senate.

Judge Hall, a member of the Scottish Rite Speakers Bureau, has, on many occasions, urged the protection of the basic freedom of the press. Judge Hall says that just as an honest bookkeeper should welcome an audit — an honest public servant should appreciate the press.

While Judge of Texas' smallest county, Judge Hall has been elected Secretary and Treasurer, Vice President, and President of the North and East Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association, composed of 72 counties; in 1958, Judge Hall served as Secretary and Treasurer of the State County Judges and Commissioners Association and in 1959 he was President of the State-wide Association.

In 1960 he attended the White House Conference on Children and Youth, and is a member of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Aging. He is a member of the First Methodist Church of Rockwall, a long-time member of the Board of Stewards, and in the years 1959-60 and 1960-61 was Chairman of the District Trustees for the Greenville District. He teaches a Sunday school class for the high school age and has done so since 1950.

Like so many of the men of his age, he was a member of the armed services from 1942 until 1945, having been a pilot in the United States Navy. Judge Hall is a past president of the Rockwall Rotary Club, was for three years a member of the Legislative Committee for NACO, a board composed of 25 County Officials from over the United States, and is present Chairman of the Liaison Committee for the Texas Commissioners Courts and Texas A & M Extension Division.

Judge Hall, in announcing his candidacy, has advised the Enterprise that he will make a vigorous campaign throughout the District. The Judge says: "I will take my candidacy to the people, with the solemn pledge to represent all of our citizens equally."

Postal Receipts Set Record in '61

Postal receipts at Münster during the past year were the highest ever and continued the upward trend that has been in effect steadily since 1950.

The total for 1961 was $19,095 as compared with $18,368 the year before and $16,750 in 1959. Receipts were $13,100 in 1955 and $8,500 in 1950. During the decade following 1950 local receipts more than doubled. Also included in that period was the rate increase from 3 cents to 4 cents, in 1953.

sons, a sister and a brother. Hickman's career as a peace officer began in 1908 as a deputy constable in Gainesville and the time of his principal activity was during oil booms of the twenties and thirties. He served mostly in the tough towns, including Berger, Kilgore, Ranger, Burkburnett, Mexia, Breckenridge and Wink.

During his ranger career he maintained a keen interest in horses and rodeos. He became famous as a rodeo judge and judged in many large rodeos in this country and some abroad. Even after retirement he continued his old interests often heading parades and participating for many years in the Gainesville Community Circus.

He retired as a ranger in 1935 to become a special officer for Gulf Oil Corporation. In recent years he lived in Cooke County tending a herd of cattle and his 1500 acre ranch. During that time he was active in civic affairs and was one of the promoters of the Elm Creek flood control program. Since 1956 he was a member of the Texas Public Safety Commission. Since last year he was its chairman.

sight. The community's need to meet its share of construction and equipment estimate is $287,000, so the drive at this time is short of it goal by $75,000 to $80,000.

To raise that amount in cash and subscription is the present objective of the hospital authority, Mr. Weinzapfel said. It will be necessary to show sufficient resources by the time construction starts, and to make final payment by the time construction ends.

He said that many subscribers are making payments regularly, but many others are behind schedule and some have not started paying. He also mentioned that there are many who have not subscribed and some who subscribed less than they should have. Such persons are urgently asked to get behind the project now and help put it over the top.

Their special attention is invited to the possibility of establishing family memorials. Combined donations of parents and children in some cases are already sufficient to equip some unit of the hospital. In other cases the family members can easily raise the additional funds needed for a memorial.

The campaign cash fund does not represent all of the cash on hand. Held separately is an operating fund to meet current expenses of the hospital authority and also to be used as the hospital's operating capital when it opens.

High School. He attended the University of Texas in the school of business administration. During World War II Hall served in the U.S. Navy for two years.

Hall is a member of the First Methodist Church and is a former chairman of the church's official board. He is married and the father of three children.

He is a director of the Grayson County State Bank of Sherman and co-chairman of the Austin College Sherman Development Board. He is a former member of the Sherman School Board, having served as board president. Hall has served as president of the Sherman Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club and the United Fund board of directors.

In a statement Hall stressed the importance of state government in the democratic system, stating his belief that "with states' rights go state responsibility, including the lawmaker's responsibility to act always with honesty and intelligence in the public interest. I also believe that an efficiently managed state government demands the participation of more men with an experienced business background."

and global affairs, and, according to their principles, they have ample reason for their belief. On the other hand we have those of opposite conviction who think the country is doing fine in domestic and global affairs. And both sides have their extremists.

If those extremists were only fussing with each other the net result would probably be a standoff. But there's a tragic inequity in this clash. Right extremists as a rule are not in a position to do any more than complain. Left extremists are holding many important positions in which they can cause serious trouble. Which prompts us to wonder: In the interests of public welfare, which group of extremists should be under attack?
