VOLUME XXVII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

OCTOBER 18, 1963

NUMBER 48

Another occasion of community pride is coming up soon. That's the official opening of Muenster Memorial Hospital a couple of months from now, provided the job can be finished by then.

At a meeting last week directors of the hospital authority set their sights for Sunday, December 8, a most appropriate day because it is generally regarded as the community's birthday. And every effort will be made to have the place ready by then.

Also every effort will be made to arrange a program worthy of the magnificent new community asset. There will be a solemn dedication along with the proper formalities and the presence of dignitaries. And most of all, there will be a guided tour to make visitors familiar with the many facilities and comforts and special features which make our hospital a truly outstanding one. It will be shown as an object of community pride and more so as a place equipped and staffed for the best possible care of the sick.

It's something important to look forward to, also an occasion that merits other civic preparation. Lots of visitors will be here that day, and it's likely that many of them will have an urge to see the rest of the town. So, let's do our best to make a good impression in other areas as well. This, of course, is everybody's job — to make his own home and business look as attractive as possible.

With mixed feelings of nausea and shame we hear reports lately that Marshal Tito, dictator of communist Yugoslavia, is about to receive the VIP treatment as an official visitor to this country.

That's to be done in spite of the well known fact that Tito has an unbroken record of red dedication and activity back to the early days of communism, that he stands beside Khrushchev in the communist plan of enslaving the world, that his dictatorship of Yugoslavia for a couple of decades has been one of ruthlessness to his own people and treachery to the rest of the world.

In view of our professed ideals one would think we should have nothing to do with him. His hands are stained with the blood of hundreds martyred in suppression of religion and freedom and human dignity.

And, considering the many times he has double crossed this country, he deserves nothing but our contempt. By his pretended squabble with the Soviet Union he has suckered our country out of more than two billion dollars, which has been used to help the spread of the red menace in other countries.

Our leaders should have been wise to his nature and intent long ago. And they certainly should have noticed his chummy attitude toward Khrushchev only a few weeks ago. Likewise they should have deeply resented the incident in which T and K made a grand tour of a big new chemical plant built with $23 million of our money. Adding insult to injury, the reds even refused to allow American news reporters on that tour. You can imagine whether U S got any credit as the benefactor on that project.

Their attitude toward our newsmen on that occasion deserves special consideration in relation to this week's observance of National Newspaper Week. Comparing the absolute control of news over there with the free press over here, we can appreciate the significance of the slogan "Newspapers make a big difference in people's lives." People of red countries read what their rulers want them to. People of free countries read whatever facts resourceful reporters are able to find out for them, regardless of official attitudes.

That is the basis of a free press as we know it in this country. And that is a basic guarantee of our freedom. So long as we are privileged to learn the bad with the good about our government's doings we can feel assured that our leaders will try to merit public approval. Free press, backed by a free vote, is the guardian of liberty. Our chosen leaders are more likely to keep our interests in mind when aware

Dr. L. O. Laughlin Starts Practice Of Medicine Here

Dr. L. O. Laughlin is a resident physician of Muenster as of this week Monday. During the past weekend he moved his office equipment to the back of Dixie Drug, the location used several years ago by Dr. Myrick, deceased. Dr. Laughlin, a native of Cushing, Okla., received his M. D. degree from the University of Oklahoma Medical School in 1959 and spent a year as interne at Wesley Hospital in Oklahoma City. Since then, July 1960, he has practiced in Gainesville.

Two factors combined to influence his move, Muenster needs a resident doctor where as Gainesville is well staffed. And completion of Muenster Memorial Hospital in the near future will provide the facilities and care for his hospital patients. He also considered the fact that quite a number of his patients live here.

Dr. and Mrs. Laughlin have four children: Catherine, 10, and Marc, 8, who are students at the public school; and Jefferson, 4, and Curlette, 18 months. The family lives at 508 Walnut, former home of the F. A. Kathmans.

Dr. Laughlin's move also brings another new resident to town. His receptionist, Miss Mary Ann Lorenz, is a graduate of Cooke County Junior College, Miss Gainesville of 1962, plans to study nursing. She lives with Mrs. Joaline Roberg.

Tigers Bow 20-12 To Undeclared Callisburg Cats

The Sacred Heart Tigers and the Callisburg Wildcats had a real tussle Friday night and the Tigers sustained their second loss of the season by a score of 20-12.

Even that was quite an achievement. Prior to that the highly rated Wildcats had not allowed an opponent past their 25. The Tigers did it five times. They scored twice, at other times reached the 12, 14 and 17.

Callisburg started the game with a first down and a kick ending the second series. Sacred Heart made two first downs and lost possession on a fumble. The visitors kicked on their next series. So did the Tigers.

That put Callisburg on the Tiger 35, where Dougherty broke away for a touchdown run.

Following the kickoff Dale Hess ripped off 19 to the Wildcat 42 and Dennis Hess made two gains to the 20. But the

Tigers, Jesuit B Will Meet Friday On Tigers' Field

Coaches Adam and Walter Wolf are having their annual guessing game this week, trying to decide what's in store for the Tigers as they meet Jesuit B here Friday night.

Not much information is gleaned hereabouts from reports on the Rangers. Adam Wolf has learned about four of the Jesuit B games so far, three wins and a loss, but, not knowing anything about the other teams he still knows little about the Jesuits.

One point noted was that Bishop Dunne High beat the Rangers. Actually that information will be more helpful after this week than it is now. After the Jesuit game it gives an idea what to expect from Bishop Dunne High. But now it doesn't help Sacred Heart measure the Jesuits.

A possible indication of what to expect, says Wolf, is the team roster. Players are husky and have plenty of reserve strength, probably tougher than last year when the Tigers won a 39-26 scoring spree.

Condition of the Tigers is about normal, that is, two out of the lineup Larry Hess will sit this one out with a twisted knee David Bayer may be benched by a slight concussion received last Friday. He was taken to the hospital after the game, remained until the following afternoon, awaits the doctor's OK for this week's game.

VFW Post Makes Plans to Sponsor Turkey Day Picnic

Muenster's VFW Post, meeting Monday night, initiated plans for this community's annual Thanksgiving observance. The membership will sponsor the traditional picnic.

VFW Auxiliary members will help by taking over the kitchen.

In other business the veterans agreed to use treasury funds to pay for the name plates on service men's graves in Muenster, Lindsay, Forestburg and Rosston cemeteries. Post Commander Arthur Bayer conducted the meeting and reminded members of the District I meeting in Greenville November 9 and 10.

Thirty-five members were present. Herbie Yosten won the attendance award. A social hour followed business.

Oriental Theme Is Used in Program For Garden Club

An Oriental theme greeted Muenster Civic League and Garden Club members at their October meeting Monday night in the home of Mrs. Dick Cain with Mrs. T. S. Myrick as co-hostess.

Hostesses in oriental ceremonial kimonos met guests and ushered them into the meeting room adorned with several pieces defining the oriental idea of flower arranging. A group of Chinese figurines was on a side table, Japanese plaques were on the coffee table, Chinese wind chimes were suspended from ceiling lamps, and a small Korean doll was a conversation piece.

Mrs. Dan Luke led the program on flower arranging, demonstrating oriental symbolism. She was dressed in formal ceremonial garb. As she entered, back ground piano music was provided by Miss Bettye Dodds.

Mrs. Luke explained the meaning of "Ikebana," the Japanese word for flower arrangement. She said the art of flower arranging originated in Japan and that simplicity is the keynote of "Ikebana." She showed an arrangement of white chrysanthemums in a green pottery container done in the theme of "heaven, man and earth", and two others showing the American version of this theme. One of roses and stocks was in pastel colors, the other in fall tones using roses and asters.

The business meeting followed the program with Mrs. Cain, president, presiding. Committee chairman gave reports. The club is selling gift wrap and ribbon as a benefit for the blind.

Members plan to show a table of Christmas arrangements and decorations at the Christmas Ideas Show in Gainesville's Home Demonstration Club building on November 5 and 6.

The club's annual Holiday Foods and Bake Sale has been set for Saturday, Dec. 14.

After adjournment the hostesses served refreshments to 23 members and two guests. Mrs. William Sevier of Valley View and Miss Diane Henzler. The group especially enjoyed individual small cakes with tiny scrolls inside telling the symbolism of flowers in the Orient.

The November meeting will be held in Mrs. John Mosman's home with Mrs. Steve Moser as co-hostess.

Trouble about telling little white lies is they pick up so much dirt while traveling.

Council OKs New 6th Street Bridge

A new steel bridge on West Sixth Street about three feet higher than the present one was approved by the City Council at its meeting Monday night. Along with that project it will fill in the approach raising the level of the street up to the bridge level.

The dual project is a part of the city's current street improvement program, and its special purpose is to keep above water level when the lake backs up after heavy rains.

State Highway Department engineers have offered to provide blueprints for the job. Soon as they are received prefabricated steel will be ordered and work will begin.

SH Students Ask For Stamps to Go In Oct. Shipment

Sacred Heart High students and Sr. Theresina are elated over the first reports of standing in the annual stamp contest in which they are participating. Early shipments of cancelled stamps — those accumulated last year and during the summer — have put the local school in top spot in its class. That word has been received from the contest headquarters. The sponsors are grateful to all who helped achieve this standing by donating stamps.

The next shipment will be made this month and students are urgently requesting that all who have stamps at home or in their offices turn them in immediately. It takes some time to sort and cut out the stamps according to contest rules. Helping with this detail are Mrs. Frank Trachta and Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr.

This is no time to rest because other schools promise to give stiff competition, according to the sponsors.

Annual Breakfast Marks Observance Of Columbus Day

Muenster Knights of Columbus observed the feast of their patron saint last Sunday with their annual communion and breakfast.

Along with their ladies they attended the 9 o'clock mass and received communion in Sacred Heart Church, then had breakfast in the Sacred Heart lunch room.

Headliner of the program was Richard Hatton of Fort Worth, master of the North Texas district of Fourth Degree KSS. He talked about the origin and achievements of the order.

And a special event was presentation of the Muenster council's Good Neighbor Award to C. F. Gobble. In the presentation Arthur Endres explained that it is intended to acknowledge the good will and charity of a member of another faith, and that Mr. Gobble conforms closely to the scriptural definition of a good neighbor.

John Mosman was master of ceremonies for the program and James Walterscheid extended the council's welcome. Father Alcuin reminded members of the order's emphasis on charity as expressed in The Lord's second commandment, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

Hatton told that the order was founded 80 years ago by a Father McGivney as a local charitable organization helping widows of his parish. From that, interest expanded to include other activities and membership also expanded. And the name of Knights was selected because a knight's traditional duty was to protect women and children.

Some current K of C projects explained by Hatton are the religious advertising campaign, microfilming the Vatican Library for use in America, and addition of the words "under God" to our pledge to the flag.

House-to-House Bake Sale Set

Something new in a bake sale, at least locally, will be Saturday's house-to-house sale of home baked breads, pies and candies.

The sale is a benefit sponsored by Sacred Heart junior class. Students are also taking orders in advance for Saturday delivery of special items. Orders will get prompt attention on phone call. The number to call is 4135.

Dallas, Muenster Choirs to Appear In Joint Songfest

A feast, song, and frolic event sponsored by the Muenster choir and featuring German food, German songs and German dancing will be held in the parish hall Saturday starting at 6:30.

First on the program is a supper in the lunch room with emphasis on German dishes, particularly sausage.

And then the party moves upstairs where the local choir and Frohsinn Singers of Dallas will present a joint concert, again going strong on the German.

After that a dance, featuring music by the Polka Peppermints.

Heart Attack Takes Ed Baker, Brother Of Mrs. Haverkamp

Edgar W. Baker, 54, operator of Club Cafe at Saint Jo, died there shortly after noon Friday of an apparent heart attack. He was a brother of Mrs. Charlie Haverkamp of Muenster, and moved to Saint Jo from Gainesville about three months ago.

Funeral services were held Sunday in George J. Carroll & Son Chapel with burial in Fairview Cemetery. The Rev. Ed Scooter, Saint Jo Methodist minister, officiated.

Baker was born in Cooke County and spent most of his adult life in Gainesville engaging in the cafe business. His parents lived north of Muenster when he was a child.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, two daughters, one brother, four sisters and five grandchildren.

Rams Take Early Lead and Batter Hornets 26-12

It was the same old story as Muenster High's Hornets met the Rams of Class A Sadler Southmayd last Friday. Superior power was the big factor and the Hornets were losers by a score of 26-12.

The hosting S&S boys put on the pressure from the beginning and had a comfortable lead of 20-6 salted away before half time. For the rest of the game, however, the Hornets improved or the Rams slipped as the two teams battled it out on fairly even terms. Before intermission S&S led 11-5 in first downs and 221-79 in total yardage. After the half Muenster led 9-5 in first downs and 137-128 in yardage.

The game started with an exchange of fumbles and Muenster's kick to end its first series. Then the Rams got going for 69 yards in seven plays. The big gainer of the drive was a pass, Clements to Rollins, for 42, and Price scored from the 5.

Next the hosts held Muenster on the first series and launched the second drive. It was a steady grind using 17 tries for the 80 yards and completed by a pass to Rollins for 13 and the TD.

Then the Hornets clicked for a while. Wimmer reached S&S 45 on the kick return and ten plays reached pay dirt. Best gains were Wimmer's 17 and Vogel's 10, and the TD was on a 7 yard slant by Vogel.

Shortly after that the Rams copped a 50 yard drive on a 7 yard end run by Clements. Four plays were enough for that job and a pass for 28 did most of it. Price added bonus points making the half time count 20-6.

A first down by each and two kicks ending series failures by each took up most of the third quarter. Then came a big break for Muenster followed by another that hurt terribly. Vogel's kick took a tricky bounce and glanced off a Ram's leg. Gobble covered it on S&S 14. Vogel made 7. Virgil Swirczynski made about 4 when a crunching tackle separated him from the ball. S&S recovered 6 inches from

1953 MHS Grads Will Be Honored At Homecoming

Saturday will be homecoming day at Muenster Public School, honoring the ex-students who graduated 10 years ago and featuring H. Howard Homsley, former superintendent, as master of ceremonies.

The event begins with a 6 o'clock supper in the school cafeteria catered by Rohmer's Restaurant, and its program will consist chiefly of recognizing the grads of '53 and the football team and the candidates for queen.

Of 23 graduates in 1953, only two are living here now. Special efforts are under way to get back as many as possible for homecoming.

After supper the Exes will have an election of officers. The homecoming football game will be the District 10-B opener between the Hornets and the Saint Jo Panthers. Starting time is 7:30.

The homecoming queen will be presented and crowned in ceremonies during the game's half time. The girls will be escorted on the field by football players and the queen will receive a bouquet and a crown. The other three will receive corsages.

Hornets Promise Lots of Football In Panther Scrap

There will be lots of football at the Muenster High field Saturday night. That's a promise from the Hornets, who say they will be playing to win even though, according to general opinion, they don't have a ghost of a chance.

The record points to Saint Jo as an extra strong favorite. So far the Panthers have beat all opponents, most of them decisively. Muenster has lost four out of five, two of the losses being to Saint Jo's victims.

Traditionally, however, the Hornet-Panther fracas has been one in which anything can happen, and the Hornets have chosen to look at it that way. They'll give it all they have and hope for the breaks to go their way. They promise homecoming fans of Muenster High that the game will be a dandy.

A report from Coach Plk Wednesday indicates that the Hornets' physical condition doesn't quite match their spirit. Four boys are on the injured list. Roy Wimmer and Roy Hartman with sprains, Wayne Klement with a broken finger, Terry Wimmer with a hand badly torn by a cleat. Hartman is likely to be ready for the game, Roy Wimmer and Klement may be. Terry Wimmer is out at least a couple of weeks.

Rallies to Spark MHS Homecoming

Students of Muenster High School have started rallying round the Hornets in preparation for the homecoming game with the Saint Jo Panthers Saturday night.

To spark homecoming activities the students started with rallies Wednesday and Thursday at noon on the school grounds. They will rally again Friday at 3 p.m. and have the biggest rally of all Saturday at 5 p.m. This will include a snake dance on Main Street. The parade up and down Main will lead back to school in time for the six o'clock homecoming dinner in the school cafeteria.

WHEN THE LEFT WAS RIGHT

The great liberal, Franklin D. Roosevelt, said — and he was not classed as a radical right: "The governing rights of the States are all those which have not been surrendered to the national government by the Constitution or its amendments. Among the powers never surrendered to the national government are the conduct of public utilities, of banks, of insurance, of business, of agriculture, of education, of social welfare, of schools, and many others. In these Washington must not interfere."
 F.D.R. said this in 1930.

Which of these rights have since been surrendered to the national government? The answer is not one, but the national government has invaded every one of these states' rights.

F.D.R. also pointed out that should the national government assume these functions, it would result in an all-powerful central government ruled by a small group of men — "an oligarchy," said F.D.R. "masquerading as democracy." When this philosophy of government is stated today, the left wing branch of both Democratic and Republican parties shout, "Radical Rights," "Dangerous Lunatic Fringe."

The more we read and the more we learn, the more value we place on the ideas of the "Radical Right." The greatest liberal of all preached what is now called the "Radical Right" doctrine. We're too far left; let's move over to the right.

TIME TO RECTIFY AN OLD MISTAKE

Prior to 1933, when the United States extended diplomatic recognition to the Soviet Union, the Communist state was approaching economic collapse. The Soviets were poor credit risks worldwide, and their totally unworkable system was about to meet its inevitable doom.

The picture changed drastically when we announced that we would exchange diplomats, open our borders to them, and even grant trade credits. With this "stamp of approval" from the U.S., other nations followed suit — and the Soviet system was saved from collapse.

During the thirties, our industrialists and technical experts visited the Communist stronghold and imparted the knowledge the Reds were incapable of uncovering on their own. The fruits of capitalism were passed on to those who had rejected our system and who, at that very time, were still predicting our destruction.

After saving Russia from defeat by the Germans during World War II, we allowed them to occupy Eastern Europe. They exploited this opportunity by dismantling entire factories and transporting them to Russia. They kidnapped technicians, rocket scientists, and others who could be valuable to the Communist cause.

Despite our help, they continued referring to us as their avowed enemy and launched the famous "cold war," which certainly must be the most one-sided war in history.

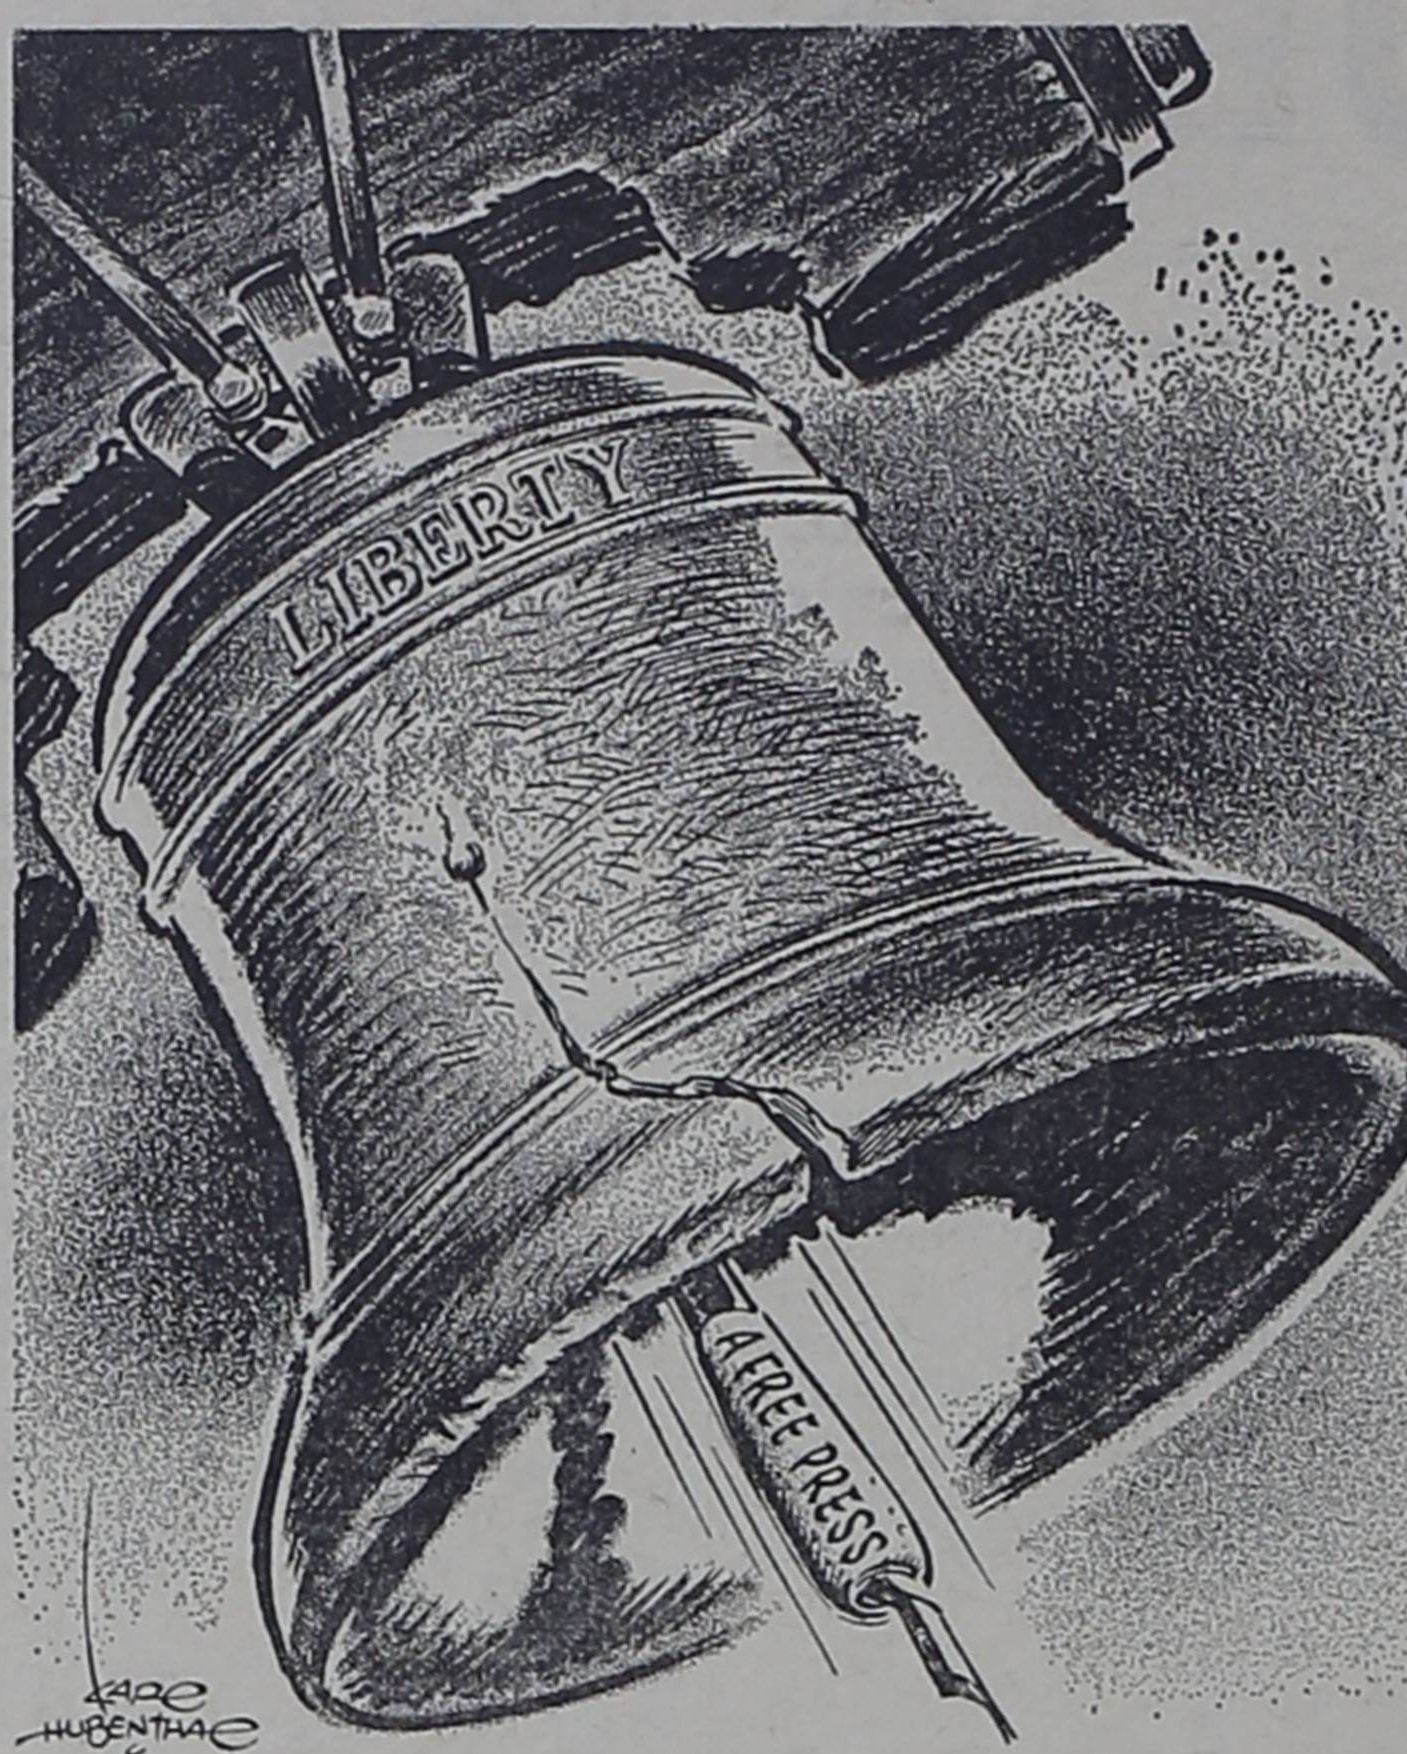

Through it all, we have acted as if the war didn't exist. We continue to send generous foreign aid to Poland and Yugoslavia — taking the pressure off the Communist homeland. We continue to provide liberal credit terms, ignoring their disregard for past obligations to us.

In fact, we have so built up their system — and so torn down our own — that the world has come to think of us as two giant "equals" in a great ideological war. The real truth of the matter is that the Soviet system is totally worthless without aid from the capitalist economy.

All of this should lead us to one inescapable conclusion. If we are to defeat the Communist enemy, and most Americans still prefer victory to co-existence, then we must stop this business of supporting the enemy.

We must rectify our original mistake, and resume the foreign policy that had brought the Soviets to the verge of

WHY IT RINGS TRUE

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK, OCT. 13-19

Newspapers Make a Big Difference In People's Lives

This week, October 13-19, is National Newspaper Week. WHAT is it? It's a nationwide celebration which pays tribute to the 1,770 daily and 9,000 weekly newspapers published in this country.

WHAT is it? Its purpose is to emphasize the big difference that newspapers make in your life, the vital role they play in protecting the people's three great freedoms — Freedom of the Press . . . Freedom of Speech . . . and Freedom of Religion.

The freedoms which the press protects make an important difference in your life. They guarantee your right to KNOW what your government is doing, to VOICE your own opinions about current problems, and to BELIEVE in whatever ideals you choose, even if they don't coincide with the ideology of the men in power.

There are many places in the world — not just in Russia — where editors are throttled for "causing public unrest" or "insulting" the government. Cuba is one of those places, and it is just a long swim from the U.S. coast. People are not free where the press is gagged. The big difference between our lives and theirs is a free press.

Newspapers make a difference in people's lives every day. Their news and sports articles tell what has happened in the world; their editorials tell why. Their features and cartoons offer a world of entertainment; the ads, a complete shopper's guide in a nutshell. And that's not all. This newspaper, every newspaper, is constantly trying to improve itself, to serve you better, every day.

Join with us in saluting National Newspaper Week. America's newspapers and the freedoms they preserve for you indeed make a big difference in your life.

collapse. We should break off all diplomatic relations and all business dealings with all Communist nations. We should inform our allies that they must make a choice either do business with the enemy or with us — but we will not permit both.

There is no strategic commodity that cannot be produced within our own borders. But it is doubtful that any nation in the world can exist without direct or indirect links with the U.S. . . . unless those nations discard their socialist and communist systems and try free enterprise.

Let each nation decide its own future — either with the dying Communist world or the "wave of the future," capitalism. This one act would be worth more than all the propaganda programs, all the summit meetings, all the co-existence policies our State Department can dream up. And it acknowledges the basic Communist tenet — that it is at war with us and will continue to be at war until the end.

Let us not put off another day the policy that will end the Communist menace once and for all.

Uncle Sam is the world's biggest spender, borrower, lender, employer, property owner, tenant and insurer.

The state of federal finances (in the red) has prompted Rep. Howard W. Smith (D-Va.) to question certain government-financed research. For example, a $31,000 grant to study the biology of bumblebees, $47,500 to seek evolutionary developments in birds and $16,000 to decide whether to revise standard earthworm classifications.

Ranchers. Dairymen. Poultrymen:

Have you tasted CARBOTEX, a natural limestone powder, and the ground rocks and shells, the three natural sources of calcium used in mixed feeds?

Did you find any hard, sharp particles in CARBOTEX? Does your feed and mineral manufacturer use CARBOTEX at a cost of some 40% more money, or does he brag about how cheap he buys the other?

DO IT BETTER Electrically!

HEAT WATER flamelessly!

"Keep Junior away from the water heater? No need to, Jane. It's as safe as a refrigerator!"

Safety is just one of the features you'll appreciate in a flameless electric water heater. You'll like, too, the fact that it can be located almost anywhere in your home because it requires no unsightly vent pipes. Most important, you'll appreciate its efficiency and economy of operation with the special low electric water heating rate.

The cow's total production was 1,270 pounds with an average test of 4.0. D&F Dairy of Gainesville had the champion milk producer for the month with 2,510 pounds. D&F Dairy, Hi-Lo Farms and J. E. Elkins tied on the high test of butterfat at 42 per cent.

A total of 91 DHIA cows produced 50 or more pounds of butterfat during the month with the all-over average at 31 pounds. Average pounds of milk per cow was 886.

Ten cows produced more than a ton of milk during the month. They are in the herds of Jerry Hoenig, Pete Prescher, D&F Dairy, Richard Frasher and Hi-Lo Farms.

Hogs get ulcers from "cited living conditions, according to Dr. B. G. Harmon of the University of Illinois. They're still raised on farms, of course, but some spend their lives jammed inside buildings with concrete floors like apartment dwellers. The swine nutrition specialist says he doubts that pigs had ulcers when they used to root for themselves in the woods.

Snake bit kills at least 40,000 people a year, the World Health Organization estimates. Perhaps 70 per cent of the fatalities occur in Asia where, WHO says, every kind of poisonous snake can be found. Of 2,500 varieties, only 200 are considered dangerous to humans.

Old Farm Plan Is Brought Up to Date

The conservation plan on the Matt Fuhrmann farm has been revised and brought up to date by personnel of the Soil Conservation Service.

This farm was first entered in the district program in 1947 and much good soil conservation work has been done since.

Fuhrmann was one of the first in the area to have a grassed waterway sodded to serve as a place for terraces to outlet. The farm has been terraced for several years and this has done wonders in checking erosion and leveling up gullies which once were in the fields.

Robert Fuhrmann operates the farm, using commercial fertilizers to improve soil for greater crop yields. All crop residues are mulched into the soil soon after harvest. In 1961 the land made the best wheat crop ever produced on the farm. Some acres made above 50 bushels with the average at 43 bushels an acre. This compared to a former high of 18 to 20 bushels an acre.

Some of the thin land is being retired and developed into improved Coastal Bermuda grass for a livestock program.

CDA Members Set Dates for Annual Christmas Bazaar

Muenster court Catholic Daughters of America, meeting Friday night, set the dates for the annual Christmas Bazaar for December 5, 6 and 7. Headquarters will be on Main Street in the former Fisher Market location.

Members have been busy for several weeks making handmade items for sale. These include stuffed toys, baby clothes, aprons, fancy work, a quilt, and dozens of other articles.

Another feature of the bazaar will be a bake sale. Still another attraction will be a white elephant sale.

Mrs. Ben Seyler is general chairman. Mrs. Al Fleitman is chairman of home baking and Mrs. Henry Pick is chairman of the white elephant department.

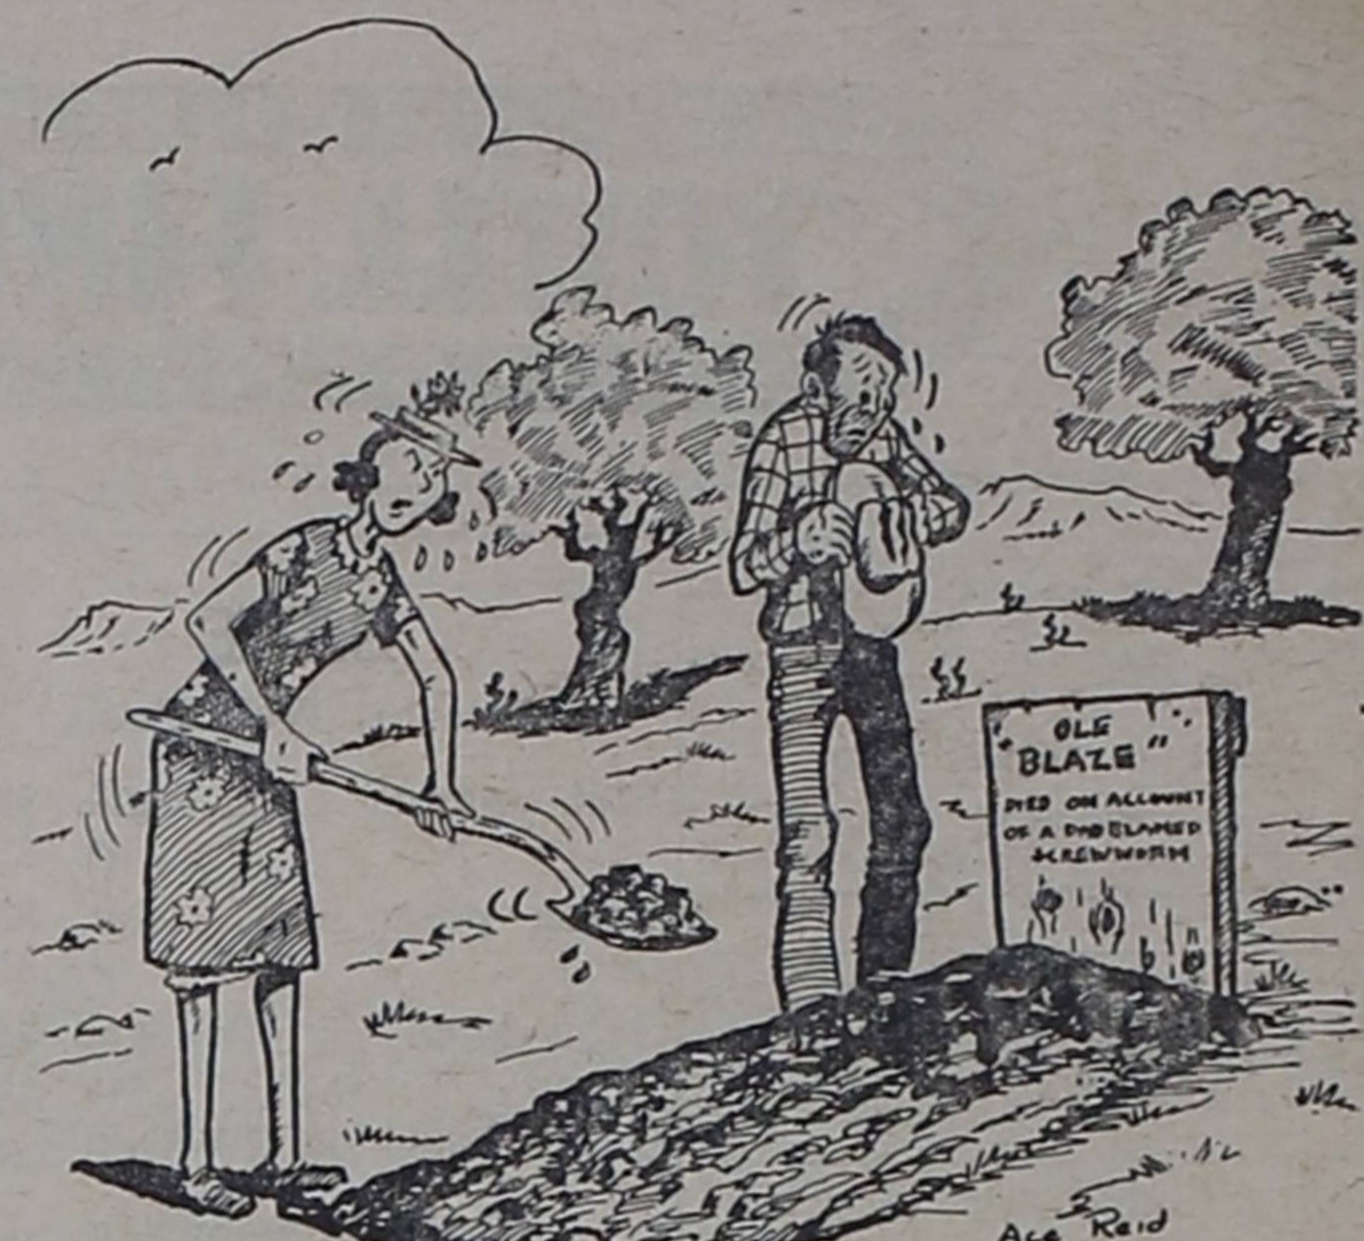

Sister Roberta and her art class have volunteered to make posters advertising the bazaar and the sponsors will give a prize for the best poster.

Members reported making some 70 pieces of white linens for Muenster Memorial Hospital. These were cut at the home of Mrs. John Fisher and taken to individual homes for finishing. There'll be more cutting and sewing sessions when more material arrives.

Mrs. Joe Hoenig gave the report on auditing the organization's books. A listing of receipts and expenditures during the past six months revealed that a sum of $520 was used for charity.

Mrs. Charles Taylor conducted the meeting and Mrs. Gene Schmitz served cookies and iced tea after adjournment to 25 members.

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Chevrolet truck engines—fours, sixes, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted side rails are stronger.

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the price tag is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet cabs and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound-deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

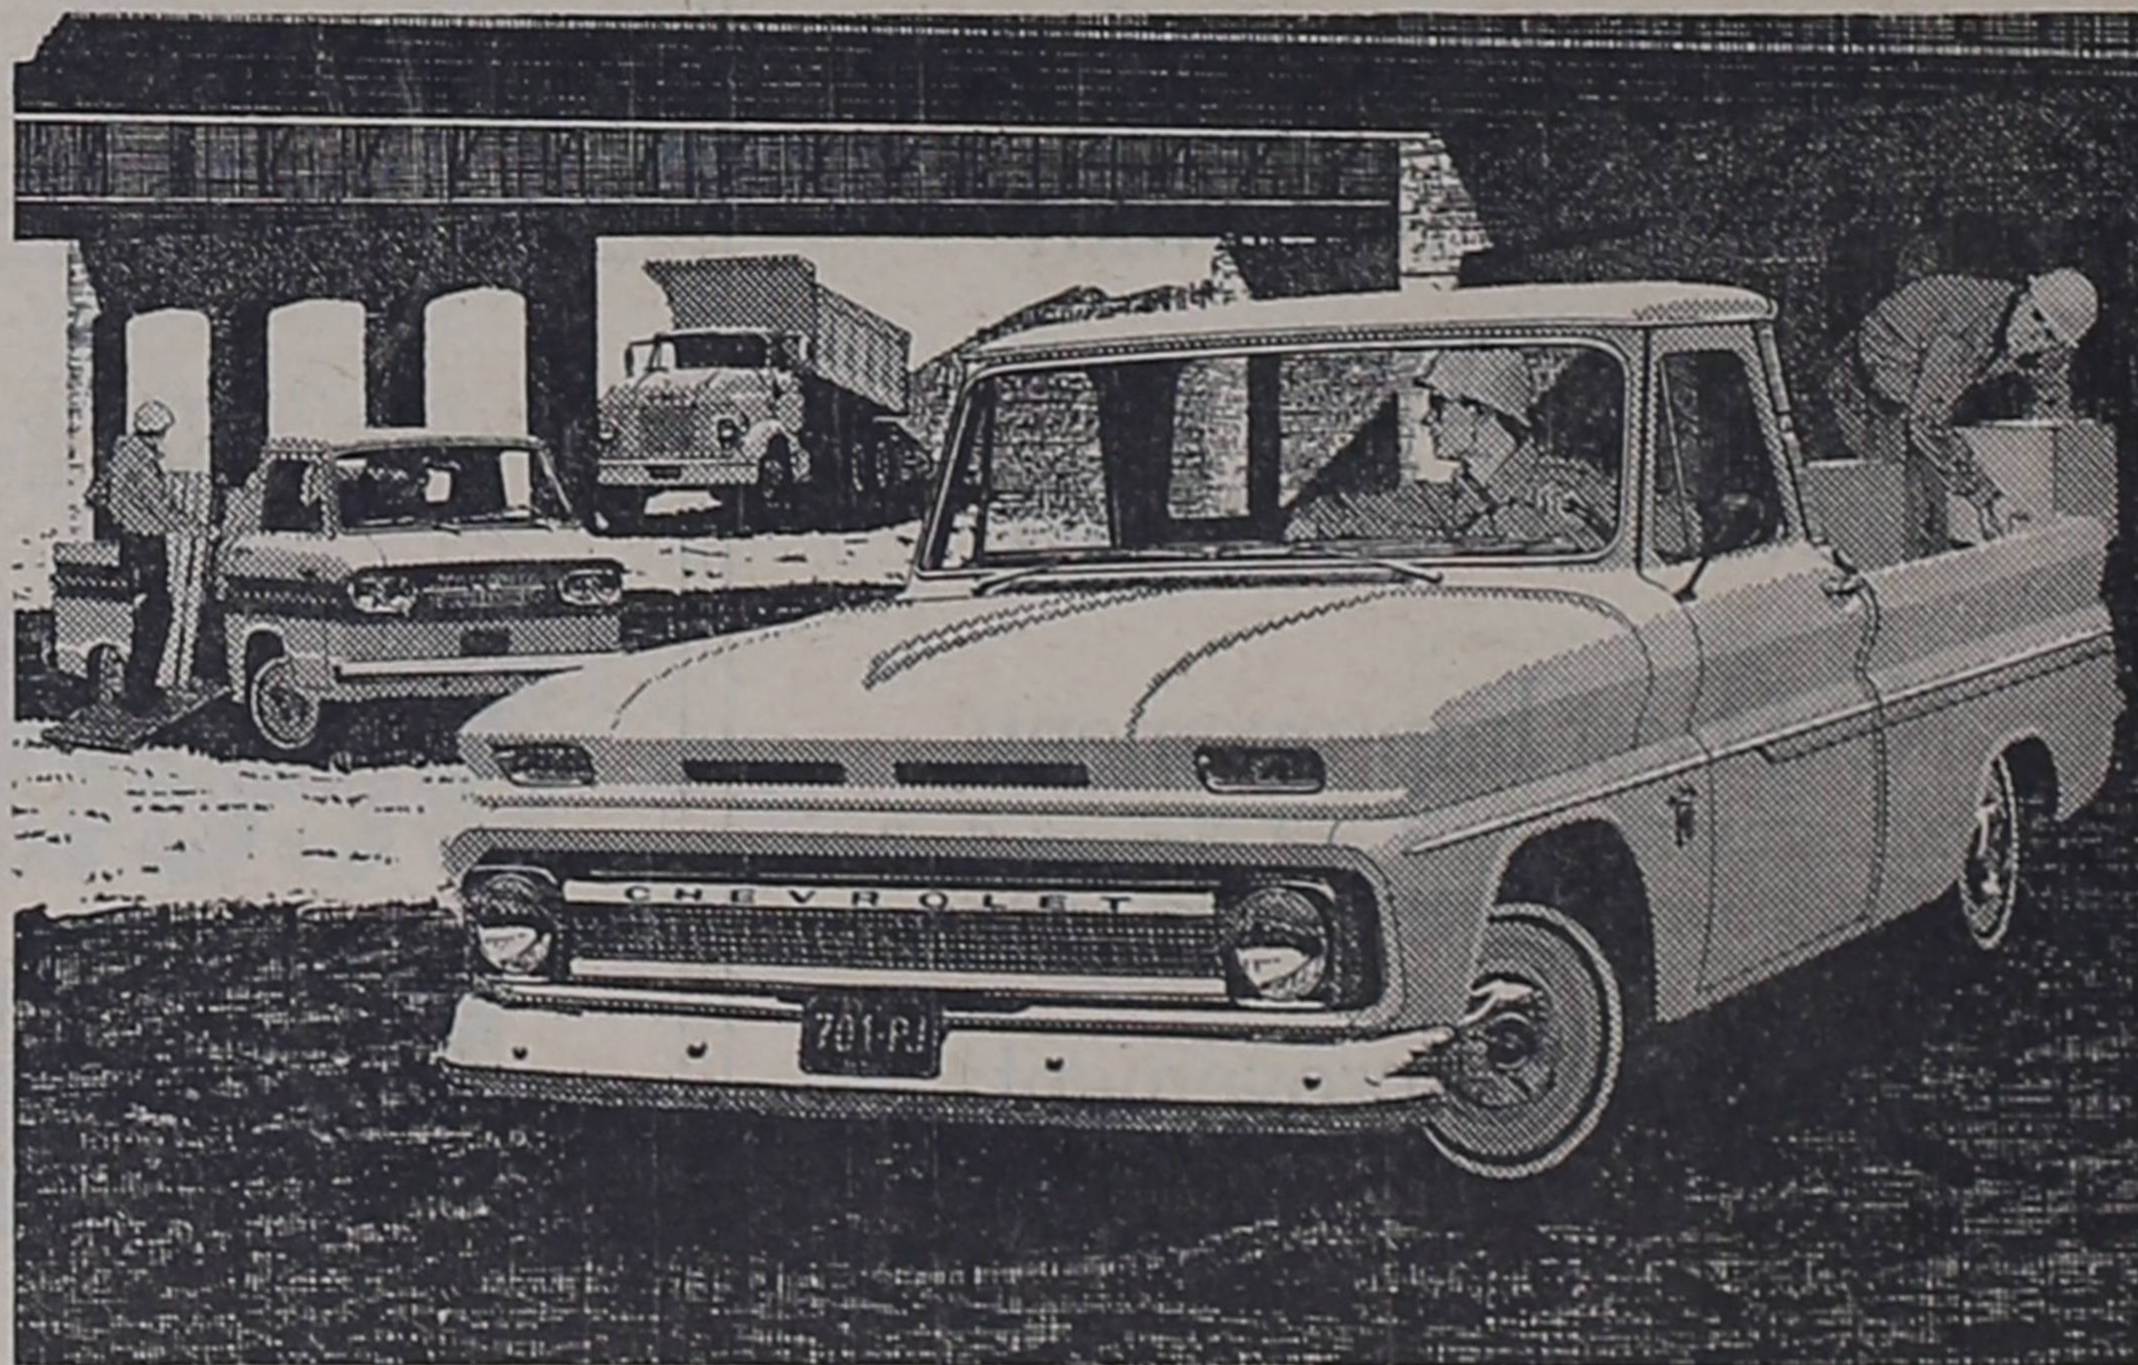

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leafsprings. It automatically stiffens as the load increases—and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel

Scoreless Deadlock With Windthorst Is Cubs' Third Tie

Walter Wolf's Sacred Heart Cubs played another tie game here last Sunday, a 0-0 deadlock with juniors of Windthorst.

That makes three ties and one win for the parochial little fellows... a 20-0 win and this scoreless tie with Windthorst, also a 6-6 game with Valley View and a 0-0 game with Bowie.

Two more games are on the Cub schedule this season. They will entertain Lindsay next Sunday afternoon and go to Lindsay the following Sunday. Sunday's contest on the Tiger field was mostly a defensive affair, Sacred Heart making only two first downs and the visitors 3.

Except for an offside ruling Windthorst would have won. They caught the Cubs behind their goal but did not get their 2 points because the play was nullified. Sacred Heart came nearest to a score on the last play of the game. Tommy Hess intercepted a pass in midfield and returned it to the 25 before being spilled.

rugged Wildcat line would allow no more, and the next four plays gained only 3 yards.

From there the Wildcats put on four big plays for their second score a run for 23, a pass for 9, a run for 4 and Dougherty's 47 yard scoop to the goal. Dotson followed over for two extra points.

Sacred Heart snapped back with two big plays of their own: a pass to Dennis Hess for 30 and a run by Dennis Hess for 19 to the Wildcat 12. And for the second time the Tigers saw their opportunity fizzle as Callisburg intercepted and took over on the 15.

Two plays made a first down to the 27. Next one lost 2 and then Wells sailed down field for 65 yards before being stopped by David Bayer on the Tiger 20. Three plays later a fumble stopped the scoring threat. The half ended 14-0.

Dale Hess returned the kickoff to Callisburg's 30 and the next three plays went to the 17. Wildcat defense was again equal to the job and the Tigers' next series stopped at the 12.

Holding their visitors the next series Sacred Heart started again from the 39. Three plays reached the 24. Dennis Hess went over but an offside penalty spoiled it. Next two plays he gained 20, then 9 to the goal.

The next score was Callisburg's, following Sacred Heart's fumble on the 25. Six plays made the distance, Dotson going over for the last half yard.

The next Tiger score followed promptly as Wimmer squirmed through the middle and got loose — a total of about 70 yards.

Callisburg's kick return got to the Tiger 37 and a partially blocked kick ending the next series put Sacred Heart on its 32. A pass went to the Callisburg 45 and a fumble ended the drive. From that point the Wildcats marched back to Sacred Heart's 5 as time ran out.

the goal. Rams applied the power again and went to the Hornet 11 before being stopped.

Then Muenster ground out its second counter, 16 plays plus 10 free yards on penalties made the 89 yards. Vogel was the work horse, kept the drive going in the strains, and made the final 3 yard charge for the score.

That was near the end and the Hornets, desperate for another chance tried an on-side kick. The maneuver back fired and Rams were on the Hornet 41. Two plays later Powell went 37 for the last TD.

of public reaction at the next election.

Still, we have to realize that abuses can creep into our wonderful system. Some months ago we heard admissions of managed news, in which official reports were deliberately slanted to support official policy. Thanks to our free press, our country was told what was going on. We were warned to be on guard for half truths and untruths.

All of which was very good advice, except that it brought us squarely against a big dilemma: How are we to know what is true and untrue. How are we to distinguish which of conflicting reports or proposals actually merits our belief or support?

Obviously the public has a big problem. It is bombarded by propaganda from both sides. In the final analysis it has the responsibility of deciding what is right, and expressing its wish at the ballot box. The process is complicated, but it is our only way of preserving freedom. It's the practical application of the well known motto, "eternal vigilance is the price of freedom."

In observing National Newspaper Week all of us should give thanks for our free press. At the same time, we should give thought to our corresponding responsibility of distinguishing what is right and good for personal freedom, for human dignity, for national security, and above all what is in harmony with the will of God.

By all means let's realize that freedom of the press does only half of the job of preserving liberty. The other half depends on public conscience guided by the Constitution and Christianity and the Commandments of God.
